Oklahoma City To Provide For Wells

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 21 (AP)—The city council has unanimously adopted a motion instructing E. M. Fry, city manager, to call a conference of oil operators, insurance men, the state fire marshal and the city fire chief to discuss regulation of oil well drilling within the city limits.

"There is no good reason for wild wells," said C. T. Lockwood, councilman, who made the motion. "Danger of wild wells is reduced to a minimum if surface casing and master-gates are set along before the well is drilled to the producing sands. At the present rate, we are apt to burn the whole town."

Malcolm McKenzie, municipal counselor, was instructed to consult leading local attorneys as to regulations in California and other states.

MESSAGE CIRCLES THE GLOBE IN TWO HOURS AND FIVE MINUTES

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 21.—A message of greeting, riding on the wings of Mercury, and starting from New York, twice circled the globe in two hours and five minutes, making a momentary call enroute at each of the eighteen most important foreign bureaus of the Associated Press, and four bureaus of its ally, Reuters, the British News Agency.

Announcement of the result of the last March 31, was withheld by the Associated Press until the eve of the annual meeting, which convenes Monday in New York.

Each of the bureaus received the message in turn, and likewise in turn speedily relayed it on its way. "It was the first time in the history of electrical transmission of words," said Kent Cooper, general manager of the Associated Press, "that a message was so often relayed upon such an extensive and devious journey. Its speed over the circuitous but continuous route, which was necessarily involved, because of the widely separated bureaus, constitutes a record of the marvelous means of transmission available for the Associated Press staff to keep in step in the work of collecting news throughout the world."

Twenty-five Systems Used
Twenty-five separate communication systems were utilized. The message started from an automatic telegraph typewriter at the general offices of the Associated Press at 383 Madison Avenue, New York. Through several miles of underground wires in the streets of New York, it reached the main cable office of the Western Union at 40 Broad Street, where it was copied and presented on the direct New York-London cable which crosses the Atlantic from New Foundland to Penzance, England, and thence overland to the Western Union London office. It was relayed from there into the Associated Press London office by automatic telegraph typewriter, copied and resent by telegraph to the British Marconi, and was radioed to the Associated Press in Madrid which, in turn, copied it and filed it with the Spanish government lines to Paris.

Owned by Governments
All of the telegraphs in Europe are owned and operated by the various governments which have international traffic arrangements.

It crossed the Alps via the Swiss-Italian lines to Rome, where it was again relayed, and made the exceptional time of three minutes in reaching Constantinople (Istanbul), it went to the Orient.

The Japanese government lines, jointly with the Commercial Cable company, delivered it to the Associated Press in Manila in ten minutes. It reached the Associated Press office in San Francisco three minutes after it left Manila, with a delivery and relay to the Associated Press at Honolulu.

San Francisco refilled the message with the Western Union Telegraph company for Mexico City. From there it kept southward to Rio de Janeiro.

Takes Circuitous Route
From Rio de Janeiro to Capetown, south America, the message took its most circuitous route of the trip. It went direct to London via the Western Cable company, a British concern. As no delivery to the Associated Press in London was involved, the Western Cable company, another British concern, for Capetown, at the southern tip of the African continent.

The office of Reuters in Capetown resent it to Reuters' office at Cairo, and then to Bombay, which in turn delivered it to Reuters' office at Melbourne.

From Melbourne the message took its final and longest submarine trip via the six thousand mile cable from Australia to Vancouver.

At Vancouver the message was turned over to the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs, which carried it across Canada to Montreal and delivered it by the Postal Telegraph company to the Associated Press general office in New York.

LEVIATHAN, COMPLETELY DONE OVER, RESUMES RUN

After a layup of several months in drydock at Hoboken, N. J., and Boston, the U. S. liner Leviathan has been completely reconditioned and renovated. With a night club, to compete with the new German liners, the huge vessel resumes her transatlantic service from New York.

he blazed across the country.

"This is only one flight," he said, "and I hope to make others. I can say nothing at this time on the result of only one experiment. However, I believe transport flying in the future will go to higher levels, first the air mail and later passenger planes."

He said they flew at from 10,000 to 15,000 feet altitude most of the way, except for the last stretch into New York.

The colonel gave Mrs. Lindbergh much of the credit for technical details of the flight. She did the navigating, he said, kept the charts and occasionally handled the controls. Their plane is equipped with dual controls.

Both the colonel and his lady were smiling on arrival as they faced cameras and between 1,500 and 2,000 persons. His face was dirty and appeared drawn, but Mrs. Lindbergh looked fresh.

As the photographers signified they were through with him, the colonel clambered out of the forward cockpit and aided mechanics in wheeling the plane into a hangar where room had been made for it. Their car was under one of the wings, and they drove to a hotel.

Because of the high altitudes at which they flew, where they encountered temperatures of several degrees below zero, the Lindberghs wore heavy, fur-lined flying suits, boots and gloves. Both wore parachutes.

CENSUS ENUMERATOR IS HONORED; COLORED ARRIVAL IS NAMESAKE

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 21 (AP)—One census enumerator in a negro district here has achieved the same immortality that came to Admiral Dewey, several presidents, and perhaps a few pugilists.

He was taking stock of a negro household when the head of the family and his clansmen, large and small, suddenly retired to the rear in mysterious manner. The enumerator waited, reddened and listened.

Presently the chief of the household returned, smiling broadly. "Enumerator's arrived," he announced.

"Who's enumerator," asked the census taker.

"He's a brain new baby, and we've named him after you," said the chief.

BANKRUPTCY PLEA IS FILED

JOE HILTON COMPANY INVOLVED IN PLEA IN COURT HERE

Following a meeting of directors, the Joe Hilton company, Lubbock and Plainview automobile dealers, with main offices in this city, filed voluntary bankruptcy proceedings in the Lubbock division of federal court Saturday, when an indebtedness of $19,022.71 was itemized. Those attending the directors' meeting, which resulted in the bankruptcy filing, were Joe Hilton, T. T. Tipps, E. E. Stewart and C. R. Bacon.

Stock in trade, bills, promissory notes, securities, personal property and debts due on open accounts total $37,925.55.

The major creditors and amount due each follow: W. A. Nash, Plainview, $400; Chrysler Parts corporation, $284.33; Archibald supply company, Waco, $28.31; Beard & Stone, $225.58; Herald-News, Plainview, $400.55; W. L. Ellwood, $1,950; notes to Citizens National Bank, $4,000.55; J. F. Bacon, $5,250, and Len McClellan, $850.

brother and I discussed long," he said. "When money began to come in and pile up so fast it frightened us, we had to meet that problem. The thought of reducing fees generally had to be dismissed. We could not repudiate our own profession. There are thousands of physicians and surgeons who need the income from what are becoming accepted as standard fees."

"But we could do something that we did. We scaled the fee in accordance with the patient's means. And we gave the same treatment to the man without a cent that we give to the millionaire. A man's financial standing has nothing to do with the treatment he gets from us. But it has everything to do with what we charge him."

"I never charge a man a fee that, knowing his financial condition, I know he cannot meet inside one year while meeting all his other normal obligations. When a man leaves he is handed his bill. If he can pay then, he pays. If he cannot, he goes his way without further explanation. I never took a man's note in my life. I never will. I never sued a man for a bill in my life. I never will."

"If a man can pay, he will. I ceased entertaining any other assumption long ago. The variations from fundamental decency and honor are too rare to be taken into calculation."

WASHINGTON UPSETS DOPE IN AMERICAN; STAYING NEAR LEAD

THREE TEXAS CLUBS TIED AT TOP

YANKS FALL BEFORE LLOYD BROWN SUNDAY

SENS IN TIE FOR 2ND; CLOSE SCORES ARE RECORDED

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
The Washington Senators have taken a place in the front rank of the major league teams which have started the year by upsetting the dope. One good reason for their good showing so far is found in Lloyd Brown, left handed pitcher.

Brown is the only major league hurler to pitch two full games this year and to win them both. He held the Boston Red Sox to three hits last Tuesday and yesterday scored his second triumph by downing the New York Yankees, 6 to 3. The triumph put the Senators in a tie for second place in the American League instead of in the second division where the dope says they belong.

Only One Goes Through
Eight pitchers appeared on the mound for the second time at the start of yesterday's six games, and only Brown and Harry Seibold of the Boston Braves, remained to the end. Seibold won his game from Brooklyn, 7 to 2, as two Brooklyn errors and a home run with loaded bases provided six runs in the seventh inning.

Young Willis Hudlin of Cleveland and old George Uhle of Detroit both went nine innings in a duel, and Cleveland nosed out a 2 to 0 victory. Hudlin made the nearest approach to Brown's record, for he hurled the greater part of a losing ten inning duel with Chicago on his first appearance. A pinch double with the bases full by Burnett gave him yesterday's game.

Philadelphians Win Third
In the third American league game, the Philadelphia Athletics scored their third successive victory of the year by bunting five hits off Dan MacFayden in one inning and downing the Boston Red Sox 5 to 3.

The New York and Philadelphia National league clubs, which have started out as if to revive the title of "hithers wonders," staged another close duel yesterday, the Giants winning 2 to 1. Carl Hubbell held the Phillies to four hits, while the Giants reached Alexander for the greater part of ten, but still took a home run by Mel Ott to win the game.

A similar battle between the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds marked the remaining National league struggle. The Cubs won 4 to 3, after Cincinnati had scored three runs in one inning off Fred Blake.

Victor Payne begins this afternoon his last week as the commander of the Texas Tech track team as the Matador speedsters begin preparation for their final appearance of the season at Canyon Friday and Saturday in the annual Great Plains track and field meet.

The Matadors' chances to make a showing in the tri-state affair at Canyon depends in a large measure on the recovery of Captain James Dallas and Leon Fisher. Fisher was kept out of both the Canyon and Simmons dual meets with a pulled muscle while Dallas injured an ankle while running the 100-yard dash at Abilene last week.

With both Dallas and Fisher in form, the Crimson speed merchants stand a chance to capture first honor in the Great Plains event. A triumph this season would give Tech permanent possession of the trophy, the Matadors having won first place on two previous occasions.

Kansas City Woman To Represent U. S.
KANSAS CITY, April 21 (AP)—Embarrassment at her high qualifying score in her first golf tournament, spurred Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City to better her game, and today she is ready to sail for England with a team of the leading women golfers of the United States.

Seven years ago, after having played golf for her health about three months, Mrs. Hill was persuaded to enter the qualifying round of a tri-state tournament in order to swell the entry list. Her score for 18 holes was 142. She enrolled for lessons the next day, practiced consistently and with practice came titles, national recognition and now a European trip.

Mrs. Hill is married and the mother of a 16-year-old son. She left Kansas City for New York Saturday.

Lubbock Black Devils made merry on the bases Sunday afternoon at Merrill Park and turned back the Terrible Tigers from Lamesa, 9 to 4. Elizabeth Ryan To Team With Helen
NEW YORK, April 21.—Elizabeth Ryan, former Californian now living in England, will be the doubles partner of Helen Wills Moody in the French and British tennis championships.

Helen Wills teamed with Miss Ryan to win the British women's doubles championship in 1927, and they often have played together. Mrs. Moody considers Miss Ryan one of the best, if not the best, women's doubles players.

Miss Ryan won the Wimbledon doubles title six times, once with Miss Wills, once in 1926, with Mary K. Browne, and four times, 1929-31-22-25, with Suzanne Lenglen. With Eleanor Goss she won the United States Women's doubles title in 1926.

Deer are found in 28 counties in Georgia whereas five years ago they were confined to coastal counties, says Peter Twitty, state game commissioner.

BEAUMONT, SPORTS AND OILERS LEAD

STEERS FALL BEFORE CAT ONSLAUGHT; TUERO IN FORM

DZY GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
Results of week-end hostilities, counting to this spring, three clubs, Shreveport, Wichita Falls and Beaumont, into a deadlock for the Texas league pinnacle, each with seven wins and four losses.

The Sports, by sweeping both games of their series at Wichita, pulled the Spudders down to their level. The Exporters joined the select group by splitting two bouts with Houston. It was the first series the Oilers had dropped.

Oscar Tuero, ancient Cuban spitballer, turned in a five-hit game to give the Sports yesterday's verdict, 10 to 1. His mates hopped all over three Spud hurlers, including the prize youngster, Lester White. Included in their 14 hits was a hummer by Hutson and doubles by Holman and Parks.

Tuero's great performance was a timely one for the crafty veteran, securing him a place on the Sport staff. He reported for spring training this year of his own volition, after he had been handed his unconditional release and had failed to catch on with another club. He held the first five men in the Wichita batting order hitless.

The combination of Muleshoe Vaughn's steady hurling and a record crop of errors by the Houston Buffs enabled the Exporters to take their final, 7 to 4. Vaughn, turning in his second straight triumph, held the Biscuits to six blows. The Buffs compiled eight miscues behind Floyd Rose. Three runs in the eighth clinched matters for the Sports.

Steers Hamstrung
Jacky At's hamstrung Dallas Steers ran their losing streak to five straight when the Port Worth Cats took them again, 7 to 3, at Fort Worth. As a result, the two clubs have an even claim on the Wichita batting order hitless.

Paul Wachtel, who helped the Panthers to a string of penants, started against his old mates and was nipped for three runs in the opening frame, after which Tauscher took up the burden. Jimmy Walkup, meanwhile, southpawed the Herd to a whisper, holding them to five hits and a single run until the ninth.

The San Antonio Indians gained an even break with the Waco Cubs when they claimed on the club have an even claim on the Wichita batting order hitless. Mr. Jennings and George Eaton, deputy scout commissioner, are visiting today with scout officials at Tahoka, O'Donnell and Lamesa.

Baseball's Boxing Act Is Broken Up

CHICAGO, April 21.—Baseball's boxing act has broken up for Arthur (The Great) Shires and Russell (Lena) Blackburne are just a pair of buddies now. When the St. Louis Browns, with whom the former White Sox pilot now serves as coach, came to Chicago for a series with the Sox, the erstwhile sparring mates exchanged the grip and declared their high regard for each other.

"I sincerely believe," Shires said, "that Blackburne is as good a friend as I have in baseball."

"Shires is okay and a hustling ball player," Blackburne said.

LOS ANGELES, April 21. (AP)—Charles P. Rocherville, vice-president of the Kase Aircraft Corporation, today announced plans for a non-refueling endurance flight next week in a new "flying wing" monoplane in an effort to better the German record of 65 hours, 20 minutes. The flight will be made at Long Beach, Calif.

The old canal boat poked along. "Ah, this is where we all belong," said Clowry. "We can loiter around and sleep, if we desire. We've walked a lot the last few days, and now my head is in a haze. Just moving 'round the countryside is bound to make us tire."
"Oh, you're just lazy," Scouty cried. "You're always aching for a ride. Why, I would rather walk and get some real good exercise. Just think of all the fun you'll see. You're little legs were made to use. Some day you will agree with me and open up your eyes."
And then they heard a little snore. The Travel Man began to roar. While Scouty stood there talking, lazy Clowry fell asleep. "Why, that's insulting," Scouty said. "I'd like to shake his weary head. But I will let the lad alone. For hours he will not sleep."

Along the long canal they went. It seemed that several hours were spent before they reached a river. Then they anchored to the shore. "Come on, get off," the boatman cried. "This ends your old canal boat ride. But, don't you be downhearted. There's another ride in store."
"The River Scheldt is right out there, and with the weather nice and fair, you all can take a sailboat ride. 'Twill be a heap of fun. The Travel Man, I'm sure, can steer and there'll be not a thing to fear. There's just enough of breeze right now to make the sailboat run."

They hopped aboard the sailboat quick and Carpy said, "Say, this is sick. We'll sail right into Antwerp. Then we'll eat a hearty meal." The sailboat took off in the breeze and traveled right along with ease. "Oh, this is fine," cried Carpy. "Gee, how wonderful I feel!"

MOODY GIVES STATEMENT ON HIS REGIME

GOVERNOR ANSWERS ATTACKS; CITES PROGRESS

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, April 21.—Governor Moody Saturday issued a statement reviewing his achievements during the three years of his tenure as governor, which he said, was "a complete answer to political enemies" who had made attacks on his administration.

He said the statement was the first of three, the second to deal with attitude of the 41st legislature toward his legislative program, especially the plan of penitentiary centralization advocated by him, and the third to give his views as to how pending state problems should be solved.

Announcement Coming
It was believed certain around the capitol his statements presaged his announcement for a third term in the governor's office.
He declared he had managed to give the people the lowest average ad valorem tax rate for state purposes in recent years. He said it had been held down to an average yearly rate of 66.1-3 cents during the three years of his administration. For 1927 the rate was 67 cents, 64 cents in 1928, and 69 cents for 1929.

"The departments of government have been operated honestly and efficiently," he said. "Public money has been spent honestly and the people have been given the value of their tax dollar. Only honest and competent people have been allowed to hold office. The highest type of patriotic citizens have been selected for public office and confidence has been restored in the integrity and efficiency of the government."
Obligations Paid
He said obligations inherited from preceding administrations have been paid, including over $6,200,000 of the highway department and over $3,000,000 in other departments.
He asserted "competitive bidding" had been substituted for "political favoritism," and ten times more miles of concrete road constructed and put under construction in 1929 than in 1925, and that concrete roads were built at 20 per cent less cost, or over $5,000 less per mile, in 1929 than in 1925.

He said work like that provided for in contracts which he cancelled when attorney general, and on which he recovered judgment amounting to $1,000,000 was done during his administration at about one-fourth the cost paid by his preceding administration.
Over 3,700 miles of all-weather highways were constructed and put under construction, and more money given for the building of local roads, during his three years' tenure, he claimed, adding: "Federal aid, which has been obtained from the federal government, and the yearly allotment to Texas recently increased from $4,500,000 to $7,500,000 bringing $3,000,000 additional wealth to Texas annually."

About one-quarter of Ireland's male population consists of bachelors. More than 60 per cent of the men between the ages of 25 and 30 are unmarried.

Linens—Attractive Odd Pieces Or In Sets—They Are New In Design

Pretty linens are a joy to every woman. There is a fineness about them that women prize—a joy in possessing them that is a decided thrill. This season new ideas in design and colorings make them even more attractive for just now we have on display the most elaborate selection we have ever shown.

Madiera Linens With a Touch Of Color

The vogue for color has also found its way to madiera work. In many cases the corners are done in pastel shades—some in multi-colored. The effect is entirely desirable.

In 36 inch sets with four napkins—in 45 inch sets and single pieces—Round Oblong and Oval pieces in every size—pretty Scarfs, Dresser and Vanity sets—all are shown in entirely new ideas. Priced from 39c to $10.85

Linen Table Sets Ready For Use

A very recent development—finished Luncheon and dinner cloths—Hemstitched and laundried with napkins to match, ready for use. These sets can be chosen in varied sizes and patterns some with six napkins to match—others with eight and twelve. All are made from the finest Irish linen—truly quality items worthy of your admiration. Prices range $6.85 to $29.85

MANY TREATS IN STORE FOR LUBBOCK MUSIC LOVERS IN THE PASSION PLAY

Master minds of the world of music have contributed to the great music score which accompanies the world famous Freiburg Passion Play, to be presented here at Tech athletic field on May 2 and 3. Thirty-one orchestral numbers and eleven great choral numbers selected from well known oratorios, sound out as a harmonious accompaniment to pageantry processions, and even to the dialogue of the play in some of the most impressive scenes.

The lights are dimmed as the play is about to start. The trumpets blare a fanfare. The fanfare dies away. The women's voices of the chorus pick up the dying trumpet note, swell it into great volume, and let it too die away. The orchestra plays a part of the "Parafal" overture from Wagner, followed by the "Adoration of the Cross," from Dubois' oratorio, "The Seven Last Words of Christ." During the tableaux preceding the opening scene Mr. Adolf Fassnacht, the Christus of the play, sings the "Agnus Dei." To the notes of "Palm Branches," and "See the Conquering Hero Comes," (Handel) the play opens with the Jerusalem street scene and

Acts Like It Was Just Made For Her

Lubbock Housewife Says She Feels One Hundred Percent Better Since Taking Orgatone

"This Orgatone acts just like it was made especially to fit my case," said Mrs. C. A. Waters of 1410 Texas Ave., Lubbock, Texas.

"The fact is, I haven't seen a well day for the past two years," she continued "and almost as soon as I started taking Orgatone it seemed to go right to the seat of my troubles and anyone could see that I was getting better. My stomach gave me lots of trouble and everything I would eat would sour on my stomach and cause bloating spells. I didn't have any appetite and I was weak, nervous and run-down."

"I saw Orgatone so highly advertised that I decided to try it and it has certainly been the right medicine for me. I eat anything I want and it does not bother me at all. I'm not weak and run down as I was and am strong in every way. I feel one hundred percent better than I did before taking Orgatone. Orgatone (Argotane) has saved me from a lot of suffering that no other medicine or treatment was able to do and I am glad to give this statement and recommend it to my friends."

Genuine Argotane may be bought in Lubbock at Bowers Drug Store. Adv.

Selects Names

NEW YORK — Mrs. Fred Moody, the tennis player, and Helen Willis, the artist. Those are the names she prefers herself. Her reason is that in tennis she is an amateur and in art a professional. It happens that her husband is more enthusiastic about her art than her tennis. She plays no bridge, because it takes much time to become a good player. She does not cooking. It's an art, she says, but tennis and painting give her no time for it.

Allowed One Bite

PHILADELPHIA—A horse is entitled to one bite. County Judge Bouton, who was brought up on a farm, has put Thomas Hanary's animal on probation. Hanary was sued for $5,000 because a youth who hired the horse was bitten. The judge decided the horse could not yet be called vicious.

Real Martyrs

CHICAGO—There are surgical ant martyrs in Peru. Advances from an expedition of the field museum tell that when a native of the equatorial forest is wounded he gets a certain type of ant with powerful jaws. The ant is made to bite severed edges of skin and bring them together. The surgeon loses his life in healing. After he bites his body is snipped off, and the head with its death grip on the skin remains till the wound is healed.

Husband Missing

NEW YORK—When a well-known bride wins the National tennis championship again in the summer her husband probably will be absent. Helen Willis Moody explains: "He has a vacation coming, but I think he'll probably go sailing. He likes tennis, but he's more interested in sailing—sailing and squash racquets."

Need No Man

BELLSHAW, N. J.—At the age of 183 Mrs. Mary Chimesky chops wood, milks two cows, feeds the hens, carries the horse, drives to town, hoes crops and then some. She and her daughter, 65, both widows, run a manse farm. The vital statistics are as recorded in the census.

On Parity Once

WASHINGTON—Uncle Sam and John Bull are on a parity in the way they shell out. The British budget, just opened shows anticipated revenues of $3,945,000,000. For the year ending June 30 the United States will collect about $4,000,000,000.

Quite A Fellow

NEW YORK—Quite a fellow is James Lee Campbell of Galena, Kans. Seniors at Columbia have voted him the most popular, the most dignified, the most unselfish, the best natured, the best all-around man and the man who has done the most for Columbia. He won about everything except the honor of being the handsomest.

Moves Address

NEW YORK—For 115 years Arthur Curtiss James, financier, and his ancestors have had the same business address. He is moving to the 50th floor of a new skyscraper, taking along some syndicators for a wood-burning fireplace as he is having built.

Returns Home

MONMOUTH, N. J.—After a night out Uncle Sam is back home. He was not upbraided, but the triumphal entry of Jesus into the city.

Last Supper Impressive
One of the most impressive scenes of the play is that of the Last Supper, during which, softly and impressively, the chorus sings "Ave Verum" by Mozart. Other great choral numbers are "March to Calvary," "Beside the Cross," and "Crucifixion Hymn" by Gounod, and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah," with which the play ends in triumph.

Between these numbers the orchestra plays some of the finest orchestral and symphonic numbers ever given to the world. The music also constitutes a great production.

The music department of the Freiburg Passion Play is under supervision of Harold Loring, general musical director. He is a musician of national renown as conductor, organist and pianist. His most noteworthy contribution to music is his research work among the American Indians. He is an authority on the sources of Indian music.

welcomed. He is a carrier pigeon, who was released from the army transport Sonne at New York with Doughboy, Jr. The latter got to Fort Monmouth in 35 minutes, but Uncle Sam took a look around and was though lost at sea.

Has Big Task

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Charles H. Kelly, weight 160, superintendent of police at Pasadena, Calif., has a task ahead of him which he expresses confidence. He has come to take William A. Coleman, weight 361, to Pasadena to meet defrauding charges. Kelly brought along a ball and chain, but it is too small to attach to one of Coleman's ankles.

Beauty Accused

SAN FRANCISCO—A beauty is accused of making her husband a nervous wreck by nagging. Irving Keeler is seeking a divorce from the former Pauline Bradford Hampton of Dallas, who won a paltrypitude contest at Galveston in 1922. They were married last October.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21. (AP)

The only Chinese postoffice in the world outside of China was opened in Chinatown here Thursday. The station opened with a staff of four Chinese employees.

Superintendent Ju Kim speaks many Chinese dialects. Need for the new postoffice, Postmaster Harry Todd said, grew out of the heavy patronage of the mail service here by Chinese. A large part of their communication is between San Francisco and China, considerable of it in money orders and registered mail.

Swiftly Molly plugs in... answers: "number, please?"

Molly Malone keeps the Night watch

Midnight!
At the long switchboard in the telephone office sits a girl—a tiny figure in the vast, silent room. Softly the dark gloss of her hair, the silken sheen of her collar, catch the glow of light from the high ceiling.

Molly Malone keeps the night watch!

Short hours before, a thousand tiny lights sparked along the face of that switchboard. Scores of operators filled the room with the low undertone of their voices.

Then, with the night, the flashing lights had died away—the busy line of operators had dwindled as girl after girl left the ranks. Now the city sleeps. The calls are few. And Molly Malone, with a corporal's guard of helpers, watches the wires that cast their slender, nerve-like web over the town, the nation, and on to strange countries, foreign peoples.

A bell tinkles, breaking the silence.

A score of feet away, a girl lays down the palette and brush with which she has been painting mystic symbols upon the switchboard face—little signs that, next day, will tell busy operators what telephone connect to each telephone line.

A quick step; the girl bends over a flashing light whose presence the bell has signalled, calls a number to Molly.

Toward a tiny hole among the hundreds that honeycomb the board, Molly raises her hand unerringly. Swiftly she plugs in, answers:

"Number, please?"

Her other sections of the board, other girls are busy at other tasks.

One tests cords through which, tomorrow, will flow thousands on thousands of voices... another sorts into neat piles tickets on which long distance calls are recorded... a third puts sharpened pencils, tiny pads of paper, along the switchboard... preparations for the rush and bustle of the coming day.

Yet each is alert for the tiny bells. As these now and again punctuate the stillness, they turn swiftly to the board, mark the number of the light that flashes, call it to Molly.

And Molly, sitting quietly at the dark switchboard, speeds on their way the Voices of the Night—opens the wires to doctors, to hospitals, to merchants who long before day, start foodstuffs pouring toward the city's markets.

Thus is the night watch kept, against the hour when the city will shake off the bonds of sleep; when the tinkle of the signal bells will grow to a steady volume, the lights flash faster and faster, and the dawn brings other operators to reinforce the slender ranks at the switchboard.

Yet the handful of watchers* is but a squad in the army that, at the switchboards of telephone offices everywhere, stands vigil through the still hours of the morning to make it possible for you to talk with anyone, anywhere, and at any time! Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

*Less than one per cent of telephone calls are placed between midnight and six o'clock in the morning, telephone statistics show. To handle these, more than four per cent of the total number of operators are on duty... a force ample to care for several times the normal volume!
