Miss Bonner Returns From National Demo Rules Session

Lola L. Bonner returned Saturday from Washington, D.C., where she attended the meetings of the Rules Committee of the National Democratic Committee. Only five delegates from Texas were selected to the Rules Committee, one of whom was not Miss Bonner as of June 13th at State Convention in San Antonio. She received a call late Sunday evening, June 18th, advising that she had replaced a male member of the Committee and was expected to be in Washington by the morning of June 21st to begin her duties.

The duties of the Rules Committee entail the adoption of Rules for National Convention and the manner of selecting delegates to such Convention. The Temporary Chairman, however, had a surprise in store for the 150-member Committee. Under the Mandate for Reform emanating from the chaos of the 1968 National Convention, a Commission for Reform was established and the report of the O'Hara-Fraser Commission given to the Rules Committee for approval, rejection or amendment.

Not very many members of the Committee knew that the National Committee had no Charter and that the National Convention was sustained for each four-year period by Resolution. The proposed Charter, its review, amendment and final adoption consumed most of the members' time during their three-day stay in Washington.

The basic provisions of the proposed Charter called for a broad base party, solid financing and a turn away from State Party influence. Under the proposal, three levels of the Democratic Party were to be established: the first, a National Policy Conference consisting of 1900 lay persons elected by State Parties; members of the Democratic National Committee; 340 State Governors, Senators and U.S. Representatives; and 100 State Legislative Leaders, for a total Policy Conference of 3317 persons meeting each even numbered year between National Conventions. The second level was a 371-member Democratic National Committee and the third level the National Executive Committee of 21 persons, with the National Convention remaining the supreme authority of the Democratic Party.

It likewise provided that delegates from congressional districts to regional and national

City Council Not To Intervene In Election Contest

The City Council, by a split vote of two to one, Monday night declined to intervene in the election contest suit filed by Joe Lister involving his race for city alderman from Ward 1 on April 1 in which he was barely beaten by incumbent Joe "Pepe" Zambrano.

The suit is scheduled to be heard by District Judge Joe Wade at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, June 29.

At the Council meeting Monday night, Mayor Pro Tem N.F. Jackson presided in the absence of Mayor Walter Falk. Also present were Aldermen Charlie Garrett, Murray McMillan and Zambrano. Since Zambrano is involved in the suit, he was not permitted to enter into the Council discussion or to vote on any action pertaining to the suit.

City Attorney Dave Connelly explained that if the City voted to intervene in the suit, "such action would give the city the status of being a party in the case."

After lengthy discussion, McMillan made a motion that the city not intervene at this time. Jackson seconded the motion.

In the voting, McMillan and Jackson voted in favor of the motion not to intervene. Garrett voted against it. So the action carried by a vote of two to one.

Lister was defeated by two votes in the election by Zambrano. A third candidate received 44 votes.

Miss Lola L. Bonner is the attorney representing Lister. William H. Bloch is the attorney representing Zambrano.

Official canvass of votes in the April election showed Zambrano with 78 votes to 77 for Lister. The city council conducted a recount that resulted in Zambrano credited with 79 votes to 77 for Lister.

At a recent hearing, Miss Bonner told the court two of the voters in Ward 1 had registration certificates that showed them ineligible to vote until April 2, that one person voted on the aldermanic race who lived outside the city limits and that four residents of Ward 1 were denied the right to vote in their ward.

She said the boundaries of the county voting precincts and those of the city wards do not coincide. The voter registration certificates of the four persons involved showed them residents of County Voting Precinct 2 and they were required to vote in the Ward 2 race, Miss Bonner said.

Bloch contended it is not known who any of these people voted for, that the court has no authority to change votes from Ward 2 to Ward 1 and has no authority to go into the stub boxes unless fraud and who committed the fraud is alleged. Bloch said the votes questioned by the petition could well have been cast for the third candidate.

Predict 58 Deaths Over 4th of July

AUSTIN--Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents would claim 58 lives in Texas during the 102-hour July 4th holiday weekend from 6 p.m. Friday, June 30 to midnight Tuesday, July 4.

The DPS director said that if the holiday is typical, approximately one-third of the fatal accidents will involve only one vehicle.

Traffic law violations will contribute to many of the fatal mishaps with the major factors including speed too fast for conditions and driving while intoxicated.

In an effort to hold the toll down, Speir said the DPS, local law enforcement agencies, and the news media of Texas will cooperate in a special "Operation Motorcade" program. Information on fatal collisions will be tabulated at DPS Headquarters in Austin and released three times per day during the holidays in an effort to increase driver awareness.

All available Department of Public Safety patrolmen will be on duty, placing special emphasis on drinking and reckless drivers. Across the state, many city police departments and county sheriff's departments will have extra personnel assigned to intensified enforcement efforts.

"I urge all Texans and visitors to put on their best driving manners and actively join in the 'Operation Motorcade' effort so that this July 4th holiday might be as safe as possible," Speir said.

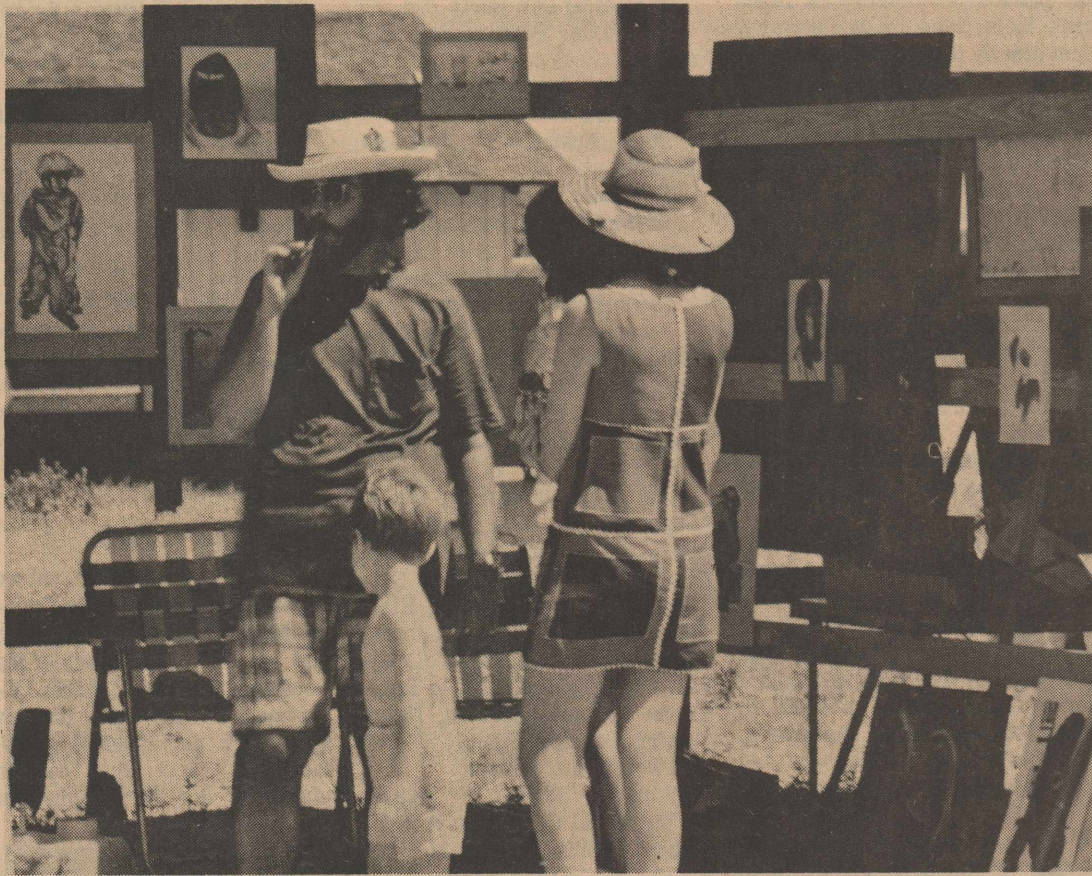

Vacation Church School Scheduled

The Presbyterians and the Methodists will hold a joint Vacation Church School July 10-14 from 8:45 to 11:00 a.m. at the Presbyterian Church for children from kindergarten I through 6th grade.

The theme is "Live in Harmony with One Another", Romans 12:16. The following units will be studied: Kindergarten I - "I Wonder", Kindergarten II - "God's Plan for Families", I and II - "Being the Church", III and IV - "The Church Is God's Family", V and VI - "Paul - Apostle of Good News".

Third Annual Art Festival Scheduled for July 2 and 3

IT'S ART ALL THE WAY — More than 8,000 spectators are expected to throng the special cabanas of the Rockport Racquet and Yacht Club July 2 and 3. It's the third annual Art Festival sponsored by the Rockport Art Association, an event that has already attracted over 124 artists and craftsmen from all over Texas and as far away as Georgia. The 1971 Festival drew some 5,000 persons, and crowds exceeding that number are expected to view the various arts and crafts from noon 'till 9 p.m. during the two-day holiday weekend.

The windswept live oaks and sandy bay of Rockport once again form an appropriate background for artists and spectators at the 3rd annual Art Festival sponsored by the Rockport Art Association on July 2 and 3.

The holiday weekend already has attracted 124 artists and craftsmen from every part of Texas and many out-of-staters. They will exhibit their works in specially constructed cabanas erected at the new Rockport Racquet and Yacht Club on Fulton Beach Road. Virtually every medium known in the art world will be on display in the sunny sands of Rockport.

Included in the show will be oils, acrylics, watercolors, pastels, metal sculpture, caricatures, wood sculpture, macrame, collage, crafts, pottery, stitchery, graphics, decoupage, batik, papier mache and rugs. The arts and crafts show is expected to draw some 8,000 spectators. Exhibits will open at noon and close at 9 p.m. on both days of the show. There is no admission charge and food and beverages are available. There will be live music all day. This year's event is expected to exceed the 5,000 which attended the 1971 Festival.

A new event this year will be the awarding of an original watercolor by Bud Biggs, noted artist and illustrator from Richardson. Proceeds go to the American Cancer Society.

The Rockport Art Association is made up of over 100 members and has an ultimate goal of providing Aransas County with a permanent Art Museum, Gallery and Studio.

Countywide Sewer System Being Considered Here

First step in the direction of a possible county-wide sanitary sewage system was taken June 20 when directors of the Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District conferred with representatives of the engineering firm of Lockwood, Andrews and Newman, Inc. of Corpus Christi.

Purpose of the meeting, which was in the county courthouse, was to hear proposals from the engineers as to availability of funds from federal and state agencies, first, to finance a survey on the basis of which a grant of construction funds might later be sought. It is anticipated that the engineering firm selected to make the survey would handle the project itself if it is undertaken.

A second engineering company, Nalsmith Engineers, Inc., is scheduled to appear before the district's board July 5. A third firm also has indicated its interest in presenting a proposal to the district.

Representing Lockwood, Andrews and Newman at the meeting were Henry Deford, manager of the firm's Corpus Christi office, and Dave Woodward, engineer. This firm handled engineering work on the local water pipeline project for the district. Also present at the meeting was Laddy Janacek of the First Southwest Co., who provided financial guidance and bond marketing assistance for the pipeline project.

The Lockwood representative said it probably would be possible to get 75 percent of the required funds for a sewage system from state and federal agencies with the balance being financed through revenue bonds. The conservation and reclamation district has no taxing power, it was pointed out.

Jack McDavid, recently elected president of the district board and presiding for the first time, pointed out that the county-wide sanitary sewage project has not been approved and the current series of meetings with engineers is for the purpose of exploring its feasibility. All directors were present at the June 20 meeting of the board, including Frank Yosemite, appointed at the previous meeting to serve out the unexpired term of Harold Picton who had resigned.

Nationally, sales of E and H Savings Bonds amounting to $573 million were reported during May--24 percent above 1971 sales of $462 million. Why Stand When the Flag Goes By?

Editor's Note: With July 4 upcoming, the following patriotic release may be of interest. It was prepared by Reagan Brown, sociologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, after he heard a young boy ask his dad, "Why do we stand when the flag goes by?"

COLLEGE STATION --- At Texas A&M University home football games, the Corps of Cadets always marches in to the music of the Aggie Band. At one of these events, recently, I heard a young boy ask his dad, "Why do the people stand up when the flag goes by?" I didn't hear the father's answer, but I began to wonder how I would have answered him.

I think I would have begun by pointing to the live oak trees around the university drill field planted in memory of Texas A&M University students who gave their lives in World War I. After the game I would have taken him by the Memorial Student Center built in memory of over 900 Aggies, whose names are on a bronze plaque at the entrance. They gave their lives in the World Wars and those since. I would have also pointed out other memorials on the campus, those that remind us of sacrifices in the most recent wars.

Later, when I could have a quiet time with him, I would talk about Concord's Bridge, Shenandoah Valley, Flanders Field, St. Lo, Guadalcanal, Bastogne, Korea, and Viet Nam. I would mention to him my young Aggie friend, James Ray '63 of Conroe, who has been a prisoner of North Viet Nam for more than five years. And, of course, all the other young men imprisoned over there.

I would then talk of what our flag represents, what kind of country it flies over. I would remind him that America is the land of the refugee, the land of "the huddled masses longing to be free," and a land dedicated to justice, tranquility, and the general welfare of its people.

I would tell him of the average man and woman and the hundreds who have conquered the mountains, prairies, and plains. I would discuss with him how the very lines of the maps have been marked by the blood of hundreds who plowed and planted and fought and planned, and whose offspring have poured their abundance around the world to lift others. Then I would talk of the slant eyes, black faces, Nordic color, Irish enthusiasm, Italian grace, German laughter, Baptists, Catholics, Methodists, Texans, Yankees, Republicans, Democrats, and a thousand and one other tall, short, fat and thin people who call themselves Americans.

We would discuss the "land of the free," "home of the brave," the opportunity to climb the ladder of success according to ability and desire. Then we would talk of the philosophy of "how you play the game" and about "not who your Mama or Papa is," but what's your "life game plan." I would remind him how each man can worship God as he pleases, sing, whistle, dance, and cheer as his conscience dictates. Next we would discuss our responsibility to our neighbor, to our environment, to the minority, sick, lame, orphans, and those in their golden years.

Yes, as I thought about how I could answer, as I began to enumerate why we stand when the flag goes by, I caught myself standing there in the quietness of my office. The thoughts caught me up in a reverent respect and I wanted to cry out how much I love the land that has done so much for me. I thought of the nine boys in our company, Company G.272 Infantry, 69th Division, two of them were black, who were killed in World War II. I thought of all the schools, jobs, homes, hospitals, and families that make our country not perfect, but far ahead of any other country in the world.

That is the reason why we stand, my boy. So we can get a good look at the red, white, and blue as it passes by, representing all of those sacrifices, all those hopes, all of those things we want for future Americans. This flag going by gives you the privilege to keep sitting, if you want to. But if you are part of the fabric of those who have made it possible for you to rise up in respect, you by your actions will trigger a standing ovation. So stand tall when the flag goes by, so it can always pass your way again.

Miss Bonner—

conference would be eligible only if elected by enrolled, card carrying Democrats, registered with the National Party.

While the Texas Delegation tentatively accepted the structural proposals, they were opposed to the enrollment, card carrying Democrat provisions because of the envisioned difficulty of effectuating such a system in Texas. They had very little say in the matter as it developed. Completely dominated by McGovern supporters, the Committee, by eleven amendments, not only exhibited their agreement to the basic proposals of the Charter but amplified, magnified and enlarged them. By amendment, they increased the size of the National Policy Conference to 3888 members and eliminated Congressional Leaders from the National Executive Committee.

The McGovern and liberal Democrats began working from the moment of their arrival in Washington either Tuesday or Wednesday. A final coalition was formed by the Black Caucus; the Women's Political Caucus and the McGovern supporters, and in confidential meetings with Congressman Donald Fraser, cosponsor of the Charter, the compromise amendments to the proposal were worked out. The Texas Delegates were not invited to participate. Texas supported proposals by delegates from New Jersey and Colorado calling for alternative registration requirements when imposed by State Law. In each case, Congressman Fraser spoke against the proposals and they failed. As to the rejected Colorado proposal, Texas did file a minority report.

As Miss Bonner viewed it, the Charter was intended to either accomplish or lay the groundwork to accomplish the following:

1) Expansion of participation and voice in the Party by non-office holding Democrats such as blacks, browns, women, farm workers, laborers, among others;

2) Provide an assured source of revenue to the party by allowing various levels of membership dues, but not making dues a requirement of being a card carrying Democrat;

3) Encourage selection of delegates to all levels of Conventions by Democratic Voters and the abolition of the custom of State Parties to "hand pick" such delegates;

4) Provide ultimate authority by the National Party to discipline State Parties. The amendments, together with the Charter itself, will be presented to National Convention in Miami in July. No prediction is being made of their fates, but stiff opposition is expected.

One of Miss Bonner's observations when she returned from Washington was that she had noted only two minority groups during her visit—Conservative Texans and men.

Square Dances End for Summer

The Paws and Taws Square Dance Club will discontinue the regular Friday night dances for the summer months. The next regular Friday night square dance will be held September 1, and a new class will be started at that time.

A special square dance sponsored by the South Texas Association will be held at the Paws and Taws Club Building on Saturday night, July 22. Lem Smith, of Lawton, Oklahoma, will be the caller.

Library Story Hour

On June 23, Mrs. Murray McMillan gave the Story Hour. Her reading was delightful and the children were spellbound. On June 30, the story hour will be given by Mrs. Mary Layshock at 10:30 a.m. at the Library. The Story Hour is over at 11:00 a.m. and parents are requested to return promptly at this time as the Library closes from 11:00 a.m. until noon. It is hoped that many more children will attend the Story Hour. The age group is preschool through 1st grade.

shown at the front of the classroom. The simulated car is equipped with all the controls used in standard automobiles. The controls function exactly as they do in real cars.

Under the hood is an electronic "engine" with integrated circuits connected to a digital computer that tells the student immediately what action he should be taking if he varies from good driving procedures. The computer also scores the student's performance for the instructor.

At Rockport-Fulton High School, students will get 12 hours of behind-the-wheel instruction with the Drivotrainer system while on-the-road time in dual-control cars will be reduced from six to three hours.

Sixteen films and accompanying teacher's guides have been prepared for use with the Drivotrainer system by driver education specialists. The films contain a carefully programmed series of situations selected and filmed to develop judgment and build proper student driving attitude.

Advanced films prepare the student for handling emergency crises and for driving in bad weather. The movies provide opportunities to experience these extreme and dangerous situations in complete safety. AETNA's Drivocator system, the new multi-media teaching aid, will be used in the classroom phase of driver education. The advanced method, which coordinates 16 mm movies magnetic sound tape and 35 mm film strips, will assist an instructor in teaching up to 35 Rockport-Fulton High students at once.

The Drivocator system will encourage active class participation by requiring Rockport-Fulton High students to respond to programmed filmed questions and situations. Immediate and cumulative records of individual student and class responses are automatically recorded on instant-reading meters in a central console, giving the instructor a continuing progress report.

The curriculum, consists of 18 filmed lessons covering automobile operation from the physics and mechanics of driving to coping with highway emergencies.

Three other classes of ninety-nine students have completed or are taking Driver Education at the present time this summer by the conventional method.

NEW FIRE TRUCK ARRIVES — The new $26,000 fire truck of the Rockport Volunteer Fire Department arrived Sunday, driven here by Gilbert B. Hill, Sr., president of the Fire Department (shown above.)

Gilbert was employed by the Howell Fire Apparatus Company at Anderson, Ind., to take delivery of the truck and drive it to Rockport. He and his wife and their seven-year-old daughter, Dee Dee, flew to Anderson and then drove the truck to Rockport, a distance of about 1,400 miles.

Photos were taken of the Hills and the fire truck in Anderson and Memphis, Tenn., and when

The Council voted to accept the fire truck, subject to delivery of the missing items,

Memorial Emergency Service Described

An emergency room, such as the type in use at Memorial Hospital in Corpus Christi, is one of the newest and most effective facilities for providing emergency treatment for the injured and sick, according to Dr. James W. Wideman of Key Allegro, speaking at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club June 21 at Corky's Restaurant.

Dr. Wideman is in charge of the Memorial Hospital operation. It includes five doctors, 30 nurses, several orderlies and clerical help. He said the idea of an emergency room 24 hours a day with doctors and nurses on a contract basis originated in Alexandria, Va., and has been adopted by many large hospitals throughout the country. However, the plan is relatively new for Texas, he added.

Although functioning in connection with Memorial Hospital, the emergency room is independent of hospital administration. Emergency room doctors have no private practice and are paid salaries by corporation which has a contract with the hospital, Dr. Wideman explained.

Important advantages of this setup are that it frees hospital staff doctors from emergency room service, insures quick and effective treatment by qualified doctors for emergency victims and relieves the hospital's administrative staff of a great deal of routine work, Dr. Wideman said. Emergency room patients are treated and then dismissed or referred to hospital staff doctors for further treatment.

As an indication of extent to which this program is reducing the hospital's work load, Dr. Wideman said emergency room doctors treated 18,000 patients in 1970, twice that number in 1971 and they expect to handle about 40,000 patients this year. Following Hurricane Celia, the emergency room staff saw and treated more than 2,000 patients in four days, according to Dr. Wideman.

"We have the capacity to handle any kind of emergency treatment from a foreign object in the eye to a cardiac arrest case. The wide variety of emergencies we handle range from common colds to shootings, stabbings, swallowed objects and poisoning," he said.

Dr. Wideman paid tribute to the skill of Memorial Hospital staff doctors and the completeness of its equipment by declaring that the hospital was capable of treating any possible kind of illness or injury.

Large Bird

At maturity the California condor weighs up to 20 pounds and has wingspan nearly 10 feet across. It is often termed the largest North American land bird.

they went through Little Rock, Ark., a TV camera-man took a number of pictures.

The new fire truck will go into service after it is inspected by Fire Chief Coy Truelove, the Fire Department members and representatives of the City of Rockport. The city purchased the fire truck for the Fire Department.

The truck is equipped with a 750-per-minute water pump and other fire fighting facilities, has a Ford Chassis, a Ford V-8, 361 cubic inch engine, Allison automatic transmission with six forward speeds, a Federal siren system and a sound amplification system.

In another matter, W. C. Underwood of 1904 Glass Ave., appeared before the Council and said that he and at least 10 other residents in his neighborhood would appreciate it if the city would attempt to improve the drainage along Glass Avenue. The Council agreed to have an engineer study the situation and make a recommendation.

CHANGE IN VA REQUIREMENTS FOR DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

A lost birth certificate or marriage license no longer poses the problem it once did for veterans seeking veterans benefits, A.A. Hunter, Veterans Administration Regional Office Director, reports.

Less formal proof of marriage and birth are now acceptable, under a regulation instituted last October, when this information is needed to establish claims for higher benefit payments.

A veteran's or a widow's certified statement of marriage is now sufficient for applications for compensation and education benefits for veterans, widows and orphan children, provided neither he nor his wife has been married before, and VA has no contradictory information on file.

Hunter said prior to the change in regulations, VA required all statements of marriages and births to be supported by formalized documentary evidence.

A certified statement is acceptable also regarding the birth of a child of a veteran's marriage, and as proof of age and relationship, he added.

Operating Quail Ranch Requires Hard Work, Patience, and Ingenuity

"They sure are terrific multipliers."

That's what Dudley Prophet, Jr., said about the quail on Prophet's Quail Ranch which he, his wife, Carol, and their 16-year-old son, David, operate 2 1/2 miles northwest of Rockport, just off FM 1781.

Last September the Prophets started with 500 quail, the type called Pharaoh or Coturnix or Bible quail. Today, they have about 15,000.

They also started with 10 Pharaoh D-1 quail, an extra large size, and they now have approximately 3,300 of this species.

At the present time, restaurants are the main purchasers of the quail which are dressed and cleaned by Ruth and Oleta Jackson, packaged in transparent plastic bags, frozen and boxed.

In addition, the Prophets raise ducks, geese, ring-neck pheasants, chukars, guineas and cornish hens.

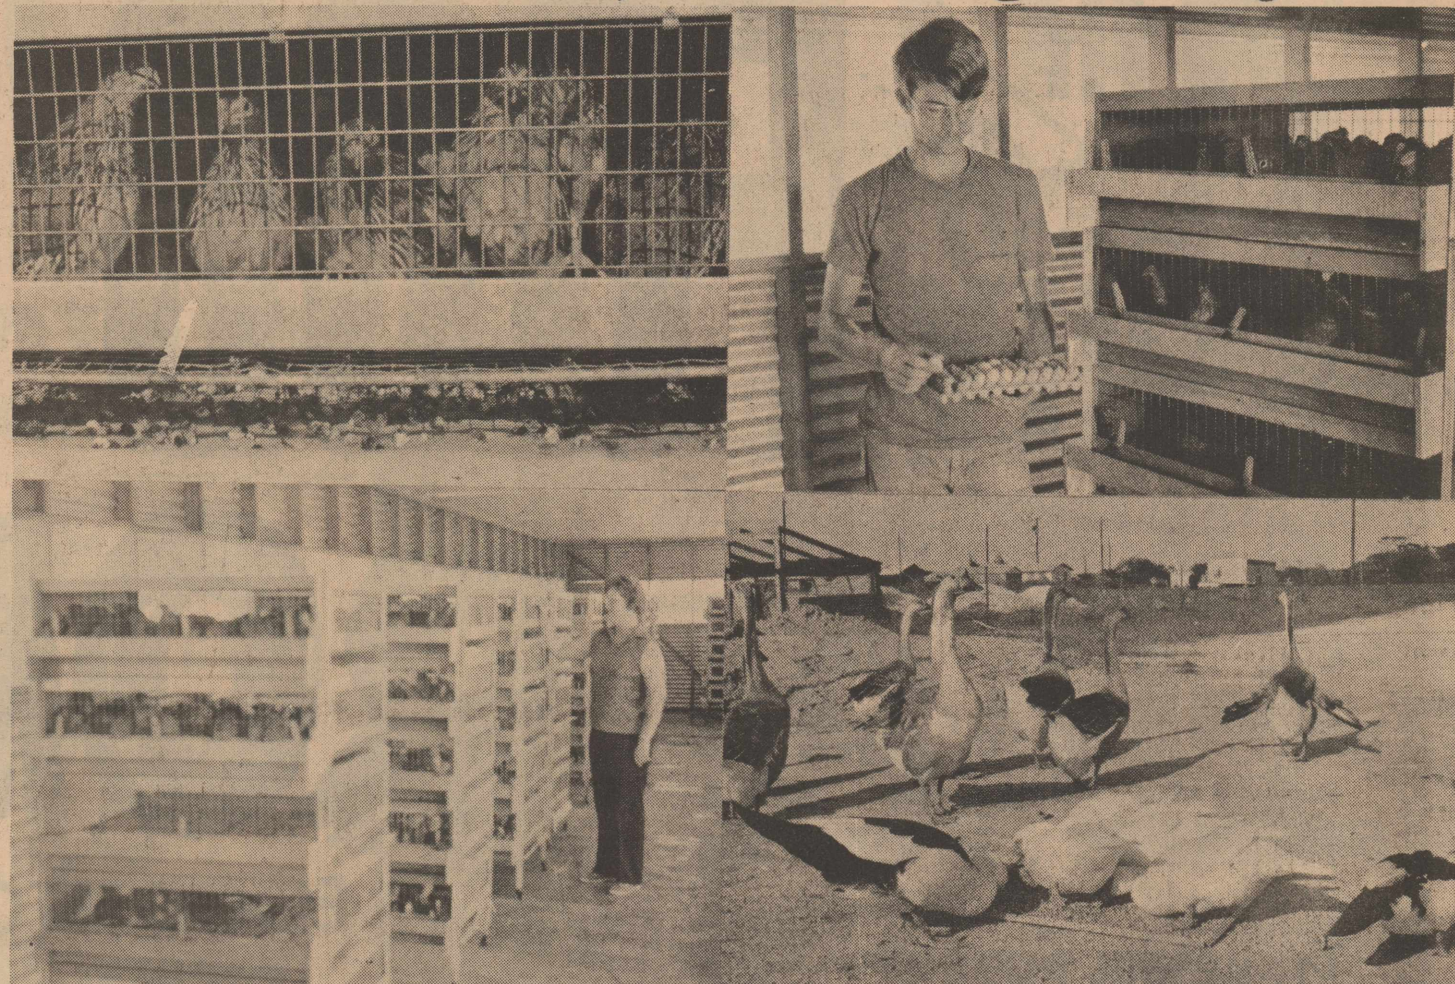

For people who wish to acquire beautiful birds just to admire and perhaps convert into pets, there are silver pheasants, Japanese silks, white-crested black Polish, bantams and even peacocks.

But the main business is raising quail for good eating, and the process requires hard work, much equipment (some of it automatic), and constant attention to every detail.

The brood stock are kept in wire-bottom cages, with about 50 quail in each cage. The bottoms of the cages slope at a slight angle so that when an egg is laid, it gently rolls into a trough attached to the outside of the cage. This simplifies the job of collecting eggs.

To stimulate egg-laying, an automatic device turns on the lights in the metal shed early in the morning before the sun comes up. This provides 16 hours of artificial daylight every day, and the quail eat more and lay more eggs.

Other equipment includes incubators, freezing units, special facilities for grinding corn and milo to be mixed with the commercial feed and provide a total of about 3,000 pounds of feed used every week.

Upper Left — This closeup photo shows a few quail in a cage. Approximately 50 quail are placed in a cage, and the cages are mounted in tiers with rollers at the bottom so that an entire tier can be easily moved.

Lower Left — Mrs. Prophet is shown here checking the date on a tier of cages. The sheet metal building in which the quail are raised and processed is 110 feet long and 20 feet wide.

Upper Right — Collecting eggs is one of the jobs of David Prophet, shown placing an egg in a flat which holds a total of 50.

Lower Right — When its feeding time, the ducks and geese come running and do their share of consuming some of the 3,000 pounds of feed which the Prophets provide for all their fowl every week.

Independence Day 1972

July 4 probably is the most American of all our holidays. Certainly it is the most significant from a patriotic standpoint.

It marks the anniversary of the adoption of our Declaration of Independence from Great Britain in 1776. In addition, it has a special significance for all who love our country and what it stands for.

Americans realize that our nation is the greatest on earth with the finest form of government yet developed by man.

We are grateful for the many privileges and benefits we enjoy in America.

Support and visit Rockport Art Association's annual art festival at the Rockport Racquet and Yacht Club July 2 and 3 from noon until 9 p.m. both days.

Library News

If you are interested in espionage, and especially in a true story of espionage, you will want to read "The Game of the Foxes" by Ladislav Farago. Mr. Farago is considered the foremost civilian expert on secret intelligence operations, and during World War II he was with the U.S. Office of Naval Intelligence.

Among the archives captured in Germany at the end of the War were a mass of microfilms of the secret records of the Abwehr organization. Inscribed therein were the names of every agent, and every report received. Revealed are the operations of the Abwehr agents through the free world even before the beginning of hostilities. We follow them to their secret rendezvous, TREFFS, with the spymasters in Hamburg and Bremen.

This is a great book you will not want to miss. It may be found at the Aransas County Public Library.

Summer Reading Program Success

It is very important that we teach our children honesty and fairness in everything they do.

A number of the students in the summer reading program at Aransas County Library have turned in a large number of books as having been read in a 20 day period; some as many as 70.

Books should be read according to the student's reading level and if this is not being done it is unfair to those other students who are doing so. This program was designed to help students improve their reading and enjoy themselves through the summer months.

The Library Staff is not saying that these books have not been read, but if they were not the proper reading level, these students in all fairness should take them off of their lists. Won't you as parents try and help us with this problem.

The normal life of a five dollar bill is less than a year.

The Kinsey Report

Recently I warned M. W. Cochran (in my column) that I was going to tounce him when we played our match in the golf tournament at Live Oak Country Club.

Well, it didn't work out that way. He beat me, and I hereby "eat my words."

In fact, for this particular column I relinquish the right to be the author and turn the following space over to Mr. Cochran, the victor.

Move over Kinsey, you old rascal, for M.W. Cochran! You called me a scoundrel in your Kinsey report of June 8 and now I demand the privilege of your column for reply. I believe a good honest report of our brilliant golf match of June 23 should be recorded for posterity.

In the first place, there must be no alibis in regard to the course. Both greens and fairways were in tiptop condition. The real trouble was that you and I were strangers to the fairways, took far too many strokes in the rough, and when finally on the greens, indulged in putts too numerous to mention.

All good golfers know that mental concentration and physical relaxation are the foundations of par golf. However our shots, more often than not, lacked one or the other of these two requirements and, at times, both. This fault is characteristic of the game of most seventh flighers playing their championship matches, so we really cannot blame the TV cameraman for leaving us when

Letter to the Editor

On June 21 I had the privilege to serve with the Fulton Volunteer Fire Dept. There was a brush fire on the north side of the causeway. I by chance was on my way to Rockport when I spotted the fire and within a few minutes the trucks from Fulton were there.

The thing which strikes me

Medicare Pays Major Cost of Health Care

Medicare -- social security health insurance for people 65 and over, paid about 10 percent of the Nation's $75-billion bill for health care last year, according to H.M. Cleveland, social security district manager in Corpus Christi.

"The two parts of Medicare, hospital insurance and medical insurance, paid almost $7-1/2 billion in benefits in 1971," Cleveland said. "Hospital insurance paid $5.4 billion for 4-1/2 million people. Medical insurance paid $2 billion for 9-1/2 million Medicare beneficiaries."

"About 20 million people over age 65 are protected by Medicare," he added.

The hospital insurance part of Medicare helps pay the hospital bills and certain post-hospital care for older people; it is funded by social security contributions. Medical insurance is voluntary. It is funded by individual premiums paid by people who enroll, and their premiums are matched by the Federal Government.

Information about Medicare can be secured from the Social Security Administration, 1802 South Staples Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Woodsboro News Praises New Rockport Athletic Director

As previously announced, Robert Flanagan has been employed to become athletic director and head football and basketball coach at Rockport-Fulton High School.

Following is a fine tribute to Flanagan which appeared in the Woodsboro News, written by Bill Kennedy:

I don't know which Texas high school's going to have the best football team next fall...but I DO know which Texas high school is the most fortunate.

Rockport, that's who! Or, to be more technically correct, Rockport-Fulton High School.

Rockport has reached out and hired Bob Flanagan, coach of football and basketball in Woodsboro for the past 17 years. Bob reluctant to leave Woodsboro, "just couldn't resist the offer made to him."

It must have been a most lucrative financial carrot Rockport dangled in front of Flanagan...because he would not have left for any "ordinary" offer.

Of course, he'll be athletic director at Rockport...soon to be a Class AAA school. He'll also have the authority to hire his eight (that's right, EIGHT) assistant coaches. And, he'll have a strong voice in overall athletic policy at Rockport.

Still, it's tough for him to go. It has been reliably reported that his fine wife, Earline, could not hold back the tears every day of the last week of school in Woodsboro (where she also taught.)

But, as hard as it is for the Flanagans to leave, it's much, much harder for those of us who call Woodsboro "home" to HAVE them leave. Personally, I will miss him tremendously.

Now, you must understand that (as always with coaches) I have never been real close to Bob Flanagan. I have watched him from a distance ... and from up close. But, I have never been to a social event with him, never attended a convention with him, never drank a single cup of coffee with him.

Still, I believe I know this man. And, what I've known, I've liked. He's quite a guy. As quiet as any coach has ever been--but, also as worthy of respect as any coach has ever been.

Here's a high school coach who won 285 basketball games and lost only 186. His teams won nine district championships and competed in four state tournaments. On three occasions, the Eagles under Flanagan won their first game ... only to lose in the finals.

Flanagan had some fine basketball players--Steindorf, Longmire, the Tolivers, Abney, etc. But, most of his good basketball players would not have been exceptional without Flanagan's coaching. Bob had (still has) the knack of convincing a kid that he is better than he really thinks he is.

In football, Flanagan's teams won 73 games; lost 38; and tied 11. I think the 11 ties is the most significant figure of the three ... for it shows that Flanagan-coached teams had to scrap and scrape in order to stay in the ball game ... and a tie reflects an uphill struggle, usually.

Flanagan had some great football players--Havel, Oefinger, Barnhill, etc. But, just as in basketball, the outstanding gridders of the Eagles had to be convinced they actually were pretty good. That, Flanagan did.

However, Flanagan's true worth to Woodsboro High School--indeed, to Texas high school athletics--cannot be measured in the stars produced or the won-lost record. Rather, Bob will be remembered as the perfect gentleman coach.

Those who do not know him (and there are zillions of these folks, even though they've talked with him countless times!) have no idea just what a marvelous fellow this guy is. He is courteous, humble, polite, kind, understanding, considerate, helpful, patient, and just plain a hell of a nice fellow.

I have been spread pretty thin during almost 20 years of covering South Texas high school sports ... and it has been somewhat difficult for me to adjudge many coaches and many teams.

But, I have always been proud to be known as the man from Bob Flanagan's town. His teams were always the absolute best in dress, manner, and conduct when "on the road." It made me proud to come from Woodsboro when I used to see Flanagan and his Eagles in Victoria, the Valley, or Austin.

Woodsboro has been blessed with outstanding men as coaches. They seem to reflect the character of their superintendent ... who is as fine a man as one can find in the annals of learning--W. A. Reeves.

Roy Hayes, succeeding Bob Flanagan in Woodsboro, is cut out of the same cloth as Reeves and Flanagan. The athletic fortunes ... and, even more important, the CHARACTER of Woodsboro High School athletes are in good hands with Hayes.

However, it is with great sadness that I see Bob Flanagan leave Woodsboro. He has been SUCH a good man in every conceivable manner in which a man can be measured.

Rockport is so lucky to get him. Woodsboro is so lucky to have had him for 17 years!

Sandra Simmons Is Honored

Miss Kit Gauthier of Nederland who was elected Governor of the American Legion Auxiliary Bluebonnet Girls State in the general election, today appointed Miss Sandra Simmons of Rockport as a member of the Department of Public Safety. Miss Simmons daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rayburn, is a member of the Federalist Party and the Girls State House of Representatives. She was sponsored to Girls State by American Legion Aux. Unit #364 of Corpus Christi and was selected to attend Girls State on a basis of character, leadership, scholarship and physical fitness.

Operating under a learn by doing philosophy, Citizens of Bluebonnet Girls State participate in mythical political parties, legislative processes, elective and appointive offices. Since June 14, the opening day of the session, the girls have formed their own city, county and state governments using existing Texas Constitution and laws as guides. The program is free from propaganda, is non-political and non-partisan. The sole purpose of the program is to provide citizenship training, affording the girls the opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults.

Riding Ass'n News

On June 24th, approximately 36 riders assembled at the arena in Fulton for a moonlight trail ride. The Aransas County Riding Association members and guests from Odem, Corpus Christi and Ingleside left around 8:30 p.m. The ride proceeded to D. M. Meador's home for a break, where coffee and Cokes were served.

The riders then left for the high school, and rode back to the arena, arriving around 12:30 a.m. A cookout followed.

Everyone enjoyed the ride, and a novelty was added--a sound truck, which emitted the country tunes that cowboys seem to enjoy. Needless to say, members and guests spent a pleasurable evening under stars, and most likely the horses were happy when the moment arrived to climb in the trailer and go home.

The July Horse Show will be July 16th at the arena in Fulton. Events will be published the week before the show. The next meeting of the Association will be July 3rd at Fulton Fire Station at 8:00 p.m.

It's pretty easy to voice an opinion before one knows much about the subject involved.

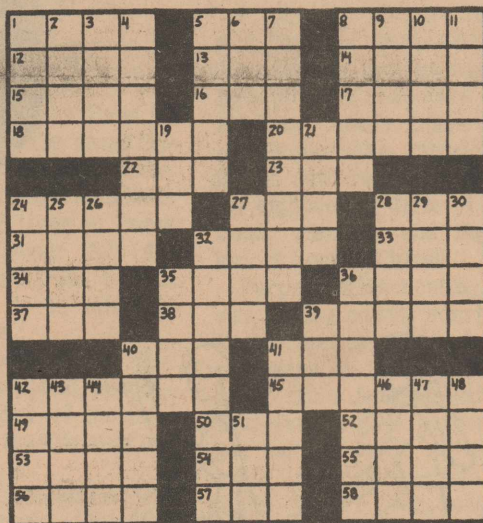

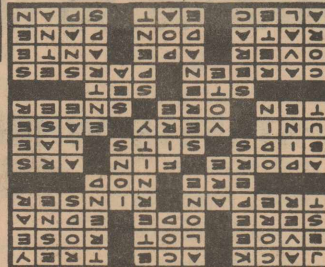

Young love is just as serious, to the young, as mature love is to adults--or can't you remember?

B&PW News

The first meeting of the B and PW fiscal year was held Monday night, June 26th at the Peninsula Park Swimming Pool. The returning president, Penny Baldwin, opened the meeting by recalling some of the highlights of the last meeting in the absence of the secretary.

Gwyne Howland, treasurer, gave an accounting of the bank account and reminded members that dues would be due in before the 15th of July after which there would be a fine imposed.

Mrs. Baldwin then recounted the efforts made by this club in behalf of the flood disaster victims. The club expresses deep appreciation to Irwin Real Estate for generously donating space in their office to collect and store necessary items for these victims and to the HEB food people for arranging transportation of the collected items to the New Braunfels area.

Without the help of both these businesses the drive could not have been held. The club also donated $100 for whatever the necessary authorities found needing. The members who also gave so freely and generously of their time and efforts included Faye Henderson, Penny Baldwin, Vanette Stone, Van Morgan and Deane Steele.

Dorothy Leslie had correspondence from wandering and relocated members especially a lovely letter from Pat Harper and a card from Bird Harrell.

This last week the State Convention was held at the Rice Hotel in downtown Houston. Of over a thousand busy, concerned and involved women of the business and professional world, four represented the local organization and town. They were Penny Baldwin, Loyce Ogle, Virginia Shivers and Ruby Hart. They returned with fond memories and new enthusiasm. They also brought home three awards, one of which was for outstanding growth in membership.

Chairwomen of the different committees were announced. They are: Finance--Veronica Klaeser; Membership--Bird Harrell; Legislation and world affairs--Margo Del Rocco; Program--Lois Ogle; Civic participation--Mary Lou Ashley; Women in Government--Tony Harden; Personal development--Virginia Shivers; Public relations--Kathy Rogers; Co-chairman--Jane Browning and Faye Henderson; Telephone--Rossi Clark; Parliamentarian--Cepha Jesse; and Style show--Buna Suttles.

The club gives special thanks to all the fine and dedicated workers who served last year in these very necessary positions.

Loyce Ogle, program chairman, reminded all members that the yearbook would be printed before the next meeting and that anyone who wished a correction of name, address or whatever must contact her within the next two weeks. She also mentioned that the programs for the following year will be organized and that members with ideas should contact her to share them.

Guests and prospective members were introduced and included Myrtle Blocker, Peggy Davis, Georgiana Henderson, Irene Soria, Paula Rogers, Kathryn Corkill and Kerry and Laura Ogle.

Secret Pals were revealed and after a year of cards and presents from an unknown friend it was great fun sharing the secrets.

Finally the meeting ended by enjoying a good old ice cream social complete with homemade ice cream, cake and watermelon.

The discovery of dynamite enabled Nobel to endow the famous Nobel prize.

We won't solve our nation's problems by berating Old Glory or showing it disrespect. On the contrary, by tearing down the Stars and Stripes, we destroy the symbol of what every American wants to achieve: liberty and justice for all. It makes better sense to keep that flag flying before us as a beacon, reminding us of the goals our founding fathers set for a new nation, goals we are still striving toward. mation is considered confidential. It may be disclosed only to other Stabilization personnel for the purpose of carrying out the Economic Stabilization Program or when relevant in any proceeding under the Act.

Q: If a firm has a range of salaries for the same job what wage or salary can be paid to a new employee?

A: The employee may be paid any salary within the range which the qualifications of the applicant justify, as long as the annual aggregate increase paid by the firm in this job classification does not increase.

Q: Are firms with annual sales or revenues of $50 million or more that have to prenotify or report to the Price Commission subject to spot checking by the IRS as the smaller firms are?

A: Yes. Both large and small firms may be subject to spot checking by the IRS to determine if they are complying with Price Commission regulations.

Q: What price controls are in effect on so-called "points" paid by residential purchasers?

A: The "point" system is a method of adjusting interest rates and, therefore, of compensating the mortgage dealer. Since, however, the variation of points is principally a function of interest rate changes, and since interest rates thus far have not been subject to Price Commission regulation, neither have points.

Q: When do the prenotification and certification requirements relating to retroactive pay adjustments become effective?

A: On January 27, 1972, the date the regulations relating to retroactive pay adjustments were published in the "Federal Register."

Q: Do retailers with annual sales of $100,000 or more but less than $200,000 still have to post a sign announcing the availability of base price information?

A: Yes. These retailers are still required to post at least one sign (minimum 22" by 28") announcing the availability of base price information and must make such information available upon request.

Q: Does an increase or decrease in overtime pay to any employee due to working more or less hours at the existing overtime rate constitute a "pay adjustment?"

A: A bona fide increase or decrease in overtime pay to an employee who is working more or fewer hours at the existing overtime pay is not subject to the 5.5 percent limitation because the rate of compensation to the employee remains the same.

1. The objectives and requirements of the stabilization program;

2. Whether the economic sector is characterized by a large number of sellers and frequent price fluctuations, with a minimum of inflationary pressure;

3. Whether international transactions are involved or whether, in some special situations such as insurance, domestic firms would be at a disadvantage with respect to international competition because of economic controls on price increases;

4. Whether there is a clear basis for establishing a fair and equitable price because of the nature of the product and the selling process;

5. Whether prices are self-assessed or characterized by a strong element of mutuality;

6. Whether other controls have been established by law or by other regulatory agencies;

7. Whether other nonexempt sectors will serve as an effective restraint on an exempt sector; and

8. Considerations of administration and enforcement, including the ability to effectively enforce the controls in sectors with significant inflationary impact.

Q: I know that raw agricultural products are exempt from price controls, but how do you know what is considered to be a "raw agricultural product?"

A: Agricultural products which retain their original physical form and have not been processed are exempt from price controls. Processed agricultural products, namely, those which have been canned, frozen, slaughtered, milled, or otherwise changed in their physical form, are not exempt. Packaging is not considered a processing activity. Thus, while fresh potatoes, packaged or not, are exempt from controls, frozen french fries are not; while live cattle are exempt, steak cuts are not.

Q: Do firms who are required to prenotify or report their price increases have any protection for trade secrets that might be revealed to the Price Commission?

A: Yes. Under recent amendments to the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, such information is considered confidential.

SAILBOAT TRIP

Ernest Russell and his sons are taking a two-week sailing vacation in a boat that he built.

Russell and his sons, Steven, Jack and James, are camping on the islands between here and the mouth of the Colorado River and exploring the bays in that section of the coast.

They are hunting and fishing for most of their food, having taken along only staple groceries.

This is the third year that the four of them have done this, but the first year they have had their own boat. Ernest built it during his spare time.

He says he and his boys see no reason to travel 1,000 miles for a vacation "when we have God's playground in our own front yard."

TAX CHANGES ASKED

The Board of Equalization, in a letter read at the City Council meeting, recommended some changes in Rockport's tax setup.

The letter said that the Board had found that inequities exist in assessment of property, both real and personal, within the city.

The letter, signed by Don Banning, chairman of the Board, stated that in many instances taxable property has been assessed at a figure far lower than the fair market value, and in some instances has never been taxed at all.

It was the Board's opinion that if undeveloped land in Rockport were to be assessed at its full value, it would encourage development of the property to take advantage of the lower assessments when developed, and thus stimulate the city's growth.

Comments of people appearing before the Board as a result of the City's tax revaluation plan indicate, the letter said, that a more comprehensive program of assessment on personal property is needed.

VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Weber, on the first vacation they've ever had, will accompany their son, Winston, a recent graduate of Texas A&I, as he travels to Hampton, Va., where he will be employed by the National Aeronautics Space Agency at Langley Field. He will be an aero technologist.

O.F. Poling of the Oak Grove settlement informed the Aransas County Sheriff's Department that rabbit hunters had been passing his house, riding on the fenders of their cars and shooting from the cars into herds of his cattle and at the house.

American-Indians Pay Visit Here

A group of nineteen students and six adult sponsors from the Riverside Indian School of Anadarko, Oklahoma had a pleasant morning boat ride on board the M/V Dolphin, out of Fulton Harbor, on June 14.

The trip for the teenagers, twelve girls and seven boys, was sponsored by their school and was under the direct supervision of Mr. Marion Wilkinson, of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, who is the Summer School Director at Riverside.

Most of the students are Oklahomans, but some hail from as far away as Montana, North Carolina and Washington State. They live on Campus at the School and are housed in dormitories which are under adult supervision.

There were a number of interesting sights for them to see in Aransas Bay, a dredge working on the Intra-Coastal Canal, Great Blue Heron nesting on platforms at Pin Tail Reef, a close view of the Ranch House and buildings on St. Joseph's Island and porpoise playing around the bow of the Dolphin as she made her way through the water. A local shrimp was kind enough to pick up his net as the Dolphin eased alongside, so they could see the many varieties of marine life that are brought in with the catch of shrimp.

The group, traveling by chartered bus, had been to the Astrodome in Houston, Sea-O-Rama in Galveston and were to visit San Antonio's famous Breckenridge Park and Zoo on their way back to Oklahoma.

They were a fine group of young people and it was indeed a pleasure to be able to show them a small part of our wonderful Texas Coast.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Turned On" Wedding

"I do," solemnly spoken by bride and groom, is usually enough to make a legally valid marriage. But suppose one or both of the parties is "turned on," either by drugs or by alcohol. This may create a situation once described as follows by Euripides:

"The tongue hath sworn, but the mind is unsworn."

Marriage is a contract—a special kind, to be sure, but a contract nonetheless. The key to a contract is mutual assent, a meeting of the minds. And a mind not competent to assent is not competent to make a contract, no matter what the tongue says.

How clear must the mind be? The law's test is whether the person is able to understand the nature of a marriage contract at the moment he says "I do." If he is not, the marriage may be annulled.

But intoxication short of that will usually be overlooked. Since the law gives matrimony the benefit of the doubt, courts generally will not grant an annulment merely because the bride or the groom was a little high.

Furthermore, even if one of the parties was indeed "out of it" at the time of the wedding, the marriage may become valid because of what happens afterward. Take this case:

A man married a girl he scarcely knew, as the climax of a protracted drinking party. Seeking an annulment later, he pleaded in court that he had been in an alcoholic stupor at the time of the wedding.

But the girl pointed out that he had continued to cohabit with her for several days after he had sobered up. Result: annulment denied, because the marriage had been "ratified" by subsequent events.

What if one of the parties, although in good shape at the wedding itself, had concealed the fact that he was an alcoholic or a dope addict? Under these circumstances, most courts will grant an annulment to the spouse who has been deceived.

Thus, a bride won an annulment when she discovered after the nuptials that her bridegroom was a heroin addict. The court said this was the kind of vital information that, in all fairness, any bride had a right to know.

If you're old enough to want your own telephone, you're old enough to want your own typewriter.

There comes a time in your life when all of a sudden privacy really counts.

You need to be alone. In your own place.

With your own things. You want your conversations with your friends to be just that—not a family gathering.

We understand. Which brings us to your own typewriter.

Your own typewriter says you're getting serious (and better be left alone).

After all, when people hear the tap-tap-tap of a typewriter they figure you're into something important and automatically steer away from you.

Besides, when your own typewriter is sitting there, it has a way (a neater way than anyone else) of reminding you of the work you have to do. And somehow you'll find yourself doing it.

And doing it faster—because with say, an electric portable, even a beginner can get to type twice as fast as writing by hand.

Other things can happen too. Like spelling can improve. Because a typed word that's misspelled looks misspelled, and just asks to be corrected.

You'll find your creative thoughts won't slip away from you, because a typewriter really listens to you—actually accepts every idea as fast as it comes up.

And then a little miracle called Organization can occur. When that happens, you can get a feeling of confidence you won't believe.

So drop a hint or two about wanting your own typewriter. The mere act of asking says something about where your head's at.

Which could even go a long way toward getting you that telephone.

At the very least, your own extension. Just remember when you're asking, who reminded you to ask.

It was decided to continue the organization of the League another year, and to have an election of officers at the next meeting when all members should be notified.

The idea of retaining the pavilion was discouraged as the past year had not been successful. Definite plans for future revenue were not outlined as the League would have to be governed by circumstances.

It was suggested by Mrs. A. L. Bracht that inasmuch as the past year had been all work and no play that some social features be introduced. This was received by the gentlemen with smiling assent and Mr. Hoopes thought some refreshments would be real sort of nice. Mr. Clevenger and Mr. Bracht looked their approval and the social hour will hereafter be regularly introduced. The meeting adjourned with a general feeling of satisfaction.

Motor-driven, forced-air heating systems, oil-burner pumps and hot-water heat-circulating pumps all will be affected in case of a power failure. In the case of a gas-fired system, the furnace may go on and off anyway since many of these have self-energizing systems. With the burner working, turn off the blower motor and remove the filter. The system then works as a gravity-fed one—not well, but good enough.

Miss Mary Barton, William W. Durfor Exchange Vows

Miss Mary Martha Barton became the bride of William Walter Durfor at the Copano

Cove home of the bride's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Josef A. Barton, on June 16 at 5:30 p.m. The father of the bride officiated at the double-ring ceremony with members of the two families and friends of the couple attending.

The open patio was the scene of the nuptial service; the natural beauty of the surroundings was enhanced by potted dracena palms and an arrangement of spring flowers.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Dr. Josef J. Barton of Charlottesville, Virginia, Miss Peggy Leshikar of Austin, Texas, was maid of honor, and Mr. John Durfor of Austin was his brother's best man. Elizabeth Ann Barton of Charlottesville, Virginia, niece of the bride, carried the rings. Miss Frances Barton of Austin, sister of the bride, sang, "The Lord's Prayer" and "The First Time."

The bride's simple empire gown was candlelight white. She carried a nosegay of daisies and wore a daisy in her hair. The groom's suit was also in candlelight white.

A reception supper which followed the ceremony included shrimp creole, party sandwiches, fruit bowl, relishes, iced tea, and the three-tiered bride's cake and the groom's cake. In the house party were Mrs. Josef J. Barton of Charlottesville, Virginia, Miss Johnette Cuba of Austin, and Miss Leshikar.

The bride is a third-year student of nursing at the University of Texas at Austin. The groom, son of Maj. (Ret.) and Mrs. Walter Durfor of Corpus Christi, is also a student at the University of Texas. He formerly served three years in

The honoree was presented a blue and white corsage arranged with baby booties.

The hostesses were Mrs. Charles Winkler, Mrs. Norman Spears, Mrs. Robert Puster, Mrs. Roger Bennett, and Mrs. Joe Livingston. The hostess gift was diaper service for a month.

Barton Son Doing Research In Italy

Dr. Josef J. Barton of Charlottesville, Virginia, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Josef A. Barton of Rockport, arrived in the province of Campobasso, Italy, last week to do history research during the summer months.

Dr. Barton, assistant professor of history at the University of Virginia, is being sponsored in his research by the University of Virginia and the Fund for the Advancement of Education. His travel expenses are covered by a special grant of the Ford Foundation.

The young professor's work is a part of his continuing research on the family life of immigrants, and will later include immigrants from Greece and Yugoslavia also. Dr. Barton is completing a book called A Safe Lodging: Peasant Immigrants in Cleveland, 1890-1950, which is a revision of his doctoral dissertation at the University of Michigan.

The object of his present research is to reconstruct the family life of peasants in Southern Italy in the 19th Century. He is especially interested in relationships between fathers and sons and the tensions which develop between generations when land becomes scarce. In his words, "In short, I'll try to determine how the fathers and sons react to the shrinking area of arable land. I think that emigration is the major reaction."

As to his method, he will be looking at village and parish records, as well as at provincial and national archives. "What I will try to do is to get to know families long extinguished by reconstituting the marriages, births, and deaths of each family in the small village of Kapallimosano, in the province of Campobasso. Also, I'll do some interviewing with older people in the village, in hopes of eliciting some memories of families and family history," he said.

Dr. and Mrs. Barton and daughter Elizabeth Ann (Lisa) were in Rockport visiting their parents and attending the June 16 Durfor-Barton wedding. Mrs. Barton and Lisa have gone back to Charlottesville.
