

Bootlegger Pays $850 Fine; Goes To Jail Too

Third Charge Still Pending

Mitchell County Judge Elmer Martin Friday morning sentenced bootlegger Juan Lujan to 60 days in County Jail and fined him $850.

Lujan, who has been convicted in the past on similar charges, entered a plea of guilty to 2 charges before Martin.

The first guilty plea was entered on a charge of possession of beer for sale in a dry area. Martin assessed a fine of $350 and a 30-day jail sentence in that case.

The second charge, selling whiskey in a dry area, also resulted in a 30-day jail sentence, with a bigger fine of $500 after Lujan also entered a plea of guilty to that charge.

A jury panel was called on the 2 cases, but Lujan preferred to enter his pleas before Martin. He was not represented by an attorney.

Court costs of $27.50 were assessed in each case, bringing the total cost to Lujan in fines and costs to $905.

Another charge, selling beer and wine in a dry area, is still pending against Lujan in County Court.

But that isn't all of his troubles. Wednesday District Court Judge Eldon Mahon granted an injunction, requested in a civil suit filed by County Attorney Frank Ginzel, to padlock 2 houses Lujan owns side-by-side, 1920 and 1930 Plum St., in the northwest section of Colorado City.

Cindy Parker, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Parker, Texas Electric Village, and Bill Vest, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Vest, 932 E. 13th St., are limbering up their vocal chords for their performance for the Primary Parent-Teachers' Association here Tuesday. These 2, along with 208 more first graders at Primary School, will present a song-fest to the P-TA members at the meeting.

ENTER STATE COMPETITION

Marilyn Godwin, Carol Ellis Winners in Essay Contest

Two Colorado City High School students were second and third place winners in the 1962 essay contest sponsored annually by the Colorado Basin Medical Society as part of the National essay contest sponsored by the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons.

Miss Marilyn Godwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Godwin, 445 E. 15th St., was second place winner in the judging.

Miss Godwin, a senior student in CHS, won second prize of $35. She entered the contest through her English class.

taught by Miss Gladys Miller. Miss Godwin's winning essay was on the topic of "The Advantages of the American Free Enterprise System Over Communism."

Miss Carol Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ellis, 345 E. 11th St., placed third in the competition to win $15. She entered through her CHS English class taught by Mrs. Gerald Gordon.

Miss Ellis chose the same topic as Miss Godwin.

Entrants in the contest had the choice of 2 topics — the one chosen by the local winners and the topic of "The Advantages of Private Medical Care."

First place winner in the area competition was Miss Patricia Candace Weyel, a senior in Snyder High School. She chose "The Advantages of Private Medical Care" as her topic.

The 3 winning essays in the Colorado Basin Medical Society judging will be forwarded to the state contest where they will compete for additional prizes on a state-wide level.

The state's top 3 winners will compete in the national Association of American Physicians and Surgeons essay contest where a total of $2,675 in prizes will be awarded. National first prize is $1,000.

In order to preserve the eligibility of the 3 area winners with the Interscholastic League, prize checks will be placed in trust by the Colorado Basin Medical Society until they have completed high school.

This is not the first time county students have won in the area contest; in fact, in the last 2 years, a local student has placed first in the area competition. In the previous 2 years, the essay competition has been sponsored by the Nolan-Fisher Mitchell Counties' Medical Society.

AT FIRST METHODIST

McMurry Choir Program Today

McMurry Chanters, a 40-voice choir from McMurry College of Abilene, will present a special musical program at First Methodist Church here today (Sunday) at the morning worship services.

The service begins at 10:30 a. m. Dr. Richard C. von Ende, director of the Chorus, will lead the congregational singing that will precede the sacred music program by the Chanters.

Two Colorado Citizens are members of the choir and will be participating in the group's program here. They are Rusty Morris and Miss Gloria May.

Morris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Morris, 344 W. 4th St., and is majoring in history. He is a member of the Forum and Methodist Student Movement at McMurry.

Miss May is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli May, 1312 Oak St. She is a sophomore physical education and history major and a member of Gamma Sigma social club and the McMurry tennis club.

The Chanters will sing in Colorado City while on their annual Spring tour. The 1962 year will take them to more than 12 West Texas and New Mexico cities where they will sing in both schools and churches.

Special artists to perform with the group will be an antiphonal quartet composed of Martha Swindle of Albuquerque, N. M.; Marjorie Goetz of Amarillo, N. M.; Frank Sitchler of Abilene; and Jerry Spurlin of El Paso.

Among the numbers to be presented by the group here will be "O Sing Unto the Lord by Hassler, "Praise Be to Thee" by Palestrina, "Domine Quid Multiplicat" by di Laso, "Thou Knowest, Lord, the Secrets of Our Hearts" by Purcell, "Psalm 100" by Schuetz, "Jesu Priceless Treasure" by Bach and "Grief of Glory" by Christiansen.

Spirituals to be sung by the McMurry vocalists include "Ain't That Good News," "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho" and "I Have a Mother in the Heavens."

Jerry Spurlin will be cantor of "Nunc Dimittis." Von Ende, director of the Chorus, was head of the music department in Bethany College and taught in Texas State College for Women before heading the McMurry Music department. He received B. A. and M.A. degrees from Carnegie Institute of Technology and a Ph. D. degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

Rev. Darris Egger First Methodist pastor, extends an invitation to the general public to hear the group.

SAYS CHAMBER MANAGER

Getting Industry Is Job of Citizens

"The average citizen of Colorado City has an important job in promoting industrial development," Chamber of Commerce manager Dick Kendall told Lions Club here Friday in their regular noon luncheon in Civic House.

Kendall's talk was a part of the Industrial Week activities here during the week sponsored by the Chamber and Industrial Team, Inc. Kendall also spoke at Jaycees Wednesday on industrial development.

Another phase of the week's activities was a display in City National Bank lobby of products produced by 9 local manufacturers.

Kendall listed a 3-fold job for the average citizen to promote local industrial development. It is:

1. To see that the current program for industrial development is continued here year and year out.

2. Support the Chamber, the Industrial Team and all civic clubs and other organizations behind the drive for industrial development . . . to make a better town and a better city, which will, in itself attract industry.

3. Be alert for industrial prospects and get all other citizens interested in industrial development and alert for industrial prospects.

"The industrial development program is a long-range campaign," the speaker said, "one of years . . . this type of thing takes time."

All Colorado Citizens should be interested in industrial development, he continued, because "most jobs depend upon it, it makes for a good community in which to live and it will keep our youth here."

Things already done in the program include the formation of the Industrial Team, the organization of the Industrial Week.

Feed Grain Signup Time Is Extended

Signup date by Mitchell County farmers for participation in the 1962 Feed Grain Program has been extended to Monday, Apr. 16, reports Orrion J. (Jack) Linam, chairman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Linam urges any county farmers who have not signed up for the program to review it with a thought toward participation.

To date, 332 farmers in this county have signed up for the program to divert 12,755 acres of grain sorghums production in 1962.

Other dates for farmers to remember, Linam reminds, are:

Monday, Apr. 30—final date to make application for pre-measurement of 1962 cotton and diverted acres.

Monday, Apr. 30—final date to file application for incentive payment on wool and unshorn lambs sold from Apr. 1, 1961, through Mar. 31, 1962.

Tuesday, May 1—final date to graze 1962 diverted acres under the 1951 Feed Grain and Wheat Stabilization Program.

Tuesday, May 1—final date to dispose of excess wheat and also wheat cover on diverted acres.

Graveside Rites for Mrs. Lindsey

Graveside rites were conducted here in Colorado City Cemetery Saturday for Mrs. W. A. Lindsey, former Mitchell County resident.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Saturday in First Baptist Church in Lamesa. Rev. Monroe Teeters, Friendship Baptist Church, and Rev. Fred Smith, Payne Baptist Church, officiated.

Mrs. Lindsey died Thursday morning in Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa following a long illness. She was 72.

She was born Sept. 28, 1889, near Meridian, Miss., and moved to Texas, near Liberty, as a child. She married L. F. Buckalew in 1905. He died in 1924.

Mrs. Lindsey moved to Mitchell County in 1907 and settled near Fairview. She married Lindsey in 1932 and had made her home in Lamesa since that time.

Surviving are the husband of Lamesa; a daughter, Mrs. Earnest Rhodes of Lamesa; 6 sons, Olen Buckalew and Mack Buckalew, both of Lamesa; Douglas Buckalew of Fort Worth, Lee Roy Buckalew of Oakdale, Calif., Roscoe Buckalew of Lubbock and Clyde Buckalew of Colorado City; 3 brothers, Hulet Williams, Charles Williams and John Williams, all of Colorado City; 3 sisters, Mrs. R. H. DeLaney of Colorado City, Mrs. W. H. Lindley of Big Spring and Mrs. Hugh Morrow of Comanche.

"WHAT THE DOCTOR ORDERED" RAIN, RAIN, RAIN

More rain fell Thursday Friday and Friday night in Mitchell County . . . so the farmers' and ranchers' smiles of Thursday have, if anything, brightened.

It's another "million dollar" rain to most farmers as "one good thing followed another." Slow soaking rains up to 1 1/2 inch fell over the entire county Wednesday, Wednesday night and Thursday morning.

Here in Colorado City, 42 fell Thursday and Friday to up the week's total to 1.05 inches.

In almost all sections of the county, total rainfall for the week was over an inch. All of this came on top of a Mar. 14-18 inch snowfall that was good for an estimated 2 inches of moisture and a Mar. 20 rainfall that was near an inch, in most sections of the county.

Prospects for another banner crop year and good pasture lands are brightening each new rainfall.

The week's rain totaled 1 1/2 inches in 5 sections of the county — Looney, Seven Wells, Lorraine, Landers and Silver.

Other areas report: China Grove — 12 inches total with latest fall measuring 2.

Rogers — 8 for the week and 1 since Thursday.

Westbrook — Mrs. A. L. Young reports a total of 1.35 with 1 Friday.

Cuthbert — 6 total, lightest in county, 1 since Thursday.

Buford — total of 1.1 inches and 3 since Thursday.

Rendergrook Ranch — total of 1 inch with 1/2 inch falling since Thursday.

Spade — 4.10 inches and 1/2 inch since Thursday also.

SPECIMENS COLLECTED

Eradication Program in County Is Now Reality

The screwworm eradication program is now a reality in Mitchell County.

County livestock producers have contributed $2,579 in support of the program being sponsored by the Southwest Animal Health Foundation, reports Francis Winn, chairman of the county organization. A total of 59 county farmers and stockmen have contributed to the campaign.

The complete success of this program will be dependent upon individual livestock producers accepting their responsibility, says Winn. Therefore, it is extremely important that each inspects his animals frequently for possible screwworm cases and when finding one, treat the wound promptly with a recommended chemical for screwworm control.

Mitchell County Agent Buddy Logsdon's office has received a supply of screwworm collection kits. The kits include:

A screwworm larvae collection report to accompany specimen.

A larvae collection vial.

A pre-addressed tube to go to the Screwworm Eradication Program, Box 969, Mission.

After treatment of a wound, stockmen are asked to collect 10 worms from the wound, putting the worms in either alcohol or water and taking them to Logsdon's office immediately. The specimen will be sent to the Animal Division Eradication Laboratories for identification.

If the worms are true screwworms, field inspectors working on the program will visit the stockman to check for further cases. Sterile screwworm flies will be dropped in this county if real screwworm cases are found.

It is extremely important that stockmen collect specimens from every possible screwworm case so that they can be properly identified and necessary action taken immediately to stop the spread of the fly, says Logsdon.

Logsdon suggests 6 measures for county stockmen to take for individual assistance in screwworm eradication. They are:

1. Inspect all livestock frequently. Pay particular attention to the navels of newborn animals, a favorite site of the screwworm.

2. Collect 10 maggots from every infested wound after treatment. Place in a container of alcohol or water, and take to your county agent.

3. Do not move animals from any area unless all wounds are treated with a recommended insecticide.

4. Do not move animals out of counties where screwworms have been reported until the animals have been sprayed and all wounds treated with a recommended insecticide.

5. Do not accept or move animals from other states where screwworms may exist unless the cattle dealer, buyer or hauler inspects and treats all animals at origin as indicated in No. 4 above.

6. Remain alert to all information released through newspapers, television, radio, or your county agent's office concerning the screwworm status in your county and state so you may prevent screwworms.

IN BIG SPRING

Chamber Leaders' Workshop Tuesday

Several officials and members of Colorado City Chamber of Commerce will attend the annual Chamber of Commerce Leaders' Workshop in Big Spring Tuesday.

Local Chamber members planning to attend include manager Dick Kendall, Frank Kelley, president Bob Carver, Charles Root and Roy Bates.

The workshop, to be conducted at Cosden Country Club, begins at 9:30 a. m. and will continue through 3:30 p. m. The initial experimental workshop of this annual series was conducted here in Colorado City in 1960.

Local Chamber members will attend in a body. All members are urged to attend, especially board members and committee chairmen, and are asked to notify Chamber of Commerce at RA 8-3403 by 5 p. m. Monday if planning to attend.

"This is a good short course in how to use your Chamber more effectively," reports Carver.

Carroll Davidson, Big Spring Chamber manager, is chairman for the workshop which is sponsored by the Community Services Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Keynote speaker for the workshop will be Mr. J. W. Carver, Big Spring.

VETS CAMPAIGN FOR BOOKS

Student Book Reviews Headline Library Week

Three Colorado City High Schoolers will present special book reviews to civic club noon luncheons here this week in Civic House as part of the local observance of Library Week.

Miss Shana Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noble, 1520 Dallas St., will review "Animal Farm" by George Orwell at the noon luncheon of Kiwanis Club Tuesday in Civic House. Miss Noble is a CHS senior.

Miss Ricka Guitler will review "The Romance of Capitalism" for Jaycees Wednesday noon in Civic House. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Guitler, 529 E. 13th St.

Friday Lions Club will hear Danny Latimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Latimer, review "The Democracy Manifesto" by William Douglas at the club's noon luncheon in Civic House.

The reviews are only part of the full week of activities. The week officially begins today (Sunday) and continues through Saturday in conjunction with the state-wide and nationwide observance of Library Week.

Rev. John Brand, First Presbyterian Church pastor, is chairman of the local activities. He was named to the position by members of the board of directors of Mitchell County Federation Library.

Other activities of the week will include special library hours and a campaign to secure additional books for the library by members of Mitchell County Barracks No. 1582, Veterans of World War

Slogan for Library Week in 1962 is "Read and Watch Your World Grow."

Local purposes, reports Brand, of the week are:

To provide support for local reading and library development programs, thereby increasing their effectiveness.

To attract wide public attention to the growing demand for improved library services and of the changing role of the librarian in the community.

To increase the general awareness that libraries of all kinds are major resources of the community, thus stimulating public support for them.

To foster reading as an essential activity at home, in schools and college, in business and in the community.

To inspire more people to

CONVERSATION CORNER

By RUTH COFFEY

"SPRING'S THE TIME," advises Josephine Lowman's widely syndicated self-improvement column, "that you may want to renovate your husband, too!"

The columnist jumps from doing things to your own face, figure, hair, and wardrobe to suggestions for doing things for—or maybe it's to—your husband. Things like complimenting him into a new suit, snappier ties, and a more becoming shape.

She suggests "bragging on" the man will help him get—and stay—more presentable.

TOO MANY YEARS ago to count, we attempted a thorough renovating job on that man we married in our toujours gai youth. Strolled right into Neiman's Man's Shop and bought him the snazziest pink shirt they had, so he could be properly presentable, after one of those Big D jaunts.

HE WORE IT—ONCE. Which proved him soft-hearted. At noon, he discarded it forever. Which proved him hard-headed as usual.

"I look," he lamented, "like a Wop peanut vendor at the ball park on the Fourth of July. I don't care what they're wearing this spring in Dallas!" And that was that.

The shirt did make a cunning little apron for the baby girl we'd acquired along with a new model-A Ford.

ANY HUSBAND who gives away never-tried electric razors behind your ever-lovin' back . . . eats bacon and eggs 356 breakfasts a year . . . and happily wears the same old favorite sports jacket until nothing's left but the sag, is just not the type to be renovated, made over, or take to meddling with his wardrobe. Or even his safety razor habits.

THAT ONLY PROVES what everybody should know, anyhow: no column in the world knows everything.

This one does know—that Ruel Frank Brown (always called Frank here at home where he used to work in Fuller meat department) is home for an extended leave. Frank's been at Fort Benning, Georgia, for further training as a paratrooper. New orders will send him to Formosa after his furlough.

Saw his little wife, Sue, and adorable baby son David Frank, the other day. Frank's the son of Ruel Brown Sr., grandson of Mrs. F. C. Brown, both of Fairmount St.

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS also included smiling Mrs.

Price Hall (nee Amarie Gann) and cute Kack Price McCarter (Mrs. Bill) plus beautiful Selma Landau (Mrs. Willie) and Mrs. Ben Sparks.

Saw guests Mrs. Paul Cooper, Mrs. Claud Eudy, Mrs. J. Ed Richardson, the Jimmie Harrisons, Arlene Morrissey, Laura Grantland, John M. Worrells, John Tom Merritts, Mrs. Edgar Majors, the Keiths, Misses.

MET Mrs. A. H. Kruse of Ira, guest of her sister-in-law Mrs. Curtis Erwin Sr. Mrs. Kruse's son William P. Spalding and his wife Winnie are expected this weekend from Pompano Beach, Florida, for a visit here and at Ira . . . and Ruth Elliott Cooper (Mrs. Billie) there with her tall son Chris, was saying she's leaving her office secretary job at Chamber of Commerce to work as clerk-typist in Texas Electric Service Co. power-plant office, with Roy Bates as her new boss.

THE CHESTER HART house (their brand new home on Walnut St.) is filled with oil paintings done by Mrs. Hart, and is altogether a house-beautiful.

Playing piano duets during the evening were Alice Baker (Mrs. Curtis) and her talented pupil, blond Lana Shurtlett, daughter of the Curtis Shurtletts. Music at the Fuller house on Vine St. was lively tunes from that magic electric player piano, Mae's pride and joy.

Visited at the Hart house, briefly, with three nice gals—Maude McCord (Mrs. E. S.), Evelyn Daniels (Mrs. Ross) and Josie Randle (Mrs. J. W.). The Bill Dosses . . . Pretty Charisa (Mann) Gregory, Mrs. Dick Jr. . . . And Lena Strange (Mrs. Gwan) the girl with the lovely silver threads among the brown.

Clellan (Mrs. Fred) both of the US Dept. of Agriculture AS&C office . . . and the very next day, Effie Copeland of FHA office trying on a fetching white hat for spring.

Saw always agreeable Gerald Gordon grabbing up last-minute groceries . . . And glamorous Bette Spragg who was saying her husband John Spragg and Dad, Cap Stageh had been vacationing at Padre Island . . . Spied "Dr. Os" Rhode, his pretty wife Nita, and their white Cadillac taking a Sabbath Day ride. . . . And Mary Rice Lloyd (Mrs. R. J.) dashing along in the musical rain was saying the bass singer with Howard Payne's quartet, here last Sunday at First Baptist, is Lloyd son Bob, freshman.

"HALF A LOAF" goes the old quote, "is better than none." So is half a party—half that is, of the 49ers Pilgrimage of Homes Thursday night. At Mae Fuller's new house saw Honey Smoot (Mrs. Joe Henry) and Doris

ASKED ABOUT the Hart sons, James and Bill (who used to be called Myrl). James is a doctor of veterinary medicine in Lubbock and is leaving soon for Honolulu where he and his wife will vacation . . . Dr. Bill (Myrl) Hart, an orthodontist in Corpus Christi, fathers a daughter and a son.

OFF THE CLIFF: Just now met attractive Bonnie Summers (Mrs. Charles) who used to work at the Record—first as bookkeeper, later as society editor and columnist. Formerly Bonnie Chapman of Roscoe, she's now receptionist for Doctors David Bridgford and Jene Steakley. Husband Charles is a Texas State Highway employe (asphalt inspector) and they live at 825 Locust. She's not only good-looking, she's nice!

And the nicest thing has happened at the Orbie Ray Linder house on East 21st! They've adopted a baby daughter, Jana, now six days old. The Linders are the happiest ones.

P. S. On the unhappier side: As if it weren't enough for Jack Paar to leave the air, the Chestnut St. kittens are leaving their snug box to explore the house, and Rick Taylor's leaving the Record for a Victoria daily. And taking wife Peggy, son Randy, and beautiful baby Kimberly Jo with him.

Life, mes amies, is not continuously toujours gai. Sometimes it gets frustrating . . . Like the time our bridegroom would not and did not grow a John Gilbert mustache to improve himself. "May want to renovate" is one thing. Actually doing it is something else again. Spring or no spring.

Prices Visit Here Cottage Prayer Groups to Meet

Mrs. Robert Price and sons returned to Lubbock last week end after visiting here in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis Coles, Sr., 730 E. 13th St.

While here, the Prices also visited in the O. B. Price home, 705 Vine St., parents of Price, who has been in Ohio on business for Texas Tech College of Lubbock.

Talk

By PEGGY BELVIN

THERE'S A NEW FACE at MAX BERMAN'S DEPARTMENT STORE this week, although the face isn't a new one to veteran Colorado City shoppers.

She is MRS. JOHN T. SMITH, who assumed duties in the ladies' ready-to-wear department at Berman's Monday.

Mrs. Smith is a former employee of EVA'S DRESS SHOP, which was located at 122 W. Second Street.

She is a native of Longview and has lived in Colorado City for 11 years. Ten years and 11 months of this time she was employed at Eva's.

Mrs. Smith, who lives at 1041 Elm Street, has 2 sons, FRED TINCHER of Morrison, Illinois and TROY TINCHER of Vernon.

IN SPEAKING OF Berman's, a synonymous name is MRS. EARL GUNN, or fondly known as "DAISY."

If the personality of this individual could be described in one word, then that word would have to be delightful. Neither weather, mood nor circumstance can dent the pleasant atmosphere that prevails wherever Daisy is.

As is this writer's custom, city stores are visited weekly to pick up personal news items from the store personnel. One of the most frequent such items are the reports of week end visits, so my customary greeting is "Has anyone gone anywhere?"

To which the totally delightful Daisy invariably will answer, "Yes, I went crazy this week end."

If each of us should pave the safe path of fantasy as Daisy, this world would most certainly be a much more pleasant place to live.

TO ADD FOURTH LEVEL

Girl Scout Age Levels Changed

Names for the 4 age levels within the Girl Scout program, to replace the 3-level structure that the organization has used since 1938, were announced recently by Mrs. Tom Allen, Girl Scout Leader for Mitchell County. The changes in the program will affect all Girl Scouts in the nation.

Beginning in September, 1963, age groupings for the 2,885,600 girls in Girl Scouting will be:

Brownie Girl Scouts, aged 7 and 8 years; Junior Girl Scouts, aged 9, 10 and 11 years; Cadette Girl Scouts, aged 12, 13 and 14 years; and Senior Girl Scouts, aged 15, 16 and 17 years. Until that time, troops will continue in the present pattern of Brownie Scouts aged 7 through 9; Intermediate Girl Scouts aged 10 through 13; and Senior Girl Scouts aged 14 through 17.

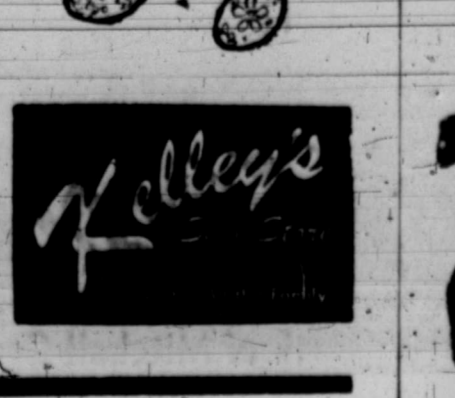

The sequence of names, according to Mrs. Culmer, has been selected to give a feeling of progression through the entire Girl Scout age range of 7 through 17 years. "Brownies" is the popular name for the youngest members of the Girl Guide Girl Scout movement throughout the world. "Junior" indicates that the girls just beyond the Brownie Girl Scout age look forward to moving on into the more advanced levels within the program.

The new age level will be effective with the simultaneous releases of four handbooks for girls in September, 1963. Preparations for a smooth transition in the fall of 1963 are already under way in the 16 counties of the West Texas Girl Scout Council, according to Johnnie Ammons, President.

Program Launching Coordinators for the entire area will co-ordinate a large-scale effort to explain plans for change to the Girl Scout family and to other community groups that work closely with the Girl Scouts. Organize troops within the present three age levels in such a way that the change to 1963 levels may be accomplished without confusion; and to train the council's 900 volunteers in details of the revised program as soon as information becomes available.

AT WSCS MEETING

Mrs. Welter Leads Session

Mrs. W. E. Welter, study leader, presented the second in a series of study sessions Monday at the First Methodist Church. The series is sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church on the topic, "The Meaning of Suffering."

Mrs. Darris Egger opened the meeting with leading the group in song. Mrs. J. L. Strain accompanied. Mrs. Egger presented the devotion from the 23rd Psalm. Reports on current events were presented by Mrs. Porter Richardson.

The topic for the session was "Pain of Living." Mrs. Welter stressed to the group that one must learn to live with pain. The point presented for thought was, "The measure of a man is the size of the thing it takes to get his goat."

Mrs. Tom Grant led the discussion on, "God's Intentional Will."

Mrs. W. W. Rhode led the discussion on, "God's Circumstantial Will," and Mrs. Strain suggested the plan of God's ultimate will.

Mrs. C. C. Thompson, society president, touched lightly on the topic, "Physical Pain and Mental Illness."

Mrs. Thompson announced that a covered-dish luncheon will be served at the third session, Wednesday, Apr. 11. The meeting is scheduled for 1 to 2:30 p. m.

A nursery attendant is on duty during the study period and all women of the community are invited to attend the sessions.

Mrs. Thompson led the closing prayer and coffee was served to the following: Mmes. Strain, Egger, Richardson, Welter, Grant, Rhode, Thompson, O. F. Jones, J. D. Norman, B. J. Riley, A. A. Herrington, Sie Hamm, Earl Brown, O. B. Stewart, Bill Thompson, T. R. Curlee, Lon Strain, Bill Jackson, J. T. Pritchett and Tie Vowell.

AT APPEARANCE HERE

Randall Speaks On Soviet People

"The Sun Seldom Sets On Soviet Russia" was the title selected by Porter Randall, news commentator, for Fort Worth Radio Station KFJZ, for his recent appearance here. Randall was sponsored here by the Colorado City Classroom Teachers' Association.

Randall began his program by saying "Soviet Russia is a paradox, a police state and a goldfish state. Czechoslovakia is Russia's best satellite."

"On the streets is the only place where one can speak freely in Russia. All mail is pilfered and read, photographs are checked, contents of luggage are checked and every place hides a microphone."

"Even so, Russia has a very low crime and divorce rate, much lower than in the United States. Nothing is ever stolen in Russia. The Russian powers do not forbid or encourage religion. Atheism is taught in schools. They hope to win their fight against Russia, and win so that the majority of Russian people will not be aware that they have been defeated."

"At present date, all Europe has gone socialist. Belgium is the most democratic, but it, too, is going strongly toward socialism."

"Russia's challenge is not on the fighting front," Randall continued, "but on the economic front. The Russian people do want peace, however. They want a bloodless evolutionary conquest."

"The Russian people are very serious people. They are satisfied and happy but never smile. They have more worldly possessions now than ever before, but still have very little."

"The state sets all prices in a form of rationing. Wages are on a general scale."

$100 per week for skill labor and $60 per week for common labor. The people are poorly dressed, most clothing is made from a dull black fabric. Clothing is considered a utility. Ragged clothing shows much sacrifice for the Russian cause.

"There is no advertising, most of the people drink a great deal. Everyone works and there are no beggars and no pets. The people read much, mostly novels. They are a warm-hearted and kind people."

"Until we fight fire with fire," Randall said in closing, "we cannot win. Russians win. Russians don't want war anymore than we do. Our greatest weapon are the 'People to People Program' and the Peace Corps."

Randall's program was based on his findings during his recent trip to Russia, his sixth trip abroad within the last 3 years.

He has already written 1 highly successful book, "Excursion Into Adventure." It was based on the political tensions in the Middle East between Israel and the Arab world. He is currently writing a second book which will deal with his travels through the Orient, India and Russia.

Holy Week Services for the First Methodist Church have been scheduled for April 15-22.

A breakfast meeting will be conducted at 7 a. m. each day and the evening services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

There will be both morning and evening services each day. Rev. Darris Egger will be preaching at both services and Eddie Kissinger will direct the singing. Mrs. James Payne will accompany at the organ.

Birthday Dinner for Miss Britton

LORRAINE — Mrs. Gene Britton honored her daughter, Carla, with a birthday dinner here Sunday on Miss Britton's 16th birthday.

Following morning church services, guests gathered at the Britton home for a dinner of baked ham.

The table centerpiece was a large bunny and nest of eggs. Three tables held centerpieces of eggs in Easter nests.

In the afternoon, the guests and honoree attended a movie. Present were Katrina Wells, Sheila Oliver, Joyce Furrow, Joretta Hall, Cindy Mahon, Loretta Tartt, Judy McDaniel, Peggy Phillips and Sherry Graham.

Lone Wolf Co-op In Monday Meeting

A covered dish supper was conducted here Monday from 8 to 10 p. m. in Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative headquarters building.

Approximately 60 people attended from all parts of the 6-county area covered by the cooperative. Those present included the board of directors, their families, the co-ops' Minuteman organization, their families, home demonstration club presidents, county agents, home demonstration agents and some co-op employees and their families.

Reports were heard from W. H. Copper, president, board of directors; Gwan C. Strange, secretary-treasurer; board of directors Raymond Perdue, manager of the cooperative; and James Hull, electrification advisor.

Cooper reported on the need of additional office space and meeting room facilities for agricultural groups and other public meetings. The improvements were justified growth of the cooperatives Electric Plant and lack of any building improvements since 1949 plus the need for continued public relations, he said.

Strange reported on progress made by the cooperative towards returning Capital Credits to its members. He explained the refund would be made "according to the patronage" (amount of money paid the co-op for electricity) of each co-op member-consumer. He also said refunds would begin with the year 1956 the first year the cooperative had appreciable monies in excess of necessary costs in delivering electric power.

Strange also reported statements would be mailed soon to each co-op member. These statements will show the amount of Capital Credits figured for each electric meter for the year 1956 through 1960.

Redue pledged continued work and support of the employees including. He also thanked the members and friends of the cooperative for attendance at the meeting and praised the board of directors for the diligent work toward fostering the continued growth and development of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc.

Hull directed his remarks at some of the problems, etc. cooperatives face in the state legislature. He emphasized the importance of every one taking a more active part in politics, and that it will benefit the farmer, rancher, business man and rural electrification.

Hull also emphasized the importance of knowing your candidates views on the public power program and that this issue should be considered before a choice is made at the polls.

Poster Award Services for Mrs. Elsie Cox Winners Are Announced

Winners in the Mitchell County Soil Conservation District-sponsored poster contest has been announced. The purpose of the contest was to foster conservation education to youngsters.

The Conservation Board would like to express its appreciation to the teachers and school personnel who co-operated in the poster contest, reports A. V. Sheppard.

Overall winner of the contest was Lynn Strain, sixth grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Strain, Jr. His poster carries the heading of "Soil-Nature's Bank" It portrays the depletion losses of non-protection on 1 side and the gains and preservations of resources with proper conservation on the other.

Winners in the fourth grade division are Michael Pritchett, Wesley Smith and Linda Banks. Fifth grade winners are De Lynn Grissom, Leak Spiller and Richard Cox. Winners in the sixth grade division are Strain, David Crawford and Susan Pritchett.

Members of the Colorado City Garden Club judged the posters.

Another contest, conducted on the junior high school level, has also been sponsored by the Conservation Board of Supervisors. It is an annual contest and plaques will be presented to the student's submitting the best essays with the title, "Conservation-And Population Explosion."

This contest is part of the Fort Worth Press Awards Program. The essays submitted have been sent to Fort Worth to be judged in a statewide contest.

The musical director of the West Clandon, England, Women's Royal Army Corps Band, appealed to band enthusiasts not to toss pennies in the tuba.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Barton, mother of Mrs. Elsie Cox of Colorado City, were conducted at 3 p. m. Tuesday of last week in Leaday Baptist Church in Coleman.

Officiating at the services was Rev. Jack Skelton, pastor, assisted by Rev. Ed Bigham, pastor of Coleman's Central Baptist Church, and Rev. Brady Slate, retired Gouldsbush minister. Burial was in Leaday Cemetery in Coleman.

Mrs. Barton, 70, died Monday, Mar. 26, in Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene at 8:30 a. m. She had been hospitalized 8 days.

Born July 4, 1892, in Mexico, Mrs. Barton had lived in Coleman since July 1, 1921. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Other survivors include the husband of Coleman; a stepson, Manton Jamison of Voss; 2 stepdaughters, Mrs. Pauline Ransberger of Coleman and Mrs. Nelle Moore of Odessa; a son, George Jamison of Sacramento, Calif.; 4 other daughters, Mrs. Frances Bell of Odessa, Mrs. Roxie Evans of Coleman, Mrs. Virginia Holland of Odessa and Mrs. Mildred Pitchett of Big Spring; 22 grandchildren; and 2 great-grandchildren.

Vowell retired from Col-Tex Refinery here last week.

A Tribute To Our Hospitals!

Someone once said that all well people should visit a hospital occasionally to see how fortunate they are! When a friend or loved one is being tenderly cared for in one of our hospitals, then we understand the great importance of these institutions. Staffed with doctors, nurses, internes; and all manner of life saving equipment, the hospital is mercy headquarters for all who are suffering. We never cease to wonder at the modern miracles performed in our hospitals. Their works go largely unheralded. But their eagerness to bind up wounds and make men whole again goes on forever. What would we do without these havens of healing?

VOLUMES ON COMMUNISM

Spotlighting Books Offered Here During Library Week

EDITOR'S NOTE — A brief summary of 8 of the 16 volumes on communism offered here by Mitchell County Federation Library in conjunction with Library Week, Sunday, Apr. 8, through Saturday, Apr. 14. The other 8 books on the subject will be reviewed in Sunday's edition of The Record.

These writings on communism are being spotlighted during Library Week in Colorado City as part of the week's observance and as a "continuation" of the 3-part Communism Seminar sponsored here recently by Lions Club, Ministerial Alliance and City National Bank.

FROM STATE CHURCH TO PLURALISM, by Franklin Littell.

A Protestant interpretation of religion in American history. How will American Protestants respond to the historical snarl from Protestant dominance to more fluid conditions in which Catholicism and Judaism also have great force and influence? By the anxiety expressed in anti-Semitism and anti-Catholicism? By reaffirming the "American tradition"?

In answer, Littell examines the very categories that have shaped our study of American church history, and, in a word, "explodes" them. Without false ideals of the past, the author perceives the uniqueness of the situation today. The true Golden Age lies, if anywhere, in the years just ahead; and through his realistic analysis he encourages that honest "consciousness of calling" that will determine whether religion in America is to be vital or effete.

THE GERMAN PHOENIX, by Franklin Littell.

How the German Churches' Resistance to Hitler gave birth to the massive lay movements of the irchentag and the Academies.

Here is told the gripping story of the 25 years in which the German Protestant Churches were transformed from state-subsidized, complacent conservatism into a body resisting to the death Communist and Nazi tyranny and experimenting with thoroughly unconventional but effective forms of worship and teaching. These experiments, Littell shows, have great relevance to American Church life.

FATHERS AND SONS, by Ivan Turgenev.

Few novels in all the history of literature have had so profound an influence on the national destiny of Russia as this. It anticipated a type and shaped a tendency that helped change the history of that tormented land.

The intellectual movement which Turgenev chronicled and the "Nihilist" character he imaginatively brought into being gave the first impetus to what later culminated in the Russian revolution. As a work of prophetic and creative art, "Fathers and Sons" is given the highest possible rank among works of realistic fiction by revolutionists and conservatives alike.

THE POSSESSED, by Fyodor Dostoevsky.

A difficult, but informative and rewarding novel. Noting the revolutionary undercurrents in his time (that later were to be the basis of the Russian revolution and that now are part of the ideology and practice of modern communism), and seeking them as a threat to the foundations of Russian life, Dostoevsky wrote this novel.

Here he exposes the danger of Nihilism to the entire human society. This is actually a tale of horror, since Dostoevsky shows the effect of Nihilism upon the human personality. The individual's needs, which are spiritual, can only be degraded "in a Socialist society organized according to a reasoned scheme in the interests of the group."

CAPITAL AND OTHER WRITINGS, by Karl Marx.

Entire nations and even a continent have come under the dominance of the ideas taught by Karl Marx. His major work, Capital, is accepted in a large part of the world as revealed truth and its doctrines are looked upon as more than the economic interpretation of history; the book attempted to offer. The "Communist Manifesto", contained in this volume, framed the fiery slogans now familiar to the world.

KHRUSHCHEV REPORTS TO THE 22ND CONGRESS OF THE CPSU AND KHRUSHCHEV ON THE FUTURE.

In 2 volumes is contained the complete text of the important "Report of the Central Committee of the CPSU to the 22nd Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union." Herein is found the sweeping 20-year program for the construction of communism in the Soviet Union.

WEEK

more thoughtful reading. Sixteen books on communism have been purchased by Federations Library and will be spotlighted during Library Week. Short reviews of the volumes will appear in today's (Sunday's) and Thursday's Record.

Monday through Thursday of Library Week, the library will be opened at 12:30 p. m. to allow local citizens to drop in and make use of the library during their lunch hours.

Books - That's What They Want - World War I vets want to give to the library, with your help. New or used volumes, preferably new, are requested. All individuals, as well as clubs and organizations, are called upon by the local barracks to contribute books to or to donate money for the purchase of books by the library.

Books of a donor's selection will be appreciated, but in order for the library to continue to shelve a well-balanced selection, it is suggested prospective donors check with library officials as to the books most needed.

A complete set of books or a single volume may be donated by one or more individuals or an organization. The donor's name will be inscribed in each volume.

The veterans suggest a book donation as a memorial to a departed friend or relative.

Books of exploration, travel, factual Western frontier life and history are needed as well as technical, scientific, Bible study and interpretation, biographical and political economics volumes.

Especially needed at the library, report the veterans is the "Interpreter Bible" in 12 volumes and Clarke's Commentary, 6 volumes.

Colorado Federal Savings and Loan Association's office, 105 W. 2nd St., will be headquarters for donation and donated books. Donations and books may be left at the library during its open hours. Arrangements for the veterans to pick up donations may be made by calling Roy Harrison at RA 8-3210.

The veterans here have adopted the campaign as a memorial to their "departed buddies."

MEET

meeting will be Frank W. Mueller, manager of the State Chamber Service Department of the United States Chamber of Commerce. He will discuss "Responsibilities of Chamber Leadership."

Davidson will preside over the opening session, beginning at 9:30 a. m. Invocation will be by Rev. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Big Spring, and welcome will be extended by Joe Reeder, president of the Big Spring Chamber.

A motion picture, "What is a Chamber of Commerce?" and a coffee break will precede Mueller's address.

Champ Rainwater, WTCC director from Big Spring, will preside at the luncheon session. Speaker will be Joe Pickle, managing editor of the Big Spring Herald.

Jimmie Lovell, manager of the Dumas Chamber, will discuss the Chamber of Commerce program of work during the afternoon session, and Howard Hicks, executive vice president of the Beaumont Chamber, will speak on financing Chamber operations.

Russell Willis, manager of the Board of City Development at San Angelo, will speak on committee management.

A question and answer period will follow the presentation of each topic.

FINES

The civil suit charged both Lujan and his wife constituted a public nuisance in a dry county by repeatedly selling alcoholic beverages from the 2 houses.

The criminal charges against Lujan resulted from work here the night of Saturday, Jan. 6, and the morning of Sunday, Jan. 7, by an undercover agent and a raid of one of Lujan's houses, 1930 Plum St., at 11:30 a. m. Sunday, Jan. 7.

The raid netted 252 quarts of beer and .61-pints of wine under the floorboards of that house.

Lujan was charged with possession of beer for sale in a dry area, selling whiskey in a dry area, and selling beer and wine in a dry area early Monday, Jan. 8.

He entered a plea of not guilty to all 3 charges before Martin later the same day. He was freed that afternoon on 3 bonds that totaled $4,650 - $1,750 on the possession charge and $1,500 on each of the selling charges.

Maximum sentence Lujan could have received in the possession case was $2,000 fine and/or 2 years in jail. The normal maximum sentence for conviction of the charge is $1,000 fine and/or 1 year in jail, but the maximum is doubled where the defendant has a past conviction on the same charge as did Lujan.

Maximum sentence, for conviction on charges of selling in a dry area is $1,000 fine and/or 1 year in County Jail.

Martin said he considered the selling charge Lujan plead guilty to Friday as "aggravated" - thus the $500 fine.

Participating in the Jan. 7 raid at 1930 Plum St. were: Mitchell County Sheriff Lewis Claxton, Sheriff's Deputy Bob McGuire, Colorado City Police Chief Leon Yeager, City Patrolman Sgt. Jim Dickson, City Patrolman Jim Latham and Highway Patrolman Wendell Rehm.

Other officials to attend will include director T. L. Findley of Loraine and Mrs. Dennis Walding, local office secretary. Mrs. Baker will accompany the group.

Baker and Mrs. Walding will be included in the receiving and registration activities of the session.

Findley, as a board member, will aid in the business session.

CROWN BOWL TIPS

Scoring the Strike

While making spares is important, scoring strikes is the hardest part of scoring in bowling.

The easiest way to remember how to score a strike is to remember that a strike frame is worth the strike, 10, plus whatever you get on the next two balls.

Say, for example, you had 48 pins in the third frame and made a strike in the fourth, as shown above. You would not write the score down until you rolled the next two balls.

In the fifth frame you were unlucky to get a split, getting 7 pins on the first ball. You did not convert the split, getting nothing on the second. Thus, your total for the fourth frame would be the strike, 10; the total for the next two balls, 7; or score of 17 total for the fourth. Added to the existing 48 in the third, your total for the fourth frame would be 65. The total for the fifth would be 72.

In the sixth, you rolled a strike, likewise in the seventh. In the eighth you got seven with the first ball and spared the frame. Your score for the sixth would be the strike, 10; the next ball, also a strike, 10; and next ball, 7, giving you a total point count of 99. For the seventh frame, you would add 10 for the strike; 10 for the spare, the next two balls; and add the existing 99, for 119. (ADV.)
