44 Men Known Dead, 12 Missing After New York Ferry Steamer Blows Up

DEATH TOLL IN BOAT DISASTER MAY REACH 60

Boilers of Ancient Ship Burst With Decks Full of Men

THREE PROBES START

Son of Captain and Surviving Deckhand Are Held for Quiz

NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (UP)—The old wooden steamer Observation, pounding slowly through the muddy waters of East river, blew up today with a tremendous explosion that hurled about 160 screaming men from her shattered deck.

Tonight, at least 44 were known dead. It was feared the death toll would mount to 60.

Some of the victims were shot high in the air amid debris and their bodies thudded violently against buildings on the short, 400 feet away.

Others, mangled and unconscious, dropped into the murky water and did not reappear.

Twelve Missing

Still others, screaming and struggling weakly, were pulled beneath the surface when the hull sank in a whirl of bubbling water.

Although the exact toll of the disaster probably never will be known, police announced that 12 men were missing and about 84 were injured, some of them critically.

The one man who collected fares and might have aided in establishing the exact toll, was missing after the blast and believed drowned.

The explosion presumably was due to a boiler explosion. Four investigations were started.

Alexander J. Forsythe, son of the captain of the steamer, and Otto Nelson, deckhand on a scow nearby, were detained for questioning.

Boat Questioned

Investigators were attempting to discover whether salt water had been used in the boilers. Officials of the iron workers union, to which most of the victims belonged, said they had recently complained that the Observation was unseaworthy.

The cumbersome, 44-year-old Observation, of 122 tons, had taken aboard workmen at 8 a. m. to start her third trip as a ferry from 135th street, the Bronx, to Rikers island, where the workers were engaged in a construction project.

Some of the laborers were talking in small groups. Others were reading their newspapers or shouting at men on passing boats.

About 100 feet from the pier of the Observation was picking up speed. Suddenly, the vessel shuddered violently from stem to stern and was blown to pieces.

Terrific Roar

The deck seemed to lift clear of the hull. There was a vicious hissing sound and then a terrific roar—"a greater noise than anything I ever heard," one eye-witness said.

Whirling black objects shot into the air and fell hundreds of feet away. They were human bodies.

The body of one man rose 40 feet, soared 300 feet over water and docks and crashed against a window in a building, falling to the street.

A spar whistled upward with the speed of an arrow and fell on a taxicab, piercing the machine from which the driver had stepped a moment before.

From the wreckage, in which Captain Forsythe, 60-year-old master of the Observation, lost his life, the bodies of dying men were hurled into the river.

Tells of Blast

E. G. Wallensik, field clerk, had been sitting on the bow of the steamer talking politics.

"I thought I must be dead," he said later. "It seemed like another world. Everything went hazy. Some men were struggling in the water beside me. Others lay very still upon the water."

Wallensik was unconscious when rescuers pulled him out.

Scores of persons witnessed the disaster. Tugs swung around, boats put out from the shore and rescuers began hawling in the injured.

They couldn't work fast enough to get all of them. Some went down before their eyes.

Son of Sam Houston Near Death at Houston

HOUSTON, Sept. 9. (UP)—Andrew Jackson Houston, aged and only surviving son of Gen. Sam Houston, Texas hero, was in critical condition in an infirmary here today, having failed for many hours to rally for an emergency appendectomy.

The 78-year-old Houstonian for many years has been custodian of San Jacinto battleground near La Porte—a field on which his father's small band of ragged Texans defeated a Mexican army one April afternoon in 1836 and won independence for Texas.

Wilbur May Resign To Head University

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9. (US)—The possibility that Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur may resign from his cabinet post at the end of the year and return to active presidency of Stanford university was discussed among university circles today. Dr. Wilburs leave of absence expires on Dec. 31.

Bern Threatened Life Of Wife Just Before Suicide, Friends Say

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9. (US)—That the "comedy" to which Paul Bern referred in his suicide note was his own frenzied outburst in which he threatened to kill his beautiful wife, Jean Harlow, if she persisted in asking him to accompany her to her mother's home, was revealed today from sources close to the platinum blonde screen star.

The dramatic episode, in which Miss Harlow is said to have fled in terror before her husband's gun, was described as occurring on Sunday night, a few hours before Bern, left alone in the house, put a bullet through his head.

Butler Refuted

John Carmichael, the butler, testified at the inquest yesterday that Miss Harlow and Bern parted on the best of terms that Sunday night, after Bern had told his wife that he was "too tired" to go to dinner at the home of Marino Bello, the actress' stepfather.

But from other sources it was declared today that Bern flew into a rage at his wife's question.

"Get out and let me alone!" He is said to have screamed at her.

"If you don't let me alone, I'll kill you!"

Miss Harlow was said to have fled in terror, as Bern seized the gun that he always kept near him.

Then, left alone and with remorse added to the other shadows that preyed on his mind, he apparently decided to atone by taking his life.

Brother Interviewed

Meeting newspaper men today for the first time since he arrived in Los Angeles, Henry Bern, brother of the dead producer, insisted that the motive of his brother's death was still unknown to him. He sat in his brother's office and his brother's chair as he talked.

In detail, Bern told of the Dorothy Millette affair.

His brother and Dorothy met in Canada, he said, probably in Toronto, about 20 years ago, and fell in love. Both were with a theatrical company.

They lived together, and later went together to New York.

Then Dorothy fell ill with a mental ailment that necessitated her confinement in a sanitarium, where Paul Bern paid her bills.

Provided for Woman

Paul Bern came to California, his brother said, and after Dorothy was discharged from the sanitarium, "not as cured but as harmless," Paul continued to provide for her. She lived at the Algonquin hotel in New York.

"Paul had not seen her for at least four years," said his brother. "I kept in touch with her and saw that she was all right. She never asked about Paul; never seemed to take any interest in his affairs.

"She was still in a doubtful mental condition, especially if the question of religion were raised, but it was not serious.

"Last April Dorothy came to me in New York and asked me if I thought the California climate would be better for her health. She said nothing about wanting to see Paul.

Notified Paul

"I notified Paul, and the arrangements for her stay in San Francisco were made right from this office."

Irene Harrison, Paul Bern's secretary, nodded assent.

"Yes, I selected the hotel," she said.

From Sacramento came further details of the supposed suicide of a woman believed to be Miss Millette.

This woman, who in name and description corresponds to the woman who had been living in a San Francisco hotel until last Tuesday afternoon—the day after Bern's suicide was reported—vanished from a river steamer that night or early Wednesday morning, leaving her bag, purse, coat and shoes. No papers were found in her effects and marks of identification were missing.

Funeral Held

While a widespread search went on for Miss Millette, living or dead, Paul Bern's funeral services were held at Grace chapel in Inglewood.

Jean Harlow, clad in deepest black, her eyes tear-swollen, looked her last on her husband's face.

Mrs. Frederike Marcus, Bern's sister, screamed and collapsed.

DOUBLE DUTY

14 Per Cent of 'Home Makers' of Texas Have Jobs

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (US)—Out of 1,317,960 "home makers" listed in Texas in the 1930 census, 188,438, or 14.3 per cent, were following a gainful occupation in addition to caring for the home, the census bureau announced today.

ROBINS SEEN IN CHICAGO

Mystery Grows in Absence Of Dry Crusader

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (UP)—Mystery surrounding the strange disappearance of Col. Raymond Robins, social worker and dry crusader while en route to visit President Hoover, increased tonight following reports he had been seen aimlessly strolling the streets of Chicago.

While his family continued to express fears Robins had been kidnaped by rum runners in revenge for his activities against them, Mrs. W. Requa Bryant, an Evanston, Ill., housewife, today said she saw the missing man in the Chicago loop at 2:30 p. m. yesterday.

Hoover Worried

"There could not have been any mistake about it," Mrs. Bryant, an old friend of Robins, declared.

President Hoover was represented as being increasingly worried about the absence of the dry leader, a friend whom he has known for more than 20 years.

He has asked to be informed of every development of the case, but thus far has issued no statement.

Determined to go fully into the many threats by Florida rum runners said to have been made against Robin's life, Attorney General William D. Mitchell ordered the prohibition department to investigate.

Special dry agents were dispatched to Hernando county, Florida, where Mrs. Robins said most of the threats came. Robins was particularly active against prohibition law violators there.

Other Drys Threatened

The justice department also is investigating Robins' disappearance. Threats have been made by a reportedly national bootleg ring against other prohibition crusaders. Canon William Sheafe Chase of

Farmers In Parade For 'Living Prices'

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Sept. 9. (US)—More than 7,000 farmers paraded through the streets of Sioux City late today demanding a "living price" for their livestock and produce.

The parade was staged as governors and representatives of 10 western and middle-western states met to formulate a plan to meet the demands of the farmers.

On one point all were agreed. That was the prices are too low—so low that farmers cannot pay taxes and operating expenses. But all were far apart on how to remedy the situation.

Fliers Critically Hurt In Emergency Landing

CLINTON, Ind., Sept. 9. (UP)—Two national guardsmen reconnoitering over western Indiana coal fields were critically injured today when their crippled plane crashed in an attempted emergency landing.

Maj. R. F. Taylor, who was piloting the ship when it developed motor trouble, and his companion scout, Sergt. D. B. Vickery, were hurt.

Jap Aviators to Attempt San Francisco Flight

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (US)—Joseph G. Grew, ambassador to Japan, advised the state department today that three Hochi Shimbun fliers in a Junkers single motored monoplane are to leave Tokyo tomorrow for Sabishiro from which point they will take off for a flight to San Francisco by way of nome and Fairbanks.

Tulsa Youth Indicted For Criminal Attack On Girl Here Thursday Night

An indictment charging criminal assault Thursday night on a 22-year-old widow was returned Friday afternoon against Vester Cleveland of Tulsa, Okla., by the September grand jury.

Cleveland allegedly "picked up" the young woman while attending the city's free vaudeville program Thursday night on the lawn of the Memorial auditorium. Accompanied by another man and a young woman the four were said to have driven to a place where they drank beer, after which, the girl accused, they drove to a house on the Henrietta road where she was assaulted.

The girl came to the police station on foot about midnight and said she had been attacked. She said that after returning from the house on the Henrietta road Cleveland put her out of the car on a downtown street.

Cleveland was arrested shortly before 1 o'clock Friday morning by Tom Poe and Bob Miller, city scout car patrolmen.

Charges were filed later in the morning after a complaint had been filed with District Attorney Sam B. Spence. Cleveland was lodged in the county jail pending completion of $2,500 bond.

The youth, who is 20 years old, arrived in Wichita Falls Thursday with his mother, a sister and a

KELL APPEALS FOR YOUTH TO LEAD RECOVERY

Wichita Business Leader Addresses Junior C-C Gathering

TEXAS LEADING WAY

Southwest's Resources To Keep Section Ahead In 'Come-Back'

Development of new industries to absorb the over supply of American labor is the problem of the young men of today, and is a challenge to Wichita Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce, Frank Kell, Wichita Falls capitalist, said Friday in discussing trends in modern business.

The saturation point in the new industries of the automobile and radio has been reached and instead of inviting new labor saving devices the energies of the business leaders of tomorrow should be turned to opening fields of new endeavor to give the man who wants to work the opportunity.

Disapproves Machine

Mr. Kell branded the automatic cotton picking machine as the worst enemy of the southern people and vigoriously opposes its development. The man who hired 50 men in planting, harvesting and marketing 10,000 bushels of wheat 10 years ago, now does the work with machines and a lone hired hand, he said in pointing out possible results of development of a cotton picking machine.

Mr. Kell was the principal speaker at the opening of fall activities of the Wichita Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce with a membership luncheon at the Wichita club. Members of the chamber paid closest attention to Mr. Kell's address, which pictured as a whole, business conditions of the nation and of Texas in particular. He closed with an appeal to the young men of Wichita Falls to study the situation with a seriousness for development of the public good.

Roping Contest

President Don Haynes presided and at the opening acted as arena director for a rodeo trick lariat contest between Promoter Leonard Stroud of the golden jubilee event and Wichita Falls' own "Honest Buck" Freeman. Dr. Everett Jones, chairman of the contest judges, awarded the decision to Freeman after Stroud closed an exhibition with Jones held in the loop of his educated rope.

"We are passing through a situation never before confronted by the American people and have nothing in our past history for comparison in securing a ray of hope. We are sailing on uncharted seas. What produced this condition is water over the dam and of no consequence now. The problem is in finding the best way to emerge from it and to gauge our business to meet it.

"The condition is intense owing to its world-wide scope. Texas and other parts of the nation have experienced it previously and have seen worse conditions, such as the drouth of 1886 when Texans left the Southwest in wagon-train loads," Mr. Kell continued.

Object Lesson

"It does no good to rehearse the past, but we should benefit for the future, with the situation an object lesson for the individual to trim his savings in preparation if such a situation arises again," he said.

Mr. Kell who is chairman of the 11th federal reserve district banking and industrial committee, reviewed the recent conference of the committeemen with administration economic leaders at Washington.

Waters of Rio Grande Spreads Into Mexico

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Sept. 9. (#)—Flood waters on the lower Rio Grande tonight spread out over lowlands in Mexico, relieving pressure on levees which guarded the American side of the stream.

Apparently the flood, which inundated thousands of acres upstream, mostly in Mexico, had lost its momentum, and observers were unable to discern any marked crest.

While rains caused a new rise on the river in the vicinity of Laredo, Eagle Pass and Del Rio, the probability was the channel would carry the additional water without difficulty.

Von Hindenburg Won't Dismiss Von Papen

BERLIN, Sept. 9. (US)—President Von Hindenburg today announced he will not dismiss Chancellor Von Papen and his junker cabinet, and tonight Berlin was electrified by reports that the new Hitlerite war cry will be "impeach Von Hindenburg!"

At the same time, Von Hindenburg, notified Adolf Hitler, Nazi chieftain, that he is ready to receive him Tuesday together with the leader of the Catholic centrist party, probably former Chancellor Bruening.

JOCKEY KILLED

JAMAICA, N. Y., Sept. 9. (UP)—Jockey Thomas Wade died late today at Mary Immaculate hospital from injuries received in a fall in a steeplechase at Belmont park yesterday. He failed to regain consciousness.

Bolivians Repel First Attack On Border Fortress

LA PAZ, Boliva, Sept. 9. (UP)—The first strong Paraguayan attack on Fort Boqueron was repulsed by Bolivian infantry aided by airplanes, it was officially announced tonight.

The Bolivians continued to defend the fort firmly in spite of a second assault, which the Paraguayans launched after they had been reinforced by a small air squadron, several pieces of light artillery and fresh machine gun platoons.

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Sept. 9.—The Paraguay government will take the battlefield against Bolivian forces to defend her national rights, a government spokesman declared tonight.

He refused to declare whether the government is considering a formal declaration of war against Bolivia, but hinted that definite action should soon be taken concerning the disputed Chaco area.

COURT HOLDS ELECTION SUIT

Lawyers Argue Claims Of Contenders

AUSTIN, Sept. 9. (#)—Texas' highest tribunal, the state supreme court, today tasted of some of the bitterness engendered in Lone Star politics by the close race between Gov. R. S. Sterling and Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

The woman former governor, wife of James E. Ferguson, impeached governor, formally presented to it her application for a writ of mandamus to force the party managers to certify her nomination should it be determined she received a majority of the votes in the run-off primary of last August.

Case Considered

Semi-official returns indicated that Mrs. Ferguson had received a majority of nearly 4,000 votes over Governor Sterling, who asked renomination to a second term.

The court took the motion under consideration. It did not indicate when it would hand down a decision. It was expected soon, however.

Attorneys for Mrs. Ferguson told the court she sought to have it direct the executive committee and state convention, which meets at Lubbock next Monday and Tuesday, as to its duties because she feared efforts might be made to prevent it from functioning according to law.

Counsel for the woman contender told the court that the law made of the executive committee nothing more "than an adding machine," to obtain the totals sent in by each county chairman. They also argued that the "ministerial duties of the convention were not one whit more than those devolving upon the committee."

Others Made Parties

Lawyers for W. O. Huggins, chairman of the executive committee, members of that group, Governor Sterling and Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, all made parties to the suit, said that it never had been the intention of the committee to do other than ascertain the total vote and certify as the nominee the candidate receiving the larger number.

Chief Justice C. M. Cureton, who cut short a vacation on the Pacific coast to hasten here to head his court in the first legal skirmish of a likely court controversy of lengthy duration over the Texas

League Group Condemns Jap Manchurian Policy

TOKIO, Sept. 9. (US)—An authoritative American source today declared that the League of Nations Manchurian commission's report condemns Japan's policy on many points.

This prediction of the report's tenor was directly contradictory to a purported summary of the document circulated in official circles here today.

The American source views the Japanese summary as a piece of aggressive diplomacy intended to pave the way for hastening of Japanese recognition of Manchukuo before the league meets to discuss the report.

Wichita Man Swallows Evidence of Forgery

A man who identified himself at Oklahoma City as O. L. Johnson of Wichita Falls was arrested in the Sooner capital Friday on a charge of forgery after he destroyed a check by eating it when the paper was questioned by First National bank employes. Johnson is unknown to city and county officers of Wichita Falls and the name is not listed in the 1931 or 1932 city directories.

County Attorney Lewis R. Norris, Oklahoma City, said witnesses could be used to establish the alleged forgery.

Tropical Storm Kills Six Persons in Bahamas

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Sept. 9. (#)—The Machay radio station at Jupiter tonight received a communication from the Nassau radio station, saying at least six persons were killed in the tropical storm which passed over Abaco island, Bahamas, Monday.

SOLE SURVIVOR OF AIR CRASH FIGHTS DEATH

Three Die and One Injured When Plane Plunges In Crevice in Mountain

WING STRUCK LEDGE

Californian Burned as Ship Bursts Into Flames On Falling to Earth

EL PASO, Sept. 9. (UP)—Suffering from internal injuries and burns incurred when he fell from a plane which crashed into a mountain east of here, George A. Davidson, Richmond, Calif., fought for his life in a hospital here tonight while cowboys and ranchers led a party through rocky, desolate hill country to the scene of the crash.

Davidson is the lone survivor of a crash which cost the lives of three others—Pilot W. J. Robbins, Fort Worth, Co-Pilot Francis W. Briggs of Dallas and 18-year-old Victor Ellman of St. Louis, Mo., a passenger, died in the burning American Airways ship after its left wing struck a rock ledge and precipitated into a crevice yesterday.

Sighted Searching Ships

The Californian escaped from the plane miraculously and waited until rescuers reached him. He feebly told doctors and nurses here he expected aid throughout the long hours of his vigil last night as he sighted several planes as they searched for the wrecked plane.

"I tried to attract their attention," he said, telling how the searching ships droned over the spot where he lay.

"The last thing that I remember was unbuckling my safety belt and fighting my way out of those terrible flames. I rolled and rolled down the side of the mountain.

"My eyes blistered over, and I couldn't see. I cut the blisters open with my pocket knife. After building a little fire to keep off the cold I walked a long way in search of water."

Doctors said two vertebrae in his back were jammed together and that several ribs were crushed into his left lung.

Pain Was Terrible

"Davidson is the nerviest man I ever saw," said Dr. F. P. Miller, who accompanied pilots to the salt flats emergency field from where the search was made.

"In the condition he was in, he still was considerate of the men who struggled with his stretcher down that tortuous six miles of rock and brush. He would mumble for them not to mind when one of them would stumble and jar the stretcher.

"We had to stop every few hundred yards to administer narcotics and give the poor fellow water. He was in terrible pain."

Davidson was brought to a hospital here by Ira McConaughner, Dallas, who piloted the ship which discovered the wrecked liner, and who led the party of 17 men through rocks and brush to the scene of the wreck.

Ranchers were unstinting in their praise of this six-foot strapping pilot who disclaimed honors despite the fact he had been at the stick of his plane ceaselessly for almost 24 hours.

Bring Out Bodies

His ability to find the wrecked ship in the trackless hill country was unusual, ranchers said.

The party, returning to the ship was to examine the wreckage and bring out bodies of the victims. All were burned beyond recognition.

Briggs, once chief pilot for the Century air lines on the Pacific coast, and (Bryant) Robbins, were well known pilots in the Southwest.

Each is survived by his widow and Robbins' 10-year-old son survives him. Briggs will be buried in Toledo, Ohio, and his parents live in Emerson, Iowa.

Anti-Saloon League Deserts Hoover Campaign

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (US)—The Anti-Saloon league today deserted its 1928 idol—Herbert Hoover—and decided to stay out of this year's presidential campaign.

Declaring that both party platforms are unsatisfactory on the subject of prohibition, the league, in a statement of policy issued by the executive committee, announced a campaign to keep congress dry, hoping thereby to prevent repeal or modification.

Roosevelt Stock Climbs As Sudden Endorsement Comes From Tammany

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 9. (US)—Tammany hall extended the olive branch to Governor Roosevelt today and thereby greatly increased his chances of capturing New York state's electoral vote.

Offered by John F. Curry, Tammany leader, the Democratic state committee unanimously passed a resolution extolling Roosevelt and Garner and urging a united party front in their support. The committee decided to hold the state convention here Oct. 3 and 4. These are the same dates set for the Republican state convention at Buffalo.

When today's meeting adjourned, Curry and his friend, John H. McCooey, "boss" of Brooklyn, visited the executive mansion at the governor's request and chatted with him for half an hour. Roosevelt said later:

"We talked about the temporary and permanent chairman of the state convention, merely discussing a lot of names. We also discussed the selection of presidential electors."

Tammany's unexpected gesture of friendliness towards Roosevelt was taken to mean that the New York City organization will support his candidacy despite the Mayor Walker removal hearings.

This move likewise strengthened the belief that before the state con-

RAILROADS TO SEEK PAY CUT

Coolidge Mentioned as Czar Of Industry

CHICAGO, Sept. 9. (UP)—While one group discussed offering the position of railroad dictatorship today to Calvin Coolidge, representatives of America's most important railroads decided to demand a 20 per cent reduction in the salaries of more than 2,000,000 men.

The lowered wages would go in effect Feb. 1, 1933, but in reality would amount to 10 per cent less than the men now are receiving. Last February they took a 10 per cent "reduction" in pay, with the understanding that it would last for one year and that basic wages would be unchanged.

Hope of Compromise

The United Press understands from unquestionable sources that the railroads have no real hope of obtaining the 20 per cent reduction they ask. They do hope, however, that by arbitration they will obtain a continuance of the present wage scale and perhaps put it on a permanent basis.

The nine railroad vice presidents and the representatives of other lines serving all parts of the country issued the following formal statement after today's meeting in the offices of the general managers association:

"It was decided to recommend to the individual railroads that notices be served to all classes of employes of the carriers intention to reduce all basic rates of pay 20 per cent, effective Feb. 1, 1933."

Discuss Dictator

Members of the Western Railroad Executives association met meanwhile to argue over appointment of a dictator, who would have powers similar to those of Will Hays in the movies, and Kenesaw Mountain Landis in baseball.

Some of the executives suggested the position be offered Coolidge. Others wanted it given Henry Thornton, former president of the Canadian National railroad.

Construction Work Ordered Speeded Up

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (#)—President Hoover announced today that "in order further to aid employment" he had instructed various government branches to speed up the federal construction program by almost $200,000,000.

The president told newspaper men that Secretary Mills had notified him the necessary funds could now be made available under the appropriations in the 1932 relief and construction act.

Under this speeding up, Mr. Hoover said, the total federal construction work during the present fiscal year will exceed $750,000,000. The chief executive explained that detailed allocations under the present move would be given out by the individual government departments concerned, adding that the public buildings program probably would be available at the treasury department next Monday.

Curtis to Deliver Farm Relief Address

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (US)—Farm relief will be the subject of Vice President Curtis' campaign address at Fogelsville, Pa., Sept. 17, he disclosed today.

As he will address a gathering chiefly of farmers, the vice president said he chose their problem as his text.

After opening his speaking tour for re-election in Pennsylvania, Curtis said he would go to Kentucky and Tennessee for two-days stays in each state and then invade the Middle West farm belt.

BOTH HOUSES PASS BILL TO REMIT PENALTY

Sterling Signature Needed Now to Put Law Into Immediate Effect

SESSION CONTINUES

Bill Remits Penalty on All Delinquent Taxes If Paid by Dec. 31

AUSTIN, Sept. 9. (#)—The Texas legislature today definitely accomplished one of the three major purposes for which it was re-convened, the relief of delinquent taxpayers through remission of their penalties and interest.

The bill needed only Gov. R. S. Sterling's signature to make its provisions immediately effective. The law would provide that penalties and interest be charged off on all delinquent taxes paid by Dec. 31 this year, no matter how long the taxes have been delinquent.

The compromise bill was approved unanimously by the senate and passed 106 to 3, in the house. The proposal applied to all state county and school district taxes, leaving it optional with cities as to whether they would adopt the plan.

Adjournment Delayed

Representative C. E. Farmer of Fort Worth moved to reject the free conference bill and request another conference. His motion was defeated, 62 to 52. Farmer contended the compromise plan would not give the needed relief to taxpayers in the cities.

Governor Sterling had expressed a hope the legislators would be able to go home tomorrow, but the lawmakers virtually had given up that hope. The house bill to provide for assumption by the state of the counties' outstanding indebtedness on state highways had not yet reached the senate floor, although the senate had passed a bill similar in purpose.

The house spent most of the day in argument on a resolution proposing a house committee investigation of the Democratic run-off primary and the campaign before that primary. It finally tabled it, definitely disposing of the troublesome issue. The senate had consumed several days in debating a proposal to investigate the primary before abandoning the proposal yesterday.

Mrs. Arthur Huff Dies in McAllen

Mrs. Arthur B. Huff of McAllen, Texas, formerly of Wichita Falls, died in McAllen at 9 o'clock Friday night, relatives here were informed.

Mrs. Huff underwent an operation Saturday and her condition had been threatening for several days. Friday, however, she showed definite improvement until a sudden turn for the worse Friday evening.

She was married to A. B. Huff, son of Judge R. E. Huff, in 1920 and the couple resided here until two years ago. She was a native of Maine, where her parents live.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed Friday night.

Fighters Having Success With Huge Forest Fire

VENTURA, Calif., Sept. 9. (US)—While the gigantic forest and brush fire raging in the hills of Eventura and Santa Barbara counties continued generally out of control today, a winning battle was being fought on its southern front, federal foresters reported.

The blaze, which started in the Matilija canyon early Wednesday, has swept approximately 60,000 acres in the Santa Barbara national forest and adjacent territory on its way toward the coast.

The flames had crept within five miles of Montecito, the millionaire colony at Santa Barbara.

Heavy fogs throughout the national forest aided in checking the advance of the flames.

More than 1,500 men are laboring on the various fire fronts.

EXPLOSION KILLS MAN

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 9.—One man was dead, three may die and three were injured in an explosion early today in the Imperial theater. A friction spark caused a film to explode while being wound. The operator died of burns.

governorship, commented that parties on both sides were agreed "as to the law."

He observed that the only point to be determined was one raised by respondents that action on the part of Mrs. Ferguson was premature, since the committee had not exhibited any intention of not tracking the law in its certification of a nominee.

Ferguson in Court

Mrs. Ferguson was not in court. Governor Sterling was not present. James E. Ferguson sat with his wife's attorneys. Dan Moody, former governor and uncompromising political enemy to the Fergusons, was there. He signed an answer to Mrs. Ferguson's petition on behalf of Mrs. McCallum but did not make oral argument.

Moody and Ferguson have not spoken since the former as attorney general in the administration of Mrs. Ferguson in 1925-27 challenged certain contracts awarded by the state highway commission as "unconscionable," and subsequently defeated her for re-election. They did not speak today, although they came face to face several times as they moved about a crowded court room.

Attached to the respondents' answer to the Ferguson application were telegrams from each of the 31 executive committeemen declaring they never had a thought other than to follow the law in certifying the party nominee.

Albert Sidney Johnson of Dallas, secretary of the executive committee, who appeared as attorney for Huggins and the committeemen told the court the Ferguson action was "a reflection on the honor, honesty and integrity of the good Texans who were serving their party without monetary compensation."

Called "Premature"

Johnson and W. A. Keeling, who represented Governor Sterling, contended that the Ferguson application for mandamus was "premature."

During the arguments presented by both sides court decision involving points in other legal controversies fought around the hectic political careers of the Fergusons were quoted. Holdings handed down in suits involving the right of James E. Ferguson to have his name placed on his party ballots as a candidate for any state office, were mentioned.

Also points involved in what was generally known as "the amnesty law," passed by the legislature during Mrs. Ferguson's administration to restore her husband's pre-impeachment status were recalled. The amnesty bill had been held unconstitutional and a court decision denied James E. Ferguson the right to get his name on the ballots as a candidate for office, based on a constitutional inhibition against an impeached state officer ever again holding state office.

Darkness Halts Allison's Match

WEST SIDE STADIUM, FOREST Hills, N. Y., Sept. 9. (UP)—The semifinal match between Wilmer Allison of Texas and Henri Cochet of France, to decide an opponent for Ellsworth Vines in the final round of the 51st annual men's national tennis championship, was called on account of darkness today with the score standing two sets all.

Cochet won the first set, 6-1, dropped the second and third at 10-12, 4-6, and took the fourth at 6-3, just as night closed in on the stadium and its more than 10,000 customers.

The match will be resumed tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, with the winner meeting Vines, who advanced to the final racket with a stirring 4-6, 8-10, 10-8, 6-1 victory over Clifford Sutter, intercollegiate champion from New Orleans.

Spanish-American Vets Hold Regular Meeting

More than 250 people attended the regular meeting of the Spanish-American war veterans Friday night at the Memorial auditorium when reports of the August national convention at Milwaukee were presented at the local camp. The attendance was the largest in the history of the local camp organized in 1911, Adjutant W. L. Dalton declared.

W. R. Duke and Mrs. L. E. Miller, both of this city, presented the national camp and auxiliary reports. The attendance included 150 members, 75 auxiliary members and representatives of camps at Electra, Burkburnett, Iowa Park, Vernon, Henrietta, Bowie, and Waurika, Okla.

The next meeting of the camp also will be a joint session with the auxiliary for a banquet and social on Sept. 23.

Charles Doran Signs With Fanchon-Marco

Charles Doran, former Wichita Falls dancing instructor, has just signed a year's contract with Fanchon-Marco brothers on the west coast and will appear both in their theater road attractions as well as in motion pictures. The first movie production Doran will appear in will be a screen edition of "Whoopee," according to word received by friends here.

The Fanchon-Marco interests furnish talent for many of the leading movie producers and their shows are unit productions contracted through several chains of theaters in the nation. Doran was a popular entertainer in Wichita Falls and appeared on numerous programs, both private and public.

INSTALLMENT RIDES

Thrills Fill Life

Enough thrills to fill a novel have been packed into the life of Norman Armour, above, counselor of the American embassy in Paris, who has just been named minister to Haiti. Shortly after his marriage to Princess Myra Koudacheff in Russia in 1918, he saved her life in the revolutionary disorders. Ordered out of Vologda, Russia, where he was serving as a connecting link between U. S. consuls, he refused to go and was escorted out by Bolshevik troops. When a band of revolutionaries boarded the train en route to Moscow, Armour burned the red and green secret codes of the state department and got through safely. No kin to the Chicago Armours, he is the son of a wealthy New England family and a Princeton graduate.

Tammany Pledges Aid To Roosevelt

vention meets here on Oct. 3, Tammany will also swing behind Lieut. Gov. Herbert Lehman for the gubernatorial nomination. Lehman has the endorsement of Roosevelt and is likewise expected to receive support from Al Smith.

The committee meeting brought a flock of Democratic leaders here including National Chairman James A. Farley. In line with the harmony program agreed upon, no effort was made to oust Farley as state chairman, although this had been threatened.

Roosevelt had a busy day greeting visitors and preparing speeches for his western trip which starts Monday night.

Former Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, one of his convention rivals for the nomination, pledged him support and announced his intention to campaign for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket. Reed said the Democrats should carry Missouri easily, barring an upset between now and election day.

Another visitor was Clyde M. Reed, former Republican governor of Kansas, who came here at Roosevelt's invitation to discuss the effect of freight rates upon agricultural prices. On his trip to the Pacific coast, Roosevelt will stop at Topeka on Sept. 14 to outline his farm relief program.

BOYS KILLED IN SCUFFLE

Verdict Given in Death Of San Marcos Youths

SAN MARCOS, Texas, Sept. 9. (AP)—Investigation of the fatal shooting of Arthur and Harry Morton, sons of a wealthy rancher, was at a standstill tonight after a verdict by Justice of the Peace A. M. Ramsay that the youths were mortally wounded during a scuffle over a hair-triggered pistol.

Texas rangers, called into the case at request of a San Marcos newspaper, were noncommittal as to their findings. Whether the district attorney's office would pursue the investigation further was not made public.

Pistol Nearby

The boys were shot yesterday at a little stone house near their parents' $300,000 ranch house in the hills 10 miles north of San Marcos where they had been spending the summer.

Harry, 14, was found on the ground about 25 yards from the stone house. He was rushed to a hospital but died immediately after arrival without being able to make a statement.

The body of Arthur, 15, was in the sleeping room of the house. He had been killed by a bullet which struck him in the head. A pistol with three cartridges fired lay nearby.

Justice Ramsay said there were no eye-witnesses to the shooting.

"The younger boy had loaned his brother an automatic pistol and wanted to take it back and give it to his father," Justice Ramsay said. "The pistol had a hair-trigger which caused it to continue firing so long as there was pressure on the trigger.

Gun Turned in Scuffle

"One bullet struck the younger boy in the right side. Another hit him in the neck, severing the jugular vein. The gun apparently was turned in the scuffle and the third shot went between the younger boy's fingers and struck Arthur in the head."

Ranger Capt. Frank Hamer and Ranger George M. Allen came from Austin and conducted an investigation but did not reveal their findings. Captain Hamer said he had learned "a little" about the affair.

The boys' parents were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hunter Morton of San Antonio, who have extensive ranch interests in Texas. The boys attended high school in San Antonio and had planned to resume their studies there this year.

Bodies of the boys were taken to San Antonio for burial.

Bern Threatened His Wife's Life

Men and women famous in the screen world wept as Conrad Nagel said farewell to his friend, in making the funeral oration.

Shortly before the funeral, Mrs. Marcus had made an impassioned statement in which she demanded that "those who know" should explain why her brother killed himself.

"Aren't we entitled to know?" she said.

Actress Guarded

Because of the possibility that Miss Millette had not committed suicide, but had secretly come to Los Angeles and might appear at the funeral, friends kept a close guard over Miss Harlow.

The crowd was carefully watched, on the chance that the missing woman might try to get a last glimpse of the face of the man who had looked upon her as his wife.

Mrs. Marcus threw further light today on the Bern-Millette situation, when she said that the couple were never married "because they were both individualists and neither believed in marriage."

CIVILIZATION'S CURSE

WASHINGTON. — Now they're blaming the spread of toothache among Eskimos on the introduction of white man's food. The Smithsonian Institute advances this theory after study of the teeth of living and dead Alaskan natives. Toothache is now much more prevalent among the Eskimos than a century ago, it is said.

Ox-Drawn Wagon Over Two Months In Reaching Wichita, Pioneer Recalls

Stories Of The Wichita Area Pioneers

When her mother decided to come to the Wichita area in 1880 the trip required two months and 10 days by ox-drawn wagon, Mrs. Lillis Morgan, 1810 Elizabeth, who was 13 years old at the time recalls. The family left Ellis county in March, 1880, and arrived after a lonely journey across the hills and prairie lands on the 200-mile trip. The route led over cattle trails and every river and stream crossing presented a problem, with bridges unknown in the western frontier country.

Mrs. Morgan's mother brought the I. N. Bowers farm in the northwest Burkburnett oil field and resided there until her death in 1903. The family came from Illinois in 1879 and resided in Ellis county a few months before undertaking the ox wagon journey to this area.

VERNON MAN BROUGHT DAIRY COWS TO WEST

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Naylor of Wilbarger county, residing 14 miles north of Vernon, came to the Wichita Falls area in 1888 and made their home at the present site. They came to this section from Hubbard City, Hill county, Texas. Mr. Naylor is a native of Lancaster, Ky., and Mrs. Naylor was born in Boone county, Missouri.

Mr. Naylor arrived in Dallas Feb. 14, 1875, working his way to Texas in charge of two cars of dairy cows and one car of Durham calves. The cows were consigned to Cole Dent at Dallas, but Mr. Naylor trailed the calves to Fort Worth before the Texas & Pacific railway was completed. Vernon was the western terminal of the Fort Worth and Denver when they moved to Wilbarger county.

H. C. JUSTIN KNOWS WICHITA RANGES

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Justin of Vernon are pioneer residents of the Wichita area and Mr. Justin has roamed the open range of this section since 1870. Mr. Justin was active for more than a score years as a cowpuncher, buffalo hunter and Indian fighter in the early days of Wilbarger county. He is a native of Rock county, Wisconsin, and worked on a Montague county ranch when he first came to this section. He ranged over the site of Wichita Falls early in 1870.

He has held numerous positions as a law enforcement officer in Wilbarger county and is now active as judge of precinct No. 1, justice of the peace court, at Vernon. Mrs. Justin is a native of Independence, Iowa, and has resided at Vernon since Oct. 1, 1891.

T. J. WAGGONERS RECALL EARLY DAYS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Waggoner, 1600 Buchanan, are pioneer residents of this community. Both are natives of Decatur, Texas. Mr. Waggoner came here June 10, 1879, and went to work on the Waggoner ranch, three miles east of the city south of the Wichita river, where he continued until his marriage in 1888, shortly after Mrs. Waggoner arrived on March 1.

They resided on the Gilbert creek ranch, 12 miles northwest of the city, for eight years. Mrs. Waggoner recalls entertaining uninvited Indians at the ranch to relieve her loneliness. Mr. Waggoner knew every early settler of the area and both have watched the development of the city. They remember Burkburnett when it was known as Nestorville and the site of Iowa Park was a bald prairie.

ODDITIES TO BE EXHIBITED

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, (UP)—A rat trap of gold is one of the many royal relics and curiosities which will be exhibited in public for the first time this fall in the king's palace of Stockholm. It is small and enameled, and made for a watch-charm rather than for use. Snuff boxes in precious metals, deformed bullets extracted from the wounds of Swedish kings, jeweled decorations and odd mementoes found in various Swedish palaces, miniature portraits of princes and even royal regalias found in the tombs of kings are included.

FIGHT MADE TO RECOVER CHILD

Kidnaped Grandson of Dallas Held by Father

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 9. (AP)—Announcement that the Bradford family will not compromise in its fight to regain custody of Hubert Johnson Jenkins Jr., 10, and to return the boy's father to Dallas to face trial of kidnaping Charles was made here late today by Dexter Hamilton, attorney for the family.

"I don't care to discuss Jenkins himself, but we feel we are more fit to have custody of the child," said Hamilton, who arrived by train today with extradition papers for Jenkins from the governor of Texas.

Guardianship Illegal

Hamilton asserted the guardianship invested in the step-grandmother, Mrs. Addie Keating Bradford, a few days ago is the only legal guardianship. Mrs. Bradford is the widow of the late Mayor T. L. Bradford of Dallas.

A guardianship which Jenkins assumed in court here today, Hamilton said, would not be legal.

"No one can touch a penny of that estate until they go to Texas and prove their right," Hamilton said.

He said although the Bradford estate was not interested particularly in the charges against Jenkins, there would be no relenting on the part of Texas officials to obtain Jenkins for trial.

Extradition papers, he said, will be presented to Gov. Ruby Laffoon, and if extradition is granted, he said he expected no trouble in finding Jenkins, who has been in seclusion.

Whereabouts Unknown

Tonight, the whereabouts of the young heir and his father remained a mystery to all but Jenkins' attorney, Joseph S. Lawton. Lawton has said he will surrender Jenkins on presentation of valid warrants and requisition papers, but will fight the granting of the extradition.

Jenkins and Mayor Bradford's daughter were divorced when the boy was a baby and both relinquished him to Mayor Bradford's guardianship. The boy's mother was killed in an automobile accident several years ago. Bradford died Aug. 22. Monday, Jenkins took the boy from the Bradford home at Dallas and brought him here. The step-grandmother then had Jenkins indicted on a charge of kidnaping. The boy, styled "The Million Dollar Baby," is the eventual heir to half his grandfather's fortune.

NEW TEAR GAS BOMB

BALTIMORE, Md.—The government's chemical warfare service, at Englewood arsenal near here, has developed a new tear gas bomb that is much more effective than the old one. KHAKI SHIRT OFFICIAL HERE

Organizer to Meet Veterans Of District

W. J. B. Giles of Wichita Falls, who was color bearer for the Wichita Falls bonus army group who left June 10, for Washington, returned home Friday as state assistant organizer of the Khaki Shirts of America, Texas division. Giles went through the bonus battle when the veterans were dislodged from Washington, one of the few whose flag was saved from burning when the camps were destroyed.

J. W. Wilford of Dallas is state organizer of the Khaki Shirts and has opened an organization colony at Arlington, Texas, on land donated by W. T. Waggoner of Fort Worth and Col. Bill Easterwood of Dallas. Twenty-five Dallas disabled veterans moved to the colony Wednesday, Giles said.

Plans for the organization of a colony in Wichita Falls with organization of the Khaki Shirts here are being made and Mr. Giles plans to call a meeting of veterans next week and will meet with the American Legion next Thursday. The Arlington colony is operated as self-sustaining with equipment for barber, shoe and printing shops donated by Dallas citizens. The organization aims to run the colonies as self-sustaining to keep the veterans out of bread lines over the nation.

Membership in the Khaki Shirts is open to any one over 18 years of age, although organized by bonus army veterans with W. W. Waters as the national head, and aims for a non-partisan political group of voters seeking political, social and economical justice.

RECORD TOURIST SEASON

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, (UP)—A record tourist season is reported from Visby, the city of ruins and roses, on the Swedish island of Gothland, in the Baltic. By the first of August about 4,000 more passengers had been carried by the regular boats from the mainland than at the same time last year. About 2,000 foreign visitors had been recorded, many arriving on special cruise liners. In general, the Swedish tourist season has been better than expected, though not so good as last year.

Three Minute Relief From Your Headache

When you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B. C.," a reliable, pleasant-to-take remedy. "B. C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia; for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B. C.," in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—Adv.

28 Indictments Returned By Jury

brother, to visit relatives here. They were returning to Tulsa after having visited in Dallas.

Cleveland's indictment was one of 28 returned by the grand jury to Judge P. A. Martin of the 89th district court. Others are:

J. B. (Dink) Moore, theft over $50; Irvine Upshaw, theft over $50; Harriett Bowman, receiving and concealing stolen property over $50; Milton Furr, theft over $50; Homer Jones, liquor law violation; Dan Alexander, negro, murder; May Curtis, negress, assault to murder; Lacy Wingfield, theft over $50; Ada Pogue, receiving and concealing stolen property over $50; R. L. Ellis, manufacture of whisky; Lee Spigner, negro, failure to stop and render aid and driving while drunk; J. A. Moorhead, driving while drunk; two indictments of swindling over $50, five of embezzlement over $50, two of child desertion, three of theft of turkeys, one of robbery with firearms, one of forgery and one of theft over $50, in which arrests have not been made.

During the three months' service of the grand jury, its report said, 80 true bills were returned. The grand jury was in session 10 days during the months of July, August and September.

THEFT SUSPECTS HELD

A white man and a negro were arrested for investigation in connection with what officers declare was an attempt to steal an automobile at Thirteenth and Burnett at 9:15 o'clock Friday night. The arrest was made by Motorcycle Officers John Wildmon and C. S. Carlisle. The white man has a long jail record, Sergeant Fred Stengel said. The negro said the car was borrowed.

SOCIAL WORKER STILL MISSING

Government Men and Prohi Agents in Search.

New York and Mrs. Ella Boole, president of the Women's Christian Temperance union, are among those threatened.

Dry leaders gathered here to formulate their policy in the coming presidential campaign made no secret today of their anxiety over Robins' disappearance.

Robins was to have participated in their discussions.

Chase said the threatening letters he and Mrs. Boole had received were sent from Brooklyn, N. Y., and were in the same handwriting. He predicted if Robins had been kidnaped and mistreated citizens of the nation would revolt against law breaking and what he described as "an alliance between corrupt politicians and organized crime."

Suggests Memory Lapse

The Rev. Edwin C. Dinwiddie of the National Temperance bureau, suggested Robins may have wandered away after a lapse of memory.

Mrs. Robins replied her husband was in excellent health and not subject to loss of memory.

Another strange angle of Robins' disappearance came in reports from New York and Portland, Maine, indicating he may have met a group of persons in sympathy with recognition of Russia by this government, last Saturday after leaving the City club in New York. The missing man was an ardent supporter of Russian recognition.

HIGHER CORN CROP IN SIGHT

Total Wheat Production Estimated Lower

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—The department of agriculture today estimated production of corn in the United States this year at 2,854,307,000 bushels, with its condition at 74.4 per cent of normal as of Sept. 1.

Production of corn in 1931 amounted to 2,563,000,000 bushels.

Production of all wheat was estimated at 714,538,000 bushels, and all spring wheat at 272,750,000 bushels. Production last year amounted to 894,000,000 bushels.

The department reported an indicated production of 44,779,000 bushels of durum wheat in four states, with its condition at 64.3 per cent of normal. In 1931, 18,000,000 bushels of durum wheat were produced in four states.

Production of other spring wheat in the United States was estimated at 227,971,000 bushels, and its condition at 67.5 per cent of normal. Production of other spring wheat last year amounted to 86,000,000 bushels.

The indicated production of oats was placed at 1,244,781,000 bushels, and the condition was estimated at 75.4 per cent of normal. There were 1,112,000,000 bushels of oats produced in 1931.

Indicated production of other crops follow, with comparative figures for the forecast a month ago and statistics of production last year:

Rye, 42,500,000 bushels, compared with 42,500,000 and 32,500,000.

Buckwheat, 7,200,000 bushels, compared with 7,200,000 and 8,900,000.

Flaxseed, 13,300,000 bushels, compared with 15,800,000 and 11,100,000.

Rice, 37,700,000 bushels, compared with 39,100,000 and 45,200,000.

Grain sorghums, 118,000,000 bushels, compared with 125,000,000 and 105,000,000.

Hay (tame), 68,600,000 tons, compared with 67,400,000 and 64,200,000.

Beans (dry edible) 9,900,000 bags (100 pounds), compared with 9,600,000 and 12,700,000.

Peanuts, 1,026,000,000 pounds, compared with 1,083,000,000 last year.

Apples, 138,000,000 bushels, compared with 136,000,000 and 202,000,000.

Slash in Cotton Price Not Justified, Says Texan

AUSTIN, Sept. 9. (AP)—J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture, said today the decline in the market price of cotton after the government cotton estimate was announced was unjustified.

McDonald said the drop in price was "the result of market manipulation and thoroughly demonstrative that our cotton marketing system is wrong."

He said "cotton at the present price is far under the cost of production, and we should not overlook the fact that the present price of eight cents a pound, the 1932 cotton crop will bring no more money to Texas than the 1931 crop."

Fate of Accused Nurse In Hands of Jury

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 9. (UP)—The fate of Mrs. Ethel Depew, attractive nurse charged with participating in the kidnaping of Mrs. Nell Donnelly, millionaire garment manufacturer, rested with a jury of 12 men tonight.

The jurors received the case at 5:45 o'clock this afternoon after the defense had rested its case, closing arguments had been made and Judge Ben Terte had read his instructions.

Two Bandits Obtain $20,000 From Bank

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Sept. 9. (INS)—Two bandits held up the Home Savings bank of Davenport shortly after noon today, tied up two bank employes and three customers and escaped with cash estimated at $20,000.

The robbery was the second time the Home Savings bank has been victimized this year by bandits. On Feb. 29 bandits obtained $26,000.

NEW SPEED RECORDS MADE

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, (UP)—New speed records in telegrams between the United States and Sweden were made during the recent Olympics. The average time for urgent flashes between Los Angeles and the Grimeton radio station, near Gothenburg, was from 12 to 25 minutes, but the results of the hammer throw arrived in six, and the high hurdles in 10. Ordinary press telegrams varied from half an hour to two. The wireless co-operation between the two countries was perfect. From Gothenburg the press flashes were telephoned across Sweden to Stockholm.

PONS ADMITS MARITAL RIFT

French Opera Star Tells Of Estrangement

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 9. (AP)—Lily Pons, dainty little French woman who for two seasons has starred in the Metropolitan opera, revealed today that she and her husband have been estranged since April.

They probably will not be divorced until spring, she said.

The rift in their marital relations was made she said when her husband, August Mesritz, went to Paris from New York on business.

Concerning divorce plans, she said "such things are difficult to discuss when one person is in America and another in Europe."

She described reports that she planned to marry a young Argentine as "ridiculous."

"I cannot discuss plans in connection with the divorce more fully because I will be busy with an engagement in Los Angeles, then a concert tour and the opera. I probably will be unable to visit France until spring," said the 27-year-old diva, tanned by the tropical sun during her long visit here.

She said E. M. Von Voorhies, American automobile agency manager, who frequently escorted her on automobile rides here was "simply an old friend of mine and my husband's."

Madamoiselle Pons and her husband were guests of Von Voorhies last year.

The opera singer will sail for the United States on the steamship American Legion on Sept. 15.

Secretary Mills Talks With German Envoy

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (UP)—Secretary of Treasury Mills said today he had conferred with representatives of the German embassy regarding postponement of the German debt of $8,000,000 due Sept. 30. Mille denied emphatically the German government had formally requested postponement of the payment.

"I talked with Dr. Rudolf Leitner today," Mills said, "and our conversation concerned postponement of the German debt installment due at the end of this month."

Mills then denied he had agreed to waive the 90-day notification clause in the debt agreement required for any postponement.

BANK BANDIT IS IDENTIFIED

Man Wounded by Officers Viewed by Employes

Special to The Record News.

MEMPHIS, Texas, Sept. 9.—Clarence Stinson, who is in a Turkey hospital where his leg was amputated Saturday, has been positively identified by W. W. Williamson and Mrs. Myrtle Ray of the Lakeview bank as one of the men who held up and robbed that institution of approximately $1,600.

Apprehension of Stinson and his identification as the robber of the Lakeview bank brings to an end a long search led by Deputy Lindsey Hill. When the Lakeview bank was robbed Sheriff John Alexander assigned Deputy Hill to the case. For several months Hill followed many clues, taking him to towns throughout this section. He is still following clues to bring the other man to justice.

Others Escaped

Stinson's leg was badly injured last Friday when he and two companions engaged in a gun battle with Brisco county officers. The three were reported to have stolen automobiles in Turkey and one at Matador.

The battle occurred after Brisco county officers had trailed the three men to a canyon south of town. Pursuing them up a canyon one of the men turned and opened fire on the officers. The Brisco county officers shot at the men, hitting Stinson in the left leg, just below the knee, tearing out about six inches of the bone. None of the officers was hit and the other two men escaped in the brakes.

Kilgore Man Asks Oil Theft Probe

AUSTIN, Sept. 9. (AP)—Senator Margie E. Neal of Carthage received a telegram today from Col. J. Lewis Thompson of Kilgore requesting a legislative hearing on charges of wholesale theft of oil in the East Texas oil area.

Colonel Thompson said that "this field is in the hands of racketeers who would put Al Capone in Chicago to shame."

He said that 50 East Texas land owners and farmers would come to Austin Monday to detail their allegations. He asserted that they would charge flagrant violation of the proration orders of the railroad commission.

Colonel Thompson said the group wanted to appear before the legislature or some proper legislative committee in the hope that the law makers could fix the responsibility for existing conditions.

"Sweeten it with Domino"

Women said:

A fast working soap can't be safe!

BUT they didn't know about the New Oxydol then

● If sad experience with other soaps has convinced you that a soap able to soak dirt out quickly is too strong for colors and fine materials—try Oxydol. No longer need you spend extra time washing lingerie because you're afraid to use the same soap that whisks dirt out of sheets!

Women know now that rich suds are what do the extra work for them—that suds are the secret of all easy washing.

The New Oxydol's as mild as May—as kind to hands as it is to dainty things—yet it takes dirt out faster than any soap you've ever seen. Because it makes 50% more suds—richer, longer lasting suds that float dirt out and hold it out so clothes are fresh and fragrant—clean smelling suds that don't ball up or leave a scum.

Use it for dishes too. See how quickly those extra suds cut the grease—how easily they rinse off so dishes are sparkling clean—how much work they save you. And remember that Oxydol softens water. Even the softest water turns hard when you put in dirty clothes or dishes.

Ask your grocer today for a big package of the New Oxydol. Use enough to make rich suds—it dissolves instantly —and see how it lightens all your household tasks.

A Washington Bystander

By KIRK SIMPSON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—California has had a remarkable place in the national political sunlight. She provided the first Republican candidate for the presidency, Fremont. And she has twice put forward Herbert Hoover and played the leading role, via William Gibbs McAdoo, in providing Mr. Hoover's 1932 rival for the presidency.

WILLIAM G. McADOO

Between times, the state, through the dynamic personality of her senior senator, Hiram Johnson, has had a finger in every presidential pot on the Republican side since and including 1912.

Exit a "Californiac"

That is quite a record for a single state. Yet it overlooks the fact that for a dozen years California also has contributed to the halls of congress that notable "Californiac," Senator "Sunny Sam" Shortridge, now a primary casualty, "lame-ducked" before election day.

No more after March 4 next will the majestic figure of Shortridge arise in the senate to tell the world of California's climatic and other blessings. No more will the long and waving forefingers of Shortridge adorn with graceful gesture the epic tale of California excellencies. Who will arise to challenge the 12-year Shortridge record for gracious, courtly, dignified demeanor in debate, for senatorial courtesy that never forgets itself?

Will McAdoo, assuming a Democrat sits in the Shortridge seat in the next congress, fill all these Shortridge roles? Or would Shortridge's primary vanquisher who bears the striking name of Tallant Tubbs do his duty by the climate of the golden state? Who knows?

In Peril Before

Perhaps his six-year-old experience had something to do with the Shortridge die-hard refusal to concede defeat. The senator was in very grave peril, by all accounts, when he last ran. That present field marshal of the McAdoo forces, John B. Elliott of Los Angeles, his then Democratic opponent, had Mr. Shortridge worried.

Perhaps he also had President Coolidge worried. There was a great deal of rivalry in California that year over a federal judgeship vacancy.

If Shortridge had thrown his support to any one of the four or five men seeking it, the indignation of the several disappointed hopefuls and their friends might have hurt him at the polls.

As it turned out, however, the judgeship remained vacant until after election.

Tulsa Attorney Pleads Guilty to Swindling

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 9. (AP)—Rufus A. Underwood, former Tulsa attorney and more recently a resident of Longview, Texas, pleaded guilty in district court today to a charge of forgery and two charges of embezzlement and was sentenced to 18 months on each charge, the terms to run concurrently.

The forgery charge, eight years old, was that Underwood signed the name of County Judge John Boyd to guardianship papers through which he allegedly defrauded A. A. Cummings of Tulsa of $1,500.

Is Population Coming To A Standstill?

THE BIRTHRATE in the United States, reacting to the prolonged period of lowered business activity, registered the unusual decline of 5.8 per cent for 1931 as compared with 1930, according to the statistical bulletin of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. The bulletin also forecasts that in 1932 this birthrate will reach a new low point, to which the observed long-time downward trend would not have brought it until 1934 or later.

The decrease in the birth rate is stated to be much more pronounced among the industrial than the agricultural population, although it is pointed out that the greatest percentage of decline, 14.3 per cent, is shown in the distinctly non-industrial state of Arizona.

The decline in the birth rate is not confined to the United States. European countries, which have been under even greater economic stress, have shown similar declines.

"A comparison of the birth rates," says The Bulletin, "for the expanding registration area for the years 1915 to 1931 shows that a decrease in the birth rate of 5.8 per cent, as registered in 1931, although unusual, is not without precedent. The drop in 1922, like that in 1931, followed a year in which unfavorable business conditions prevailed. In 1919, the decline of 9.4 per cent probably reflected the cumulative effect of a number of abnormal conditions growing out of the influenza epidemic and the war. The unusual drops recorded in 1922, 1931 and 1932, on the other hand, can hardly be attributed to any factors other than unfavorable business conditions, superimposed on those influences which have caused the observed general downward trend characteristic of recent years."

It has been shown that the present fecundity of the American population is barely adequate to maintain our numbers at a fixed level. Temporarily, we still have a good excess of births over deaths, but only because of past conditions, which have given us a relative excess of women in child-bearing ages. But a further fall in the birth rate will presently bring us below the self-sustaining level, when the effect of past high birth rates has worn off. It is, of course, possible that when the present economic stringency passes, there will also be a recovery in our fecundity to a higher point, through an increase in the marriage rate. Failing this, it appears inevitable that, at some not distant date, our population will not only come to a standstill, but will actually decline, now that accretion from outside by immigration is precluded.

Germany's Right To Arm

GERMANY'S assertion that the right to arm as she pleases can not be denied her any longer comes as one more alarm bell for those who went comfortably to sleep, a decade ago, in the belief that the Treaty of Versailles was an enduring document.

That treaty, as becomes more evident every day, was written when overwhelming victory had gone to people's heads. Looking at it in the light of what has happened since, it is hard to believe that it was not written by men who had somehow intoxicated themselves with the wine of triumph.

First of all, the treaty set forth the proposition that Germany was to pay for the war.

No one needs to point out, any more, how utterly mistaken that notion was. The final collapse of the reparations agreements has taken place. The belief that Germans yet unborn could be made to pay hundreds of millions of dollars a year because their ancestors sat on the wrong side of a peace table has been definitely exploded.

NOW it is becoming equally evident that the plan for making Germany permanently weak, from a military viewpoint, was equally visionary.

Germany, so the plan went, was to be kept a second-class power, as far as armaments went, so that she could not again threaten the peace of the world. With world peace thus secured, the allied nations would presently reduce their armaments also. In this way, the dove of peace would eventually make itself at home in the midst of Europe.

Somehow it hasn't worked out that way. The dove of peace is noticeably jittery. The allied nations have not cut their military forces. And the treaty clause governing German armaments is not going to work much longer.

Isn't it just possible that the time is not far off when the world will discover that the rest of the Versailles treaty is not much more workable than these two provisions . . . and will make it all over?

People Who Made History

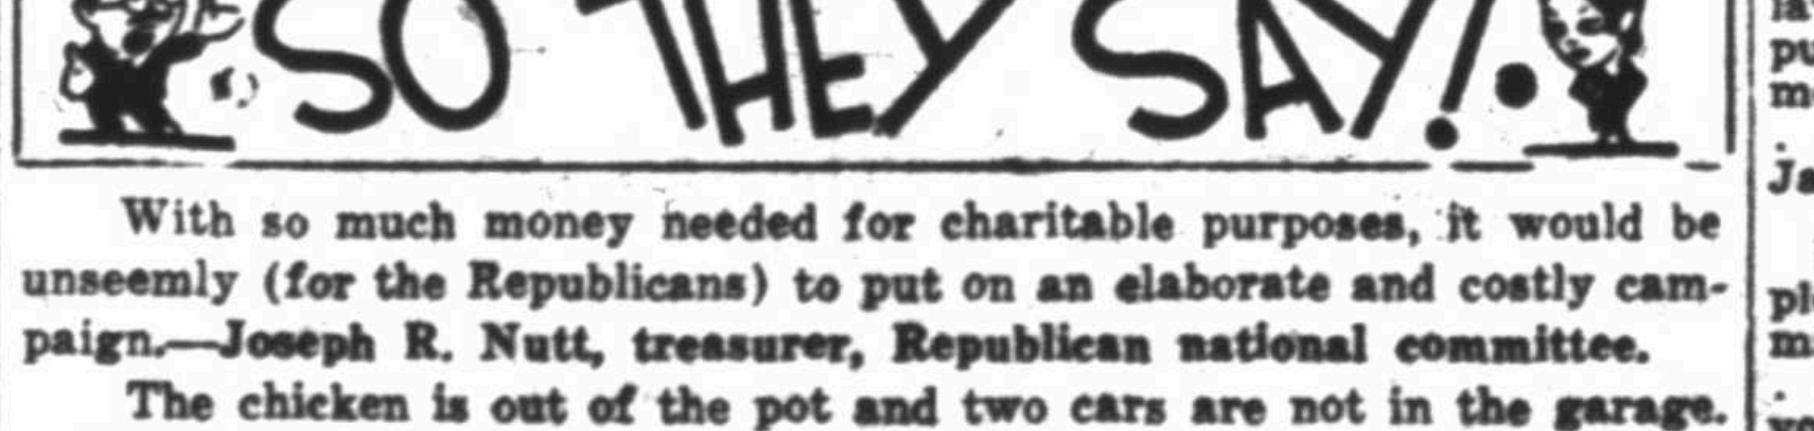
THE pioneers' registration committee of Wichita Falls Fiftieth Anniversary association has found its work to be as interesting as it is important.

Thousands of persons, both men and women, who were pioneers in this section and many of whom still live here and others who live in other states have written in to give their names and addresses and some brief facts about their early day experiences. Many of them have written that they expect to attend the reunion and hope to meet many of their old friends. What a reunion it will be!

The earliest settlers tell of buffalos and Indians, dugouts, drouths, floods and the hardships of pioneer life. Several have told of fights with the Indians and more than one has told of being carried away and held captive by the Indians.

Here was history and adventure and romance and many of those who will come to Wichita Falls' Jubilee, Sept. 26, 27 and 28, took part in stirring events.

The pioneers themselves, the historical exhibits, the parades, the pageant will provide material and color, such as can never be assembled again for those who would write of the history and would paint romance.



With so much money needed for charitable purposes, it would be unseemly (for the Republicans) to put on an elaborate and costly campaign.—Joseph R. Nutt, treasurer, Republican national committee.

Where There Ain't No Ten Commandments

By ROSITA FORBES

We saw the storekeeper's wife in the arms of a young man. They were terribly in love and taking it hard.

A wizened white man—king of a South Seas cannibal tribe—used his subjects to exact revenge on his wife's lover.

INSTALMENT II

A long time ago, before I knew anything about surveys or nationalism or the effect of climate and surroundings on white men who "go native" I was wandering about the southern seas with another young woman as ignorant as myself.

The dozen other passengers on board were floatsam and jetsam from the hemp and tobacco plantations of the ruthless islands. They vied with each other in telling us strange tales and sometimes by accident they spoke the truth because the things they had seen and done under the southern cross were so much stranger than anything they could invent. They talked glibly of vanilla and copra and cocoa as we lay on deck, while the sun crept under the tattered awning and licked worn canvas shoes and glasses that had held "Doctor Funk" cocktails until it reached the white anaemic faces of those who earn their bread—and drink—in the tropics. But one man talked only of his wife.

He was small and incredibly wizened, with alternatively the stillness and the quick, effortless movements of a native. For 30 years he had lived among the Guri Bari tribe outside the pale in New Guinea. When he first established his store somewhere between the Owen Stanley range and the tropical belt he was the only white man in the region. His predecessor had been eaten with everything but his boots which were recovered by the punitive exhibition after they had been cooked for many days to make them tender.

"Of course it's all different now," explained the planters. "I don't say a baby doesn't occasionally disappear off some plantation register and the only explanation offered is: 'He was sick, so we eat him kaikai,' but that little fellow's got his people in hand. You wouldn't think it to look at him, would you, but he's a sort of god up there. The natives are terrified of him."

"And his wife?" we asked.

"Madness," said the planters. "What can a woman do in a crazy shanty with nothing but birds of paradise and stark naked blacks?"

"Is she up there alone now?"

"She's probably running the store, beads, knives, belts, and anything scarlet. That always gets the boys. They like a bit o' color. The place is way beyond most of the plantations, but I did hear there was a young fellow prospecting somewhere in that direction."

Unanimously our fellow passengers advised us to accept the little man's invitation to stay. "You'll see the real stuff—undiluted native," they said, but what sent us to the back of beyond was curiosity to meet the man's wife. When he spoke of her the storekeeper, who had lived native for so long that his English hesitated, looked happier than any human has a right to be.

When we parted from him in the port the trail through the blue gum country might have been lit by the excitement in his eyes. He wouldn't wait for a drink in the spider-haunted barn which was then the only hotel. He was off astride a rat of a pony, with a villainous looking native from whose girdle depended a live rodent intended doubtless for supper, before the other travelers had sorted their luggage.

A fortnight later, a buckboard, drawn by two lean horses which fell over the chain traces and their own noses took us to the edge of civilization. After that, we rode for a couple of days. A woman came to meet us through the long grass, amidst which a galvanized iron roof looked oddly out of place. She wasn't very wonderful. She was just young and sunburnt and blue-eyed. She was also monosyllabic and uneasy. But what staggered us was the change in the little man we'd known on the boat.

Now, he looked as if a candle had been snuffed inside him. Without the glamour of happiness, he was just a dried-up little fellow, with claw-like fingers and something repulsive about his mouth. It shut so closely that it appeared lipless.

He never referred to his wife. He might not have been aware of her presence. The situation would have been incredible after his chatter on the boat, but for an incident which occurred the evening after our arrival. It had been a thoroughly uncomfortable day, full of silences and repression.

"If that woman werent' utterly stupid, she'd be frightened," said my companion. "This place is unholy. Let's get out of it."

We walked away from the house which looked like a toadstool in the wilderness. As we passed the store, we noticed our host surrounded by a crowd of natives. They were sullen and intent. Then a surge of excitement rippled from one oiled body to another.

The grass came to an end on the edge of a ravine. Beyond it, in the gloom of a mangrove swamp, were orchids, hornbills, and mosquitoes. A white cotton skirt showed against the dripping branches. Intrigued, we pursued it and saw, fortunately from a distance, the storekeeper's wife in the arms of an ordinary young man with rather a pleasant face. We had time to notice that they were terribly in love and taking it hard. Then we fled. Scrambling up the ravine, we said to each other with the portentousness of nineteen and twenty-one: "He knows," and on the top, panting, we added: "And he's plotting something horrible!"

By him, we meant the storekeeper.

The young man came to supper. It appeared that he was the prospector of whom we'd heard and that his hunt was only a couple of miles up the stream.

"An odd thing happened this morning," he said with a cheerfulness that seemed to us singularly out of place in view of our hostess's beatific expression and the silence of her husband. "All my boys went off in a body. There's some sort of celebration on the coast—."

The storekeeper broke in with an explanation which seemed to give him excessive pleasure. "Whenever the lakatois (native boats) come back with grain, there's a feast. It happens annually and it used to be a horrid affair, cannibalism and all that. A victim was sacrificed and his blood sprinkled on the grain. The government has put an end to it, of course, and consequently the boys complain of bad harvests."

I looked up because I didn't like the complete lack of expression in the face which on board the tramp used to be all crinkled up with smiles, and I noticed among the mats, pottery and weapons decorating the walls, a mask with a peculiarly horrible leer.

"What's that?" I asked, sharply, because between the flickers of an ill-trimmed lamp, the thing looked alive.

"It's a totem," replied our host. "One of the old witchmen gave it to me. It used to be hung up in the doorway of the youth chosen for sacrifice. Rather an honor, I believe. These people think nothing of death. They kill off their own parents as soon as they're too old to work."

"A nasty thing to find served with one's breakfast," remarked the prospector, his eyes on the woman who was no more sensible than himself.

"It would be your last breakfast," retorted the storekeeper and because I didn't want to look at the tight little face so blank though it was so full of secret knowledge, I continued to study the mask. It had a peculiar cleft below the right nostril. The knife which had chiselled the horror must have slipped.

Next morning, without any reasonable excuse, we left the shanty and I imagine that our hosts were no more affected by our absence than by our presence.

"Not exactly a successful visit," I said, as we rode between the stunted gum trees. "I had a feeling that something quite impossible was going to happen—at once, or rather sooner."

"So had I," agreed my companion.

By the time we reached the port we were laughing over our imaginative excesses and intent only on seeing the feast of which the storekeeper had spoken. But, for once, officialdom was firm.

"Quite impossible," said the governor and the judge and various other luminaries. "It doesn't do to excite the natives on these occasions. Left alone they dance themselves sick, and that's the end of it, but they're a deuced suspicious lot and if they thought the whites were trying to interfere, there'd be the devil to pay. We've had enough trouble with their infernal rites. . . ." The speaker stopped suddenly.

So we were sent off in the opposite direction and comforted with tobacco plantations and rivers full of aligators and water villages where the family pig sits in a rudely constructed sty just above the waves and brown babies hang in baskets from any convenient post.

When we returned, the port was

Answers to Questions

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Many readers send in questions signed only with initials, asking that the answers appear in the newspaper. The space is limited and would not accommodate a fraction of such requests. The answers published are ones that may interest many readers, rather than the one who asks the question only. All questions should be accompanied by the writer's name and address and three cents in coin (carefully wrapped) for reply. Send your question to The Record News Information bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington.

Q.—What is the largest bison head on record?—T. M.

A.—The head of Old Tex, famous bison bull of the Yellowstone herd, is the biggest. It measures 35½ inches on its outside spread. The right horn is 21⅛ inches long; the left horn is 23 inches long. The circumference of the right horn at the base is 16 inches while the left is 15¼ inches, and the inside spread is 30½ inches. Old Texas was killed in 1926 because of old age and his head is on display in theh new museum at Fishing Bridge, on the shores of Yellowstone lake.

Q.—Where is Admiral Byrd's ship, the City of New York, at present?—E. G.

A.—The City of New York left Montreal on July 12 for Chicago. This boat will be exhibited at the World's Fair next year.

Q.—What is the Irish spelling of some typical Irish names?—K. M.

A.—Fitzgerald is spelled MacGearailt, Keney is spelled O Cionnaoith, Hogan is spelled O Hogain, Mulcahy is spelled Maolchatha, Lynch is spelled O Loingsigh, O'Sullivan is spelled O'Suilleabhain, Desmond is spelled Deasmhumhan, and Costello is spelled MacCoisdealbha. The apostrophe does not always appear after the O in Irish spelling.

Q.—What does the word petunia come from?—F. H. M.

A.—Bailey's cyclopedia of horticulture states that the name was probably derived from a South American word meaning tobacco.

Q.—What was Lillian Copeland's record in the discus throw at the Olympics?—R. D.

A.—She threw the discus 133 feet 2 inches, thus breaking both Olympic and the world records.

Q.—Who was Peter Pelham?—L. S.

A.—He is generally regarded as the first American artists. The first authentic portrait produced in America—that of Cotton Mather—was executed by Pelham.

Q.—In what part of the body is most of the calcium?—A. W.

A.—The bones and teeth contain 99 per cent, while the remainder exists as soluble salts in the fluids and soft tissues.

Q.—Does the Interstate Commerce commission have jurisdiction over motor bus lines?—B. W. F.

A.—When such lines operate as extensions of railroad systems, the commission takes limited jurisdiction. Bills designed to give the commission direct regulatory control over both bus and truck carriers were introduced at the last session of congress but died in committee at the adjournment.

Q.—Who discovered the first double star?—H. M.

A.—The first double star, Mizar, was discovered by Jean Baptiste Riccioli in 1650.

Q.—Who was the first college president in the United States?—M. M. R.

A.—In 1638, the regular course of academic studies at Harvard began, degrees being conferred four years after. Nathaniel Eaton, with the title of master or professor, was the first in charge. He was appointed in 1637, but two years later was dismissed from the institution and was followed by Rev. Henry Dunster, the first college executive in the United States to bear the title of president.

Q.—Please describe the reverse side of the great seal of the United States.—G. E. M.

A.—The reverse of the great seal of the United States shows an unfinished pyramid, above which is an eye in a blue triangle, all proper. The lowest course of the pyramid bears the Roman numerals MDCCLXXVI. Beneath the pyramid, on a golden scroll, is the motto "Novus Ordo Seclorum" (a new era in the ages), and above is the motton "Annuit Coeptis" (He prospers our beginning). The pyramid signifies strength and duration; the eye over it and the motto allude to the many interpositions of Providence in favor of the American cause. The date underneath is the date of the Declaration of Independence and the words under it signify the beginning of the new American era, which commences from that date.

Q.—Should the purple federal inspection stamps be trimmed from fresh meat before it is used?—S. G.

A.—The department of agriculture says this is unnecessary. The fluid used in marking meat is made to a government formula from ingredients which are as harmless as fruit juice.

STEERS CINCH SECOND HALF TIE WITH VICTORY OVER TYLER

The Rambler's Corner

By FRED THOMPSON

Harking Back

In golfing circles, the play of Byron Nelson in the country club tournament is still the main topic of conversation. Nelson is a great golfer, no doubt, but the Rambler is annoyed and no little irritated by the statement, made by some, that he is a better one than Gus Moreland of Dallas. In time Nelson may get to be as good as Moreland, but he is far from that status now. He hasn't had half the tournament experience that Moreland has had. Moreland has been under more pressure than Nelson has experienced in his whole career. Until Nelson has done bigger things, until he has proved that he can stand the gaff as Moreland has, the Rambler does not believe comparisons of Nelson and Moreland are in order.

Now then yquse guys lay off!

Golden Jubilee Anthem

The pioneers in buckskin panties
All were rough and ready antis
Hardy boys, they took their rum
In quantities that's going some
(At least for you and maybe me)
And reading stories that we see
In the papers day by day
About the pioneers—heh heh
It's hard to see it hurt them any,
Or there wouldn't be so many.

Variation No. 1

The pioneers cared naught for styles
They wore great big bandanas,
They rode on horseback, miles and miles,
To woo the handsome Hannahs.

Variation No. 2

The pioneers had roughened ears
They shot when irritated,
Ah that their methods, in these years,
Might be imitated.

The Rambler yearns to shoot on sight
A score or more a year,
But cold restraint is my sad plight,
I'm not a pioneer.

What should be trigger fingers now
Press down on auto horns,
And feet once free in boots of cow-
Hide now are wreathed with corns.

Lions Complete Week's Practice

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Sept. 9.—Candidates for the Vernon High school football squad concluded their first full week of practice for the 1932 season with workouts Friday morning and afternoon. The Friday sessions also closed the week of two workouts daily, the candidates returning to the "one-practice session each day" routine Monday with the opening of school.

Rain has handicapped the aspirants since the opening day, Sept. 1. They have been forced indoors twice and have generally been confronted with poor weather conditions the past 10 days.

More than 40 candidates were sent through stiff sessions both Friday morning and afternoon by Head Coach W. C. Weir and Assistant Coaches Ralph Binnion and Bob Dickinson. Individual work was stressed, and the workouts were otherwise stressed by kicking, blocking and tackling.

Tarleton "Too-Tall" Jones, all-district tackle of last year, reported Thursday and was drilled in punting along with Capt. H. A. Thompson, Paris Grogan, and others. Jones has just returned from South Dakota. His arrival completes the list of returning letter men reporting for practice. The others are Captain Thompson, back; 1931 Capt. T. M. Watson, guard; Bill Reed, guard; Odis Maney, center; Henry Galloway, center.

Red River Titular Series Opens Sunday

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Sept. 9.—Electra's Oilers and the Tipton, Okla., Baseball club, first and second half champions, respectively, of the Red River Valley Baseball league, will clash at 3 p. m. Sunday at Electra in the initial game of a play-off series to decide the championship of the circuit. The second game will be played at Tipton, Sept. 18, and if a third game is necessary, it will be played in Vernon, Sept. 25.

The Sooners will enter the series a slight favorite to carry off the title, although they will not be favored to cop the opening tilt of the series. Both teams are expected to place their full strength on the field Sunday, and a brilliant hurling duel between aces of the two clubs, Simpson of Tipton and VanHorn of Electra, is in prospect.

Official umpires selected for the play-off series by the managers of the competing clubs as announced by R. L. Barrett of this city, president of the league, are L. Roy Ross and R. R. Swindell, both of Quanah.

Electra won the first half title when the league was an eight-club circuit. Frederick, Okla., since withdrawn along with Vernon and Crowell, was the runner-up. Tipton, off to a bad start, finished in the second division. Tipton easily captured the second half flag after its most formidable rival, Oklaunion, hit a series of reversals. Electra finished in third place in the second half race.

DALLAS WINS IN 12TH, 6 TO 5

Win Increases Their Lead To Three Games

DALLAS, Sept. 9. (AP)—The Dallas Steers increased their second half pennant lead to three full games tonight by beating Tyler in a 12-inning 6 to 5 game. The victory cinched a tie for Dallas in the second half race even should the Steers lose their remaining games and Beaumont win its remaining games. Zeke Bonura's home run in the eighth inning tied the score at 5-all. Bernie James, Dallas second baseman, who is a ranchman during the winter, was presented with a handsome riding saddle by Dallas fans in appreciation of his work this season. Score:

BUCS BEAT SHIPPERS

BEAUMONT, Sept. 9. (AP)—Beaumont's second half pennant hopes went by the winds here this afternoon when the Galveston Buccaneers turned on their tormentors of the past three days and blasted out a 11 to 2 victory over the Exporters in the fourth and last game of the series. Hank Thormahlen, portly southpaw, scattered five Shipper hits as his buddies clouted the Exporters' big three, Luke Hamlin, Judge Schulz and Orlin Collier, for 19 hits, including a homer, two triples, a pair of doubles and 14 one basers. The Bucs jumped away to a six-run lead in the opening inning that left the Shippers groggy, Hamlin fleeing to the showers after the first four Bucs had hit safely. Frey then greeted Schulz with a triple and from here on out the fireworks continued. Governor, an Exporter castoff, led the Pirate assault with five hits, one a double. Fausett and Bell, who smacked a homer and a double, were close behind. Score:

Cubs Go Six Games In Front With 5 To 2 Victory Over Boston Tribe

BOSTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs increased their lead in the National league pennant race to six games today as they defeated the Braves 5 to 2 in their final clash while Pittsburgh was idle.

Lonnie Warneke, young righthanded pitching sensation, held the Braves in check to win his 21st game of the season while Chicago made two well timed attacks on Huck Betts, Boston's veteran "rookie." Score:

TIGERS WHIP YANKS TWICE

Opener Goes 14 Innings To 14-13 Score

DETROIT, Sept. 9. (AP)—The Tigers outlasted the New York Yankees in another baseball marathon today and won both games of a double-header, 14 to 13 and 4 to 1.

The first battle went 14 innings, like yesterday's opener, and required four hours and two minutes. The second was called because of darkness as soon as the necessary 4½ innings had been completed.

The double defeat clipped a full game off the Yanks' lead over the idle Philadelphia Athletics but they still were 12½ games ahead and needed only four triumphs to clinch the pennant.

Wildness on the part of the Yankee pitchers and errors at times when they were costliest were the principal causes of the downfall of the league leaders. In the first game 25 walks were given out by eight pitchers, 14 of them by the New York moundsmen. Danny MacFayden passed four men in the nightcap, walking in one run. An error by Arndt Jorgens let two more cross the plate in the second inning, when the Tigers made all their tallies.

Another error, with Sam Byrd as the guilty player, aided the Tigers in scoring their winning run in the opener. Scores:

PACK TO PLAY STRIPLING HI

Fort Worth Team Booked For Game Here Nov. 18

Only one date remained open on the Coyote football schedule following the announcement Friday of Head Coach Ted Jefferies that the W. C. Stripling High school of Fort Worth had been booked for a game here on Nov. 18.

The remaining open date is Oct. 21. Coach Jefferies announced he was still negotiating with several schools for a game on that date and would endeavor to bring in a team capable of offering more than average opposition.

Meanwhile the coach and his assistants continued the process of training the Pack on the practice field at the school building, with prospects of ringing down the curtain on the first week of practice Saturday with all members of the squad nearing the pink of condition.

COYOTES MAY PLAY VERNON AT NIGHT

Possibility that the annual clash of the Wichita Falls Coyotes and Vernon Lions on the football gridiron will be played at night this year at the Vernon field, was seen Friday when a group of Vernon citizens requested a change in the hour of the game.

The game is set for the afternoon of Saturday, Oct. 29. The athletic board of the Vernon school is considering the purchase of arc lights for night games. The committee presenting the matter to Supt. H. D. Fillers and Coach Ted Jefferies Friday included R. H. Nichols, Bud Daniels, R. K. Tabor and Frank Murchison. Mr. Fillers expects a decision to be made Saturday.

DeMolays Defeat Mack Taylors, 7-2

C. O. Simmons, ace of the De Molay pitching staff, let the Mack Taylor Drug company team down with only two hits Friday afternoon on the Debus field in a Merchants Indoor league ball game and the DeMolays romped off with a 7 to 2 victory. Flip Hoskins, Mack Taylor skipper, handled seven chances in left field, many of which were little short of being sensational. Simmons was given an early lead and was never in danger of losing it throughout the game.

Graham Steers Make Progress In Football Training Process

Special to The Record News.

GRAHAM, Texas, Sept. 9.—Provided with good proven material, Head Coach Knieff of the Graham High school Steers is making much progress moulding this year's football team. The squad of about 50 youngsters is working out in their camp on the Brazos river near Eliasville.

Veterans returning for this year's team include Clark Jarnigan, tackle; Colwell, guard; Bingham, tackle; Bigham, end; Walker, end; Nicklas, back; Parsley, back; and a few others.

These are being given a fight for first team honors by a bright bunch of prospects, including Kimbrel, Jack Wheeler, Turney, R. Knight, Sebe Parsley, for backfield positions; and Stewart and Butler, guards. First year men showing up well in camp include Green, Peck and Cook, guards.

Squadmen from last year who have shown decided improvement include Holcomb, a 185-pound end, and Kennedy, a guard.

Blackie Nicklas and Collie Colwell are co-captains of this year's eleven.

Members at the training camp other than those mentioned include Edgar Bingham, J. T. Butler, Lowell Bryant, A. J. Bullock, Vernon Bigham, Bill Cook, Tom Cook, Loren Green, Charles Hamer, Howard Hamer, Jack Hayes, Terrell Holcomb, Leroy Kimbrel, Ervil Kennedy, Rex Knight, Harry Kindley, Kenneth McCluer, Dempsey Parsley, Sebe Parsley, Harold Padgett, Rex Repass, Graham Stewart, Morris Stevens, Roland Turney, Bill Whatley, Abe Walker, John Wheeler, Jack Wheeler, T. B. Adams, Irvin Peck, Clark Jarnagin, William Gregg, Powell Tackett and Terrell Watson.

Girls' Teams All Set For Ball Game Tonight

Cassie Wrenn's Malone Beauty Shop girls' nine will go after their revenge over the De Luxe Cleaners tonight under the lights at the Brook and Ardath street diamond in a return game. The Cleaners took the Malone club to a cleaning there a few weeks back by the score of 17 to 3, but the Beauties have worked hard since then and are confident now that they can turn the tables. The game will be called at 8:15 o'clock. Grazier will likely pitch for Malone with Lela Porter the likely chunker for De Luxe Cleaners.

COACHES MEET HERE TODAY

New Rules to Be Discussed At Gathering

About 100 football coaches, players, and officials of this section of the state will gather at the Holt hotel here at 2:30 Saturday afternoon for the second annual conference of the Wichita Falls Coaches and Officials association. Both class A and class B schools in this area will be represented.

The discussion of football rules for the coming season will be the principal object of the gathering. Marshall May of Amarillo and H. L. DeFord of Dallas, two football officials who attended the Southwest conference football rules interperation meeting at Dallas Monday, will lead the discussion. May was formerly assistant coach at Vernon High school under Al Baggett, now mentor at Amarillo Junior college.

W. C. Weir, head coach at Vernon High school and president of the association, will preside. Albert Acker, Olney mentor, is vice president of the association, and J. T. Duncan, Goodlett superintendent of schools, is secretary. The association was organized last year here. Officials for a number of games will probably be agreed on by coaches at the session.

James' Homer Gives Esteps 5-3 Victory

Ross James' home run with the bases full in the last half of the seventh inning gave the Estep pharmacy their fifth straight Merchants Indoor league battle and a 5 to 3 victory over Kemp hotel on Harrison field Friday afternoon. It was a pitchers' battle between Leonard Voltz and Hedman all the way through with Larry Schwamb's Hotel nine holding the margin until the last inning. Hedman whiffed 11 of the Hotel men.

Score by innings;
Kemp Hotel .... 010 100 1—3
Estep Pharmacy .... 000 000 5—5

Voltz and Cohen; Hedman and Moore.

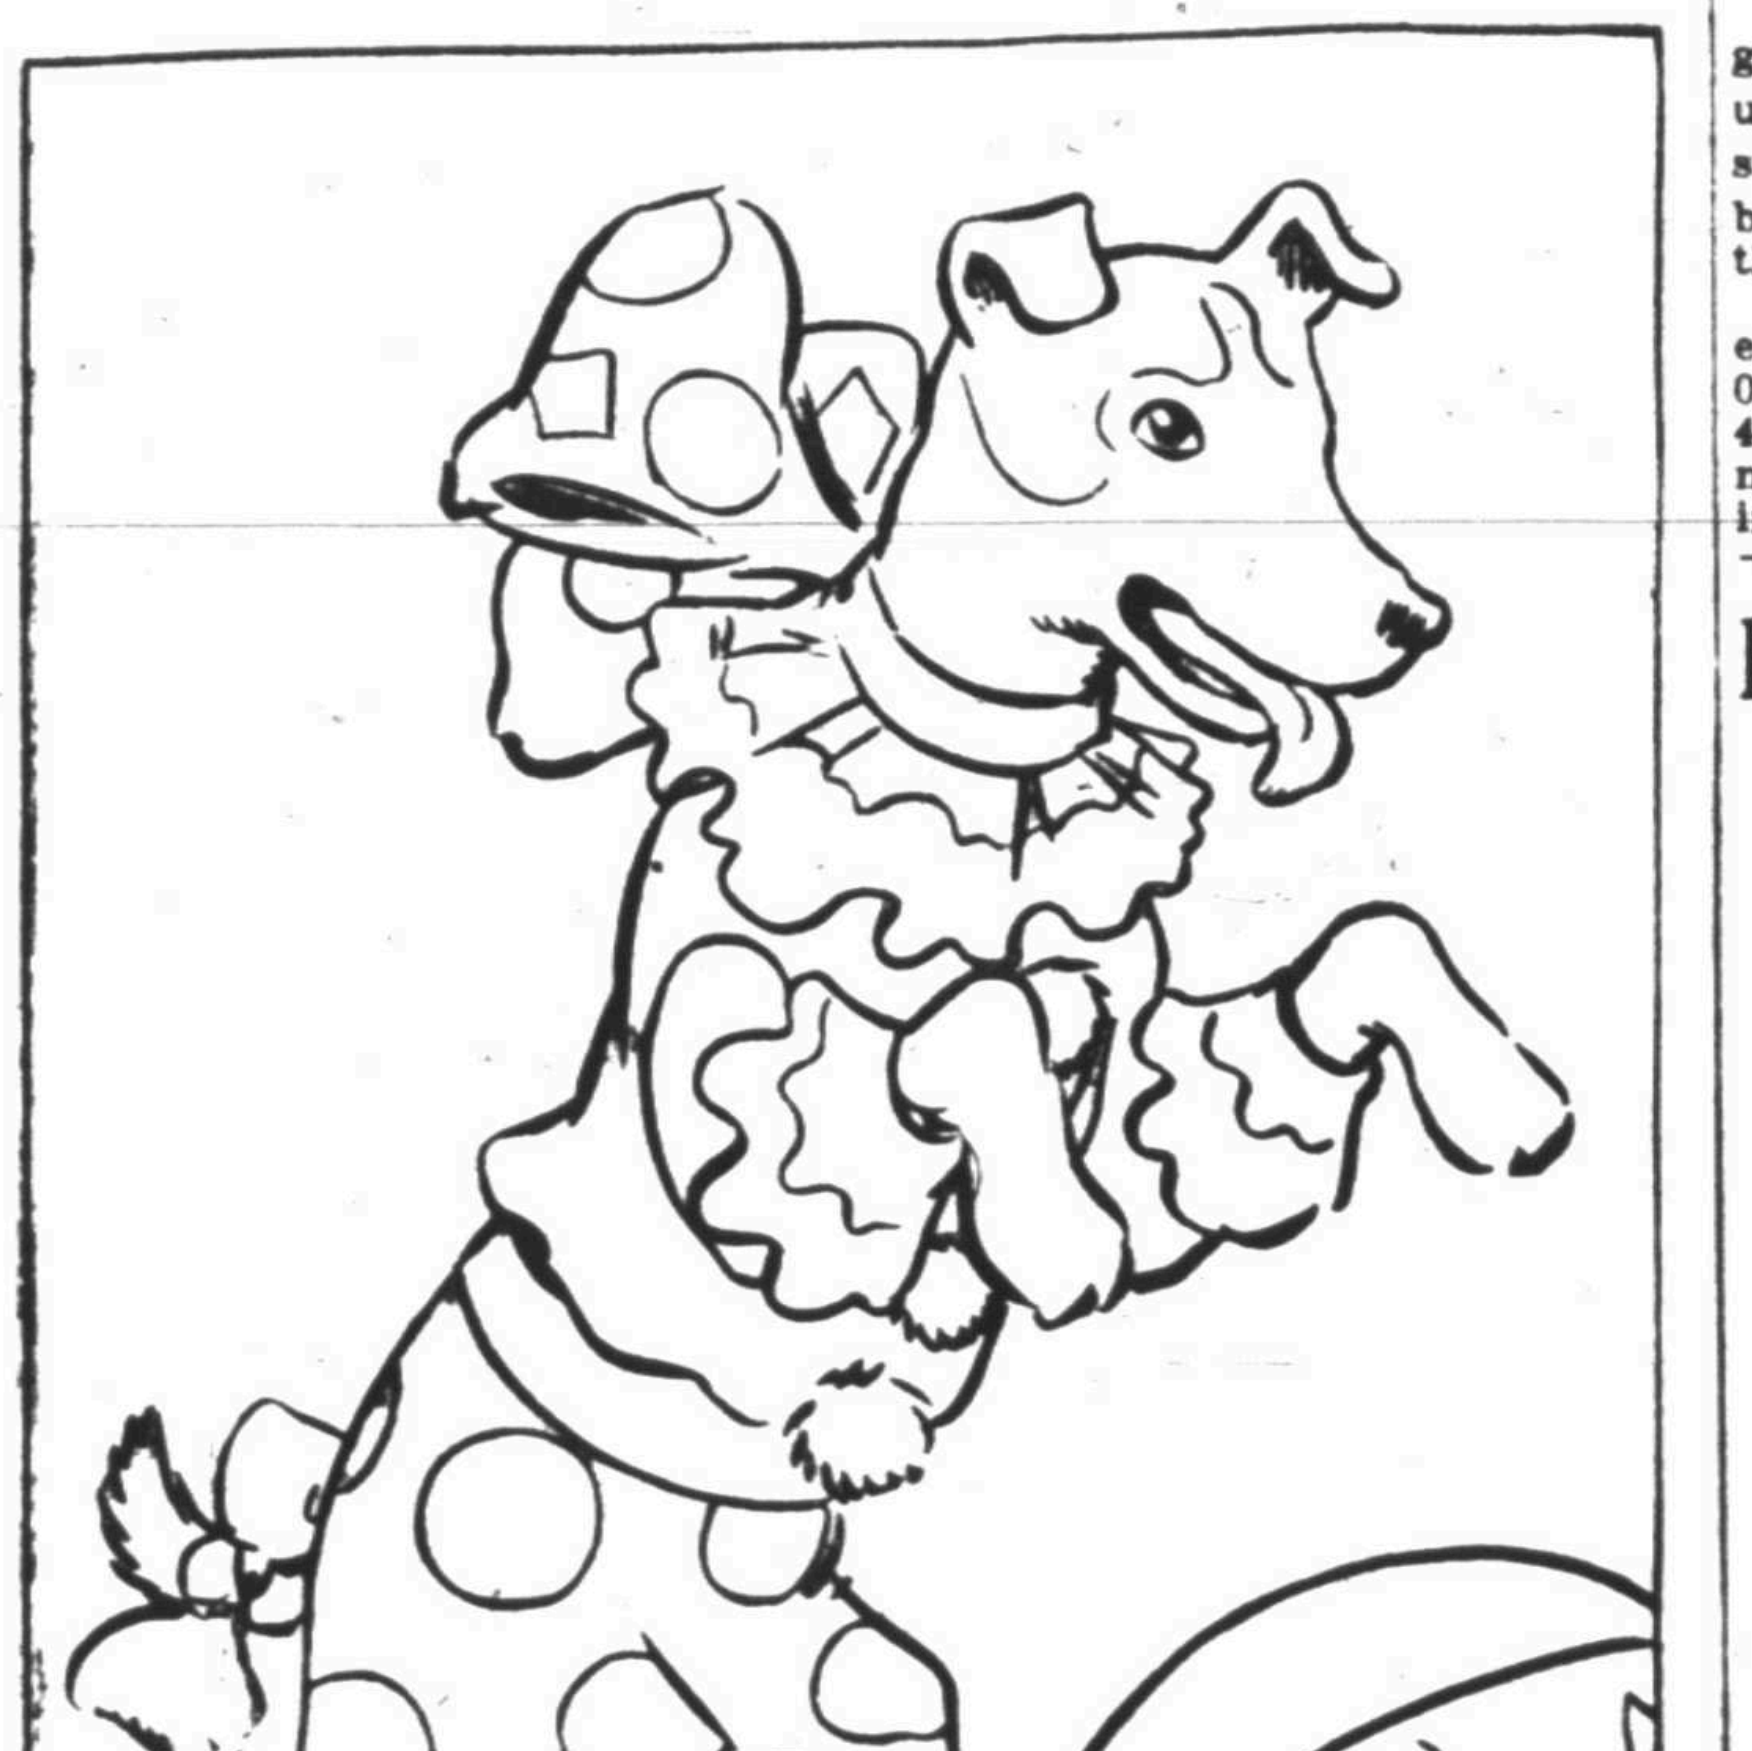
Last Picture In Circus Ticket Contest



This happy looking pup is the third and final figure in The Record News-Gentry Brothers coloring contest. Boys and girls of Wichita Falls and vicinity may win tickets to the circus Monday by coloring the three pictures.

Color this dressed-up dog and send it with the two previous pictures to the Color Contest Editor of The Record News. The other two pictures were in Thursday's and Friday's papers. The winners will see the famous dog and pony shows free of charge. The judges' decision will be announced in Sunday's Times. Any kind of crayon, water colors or inks may be used. All pictures must be in the office of The Record News and Times before 10 p. m. tonight.

Teachers of Oklahoma To Hear Pat M. Neff

MANGUM, Okla., Sept. 9.—Mangum teachers are looking forward with pleasure to hearing Pat Neff, president of Baylor university and former governor of Texas, in his address before the district meeting of the Oklahoma Education association at Elk City Oct. 21. Neff, for many years one of the leading figures in Texas history, is expected to draw a large crowd to hear him. His talk will be preceded by music from the all-southwestern high school chorus of 200 voices.

Other prominent speakers will be C. W. Richards, president of Southwestern State Teachers college at Weatherford, and Mansur Stewart, Mangum, superintendent of Greer county schools.

JONES - POST

Special to The Record News.

MANGUM, Okla., Sept. 9.—The marriage of Miss Lucile Post of Mangum to Rev. Dwain Jones of Anson, Texas, took place at Blair Thursday. The services were read by Rev. J. H. Brook, minister of the Church of Christ at Blair.

The bride is a former teacher in the Eastview school, 12 miles northwest of Mangum, from which she was graduated.

The groom was a student of Abilene Christian college after graduation from Iowa Park, Texas, High school. He is now pastor of the Church of Christ at Anson.

Where There Ain't No Ten Commandments

in an uproar. Something had happened with a vengeance. The Guri Bari boys, easily distinguishable by their coal-black insolence and their hooked noses, were contented. The next harvest would certainly be plentiful, for had there not been a proper sacrifice, no pig or cook, but a man miraculously indicated by their own particular god or devil, and a white man at that! We gasped, as the story was poured out, higgledy-piggledy, by an excited half-caste.

Later we dined with a youth who had something to do with the police. At first he was distressingly discreet, but under the blandishments of two determined and not ill-favored young women he relented. "You must keep it to yourselves," he urged and added, with a smile: "though every single soul knows it. But the truth is a prospector up in the wet belt has been done in. How he got mixed up with the business I don't know, but he was the victim all right at that feast you wanted to go to and the odd thing is one of those totem affairs was found hanging outside his hut. We thought we'd made a clean sweep of the lot. There's a heavy penalty for being in possession of such a thing. They were supposed to be done away with with witchcraft and cannibalism and all the rest of it."

His voice was grim. Perhaps he felt the police had been fooled, but we were too excited to be sympathetic. "What was it like?" we asked.

Eventually, of course, he promised that we should see it. So it happened that we found ourselves staring across a number of official papers at the mask which had hung on the storekeeper's wall. There was no doubt about it. The cleft where the knife had slipped gaped under the right nostril.

I touched the horrible thing and heard my companion gasp. "Surely—" she began uncertainly. "It's impossible, but—"

I kicked her under the judicial table. "Quite impossible," I said sternly. But all the same it was true.

We heard later that the storekeeper and his wife had moved to another part of the island.

Wild Gasser in S. Texas Brought Under Control

HOUSTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—The wild gasser at Mykawa, near here, was under control today. Workmen had succeeded in temporarily killing it by forcing heavy mud into the hole through high pressure pumps.

The well blew in unexpectedly eight days ago for an estimated 50,000,000 cubic feet of dry gas from 4126 feet. Last Sunday it was harnessed but blew the connection off in less than 12 hours. Last Tuesday the derrick collapsed under the pressure of the escaping gas.

The well was drilled by the Crown Central Petroleum corporation. It was known as the No. 1 Siadous, one-quarter of a mile northeast of the three oil producers in that field.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

A 120-MILE BRIDGE—The bridge extending over 120 miles in Flanders became a necessity as a result of one of the most thrilling episodes in the first battle of Ypres, fought between Oct. 18 and Nov. 10, 1914. The allied armies were retreating toward Dixmude with the victorious Germans relentlessly pursuing them. To frustrate the invader the allies took what is probably the most heroic step in martial history. They cut the dikes and unleashed the floods of the North sea against the German armies. As the field of battle became flooded, the Germans presently became mired in the bog. Their artillery was swept away, a large number of men were drowned, and the survivors scrambled anxiously to the few small pieces of high ground. The most elementary force known to man thus repelled the invader, but the allies had to restore contact with the enemy over a pontoon bridge 120 miles long, covering the flooded area.

EDISON'S CLOCK—The faceless clock, which once belonged to Edison and which is now kept in the recreated group of Edisonia in Dearborn, Mich., expressed the great inventor's conviction that a scientist's work is measured not by chronology but by results. It was also his humorous rebuke to "clock-watchers."

TWO CHAMPIONSHIPS IN ONE YEAR—Edward Lee of the New York Athletic club has been playing billiards only six years, but has been in tournament play for two years. In 1931 and 1932 he has been the national amateur three-cushion billiards titleholder, and was the first American to compete in the world's amateur tournament when he played at Vichy. Not only is he proficient with the cue, but has also become famous in aquatic sports. For the years 1928 and 1931 he was the national A. A. U. long distance swimming champion, holding both billiards and swimming titles the latter year. Lee is the only athlete in the annals of the New York Athletic club to hold two national titles simultaneously.

DO YOU NEED REVENUE?

That set of unrented office rooms is "eating its head off." It's a part of your business overhead which includes taxes, interest charges, etc.

An unrented house, either business or residence or a spare room, offers the same problem to the home owner. You have no justification in assuming they can't be rented until you have put your problem up to Want-Ad Headquarters. If they can be rented at all, Daily Times-Record News Classified Ads will do the work at the lowest cost—two papers for the cost of one.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK REVIEW

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 9. (AP)—(USDA)—Cattle trade was mostly a cleanup affair with quality rather plain and prices generally steady. Beef steers and yearlings the fore part of the week were unevenly higher, but packers after Tuesday with the aid of more liberal supplies succeeded in erasing the early gains on most all offerings except strictly good and choice strong weight steers. Choice quality stockers and feeders are slightly higher for the week but medium and good grades predominated in the supply and were no more than steady. Good to choice yearling stockers and stock steer calves have been in limited supply so far this season. The movement of such offerings, however, is expected to expand materially by the first of October. Aggregate receipts at 11 markets for the week to date total around 187,500 against 200,363 last week and 192,746 the corresponding period a year ago.

Chicago had an early hog top of $4.50. Total offerings were 2,000 short of last Friday and 5,000 more than a year ago.

Choice native lambs in Chicago sold up to $6.75 while best range lambs made $6.50.

OKLAHOMA City, Sept. 9. (AP)—Cattle—Receipts 900, calves 400; market, steady; outsider demand good; short fed caked on grass beef offerings, $5.85@6.00; medium-good yearlings tending $6.50@7.00; good to choice fat beef cows of weighty heifer sort, $3.50@4.00; medium-good butcher cows, $2.75@3.25; bulls, $1.75@2.50; good-choice vealers, heavy calves, $4.50@5.00; medium-good sorts, $3.00@4.00; stockers and feeders steady.

Hogs—Receipts, 2,900; indications slightly weaker; prospective packer top, $4.10.

Sheep — Receipts, 100; market fully steady; medium-good native lambs, $5.00@5.50; throwouts, $3.00@3.50; Texas fat lambs quotably steady, top, $4.75.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 9. (AP)—(U.S.D.A.)—Hogs—Receipts, 500; truck hogs steady, no rail hogs; truck top, $4.35; packer top, $4.25; bulk better 185 to 250 pound truck hogs, $4.25@4.35; packing sows, $3.25, steady.

Cattle—Receipts 900, calves 300; market fully steady; good medium beef steers above $6.25; plain slaughter steers, $4.00; packing lots fat steers to $4.60; fat yearlings, $5.50@7.25; good beef cows to $3.50; other fat cows, $2.85@3.10; bulls, $1.75@2.00; heavy fat calves, $4.75@5.00; two head to $5.35; stockers and feeders scarce; good stocker calves bid $5.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 1,000; fat lambs and yearlings steady; aged fat wethers strong to 25c higher; fat lambs $4.00@4.50; fat yearlings, $3.50; aged fat wethers, $2.25.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (AP)—Yesterday's severe break was followed by moderate rallies in cotton today on trade buying and covering promoted by the improved technical position and reports of a steady spot situation in the South.

After selling up from 8.07 to 8.30 for December contracts, the price eased off to 8.09 for that position under renewed liquidation, but rallied again in the late trading and closed at 8.21. The general market closed steady at net advances of 16 to 19 points.

Closing quotations were within 6 or 7 points of the best on most positions.

Buying was encouraged by reports that yesterday's break had failed to bring out increased spot offerings in the South, some southern selling was reported here but it was not considered sufficient to suggest any weakening of the position in that quarter, and there were reports that mills were resisting declines in the cotton goods market.

Liverpool cables reported that general liquidation had been absorbed by trade calling there and the decline abroad did not fully meet the local losses of yesterday. Exports today 31,921 making 663,052 so far this season. U. S. port stocks 3,345,924.

The market was steadier late in the day on covering, closing steady, 16-19 higher. Spot quiet; middling, 8.10.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9. (AP)—The cotton market was much less active today in strong contrast to the feverish activity of yesterday. Prices fluctuated frequently under alternate moderate waves of buying and selling but the close was steady at net gains for the day of 18 to 21 points.

Manchester cabled the cloth and yarn business was disturbed by the break in cotton.

The market fluctuated erratically during the afternoon, and October at one time near the end made a new high at 8.10 or 20 points above yesterday's close. There was a moderate wave of buying near the end which encountered a scarcity of contracts and prices rallied almost to the highs. October closed at 8.09 and December at 8.23 or 19 and 18 points respectively net higher for the day.

Liverpool is due tomorrow on New Orleans 6 to 7 penny points up.

Port receipts 70,972, for week 183,676, for season 655,423, last season 369,949. Exports 32,121, for week 145,727, for season 874,377, last season 327,539. Port stock 3,326,927, last year 2,817,342. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 84,740, last year 38,915. Spot sales at southern markets 29,475, last year 29,610.

Futures closed steady at net advances of 18 to 21 points.

Stock Prices Renew Decline After Recovering Part Of Earlier Loss

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (US)—The stock market today recovered partially from the previous day's late reaction, but again finished with a renewal of the decline.

Early recoveries were canceled and a further net loss registered on the day. Declines were only modest compared with the previous day. The lows of Thursday were broken in many issues.

The rather fantastic pace of mid-week discouraged many of the more cautious speculators, who had been hoping for a stiff reaction which would restore the internal position of the market to greater stability.

Short selling increased in volume, with a fair amount having taken place in the early days of the week, according to usual reliable indications. However, the total short account is generally believed to be very small, especially if contrasted with the large daily turnover recently.

Through most of today's session in stocks there were the usual rumors of big bullishness to spring from the government's latest grain crop estimates, which was due after the close.

These reports when published, actually represented a stand-off, so far as market influence was concerned. The element comprising the business end of the wheat trade could find no basis for any exuberance, whatever interpretation the enthusiastic would-be bull speculators may place upon the report.

Grain generally held quiet, awaiting the report. Cotton rallied feebly from its violent collapse of the previous session.

Transactions in stocks held at a high pace, but materially down from Thursday's total of 5,400,000 shares. They aggregated 4,000,000 shares today.

Speculators were encouraged for a time to assume that the reaction of the previous day had sufficiently cleared the market of stop-loss orders and other impediments to provide background for resumption of the general advance. This expectation, however, failed of confirmation, as pools experienced an increased supply of stock on their efforts to advance their favorites into new high territory.

In this connection United Aircraft proved particularly disappointing, the pool in the issue apparently uncovering substantial profit-taking which finally closed the issue down 2¼ points.

Many speculators were closely observing aircraft's price movement for a cue to the general attitude of pools, and when the issue yielded most of the list followed.

Steel common, which was buoyed for a time by the hope a "large" increase in unfilled orders will be disclosed tomorrow, dropped back more than a point net, the coppers eased off, and most of the other leaders performed similarly.

American Radiator and Johns-Manville, however, continued aggressively sponsored. Both companies depend on building activities, of course, so that their respective advances must be predicated mainly on hope for an upturn.

Southern Pacific also enjoyed vigorous sponsorship, attributed to a leading operator, with the result it closed up 1⅞ points net, while the rails as a group declined.

The rails didn't respond marketwise to the official announcement that the carriers have definitely decided to recommend to the individual lines that notices be served on all classes of railway employes of the roads' intention to reduce all basic rates of pay 20 per cent effective Feb. 1, next, when the present 10 per cent reduction terminates.

Then, too, it was reported that the New York Central, Nickel Plate and Baltimore & Ohio have signified their willingness to request the Interstate Commerce commission to amend its approval of the four-party eastern merger scheme so as to remove the necessity for the Pennsylvania divesting itself of its holdings in the New Haven and Boston & Maine. However, New England interests have furnished the major opposition to such a decree.

Grain

TEXAS CASH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Sept. 9. (AP)—Wheat was in good demand on the Fort Worth cash grain market today. Other grains except the sorghums were fairly well taken, trade in the latter being held up pending movement of the new crop.

Quotations ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid, delivered Texas gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat, No. 1 hard, according to protein and billing 57½@59¾c. Barley No. 2 nominally 32½@33½c; No. 3 30½@31½c. Sorghums No. 2 milo or kaffir nominally 64@68c.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn No. 2 mixed 41½@43½c; No. 2 white 47@48c; No. 2 yellow 48@50c, all prices nominal.

Delivered Texas common points: Oats No. 2 red 24@28c; No. 3 red 20½@21½c.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 9. (AP)—It was a nip and tuck struggle in grains today, ending in a draw.

Evening up to prepare for any surprise in the government crop report due after the close had a late strengthening effect, but selling poured into the wheat pit on all advances.

Wheat closed irregular, ⅛c off to ⅛c up compared with yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to ⅛@¼c lower, oats unchanged to ⅛@⅜c down, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 2c.

The Chicago-Liverpool December wheat spread widened today to 2⅞c, the greatest difference shown between the two markets in more than six weeks. This was construed as bullish, it being contended that no sustained advance in wheat values appeared likely unless export demand for United States wheat improved.

Uneasiness continued that blocking of exports from the United States would result in a new record carry-over on July 1 next.

Corn and oats chiefly followed wheat, with corn shipping demand here better.

Closing indemnities: Wheat, Sept. 54⅛, offers; Dec. 55⅛@⅜, 57⅜@⅛; May 60⅞@½, 62⅜@⅝. Corn, Dec. 32@32¼, 33⅝@¼; May 37⅛@38⅜.

Advice To Investors

By Charles W. Storm—Editor of the "News Service of Wall Street"

W. H.—Please tell me if Mack Trucks is a good investment.

Answer—Due to poor business conditions Mack Trucks, Inc., reported a loss of $3,032,410 in 1931 compared with a profit of $2,007,606, or $2.60 a share in 1930. Treasury strengthened by liquidation of inventory and receivables. Working capital equivalent to $40 a share and book value $64 a share. Had loss of $516,943 in first half of this year. Mack is prominent in heavy truck field. Needs general trade improvement to revive earning power. Though paying $1 annually, the stock is rated as a speculation.

W. M. D.—How do you regard the comman and preferred stock of the Maytag company.

Answer—For the first half of 1932, Maytag company reported a deficit of $370,429, after payment of preferred dividends, as compared with a deficit of $176,421 in like 1931 period. As of June 30, last, working capital totaled $3,916,451, against $5,569,689 a year earlier. In order to remain in a good financial position dividends have been suspended on all classes of stock. Deficit for 1931, after dividends, amounted to $257,455, as against $916,343 for 1930. No improvement in results is anticipated until general business conditions improve materially. The first preferred, the $3 cumulative preference and the common shares are speculative.

KELL TALKS AT C-C LUNCHEON

Texas Leading Nation In Business Recovery

Mr. Kell admitted his surprise at inaccurate and overdrawn accounts presented by chairmen of other districts, particularly the Kansas City area.

He pointed out that a careful review of the reports revealed Texas in far better shape than any other section with the Minneapolis district following with problems of agricultural nature similar to Texas. Chicago was pointed out as possibly in the worst condition.

Startles Committee

Mr. Kell attracted interested attention at the Washington conference by his clear description of the Texas condition and the way Texans are facing their problems. His contradiction of the Kansas area report by concrete example was a revelation to the committee, which included Owen D. Young, Governor Harrison of the New York City bank and Chairman Meyer of the federal reserve board, and other leading industrialists, capitalists and commercial leaders of the nation.

The Kansas City report revealed that cattlemen were unable to finance stock through the feed pens in that area, whereas Mr. Kell offered an example of a successful business venture a year ago when from 8,000 to 10,000 head of cattle were financed through the feed pens and sold at a profit, with a portion of the money coming from Kansas City. Mr. Kell and associates will repeat the feeding venture this fall. The Chicago and Atlanta chairmen commented to Mr. Kell following the meeting that he had pictured the situation correctly.

"There is a turn in conditions and we are now on the upgrade and may go ahead with operation of business on a conservative basis and get the nation on its feet. This is true in Texas and the entire United States," Mr. Kell declared.

Overcoming Fear

The nation is overcoming the fear that a year ago stagnated all business, bankers now feel they may let the proper people have money without the fear of losing their investment and the same is true of business men in general. Confidence began to come back when the machinery of the Reconstruction Finance corporation got in motion, stopping bank withdrawals with support of banking interests.

Mr. Kell illustrated the return of confidence and at the same time attacked criticism of the R. F. C. in a description of loans to a Chicago bank, headed by Charles S. Dawes. The corporation issued the bank a credit for 80 million dollars, other banks of the city added $10,000,000 and New York banks added $5,000,000, making a total of $95,000,000 credit. The money is a loan to the depositors, allowing the bank to remain open and stopping withdrawals of deposits.

"The nation is turning from an atmosphere of gloom to optimism and will finally forget the experience, all but the lesson of preparedness," Mr. Kell said. The condition of the laboring public—the white-collar man, included—has been critical in Texas but not as great as in other larger population centers.

A review of Texas' natural resources reveals our cattle, including the sheep and wool industry, valued at $200,000,000 for the year ahead; an oil income of $300,000,000 this year, the 1931 wheat crop of 71,000,000 bushels and 1931 cotton crop of 5,250,000 bales, which are ample assets. Texas is not broke as a whole and has a greater per capita income than any state.

Surplus Overcome

Nature always takes care of the surplus in products, Mr. Kell said, in pointing out the 30-million-bushel wheat crop with 10,000,000 bushels in storage, which can be handled without hurting the market.

"If it were not for the short selling of Canadian wheat on the Chicago market the price would be 15c or 20c per bushel and this section is not closely governed by the Chicago market," he said.

Texas wheat is more desired for its milling qualities and Texas millers have opened contracts for markets in Central and South America and the eastern seaboard. The 30,000,000-bushel crop and the 10,000,000 bushels in storage will be handled with 25,000,000 bushels for domestic consumption and the remainder going to the foreign and eastern markets.

Nature again entered the field in the cotton control with the boll weevil—incidentally unheard of by several financiers at the Washington meeting, Mr. Kell said. The difference between 6-cent and 8-cent cotton represents the difference between poverty and a fair living for the farmers, he said.

Cotton is a Texas crop, handled by more people and placing money in the hands of greater numbers, than any other crop. With the small carry-over in the cotton crop of 1931 and favorable market conditions the 1932 crop should bring from 8 to 10c per pound, which will liquidate Texas, the speaker said.

Mr. Kell declared a strong probability exists that the planned Federal Home Loan bank will be established in Texas, when its machinery moves about Oct. 15. The bank has been tentatively located at Little Rock, Ark., but the banking and industrial committee of the 11th federal reserve district Thursday asked the administration to relocate the bank in reach of the Texans who will use its credit and resources. Mr. Kell attended the meeting.

Foreclosures Withheld

The United States comptroller has asked bank receivers, insurance companies and building and loan associations to withhold foreclosures until the home loan bank begins operations to give the home owners a chance to keep their places, Mr. Kell said.

Touching on the nation-wide move to spread jobs among the unemployed Americans who really want to work, Mr. Kell said the committee at Dallas Thursday acted favorably on the plan and that action is expected at an early date.

J. C. Mytinger of Wichita Falls suggested to Mr. Kell recently the organization of community-wide committees in Wichita Falls to cooperate in the home loan bank credit move to aid the deserving individual and another committee to develop the spread-the-jobs movement through shorter working hours. The suggestions were adopted at Dallas and will shortly be placed in operation throughout this area, with San Angelo and Amarillo already asking for assistance.

The saturation point in labor has been reached where the surplus thrown without jobs by the great development of machine labor—greater in the last 20 years than any 50-year period in the nation's history—has been taken up by the automobile and radio industry. New sources must be found for labor's energies and it is up to the young men of the nation to work on this problem, Mr. Kell declared.

SHIPMENTS OF GASOLINE GAIN

Less Oil Refined During Past Week

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 9.—A 3.2 per cent increase in shipment of gasoline was reported the past week by Mid-Continent refiners. Otherwise the refineries were curtailing activities.

Crude oil charges to stills fell off 8,692 barrels a day, or a 3.8 per cent decline, while other oils processed declined 2,452 barrels a day, or an 8.9 per cent decline.

Production of gasoline dropped 3.1 per cent, or 1,185,000 gallons less than the week before, and stocks also dropped 1.8 per cent, with the withdrawal of 1,629,000 gallons.

Detailed statistics by Platt's Oilgram and National Petroleum News follow:

Crude Oil Runs

Refiners of the province charged crude oil each day to stills in barrels as follows:

Area—	Past Wk.	Pv. Wk.
Kansas	60,549	58,847
Oklahoma	64,420	72,371
North Central Texas	44,816	49,098
West Texas	12,587	10,831
N. Louisiana-Arkansas	35,522	35,439
Total crude runs	217,894	226,586

Other oils run each day in barrels:

Area—	Past Wk.	Pv. Wk.
Kansas	4,647	6,173
Oklahoma	2,733	4,108
North Central Texas	2,846	1,962
West Texas	1,538	13,298
Total other oils	25,062	27,514

How the refiners produced gasoline, in gallons, follows:

Area—	Past Wk.	Prev. Week
Kansas	10,644,000	38,470,000
Oklahoma	10,798,000	12,848,000
N. C. Texas	8,852,000	8,201,000
West Texas	1,420,000	1,143,000
N. Louisiana-Ark.	5,571,000	5,652,000
Total output	37,285,000	38,470,000

Shipments of motor fuel in gallons follows:

Area—	Past Wk.	Prev. Week
Kansas	10,476,000	11,860,000
Oklahoma	13,595,000	12,337,000
N. C. Texas	7,859,000	6,230,000
West Texas	1,466,000	1,143,000
N. Louisiana-Ark.	5,618,000	5,451,000
Total shipments	39,014,000	37,790,000

Stocks of gasoline at the end of the week were as follows, in gallons:

Area—	Past Wk.	Prev. Week
Kansas	12,292,000	19,124,000
Oklahoma	41,890,000	44,687,000
N. C. Texas	20,975,000	19,982,000
West Texas	6,931,000	6,977,000
N. Louisiana-Ark.	4,219,000	4,266,000
Total stocks	93,307,000	95,036,000

The analysis showed that 21,244,000 gallons, or 57 per cent of the gasoline produced was by straight running; 11,833,000 gallons, or 31.7 per cent by cracking, and 4,208,000 gallons, or 11.3 per cent by natural gasoline.

Kerosene production of 4,142,000 gallons, showed a 4.3 per cent decline. In making 1,381,000 gallons of stove distillate the plants stepped up production of that petroleum product some 139.2 per cent over the previous week. Gas oil output fell off 17.7 per cent, to a total of 3,231,000 gallons and the 16,652,000 gallons of fuel oil showed a loss of 12.9 per cent.

C-C Directors Called To Tax Parley Today

A joint meeting of directors of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce and the Junior chamber has been called at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning for consideration of suggestions compiled by tax committees of both bodies in conference with similar groups from Iowa Park, Burkburnett and Electra on the Wichita county budget.

The suggestions were completed Thursday afternoon and will be presented to the commissioners court Monday afternoon. Edgar Mann and C. B. King are heads of the local committees.

NEW STUDENTS ENROLL HERE

Principals Hold Meeting For New Term

Preliminary enrollment at the Wichita Falls Junior college totaled 130 Friday afternoon with students expected to continue to sign for courses through next week, starting at 11:20 a. m. Monday. The total for the 1931-32 session was 223.

Enrollment at the junior high schools of students not previously registered totaled 110 with 49 at Zundelowitz and 61 at Reagan. Complete totals on the city enrollment will be listed at the office of Supt. H. D. Fillers starting Monday.

Principals Meet

A meeting of all city principals was held Friday afternoon relative to the opening of school and principals announced meetings with their teachers for Saturday. The Junior college and senior high school instructors will meet Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Reagan library following the city-wide teachers meeting at 10 o'clock at the same place. The junior high teachers also meet at 11:30 a. m. Saturday at room 313 at the Reagan building.

Meetings of other instructors follow: Alamo, Austin, Franklin, Sam Houston, Crockett and Carrigan at the respective buildings at 3 p. m.; Huey, San Jacinto and Barwise at the buildings at 2 p. m.; and Fannin, Travis and Bowie at the buildings at 3:15 p. m.

Required supplies for the public school pupils have been cut to a minimum for the 1932-33 session for economy, Superintendent Fillers said Friday in issuing the list. Classes open Monday morning at all schools and a full day's work will be held, Mr. Fillers said.

Registration of all old pupils was completed last spring and new pupils are being enrolled this week. The scholastic census gives Wichita Falls a possible enrollment of 10,017 pupils, but the 1931-32 total was 9,883.

Book Covers Reduced

The list of supplies does not include loose-leaf notebooks for science work in the high schools. The schools are supplying book covers this year at a minimum cost of three for 5 cents. All books must be covered.

Requirements are:

First Grade—Pencil tablet, 5 cents for art pictures, paste tube, pencils, small scissors, three book covers and 8-color crayola box.

Second Grade—Pencil tablet, 5c for art pictures, 10 cents music fee, 8-color crayon box, paste tube, pencils, scissors and six book covers.

Third Grade—(not in the department) Pencil tablet, pen tablet, 10 cents for music book rent, 5 cents for art pictures, pencils, pens, pen holder, paste tube, 8-color crayon box, 4-color water color box, ruler, water pan, eraser, scissors and six book covers.

Third Grade—(in the department) Pencil tablet, pen tablet, 10 cents for music book rent, pencils, pen and pen holder, six book covers, and 20 cents for art fee.

Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grade—Pencil and pen tablet, 10 cents for music book rent, pencils, pens and pen holder, three composition books, nine book covers and 20 cents for art fee.

Junior High—20 cents for art fee and 25 cents for music rental per term.

Senior High—75 cents for art fee and 25 cents for music rental per term.

STARS AND HEREDITY

DENVER.—Stars, as astrologers have for long claimed, may influence heredity, according to J. C. Stearns and Wilcox Overback, University of Denver physicists. This may be possible when it is considered that cosmic rays, which are thought to wield a vast influence on human life, come from the stars. X-rays have been found to influence heredity and, since cosmic rays are similar to X-rays, it is possible that they, too, influence heredity.

HOME MEN GET JUBILEE SALES

Concession Permits Confined to Local Persons

Wichita Falls business men have been given full opportunity to handle all concessions for the golden jubilee party, Sept. 26-28, it was announced Friday by President Walter D. Cline of the 50th anniversary association and Chairman J. Will Gray of the concessions committee.

The association has adopted a motto of "take care of local established businesses first" in the matter of concessions and all contracts have been let, Mr. Gray said. The permanently established merchants of Wichita Falls will be protected and no concession stands for food, cold drinks or similar supplies will be handled by outside interests.

The association believes that hotels, cafes, drug stores, confectionaries and sandwich shops, who have contributed to the jubilee program are equipped to handle the huge celebration crowds. These merchants have announced that there will be no increase in prices for the three-day boom period and that the standards of service will be fully maintained, and that the public will appreciate the action of the organization, Mr. Cline declared.

Other concessions of novelties and carnival supplies for entertainment have been placed with local men.

HOTEL MEN MEET

A quarterly meeting of the West Texas Hotel association has been called at San Angelo Saturday and President Paul Montgomery of the Holt hotel and Clark S. Cate of the Kemp hotel plan to attend, leaving Saturday morning.

It Can Be Done Very Economically by Using the New

3-Price—3-Service System

Not all of the well groomed people you see are dressed in Paris fashions. That air of chic which they invariably carry is partly a matter of well cared for clothes. No one should take a chance on poor, slipshod cleaning and pressing when there's a cleaning service to meet the individual needs of each garment and every pocketbook.

Be Fair to Yourself and to Your Garments . . . Send Them to the Cleaner for the Proper Service

STANDARD SERVICE

The "Standard" is our finest service, the most complete and thorough that modern scientific methods enable us to give. This service includes the making of minor repairs, and is as near perfect workmanship as it is possible to give. We recommend this service for your better garments.

ECONOMY SERVICE (Cash Only)

You must request this service. It is a service maintaining far better standards of cleaning than many people have been receiving elsewhere. Minor repairs at no extra cost. We recommend this service for your everyday and street wear. Cash only.

THRIFTY SERVICE (Cash Only)

You must request this service. The "Thrifty Service" receives the same Dry Cleaning but does not receive the same attention in the spotting and finishing departments. We recommend this service for garments you are not particular about. This service for cash only.
