COTTON PRICE JUMPS $10 ON GOVERNMENT REPORTINCREASE OF THREE QUARTER
MILLION BALES FROM AUGUST
REPORT FORECAST BY BUREAU

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The price of cotton jumped a bale in the New York market today, following the government September first forecast, indicating a yield of 800,000 bales less than was predicted in the estimate of August 1.

Heavy realizing was absorbed on reactions of 90 to points during the afternoon, and prices turned up again in response to a renewal of buying accounted for by reports of increased foreign trade demand and firmer holdings of the southern port market.

1,000 Bales
Line Shown

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—A line of 800,000 bales in the process of being picked this year occurred during August, the boll being the dominating factor in the situation, the department of agriculture announced today in its monthly cotton report. A forecast of 12,492,444 bales was made for this year's crop compared with 12,492,444 bales a year ago and 12,977,274 bales last year.

Bull Weevil Menace
The department of agriculture announced today in its monthly cotton report that the boll weevil, which has been a menace to the cotton crop in the south for many years, is now being exterminated in all the cotton areas and the area where the weevil is prevalent has extended materially during August.

Damage to squares and bolls is very great, but more cotton crop escaped injury in the years 1926 to 1927, when damage due to the boll weevil was very great.

The present extent of the injury has quite generally checked the cotton crop in the important top crop in small areas. In the northern part of the belt cool weather not only favored propagation of weevils, but has retarded the growth of the crop.

Based on report of last year's forecast was based on the condition of the crop, which was 54.1 percent of a normal yield, indicating a yield of 13,492,444 bales, based on the abandonment of acreage, condition last year on September 1 was 59.6 percent of a normal.

Anderson's Jury Still Deadlocked
TAYLOR, Texas, Sept. 8. (AP)—Judge J. R. Warren of the Smith county district court before whom Cain Anderson, Harrison county farmer, was tried on a charge of violating the anti-mask law ordered the jury to continue its deliberations until 11 o'clock this morning, when it reported again it was deadlocked. The jury has had the case more than 24 hours.

In event of a mistrial here of Anderson, who is charged with participation in the slaying near Marshall, June 8, of J. H. Richardson, his wife, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Straps, another case against him will be set in about two weeks, according to District Attorney John E. Taylor of Harrison county. This case involves alleged attempts to bribe a state witness. Mr. Taylor said it probably will be brought before Judge P. O. Beard of Marshall, who sent the slaying case here for trial.

Culwell's Body Sent To Bridgeport
The remains of Mrs. Sam J. Culwell, who died this morning about 10 o'clock at her home, 1813 15th street, following a stroke of paralysis, were shipped to Bridgeport this afternoon and funeral services to be held there Saturday afternoon. A short service was conducted here by Rev. E. E. White, pastor of the First Methodist church, before the family left.

Mrs. Culwell leaves her husband, daughter, Miss Ruth Culwell and two sons, all of whom left today for Bridgeport, from which place the family moved here only a few days ago. Mr. Culwell is in the range business here.

Mrs. Culwell's family was awakened this morning by her groans and found that she had been stricken by paralysis. She never recovered consciousness.

New Top Price For Cattle Set Today
KANSAS CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—A top price for all weights of cattle since the fall of 1925 was reached at the Kansas City stock market today when sixteen head, averaging 1,431 pounds each, brought $14.45 a hundredweight, or $207 a head. The previous price this year was $14.40.

August 17 by heavy steers weighing by yearlings. The cattle were owned by W. B. Kearney, Missouri.

PLAN TO CURB
OIL PRODUCTION
IS TALKED TODAYPRODUCERS HOLD FORT WORTH SESSION ON OVER-PRODUCTION

(By Associated Press)
FORT WORTH, Sept. 8.—Expectations that a basis for the curbing of overproduction in the oil pool in Winkler county would be worked out was generally entertained here Thursday when a committee named for that purpose by operators in the field went into session with full representation of the field.

Committee Meets Today
The committee which consists of one representative for each producer and prospective producer, met at 10 o'clock in the offices of W. A. Moncrief, executive vice president of the Marland Oil company of Texas, who is chairman of the committee. Companies represented at the committee meeting included, besides Marland: Humble Oil and Refining company, Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas company, McMan Oil and Gas company, California company, Pure Oil company, Rosana Petroleum corporation, Shinn Oil company, Phillips Petroleum company, Tidal Oil company, Skelly Oil company, Wheelock and Collins, Independent Oil and Gas company and Trans-Continental Oil company.

The committee held its first session last Friday, following a general session here of all the companies, where it was unanimously agreed that some action must be taken in order to avoid over production and waste of a drilling orgy in the new pool.

Condition indicates a yield of 3 pounds per acre. A month ago the condition was 4.5 percent of a normal, indicating a yield of 13,492,444 bales, based on the abandonment of acreage, condition last year on September 1 was 59.6 percent of a normal.

BOOTLEGGERS
STUMBLE ONTO STILL NEAR SAN ANTONIO

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 8.—William S. Evans, a Leon Springs geologist, and a companion were severely beaten by moonshiners yesterday when they stumbled upon a still in the mesquite.

Evans, weak from loss of blood, was found in front of the federal building here at midnight. His companion has not been heard from and officers fear that he is lying in the brush some place, unable to move.

Bleeding From Wounds
Evans was bleeding from a number of wounds on the face and body. He was sent to a hospital.

According to the information given officers, Evans and his friend were tramping through the hills near Leon Springs early Wednesday evening when they chanced upon a still in operation.

There were several men at the place but Evans was unable to give the number. They attacked him and his friend immediately. Evans says his companion was wounded with bird shot. The geologist fought until unconscious from blows. He is not certain how he escaped.

Regulations Made For Fruit Shipment
AUSTIN, Sept. 8. (AP)—Strict regulations governing shipment of citrus fruit trees in the "Winter Garden district of Texas" to protect its budding citrus industry from infestation were made out today by the state department of agriculture. J. M. Delcorte, plant pathologist, announced that the prospective shipment of trees from any other section of the state must apply to the department for a permit. After examination by an inspector, if no infestation is found on or near the trees, shipment can proceed. The department, however, reserved the right to force defoliation and use of oil emulsion of shipments grown near areas known to be infested, regardless of whether the shipment itself is "clean."

Wheeler Buried In Columbus By Wife
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 8. (AP)—Anti-Saloon league leaders from over the country today gathered here to attend funeral services for Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the league, who died Monday.

The public was permitted to view the body as it lay in state at the Central Methodist Episcopal church from 11:30 a. m. to 2:45 p. m., a guard of honor was beside the body.

Burial was in Green Lawn cemetery beside his wife, who was buried to death a few weeks ago at Little Point Isabel, Michigan.

CARLING, LONG OVERDUE, NOT
YET REPORTEDANXIETY INCREASES AS
PLANE FEARED LOST
OVER ATLANTIC

(By The Associated Press)
BELFAST, Ireland, Sept. 8.—At six o'clock this evening, British summer time, which was understood here to be the limit of the time that the Sir John Carling's gas supply would last, no word whatever had been received concerning the whereabouts of the airplane. Reports from various points in Ireland said that in view of the weather conditions there were grave fears for the safety of the plane.

Plane Unreported
At Croydon Field

CROYDON, England, Sept. 8. (AP)—It was stated at the Croydon air dome at 1:20 o'clock this afternoon that nothing had been heard of the airplane Sir John Carling since she left Newfoundland yesterday. It was said that this fact was regarded as somewhat disquieting. An officer added that as the plane had not been reported over the coast of Ireland, she was considered overdue at noon.

Weather May Hinder
The committee in charge of the London-to-London flight pointed out that the schedule which called for the plane's arrival at Croydon.

TWO INJURED
IN CAR WRECKAUTO OVERTURNS NEAR MONROE; WOUNDS NOT THOUGHT SERIOUS

Lewis Gover of Hale Center was painfully injured about the chest and arms, and M. G. Bridges suffered a bruised right arm when the roadster in which they were riding overturned on the highway four miles north of Monroe this morning shortly after 9 o'clock. The two were brought to the Lubbock sanitarium where an examination revealed no internal injuries.

Melvin Bridges, injured brother of M. G., crawled from beneath the car and lifted the machine to release the pair who were trapped. The weight of the machine falling on his body, Gover was externally injured about the chest, and also had both hands mashed by the weight of the car.

The accident occurred when the knuckle joint came loose near the axle, causing the front wheels to be thrown out of control. It was explained by Melvin Bridges, the driver. The machine tumbled off the bar pit and turned over.

The three men live in Hale Center.

First Bale Brought To Rails Wednesday
(Special To The Journal)
RAILS, Sept. 8.—Connor Patrick, residing 5 miles southwest of this city, yesterday delivered at Ralls the first bale of 1927 cotton grown in this section of Crosby county.

Mr. Patrick has 2,000 acres set in cotton and has approximately 10 bales open at this time. He expects a yield of one-fourth of a bale to the acre, he said.

Persistence Wins $1,500 In Robbery
MADISON, Wis., Sept. 8. (AP)—Unsuccessful in robbing the South Side State bank late yesterday, a young robber met Teller Ray Thompson as he opened the institution this morning and forced him to hand over $1,500. He escaped from the southern edge of the city in an automobile.

Bids Opened For Road Work In 29
Counties Today

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Sept. 8.—Bids for road construction in nine Texas counties and for maintenance work in 20 others, were opened today by the state highway commission and awards were to be announced late today.

Eaylor, Wichita, Montgomery, Carson, Webb, Wharton, Galveston, Harris and DeWitt counties are represented for construction.

Counties in which maintenance work is to be done: Hunt, Cooke, Hale, Dickson, Jeff Davis, Reeves, Runnels, Taylor, Comanche, Rusk, Upshur, Wood, Polk, Caldwell, Williamson, Valverde, Milam, Robertson and Hidalgo.

W. R. Ely of Abilene, member of the commission said he would move to reject all bids for Taylor county work on the grounds that the county contemplates building a higher type highway than that planned in the maintenance project.

ACCUSED BOY TO RETURN FOR
MURDER TRIALEXTRADITION WAIVED
BY HILL IN CASE OF
HIS MOTHER

(By Associated Press)
SEATTLE, Sept. 8.—Harry H. Hill, 22 year old son of a wealthy Seattle, Ill. surgeon, will go home voluntarily to stand trial as the murderer of his mother.

Defense attorneys announced today that the youth would waive extradition. The announcement followed conferences between the attorneys and the prisoner who was arrested here Saturday and his father, Dr. H. C. Hill, who arrived yesterday by airplane.

Father Arrives
To Aid His Son

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 8.—Dr. H. C. Hill, father of Harry H. Hill, 22 year old Seattle, Ill. surgeon, arrived here late Wednesday by airplane from Portland, Oregon. The elder Hill declined to discuss whether his son would waive extradition until he had conferred with his attorneys.

Dr. Hill came from Streator to Portland by train. He arrived here several hours after three Illinois officials who expect to take the youth back to their state for trial on a charge of murdering his 55 year old mother, Mrs. Eliza Hill.

Soon after reaching Seattle, the father went into conference with his son's attorneys, who had started the legal fight in the youth's behalf earlier in the day by applying for a writ of habeas corpus in King county superior court. Hearing of the writ will be Friday morning.

Extradition papers dispatched to Seattle from Chicago by air mail, had not arrived here early today.

Low Temperatures
Are Felt In Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 8. (AP)—While some sections of the country were sweltering in unseasonable heat yesterday and last night residents of the inter-mountain country were thinking of filling coal bins and retrieving blankets from closets. Temperatures last night ranged from 33 at Bocoletto, Idaho, reported 36 and Boise 34. It was 38 at Yellow Stone Park.

Wild Beaumont Well
Now Under Control

BEAUMONT, Sept. 8. (AP)—After running wild for more than 24 hours the Hines company's Well No. 1 well at Spindale, Tex. had not been brought under control up to this forenoon.

Production continued at approximately 300 barrels an hour, eighty percent of which is said to have turned to water. Officials of the company said there is no way to handle the gusher except to let it run until it chokes itself up. As much oil as possible is being saved by raising earthen dams in the vicinity of the well.

TOM JONES, REALTOR, GIVES UP
AFTER SHOOTING STEP-FATHER
ON DOWNTOWN STREET CORNER

Family trouble, of years standing, culminated in tragedy here today when William Zatloukal, about 45 years old, a master mechanic of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway at Stamford, was killed, shortly before one o'clock as two bullets, fired from the pistol of his step-son, Tom Jones, Lubbock realtor, crashed into his head and chest. The shooting took place on Avenue K at the side of Hotel Lubbock, and Zatloukal's body was picked up just outside the Hotel Drug company, located on the ground floor of the Hotel building.

Self Defense Plea
Will Be Offered

Self defense will be the defendant's plea when he faces Judge Clark M. Mullican in 99th District court, Charles C. Crenshaw, of the legal firm of Bledsoe and Crenshaw, one of Mr. Jones' attorneys, said this afternoon after reviewing the case. The defense counsel will seek to show that Zatloukal had made violent threats against his wife, Mrs. Ollie Jones, the mother of Tom Jones, that he sought Mr. Jones out against the wishes of Mrs. Zatloukal and that, upon coming up to the defendant as the latter stepped from his office to the sidewalk on Avenue K, the dead man made a move as if to draw a weapon. Police Sergeant J. T. Inman, however, said that no kind of a weapon was found on Zatloukal after the shooting.

Jones Surrenders To County Officials

Immediately after the shooting Mr. Jones walked from the scene of the trouble to the courthouse, where he entered the offices of Sheriff H. L. Johnston and inquired of Deputy Bob Crump, of Shallowater, for Sheriff Johnston or Chief Deputy Vernice L. Ford.

Upon being told that they were absent and that Mr. Crump was a deputy, Mr. Jones handed the officer his pistol, a .38 calibre double-action Colt's, nickel-plated and with pearl handles. County Attorney L. A. Sherrod, who was talking to Deputy Crump at the time heard Mr. Jones' statement and ushered him into the County Attorney's office, across the hall, where the defendant immediately called his attorneys, W. H. Bledsoe and Charles C. Crenshaw, who soon appeared and went into session with Mr. Jones.

Large Crowd Gathers
A large crowd had gathered in the corridors but were excluded from the office. In response to telephone calls by Messrs. Bledsoe and Crenshaw a number of personal friends of Mr. Jones came to the office and signed his bond.

Those signing the necessary bond were Neil H. Wright, W. O. Stevens, R. A. Sherrod, Sam C. Arnett, Dr. H. H. Bidwell, J. G. Hall, W. H. Beatty, T. B. Duggan, Walter A. Myrick, Jr., Walter A. Myrick, Jr., W. E. LaFon, D. D. Roderick and Chas. A. Gay.

About 1:55 p. m. Mr. Jones was released under the terms of the bond and went immediately to his home, 2501 21st street, where both he and his mother, Mrs. Ollie Jones Zatloukal, were in a highly nervous condition late this afternoon.

$8,000 Bond Signed
As soon as Mr. Jones' attorneys heard his side of the case they immediately waived examining trial and the case was turned over to the grand jury, now in session. A bond of $8,000 was set by Judge Clark M. Mullican, presiding in 99th District court and was immediately signed by a dozen well known citizens.

Mr. Jones has been in Lubbock for more than two years, coming here from Georgetown, and entering the realty business, operating under the name of Tom Jones Realty company and having offices on the ground floor of the Hotel Lubbock building. He has a partner in business, J. G. Hall.

Dead When Doctors Arrived
Immediately after the shooting an unknown bystander called Doctors D. D. Cross and O. W. English, of the Ellwood hospital staff, but Zatloukal was dead when they reached his side. Doctor English said this afternoon.

The body was taken to the Powell Mortuary, 1313 Texas avenue. Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer, examined the body there at the instance of District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley. Doctor Rollo found that one shot had entered the dead man's chest, just above the heart and had torn through the body back of the right shoulder blade. The other entered the back of his head and came out at the mouth.

Zatloukal was a big man, weighing about 200 pounds although not fleshy. He was not known in Lubbock.

Girl Riot Leader
Fined $100 And Cost

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—By way of giving her "a little lesson that may stop you from fighting," Judge William R. Fetzner today assessed a fine of $100 and costs against Aurora D'Angelo, the 18 year old high school girl who led hundreds of men and women in two recent Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrations.

The girl was placed on six months probation, however, as were three others arrested with her, George Mauer, Henry Vrummigny and Harry Kelly.

Cell Too Small For
Weighty Prisoner

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—Washington police yesterday were baffled in an attempt to incarcerate one prisoner—there was no cell in the city jails large enough to hold his 516 pound avoirdupois.

The arrested man, Alvin C. Ogle, ended their difficulty by obtaining a release under $1,500 bail.

No More Wedding Bells Says Jean Nash; Her Fourth Spouse Is Okey

JEAN NASH

Miss Addie Pickas is visiting in Snyder this week.

BY MINOTT SAUNDERS
NEA Service Writer
TEAUVILLE, Sept. 8.—(AP)—

talk to me about marriages, I thought.

This was astonishing almost sensational, because it came from Jean Nash.

"What do you mean, you're through?" asked one of her friends. "I thought things were going good."

"They are," answered Jean, with that pearl-studded smile that has made so many hearts flutter since she left her little home town of New York. "I'm through with marriage."

This last one has taken. I'm never going to marry again because I'm happy now."

She kicked the sand, leaned forward in her beach chair, and reached over for the hand of her husband Paul Dubonnet, son of the wealthy asphalt manufacturer whose name is spoken daily in every cafe in France.

"When I say I'm through with marriage, I mean I'm out of the market," she added. "I suppose I should say I'm through with divorces. I had a job getting settled, but I know when I'm right, I am now happily married."

Madame Dubonnet is still very obviously American, and as charming as ever. She is easily able to keep up her reputation as the "best dressed woman in Europe." For months she has not figured much in the news, because she's happy, she says. Her three former marriages mean nothing to her now.

Once before Jean Nash said she was through with marriages. That was after she divorced her third husband an Egyptian nobleman, after a month's marriage and before she met Dubonnet. She said she didn't think marriage was a workable proposition.

But she thinks so now, and claims she is proving it. "I'm now realizing what I was always striving for," she said. "Divorce cannot be a terrible thing, because it is often the road to happiness. That has been my experience."

Brief Social Items

Mrs. J. F. Wilcox, of Oton, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Guy and Mr. Guy.

Miss Mary Alice Doran is expected in from Dallas today for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Conner, 1022 Broadway. Miss Doran and Mrs. Conner were formerly classmates at Southern Methodist University.

FARMERS PLAN TO MAKE WAR, PETTY THEFTS

ASSOCIATION WILL BE ORGANIZED HERE IN SATURDAY MEET

Meeting in conjunction with the regular monthly meeting of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau, poultry raisers of this county will discuss the organization of an anti-theft association here Saturday afternoon in the district court room.

Following the discussion Saturday, a county-wide meeting will be called for Saturday, September 17, for the purpose of forming an organization as a protective measure against farm pilferers.

Pledging their support to the proposed association, county officers are strongly urging a unit of poultry raisers to combat chicken thievery. Sheriff H. L. Johnston points out that police officers are almost helpless in convicting poultry thieves under the existing circumstances.

REDS BEAT PIRATES AND GIANTS GAIN IN RACE THOUGH IDLE

ONE HALF GAME HOLDS BUCS ON TOP OF LEAGUE

CUBS BREAK EVEN AS ROBINS AND PHILS SPLIT TWIN BILL

(By The Associated Press)
Pittsburgh's lead at the top of the National League stood at only one game today, and the New York Giants, the only club among the four contenders to be idle yesterday, gained more ground in the pennant race.

Texas Beat Cubs
Chicago's Cubs and the world's champion Cardinals came to grips at St. Louis and the net result was a standstill. Frankhouse, a rookie pitcher from the Texas league, held the Braves in check in the first game of a double header and St. Louis won 6 to 2. Orsatti, another Texas league product, banded out four hits in five trips to the plate against Hal Carlson and sent Sheriff Blake back to the Cardinals only seven hits in the second game and beat them 8 to 4.

St. Louis, in breaking even, held third place over the Cubs.
The Pirates bowed again to Cincinnati. Red Lucas had the better of Carmen Hill, ace of Pittsburgh's pitching staff, and emerged with a 2 to 1 decision. The Pirates stayed right in the fight and threatened to win out in the ninth. Hill's wildness, however, was costly, and after dealing out five nasses in seven innings he was relieved. Lawson taking his place.

Robins and Phils Split
The seventh place Brooklyn Robins and the tail-end Phillies engaged in a double header with honors even. Jess Petty pitched scoreless ball for the first eight innings of the opener but McInnis' men came to bat in the ninth and hammered in three runs to win, 3 to 2. Jumbo Elliott, Brooklyn's ponderous southpaw, led his team to a 3 to 1 win in the second contest.
Babe Ruth again was the whole show in the American league. The Yankee slugger hit two home runs and ran his total for the season up to 49. He is now 19 behind his record season of 1921, when he banded 59 circuit hits. The Yankees needed all the hitting they could get for they had to hustle to beat out the Boston Red Sox, 12 to 10.

Billy Evans Says:

Troublesome Waners
"You must keep those Waners off the bases if you are to beat the Pirates," remarked a well-known National League pitcher to me recently.
I had expressed the opinion that Pittsburgh looked like the best balanced club of the four contenders. In the spring, I liked the chances of St. Louis, Pittsburgh and New York much more than Chicago. Pittsburgh was my first choice, New York second.

"I rather think it is the best all-around club in the league," continued the veteran pitcher, "but the Waners have made most of my trouble this summer against the Pirates. When I succeeded in stopping them, the Pirates weren't so tough."
"Lloyd leads off. He's fast, a good hitter but not so dangerous as Paul; he's hard to pitch to and very fast. He's on the bases an awful lot. Paul hits third and if Lloyd gets on, it's up to Paul to drive him in and get on himself. He's done that thing plenty on me this summer."

Some praise for two youngsters, Paul being in his second year in the majors, while this is Lloyd's first campaign. Pittsburgh, barring injuries, need not worry about the outfield situation for years.

Combs Always On
In a sense, when the star pitcher had to say about the Waners holds good in the case of Earl Combs of the Yankees.

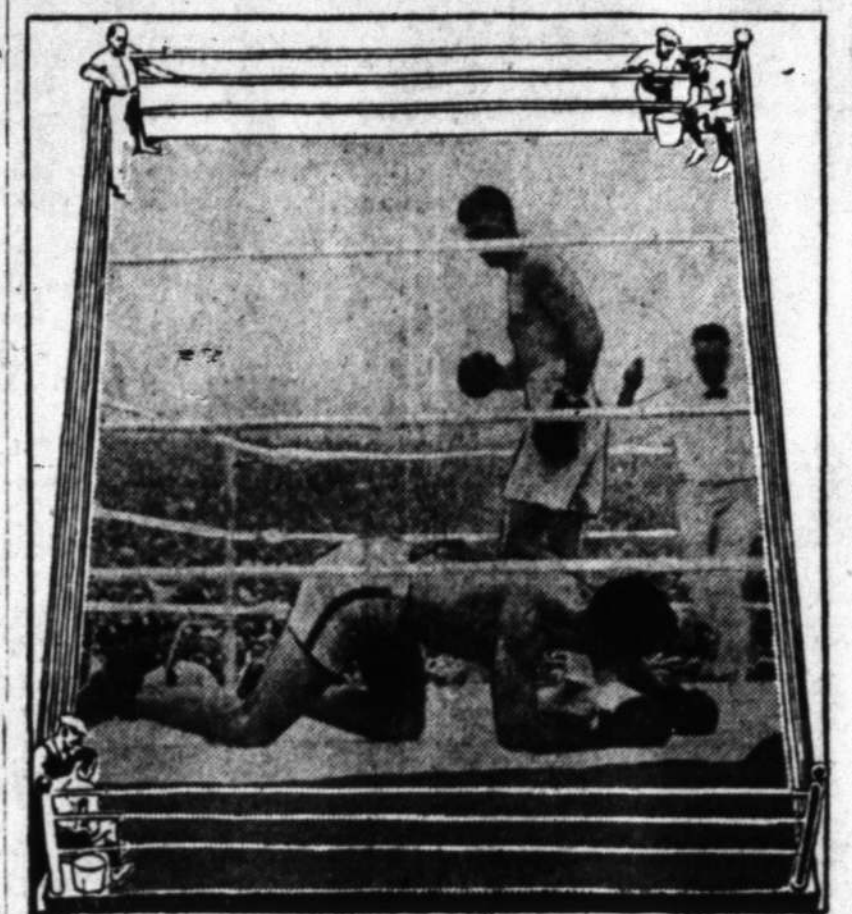

Of course, Ruth, Gehrig, Lazzeri, Meusel and the rest of the Yankee sluggers supply the power but Combs adds the scoring punch by his amazing ability to be on the bases when the swarms of the Yankees go into action.

I regard Combs as the best lead-off man in the American League, despite the fact that he is a six-footer. Combs has an unusual crouch at the bat that makes him hard to pitch to. Add to this a keen eye, and you understand why Combs works the opposing pitcher for so many bases on balls.

In addition to his ability to wait the pitcher out, he can hit the ball and is very fast. The last time I looked at the averages he was third among the Yankees, only Gehrig and Ruth boasting a better mark.

Three Rounds Were Plenty For Miske Damaging Blow In First Round Cause The Manassa Mauler Was At His Best

It took Champion Jack Dempsey less than three rounds to knock out Billy Miske when they fought at Benton Harbor, Mich., in September, 1920.

It had really taken just one blow, however, in the very first round to convince the 15,000 fans that the bout would not last long.
That blow was a right to Miske's heart, a pile-driving right that caused the challenger to emit a painful grunt easily heard far from the ring.

Another right in the second round dropped Miske for a few seconds. This right struck him in the ribs. Only a clinch when he came up saved him.

One minute and thirteen seconds of the third round passed before Dempsey flattened his opponent. It was a blow that Dempsey seemed reluctant to give—yet had to.

Miske had shot a left hook to Dempsey's jaw. It surprised the champion, Jack, delaying a moment, sent a teasing right left at Miske and then followed with a left hook that sent him down for a count of nine.

A right cross to the jaw ended the bout.

But experts were unanimous in their opinion that the fight had been decided by that smash in the opening round, that the pile-driving right to Miske's heart that caused the St. Paul battler to grunt in pain.

Difficult Course Causes Scores In Meet To Be High

(By Associated Press)
OLYMPIA FIELD, CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Difficulties of the course kept scores comparatively high among the forenoon finishers in the first round of the western golf championship at Olympia Fields today, although the weather was perfect.

Eddie Murphy, Chicago, took temporary lead with a 71 on number four scores, one above par. Art Stewart, Chicago, had 73, while Jack Daray of Olympia and Eddie Held, St. Louis, took 74. Ted Lloyd, a public links amateur, had early low score of 76 on number 1 course.

Promise of better figures was furnished by Al Watrous of Grand Rapids, who cut one stroke off par with a 75 on the first nine of number 1. Walter Hagen, the defending champion, and several other stars, were among the late starters. So large was the field with nearly 300 players that the last starters faced the prospect of finishing at dusk.

Do Not Fear Yanks
National League players and managers with whom I have talked, do not fear the Yankees as much as you would think from the club's high percentage.

"It's quite a ball club," I have told them, "a world of power at the bat and mighty good pitching. Far away the class of the league."
"No doubt the Yanks are a good club," remarked one National League manager, "but it's the mediocrity of the rest of the league that makes the New York club stand out so prominent."

"Granting the Yanks are a good club, we have about five of them in the National League."
When I told him that Washington, Detroit and Philadelphia were also good ball clubs—Detroit at the time had 13 straight wins to its credit—my opinion seemed to be taken rather lightly.

Instead of regarding the Yanks as a super club, the National League managers look at it as in the same class as the pennant contenders in that organization, just a very good club.

DEMPSEY WELL ON WAY TO DO THE UNDOABLE

RECOVERY OF HIS TITLE WOULD MAKE HISTORY IN AMERICAN RING

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—The greatest adventure of Jack Dempsey's spectacular career has just ahead of the colorful ringman who threatens to "do the undoable"—win back the heavyweight championship he lost to Gene Tunney in the rain-drenched arena at Philadelphia last fall.

Thoroughly convinced that he can whip the man who slashed his face into a gory mask in the Sesqui-centennial Stadium, stabbed and hammered him to the verge of a knockout in ten rounds, Dempsey is grimly determined that the prestige of titleholder shall again rest with him.

Past First Stages
Already the comeback campaign of a former champion, never before successful in the history of the ring, has carried the "Manassa Mauler," past the foremost of the younger contenders. On July 21, in the Yankee Stadium, Dempsey unleashed enough of the deadly punch power and grim courage of his greatest days to knock out Jack Sharkey, the Boston sailor, in seven rounds.

But the truest adage of the ring—"they never come back"—looms in the path of Dempsey's realization of a great ambition, and at the age of 32, when athletes in their branches of sport are at the peak of their games, the hoodoo of precedent already is pointing out that every modern champion with the exception of Jack Johnson, has tried to regain the heights—and failed.

Johnson, in legal difficulties, passed from the fist scene when Jess Willard knocked him out in 28 rounds at Havana in 1915. No encouragement ever was given him plans for a comeback.

Returns Four Years Later

But Johnson's conqueror, the huge Pottawatomie farmer, returned to the ring four years after Dempsey crushed him in three rounds in 1919. Willard knocked out Floyd Johnson in 1923 but he was 46 years old and bulky Luis Firpo spiked the comeback effort with an eight round knockout a little later.

The comeback virus, gnawing in the blood of former champions who refused to accept one defeat as conclusive, brought Jim Corbett back to fight Jim Jeffries for the title after Lanky Bob Fitzsimmons, freckled originator of the solar plexus wallop, knocked out "Gentle man Jim" for the title at Carson City in 1897. Corbett was 34 when Jeffries knocked him out in 23 rounds at Coney Island but it was not until Jeffries again dropped Corbett, this time in ten rounds at San Francisco, that the Beau Brummel of the heavyweights forsook the game.

"Ruby Robert" himself took two knockouts from Jeffries—the first costing him the title in 1901—before bowing to Jim as master. Jeffries ended Fife's career at 40 with the second knockout a year later.

Jeffries met the same fate he met out to the game Australian. Coming out of retirement in 1910 after six years of idleness, the huge beller-maker ground off 80 pounds to fit himself for battle with Jack Johnson at Reno. Again the hoodoo triumphed and Jeffries met the knockout fate of his predecessors.

Several Strong Points

Several strong points stand out in favor of Dempsey's comeback campaign, however. He is two to eight years younger than any previous former champion battling for a lost crown. An even ten months after the debacle at Philadelphia, Dempsey was back in the ring against Sharkey in better physical and mental shape than the night he

TUNNEY FEELS FINE DESPITE MINOR INJURY

DEMPSEY TO RESUME HARD WORK AFTER 48 HOURS REST

(By The Associated Press)

LAKE VILLA, Ill., Sept. 8.—Now that Gene Tunney must be careful in his boxing engagements for the next week or more because of his injured eye, he can devote his time to storing up nervous energy. One of the reasons for the heavyweight champion's love of solitude is the opportunity it gives him for absolute rest and quiet restoration of the nerve supply.

With no boxing scheduled today, Tunney's quarters at the Cedar Crest Country club held only the champion's retinue and a corporal's guard of newspapermen.

In Good Condition

Despite the heat and excessive humidity, Tunney feels himself today within a few notches of his best physical condition. At 192 pounds, the title holder is carrying scarcely a pound of excess weight.

The cut in Gene's right eye lid inflicted by Chuck Wiggins' head, lost to Tunney.

Most impressive of all is Dempsey's grin eagerness to regain his laurels aside from the rich reward of approximately $750,000 that will come to him as his share of the Chicago spectacle. Intensely proud the former champion has summoned back most of his old hitting power, all of his stamina, and the cagey ring generalship of added experience to bolster waning speed in probably the last battle of a great career—win or lose.

Dempsey Plans To Begin Hard Work

LINCOLN FIELD, CRETE, Ill., Sept. 8. (AP)—Four days of hard work with the gloves are ahead of Jack Dempsey, after a 48 hour lay off from all training. Only newspapermen will be admitted to these workouts, starting today. Manager Flynn has ruled. Some new sparring partners—light fast new sparring partners—light fast though their names have not been announced.

Now Weighs 200 Pounds

Dempsey said he weighed exactly 200 pounds, after his two day rest, and never felt better. He hopes to shed about 6 pounds in the coming fortnight, to enter the ring around 192 or 194. There was a noticeable elation in the Dempsey camp over the accident which laid open a gash in Gene Tunney's eye brow. Manager Flynn called it "a break in our favor," adding that "fighters should take advantage of all the breaks."

Uzcudun Outweighs Heeney For Scrap

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Paulino Uzcudun, Spanish heavyweight boxer, scaled 275 pounds more than Tom Heeney of New Zealand when they weighed in today in the offices of the New York state athletic commission for their 15 round bout tonight at Madison Square Garden. Paulino weighed 195½, and Heeney 193½.

Johnston Loses To LaCoste In Tennis

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8. (AP)—France got off to a victorious start in its quest for the Davis cup, international tennis team trophy today when Rene LaCoste crushed "Little Bill" Johnston, United States, in the first match 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

New U. S. Invasion Of France Starts At N. York Today

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A new American expeditionary force started over the ocean for France today, its purpose one of happy reunion with old scenes and old friends of a darker day when the world was at war.

Twelve thousand American Legionnaires are to take ship from this port for the Paris convention some time this week, and most of them leave today, their ranks augmented by 2,000 gold star mothers and war widows.

Vets of All Classes

Crowding on the ocean liners, cheering and singing and laughing, were veterans of every color and class, from Alaska to Florida, in uniform and in mufti avid for this new pilgrimage attended by portents so much happier than accompanied the ominous journeys over ten years ago when U-boats threatened every inch of the way. Those departing today were largely of New York state's delegation. Their ships were the Tuscania, Antinia, Scythia and Caronia of the Cunard line, the DeGrasse of the French line, and the Caledonia of the Anchor line. Three more liners will leave tomorrow and on Saturday the Leviathan, flagship of the Legion, will set sail.

Jennings Attending Session Of Rotary

Walter P. Jennings, president of the Lubbock Rotary club, is attending a district convention of the presidents and secretaries of the Rotary clubs in Abilene today. The selection of a meeting place for the district annual convention, which will be held in July of 1928, will be decided upon today. A strong contender for the convention, Lubbock will be represented with several other towns making bids for the meeting next year.

NEW ORLEANS TRADING
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8 (AP)—The cotton market experienced one of the most active and exciting days in its history, and prices soared the full limit of 200 points following publication of the government estimate of 12,692,000 bales. Just prior to the issuance of the report October had declined to 22.15 and December 22.45. When trading was resumed after the report was made public October jumped to 24.10, and soon after the call, reached the limit at 24.15. December soared to 24.45, all other months reaching the 200 point limit, right at the call.

Later prices declined 65 points and profit taking but after mid-session the market rallied on fresh buying and at mid-afternoon October was trading at 24.00 and December 24.34, or to within 5 to 11 points of the highs.

NEW YORK TRADING
NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—A very excited advance followed publication today of the government cotton report indicating the crop at 12,682,000 bales, the market advancing to 24.72 for December and 25.07 for May contracts.

The advance was checked at 310 a bale by the operation of the maximum fluctuation rule at these figures, and there were reactions of about 50 to 55 points from the best under realizing but buying inspired by the small crop figures continued, and the mid-afternoon market was within 20 or 40 points of the best.

WALL STREET TRADING
NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—Speculators for the rise were again in control at the opening of today's stock market, although a number of declines were in evidence. U. S. Steel opened up fractionally at 150, a new peak, and Reading, New York Central, Western Pacific preferred, Western Maryland and Commercial Union were a point or so higher. American Smelting opened a point lower.

Some profit taking came into the market in the early trading. General Electric and Montgomery Ward losing 3 1/2 and 1 point respectively but the main trend continued toward higher ground. Little in overnight news gave explanation for the continued advance of prices, which was based in part upon the belief that business in the remaining months of 1927 will show marked improvement.

Among the outstanding stocks which showed strength in the early trading were Union Carbide, Houston Oil, Studebaker, Pressed Steel Car, Studebaker, Radio Corporation and Tinkler Roller Bearing. Gains ranging from one to more than 2 points. Gulf States Steel dropped 2 points to 48, a new low on the omission of the quarterly dividend. Foreign exchanges opened irregular, demand sterling ruling close to 4.85; 12-14 and French francs just below 2.52 cents.

College 'Savages' Fill Yellowstone To Aid Schooling

(By the Associated Press)
YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK, Wyo., Sept. 8.—Fifty years ago this summer the Nez Percé Indians were on the war path in Yellowstone Park. The band has long since been subdued, but "savages" still abound in the land of geysers. The modern "savages," however, are college youths and young women, employed in the summer months as waitresses, porters, linen girls, laundresses, and bus drivers in the park.

They delight in the term "savages," a heritage of the years prior to 1916, when tourists in Yellowstone had to ride about the park roads in horse drawn stagecoaches. The drivers of the coaches were rough and ready characters and became known to the tourists as "savages."

With the coming of the motor bus the name stuck to the drivers, among whom, from time to time, younger men from the colleges were to be found. From them it drifted to the other youthful employees in the park. Now, even the "savages" have become classified.

The porters are the "back rats," the laundress girls, "bubble queens," the bus drivers, "gear jammers," the waitresses, "heavers," and the linen girls, "pillow punchers."

THE SUN NEVER SETS ON CHESTERFIELD'S POPULARITY

[Popular in all 4 corners of the Earth...]

in Bombay...

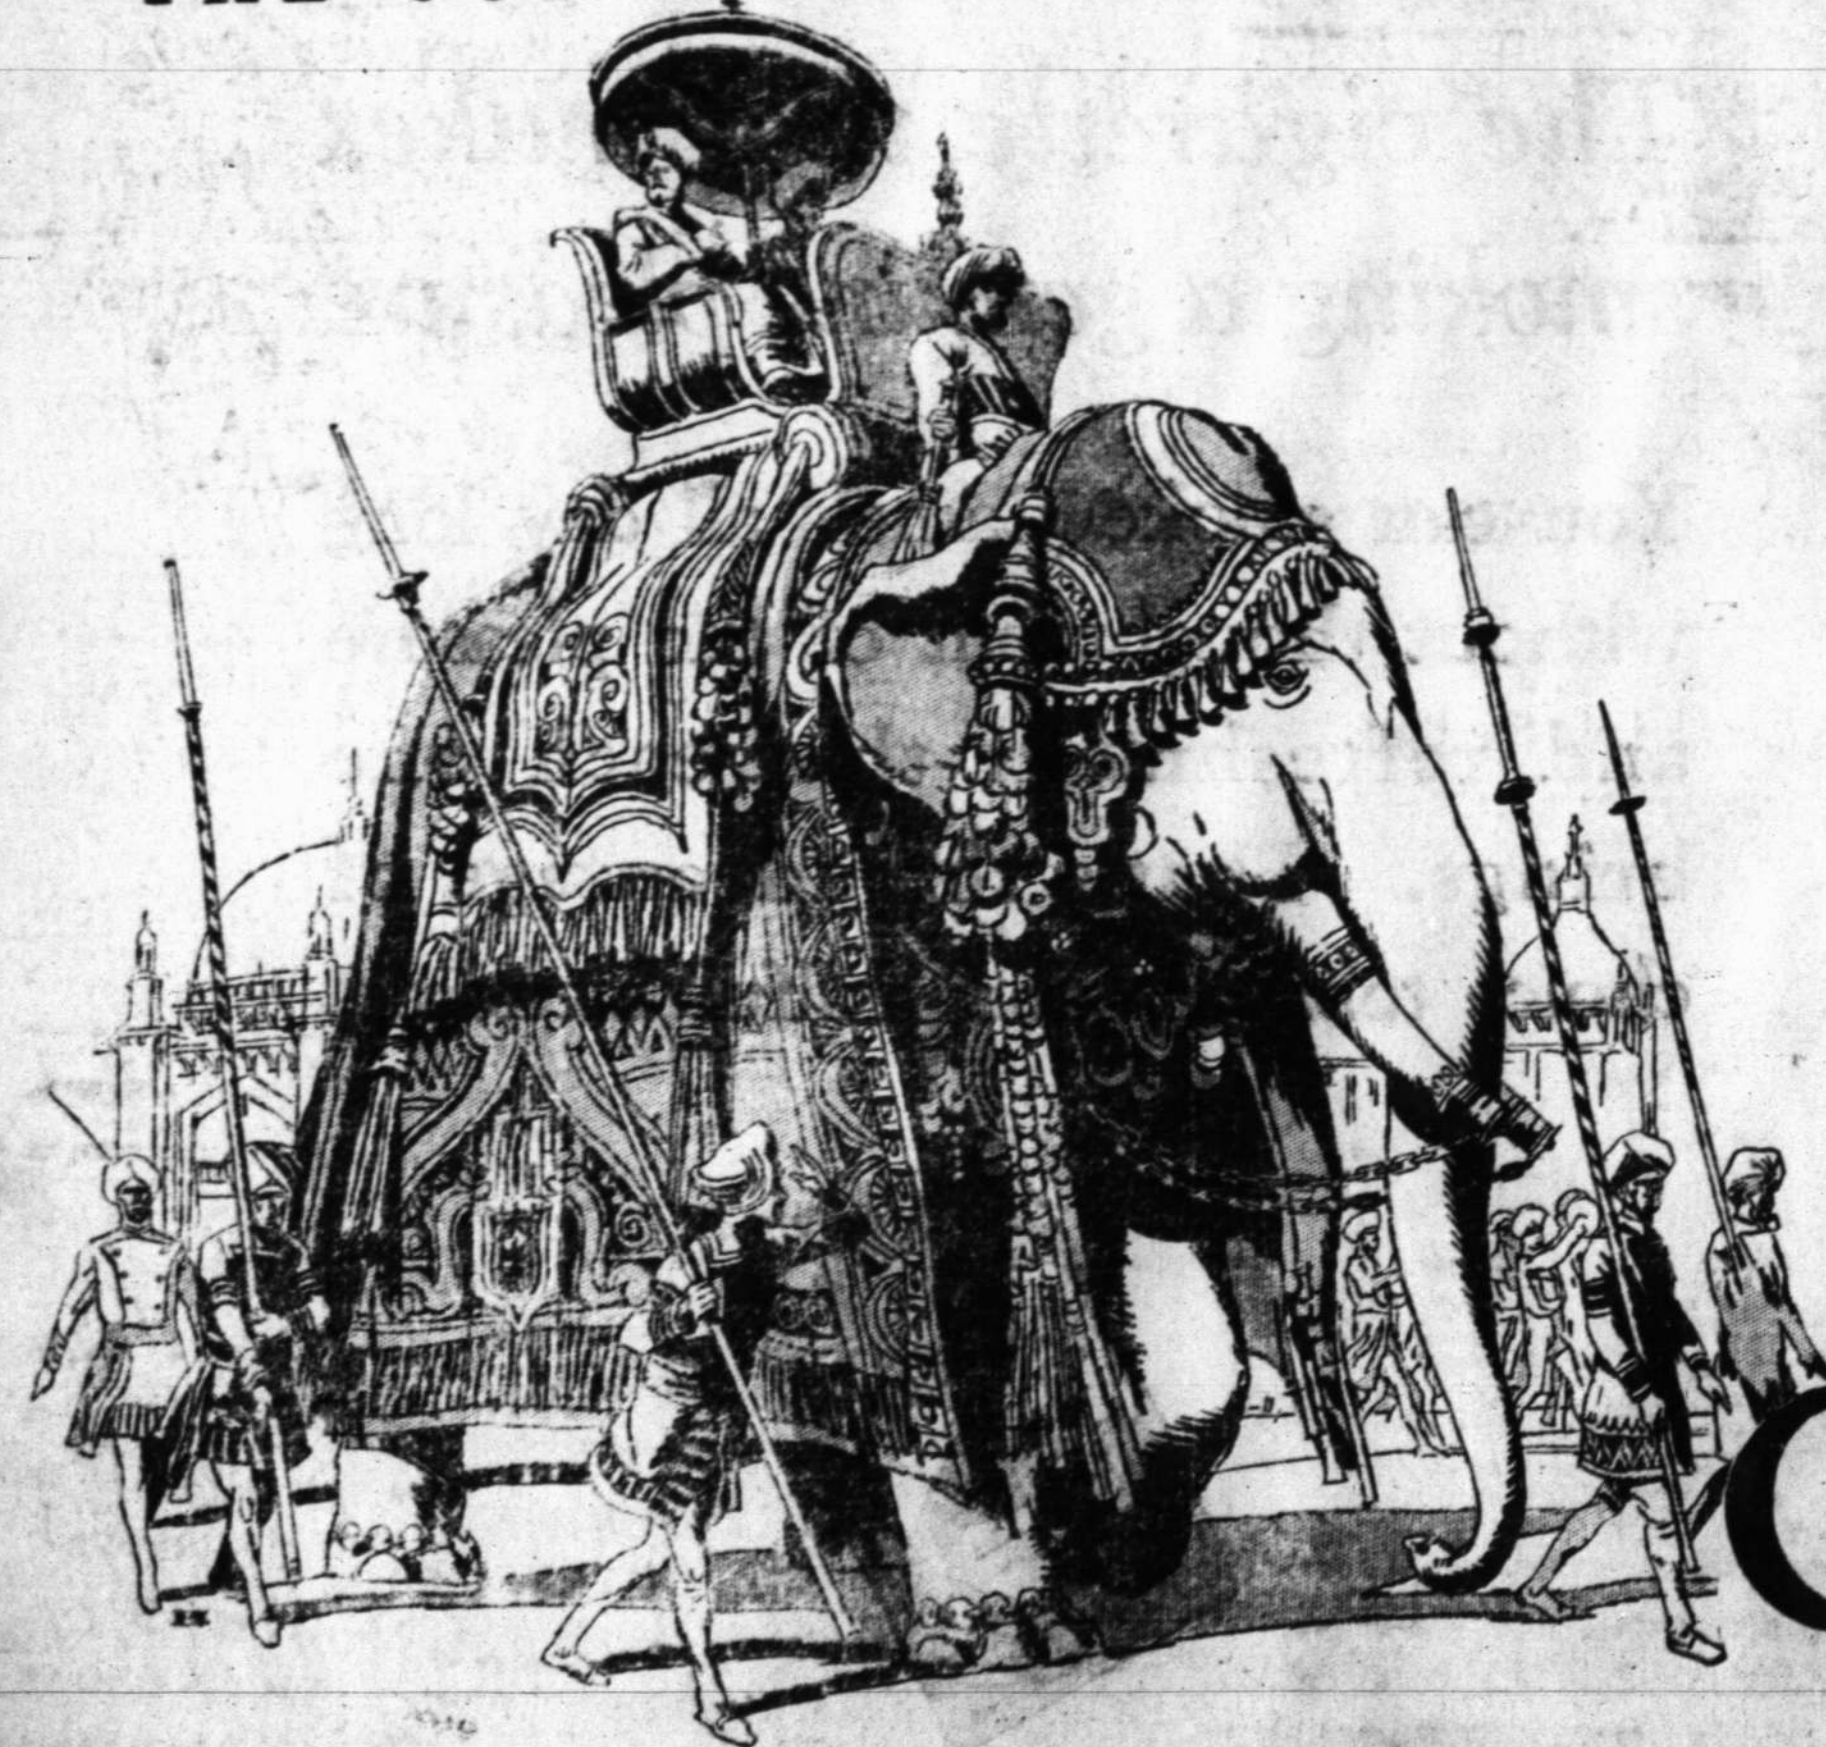

and all along "the road to Mandalay"

IN THE newspapers of Bombay, Calcutta and Rangoon Chesterfield advertising speaks of "wrapper-packets" and prices are in rupees... but you may be sure it's the same Chesterfield that you buy in every corner of the U. S. A. Chesterfield's success in far-off India is typical of its world-wide popularity. Smokers of every race and creed appreciate the natural tobacco taste and fragrance of this famous blend.

—such popularity must be deserved!

The News Of The Day Through The Camera's Eye

Map Shows Route Of Round-the-World Flyers

The map shows the route which Edward F. Schlee and William Brock are following in their flight around the world. Taking off from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, in their monoplane, the two men are determined to circle the globe and come back to Harbor Grace in 15 days, thus cutting the present record of 28 days nearly in half.

The Manassa Mauler Takes To Road In Training

Jimmy On the Throne of London

Mayor Jimmy Walker, of New York, was learning what it's like to sit in the Iron Maiden's chair in Londontown when this photo was made of him and Mrs. Walker in the court of the Lady Mayolene, at Mansion House. They went there straight from the boat which brought them from New York.

This Boy Is Chief

Layton Mitchell is only 27 years old but he's chief of police at Puchaska, Okla. Mitchell is believed to be the youngest police chief in the United States.

Survive Mexican Bandit Attack

Here are four survivors of the attack by Mexican bandits on a trainload of American tourists in Acapulco, in which Miss Florence Anderson, 27, was killed. In the foreground are Benson and Barrett. Mary Benson and Charles Barrett, 27, are shown pointing to the bullet holes through the metal plate, killing Miss Anderson in the breast. Miss Benson was in the berth with Miss Anderson when the attack occurred.

Civic Pride

Because a New York taxi driver started her home town, Chicago, during the discussion following a traffic accident, Lucille McWosen, a bystander, slapped him roundly. Then she had him locked up. She was phoned in court just before the case was dismissed.

Monarchs of the Moose

When the Broadway Limited Left the Rails

Here's what happened when the Broadway Limited, one of the Pennsylvania lines' fast express trains, left the rails at Dennington, Pa., near Altoona. The train, a double-header, was traveling at about 35 miles an hour and climbing a steep grade. The fireman and engineer of the lead engine were killed and nine passengers taken to hospitals.

Mellon at the Lido

Has Two Minds

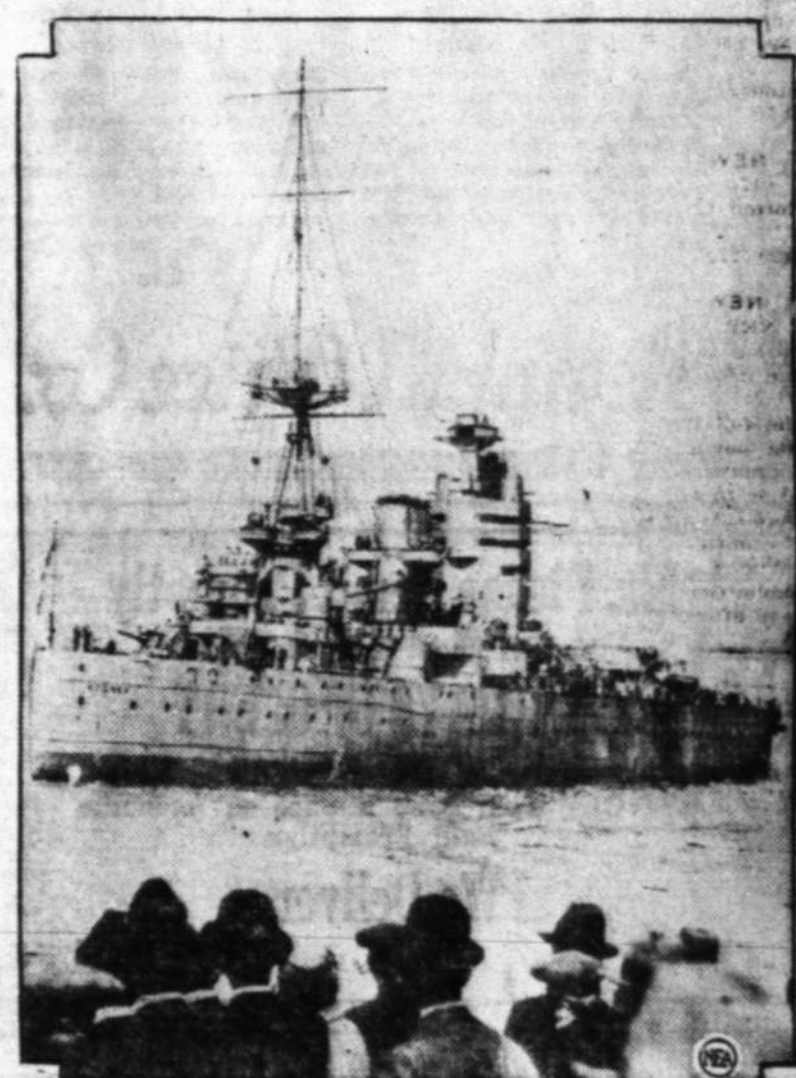

When Jack Forshaw of Salt Lake City decides to do a thing he has to make up his mind twice. He says his brain is divided into two sections and that he can work twenty hours a day, using the left side ten hours and the right side the rest of the time. He has trained himself to work either right-handed or left-handed to accomplish this.

Fish!

That's young Ray Ruddy, 15, of the New York A. C., who won the Washington Canoe Club's President's Cup water marathon in the Potomac River at Washington. He stroked the three miles in an hour and 12 minutes.

Britain's Newest and Mightiest

Mightiest of British modern-war and the most formidable naval vessel afloat is H. M. S. Hood, here pictured from the stern standing down the Mersey for speed trials at Portsmouth. She is 260 feet long, displaces 25,000 tons, cost $35,000,000, took four and one-half years to build and brandishes nine 16-in. guns.

Kiddom on Vacation

Two young celebrities these, vacationing at Montauk Beach, Long Island. In her striped bathing suit Jewell Davis, daughter of the Secretary of Labor and Mrs. Davis, most appropriately garbed for golf below, is Tommy Milton, Jr., son of the retired auto racing driver.

Thwarting Death With Shovels

When Fred Lencow, well-digger, was trapped by a cave-in forty feet down a well at Westport, Mass., police and firemen sank a parallel tunnel and saved him after 29 hours' imprisonment. You see the feverish work in progress here.

A ride over this city and a tea at the country club on the opening day is to be followed during the week by a breakfast, luncheon, two dinners and participation in the annual ball of the banker's association. On the last day of the convention the delegates are expected to accept the invitation of a Houston bank for a trip in special interurban cars to Galveston where a ride over the city, a swim in the surf and a lunch is in prospect.

The difficulty in planning the entertainment, according to Mr.
Douglas Robinson, chairman of the entertainment committee, has been to know what to eliminate from the program.

"The bank women," she said, "are extremely anxious to spend the greatest possible amount of the time in the business sessions of their own organization and to participate in the business sessions of the American Banker's Association, to which they have been invited.

"And we, who are planning the entertainment, have been warned that social affairs must not interfere with the convention sessions, so we are having to refuse some very en-ciling invitations for the delegates."

Jack Lockwill, the Lion Tamer

(Creator of Frank Merriwell)

By Gilbert Patten

Watching till Lockwill had disappeared, the two young rascals struck out for the lot on which men were pitching the circus tents.
"My uncle's a big guy with the show, Lizard," said Buke, "and know he'll get us some kind of a job to travel with it, same as said he would. It'll be fun." "Maybe," allowed Wattles; "but sort of wish we hadn't had to swipe that fiver."

"Oh, quit your whining!"
said Saunders. "Think how lucky we were to come out of that snitch without a scratch, and dodge Lockwill. Forget the old fiver."

As they turned a sharp corner, they heard loud shouts ahead of them. Not far along the street, running men were approaching in apparent pursuit of a tawny animal.

The men were chasing a large beast that was coming straight toward Buke and Lizard. "It's a lion!" shouted Saunders. "He's escaped from his cage! Run for your life, Lizard!" But Wattles, seemingly paralyzed by fear, stood rooted to the spot, his bulging eyes fastened on the awesome creature. Buke had whirled, even as he uttered the cry of warning, and fled. (To Be Continued)

TICKET SALES OPEN FOR HOGG LECTURE HERE

TEAMS TAKE FIELD IN CAMPAIGN TO RAISE CLUBHOUSE FUND

The ticket sales campaign of the Allen Bros. Post of the American Legion for the numerous lecture to be given here September 26 by Dr. Will Hogg, started in earnest here today as teams from the Legion went into the field in co-operation with the Retail Merchants association.

The town has been divided, and communities of each district named, including the residential section, and it is anticipated by officials of the Legion Post that a complete sell-out of tickets will be made fully ten days in advance of the program.

Committee At Work

Various committees from the Legion have been at work for several weeks on plans for the campaign, and every detail of arrangements has been given attention.

Early reports received at campaign headquarters indicated that the public is again anxious to hear Doctor Hogg, who was here a short time ago in a county-wide revival campaign. At least a few men, believing that the Legion is entitled without quibble to a memorial club house here, have agreed to pay more than the required amount for tickets, one even going so far as to say that he will give $10 for one ticket.

Only 2,500 tickets will be available, as this number is the capacity of the Tech assembly hall, the largest auditorium in the city, and leaders of the campaign have warned that the first come will be the first served with tickets.

No Reserve Seats

No reserved seats will be available, and no children's tickets will be sold. Each seat in the auditorium is valued at $1, whether it be occupied by a child or an adult.

One citizen of Lubbock, when queried as to what was thought of reserved seats, curtly asked "Were there any reserved seats in the army?" and when the immediate answer was given, said that answer was given, said that answer was given.

The program of Doctor Hogg includes a lecture on "Scrap O' Khaki" depicting the funny side of the life of an American Doughboy in the A. E. F., and its rendition here will be the 340th time it has been given, each time for the benefit of some Legion post or similar organization.

The services of Doctor Hogg are free to the Legion, he even refusing to accept railroad fare either to or from this city. The entire proceeds will go into a building fund for the Legion memorial club house, and by unanimous agreement of the membership of the Post, the fund will not be touched for any other purpose.

WOMEN AID STRIKERS

ADANA, Turkey.—When firemen on railroads in Turkey went on strike the companies hired other men in their places. But they did not run the trains on schedule because wives and sweethearts of the strikers lay down on the rails in front of the engines and had to be dragged away again and again.

Air Patrolman

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—Law breakers should beware, Richard L. Bennett, aviator, is a deputy sheriff. Roaming in his plane he spotted an automobile wreck. Forthwith he descended and pinched one of the drivers.

Flying Grandma

DULUTH, Minn.—Trains are all right for children, but they are not modern enough for Mrs. Mary A. Strong, 75. At Minneapolis she put two granddaughters aboard a train, then flew to Duluth herself.

Excess Baggage

EDINBURGH—American delegates to the trade union congress have cork screws, the gift of their hosts in Scotland.

Some Hope Seen

DIETRICH, N. J.—President Van Hinderburg regards the fight against the abuse of alcohol as important to German health. He has expressed to the German Anti-Alcoholic league hope that its campaign will have further success. In his 80th year he has been getting up at 3 a. m., on his vacation to go hunting.

Better Than Never

NEWARK, N. J.—Childhood sweethearts are regarded by the Rev. Ernest A. D'Aquila, Roman Catholic, as having the best chance of marital happiness. He thinks the best age for marrying is 20 for girls and 22 for young men. In 34 years he has officiated at 6,000 weddings.

An excellent clothes-bag for closet doors is made by cutting a tiny hole through the top of a slit bag and hanging it flat on a clothes hanger.

WINTER WOOLENS

Now is the time to get out winter woollens, bedding and draperies to have them aired, cleaned if necessary and thoroughly mended for cold days.

DAIRY CATTLE DECREASING IN NATION. CLAIM

DEFICIENCY INCREASES YEARLY, EXPERTS SAY IN SHOW PLANS

(By Associated Press)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 8.—A distinct shortage of good dairy cattle exists throughout the United States. Nowhere is there an excess, according to authorities, and the deficiency is growing each year as the trend grows to produce in America sufficient dairy products for domestic consumption.

The department of agriculture has taken cognizance of the emergency and is lending all its resources to make dairy cows return greater yield and become more profitable to the dairy farmer.

Outstanding Achievement

One of the department's outstanding achievements for the year in its campaign of education will be the exhibit at the National Dairy exposition at Memphis, Tenn., on October 15 to 22. The story of dairy economics will be placed before more than 300,000 people in simple and effective language.

The economy of proper selection of animals for the dairy, breeding, feeding, testing and clean milk will be brought home with an animated object lesson more forceful than shelves of text books.

Twenty-five special trains will bring to Memphis thousands of farmers. Special rates have been effected by the railroads from all parts of the United States and Canada.

Many Cattle Entered

Dairy cattle of the five pre-eminent breeds—Holstein, Guernseys, Ayrshires, Jerseys and Brown Swisses from all parts of the United States have been entered and the queens of butterfat in all species are to attend.

Dairy herds from California will compete with groups from Massachusetts and the rapidly growing dairy industry of the central south is expected to receive a new impetus from the show which is the ultimate word in dairy cattle exhibitions for the world.

Tuesday, October 18, will be Jersey day; Wednesday Ayrshire and Brown Swiss day; Thursday, Guernsey day and Friday Holstein day with liberal educational programs of judging and demonstration on all days.

Revision Sought In Postal Rates By Printing Trade

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The country's printing industry, as represented by the United Typothetae of America, will make a determined effort at the coming session of congress to gain a revision of the postal rates on third class matter.

Plans for the campaign will be rounded into final form at the forty-first annual convention of the organization in New York, Sept. 12-17. The printers want third class matter graded at a pound rate so that the costly work of weighing individual pieces may be dispensed with.

Canada, England, Scotland and Wales will send delegations to the gathering, which is expected to attract 2,000 members of the industry in this country. Rudolph Ullstein, publisher of the Berlin Tageblatt and R. B. Simmet, president of the London Master Printers Association, have accepted invitations.

Printing now is America's fifth greatest industry, based on gross

IT DRIVES OUT WORMS

The surest sign of worms in children's paleness, lack of interest in play, fretfulness, variable appetite, picking at the nose and sudden starting in sleep. When these symptoms appear it is time to give White's Cream Vermifuge. A few doses drives out the worms and puts the little one on the road to health again. White's Cream Vermifuge has a record of fifty years of successful use. Price 25c. Sold by Lubbock Drug Company.

Operators Fail In Miners' Agreement

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Sept. 8 (P).—Miners' and operators' representatives in joint conference here, were no nearer an agreement on wages last night than they were five months ago.

Their sub-committee met Wednesday afternoon for a few hours in closed session and adjourned until this morning. President Harry Fishwick of the Illinois mine workers, spokesman for the sub-committee, said some progress had been made, and that the committee hoped to be able to make some announcement today.

The delegations of foreign master printers will visit American printing centers and the United Typothetae international headquarters in Chicago after the convention.

Schlitz, the beer that made Milwaukee famous. Apologies to Pabst, for we do not have beer but we do have those "Applegarth Oysters" that have made Baltimore famous.

Do not confuse these oysters with others that arrive on market earlier than these, for we received today the Applegarth's first shipment of this season.

They are the Chesapeake Pride and Baltimore's Best.
