Two More Are Missing

By JAMES R. POLK

FOUNTAINTOWN, Ind. (AP) —Fire roared through a nursing home in bitter cold today in this central Indiana community, taking a heavy toll among the aged patients.

Sixteen bodies were removed from the smoldering ruins of the two-story wooden and concrete-block structure. Two rescued inmates died and two were missing.

Heroic work of three attendants at the McGraw Nursing Home saved 15 patients, one of them burned critically.

Nurse's aide Myrtle Donahue, taken with 13 patients to Major Hospital in nearby Shelbyville, refused treatment for smoke inhalation until she had told nurses which were diabetics or needed special treatment.

"None of them wanted to come out," said Paul Whittington, a volunteer fireman. "It was just too cold."

He said one elderly woman escaped from a front door in her night clothes, walked around the building and re-entered through a back door. Firemen found her in the kitchen. She was among the survivors.

Dr. Lucian Arata, Shelby County coroner, said 11 bodies had been recovered from the ruins and one man died en route to a hospital after he was found lying unconscious inside the front door.

The coroner said five of the dead, all women, were found in the concrete block addition. Others died in their beds.

Little was left of the structure but the walls. A Christmas wreath still hung on the front door.

One survivor was taken into a private home and another to Greenfield, Ind. The latter was reported in critical condition.

Sheriff Edghill Moore set up command headquarters in the home of William McGraw, owner of the home and whose son, William, operated it.

The sheriff and operators tried to compile a death list from their memories. The home's records burned.

A stairway fell shortly after the fire erupted, trapping all patients on the second floor.

A staff of two nurses and the operator of the home escaped.

A nurse's aid, Fanny Wicker, in her 60s, said:

"The fire broke out apparently in a linen closet in a first-floor hall. We weren't able to reach anyone upstairs because flames immediately blocked the stairway.

"We smelled smoke, then Franes (the second nurse) saw it and screamed, 'Oh God, Fanny, there's a fire!'

"One (patient) fell in the kitchen. I picked her up and dragged her out. I dragged three more out, then they wouldn't let me go back in."

All the rescued patients were taken to Major Hospital in Shelbyville. None was reported in serious condition.

Fire units from a 2-mile radius rushed into this hamlet, 15 miles southeast of Indianapolis.

State Shivers Under Mass Of Frigid Air

By The Associated Press

Texas lay beneath a massive blanket of frigid air Friday with snow and sleet falling in the midsection and one death attributed to icy highways.

Temperatures plunged to below freezing at all but a scattering of far south points.

The cold air and slick streets and highways caused some school closings.

Very little warming was expected until next week.

At that, the cold failed to reach the severe limit of 10 degrees below zero predicted. Lowest was 5 above zero at Dalhart in the Panhandle.

The snow and sleet area during the day ranged from Central Texas into East Texas.

But ice formed in the far southwest at Del Rio, and coated trees, shrubs and bridges in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

The death of James Richard Dillard, 21, of Mission was attributed to ice on a highway near Edinburg in the Lower Valley, coating trees, bridges and shrubs, although the ground temperature at that point was only 32 degrees.

The cold Friday was not expected to damage Lower Valley citrus and vegetable crops, but growers feared damage by Saturday.

Del Rio on the Texas-Mexican border reported icing during the night with highways hazardous but open.

Sacred Heart Academy at Del Rio closed because of the weather, but the San Felipe Independent School District kept its schools open.

The Del Rio School District, with 3,000 pupils, closed Monday until after the holidays because of respiratory ailments which kept 19 per cent of the students at home.

Among points reporting record lows for this date were Wichita Falls, 11 degrees, lowest Dec. 18 since 16 degrees in 1945.

Dallas had a record low for the date of 15 degrees, although 10 degrees had been predicted. Fort Worth and Dallas were expected to receive light sleet or snow during the night.

Scattered snow pelted down during the night from near Hamilton to Waco in Central Texas, and then the moisture front moved eastward.

Forecasts called for possible freezing rain for the South Central, Southeast, Southwest, North Central, Northeast and Northwest Texas.

Temperatures are expected to drop to 12 above zero early Saturday in far Northwest Texas ranging up to barely above freezing in southern parts of the state.

Bitter Cold Kills Montana Herds

EDITOR'S NOTE—Deep snow and 30-below-zero temperatures confront authorities trying to save range cattle in Montana. Robbins, general manager of Glendive station KXGN - TV, used a four-wheel-drive vehicle and a lot of shoveling to reach some cattle mired in four-foot drifts. Here's his story.

By JERRY ROBBINS
(Written for Associated Press)

GLENDIVE, Mont. (AP) — The cattle stand unmoving, unseeing, literally frozen stiff.

The nose and mouth seem frozen shut by ice, but steam from warm breath tells you they still live, if only shortly. You wonder can they last another night of below-zero weather without food and some shelter.

The hair is caked with ice and snow. Many cannot see. Some look with one eye. They must have 100 pounds of ice on their backs.

It's a pitiful sight. There's no way to help them.

There is no way to know how extensive the loss of livestock may be. The roads and prairies are clogged with snow. From the air, the cattle, whitened by blizzard ice and snow, blend into the landscape and are lost.

Government agencies are sending heavy equipment to clear paths through the snow, but this may be 72 hours away, and it would be too late.

In one place perhaps 50 head of cattle were stretched along a fence, now broken by the weight of the pressing animals. Twenty-three head were dead.

Those living looked pretty weak. They probably haven't eaten anything since the blizzard Tuesday. There's very little feed out there. Some ridge tops are blown free of snow, but these are crusted by ice. There's little forage on ridges anyway.

The cattle seem to fight the drifts, tire out and die.

San Angelo Blaze Does Heavy Damage

SAN ANGELO (AP) — Fire did an estimated $150,000 damage to the RC-Nehi Bottling Co. plant in San Angelo Thursday night.

The flames were fanned by a strong north wind and it took firemen nearly two hours to bring the fire under control.

Origin of the flames in the one-story brick building was not immediately determined.

King Ranch Plant Reports Emergency

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Fire equipment and ambulances were called for today for the Humble Oil Co. gas recycling plant near here.

Exact nature of the trouble was not immediately reported.

The plant is on the vast King Ranch here.

Four Killed In Ft. Worth Plane Crash

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A huge Air National Guard tanker plane crashed, exploded and burned on an attempted landing at Greater Southwest International Airport Thursday night, killing 4 of the 11 men aboard.

The seven guardsmen who survived the fiery crash in subfreezing weather were taken to Parkland Hospital in Dallas. Authorities said none was believed seriously injured.

Their KC97, a prop-driven craft, cracked up at the south end of the airport, which is midway between Dallas and Fort Worth. Fire units battled 2½ hours to douse the flames.

The plane, from the 136th Air Refueling Group at Hensley Field in the Dallas suburb of Grand Prairie, was on a four-hour training mission.

Air Force spokesmen said the tanker apparently hit an embankment on a practice approach and this ripped away the landing gear.

Flames shot out 300 yards. Pieces of the plane, including its four engines, were scattered across a wide section.

Judge Penalizes Slant-Well Defendants

AUSTIN (AP) — Dist. Judge Herman Jones entered penalty judgments totaling $46,000 Thursday against several defendants accused by the attorney general of drilling and operating slanted oil wells in Rusk County.

The judgments bring to $1,102,195 the total of civil penalties levied against alleged drillers and operators of deviated wells.

Defendants named in a case involving two wells were E. B. Hearn Sr. of Houston and E. B. Hearn Jr., Ebro Oil Co., Inc., and W. O. Davis Jr., both of Longview.

One well was involved in another case, which named Consolidated Royalties, Inc., of Longview as defendant.

British Delay Debt Payment

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON

LONDON (AP) — Britain announced today postponement of installment payments totaling $175.8 million due at the year-end on postwar American and Canadian loans.

The action was disclosed by Chancellor of the Exchequer James Callaghan in this written answer to a House of Commons questioner:

"The government have decided to take advantage of the deferment provisions in the financial agreements dated March 6, 1957, in respect of the 1964 installments and have advised the two governments accordingly."

Under the 1957 arrangement, the British have the right to postpone installments of principal and interest repayments on the loans. These installments then are to be tacked on to the end of the period of the loan, which now runs to 2002.

Britain's seriously adverse trade balance is the reason for the labor government's decision to defer the installments.

The American-Canadian loans for postwar reconstruction altogether involved more than $4.8 billion.

The United States and Canada are understood to have accepted today's decision. It is the third postponement of interest and principal payments since 1957.

Long Terms Meted Spies

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — An American engineer and a Russian chauffeur convicted of conspiring to spy for Russia were sentenced to long prison terms today after again protesting their innocence in court. They could have received death sentences.

The engineer, John W. Butenko, was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment on the charge, and drew two five-year concurrent terms on other charges.

A 20-year sentence was imposed on the Russian, Igor Ivanov, on the espionage conspiracy charge. He also was given five years, to be served concurrently, on a second count.

In addition to the main charge, the two were convicted of conspiring to violate the law requiring registration of foreign agents. Butenko also was convicted of acting as an unregistered agent of the Soviet Union.

The present cold snap has made people aware of the need for blankets as they go to the closet for extra covers.

Barry Resolves To Hold Fast

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater was described by close associates today as saying angrily that the drive against Dean Burch is really aimed at him and critics are "not going to push me out of the Republican party."

The defeated GOP presidential nominee told influential Republicans who talked to him at his Phoenix home recently he is solidly behind Dean Burch, chairman of the Republican national committee. Burch's ouster has been sought by some elements of the party, including a majority of the 18 GOP governors and governors-elect.

Burch returned to Washington Thursday night after a conference in Phoenix with Goldwater and Rep. William E. Miller of New York, who ran for vice president. The national chairman said after the conference he has no intention of resigning.

Burch was hand-picked for his post by Goldwater.

Although congressional leaders had discounted the controversy over the chairmanship, Goldwater was depicted as feeling it is a test of whether "these people are going to push me out before a showdown vote of confidence before the National Committee Jan. 22-23 in Chicago.

Today he turns his attention to a meeting with the party's finance committee to take up the 1965 budget.

Leaders who have talked to Goldwater describe the Republican nominee as an angry man who believes that he rallied all of the party conservatives in getting more than 26 million votes. Goldwater was said to be determined that Burch should not be ousted because he feels it would be repudiation of him personally.

Group To Try New Path To Unification Of Germany

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany meet here next month to try to work out a new approach to Russia on the unification of Germany.

The meeting was announced by Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the White House Thursday night after he and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara had reported to President Johnson on this week's talks among Allied foreign and defense ministers in Paris.

Administration officials are reported hopeful the discussions will lead to an easing of differences between France and other North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies.

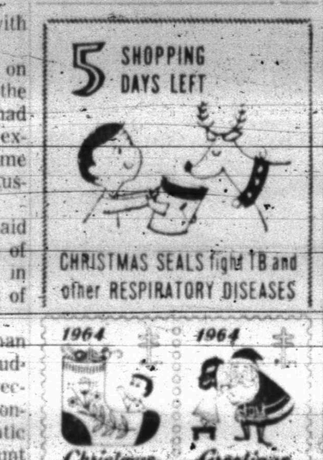
Rusk had two conferences with French President Charles de Gaulle about which he reported to Johnson. McNamara conferred with French Defense Minister Pierre Messmer. Messmer and he agreed on a coordination of French nuclear weapons targeting with NATO plans.

The McNamara-Messmer understanding is the basis for hope that relations with France may be improved. The accord indicates a possible new trend in French policy, which has been marked in recent years by declining French cooperation with NATO.

Rusk said of the meeting on German reunification that the four foreign ministers had agreed in Paris they should explore the possibilities of "some further initiative" with the Russians on the issue.

At the same time, he said there has been no indication of an active Soviet interest in trying to settle the problems of the division of Germany.

Presumably the West German government of Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, which faces elections next year, is urgently concerned with a new diplomatic move on an issue of paramount importance in West Germany.



Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a confirmed coward and do not have the nerve to confront my husband with the letters he is receiving at his place of business from his ex-wife. She discarded him for her own convenience, and when things did not work out for her she decided she wanted him back. In the meantime he had met and married me. I cannot prevent this woman from writing to my husband, but her letters begin, "My Darling, I received your letter," which means that he is writing to her, too. That is what is breaking my heart, Abby.

We have been married only six months and he professes to love me deeply, yet he continues to deceive me by corresponding with his ex-wife. Her letters are love letters, complete with lipstick prints over her signature. How can I let my beloved husband know that he is torturing me without admitting that I invaded his privacy?

BROKEN-HEARTED BRIDE

DEAR BRIDE: You can't. But don't let that stop you. Wait until you are both relaxed, unhurried and in the mood to talk, and then tell him exactly what you have told me. The next move will be his. And if he doesn't respect his marriage vows by forsaking ALL others, the next move is yours.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: A friend of mine had a bridal shower three weeks prior to her wedding. Right after the shower she broke her engagement. What should be done concerning the gifts? Thank you.

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: The gifts should be returned.

DEAR ABBY: I recently attended a dinner party at someone's home. The table was set with place mats! I thought place mats were correct for luncheons; and table cloths were used for dinner parties.

The food was all dished up on plates in the kitchen and served directly to the guests, starting with the hostess first. There was a POTTED PLANT in the center of the table instead of the traditional cut flowers. Have the rules for entertaining properly changed? Please print this with your answer for others who are ignorant when it comes to etiquette.

WITHHOLD MY NAME

DEAR WITHHOLD: We are all "ignorant" on different subjects. Anyone who would criticize a well-meaning hostess who has done her best to entertain her guests is, in my opinion, more guilty of ignorance than the hostess.

Bank Teller Ignores Note, Foils Robber

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Teller Clarence Willis ignored a note threatening his wife and thwarted a bank robbery attempt by refusing to hand over any money Thursday night.

An hour later police arrested a 17-year-old high school student. They quoted him as saying a man hired him by telephone as a messenger, giving instructions to take a deposit bag to the bank and return it.

Officers held the unidentified youth without immediate charge.

Willis, making a hurried check as soon as the youth left his window at the Texas Bank & Trust Co., found his wife unharmed and unaware of any threat.

"We are checking out the story and we are looking for the man who allegedly hired this boy," Police Sgt. Don Rains said.

It was the 6 p.m. closing hour when the youth appeared at the bank's drivein window and handed Willis a zippered bag. Inside the teller found a note which stated, in part:

"We are at your apartment and are holding your wife hostage. Do exactly as directed and she will not get her pretty head cut off. Don't talk to this boy and don't do anything that will get him followed."

The note directed Willis to put all his $5, $10 and $20 bills inside the bag and return it to the bearer. Instead he handed it back empty and the youth departed.

Police picked him up about 7 p.m. at a drivein restaurant. Employes, suspicious because he loitered without ordering, summoned the officers.

FBI agents joined in questioning the youth. Rains said he gave this account:

A stranger, promising to pay $5 an hour for the job, directed the teen-ager by telephone to pick up the deposit bag at a small shack on the east side of Wichita Falls and take it to the bank window where Willis worked.

The caller directed him to go next to the eating place where he was arrested and await further instructions, again by phone. He received one call there and was told his employer would telephone again, but the arresting officers came first.

Witnesses confirmed that the youth had received call.

Tshombe Cuts Berlin Visit

BERLIN (AP) — Congo Premier Moise Tshombe has decided to cut short his Berlin visit and leave later today in a U.S. Air Force plane, an Air Force spokesman said. Diplomatic sources said he is going to Brussels, Belgium.

The spokesman had no explanation for the special convenience being extended the premier. U.S. Air Force planes usually carry only American and West German officials into or out of the city.

An official at the U.S. Embassy in Bonn said the use of an Air Force plane for a foreign chief of state usually requires White House approval.

About 20 Negro and white demonstrators staged a sitdown strike at the West Berlin City Hall against the reception of Tshombe by Mayor Willy Brandt. Police dragged them away, then Brandt invited the leaders of the demonstration in for a talk.

Firemen Answer Two Calls In County

The Snyder fire department answered a call at 9:45 a.m. today to the Hays Ranch west of Snyder.

A pickup truck which was parked inside a feed barn caught fire. The department pulled that truck and another trailer truck loaded with seed out of the building; and prevented any damage other than to the one truck.

The fire department also answered a call at 6:45 p.m. Thursday to the China Grove Gin. When the fire, which was in the gin itself, started, the water pipes there were frozen. The heat of the fire, however, thawed the pipes, and made it possible for gin employes to have the fire nearly under control before the department's truck arrived.

Service Set For Snyderite's Brother

Jury Hears Charges Against Trio

DENTON (AP) — County grand jurors were expected to meet today and go into charges against three students growing out of a disturbance which ended with the wounding of two policemen.

Officers charged two of the North Texas State University students with attempted burglary Thursday. They held a third and sought two more for questioning.

Andrew Polini, 29, was charged earlier with assault to murder. He admitted firing at two men he believed to be prowlers in his apartment house. The shot wounded city patrolmen Jim Tom Bush, 24, and Edward Reynolds, 27, who were answering a disturbance call.

The complaints alleging a burglary attempt named John Taylor and James Harbison, both 20 and from Dallas. Each was released under $1,500 bond.

Investigators said five young men went to the apartment house occupied by Polini and a dozen other North Texas State students early last Tuesday.

One of the group told questioners they "just wanted to raise hell," Detective Sgt. Hugh Lynch said. Outsiders and occupants of the apartments had traded uncomplimentary remarks and scuffled the week before.

Polini told a reporter that one of his neighbors, Paul Stanton, shouted from the floor below that "they're after us again" and added that one intruder had a gun.

Stanton ran up the stairs with a man behind him, Polini said, adding:

"I was shaking like a scared animal and I shot."

He and a companion surrendered to a campus security guard.

Police confirmed that one of the five intruders carried a 22 caliber rifle. They did not identify him.

Support Broadens For Italy's Fanfani

By GERALD MILLER

ROME (AP) — Former Premier Amintore Fanfani, the Christian Democrat who pioneered center-left government in Italy, was being pushed toward the Italian presidency today with support from pro-Communists.

As Parliament came to the fifth vote in the presidential election, rumors flew that the Communists themselves might vote for him.

The fourth vote, taken Thursday night, produced a dramatic spurt for Fanfani and the first sign of a significant party shift.

Fanfani's ballots leaped to 117, 46 more than he got on the third vote earlier in the day. At the same time the pro-Communist Socialist party of Proletarian Unity, which has 38 members in Parliament, suddenly stopped voting for its own nominal candidate, Alcide Malagugini.

A vote analysis indicated the party had moved to Fanfani. It was the first major break since the voting started three days ago for a successor to ailing Antonio Segni, who resigned.

Fanfani then was still far from the 482 votes required for election. Giovanni Leone, chosen as a compromise candidate by the Christian Democrats in preference to Fanfani, remained ahead with 290.

But Leone had lost ground on every vote since his 319 on the first ballot. Fanfani, starting out with only 18, gained on every vote.

The fifth ballot today was delayed until late afternoon, obviously to give the parties time to maneuver.

The shift to Fanfani by the pro-Communist Socialists fed the speculation that the Communists might throw their 250 or so votes to him.

Premier Aldo Moro's Christian Democrat party, Italy's biggest, was split from the start on a presidential candidate. Four factions each came forward with a candidate.

Only on the eve of the election did the majority of the party's members in parliament compromise on Leone.

Fanfani and Moro are at odds although Fanfani pioneered the principle of a center-left alliance and Moro has continued it.

Police In Saigon On Full Alert

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON (AP) — Saigon police went on a full alert today against the possibility of trouble over the weekend from both the Buddhists and the Viet Cong.

Buddhist sources said a monk might commit suicide by burning to spur the lagging Buddhist campaign to overthrow the government of Premier Tran Van Huong. This was the tactic used successfully against the late President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Sunday is the fourth anniversary of the official founding of the National Front for the Liberation of South Viet Nam, the political arm of the Viet Cong. While Viet Cong terror campaigns coincide only occasionally with important Communist holidays, it was felt the Reds might have major plans for this weekend.

Viet Cong propaganda activity in Saigon has risen sharply.

Buddhist headquarters in Saigon, a dusty, sprawling compound of shacks, looked like a command post this week. Monks and organizers carrying brief cases rushed in and out; the jangling of telephones in the offices drowned out the temple gongs.

More than a dozen Buddhists reportedly have volunteered for immolation. Rumors said burnings might take place in front of the U.S. embassy, in front of the presidential palace or at a Buddhist headquarters.

A Buddhist spokesman said: "We may be forced to take extreme measures if the government continues its persecution."

At Buddhist headquarters leaflets were circulated summoning Buddhists Saturday for an all-night rally against the government. A Buddhist spokesman said a huge public hunger strike would be held at the headquarters Sunday, capping two such strikes in the past week by groups of monks and nuns.

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor conferred Thursday night with Premier Huong on the situation, but there was no word of what was said. One cabinet minister resigned under Buddhist pressure Wednesday. Three others reportedly have submitted their resignations but Huong has refused to accept them.

Robber Loses $5 In Stickup Try

NEW YORK (AP) — The Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. is $5 richer today because a man tried to rob one of its Manhattan banks.

The would-be robber put a $5 bill on the counter of teller Agnes De Martini Thursday and handed her a note reading: "This is a stickup. Give me all the money. Don't try to be a hero."

"Stickup!" screamed Miss De Martini.

The robber fled, minus his $5.

Smile—The Judge May Be Watching

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Drunken driving suspects in Essex County may find themselves the stars of short motion pictures; but the only review the films will get will be in court.

Prosecutor Brendan T. Byrne announced the start of a pilot program Thursday in which his office will send a sound camera to police headquarters to film the acts and speech of drunken driving suspects.

Byrne said an assistant prosecutor, David Schapira, will man the camera and will be on call in certain selected towns. Suspects will be filmed either during interrogation by police or while taking tests.

The prosecutor said he was sure the film would be admissible in New Jersey courts and that he felt the deterrent value of the program would be as important as its evidence-producing features.

He said such films have been used in Denver, Colo., and in parts of California and that to his knowledge, the films have not been ruled inadmissible as court evidence.

"It's just the same as photographing a bank bandit," he said, referring to automatic picture-taking equipment used in some banks.

A new sign will appear on roads in the county in connection with the program, Byrne said.

KENTUCKY CARAMEL SAUCE for ice cream holds candied fruits and peels plus toasted almonds.

Caramel Sauce Comes From Kentucky

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

NEIGHBORS COME up with the best ideas! At a get-together on our street, when I served caramel sauce (over vanilla ice cream) a next - door friend volunteered to give me her recipe for the sacue as it was made in her part of Kentucky.

What an interesting combination this turned out to be! In the Bluegrass State one fine cook had added candied fruits and whole toasted almonds to the caramel.

Here's an up-to-date version of this treat. It's made with the candied fruits and peels that are packed in spanking - new fashion in moisture - tight packages. The container is made from rigid polyethylene, and it's covered with see - through plastic. Packed this way, the fruits and peels stay moist and fresh tasting. The toasted slivered almonds called for in this recipe are the convenient kind that come in cans.

Kentucky Caramel Sauce is not only delicious over ice cream — it's also great over squares of white cake topped with whipped cream. And another idea; serve it over cream puff or eclair shells filled with ice cream.

KENTUCKY CARAMEL SAUCE

1½ cups firmly packed light brown sugar
1 cup light cream
½ cup butter
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup mixed diced candied fruits and peels
¼ cup toasted slivered blanched almonds

In a heavy-saucepan, stir together the brown sugar, ½ cup of the cream, the butter and salt. Cook, stirring often, to 232 degrees on a candy thermometer or until about ½ teaspoon of the mixture dropped into about ¾ cup very cold water forms a very soft ball. Cool for about 5 minutes. Stir in the remaining ½ cup cream, the candied fruits and peels and the almonds. Serve warm or cold. Makes about 2½ cups. Sauce may be stored in a tightly covered jar in the refrigerator for several weeks; to serve, allow sauce to stand at room temperature for several hours or reheat over hot water.

Sorority Program Presented By SHS Drama Department

Lambda Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in regular session Tuesday evening in the community room of Snyder Savings & Loan. Sorority President Frances Shamburger presided.

It was voted to donate $10 to both the Goodfellows and American Field Service. It was also reported that 32 hours time had been given the Goodfellows by the chapter. Mrs. J. L. Browning received the recent fund raising gift.

Final plans were made for the New Year's Eve party to be held in the National Guard armory.

Mr. Gerald Gafford and the drama department of Snyder High School presented the program, in keeping with this month's program "Drama and the Dramatic Arts."

Mr. Gafford said in part: "Drama is a synthesis of all the arts. It brings together architecture, design, painting, fashion and hair design, dance, music interior decoration, mechanical and industrial arts such as carpentry, lighting and sound, as well as the creative arts of acting and directing.

"The drama's origin can be traced back 6,000 years. At that time it was simply a renactment of the hunt. After a hunt, one of the hunters would put on the skin of the animal they had killed and they would all act out the parts they had played in the killing of it.

"The 'Golden Age of the Theatre' began when the Greeks portrayed their great tragedies.

"Whn Rome became the cultural center of the world, drama began to suffer along with the moral climate of the times. It was so degraded the theatre had to be closed by the church, and wasn't opened again until the middle ages. At that time the church opened it to re- enact biblical stories.

"Nothing of great importance to drama occurred until the 16-1700's, when the writings of Shakespeare -prompted the second "Golden Age of the Theatre.'

"From there we moved to the old melodramas, to silent movies, to spectacles and Broadway musicals."

A skit from the recent presentation of the drama department "The Importance of Being Earnest" was performed by Cindy Hale, Millijon Smyth, Jay Don Rogers and Powers Boothe. They showed talent for a British accent that was thoroughly unexpected.

A skit from "A Streetcar Named Desire", by Tennessee Williams was given by Fredricka Josephson as Blanche, and Millijon Smyth as Stella. The girls will be performing this in upcoming interscholastic competition.

The drama department will present their next public program January 29-30. It will be "Check Your Worries," an original musical first produced in California in 1963. The music and lyrics were written by Al Polhamus and Mel Weisor.

The next meeting is scheduled for January , when Gene Terrell will give the program on "Absolute Music."

More Americans Now Buy A Home For Christmas

"I'll Be Home For Christmas" is currently enjoying its annual revival.

But, paraphrasing the old Bing Crosby waxing, more and more American families now are caroling "I'l Buy A Home For Christmas."

Because there is a particular family sentiment involved with Christmas home purchases, buyers usually are more selective in December than in any other month. They want the best in their homes. That's why they look for features like ceramic tile in baths and kitchens.

The holiday season also makes home-buyers more conscious of that traditional center of Christmas gatherings — the fireplace. Many are specifying materials such as ceramic tile that cannot be burned or scratched and will add lifetime beauty to the fireplace.

Saucy Carrots

½ cup ripe olives
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 tablespoon finely - chopped onion
1 tablespoon flour
½ cup water
1 vegetable bouillon cube
½ teaspoon minced parsley
½ teaspoon each dry crushed basil and thyme
6 servings hot cooked carrots

Dice olives. In a saucepan melt the butter and gently cook onion until soft. Stir in flour, water, bouillon cube and herbs. Cook and stir constantly until bouillon cube dissolves and mixture thickens. Add olives. Makes 1¾ cup. Serve over carrots.

To get extra dividends from your mistletoe, spray it with clear plastic or drip the stem ends in melted wax. This will keep the leaves from shriveling and the berries from dropping.

Those attending were Ruth Cowen, Ava Nell McKinney, Gene Terrell, Martha Floyd, Willie Mae Prentice, Mammie Lou Burditt, Millie Tudor, Myrtle Green, Doorthy Cox, Pearl Schwartz, Hazel White, Mildred Richardson, Beanie Robertson, Maxine Melton, Celia Flounay, and honorary guest, Miss Louease Stinson, R. Cream Cheese Cookies

1 cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or margarine
4 ounces cream cheese
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
½ cup sugar
1 egg yolk
1 package (6 ounces) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
½ coarsely chopped walnuts

Stir together the flour and salt. Beat the butter; add cream cheese, orange rind and sugar; beat thoroughly until fluffy - the texture of mayonnaise. Beat in egg yolk. Stir in flour mixture all at once until blended, then chocolate and walnuts. Drop by level tablespoonfuls, 1 inch apart, on lightly greased cookie sheets; flatten slightly with a small spatula. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven about 15 minutes or until cookie edges are brown; tops will be cream colored. Makes 44 cookies.

Less Kitchen Work

One way to reduce kitchen chores is to lay out a "work triangle." End- points of the "triangle" would be the refrigerator, sink and stove. The "sides" between these should provide plenty of work space, surfaced with durable ceramic tile.

MUFFIN MAGIC — Simple to make oatmeal muffins have an apple topping with cinnamon and sugar.

Scaréd To Bake? Try These Magic Muffins

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

WHO'S AFRAID of baking?

According to our private survey, a good many young women admit that they're unpracticed at this art. At the donning of an apron, they'll cook France's Beef Bourguignon or America's Country Captain, but they wilt at the idea of baking from scratch.

If you are timid about baking cakes, cookies, puddings, pies or pastry, our advice is to start your baking career by trying muffins. Muffin making is foolproof — if you don't overmix.

This muffin recipe produces such a pleasant and nutritious fruit bread that even experienced cooks are likely to want to try it. Serve these muffings for breakfast, brunch, lunch, supper, snacks or what - have - you. But do serve them hot. If you bake them ahead, be sure to reheat them. And offer them with butter.

APPLE OATMEAL MUFFINS

1 cup sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 cup quick - cooking rolled oats
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 egg
1 cup milk
12 thin unpared apple slices
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon

Into a mixing bowl, sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Stir in the brown sugar and rolled oats. Add butter. In a small bowl, beat the egg enough to combine yolk and white; add milk and beat to combine; add to sifted ingredients and stir only until they are moistened. Fill buttered muffin cups two-thirds full. Place an apple slice on top of the batter in each cup; sprinkle with a mixture of the granulated sugar and cinnamon. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven (425 degrees if using glass cups) about 25 minutes or until a wooden pick inserted in the center comes out clean. If muffin cups are 1-3 cup size, recipe will make 12 muffins. Serve hot or reheat. Pass butter.

Note: Do not overmix batter to prevent peaks and tunnels. Use a small ladle, if available, to pour batter into muffin cups to prevent overmixing.

LBJ Brings New Methods To Position Of President

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson's years in the presidency may have a profound effect on how that office is handled for years to come.

He is different from any man who has held the office in this century. He is a political manager who reached the top.

As President he has to assert leadership, often perhaps in a cold way, but his training and his career have been that of a manager, which does a lot to explain his performance so far.

As Democratic majority Senate leader from 1955 until 1961 he had a chamber full of men who, as always to a large degree, were temperamental and egotistical, with their own prejudices and special political interests.

He knew them all well because he pays astonishing attention to detail. As a result he knew what had to be done, or left undone, to get a piece of legislation through. His job, as he saw it, was to get results. He got them.

He didn't do it by browbeating, if he could help it, for his policy was to avoid conflict if he could. He knew an enemy he made today on a particular bill might come back tomorrow to haunt him.

What he did most of the time was to appeal, soothe and compromise. This meant he often had to settle for less than all he wanted. But he kept the wheels turning so well and smoothly he has been called the best Senate leader in this century.

His whole performance is based on tireless dedication to the job. He works at it long hours daily. It would be extraordinary if his personality and his methods changed now. They are not likely to, as he revealed to newsmen this week.

He let it be known he will work for results while trying to avoid heady conflicts, here or abroad.

His dream boat may capsize, due to circumstances he can't control, and in the end he may find himself a sorely embattled president, like many before him.

If he is highly successful the presidents coming after him probably would be inclined to use some of his methods, thus making the job less individualistic and more managerial.

If his methods fail, his successors will ignore Johnson's tactics and go on trying to adapt themselves to the presidency in their own way, which is what Johnson's most recent predecessors have done. A glance back shows how.

President Kennedy brought to the White House a great gift which Johnson perhaps never can match: Grace and charm and an intellectual interest and aliveness long lacking in the presidency.

But in handling Congress he was an amateur compared with Johnson. He never learned how to manage Congress well enough to get his major programs through, like a tax cut and civil rights. Johnson got them through in his first seven months.

Historians may decide President Eisenhower's greatest contribution to the job was that of a calming influence. Through public confidence in him and his own placidity, he steered the country back to sanity from the neurotic divisions over McCarthyism and suspicions about Communism.

But his Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, was his foreign policy guide and if it hadn't been for Johnson's mastery and good will in a Democratic-run Congress, Eisenhower's achievements through Congress probably would have looked sick.

President Truman had a honeymoon with Congress for only a few months after taking office. Thereafter it was unceasing conflict, particularly with the Republicans. They never gave him the cooperation Johnson gave Eisenhower.

But Truman was a tremendous, aggressive leader, particularly in foreign affairs. It is no wonder historians rate him among the top presidents. It remains to be seen whether, in this vital role of leadership, Johnson can approach him.

Managing, without inspiring leadership, may not be enough, and probably won't be. Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Wilson were truly leaders but in dealing with Congress they were often poor managers. Wilson disastrously so.

Wife-Talk Is Powerful, And Costly

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — There is a widespread belief that the most important language in the world today is English.

However, there is in existence a language that is even more powerful and expensive. It is wife-talk.

To become a real scholar of this widespread form of communication, it is practically necessary for the student to be two things: male and married.

The first thing a man has to learn about wife-talk is: it never means what it says. It has to be translated.

Wife-talk is made up of hint and innuendo, gesture as well as spoken word.

Another thing a husband needs to learn in dealing with his bride is never to take her oral expressions literally. Mystery between him and her begins at the altar and never ends. The rest of his life he will spend desperately trying to find out what the devil she is really trying to express.

They are having a meal together and she says sweetly, "Dear, won't you have some more steak?"

The recent bridegroom naturally thinks she is interested in his welfare and pleasedly replies, "Yes, sweetie-pie, thanks, I think I will."

What he doesn't realize is that wife-talk is always couched in the form of indirect discourse and that what his bride actually meant was, "I'm starved, stupid — pass me the meat."

At a cocktail party she says of a blonde the men are clustering around, "Isn't her hair lovely?" What she actually means is, "Stay away from that dyed hussy, Buster."

She says wistfully on a rainy day, "If anything should ever happen to me, dearest, I want you to marry again and be happy." What she mean is, "If you do, stupid, I'll haunt you forever."

Wife-talk, of course, requires an answering form of communication. This is known as husband-talk. It has been scientifically reduced to a single sentence.

No matter what a wife says, the wise husband invariably replies:

"Baby, you said a mouthful!"

This is the only thing he can say which is true. If he says anything else at all, he is bound to get himself in trouble.

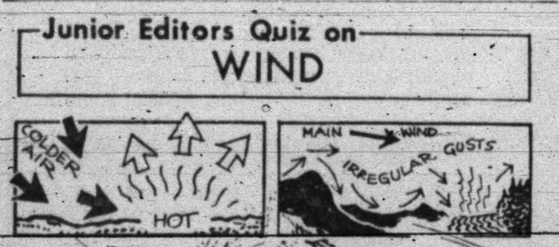
Junior Editors Quiz on WIND



QUESTION: What causes sudden gusts of wind?

• • •

ANSWER: When air is warmed, the molecules in it expand and are widet apart, so the air becomes lighter and moves upward (light arrows). Colder air, which is denser and heavier, sinks down under the warm air, helping to boost it up (black arrows). Later, the warm air will become cooled and sink down in its turn. These air movements cause the winds. There is a general rising of air from the hot regions around the equator and a general movement of cold air coming down from the north to flow under it. But many things, such as the earth's rotation and the unequal heating of the land areas, cause variations in the movements of the winds and bring us many kinds of weather, sometimes stormy, sometimes pleasant. When wind blows close to the ground (upper right) it meets many different conditions. Often fields and deserts become very hot from the sun, but forests tend to absorb some of this heat. Hills, ravines, mountains, are obstacles in the way of the even flow of wind. Such irregularities of heating and the obstacles are the main cause of the sudden gusts which may come in a steady wind — such as the one blowing off Billy's hat. The ocean surface is more even, so gusts are not so frequent.

Stop Rhome: That's Advice From Vaught

HOUSTON (AP) — Mississippi Coach Johnny Vaught says he knows how to beat Tulsa in the Bluebonnet Bowl football classic but he is not sure his Rebels will be able to do it.

"If you want to beat them, you've got to stop that passer," Vaught said.

That passer is Jerry Rhome, the Associated Press Back of the Year, who has smashed 17 NCAA passing and total offense records.

Vaught's Mississippi team arrived Thursday about the time a cold norther hit Houston, which indicated a good possibility of freezing weather during the young classic which will get under way at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in Rice University's 70,000-seat stadium.

"A good pass rush is the best way to stop Rhome," Vaught said. "We'll try to rush the boy, but we'll have other defenses. We'll also try to drop back and cover, it's just wait and see."

Mississippi has the big, quick linemen for the rush but Vaught noted that the Rebs have three brand new boys in the deep secondary, two who are sophomores.

Vaught said Rhome is "as good a passer as I've seen, and I've seen some good ones."

"He's a dandy with great field vision and a great sense on how to lead a receiver. All he needs is one step."

End Howard Twilley, who claims four NCAA receiving records, is on the receiving end of most of Rhome's passes, and Vaught said he had not solved this problem either.

"We'll have double coverage on him," Vaught said, "But they have two other backs who are good receivers and Rhome is good enough to see his openings," he said.

Tulsa Coach Glenn Dobbs, whose team has been in Houston since last Monday, said the Hurricane must try to get outside with the same amount of people Mississippi sends out.

"If we can keep them bunched up we can do a good job," Dobbs said. "But, at Tulsa, we can out-slow people more than we can out run them."

Mississippi has been established an early 11-point favorite despite its 5-4-1 season record compared to Tulsa's 8-2 mark.

A crowd of about 50,000 is expected for the sixth edition of the young classic which will be nationally televised, ABC.

PREPARING FOR TONIGHT'S BOUTS—These youngsters in the 6-9 age bracket are getting instructions at the Scurry County Boys' Club in preparation for their series of Friday night boxing programs, which open tonight. The bouts tonight officially launch the Boys' Club's "boxing-for-fun" program, and they will continue every Friday night through the winter months, except for Dec. 25. Boxers from Abilene and Sweetwater will be here this evening for exhibition bouts with some of the more experienced local lads. The public is invited, and admission prices tonight are 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for students and 10 cents for other children.

Violets Are A Sure Thing In Every 100th Cage Game

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York University Violets, regarded as the flop of the college basketball season a year ago, don't miss when it comes to historic milestones.

They played the 1,000th game in the school's history Thursday night and won it just as they did their 600th game against Baylor, their 700th game against Duke, their 800th against Rutgers and their 900th against Toronto.

This time they whipped Penn State 82-73 in the feature of a doubleheader at Baltimore's Civic Center. It ended a five-game winning streak of the Nittany Lions and was the Violets' second triumph in three starts of the young season.

Ray Bennett, with 29 points, paced the Violets to their 636th victory against 364 defeats in their 1,000 games.

Tenth-ranked St. Louis, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten to see action, spoiled what amounted to a homecoming for All-America Bill Bradley by defeating Princeton 90-71. Bradley, a native of nearby Crystal City, Mo., scored 34 points for the Ivy League champs, but got little help as the Tigers suffered their second defeat in seven starts.

Iowa State, playing at home, scored the surprise of the night. The Cyclones, beaten in five starts, won their first game by upsetting Drake 82-75.

Houston beat Texas A&M 59-49 and with two straight victories won the unofficial championship of the Bluebonnet Bowl Classic. Auburn rebounded from its Houston defeat on Wednesday night to whip Rice 94-71 in the other half of the Bluebonnet doubleheader at Houston.

Pete Coker's jump shot with eight seconds left gave North Carolina State a 65-64 victory over Fordham in New York while Ron Krick's 2 points led Cincinnati to a 76-72 home court triumph over Kansas.

Utah State opened a road trip by losing to Bradley 75-69 while the touring Colorado State University team went down before Duquesne 75-56 at Pittsburgh. Providence fared better on the road, defeating Creighton 95-90. Unbeaten Connecticut also won on the road, making it six in a row by defeating Maine 89-62.

Two Titles On Line In Grid Action

By The Associated Press

Two of the four Texas schoolboy football championships will be determined today and tonight.

Palestine and San Marcos started the final round off in an afternoon battle at College Station for the Class AAA crown.

It was the first time in the finals for both teams, seeking the title Corsicana held last year.

Tonight Marlin and Palacios clash at Austin with the Class AA title on the line. Each also is a newcomer to the finals. Undefeated, untied record Palacios is a mild favorite to beat a Marlin team that reached the playoffs despite a loss and tie.

The big showdown comes Saturday night at Houston where Garland's Owls go after their second straight Class AAAA championship.

The Owls reached the finals with one less on their record and they meet an undefeated, untied team in Galena Park. The latter is favored in some quarters because it boasts one of the finest air games in schoolboy annals.

But Garland, with a blistering ground attack and capable of making the big plays, expects to make it two in a row.

LCC Girls Down Ira

IRA — The Lubbock Christian College girls basketball team edged out the Ira High School girls, 49-41, here Thursday night.

Tippy Browning paced the LCC aggregation with 32 points, while Ivita Bowie had 13 and Karn Bryn had 4.

Pat Jones scored 28 for Ira girls, while Janice Bishop had 9 and Renoka Hooker 4.

Ira boys decisioned the Colorado City B team, 63-44, in the second game of the evening. Jack Payne paced Ira with 18 points, Bill Alexander had 9, Larry Holladay, Melvin Crawford and Johnny Lindsey had 7 each, Aaron Crawford 5 and Dennis Grizzle 4.

For Colorado City B, Harp and Gary Parker had 9 each, Ruddick 6, Higginbotham and Tillug 5 each, McGee and Wilson 4 each and Feaster 2.

SWC Continues Dismal Showing

By The Associated Press

Texas A&M saw its six-game winning streak halted by University of Houston 59-49 Thursday night as Southwest Conference basketball teams made another dismal showing.

A&M fell to Houston in the Bluebonnet Classic at Houston. The Cougars turned the trick by dominating the boards and holding hotshot Aggie scorer John Beasley to a meager eight points.

Rice took a 97-71 hammering from Auburn and Texas Christian was thumped 91-83 by Loyola of New Orleans as the league fell farther behind along the intersectional trail.

The only bright spot was Arkansas' 72-70 triumph over the Phillips Oilers.

Houston's Leary Lentz, Jim Jones and Rich Apolskis weren't as tall but they could jump higher, so the Cougars prevailed on rebounds 37 to 21, which was the main story. Ken Norman of the Aggies was top scorer with 16 but no other Aggie could get into double figures.

Five Auburn players hit in double figures to trample Rice, which twice pulled within 12 points of the Southern visitors in the last half. Doug McKendrick of the Owls led the scoring with 25 points but got little help.

TCU led Loyola by seven points at the half but it didn't last long and Loyola grabbed the lead at 60-59 on Roger Radecki's basket. From then on the New Orleans boys pulled steadily away.

Craig Tolbert of Loyola topped the scoring with 28 points. Gary Turner led TCU with 24.

John Talkington sank a field goal in the last second as Arkansas jolted Phillips. The Razorbacks had rallied from an 11-point halftime deficit and a man-to-man defense in the second half slowed the Oilers from the outside.

Two conference teams see action tonight. Baylor plays highly ranked Vanderbilt at Nashville in the Vanderbilt Classic and the Bears' unbeaten record is in jeopardy. Texas is host to Nebraska.

Bowl Schedule Starts Saturday

By The Associated Press

The first major bowl game ever staged indoors and the passing arm of Jerry Rhome, chosen the outstanding back of the year in the Associated Press' poll, highlight Saturday's postseason college football action.

Defense - minded Utah and West Virginia meet in the Liberty Bowl which will be played in Atlantic City's Convention Hall. Rhome, who set 17 collegiate offensive records, leads Tulsa against Mississippi in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston.

Utah, co-champion of the Western Athletic Conference, had the sixth best defense against scoring in the country this season, permitting just 6.2 points per game. The Utes picked off 23 passes, seven by safety C. D. Lowery.

That aerial defense figures to get a stern test from West Virginia's Allen McCune, who piloted the Mountaineers to a 7-3 mark and the Southern Conference title, after they had split their first four games.

McCune, who took over in the fifth game, completed 60 of 99 passes for 10 touchdowns.

When it comes to passing though, it will be Johnny Vaught's Mississippi Rebels who figure to have their hands full Saturday. They will be up against the collegiate passing champion, Rhome of Tulsa in the Bluebonnet classic.

Rhome, with Howard Twilley doing most of the catching, sparks one of the most pass-minded offenses in the country.

Mississippi allowed 10 opponents an average of 115 yards per game through the air and nine of the 14 touchdowns scored against the Rebels came on passes.

Razorbacks End Pre-Yule Workouts

By The Associated Press

Arkansas has wound up its pre-Christmas practice for the Cotton Bowl but that doesn't mean the players will lounge around.

Coach Frank Broyles told them Thursday, when the final drill was held, that he would expect them to work out on their own before regrouping Dec. 27 for the flight to Houston, where post-Christmas practice will be held for the New Year's Day game with Nebraska.

Broyles said the practice had been enthusiastic and had accomplished everything he had planned.

Texas, which meets Alabama in the Orange Bowl, continued to work. It got some bad news Thursday when Phil Harris, the ace pass-receiver, pulled a leg muscle. He won't be able to practice anymore but may play in the game.

Texas Tech practiced indoors for its Sun Bowl date with Georgia Dec. 26. It was just too cold for the outdoors, Coach J.T. King decided when the temperature fell to 16 degrees.

The Red Raiders plan to be outside today because King said the boys sure needed some running.

Tech got a cheerful note when Doug Young, defensive guard who had a knee operation seven weeks ago, gave indications that he will be able to play at El Paso.

Blue Devils Win, Lose

COLORADO CITY — Snyder Travis 9th grade basketballers defeated the Colorado City 9th grade team, 50-30, while the C-City 8th graders tripped the Travis 8th graders, 42-28, here Thursday.

Colorado City 9th led by 13-8 at the end of the first period, but scored only two points in the second quarter as Travis 9th took a 27-15 lead at the half. Albert Rodriquez scored 14 points for the Blue Devils, Alton Patterson 12, Ted Winters 10, Jerry Smedley and Jerry Luttrell 6 each and Ky Nitsch 2. Steakly paced C-City 9th with 13 points.

For Travis 8th, Ken Sehested scored 11, Danny Brimer 9, Randy Rushing, Roy Lee Tommy Hollis and George Kay 2 each. Parker scored 23 points for C-City 8th.

Bengals To Brownwood

The Snyder Tigers departed for Brownwood today where they were to face first round action in the Brownwood Basketball tournament at 4:30 p.m.

First round foe of the Tigers was Winters. The locals will play their next tournament game at noon Saturday. If they win this afternoon they will face the winner of the Breckenridge-Haskell game, but their foe will be the loser of that game if they are defeated in today's opener.

The Brownwood tournament, which has two divisions, is being played on two courts.

The Tigers, who on their own Canyon Reef Tournament last weekend, took a record of 9 victories and 1 defeat to Brownwood.

Blue, Grey Cagers Win

Travis Blue and Lamar Grey continued their leadership in local 7th grade basketball action Thursday, with the Blues edging Lamar Red, 19-16, and the Greys downing Travis White, 35-26.

Don Light and Rickey Glasscock led Travis Blue in scoring with 6 points each, while Hernandez had 3 and Murphree 2. Billy Bowden was Lamar Red's top scorer with 9 points, while Belt had 5 and Floyd 2.

For Lamar Grey, Lee McNair scored 12 points, John Lacik 8, Arnold 7, and Ator and Stokes 4 each. Wesley Bishop of Travis White was the game's top scorer with 15 points. Lehman had 5, Ward 4 and Elkins 2 for the Whites.

Lamar-Stamford Games Called Off

Junior High basketball games schedule here last night between Lamar and Stamford 8th and 9th grade teams were called off.

The games were scheduled for the Lamar Gym. However, they were canceled at the request of Stamford, due to weather conditions.

Guantanamo Has Plenty Of Water

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten months after Fidel Castro turned off the tap, the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo has become fully self-sufficient for its fresh water.

The Navy said today that the third and final unit of a plant to convert sea water into fresh water went into operation Dec. 6.

The plant produces 2.2 million gallons of fresh water a day — well above the normal requirements of the base's population.

When a new power plant is finished next month, the emergency-prompted construction at the base will be completed and Guantanamo will be in shape to survive regardless of its being surrounded by hostile Communist Cuban territory.

In all, the three-unit desalinization plant, the 12,500-kilowatt power plant and related facilities cost about $10.7 million.

Castro abruptly shut off Guanatanamo's fresh water source — river water which entered the base through a pipeline — last Feb. 6. He did so in retaliation for U.S. seizure of some Cuban fishermen in American waters.

Less than a month later, Castro offered to turn the water back on, but the United States spurned that offer. This country had been buying water from Cuba for about $1,000 a month.

President Johnson ordered that the base, which Castro has demanded be given up by the United States, should be made entirely self-sufficient and independent of any water from Castro's territory.

Until Cuba's action, the base was using about 2 million gallons of water a day — about 200,000 gallons a day less than the new desalinization plant produces.

While the three-unit plant was being installed, Navy tankers shuttled back and forth between Florida and the Guantanamo base. In all, they hauled more than 293 million gallons of fresh water to Guantanamo.

Meanwhile, the Navy continued to carry out Johnson's orders gradually to reduce the number of wives and children of servicemen living on the base.

Last February there were almost 3,000 such dependents living in the 45 square mile U. S. enclave. This total has been reduced to fewer than 1,600 and all wives and children will be gone by February 1966.

Would End Subsidies Of N-Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — The coal industry has asked the oil and gas industries to join it and the railroads in opposing further government subsidies for development of nuclear power.

The request was made by the National Coal Policy Conference in letters to various oil and gas groups. Joseph Moody, conference president, says virtually all of those replying have expressed sympathy with the proposal although none immediately joined the movement.

Some, he said, indicated concern over continued government presence in the nuclear power field.

Most of those replying said the conference's request would have to be taken up with their association policy groups.

Frank Ikard, president of the American Petroleum Institute, replied:

"As a matter of principle, our industry is, of course, in sympathy with the position taken by your organization and those associated with you that conventional nuclear reactors are now ready to take their place in the competitive energy fuel arena without further government subsidization."

Ikard added "we do not have a specific policy directive on the question of nuclear power from the API board of directors." It is planned, he said, to suggest that the whole subject be brought before a policy advisory committee.

H. A. True, head of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, replied that he shared the concern over growing federal subsidies "in this and other businesses."

Glen Michel, executive vice president of the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Association, Abilene, Tex., wrote that the member of Congress from that district had been asked to make a study of the amount of moneys being spent in the program.

"We are always interested," he added, in any energy source that could at some time in the not distant future replace oil as a source of energy and therefore, as I have said before, have already taken steps to help in whatever way possible to help stop the flow of government capital into this program."

W. E. Turner of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association replied the proposal was being transmitted to the chairman of the group's legal and engineering committee for evaluation and that it may be "given an airing" at the next policy session.

The Fourth Sunday of Advent, the last before Christmas, will bring many people to the churches across this nation of ours. This speaks of the deep yearning inside of us to worship the Almighty God. It also tells us that this one time of the year when most people are filled to the brim with open - hearted friendliness, and glad songs of joy, that at this moment when all of us are busy, we pause and listen.

We listen for the angel song, strain our eyes for the Christmas star, and with a humble heart kneel with the Wise Men beside the cradle of the Babe.

We also offer promises to Him, we give and receive gifts, but the most important gift is not the ones we give or receive from our loved ones. Are we prepared to light the four candles of advent, to listen to the story of the birth, to have our spirits renewed, and to humble ourselves and cry out to God for forgiveness? We can, and we must, and in the doing, we will be blessed.

The sermon this week brought by Rev. Gordon asked the question, "What Am I Giving Jesus For Christmas?" The scripture background is taken from Luke 1:26-35. Matthew 1:18-23, 2:9-11. Read these and come prepared for worship.

The Christmas pageant will be presented at 7 p.m. Each person is asked to bring a white gift of food for a needy family which the church has adopted.

White House Chistmas Tree To Be Illuminated Tonight

By MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential flip of a switch will set 5,000 red and white lights shining on the national Christmas tree this evening.

The President and Mrs. Johnson plan to attend the program at the tree at 6:40 p.m. EST on the park area behind the White House grounds.

The tree is the center of the "Pageant of Peace," which includes 50 white spruces representing each state, six reindeer from the National Zoo, a creche with life-size figures and a pit for yule-log burning.

The 71-foot national tree comes from the Adirondack Mountains of New York state and is decorated with 200 gold balls.

The executive mansion already shines with the decorations of Christmas, and the Johnsons have had two holiday receptions and plan three more before they leave to spend Christmas at their Texas ranch.

Their official greetings also are beginning to go out in the mail. The greeting cards bear a black and white etching of the White House, with the two oaks planted by the Johnsons this year in the foreground.

The greeting inside says, "With our warm wishes for a joyous Christmas and a happy new year." The greeting card will go to officials both here and abroad.

Members of the White House staff received Thursday night larger water-color paintings from which the etching was made.

Inside their gifts was a scroll saying that "one of our happiest family times was the planting of two oaks . . . At this season when friends and families occupy our thoughts we hope — with this water color your thoughts may turn to the passage from James Russell Lowell. 'Each year to ancient friendships add a ring as to an oak.'"

Almost 2,000 members of the White House staff and Executive Office Building filled the main floor of the White House Thursday night for the traditional party for the staff. The Johnsons received them in the Blue Room for about half an hour.

Just before the President lights the national tree, a congressional tree will be lighted on the Capitol grounds by Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., president pro tempore of the Senate.

Gov. Sanders' Yule Cards Display Unexpected Etching

ATLANTA (AP) — Democratic Gov. Carl E. Sanders' Christmas cards were turning into collector's items today as investigators tried to solve the mystery of the name "Goldwater" in tiny letters on the cards.

The governor was miffed, the student who created the etching of the Georgia governor's mansion was puzzled and there was talk of disciplinary action if a culprit could be found.

The "Goldwater" was discovered Thursday etched among tree branches on the front of an estimated 12,000 cards mailed by the staunch Democrat whose state, for the first time, supported a Republican presidential candidate, Sen. Barry Goldwater, last November.

Sanders displayed a mixture of amusement and irritation when he discovered what had happened, an aide said.

But the governor emphasized the additional lettering was so small it did not change the intent of the card one bit. "It still says Merry Christmas from the Sanders family to their friends," he pointed out.

The etching was drawn by Ken Williams, a graduate art student at the University of Georgia, who was recommended by the university to do the job.

Williams said flatly that he did not add the Goldwater lettering to the etching but saw it on the plate before he mailed it.

"I didn't know what to do about it, so I didn't do anything," said the student whose home is in Melbourne, Fla.

Lamar Dodd, head of the university's art department, described Williams as an outstanding honor student. "I would like to clear up this mystery, and it is a mystery," said Dodd.

He added that if faith has been broken or if the matter involves a question of integrity, there was a possibility the university's disciplinary committee might look into the situation.

In any case, the governor's Christmas cards are much in demand.

One capitol source pointed out most of the cards went to Democrats and said:

"They might make a killing by selling them to Republicans."

Mexican Governor Dies In California

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — The sheriff's office said Gov. Eligio Esquivel Mendez of Mexico's Baja California died here Thursday night after suffering an apparent heart attack. He was 55.

Sheriff-Coroner Herbert Hughes said Esquivel became ill at an El Centro restaurant and was driven to a motel by his chauffeur. When he arrived at the motel, he was having trouble breathing and the driver attempted to call his physician but could not locate him, the sheriff said.

Fire department efforts to revive the governor were not successful.

"From what I can gather, he had just decided to take a ride," Hughes said of Esquivel's presence in El Centro.

His residence is in Mexicali, the capital of Baja California.

Pecos Man Charged With Embezzling

PECOS, Tex. (AP) — Jim Coats, 44, former vice president of the Pecos First National Bank, has been charged with embezzling $67,713 from the bank.

Coats, a civic leader in this West Texas town, was arrested Thursday.

He was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner R. L. Toll and went free under $5,000 bond.

The complaint accuses Coats of embezzling the funds early this year. He resigned his bank position Aug. 4, saying he wanted to work full time at farming interests.

Coats has a wife and three children.

Bump Brings Sight To Blind Woman

DALLAS (AP) — Friends this closed Thursday that a blind woman has regained her vision after 17 years, apparently from bumping her head on a cupboard door.

The woman, declining to be quoted by name, told a Dallas Times Herald reporter:

"I feel that it is a gift from God and I do not want it publicized. It is a gift which might be taken away."

Friends gave this account:

The woman, in her 60s, stooped to pick something off the floor while doing housework, and reached down and ran to investigate, still clutching a can of cleanser in one hand.

"What a pretty can," the mother remarked, and both suddenly realized she could see again.

Since losing sight, the woman had learned to read braille and had adjusted to living alone and taking care of herself. She was forced to give up teaching music.

An eye specialist said there was no way of determining whether blindness might return.

"These things do sometimes happen," he said. "I cannot tell you how long it will last."

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fertify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. You in the Church and the Church in you form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

THE "Circuit Riders" of yesterday were Prophets of The Long Trail. Those noblemen read their Bibles by candlelight and preached wherever men would assemble. Their little churches were very ordinary but a serious minded people attended them. After a week of hard labor from which they earned their living these men of God would drive many miles to break The Word of Life to a hungry people.

THESE men were God's men, first and last. They were committed to do His will...to bring His message to the careless, sinful and needy. They asked only for people who would listen. Their ministries were sincere. Their churches were sacred places which were used to mold men for God. Disbelief of the inspiration of the Scriptures, or the divine origin of Christianity were not tolerated. The unfaithful were "turned out."

THESE servants of God were imbued with such love that they counted no sacrifice too great. They carried books and Bibles and tracts for hungry minds. They brought comfort to lonely spirits; the Touch of God for the healing souls. Thank God then for the church and for these Prophets of The Long Trail.
