Hitler's Position Cemented by Failure of Latest Coup

HINDENBURG IS SAID IN FAVOR OF HIS METHOD

Von Papen Is Kept to His Estate; Jews
Will Profit

BERLIN, July 2. (U.P.)—Hitler is stronger than ever after a bloody weekend in which at least 24 Nazi high officials were executed, killed while resisting arrest or listed as suicides.

Ernst Roehm, storm troop chief of staff and leader of the revolt, was executed at Munich Sunday, after failing to "take the opportunity" which in Germany means to kill oneself.

President Paul von Hindenburg telegraphed Hitler and Hermann Goering, minister of propaganda, approving the suppression of the revolt and thanking them in behalf of the nation.

The government officially denied that Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen, Pres. Hindenburg's friend and Junkers leader, had been executed or had committed suicide. He was said to be under police surveillance at his estate.

The government said all executions followed summary court martial proceedings at Berlin and Munich.

Germany was quiet, but an atmosphere of tension was general. The end of the radical element of Nazism is expected to result in mitigation of the virulent anti-Jew policy which has torn Germany recently.

Pecos to Have Gala Celebration the 4th

PECOS.—The true spirit of the old West, under which Pecos, as a struggling cowtown, began its existence, will again overtake the city and rightfully assert itself during the big rodeo and cowboy reunion to be held here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Horse races will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock on the Legion track. Other entertainment features include sport events, and dancing.

Fake Money Traced To a 'Box Car' Ring

Spurious money passed in Midland last week has been traced by the Midland sheriff's office and by the secret service to a box car ring, to "bums" who ride the trains equipped with plaster paris and low grade babbitt.

So announced the sheriff's office and J. L. Brownlow of El Paso, the latter of the secret service.

Praise of the sheriff's office was made by Brownlow, who said "The entire case was worked out before I got here. The sheriff's department had made two arrests, made a thorough investigation, fingerprinted those charged and otherwise was cooperative." He said Midland county officers have always distinguished themselves in the past for their law enforcement and for cooperation with other officials.

The men held in jail gave their names as Fred E. McMurry and Lee Fitzhugh.

Judge Klapproth To Address Clubs

District Judge Chas. L. Klapproth will deliver a patriotic address at the joint meeting of Rotary and Lions clubs here Thursday, it was announced this morning by Percy J. Mims and W. Stevens, program committeemen.

The joint session follows an invitation from Rotarians to the Lions because the Lions meeting day falls on July fourth. Mims represents the Rotarians and Stevens the Lions in arranging a program. Musical numbers also will be given.

Church of Christ Revival in August

A revival will be begun at the Church of Christ the first Sunday in August, it was decided Sunday when officers of the church met.

K. C. Tucker, minister, will conduct the meeting, to last two weeks.

Early Edition of Newspaper On July 4th

The Wednesday, July 4, edition of The Reporter-Telegram will go to press either Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning and will be delivered by carriers that morning instead of in the afternoon.

Advertisers and subscribers will please bear this in mind.

It is the desire of the management of the newspaper to allow its employees to have a full holiday on July 4 and the cooperation of everyone will be appreciated.

To Call Tuesday's Game At 5; Family Day on Wed.

Tomorrow's classic ball game between Midland and San Angelo at Municipal park in Midland is set for 5 o'clock so NRA workers who get off at 4:30 and 5 can attend, as well as those who can "call their time their own."

Wednesday is Family day at the park. As that game comes on July 4, a holiday, the game will be called at 3:30 and a family of any size can get in for only $1.

Admission July 4 is 25 cents and that is good for a grandstand seat, but any family, provided it is parents and children, of from five to 12 members can see the game for a total of $1.

Fathers and mothers are reminded that the big game July 4 with San Angelo is the only general entertainment event offered in Midland, so they are urged to take the whole family to the game that day.

It is expected a large crowd of fans, including oil men, store clerks, stenographers and laborers who get off from work at 5 o'clock will see the game tomorrow. John Butler, secretary of the ball club, said Tuesday's game would start "absolutely on the dot" so fans can see the whole game before supper time.

T. J. Richards, Former Midland Flyer, Balks at Question of British Jurists

Partly because a former Midland airman, T. J. Richards, reckoned as how he didn't rate as an authority in animal psychology, Tex. Aisin, wild west rodeo impresario, can look any man in England in the face today and say he never frightened that steer.

An Associated Press dispatch from London, where Richards went with Austin's rodeo bunch recently, has the following to say about the matter:

A police court dismissed all summonses against Austin and assessed costs of a trial against the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, which had accused the American of "terrifying an animal, to wit, a steer" at the White City rodeo.

Panama Newspaper Says Midland Boy at Controls of Plane on Errand of Mercy

A local chapter to the navy's heroic flight across the Caribbean sea on an errand of mercy was written into the dash from Coco Solo, Z., to the Galapagos islands, when it was learned today that Prather Benedict of Midland, and Mrs. C. P. Benedict of Midland, was at the controls of one of the big naval bombers.

Information came through a Cristobal dispatch carried by the Panama American, independent morning newspaper.

Followers of the account in the daily press recall that William A. Robinson, well known American writer and explorer, was suddenly stricken with acute appendicitis while on a homebound cruise on his yacht "Svaap" along the shoreline of the Galapagos.

Lieut.-Commander R. W. Hutchinson and Lieut. O. C. Harbrough, navy medics who made the 1,200 mile flight, reported Robinson out of danger when the big navy planes set down at Coco Solo May 25, to end the return flight. The explorer was then en route to Balboa, where he was to enter a hospital for further attention. He had been transferred in the meantime to the Hale, naval destroyer that was rushing to the man's aid under full steam even while the big planes from VP-5 were battling headwinds that caused them to require more than 12 hours to complete the flight.

According to Commander Robert P. Mollen, in charge of the flight, when Robinson was taken on ill, Mrs. Robinson advised Captain Anton Hage, Norwegian master of the tuna fisher "Santa Cruz" of San Diego. Capt. Hage immediately took charge of the situation. He told Mrs. Robinson to proceed to Tagus Cove, promising he would stand by. For-

German Mutiny Assumes Serious Significance

"Steel Helmets" vs. "Brown Shirts"

Steel Helmets and Brown Shirts Said Cause of Trouble

BY MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 2.—Steel helmets versus Brown Shirts—that has been the issue underground and sometimes openly in Germany for months.

The Steel Helmets would appear to be on top. For the Fuehrer, Adolf Hitler himself, has begun to restrict the playful activities of the Brown Shirts in the way of attacking and attempting to suppress the Steel Helmets. More of these clashes have occurred in Germany than had come out in the news. Saturday's fatal coup showed the full significance of the trend.

Victory For Right Wing

In Hamburg, for instance, the great city where the revolution of 1918 reached its peak before any other place, fights between Steel Helmets and Brown Shirts had been of frequent occurrence. But the limit was thought to have been reached recently when Franz Seidte, head of the Steel Helmets and Labor Minister in the Nazi government, was hissed and stoned by a bunch of Hitler youths. Seidte took his troubles to Hitler and demanded a showdown. It came promptly. Hitler issued orders that the Steel Helmets were to be left alone. Nor would he give ear to the demand that the Helmets be completely absorbed by the Storm Troopers. Instead, they are to remain what they have always been, a separate and independent body.

In its essence this was rather a victory for the forces of the Right over those of the Left in the Nazi regime. By comparison with the Steel Helmets, the Brown Shirts are rank parvenus. In the stormy days following the revolution of 1918, the Steel Helmets were organized. The association was composed entirely of officers and men who had served at the front. They were mature men who knew what they were doing. They were conservatives, who hated the republican regime and hoped for a return to the good old days of monarchy. Through all the years of the republic they maintained their organization and strengthened it.

Brown Shirt Setbacks

In the meantime, also, during that same wave the Brown Shirts got cocky in a way that irritated the Steel Helmets. Brown Shirts swaggered through the streets. Brown Shirts took the law into their own hands. Brown Shirts demanded that, when the army was increased in size, they should be incorporated in it by wholesale. They got their first knock when the officers of the Reichswehr 1st Hitler know in no uncertain terms that they would not stand for it. Since then the bitterness between the Steel Helmets and the Brown Shirts has increased. The war veterans comprising the Helmets have nothing but contempt for the raw, unbacked youths who largely make up the Brown Shirts. Brown Shirts, backed by the authority of the government, may be able to terrorize the ordinary citizen, but to the Steel Helmets they are only amateurs.

The Brown Shirts recently had to swallow another bitter pill. It has been announced that for the month of July they were to be put temporarily out of commission. They were not to appear in their shirts. They were not to parade. They were to be on a vacation. They were to do useful work if they could find any. The answer is that they have been costing the German (See STEEL HELMETS, Page Four)

Notable victims in the thwarted uprising in Nazi storm troops in Germany were Gen. Kurt von Schleicher, former Reich Chancellor and Reichswehr commander, and Frau von Schleicher, shown here. They were slain in their villa in Neubabelsberg, aristocratic Berlin suburb. Von Schleicher, Berlin report says, was shot down "while resisting arrest as a conspirator against the government."

PARTY IRES MAN SO HE KILLS 4 FOR DEATH QUIZ

EAST TAWAS, Michigan, July 2. (U.P.)—A. J. Woods, 53, was arrested today on murder charges in connection with Sunday's slaying of four persons and the serious wounding of another following a party which Woods said interrupted his sleep.

Victims are Dr. Stanley Somers, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hayes, and Sheriff Charles Miller, who visited the house when he heard the shooting. Roy Hickey was wounded, police said.

BACK FROM OKLAHOMA Visit with Father

Mrs. M. A. Erickson, former Midland resident living at Alta Loma, has just returned from a month's vacation in the Ozark mountains in Arkansas, according to a letter received here.

LIBRARY TO CLOSE

The library will observe the national holiday July 4, allowing its employees a day "off." It was announced today by Mrs. D. Branch, librarian in charge during the vacation of Miss Marguerite Hester.

MAN COULDN'T TAKE 'NO' FOR AN ANSWER

DALLAS, July 2. (U.P.)—Hugh Davis, 50, today shot and killed three persons because they refused to go picnicking with him and then committed suicide.

Victims were Mrs. Sally Carson, 40, Davis' former wife; Mrs. Julia Patrick Moore, 70; Sam Carson, 17, Mrs. Carson's son.

Mrs. Frank Richards, Mrs. Carson's daughter-in-law, saw the shooting and said the boy was shot first.

Bodies of the women were found in a back room of the house, the boy's "in the doorway to the front room and Davis' on the rear steps. A shotgun lay nearby."

Police learned that Davis, for many years a commercial fisherman, invited the trio on a picnic Sunday night at his fishing camp at Bachman's dam and that they refused.

Will Gates Competes In Roping Contest

Will V. Gates, veteran cowman of Midland and Andrews, has gone to Stamford to compete in the old time roping contest, it was announced today. Gates, who has twirled the lariat since boyhood, formerly ranked among the fastest of the non-professional ropers and was expected to finish here to be a strong contender for the $350 prize saddle to be awarded in the contest. Ropers in this division must be 55 years or older.

Cooksey Posts 12 Sec. Time on Calf

Ab Cooksey roped and tied a calf in 12 seconds flat at Pecos the other day, according to The Pecos Enterprise.

The time was made when Cooksey and Louis Roberson were matched against Hardin Ross and Curtis McElroy in a "warming up" roping preparatory to the Jecus July 3 and 4 celebration.

Cooksey confessed that he may have "taken a jump" on the starter.

Mollie B. Bagley Rides in Contest

Miss Mollie B. Bagley, Midland's sponsor to the Cowboy reunion at Stamford, today entered the girls' riding contest on "Chigger," owned by Fred Turner.

Arrangements for the horse were made by W. W. Brunson and J. C. Roberts took the horse to Stamford.

Results of the contest had not been learned at deadline.

Miss Bagley was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Pearl Currie.

Hunter to Speak Here on Recovery

Tom Hunter, of Wichita Falls, candidate for governor, will speak in Midland on Saturday night, July 7, at 8:30 o'clock, according to word received from his state headquarters at Wichita Falls. Hunter will come to Midland from Abilene where he will speak Friday night, July 6, from Midland to El Paso where he will speak on Monday night, July 9. Returning from El Paso, he has Pecos scheduled for Tuesday night, July 10, and San Angelo on Wednesday night, July 11.

In his appearance at Midland, Hunter will outline his program for state recovery, the program which he is basing his candidacy for governor.

Two years ago, Hunter, then comparatively unknown in many sections of the state, polled more than 220,000 votes in the first primary, running a close third in that race.

In charge of Hunter's campaign in Midland county is Hugh Corrigan of Midland, who is making arrangements for the candidate's speaking engagement here.

Hunter is drawing large crowds everywhere and is attracting comment through his program for a state recovery. At Waco he spoke before a crowd of more than eight thousand people recently. At Lubbock a few nights ago he had an audience of more than thirty-five hundred," Corrigan said.

Tabulations kept by Hunter's office show that in the last 46 days Hunter has spoken before more than 100,000 voters, word from his Wichita Falls office says.

2nd Caravan Party To Spend Night Here

A party of 45 school teachers will spend the night of Aug. 20 in Midland. This is the second party of travelers brought by the John L. Movers Tour company of Atlanta, Ga., through negotiations with the Midland chamber of commerce. The party is traveling in two buses over the western part of the United States. The teachers will arrive in the afternoon and spend the night at the Llano hotel.

The Town Quack

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything with taking a stand on anything).

Conversation heard on the streets this morning:

"Where are you goin' the fourth?"

"Midland."

"What's doin' there?"

"Nothin'. Absolutely nothin'."

Ain't it the truth. This is the first fourth of July in several years when there hasn't been something in the way of races, polo, barbecue, candidates speaking or something.

There is a baseball game and I hope everybody in town will take it in. The Colts will have a hard tussle against the Angelo team and it should be worth seeing.

However, I am betting there will be as many Midland people to leave town as there will be at the ball game. The men who ordinarily stage the rodeos and race meets say it's too dry to put one on this year.

But when the fourth rolls around there will be as much money spent by the home people going to see some entertainment as it would take to have a good entertainment at home.

Up at Amarillo, Old Tack accidentally got into a big foot contest.

Six Film Stars Romp in Latest Crosby Vehicle

Bing Crosby, Carole Lombard, Burns and Allen, Ethel Merman and Leon Errol.

That's a cast of which any single member could "carry" a picture—but they are all together in a refreshing new South Sea island adventure film, "The Thin Man," at the Ritz Theatre today and tomorrow.

"We're Not Dressing" is the Paramount vehicle in which the six stars of Hollywood combine their talents to create a swift-moving picture of song and action.

Bing Crosby portrays a two-fisted sea-faring man with a voice and heart of gold, who works aboard the yacht of Miss Lombard.

The ship sinks, but Crosby and Miss Lombard escape, along with the heiress' guests—Miss Merman, Errol and the fortune-seeking prince, Jay Henry and Ray Milland.

They all paddle their way to a South Sea island and there—suddenly jerked from the lap of luxury—attempts to wrest a living from nature.

How Bing puts them to work, and how Miss Lombard discovers, on the other side of the island, the camp of George Burns and Gracie Allen, big-game hunters, builds a climax which brings them all together in a tumult of thrills, laughs and songs.

Song hits for Crosby were written by the Paramount team of Mack Gordon and Harry Revel. Equally catchy lyrics by Miss Merman give the picture more than its share of melody.

"THE THIN MAN"

The surprise picture thus far this year is "The Thin Man" starring William Powell and Myrna Loy, now showing at the Yucca. It is not surprising that the picture is good entertainment, with Powell and Loy, but the picture is so decidedly different from what one would think from the title "The Thin Man" that the picture deserves an excellent rating.

"The Thin Man" deviates from the ordinary run of pictures of a mystery nature—there is a mystery in it, but it is handled in a delightful manner. The picture is a wise-crack after another between the two stars. Nat Pendleton, the big dumb-faced fellow, is a welcome addition to the cast. Critics say "Excellent."

Scientific tests have indicated that a bee's eyes are only about 1 percent as efficient as a human being's.

state a lot of money. And the state is in a bad way financially. A doubt is creeping into the minds of the Brown Shirt leaders as to whether they will ever again be called into active service. August will reveal what the future holds in store for them.

Hitler's Attitude
There are some indications that Hitler is tired of them. He may kick over the ladder by which he mounted to power. With the Reichswehr, the magnificent Prussian police force and General Goering's secret police, Hitler has enough armed forces to maintain the regime against everything except a political hurricane—and such a storm was suppressed Saturday with the arrest of many high leaders who struck at a time when they thought the civil disturbance had weakened Hitler.

In the meantime, also, the Steel Helmets, maintained at full strength, will serve as a conservative balance against the Brown Shirts, should the latter again get restless. The Steel Helmets favor the nationalism in national socialism. The Brown Shirts, as a whole, favor the socialism in national socialism. Back of national-

Men's Class Counts
118 Men on Sunday

Attendance at the Men's class of Hotel Scharbauer Sunday was 118. Sam Warren and Andrew Northington, leaders of the north side, had 9 more present than the south side, leaving them only 14 behind in the contest. Warren said a big percentage of his increase was from boys and young men who usually spend their Sundays on the streets.

The Men's quartet, composed of Joe Seymour, A. B. Coleman, J. R. Crump and Cleve Baker, sang and was encored. Miss Vivian Arnett, class pianist, is accompanist for the quartet.

Mayme Lou Parr
Is Howard Agent

BIG SPRING.—Miss Mayme Lou Parr, who for the past five years has been stationed at Waco as demonstration agent for McLennan county, will arrive here today to assume her duties as agent for Howard county.

Announcement of Miss Parr's appointment as agent was made here Friday by Miss Gertrude L. Blodgett, district agent. Beside her tenure in McLennan county, Miss Parr has spent several years in the extension service and has had a varied experience as a demonstration agent.

Howard county commissioners court recently voted unanimously to hire an agent to work with the county agent in a cooperative program for farm recovery.

MIDLAND BLANKED, 11-0
Midland's Colts tripped on the first hurdle of the second half of the Permian basin schedule when Iraan, behind superb pitching, blanked the locals at Iraan Sunday afternoon, 11-0.

The loss of the first game of the new half was particularly discouraging in view of intense hopes entertained here for winning the right to go into a playoff with Odessa for the bunding.

OIL NOTES

Latest reports from Ector county show that good time is being made on the York and Harper No. 1. Frank Bates, 663 feet from the north line and 666 feet from the east line of section 38, block 44, township 2 south, T. & P. Railway survey, is drilling in anyhydrite at 3665 feet.

A considerable number of oil men and ranchers from around Midland spent Sunday watching C. J. (Red) Davidson No. 1 Cummins, 660 feet from the north and west lines, section 10, block 45, township 1 north, T. & P. Railway survey, Ector county. This well has reached a bottom of 4451 feet and is drilling in dark brown dolomite.

Mr. P. F. Brown, Texas manager of the Honolulu Oil company, has returned from a business trip to Dallas and Houston.

Landreth No. 1 Scharbauer, 660 feet from the south and east lines of section 20, block 44, township 1 north, T. & P. Railway survey, Ector county, is drilling in anhydrite at 2770 feet.

The land and geological department of the Texas company has moved in to more commodious quarters on the sixth floor of the Petroleum building.

Health M. Robinson of Dallas, vice-president of the Penn Oil company, is in town for a few days on company business.

AIRMAIL POSTAGE DROP

More extensive use of the airmail here, regardless of its being sent to Big Spring or other connections, is forecast by John P. Howe, postmaster, in the drop of rates effective July 1. Then the postage cost drops from 8 to 6 cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

The airmail rate heretofore has been 8 cents for the first ounce and 13 cents for each additional ounce or fraction of an ounce.

It will be seen under the new rate that 6 cents will cover each ounce or fraction thereof regardless of the distance the mailed article is to be sent. Thus, an article weighing 4 1-2 ounces may be sent by airmail for 30 cents.

"I notice that you smoke Chesterfields also. I like them very much."
