The publicity mills of the Southwest Conference are grinding away at a pace almost as fast as the touchdown parade in 1969 college football, although SWC teams have found the going rocky against outside foes.

Up at Fayetteville, where the Arkansas Razorbacks are one of the exceptions in the pre-conference wars, what can you say about a team that won its first two encounters with topheavy shutouts? For one thing, you can clue people in on the concession business. The Arkansas publicists have advised that no less than 15 tons of ice was used by the soft drink vendors during the Hog-Tulsa game. Meanwhile the Porkers were winning the game by 55-0.

Texas jumped on league rival Texas Tech for a 49-7 victory, but elsewhere the touchdown parade was a skimpy procession for SWC members. The conference headquarters had a few clues to the situation: Teams of the conference have lost 22 of their 37 fumbles to the enemy and have yielded 29 pass interceptions the first two weeks of play.

But famine for their colleagues was feast for Texas and Arkansas. The Razorbacks only moved the ball a total of 268 yards to score seven touchdowns against Tulsa, an average of 38 yards per TD. Texas did even better in the mini-drive department, traveling an average of 27 yards for its seven touchdowns against Tech. And three of the Longhorn touchdowns came on "drives" aggregating only 11 yards.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 1, the 274th day of 1969. There are 91 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1936, Gen. Francisco Franco was proclaimed the head of the Spanish government.

On this date:

In 1890, the U.S. Congress transferred the Weather Bureau from the Army to the Agriculture Department.

In 1910, Japan annexed Korea.

In 1928, the Soviet Union inaugurated its first five-year plan.

In 1938, German troops crossed into the so-called Sudeten area of Czechoslovakia.

In 1943, during World War II, the U. S. Fifth Army captured the Italian city of Naples.

In 1962, Negro James H. Meredith was enrolled at the University of Mississippi in Oxford amid violence.

Ten years ago— Communist China displayed jet bombers and fighters at a Peking celebration marking the Red Government's tenth anniversary.

Five years ago —The United States dropped charges against two accused Soviet spies, saying security would be harmed by a trial.

One year ago— The Soviet Communist party and 57 other Communist parties agreed to postpone a Moscow conference.

NATIONWIDE SHUTDOWN OF RAIL SERVICE

Railroad Industry Threatens

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The railroad industry, threatened with selective strikes by shopcraft unions, has countered with a threat of its own—a nationwide shutdown of railservice.

A spokesman for the four involved unions immediately protested that the industry's announcement was aimed at forcing government intervention in the wage and work rules dispute.

But Chairman John P. Hiltz Jr. of the National Railway Labor Conference—which represents management of the nation's 76 major railroads—said the move would be taken "both in the long-range public interest and as a matter of self-survival."

He said the shutdown would be called off if unions did not strike the seven railroads they have designated as the first to feel what the industry refers to as "whipsaw" work stoppages. The strike deadline is 12:01 a.m. EDT Saturday.

The unions' chief negotiator, William W. Winpisinger, said the strikes would go as scheduled unless the industry's announcement triggers President Nixon to invoke the Railway Labor Act and postpones the work stoppages for up to 60 days.

A dispute between signalmen and the railroads last April was the most recent threat of a nationwide rail shutdown, and this week's is the third in a little over two years.

During the April dispute—which was solved without government intervention—Secretary of Labor George Shultz forecast grim consequences to the economy.

He estimated a week-long strike would put a million persons out of work in addition to the 137,000 railroad employes. A two-week work stoppage would raise it to 3 million.

Among industries hardest hit by a strike would be automobile manufacturers, which depend on rail shipments of raw materials and distribution of their products, Shultz said.

If any section of the country would be deprived of adequate transportation by a rail strike, the Railway act provides the President can create an Emergency Board to arbitrate the union-management differences.

The board could spend up to 30 days investigating both sides of the dispute and another 30 days attempting to bring about an agreement. Meanwhile, union members would be required by law to continue working.

Hiltz said "the unprecedented divide-and-conquer tactics of the four shopcraft unions leave the railroads no alternative but to take unprecedented action themselves."

The unions have designated for strikes the Sante Fe, the Great Northern, the C&O, the B&O, Southern, Illinois Central and Erie-Lackawana. They contend areas served by the railroads have other means of transportation available.

Winpisinger said the industry's move probably would nudge Nixon into creating an emergency board—a situation the unions hoped to avoid by striking only a few of the nation's railroads at one time.

Shopcraft workers now receive $3.39 an hour. They want a 10-cent-per-hour increase, extra pay for skilled workers, shift differential pay and a cost of living escalator.

Mao Tse-tung Appearance Belies Talk

By JOHN RODERICK

Associated Press Writer

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's top five leaders stood on the red walls of Peking's Forbidden City today above a half million Chinese shouting: "Long liye Chairman Mao!"

Towering over the 20th anniversary celebration of the nation he founded was Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung, 75, whose appearance again belied widespread rumors that he was either dying or dead.

Mao smiled, waved and shook the hands of dignitaries as thousands of marchers turned the vast square below him into "a sea of red flags," Peking Radio said. Mao did not address the crowd.

Standing at Mao's side was his officially designated successor, Defense Minister Lin Piao who also has been reported critically ill, Premier Chou En-lai and Politburo members Chen Po-ta and Kang Sheng, Peking Radio said.

Chou, Chen and Kang rank just below Mao and Lin in Communist China's hierarchy.

Lin, 62, delivered the keynote address, a nine-minute appeal for unity, loyalty to Mao, and continuing struggle against "American imperialism and (the Soviet Union's) social imperialism."

Quoting from Mao's works, Lin said: "If others don't attack us, we will not attack others. If others attack, we shall counter-attack." He made no mention of the two nuclear tests the Atomic Energy Commission says China detonated in the past week.

The broadcast said Mao was "in very good health" and moved about during the 2½-hour ceremony, chatting with the leaders standing with him atop the Gate of Heavenly Peace.

In a preanniversary speech, Chou said China is making nuclear weapons for defense only and "would never commit aggression against others."

The Soviet Union sent China a message of congratulations, but addressed it to "the chairman of the People's Republic," a post vacant since Liu Shao-chi was dismissed in disgrace in April.

Competition Stiffens In Grid Picks

Competition stiffened considerably last week in the Snyder Daily News Football Contest. If you missed more than three selections, you were completely out of the money and it took at least "two" to win the first prize.

Win Bunch, 3400 Fortieth Street, faltered on only two selections to take the first prize of $10. He would have logged a perfect score except for a couple of bobbles close to home. His two misses were Snyder's defeat of Lubbock Dunbar and the Hobbs victory over Mertzon in a six-man clash.

Sharing the second prize, which this week included $2.50 carried over from the previous contest due to a multiple tie, were Jessie Palo, Box 951, Snyder, and Larry Harding, 2107 Twenty - eight Street. They missed three each.

Another contest begins today, and the list of games may be found in sponsors' advertisements on the football contest page of this issue of the Snyder Daily News.

Estimate Is Due On Meat Imports

By DON KENDALLL

AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration was expected to announce today whether meat imports ths year will be enough to trigger quotas fo major suppliers such as Australia and New Zealand.

The Agriculture Department must estimate meat imports—mostly beef—every three months for the entire calendar year. If any quarterly estimate exceeds an adjusted base allocation by 10 per cent the President is directed to announce strict quotas for the remainder of the year.

The 1969 basic allocation is 998 million pounds and the trigger level 1,086.8 million. Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin on July 1 estimated the year's imports at 1,035 million pounds, not enough to trigger the quotas.

But quota-type meat imports have been increasing, and Australia and New Zealand have sought relaxation of the law. The idea has tempted administration officials who would like to do something about high retail meat prices.

Under the 1964 quota law, the President could suspend import restrictions when there is economic justification or when supplies are short.

Livestock producers, however, say beef supplies are ample. Also, they point out, cattle prices have declined steadily since peaks last June.

Chamber Has Tax Tables

A limited supply of new sales tax tables was exhausted rapidly, but more were being prepared for distribution to local merchants, the Snyder Chamber of Commerce reported this morning.

The new state sales tax rate of 3.25 per cent went into effect today. Chamber Manager Mickey Nunley said he obtained about 100 copies of a new tax table Tuesday, but they were gone in a hurry. So, Jo Anne Owens, Chamber Secretary, was preparing to photograph more today. They were due to be ready this afternoon.

NEW YORK (AP) — Australian pop singer Lana Cantrell says her next album, "The Sixth of Lana," will have a cover photograph of half of Lana without any clothes on.

The photograph, from the waist up, was taken from the side and Miss Cantrell, 24, had her arms demurely crossed in front of her.

She said she didn't really regard it as a nude picture. "I'm completely covered by my arms."

5th Annual Fair Opens Tomorrow

The Fifth Annual Scurry County Fair will open at 9 a.m. Thursday in Towle Memorial Pak.

Exhibits were being installed today and work at the two buildings used by the fair was due to continue through the night as last-minute preparations for the three-day exposition were being made.

Indoor exhibits will be in the Towle Park Barn and in the National Guard Armory.

Displays will feature livestock and poultry, field crops, textiles, baked goods, canned foods, handicrafts, educational exhibits, commercial exhibits, a flower show and an art show.

First judging session will begin at 9 a.m. Thursday when the fair grounds open. Agricultural exhibits, women's division exhibits and dairy cattle will be judged first, while judging of poultry, sheep and rabbits will begin at 10 a.m. and judging of beef cattle will begin at 1:30 p.m. Swine will be judged at 9 a.m Friday.

Meanwhile, the flower show and art show will be in progress in the armory, which also will be the site of commercial exhibits.

There will be activity at the fair grounds from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day during the fair, and a carnival will be in operation on the fair grounds throughout the event.

Apollo 12 Crew's Plans Revealed

By JIM STROTHMAN

AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 12 astronauts may stroll more than half a mile from their moon landing craft next month.

Also, they plan to collect rocks with far greater scientific finesse than Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., were able to employ on mankind's first lunar scavenger hunt.

Apollo 12 Commander Charles Conrad rates chances as "50-50" that he will be able to land close enough to an unmanned Surveyor spacecraft now on the moon's Ocean of Storms so that he and astronaut Alan L. Bean can bring pieces of it back to earth.

All this was revealed in an impromptu press briefing by Navy Cmdr. Conrad and Lt. Cmdr. Bean Tuesday following a dress rehearsal of their moon walk.

Meanwhile, the third Apollo 12 astronaut—Navy Cmdr. Richard F. Gordon Jr.—helped crews at the launch pad with a countdown rehearsal test for the scheduled Nov. 14 liftoff.

Gordon will remain in moon orbit in the Apollo 12 command ship while Conrad and Bean spend some 31 hours on the surface, including seven hours outside the lunar module landing craft.

Mission rules will let the two crewmen wander 3,000 feet, or about two thirds of a mile, to visit the Surveyor.

Their emergency oxygen supply, needed if their main backpacks fail, has enough oxygen to keep them alive 15 to 20 minutes.

A color television camera that can beam live coverage of their lunar activities to earth has been built and "if it can be flight qualified in time, will be aboard," Conrad said.

The moonmen plan to make two excursions outside the landing craft, each lasting about 3½ hours and separated by an eight-hour rest period.

First priority has been given to setting up an elaborate set of experiments, Conrad said.

Conrad and Bean will collect samples of moon rocks documented in great detail.

Each rock will be photographed from several angles—with a color scale alongside—before it is picked up, Conrad said, and will be placed in a numbered bag.

Holdridge Service Is Set Thursday

Funeral is set for 4 p.m. Thursday at the Hermleigh United Methodist Church for Jess Raymond Holdridge, 59, who died Monday afternoon.

The body will lie in repose at the church from 3 p.m. until the funeral rites begin. The Rev. Claude Nixon and the Rev. Fred Boatman will officiate, and burial will be in the Hermleigh Cemetery, under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Bill Hairston, Doyle Parmer, A. K. Bayless, August Cajanek, Boyce Jones and Hollis Ward. Honorary pallbearers will be W. B. McDowell and Quast Withers, and all county employes of Precinct No. 4.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Your answers to other people's problems are so wise, maybe you can help me with mine, tho I believe it's hopeless.

My husband and I have been married for 27 years, raised three children, and now we have grandchildren. He traveled for a living and made little effort to hide his cheating. He calmly told me (when I caught him) that it meant "nothing."

I have offered him his freedom a dozen times, but he always refused it, saying he loved only me.

He has never wanted friends. Never knew a neighbor. I have raised the children alone, covering up for him, helping him in his office. We are financially well off, but what good is the money?

I am 5 feet tall and weigh 105 pounds and am told repeatedly that I look like a sister to my daughters. My husband has gained 50 pounds since our wedding and doesn't even think of dieting.

He keeps talking about how crazy he is about blonde hair. (My hair is as dark as yours, Abby. In fact people say we look alike.)

Please don't tell me I've been a doormat. I know that. What else have I been doing wrong?

HAVE BEEN MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: You may not have tried hard enough to improve your miserable lot. No man will give up his cake if he can have it, too. And for 27 years yours has been having a ball in a bakery.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Never in my whole life have I been so confused about a problem as I am now.

A few weeks ago, my roommate came home from the hospital after minor surgery, and was sleeping peacefully after having taken pain pills and a sedative. Her boyfriend of long standing was just about to leave when I got the shock of my life!

He tried to get involved with me in a very private way. Need I say anything more?

Should I tell my sick, but recovering friend? It would hurt her beyond words, yet I think she ought to know what kind of "man" he is.

Maybe ignorance IS bliss, but for me to have such knowledge is a very painful burden. Help!

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: The word from here is "Mum." The heel will probably confess it to his girl friend fearing that you might tell on him. But even if he doesn't, this is not the kind of information one passes on to a friend.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I recently learned that my husband's grandmother was very much offended by the letter I wrote thanking her for our wedding gift. It seems that everyone in the family calls her "Nanna" but not being aware of this, I addressed her as "Mrs. Smith" in the salutation, and twice again in the body of the letter!

Abby, she never asked ME to call her "Nanna." In fact, I don't recall that she ever asked me to call her anything.

Quite frankly, since I have seen her only a few times I thought the formal "Mrs. Smith" would be more appropriate — and anything more familiar would be a bit presumptuous.

Why can't people read a "thank you" letter and appreciate its sincerity and promptness without trying to find something wrong with it?

CAN'T WIN

DEAR CAN'T: Some can. But not Nanna.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO MOTHER OF FOUR DAUGHTERS: Yes, I tell mothers to teach their daughters how to cook, iron, and keep a neat house. But I tell them also that there is something even more important in marriage. Girls should know how to cuddle a man, entertain him, listen to him, laugh with him, forgive him, and make his home a "happy" place to come home to. I have heard from hundreds of divorced women who whine, "—But I always kept a spotless home, and I was an excellent cook, and the dirty rat left me."

* * *

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Chrisco Gets Life Sentence

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP) — Bobbie Eugene Chrisco, 23, has received a life prison sentence in the slaying of Big Spring pet shop owner A.D. Blount.

A jury found Chrisco guilty of murder with malice Tuesday.

The state had asked for the death penalty. The prosecution asked that Chrisco be found guilty of aggravated assault.

Chrisco testified he held a gun on Blount, but when he saw the pet store owner's son approaching he began to leave.

He said his companion, Randall Crain, 23, then took the gun and fired on Blount.

Crain also is charged in the murder. He is scheduled to be tried later.

Rae Bourbon, 76, is charged as an accomplice in the slaying. Chrisco said Bourbon wanted him to "punch Blount in the nose" because Blount allegedly killed several of Bourbon's dogs.

Blount's widow said a dispute flared between her husband and Bourbon over some 70 dogs, 5 cats and two skunks left in the pet shop. She testified Bourbon had refused to pay his bill for boarding the animals.

Job Discrimination Suit Dropped

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A suit against the city Public Service Board alleging job discrimination was dropped Tuesday after the utility agreed to abandon several employment and promotion requirements.

The Mexican-American Legal Defense and Education Fund filed the suit in federal court on behalf of three Spanish-surnamed men who alleged they were refused jobs by the Public Service Board because of their race.

Pete Tijerina, general counsel for the legal defense fund, said lawyers for both sides reached an agreement on the case as the suit was being readied for presentation.

Chief U.S. Dist. Judge Adrian Spears, presiding over court proceedings in the case, called the settlement a "giant step forward" for San Antonians.

Coed Posed In Nude For Rice

HOUSTON (AP) — "I did it for Rice," says the comely coed whose nude photograph appears [illegible] book.

The publication, [illegible] Campanile, is due out Thursday with a picture of Marilyn Penelope Johnson in the altogether and, for good measure, a smaller one of Dennis Rex Bahler also unclad.

Both 22, they were among 15 seniors chosen as outstanding students by the student body.

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Willard Johnson of Quincy, Ill., and Bahler's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Dean R. Bahler of West Lafayette, Ind.

"We tried to capture some sort of their personality," Campanile co-editor Gary Grether said. "Penelope suggested a nude shot of herself because that is the only time a person is shown as her true self."

Miss Johnson is now a graduate student at State University of New York in Buffalo seeking a doctor's degree in English.

"I did it for Rice and the Rice community," she said. "But I don't want to talk about it because that puts it into a class of a publicity stunt."

Miss Johnson appears sitting against a white background with her arms around her knees, Grether said. The photo is full page.

Bahler's full view catches him clothed, but there is a one inch by a half inch inset showing him nude.

He had no public comment.

Co-editor Conrad Boeck said there is "definite artistic value" in the photographs.

Dr. Frank Vandiver, acting university president, said he deeply deplored what the editors were publishing, but defended their right to publish it.

The student senate has editorial control over the yearbook.

County Court Pleas Heard

Earnest James pleaded guilty in county court yesterday to four liquor law violations. Three of them were for illegal possession and one was for illegal transportation of intoxicating beverages.

He was handed a $200 fine plus court costs and a 90-day jail term on each count. The jail terms will run concurrently. However, the fines and court costs totaled $976. James was apprehended by Sheriff's Authorities.

On Monday, Felton Mardell Stephens pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated and he received a $100 fine plus $44 court costs and a 30-day jail term. The jail term portion of the sentence was probated for one year. The offense occurred March 28.

Also on Monday, Donald Poindexter of Winters was charged with driving while his license was suspended. Ths offense allegedly occurred Aug. 2.

Estimate

farm price report issued Tuesday said average beef cattle prices at mid-September were $26 a hundredweight, down $1 from August. It was the third straight monthly drop since June when the average was a near-record $29.60 per hundredweight.

But the report also pointed out that the September price still was 10 per cent more than a year ago and the most for the month since the record period in 1951.

At the same time hog prices were $24.80 per hundredweight, down sharply from $26 in August. However, the department said the average was 27 per cent more than a year ago and was the highest for September since 1948.

Lower prices for cattle and hogs were said to be the main reasons for a 1.5 per cent drop in the farm price index at mid-September, the third monthly decline since June.

An Agriculture Department official said there was a possibility that farm prices for cattle and hogs may regain some of their earlier strength in the next couple of months. Much depends on total meat supplies, he said.

Gina Meets Astronauts

MEXICO CITY (AP) — "They are so human, they should be an example for those people who think they are more important than God," an admiring Gina Lollobrigida said after meeting the American astronauts of Apollo 11 Tuesday.

Gina and the three American astronauts—Michael Collins, Edwin Aldrin and Neil Armstrong—were in Mexico at the same time; Gina to film two television specials and the American astronauts on a goodwill mission.

"They are wonderful people, they and their wives," the Italian actress said after visiting with the astronauts for more than two hours Monday night in her suite in a Mexico City hotel following a reception at the American embassy.

Gina had wanted to meet the three astronauts when she first heard that they were in town. She had to go through some red tape to get herself an invitation to the embassy reception and there she invited the astronauts and their wives for a visit.

"They are so sincere," she said. "They were joking and laughing. They invited me on their next trip to the moon. I invited them to visit me when they come to Rome."

She added, "Armstrong said he always wanted to meet me. I told him I wanted to meet them ever since their moon flight. I have a collection of photographs with famous people including Soviet Cosmonaut Gagarin."

Hidden Taxes Are Passed On To Texas Taxpayers

Editors: The man on the street not only pays the taxes he can see. He is also paying the tax bill for the big corporations and the small stores he deals with and sell the things he buys. Here is a look at the hidden tax situation, the third of a four-part series.)

TEXAS TAXES—III 750

By LEE JONES

Associated Prss Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — Some taxes you can see. They are on the surface, and you know when you pay them. Like sales taxes. Or property taxes.

But others are hidden in the prices you pay for products or services.

The buried taxes are the state, local and federal taxes businesses pay and pass on to customers.

When you buy a house you are reimbursing the builder for the sales taxes he paid on cement, nails, lumber, shingles and floor tiles. You also are helping him pay his state franchise tax. Plus his state and local property taxes.

It is hard to say how much of the price of a product is made up of hidden taxes.

A Texas boat manufacturer says taxes are only 1.5 per cent of his costs—and, presumably, 1.5 per cent of the wholesale price of each boat. The buyer, of course, also would pick up the wholesaler and retailer's taxes, plus those he will pay as a boat user.

Another product, beer, goes under the sales tax Wednesday for the first time, with drinkers paying a direct tax of 4.25 cents on the dollar in most major towns.

For years they have been paying state and federal excise taxes of four cents on a bottle of beer, or 24 cents on a six-pack. They will keep on paying them.

Texas has numerous business taxes that usually are passed on to consumers in higher prices. Some were boosted by the legislature this summer.

Natural gas producers were one business group hit in the tax bill. Their rate will rise from 7 to 7.5 per cent of the market value of gas produced. This probably will raise the price to out of state buyers as well as Texans.

Oil is taxed at 4.6 per cent of market value. The sulphur tax is $1.40 per long ton. Cement producers pay 2.75 cents per 100 pounds.

Corporations pay "franchise taxes" to do business in Texas, and their taxes will rise by an estimated $126.6 million over the next two years as a result of the new tax bill.

There also are several "gross receipts" taxes, including a 2.5 per cent levey on telephone company revenue and a 1.997 per cent tax on utility company income. Insurance policy holders help pay "gross premiums" taxes that range from 1.1 per cent on domestic life, accident and health insurance companies to 3.85 per cent on certain casualty and guaranty firms.

Anybody who buys from chain stores helps pay a punitive tax passed in the 1930s to discourage big chain operations from competing with neighborhood "mom and pop" stores. The tax ranges from $4 for a single store to $825 for each store over 50 in a chain.

Very few will defend the corporation franchise tax. It taxes a company's capital structure, not its money-making ability. But when the legislature wants to tax business, it usually tunkers with the franchise tax.

The latest effort does two two things. It boosts the rate per $1,000 of taxable capital from $2.75 to $3.25 for three years then drops it to $3. And it injects a new element into the method used to determine how much of a company's total business is based on its Texas operations, an important factor in computing the tax.

Where formerly only a company's dealings between two Texas points could be counted, now all sales to customers in Texas—whether from within or without the state—will be used.

One of the big debates that ranged all through both special sessions of the legislature this summer was over how big a share of new taxes should be paid by consumers and how much by business.

Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, chairman of the House Tax Committee, was one who thought this was a phony distinction. Atwell and other conservatives said the only fair tax is a direct consumer tax that cannot be hidden.

"There is no tax the consumer doesn't pay somewhere down the line," Atwell said.

The Texas Manufacturers Association, a major business lobby group, admits there are ways to shift the burden of business taxes besides raising prices.

A firm might absorb new taxes by cutting profits or by reducing overhead—such as eliminating jobs, said John Haddad, assistant to the executive vice president and director of governmental research for the TMA.

"So the individual pays, whether he is a corporation stockholder or a consumer," said Haddad.

Jim McGrew of the Texas Research League said a firm also can cut its retained earnings for plant expansion.

Liberals and organized labor said business taxes are better because they can be passed on partly to out-of-state customers. "Much of what they make and manufacture in Texas is sold in other states. We in Texas are helping to balance the Michigan budget," said Texas AFL-CIO President H.S. Brown.

Brown repeatedly warned the legislature that any new consumer tax would backfire on law makers because of a "taxpayers revolt."

2 Mishaps Are Logged

Minor damage resulted from two motor vehicle mishaps that occurred here yesterday.

One occurred at 12:02 p.m. on Avondale at Fortieth Street. Damage to the 1960 Model Ford of Debra Kay McGlaun, 2341 Sunset, was placed at $75, and damage to the 1968 Model Honda motorcycle of Joe Mark Adams, 216 Thirty-first Street, was set at $25.

The other mishap occurred at 6:39 a.m. Tuesday at the intersection of Avenue S and Thirty-seventh Street. Involved were the 1964 Model Volkswagen of Fern Giles Farmer, 1104 Twenty-eighth Street, and the 1963 Model International pickup of Jesse Bryan Tate, Route 2. Damage to the pickup was estimated at $200, and damage to the car was placed at $150.

Connally Attacks Tax Reform Bill

DALLAS (AP) — Former Gov. John Connally said Tuesday the tax reform bill now before Congress "is ill conceived in terms of national interest," and would create a "substantial recession or depression" if passed in its present form.

"The bill was written in an atmosphere with emotional overtones without regard to its ultimate impact on the economic vitality of the nation," Connally said.

He had just returned from Washington where he testified before the Senate Finance Committee on the bill.

The former governor referred to such points in the bill as the reduction of the 27½ per cent oil depletion tax allowable, the change in the tax-free status of local bond interest and changes in tax depreciation and deduction schedules.

"The bill is so complex that it has been properly called the lawyers' and accountants' relief act of 1969," Connally declared.

He said the Nixon administration's position on the bill has been clouded by statements made by Treasury officials.

Bond Posted By Suspect

Thomas S. Huff, 23, 613 Northwest Second, Seminole, was released on $750 bond yesterday after he was charged in Justice of the Peace Jimmie Billingsley's Court Monday with carrying a prohibited weapon.

He was apprehended at 12:37 a.m. last Saturday by Police Patrolman Kenneth Langford and Sergeant D'Wayne Jernigan as he traveled west on the East Highway. Officers said they took custody of a sawed-off .22 caliber rifle.

Chief of Police Stephen Clark said the suspect was interviewed by three agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who said they will file federal charges for carrying an unregistered firearm, illegal possession of a dangerous weapon, and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon.

Desert's Beauty Is Spoiled By Residents

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — "Californians are loving their desert to death," says a new booklet distributed by the U.S. Bureau of Land Management.

The vast area—larger than West Virginia— is attracting new residents by the thousands because of its dry, smog-free air, balmy nights and ever-increasing recreational developments.

The result, says the bureau, is litter and vandalism that are spoiling the area's natural beauty.

'Sex Week' Set At University

By TERRY RYAN

Associated Press Writer

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Starting next Monday it's "Sex Week" at the University of Nevada [illegible] feature, sponsors say, talks on such topics as lesbianism, communal living and rape.

"The name is a little misleading," says Roberta Barnes, dean of women. "Basically, it is a program that deals with current issues and social problems."

"Sex Week," so named by the Associated Women Students, its sponsors, includes films on sex education and a university health department presentation on birth control, planned parenthood and premarital sex.

"These are timely and contemporary topics we are interested in," said Toni Karagosian, vice president of the Associated Women Students. "I am not certain we have all the facts about them."

Money to finance "Sex Week" came from students fees.

The discussion of lesbianism will be led by Rita Laporte, president of the Daughters of Balitis, a San Francisco-based organization which defends female homosexuality.

A show will be staged in the campus gymnasium by members of Messiah's World Crusade, a communal living group that travels with band, chorus and speakers to spread its message.

"Assaults on Women and Their Prevention" will be dealt with by the Reno police department. There will be a fashion show, titled "Sexuality in Fashion."

"I just hope people are curious enough to come and ask questions," Miss Karagosian said. "They should be. These are problems in the world around us."

The Independent American party, Nevada version of George C. Wallace's third party, has passed a resolution censuring Gov. Paul Laxalt and the university administration for allowing "Sex Week."

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED — Miss Deborah Short, bride-elect of Mr. Ronald Ray Hall of Fort Worth, was honored with a gift coffee Saturday morning at Snyder Country Club. The chosen colors of avocado green and gold were carried out in the decor. Appointments were in crystal and silver. Hostesses were Mmes. E. D. Walton, Dalton Walton, Travis Hatter, B. L. McKinley, M. K. Stevenson, W. C. Rasberry, Ed Bolger, Sam Joyce, Paul Harris, Wayne Gladson, Hazel Hanback, J. D. James, Charles Snyder, Amon F. Weaver, B. D. Bruyere and R. V. Williamson. Pictured above from left, Mrs. Earl Hall of Fort Worth, mother of the prospective groom, Miss Short, and Mrs. Rupert Short, mother of the bride-to-be. The couple will exchange vows on October 25th.

A Coffee Cake That Really Is

A peach pie is made with peaches. You'll find apples in apple strudel. But a coffee cake doesn't have any coffee in it.

It doesn't unless it's coffee coffee-cake, one that's made with the real thing.

If you're a coffee lover and you want something different in a coffee cake, try this "Coffee" Coffee-Cake as developed in the test kitchens. It has a pleasant, not-too-strong coffee flavor that will have your family and guests asking for more. "Coffee".

COFFEE-CAKE

1 cup coffee (lukewarm and strong)
½ cup white sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 cakes compressed or active dry yeast
2 eggs
½ cup soft shortening
4½-5 cups flour
2 tablespoons butter (softened)
1 1½ ounce-can prepared date, pecan or almond pastry filling, or make you own raisin filling.

Raisin filling:

1 cup raisins
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup chopped nuts
¼ cup coffee

Mix together 1 cup coffee, white sugar, and salt. Crumble or sprinkle yeast in mixture, stirring until yeast is dissolved. Add eggs and shortening. Add flour, mixing first with a spoon, then kneading.

Place mixture in greased bowl, turning once to bring greased side up. Cover with a damp cloth and allow to rise in warm, draft-free spot until "loaf" doubles its size (approximately 1½-2 hours).

On a lightly floured board, punch down and divide dough in four parts. With rolling pin, roll each part into a 9-inch circle. Spread 2 circles with softened butter, then top with prepared date, pecan, or almond cake and pastry filling or blended mixture of raisins, brown sugar, nuts and ¼ cup coffee.

Place remaining circles on filling; press edges firmly. Place in lightly greased 9-inch round cake pans. Brush top of cakes with melted butter. Let rise until double (about 45 minutes).

Bake in a 375 degree oven for 35 minutes. Let stand 5 minutes and remove cakes from pans. Drizzle coffee confectioners' sugar icing over cakes while they are still warm.

COFFEE CONFECTIONERS SUGAR ICING

1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
1½-2 tablespoons warm coffee

Mix above ingredients well to frost cake.

Cotton is 7,000 years old.

Fresh Salmon Mousse Is Popular

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Judging by the number of times we have been asked for the recipe, we've decided that Fresh Salmon Mousse is a dish cooks like to serve for a company lunch or add to a supper buffet.

So here is an excellent rule for just such a dish. We like this recipe not only because it produces a mousse of good flavor, but because it is simple to prepare. The fresh lemon juice and grated lemon rind included in the recipe enhance the delicate flavor of the fish, but it's a good idea to serve lemon wedges with the mousse for those eaters who want to add extra piquancy.

Now about the salmon that needs to be cooked before you make the mousse. To do so, bring 1½ cups of water and 1 teaspoon of salt to a boil in a skillet large enough to hold the fish sticks in a single layer. Add the salmon and simmer for about 10 minutes or until the fish looks opaque through when flaked with a fork. Drain the salmon and cool, then remove skin and bones and flake.

FRESH SALMON MOUSSE

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
2 large eggs
1 tablespoon sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons dry mustard
1 container (8 ounces) commercial sour cream
1 teaspoon freshly grated lemon rind
3 tablespoons freshly squeezed lemon juice
2 tablespoons minced scallion (green onion), white part only
1 cup finely diced celery
2 fresh salmon steaks (each ½ pound) cooked, skin removed and coarsely flaked
Salad greens, lemon wedges and radish roses for garnish

In a cup sprinkle gelatine over cold water and allow to stand 5 minutes to soften.

In a small bowl beat eggs until they begin to thicken and are lemon color.

In a medium saucepan thoroughly stir together the sugar, salt and mustard; stir in eggs, softened gelatin and sour cream. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin is dissolved and mixture is quite warm — about 5 minutes; do not boil. Off heat stir in lemon rind, lemon juice, scallion, celery and salmon. Turn into a 1-quart mold; chill until firm.

At serving time, unmold; garnish with salad greens, lemon wedges and radish roses. Makes 6 servings.

FRESH SALMON MOUSSE — Delightful to serve at a buffet lunch or supper.

Ham Salad Is Answer For Slow Appetite

"It's hot; too hot to eat," moans the family. Then they proceed to eat three meals a day, seven days a week.

Arouse appetites with a meat dish like this delicious main dish ham salad.

HAM SALAD TROPICAL

2 cups cooked ham, cut julienne strips
½ cup diced celery
2-3 cup diced pineapple, drained
1 tablespoon chopped sweet pickle
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 tablespoon French dressing
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 large ripe banana
Flaked coconut, if desired

Combine ham, celery, pineapple and sweet pickle. Mix mayonnaise, French dressing and mustard. Add to salad ingredients and mix lightly. Chill. Just before serving peel banana and cut in ¼ inch - thick slices. Fold carefully into salad mixture. Serve on crisp salad greens. Sprinkle top of salad with flaked coconut if desired. 5 to 6 servings.

Another Test Due Between Car Makers And Public

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—A test is coming later this year between the never-to-be-underestimated sales skills of the automotive manufacturers and a public that has become a bit suspicious and financially tightfisted.

For 50 years or so the remarkable sales efforts of the carmakers—involving high pressure, low pressure, psychology, sex and, it has been claimed, outright deceit—generated a mania for wheels among Americans.

A car became not only a transport vehicle that open up brand new pastimes and created new needs, but it became a symbol of success even when simply an inert pile of metal parked outside a house.

Each year the new models evolved as regularly as the seasons, and as far into the future as any auto man could peer, all that could be seen was a succession of more "seasons."

Almost every year the sales figures increased, and now the Big Three automakers are sprawling enterprises employing hundreds of thousands of workers. Financially they are more powerful than some industrial nations.

Each year, this year included, the industry's leaders projected what appeared to be astronomical sales figures, but in more instances than not they reached them. This year the forecast is for 9.5 million car sales—and a sales test.

The obstacles come from different points in time. Of immediate danger to forecasts is that prices have been increased at the very time that consumer resistance may be stiffening. Every important measure of consumer confidence is falling now. People are watching their money.

Even though sales of the 1970 models shot off the mark—in September alone sales totaled 645,000 units, or 80,000 more than in September 1968—doubts are growing that the pace can be maintained.

Already some authorities in the industry are forecasting a decline in sales right through the end of 1969. And 1970 remains in doubt, an economic riddle.

Some forecasters foresee the economic boom continuing in 1970, and that carries with it the suggestion that car sales could boom too. But the official government view is different. It calls for a slowdown, and if that happens car sales will become sluggish also.

Just as important as the financial and economic considerations, almost any auto man will concede, is the increasingly critical view that Americans take of their new cars, no matter how throaty the engine or resonant the door. Once they ran their hand over the paint; now they lift the hood.

Moreover, despite their affluence, many Americans are realizing that cars can be expensive to operate. Garage charges continue to rise. So do insurance rates, taxes, parking tickets.

At 11 cents a mile—the government estimate—you could cross the continent by air for less than it could cost by automobile, a shocking realization for those who continue to regard their vehicles as metal slaves that work for nothing.

Will all these factors—deterioration of consumer confidence, a probable downturn in the economy, the increasingly critical attitude of buyers—hinder the automakers significantly?

You couldn't tell it from their own forecasts, which call for sales of 13.5 million cars and trucks in the year 1975. Nor do the independent surveys and forecasts call for any great lessening of demand.

The National Industrial Conference Board, for example, foresees a continued bullish market in the 1970s, basing its conclusions on the prospect of increasingly younger and richer families.

Based solely on population and financial prospects, the market certainly will be there. But it is unlikely that ever again will it be the docile, receptive, uncritical market of years gone by.

The sales ingenuity of the car people is going to be tested. Just because, statistically, the market is there doesn't mean they'll get it. But neither can anyone ever underestimate the marketing skills of Detroit.

Junior Editors Quiz on WORMS

QUESTION: What causes worms to crawl out of the ground when it rains?

• • •

ANSWER: If you call someone "You little worm" (we hope you are never impolite enough to do so), you are implying that the person addressed is a squirmy bit of nothing. Yet, although the worm looks like nothing, it is much more complicated inside than the average person realizes. It has a mouth, a brain — even if only a tiny one — nerve cords, a digestive system and an amazing collection of 10 hearts. If you were to tell Bill in our picture about a worm's brains he'd say "Okay, so why didn't they use them to stay in their burrows when the rain was driving so hard last night?" What Bill fails to realize is that, like the higher animals, an earthworm has to breathe air. Underground, an earthworm can get his air from the many tiny airpockets in the soil. But driving, soaking rain tends to fill up these pockets with water, so the earthworm seeks the surface to get his quota of air. On the surface, however, the unfortunate little worm is often trapped. His skin is very sensitive. Daylight and the colder upper air often prove fatal.

Remarks Hippies Tire Of

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — He marks that a hippie gets tired of hearing:

"So he's your child, is he? He looks more like walking crabgrass to me."

"How many times have you changed the world this week, Ronnie?"

"Why is it that every time we start a protest march, it begins to rain?"

"Ronnie thinks he's punishing his parents, but actually they are glad to pay him money to stay away from home. He was beginning to give the neighborhood a bad name."

"Young man, if I give you bus fare, will you go to the barber college and ask them for a free haircut?"

"There's nothing in the refrigerator, Ronnie, except a can of beans."

"Suppose the millennium does come, and we don't like it either. What do we do then?"

"Well, if you insist on going barefoot, Ronnie, you have to expect to pick up a little glass in your feet until they toughen up."

"This is your last notice, fellow. Pay up your rent or out you go. This is a rooming house I'm running, not a charitable institution."

"I don't mind wearing these glass love beads right now, Ronnie, but of course if we get really engaged I'll expect you to buy me a diamond ring."

"Why is it you kids want to tear down society, but have no plans to build something in its stead?"

"Is that what a real live hippie looks like, Sam? Back where I come from we'd just call him a bum."

"Sorry, son, I couldn't lend you even two-bits on that peacock feather. You'll have to try and pawn it some place else."

"Ronnie would like to go to India and become a mystic, but he doesn't know how to hitchhike to India."

"There's only one way to tell if he's a genuine hippie. Offer him a job and see if he turns pale."

"Stop it, Ronnie. You're scratching yourself in public again."

"I know I should practice my yoga exercises, Ronnie, but it's hard to hold the lotus position on an empty stomach."

"We got thrown out of our pad. Is it all right if the four of us bunk in with you for a week or two?"

"There's nothing in the refrigerator, Ronnie. Absolutely nothing. Oh, I get so tired of all this freedom. I want to go home."

Lamar 9th Has Best Local Record

After three weeks of action, Snyder football teams have won two more games than they have lost against outside opposition, and Lamar 9th is the only undefeated, untied, local team with a perfect 3-0 record.

Last week, Snyder teams won three of five contests, boosting the record to eight wins against six losses and two ties for the season.

The junior varsity is the highest scoring local team; having compiled 114 points in three outings while the Lamar 9th grade team has the best defensive record, having yielded only 12 points against three foes.

This week, Lamar 8th grade is at Colorado City for a 5:30 p.m. contest Thursday while Lamar 9th will be at Stamford for a 7:30 p.m. tilt the same day. The varsity will be at Colorado City for a 7:30 p.m. skirmsh Friday while the junior varsity will be at Sweetwater for a 6:30 p.m. game Saturday.

The records:

The Wolves Will Be High-Coach Tyrone

Darrell Raines was elected Wolves, the head Tiger mentor counted for almost 1,000 yards said they employ the same type offense in only three games. He of offensive and defensive alignments that Snyder uses. He praised Steve Vest, Colorado City quarterback, as being a smooth passer, who also likes to run from the pocket. David Garcia was called their best runner. Other Wolves who were singled out for praise include wingback Stanley Bracey, end Larry Holder and end Carl Devorce, a 252-pound junior. Colorado City's strength is in its passing attack, but the Wolves also like to use the quick pitch, dive play and power sweep.

Vest can hurt an opponent with the bootleg, and the backs also are good receivers. Bracey has 9.8 speed and is a dangerous target on long passes.

Fortunately, Tyrone pointed out, the Bengals have lettermen at virtually all of the secondary positions. This experience could help the Tigers stop the Wolves' passing attack. Hopefully, the Tigers can negate several completions with an interception.

Tyrone was lavish in his praise of the Colorado City quarterback, pointing out Vest has accounted for almost 1,000 yards of offense and defense. He has a regular signal caller, although Lamesa saw plenty of action at that position last night.

Films of last week's 13-10 triumph over Dunbar bore out what everyone already knew — the Tigers played a whale of a ball game. Although Tyrone commended the boys for a "great team effort," he observed that Steve Dillaha and Ricky Glasscock put forth outstanding efforts on defense. Willis Harrison, of course, turned in perhaps the two key offensive plays, scoring on an end sweep and a 93-yard kickoff return. Blocking on both plays was exceptional, and Willis simply outran the safety men on both plays.

The film also revealed that a Dunbar defender was holding Mark Gilstrap's jersey on a pass play when the Bengals were threatening from the Panther five late in the second quarter. This apparently prevented the Tiger back from getting in the clear, and the infraction was not spotted by the officials.

Tyrone also complimented the reserves. "Norman Davis did a good job, and he's going to be a big help next year," he said. Mike Line and Mike Glasscock also came up with some key tackles, and the film clearly revealed that all of the boys tried their best.

Darrell Raines was elected last night in the high school cafeteria. He will replace Bruce Gardner, who is moving to Denver, Colo.

Eugene Classcock, club president, announced that a car caravan will form at the high school at 6:15 p.m. Friday for the trip to Colorado City. The pep rally will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday.

The Club approved payment of part of the cost for booster signs that are placed in car windows each week prior to the Tiger games.

Coach Wayne Tyrone pointed out this week's foe — Colorado City — will be "high" for the game. He reminded members that the Wolves have a 2-1 record and a good ball team.

"It's true they have a lot of sophomores," he admitted, "but those sophs are big — they have as much size as we do."

Tyrone said it will be difficult for the Tigers to win at Colorado City since the "psychology is in their favor." Discussing the

Tigers Holding Own In 3-AAA

Strange as it may seem, Snyder's Tigers are holding their own after meeting the strongest three football teams in the league. The fighting Tigers have a 1-1-1 record after taking on Lamesa, Estacado and Dunbar in 1-2-3- order.

Perhaps the next biggest surprise in 3-AAA circles is the fact that Lamesa is the only undefeated, untied team in the district after three weeks of action. The Tors shaded Snyder 7-6 and then shut out Levelland 14-0 and whacked Slaton 66-7.

Estacado is the only other unbeaten team in 3-AAA, although the defending state champions were tied 7-7 by Snyder.

Dunbar, Slaton, Colorado City and Sweetwater all sport 2-1 records. The Panthers are probably the strongest of the four, having lost only to Snyder by a 10-13 count.

Littlefield and Levelland both are 1-2 for the season while Brownfield and Lake View share the cellar with 0-3 marks.

Zone play will not begin until Oct. 17, but right now it looks like a three-way fight between Lamesa, Estacado and Dunbar in one zone with Snyder, Levelland and Sweetwater probably the toughest teams in the other zone.

Estacado is the highest scoring team, having compiled 129 points against three opponents. Colorado City is the only other team to post 100 points. Lamesa and Dunbar share defensive honors, having given up only 13 points each.

This week's feature tilt pits Snyder against the Wolves at Colorado City. The Sweetwater at Lamesa game also should attract considerable interest since it will afford local fans the first chance to see how the pre-season favorite in Snyder's zone will stack up against a foe the Tigers already have met. Dunbar and Estacado will be heavily favored over Levelland and Slaton respectively while the Brownfield at Lakeview tilt rates as a tossup.

The season records:

DISTRICT 3-AAA
(Season Standings)

Team	W	L	T	Pts	Opp
Lamesa	3	0	0	87	13
Estacado	2	0	1	129	20
Dunbar	2	1	0	99	13
C. City	2	1	0	100	54
Sweetwater	2	1	0	58	79
Slaton	2	1	0	46	87
Snyder	1	1	1	26	24
Levelland	1	2	0	32	93
Littlefield	1	2	0	34	109
Lake View	0	3	0	41	85
Brownfield	0	3	0	7	112

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS — Snyder 13, Dunbar 10; I. M. Terrell 39, Sweetwater 0; Lamesa 66, Slaton 7; Colorado City 28, Brownfield 7; Littlefield 34, Lake View 20; Estacado 72, Levelland 13.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE— Snyder at Colorado City; Sweetwater at Lamesa; Brownfield at Lakeview; Levelland at Dunbar (Thursday); Slaton at Estacado (Saturday); Littlefield at Tulia.

Hobbs, Gail Have Best Area Records

Area football teams split evenly last week with two victories against two losses. However, they're behind for the season, having won only four of 11 contests.

Gail blanked Union 16-0 last week while Hobbs was putting down Mertzon 34-14. The losers were Hermleigh — 14-46 victim at Central Catholic — and Ira — 20-49 loser to Christoval.

This Friday, Ira hosts O'Brien and Hobbs entertains Benjamin while Hermleigh visits Roscoe and Gail journeys to Southland.

For the season, Hobbs has both the best offensive and defensive records. The Panthers have scored 92 pooints against three opponents, while giving up 46. Hobbs and Gail both have 2-1 records.

Season records:

AREA TEAMS

Team	W	L	T	Pts	Opp
Hobbs	2	1	0	92	46
Gail	2	1	0	78	62
Hermleigh	0	2	0	34	94

Net Team Puts Down Big Spring

The Snyder High School tennis team defeated Big Spring 13-7 here yesterday with the boys winning seven of 10 matches and the girls taking six of 10.

Ronnie Maddux, competing in No. 1 boys singles, bested Stewart Bunn 6-3, 4-6, 8-6. In boys doubles, Max Falls and Ronnie Maddux teamed up again to put down Geren Martin and Steve Burnett 6-1, 6-2.

Linda Miller and D'Anna Boles beat Martha Boadle and Pat Dickens 6-3, 3-6, 6-1 in girls' doubles. Linda lost in the No. 1 singles, 5-7, 3-6 to Karen King.

Other Snyder team members who won included Bebo Boren, Terry Book and Boordon Wooten in boys singles and Boren and Book in boys doubles. D'Anna Boles, Joan Braziel and Nancy McGinnis were victorious in girls singles matches while Pam Smith and Becky Simms and Linda Thompson and Anna Lou Thompson captured matches in girls doubles.

Also competing for Snyder were Larry Hatfield, William Rasco, Sherry Ragland and Theresa Darby.

The Snyder boys now are 3-0 while the girls are 1-2. Snyder will host Sweetwater at 3 p.m. next Tuesday.

Braves Sack Up Western Crown

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It will be the vagabond Atlanta Braves against the Cinderella New York Mets in the National League's championship playoff series.

The Braves, who previously won National League pennants in Boston and Milwaukee, nailed down the West Division crown Tuesday night, topping Cincinnati 3-2 and dooming San Francisco to a fifth straight second place finish.

The Giants beat San Diego 6-1 and Los Angeles bowed to Houston 6-3 in the only other National League games played Tuesday night.

In the American League, New York rapped Cleveland 8-2, Washington downed Boston 7-2, Detroit shaded Baltimore 4-3, Kansas City downed California 8-5, Minnesota defeated Chicago 4-3 and Oakland beat Seattle 8-4.

The Braves will send Phil Niekro, 23-13, against the Mets' Tom Seaver, 25-7, in the opening game of the best-of-five playoff Saturday in Atlanta. It was Niekro who got credit for Tuesday night's clincher over the Reds although he was lifted for a pinch hitter in the seventh.

The Reds were leading 2-1 when Mike Lum opened the seventh with a single. Ralph Garr batted for Niekro and walked. Wayne Granger relieved Gary Nolan for the Reds and Felix Millan, attempting to sacrifice, forced Lum at third.

Then Tony Gonzalez' fourth hit of the night scored Garr with the tying run and after Hank Aaron walked, Rico Carty's sacrifice fly brought home the deciding run.

That left it up to Hoyt Wilhelm and the 46-year-old reliever set the Reds down in order over the last two innings, striking out three. Wilhelm is ineligible for the playoffs because he came to the Braves after the Sept. 1 deadline.

In the clubhouse, the champagne flowed freely. "Man, it's too good," exulted reliever Cecil Upshaw, offering cigars to dressing room visitors. "Oh happy day, oh happy day," shouted Carty.

"Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful," sang Orlando Cepeda, who made it to the World Series with St. Louis in each of the last two seasons before being traded in the spring and now has another shot at the classic.

Tommy Davis tagged his first home run since returning to the National League and helped Houston knock off his old teammates, the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Denny Lemaster pitched a four-hitter and the Astros moved to within one game of the slumping Dodgers for fourth place in the West Division. Norm Miller also homered for the Astros and Andy Kosco connected for the Dodgers.

Gaylord Perry scattered nine hits and struck out 14 San Diego batters pitching the Giants past the Padres. It was Perry's 19th victory of the season.

Giants Clip Colts 32-20

The Cowboys and the Packers tied 0-0 and the Giants outscored the Colts 32-20 in two important 7th grade football skirmishes here yesterday afternoon.

The Cowboy-Packer affray was a real defensive battle with neither team coming close to the goal.

Welton Cobb was outstanding for the Giants, scoring four touchdowns on runs of between 40 and 60 yards. He also scored another one on an 80-yard return of a pass interception. The stout runner also added two extra points on another run.

It was an exciting game all the way with the Ginats holding only a 12-6 lead at halftime. Weems scored on a 20-yard end run and Carter tallied on a 35-yard play for the Colts. Their other touchdown resulted from a 55-yard pass interception and return by Young. Carter also picked up two points on a pass.

SHS Team Ranked 8th

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was a good deal of jockeying in the lower half of the Dallas Morning News schoolboy football poll, but Austin Reagan, Refugio, Lufkin Dunbar and White Oak remained the top dogs in their divisions.

Austin Reagan, which has won the Class AAAA schoolboy title the past two years, smashed San Antonio Alamo Heights 34-14.

Refugio, the Class AAA king-of-the-hill, outlasted Sinton 33-20.

Lufkin Dunbar, selected the No. 1 Class AA club, had a rugged time in defeating Aldine-Carver 21-14.

Class A kingpin White Oak blasted Queen City 82-0.

In Class AAAA, Houston Washington dropped out of the top 10. Galveston Ball moved into seventh place, Amarillo Palo Duro climbed to eighth, and Garland pushed into the 10th spot.

Duncanville snared the sixth spot in Class AAA, Dumas took seventh, Snyder climbed to eighth, Plano moved to ninth and Bonham is in 10th.

The AA moves edged Georgetown into fourth. Ballinger is 10th and Dimmitt is ninth.

Aspermont, Sonora and Holliday tumbled from the Class A rankings. Magnolia moved to No. 8, Junction took No. 9, and Clarendonis 10th.

Purdue Favored Over Stanford

NEW YORK (AP) — They usually play the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's Day. A preview could be forthcoming this Saturday when the Stanford Indians invade Lafayette, Ind., to take on the Boilermakers of Purdue in a battle of 2-0 unbeatens.

Both teams are ranked in The Associated Press Top Twenty—Purdue eighth and Stanford 17th—and both have top-flight quarterbacks. Purdue's Mike Phipps ranks seventh nationally in total offense while Stanford's Jim Plunkett is 15th.

Care for some more statistics? Purdue is seventh in team total offense while Stanford is third in total offense, seventh in passing offense, sixth in total defense and seventh in rushing defense.

Both teams could be looking ahead—Purdue to Michigan and Stanford to Southern Cal. After digesting the figures— and flipping a coin—the pick is Purdue.

Top-ranked Ohio State named the score—62-0—in their opener against Texas Christian and can probably do the same against Washington. The Buckeyes it is.

Penn State over Kansas State—This could be the second-ranked Nittany Lions' toughest game of the year. Both teams are 2-0 and K-State is eighth in total defense, third in rushing defense. The Wildcats also have a fine passer in Lynn Dickey.

Arkansas over Texas Christian—"We don't pay attention to the scores of our opponents outside the Southwest Conference," says Frank Broyles of Arkansas, referring to TCU's drubbing by Ohio State. This is a conference game, and Arkansas will do most of the playing.

Texas over Navy—Full speed ahead.

Oregon State over Southern California—Upset special of the week. Trojans only won 17-13 with O.J. in L.A. last year. Fifth-ranked USC may be looking ahead to Stanford and Notre Dame. Beavers have come on strong since opening loss to UCLA.

Georgia over South Carolina—Pepsodent Paul Dietzel won't be smiling after this one. Bulldogs haven't been scored on in two games.

Michigan over Missouri—Don Moorhead-Glenn Doughty combo outshines Terry McMillan-Joe Moore.

Tennessee over Memphis State—Memphis won last week's Missouri Valley Biggie from North Texas, but Tennessee's a conference of a different color—the Southeastern.

Florida over Florida State—John Reaves won the battle of the air lanes from Bill Cappleman.

Notre Dame over Michigan State—Irish bounce back into the Top Twenty against the 14th-ranked Spartans.

Alabama over Mississippi—Bear Bryant wasn't happy to see Ole Miss upset by Kentucky last week. "I was hoping maybe they'd come in a little overconfident and fatheaded," he said. But the Bear's got a running attack to complement Scott Hunter's passing.

Campbell, Doggett Shine In Southwest

... By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Writer

University of Texas head defensive coach Mike Campbell doesn't just recruit football players for the Longhorns, he grows 'em too.

Campbell's version of "My Three Sons," Mike Jr., Tom and Rusty are all playing for the 'Horns this year but it was rover Mike Jr., who took the spotlight in last Saturday's 49-7 revenge victory over Texas Tech.

Campbell intercepted one pass and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown and recovered a fumble that set up Texas' first score to spearhead a spectacular defensive effort and earn this week's Associated Press Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week award.

Southern Methodist's "mini-fullback," Daryl Doggett, all 5-foot-6, 175 pound of him, ran over, around, through and possibly even under Michigan State's husky defense for 130 yards in total offense in a 23-15 losing effort to gain the AP's SWC Offensive Player of the Week honor.

Campbell said his interception was the first of his college career.

"I'd really forgotten how it was to intercept," Campbell said. "The ball just came right at me. I was playing just right where the coaches told me I ought to be.

"I remember thinking 'My gosh, it's coming right at me.' It surprised me so much I almost didn't catch it."

Campbell said after the game someone said something about him being a broken field runner. "But anybody who could run straight down the sidelines could have done it," Campbell said.

Just to keep the sibling rivalry keen, Mike's twin brother Tom, who plays defensive halfback, also intercepted a pass and returned it to the Tech two-yard line. "I guess I'll have to give him some lessons in broken field running," Mike Jr. quipped.

Mike Jr. said the fact that Tech had defeated the Longhorns the past two seasons "really stuck in us bad. We really underestimated them in the past.

"I know we'd been kind of looking forward to them a lot. As best as I can remember, I don't think we've ever prepared more for a game than this one. The players even watched films of Tech in the dorm."

Other defensive players receiving votes from the AP panel included: Bruce James and Rick Kersey, both of Arkansas; Joe Stutts of SMU; and Leo Brooks, of Texas.

Doggett, voted a team captain for the second straight year, said he had to look on his size as an asset rather than a hindrance.

"If I thought of it as a hindrance, I'd be worrying about getting knocked around by the big ones," he said.

Doggett said his size was especially helpful on the Mustangs' draw play. "I can hide behind those big linemen until the last second," he said.

Doggett picked up 70 yards rushing in 19 carries and gained 60 yards on four pass receptions in what he called his best offensive performance as a Mustang. Another 32-yard pass reception was nullified by a penalty. Doggett said he was particularly pleased with his running.

"I seemed to be getting my legs up and I was able to break a few tackles," Doggett said. "That kind of pleased me. I didn't know if I could do it against those big Michigan State boys."

Doggett said the lack of scoring punch has kept the Mustangs from winning in their first three starts. "We've been able to drive pretty well, but not take it in," he said.

Other offensive players receiving votes were Bruce Maxwell of Arkansas; Chuck Hixson of SMU; and Bob McKay and Steve Worster, both of Texas.

CAREER CORNER

By F. J. LAIN

"My father is no longer living and my mother is supporting four of us on her earnings as a waitress. I desperately want to go to college to prepare for a good future but I don't see how I can make it without a scholarship. How can I get one?

A — Here are three important things to keep in mind:

Make it a project to learn the financial aid ropes. How? By reading recent books on financial aid and asking questions. The financial aid picture has changed significantly in the last few years, since the Higher Education Act of 1965 and the amendments to that act passed in 1968. Read this newspaper regularly to keep abreast of proposed changes now before the Congress.

Look early, look everywhere.

Hang on — don't take "no" for an answer. It will be a struggle, and disheartening at times, but no student should ever give up higher education just because his family can't afford the expense.

NEED. Financial aid is no longer considered an academic prize but is usually based on need. How is this need determined? By comparing what you and your family can contribute to the actual cost of attending college. The difference — but no more — is the amount of financial aid for which you qualify.

THE PACKAGE IDEA. Increasingly, aid is coming in packages — a combination of a gift, a loan and a job. In the gift category are scholarships and grants (or "grants-in-aid"). Scholarships may be received both on the basis of financial need and academic ability; while grants are given on the basis of financial need alone.

TYPICAL AWARDS. The mix of your financial aid package varies according to your need; the more help you need and the higher the cost of the college, the more likely it becomes that a significant portion of your award will be in the form of "self-help" job and loan. A scholarship then makes up the balance. Examples of typical awards follow . . .

You need $500, you receive gift of $500, or loan of $500, or job for $500. You need $1,200, you receive gift of $600, plus loan of $300, plus job for $300. You need $3,600, you receive gift of $2,500, plus loan of $700, plus job for $400.

APPLY EARLY, and often. Many scholarship competitions have deadlines which fall as early as winter or spring of your junior year in high school. Apply to every possible source — winning a small award will not lessen your chances for a larger one, although a reduction would likely be made in the larger award when ganted. Apply for financial aid at the same time you apply for college admission; this does not hurt your chances either.

WHERE? Aid primarily comes from four sources: (1) the colleges, universities or other post-secondary schools to which you apply (2) federal programs (3) state programs (4) private programs and special competition.

Colleges and universities are the major source of assistance. In addition to their own resources, they select students to receive funds from a number of federal and private programs. It's the place to start, but not to stop.

SUGGESTED READING. Check your library for two new major catalogues of financial aids. . ."Current Financial Aids for Undergraduate Students, 1969-70" by Dr. Bernard Maxwell, published by College Opportunities Unlimited, Peoria, Ill.; and "Annual Register of Grant Support, 1969," published by Academic Media, Inc., Los Angeles, Calif.

MORE LATER — I'll discuss specifics of federal aid programs for higher education next.

Pay TV Faces Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fresh from a victory in the U.S. Court of Appeals, pay-television now faces tests at the highest level of government—Congress and the Supreme Court.

The plan for telecasting programs that could be received only in homes paying a fee was approved last December 13 by the Federal Communications Commission.

Tuesday, the U.S. Court of Appeals here upheld the FCC action against a challenge by the National Association of Theatre ownes and the Joint Committee Against Toll TV.

The groups' attorney, Marcus Cohn, said in an interview it was almost certain they would appeal to the Supreme Court.

Meanwhile, more than 20 bills to block pay TV await consideration in the House where the Commerce Committee twice has postponed hearings because of other business.

The FCC had pledged not to authorize pay TV operations until 60 days after the appeals court decision in order to give Congress time to act.

Congress will have to move fast to meet that deadline.

A committee source said the House Commerce Committee would begin hearings on pay TV as soon as it finishes hearings on a bill to finance airport improvement, but the airport bill has been moving slower than expected.

Test Your Skill... Win CASH PRIZES

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played in the country this week-end. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only . . . opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 12 o'clock noon, Friday. Games ending in a tie score must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

If there is a tie for first place the winners will divide the cash money of $12.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $25.00. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all of the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number — and watch for the story on next Wednesday's front page for the winners. Hurry now, and get your entry blank from one of the merchants on this page. The contest blank must be in your own handwriting. Employes of The Snyder Daily News and their families are not eligible to enter.
