Strikers Battle Police

MECHANICVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — A force of 200 striking paper workers battled salaried employees and police in front of a struck West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. plant Thursday night.

Three officials were shoved, kicked and slugged, the company said.

The free-for-all broke out as 14 policemen attempted to escort 16 salaried workers into the plant. Moments before, Mayor Thomas Nolan pleaded with the strikers to break up the demonstration.

"This is anarchy. This is lawlessness," he shouted to the boisterous throng.

Hundreds of spectators crowded around the strikers' picket lines.

Salaried workers walked freely past the picket lines when the shifts were changed at 7 a.m. this morning. Police said there were no incidents.

The United Papermakers and Paperworkers Union struck Jan. 20 in a dispute over the wording of contract clauses governing seniority, grievances and management rights. Wages are not an issue.

WORKERS IDLED

The plant, in the Hudson River city 22 miles north of Albany, suspended operations. A total of 940 hourly workers were idled.

The company resumed paper-making last Friday. It divided 250 salaried workers into three shifts to operate machines.

This action touched off a demonstration last Friday night. It did not reach the magnitude of Thursday night's 3 1/2-hour melee.

When the police escort and salaried workers moved toward the main gate, the pickets met them head-on and fighting began in the middle of the street, newsmen said.

Four carloads of Saratoga County deputy sheriffs sped to reinforce city police.

The company said about 100 pickets surged inside mill property early today but left after the mayor, an Episcopal clergyman and union leaders talked with them.

A Westvaco spokesman said approximately 35 workers then entered the plant but six others went home because, he claimed, they had suffered bruises in the scuffles. Another 35, who had been scheduled to finish their shift at 11 p.m., left the plant at the same time, he said.

The mayor said he had telephoned Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's office to request state police aid. The governor's office said no request had been received.

Union officials could not be reached for comment.

U.S., Bulgaria Resume Relations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today resumed full diplomatic relations with Communist Bulgaria.

This ended a nine-year break resulting from Bulgaria's charges the last American minister in Sofia was a spy.

The State Department dropped the long diplomatic boycott after the Bulgarian regime announced it was withdrawing the espionage charges against former Minister Donald Heath.

A Bulgarian government representative noted that his country's Supreme Court on Nov. 6, 1956, annulled prison sentences given persons charged with the alleged spying. Therefore, Bulgaria said "charges against Heath in connection herewith have been withdrawn as groundless."

The agreement to resume diplomatic relations came about as a result of more than two years of sporadic behind-the-scenes talks. The Bulgarians first suggested the move in December 1957.

More formal talks began March 4 this year in New York and in Washington. The Bulgarian ambassador to the United Nations, Peter G. Voutov, represented his government. Foy D. Kohler, deputy assistant secretary of state for European affairs, represented the United States.

T&P's Big Safety Banquet To Honor Western Division Again

The Texas & Pacific family sits down this evening to a banquet celebrating the establishment by the western division — for the second consecutive year — of the system's best safety record.

Early Friday famed caterer Walter Jetton of Fort Worth moved in with his entourage and fleet of especially equipped food trucks.

By mid-morning the T&P freight terminal had a banquet hall look. Long before the 6:30 p.m. starting time a ton of food, including wide varieties in meats, vegetables and condiments, will be ready for service to rapidly moving lines.

T&P officials were predicting that the crowd would number somewhere between 1,000 and 1,100 people, including several guests from the community.

Heading the delegation of top officials here to pay tribute to the western division employees who have set the T&P's outstanding safety record for a third time was J. T. Suggs, president. This will be his first time to present the "Vollmer Trophy," originated by W. G. Vollmer, who last year retired as the T&P chief executive.

In addition to an address by Suggs, there will also be greetings from L. C. Porter, vice president operations; Johnny Williams, superintendent of safety, will be at his traditional post as master of ceremonies over the big banquet.

Burglar In Action

County Group To Demo Rally Saturday Eve

Some 15 to 20 Big Springers are due to be in Abilene Saturday night for a giant Democratic rally which is designed to tighten party ties as well as to pay a gesture to Texas Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Senate Majority Leader.

A $25 per plate dinner is to be held at the Rose Field House, Hardin-Simmons University.

Frank Hardesty, county Democratic chairman leading the local delegation, emphasized that Big Springers going to Abilene should meet at 6:30 p.m. at the Sands Motel, just west of that city, and then proceed in a body to the dinner, which is to start at 7 o'clock.

Senator Johnson is to have a prominent place on the program, introducing Senator Mike Monroney of Oklahoma, the principal speaker. Top leadership in the Demo party, including state officials and many of the Texas congressional delegation, will be on hand.

Hardesty has urged that this county make a big showing in the West Texas affair. Tickets may be had from him.

A jazz band blared Dixieland music while the marchers, some pushing baby carriages and others leading dogs, formed up in a rain-swept field and started trudging out of this quiet village in the Thames Valley.

"Let us go on marching until we have brought an end to this nuclear insanity," shouted black-robed Canon John Collins of St. Paul's Cathedral. He is a leader of the British campaign for nuclear disarmament which is staging the demonstration as a repeat of the London - to - Aldermaston march which ended last Easter in a flurry of flying fists.

This time the atmosphere was more placid.

Squads of police were on hand in case demonstrations were staged by supporters of Britain's decision to rely on nuclear weapons as the main deterrent against aggression.

The marchers — university students, middle-aged couples and bearded artists with their families — were due Monday at a rally in Trafalgar Square in the heart of London.

Without power for half an hour. The sand had ruined the starter button on the auxiliary motor and Mrs. Harvick couldn't start it.

Elbert was on the "rocking bed" where he can live only so long as the bed is in motion—and no power, no motion.

Mrs. Harvick ran back to her husband and began giving artificial respiration and screaming for help, as Harvick cannot be left alone long enough for a phone call.

"The Lord is with us," said Mrs. Harvick. "Mrs. Cecil Speck just happened to be in the front part of her house and saw me. They nearly always stay in the back part."

The Specks live across the street from the Harvicks, and she came running.

Mrs. Harvick sent her to get A. E. Weeks who lives several houses down the street, and Mrs. Lloyd Meares, another neighbor, heard the commotion and came in to help.

Mrs. Harvick and Mrs. Meares began moving Elbert back into the iron lung where a hand pump takes the place of the motors.

Harvick's eyes were dilated and his wife says "he was breathing his last breath." This was new to Mrs. Meares and she looked a little pale and shaky.

Elbert saw this and began gasping out a sound. "I'll Be Seeing You."

This was a typical reaction for Harvick, whose spirit has carried him through seven years of paralysis.

After Elbert was placed in the iron lung and help had been brought in by Mrs. Speck, life looked a great deal brighter. Cecil Speck, Arris Whitehead and Mr. Weeks did the hand pumping until the lights came on again.

"It always happens when I am alone," said Mrs. Harvick. "So the men on the block and Elbert are working on some sort of warning system—bell, horn or something—which I can set off from inside the house."

Allies Favorable To Summit Plans

Would Re-Unite Reich By Stages

Leghorn Raises Kittens

A White Leghorn hen, owned by Alton Terry, of Mesquite, mothers quintuplet kittens after she drove Blackie, the mother cat, from the nest in the hen house. The 5-week-old kittens nuzzle under the hen's wings at night to keep warm and the only chance Blackie gets to see her offspring is at feeding time when the hen leaves. Blackie shouldn't be surprised at the Leghorn's behavior because she was one of a litter of five that the hen raised last year.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Britain, France and West Germany were reported generally favorable today to a U.S. master plan for negotiations with the Soviet Union on the future of Germany.

The aim of the plan is to achieve the unification of West Germany and Communist East Germany in stages over a period of years. This would begin with creation of a loose federation and end with the conclusion of a German peace treaty.

Limitations on forces in central Europe and an end to the division of Berlin also are envisioned as the plan progressed.

The foreign ministers of Britain and France are to discuss the program with Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter here next Tuesday.

West German representatives in advance of broader discussions among foreign ministers of all the North Atlantic Treaty powers meeting Thursday for a NATO 10th anniversary session.

The preliminary discussions are pointed toward an East-West foreign ministers meeting in Geneva May 11 and a later summit conference, as proposed to the Soviet Union by the Western Powers Thursday.

It is an open question whether the U.S.S.R. would be interested in any part of the U.S. plan or in any other which the Western Powers might suggest.

Some officials say there is at least a slight possibility Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be seriously interested in negotiating an acceptable German settlement.

Others say that whether or not Khrushchev is interested, the Western Powers must go into the negotiations with the Soviets prepared to put on the table a set of reasonable proposals which would dramatically demonstrate the willingness of the Western Powers to make agreements with the Soviet Union on fair terms.

The detailed program which has now been worked out would begin the merger process by increasing direct contacts between East and West Germany in all sorts of practical ways in such fields as commerce and travel.

A temporary all-German group, possibly to be known as a council, would be created by representatives from the traditional 15 German (laender states) of which 10 are in West Germany with its population of 52 million and 5 in East Germany with its population of 17 million.

The new all-German group would have only limited powers and functions. Its main task would be to pull the two sides of Germany progressively closer together and to ease the shock of social, political and economic adjustment created by changing the conditions which have existed in Germany since the end of World War II.

Meanwhile in further international negotiations, the Soviet Union and the Western Powers would work out detailed arrangements for the limitation and eventual reduction and withdrawal of foreign forces on German territory. In addition there would be limitations on native military power in Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia—and possibly Hungary.

An all-German government would be brought into being by free elections throughout Germany after a period of several years.

A peace treaty establishing complete German sovereignty would then be negotiated and signed with that government.

Officials said such problems as East Germany's membership in the Warsaw Pact and West Germany's in the NATO Pact could be dealt with at advanced stages of the program.

Both regimes would maintain their present alliances until all sides could see how the business of unification was progressing. Eventually, however, the pact ties would be broken and it would be up to the government of reunified Germany to make its own decisions on the kind of association it wanted with other nations.

BREATHING AID STOPS

Electric Failure Nearly Fatal To Lamesa Man

LAMESA—When any home or business is without electricity, even for 30 minutes, people are irked. They complain because the washer stops, the vacuum won't work and the coffee pot won't heat.

But to one family in Lamesa, electricity means life. When the current fails, Mrs. Elbert Harvick rolls up her sleeves and hurries to start the auxiliary motor which replaces the electric motor giving life and breath to Elbert, her husband, a polio victim for seven years.

What happens if the motor won't start?

That is the spot the Harvicks found themselves in Wednesday afternoon when the north eastern residential section of the city was without power for half an hour. The sand had ruined the starter button on the auxiliary motor and Mrs. Harvick couldn't start it.

Elbert was on the "rocking bed" where he can live only so long as the bed is in motion—and no power, no motion.

Christians Follow Way Of Cross On Good Friday

The faithful of the Christian world followed the Way of the Cross on Good Friday.

In the Jordan section of Jerusalem, pilgrims and tourists of many lands attended services at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Hundreds toiled up Jerusalem's narrow streets on the way to the Cross on Calvary where Jesus Christ was crucified.

Tenebrae services marking the death of Christ drew thousands of pilgrims to St. Peter's in Rome. Pope John XXIII, after taking part in services at Rome's Santa Croce Church, finished work on his Easter message to be delivered to the world Saturday night.

Good Friday services were held in thousands of Protestant and Roman Catholic services in all Christian countries.

American evangelist Billy Graham delivered a Good Friday message to 8,000 persons standing in the rain on a beach at Broadbeach, Australia.

Assembled in the still crispness of the dawn, hundreds upon hundreds of faithful are expected to attend the traditional sunrise services here Sunday.

Rites will begin at 6:30 a.m. just before the sun edges above the cedar ridges to the east. And, as has been the case for the past two decades, the services will be in the City Park amphitheatre. Should weather be inclement, the services will be moved to the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church.

For the first time in a score of years, laymen will be in complete charge of the early Easter observance.

There will be two brief Easter meditations, plus a solo, and hymns.

Dan M. Krauss, vice president of Coston Petroleum Corp., will speak on "What the Resurrection Means to Me," and Dr. W. A. Hunt, president of Howard County Junior College, will tell "Why I Believe in the Resurrection."

Charles Dunagan will sound the trumpet call to worship. "He Lives on High."

With Michael Jarrett at the organ, which is being furnished by Adair Music, the hymn, "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," will follow. Justin Holmes will word the invocation, which will be followed by the hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

T. Sgt. Dewey Magee will read the Scripture from Luke 24:1-12, and Glenn Guthrie will offer the morning prayer. Laymen will take the offering, which goes in toto to the Big Spring Pastors Assn. fund that finances the Bible class in Big Spring High School.

Ira Schantz, who will be leading the singing of a men's group, will be heard in a solo, "Angels Rolled the Rock Away." Then will follow the address, a hymn, "Crown Him With Many Crowns." Dr. P. W. Malone will pronounce the benediction. Presiding over the services will be Dr. P. D. O'Brien, president of the Big Spring Pastors' Assn.

Angelo Students Hurt In Blast

SAN ANGELO (AP) — An explosion touched off by an electro-magnet built during a science experiment injured an instructor and four students yesterday.

The instructor at Edison Junior High School, O. C. Clifton, made the device by wrapping wire around a brass doorknob. When he touched the wire to a battery, electricity exploded a dynamite cap which had come in contact with the wire in an undetermined manner, officials said.

Fragments struck the eyes of two students, Wilbert Lehnert, 14, and Tommy Jackson, 15, doctors said. Slivers of glass from his spectacles struck Clifton's eyes. Two other students, Glenda Thomas, 14, and Dwight Capp, 13, suffered facial cuts.

Lehnert and Jackson were hospitalized.

DEAR ABBY
IT'S TOO LATE
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We are in a big mess. My boyfriend and I ran away and got married secretly by a Justice of the Peace. When we told our folks, they said we should keep our mouths shut until they can give us a big church wedding. The church wedding is planned for June 7th. I forgot to tell you we got married in the first place because it was a "have to" case but nobody knows this. Abby, not even our parents. I can't see myself waiting until June because I'll be six months along then. Please tell me how to tell my mother. IN A MESS

DEAR IN: Tell your mother that you have a date with the stork—and waiting until June is for the birds.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are having a little difference of opinion and we'd like you to settle it. Last night we started across the street to the home of an elderly couple to watch our favorite TV program, as our set was broken. I had on my nightgown and a housecoat over it and my house slippers. These people are old friends of ours and to get all dressed up I would have had to put on my foundation garment and it wouldn't pay. My husband threw a fit and said if I was going that way he wasn't going. I told him to go ahead and I'd stay home. He went and I stayed home. Do you see anything wrong in the way I was dressed to go sit in the dark with old friends for one hour?

DEAR MRS. G.: Far more im-

Vast Iraq Purge Is Reported

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A vast purge of army officers and government personnel in Iraq is reported by an American broadcaster just kicked out of the country.

Winston Burdette of the Columbia Broadcasting System said on arrival here Thursday that Baghdad prisons were filled "until there is no more room in them for all the political detainees."

Burdett implied that the purge threatens what efficiency was left in the Iraqi government and army after the cleanup last summer of partisans of the pro-Western monarchy and assassination of Premier Nuri Said. He said the latest wave of dismissals and arrests has decimated the corps of army officers and depleted the ranks of government personnel.

Premier Abdel Karim Kassem has lost control of the situation, the American correspondent reported. While Kassem speaks as a man of moderation, Burdett said, "his own people's court acts like an independent branch of government, ignoring his leadership."

Burdett was one of three American newsmen given less than 12 hours to leave Iraq by the revolutionary regime, which told them only "you have been here long enough."

The other two were Larry Collins of United Press International, who had been in Baghdad only a week, and William McHale of Time and Life magazines, who had been there two weeks, the same time as Burdett.

Another American newsmen, Dennis Foster of Time, was refused permission to stay when he flew in to Baghdad from Beirut Thursday.

There are only three Western newsmen still in Iraq—Stan Carter of The Associated Press, Erik Durshmiel of the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. and Douglas Brown of the London Daily Telegraph.

The Iraqi ambassador to the United Arab Republic, Fayek Samirai, quit Thursday in Cairo and said he would seek political asylum in Lebanon.

Samirai, a leader of Iraq's nationalist, Isqila (Independence) party, became the revolutionary regime's first envoy to the U.A.R. after the overthrow of the pro-Western monarchy in Iraq last July.

School Trouble Club Disbands

GROVE HILL, Ala. (AP)—With a promise there would be no further trouble from a "Big Boppers" club, the last 10 members of a Negro high school senior class were reinstated Thursday.

County school board members agreed the 10 could return to school on probation after they and their parents signed pledges promising proper conduct.

The other 36 members of the class were reinstated March 18. The entire class had been suspended for what school officials said was a concerted effort to disrupt classroom activities.

The seniors must make up all the work they missed.

Odessa Laborer Charged In Death

KERMIT, Tex. (AP)—Sisto Martinez Orona, 42, an Odessa laborer, was charged yesterday with murdering Hilda Salazar, 2. Officers said Orona had been living at the home of the child's mother, Mrs. Beatrice Salazar. He first told them the girl fell from his car.

Liner Owners Blame Tanker For Collision

NEW YORK (AP)—The owners of the cruise liner Santa Rosa say the tanker Valchem was to blame for the collision that killed four tanker sailors and brought a shattering climax to a Caribbean holiday for 247 passengers.

A "radical course alteration" was made by the tanker, the Santa Rosa owners say. There was no immediate comment from the operators of the Valchem.

Conflict over whether there was fog at the time of the crash highlighted the preliminaries to a Coast Guard investigation starting Monday.

Spokesmen for the Grace Line, owner of the Santa Rosa, said the collision off Atlantic City, N.J., at 3 a.m. Thursday occurred in only patchy haze. They said the Valchem had been sighted both visually and by radar.

But a Santa Rosa lookout, a number of passengers and several injured crewmen of the tanker said there was thick fog in the collision area 22 miles off the coast.

Seventeen of the crew of the Valchem were injured, in addition to one known dead and three missing and presumed dead. The Santa Rosa brought the injured here and they were taken to the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital on Staten Island.

None of the 247 passengers and 265 crewmen on the Santa Rosa was injured when the 25-million-dollar liner knifed into the tanker. Passengers praised the conduct of the Santa Rosa's crew when the damaged liner docked here Thursday night, more than 12 hours late. They said there was no panic among the passengers and they went to their lifeboat stations calmly in response to a general alarm.

Passengers and crew thanked their lucky stars that the tanker was not loaded with highly inflammable fuel oil when hit.

The Grace Line added: "The Valchem made a radical course alteration to her starboard, making emergency steps necessary."

Driver Held
FORT WORTH (AP)—Mrs. Laura Okley, 49, was hit by an auto yesterday and killed. Officers arrested the driver.

Oklahoma Wavers In New Wet Storm

By JIM MONROE
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—One of the last outposts of prohibition—Oklahoma—is wavering in the face of another drive for legal liquor.

Surveys and vote samplings indicate the state may go wet. But drys are predicting this onslaught will be defeated as were six previous repeal attempts.

Oklahomans vote April 7 on changing the state constitution to allow privately owned package stores. They also vote whether to turn the entire state wet or leave that decision to individual counties.

Campaigns are being waged vigorously by the Oklahoma United Dry Assn., and the United Oklahomans For Repeal.

Scores of pastors, mostly Protestants, are asking their congregations to pledge votes against repeal.

"Hang down your head, bootlegger, 'cause you're bound to cry," is a repealist campaign ditty heard over Oklahoma radio stations.

Both sides seek support "for the sake of children." Dr. Sam Scantlan, executive director of the dry group, said: "Oklahoma mothers are becoming alarmed about the safety of their children. They know that more people will be killed under repeal and that their own children will be subjected to new dangers if the liquor interests should win."

H. W. McNeil, coordinator for repeal forces, declared: "Liquor in bottles, plus some in fruit jars, is readily available throughout Oklahoma and will continue to be. Mothers and fathers are greatly disturbed by these facts, and the easy access their children have to liquor under our present system of illegal control."

Both drys and repeal advocates probably are concentrating more on getting out the vote than on changing people's minds.

Previous elections indicate the drys have some 300,000 votes and a turnout of over 600,000 is necessary for a repeal victory. A simple majority decides the issues.

A federal agent this week called Oklahoma "the only bone dry state in the union," referring to statewide prohibition. Sooner citizens will testify it is drier now than ever before in 51 years of prohibition.

Under a policy set by Gov. J. Howard Edmondson, the State Crime Bureau and Highway Patrol are waging warfare on bootleggers.

Norman Hunter, inspector of the crime bureau, estimates half the whiskey merchants have been driven out of business. Whiskey prices and 3.2 beer sales have bolted upward.

Be Careful

Daniel Nominee Hits Opposition

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Daniel's appointment of Mrs. James Moore of San Marcos to the Board of Hairdressers and Cosmetologists has been challenged.

Jack B. White, operator of a beauty school in Bryan, brought the suit in 126th District Court here claiming she is not qualified.

The suit asks an injunction against Secretary of State Zolite Steakley to keep him from issuing Mrs. Moore's commission.

No action had been taken on the petition, the district clerk's office said yesterday.

The Senate confirmed the appointment Wednesday. Mrs. Moore had been serving an interim term on the board.

Mama Possum Gives Cops Fits

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A mama possum who wanted to have her litter in privacy gave police fits Thursday and nearly wrecked a squad car.

Police got a call about a "ferocious wild animal" in a backyard. Patrolman H. Carpenter and other officers arrived to find the trouble multiplying. Mama possum was giving birth. She showed her teeth.

Officers chased her into a garage and managed to scoop her into a garbage can babies and all. The officers put the lid on the can and patrolman K. Thulene and Carpenter started off to the zoo.

Then mama possum flipped the lid and crashed out, seeking revenge. Thulene stopped the car. They finally got mama back in the can.

When they got to the zoo, the officers turned the can and its contents over to workers and gratefully returned to coping with crime.

Gov. Daniel Asks Teacher Pay Increase

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Daniel came out swinging to raise the pay for teachers yesterday but left dangling the answer to the money question.

He said he suggested in January a 1-cent increase in gasoline taxes as one way to produce revenue for financing extra programs.

Daniel added the Hale-Akin school improvement recommendations to his program and said specific features of it should precede enactment of any public school teachers' pay boosts.

"We ought to have a driver-education program whether we have any of the Hale-Akin enacted," he said. He also put as a priority matter the program of teaching English to pre-school non-English speaking children, another Hale-Akin feature.

The governor said further studies pointed out he could amend his budget recommendations to provide faculty salary increases in the 18-state-supported colleges for two years of the next biennium.

He originally adopted a recommendation for salary increases for the second year only. Daniel said his revenue-producing recommendations would include enough money to cover these additions "as well as a cost-of-living or longevity increase for state employees who do not receive adequate salaries for comparable work in private business and industry."

The governor said the adjustments for state employees would cost about three millions, the college teachers' salaries about four millions plus more than one million dollars for increased library appropriations.

Daniel told newsmen the Hale-Akin proposal, which includes $800 a year more for teachers, should be handled after the current deficit and new tax proposals to pull the state government through the next biennium were cleared first.

Asked how much he thought teachers should get, he said it should "be determined by what manner we took care of the state's other obligations."

The estimated cost of the Hale-Akin program is 107 million dollars a year which includes about 20 million dollars in local funds.

He said he had endorsed the full program, with the exception of the extended school year, "but it is a long range program which the legislators may want to implement by financing during the next two bienniums rather than in one biennium."

Daniel said the No. 1 item of business was to retire the deficit estimated to hit 65 million dollars by the end of the current fiscal year. The next step would be for the Legislature to provide for revenue measures, including 44 million a year in new taxes, to care for present and improved state services.

Ex-Ruler Must Leave Country

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former Venezuelan President Marcos Perez Jimenez, living in exile in a Miami Beach mansion, must leave the country by April 15, the government has declared.

He can go to any country of his choice as far as the United States is concerned.

Whether he will was open to question. His lawyers have filed application with the Immigration Service for delay. A ruling is not expected for 90 days.

The order issued March 13 by Joseph Savoretti, district director of the Immigration Service, applies also to Perez Jimenez' wife and four children.

Savoretti's order cannot be appealed but Perez Jimenez can ask for reconsideration or additional time.

An attorney for the 44-year-old former Venezuelan leader, David Walters of Miami, said Thursday he already has begun seeking such a delay.

Perez Jimenez was overthrown by a military junta a year ago, 10 years after he led another military group in seizing control of the South American country.

Maharajah Reports Lama Has Escaped

TOKYO (AP) — Maharaja Rumar of Sikkim said today that loss of life in the Tibetan revolt has been very heavy but as far as he knows the Dalai Lama escaped from the Chinese Communists.

The young maharaja, son of the ruler of the tiny Himalayan state between India and Tibet, arrived in Tokyo for a Buddhist cultural conference. He said he got his information from official sources just before he left Gangtok, capital of Sikkim.

The Sikkim prince said the Dalai Lama, Tibet's 23-year-old spiritual and political ruler, escaped from his summer palace before the Chinese Reds captured it on Tuesday.

He reported that Red forces began firing on the palace at 1 a.m. Tuesday and kept up a violent barrage until it capitulated.

"No one knows if the Dalai Lama was hit when the Chinese captured the palace," the prince said.

"We hope and pray for him. Even if he falls into Chinese hands, we pray no harm will come to him."

An unconfirmed report in India Thursday said the Dalai Lama had fled from Lhasa, and there were rumors he was heading south toward Sikkim or the Indian province of Assam.

In contrast with reports in India that fighting in Lhasa had subsided over the weekend, the maharaja said fighting in and around the capital "was particularly violent" on Tuesday.

"After taking the palace," he continued, "the Chinese then shelled the university monasteries of Sera and Drapung on the outskirts of Lhasa. There were about 12,000 student monks in the two universities at the time."

Although the maharaja said this action occurred on Tuesday, reports reached Kalimpong, on the Sikkim-Indian border, last

Sunday that the two monasteries were burning.

The prince said the Chinese reportedly held only a narrow strip through the eastern center of Tibet, from the Chinese border to Lhasa.

"The Khampa rebels (a Tibetan tribe), who do not like Chinese of any kind, red, white or blue, have been fighting now for three years," he said.

"It is claimed that they hold the entire southern area of Tibet, a section about 400 miles long and 150 miles wide, as well as various centers in the north also."

On Formosa, meanwhile, Nationalist China's Parliament unanimously adopted a resolution urging Chiang Kai-shek's government (1) to provide the Tibetan rebels with arms and supplies, (2) to send high officers and senior Tibetan-born officials to Tibet to help the rebels, (3) to send Nationalist troops if necessary, and (4) to report to the United Nations on the Tibetan situation.

Nationalist officials refused to comment on reports from Hong Kong that Nationalist planes had dropped supplies to the rebels. The Nationalists for years have sent planes over south and eastern China, dropping rice and propaganda leaflets.

Buchanan Rites Scheduled Today

Funeral services were to be held at 2:30 p.m. today in the River Chapel for Joe Buchanan, 58, former Howard County resident who succumbed Monday in San Jose, Calif.

The Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the West Side Baptist Church, was to officiate. Interment was to be in City Cemetery. Nephews were to be pallbearers.

Texas Take Home Fatter Paychecks

AUSTIN (AP) — More than 1,250,000 Texans brought home fatter pay checks last month than they did a year ago because they worked more hours, the Texas Employment Commission says.

The Commission reported yesterday employees had longer average work weeks varying from six-tenths of an hour in petroleum refining to 3.4 hours in wholesale trade.

"The average hour tabulations definitely support the premise that industry and business is moving slowly to hire new workers, preferring for the time being to depend on extra hours from regular personnel to meet increased production requirements," the TEC said.

Escaped Lion Causes Big Stir At Circus

NEW YORK (AP) — Peanuts, pink popcorn—and a lion on the loose. The latter was inadvertently served up to about 2,000 persons attending a dress rehearsal Thursday night of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey Circus at Madison Square Garden.

Putting on an impromptu, and terrifying, act for about 10 minutes was Ponto, heavily maned, 800-pound lion, said to be one of the largest of his species in captivity. He was finally recaptured in the lobby. No one was injured.

Ponto broke through a door of his cage and started roaming around the big arena while a tiger and lion act was in progress.

Temporarily king of all he surveyed, he leaped over the arena rail into a section of seats—which luckily happened to be sparsely populated.

Some spectators stood their ground, not knowing what else to do. Others scattered.

Hans Naumann, the lion's trainer, dashed after Ponto with whip, chair and pistol. Ponto headed for the lobby. It immediately emptied.

Apparently the huge beast was following the scent to other animals in the basement menagerie. He vainly tried to tear down the locked door to the basement.

Taylor, a lawyer and oil promoter from Norman, Okla., pleaded guilty two weeks ago to defrauding 23 Rhode Island investors of about $135,000. Moore sentenced him yesterday to 12 years in prison and a fine of $44,000.

The father of two children, a report prepared by the Securities and Exchange Commission said, was graduated from the University of Oklahoma law school in 1947 as president of his class. He was a Methodist minister early in World War II, serving a pastorate at one time in Blanchard, Okla. He gave up the ministry at the end of the war but later used his former church status in promoting oil schemes, the report said.

Wayne H. Bigler Jr., assistant U.S. attorney, said a government investigation showed Taylor made more than 1 1/2 million dollars in oil promotions and a profit of $38,295 from his Rhode Island operations. The government said Taylor organized companies from which he bought supplies and services, charging his investors more than actual cost.

Mixed Storms Batter Country

A mixture of winter and spring storms battered areas in the eastern half of the nation today. The violent wintry weather which raked the eastern Rockies and Plains States appeared ended.

Heavy snow piled up in central Lower Michigan and Wisconsin as the storm swept into the Midwest after dumping more than a foot of snow in sections of Colorado and southwest Nebraska.

The snow belt extended eastward across northern areas into New York state.

Dirty Irish Trick

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ireland's President Sean O'Kelly, now touring America, gets a reception today in the Emerald Room of the Barclay Hotel.

All very appropriate, you'd say. What the management of the hotel isn't saying is that it usually is called the English Room.

Ex-Minister Called 'Fraud'

ST LOUIS (AP) — David W. Taylor, 39, a former Methodist minister, is "one of the most convincing frauds I have ever seen," said Federal District Judge George H. Moore.

Taylor, a lawyer and oil promoter from Norman, Okla., pleaded guilty two weeks ago to defrauding 23 Rhode Island investors of about $135,000. Moore sentenced him yesterday to 12 years in prison and a fine of $44,000.

The father of two children, a report prepared by the Securities and Exchange Commission said, was graduated from the University of Oklahoma law school in 1947 as president of his class. He was a Methodist minister early in World War II, serving a pastorate at one time in Blanchard, Okla. He gave up the ministry at the end of the war but later used his former church status in promoting oil schemes, the report said.

Wayne H. Bigler Jr., assistant U.S. attorney, said a government investigation showed Taylor made more than 1 1/2 million dollars in oil promotions and a profit of $38,295 from his Rhode Island operations. The government said Taylor organized companies from which he bought supplies and services, charging his investors more than actual cost.

Thor Logs New Trip

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force's versatile Thor has logged another apparently successful trip over intermediate range on its 26th flight test.

The 65-foot rocket, which seems to perform equally well as a war weapon and booster for space vehicles, roared aloft Thursday night on what appeared to be a perfect start.

The latest shoot was part of the Thor's advanced research and development series aimed at improving reliability — that is, bettering the odds for hitting the target on every launching.

Thor squadrons already are entrenched in the United Kingdom under Royal Air Force control as part of the NATO defenses.

The Thor now is considered 65 per cent reliable, but the Air Force hopes to increase it to 80 or 90 per cent by the end of the year.

Cold Front Hoovers Over Easter Parade

Another cold front formed yonder to the northwest Friday and until weathermen see what it's going to do they can't do much forecasting for the Easter Parade.

The front was expected to start snow and cold weather in Colorado Friday. How fast it will move southeast is hard to tell.

Skies were partly cloudy to cloudy over the southern half of Texas early Friday and clear to the north.

Predawn temperatures ranged from 69 at Brownsville to 24 at Dalhart.

Highs Thursday varied from 50 at Amarillo and Dalhart to 88 at Laredo.

Rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Thursday included Austin .04 of an inch, Dallas .60, Fort Worth .30, Galveston .02, San Antonio .10 and Waco .08, all Wednesday night.

Maharajah Reports Lama Has Escaped

TOKYO (AP) — Maharaja Rumar of Sikkim said today that loss of life in the Tibetan revolt has been very heavy but as far as he knows the Dalai Lama escaped from the Chinese Communists.

The young maharaja, son of the ruler of the tiny Himalayan state between India and Tibet, arrived in Tokyo for a Buddhist cultural conference. He said he got his information from official sources just before he left Gangtok, capital of Sikkim.

The Sikkim prince said the Dalai Lama, Tibet's 23-year-old spiritual and political ruler, escaped from his summer palace before the Chinese Reds captured it on Tuesday.

He reported that Red forces began firing on the palace at 1 a.m. Tuesday and kept up a violent barrage until it capitulated.

"No one knows if the Dalai Lama was hit when the Chinese captured the palace," the prince said.

"We hope and pray for him. Even if he falls into Chinese hands, we pray no harm will come to him."

An unconfirmed report in India Thursday said the Dalai Lama had fled from Lhasa, and there were rumors he was heading south toward Sikkim or the Indian province of Assam.

In contrast with reports in India that fighting in Lhasa had subsided over the weekend, the maharaja said fighting in and around the capital "was particularly violent" on Tuesday.

"After taking the palace," he continued, "the Chinese then shelled the university monasteries of Sera and Drapung on the outskirts of Lhasa. There were about 12,000 student monks in the two universities at the time."

Although the maharaja said this action occurred on Tuesday, reports reached Kalimpong, on the Sikkim-Indian border, last

Sunday that the two monasteries were burning.

The prince said the Chinese reportedly held only a narrow strip through the eastern center of Tibet, from the Chinese border to Lhasa.

"The Khampa rebels (a Tibetan tribe), who do not like Chinese of any kind, red, white or blue, have been fighting now for three years," he said.

"It is claimed that they hold the entire southern area of Tibet, a section about 400 miles long and 150 miles wide, as well as various centers in the north also."

On Formosa, meanwhile, Nationalist China's Parliament unanimously adopted a resolution urging Chiang Kai-shek's government (1) to provide the Tibetan rebels with arms and supplies, (2) to send high officers and senior Tibetan-born officials to Tibet to help the rebels, (3) to send Nationalist troops if necessary, and (4) to report to the United Nations on the Tibetan situation.

Nationalist officials refused to comment on reports from Hong Kong that Nationalist planes had dropped supplies to the rebels. The Nationalists for years have sent planes over south and eastern China, dropping rice and propaganda leaflets.

Buchanan Rites Scheduled Today

Funeral services were to be held at 2:30 p.m. today in the River Chapel for Joe Buchanan, 58, former Howard County resident who succumbed Monday in San Jose, Calif.

The Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the West Side Baptist Church, was to officiate. Interment was to be in City Cemetery. Nephews were to be pallbearers.

Texas Take Home Fatter Paychecks

AUSTIN (AP) — More than 1,250,000 Texans brought home fatter pay checks last month than they did a year ago because they worked more hours, the Texas Employment Commission says.

The Commission reported yesterday employees had longer average work weeks varying from six-tenths of an hour in petroleum refining to 3.4 hours in wholesale trade.

"The average hour tabulations definitely support the premise that industry and business is moving slowly to hire new workers, preferring for the time being to depend on extra hours from regular personnel to meet increased production requirements," the TEC said.

Escaped Lion Causes Big Stir At Circus

NEW YORK (AP) — Peanuts, pink popcorn—and a lion on the loose. The latter was inadvertently served up to about 2,000 persons attending a dress rehearsal Thursday night of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey Circus at Madison Square Garden.

Putting on an impromptu, and terrifying, act for about 10 minutes was Ponto, heavily maned, 800-pound lion, said to be one of the largest of his species in captivity. He was finally recaptured in the lobby. No one was injured.

Ponto broke through a door of his cage and started roaming around the big arena while a tiger and lion act was in progress.

Temporarily king of all he surveyed, he leaped over the arena rail into a section of seats—which luckily happened to be sparsely populated.

Some spectators stood their ground, not knowing what else to do. Others scattered.

Hans Naumann, the lion's trainer, dashed after Ponto with whip, chair and pistol. Ponto headed for the lobby. It immediately emptied.

Apparently the huge beast was following the scent to other animals in the basement menagerie. He vainly tried to tear down the locked door to the basement.

Taylor, a lawyer and oil promoter from Norman, Okla., pleaded guilty two weeks ago to defrauding 23 Rhode Island investors of about $135,000. Moore sentenced him yesterday to 12 years in prison and a fine of $44,000.

The father of two children, a report prepared by the Securities and Exchange Commission said, was graduated from the University of Oklahoma law school in 1947 as president of his class. He was a Methodist minister early in World War II, serving a pastorate at one time in Blanchard, Okla. He gave up the ministry at the end of the war but later used his former church status in promoting oil schemes, the report said.

Wayne H. Bigler Jr., assistant U.S. attorney, said a government investigation showed Taylor made more than 1 1/2 million dollars in oil promotions and a profit of $38,295 from his Rhode Island operations. The government said Taylor organized companies from which he bought supplies and services, charging his investors more than actual cost.

Mixed Storms Batter Country

A mixture of winter and spring storms battered areas in the eastern half of the nation today. The violent wintry weather which raked the eastern Rockies and Plains States appeared ended.

Heavy snow piled up in central Lower Michigan and Wisconsin as the storm swept into the Midwest after dumping more than a foot of snow in sections of Colorado and southwest Nebraska.

The snow belt extended eastward across northern areas into New York state.

Dirty Irish Trick

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ireland's President Sean O'Kelly, now touring America, gets a reception today in the Emerald Room of the Barclay Hotel.

All very appropriate, you'd say. What the management of the hotel isn't saying is that it usually is called the English Room.

Ex-Minister Called 'Fraud'

ST LOUIS (AP) — David W. Taylor, 39, a former Methodist minister, is "one of the most convincing frauds I have ever seen," said Federal District Judge George H. Moore.

Taylor, a lawyer and oil promoter from Norman, Okla., pleaded guilty two weeks ago to defrauding 23 Rhode Island investors of about $135,000. Moore sentenced him yesterday to 12 years in prison and a fine of $44,000.

The father of two children, a report prepared by the Securities and Exchange Commission said, was graduated from the University of Oklahoma law school in 1947 as president of his class. # Thor Logs New Trip

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force's versatile Thor has logged another apparently successful trip over intermediate range on its 26th flight test.

The 65-foot rocket, which seems to perform equally well as a war weapon and booster for space vehicles, roared aloft Thursday night on what appeared to be a perfect start.

The latest shoot was part of the Thor's advanced research and development series aimed at improving reliability — that is, bettering the odds for hitting the target on every launching.

Thor squadrons already are entrenched in the United Kingdom under Royal Air Force control as part of the NATO defenses.

The Thor now is considered 65 per cent reliable, but the Air Force hopes to increase it to 80 or 90 per cent by the end of the year.

Cold Front Hoovers Over Easter Parade

Another cold front formed yonder to the northwest Friday and until weathermen see what it's going to do they can't do much forecasting for the Easter Parade.

The front was expected to start snow and cold weather in Colorado Friday. How fast it will move southeast is hard to tell.

Skies were partly cloudy to cloudy over the southern half of Texas early Friday and clear to the north.

Predawn temperatures ranged from 69 at Brownsville to 24 at Dalhart.

Highs Thursday varied from 50 at Amarillo and Dalhart to 88 at Laredo.

Rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Thursday included Austin .04 of an inch, Dallas .60, Fort Worth .30, Galveston .02, San Antonio .10 and Waco .08, all Wednesday night.

Open Meetings Leader Optimistic

ABILENE (AP) — A leader in the battle for freedom of information in public bodies said yesterday he believes that any weakness in an amended open meeting bill by a Texas Senate committee can be worked out.

Ed Wishcamper, managing editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, is chairman of a committee from the four Texas press organizations which seeks more freedom of information.

Wishcamper said the committee members are encouraged by the efforts of Sen. Wardlow Lane to put the bill in shape. He added that some newsmen had expressed concern to him that certain provisions of the amended bill might contain a loophole that would defeat the principles of the open meeting legislation.

The Senate State Affairs Committee recommended Wednesday passage of the revised bill to outlaw secret meetings.

Liz Taylor Becomes Hebrew, Religion Of Mike Todd, Fisher

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor has been converted to Judaism, the faith of her late husband, Mike Todd, and of Eddie Fisher, the handsome singer she is expected to marry.

Although the English-born beauty, formerly a Protestant, apparently had been considering the step for more than two years, her decision caught Hollywood by surprise.

Friends and colleagues — even her agent — knew nothing of her conversion and the long studies that preceded it until it was announced late Thursday night in a brief press release issued by Temple Israel of Hollywood.

A spokesman for the Temple, where the ceremony was performed Thursday in the presence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, said the announcement was made at Miss Taylor's request. Conversions are not normally announced, he said.

The 27-year-old actress apparently first decided to embrace Judaism at the time she married

Mike Todd Feb. 2, 1957. Todd, born Avram Goldbogen, was the son of a rabbi.

Rabbi Max Nussbaum, who conducted the simple rites, said the death of Todd in a plane crash March 22, 1958, intensified her desire to enter the Jewish faith.

"She was a good pupil," the rabbi said. "She has a good understanding of Jewish life and has read extensively in Jewish history. She is very intelligent."

As part of the ceremony she had to pass an examination on the religion and take an oath to uphold its standards.

The actual conversion was completed by a simple prayer rite conducted in Hebrew, with Rabbi Nussbaum reading the prayer and Miss Taylor responding.

It was during the period of the actress' studies that her romance with Fisher flared into the headlines. Their widely publicized dates in New York City led to a breakup of Fisher's marriage to Debbie Reynolds and Fisher has been seen constantly with Miss Taylor since his divorce.

They were together recently at a Jewish fund-raising dinner at which the actress pledged $100,000 for Israel bonds.

Her agent Kurt Frings, said he didn't learn of her conversion until Miss Taylor telephoned him after the ceremony.

He said she told him, "It has nothing to do with any future marriage plans. This is something I've wanted to do for a long time."

Kerrville Paper To Publish Story Of Christ's Death

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — For the second consecutive year, the Kerrville Times will publish a full page telling the story of Christ's death on the cross in modern newspaper techniques.

The publication will be Easter Sunday. The idea began with James Smith and Jo Carl, high school students, as their vacation church school project.

Their teacher was Mrs. Orlan Jones, wife of the Times' editor, Carroll Abbott, assistant to the publisher, saw the results and suggested that the idea be used by the Times.

The first publication in the Times last year brought many requests for reprints, Jones said.

The banner story reads in part: "Jesus of Nazareth, Jewish teacher, prophet and healer, died as a convicted criminal Friday at 3 p. m. after six hours of agony on a cross just outside Jerusalem at Golgotha, known as 'the place of the skull.'

"In a hurried nighttime arrest and a rushed-up midnight trial, He was convicted by the Sanhedrin, the Jews' high council, of blasphemy in claiming to be the son of God."

A late "bulletin" inserted on the page tells of his resurrection.

Other stories quote his followers and tell of the disciples fleeing from soldiers, the discovery of Judas' body, and of Pilate's surrender to the mobs.

A page one editorial comment declares that "Jesus was exactly what He said He was."

Ike Again A Golfer

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A bit rusty but well pleased, President Eisenhower is once again a golfer — after a four-month lay-off.

"It sure feels good to get a round under your belt," he said Thursday after a trip around the Gettysburg Country Club course. He headed for the club shortly after arriving from Washington by helicopter for a long Easter weekend at his farm.

Until then Eisenhower hadn't played a regular round of golf since last November at Augusta, Ga.

That had set a record for the period since he became President in 1953 — barring an enforced five-month lay-off after his heart attack in 1955.

As might be expected, the President's first game was a bit erratic.

His iron shots reflected practice on the White House lawn, but his tee shots were short of the distance he ordinarily gets.

While Eisenhower was on the golf course, his wife traveled from Washington by automobile. Scheduled to arrive at the farm today for the Easter holiday were their four grandchildren and their parents, Army Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower.

The President, who expects to return to Washington Monday afternoon, plans to get in some work over the weekend on two speeches he will make next week.

Record Attendance Expected For Traditional Easter Rites Sunday

Record crowds are expected in Christian churches of all denominations Sunday for the traditional Easter services.

Sermons dealing with the resurrection and faith in the risen Christ are planned by practically all ministers.

To accommodate the crowds that are anticipated, several churches are planning two Sunday morning services. For many worshippers, the regular services will be the second to attend Easter morning.

A large turnout is expected for the traditional Easter sunrise service in the City Park Amphitheatre. In case of unfavorable weather, the service will be transferred to the First Baptist Church.

If a change is made, announcements will be made over local radio stations, said Dr. P. D. O'Brien, president of the Big Spring Pastors' Assn., sponsor of the non-denominational sunrise service.

Baptist

"The Crucifixion", I Cor. 15:25-26, and "The Bright Side of Death" will be the Rev. W. A. James' messages to the Airport Baptist Church.

At Baptist Temple, the Rev. A. R. Posey has announced as his morning subject "God Meets Man at the Cross."

Hillcrest Baptist Church will hear the Rev. H. L. Bingham in a morning sermon on "Change the Title, Seal the Tomb." "The Life of Christ" will be portrayed in a film to be shown and narrated at evening worship.

Sermon topics of Dr. P. D. O'Brien, First Baptist pastor, will be as follows: 8:45 a.m., "Results of His Resurrection," I Cor. 15:20-21; 11 a.m., "The Deep Significance of His Resurrection," John 14:19.

THE SECRET PLACE

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."—Psalm 91:1.

By CLYDE NICHOLS

The Greatest Miracle Of All

In his sermon on the day of Pentecost, the Apostle Peter said that Jesus was a man approved of God by miracles. "Of all the miracles of Jesus, which would you say was the greatest of all?"

The disciples witnessed the miracles first-hand. They were with Jesus when he turned water into wine, when he stilled the tempest, and when he fed the five thousand with five loaves and two fish. These were great miracles, but there were greater ones.

They were with the Master the day he healed the demoniac of Gader. They saw him heal lepers, cause the lame to walk, and the blind to see. But they witnessed even greater miracles than these.

One day in the city of Jericho, they followed the eyes of the Master as he looked up into a sycamore tree and beheld a little man by the name of Zacchaeus. He was a tax collector who had spent all his life cheating, robbing, and stealing. Jesus went home with Zacchaeus that day, and as they sat eating together, suddenly Zacchaeus spoke out of a heart overflowing.

"Behold, Lord, half my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken anything from any man, I restore him four-fold." That day the disciples witnessed the miracle of a life transformed and changed by the power of Christ.

A wicked and evil humanity took this Son of God and nailed him to a cross. But in death he wrought a greater miracle than any performed during his life—on the third day he rose from the dead! But even this was not the greatest miracle of all.

It happened in Galilee. The disciples were there after the death of Jesus. Bewildered, confused, all hope gone, they went back to their fishing boats. And then, something happened. Jesus Christ was alive! They felt his presence! He lived in them!

They had fled in fear. Now they were back in Jerusalem, proclaiming the Good News with indomitable courage in the face of opposition, persecution, and death.

He lives! He lives!
Christ Jesus lives today.
He walks with me and talks with me,
All along life's way.

He lives! He lives!
Rich blessings to impart,
You ask me how I know he lives,
He lives within my heart!

This is the greatest miracle of all—Christ felt to live again in the hearts of all who believe. This is the Miracle of Easter, and it can happen to you!

ALL NOT INSPIRED Many 'Gospels' Tell Of Savior

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

Every year about this time, when Christians more than ever are reminded of the life, death and resurrection of their Lord, curiosity arises about the missing chapters in the life of Jesus.

Since shortly after His death on the cross, men of both good and evil will have been lifting their pens and drawing liberally on their imaginations to satisfy that curiosity.

Their writings are part of a vast collection of literature called loosely the New Testament Apocrypha, or works which resemble New Testament scriptures in form but are considered to be canonically unacceptable.

From the well-intentioned but apocryphal Arabic Gospel of the Infancy, one can learn of the Holy Family in Egypt; how they were kidnaped by two robbers; and how Jesus predicted the pair would be crucified with him.

The apocryphal Narrative of Joseph of Arimathea tells the story of the king of Edessa who suffered from an incurable disease. He asked Jesus' help and the disciple Timothy was sent to cure him and preach to his people.

There is also the apocryphal Correspondence of St. Paul and Seneca, an exchange of letters in which the apostle answers questions put to him by the famed

Jesus Christ Lives Again

RISEN LORD REVEALS HIMSELF TO TWO DISCIPLES

Scripture—Luke 24:13-35.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
ON THIS joyous Easter day, when Christian people all over the world are celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ which occurred so many centuries ago, it is fitting to re-read the circumstances of His resurrection and revelation to those who were mourning His tragic death.

Two men were walking to the city of Emmaus, which St. Luke tells us "was from Jerusalem about three-score furlongs."—Luke 24:13.

Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes that "while the exact location of Emmaus has been a matter of much dispute, it would seem that evidence points to the place now known as El Kubbeh, seven miles northwest of Jerusalem."

As they walked they talked of the things that had happened, mourning for the death of this Man whom they loved and revered, although they were not members of the apostolic company.

"And it came to pass, that, when they were at Emmaus, and were about to enter the village, Jesus Himself stood in their midst. They were terrified, thinking Him a spirit, until He showed them the marks of His crucifixion and ate with them."

He reminded them that He had told them while He was with them, and that it was written in the Scriptures, that He should die and rise again. Then "He led them out as far as to Bethany, and He lifted up His hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy."—Luke 24:50-52.

So on this Easter day we, too, should be "filled with great joy," "because He who died for us, was risen, and because if we follow His teachings, we, too, may be united with Him in Heaven."

In the brief history of our country we, too, have mourned great leaders, but never a death such as His, whose resurrection Others had also gone and found.

MEMORY VERSE
"This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses."—Acts 2:32.

While they communed together and reasoned, Jesus Himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were hidden that they should not know Him."—Luke 24:13-16.

The name of one of these men was Cleopas, but we are not told the name of the other. Christ asked them what they were discussing and they were surprised that He did not know what had happened. They told Him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and have crucified Him. But we trusted that it had been He which should have redeemed Israel."—Luke 24:19-21.

Then they told Him that it was three days since His death and that some women had visited His tomb but could not find the Body. They had, however, seen angels. Others had also gone and found.

Most of the apocryphal writings were set down in the early days of the church. Some were contemporary with the canonical gospels. But others have turned out to be as modern as the typewriter.

The latest manuscript of the Gospel of Thomas, found in Egypt in 1946 and containing many sayings of Jesus, is an example of a type of apocryphal literature written not for the edification of the curious.

It was found in a library of the Gnostics, an early sect of unorthodox Christians who had the distressing habit of writing under the names of the apostles to further doctrines judged heretical.

OF HOPE AND GLADNESS

How eagerly voices proclaim the glad truth—voices young and old; all join the wonderful refrain. Even nature swells the chorus. Flowers burst into bloom, everything speaks of new life and hope.

Practically everyone goes to church Easter Sunday. Almost everyone joins in the singing. Even the hardest heart feels a thrill of hope and gladness. The spirit of joy is contagious. If it could only last!

It can last if you make the Church a part of your life, and yourself a part of the Church. Prayer and Bible study will help you realize that the joy of the resurrection can be yours, not only at Easter, but through every day of every year. The Church needs you, and you need the Church. Accept the Easter message. Make it a vital part of your life. Prove to yourself and others that Jesus Christ has truly risen.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

MILLER IS IN CENTER OF BEANBALL RHUBARB

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Stu Miller, a curveballer with a three-pitch repertoire called "slow, slower and slower still," was the center of a beanball controversy today after toppling Cleveland's Vic Power in an exhibition game.

A Miller pitch hit Power on the head and knocked him unconscious momentarily in the ninth inning of San Francisco's 7.5 victory over the Indians Thursday. Hot words between the managers and a wrestling match between San Francisco's Andre Rodgers and Cleveland's Jim Bolger came in the wake of the incident, which drew these varying comments:

From Miller: "I never threw at anybody in my life. He ducked into the ball."

From Power: "He threw at me and he knows it."

Giants' Manager Bill Rigney, refusing to recount the hot exchange he had with Cleveland Manager Joe Gordon at the pitcher's mound, dismissed the matter.

"We've been playing spring training games with Cleveland since 1934," said Rigney. "We never had any trouble with the Indians and we are not going to have any trouble with them now. None of our pitchers has ever deliberately thrown at them."

Rodgers was involved when following the incident. Bolger slammed into him at second base while breaking up a double-play attempt. While they wrestled, both benches emptied but no punches were thrown. Bolger had gone in as a pinch runner for Power, who was not injured but was taken out just the same. Power was not wearing a protective helmet, as required by major clubs.

Rodgers earlier slammed two home runs — his fifth and sixth — and Eddie Bressoud and Jackie Brandt hit one apiece to power the Giants' victory.

In other games, Boston nipped the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in 11 innings at Scottsdale, Ariz., and in Florida, Cincinnati edged Los Angeles 2-1. Philadelphia downed Washington 5-2 at Clearwater, St. Louis whipped Milwaukee 6-3 at Bradenton, New York defeated Pittsburgh 7-2 at St. Petersburg, Detroit shipped the Chicago White Sox 5-2 at Tampa and Baltimore topped Kansas City 4-3 in 10 innings at Miami.

JOHN W. MORRISS, JR.

HONORARY REFEREE

Morriss Has Had Colorful Career

John W. Morriss Jr., honorary referee of the American Business Club Relays, was himself a star track performer in the '30's. Johnny, often referred to as the best friend of the local cinder carnival has, was named as an alternate to the U. S. Olympic team in 1932 as a hurdler.

The native Texan (he was born in Houston) won the Olympic eliminations in the high hurdles at Chicago that year, covering the distance in 14.5. Ultimately, he finished fourth in the Olympic trials at Los Angeles.

Later that year, he ran for an All-American team which competed against Great Britain's best at Kezar Stadium, at which time he finished second in his event. Still later, he won U. S. colors in a meet against Greece and England at Cleveland, at which time he established a world record around a curve, running the high hurdles in 14.6.

He won the National AAU high hurdles race in 1933, at which time he established a new AAU American and World record, covering the distance in 14.3. He was picked on an All-American team that year to tour 14 countries in Europe and was undefeated in as many starts. He tied the world record on two occasions, once in Budapest, Hungary, and the other time at Turin, Italy.

At Turin, he won the International Games high hurdles race. No fewer than 25 nations entered at Turin that year. His 14.4 established a new IG record.

Morriss played football, basketball and ran track at Lafayette, La. High School from 1923 through 1926. His family moved to the Pelican State from Houston when he was six years of age.

He attended Southwest Louisiana Institute at Lafayette, graduating from there in 1930. He tried out for the Olympic team in 1928, breaking the Southern AAU record in the high hurdles, running the distance in 15 seconds flat.

He was selected at SLI's Outstanding Athlete and in 1930 was named to the All-American track team that competed against Great Britain at Soldier Field in Chicago. At Toronto, Canada, in 1930, he defeated Lord Burleigh of England, the Olympic champion, at which time he established a new Canadian record of 14.7.

In 1931, Johnny set a new world indoor record at Madison Square Garden in a 70-yard high hurdles race with an 8.5 timing.

For two years in college, Morriss was No. 3 man on the SLI golf squad.

Morriss began his coaching record at Abbeville, La., High School in 1930, serving there part-time while still attending college. From 1936 to 1942, he served as assistant football coach and head track coach at North Carolina University. His track teams there won four Southern Conference championships in six years trying.

From 1942 through much of 1945, Morriss was in the U. S. Navy physical training program. He worked for the Spalding Sporting Goods concern for a couple of years after leaving the service but in 1947 returned to coaching at his alma mater.

He moved to Arkansas University as head track coach and B team football mentor in 1950, remaining there until 1952, at which time he transferred to Michigan State as assistant track coach.

He became the Houston University track coach in 1955, a position he still holds. His Cougars won the Missouri Valley Conference title last year.

He and Mrs. Morriss have two daughters and a son.

Alley's Throw Won't Stand As A Record

ABILENE (AP) — A 258 foot, 4 inch javelin throw by Bill Alley knocked Kansas win the Abilene Christian College invitational track and field meet yesterday but it may not be recognized as a national collegiate record.

There was 12-mile-an-hour wind at Alley's back as he bettered the record of 257 feet 1 inch set by John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran last year in the NCAA.

Oliver Jackson, coach of Abilene Christian and director of the meet, expressed some doubt that the record would be recognized because of the wind, but he will submit it.

Coach Bill Easton of Kansas insisted that it be submitted because he said the javelin was not cited specifically in the rules as being affected by the wind.

"The rule does say that for establishment of a national collegiate record, a statement must also include a certification of wind velocity and direction," Easton added.

Wind velocity of over 4.473 miles per hour can invalidate a record but the rule specifically cites the broad jump, hop-step-jump and "any race which does not require a complete circuit of the oval."

Kansas won the meet with comparative ease, racking up 71 1/2 points, and the Jayhawks departed a little sad that they couldn't compete in the American Business Club Relays at Big Spring, Tex., tomorrow.

Kansas can't go to Big Spring because its conference, the Big Eight, has a rule against a member participating in an athletic event not sponsored by the NCAA.

Alley went to Gainesville, Fla., to compete in the Florida Relays and the Kansas mile relay team, accompanied by Easton, left for Chicago to appear in the Chicago News meet.

The other five teams in the meet here—Abilene Christian, second with 56 1/2 points; Ohio State, third with 43; SMU, fourth with 31 1/2; Houston, fifth with 19; and Baylor, last with 15 1/2—journeyed to Big Spring, 100 miles from here.

Abilene Christian got as many first places as Kansas—five—but the big Jayhawk squad placed in all except two of the 16 events to pile up points.

Bill Woodhouse, Abilene Christian's sprinter, and teammate Calvin Cooley, the hurdler, were the leading individuals. Each made 11 points.

Woodhouse won the 100 in 9.7 and the 200 in 21.4. Cooley took both hurdles, beating NCA champion Charlie Tidwell of Kansas in the 220-yard low hurdles when Tidwell hit a hurdle and broke stride. Cooley came in two yards ahead of Tidwell in 23 flat. He won the high hurdles in 14.8. Both hurdles were run against the wind as was the 100.

EP Austin Opposes Steers Here Today

Conditions toughen up for the Big Spring Steers again today. Coach Roy Baird began to prepare his charges for the invasion of one of the El Paso favorites, Austin's Panthers, following Thursday's 16-6 romp over the Colorado City Wolves.

Austin, always a toughie in District 1-AAAA, takes the field against the locals at 1 p.m. Chubby Moser is Baird's choice to face the Panthers.

This will be the fourth game of a busy week for the Longhorns.

who opened with a 9-1 loss to Lubbock Monterey and then knocked off Pecos and Colorado City in that order.

Baird gave everyone on the team a chance to play yesterday, after the Steers had broken the barrier with eight runs in the first inning.

Jerry Phillips, back on the hill after an injury, labored the first three innings for Big Spring and gained credit for the win. He surrendered only two hits and an error led to the only run he yielded.

The tall right-hander fanned six and issued only one free pass. Three other batters saw action for Big Spring after he departed.

Ronnie Feaster started on the mound for Colorado City but was shelved to cover in the second. Truman Stinson took over and did a creditable job thereafter.

"Dwain Thomason and Don Vest batted out home runs for the Wolves. Each had two hits in the game.

Bernard McLahan paced Big Spring's 15-hit offensive with a triple, double and single while Dignie Everett, Jimmy Roger and James Kinnman came up with two blows each.

The Longhorns scored in every inning but the sixth.

Sidney Garton, the East Texas State College track star who races ACC's Bill Woodhouse here tomorrow, set at least one new record in every meet in which he competed last year.

At that time, Sidney was attending New Boston High School. As a footballer, Garton was an all-district halfback for two years.

John West, another member of the East Texas team, transferred in from Louisiana State, where he set the Southern AAU 100-yard dash record, covering the distance in 9.5. He was the Mid-South champion at both 100 and 220 yards while in high school at Memphis, Tenn.

West plans to enter medical school after graduation for physical therapy training.

An ABC Relays committee headed by R. H. Weaver, director of the meet, tried to talk Bobby Morrow and Dave Sime into renewing their feud here tomorrow following their race in Odessa last Saturday but the two pleaded previous commitments and declined with thanks.

There's a possibility the two will hook up again in a meet at Houston in June.

Attendance at the West Texas Relays at Odessa fell far short of expectations, incidentally. A turnout of 17,500 was expected, whereas the throng was estimated at 8,000.

The show might have shown a little profit, however.

San Angelo's meet, which was run in competition with the Odessa extravaganza, probably went into the red.

Johnny Janak, who went from here to Texas Tech on a football-track scholarship, isn't running track with the Red Raiders this spring.

*Coolidge Hunt, who set all kinds of rushing records for the Tom S. Lubbock High School football team, has signed a letter of intent to attend Texas Tech.

In Illinois high school circles, they've adopted a rule wherein an athlete becomes ineligible for any sport as soon as he becomes 19 years of age.

The rule apparently was passed because of the migration of the Negro from the south to the metropolitan areas, especially around Chicago.

The Negro transfers usually are long on athletic talent but they invariably bring with them scholastic difficulties.

Education in the South—particularly for Negroes—does not always meet the standards of education in the North. And the education of the migrant is often broken in the process of moving.

As a result, some children in the migrant families are graduating years behind the normal high school graduating age. And those with athletic skills are playing years beyond the normal high-school age.

The ex-Big Spring infielder, Ossie Alvarez, is now in a spirited battle for the second base job of the Detroit Tigers with Frank Bolling.

Right now, it appears that Bolling will be the regular, in which event Alvarez will hold down the No. One utility job for the Bengals. He can play third, second or short, although he has had very little experience at third.

The Milwaukee Braves would, no doubt, dearly like to have Alvarez, if he could be waived out of the American League. The Braves are a long way from solving their problems at second base.

EPISTLES FROM A ROMAN

Valerius, Shaken By Execution Of Christ, Seeks An Answer

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the final article in an Easter series written in the form of daily letters from a Roman officer in Jerusalem to his father in Rome. Although the soldier "mocked" the Galilean at first, his feelings have undergone great change. Here is the final Easter "Epistle from a Roman."

By TOM HENSHAW
Associated Press Religion Writer
Jerusalem, Judea
16th year of the Caesar Tiberius

Gaius my father,
The Galilean is dead!
He was crucified this day between two common thieves in the place of execution called Golgotha while street scum mocked and taunted him and the black skies were rent by lightning and thunder fairly shook the earth.

And, while the mob hurled jeers and insults and laughing soldiers cast lots for his garments, the tortured Galilean lifted his head and asked—no, implored—pardon for them saying: "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do."

The Procurator Pilate, the last man who could have saved him, allowed himself to be cowed by the mob's thirst for blood. The Procurator pronounced him faultless yet summoned a bowl of water and washed his hands of the whole affair.

But, I can find it in my heart to understand and forgive the Procurator for, in the words of the Galilean, in his weakness he knew not what he did. But why do I speak of forgiveness? Do strong men forgive? Is forgiveness not a weakness?

The Galilean is dead!
This, I know, for I was with the crowd that followed as he carried his cross to the place of execution, bloodied and weakened from scourging, dressed in robes of mock royalty and crowned with a circlet of thorns. Would that I could have helped him in his ordeal.

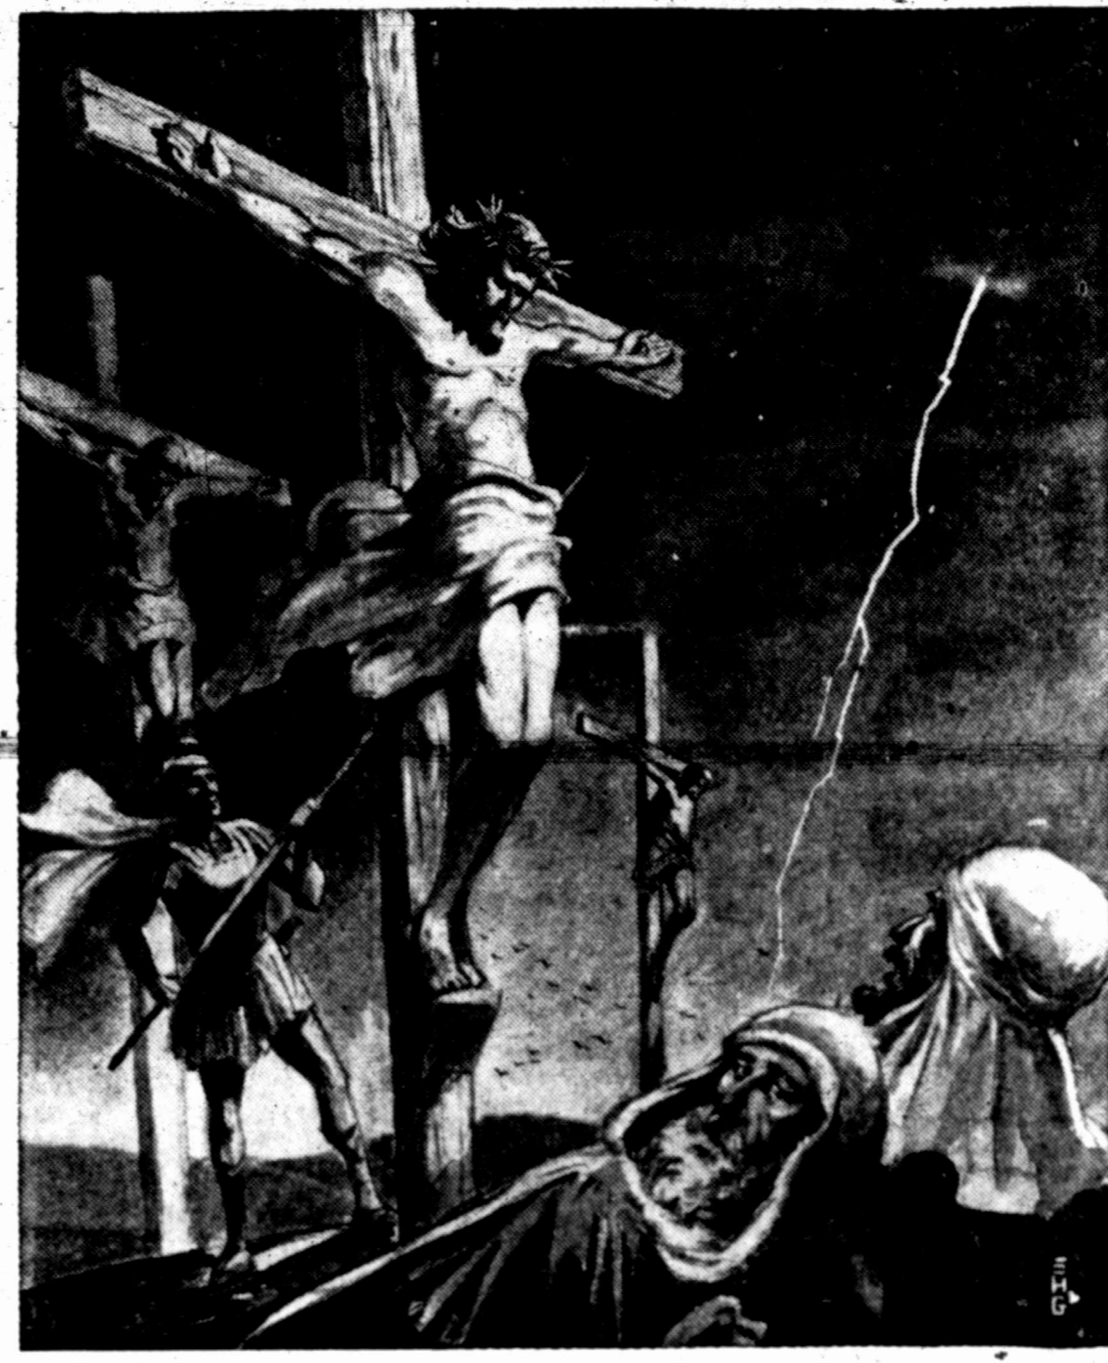

I stood at the foot of the cross as his life expired, when a bolt of lightning splashed the scene with unearthly light and the world rocked beneath our feet as in an earthquake and a centurion of Rome stood stunned and gasped out: "Truly, this was the Son of God."

If only I could have spoken personally with this Galilean, this Jesus, this Christ. If only I could have put to him these questions that now torture me. Must they haunt me the rest of my life? Now, it is too late.

The Galilean, Jesus, lies in the tomb. His tomb is sealed by a rock, one too heavy to be rolled away by one man or by six men. Soldiers stand guard over the tomb for the priests fear him even in death. What do they fear? That he will arise from the dead?

His followers, the 12—no, 11—who were his close disciples, have disappeared. Scattered to the four winds. Now I wish I had taken Peter more seriously two days ago when we talked of this man and his teachings. Would that I had given him both ears! Now it is too late.

Or is it? Is it ever too late? If Jesus is the Son of God then he will find some way to show me, some way to answer these questions that burn within me.

"I stood at the foot of the cross as his life expired, when a bolt of lightning splashed the scene with unearthly light and the world rocked as in an earthquake. . . ."

Part of me says no. At Golgotha.

COLLEGE PLAY DATE CHANGED
Date for "The Little Minister" has been changed to Friday and Saturday, April 3 and 4, in HCCJ Auditorium. Curtain time will be 8:15 p.m.
Fred Short, College Players director, said the play date had been changed to allow for extra rehearsals. Only last week, Short had to find replacements for the two lead roles, and the time left until the original date had been insufficient.

a man near me, one of the mockers, shouted at Jesus: "If you are the Son of God, why do you not save yourself as you claim to have saved others?" Indeed, I asked myself the same question. Why did he not save himself?
Another part of me says yes, he is the Son of God. Else how does one explain the unearthly spell that surrounds him and affects men's minds? How does one explain the miracles that sincere and honest men say they have seen there, watching and waiting, waiting.
Peter told me when I have faith, Valerius, thy son.

I shall know. But how shall I have faith unless I know? Others have had signs. Peter, the disciples, even my unbelieving friend Titus. Why have I had no sign?
I think that tomorrow I shall go out to the tomb. If there is to be a sign for me, my father, it now can only be there that it will be given, if not tomorrow then the next day or the next. I do not know what the sign will be. But I shall be there, watching and waiting, waiting.
Valerius, thy son.

Lake Development Has Landing Strip
LLANO — The first Highland Lakes development in Llano County to include an airplane landing strip is being opened on Granite Shoals Lake by two Llano County Men, Drace Williams and his father, Shirley Williams.
The new development is on the Colorado River arm of Granite Shoals lake north of Kingsland. The landing strip has been placed so that a lot owner can land and taxi his plane directly onto his waterfront home site—all of the lots are on the waterfront, Williams said.
