Quick Approval Of Plan Urged By Harriman

Secretary Acheson In Closed Meeting With Senate Group

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—Senators today postponed hearings from tomorrow until Monday on the administration's $1,450,000,000 foreign arms program amid indications they will attempt to reduce it in size and scope.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) said the joint foreign relations and armed services committees will seek "the widest possible area of agreement" among members on the foreign arms plan before asking Senate action.

Harriman Urges Okay

He spoke out as W. Averell Harriman, the Marshall plan's roving ambassador in Europe, urged the House foreign affairs committee to approve the arms program. He said it is needed promptly to "protect the growing generation from war."

The actual bill before the House committee would authorize $50,000,000 less than was asked by the administration.

Connally's announcement came after Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of Defense Johnson were closeted with the Senate group behind closed doors.

Some senators were reported to have told the two cabinet members bluntly that the bill involves too wide a grant of powers to the President and more than the stop-gap program on which they have been insisting.

Harriman told the House committee that "I earnestly believe we are winning the struggle for peace and freedom in Europe."

But, he emphasized, any delay in shipping arms to America's European allies would create doubts which might reverse this trend.

"The voices of the subversive elements, the appeasers, those who would trust 'neutrality' would rise again and have an effect on the confidence and determination which now exists" he said.

Harriman, who was once the American ahbassador to Moscow, added: "I believe that it is our duty to make the present sacrifices which may be necessary to protect the growing generation from war."

The ambassador spoke out as Democrats joined with Republicans on the committee in calling for more details on President Tru-

Tidelands Bill Action Sought

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP) — Texas would control her tidelands ten and one-half miles offshore under compromise legislation now on capitol hill.

Representatives of the oil tidelands states offered the compromise bill yesterday. It seeks to settle the dispute whether the United States government or the states own the lands.

Texas Land Commissioner Bascom Giles said there is a difference between Texas' claim in the bill and those of California and Louisiana, also disputing the federal claim.

But Giles and his counterparts from the other two states said federal authorities probably would not agree to the terms of the bill they have drafted.

They also acknowledged the measure as finally introduced may not contain the provisions exactly as they mapped them.

Giles outlined the provisions as they now stand.

He said the bill provides that

CZECH REDS RENEW ATTACK AGAINST CATHOLICS

Cardinal Spellman Is Accused Of Plotting Espionage Against Communist Countries

(By The United Press)

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Aug. 2.—The Czechoslovakian Communist party charged today that Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York was on the "general staff of the American organization whose task it is to organize espionage and sabotage" in Communist countries.

The attack, most outspoken thus far against any American churchman, was made in a lengthy editorial in the Communist party newspaper Rude Pravo. It was written by Andre Simon, foreign editor of the newspaper.

Simon said that Spellman "is, after the pope, the most powerful man in the world Catholic hierarchy."

"He is a great worshipper of the Spanish Fascist dictator (Generalissimo Franco) and wrote several articles in praise of him," Simon added. "He is an arch-enemy of everything that has the least connection with progress."

"The organization is one of the centers that are sending into the world a steady current of lies and slanders about the Soviet union and the peoples of democratic countries," the editorial said.

"In close cooperation with the Vatican espionage service, which is directed by the general of the Jesuit order, Jensen, under the auspices of Vatican State Secretary Montini, the organization is trying to bring confusion into the peoples democratic countries."

Simon said the American organization, headed by Spellman, "spares neither dollars nor people."

"Only because of the constant and steady guard by the

'Atomic Cocktail' Is Credited With Miraculous Cancer Cure

(By The United Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 2—A prominent advertising executive credited his miraculous recovery from cancer today to the regular drinking of an "atomic cocktail" which made him radioactive enough "to set geiger counters chattering like a troop of frightened monkeys."

I. S. Randall, writing in the American magazine, said he had absorbed more atomic medicine than any other patient known to science. He said a cocktail of radioactive iodine a month during the past year had coverted him from a stretcher case to "a useful member of society brimming with atomic energy."

Proves Atom Can Safe Life

"My experience proves that the atom can save life as well as destroy," he said. "Today we stand on the threshold of a whole new era of scientific progress."

Randall, 57, first was treated with radio-iodine—at the Kingsbridge veterans hospital in the Bronx last September for what was believed to be a broken vertebra suffered when he slipped down a flight of stairs. The iodine was processed in the Atomic Energy commission's plant at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Woman Is Killed In Wreck Near Canadian

AMARILLO, Aug. 2. (AP)—Mrs. Wesley Bird of Oklahoma City, was killed today when the car in which she was riding hit a concrete culvert.

The accident occurred seven miles southeast of Canadian, Tex., on Highway 83 at about 3:30 a.m.

The driver of the car, Eugene Bird of St. Joseph, Mo., Mrs. Bird's nephew, said the lights went out. The door by Mrs. Bird opened as the car struck the culvert.

Bird, his mother and a sister in the car were uninjured. The group was en route to Perryton, Texas. Mrs. Bird's body will be sent to Oklahoma City.

New Mexico Woman Charged In Death

SANTA FE, N. M., Aug. 2 (AP)—The four months bride of slain state policeman E. A. (Geegee) Lopez has been charged with his murder.

Mrs. Jane Ortiz Lopez, was arrested yesterday. She was freed two hours later after her attorney, A. L. Zinn, posted $10,000 bond.

Zinn repeated an earlier statement that "Mrs. Lopez is innocent absolutely!"

The state policeman's body was found on the floor of the bedroom at the Lopez apartment July 22. A .45 caliber revolver bullet had passed through his heart and gone out the window.

Mrs. Lopez told officers shortly after the shooting that she was in the kitchen when her husband was shot. She said they had had a quarrel, but declared it was not serious.

Texas Beauty Plenty Unhappy; Loses "Miss America" Chance

MARY COLLINS

(By The United Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 2. — Mary Collins, Irish and Indian beauty from Nederland, Tex., went to court today to try to even the score with a model agency head she claims did her out of a chance to be Miss America of 1949.

Mary was selected in a Carnegie hall contest two weeks ago to represent New York City in the Atlantic City bathing beauty contest.

But William Schuller, of the Institute of Models, refused to release her from a five year contract and the Miss America contest rules says a candidate can't be under contract to anybody.

Injunction Is Asked

Schuller's application for a temporary injunction enforcing his claims will be heard in Supreme court here today.

Mary claims the contract can't be enforced because she was only 18 when she signed it last May.

Schuller's attorney said she was over 21 and he hoped to prove it.

"I think he's mean," Mary said tearfully of her modeling boss. "I wanted to be Miss America. Shoot, it doesn't happen once in a lifetime."

Schuller said that was all nonsense.

Warrants For Arrest

"I would have been perfectly willing to give up her contract if she's come and asked me," he said. "She just called up and said she was going to another agency."

What's more, Schuller charged, the five-foot six-inch beauty tried to beat up another of his models when she served a summons on her. Warrants for the arrest of Mary and two men on assault charges were sworn out in magistrates court yesterday by Monica Nash, according to Schuller.

Loses Her Chance

However the legal fight comes out, Mary has lost her chance to parade the boardwalk in the beauty contest which offers a $5,000 scholarship and a new car to the winner.

Yesterday she turned over her Miss New York crown to her runner-up, green-eyed brown-haired Loreen Osgood, of Port Huron, Mich. Loreen, 22, said she came

LAFB Re-Activation Plans Fairly Secure

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (Spcl.) Air Force officials here today reported plans for re-activation of Lubbock Air Force Base are currently "fairly secure" although other fields in Oklahoma and Texas may be scrapped.

Perrin Field at Sherman and Enid, Okla., Air Force Base may be scrapped, a spokesman said. Walker Air Force Base at Roswell, N. M., is in the same category as the Lubbock base because adequate housing facilities are being provided there as in Lubbock.

These fields were established when a 70-group Air Force was planned. Plans now call for cutting the Air Force back from its present 58 groups.

Some $500,000,000 in funds authorized by congress have been impounded by President Truman, the spokesman said, with a view to cutting back military spending program for the current fiscal year.

Installations at El Paso and San Antonio are not in question, the spokesman added.

Another officer, who asked his name not be used, said the cutback may mean "Uncle Sam does not find as much cause to fear Russia as formerly."

Allowances On Disability Are To Be Raised

Compensation For Vets Of All Wars Will Be Affected

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 — An annual increase of $112,000,000 in veterans' pensions and disability payments was voted today by the House.

The bill was passed without opposition or debate and sent to the Senate.

It would hike disability compensation for veterans of all wars, raise allowances for dependents and liberalize regulations governing determination of service-connected disabilities for World War I veterans.

Cost Is Estimated

The Veterans administration estimated cost for the first year would be $112,597,300. It made no estimate of the cost in subsequent years.

Here's what the House veterans' affairs committee said the bill would do:

1. Provide for payment of full compensation, instead of the present 75 per cent, to World War I veterans for disabilities legally presumed to be service-connected. Estimated first-year cost, $4,631,000.

2. Liberalize the compensation schedule of any veterans suffering from tuberculosis by continuing compensation for a limited time after the disease has been arrested. Estimated cost, $700,000.

Would Increase Rates

3. Increase disability and death compensation rates and basic rates for service-connected disability. Total disability rates would be hiked from $138, to $150 a month, with corresponding raises for partial disability. Increase the monthly payments to widows and dependent children of wartime casualties, from $100 a month for a widow with one child to $105, plus $25 for each additional child instead of the present $15. Estimated overall cost $91,800,000.

4 Extend additional compensation benefits to dependents of veterans with a 50 per cent service-connected disability. The present schedule provides payments only if the disability is 60 per cent and service-connected. Estimated cost, $15,406,000.

Austin Battered By Flash Thunderstorm

AUSTIN, Aug. 2. (AP)—A flash thunderstorm containing some hail as big as bird's eggs brought a near-20 degree temperature drop to sweltering Austin shortly after noon today.

Weather Meteorologist H. S. Dunham said the clouds were riding down-state on a cool front that would be called a "norther" in the winter time.

The temperature had climbed to 97 degrees at 1 p. m. before the rain dropped it back below 80.

Exhausted After 10-Hour Vigil On Rock

Navy Blimp Trying To Rescue Flood-Stranded Man In River

(By The Associated Press)

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 2.—A rescuing Navy blimp hovered protectingly early today over the weak form of a 21-year-old man marooned all night on a rock in the middle of the flooded Broad river.

A battery of floodlights made a ghostly scene in the early dawn as the blimp waited for full dalyight to lower its rescue rope to the stranded victim of rampaging flood waters.

Scores of firemen and other rescue workers on the banks 75 yards away were weary from hours of battle with the raging flood in vain rescue efforts. They were skeptical of the man's having strength left to grasp the rescue rope after his 10-hour water-bound vigil.

The swift rising current of floodwaters from a power dam 20 miles upstream trapped the man, Robert Monroe Lee, and a companion, James Dent, 25, early last night as they fished from the rock in

17,000 Ace Troops Stage Parade For Visiting Chiefs

(By The United Press)

GRAFENWOEHR, Germany, Aug. 2.—The United States soon will base an all-jet air striking force in Germany and will maintain its ground forces at present strength "ready for any emergency," the visiting U. S. chiefs of staff disclosed today.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, air chief of staff, and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army chief of staff, told newsmen here that there will be no cutback in the air and ground forces with which America will back up its commitments in Europe under the Atlantic treaty.

Airlift Is Exception

The only exception Vandenberg said, will be the Berlin airlift. That is being scaled down gradually now that the Soviet blockade of western land and water routes to Berlin has been lifted.

Vandenberg said the recently regrouped fighter force in Germany soon will be entirely equipped with jet planes. He said the propeller - driven Thunderbolts, which were America's first-line fighters at the end of World War II, are being retired.

The two generals talked with newsmen after reviewing with Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, chief of naval operations, the greatest post-war display of American military might in Germany at Adolf Hitler's former Army training grounds here.

Thousands In Parade

Fully 17,000 troops of the crack first infantry division and attached units—half the U. S. Army's strength in Europe—paraded in battle array for the visiting generals and admiral. More than 100 planes, including jet "Shooting Stars," zoomed overhead.

The 90-minute review was marred only by a driving wind. As 100 tanks and more than 1,000 other vehicles rumbled by, swirling clouds of dust whipped into the faces of the visiting officers.

The strength of the 1st Division, the only complete American division stationed in Europe, was increased from three to four regiments for the review.

Liquor Case Nearing Jury

Beer supposed to have gone to an Amarillo warehouse from Big Spring sometimes did not get to that point of destination, it was related from the witness stand this morning in the liquor law violation trial of Steve Wells.

William C. Boyce, Amarillo warehouseman, so testified under examination of County Attorney Waggoner Carr. Carr also had subpoenaed records of the Amarillo warehouse to point up the state's contention that beer deliveries, described under road manifests as destined from one wet county to another, ended up in dry counties, and that the manifests were used by the beer distributor, Pinky's Liquor Stores of Odessa, Inc., as a "scheme or a subterfuge."

Subterfuge Charged

Such a "subterfuge" was practiced here, May 27, when Wells was arrested as he stepped out of the cab of a ton truck in front of the large overhead doors of the Veterans of Foreign Wars clubhouse at Thirty-fourth and Ave. N, the state charges. There were 180 cases of beer on the truck, and Wells had a road manifest showing that the beer was en route to an Amarillo warehouse.

The defense had said when examining a jury panel Monday morning that Wells, charged with transportation and possession of beer for purpose of sale, merely stopped at the VFW club building to telephone his wife in Big Spring.

The state countered today by

Jewelry Store In France Is Robbed

DEAUVILLE, France, Aug. 2 (UP)—Four masked bandits held up the swank Van Oleef and Arpels jewelry store branch in this fashionable resort today, wounded two persons with a burst of submachine gun fire and escaped in two cars with $600,000 worth of loot.

The raid was carried out within gunshot of the villa where Rita Hayworth, reportedly expecting a baby, is staying with her husband, Prince Aly Khan.

Three of the bandits rushed into the store, which is in the fashionable Normandy hotel. The fourth stood guard outside.

TEST SOUGHT FOR BRANNAN IDEA

Compromise Farm Program Proposed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Senator Anderson (D-NM) today proposed a compromise farm bill to break the congressional deadlock over farm legislation.

One section of the Anderson proposal would allow Secretary of Agriculture Brannan to try out his "production payments" plan on oranges, grapefruit, apples, vegetables and similar farm products classed as "non-storable perishables."

The other two sections of the Anderson compromise—being considered at closed sessions of a Senate agriculture subcommittee—would:

1. Put into operation a "flexible price-support" program of from 75 to 90 per cent of parity for so-called basic crops. These include corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts. This is a modification of the Aiken law which provides for 60 to 90 per cent of parity. The Aiken law is due to go into effect next January.

Reactions Mixed

(A parity price is one intended to give a farm product the same relative purchase power it had in a past favorable period.)

2. Allow a similar flexible support program for meats, butter, cheese, wool, oats, rye and similar "non-basic" but storable commodities, if effective control programs are approved by the secretary of agriculture.

Immediate reaction to the Anderson proposals were mixed.

Senator Aiken (R-Vt), ranking GOP member of the group trying to draft a bipartisan bill, said "this needs pretty careful screening." He sponsored the farm law due to go into effect next year.

White House Will Not Be Replaced

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. (AP)—The White House is going to be renovated instead of replaced.

Senator McKellar (D-Tenn), chairman of an official commission on the project, made the announcement following a session in the White House today.

Congress has appropriated $5,400,000 to do the work.

In one report to Congress, President Truman conceded it might be cheaper to rebuild than to try to repair the ancient structure However, he said the American people would like to preserve the present building insofar as possible for sentimental and historic reasons.

The commission decided to retain the mansion in its present form rather than build an entirely new structure as had been advocated by some congressmen and others.

Woman's Vision Is Restored By Crash

AMARILLO, Aug. 2. (UP)— An automobile crash this week restored the vision that she lost seven years ago, also in a highway mishap, a young telephone operator said today.

Murlene Chesney, 20, suffered an eye injury in 1942 in a car wreck. Vision in her left eye was impaired so that she could barely distinguish between daylight and darkness.

Sunday night, she was a passenger in a car which pulled away from an Amarillo night club and struck a gas tank-truck.

The driver of the car was killed. Injured, Miss Chesney was removed to a hospital. There she discovered that the impact of the crash had restored her vision to the damaged eye.

Satira Again In Limelight

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2 (AP) — Dancing Patricia "Satira" Schmidt of Toledo is in the limelight again.

The 24-year-old creator of exotic dances was named correspondent in a separate maintainance suit filed by a Cleveland housewife yesterday.

Mrs. Louise Ann Salupo, 34, mother of three children, said in a petition that her husband, Sebastian, 35, spent this last weekend with Miss Schmidt in Calumet City, Ill.

Last October, Miss Schmidt was released on a presidential pardon from the Guanabacoa women's prison in Cuba after serving more than a year for killing her married lover, John Mee, Chicago attorney. The slaying occurred aboard Mee's yacht, "Satira," as it lay in Havana harbor.

Informed of the current court action, the black haired "Satira" said she does not know Salupo and does not "recognize the name."

Now appearing at a Calumet City night club, Miss Schmidt said she spent the last week end visiting a girl friend "with three children" in Chicago. Calumet City is a famous night spot area south of

Special Grand Jury May Probe Slaying Of Alice Newscaster

ALICE, Aug 2 (AP)—County Attorney Homer E. Dean, jr., said today the prosecution would welcome appointment of a special grand jury to investigate the slaying of W. H. (Bill) Mason radio commentator.

L. Broeter, 79th district court judge, announced last night he is considering calling such a session.

"If the judge wants to call a special grand jury," said Dean, "it would be fine with the prosecution. Sam Smithwick's trial would be held sooner and that would be favorable to us."

The next regular term of the court is not until Oct. 31.

Lawyer Not Obtained

The examining trial for 60-year-old Deputy Sheriff Smithwick, who is charged with murdering Mason last Friday, was scheduled for today but the possibility of a postponement seemed strong.

An authority who declined to be named said last night that Smithwick probably would appear before Justice of the Peace Brown Fuller today and ask for a postponement on the grounds that he hasn't been able to get a lawyer.

Four attorneys conferred in a body with Smithwick yesterday afternoon in his second floor cell in the Jim Wells county jail, but they said afterward no arrangements had been made to retain them.

Informed that Smithwick may ask a postponement today, Sam Reams, district attorney said: "if he has a good reason for not having a lawyer, I wouldn't push too hard. I would be willing to be reasonable about this."

Put Self In Jail

Dean said: "If Smithwick hasn't a good reason, I would be inclined to go right ahead with the examining trial."

And Justice Fuller said: "I previously set the hearing up to give him plenty of time to arrange for counsel."

Judge Broeter said he probably would decide in the next several days whether to call a special session of the grand jury.

Smithwick, 263-pound father of seven grown children, placed himself in the Jim Wells county jail following the slaying of Bill Mason, veteran newspaperman and sharp-tongued radio crusader. Mason was shot to death as he sat in his automobile in an industrial section of Alice. In his last broadcast—and in previous ones—he had made Smithwick a target for his radio comment.

Owned Club Property

The deputy sheriff of Latin-American descent, has been a peace officer in Jim Wells and Duval counties for more than 25 years. He is a native of Jim Wells county and his farm and ranch interests near Alice. Mason had accused him of being the owner of property on which a night club is situated and had stated in his last broadcast that prostitution was practiced at the night spot.

County records show that Smithwick is owner of the property on which the club stands, but the beer and wine license issued for the place shows another man to be the operator.

Radio station KBKI, of which Mason was program director, yesterday devoted the period at which his daily broadcast was held to a memorial program. The program included a brief sketch of Mason's journalistic, radio and other activities.

After the program the station had a brief period of silence.

'Frisco Opera To Allow Singing Of Kirsten Flagstad

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2 (AP) Kirsten Flagstad may sing in the San Francisco War Memorial opera house this fall after all.

Trustees of the war memorial voted 6-to-5 last night to lift their ban on the Norwegian soprano. The opera association quickly announced the 1949 season, perilled by the prospective loss of its top star, would go on as scheduled.

Ban Rescinded

With one member absent, the trustees voted 6-to-4 two weeks ago to bar the war memorial building to Miss Flagstad on grounds her appearance might result in disturbances. The majority resolution at the time said she joined her husband, an accused Quisling, in Norway during the war.

In voting last night to rescind the ban, the six trustees disregarded heated demands by county councils of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars that the singer be denied the right to use the opera house.

The Kaibab National Forest in northern Arizona comprises approximately 750,000 acres and contains the largest stand of virgin timber in the world.

HUSBAND SLAYS WIFE AND LOVER—Mrs. Blanche Lane, former showgirl and her paramour, Arnold Myers, 37, were slain by her husband, New York Patrolman William R. Lane fired one bullet into each of them, then killed himself with a third shot.

MONEY IN BRICKLAYING

BOSTON (U.P.) — When Philip Greenberg, a bricklayer, was brought into a hospital after a tumble from a staging he looked to nurses like a poor working man. But when they peeled his clothes off to treat his back injuries they discovered $14,512 in cash in his pocket. Greenberg explained he was carrying the money in the hope of getting to the bank during his lunch hour.

Strikers Hit Buenos Aires

BUENOS ARES, Aug. 2 (AP) — The Buenos Aires area has been hit by crippling strikes tying up construction work and milk and dairy deliveries.

Protesting the government's failure to approve wage increases, about 120,000 construction workers left their jobs yesterday in a 48-hour stoppage. The strike was spread over a 36-mile radius from Buenos Aires. Similar strikes affected La Plata, capital of Buenos Aires province, and Lujan, west of Buenos Aires.

Dairy Workers Walk Out

Pay increases of $4 to $6 a day for construction foremen, assistant foremen and helpers were being sought, but the national economic council refused authority for the labor department to approve the raises, strike leaders said.

A city-wide strike of deliverymen and dairy workers left the city's 3,000,000 residents without milk or cream yesterday. This strike resulted from the refusal of dairy companies to reinstate workers whom they had dismissed to offset the rising cost of raw milk and higher commissions paid for deliveries.

Herb King Parlays $10 Into Millions

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2 (U.P.) —A 66-year-old Chinese who came to San Francisco 49 years ago with $10 in his pockets has run his worldly fortune into several millions by building a herbal empire, buying real estate and selling spicy night club entertainment.

He is fabulous Fong Wan, known mainly as the "king of the herbalists in North America." He acquired his title by treating thousands who claimed to suffer from almost every ailment known to man.

More orthodox practitioners scoffed at Fong's methods as being based on superstitious folk lore. In 1940 at federal trade commission hearings, his theories were attacked and his advertising branded false and misleading.

A year later the commission decided Fong's methods were of "historical interest only, with no acceptability in the scientific sense." He was ordered to cease advertising. Fong was not stopped, however. The astute oriental bought pages of advertising space in newspapers, inserted testimony from the hearings, which was largely pro-Fong.

Although his main business has been herbs, Fong is making thousands in real estate and income from two hotels he owns in San Francisco, plus restaurants and night clubs.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 2 (AP) — Now Mah Jong is taboo in Shanghai.

Communist authorities today decreed it was a waste of time to play China's favorite game.

Sixty-eight players were arrested, fined up to 40,000 Communist dollars each sentenced to four hours in jail and made to sweep the streets.

Consul Closes China Offices

SHANGHAI, Aug. 2 (AP) — The United States consulate general was closed to the public today.

It probably will stay closed until labor demonstrations by former American Navy employees end.

Negotiations between Reuben Thomas, consulate administrative officer, and 800 Chinese, Indian and white Russian workers at the Communist labor board were resumed today.

Workers Demand Bonus

The workers are demanding six and a half months bonus and severance pay. If every former U. S. Navy employe here received that amount the coast to the United States government would exceed $250,000.

Pay adjustments have been getting into large figures since the Communists took over Shanghai. One foreign owned firm recently paid more than $110,000 in back pay to contract labor which was not directly employed by it. There have been reports of other settlements running higher.

State Police Patrol Mine Area To Avoid More Strike Violence

WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 2 (AP)—A state police patrol stood by today to prevent any further outbreak of the violence in which 16 lumber trucks were badly damaged at nearby Vestaburg.

No one was injured in the disturbance yesterday at the Vesta No. 5 mine of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.—the first flareup in the western Pennsylvania soft coal fields in several years.

Three of the lumber trucks were burned, three were pushed down a 50-foot embankment and the others were stoned by a crowd of men. No arrests were made.

Wages Cut

The mine is one of a number affected by a timbermen's strike which started June 12. The timber workers supply posts used in supporting mine tunnel roofs.

In calling the strike, the United Construction Workers union—an affiliate of district No. 50 of the United Mine workers—said timber workers wages had been cut from $1 to 80 cents an hour. A conference has been called for today with the Tri-State Lumbermen's association at Uniontown, Pa., to discuss possible settlement of the work stoppage.

The disturbance yesterday occurred shortly after the 16 trucks, all carrying lumber, pulled up at the Vestaburg mine. The vehicles bore West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland license plates.

Incident Described

One of the drivers, Bennett Sisler, 21, of Friendsville, Md., gave the following version:

Directed to deliver some posts by a Uniontown (Pa.) company, Sisler went to the Vestaburg mine and began to unload his lumber. He was advised by pickets from the United Construction workers not to unload and he complied.

A group of men appeared as the mine shifts changed and began stoning Sisler's truck and the others. Sisler and several drivers were forced to run into the nearby hills.

Sisler said none of the pickets participated in the disturbance and added he could not identify the men who took part in the stoning.

He and the other drivers did not offer any resistance, Sisler said, because "we were outnumbered at least 10 to 1."

Examining Trial In Shooting Is Slated

CROSBYTON, Aug. 2 (Special) Examining trial for Jose Gonzales, about 35, charged in the fatal Sunday shooting of a Mexican farm laborer, has been postponed until 10 a.m. Thursday, Justice of the Peace I. C. Byerley, said Monday.

Byerley said the hearing will be held in his office at Ralls. The examining trial had been set for Monday afternoon, but the postponement was granted to allow a witness to the shooting, Jimmy Aganado, to attend a funeral in San Marcos.

Gonzales remained in the Crosby county jail here, charged with the death of Miguel Cervantes, 35, of Mathis. Aganado, in a sworn statement to County Attorney Lloyd A. Wicks, jr., said he saw Gonzales shoot Cervantes after the pair argued while riding in a pickup truck between Caprock and Lorenzo.

MEET THE MANAGER—Morris Edwin Nunley, manager of the Fabric Mart, was born at Snyder Nov. 5, 1924. His family moved to Ballinger when he was about a year old, and he went through school there, graduating from high school in 1942. He attended Hardin-Simmons university for a year, then went into the Navy, serving three years in the Pacific and receiving five battle stars. He returned and entered Tech, graduating in 1947 with a business administration degree. He is completing his work for a master's degree now. While attending Tech he worked part time in the Fabric Mart, starting out in the stockroom. In July, 1948, he was named manager. He is a member of Junior Chamber of Commerce and a Baptist. His hobbies are fishing and photography. Unmarried, he lives at 2311 Fourteenth street. (Staff Photo).

Paris Seamstress Strike Continuing

PARIS, Aug. 2 (AP) — French dress designers will go ahead with their fall showings this week, but how to fill orders when their seamstresses are on strike is what has them worried.

When the shows—two days behind schedule—are over, the fashion houses will be faced with foreign buyers requiring quick delivery.

Some of the sewing girls are drifting back to their machines, but many are still idle, apparently determined to fight their case out.

The fashion houses say they are forbidden to grant wage increases by a government wage-freezing policy. Many appealed by letter to their seamstresses to return to work. The answer of many of the girls was to burn appeals outside their union's offices.

Deaf Residents To Hold Session Here

An all-day meeting of deaf residents of the South Plains is to be conducted Sunday at Thirty-fourth street Baptist chapel, it was announced Monday.

Rev. Carter Bearden of Austin, deaf minister, will preach to the deaf both Sunday morning and Sunday night and also will meet with them at the church each night through Friday night. Time is to be announced later.

Those who conveniently can bring a dish for lunch Sunday were asked to do so.

Congressman Asks Pensions For Vets Of The Confederacy

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (INS) — Eighty-four years after the war between the states, a southern congressman proposed today that the United States extend recognition to the Confederate States of America.

The recognition would be indirect, for Rep. Hare (D) S. C. wants Congress to take cognizance of the government of Jeff Davis to the extent of aiding the last few remaining "boys in grey."

Hare introduced a bill to pay pensions to the score or less of Confederate veterans who are still alive and who are meeting this year in Little Rock, Arkansas, for their final reunion.

Widows Included

The bill provided that the same pensions paid to Union soldiers still alive would go also to the former rebels against whom they fought. Widows of Confederate veterans would also receive pensions under Hare's proposal.

The act would take effect as soon as applications were filed by Confederate veterans or their widows and would be administered by the Veterans administration, which now handles benefits for union soldiers.

Congress has never voted any funds for Confederate veterans and the time was when the mere suggestion that this be done would have raised the roof on Capitol hill.

Hare is a 30-year-old naval veteran of World War II who served 32 months in the Pacific and fought at Midway, Guadacanal, the Philippines and Okinawa.

Lubbock Woman Is Injured In Wreck

A Lubbock woman suffered minor injuries and her brother was killed in an accident on the West coast near San Francisco Friday night, friends here learned Monday.

Mrs. R. B. Paul of 2420 North third was reported injured when the car which her brother, Archie Harold Casey, 22, a steelworker of Newark, Calif., was in a head-on collison with another machine. Two women, Mrs. Hallie Putman Collins, 41, a teacher at Mills college, and mother, Mrs. Sadie Putman, 74, both of Oakland, were killed in the crash. They were in the other machine.

Mrs. Paul was visiting relatives on the West coast. Mrs. Paul was reported to have suffered minor injuries. A cousin of the dead man, Paul Casey, and two small daughters of Mrs. Collins were injured slightly.

1948 Beauty Scorns French Swim Suits

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP) — None of these scanty French bathing outfits will ever reveal the charms of Miss America of 1948.

"They are not decent and I don't think American girls should wear them," says the 18-year-old beauty queen, Bebe Shopp of Hopkins, Minn.

She gave her veto when questioned by photographers yesterday as she left by plane for a trip to Europe.

Paris and French shore resorts are among her ports of call, but if she makes any bathing suit appearances it will be U. S. style.

Daredevil Finishes Trip Through Swift Waters Of Niagara

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Aug. 2 (AP)—Major Lloyd Hill, after a week-end in hospital and a few hours of indecision, yesterday completed his interrupted daredevil trip through the swirling rapids and eddies of the Niagara river.

Hill walked out of a Niagara Falls hospital where he had been taken, bruised and injured, on Saturday after his 625-pound steel drum had been trapped in a whirlpool three miles from his starting point.

Obscured By Foam

After deciding not to complete his trip yesterday, Hill changed his mind, crawled through the hatch of his drum 500 feet below the whirlpool where he was trapped Saturday, and rolled and bumped his way three miles down the turbulent current to Queenston.

Only a handful of people watched the trip. The drum raced through the rapids, half-obscured by foam, and came out safely in smooth running water below. Side currents from the hydro station at Queenston washed his craft against the United States shore twice but Hill finally floated free and was taken from the water at the Queenston boat landing.

Chiang Kai-Shek To Pay Visit To Korea

SEOUL, Aug. 2 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, China's Nationalist leader, may come to Korea tomorrow to discuss the proposed Pacific Pact against Communism with President Syngman Rhee.

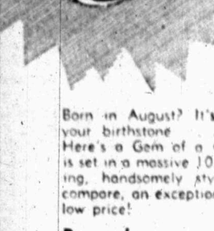

Credence to the report was lent today by the arrival of a Chinese C-47 transport plane bearing 10 members of the Nationalist air force and two civilians. One was quoted as saying the group would spend several days here.

Man Is Reproaching Mother Who Objects To His Plan To Have Bride Share Their Home

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have been a widow for 10 years and I have three children. The eldest is married. The youngest is now away at college; and the second, a son, still at home, is planning to be married this year or next. He poses the problem.

He has made it clear to me that he doesn't intend to start housekeeping immediately after marriage, but that he and his bride will live here with me, paying board of course, until they have saved enough to buy a place of their own. Fine for them. I don't want it.

I returned to office work after my husband's death and I shall continue this self-help program; but I have no intention of cooking and caring for one more person—rather than one less—after Eric marries. How can I make him understand this, now, before he and his girl go ahead with such selfish plans?

MOTHER CARRIES BURDEN ENOUGH

I HAVE already told Eric that he shouldn't marry until he can make a home for his wife; but he says he cannot tell his girl that his mother doesn't want her to live "with us." That's not the point, in my opinion.

I firmly believe that all young people should start out on their own, if at all possible; and furthermore I have worked hard enough both in business and at home, without taking on the additional work and the adjustments that would be my portion, if I tried to accommodate the newlyweds in my apartment. Does this attitude of mine amount to shirking a duty? Please advise.

Signed: E. V.

MAN IS TRYING TO CAJOLE TWO

DEAR E. V.: It doesn't make sense for Eric to state that he can't tell his girl that you don't want her to "live with us." Why can't he tell her? Why would he tacitly deceive her about your firm opposition to the idea? And why does he try to confuse your mind and "take the castle" by emotional pressure?

It strikes me that Eric is running to and fro, trying to put over a deal between two women neither of whom relishes the implications of his economics. I'll wager the girl is dragging her feet about living with you, even as you are declaiming against it, and that's why he feels he can't tell her just where you stand.

For advice—buck up; stand by your convictions without mincing words. I notice a tendency to back down when Eric questions the 'delicacy" of your attitude, for you say your blunt personal preference isn't the point. I think it is; and considering the circumstances, it is perfectly valid.

RIGHTEOUS ADJUSTMENT IN FAMILY RELATIONS

THERE comes a season in family relationships, when children are grown and parents are lifeworn, when new adjustments are in order—adjustments which relax pressure-demands on parents as such, and require the rising generation to "do" for themselves and begin to give something to others besides.

Once upon a time it was assumed that children were eternal debtors to parents and could never do enough to "repay" for the "gift" of life; and more recently we've heard a lot of an equally purblind school of thought which presumes that parents, on the other hand, can never do enough for children to "atone" for bringing them into this world of ours.

Justice in human relations, based on respect for individual right, won't be served by either of these extremes. Rather I say there comes a season when parents should be "delivered" from servitude to children, just as children should be released from parents and indeed required to go free and "get going" on their own steam. You have entered this season with Eric, so don't give ground to his unfair demands.

M. H.

Round Of Parties Is Given In Honor Of Misses Ann Bettis And Jill Hutchins

Two guests in Lubbock, Misses Ann Bettis of Olney and Jill Hutchins of Fort Worth, are being honored at a round of parties that began during the week end. Their hostesses, Misses Courtney Sigler and Lucy Wommack, will give a coke party in their honor Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Wommack home, 3321 Twenty-second.

Miss Bettis and Miss Wommack were classmates at Texas Christian university last year and Miss Hutchins and Miss Sigler attended Christian college in Columbia, Mo.

Misses Margaret Fariss and Maxine Boyd are entertaining with a coke party at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the home of the latter as a courtesy to the out-of-town guests. Thirty girls have been invited.

Mrs. Friend Is Hostess

In compliment to Miss Bettis, Mrs. F. R. Friend 3313 Twenty-fourth, gave a coke party at 10 o'clock this morning. Her list included 20 girls.

Miss Bettye Thomson gave a dessert-bridge Monday afternoon and Miss Shelley Furr entertained with a buffet supper Sunday night at the Lubbock Country club.

The series was initiated Saturday night when Miss Maxine Boyd gave a dinner party on her birthday. Covers were laid for Misses Norma Holton, Beverly Powell, Shelley Furr, Bettye Thomson, Courtney Sigler, Ann Bettis, Lucy Wommack, Margaret Fariss and Jill Hutchins.

Club Board Has Report

A report on the financial standing of the Lubbock Women's club was given at a monthly meeting of the board of directors Monday in the home of Mrs. Ivy G. Savage. Mrs. James G. Allen, chairman, presided.

The club has $20,000 in savings deposit at Citizens National bank.

Proposed early fall projects were discussed. A house Beautiful clinic will be sponsored late in September.

The club will sponsor Wes Izzard of Amarillo in a lecture concerning his recent trip to Europe Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of O. L. Slaton Junior High school. Tickets will be on sale at the door and may be bought at Lattimore's Gift shop and the women's department at the Avalanche-Journal. The admission is 60 cents, which includes tax.

Mrs. James Atcheson will play musical selections and Mrs. Frank C. Goodwin will sing at the lecture program. The speaker will be introduced by Chas. A. Guy, editor of the Avalanche-Journal.

Names of three new life members were announced at the board meeting. They are Mesdames J. T. Krueger, M. G. Abernathy and J. E. Vickers. Only six life memberships remain available.

Rep. Smith To Be Evening Speaker At Short Course

Featuring the 8 o'clock session of the Rural Women's Educational Short Course on "Meeting Family Needs" underway at Texas Technological college will be a talk by Preston Smith, state representative. Miss Kate Adele Hill, district agent, Extension service, A. and M. College, will preside. The program will be on the green south of the administration building.

The college and the extension service are on cooperating in staging the short course which will continue through Thursday. Miss Hill and Miss Margaret W. Weeks, dean of the division of home economics, are general chairmen.

Mr. Smith's talk will be on "Education Begins at Home." He also will cite accomplishments of the 51st legislature.

Patsie Scales will lead group singing and there will be introduction of the staff and of special guests.

Orientation In Afternoon

Following afternoon registration in Women's Dorm. No [illegible] tation was conducted in Tech Aggie Memorial auditorium with Dean Weeks presiding.

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of the college, gave the welcome. Dr. Mina Lamb gave nutrition news and Mrs. Eloise Johnson, specialist in family life education in the extension service, spoke on "The Family As We Find It."

Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock in the women's dormitory.

The three-day program will include lectures and demonstrations on selecting accessories, making bracelets, posture, skin care and general grooming, care of the hair and hair styling and basic color principles.

Wednesday night's program will feature a talk on "The United Nations" by Mrs. J. W. Walker of Plainview, outstanding club leader.

Election To Be Held

Annual business meeting and election of officers will be held by the Ladies association of the Lubbock Country club at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Guest day will be observed Wednesday at the club. Following luncheon, games of bridge will be played.

Gift Party Is Staged

Officers of St. John's Methodist Wesleyan Service Guild were hostesses with a shower and informal reception Monday in the home of Mrs. R. P. Miller, 2822 Twenty-fifth as a courtesy to Miss Marilyn Neelley. The honoree will marry Joe E. Chandler Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. John's church.

Thirty guests called.

Hostesses were Mesdames Miller, Orville Spradling, Archie Leonard, Gene Quest, J. B. Earnest, Monte Lee and C. E. Houston.

Church Societies Meet For Luncheon, Program Hours

Sixty members and three guests of First Christian Women's council attended a luncheon and program at Fellowship hall Monday. Other church groups conducted Monday meetings, also.

Misses Joardis Park and Tellitha Vestal spoke for the council on the Yakima Indian Mission in Washington state, and following the talks, members voted to send their mission offering for the next six months to the mission.

Mrs. Charles Files was in charge of a program on "All Peoples Church and Community Center in Los Angeles." Mrs. W. P. Jennings brought a devotion on "Within The Family of God" and Mrs. Mabel Glover sang, "Lord, I Want To Be A Christian." A reading of a Buddhist girl was presented by Miss Beverly Bantz.

Mrs. Grady West presided for business.

LESSONS TAUGHT FOR CIRCLES

Mrs. Joe W. Christian was hostess to the Morning circle of the Women's council of Lubbock View Christian church Monday. Ten members and one guest, Mrs. A. M. Richardson, attended.

The devotion, "Some Steps To Freedom," was brought by Mrs. Elliott Taylor and the lesson, "Parable of the Sower," was taught by Mrs. W. P. Jennings.

Sixteen members of Circle 2 of the Council met with Mrs. Raymond Furr for a lesson by Mrs. Wesley Dunlap. The devotion was given by Mrs. Harry Holcomb.

FIRST METHODIST WSCS AT MEETING

A solo by Mrs. J. T. Lovett opened the meeting of First Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held Monday afternoon in the chapel. Under the direction of Mrs. James Gammill of the Canyon community, the group repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Mrs. T. H. Turner, assisted by Mrs. B. F. Hodges, brought a devotion. Approximately 40 persons attended.

"Missionary Work As I Saw It at Scarritt College" was discussed by Mrs. G. C. Beard who was a student at the Tennessee college last year. She spoke on returned missionaries at the school, young men and women preparing for misionary work, and nationals who are students there. A prayer by Mrs. Beard closed the meeting.

Calvary Baptist WMS Has Circle Meetings

Calvary Baptist WMS circles met Monday as follows:

Ruby Hayden Parker, hostess Mrs. Cecil Brashear, 1504 Arnett, met Monday morning at 10 o'clock for Bible lesson by Mrs. Walter Wells. Four members and four guests attended.

Blanche Groves, Mrs. H. R. Terrell, hostess. Six present. Miss Mae Horne led Bible study.

Hardy, Mrs. J. H. Comer hostess. Four present for Bible lesson led by hostess.

Helen Leech and Helen Nixon circles, Mrs. R. J. Teal, hostess. Thirteen members and three visitors attended. Mrs. J. D. Blethroade led Bible lesson.

A Canadian food cargo recently arriving at Liverpool, England, included 3,600,000 eggs.

Banquet Is Scheduled

A graduation banquet for members of the Beauty Salon Training institute, sponsored by the Texas Association of Accredited Beauty culturists, will be conducted at 8 o'clock Wednesday night in the ballroom of the Hilton hotel.

Approximately 50 certificates will be issued to groups in four classes. The institute has been in progress since July 5, under the direction of Miss Gertrude Prince, training specialist with the University of Texas Industrial and Business training bureau, cooperating with the State Board for Vocational Education, distributive education division.

Warlick Carr, attorney at law, will be toastmaster for the banquet.

The program has been announced as follows:

Singing led by Miss Shirley McRee, director of religious education, First Presbyterian church; invocation. Mrs. T. D. Julian, director in TAABC; dinner music, Gene Horton; introduction of guests; presentation of certificates, Dr. Doyle D. Jackson, professor of education and psychology, Texas Tech college; film, "Telephone Courtesy," presented by C. H. Cale, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone company; announcements.

Search For Slayer Spreads To Mexico

(By The Associated Press)

LAREDO, Aug. 2—A scar-faced Laredo importer was hunted in Mexico today—wanted for questioning in the hotel slaying of two men.

The trail of George (Gavo) Ochoa faded out yesterday at a Nuevo Laredo golf course. That's the last place he was seen.

Police Chief D. O. Gallagher said he had sent two men across the Rio Grande yesterday in the hope they could find Ochoa and talk him into returning to Laredo.

The importer is charged with slaying Henry Whittenberg, jr., 31. Police want to question him in the fatal shooting of Air Force Cpl. James Lindsay, 33, Huntsville, Tenn.

One Man Suspected

The men were found dead in separate rooms of the Plaza hotel Sunday. Police said there is evidence the same killer shot both men.

Whittenberg's body was found on the tenth floor and Lindsay's on the fifth.

Officers learned tha Ochoa played a nine-hole golf course at Nuevo Laredo, just across the Rio Grande, several times Sunday. Companions said he joked at the idea he was wanted as a murder suspect.

Joe Nieto and Manuel Sanchez, both of Laredo, told officers they played golf with Ochoa at the Mexico course.

Gallagher said last night he is convinced both men were killed by bullets from the same .32 caliber pistol.

Motive Unknown

The police chief said he still has not been able to pin down a motive for the shootings. He said he has learned Ochoa and Lindsay were acquainted, but has not been able to establish whether Whittenberg knew either of the men.

Gallagher said Mary Louise Cruse, a San Antonio woman who saw Whittenberg shot down, was released from jail yesterday on $1,000 bond and returned to her home. She had been held as a material witness.

"We lost the trail at the golf course," the police chief declared. "But we'll pick Ochoa up in a few days. I think he's just playing hide-and-seek with us across the river.

"I sent out a couple of cantact men—fellows who were friendly with Ochoa—and I hope they can find him and talk him into coming back.

Camera Shots Shown At Optimist Meeting

Arthur W. Young, professor of agronomy and head of the department of plant industry at Tech, today showed picture slide scenes he took in New Mexico and Colorado with an Argus C-3 camera to fellow members of the Optimist club at a luncheon meeting at Hotel Lubbock.

Accompanied by comments by Young, the slides portrayed wildlife and beautiful flower scenes of the two states.

Club President G. C. Stewart announced Fred Y. Becker of San Angelo, lieutenant governor of Optimist Zone A of District 7, will be the featured speaker at the Aug. 16 meeting.

Next Tuesday's meeting will not be held at the usual time but at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Charles L. Cobb, 3207 Twenty-fifth, where a barbecue chicken dinner will be served.

Cecil Turner was a club guest. Invocation was given by Rev. Cecil Ray.

Suicide Is Ruled In Death Of Amarilloan

AMARILLO, Aug. 2 (U.P.)—James Roy Hutto, 68, a prominent Amarillo insurance man, drove his car to the city's largest cemetery yesterday and committed suicide by drinking cyanide.

His body was found in the automobile, last night. He had been missing from his home since yesterday morning. Justice of Peace Mrs. W. J. Flesher returned a verdict of suicide. Hutto had been in ill health for three years.

Survivors include his widow and two brothers, R. W. Hutto of Norman, Okla., and A. B. Hutto of Oklahoma City.

Russian Protest Of Italy Is Rejected

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. (AP)—The United States today emphatically rejected a Russian protest against Italy's membership in the North Atlantic defense pact.

Secretary Acheson termed the charges "utterly without foundation" in a note delivered to the Russian embassy.

"The text of the treaty itself is the best answer to such misrepresentations and allegations," the American reply said.

Russia had charged that Italy violated its peace treaty by joining in the 12-nation defense treaty last April.

Acheson had denounced the Russian charges at his news conference last Wednesday, foreshadowing today's formal rejection of Russia's latest accusations.

Lubbock Couple To Attend DAV Session

The 29th annual convention of Disabled American Veterans will be attended by Robert O. Pugh, commander of the Lubbock chapter of DAV, and Mrs. Pugh, regional commander of the DAV auxiliary, Aug. 14-20 in Cleveland, O.

Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, national DAV commander, will preside at sessions.

At a meeting Monday night in the Pugh home, the Lubbock chapter chose the name of Capt. John T. Kershner, who was killed in action, to be used in the national annual memorial service to represent the war dead of Lubbock county.

Clifford Hunter, who represents the DAV on the committee to suggest a new name for Lubbock Air Force base, reported on the committee meeting held Saturday.

Response has been good to the request that names of war dead be telephoned to Mrs. J. Spruce White, No. 7622, said Pugh. Names are being assembled for the memorial plaque to be located in the new courthouse. The plaque will bear names of war dead of World war I and World war II.

Decision has been made to include names of men killed in action whose families live here and were living in Lubbock county at time of death of the service man and plan to make their home in the county in the future, regardless of whether the service man's former home was here.

Visitors To Mackenzie State Park Boost Mark Above 1948

The gate count of visitors to Mackenzie State park maintains a slight lead over last year's record breaking figures despite a sharp drop during July, the city parks board reported today.

S. C. Rawlings, park officer, said 853,232 persons have entered the park during the state fiscal year, which ends Aug. 31. The count during the same period last year was 848,893.

Each figure represented approximately 40 per cent of the visitors to all of the more-than-30 state parks, parks officials said. More persons visited Mackenzie during each period than the next 15 state parks combined.

Rawlings said, however, the count of 179,261 last month was more than 10 per cent under the 200,774 during July, 1948. attractions elsewhere on July 4 were the principal reason for the drop in Mackenzie visitors during the month, officials said.

Weather Is Blamed

But they pointed out that the total for the year thus far is the largest in history despite weather during the spring and early summer which reduced attendance sharply. The total count for the entire 1948 fiscal year was 1,010,618.

Rawlings reported that 66,866 automobiles were driven into the park last month, including 371 with out-of-state license plates.

TWO ARE INJURED

The Colgate Dental Cream now at your dealer's is the same formula that was used in the tests.

You can use Colgate's with confidence. And using it as directed is a safe, proved way to avoid needless cavities—actually help stop tooth decay at home!

To The Dental Profession

The research described here was conducted in leading dental clinics under the supervision of some of America's foremost dental research authorities.

A detailed report of the tests is now in preparation and will be available for your use and study in the near future. If you wish a copy, send your request on your own professional letterhead to Colgate, Jersey City 2, N. J.

These studies represent the most exhaustive evidence ever offered to the dental profession of actual reduction of cavities. They present scientific proof that always brushing teeth right after eating is one of the most effective ways yet known to help stop tooth decay before it starts. And Colgate Dental Cream is the only dentifrice that can prove the statements reported here.

NO CHANGE IN FLAVOR, FOAM, OR CLEANSING ACTION!

Millions know that Colgate Dental Cream cleans their breath while it cleans their teeth. That its wonderful wake-up flavor is preferred over all other dentifrices tested. That no other toothpaste does a better job of cleaning teeth. And there has been no change in Colgate's famous flavor—its marvelous foaming quality—or its safe and thorough cleansing action!

Mothers! Children Love Colgate's Flavor! It's Easy to Start Them On The Colgate Way To Reduce Tooth Decay!

9 out of 10 children have one or more decayed teeth by the time they enter school. So don't wait another day to start your children on Colgate Dental Cream. WEALTH IN FRIENDSHIPS HARD TO MEASURE

"Hay" Davidson Observes 40th Anniversary Of Continuous Business In City Of Lubbock

BY BILL CLARK
Journal Staff Writer

Forty years ago tomorrow, on Aug. 3, 1909, a young man bought a feed and livery stable business in Lubbock, paying $1,355.24 for it.

Today H. A. Davidson, wholesaler of sundries, still flourishes after 40 years of continuous operation and Mr. Davidson would be hard pressed to measure his wealth in terms of friendships he has made over that span of four decades.

The man and the business still live b ya motto that has been a byword for those 40 years: "Be kind to everybody, for some day you may have something to sell."

Assisted In Business

"Hay" Davidson has been in bad health in recent weeks, and lately he has missed his daily trip to the place of business on several occasions. But his illness has had no effect on the man who has been called "Lubbock's most cheerful person," with an ever-friendly smile, a cheery greeting and a warm handshake for everyone he meets.

"The past few months have been a joy to me," Mr. Davidson said. "I have enjoyed my friends many thousandfold."

Today he is assisted in the management of the business, now located at 1419 Ave. E, by his son, Joe, and his sister-in-law, Miss Mary Hall.

Hay, one of his major items in early days, which with his initials combined to give him his widely-known nickname, is no longer sold, but the firm is a wholesaler of fountain supplies, candles, fresh vegetables, fruits and sundries.

One Of Oldest Firms

The business is one of the three oldest still operating under the same ownership in Lubbock.

Herbert Alvin Davidson was born at Dyer Station, Gibson county, Tenn., Aug. 29, 1878, one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davidson.

He attended elementary and high school there, and gained an ambition to become a "drummer" after seeing salesmen call on his father who operated a general merchandise store.

So in 1898, the 21-year-old youth went to St. Louis to become an apprentice in the Ferguson-McHenry Dry Goods company. He drew the then magnificent salary of $15 a month. In less than a year, he had achieved his ambition and was on the road.

Traveled Three Years

But Davidson soon found it was no bed of roses, especially to travel for a dry goods house where you had to carry several big trunks along. He traveled for the firm through Mississippi for three years, though, and then went with the Standard Oil company selling kerosene lamps, stoves and heaters in Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi and Florida. It wasn't long before he was transferred to the oil department and had charge of sales from company houses at Mobile, Ala., and Pensacola, Fla.

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company had just started selling "tailor-made" cigarets and Davidson sold their products a year or so before becoming a representative of the Crunden-Martin Manufacturing company of St. Louis.

In 1908 the company sent him to Texas to travel with representatives of the J. M. Radford Grocery company. He still has in his possessions a post card he mailed the future Mrs. Davidson from Tahoka Aug. 20, 1908.

Looked Around In Texas

With marriage in view, young Davidson had been looking around in Texas for a place to establish a home. He had been advised to come to Lubbock or Plainview, and on a trip to Lubbock he bought the feed and livery stable business belonging to John Easter.

The biggest item on the inventory was $158 for a team of little mules and a wagon. Other items included oats, sorghum seed, cottonseed meal, bran, maize heads, chicken feed, shelled corn, corn chops, a $3 stove in the freighters' camp house, $1.50 office stove and a $7.50 payment on a safe.

He still has that first ledger book and inventory along with a collection of other early records of his memories that provide many memories for the veteran merchant.

Entries in the ledger include such notations as "the phone man," the "sewing machine man," "the lightning rod man" and "the mail carrier," his young bookkeeper not knowing the customers' names as well as their business.

Horse Board Figured

"Horse board and room $22.50," is a frequent entry. Spuds sold for $2.75; eggs were 35 cents and higher a dozen and for a dollar you could get only a mere handful of bananas.

Mr. Davidson no longer makes his daily rounds in downtown Lubbock, calling on various retailers. For many years it was a familiar sight to see Hay Davidson making his rounds downtown with a large billbook under his arm.

"Be kind to everybody" has been a life-long practice as well as a motto for Hay Davidson. No better evidence can be seen than an autograph book at his place of business, where scores of salesmen have been asked to write a few words and sign their names so that "Hay" will have something to remember them by.

"It's about full, and when it is full I am going to start another one," Mr. Davidson says.

And his friends are hoping he will have at least another 40 years of successful business in Lubbock.

HAPPY "BIRTHDAY", HAY—Thousands of his friends will join in congratulating H. A. "Hay" Davidson Wednesday on the 40th anniversary of the founding of his business in Lubbock. Although Mr. Davidson has been in ill health for several months, he still operates the business that he purchased Aug. 3, 1909. Hay, one of his principal early-day items, has given way to fountain supplies, but the friendliness that he showed in those days is still a characteristic of H. A. Davidson. (Staff Photo).

Bankers At Boston In Dixieland Band

BOSTON, Aug. 2 (U.P.) — Three Greater Boston bankers are the backbone of a Dixieland band which has been packing customers from Cape Cod to Marblehead.

As members of the "Viral Rhythm Kings," a seven-piece band which sticks to Dixieland razz-ma-tazz and shys away from be-bop or modern tunes, they are union members and draw union pay. However, they said their chief interest is music as a hobby and not as a profession.

Richard Schmidt, treasurer of the Milton Savings Bank, is the manager of the band. Joseph Battaglia, manager of the life insurance department at the Arlington. Robert Gay, teller at the Milton Five Cent Bank, plays piano, and Robert Gay, teller at the Milton Savings Bank, toots the trombone.

Air Conditioning Hits Curb Service

DALLAS, Aug. 2 (U.P.) — Air conditioning is helping combat that most unpleasant of drug store operations, curb service.

That belief was expressed at a convention of the Texas Pharmaceutical Association.

R. B. Sands of Austin, an old-timer in the drug business, said "the guy who started curb service ought to be shot." He said the practice was mostly abandoned during the war but was coming back.

He said air conditioning was tempting to the customer during hot weather. He added:

"If nothing else, it'll bring a man through three blocks of 90-degree weather to get a drink of water in an air-conditioned drug store. And there's always the chance he'll buy something."

Scientist Advances New Creation Theory

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Aug. 2 (U.P.) —Here's a new slant on the origin of the universe: it took only 10 minutes to create the 96 elements, a scientist thinks.

Dr. George Gamow, nuclear physicist from George Washington University, believes that 3,000,000,000 years ago free fast moving neutrons began to slow down and emit electrons which formed atoms.

This action, he said, was set off by a slow cooling of the compact mass of what was then the universe. At just the right temperature, Gamow said, the nuclear building process began.

Ten minutes later the 96 elements were created.

But the universe was still composed of vapor, Gamow believes, and the vapors continued to cool. Thirty million years later they condensed into clouds and eventually became stars and suns.

The planets are by-products of the suns, he added.

FROM O. HENRY TO TWAIN

WACO, Tex. (U.P.)—Dr. E. Hudson Long of Vanderbilt University, best known nationally for his recent publication, "O. Henry, the Man and His Work," has been named a professor of English at Baylor University. Dr. Long is now writing a book on Mark Twain, for which he has received two Carnegie research grants.

PILOT DESCRIBES PARALYSIS

Polio Victim Desires To Aid Doctors, But Life Ebbs Away

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP) — Notes written by a young Navy pilot stricken with polio—in the hopes that he might help "find a cure for this thing"—have been released by his widow now that he is dead.

The pilot was James Olin Chiles, 25, junior grade lieutenant stationed at Anacostia Naval air base. He was taken to Bethesda (Md) Naval hospital a week ago with symptoms of polio.

Mrs. Chiles, 26, visited him last Wednesday when he was still able to talk. He told her: "Dorothy, this is the best thing that could happen. Maybe I can work with the doctors and find a cure for this thing."

Vision Blurred

A few hours later he wrote his first case note, in pencil in his personal notebook:

"To doctor

"First noticed vision incoherent or something at 1640 (4:40 p. m.) can't even see clearly what I'm writing.

"If anybody puts me in a respirator please note: I cannot swallow. I have a rapid accumulation of mucous in my throat. If I am not allowed to turn my head to the side to spit I'll choke to death."

His next brief note was an hour later:

"Doctor

"1753 (5:53 p. m.) noted very poor control of tongue in mouth."

Mrs. Chiles asked him how things were going, but he could only answer in a scrawl:

"My guess is that I'm going to be all right."

Neck Paralyzed

She asked if he were in pain. He replied by pencil:

"Some but not bad.

"Every person on this floor has a (word unreadable) contagious disease—don't want you around.

"Can't read—vision's shot temporarily.

"Only thing I'm worried about is you.

"Help me get pillow under head.

"You should not stay. This will be my worst night. Tomorrow we should know."

Mrs. Chiles asked if she could get him anything. He wrote:

"Doctor prescribes what I need."

And then was the last note of all:

"My neck is paralyzed, doesn't hurt anymore."

That was about 8 p.m. Wednesday. Lieutenant Chiles died of bulbar poliomyelitis, at 9:20 the next morning.

He was a native of Lakeland, Fla., who entered the Navy in 1942 and spent three years overseas. His burial was today, in Arlington National cemetery.

Prowler Aids Police In Search For Self

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 2 (U.P.)— Anthony Silvia had the novel experience of helping police search for himself.

Silvia was walking home late at night when a police cruiser came along. The officers were looking for a prowler who had tried to attack a woman. Silvia volunteered to aid the hunt and got into the cruiser.

A month later it developed that Silvia was the man the police wanted. He was sent to jail for two years.

Artificial Breeding Experiment Reported

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 2 (U.P.) — Transplanting a fertilized ovum from one cow to another without surgery is the contribution of two midwestern scientists to the technique of artificial breeding.

Still in the experimental stage the new method was developed by Arthur Dracy of South Dakota State College and W. E. Peterson of the University of Minnesota.

If refinements make the method practical for farm use, it will mean that scrub cows can be used to produce exceptional calves at a nominal cost, the scientists say.

The fertilized ovum, removed from a pure-bred high-producing cow, can be transplanted to the scrub. The calf borne by the scrub will inherit some of the original mother's characteristics.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS

Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes Flush Out Poisonous Waste

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Aug. 29 Is First Day To Ask For A Slice Of GI Insurance

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Forms on which veterans can apply for their share of the $2.8 billion GI insurance dividend will be available all over the country at every U. S. Post Office, Veterans Administration ofice and veterans organization on Aug. 29.

Every World War II veteran who had a GI insurance policy in force for at least three months is eligible for a share of this huge kitty.

This is the most important announcement the VA has yet made on the dividend payment.

Checks Start In January

Checks to veterans for their share of the money will begin being mailed out sometime in January, 1950, at the rate of 200,000 per day. The sooner a veteran gets his application form in, the more likely he is to be one of the first to receive his check.

VA has done an excellent job in making the form extremely simple. There are only nine blanks for the vet to fill in. All he has to do is to follow the very plainly written instructions.

In Three Parts

The form is in three parts. The first part includes the instructions for filling it out. It is torn off and kept by the veteran. The second part includes the blank. The third part the VA tears off when it receives the form. It is mailed back to the veteran as his receipt that his application has been received and is being processed. All it costs the veteran is a one cent stamp for postage when he sends it in.

Blank No. 2 on the application is the most important one of all. It asks for the veteran's present address, or where he can be sure of being reached for the next six months. On more than 10,000,000 policies the VA has only the address of the man when he enlisted. They are the vets who dropped their policies when they got out of service.

Records Kept Separate

The VA's insurance records have been kept separate from its other records. So, even vets who have had other business with VA won't necessarily have their present addresses fixed for dividend purposes. VA does NOT want the address of the man when he enlisted. It already has that.

Blank No. 7 asks for the number of the insurance policy. Many veterans will not have this. If they don't it doesn't make any difference. Supplying that number merely helps VA to make the payment faster. VA asks that veterans do not write in to ask their policy number before they fill in the application. That just gums the works more than ever.

Serial Number Asked

Blank No. 4 asks for a man's serial number. That, too, is to make VA's job easier. If a man doesn't remember it and can supply enough of the other information requested he will still get his dividend.

Blank No. 8 asks for a "claim number." This is a number assigned to a man when he files for any claim with VA. Many veterans will not have one. This also makes no difference. If he does, it helps VA.

The rest of the blanks to be filed in are self-explanatory. In the first blank he must print or type his name. In the ninth blank he must sign his name in his own handwriting.

The VA will not automatically apply dividends as advance premiums or for converting policies. If a veteran wants to use the dividend for this purpose he must cash the check and mail the money back to VA in the form of a check or money order. Future dividends, however, can be left with VA to accumulate with interest or be applied to insurance.

Beneficiaries of deceased veterans entitled to a share of this dividend kitty need not use this form. A check for the amount or a different form, if necessary, will be mailed to them by VA.

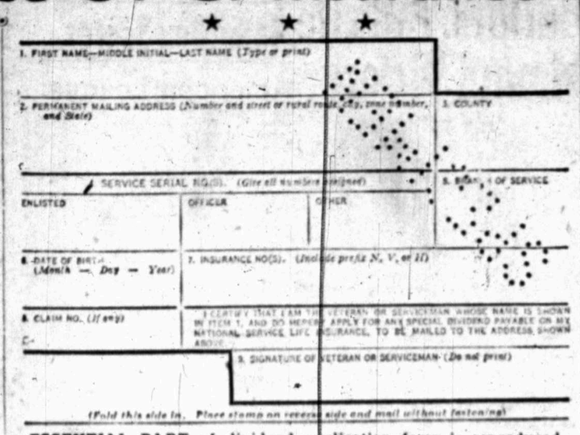

Use Official Form

The reproduced forms which are printed in newspapers cannot be filled out and use for application. The official form, printed on cardboard, is the only one that can be used because it will be processed by special machines.

First step in the enormous job of paying the dividend—microfilming the master premium record cards in branch offices so dividend computations can be made in Washington—is mostly finished. It was second only to V-Mail as the biggest microfilming job in history.

Approximately 17,000,000 men are eligible for some of this money. Checks will range from 50 cents to about $300, depending upon the age of a man, how much insurance he has and how long he has kept it in force. Whether or not he has converted his policy from term insurance won't make any difference in the size of the dividend.

VA hasn't yet determined exactly what the rates of payment will be. That is expected to be announced just before the checks are sent out next January.

ESSENTIAL PART of dividend application form is reproduced to show information you'll need. Complete cardboard form must be obtained on or after Aug. 29.

U. S. Girl, 16, To Make Attempt Soon

Englishman Disapproves Plan To Swim Channel In The Nude

DOVER, England, Aug. 2 (AP)—Pretty Shirley May France's plan to swim the English channel in the nude has drawn a disapproving tut-tut from an Englishman.

Shirley May, a shapely 16-year-old Somerset, Mass., high school girl, has said she will not wear a suit for the channel swim because it would rub off the thick grease layer protecting her from the chilly water.

"Nudity appeals to little boys and indecent people," Edward Temme, first man to swim the channel twice, told newsmen yesterday.

Likes Water Fine

"I think it is unnecessary to her attempt. If it is a stunt, we can do without it. If she is serious, why, good luck to her."

Temme, who coaches would-be channel swimmers, watched Shirley May as she went through two workouts off the Dover cliffs yesterday—wearing a suit over her tall 158-pound figure.

"I like the water fine now that I'm getting hardened to it," she said, peeling off her bathing cap and allowing her blonde tresses to fall over her shoulders.

If Shirley May successfully swims the channel it will be an all-American venture.

Employs American Trainer

She has spurned suggestions that she employ a local trainer, the conventional step for challengers.

"I intend to coach and train Shirley, using our American methods, said Harry Boudakian, athletics coach of Somerset High school where his protege is a junior.

British training methods stress long practice in the water. Boudakian believes in mixing dry land conditions with swims. The American girl is up at 6:30 a. m. and in bed by 9:30 p. m. in strict training for the channel attempt within the next two weeks.

James Stewart Maps Busy Schedule After Marriage On Aug. 9

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 2 — Here are the names in the Hollywood news today.

Milton Berle is hustling through "Always Leave Them Laughing" to get east before the deadline to begin his radio and television shows. At this point, it looks as though he'll make it. Milton is pleased as punch over his Variety citation for his TV achievements.

Doris Day is set for three more years as the femme foil on Bob Hope's air show. And the two may get together for a picture.

Has Stiff Schedule

James Stewart has a ponderous schedule after his marriage Aug. 9. He and bride will fly to see her ailing father, E. B. Hatrick, in Colorado Springs, Colo. Then they go to the soap box derby at Akron and the Disabled American Veterans meet at Cleveland. They'll return here until after the Bendix race, which Jimmy's plane will fly, then head for Hawaii Sept. 7. Nothing like a quiet honeymoon.

Jane Withers appears to be abandoning Hollywood. The former child star and husband Bill Moss are moving their homestead to his ranch in New Mexico.

Actors Said Overpaid

Bette Davis doesn't seem to be upset over her forthcoming break with Warners after their 18-years together. I saw her acting as her own stand-in on the "Beyond The Forest" set. And she was happily singing "Look For The Silver Lining," for which plug we can thank her.

Joseph Cotten was asked why he became an actor. "Why not?" he answered. "How else can you get paid so much for doing so little? It's the most overpaid profession in the world." Hi, Diogenes!

Ground Broken For A New Furr Store

Ground was broken Monday at Littlefield for the No. 27 store of Furr Food, Inc., which is expected to be completed and ready for opening by late September or early October.

Robt. E. Maxey of Lubbock is contractor on the building, which is to be a brick and tile structure, 70 by 130 feet with an 80 by 130-foot parking area. The building will be modern throughout and completely air-conditioned.

Roy Furr, president, formerly owned an M-System store in Littlefield, which was closed out in 1933. The new store is located adjacent to the main business section of Littlefield.

Insurance Firms Denounced For Misrepresented Polio Ads

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2 (AP) — A local official of the National Foundation for Infantile paralysis claims some insurance companies are "hitting below the belt" in selling polio insurance.

DeForest Mellon, treasurer of the foundation's Cuyahoga county chapter, spoke at a meeting of the board of directors of the Cleveland Association of Health and Accident underwriters.

"For years," Mellon said, "we have been telling the people that we are paying the bills of all polio victims regardless of financial condition and that they do not need polio insurance. The public is not taking charity, as the 'pride angle' of some of the polio insurance ads would have you think."

Scare Ads Denounced

Later he told a reporter:

"We have no objection to the selling of insurance. But when the insurance companies use scare advertising and infer that people who accept help from the national foundation are charity cases, we believe that is hitting below the belt."

Some polio policies offer to pay up to $5,000 for a $5 annual premium.

In New York, a spokesman for the national foundation said there would be no comment from the national office on polio insurance.

He said the foundation provides financial aid to "anybody who comes to a chapter for help," adding that "we consider the people we help not indigent, but perhaps medically indigent. This includes the bulk of the families of polio victims. But if a man has a $75,000 income, we wouldn't pay the bills."

RAN YANGTZE RIVER BLOCKADE

English Sloop Which Escaped From Reds Nearing Hong Kong

By WAYNE RICHARDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

ABOARD H. M. S. Jamaica at sea, Aug. 2.—The battered little sloop Amethyst limped toward Hong Kong today where a rousing welcome awaits the doughty crew who brought her to freedom through Chinese Communist gunfire.

A Squardon of Spitfires will dip in salute, bands will blare and a military honor guard will be waiting at the wharf when the shell-scarred royal navy craft arrives in Hong Kong harbor tomorrow.

The medal of the Distinguished Service order will be awarded Lieut. Cmdr. John Kerans, skipper of the Amethyst, which escaped Saturday night from moorings on the Yangtze river, 60 miles below Nanking.

Caught By Red Fire

The award will be made with the personal approval of King George VI, who already has commended the crew for its gallantry in bringing the ship to safety.

The Amethyst had been pinned down in the Yangtze since April 20 when she got caught in Communist shore fire during a confused battle between British warships and Communists armies.

The British admiralty has asked the far eastern naval command to make any further recommendations for crewmen who showed exceptional valor in getting the Amethyst out of her trap.

An Amethyst crew member who came aboard the Jamaica which is escorting the Amethyst to Hong Kong, said the first three months of entrapment in the Yangtze were spent mainly repairing damage inflicted by the Reds April 20. Forty-four British sailors lost their lives in that engagement.

When the Amethyst slipped her cable Saturday night, the crewmen said, she was lighted partly by a passing steamer which was challenged by flare signals.

The Amthyst kept going, engaging Communist shore guns on both sides. She was under fire 30 minutes.

Shell Holes Plugged

The men aboard the Amethyst said they were fit and well. They were well tanned and some had beards. They suffered little sickness despite their long stay on the river and the rats that infested the ship.

Canvas containers stuffed into the shell holes caused by Communist guns kept water out of the sloop in a satisfactory manner.

Torpedo Officer T. J. D. Grant of the destroyer Concord which met the Amethyst after her escape estimated that the sloop had suffered 30 hits in the April 20 attacks.

Coxswain Leslie Frank, who was on the wheel when the Amethyst made her freedom bid down the Yangtze said:

"My eyes were a bit tired halfway down. I took some pills to keep me fully alert. Capt. Kerans was on the bridge all the way and the whole crew was on duty. We had no trouble with sand banks. The shallowest water we encountered was four fathoms and steering became somewhat difficult."

Norway will buy a tin-plate plant from private owners in Bergen, to use in conjunction with the new government steel mill now under construction.

STAYS SILENT LASTS LONGER...
Only Servel freezes with No Moving Parts

Look at all the new refrigerators. Study them closely. You'll find there's only one that's really different . . . offers you more years of silent, dependable refrigeration. It's the Servel Gas Refrigerator.

That's because Servel operates on a basically simpler freezing system. It has no machinery to cause noise, no motor to wear, break down, need fixing. A tiny gas flame does the work. So owners find Servel stays silent, lasts longer. Many of America's almost 3,000,000 Gas Refrigerator users report that theirs are still on the job after 15, 18 and even 20 years.

But silence and longer life are only part of the story. The new Servels bring you every modern convenience, too. Plenty of ice cubes—easy to get at. Big frozen food compartment. Dew-action vegetable fresheners. Come in today—choose your new Gas Refrigerator from a complete line of beautiful models.

Lamesa Shades Lubbock, 4-3

Miller Paces Lobo Triumph

(By The Associated Press)

Albuquerque's Dukes maintained their precarious lead in the tightening West Texas-New Mexico league race today.

Although the Dukes dropped a 7-2 decision to Amarillo, second place Abilene lost 5-3 to Pampa, passing up a chance to go into a tie for the lead. Lamesa edged Lubbock 4-3, and Clovis defeated Borger 9-6.

Gold Sox Win

Amarillo's Gold Sox made use of six Albuquerque errors to bring about Tom Breisinger's downfall. Three of the misplays were chalked up against Len Attyd. Jimmy Reynolds, winning pitcher, gave up seven hits.

D. C. Miller hit his 31st and 32nd home runs of the year with empty sacks to give Lamesa the edge over Lubbock. Jack Gutierrez took his 11th win of the year, scattering seven hits and fanning four.

Oilers Down Abilene

Clovis' Bill Rosin took his sixth win although he was relieved by Ray Drake in the eighth inning. The defeat was hung on Lefty George Matthews by his former teammates. He was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth after yielding 12 hits for 8 runs.

Pampa's Oilers downed Abilene behind the seven-hit pitching of Lefty Roy Parker. Parker settled down after giving up two runs in the first inning on three walks and two wild pitches.

The same teams meet again tonight.

Bangaway Now Race Favorite

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 2 (AP)—Although Bangaway probably will be the favorite, there is no outstanding contender for the $67,000 Hambletonian stake such as Demon Hanover a year ago.

A wide-open field shapes up for the 24th edition of the famed trotting classic for three-year-olds at Good Time track Aug. 10.

Last August, Demon Hanover, owned and driven by Harrison Hoyt of Bethel, Conn., justified the favoritism that had been his all year by running away with the riches in two straight heats.

Upset Is Possible

But the railbirds following the grand circuit this year are prepared for anything when the starter gets the field away in the first heat next week.

Bangaway, from the Saunders Mills stable, Toledo, Ohio, rules the slight choice because of three major triumphs last month — the Historic-Dickerson cup at Goshen and the Adriondack and Saratoga stakes at Saratoga Springs.

Three other colts and four fillies are rated capable of taking down first money in the event, which is staged on a best-two-of-three-heats basis.

Entries Are Listed

Heading the fillies are Martha Doyle, owned by A. L. Derby, Wichita, Kas.; Miss Tilly, property of C. W. Phellis, Greenwich, Conn.; Record Express, from the string of L. E. Lake, Colfax, Ind., and Atomic Maid; another Hayes Fair Acres challenger.

At least 12, and maybe 17 horses are expected to face the starter next Wednesday.

RUN-DOWN PLAY—Red Schoendienst of the Cardinals was trapped between third and home in the ninth inning of a recent tilt at Braves field when Eddie Kazak hit a ground ball to Bob Elliott, (middle). The catcher is Phil Masi. Schoendienst succeeded in scrambling back to third, but Stan Musial, shown with his foot on the bag, had come from second and was out. Despite the mixup, St. Louis scored three runs in the inning and swept the series.

National Junior Championship At Stake

Nearly 200 Young Golf Stars Open Qualifying At Houston

HOUSTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Nearly 200 teen-age golfers took over the Houston Country club today for the annual junior chamber of commerce national junior championship.

Today and tomorrow the 19-and-under players will fire two 18-hole rounds while seeking the 120 spots in championship match play to begin Thursday.

Dick Forrester, club professional at the 6212-yard par 71 Houston layout, figures this year's medalist will finish Wednesday at around 144.

Two strong finishers in last week's USGA junior tournament at Washington, D. C., were expected to be among these teeing off late today.

They are Tommy Morrow, Shreveport, La., and Pete Hessemer, Houston.

Morrow, a semi-finalist in the USGA, was on the entry list but had not arrived last night.

Hessemer, who bowed to Morrow in the quarter-finals at Washington, was standing by as an alternate in case of a vacancy among the seven-man Texas team. It was considered doubtful Don James, Austin, would be able to participate.

Floyd Addington, Houston, was added to the Texas group yesterday. He replaced Don Powell, Dallas, who withdrew two weeks ago to participate in the all-star basketball game at the Texas high school coaches' clinic at Beaumont.

Big Spring Swamps Roswell Club, 15-2

(By The Associated Press)

The league-leading Big Spring Bronco backed up the four-hit pitching of Bert Garcia by pounding four Roswell, N. M., hurlers for 14 hits and a 15-2 victory last night in a Longhorn league baseball game. The win preserved the Broncs' eleven-game lead over the second-place Vernon Dusters.

Vernon downed Sweetwater 4-1. Third-place Midland trounced San Angelo 15-3. And Odessa beat Ballinger 12-10.

Vernon's Hal Richardson scattered seven Sweetwater hits.

Odessa rushed across five runs in the first of the ninth inning to come from behind.

Only seven pitchers in modern major league history have won more than 300 big league games.

Beamers Split Pair At Crane

The Lubbock Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers and Crane's Oilers move into Jumbo Webster field at 8:15 tonight to continue their Shaughnessy playoff series which now shows each team with one victory and one defeat.

In a doubleheader last night at Crane the Sunbeamers won the first game, 1-0, and dropped the second by the same, 1-0, margin, to begin their playoff for the Texas Softball league championship. Scheduled to pitch for the Sunbeamers tonight are Reece McGee and Kenny Scott and Red Denham will be in action in both games for Crane.

Red Denham, ace hurler of the Crane Oilers, pulled another iron man stunt as he pitched both ends of the twin bill, and he gave up but seven hits in both tilts.

Scott Wins First

Sunbeamer Kenny Scott bested the Oiler moundsman in the first game as he gave up but two hits in a tight mound duel. Scott fanned 10 men and issued two walks while his teammates gave him perfect support afield, not committing a single eror.

Denham struckout 11 Lubbock players and walked three, giving up four safe knocks. One of three errors by Crane allowed the lone winning run to score.

Both teams went scoreless the first four innings of the initial game before Tommy Moorehead scored in the fifth. He reached first on a single to rightfield with two outs, stole second base, and then crossed home with the deciding run when Lefty Welch let Bryan Clark's grounder go between his legs for a two-base error. And that was all the scoring to be seen in the game.

Denham hooked up with Warren "Stringbean" Pope in the nightcap and bested the Lubbock moundsman although Crane made two errors and allowed three hits, only two safeties being given up by Pope.

Stout Defensive Play

Pope and Denham each had eight strikeouts, but Pope issued four free passes to first base while Denham allowed but one. One of Crane's walked batsmen scored the run that defeated Pope.

In the fourth inning Gail Bostick walked, and when Lefty Stewart doubled he streaked around the base paths to score on a close play at home base. Lubbock was never able to push a runner across.

Stout defensive play by both teams marked the games, and though Crane made four fielding mistakes the errors figured in only one score.

The meeting tonight was the 10th between the two teams, and the Oilers have won six games while the Sunbeamers took four decisions.

The line scores:

Wichita Falls Nine Trounces Twins, 7-4

(By The Associated Press)

Third-place Wichita Falls Spudders entertain the second-place Austin Pioneers tonight in the opening of a Big State league series with the Spudders gunning for second place.

Texarkana, the loop leader, downed Gainesville last night 5-1 to gain a two and a half game lead over Austin. Austin dropped a 5-4 decision to Greenville. Wichita Falls climbed to within one game of Austin by downing Sherman-Denison 7-4. Temple crushed fourth-place Waco 19-1.

Texarkana defeated Gainesville with a three-run rally in the fourth frame.

Greenville's manager, Red Davis, scored the run that beat Austin in the ninth inning on Dave Sosh's long fly.

Wichita Falls tallied four runs in the seventh and three in the eighth to beat Austin.

Temple counted six times in the third and six in the sixth to swamp Waco.

TEXAS GOLFER LOW

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 2. (AP)—Rufus King of Wichita Falls, Tex., captured medalist honors in the Pikes Peak invitational golf tournament yesterday with a four under par 68.

Tyler Chalks Up Two Wins Over Longview

(By The Associated Press)

The second-place Paris Panthers missed a chance to replace the Longview Texans at the top of the East Texas league standings last night.

Longview dropped a doubleheader to Tyler. The scores were 3-3 and 10-1. A Paris win would have put the Panthers a half game ahead of Longview. But Kilgore downed Paris 10-8. Third-place Gladewater dropped a 7-6 decision to lowly Henderson. And Marshall and Bryan split a twin bill. Marshall copped the opener 10-4, while Bryan won the nightcap 5-0.

Paris now trails Longview by only three percentage points, with Gladewater another half a game back and Kilgore only half a game behind Gladewater. Fifth-place Marshall is only three and a half games out of first place.

TEXAN BEATS WALZAC

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 2. (AP)—Bobby Dykes, flashy San Antonio welterweight, held a dim view of French boxing royalty today following his fifth round knockout of Jean Walzac.

Odessa Legion To Meet Dallas Nine

BRYAN, Aug. 2. (AP)—Laredo meets Galveston and Odessa plays Sunset of Dallas tonightin the opening round of the Texas American Legion baseball tournament.

The four entries in the double elimination tournament survived district, division and area play.

Losers tonight will meet in the first game tomorrow night with the winners playing immediately afterwards.

The championship game to determine Texas' representative at the regional meet in Little Rock, Ark., later this month will be played Thursday.

Henderson To Fight Monday

Bill Henderson, Lubbock and Levelland lightweight boxer, will be featured on a boxing card to be held next Monday night at Sled Allen's arena.

Either Jeep O'Neal, former National Golden Gloves champion twice, or Trinidad Perez, classy little Mexican fighter, will be the opponent for Henderson. Both have outstanding records in the pro ring.

Keith Anderson, who is serving as both matchmaker and promoter, will make his debut to Lubbock fight fans in this venture. He said yesterday that efforts were being made to present an attractive card. For that reason, he is trying to get O'Neal for the main event, but he also is carrying on negotiations with Perez.

Perez Beat Galvan

Perez decisioned Sammy Galvan in a clean exhibition at Levelland on the same card in which Henderson knocked out Chino Alonzo Perez, a classy young fighter, has been national champion of Mexico. He also hammered out a unanimous decision over Jessy Fonseca, featherweight champion of Texas.

Henderson warmed up for the bout last week in Carlsbad, N.M., beating Henry Clay of Alaska easily. Henderson dropped Clay in the first round for a nine-count and the fight finally was stopped in the fifth round, Henderson winning a TKO.

The remainder of the card isn't set yet, but definitely signed for appearances have been Gene James of Lubbock, Charley Neff of Petersburg, Billy Brackeen of Slaton and Don Livingston of Borger. Other matches have yet to be named.

James won an impressive fourth round knockout over a Lubbock negro, Willie Brown, in a supporting fight at Carlsbad. Brown gave James a heavy working over in the in-fighting, but James had too much power.

Neff also won a decision at Carlsbad last week and looked better than he ever has before.

Livingston is a young fighter without too much class, but he shows promise of developing into a good professional. This will be his first appearance on the South Plains.

Tickets will go on sale Wednesday, probably at Wylie's Drug store. Three scales will exist, ringside seats at $3.60, reserved seats at $2.40 and general admission at $1.50.

Waco Hurler Bought By Lamesa Loboes

LAMESA, Aug. 2 (Special)—Carroll Dial, a righthanded pitcher, has been purchased outright by the Lamesa Loboes of the West Texas-New Mexico League from Waco of the Big State League.

This is Dial's third year in baseball. He is a limited service player, 22 years old, six feet tall and weighing 160 pounds. He won 13 and lost 11 last year for the Pirates and maintained an earned run mark of 4.38. Dial fanned 116 men, walked 95. His work this year mainly has been in relief.

Dial won 22 games and lost only eight for Bartlesville in the Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri League during his rookie year, 1947. This season he has been with Saginaw, Mich., of the Class A Central League. He was returned to Waco recently.

Boston Beats Tribe

Parnell Gets Mound Victory

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Washington's cellar-diving Nats, currently the sorriest looking club in the majors, may decide the American league pennant race.

Through a strange quirk in the schedule, Washington and the third-place Boston Red Sox have played only seven games against each other. That means they will meet 15 more times this season, eight at Boston's Fenway park.

On the other hand, the weary Washingtonians, now three and a half games out of the basement after winning only 12 of their last 50 games, have met the league leading New York Yankees 12 times and the second-place Cleveland Indians 15 times.

The way the Senators have been floundering, it would come as no startling news should the Red Sox win 12 of the remaining 15 games. One of them is practically in the bag for Boston. That's the game of July 7, called after six innings with the Red Sox in front, 5-3, to enable Boston to make train connections.

The Red Sox advanced to within two and a half games of second and seven games of the leading Yankees yesterday, turning back the Indians, 4-3, before a surprising Monday afternoon turnout of 35,248 paid fans. The victory gave the Red Sox a 3-2 edge in the series.

Southpaw Mel Parnell gained his 15th pitching triumph, besting Cleveland's Bob Lemon with a nine-hitter. Lemon allowed 10 safties. Ted Williams batted in the winning run in the seventh inning.

The Brooklyn Dodgers shaved St. Louis' first-place lead in the National league to a slender half-game last night, shutting out the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-0, while the Cardinals were losing 8-1, to the Boston Braves.

Ralph Branca, back in form, limited the Pirates to four hits — three by Ralph Kiner—to register his 12th victory. He was backed by a six-run first inning that kayoed starter Ernie Bonham and mussed up reliefer Murry Dickson.

Warren Spahn, helped by Sauer's and Bob Elliott's home runs, coasted to his 13th triumph. He limited the Cards to eight hits. A fourth-inning homer by Enos Slaughter prevented the southpaw from pitching a shutout.

The St. Louis Browns shut out the Senators, 2-0. Karl Drews, pitching one of his rare good games, allowed eight hits for his fourth triumph.

The New York Giants took undisputed possession of fourth place in the National league, walloping the Chicago Cubs, 11-3. Bobby Thomson led the attack on three Chicago pitchers with a triple, two doubles and a single. Clint Hartung went the route for his ninth victory. Bob Chipman was the loser.

Ring Meet To Open Tonight

(Special To The Journal)

BROWNFIELD, Aug. 2.—Action begins tonight in the District Two TAF boxing tournament at the Brownfield Rodeo arena, with some 30 amateur ringmen scheduled to battle it out for trophy awards and all-expense trips to the state tourney at Fort Worth.

A crowd of 1,000 or more fans is anticipated for the opening of the two-night meet, sponsored by the Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce, and directed by R. B. (Sonny) Wall.

10 Fights Slated

Approximately 10 fights are scheduled for tonight, with a like number for Wednesday night's finals. Definite pairings will not be made until after weigh-in ceremonies late today at the Brownfield hotel.

The eight weight division winners in the open class will be given all-expense trips to the state TAF mittfest Aug. 11-13 at Fort Worth, in addition to trophies. Trophies also will go to the eight champions in the novice class.

Adams Is Featured

The advance ticket sale began Monday, with a brisk opening demand. Ducats are scaled at $2.80 reserved, $1.80 genertal admission and 65 cents for children.

Featured on each night's program will be Tom Adams, three-time state Golden Gloves light-heavyweight champion. In the event there are no other entries in Adams' class, exhibition bouts will be arranged for him, tourney officials have announced.

Each night's card will start at 8 o'clock.

DOCUSEN IS FAVORED

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 2. (U.P.)—Maxie Docusen, 20-year-old lightweight sensation from New Orleans, is an odds-on favorite to defeat Lem Thomas tonight in the 10-round main event at Olympic auditorium.

Workouts Open For Schoolboy Squads

BY ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

BEAUMONT, Aug. 2—All-star coaches Carl Snavely and Don Faurot kept mum today on the starting lineups they will use in the North-South schoolboy football game which will climax the 17th annual Texas High School association's coaching school.

Snavely, visiting professor from North Carolina, and Faurot, top kick at Missouri, opened their workouts yesterday with drills on single wing and split T-formation routines, respectively.

Only one casualty was reported. Bob Zotz of Cameron collided with burly Bill Athey, 223-pound Waco guard. A couple of stitches were taken in Zotz' head, but he said he would be ready again today.

New Record Set

Snavely, Faurot and the bigwigs of the association beamed yesterday as they watched a record number of coaches—some 1,100 — enroll for the week-long clinic.

Registration figures smashed the previous all-time high for attendance that was set last year when 850 coaches registered at Abilene.

Faurot and Snavely inaugurated a series of morning lectures. Coaches also heard talks by Coaches Adolph Rupp of Kentucky's famed Wildcat basketball team and Henry Iba, the Oklahoma A&M cage wizard. Track Coach Emmett Brunson of Rice and baseball pilot Marty Karow of Texas A&M lectured on their sports.

Rupp did not arrive until late afternoon because of lectures he had been giving in Montana, but immediately took over the North all-star squad he will direct in the basketball headliner Thursday night.

Iba's squad definitely needed more drilling, but the Oklahoma Aggie coach said his crew would be in shape before game time.

Look For "Doakers"

Throughout the opening football and basketball training sessions, Southwest conference coaches strolled around the practice fields looking for potential Doak Walkers and Slater Martins.

Several seniors announced the schools of their choice.

Only one of 48 Texas schoolboy gridders working out planned definitely today to leave the state for his college football.

The "rebel" was Gahlen Dinkle, a member of the South all-star squad, who expressed a preference for Louisiana State university, in the heart of the colorful bayou country.

Of the group, 28 said they wanted to play with a Southwest conference team. Only Arkansas failed to get at least one nod.

Baylor and Rice attracted seven each, Texas and Texas A&M six each, Southern Methodist five and Texas Christian two. Three others said they "probably would go to Baylor," while SMU had two "probables."

Four said they did not know where they would go, two chose Odessa Junior college and one each named Texas A&I and Kilgore Junior college. Another said Texas Tech was his "probable choice."

Choices Are Given

South—Reg Dorsett, Alice, Texas; Ray Checkler, Weslaco, SMU; Alonzo Lopez, A&I; Horton Nesrtra, Harlandale, Rice; Gahlen Dinkle, LSU; Milby Sexton, Aldine, Baylor; George Pontikes, Houston Lamar, Rice; Marvin Leath, Henderson, Kilgore JC; Charles Saxe, Beaumont South Park, A&M; Claud Kincannon, Waco, Baylor; Don Carpenter, Houston Milby, probably Baylor; Bill Harris, Tom Ball, Odessa JC; Melton Lord, Lufkin, probably Baylor; Hugh Reeder, Port Arthur, Texas; Weldon Westerfer, New Braunfels, Rice; Don Rhoden, Kerrville, Rice; Vernon Barron, Temple, probably Texas Tech; Tom Stelhandske, Baytown, Texas; Connie Magouirk, New London, A&M; Dick Self, Breckenridge, A&M; Bill Athey, Waco, Baylor; Bobby Dixon, Ingleside, A&M; Jack Davis, Palestine, Rice; and Robert Zotz, Cameron, Baylor.

North—Tom McMillian, Sweetwater, undecided; Ted Jones, Childress, Texas; Waldo Young, Monahans, undecided; Ray Graves, Stephenville, A&M; Bob Rooker, Lubbock. SMU: Jack Bell, Bowie, Rice; Louis Drodz, Dallas Crozier Tech, SMU; Joe Gray, Rising Star, undecided; Marvin Teague, Texarkana, Rice; Bob Daniels, Denison, Baylor; George Scaling, Fort Worth Paschal, Texas; Charles Galey, Lubbock, SMU; Carl Jowell, Dimmitt, McMurray or Baylor; John Powell, Dallas, Sunset, probably Wharton JC; Derrell Murphy, Shallowater, SMU; Sammy Rasco, Memphis, Texas Wesleyan.

Roland Elledge, Brownwood, Baylor; O'Neal Weaver, Martins Mill, probably Tyler JC; Richard Bess, Beaumont French, probably Texas A&M; Billy Watson, Houston Milby, Rice; Freddie Wheelock, Cayuga, Texas; Rudy Gonzales, Harlingen, Texas; Richard McCoy, Austin, Texas; Ben Mayo, Gason, probably Tyler JC; Floyd Dickens, Big Sandy, Sam Houston State; Bill Cuoke, Texas City, undecided; Bertrand Dickens, Hull-Daisetta, SMU or Baylor; Leroy Miksch, Waelder, Texas A&M or Hardin-Simmons.

SOUTH IS FAVORED IN ALL-STAR CLASH

BEAUMONT, Aug. 2 (AP)—Rough work was scheduled as all-star schoolboy football squads of the Texas coaching school went through second day practice sessions.

Opening drills yesterday were devoted mainly to installation of the split T formation with the South group and the single wingback with the North. But there was one casualty in practice despite the lightness of the workouts.

Bob Zotz of Cameron collided with Bill Athey of Waco during the South drill with Zotz receiving a cut on the head that required a couple of stitches. Athey was shaken up but continued practice.

Railbirds installed the South as the favorite to win the game Friday night in the climaxing feature of the coaching school. The South has one of the heaviest squads ever to appear in the all-star game and the boys look more rugged than the North.

Jaycee Nine Slated To Battle Exchange

Today's games at Boys club will see the Red Sox and White Sox action in the Pee Wee and Pygmy leagues and Jaycees against the Exchange in the Junior league.

Jerry Martyn accounted for three of the ABC runs when he knocked a long homer with two men on base. Donald Dunning singled in his only time at bat.

The Pee Wee Indians had too much power in mauling the Pirates, 30-6. Butch Hall topped the sluggers with a double and three singles; David Kelly had a perfect day at the plate with four hits, all singles; and Belwin Renfro rapped out three one-basers.

In the Pygmy league the Indians took another lopsided victory, downing the Pirates with a 24-12 football score. Wayne Wasson doubled and singled twice for the winners, and Robert Seale and Cameron Cunningham paced the losers with two singles each.

Officers of the French Academy compute there are 2,796 languages in the world.

Juniors Lead Skeet Tourney

DALLAS, Aug. 2 (AP) — Pint-sized Daniel Boones and Annie Oakleys took over the national skeet tournament today.

Two shootoffs for divisional titles in the national preliminary handicap failed to take the spotlight off the national sub-junior, junior and women's junior title events. But one of them worked a hardship on an eleven-year-old Palestine Tex., boy.

Match Is Halted

Young Rogers, Mrs. Arthur Schooch of Dallas and six other Texans broke 125 extra targets yesterday before darkness called a halt.

The other shootoff matches Russ Aitken of New York City and Tom Hill of Montgomery, Ala., in the .28 gauge event. These two broke 175 extra targets before they quit for the day.

Two titles were decided yesterday. Ulan Hill of Dallas won the .20 gauge handicap and Clarence Camp, Ocala, Fla., the sub-small gauge contest.

Has Perfect Score

Hill had a 100x100 score and Camp bested five others by cracking 75 targets in a shootoff.

Sub-small gauge championships in women's, industry and two-man team are also scheduled to be decided today—the second of the seven-day blue ribbon gun meet.

TRI-STATE NAMED

The Delmarva peninsula lies between the Chesapeake and Delaware bays and derives its name from parts of the names of the three states—Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia—which control the area.

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

Apparently this is to be the biggest coaching school in history at Beaumont, where coaches from Texas high schools have gathered for a week of lectures and bull sessions. Out of the lectures will come a healthy respect for some of the mentors, but not many secrets. Coaches will discuss plays with a candidness that is amazing, except when they have one or two pet ones. Out of the bull sessions will come most of the fundamental work of the school. After all, it's like any school; you can learn just so much in the classroom. The rest of the knowledge is gained by talking with other coaches and tabbing their knowledge in your own book.

As for the basketball and football games that will climax the school, they might well turn out to be the best in the history of the school. Both court and grid teams are loaded with talent, much of which will be seen on Southwest gridirons within a year or two. Remember, it was just a year ago that Jerrell Price of Brownfield tore the opposing line to shreds at tackle. He's expected to do the same thing this year for Tech. Actually, the games give high school kids going to college a jump on their brothers not so fortunate. Most of them take the games seriously and they begin training. The training carries over to the football season, which isn't far away. Yep, ought to be a pair of good games.

Brownfield tonight gets the lid off amateur boxing slightly early, but with the prospect of a good number of bouts. Since there are few boys fighting with reputations in the ring, the action should be thrill-packed and close all the way. Tom Adams, of course, is a cinch to win the light heavyweight title. We have an idea that the fight show is being planned around Tom, which is a good gesture to a deserving fighter. There are few amateur boxers with a cleaner record or of better sense of sportsmanship than the Brownfield native. He's done nothing but earn the respect of all the men he's fought and of the men, professional and sports, who have watched him in the ring. He's a credit to American sports.

Borger probably hasn't missed the boat in acquiring Lefty George Matthews, even though he was shelled from the box by his old mates at Clovis last night. Matthews can help the Gassers a lot, at the same time, they lost a fine southpaw in Clayton Fries, who quit to return to his home in Iowa. Fries left with a parting shot, that the hit-happy league was too much for an old man. Maybe so, but Clayton was one of the better hurlers in it as his record attests. At the same time, Albuquerque must have been hard up for a second baseman. They moved the capable Len Attyd, one of the better third basemen in the loop, to second and acquired Tommy Fox from Clovis. Look for more changes around the league this week and next.

HUBBER NOTES: Bo Dempsey leaves today for his home in East Point, Ga. A split little toe on his left foot ended his baseball career for this summer, but he'll play golf this winter. He's a pro in that sport too . . . Chris Haskins was back in uniform again last night. Several persons saw him in street clothes Sunday and thought he had gone back to the Highway Patrol already . . . We understand that the Hubbers are after another outfielder from Pensacola and another pitcher . . . Jim Prince didn't hurt his leg badly Sunday when he hit the single. He caught his spikes in the dirt and it pained him temporarily . . . It's just a suggestion, but we think the club would be stronger with Buddy McCallum back at third and Ken Peacock in the outfield.

Barring of Bobby Locket from the United States by the PGA came as a great surprise to everyone, most of all Locke. Most of the profession golfers in this nation seem to feel that Bobby was given the royal pestle and mortar. There seems to be little doubt that American pros resented his winning so much of the prize money and that they should have more of it, rather than seeing it go to the South African native. Locke, not one of the best golfers of all time, but a good one, was clicking off tourneys with deadly consistency. When he failed to show up for the Inverness meet, the PGA had him on a technicality. We don't think much of their decision and we do think that the American golfing public loses the most, not Locke.

The inability of the Cleveland Indians to win series from the top teams in the American League may well cost the defending world champions the junior loop pennant this year. Twice they have opportunities recently to knock off the Yankees, but have failed. The same opportunity has presented itself in the form of Boston and again they have failed. The Yanks get their lead pared to three games and then the Indians lose, the Yanks win and the lead is up to four or five games again. It doesn't seem possible, but the Yanks have been in first place ever since the season started. They've remained there despite efforts of first Boston, Detroit, Philadelphia, Washington and Cleveland to knock them out. It looks like they will be a hard team to dislodge. Maybe it'll be a nickel series after all.

THE ROUNDUP: Thanks for the fine letter, W. A. Reed of Seagraves, but the credit was mis-directed. It belongs to everyone here in the sports department . . . Bill Henderson's TKO over Henry Clay was only the second fight that boxer had lost. He had won 17 of 18 by knockouts and was Alaskan champion during the war . . . Ginger's owner received more than $25 worth of valuable advertising from the story appearing in yesterday's Journal . . . Hardin-Simmons has only three home games: North Texas State Sept. 17, Arizona Oct. 8 and Texas Western Oct. 29. They'll be played at Parramore Stadium this year instead of Fair Park . . . Emil Ladyko, former Columbia and Philadelphia Eagle tackle, is the new head coach at Flagstaff. Flag has a whole new staff this fall.

Broyles Cops Win Over Lee

Completion of all matches in the City Open tennis tournament should be seen this week, with three results being reported Monday in two dividends. In the tussles yesterday, Virginia Broyles and Marjorie Cone advanced to the women's singles finals.

Annabelle Lee fell to Miss Broyles in two straight sets, 8-6 and 6-3, and the match was hard-fought from the very beginning as Miss Lee fought for survival. Earlier she had teamed with Frances Reid to win the women's doubles title. Virginia and her brother—Jake Broyles—combined their talents to win the mixed doubles bracket.

Miss Cone defeated Dee Bee Turner in her semi-finals match, taking the first set by a 6-4 margin and winning the second 6-2.

The only other match reported was in the novice division of men's doubles. In that match H. L. Burgess, jr., and James Burgess advanced to the finals with a 6-1, 6-4 victory over Sidney Key and Robert Carow.

Only four championships remain to be decided, seven divisions having been completed.

Men's doubles winners were C. R. Hutcheson and Jake Broyles; Broyles took the men's singles crown; Donald Lance was junior boys' singles champion and combined with Harold Gann to take the doubles championship; Jake and Virginia Broyles were mixed doubles winners; Reid and Lee took the women's doubles; and Joan Wallace was the girls' singles winner.

Mo-Pacs hitless during the five-inning game called because of the 10-run rule as the powerful Herder Truckers of Weimar won, 15-0.

Conroe Team Downs Sinton Oilers, 3-1

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 2 (AP)—With ex-University of Texas star Charley Gorin pitching a masterful two-hitter and striking out 12 batters, the defending champion Conroe Wildcats turned back the strong Plymouth Oilers of Sinton, 3-1, at the National Baseball congress' state semipro tournament continued last night.

Center Fielder Bob Powledge paced the Wildcats with two hits, including a triple, and started on defense with two great catches.

A twin bill is scheduled tonight. Camp Stanley, sparked by former San Antonio pitcher Ray Minor, will meet La Consolidad of Piedras Negras, Mexico, at 7 p. m. and the San Antonio Aztecs will battle the Kingsville Mo-Pacs at 9 p. m.

In a second game last night, two youthful pitchers, Jimmy Ehrler of San Antonio and Jimmy Hand of Bandera, combined their talents to hold the Kingsville

Fort Worth Blanks Shreveport, 3 To 0

(By The Associated Press)

The first-division clubs racked up four victories over the second-division teams in the Texas league baseball race last night.

First-place Fort Worth whitewashed Shreveport 3-0. Second-place Tulsa came from behind to down Houston 7-6. Third-place Dallas shutout Beaumont 7-0. Fourth-place Oklahoma City downed San Antonio 7-2.

Tulsa still trails Fort Worth by three games, with Dallas another two and a half games back and Oklahoma City three games behind Dallas.

Fort Worth's Eddie Chandler snapped a five-game losing streak to gain his ninth victory of the year. He hurled three-hit ball, walked two men and fanned four.

Tulsa tallied three runs in the ninth to nip Houston.

Dallas batters pounded out six extra base knocks to subdue Beaumont. Jerry Witte hit his 37th home run of the season with two men on in the first.

Two-run homers by Clarence Russell and Ray Murray were enough to give Oklahoma City the win over San Antonio.

KIMBROUGH RETIRES

LONG BEACH, Calif., Aug. 2. (AP)—John Kimbrough, 31, stellar fullback for the Los Angeles Dons the past three years, and former Texas A. and M. great, turned in his suit yesterday and left for his home at Haskell, Tex. Kimbrough said the pressure of private business forced him to retire.

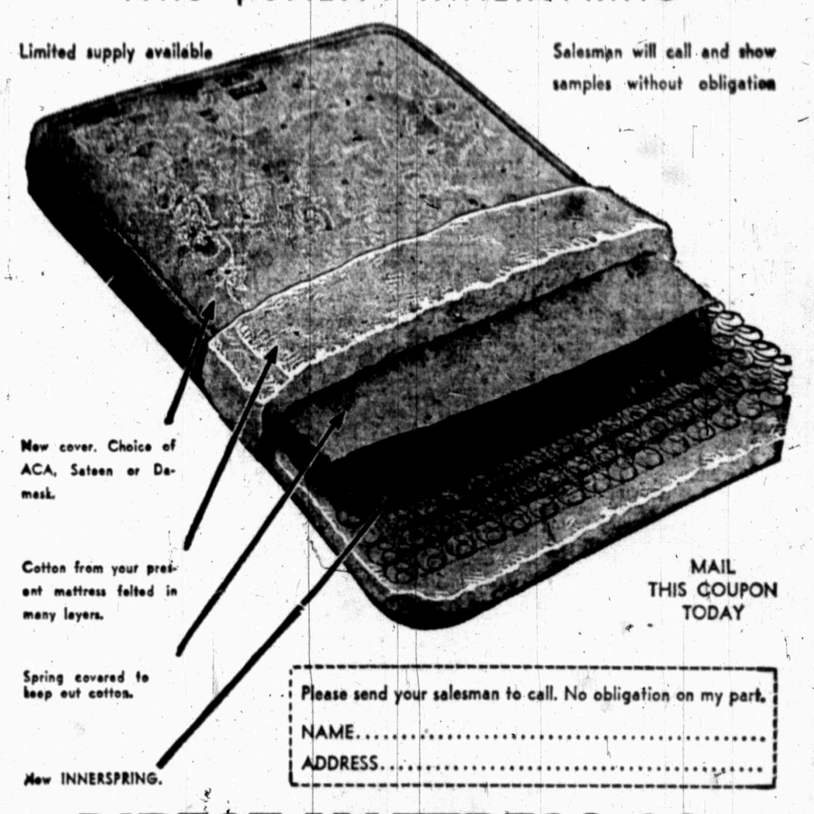

Newspaper men began to call baseball enthusiasts "fanatics" in the eighties and, within a short time, called them merely "fans."

Foreign Aid Measure Ties Up Efforts To Pass Money Bills

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 — Senate leaders tried hard today to break loose the $30,000,000,000 pile-up of money bills.

Senator Lucas (D-Ill), the Democratic leader, said he would move to get the $5,647,724,000 foreign aid measure back to the floor sometime during the day.

This is a key log in the jam but even if released it may get tied up a second time in a confused parliamentary tangle.

The Senate ordered the bill returned to the appropriations committee last week on the grounds that five disputed amendments contained policy-making legislation — which amendments to appropriation bills aren't supposed to do.

Bill To Be Challenged

The committee put together a revised bill with about the same money content — but it kept three of the amendments in the bill in re-written form.

Lucas told a reporter he will raise a point of order (a challenge) against these amendments in an effort to have them thrown out.

But Senator McClellan (D-Ark) said if Lucas makes a point of order, then he (McClellan) may fight to have the bill sent back to the committee again.

Lucas is centering his attack on two major amendments: one would require the Economic Cooperation administration and the Army to earmark about $1,800,000,000 for buying surplus American farm commodities. It was drafted by McClellan. The second would freeze $50,000,000 of ECA funds for loans to Spain.

Appeal Is Likely

"They re-wrote these two riders," Lucas said, "but they still are legislation. All they did was try to bring them in the back door."

When Lucas raises a point of order — Vice President Barkley will be required to rule whether or not the riders contain new legislation.

Whatever his ruling, senators said an appeal is almost certain. And this could plunge the foreign aid program into deeper confusion.

McClellan denies he is trying to force the dumping of surplus farm products on the European market. ECA Chief Paul Hoffman says such a restriction would just end at the same time give Communists grounds for the charge that America wants to dump its surpluses on Europe.

Maritime Bill Argued

Lucas said he will ask that the $7,600,000,000 independent offices about wreck the recovery effort money bill be set aside for the foreign aid bill.

The Senate is moving slowly through the independent offices bill with an economy bloc trying to pare down almost every item.

The latest scrap was over the maritime schools for training merchant seamen and officers.

The House voted $6,586,000 for the schools but the Senate appropriations committee trimmed this to $3,151,000 on the grounds the merchant marine needs no more seamen and officers.

A majority in the Senate disagreed. They put the bill back at $6,586,000.

The schools are located at Kings Point, N. Y., Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., Pass Christian, Miss., St. Petersburg, Fla., Alameda, Calif., and the U. S. Maritime Service institute.

Cocktail

that Randall was suffering from thyroid gland cancer. The cancer cells from his throat had spread to his spine and eaten away the vertebra until it was only a shell when it was shattered in the fall. The cancer also had spread to his shoulder bones.

Tasted Like Water

"Although the cocktail contained 80 times as much radio-iodine as used in tracer doses, it looked and tasted like plain water," he wrote. "However, I noticed the doctors and physicist kept their distance while I drank it. The next five days I spent in an isolation ward, a sign on the door saying: 'Radioactive—keep out'!"

Randall said the first two cocktails relieved him almost entirely of pain and permitted him to move about. His third cocktail enabled him to go home for Thanksgiving but he was warned to stay away from his 15-year-old nephew. He was told he was radioactive enough to cause sterlity in young persons.

By January Randall was permitted to return home. The hospital called a conference of prominent doctors to examine him. Randall said many of them were "incredulous" until Geiger counter rigged to a public address system roared "like ocean surf" and finally jammed when placed next to the small of his back. He said he would continue to give off radiant energy as long as he lives.

Cancer Was Arrested

The army doctor explained to Randall that thyroid cells crave iodine and attracted the radioactive liquid to cells infected with cancer. The iodine gave off the equivalent of extremely powerful x-rays, arresting the cancer and allowing his destroyed vertbra to recalcify.

"The radioactive iodine I have swallowed has helped me to regain not only my health but at least a portion of my vanished youth," he said. "I feel younger and more jaunty than I have in years. My face, once seamed and furrowed, is round and smooth; my skin is like a baby's. My appetite is so good I have to watch my diet. I am able to go to business every day."

Youth Is Identified As Girl's Attacker

HOUSTON, Aug. 2. (U.P.)—A trip to jail on a drunkenness charge turned into something more serious today for an 18-year-old Houston youth.

He was identified by police following his arrest last night as one of six boys sought in the rape of a 14-year-old girl last week. Three other young men have been identified previously.

Daily Market Report

Stock Market

MARKET AT GLANCE

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP) — A languid advance put the stock market at the peak of its summer advance today.

Closing prices were up fractions to around a point and in most cases were the best for the session. Automobile shares refused to go along.

General Motors operated in slightly lower territory throughout the day. Brokers figured there was some disappointment over the size of the dividend which GM directors voted yesterday. The dividend was the same as paid in March and June despite the fact that last week the company reported record high income, sales and production.

Chrysler also tended to drift lower.

Higher prices were paid most of the day for U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, Kennecott Copper, American Smelting, Phelps Dodge, Dow Chemical, Allied Chemical, International Paper, Pajardo Sugar, Northern Pacific and Texas Co.

Cotton Market

DALLAS REPORT

DALLAS, Aug. 2 (U.P.) — Approximate prices of cotton in the Dallas market as reported today to the Agricultural Marketing Service for basic middling lots on brokers' tables and FOB Dallas trade territory, flat basis calculated on closing of 29.59 on Oct. contracts, New York.

Staple	Middling Basis	Price
13/16	200 off	27.60
7/8	100 off	28.50
29/32	35 off	29.25

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP) — Cotton futures moved lower today on scattered liquidation. Hedge-selling was a little more active, reflecting larger sales of spot cotton at the ten primary markets. New crop deliveries sagged, partly on a proposal by Senator Anderson of New Mexico for flexible price supports in the new farm bill being written in the Senate.

Futures closed 40 cents a bale lower to 20 cents higher than the previous close.

Sheep 4,000, practically nothing sold early.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP) — Wheat and corn futures were under some selling pressure today and were off most of the session.

Soybeans and lard featured early trading with another advance, although profit taking cut into the upturn later. Oats were firm most of the time.

Export interests reported no business developed in wheat and flour overnight, despite the first announcement of wheat subsidies yesterday. This caused disappointment and led to some selling of wheat, traders said.

Corn selling was due to continued good crop weather and extremely favorable crop news.

Wheat closed $2.04¼-½, corn was ½ down to ¼ up, September $1.28-1.28¼, oats were ¼ higher to ¼ lower, September 68¾-¼.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Aug. 2 (AP) — Wheat—No. 1 hard 2.17¼-2.24¼.
Oats—No. 2 white 82½-85½.
Sorghums—No. 2 yellow milo, per 100 lbs. 2.13-2.23.

Miss Lubbock Will Make Trip To Port Arthur Wednesday

Joyce Wendborn, Miss Lubbock of 1949, will leave here at 11:10 a. m. Wednesday aboard a Continental Airliner bound for Port Arthur, where she will compete Friday for the title of Miss Texas.

The 19-year-old DeKalb Agricultural association secretary-receptionist will be accompanied by Mrs. Russel Haberer of Earth, a longtime friend of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wendborn.

After they arrive at Port Arthur at 4:43 p. m. Wednesday, Joyce and her chaperone will check in at the Good Hue hotel. From then until they leave for Lubbock Sunday morning, they will follow a carefully planned schedule devised by the sponsoring Jaycee clubs of Texas.

Expenses of Joyce and her chaperone will be paid by the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce from the $470 netted by the local club at the contest in the Lindsey theater Thursday night.

Winner of the pageant at Port Arthur will receive $500 cash and a complete new wardrobe for her trip to Atlantic City for the Miss America pageant.

"I'm going to try to win first place," she promised.

Father Of Lubbock Men Death Victim

AMARILLO, Aug. 2. (Special)—A retired post office official, Claude M. Tyler, 77 years old, who lived at 1705 Van Buren, died Monday afternoon following a heart attack.

Tyler suffered the attack on his parking lot at Eighth and Taylor. He operated the lot after he was retired from the post office as assistant postmaster.

Funeral services are pending at N. S. Griggs and Sons Funeral chapel.

Tyler was a member of the Polk Street Methodist church and was a Mason.

He is survived by his widow, Barbara; two sons, Joe of Lubbock, and Henry who is superintendent of mail at the Amarillo Post Office; a brother, Harry of Amarillo; a sister, Mrs. Ed Grisham of Amherst, Tex.; three stepsons, B. F. Shepard of Amarillo; Don Shepard of Colton, Calif., and Ronnie of Lubbock.

Tyler, who was called "Ty" by his associates, was retired from the Post Office Department on March 31, 1942, after 44 years and eight days of service.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Baker of Lubbock Route 1 on birth of a son weighing 6 pounds 13 ounces at 7:25 a. m. today at Lubbock Memorial hospital. The father is a cook.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Barrow of Box 954 on birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds 4 ounces at 12:28 a. m. today at Lubbock Memorial hospital. The father is manager of a dress shop.

Big Spring Boosters Visitors In Lubbock

Publicizing the Big Spring Round-Up scheduled to open Wednesday for three days, a caravan of 15 automobiles loaded with Big Spring residents visited Lubbock shortly before noon today.

Approximately 75 persons were in the party, headed by W. D. (Pete) Green, immediate past president of the American Business club, sponsor of the trip.

Escorted into town from the Tahoka highway by Lubbock motorcycle policemen, the caravan stopped in the 1000-block on Main street and presented a brief entertainment program featuring Hoyle Nix and his West Texas Playboys and Bill Merrick, rodeo clown.

PAWHUSKA, Okla., Aug. 2 (U.P.) —A car and a truck collided head-on 10 miles west of Pawhuska on U. S. 60 today, killing one person and injuring four others.

Instantly killed was Mrs. Frances Jane Petty, 72, route 4, Green Forest, Ark. She was a passenger in the car, driven by Mrs. Opal Wyatt, 39, Skellytown, Tex.

More Courtesy In Handling Customers Is Needed By Firms, Sales Engineer Warns

The change from a wartime seller's market to a postwar buyer's market is going to require a little more courtesy in handling the customer, Burritt S. Mills, noted industrial and sales engineer, warned Lubbock Lions at their noon luncheon today.

Mills told them that greeting the customer properly is one of the most important, but also one of the most neglected phases of making a business successful.

Special Guests Present

He was introduced by Jim Crook, program chairman. Frank Junell introduced special guests, including Joe Reynolds, assistant state attorney general, who is returning to Austin today; F. A. Greene of Crosbyton; Ed Hailey of Spring Lake; and R. P. McElroy of Plainview.

Lions President Groves Denman, presiding, made a short report on the trip to the national convention in New York made recently by a delegation from Lubbock.

Prof. J. W. Davis led the group in singing. The invocation was given by Elmer East.

Rule Is Stressed

In his talk, Mills stressed the rule that no business can succeed on one-time sales. It is the returning customer who makes it pay, he said.

"The cardinal sin of any business is indifference to customers," he said. He cited instances where as much as 68 per cent of business lost in stores was found to be due to indifference to customers.

He ridiculed rumors of a coming depression. "Savings accounts are climbing all over the nation," he said. "If sales are falling, it's because people aren't getting the service they demand.

"The customer is tired of being treated like the war was still on," he concluded.

Cool Front Limping Across State Today

(By The Associated Press)

A worn-out cool front came out of Kansas and started limping across Texas today.

Thunderstorm activity was reported in North Texas but Dallas was the only weather station reporting rain. The lowest temperature there was 71 degrees about dawn; by 8:30 it had risen to 77.

Clarendon and Amarillo in the Panhandle reported overnight lows of 59 and 63 degrees. On the coast Galveston had the warmest minimum—78.

Willowy Showgirl Describes DiMaggio As Her Steady, Film-Loving Boy Friend

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (U.P.) — Junior Standish, a willowy, blonde showgirl whose curves are strictly major league, today described Joe DiMaggio, her "steady fellow," as a guy who loves torch songs, western movies and base-hits—not necessarily in the order named.

"Joe," explained the hazel-eyed Miss Standish, as she demurely cut into a two-inch steak, "is simply wild about torch songs. He listens to them by the hour.

"We go to see western movies practically every night. Joe thinks they're the greatest motion pictures ever produced but I think they're sort of silly."

DiMaggio, through spokesmen in the Yankee organization, admitted going out with Miss Standish but said he hadn't seen her in about six weeks.

"Joe doesn't want to knock her because she is a good friend, but they aren't going steady," said A. E. (Red) Patterson, secretary of the Yankees

Transit Strike Hits Business

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 2 (U.P.)—San Antonio's citywide transit strike entered its second day with the public looking hopefully for sign of a "break."

But none was on the horizon.

J. W. Connally, president of the local A-F-L union of bus drivers and mechanics, said there had been no move by any of the interested parties toward conciliation.

"I really don't expect any for a while, not today, anyway," Connally said.

Quit Jobs Monday

Some 700 members of his union —local 694 of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America — quit their jobs at 1:30 a. m. Monday in a wage dispute with the San Antonio Transit company.

They had demanded wage raises of 19 cents per hour, but had intimated a willingness to settle for five cents. The company offered one cent, plus a 50 per cent increase in pension benefits.

Connally said Mayor Jack White was the only person who had even approached him about the tieup and possible settlement.

"All the mayor said was that somebody should sit down and talk this thing over," said Connally. "I think he meant some citizens. But so far as conciliation or anything resembling it, there's nothing."

The transit strike — first here since the days of trolly cars at the turn of the century—put 300 buses in the company's garages and provided a bonanza for the city's taxicab fleets.

All of the operating cab companies said: "Too much business."

Downtown business houses felt the pinch immediately.

Man Believed Bogus Money Kingpin Held

NEW YORK Aug. 2 (U.P.)—Secret service agents today arrested Michael Maione, 38, said to be the kingpin in a counterfeit ring that has passed several million dollars in phony money since last September.

Maione, a juke box distributor, was quickly arraigned on a charge of possession and sale of counterfeit money. U. S. Commissioner Ed McDonald ordered him held on $50,000 bail.

Secret service agents reported that they had watched Maione, who is an ex-convict, for more than six months in an attempt to find the top man in the ring that has been distributing $5, $10 and $20 counterfeit bills bearing a "G" serial number of the Chicago Federal Reserve bank.

A week ago the ring switched to series "B" numbers on the New York Federal Reserve bank.

eliciting admissions that truckloads of beer stopped Dec. 23 and July 1 by J. C. Welch, a state highway patrolman of Lamesa, never reached Amarillo, terminus point mentioned in the road manifests in possession of the drivers. The VFW clubhouse here is "out of the way" for a driver to take when delivering a load from Big Spring to Amarillo, the state also observed.

The 180 cases of beer seized at the VFW clubhouse were forfeited to the state in a proceeding earlier today before 99th District Judge G. V. Pardue. Joe H. Reynolds, member of the attorney general's staff, Carr and assistant County Attorney Travis Shelton represented the state. The defense was represented by S. P. Boling, of the Lubbock firm of Boling, Smith and Allen, and Sweetwater attorney Temple Dickson, who are counsel for Wells. Carr is assisted in the Wells prosecution by Dudley Brummett, another assistant county attorney.

Acquittal Refused

The state rested after testimony of Welch, Boyce and W. G. Poplin, a Texas Liquor Control board supervisor. The defense dictated a motion for an instructed verdict of acquittal, which was overruled by County Judge Walter Davies, then called T. G. Rhoden of Odessa to open defense evidence.

Rhoden said he was president and general manager of Pinky's Liquor Stores of Odessa, Inc. He admitted that a branch distributor's license of the corporation's store in Big Spring was suspended 21 days as a result of a hearing before the administrator of the Liquor Control board growing out of the raid and arrest of Wells here May 27.

The case is expected to reach the jury today.

No Comment Given

Because of special conditions under which Texas joined the union she would have control three leagues or ten and one half miles.

Giles said he hoped the measure would retain the states management provision when finally introduced observing that the side which has to ask for an amendment would be at a disadvantage when the measure came up for a hearing before a congressional committee.

Speaker Rayburn of Texas, who had said earlier state and federal authorities were in substantial accord on all points except that concerning management of the marginal tidelands, declined to comment on the latest draft.

Eleemosynary Board Members Take Oaths At Austin Ceremony

AUSTIN, Aug. 2. (AP)—Seven men and one woman whose job after Sept. 1 will be caring for such wards of the state as the insane were formally inducted today.

They were members of the newly-created State Hospitals and Special Schools board. They will take over the eleemosynary institutions from the Board of Control by act of the 51st legislature.

Bishop John Hines of Austin, will be sworn in later; he was unable to attend today.

Mrs. Beauford H. Jester, widow of the late governor, attended the ceremony at which Associate Justice John H. Sharp of the Supreme court administered the oath. Gov. Allan Shivers in a brief talk after the ceremony took note of Jester's "deep and abiding interest" in the welfare of the state's wards.

man's request for approval of a $1,400,000,000 program to help friendly nations arm against Soviet aggression.

The Democrats, unlike their Republican colleagues, indicated willingness to take the program on faith if the details they seek are not forthcoming.

Specifically, they want to know whether there is any ironclad agreement that the nations receiving American arms will use them as a team.

Rep. Mansfield (D-Mont) told newsmen he still isn't convinced a plan of coordinated action has been worked out.

Like other committee Democrats, however, he said it may be necessary to take the program on faith upon the assurances of such men as former Secretary of State George Marshall.

Republicans still insisted something definite on assurances of coordinated action be provided. Unless it is, they said, they won't be inclined to favor the program but will vote for an interim setup of about half the amount requested.

Marshall eased some committee fears yesterday when he said he felt certain conclusions on unified action have been reached.

The ex-secretary of state and wartime Army chief of state whole-heartedly endorsed the arms-aid program in an off-the-cuff discussion with the committee yesterday.

A crowd of several hundred persons was held in order on the river bank by national guardsmen, military police, state highway patrolmen, state constables, and city police.

Firemen were leading the rescue operations. They first heard of Lee's plight when Dent managed to reach shore as the dam's overflow waters threatened the two men. Lee is unable to swim.

His immediate danger seemed to be only from exposure or possible exhaustion.

The river was flooded when rain-swollen waters were released 10 miles upstream by the South Carolina Electric and Gas company at its Parr Shoals power dam.

Company officials said the river was already so swollen that it would do no good now to close the Parr Shoals dam. They said the river probably would rise no higher, however.

Murder Trial Bias Charged

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Aug. 2. (AP) —At least one juror for the Dr. Robert Rutledge, jr., murder trial last May had his mind made up in advance about a verdict, three men testified yesterday.

They testified at a hearing before District Judge J. E. Heiserman on a defense motion for a new trial. Further testimony is to be given today and may consume part of tomorrow before the judge rules on the motion.

Yesterday's testimony concerned statements allegedly made by Emil Novotny, Cedar Rapids linotype operator, who served on the jury which convicted Dr. Rutledge of second degree murder in the stabbing of Byron C. Hattman, of St. Louis. The defense contended that Hattman had seduced Dr. Rutledge's wife, Sydney.

Three Testify

Walter C. Anawait, 40, assistant Cedar Radips postmaster; John R. Parker, 45, Cedar Rapids draftsman, and Fred W. Hann, 73, lawyer, said they had heard Novotny express the opinion Rutledge was guilty while all of them were on a bus enroute to work.

Parker said Novotny repeatedly told them the young doctor was guilty and "I was amazed" at the way Novotny hung onto his opinion.

Before the hearing adjourned yesterday, Angelo J. Biskup, next door neighbor to Novotny, took the stand for cross examination by the defense. He had signed an affadavit for the state.

Biskup was asked whether he heard any discussions on the bus of the Rutledge case. He replied: "Not in any degree—no."

Parker had testified that the Rutledge case was almost always the topic of conversation after the 29-year-old Hattman was found dead in a Cedar Rapids hotel and Dr. Rutledge was arrested at his home in St. Louis.

Wife Attends Hearing

Anawait testified he had heard Novotny say he would like to serve on the Rutledge trial jury and "would hang the son of a bitch."

Anawait, under questioning by County Attorney William W. Crissman, said on one occasion he heard Novotny laugh and couldn't be sure whether Novotny was joking at the time about Dr. Rutledge's guilt. Parker said Novotny "was deadly in earnest" about the doctor's guilt.

Dr. Rutledge, 28-year-old baby specialist, has been in jail here since his conviction last May 28. At the conclusion of this hearing, if Judge Heiserman denies a motion for a new trial, he will be sentenced. The sentence could be from 10 years to life.

The doctor's wife, her father, Dr. Howard Geodrich, Hannibal, Mo., and his father, Robert C. Rutledge, sr., Houston, Texas, were present yesterday.

To show its fire power, the occupation force paraded nine field artillery battalions past the visitors. The 90-minute review included three light tank companies and a battalion of heavy tanks.

The joint chiefs spent an hour and one half before the parade in an inspection tour of the Grafenwoehr training grounds. The U. S. Army and Air Force will hold joint autumn war games next month.

Near Czech Border

Graefenwoehr is near the Czechoslovak border. From here the joint chiefs will fly back to Frankfurt late today. They will leave again almost immediately for London to open a new series of conferences with high ranking Atlantic pact nations.

In addition to the 1st Division, ground forces in Germany include three hard-hitting armored constabulary teams. Air strength includes two fighter groups, one jet-propelled, and an elaborate radar warning net around the U. S. zone.

Bradley indicated yesterday after a 90-minute briefing on American strength at Heidelberg that these forces will be integrated into the European defense organization. He said the part the American forces would play in case of attack was being worked out.

In London the American military leaders will confer with the three British chiefs and the army and naval chiefs of Denmark. From these talks is expected to emerge the organization to direct the defense of Atlantic pact nations. They will go to Paris later this week to hold similar talks with French and other military leaders.

Congress Is Wagging Its Flaps And Acting Like A Stork

California Soldier And Wife Soon Will Be On Way Home From Italy With Adopted Child

BY HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—Your Congress is wagging its flaps and acting like a stork.

As a result, a California soldier and his wife soon will be on the way home from Italy with their 18-month-old adopted daughter who will be listed officially as their "natural" child.

Red Tape Unraveled

Among others, the couple can thank two sentimental lawgivers—with youngsters of their own—who helped to unravel the miles of red tape here and abroad.

The history of the case is this:

After the war, Chief Army Warrant Officer William F. Kretzinger of Beverly Hills, Calif., found himself in Leghorn, Italy. Naturally, he became lonesome for his pretty, blue-eyed wife, Mildred. He saved up his money and sent for her.

The two were happy, but they longed for the pit-pat of tiny feet around the place. Finally, they decided that the thing to do was to adopt an Italian war orphan. After "shopping" around they decided on Francesca Lucareni, — blond, pretty as a picture and with flashing big blue eyes like her foster mama's.

At length they obtained legal custody of the baby, and that's where they struck the snarl of red tape.

A 20-Year Wait

The Italian law reads that no child may be adopted legally unless the parents are 50 years old. That let the Kretzingers out. Bill and Mildred talked it over. It would mean waiting over 20 years. Little Francesca would be 21½ by that time. Who wants to adopt an already-raised baby?

Bill sat down and wrote a long letter to his brother-in-law in Burbank, Calif., Sydney Cole. He enclosed pictures of the little cuddler, enough to show around where they would do the most good.

Cole, a man of action, went to Burbank City Councilman Walter R. Hinton. Hinton expressed interest. Might have been the pictures. Anyhow he did what any sensible councilman would do under the circumstances. He wrote to his congressman in Washington, Rep. Carl Hinshaw, R., Calif.

Picture Was Enclosed

"Can't we somehow melt the stern immigration regulations on this side and the rigid Italian code in this case? Enclosed is a picture of Miss Francesca Lucareni, aged 18 months, who wants to become Miss Frances Kretzinger."

Before he knew what he was doing, Hinshaw found himself running up and down the marble halls of the House office building, showing the picture. He got hold of Watson B. Miller, the immigration chief. And Hinshaw wasn't above toting the picture and letter over to the Justice and State department.

It was agreed finally that an act of Congress was in order. So the representative dropped a private bill into the hopper declaring the Kretzingers to be the "natural" parents of the baby. That got around the Italian adoption rules.

The measure breezed through the House without a murmur of protest. The job was half done.

Hinshaw next buzzed his friend and fellow Republican, Sen. William F. Knowland, of Piedmont, Calif., father of three. They had lunch. Hinshaw showed Knowland the picture and the senator said Francesca sure was a cute baby. He introduced a bill in the upper house. It hasn't come up yet, but it will.

It won't be long now, Miss Kretzinger.

A storm that left hail two feet deep on the ground damaged apples to the extent of 15,000 boxes in the neighborhood of Port Elizabeth, South Africa.

THE ICEMAN COMETH TO THE RESCUE—Ralph Bailey of a Ludlow, Mass., ice company makes a stop at an artificial pond each day and delivers a half ton of ice to the fish. So far, according to Al Fuller, who built the pond, the stunt has saved many fish from death in the tepid water. Young bathers on hand don't seem to object to lowering the temperature of the water either.

Diego Rivera Art Is Exhibited In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 2 (AP)—President Miguel Aleman last night inaugurated an exhibition of a thousand paintings by Mexico's famed artist, Diego Rivera.

The president, accompanied by a score of high government officials, spent nearly an hour at Fine Arts palace, where seven salons are hung with the Rivera works.

The exhibition, representing 50 years of the artist's production, will open to the public today. It contains representative paintings from all of Rivera's periods — studies in the academic tradition from his early days as a local art student, the cubist influence of Spanish artist Pablo Picasso, the stamp of Cezanne and Van Gogh from his Paris days, and reproductions of the huge murals which made his name famous.

Rivera went through the galleries with President Aleman, but left explanations to others. Afterwards, he said: "This represents fifty years of struggle with paint and brush."

Sabotage was suspected as the reason, when a 60-foot section of four underground telephone cables connecting Calcutta, India, with Budge Budge, an industrial center 20 miles away, recently was cut and removed, interrupting communications for several days.

Ticket Troubles Discourage Customers

Theater Is Fabulous Invalid That Won't Die Or Get Well

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 —There is a sick thing here that won't die and won't get well.

Many people love it and some fear it. And a lot of folks pay money to go and see it.

The theater has had more doctors than any hypochondriac, including the renowed George Bernard Shaw.

There are a lot of things wrong with the theater. It suffers from diseases that range from low blood pressure in some seasons to high prices in any season. And I am one of those who admire the patient but would sure like to see the old girl cured.

Tickets Are Delayed

I don't expect this to happen in my time. Part of this is probably pure personal pique. For example, I met a fellow the other night who braggs he had been to see "South Pacific" twice, whereas I, a citizen of average moral cunning and still two jumps ahead of section 77-B of the bankruptcy act, am yet foreign to this production except via musical recordings of Enzo Pinza's enchanted evening with Mary Martin.

It isn't as if I can't get a couple of ducats to this particular musical show, because I can. I have been promised them—for the usual box office price—by the vice presidents of two theatrical unions and the head of a New Jersey vitamin factory who once met Miss Martin on a picnic in Texas.

The only catch is that I have a three-year apartment lease. By the time the tickets come through I may be living in Bangkok, Siam. Would I feel like spending a long week-end flying here for just one evening of enchantment across a crowded room? Maybe it would be pleasanter to lie in Bangkok sipping a rum frappe—I always drink rum frappes lying down—and listening to temple gongs.

This is what I think is the big trouble with the theater today. You have to plan your whole future to be sure of getting a seat. And I think more and more people are saying: "To Keokuk with the whole darn nuisance—what's new on the television set?"

They are driving the customers away by making your attendance more a test of your Dun and Bradstreet rating than your cultural awareness. Only the graduate of a correspondence course in muscle building can work his way through the throng to buy his seats at the box office for a hit play. And if you purchase them by mail, they are things you leave in your will for your children to enjoy. How can a man be sure he will live long enough to use them himself?

August Dangerous Time For Motorist

AUSTIN, Aug. 2. (AP)—Vacationing motorists were urged today to watch the road instead of the scenery.

State Police Director Homer Garrison, jr., said August has become the most dangerous motoring month of the year, displacing December in this category.

In August of 1948, 212 persons lost their lives in Texas traffic accidents surpassing the month of December for the first time.

Contributing factors toward August's high death rate, Garrison says, include the fact that this month is a period of many vacation trips during which numerous people travel unfamiliar roads and devote too much attention to the scenry rather than their driving. August heat results in fatigue and induces drowsiness, thus making this month the highest with vehicle accidents.

The Department of Public Safety has set as its goal less than 1,949 traffic deaths in 1949. If not more than 162 persons are killed this month it will mean saving in human lives of 50 over the same period last year and a reduction of 2½ per cent in deaths for the entire year.

Room In Peaceful World For Communism And Capitalism, American Author Says

BERLIN, Aug. 2. (AP)—Thomas Mann thinks there is room in a peaceful world for both Soviet Communism and western capitalism, the Communist press reported today.

The German-born author was quoted to that effect in an interview published by the Soviet-licensed Neues Deutschland, official newspaper of the Socalist Unity (Communist) party in Germany.

The interview was at Weimar where Soviet zone Germans awarded Mann the Goethe bicentennial prize. Mann once lived in Weimar. He fled Hitler's Germany in 1933, and is an American citizen now.

"The different and opposing social systems of the Soviet union and the United States seem to me unnecessarily an obstacle for peaceful cooperation," Mann was quoted as saying.

Sees Similarities

"There are certain similarities between the two peoples, such as the passion for technical progress. They also have in common a generous approach to life. I therefore deem an understanding between the two nations as by no means impossible."

"I believe the danger of another World war will soon lose its menace," the interview continued.

Socialite May Seek Divorce

RENO, Nev., Aug. 2 (AP)—Mrs. Mary Ellin Burden, daughter of composer and Mrs. Irving Berlin, was at nearby Lake Tahoe today establishing Nevada residence.

This was disclosed by Robert Z. Hawkins, Reno attorney related to the Berlin family by marriage.

Mrs. Burden is the wife of New York socialite Dennis Burden.

Hawkins refused to comment on reports Mrs. Burden would seek a divorce after she had been here six weeks, the minimum time before a divorce action can be filed. The Burdens were married July 13, 1948.

Mrs. Burden was accompanied to Lake Tahoe by her parents and two younger sisters, Linda and Elizabeth.

Heated Gubernatorial Contest Reeling Off In Virginia Today

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 2. (AP)—A record Democratic primary vote of more than 300,000 was expected in Virginia today in the wake of the most heated gubernatorial campaign waged in a quarter of a century.

Virginia Republicans, holding their first statewide primary with a contest only in the race for lieutenant-governor, were expected to bring a by far smaller number of voters to the polls.

Upon the result of the election appeared to hinge the leadership of Virginia Democrats held for the last 25 years by the state's senior United States senator, Harry F. Byrd, a former Virginia governor.

It was Byrd who threw the weight of his influence behind the candidacy of State Senator John S. Battle in the four-cornered Democratic gubernatorial race. The other gubernatorial candidates are Francis Pickens Miller, former legislator and member of Eisenhower's staff; Horace H. Edwards, a former mayor of Richmond; and Remmie L. Arnold, Petersburg, Va., businessman and a pen and pencil manufacturer.

Byrd Influence Fought

With Arnold, Miller, and Edwards each endeavoring to amass a campaign to outweigh the Byrd influence, the Democratic gubernatorial race overshadowed contests for nomination for lieutenant-governor and attorney-general and seats in the lower house of the legislature.

Last Appeals Made

Incumbent Attorney-General J. Lindsay Almond, jr., also seeks his office again on the Democratic ticket and is opposed by Moss A. Plunkett of Roanoke.

There are no Republican candidates for attorney-general. All candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination were in this capital city last night. From Richmond radio stations, they made their last appeals to the electorate.

"Battle was sure that the state would go forward under the "banner of good government," if he is elected. He was sure also that the state's present labor laws, assailed by organized labor as too restrictive, would be "safe" from repeal or change at the hands of one of his opponents, Miller. Battle also promised that the state's school needs would be taken care of from "state surpluses" without additional taxes, if he becomes governor. This, he said, is better than saddling the state with a sales tax, as advocated by another of his opponents, Edwards.

Sales Tax Favored

Edwards, in his turn, envisioned the good that his sales tax will bring to the state. If it goes in, he said, Virginia will at last be able to tell the world that it is "educating its children." The sales tax, he said, is the only way for the state to achieve real "pay-as-you-go" financing.

Miller, self-avowed opponent of the "Byrd machine," saw the forces of Battle as defeated. "Democratic forces are at work" to set the state free and return government "to the people," he said. And he pictured himself as the man who would lead Virginia on the way to restoration to her "rightful place in the (Democratic) party, in the nation, and in the western world."

From Arnold came a confident prediction of victory. He will be first with over 102,000 votes, he said, and Edwards will be second.

"Mr. Battle knows this, Senator Byrd knows this, their key politicians knows this, and that is why they are trying so hard to pressure me and control your thinking," Arnold said.

Houston Woman Held In Fatal Stabbing

HOUSTON, Aug. 2 (U.P.) — A 35-year-old woman was in jail here today following the fatal stabbing of Sally Harold, 45, during a tavern argument over a bottle of beer.

Police said the jailed woman made a written statement admitting she stabbed the older woman last night in self defense.

American Hamburger's 45th Anniversary To Be Celebrated Wednesday In Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (INS)—The American hamburger's 45th birthday anniversary will be observed Wednesday in Chicago.

Sponsoring the event, which will include selection of a hamburger king and queen from among all the persons by name of Hamburger in the Chicago area, is a man who loves them—Dan O'Connell.

Unveiling Scheduled

Its American start to fame, he contends, began when it was introduced cooked at the St. Louis World's fair in 1904.

Gunshot Wound Fatal To Port Arthur Boy

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 2 (U.P.) — Russell Golden, 14-year-old Port Arthur boy whose San Antonio visit took a tragic turn when a playmate shot him in a too-realistic game of "cops and robbers", died yesterday.

Butcher Birds Are Shot For Attacks

BATON RUGE, La., Aug. 2 (U.P.) — The police department has advised pedestrians, especially bald ones, that they can use Government Street again without having their scalps lacerated by butcher birds.

Two butcher birds built a nest in a tree on the street. They soon became terrors. Their first victim, a bald man who wasn't wearing his hat, fled with two birds scratching and pecking at his dome.

But bald or not, any one who passed was pounded upon by the butcher birds. When police were called, they were attacked, too. But they brought along a shotgun and killed the birds.

Catholic Bishop Condemns Three Popular Philippine Dances As "Indecent Capers"

MANILA, Aug. 2 (INS)—Three widely-practiced Philippine dances have been condemned as "outright indecent" by a high Catholic churchman and dancers forbidden to continue them under threat of virtual excommunication from the church.

The stern order, aimed at the Philippine dances "Apalachicola," "Cascarita" and the "Calypso," was issued by the bishop of Lingayen, Mariano A. Madriaga, D. D.

In a letter circulated and read publicly in Lingayen parishes in northern Luzon, the bishop described the dances as "infallible signs of reversal or return to the level of beasts."

Threatens Excommunication

He further stated:

"Those who are known to indulge in these and other immodest dances, after the public condemnation by your reading of this circular, will incur the following:

"1. Privation of the holy sacrament.

"2. Expulsion from any Catholic society or association to which he belongs.

"3. Exclusion from the privilege to act as sponsor both at baptisms, confirmations and as witness in weddings.

"4. Privation of all honors at church and other gathering of religious nature."

Explain Basis For Action

"We have observed the wildfire spread of the craze for not only immodest but outright indecent and obscene dances. . .

"We have seen these dances in two places where we were forced to remain for the night due to the pastoral visit and we could see the indecent capers of those dancing just below my window of the parish house.

"We cannot therefore remain silent. We must . . . decry this silly mania, this refined regression to the brute."

Rural Life Abundant, Dakota Educator Says

VERMILLION, S. D., Aug. 2 (U.P.)—A South Dakota educator says rural America offers challenge and romance to anyone with his heart set on an "abundant life."

I. D. Weeks, president of the University of South Dakota, outlined his views in the National Parent Teacher magazine.

Weeks considers life on the farms and in the small towns of the nation a solution to the congested, hectic existence some people lead in the cities."

Rural living not only provides one with time to reflect, Weeks says, but enables one to become an "ally of nature and to observe the laws of God in a manner unknown to the majority of city dwellers."

Yo-Yo Returns To University Campus

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Aug. 2 (U.P.) —A University of Michigan philosophy professor had to stop a class because of a disturbance in the last row.

Veterans Get Priority Here On LAFB Jobs

Capt. Earl E. Starkey, civilian personnel officer for Lubbock Air Force base, and his assistant, Archie F. Boudreaux, Wednesday will begin interviewing applicants for 83 civilian jobs available at the base.

Under present Civil Service provisions, disabled veterans meeting the minmum requirements for the respective positions will be given top priority with non-disabled veterans next in priority. Non-veterans will be considered after exhaustion of the first two priorities.

Must Fill Out Applications

Form 57 applications, available at the Lubbock post office, must be filled out completely outlining qualifications and experience for the position desired before reporting to the interviewing office at the base's temporary headquarters.

Captain Starkey estimated the interviews will take approximately three weeks. Each applicant will be carefully screened and appropriate selections will be made from the current authorizations.

Jobs at the base will come under two categories with 65 positions authorized under Air Installations or 441 funds and the remainder authorized under other funds or 442 funds.

Jobs Are Described

Under the 441 category are jobs for electricians, firefighters, plumbers, steamfitters, laborers, carpenters, sanitary technicians, painters, draftsmen, construction technicians, refrigeration mechanics, sheet metal workers, utilities and water supply technicians, supply clerks and machinists.

The 442 funds provide the following jobs and CAF ratings:

Two property and supply clerks, CAF 2; one cost accounting clerk, CAF 4; one storekeeper, shipping and receiving, CAF 5; one aqua fuel system operating foreman, Grade 15; one property and supply supervisor, CAF 7; one general storekeeper, CAF 7; one general storekeeper, CAF 4; one supply inspector, CAF 6; one storekeeper, CAF 3; three craters, carpenters, Grade 9; three clerk typists, CAF 3 and two clerk typists, CAF 2.

Wage scales in CAF positions range from CAF 2 at $2,284 per annum to CAF 7 at $3,727 per annum. Graded positions are paid on an hourly basis.

Texas Baptists Plan Powerful FM Station

DALLAS, Aug. 2. (AP)—Contracts for the most powerful frequency modulation station in Texas, 86,000 watt KYBS, have been let by the Texas Baptist convention.

Station KYBS will be owned and operated by the Baptist group.

Dr. R. Alton Reed, director of the convention's radio activities, said the 600-foot radio tower will be erected at Mount Lebanon Baptist encampment, 20 miles southwest of Dallas.

OPAL DIXON

THE QUESTION

THE ANSWERS

R. E. HARVEY. New Deal, retired grocer: "By treating everybody like you want to be treated yourself. In every way, he should be respected. There are differences in people. You'd have to treat some of them different than others, just like in business. You need to entertain some and just say 'howdy' to some and go on. You can be a good neighbor by figuring out how a neighbor wants to be treated. Find out what he is interested in and talk on that subject."

R. BUSH SMITH. 1910 Dixie drive, partner in Smith-Burrus Insurance agency: "To have good neighbors, you have to be one yourself. By your friendly attitude toward your neighbors and your neighbors' children, you can be a good neighbor. I have neighbors I wouldn't trade for anybody. They're willing to do anything for you and you're willing to do anything for them."

GORDON TREADAWAY. 3208 Twenty-second, attorney: "By appreciating the neighbor's position; greeting him and his family with a smile and a friendly 'hello', and remembering that you have children, too."

MRS. D. D. JENKINS. 1620 Ave. L, housewife: "I think they can be a good neighbor by helping one another in sickness and by being on call when needed. If anyone doesn't want to visit or neighbor and still wants to be friendly, just speak to them and go on."

JOE W. DOUGLAS. Drane hall, Texas Tech graduate student from Littlefield: "I guess you can be a good neighbor by following the Golden Rule—treating others as you would want to be treated."

W. C. MADISON. 906 Ave. R, salesman at Montgomery Ward & Co.: "You can visit and you can have picnics in your backyard and invite your neighbors. I definitely think that neighbors should know one another. In case of an emergency, it certainly helps if you have a friendly neighbor. In any emergency you should offer to help a neighbor, too."

George Moran Claimed At 67

OAKLAND, Calif., Aug. 2 (AP)—George Moran, oldtime vaudeville and radio entertainer, is dead at 67.

He suffered a stroke last Tuesday night and was taken, unconscious, to Highland hospital, where he died yesterday.

Rade Sadler, an associate, said Moran was a member of the "Two Black Crows" vaudeville team which later went on the radio. He said he and Moran had been preparing to revive the act for television.

Had Name Changed

With Moran at his death were a brother, Philander Searcy of Los Angeles and a sister, Mrs. Charles Stephen of Denver. They left by train last night for Los Angeles before continuing on to St. Joseph, Mo. Moran's body will be flown there for burial in the family plot after services here Wednesday.

Moran's family name was Searcy. During his acting career, he had his name legally changed to Moran.

Polio Shows Sharp Increase

Total Is Far Ahead Of '48

(By The Associated Press)

Infantile paralysis cases showed a sharp increase in some states in the last week, boosting the nation's total far ahead of 1948, a near record year.

The number of polio deaths for the first seven months of 1949, an Associated Press survey showed, is about double the total up to Aug. 1, 1948.

ABILENE MAN DIES

(By The Associated Press)

The death toll from polio in Texas rose on Monday, and six new cases of the disease were admitted to Houston hospitals.

Wallace (Red) Wilson, 34, senior aircraft controller for the Civil Aeronautics administration at Abilene, died in a hospital there Monday. He was stricken Thursday.

The new cases at Houston include a 13-month-old girl and a 16-month-old boy from Jacinto City, a 3-year-old girl from Foster Place and an 11-year-old girl from Belefontaine, all in Harris county. The others were a five-year-old girl from Palestine and a Bay City youngster.

The survey showed approximately 8,000 cases and 442 deaths. However, data on fatalities was sketchy and incomplete in some states on the number of cases.

Precautions Taken

Many communities, fearing epidemics in the heavy polio months of August and September already have taken emergency measures. State health officials and leaders of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are taking all precautions to prevent the outbreak or spread of the disease.

The 27,680 polio cases reported in 1948 were the second highest of record but up to Aug. 1, 1948 the total was under 5,000. The worst polio year was 1916 when about 30,000 cases were reported.

Increases in the number of cases over last week's figures were reported in New York, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin. The 1,123 cases in Texas did not include the number stricken in the last week in July. Official figures for that period were not available.

Reports By States

New York state reported 482 cases, with 353 in the New York City metropolitan area, the largest number of cases in any big city. California reported 794 cases: Oklahoma 498; Arkansas 492; Illinois 376; Michigan 370; Minnesota 362, and Indiana 242.

Although some states reported incidence was light and below last year in several others, 22 states have reported 100 or more cases each to date.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has advanced $3,551,365 to its 40 chapters up to Aug. 1 this year, twice as much as granted in a similar period in 1948.

The outbreak in Munice, Ind., resulted in a ban on public gatherings, including funeral services.

Huge Herds Of Buffalo Provided Plenty Of Meat And Hides

Old Rock House In Blanco Canyon Landmark Of Wide Open Country In Early West Texas

By EDWARD WELSH
Journal Staff Writer

CROSBYTON, Aug. 2.—It is unfortunate that stones can't talk. If they could, the old Hank Smith rock house in Blanco Canyon, 10 miles north of Crosbyton, would have some wonderful stories to tell.

The "Rock House", as it is usually called, was the first permanent dwelling in this section of the country. It stands today in excellent repair and houses a grandson and two great-grandchildren of the original owner. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith, Choicesy, 9, and Scarlett, 6, have introduced some modern conveniences, but basically the house is just like it was when it was completed in 1876.

The "Rock House" was built by a man named Tasker but he left this part of the country without living in it. Hank Smith and his wife, Elizabeth, took it over a few years after their marriage at Fort Griffin in 1872. Elizabeth Boyle, together with her father and brothers, had operated an old fashioned inn at Fort Griffin in Shackleford county. It was there she met Hank Smith, an interpreter for the Army.

Lumber, hardware, window sash and framing were all freighted overland from Fort Worth. They were many days on the road and cleared through Ft. Griffith. Most of the stone was available in the area and was cut to size and dressed down on the job.

West Texas was wide open country in those days. Business was good in some lines but it was transient business. There were no towns. Only trails and cross-trails. Hank Smith staked out a claim on some 10 or 12 sections of land but he didn't see any need for claiming more. There was plenty of open range for his cattle to roam. He might have had more if he had wanted it.

In the "seventies" buffalo were still plentiful and huge herds would come down into Blanco can-

Building Total For August Is Boosted Here

Lubbock's August building volume made an auspicious start Monday when permits totaling $163,550 were issued at the office of Lloyd Ross, building inspector.

An unofficial tabulation of July permits revealed that $719,605 worth of construction was started during the past month within the corporate limits of Lubbock.

New Home Permits Issued

The year's construction total edged toward the six-million dollar mark. Total for the first seven months was $5,683,712, and August's first day volume raised the year's total to $5,847,262.

Mainly accounting for the unusually heavy volume Monday were permits for 19 residences issued to R. and W. Development company, owner, and James E. Walker, and company, contractor, at a total cost of $135,000.

The 19 residences will be built at a cost of $7,000 each in Denison Heights 3600-block Thirty-first street.

Other Permits Included

Other permits were issued to E. Y. Gibbs, owner, and Frank H. Crowell, contractor, for a residence at 3414 Twenty-eighth, $6,450; L. Edwin Smith, for a garage at 3212 Twenty-seventh, $1,000; Mary Helen Millington, business building at 2413 Nineteenth, $1,500; S. J. Pearson, residence at 2805 Merthel, $4 500; W. R. McInturff, garage and servants quarters at 2007 Ninth, $2,500; Leonard McGowan, residence at 3518 Thirtieth, $8,000; and Waples-Platter company, owner, and Harold Biffle, contractor, to replace loading dock at 710 Tenth, $3,000.

It appeared highly doubtful that the 1949 building total in Lubbock will match that of 1948, when permits in excess of $15,000,000 were issued. The summer months normally are the heaviest building months, but so far March and May are the only months this year when the volume exceeded $1,000,000.

Cargo Ship Eludes Shanghai Blockade

SHANGHAI, Aug. 2 (AP)—The 800-ton cargo ship Edyth Moller cut of Hong Kong ran the Nationalist blockade and reached Communist Shanghai today.

The coastal vessel, chartered by Tahchunghwa Steamship company of Shanghai, is owned by Moller, Ltd., of Hong Kong.

There was much speculation here that shipping interests in Hong Kong had used the Moller to test effectiveness of the Nationalist blockade.

Manhunt Stepped Up For Killer Of 68-Year-Old Society Matron

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 2 (AP) —The shotgun slaying of a 68-year-old Charlotte society matron remained a mystery today as police intensified a manhunt.

Mrs. Esley O. Anderson, sr., was killed by a shotgun blast here early yesterday morning, in her fashionable, Myers Park home. Also critically wounded was Wilford Randleman, 48-year-old butler.

Police Chief Frank N. Littlejohn ordered the entire city detective force to duty until the case is solved. He also placed additional uniformed policemen on duty.

Struggle Indicated

"We'll work straight through mealtimes," the chief said, "until we find the man who did this."

Police were working on a dozen different clues. But none so far have flushed the slayer.

Mrs. Anderson was found fully clothed. But the distrubed condition of the bedroom indicated she put up a struggle before dying from blasts through the shoulder and hand.

There was also some indication that robbery was a motive, according to the police.

Butler Not Queried

The slayer apparently entered the fashionable Anderson home shortly after Mrs. Anderson's husband left for work at 8:30 a. m.

After killing the 68-year-old matron, the prowler went into the servant's quarters and hid until the butler came to work. He then attacked Randleman from ambush with a heavy pipe and slashed his throat.

Police were unable to question the negro butler as he remained in a critical condition.

New Dodge Trucks Are To Be Shown

Displaying the Dodge line of trucks, a Dodge Route Van Caravan will visit Lubbock and be on display at the Dickinson Motor company's truck terminal on Highway 82 east of Lubbock today and Wednesday from 9 a. m. until 10 p. m.

Nine fully-equipped van models including interior body conversions to meet the needs of bakeries, dairies, dry cleaners, meat packers, florists, department stores, etc., will be on display in the caravan. In addition to these units, there will also be included one of the new special route van chassis and other supplementary units for other businesses.

Jimmy Lumus, manager of the truck terminal, will be host for the showing and several Dodge officials including Geo. Harmon, regional manager; W. K. West, truck manager; Rolland Swain, truck service representative and C. B. Black, district manager, all of Oklahoma City; and Bob Adams, district manager, Amarillo, will be here for the caravan showing.

News Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peel and son Mabry, of 1906 Twenty-fourth, returned Sunday afternoon from a two-week vacation in Yellowstone national park and the Midwest. In South Dakota, they toured the Black Hills and visited Mount Rushmore National memorial, where images of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, and Theodore Roosevelt are carved in a granite mountainside. On the way home, they visited T. C. Peels and family, of Wichita, Kans., who moved there from Lubbock last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Galey, of 1517 Twenty-fourth, will leave Wednesday for Beaumont where their son, Charles, will play on the North basketball team in the annual North-South game at the Beaumont coaching school. They will spend several days fishing in the Gulf before their return to Lubbock. Young Galey was an all-state guard from Lubbock High last season.

Mrs. W. M. Lane, widow of the pastor of First Methodist church from 1911 to 1916, was to be honored at an open house from 3 to 6 p. m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. E. Murfee, sr., 1923 Fourteenth.

Mrs. L. G. H. Williams of 2023 Seventeenth was reported resting comfortably in Lubbock Memorial hospital today by hospital attendants. She suffered a heart attack earlier Monday afternoon.

Kissing Wife In Public Not Unlawful, But Causing Rumpus Is, Judge Declares

GALESVILLE, Md., Aug. 2 (AP)—Because he was so vehement about his right to be kissed in public by his wife, Roy Miffleton, 31, of Washington is $10 poorer today.

Miffleton was fined that amount yesterday by trial Magistrate Norman Hazard after testimony at a hearing developed that quite a rumpus ensued following a wifely kiss on an outing Sunday at Mayo beach on Chesapeake Bay.

Mrs. Mary Trabing, wife of the resort owner, objected to such goings-on in public.

Miffleton objected to her objecting. Words flew hot and heavy. A crowd gathered. And then the police came.

At the trial, Judge Hazard said he wasn't fining Miffleton for publicly kissing his wife but for disorderly conduct afterward. The judge also levied a like fine against a friend of Miffleton's, John Cain, a 28-year-old Washington policeman. Cain had been loud in supporting Miffleton, testimony showed.

AMERICAN PRESSURE

MOSCOW, Aug. 2 (AP)—The Communist party newspaper, Pravda, today headlined the U. S. joint chiefs of staff's visit to Europe as "American pressure on countries in western Europe."

Krauts Picket U. S. Offices

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 2 (AP) — Seventy Germans claiming to be "victims of Nazism" demonstrated for an hour today before the headquarters of U. S. Military Governor John J. McCloy, in Frankfurt.

It was the first demonstration by Germans before the huge building that has been American headquarters in Germany since 1945.

The men, women and children, in two groups, bore signs protesting that American authorities had delayed restitution of property to persons persecuted by the Nazis.

Picketing Quiet

The picketers jammed the driveway to the huge former I. G. Farbenindustrie building, before military police asked them to continue their picketing out of the way of arriving and departing automobiles.

The two groups filed up and down quietly, carrying their signs. When they learned that they had missed McCloy by half an hour they said they would return and seek an interview with him when he comes back from Washington.

TO SAIL FOR U. S.

TOKYO, Aug. 2 (AP) — Eighty-eight Americans made homeless by a typhoon at Okinawa July 23 will sail for the United States soon. The Army transport General Buckner, arriving at Yokohama Friday, will pick up the Okinawa refuges on its return to the States.

Bob Hope Knocked Out Cold As Barrel Steed Bucks At Touch Of Lucille Ball

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 2 (AP)—There's an empty saddle out at Paramount studio today—and Bob Hope's the man who isn't in it.

Vet Social Security Wage Credits Talked

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP) — Veterans of World War II would be given social security wage credits for time spent in the service, under legislation agreed upon today by the House Ways and Means committee.

If the House and Senate approve the legislation, it will mean not only larger retirement benefits for veterans in their old age but also increased payments to survivors of GI's killed in the war.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) said that "discrimination against veterans because of their military service" would be removed. It would be assumed—for social security credit purposes—that they would have earned an average of $160 a month during the period of their military service.

He had the patient sent to a room, undressed and laid on a table. Then the "big parade" started, with every specialist in the hospital getting a whack at her.

One doctor came in and took her pulse. Another looked at her tongue. Another checked her breathing and still another took x-ray pictures. The morning wore on and on, with more and more doctors looking her over.

Finally, after about a 15-minute "breather," during which she had not been poked or questioned by a single "specialist," the woman looked up to see a small man coming into her room, carrying a rag and a bucket.

"Now," said the exasperated woman, "what are you going to do?"

"Me?" asked the little man. "Why, I'm going to wash your transom!"

A COUPLE of weeks ago, the City of Lubbock had a traffic survey made here by E. N. Jolliff, regional sales manager for Crouse-Hinds Co., which makes and sells traffic lights—the kind we have here now.

Mr. Jolliff is an expert in traffic matters, having made detailed studies of the subjects of vehicular and pedestrian controls in many cities over an appreciable period of time. Part of his business is to advise cities which buy his company's products on how to get the most out of them and how to keep traffic rolling as smoothly and safely as possible.

After his return to Dallas, Mr. Jolliff perused his survey and came up with several suggestions which he has laid before City Manager Steve Matthews and Chief of Police Lewis Kittrell.

Practically everyone who reads this column has a personal interest in Lubbock's traffic picture. Those readers who do not live in Lubbock come here frequently, or occasionally, and therefore are affected.

Since Mr. Jolliff's suggestions, if put into operation will affect so many, we're going to let him speak for himself by here-in quoting, verbatim, most of his report to Messrs. Matthews and Kittrell.

MR. JOLLIFF speaking: "The present traffic signal system was installed and progressively timed about 18 months ago. The timing was based upon accurate traffic counts made during March, 1946. A check of the records in Lubbock showed that during the entire year of 1947, there were 20,245 vehicular registrations issued for Lubbock county. During the first six and one half months of 1949, there have been well over 30,000 registrations issued. An estimate by the tax collector for the entire year of 1949 is 37,000. This means that there are 85% more automobiles on the streets, and it is reasonable to assume that there are a great many more pedestrians due to the continuing growth of the City. The traffic signal system can and will be retimed, as we are now in the process of preparing new timing charts and graphs based upon information gathered from Captain Lamb and Sgt. McInroe of the Police department. When the signals are re-timed, they will alleviate to a certain extent the conditions downtown; however the relief will be temporary as the traffic pattern will be changing from time to time and other studies will be necessary. There are many other things which can and should be done that will afford a more permanent solution and they are outlined as follows:

"There seems to be no definite regulations regarding parking downtown Lubbock. Many of the heavily traveled thoroughfares, such as Broadway, Main street, Texas avenue, are considerably reduced in their capacity to handle traffic by permitting the use of angle parking. It has already been shown that with an increase of 85% in vehicular traffic that more capacity is required. It is therefore recommended that parallel parking on all streets in Lubbock be initiated at the earliest possible moment.

"This will permit the use of four lanes of moving traffic and greatly facilitate the progressive movement that the signal system is intended to provide. It will be very difficult to permit angle parking on some streets, or portions of streets, and install parallel parking on others. As all available space is needed, it is deemed advisable to recommend parallel parking only in all parts of the city.

"THE advantages of parallel parking will not only provide the required space for street travel, but experience has shown that a great many rear-end collisions will be prevented. It has also been proven that just as many citizens will find their way into the business district, even though they may have to find a parking space in the next block.

"If parallel parking is installed, it is recommended that arrangements be worked out with the local bus company to move the passenger loading and unloading zones to the far right corner, instead of the near right, as is now being used. This will eliminate considerable congestion at each intersection in the downtown area and actually provide better and more efficient operation of the bus system. It will also eliminate the blocking out of the traffic signal on the far right corner.

"Lubbock has a number of newly widened thoroughfares, and for a growing City, there will be more. Nineteenth street is a typical example of a congested street and 'speedway.' Traffic flows east on Nineteenth, into Texas and on into the city. Relief will be needed here, and it is suggested that Twenty-second street be made a through-street and the proper stop signs be installed to make it a through boulevard from Tyler street to Avenue Q. At a later date, it might be advisable to consider the same procedure for Thirtieth street from Adams street to Texas avenue. Both of these streets are paved and very suitable for this purpose.

"Fourth street is another thoroughfare that will require a parallel boulevard, and it is recommended that Eighth street be made a through street, with the proper stop signs, from College avenue to Texas avenue. It is a paved thoroughfare and midway between Fourth street and Broadway."

They include:

Need for proper laning of streets and the painting of cross-walks at busy downtown intersections; proper timing of lights (on which he now is working) and a timing program set for handling peak loads of traffic, such as in the morning and evenings when large groups of drivers are traveling to or from work.

WE don't know, of course, whether Mr. Jolliff's entire plan will be accepted by the City of Lubbock, or if it should be accepted in its entirety. But it is cheering to note that city officials at least are showing active interest in our present unsatisfactory traffic situation.

Parallel parking, while a pain-in-the neck, may be one answer to our woes and let it be remembered that on the several streets where parallel parking long has been in vogue here, no one has been hurt by it.

We shall see what we shall see—and everybody will hope that what we see is an improvement.

BY DREW PEARSON: SENATOR MUNDT PROPOSES BUSINESS AID ON FEDERAL CONTRACTS

Byrd Machine Faces Trouble In Virginia Election

WASHINGTON. — Those who have long watched the Washington run-around feel that South Dakota's Senator Karl Mundt has come up with the best proposal yet to avoid inside lobbying and help the little business man. Mundt, who knows his Washington well, proposed to establish a government information bureau to give businessmen all data regarding government contracts.

PEARSON

If properly organized, this could be a great boon to all business. The average firm cannot afford to employ a special representative to sit in Washington, therefore loses out to big firms that do.

General Motors long has operated one of the most efficient offices in Washington, entertains Army-Navy officers, knows pretty much what the government is buying. Studebaker, Douglas Aircraft, Pan American Airways, TWA and many other big firms have done the same. Furthermore, they deduct their costs from income taxes, so Uncle Sam foots much of the bill.

That's why the average business firm is left out in the cold, partly why only six American firms got 60 per cent of the government's war contracts.

Making Of An Attorney General

Small incidents in the lives of men sometimes become turning points in history. One incident that turned the life of Sen. J. Howard McGrath, newly designated attorney general, was a torchlight parade in Rhode Island 20 years ago.

The parade was staged by Harry Storin of Keith's theatre in honor of Actor Eddie Dowling, a native son who was returning to Rhode Island to play "Honeymoon Lane." Young McGrath, a budding politician, was in the parade, got to know Dowling.

Later, when Roosevelt entered the White House, he bitterly disliked Rhode Island's Senator Peter Gerry, handed the state's patronage over to his old friend, Eddie Dowling. Dowling, unfamiliar with politics, passed it on to Howard McGrath.

That gave McGrath his big political start. He ran for state attorney general, then for governor, and while serving as governor was offered the post of solicitor general in the Justice department. Truman had first offered this office—which present government cases to the Supreme Court—to Gov. Ellis Arnall of Georgia. Arnall turned it down.

At that time, Truman's chances of being re-elected were considered nil. However, Governor McGrath accepted the job on the second bounce, even left the governorship to take it. From there, he went on to the Senate, now to the cabinet. If he had declined the solicitor generalship, he would never be where he is today.

ONE OF the most important primary elections of the year takes place in Virginia today. It's importance lies in the possibility that, following the defeat of Boss Hague in Jersey City and Tammany by FDR, Jr., today may see the downfall of another machine—that of Sen. Harry E. Byrd.

So serious is the fight that Byrd's colleague in the Senate, Willis Robertson, tactfully objects to being labeled part of the "Byrd machine." He is afraid that eventually he might go down with it.

Byrd's candidate for governor, John S. Battle, has the distinction of co-authoring last year's bill to deprive President Truman of Virginia's vote in the electoral college even if he won the popular vote. Three Democrats are in the gubernatorial race against him.

How desperate the Byrd forces are is indicated by their efforts to take one of the candidates, Remmie Arnold out of the race. A prosperous pen manufacturer, Arnold has just started in politics, believes that businessmen should not merely complain about bad government but should do something to improve government.

After speaking in Rocky Mount, Va., not long ago, Arnold dropped in at a restaurant, there met state treasurer Jesse Dillon and Brady Almond, both ardent Byrd henchmen.

"You fellows don't labor under the illusion that any of you have a chance of winning, do you?" challenged Dillon. "Because you haven't."

Merry-Go-Round

Bob Reynolds, noisy isolationist ex-senator from North Carolina, is talking about running for the Senate against quiet, dignified Clyde Hoey. He wouldn't have a chance. . . Sen. Bert Miller, Idaho Democrat, has hired a Republican to run his office—his brother, John Miller. John has been on Capitol Hill for several years, has worked for three Republican congressmen, is an efficient administrator. . . Senators have a secret agreement with the official reporters to cut down on dull, windy speeches. A copy of the speech is sent to the reporters in advance. Then the senator quietly skips several inside pages in reading the speech. But the reporters, what have the full text, dutifully record the whole thing. . . Congressional leaders have informed the President there is no hope for enactment of the social security extension bill this session. The House will pass legislation calling for extension of social security benefits to about 10,000,000 additional employees, plus increased old-age assistance and retirement benefits, but the Senate won't have time to consider it. . . Some House members already are jumping the adjournment gun and stealing back to their districts. . . The House will begin three-day recesses (virtual adjournment) about the third week in August. . . House leaders are sticking to their private agreement to postpone action on the controversial aid-to-education bill until next winter, when they hope Catholic opposition will have cooled down. . . The Barden bill is hopelessly stymied in the House labor committee and leaders doubt they have the votes to dislodge compromise legislation already passed by the Senate.

Guard For Margaret Truman Costly For U. S. Taxpayers

GUFF, Fluff and Solid Stuff — I mentioned the national convention of gangsters here. A few hours after the composing-room deadline, I observed five Minneapolis muggs at a table in a sporty nightclub which—like most such New York places—is controlled by racketeer dough. "Out-of-town" was written all over them. Their $250 suits, their polychrome cravats, their manicured fingernails were all the standard picture-mobster angles. A few feet away sat a group of our own underworld boys, artificially nonchalant, clad lightly for the oppressive weather, acting at ease. It struck me that the hinterland hoodlums strive to look like film characters and don't, whereas the metropolitan mobsters seek to appear and behave like decent citizens and can't.

"New York: Confidential," by Jack Lait and Lee Mortimer, is a year old this week. It's still selling and, in all, went far beyond our expectations. The motion picture is in production. A contract has been executed for 25-cent reprints, with a first run of 500,000, to take effect at our pleasure, which will be many months hence. A dozen publishers got the obvious inspiration—follow up with "Chicago: Confidential." We signed up for that months ago and are working on it. The inside story of our own old town will be a sizzler. We had also contracted to do "Hollywood: Confidential." We went sour on that. After we dug in out there we found that intimate stuff on the film colony would have to be mostly about individuals. We prefer to report conditions. There's nothing new to be told about Hollywood. What we know about some of its fascinating figures we don't care to publish . . . But we did scout Galveston, Tex., and that's a gold-mine; we came down in Kansas City, Wichita, Kan., Oklahoma City, Jackson, Miss., Atlanta and Cairo, Ill. In some of these we found more dirt, vice and undercover devilment than most of the big burgs could develop. Some day we'll undertake "U. S.: Confidential," and wrap up some startling conclusions about our wayward wayside centers.

This column has killed thousands of obstetrical items, deliberately turned down a beat on Gypsy Rose Lee when she was about to have her first after she had divorced its father. But now we have to break a rule. Our own Nick Kenny is about to become a grandpa. That had to happen the night Nick started his television show, "Composers' Corner," on WJZ-TV. The old sailor tried to look radiant, but went on a bit seasick.

Margaret Truman, living at the Hotel Carlyle, rates a 24-hour, seven-day-a-week Secret Service guard, three men, in eight-hour relays. They occupy the room across the corridor from hers and one sits at all times with his door partly open, watching hers. This is a "traveling" assignment, so they have a budget of $6 per diem for expenses. Total cost to the government, about $500 a week. That is entirely within the law, which provides that every member of the President's family should be protected at all times. There is no precedent demanding that a member of the First Family must or should live in the White House.

And Everywhere The Lamb Went--

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

THERE'S nothing like a vacation trip to make a woman wish her husband were different, and probably vice versa.

But here's the perfect vacation companion from a woman's point of view.

He'd be content to do the driving in easy stages, instead of setting a certain number of miles to be covered each day, even though it means setting the alarm for 5 o'clock each morning.

MILLETT

He'd read his own road maps, instead of piling them all in Mama's lap and expecting her to keep him informed and blaming her for any wrong turn.

He'd get hungry at the same time she does—or at least be gracious about stopping to eat when she begins to notice "nice,clean-looking" restaurants.

He'd prefer a lodge with meals served, to roughing it in a more picturesque spot where Mama has to go righ on cooking three meals a day.

* * *

CHEERFUL ABOUT STOPPING

HE WOULDN'T act like a martyr when Mama wants to stop long enough in a city they're passing through to call up an old school mate, or give a telephone message to the friend of a friend.

He'd let the family take their time sight-seeing.

He wouldn't drive so fast that his favorite back-seat driver is exhausted by nightfall from putting on non-existent brakes all day.

He'd eat in places with "atmosphere" so Mama will have something to tell the girls when she gets back home, instead of choosing restaurants by one criterion only—whether or not there's a convenient parking place.

He wouldn't lose his temper every time he packs and unpacks the trunk of the car.

But if your husband doesn't meet all of those requirements don't let it bother you too much.

Giggling Video Announcers Draw Fire Of Baseball Fan

NEW YORK, Aug. 2—Ever since the stork brought a television set I have been squandering my afternoons watching DiMag and Musial make nervous wrecks of the pitchers, and in the process a certain amount of listening to the announcers is necessary.

RUARK

You cannot pick a wholehearted fight with the boys for the sickly job they do with the commercials, since there are only so many things you can say about a cigarette, a cigar or a beer, and somebody has to pay for the telecast.

But you can take on the way they do the broadcasts of the actual games. Even with the pictures to help them out, between the coyness of announcement and the dull statistics and the cute little interpolations for baseball terms, such a "ballantine blast" for home run, you can even go so far as to drive yourself out to the stadium to see it without having to listen to it.

* * *

Giggle At Jokes

Somebody has told these boys that they have to talk all the time. They giggle at their own lousy little jokes. Giggle is the word I wanted. All of them giggle, as if baseball was a cute little dirty joke, and any reference to it is an automatic yack. They even giggle over their sponsored products. Chesterfield cigarets are every bit as gigglesome as White Owl cigars or Ballantine's brew. They cannot possibly be that funny.

When the lads are not chortling over the delicious humor to be found in the fact that a first baseman wears a finger-glove inside his mitt, or convulsing themselves over hidden merriment in a cigaret which is made of tobacco, they chuckle at each other.

When the time comes to describe the action on the field, if they are not too busy giggling at each other or applauding the product which makes this fine wit available, the broadcasting boys take on a sober, scientific mien which might persuade a casual listener that they all served their bush-league apprenticeships on the Manhattan project.

* * *

THEY get so busy serving up the statistics, smoking cold, that they often forget to see whether the ball went into the bleachers for a homer or a foul. A new catcher played an inning for the Yanks the other night before the statistician in charge of comment bothered to mention his name. It could have been anybody from Clifton Webb to Gargantua; the Yanks are that hard up for catchers.

They will tell you that this is the X-number of contests between the Yips and the Yaps. They will tell you that Joe Blurp, the batter, has hit three doubles, six triples, four homers, and his wife in the chin. They will give you his progressive batting average, his taste in whisky, his waist measurement and his beer capacity. They will giggle some at how the umpire calls a stee-ryke, and plot the course of a curve from pitcher to plate. Then they will call the batter out when the ump and the television plainly say he's safe by a long step.

* * *

Statistics Are Forgotten

The baseball announcer I really admired is a bulbous gent named Arch McDonald, who works out of Washington. Even with so miserable a commodity as the Washington Senators to deal with, old Arch always made me feel like I was sitting in the hot sun, just back of third base, with a mouthful of hotdog.

Arch would holler the team in, and the statistics could go drown. "The ducks are on the pond," Arch would yell, meaning men were on base. If one of the current transients was so lucky as to get a hit, Arch would bong on a chime—one bong for a single, two bongs for a double, and so on. If the lads needed a needle, McDonald would ring a cowbell. If a double-play killed off a Senator rally, at it nearly always did, Arch would weep into the mike and murmur "two dead birds."

My best memory of McDonald is that he gave it to you like a fan, and not as an atomic scientist or an amateur comedian.

'Try And Stop Me"

IN Fred Russell's sparkling new "Funny Things About Sports" he tells of a day Connie Mack yanked Pitcher George Earnshaw from the mound because Lou Gehrig had lofted two of his offerings over the right field fence. "This fellow I've put in now knows how to pitch to Gehrig," Mack told the disgruntled Earnshaw. "Watch him."

When Gehrig came up for his next lick, he teed off on the new pitcher's first delivery and sent it over the center field wall on a dead line. As Gehrig jogged around the bases, Earnshaw whispered to Mack, "I see what you mean. Make him change direction, eh?"

NELSON DOUBLEDAY always maintained that guests at a literary cocktail party never listened to what anybody else was saying. To prove his point he shook hands with Elizabeth Janeway at a gathering in her house and said, "I'm sorry I'm late, but it took me longer to strangle my aunt than I expected." "Yes, indeed," beamed Miss Janeway. "I'm so happy you have come."

AIMING AT THE RIGHT TARGET

Few public improvements in Lubbock are needed more urgently than the storm sewer serving Northwestern portions of the City for which the City commission has ordered plans prepared.

Drainage conditions in many sections of that area are extremely bad. They have been made worse by the rapid growth which has affected adversely the natural drainage in that portion of Lubbock. Puddles formed by rains usually remain until they evaporate—a slow process.

City officials say they have only enough money, about $85,000, to build a part of the proposed storm sewer in the near future. But this, they say, would improve present conditions considerably. And it would be the first and most important unit of a drainage system to serve that entire area.

But the project planned apparently would be a long step in the right direction. It should be hastened as much as possible, with high priority then being given to completion of the entire undertaking.

WEALTHY PERSIAN STUDENT HELD

Attractive Co-Ed Is Shot At The Climax Of Love Triangle

BERKELEY, Cal., Aug. 2 (INS)—A wealthy and excitable graduate student from far away Persia was held by Berkeley police today after he sobbingly confessed shooting an attractive co-ed at the climax of a love triangle.

Parviz Daryoush, 28, told authorities that he critically wounded 26-year-old Judith Korb Sher after she threw him over and apparently decided to return to her husband.

All Are Students

Daryoush collapsed after dramatically exclaiming:

The woman's husband, Samuel Alexis Sher, also 26, told police that he and his wife had been unhappy for more than a year but that she left his home only last Sunday.

The three met in a restaurant early today to discuss their differences. Sher said he left the two alone at his wife's request, but that Daryoush emerged a few minutes later.

Decided To Go Away

Then, Sher told police, he and his wife decided to go away together for a few days to think things over. Daryoush shot Mrs. Sher while she was piling clothing into their car and while Sher was upstairs obtaining some books.

He told police that he intended to kill Mrs. Sher with a borrowed 7.65 millimeter German automatic. Mrs. Sher was given a 50-50 chance to live.

Polio Cases

Special medical teams have been organized in New York City and nearby Nassau county. New Mexico has organized a polio committee. Many communities across the country have conducted cleanup campaigns and sprayed DDT to stop flies. Special educational radio programs are planned for all stations in Oklahoma where 31 patients are in state hospitals.

Lower In California

Although California reported 794 cases, authorities said the incidence was only half as high as last year. In north Carolina only 79 cases were reported this year compared with 1,290 last year. The rate of new cases in Georgia has been declining since June.

Many areas said the polio situation is not considered alarming and is much better than last year. But health officials are taking precautionary measures to halt outbreaks during the next two months.

Meteor Crater just west of Winslow, Ariz., is big enough to provide playing space for 20 football games at one time, while 2,000,000 watch from the sloping sides.

Rock House

yon to feed on the lush grasses and drink the fine, pure water of the lakes and springs. Hunters followed the buffalo into the canyon and slaughtered them for meat and hides. Tales handed down by word of mouth and a few remaining letters and dairies tell of huge stacks of drying hides piled in the valley waiting for the wagon trains to come and haul them away.

One old timer who was riding the High Plains came upon the canyon one day. Peering down into the cool green depression he saw what he thought was acres of cordwood. Upon closer investiation he discovered they were buffalo hides.

Remained Cattleman

Hank Smith's "Rock House" was close to the crossing of many military, wagon and cattle trails. It became a gathering place for cowpokes and drivers and finally it was designated a post office. Elizabeth became known as "Aunt Hank" to all the people in the area and the name stayed with her until her death in 1925. She had a winning personality and was always doing favors for those passing through.

Old Hank Smith died in 1913 without ever having put a plow to his acres. He was a cattleman and remained so all of his life. Even today only a few acres have been broken for farming.

Many of those who stopped at the "Rock House" for food, water or lodging, were on their way to the Quaker colony at Estacado which was founded in 1876. These visitors were always made welcome. There were some unwelcome visitors in the form of Indians who made occasional forays into the canyon. These were of little or no consequence and General MacKenzie pretty well cleared them out in his westward march.

One son and one daughter of Hank and Aunt Hank are still living near Crosbyton today. They are George W. Smith, 73; and Mrs. Mary Kirk, 67. Another son, Bob died several years ago. Mrs. Evelyn Lowery, a granddaughter, teaches math at the Crosbyton High School. Allen Smith, a grandson lives in Ft. Worth; and, another granddaughter, Georgia May Smith, lives in Washington, D. C.

Many tales have been written of the early West Texas pioneers. Many stories have been told, but the silent rock wall of the "Rock House" will forever keep secret some of the most interesting narratives of those early days. Tales of the courage, fortitude and indominable courage of the pioneers are too often glossed over in the color of their eventful lives.

Test Is Scheduled For Humble Wildcat In Southwest Cochran

Humble No. 1 Masten, Southwest Cochran county prospector, 14 miles southwest of Morton, and 660 feet from north and west lines of labor 18, league 135, Armstrong county school land survey, drilled to 10,788 feet in an unidentified lime.

It is plugging back to 9,192 feet, to test.

Operator has not revealed identity of the zone to be investigated, or what sort of petroleum indications were logged in it.

To Start Drilling

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware is due to start drilling soon on a 10,000-foot wildcat in Central Dawson county, three and one-half miles northeast of Lamesa.

The venture will be Seaboard No. 1 Mart Barrow. It is scheduled explore into the Pennsylvanian lime. The drillsite will be 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 8, block 35, TP survey, T-6-N.

This exploration is about 11 miles northeast of the Spraberry field of Southeast Dawson county. That pool produces from the San Andres-Permian above 5,000 feet and the Spraberry sandy lime of the lower Permian above 7,000 feet.

Ellenburger Test Slated

George P. Livermore, Inc., and Deeprock Oil corporation No. 1 Mayhew, Southwest Andrews county wildcat four and one-half miles north of the Dollarhide field, had reached 10,456 feet in lower Devonian lime, and was making more hole.

Up to now the exploration has not found any possibilities of production. It is to continue to around 12,000 feet to try to find and test the Ellenburger.

It is located 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 20, block A-51, psl survey.

Morris and Scherck of San Angelo No. 1 Henderson, Central Schleicher county wildcat to go to 6,250 feet, or the Ellenburger—whichever comes in first—had reached 5,930 feet in a detrital formation and was making more hole.

Up to now it has failed to develop any indications of production. The Strawn lime of the Pennsylvanian was dry.

The venture is 13 miles east of Eldorado, and 330 feet from south and east lines of the southwest 1620 acres of section 3, block V-28, R. A. Bradley survey.

Wildcat Is Plugged

Anderson-Prichard Oil corporation No. 1-E University, Northeast Andrews county wildcat into the San Andres-Permian, located 660 feet from north and west lines of section 7, block 7, University survey, drilled to total depth of 5,870 feet, in dry lime.

It found no possibilities of production and has been abandoned and plugged.

King, Warren & Dye No. 1 Wren, on the southeast side of the North Snyder field, in North-Central Scurry county, and 467 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of tract 12, section 20, block 1, J. P. Smith survey, was bottomed at 6,520 feet in the Canyon lime reef, and was drilling plug on 5½-inch casing which had been cemented at 6,518 feet.

This exploration topped the Canyon at 6,490 feet. Elevation is 2,467 feet. It will drill deeper into the pay section before making any production tests.

Union Oil company of California No. 1 N. A. Lindsey, Southwest Terry county wildcat, 11 miles southwest of Brownfield, and 660 feet from south and east lines of section 11, block C-26, psl survey, drilled to 5,153 feet in San Andres-Permian lime and failed to find any possibilities of production.

It has been abandoned and plugged.

12. Legal Notices

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals addressed to the Honorable Mayor and City Commission of Lubbock, Texas, will be received at the office of Steve Matthews, City Manager, until 2 P. M. August 25, 1949, for furnishing all necessary materials, equipment, superintendence and labor for constructing sewer lines and laterals for the City of Lubbock, Owner, Lubbock, Texas.

Bidders must submit Cashier's or Certified Check issued by a bank satisfactory to the owner, for 5% of the amount of the base bid, payable without recourse to the order of the City of Lubbock, or a Proposal Bond in the sum of the same amount, from a reliable Surety Company, as guaranty that Bidder will enter into contract and execute bond and guaranty in the forms provided within ten (10) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without required check or Proposal Bond will not be considered.

The Successful Bidder must furnish bond on the attached form in the amount of 100% of contract price from a Surety Company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as Surety, or other Surety or Sureties acceptable to the Owner.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive formalities, to accept the bid which seems most advantageous to the City's interest.

Bidders are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves regarding all local conditions and conditions under which the work is to be done. Attention is called to the provisions of the Act of the 43rd Legislature of the State of Texas, page 91, Chapter 43, (Article No. 5159A Civil Statutes 1925), covering the wage scale and payment of prevailing rates of wages as established by the Owner. Said scale of prevailing rates of wages is set forth in the specifications.

Information for bidders, proposal forms, plans and specifications are on file at the office of W. N. Harris, City Engineer, at the City Hall, Lubbock, Texas, and maybe procured upon a deposit of $10.00 as a guarantee of safe return of the plans and specifications. The full amount of this deposit will be returned to each bidder immediately upon return of the plans and specifications in good condition. No refund on contract document and plans returned later than ten (10) days after the date of receiving bids will be allowed. Additional sets of plans may be obtained at the cost of duplication.

No bid may be withdrawn after the scheduled closing for receiving of bids for at least thirty (30) days.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed Proposals addressed to Mr. Steve Matthews, City Manager, Lubbock, Texas, will be received at his office until 2 P. M. August 25th 1949, for the construction of storm sewer drainage, concrete pavement on certain alleys in the City of Lubbock as hereinafter specifically designated.

As soon as possible after receiving the bids they will be considered and the successful bidder notified.

Prices in the Proposal shall be made on the basis of unit measurement for each of the 2 items in the proposal. The approximate quantities are as follows: Subgrade preparation 98,483.82 square yards; and Concrete Pavement 98,483.82 square yards.

Bidders must submit cashier's or certified check issued by a bank satisfactory to the Owner, or a Bidder's Bond from a reliable Surety Company, payable without recourse to the order of the City of Lubbock in an amount not less than five (5%) per cent of the largest possible bid submitted as a guarantee that Bidder will enter into a contract and execute bond and guaranty in the forms provided within ten (10) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without required check or Proposal Bond will not be considered.

The Successful Bidder must furnish performance bond on the attached form in the amount of one hundred (100) per cent of the total contract price from a Surety Company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as Surety or other Surety or Sureties acceptable to the Owner.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive formalities, to accept the bid which seems most advantageous to the City's interest.

POLES GET INSTRUCTION

WARSAW, Poland, Aug. 2 (AP)—Four hundred Polish peasants, including 153 women, have just come back from Soviet Russia where they received firsthand instruction on collectivization of farms. These Poles are expected to spearhead much of the Communist "persuasion" campaign to sell socialization of farm output to Poland5s 15,000,000 nationalistic and individualistic peasants. About one percent of Poland's farms are expected to be participating in a collectivization scheme by the end of 1949.
