Austin. — Skyrocketing welfare costs may hit the $1 billion a year mark in Texas within a decade, a State Welfare Board member predicts.

Burton G. Hackney, Welfare Commissioner, sees a very real possibility that his budget for the important "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" program may be exhausted this biennium. If that happens, another cut in AFDC benefits may be necessary.

"The $80 million a year welfare ceiling (approved by Texas voters only five months ago) now seems completely unrealistic (in view of) demands we will have to face within the next four to five years," said Louis R. Sarazan of Fort Worth, Welfare Board secretary.

Sarazan's comments followed reports by Hackney of rising costs in all the major state assistance programs.

Total public assistance payments during the past fiscal year came to $364.3 million, some 25 per cent of which was paid with state funds.

Welfare rolls have increased at the rate of 10,262 a month in AFDC since August. Federal court cases and agency rulings relaxing eligibility requirements, together with increased population, account for most of the growth.

OIL PRODUCTION HELD STEADY — Railroad Commission set the statewide oil allowable for February at 68 per cent of potential, highest for the month since 1953.

Figure is the same as for January. It will permit a maximum production of 2,722,919 barrels a day. Actual production is estimated at 3,250,500 a day.

None of the 14 major purchasers of crude asked for an increased allowable. Ten recommended the same factor and four saw a declining need for the first. Big buyers suggested a daily allocation of 3,226,196 barrels.

COURTS SPEAK — State Supreme Court set February 11 to hear arguments in a court case testing whether governmental units (Brownsville Navigation District) are immune from lawsuits for breach of contract.

High court held that a Jefferson County woman who claimed she got scalp blisters from using "New Dawn" hair coloring was not entitled to damages.

Also set for February 11 review is the appeal of a Marshall theater operator from a $31,250 damage verdict awarded a girl who was hit by a liquor bottle thrown from a movie house balcony at a midnight show.

District Judge Herman Jones of Austin denied an injunction to prevent construction of a golf course at Meridian State Park. Federal court earlier dismissed the suit.

Third Court of Civil Appeals upheld a lower court decision that a Houston bus company must get a Railroad Commission certificate for space renter tours and other routes outside the city. All three judges wrote their own opinions, one dissenting.

ATTORNEY GEN. RULES — Fraternal and veterans organizations do not have to collect sales taxes on mixed drinks served to members. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin ruled in a new opinion.

Martin also said that a new law requiring free kindergarten programs during the 1970's did not allow for all "practical problems" and may need adjustments.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that: State Board of Insurance is required to fix and maintain fair, reasonable and just insurance premium rates, and auditing may become a means of enforcement, even where the agency obligation under law extends only to approval of forms.

Majority of the members of Burnet County Hospital Authority Board of directors must be appointed by the board and remaining members of the Burnet County Commissioners Court.

Architects are excluded from provisions of the Texas Professional Corporation Act but may incorporate under the Texas Business Corporations Act.

An application for registration as a profession engineer in the state meets legal requirements of the Engineering Practice Act when the applicant changes the affidavit by marking out the words "sworn upon oath" and writes in "affirmed."

CAR INSPECTION DEADLINE — April 15 is the deadline for motor vehicle inspections. Texas adopted the annual inspection program Sept. 1. Vehicles inspected in January will bear stickers with "No. 1" and won't be up for reinspection before January, 1971. All cars which still have old stickers on the right side of the windshield have not been reinspected in compliance with the new law, and owners have until April 15 to visit an approved inspection station.

DRAFT CALL — February draft call for Texas is 929. No man will be ordered for induction with a random sequence number higher than 60, says Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director.

February quota is an increase of 573 from January, which will be filled January 16-30 with men who have random sequence numbers no higher than 30.

State quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in February is 9,359, up from 5,800 in January. In filling the call for examination, draft boards will order I-A and I-A-O men of 1970 random selection sequence group before men born in 1951. The 1970 group contains men born 1944-50. National call for February is 19,000.

Bridal Shower For Miss Flanagan

The Sun Room of the Alps was the setting for a very pretty bridal shower honoring Miss Jane Dell Flanagan, Saturday, Jan. 17 from 2:00 to 4:00 in the afternoon.

Miss Flanagan is the bride-elect of Allen Bryant. Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. Arnold Bowman, Charlie Blalock, Carl Rogers, Ben LaPrade, Jabo Landers, J. B. Hamby, Tessie Redfearn and Howard Keesee.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Hamby, the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Lou Lee Flanagan and the mother of the prospective groom, Mrs. Pat Bryant.

The bridal table was laid with a beautiful pink peau de soie overlay of tulle with ornamental jeweled appliques on the floor length skirt that was bordered with lace.

Centering the table was a silver candelabra with pink tapers, two shades of pink carnations and tulle puffs. The appointments were in silver with the Misses Penny Landers, Cathy Barber, Joye May, Emily Richmond and Mrs. Edward Florey presiding over the serving of pink punch, coffee, assorted dainty cookies and pink mints.

Miss Carla Rogers registered the guests at a table laid identical to the tea table.

The many delightful gifts were displayed on a long table with members of the houseparty acting as hostesses.
