

Wyatt to Speak at Greenbelt Meeting

Kenneth Wyatt, noted artist, author and speaker will address Greenbelt Electric Cooperative's Annual Membership Meeting Friday, April 22 at the Bura Handley Community Center.

And members will have a chance to win one of five $100 energy credits to be applied to their utility bills. Each member-family that registers will receive a $5 energy certificate that can be used on their Greenbelt Electric bill.

The meeting begins at 2 p.m.

Other meeting highlights are election of officers and door prize drawings.

Wyatt, first president of the Texas Cowboy Artist Association and winner of many cultural and civic awards, began his distinguished career as a minister.

He says his present calling is as an "artist, speaker and author, primarily a western artist working in oils, watercolor, pencil, pastel, charcoal and sculpture."

But it is difficult to decide if he is most respected for his artistic gift or his gift of gab.

He received high honors at numerous Texas Cowboy Artists annual shows. He has been an after-dinner speaker for the Knife and Fork Clubs. He held nine Methodist pastorates in Texas between 1944 and 1967, the first at only 14 years of age. His work in art has produced prints, Christmas cards, greeting cards, note cards, limited edition prints and bronze sculptures as well as original works of art. Wyatt is married to the former Veda Mae Kiker of Wellington.

All members are invited to hear this remarkable speaker and take advantage of a chance to win a $100 energy bill credit. Press are welcome.

Wyatt will join Kenneth Mathews, president of the co-operatives as master of ceremonies for the program and business meeting.

T.B. Henderson, vice-president, will conduct the election of three new directors.

Wyatt will take over the podium to introduce guests, and the member advisory committee, Walter Camp, -See GREENBELT, page 2

Schooler-Gordon Buys Funeral Homes

The purchase of Kelso Funeral Home and Guy Owens Funeral Home by Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors, Inc., Amarillo, was announced jointly by the owners of the three mortuaries Tuesday, April 19.

At the same time, Maurice Schooler and Mack Gordon of Schooler-Gordon announced the appointment of Larry Adams as manager of Wellington Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors.

Adams, who has lived in Wellington most of his life, is a graduate of Dallas Institute of Funeral Services, and joined Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors in Childress as a funeral director.

"We look forward to being part of the community," Schooler and Gordon said Tuesday.

"Larry will be involved in the community," Gordon said. "He knows the people here and knows their needs, and it is our intent for things to stay the same. He will be Schooler-Gordon in Wellington."

The new Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors will be located in the Kelso Funeral Home building, which has housed a mortuary for nearly 50 years.

Schooler-Gordon opened in Amarillo in 1962, by two men who had been friends in Amarillo High School, went through Navy service together and returned to their home city to establish a business.

They are long-time friends of both Kelso and Owens.

Gordon is a graduate of Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science and Schooler of St. Louis College of Mortuary Science.

16-17 Year Olds to Begin Sign-up for Employment

Specific information on the operation of a new summer youth employment program which also works for a tax credit advantage to the employer was explained by Joe B. Mills, of the Texas Employment Commission during a visit in Wellington Monday, April 18.

Mills, manager of the Childress TEC office, conferred with Wellington School Superintendent Kenneth McKay, Louis Graham, school counselor, who will work with the program, and Tommy Hudson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, which will serve as the local sponsor of the program.

The appeal to the vouchered employee who must be either 16 or 17 years of age and meet the disadvantaged income level criteria, is that he or she will draw the minimum wage of $3.35 per hour for a 90-day period for working this summer.

For the employer, the program provides that the first $3,000 he pays the student in wages may be claimed for the 85% tax credit when the employer pays his federal taxes.

The employer will be claiming a tax credit of $2.85 of the $3.35 minimum wage paid. Using these figures, Mills pointed out that cost per hour to the employer actually will be only 50 cents.

This does not include social security or other employee benefits provided by the employer.

"The employer must hire a youth for any 90 day period between May 1 and September 15," Mills explained.

"This youth may not have been previously employed for this employer. The summer employee must be

Spring Forward Sunday Morning

Daylight-saving time begins at 2 a.m. Sunday, April 24.

The time change, mandated by law, requires that clocks be set forward an hour at 2 a.m. local time on the last Sunday in April and set back an hour to standard time at 2 a.m. local time on the final Sunday in October.

If you wish, you can remember that you must "spring forward, fall back" when you set your clocks.

Latest Treatments for Cancer Told

Approximately 40 county residents and visitors from area towns attended a special meeting of the Collingsworth unit of the American Cancer Society, Thursday, April 14, to hear Dr. N. Pillai of Amarillo discuss new developments and treatments for cancer.

Another purpose of this meeting was to present the possibility of Dr. Pillai's coming to Wellington at regular intervals to offer cancer treatment and consultation.

The county ACS unit will have several weeks to consider this, as it will be July when Dr. Pillai gets his office in Amarillo ready and opens his private practice.

At the Thursday night meeting, Dr. Pillai spoke to the group and answered their questions for about an hour, and it was during this time that a number of the area people indicated they would like to have the services of an oncologist (cancer specialist) available on a regular weekly or bi-weekly basis at Wellington.

"He told of new developments and treatments we did not know about. He answered many questions people had about their own problems. He was a kind and very knowledgeable man and he has been exposed to the very latest in cancer treatments," said Mrs. P.M. Scott.

Sandy St. John of the American Cancer Society, Amarillo attended the meeting.

Regular meetings of the Collingsworth unit of ACS are on the third Thursday of each month, with the next meeting scheduled for May 19. Helen Cullers of the Shamrock ACS unit will be here to discuss things a local ACS unit can do on the local level.

Hospital to Sue for Collection of Old Debts

Collingsworth General Hospital will begin to file for judgments in small claims court, justice of the peace court and county court against persons who have past due accounts.

The hospital district's board began the process at regular meeting Tuesday, April 19 by directing administrator Perry Foster to prepare a list of past due accounts for the past 18 months.

The board was faced this month alone with $8,729.77 in accounts at least 90 days overdue.

The board also canvassed results of the recent directors election and re-elected three officers: Robert Owens, president; Dr. J.M. Orr, vice president; and Ineva Bowen, secretary.

On other matters, the board postponed across-the-board pay raises for hospital employees until the end of the fiscal year, and the board heard a report that employee health insurance was costing the hospital from 13 cents to 26 cents per hour worked per employee.

The board also met with Rhys Burnett of Centel telephone equipment company to complete contract -See HOSPITAL, page 2

Groups Asks Council Help On Street Numbering

Thirteen residents of the East Avenue-Corsicana Street area south of 15th Street met with the city council Monday night, April 18, to ask that no changes be made in the numbered streets or house numbers on their streets.

Their visit was the newest step in the attempt by the city to straighten out a confusion of incorrect numbering of houses and businesses through town, but which is worst in some of the new additions in southeast Wellington and along East Avenue.

The city's attempt to correct street numbers started after a request was made by the Wellington Post Office that incorrectly numbered homes and businesses be corrected.

However, Postmaster Charles Britten, who attended the meeting, said that residents of East Avenue are on Rural Route 2 and incorrectly numbered houses on that street will have no effect on mail delivery.

City Manager Glen Taylor speaking for the city council, said the city will do as much as possible to avoid inconvenience to the part of town represented by the visiting group.

J.B. Oney, spokesman, told the council that "we would like to have our streets left like they are and our house numbers left like they are. Bill Janes asked that the numbered streets and houses be left as they are if it is possible.

Included in this group were Mr. and Mrs. Oney, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Ewing, Janes, Mrs. Billy Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Glenn, Mrs. Ruby Riley, Mrs. Isla Mae Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Seale, and Johnny Barnett.

In its first action, the city council rescinded a resolution

Directors since 1947. He has held every position on the TMTA Executive Committee, including the chairmanship in 1951-52. In addition, he has worked on many of the Association's committees.

Born in 1918, Cudd is a lifelong resident of Wellington. In 1939, brothers Wayne and Hiram Cudd formed a partnership creating Cudd Brothers. They started with one truck hauling cotton to Houston. In the 1940s they began hauling cattle. From that early beginning, the firm has grown and now has offices in Wellington and Memphis.

Wayne Cudd has twice held the presidency of the Wellington Chamber of Commerce, and served his city as fire chief for four years. He is a director of the City State Bank, and has served on the Wellington City Council. He is a member of the I.O.O.F. Lodge B.P.O.E., and the Methodist Church, where he is on the official board.

passed at its last meeting designating 18th Street one of the streets in question.

Many reasons lie behind the misnumbered houses. Some have had those numbers since they were built many years ago, others have been an effort by newer home owners to match their own addresses with those of neighbors.

The city will take up the numbering problem later, as it had intended to do when work begins on its street marker project. The marker project was approved last year before there was any indication that the house numbering problem would arise.

Taylor reported to the council that delivery of the glass for the new fire department building is due Wednesday and that the gutter and trim is in.

The all-metal ivory colored building will be faced with brick at a later date, as the city is on a pay as you go policy in constructing the fire building.

In other action the council voted to make payments of $3,000 per month minimum on its $100,000 note at Wellington State Bank. This money has been used on the city's series of capital improvement projects during the past year.

Cutting back on future improvement projects was discussed in view of lower revenue, although Taylor assured the council the city

"One of our purposes in buying small town funeral homes is to help young people like Larry, just as someone helped us to get started," Schooler said.

Both Schooler and Gordon have been active in Amarillo business and civic life and both have been president of Amarillo Better Business Bureau.

Schooler is past president of these groups: American Cancer Society, Lions Club, High Plains Eye Bank, Panhandle Funeral Directors Association, and the Amarillo Business and Professional Club.

Gordon is past president of Amarillo Executives Association; serves on the Llano Cemetery board of directors.

Adams and Jeannie Rasberry of Childress were married on January 7.

He is a member of First United Methodist Church, the Kiwanis Club, BPOE No. 1113, Childress and Pi Sigma Eta.

Our sincere thanks...

...to everyone for your support during the 50 years that we have been serving the Wellington area.

Since 1933 we've been involved in funeral direction in Wellington, and from '36 to '72 we provided ambulance service to the community. During those years we've come to know well almost all of the families of the community, and to count you among our friends.

It's with a certain sense of nostalgia that we conclude this period, but we think that, with the sale of Kelso Funeral Home to Schooler-Gordon with Larry Adams as manager, the community will be well-served.

Our very best wishes to Mack Gordon, Maurice Schooler and Larry.

And to each of you with whom we've been associated during the past half-century, our sincere thank-you for your patronage and for your friendship.

The Church of Christ enjoyed Harold Rhoades, minister, of Lubbock as their guest speaker Sunday. The Bob Garton family also attended the service. Bob Garton and Roy Ginn directed the congregational singing.

The Rev. C.M. Huff preached a sermon concerning the church Sunday at the Church of the Nazarene. He brought out that many individuals today perferred the TV ministry to church ministry. He also stated that this was not God's plan.

Mrs. Ila Orr, Mrs. Vela Tisdale and Mrs. Bill Holder sang for the worship service.

Clarence Black played the organ for the Sunday School opening. Louis Patterson played the guitar. Glen Henry Lewis directed the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Crowover, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Swift and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elbert will return home this week after traveling through several states. They attended the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tenn., last week and visited the Vance Hunt family in New York state. They'll have lots to report in next week's news.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hightower and Tommy Hightower went to Ft. Worth last weekend. Mrs. Hightower's brothers and sisters were together Saturday evening. They really enjoyed the fellowship together. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A.V. Lowrie visited her aunt, Mrs. Hal Magatagan, the former Vada Crawley, who is in General Hospital in Artesia, New Mexico. Mrs. Magatagan was very ill for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Camp visited Jeffery Camp in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday.

Dephina Ellifritz was a guest of the Clarence Brown family last weekend.

Rev. and Mrs. C.M. Huff, Karla, Karen and Kristi, went to Hillsboro last week to see their new grandson, Matthew Faulkner.

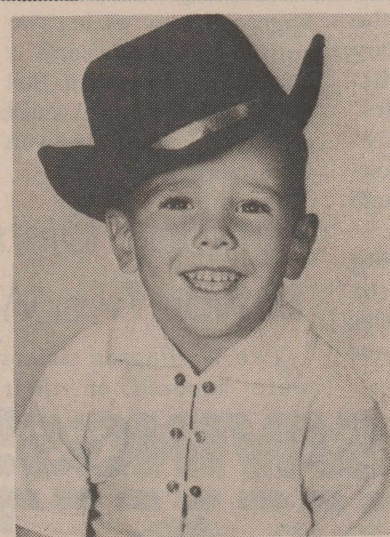

Glen Henry Lewis will preach at the Church of the Nazarene on May 1.

The Church School Board met recently at the Church of the Nazarene. They set the Bible School tentative date for June 6 through 10. Mrs. Walter Camp will be the director and Mrs. Bill Holder was named her assistant. The directors will meet in the near future to appoint the staff. A committee was also chosen to select the Mother of the Year.

Attending the meeting were Ebb Orr, Rev. C.M. Huff, Mrs. Bill Holder, Glen Henry Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cardwell, and Mrs. Sherrell Beanland. Several members did not attend.

Mrs. Walter Camp and Mrs. Roy Peggram were in Amarillo last week. Mrs. Peggram, who is Mrs. Camp's mother, had minor surgery but she is at home now.

NEW FOR 1983 — ENERGY EFFICIENT MODEL FPE-21TM FRIGIDAIRE REFRIGERATOR-FREEZER

FRIGIDAIRE. FOR MORE FEATURES.

The Electric-Saver Switch eliminates the formation of condensation between refrigerator and freezer compartments. Set it on low to save energy, or high if condensation appears.

The Frigidaire Electric-Saver Loop uses warm refrigerant to keep condensation from forming on the sides of the cabinet, saving energy, and eliminating this need for electric heater strips.

Textured Doors are scratch resistant and easy to clean. Fingerprints won't show and spills wipe up quickly with a damp cloth.

Cantilever Tinted Glass Shelves are made of tough, easy-to-clean tempered glass. You can adjust them to store something as large as a turkey or as thin as a pizza.

The Meat Tender Drawer has the Flowing Cold Air feature that keeps meats fresher, for up to seven days.

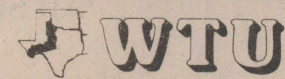

This 21.0 cu. ft. model is 100% Frost Proof. You can forget the mess and time consuming bother of defrosting.

Spreads Compartment makes it easy to store tubs of margarine, dips or cheese.

"Just-a-bin" Door Shelves move up and down to make it easy to store items of almost any shape or size. And they're removable — so they can go right to the table or food preparation area.

The Suspended Ice Tray Rack keeps ice trays near the top of the freezer and out of the way for organized storage.

Two Qualify for State UIL Literary Competition

Two Wellington High School students have qualified to compete in the literary events division of the State Interscholastic League contest. That event will be Saturday, April 30 in Austin.

Camille Smith won first in shorthand at the regional contest held at Texas Tech University.

Todd Roberson placed second in prose interpretation at Lubbock.

"Camille took dictation at 90 words per minute for 5 minutes and transcribed it with 98.44% accuracy," said her instructor, Mrs. Rubye Hodges.

At state, Camille will compete with 11 other contestants.

A senior, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tex Smith.

Roberson was first in the preliminary rounds of the regional event, using a cutting from the novel, "Old Yeller." In the second category he used a personal essay, "Life With Wendel." Roberson the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Roberson of Dodson, is a junior.

First place in the prose interpretation contest went to Babette Ratliff of Shallowater High School, granddaughter of Mrs. Ben Ratliff.

Sandra Culpepper placed 7th in the regional typing contest out of a field of 24. Her teachers and school administrator consider this an outstanding placing, however, as Wellington is one of a few schools in the region that does not offer typing in junior high, therefore most of the high school UIL contestants have had 2 years of typing; Wellington offers only one. Although she did not qualify for the state contest, Sandra ranked highest among contestants from school offering only one year of typing in high school and junior high. Mrs. Linda Brewer is her teacher.

Students of typing and shorthand may compete only once. Others going from Wellington were Hope Thomas, a freshman, who competed in poetry interpretation; Eugene Mote, sophomore, persuasive speaking. Speech students and Mrs. McAlister attended the 5A one act play contests while they were in Lubbock.

Fifth Grade Takes Program to Schools

A program, "Music Moves West," prepared by the two 5th grades of Wellington Elementary School, was presented for the Parent-Teachers Organization Wednesday, April 13.

This is the fourth presentation of the program. Earlier it was shown for Wellington Kiwanis Club, and for Samnorwood and Hedley schools.

Mrs. LoRhae Morgan and Mrs. Evelyn Camp were the directors. Jay Don McCann, narrator, reminded that as settlers moved westward, music was about their only entertainment.

After Diana Noakes and Mike Maxwell presented the colors, "The National Anthem," and "Eyes of Texas," a choir of 5th graders sang "My Home in Montana," and "Sweet Betsy from Pike," in tribute to those who went west.

The old time cowboys ball was acknowledged with "Old Brass Wagon."

Singers were Darren Kumar, Sharon Henard, Mike Thomas, Claudia Perez, Wiley Fires, Leandra Hartman, Dennis Cudd and Angell Hendrix.

The Negro spirituals which told of a better life for slaves, was noted with "I shall Not be Moved" and "The Old Time Religion."

Songs of the west were still popular after the nation had become settled, Jay Don said, and the choir then sang, "Clementine" and "Roll On Columbia."

Greg Cozad played

"Down in the Valley," as a cornet solo, accompanied by Mrs. Carter, and "Happy Songs" were by Chad Feemster, Scott Covey, Greg Cozad and Reggie Jones, who did An Oak Ridge Boys Pantomime, "Elvira."

Karen Huff and Robert Watts sang "You're Something Special," and "Love Makes the World go Round" was presented by Tracey Kane, Rinda Green, Darla Noakes, Juda Nash, Jana Nash and Staci Grimes.

Scott Covey gave a piano solo, "Peppermint Popcorn," and the program concluded with the choir singing "This Land is Your Land."

Choir members were Scott Covey, Greg Cozad, Roger De La Cruz, Brenda Flores, Chad Feemster, Wiley Fires, Arnold Garcia, Rudy Garcia, Victor Garcia, Rinda Green, Gerardo Gonzales,
