JFK Regime Promises Liberalized Write-Offs

By STERLING F. GREEN

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—The Kennedy administration made a major move today toward better relations with business by announcing that liberalization of tax depreciation write-offs will be ordered soon.

Unofficial estimates set the 1962 tax savings at about $1.25 billion for big and little businessmen.

The announcement was made at a singularly appropriate forum—the Business Council, an organization of major industrialists headed by Chairman Roger M. Blough of U.S. Steel Corp., President Kennedy's chief antagonist in the April steel price tussle. Big steel rolled back its price increases under pressures from Kennedy.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon sent the word that the revision is now in its final stages. He said the write-offs will be ordered into effect late next month or in July at the latest.

Dillon, detained in Washington by congressional hearings, was unable to attend today's opening session of the Business Council's spring meeting. Undersecretary Henry H. Fowler read Dillon's speech at the closed-door session, after giving copies to newsmen.

As if in direct reply to those who have charged since the steel battle that the Kennedy administration is antibusiness, Fowler told the 100 assembled corporation heads:

"Our depreciation revision as a whole will, indeed, be meaningful to American industry and to the entire American economy.

"Can anyone any longer doubt this?"

The Treasury official gave no actual figures and made no estimate of the amount industry would save—and the Treasury would lose—by shortening the periods in which companies can write off the cost of new machinery and equipment.

But, he said the bigger annual deductions it will permit will take effect in this 1962 tax year, will be usable as a matter of right by all taxpayers, and will apply to machines and equipment already in use as well as to those bought subsequently.

His words dispelled suspicions voice in some quarters that there would be only a token liberalization, or that the prospect of faster depreciation was being used merely as bait to induce businessmen to support the other key elements of the administration's tax program—the bill providing a tax credit for investment made in modernization.

Together, Dillon has declared, the twin tax measures will give U.S. industry a better tax break than their long-envied foreign competitors. And, he has said, they should stimulate the kind of plant improvements that can bring American exporters closer to cost equality in world markets.

Fowler assured the business leaders that the guidelines are rooted in reality—that they recognized the more rapid obsolescence of industrial equipment in an era of changing technology.

He left no doubt that the new rules will go into effect regardless of the fate of the tax credit legislation, and disclosed also that:

The new rules will be vastly simpler than those set forth in the Treasury's existing, 20-year-old Bulletin F. Instead of specifying official useful lives for 5,000 separate items, there will be only a handful of broad classes of items for each industry.

The new schedule will not cover factory structures, warehouses, or other buildings, Fowler said, because the Treasury wants to see whether Congress passes proposed legislation closing what Sa called a loophole in the tax treatment of gains made on the sale of depreciable property.

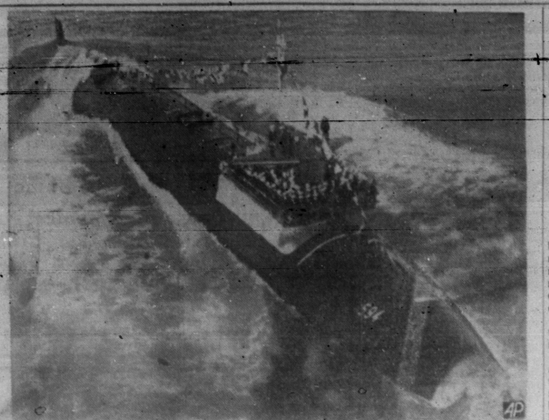

If Congress does close this loophole, the Treasury will go ahead with revisions of Bulletin F covering buildings, Fowler assured the businessmen.

Any business which has been able to prove to the Internal Revenue Service that the depreciable life of its equipment is shorter than those set forth in the new guidelines will be permitted to use the shorter period of write-off, he said.

And as long as a company's depreciation reserves do not become inordinately high—which would be an indication that old equipment is not being replaced as contemplated—the depreciation rule will not be subject to challenge at any time.

A company using the new schedule will not be questioned for a long period of time, Fowler said, even if its depreciation reserve grows large. The revenue service will act only when, after a period of years, it appears that equipment is not being replaced as rapidly as the company claims.

The council, meanwhile, awaited expected optimistic forecasts by industry's own economists of strongly rising business activity through 1962.

Sen. Tower Asserts Major Scandal Likely

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said today he has evidence indicating the Billie Sol Estes scandal "may make Teapot Dome look like a Sunday school picnic."

Tower also told a news conference the Agriculture Department dragged its feet on investigating Estes' big money deals in relation to government farm programs.

Estes is under indictment on fraud charges in Texas, and the case has set off state, federal and congressional investigations.

Tower predicted there would be great political reverberations, and it was in this connection that he mentioned Teapot Dome, the government oil lease scandal of 40 years ago which reached into the Cabinet of President Warren G. Harding.

Tower said he based the statement on information, some substantiated, some still unsubstantiated but that the public already knows through the press about the substantiated portions.

He said he is confident the Agriculture Department received complaints as early as last June that Estes, a Pecos, Tex., financier, was profiting heavily from favored treatment in that agency.

"I think the department dragged its feet on this thing," Tower said, and added that Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman practically admitted it at a news conference this week.

Tower said he has hardly taken office last year when he started receiving complaints about Estes' multimillion-dollar operations in storage of government-owned grain and manipulation of cotton acreage allotments. He said the complaints came from lawyers, elevator operators and cotton growers.

Many of the complaints also were relayed to the Agriculture Department, Tower said, but resulted in no action until Estes' financial empire collapsed this year.

Tower said he hoped investigations now under way would not be squelched or whitewashed. He said he had confidence, however, that the inquiry by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., and the Senate Investigations subcommittee would proceed.

"I believe Sen. McClellan is an honorable man and will do what's right," Tower said.

Tower said he expects the inquiries will have implications which conceivably may affect some in the Republican party as well as Democrats. He said this does not concern him.

Tower said the disclosures up to now indicate some high people will be affected but that it may develop some of them were not conscious participants in what Estes was doing.

McClellan's subcommittee has more than a dozen agents in the field seeking to trace Estes' transactions. Public hearings may be launched within a month.

Spectators Will Fire Army Rocket

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Eight youngsters will be chosen at random from spectators and allowed to fire an Army rocket at the Armed Forces Day show at Redstone Arsenal Saturday.

They will push buttons to begin the count down on four rocket motors and to start four rocket-propelled sleds on high speed runs. Graphs, recording thrust developed by the engines, will be given to the children as souvenirs.

12 Mothers Receive Honors In Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit staged a civic reception for 12 "Mothers of the Year" Thursday, breaking its custom of honoring only one.

It took special qualifications to be among those honored this time—an even dozen children.

And the mothers brought along an even gross of 144 children, to a luncheon at a local hotel.

Panel Discusses Deep Creek Plan

A meeting to explore the various possibilities of improvement of Deep Creek was called at 5 p.m. yesterday by Dr. John Blum. Blum is the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Deep Creek Improvement Committee.

The chairman noted that for 24 years that he knew of, people had been talking about doing something about Deep Creek, but so far only minor stabs had been taken at doing anything.

Those attending the meeting were Lon B. Faver, Bill Kimzey, city engineer, Bobby McCormick, Claude McCormick, Gerald Johnson, Woody Forrester, Chamber Manager, and Blum.

Flood control, sanitation, beautification and recreation were the areas discussed. Faver pointed out that the water in Deep Creek was the first asset Snyder ever had, but with the drilling of water wells, and the drying up of the creek, it had now become a liability. He further said that a beautiful creek area with running water would stop tourists like no other attraction, and that he wanted a fishing hole closer than Lake Thomas. He felt that such a project would influence people to retire in Snyder.

Kimzey agreed to work with Johnson in preparing a rough plan for beautification and flood control which might help to solidify the ideas of the committee members into a common goal, and also to determine the general area of financing required. Kimzey mentioned that what had been done in the past had been "one shot" deals, and that what he felt was needed was a permanent fund for maintaining the area.

If Kimzey's and Johnson's preliminary survey meets with the approval of the committee, it is planned to call in an engineering firm to give more accurate cost estimates and draft a master plan. The committee will meet again when the preliminary plan is completed.

Snyder Men Inspect Roby Rest Home

Two Snyder men who have been in the forefront of promoting a home for the aged in Scurry County made a personal inspection of the Fisher County Rest Home in Roby Wednesday.

Ross Williams and Claude McCormick visited the home and talked with the operators, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell. Purpose of the visit, the men said, was to try to get some answers to the questions Scurry Countians had been asking them.

They reported that the home there had a 32 bed capacity and was full. Also that the charges ranged from $100 per month to $200, depending upon the amount of care required. The charges were said to include room, board, laundry, and all living expenses except medicines and doctor's charges.

The Fisher County Home is leased by the county to the operator who returns $10 per month per patient to the county. The operator is directly responsible to the commissioners for the operation of the home. It has been in operation since Dec. 1, 1961.

Scurry County's tax-paying voters will decide at the polls May 19 whether a similar facility will be installed here.

Eighth Test Shot Fired In Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States touched off today its eighth nuclear detonation of the current Pacific test series in the atmosphere.

As with most of the other shots of Operation Dominic, the device was dropped from an airplane.

A joint announcement by the Atomic Energy Commission and the Defense Department said the explosive force was in the intermediate yield range, meaning it had force greater than 20,000 tons of TNT but less than one million tons.

The test was in the vicinity of Christmas Island.

More Moslems Slain By OAS Terrorists

ALGIERS (AP) — Secret Army Organization gunmen slew three veiled Moslem women and seven Moslem men in a new surge of terrorism on Algiers' streets today.

Six Moslems were wounded.

The renewed attacks on Moslem women had been expected, following the slaying of a European mother and daughter Thursday in an attack attributed to Moslems.

European terrorists slaughtered 18 Moslem women and a young girl in Algeria Thursday after Moslems were blamed for the slaying of a pregnant European woman in Oran on Wednesday. But Algerian Nationalist leaders still kept the Moslem masses under control, and as yet there was not outbreak from that side.

During the bloody European rampage, the bodies of Adrien Push, 43, and her 18-year-old daughter, Colette, were found with their throats cut in a villa across the street from government headquarters in Blida, outside Algiers. Their slayings were blamed on Moslems, and officials feared that this would incite the Secret Army to furious new attacks on Moslem women and girls.

Terrorist attacks took 55 lives—all but nine of them Moslem—in the North African territory Thursday. Another 28 persons, 23 of them Moslems, were wounded. Terrorist attacks were concentrated in the Oran and Algiers area, strongholds of the outlawed Secret Army's clandestine war to block Algerian independence and keep Algeria French.

French security forces continued their so-far futile efforts to check the terrorism.

Police said a two-day, house-to-house check of a neighborhood in Algiers resulted in 359 persons being taken in for questioning and the arrest of 12 Europeans. The police said they confiscated 233 assorted firearms, 8,600 rounds of ammunition and half a ton of other military supplies.

French troops and police sealed off several blocks of the downtown Rue d'Isly during the evening rush hour and picked up every male passerby over 18. About 60 men were herded into the military trucks. The operation was ordered after attacks on several Moslems on that downtown street.

County Conventions Slated Saturday By Both Parties

County conventions will be held by both political parties tomorrow. The Republicans will meet for their convention at 2 p.m. in the county courtroom. The Democrats will hold their convention at 3 p.m. in the district courtroom.

Minutes of each precinct convention and the names of the delegates to the county convention were to have been turned in to the county clerk. Minutes and delegates from all of the precincts in which Republicans held primaries were turned in. Democrats from boxes 3, 5, 9, 15, 18 and 20 only submitted their lists.

Democrats and their boxes are as follows:

3. C. A. Wade

5. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bley; H. B. Lemon; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fournoy; and Mr. W. W. Thorne.

18. Mark McLaughlin; Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Wilson; Sterling Williams; Mel Gilbert; Lee Smyth; Mrs. Harold P. Brown; Mrs. J. T. Hughes; Harold P. Brown, Jr.; John Stentell; Joe Sentell; Mrs. Victor Baze; Max West; L. L. Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Casey; Harold Bennett; Bill Schiebel; Mrs. Jack Bowden; and Pat Fails.

20. Claude McCormick, Jr.; Richard Crenshaw; M. A. Callaway; A. J. Merritt, Jr; Viola Breland; Marvin Breland; Mrs. Alfred Vernon; Evelyn Diggs; Thelma Bishop; L. A. McClanahan; Phil Burns; Walter Bishop; J. C. Massingill; Edgar von Roeder; Marvin Gray; and Ellis Bergeron.

Republican delegates and their boxes are:

1. Euna Behringer; Mrs. Lawrence Billberry; and Billy L. Watson.

3. Edwin Parks.

5. Lloyd Ainsworth.

7. Curtis Grant.

15. Stewart Gent; Roger Gee; Clifford Terry; Mrs. Marshall Terry; Franklin Pruitt; S. P. Hulen; Mrs. Marvin Dozier; R. T. Roberts; Howard Harrington.

16. Harold Adams; Ted Crenwedge; R. E. Cribb; Mrs. Goldie West; Gordon R. Dysart; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Craft; Mrs. E. D. Walton; and Mrs. W. R. Everett.

20. Bobby R. Norris; T. H. Cox; G. P. Proctor; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mc Alister; William Johnson; Roy V. Lashaway; Jack Grigry; and Mrs. Bernard Bartels.

Only one resolution was submitted by either party. That resolution, from Republican precinct 1, called "for individual responsibility in caring for the aged."

'Minuteman' Is Launched

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A Minuteman missile thundered out of an underground launching pit today and propelled its warhead 3,600 miles on a successful test flight.

The flight put the solid-fuel intercontinental range rocket back on the winning track. The last Minuteman fired here exploded because of first-stage engine malfunction shortly after cleating the silo.

That failure ended a string of seven straight successes for Minuteman.

The Air Force announced success of today's mission. It listed major objectives as over-all missile performance and operation of guidance, warhead and other systems.

The missile contained all elements except nuclear payload of the pushbutton weapon which will be assigned the first Minuteman wing at Malmstrom Air Force Base, Mont., next fall.

Hundreds of Minuteman missiles will be placed in protected silos like that used today. A control center miles away will be able to launch them on the push of a button in case of attack.

Firemen Still Probe Toledo Blast Debris

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Firemen continued today to probe the charred debris of a chemical plant where an explosion Thursday killed at least nine persons and injured 46.

Authorities said the body of one person still unaccounted for may be in the debris of the Mapmee Chemical Co. All the dead were company employes.

Nine of the injured remained in Toledo hospitals.

Laotian Force Is Reported Fleeing

By ANTOINE YARED

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Royal Laotian troops were reported fleeing across the Mekong River into friendly Thailand today as pro-Communist forces seized Houei Sai more than 100 miles beyond the cease-fire line.

The Red rebels drove forward to capture the government outpost on the Mekong border and complete their occupation of the whole of northwest Laos in defiance of a demand from their neutralist ally Prince Souvanna Phouma, to halt their offensive.

The shattering of the year-old truce raised growing concern in the U.S. government, which has been pressuring Prince Boun Oum's anti-Communist Vientiane regime to come to terms with the neutralists and Red-wing Prince Souphanouvong and form a national unity government.

Officials of the Kennedy administration still held hopes the pro-Communist Pathet Lao forces would be checked. But informants in Washington said some U. S. forces conceivably could become involved in Laos if the Reds try to overrun the whole of the jungle kingdom.

The Vientiane defense ministry announced the pro-Communist forces moved into Houei Sai today after overrunning government troops fighting a rear-guard action Wednesday.

American military sources said government troops were crossing the river into Thailand Thursday night but added, "We don't know exactly what happened then."

Royal army units had fought a five-hour battle with the onrushing Pathet Lao troops at Tha Fai, 20 miles north of Houei Sai, but failed to check them, the defense ministry reported.

Reports reaching Vientiane indicated Houei Sai, last government outpost in the northwest, was given up without a fight.

The Pathet Lao, backed and armed by the Soviet Union, North Viet Nam and Red China, surged forward in a lightning offensive that advanced more than 100 miles in five days after the capture of Nam Tha, provincial capital near the Chinese border.

Quakes Rock Mexico Area

MEXICO CITY (AP)— Earth tremors hit Mexico City, Cuernavaca and Acapulco today.

Falling ceilings and walls injured a number of persons in Mexico City and they were taken to a hospital. There were no immediate reports of injuries in Acapulco or Cuernavaca.

The tremors occurred about 8:15 a.m. National university's Seismological Observatory said the quake's epicenter had not been determined.

In the Hilton Continental Hotel many guests rushed into the street in their pajamas. Some guests said plastered walls and ceilings in their rooms cracked.

At the U.S. Embassy a few walls were cracked and some plaster loosened.

'AN EVIL, BAD THING'

Life In Russia Disillusions

NEW YORK (AP)—A former Philadelphia railroad worker, who forsook the United States in the belief that a better life beckoned in the Soviet Union, returned home with his family today in bitter disillusionment.

"I have made an exceptionally tragic mistake," David Paul Johnson, 32, sadly told newsmen at Idlewild Airport.

Although Johnson, his wife and twin 4-year-old sons spent about a week in the Soviet Union, he said it takes only 10 minutes there to see that the Soviet Union is "an evil, bad thing."

Johnson said that anyone inclined to support Communist causes in this country, as he did, ought to go to there and look around and see what is there.

The Johnsons and their sons, Cole and Lindsey, appeared extremely weary as they stepped from an airliner at Idlewild. There was no immediate word as to what they would do next, except that Johnson said he wished to talk with a State Department representative.

Before leaving London on Thursday night, he told embassy officials that he misjudged the whole situation. He reported he found Russians ill-fed and clothed, and living in poor housing.

Johnson said he had supported Communist causes in Philadelphia for the past eight years and never was a party member.

Johnson seemed nervous as he faced a large group of reporters and photographers.

"I have made an exceptionally tragic mistake," he said to them.

"Unfortunately it involves my family and myself. We are trying to pick up the pieces of our tragic life. I hope we can make it. We want to get home."

Johnson was asked to give his impression of the Soviet Union, as he found it during his short visit.

"It is an evil, bad thing," he said.

Someone wanted to know how he could make up his mind in such a short time.

"Ten minutes is all you need," Johnson replied.

Johnson's wife, Joanne, 30, and children stayed in an airline office during his brief meeting with the press. Johnson consented to meet with the press only on the basis that his wife not be present. He said she was very tired.

Johnson had been a $112-a-week timekeeper for the Pennsylvania Railroad in Philadelphia. He and his wife sold all their furnishings and most other possessions to finance the move to the Soviet Union.

They left London for Leningrad on the Soviet liner Baltika on April 23. By train they went from Leningrad to Moscow.

Their disillusionment came quickly. By last Monday they were back in London—again on the Baltika. They had to spend three days on it at the London docks because a British immigration officials refused permission for them to land.

That was because the Johnsons had only about $450 left, not enough to pay for plane tickets home. The order was rescinded when Mrs. Johnson's father, John Zapenas of Manchester, N.H., put up the $300 additional needed.

Jack Cox Eager To Begin Debate

By The Associated Press

Republican Jack Cox made the matter of campaign debates in the Texas governor's race a three-way fuss Thursday.

Aides of John Connally, who led five rivals in the first Democratic primary, said he would resume morning telecasts three times a week over 18 stations Monday — but Connally would appear alone.

Don Yarborough, who opposes Connally in the Democrats' June 2 runoff, again twitted his rival for declining to accept a challenge to televised debates.

"The Republican Jack Cox is willing to debate face to face while Democrat Connally has turned tail and run," Yarborough said. "If this is the kind of strong leadership my Democratic opponent would provide, it is clear he would never be able to measure up to Cox in the general election in November."

Cox, said in Austin:

"I'll even start debating Yarborough now if Connally doesn't want to do it."

Connally said earlier that a debate with Yarborough would be useless.

As president of the Democratic Women's Club, Mrs. William Rosch said a barbecue and political rally set for next Thursday in Denton had been cancelled.

The gathering was called off because Connally declined to attend, Mrs. Rosch said.

Connally's campaign headquarters said in addition to resuming his telecasts, he will start three weeks of strenuous stumping Monday.

Yarborough set out Friday from Dallas on an aerial tour of Central Texas.

In the lieutenant governor's race, James Turman was in Houston to begin two days of campaigning Friday. Preston Smith moved on from Dallas to confer with backers in Austin.

Waggoner Carr hit the campaign trail again at Fort Worth Thursday in his bid for the nomination for attorney general, and was spending Friday in Dallas.

Tom Reavley, Carr's opponent, said he would swing into action again Sunday or Monday in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

GOP Plans Workshop

Two from Scurry County will attend a state planning workshop of the Republican Party of Texas in San Antonio on Monday.

Planning to attend the event are Harrel W. McKinzie, County GOP chairman, and G. P. Proctor, GOP candidate for justice of the peace in Precinct No. 1.

McKinzie said the workshop will give party leaders over the state ideas and techniques for conducting an effective campaign and it will serve as the kickoff for the GOP's all-out push to capture the governor's chair and other state and local offices this year.

He reminded all Scurry County Republicans to make an effort to attend the party's county convention at 2 p.m. Saturday in the county courtroom. Delegates to the GOP state convention to be held next September in Fort Worth will be selected. Scurry County is allotted four delegates to the state convention.

McKinzie said it was not necessary for a person to have been selected as a delegate to the county convention to attend. The session is open to the public."

Wheat Surplus Likely To Drop

WASHINGTON (AP)— A dent of upwards of 150 to 175 million bushels in the wheat surplus appeared possible as a result of a government forecast that winter wheat production this year will be down 17 per cent from last year.

The Agriculture Department predicted a crop of 891 million bushels compared with 1,086,000,000 last year. Farmers are expected to harvest nearly 6 million acres less of winter wheat than the 0,753,000 harvested last year. Most of this reduction reflected land held out of production under a government program offering payments on idled acres.

Lincoln Graduate Completes Course

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hornsby, 3607 Avenue M, have received word of the graduation of their son, Bonnie McLaughlin, from Shaw's Barber College in San Antonio. He has been a student of the school for the past seven months.

McLaughlin was a 1961 graduate of Lincoln High School. He plans to return to Snyder and join Hornsby in the operation of his barber shop.

Plug For Modern Literature Made

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A Harvard professor says it is a shame more modern literature isn't read in high school classes.

Dr. Edwin Sauer suggested Thursday night that parents get together with teachers and form committees to prepare the community for the use of realistic books by the better modern authors.

Though he said he did not agree with some who contend that all of the old classics should be scrapped, he added it was time "to use a little judgment."

The trouble is, he told the spring conference of the Rhode Island Council of Teachers, "in modern literature what's clean is not clear and what's clear is not clean."

"We have all the right authors in all of the wrong books," he said.

Dr. Sauer, an associate professor at the Harvard School of Education, said high school students were capable of handling literature of great maturity.

"If they are expected to react like adults to realistic literature, they will," he said. "Teachers should learn how to teach such literature."

"At first, the community, rather than the pupil, must be prepared," he said, pointing out that if the community recognizes the value of modern realistic literature, and the teachers are prepared properly to teach it, pupils will have little trouble appreciating it.

Since practically all of modern literature is quite realistic, he said, students are being deprived of a wealth of learning material by being protected from it.

Of the six Americans who have won the Nobel Prize for literature, all except Pearl Buck are taboo in the classroom, he said, the absence of such authors as Ernest Hemingway, Sinclair Lewis, Eugene O'Neill, William Faulkner and T. S. Eliot represents "a serious cultural lag," he contended.

$3 Pants Lead To Trouble For Cabbie

CHICAGO (AP)—Cab driver Eddie Falconer, 29, told police he purchased a pair of trousers from a man for $3.

Eddie was wearing the pants Thursday when he picked up a fare, Fannie Smith, 30, and drove her to work.

Mrs. Smith hurried to a telephone and called police.

"A taxicab driver is wearing my husband's pants," she said.

Police arrested Falconer and found a label in the trousers bore the name of Joseph Smith.

Mrs. Smith said the trousers were taken in a burglary April 9. Eddie protesting loudly that he bought them from a man for $3, was taken in custody for questioning.

Woman Refuses To Vacate Apartment

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A highway is coming through her area, but Mrs. George Woods refuses to vacate her apartment and the building is the only one standing in the section.

She has locked herself in the building with her teenage son and a dog.

Mrs. Woods, about 60, was one of thousands of tenants in the area who were notified by the state last fall they would have to move. Tenants began leaving in February. In March the section's gas, electricity, water and heat were discontinued.

Still, Mrs. Woods hasn't budged.

Texas Deficit Cut By Recent Receipts

AUSTIN (AP) — Recent heavy receipts from franchise and sales taxes have reduced Texas' deficit to $12.4 million, State Treasurer Jesse James reported Thursday.

This is $84.1 million less than the peak deficit March 30. Last week's figure was $28 million.

Franchise tax receipts during the week totaled $14.6 million, sales tax receipts totaled $20.9 million and $11.3 million was transferred from the omnibus clearance fund. The franchise tax receipts are the last from a periodic collection.

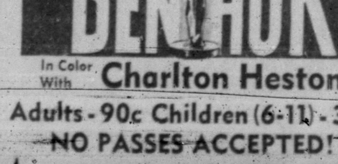

Supplemental Lists Due From Candidates

A reminder to all candidates in last week's election was issued this morning by County Clerk Dan Cotton.

Cotton stated that the supplemental expense account must be in his office by the close of business Monday.

According to Cotton, as of noon today, very few had filed this necessary supplemental accounting.

8:30 NBC "Dinah Shore" repeats the all-Italian edition of her colorcasts with Rossano Brazzi, Dominico Modugno, Joey Alfidi and the Trovajoli Jazz Group. The guest stars were all flown to California and are backed by studio special electronic effects, trick photography and set-design skill.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

6:30 CBS "Rawhide". When the trail boss of another cattle drive is killed in a stampede, Gil Favor reluctantly agrees to boss that herd as well as his own. The drovers object, fearing that the other herd may reach Abilene first and depress the cattle market.

6:30 NBC "International Showtime" repeats the "Circus Hernz Togni", taped in Italy and featuring comedy, chimps, clown car, high-wire juggling acts and Cowboys and Bullwhips. One of the features is a human pyramid of thirty-six feet above the ground done by six wire walkers.

7:30 NBC "Yves Montand on Broadway" returns for a rebroadcast spotlighting the Broadway star in music of this county and his native France. He is joined by Polly Bergen, John Raitt, Helen Gallagher and Bobby Van. The music is directed by Harry Sosnick and the choreography is by Bob Herget.

8:30 CBS "Father of the Bride". Ellie Banks gets suspicious when she learns that her husband's announced men only weekend, roughing it in the woods, involves a plush hunting lodge and not a shack, as she had been led to believe. Leon Ames and Ruth Warrick are starred.

9:00 CBS "Twilight Zone". As a bride of only a few minutes, a woman exults too soon in her victory over her husand's possessive mother who had managed to forestall their wedding. Phyllis Thaxter and Alex Nicol star in "A Young Man's Fancy", a strange tale of the dead past that tries to claim the living.

Buyers Make Offer For Ellis Island

NEW YORK (AP)—Private buyers have offered $2.1 million for Ellis Island to build a dream city on it.

The offer was made Thursday by the Damon-Doudt Corp. to the federal General Services Administration office here.

The island, a former immigration processing center, was put up for sale in September, 1956.

A company spokesman said it was the last commission accepted by the late architect, Frank Lloyd Wright.

"It will be called The Key because for 20 million immigrants it was the key to a land of freedom and opportunity," he said.

The firm said the city would cost $100 million to build, with financing entirely by private funds.

GUACAMOLE—That delicious Mexican avocado concoction, is made into a strictly American ring mold.

South Of Border Favorite

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

COOKS ALL over the country have adoped interesting ideas from the Mexican cuisine. In almost any state nowadays, guest are likely to be offered a version of south-of-the-border guacamole.

That seasoned avacodo dip comes with various additions. Here in New York, the chef at our favorite small Mexican restaurant loads it with minced onion, salt and pepper, and molds it on a small platter. Then he makes the avocado mixture look like a porcupine by inserting corn chips over its surface.

The idea is to lift a corn chip—we're talking about the crisp deep-fat fried morsels available in see-through bags—and scoop up some of the guacamole with it. While waiting for a main course to be cooked to order, many of the restaurant's guests enjoy this smooth and crunchy hors d'oeuvre with before-dinner drinks.

Less often seen, but worth respect, is guacamole made into a set mold. We served this recently as a help-yourself first course, with salad-size plates and forks, for a supper buffet. With the molded guacamole we offered pickled mushrooms, boneless sardines whole canned pimientos, endive, water cress and crisp rolls.

Here's the recipe we used, made in a 3-cup ring mold for half a dozen the recipe and the size of the mold. Or if you're nervous about removing the guacamole from a ring mold, or haven't any, take the simple way—use small custard cups or other individual molds without pattern.

MOLDED GUACAMOLE

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
¾ cup boiling water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 ½ cups finely mashed avocado
1-3 cup mayonnaise
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice)
¼ cup minced celery
Tossed green salad and avocado half-moons

In a medium mixing bowl, sprinkle gelatin over cold water to soften. Add boiling water; stir to dissolve. Stir in lemon juice, avocado, mayonnaise, salt, onion and celery. Turn into a 3-cup ring mold; cover tightly with transparent plastic wrapping; chill until set. Unmold. Fill center with tossed green salad and arrange half moons of avocado around sides.

Serve this mold the same day it's made because the exposed top of the avocado mixture has a tendency to darken if kept too long; if this should happen, just scrape off the darkened film with a spoon and unmold as usual.

Unmold the guacamole by inserting a small spatual around the sides of the mold and right down to the bottom; dip mold briefly in hot water; place serving plate over top of mold; invert the whole thing; use a few firm shakes to dislodge guacamole to center of serving plate. If it doesn't come out the first time, dip briefly again in hot water. Wipe plate around guacamole with a soft paper napkin if necessary.

HELP YOUR SOUFFLE SOAR

The higher the souffle, the more skilled the chef. That's what many cookbooks contend. To help your souffle stand proud and tall, wrap a double-thick 3-inch strip of aluminum foil around the souffle dish. Interlock the foil by tucking one end of the strip into the other. When baking time is complete, gently remove the foil collar.

It's Time Women Knew The Truth

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—A goodlooking psychiatrist named Marie N. Robinson thinks it's high time women were told the truth:

They're different from men. They should be educated differently. Their place is in the home.

When she says this, sometimes educators shudder, men rush up to insist their wives are as good as they are, and women inquire coldly if she also favors keeping them barefoot and pregnant.

"To acknowledge the difference in sex roles doesn't mean to put women back in the kitchen," Dr. Robinson argues.

"But a woman's historical and biological role is in the home. Her job is keeping the tone of that home happy and loving, interpreting members of the family to each other. This is what we women are uniquely designed for.

"A woman who feels deprived if she can't go out to work every day, who says 'I can't do anything. I have four children to take care of' isn't enjoying the rightful role of women. Our contribution is to set the spiritual tone of the household. Let the men go out and make the money."

Slim, brunette Dr. Robinson, wife of a writer and mother of a 15-year-old son, is the author of "The Power of Sexual Surrender," a study of the frigid woman. Besides maintaining a private practice she is active in community health projects and consequently is not one to point a finger at working wives.

"It pleases me to work during the day," she explains. "We women doctors would rather work than play mah jongg. I'm not minimizing the quality of work. But the kind of anxiety we women bring to it."

Because a women's major anxiety is loss of love, Dr. Robinson says, she is more concerned about her home than her job.

"I bring more anxiety to family problems or the kind of dinner I'm going to cook than to my outside work."

She thinks hopefully that the trend is slowly spiralling back toward recognizing the difference between the sexes, but on a higher level of understanding.

There's a crying need for women's colleges to stop turning into men's schools, says Dr. Robinson.

"Instead, some brave school should stand up and say 'women are different, have God-given gifts, and let's see where a woman's pleasure does come from—from chemistry 203 or from keeping the love level high in a family!'"

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. A startling innovation is the sheer front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem. The girdle itself is of "wonder" Lycra spandex fiber. It feels like nothing on but has such slimming strength it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim" is the peak achievement of the designer-genius, Olga.

Be "Suddenly Slim" today in either girdle or panty version.

Think Things Are Tough? Consider Royalty's Woes

By INEZ ROBB

Things are tough all over, a distressing state of affairs that we Americans, in our preoccupation with our own overwhelming problems, both domestic and foreign, tend to overlook.

As is well known, misery loves company, and today I propose that we look at another fellow's crushing problem and draw from it what cheer we can. So, let us bury our own anxieties by taking to heart the life and hard times of Europe's few remaining royal families and what to do with their marriageable daughters, of whom there is a RAFT.

Just remember what a tussle it was to get Princess Margaret married off, and she a sister to Elizabeth II. And then regardez vous the plight of Queen Juliana of the Netherlands with four daughters on her hands and, as far as anyone knows, no takers to date.

That big, plush celebration of the Silver Wedding anniversary of Juliana and Prince Bernhard so e 10 days ago is regarded, primarily, as a providential excuse to round up as many young princelings as possible and pray that propinquity, a full moon and nature will do the rest.

Crown Princess Beatrix is 24 and time's awastin'. But the prince crop is mighty spindly. Look at all those pretty-as-a-picture Scandinavian princesses who are still on the market. It ain't easy for a royal parent to find a Barkis, with the right qualifications, who's willin'.

I have a friend who was once in Juliana's position. That is, he had four daughters. He confided to me that after the fourth was born, he never again spoke harshly to any little boy, and, furthermore, he put sugar on the house steps. Proof of his wisdom is the fact that all four girls are now married.

Perhaps, I should have sent this word to Queen Juliana years ago. But if she's desperate —

In the years before World War I, when there were plenty of great royal dynasties in Europe, the marriage of an heiress to the throne, as in the case of Elizabeth II, Juliana and now the latter's daughter, Beatrix, was a simple matter of a bid here and a trade there. Those days are gone!

When it comes right down to it, Beatrix could do no better than follow the example of the most firmly entrenched queens in Europe. Both Elizabeth II and Juliana married young men without a sou who were almost unknown until royal favor hit them. Yet both men have been extraordinarily able consorts — competent, intelligent and widely respected.

Bernhard was both a poor and obscure German princeling, trying to earn his living as an automobile salesman when he met with the favor of Wilhelmina, who kept her daughter in groundgrippers and middy blouses until her marriage.

During the courtship, Queen Wilhelmina, in her best hat which she removed and put in a box as soon as the limousine hit the country-side, took her daughter for a drive in the country. Prince Bernhard also drove out into the country. At a rendezvous point, Juliana was permitted to get out of Mama's car and go for a little ride with the prince.

Then she got back in the limousine with Mama and drove home. Wilhelmina taking out her good hat and putting it on at the city line. When the marriage contract was being arranged, Prince Bernhard found Wilhelmina, probably the richest sovereign in Europe, a tough bargainer. But the prince was tough, too, and he refused to sign until she raised his allowance.

Bernhard has proved his worth. I suspect he has a wise and experienced eye out in his daughter's behalf. Young princelings are more apt to sell champagne these days than autos.

Still, after he and Juliana get Beatrix settled, they have three more to go. And the pickin's get thinner all the time. Doesn't the Netherlands have any talented photographers?

Junior Editors Quiz on THE DOLLAR SIGN

QUESTION: Where did the dollar sign come from?

* * *

ANSWER: There are two very definite schools of thought about the origin of the dollar sign. One is that it came from the Spanish dollar, called "piece of eight," famous from pirate tales. The S in the dollar sign is said to be a broken 8. The two lines running through the S are supposedly the same Pillars of Hercules found on the Spanish coin. The other school says that if the two vertical lines are connected at the bottom, we have the symbol "US," and that the origin, therefore, should be quite obvious. There is no disagreement, however, about the word "dollar." The first coins similar to the silver dollar were made in the valley of St. Joachim in Bohemia. The German word for valley is "thal." The coins were called "Joachimsthalers, or Joachim valley-ers. Later, they were called just "thalers," or valley-ers. By the time the word reached the United States, it had become "dollars." The dollar became the official currency unit of the United States in 1792.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Although some countries use the dollar, most countries of the world have their own basic units of money. In Great Britain, it is the pound, and in Germany it is the mark. In France, the basic unit is the franc. How much are each of these worth in dollars?

* * *

(James Green of Biwabik, Minn. wins $10 for this question. Send your question on a postcard to Junior Editors, in care of this newspaper.)

Growing Up Complicated Chore Today

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—My daughter Tracy, who will be 9 years old next month, looked up from her peanut butter sandwich at my wife Frances and observed:

"You know, you've been a wonderful mother to me over the years."

It was so unexpected that my wife almost sliced off part of her hand instead of the bread.

"What did you say?" she asked.

"I said you've been a wonderful mother to me over the years," replied Tracy, calmly taking another bite of sandwich.

"Well, may I ask what brought on that remark?"

"Nothing. I was just thinking," said Tracy, and went outside to ride her bike.

For a few minutes [illegible] my wife didn't know whether to laugh or cry, but the rest of the day she walked to the music of invisible bugles.

Parents are so used to being taken for granted that when a child simply and without self-consciousness states its debt of gratitude they are overwhelmed. It is as if a small tree should suddenly find a voice and thank the sunshine falling on its leaves.

But it is in such offhand moments of reward that one feels how profoundly worthwhile parenthood is.

When Frances later relayed to me the story of our daughter's praise, I had almost a feeling of envy.

"Do you suppose Tracy will ever tell me I've been a wonderful father to her over the years?" I asked.

"Could be," said Frances lightly. "It's a strange world."

In the mutuality of home life a parent can learn a lot from a child. And my observation of my daughter has led me to the conclusion that growing up today is a much more complicated process than it used to be.

Being a child in the old days was comparatively easy. All you had to do was arise before dawn, milk a thousand cows, then swim four miles to school with your baby brother on your back. After studying your ABC's, you swam the four miles back home, this time with your baby brother in your teeth, plowed 187 acres and went to bed.

Nothing to it. It was as simple as that.

But a child today leads such a scheduled life it requires a parent to become a secretary as well as a chauffeur in order to fulfill all the obligations.

It seems to me my daughter never has any time in which to pause and merely be a child. The industry of growing up keeps her endlessly busy.

She merely thinks I'm trying to be funny when I tell her:

"Don't be in such a hurry to be an adult. It's more fun to be a child now than later."

But I'm really not joking at all. Every parent probably has a wistful wish for his children to enjoy childhood as long as possible, and to postpone the pain of growing up.

Child's Father Is Awarded $12,000

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A judgment of $12,000 was awarded to the father of 5-year-old James D. Gray Jr. who suffocated in an abandoned ice box last month.

The settlement was agreed upon by Gray and the Veterans Landscaping Co., a Birmingham firm sued by Gray for $100,000 damages because the refrigerator was on its property.

AT SWC'S SPRING MEETING

Increased Recognition For Letters Of Intent Sought

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

WACO, Tex., (AP) — A proposal for an agreement among the major conferences of the country to recognize each others' letters of intent will be taken before the Southwest Conference today.

It is a substitute for the plan of a national letter of intent that was met with failure in the NCAA.

Dr. J. William Davis of Texas Tech, who tried to get a national letter of intent, but decided it would never be accepted, particularly the small colleges and the Ivy League, is chairman of the committee taking the new proposal to the major conferences.

Dr. Davis, a member of the SWC faculty committee, said that the Atlantic Coast Conference already had agreed to it and that the other conferences would be taking it up at their spring meetings.

"I have received endorsement from many individuals and I believe the plan will go over," Dr. Davis said.

It will be an agreement among the major conferences that they will recognize each others letters of intent—meaning that when an athlete signs with one school he cannot be sought by any other school.

"The smaller schools and the Ivy League are opposed to a national letter of intent and I saw at the last NCAA convention that I probably could not put across this plan in the NCAA," Dr. Davis said.

"At the NCAA meeting in New Orleans I presented the new plan and was named chairman of a committee to go to the major conferences to ask for a general agreement. I will contact the Southwest, Southern, Southeastern, Big Eight, Big Ten, Missouri Valley, and the conference on the Pacific Coast. Of course, if any other conference wants in, they will be accepted."

This will be a major topic at the Southwest Conference spring meeting, which has little other business to transact but will spend much of its time discussing plans for meeting a crisis projected by reports of a fix scandal in conference basketball.

The basketball coaches and athletic directors, meeting Thursday, took steps they hope will bring better officiating and better crowd behavior.

The alleged basketball scandal is supposed to involve some officials and is being investigated by state and federal authorities. There has been no indication that enough evidence has been uncovered to bring charges of any kind. A study of basketball game films reportedly has revealed nothing tangible.

The basketball coaches, thinking primarily of next season when they realize crowd reaction may be a major worry, pledged that they would do their best to control themselves, players and the bench during all games. They said they realized that actions of coaches and players were a major reason for disturbances among fans.

The coaches also decided they would ask the Southwest Basketball Officials Association to submit its best men as fill-ins in the conference officials list, obviously indicating that officials who might have been under suspicion in the fix charges would not be retained.

Athletic directors said they would make a direct appeal to the public toward controlling crowd behavior.

The football coaches and athletic directors approved some amendments regarding recruiting. One would restrict the payment of expenses for an athlete visiting a campus to one visit.

It was also decided that graduate students could not hold athletic scholarships and their financial aid from a school ends when they receive degrees.

Colt, Pony League Rosters Released

Monday, May 21, has been set as the target date for opening play in Snyder's Colt and Pony Leagues, with the schedule running through July 5.

A full group of sponsors have been acquired, according to coordinator Joe Williamson. The list includes (along with teams sponsored) the Von Roeder Seed Farms Red Sox, Wilson Motors Yankees, Snyder Savings and Loan Buffs, Snyder National Bank Rebels, Scurry Butane Dodgers, Optimist Club Braves, Canyon Reef Sports Center Sports, and Ray Taylor Well Service Phillies.

A pair of out-of-town additions are to fill out the fold—the Roby Lions in the Colt League and the Rotan Cats in the Pony.

All boys listed on the following rosters are asked to contact their coaches for the time and sites of practice sessions, which are to get underway Monday.

The season schedule will be run in Sunday's edition.

Trojans Slip Past Hamlin

Lincoln High's Trojans dropped Hamlin for the second time in as many days here Thursday, outlasting them by a tab of 15-13.

Thomas Davis, who served a five-inning tour on the hill sandwiched in between starter Ronald Green and finisher Buford Thompson, gained credit for the victory. They gave up 10 hits between them and struck out 12.

The Trojans battered starter Jerry Lore and loser W. Franklins for 14 safties, and only two Lincoln swingers went down on strikes.

Leading the Trojan nine in the hitting department were Mack Taylor and Cornelius Davis with two doubles and a single and Thomas Davis with a pair of singles and a triple. Raymond Johnson, however, contributed the big blow of the game—a three-bagger with the bases loaded in the fourth.

Jerry Bass singled three times to be top man in Hamlin's batting attack.

Lake Thomas Fishing Good

Lake Thomas black bass have been hitting well recently according to J. E. Boyd of Boyd Lodge.

Several fine yellow cats have been hooked, also, including one 24-pounder. A trio of Lamesa fisherman—Corlis Chiles, Shorty Marshall and Mr. Stutt—were out on the lake from 6 until 10 this morning, Boyd reported, and came in with 30 white bass weighing from one to two and a half pounds.

Indoor fishing at the Lodge continues to be generally good, with channel cat, carp, white bass and crappie being snared regularly.

Trotline fishing "has been picking up right along," also, Boyd added.

The lake's level currently rests at about five feet below spillway.

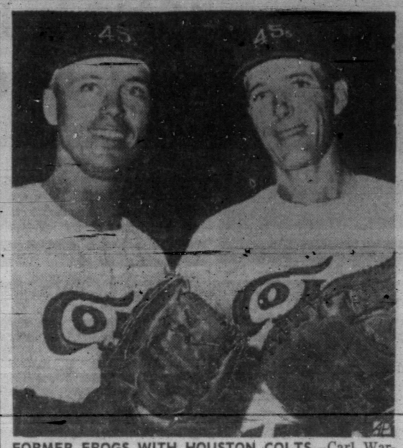

TL Dogfight Being Waged

By The Associated Press

A torrid battle for the driver's seat has developed in the Texas League.

Although El Paso still clings to first place, Albuquerque and Tulsa are only a game down. Austin is another half game back.

San Antonio tripped the league-leading Sun Kings 7-5 Thursday night as Albuquerque coasted past Amarillo 16-5 and Austin beat Tulsa 11-9.

FORMER FROGS WITH HOUSTON COLTS—Carl Warwick, left, newly acquired fielder from the St. Louis Cardinals, poses with Jim Busby, who was a Houston Colt coach and is now back on the player list. Both Colt players attended Texas Christian University — Busby in 1947 and Warwick in 1957. (AP Wirephoto)

Tribe Moves Up On Idle Yankees

By The Associated Press

Fresh from a successful road trip and with first place in their sights, the Cleveland Indians now go for broke—in a four game-series with the New York Yankees that could prove the most telling of the young American League season.

Sparked by one of their new faces, rookie outfielder Ty Cline, the Indians rapped Minnesota 9-4 Thursday and inched to within 1½ games of the front-running Yankees, who had the day off.

Cline had a pair of two-run singles as the Indians foared away from the Twins with four runs in the fourth inning and four more in the fifth, and also chipped in with another single in Cleveland's 13-hit offensive.

Jim Perry survived an early shelling and went the distance for the Indians, allowing eight hits.

Also in the AL, Early Wynn registered pitching victory No. 294 as the Chicago White Sox beat Washington 3-1. Los Angeles downed Detroit 6-4, Baltimore beat Kansas City 5-2. Boston, like the Yankees, took the day off.

In the National League, first-place San rancisco blanked runnerup St. Louis 6-0, Los Angeles knocked off Houston 6-2 and Milwaukee topped Pittsburgh 4-3. The New York Mets and the Cubs were again idled by cold weather at Chicago, while Philadelphia and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

For tonight's opener, Cleveland's rookie manager Mel McGaha has Jim (Mudcat) Grant, on loan from the Army, set to go against Ralph Terry, who beat the Indians four out of four last year.

Thursday against the Twins, Perry got bombed for homers by the first two men he faced, Lennie Green and Vic Power, and fell behind 3-0 when Green doubled in another run in the second. But the Indians rocked loser Don Lee, Georges Maranda and Ted Sadowski for their four-run bursts in the fourth and fifth, making it a breeze for Perry the rest of the way.

Wynn (2-1) checked the Senators on seven hits and was two outs away from the 47th shutout of his 22-year big league career when doubled by Dale Long and Gene Woodling produced the Washington run. The White Sox broke a scoreless tie with two runs off Bennie Daniels in the sixth and got another run on Al Smith's homer in the eighth.

Ryne Duren, making the fourth save in his last five appearances, stifled the Tigers on just one hit over the final three innings in preserving the victory for Jack Spring and the Angels. Detroit powered to a 4-3 edge in the fifth when Jake Wood smacked a three-run homer and Al Kaline hit his 10th.

But Billy Moran's triple and a single by Leon Wagner tied it in the bottom of the fifth, and Albie Pearson's sacrifice fly brought in the winner in the sixth. Doug Gallagher was the loser.

Supported by homers from Jim Gentile and Charley Lau, Chuck Estrada and Hoyt Wilhelm tamed Kansas City batters down the stretch as the Orioles overcame the A's. Jerry Walker was the loser.

89ers Nab Sixth Scalp

By The Associated Press

Oklahoma City's 89ers captured their sixth straight victory and Omaha climbed into a virtual tie for first place in the American Association Thursday night.

Omaha stifled the Denver Bears 5-1 and moved within eight percentage points of the league leading Indianapolis Indians, whose home game with Louisville was postponed because of wet grounds.

The 89ers scored three times in the fifth inning for their 4-3 conquest of Dallas-Fort Worth. J. C. Hartman homered to start the big frame.

Tournament Deadline Approaching

Local and area ladies planning to enter Tiger Bowl's first annual Women's Open Tournament, featuring handicap competition, are reminded that time is growing short and to sign up as soon as possible.

Tournament bowling will be staged the weekends of May 12-13, 19-20, and 26-27. Open to all W. I. B. C. members, events will include singles, doubles, all-events and ragtime doubles.

The ragtime doubles portion of the tournament may be rolled anytime during the day or night.

Arnie Grabs Colonial Lead

By MIKE COCHRAN

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, his booming driver under control and sporting a one-stroke lead, headed a classy Colonial field today into the second round of the golf tournament.

The Pennsylvania pro served notice Thursday that he fully intends to add to his bulging trophy case the title that has painfully evaded him in seven previous appearances here.

Palmer, already a five-time current champion and the tour's leading money winner with $52,308 shot a sizzling 67 to take command of the $40,400 event which carries a $7,000 first place check.

The three-under-par round left him a stroke ahead of South African Gary Player, Doug Ford and Bo Wininger and two shots out front of five others.

At 69 were a pair of relative newcomers, Jack Nicklaus and Jacky Cupit, Waco Turner open champ Johnny Pott and a couple veterans, Tommy Jacobs and Bill Collins.

"I drove just perfect," Palmer said, "never off line. I missed the fairway only once."

He blamed an erratic 8-iron for two of his three bogies.

He collected six birdies and through 11 holes was five under par before running into trouble at the 12th.

Former Colonial champion Tony Souchak celebrated his 35th birthday in bitter disappointment. He and Ken Venturi were disqualified for posting incorrect scores on the 17th hole.

Souchak shot a 72. Venturi had an 80.

Defending champion Doug Sanders remained well in contention with a one-over-par 71, joining Bill Casper, the tour's second leading money winner, and four others at that figure.

Headed by U.S. Open champion Gene Littler nine players were bunched at 70, three strokes off Palmer's pace.

Steers Edge Aggies For SWC Crown

AUSTIN (AP)— Texas catcher Gary London brought home the bacon.

His ringing double scored the winning run Thursday as the Longhorns, after trailing 9-2, zoomed from behind to win a wild 10-inning fray with Texas A&M for the Southwest Conference baseball championship.

As winner of its 35th conference crown Texas now goes into the NCAA playoffs. The Longhorns probably will meet Arizona at Tucson in eliminations starting May 17, but there is no official word on it yet.

Texas scored five runs in the bottom of the eighth, leaving the Aggies still ahead 9-8. After A&M pushed across another run in the ninth, Longhorn third baseman Ed Kasper beat out an infield hit with two away and drove in the tying run. Then came London's double.

Stanley Dancer led harness drivers in purse money won at the 1961 Yonkers, N. Y., meetings. He took down $270,327.50.

Harlin Oilers Register 15-1 Softball Win

Harlin's Oilers powdered Ray Taylor Well Service 15-1 in City Softball League play of Thursday in a contest [illegible] after three and a half innings due to the 10-run rule.

Tommy Hester chunked for the winners, allowing five hits. Fred Everton suffered the loss.

First baseman Ted Crenwedge smashed a double and a homer in three plate appearances to lead the Oiler onslaught. Other Harlin batsmen contributing to the cause included Mert Creswell, who doubled and singled, and Kenneth Baker and Jack Lawrence, each of whom landed two-baggers.

Kenneth Free doubled for Taylor's only extra-base knock.

The schedule for tonight calls for Sunray to meet City Employees at 7 p.m., to be followed by R. E. Smith vs. Denson Gulf. Games are played on the high school practice field.

"Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord; and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. And these words which I command you this day shall be upon your heart; and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise."

Deuteronomy 4-7 (read verses 1-9).

The Israelites had a creed which is stated clearly in today's scripture: "The Lord our God is one Lord; and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and with all your might." This creed was the center of their communal and individual life. When the outside world stormed through Israel they found the Israelites worshipping one God and fighting for their faith in Him. When one individual Hebrew was theretened with any kind of disaster, he was sure to be found at the temple praying to one God. One of the amazing things about this religion of one God was that it was considered to be the most important thing in the life of the nation and thus became the hub around which all other things revolved. So important was it that the parents [illegible] the extreme obligation to rear their children in the faith at all times; lying down, sitting, standing, walk- "Hear, Oh Israel, the Lord our God is One. Him only shall you love and serve."

We Christians, who have found the climax of this same faith through Jesus Christ, God's only Son, should do much more.

EVERYONE WELCOME

NEW MINISTER AT MORNINGSIDE BAPTIST — The Rev. James L. Rogers will be in his new pulpit Sunday. Shown with Rev. Rogers are his wife Janice, daughter Dorcas, and sons Nathan and Tim. Rev. Rogers graduated from the North American Baptist Theological Seminary in Jacksonville and has been in the ministry 12 years. He comes to Snyder from the Northside Santa Anna Baptist Church.

St. John's Episcopal

The Third Sunday after Easter will be observed this week at St. John's Episcopal Church with the celebration of Holy Communion at both worship services. The Rev. Custis Fletcher, vicar, will be the celebrant and preacher.

The first lesson for Sunday is from the first letter of St. Peter, Chapter 2, beginning with the 11th verse. The second lesson is from the Gospel according to St. John, chapter 16, beginning with the 16th verse.

Phil Lammert and Tom Fletcher, acolytes, will serve at the 8 a.m. Holy Communion. Lee Fletcher, Mike Alexander and Tommy Hartley, acolytes, will serve at the 10:30 a.m. Holy Communion. Scott C. Patterson will serve as usher.

Rev. Fletcher will have as his sermon subject for both services, "Witnesses."

The Tri-City Episcopal Young Churchmen and their guests will meet at the Ice Palace in Abilene at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Assembly Speakers Announced

Speaking assignments and final plans for the forthcoming circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses were revealed Sunday according to J. D. Cook, presiding minister.

W. R. Thomas of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn N. Y. and District supervisor of Texas and Oklahoma will be chairman. The assembly will be held June 1-3, in the Exhibit building, Taylor County Agricultural Center in Abilene.

Assisting will be A. W. Avey, circuit supervisor and frequent visitor to the local congregation.

The theme selected, "Faithfully Increasing Our Praise to Jehovah" will be the opening discourse of Mr. Thomas, Friday at 7 p.m.

The program consists of morning, afternoon and evening sessions of Bible talks, discussions and demonstrations designed to train delegates to improve their ministerial teaching.

Local ministers appearing on the program include R. Chamberlain discussing the subject "Faithful Children bring Joy to Jehovah." E. Meives will stress the importance of our ministry at the assembly city. In charge of assembly preparations is J.D. Cook. Cleaning and sanitation will be directed by Richard Cline. C. R. Cook will be in charge of sign painting.

Climax of the assembly will be the public discourse "Who Will Rule the World?" presented at 3 p.m. Sunday by Mrs. Thomas.

All sessions are open to the public. No collections are taken.

East Side C-C

Richard Williams, minister at East Side Church of Christ, will speak on the subject "Which Dwelt First in My Grandmother Lois and My Mother Eunice" on the 8:15 a.m. radio program Sunday.

At the 10:25 a.m. worship service, his subject will be "Great Is The Mystery of Godliness," and at 6 p.m. he will preach on the subject "Remember Now Thy Creator in the Days of Thy Youth."

Bible classes will meet at 9:30 a.m. Sunday and the mid-week service is set for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Bomarc-A Ends Tests

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — Another successful performance of the Bomarc ground-to-air missile has ended a series of tests begun three years ago.

The Bomarc-A intercepted a supersonic F104 drone target about four miles above the Gulf of Mexico Thursday. The interception was more than 150 miles from the launch site.

The Bomarc-A has been assigned to bases in the northeast area of the United States for more than two years. It has a range of more than 200 miles and an altitude capacity of more than 11 miles.

The advanced Bomarc-B now being tested has a range of about twice that of the Bomarc-A.

Negro Goes Back Home

CHICAGO (AP)—A Negro sent to Chicago by Louisiana segregationists is returning home, convinced that it was a mistake to accept the offer by the White Citizens Council of Greater New Orleans of free transportation to the North.

Rezzie Moffett, 45, one of three Negroes sent by the New Orleans segregationists, boarded a bus Thursday for a return to New Orleans.

Moffett arrived May 1 and has been unable to find a job in Chicago, Ralph Collins, executive director of Travelers Aid Society, told newsmen.

Moffett carried a worn canvas bag and $3 in pocket money when he left. His $22.51 ticket and the pocket money were contributed by the Cook County Public Aid Department.

Mothers Day Got Start In Church

By JULES LOH
AP Staff Writer

If Anna Jarvis were alive today she might see some hope for Mothers Day after all. There are signs the annual observance is taking on some of the religious flavor Anna had in mind when she thought up the idea.

Mounting commercialization of Mothers Day left Anna Jarvis, ironically, without sympathy for the cause she created when she lay on her deathbed in 1948, blind, deaf and penniless.

Commercialization is more widespread than ever before—the estimate for this year is that sales will top $1 billion—but manifestations of the religious significance of the day also are apparent.

The American Mothers Committee, the organization which selects the mother of the year, reports churches throughout the land are paying increasingly more attention to Mothers Day with special services and sermons. A number of firms which sell religious goods say they are beginning, at least, to share in the billion dollar bonanza.

The idea for an annual Mothers Day was born in a church house, and to Anna's way of thinking it never should have left it. A plaque on the lawn of Andrews Methodist Church in Grafton, W.Va., tells how it all began.

In post-Civil War days Anna's mother, a Sunday school teacher at the church, used to promote a spring picnic honoring the mothers of the community. The war had turned neighbor against neighbor, just as it had divided the state itself, and Mrs. Jarvis hoped to heal the scars by getting both Union and Confederate veterans to gather with their families for a Mothers Friendly Day.

On the second anniversary of her mother's death, May 9, 1907, Anna held memorial services at her home in Philadelphia, then set out on a crusade for a national holiday to honor the nation's mothers.

The following year, and on the second Sunday in May every year thereafter, the Andrews Methodist Church in Grafton has held special Mothers Day services. The Rev. Virgil Gillum, the pastor, will use as Sunday's scripture text the same verse Dr. Harry C. Howard spoke from in 1908: "Woman behold thy son ... behold thy mother."

Anna Jarvis' campaign resulted in Congress passing a resolution in 1914, signed by President Woodrow Wilson, proclaiming an annual observance.

But as the commercial importance of the day grew so did Anna's disappointment. Gradually it turned to bitterness and she retreated from the world, rarely leaving her house except to tend her mother's grave. Acquaintances discovered her living in poverty, raised some money and put her in a sanitarium.

Anna's crusade was strictly American in origin, but the idea of an annual day to honor motherhood certainly isn't novel. More than 40 countries have similar customs, most of them with roots going back to ancient times.

Walruses Move Into Dream House

NEW YORK (AP)—Olaf and Ookie have moved into their dream house—a turquoise, robin's egg blue, violet, mauve, pearl gray and sand gray affair complete with swimming pools.

The swimming pools are not a luxury item for this particular couple. Olaf and Ookie happen to be walruses. Their new, $184,000 home took a year to complete at the New York Aquarium at Coney Island.

City officials and trustees of the New York Zoological Society appeared for the grand opening Thursday, as did wealthy Bernard Gimbel, who contributed $25,000 to the project.

Olaf—apparently feeling there's no pool like an old pool—almost didn't make it. He balked at entering the new pool and chased an assistant from the area. A power crane had to be used to hoist the 1,880-pound Walrus into his new home.

The female of the species was more enthused about the quarters. Ookie went into the pool without even a tearful look backward.

Actually, the couple isn't married yet, and aquarium officials—who are proper folk—are keeping them in separate quarters for the time being.

For now, Olaf has three gray seals for company, while Ookie is sharing her section of the home with baby walruses Seeku and Tipuk. There's plenty of spare space in the pool, and aquarium officials hope, once Olaf and Ookie are mated, to fill it with lots more walruses.

Gimbel was pleased. He explained that he spearheaded the initial effort because, at age 77, he still goes swimming daily, "and when it comes to swimming —Olaf, he's all right."

Young Trader To Wait For A Recovery

By BOB HARING

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Like many other stockholders, Pete Harpster is behind in a falling market. But Pete—who's only 12—figures to hold on for a recovery.

Pete has been trading in stocks since he was eight years old. His parents got him started with five shares of El Paso Natural Gas Co. Now they let him trade as he wishes—with the advice of his broker.

What does he think is behind the stock market decline, which sent prices tumbling again Thursday and dropped the Dow-Jones averages by 7.47?

"President Kennedy," he replied.

Pete explained he thinks President Kennedy frightened investors by forcing the steel industry to rescind its recent price increase. Stockholders are selling out as a result, he said.

Pete hasn't sold and doesn't plan to, although he's behind more than $9 on his $336 portfolio. "I'm waiting for a recovery," he said.

He is confident of an eventual recovery, but cautious about forecasting when. Is now a good time to buy, then? "I'd wait for a little while," Pete said. "It should go down further."

Pete's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harpster, figure his stock trading has been useful.

"He learns about industry, government, money—stocks are an opening to a number of things," his mother said. "He can't play with toys forever."

Pete scans reports which his father, an accountant, brings home for him, but trading is strictly up to the sixth grader.

Pete's worst loss has been a 3½-a-share fall in a space stock. A recent purchase of a gas and electric company bolstered his overall position, though.

"It's what's keeping me alive," he said.

Women Of St. John's Meet Here Wednesday

The May meeting of St. John's Episcopal Churchwomen was held Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Louise Burke, 2210 Fortieth.

Mrs. Charles Sutton gave the program on the United Thank Offering. This offering is given by the individual churchwomen twice each year, with most of the offering going to help with the missionary work of the church.

More than 58 million people have visited the Lincoln Memorial in Washington D. C. since its opening in 1922.

A Closer Walk With God Will Lead You Right Straight to Church

CAN HE LIVE WRONG?

IF A MAN PRAYS RIGHT

Every hour of every day... and night... consciously or subconsciously... we draw upon Mother's strength and love. It is a meager tribute that we should pause once a year and dedicate one day to Mother.

Mother is what makes the wheels go round. Home isn't home without Mother. The countless details, the careful planning, the constant loving care... that takes Mother every time. Children won't tick without Mother. Form the start, Mother is our warm meal when we are hungry, our extra blanket on a cold night, our light in a dark room. Little minds and hearts reach out for MOTHER. Baby-sitters aren't the same. Servants are insufficient. Even Daddy isn't quite enough. A well child runs on eager feet to tell MOTHER of his joys; a sick child calls constantly for MOTHER to soothe away his pains. There's something special, something extra, that comes only from Mother.

Who else can kiss a hurt and make it well? Who else can give us lovely memories of a happy childhood, rich with fun and friends? And who, but Mother, can lead us from our earliest days to find Him as our Refuge and Strength, a very present Help in time of trouble?

Life brings floods of uncertainties, disappointments, failures. Mother is the rock that stands fast. Her faith is sure, her spirit never wavering, her love never failing. Life, too, brings joy, achievement, success. Then we know one heart is happier even than our own. Mother is then the soaring cloud of radiant rapture, lifting us to new attempts.

Williams Newspaper Feature,
P. O. Box 211, Ft. Worth, Tex.

As long as Mother lives, we shall not lack for care or love or prayers. When separation comes, as come it must, "death is swallowed up in victory." Life will not change Mother's love; death will not conquer it. Mother's spirit will walk ever beside us; her love will wrap us close. Her gentle hand will guide us; her sweet voice will echo in our ears. Again we'll feel that extra blanket slipped quietly over us, in the coldness of our night! Mother is and will be forever more our guardian angel. In this world or in the next, we know that we may draw eternally upon the strength and the love that is... MOTHER. Go to your church this Mother's Day.
