ROAD BOND ISSUE CARRIES BY VOTE OF FIVE TO ONE

Only Four Precincts in County, Dora, Maryneal, Hylton, Bittercreek Fail to Give Majority to $600,000 Bond Issue For Improving Highways

SWEETWATER VOTE IS 600 FOR TO 62 AGAINST

Total Vote in County 1085 For to 265 Against—State And Federal Government Allot $806,000 Aid—To Build 125 Miles Roads

With every voting precinct in the county voting favorably except four the $600,000 road bond issue was carried here Saturday by a vote of 1085 to 222, nearly five to one.

The vote in Sweetwater was 600 for to 62 against, a vote of ten to one.

Blackwell voted favorably by a vote of 106 to 13 as did Roscoe with a vote of 222 to 50.

Up to a late hour Saturday night Mulberry Canyon was the only precinct not heard from but this is a small box and will not change the totals appreciably.

Hylton, Maryneal, Dora, Bittercreek the precincts against the proposition. The vote was very heavy at Maryneal, 3 to 32 with 9 to 27 at Hylton and losing by barely one vote at Dora, 17 to 18.

The $600,000 of county funds will be augmented by $800,000 in State Aid and approximately 125 miles of road will be built, 70 miles of it hard surfaced. The hard surfaced roads will be No. 1, east and west, No. 7 north and south to Blackwell and No. 7 from Roscoe north to Wastella. The balance of the road mileage will be gravel laterals connecting Dora, Nolan, Champion and other communities with the hard surfaced highways.

Following similar action by Callahan and Taylor Counties to the east, nearly 100 miles of hard surfaced road will be added to the Bankhead Highway and with the hard surfaced roads already built in Eastland and other counties to the east, will provide all weather road all the way to Dallas and Ft. Worth.

NATION TOTTERS

War Like Rumblings Emerge From Saxony as German Cabinet Wrestles With Mighty Problems

By The United Press.

BERLIN, Oct. 20.—War-like rumblings emerged from the south of Germany as the German cabinet was struggling with enormous internal problems, and which decided to appeal to the Reparations Commission for a settlement of the Ruhr dispute.

Bavaria warned the government concerning the withdrawal of federal troops from the state. General Von Miller, military dictator of Saxony, sent a new letter to the president of Saxony, declaring that he had received more troops and that he intended to restore constitutional conditions in Saxony. He added a warning that the president had better not be led by his supporters in the cabinet.

Germany sent a note today to 23 nations, placing responsibility on France for the hunger and starvation it claims exists in Germany. France is accused of having made it impossible to restore order in the Ruhr. The future of Germany is painted in the darkest of colors.

ADMITS SHORTAGE

By The United Press. KENTLAND, Ind. Oct. 20.—Gov. W. T. McCray today admitted that he had borrowed $155,000 from the State Board of Agriculture in answering the petition of three local banks that he be adjudged bankrupt. In his answer Gov. McCray stated that he had given the Board ample security, the nature of which he refused to divulge. Bankruptcy proceedings were contended with the plea that the governor was a farmer and not susceptible to bankruptcy proceedings.

JURY DISAGREES IN OLIVER CASE

Unofficially Understood to be 8 to 4 For Acquittal—Discharged by Judge Leslie Saturday

CLAIMED BOUGHT WHISKEY Defense Alleged Neighbors of Oliver Gave Him Money With Which to Purchase Firewater

Jury in the case of Tom Oliver of Dora charged with the manufacture of whiskey was discharged by District Judge Leslie in court Saturday morning.

At 10:30 the jury reported that they were very much in disagreement and apparently without hope of reaching a verdict. It was unofficially reported that they stood 8 to 4 for acquittal.

The jury in the case of C. T. Oliver deliberated all Friday night, after having the case turned over to them late Friday afternoon.

The defense was based upon the claim that the whiskey alleged to have been found upon the premises of Oliver was some that Oliver had purchased for himself and for other friends and neighbors. Allegations of the statement that Oliver had manufactured whiskey found upon his premises were denied in toto, Tubing and other articles the state alleged were portions of a still were claimed by defense counsel Babb, to have been in use for other purposes and a 25 pound sack of sugar found in Oliver's barn and offered in evidence was alleged to have been used in caring for a sick horse.

Oliver's wife and eight children were in court Friday afternoon. Their grief became audible as District Attorney E. I. Hill started argument for the state.

In between arguments of counsel before the jury, Judge Leslie scored demonstrations in the court room. In a few remarks from the bench, he said that he hoped he would not have to resort to extreme measures but there would be no demonstration of any nature in his court.

By Wireless. STATE FAIR STADIUM, Dallas, Oct. 20.—Old Man Dope received a jolt when the Longhorn eleven defeated the Vanderbilt team 16-0 before a full stadium of football fans Saturday afternoon. Over 16,000 people saw the game.

At early stage of the first period, Vanderbilt launched an offensive which looked for a time would bring results. The Longhorns held them on their 3-yard line and from that time Texas' goal was never in danger.

Echardt and Marley were the heavy ground gainers of the state team, while Ryan of Vanderbilt was the consistent gainer.

The summary of the game is as follows: Yards gained in scrimmage: Texas 182, Vanderbilt 114; Forward passes attempted, Texas 4, Vanderbilt 9; Passes completed, Texas 1, Vanderbilt 2; Passes intercepted, Texas 1, Vanderbilt 2; Yard average per unit, Texas 53 yards, Vanderbilt 41 yards; Yards lost in scrimmage, Texas 17, Vanderbilt 19; Penalties, Texas 45 yards, Vanderbilt 15 yards.

During the past week Vanderbilt had been touted to win. After defeating Texas University 1921 and 1922, and last week's game of holding Michigan University team to the small score of 3-0, the Nashville aggregation were the favorites, with sport dopesters.

Delegation of Prominent West Texans Going to Washington This Week To Confer With I. C. C.

PORTER WHALEY IS ACTIVE

Trip Under Auspices West Texas Chamber of Commerce—Business Men Write Letters to I. C. C.

Special to The Reporter. SAN ANGELO, Oct. 20.—Delegates assembled by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will leave early this week for Washington for a conference there with Interstate Commerce officials in an endeavor to get that body to turn the Orient railroad over to the Southern Pacific.

The party will assemble in Fort Worth where they will meet Porter Whaley, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and high officials of the Southern Pacific. A party of about 15 will leave on the Sunshine Special Monday.

The conference has been called for Oct. 25.

For nearly six weeks representatives of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce have been going up and down the Orient, getting letters from prominent citizens endorsing the taking over of the line by the Southern Pacific and requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission to turn it over to this great southwestern system.

It is suggested that a high authority backs the move.

Clifford Jones, president of the Spur National Bank and a former president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is backing the conference. Jones is closely connected with Swenson interests at Spur and the Swensons are said to be either on the board of Directors of the Southern Pacific or very closely associated with the road.

PROMISE MISERY TO BOOTLEGGERS

Sweeping Seven Point Prohibition Enforcement Program Adopted At Suggestion Pres. Coolidge

GOVERNOR RITCHIE REARS UP Maryland Executive Declares Volstead Law Invasion State Rights—New Jersey Kicks, Too

By The United Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—President Coolidge secured the adoption by the governors conference of a sweeping seven-point program, enlisting the support of every official in the enforcement of the prohibition laws.

The adoption of the program followed an address in which the President emphasized the importance of such a procedure.

The program adopted is as follows:

1. Co-ordination of all federal, state county and municipal forces.
2. Call upon the press to support prohibition enforcement and stress law observance.
3. Call a convention of state, county and municipal officials to discuss a program for each state, the federal government pledging all possible support.
4. Call upon all prosecuting attorneys to confer on this program and secure their aid in the discussion.
5. Adopt ways and means of requiring lawless and aliens to respect the majesty of the law.
6. Co-operation of national authorities.

The seventh point was added by Governor Price of Minnesota, that of educating children in temperance.

Governor Ritchie of Maryland, a wet was thoroughly angered at the attempt of President Coolidge to cut short the discussion after the government had presented its case. Governor Smith and Governor Silver maintained that they should have been heard, but were not given any consideration.

Governor Ritchie created a stir at the conference when he denounced the Volstead Act as an invasion of state rights.

CONTINUE TRIAL

Indicated Cook Trial at Ft. Worth Will Last Three Weeks—Farmers Examined Saturday

By The United Press.

FORT WORTH, Oct. 20.—Subjected to a most searching examination of all oil dealings, government prosecutors ended the first week of the Dr. Cook trial. The evidence introduced the past week consisted mostly of literature and letters alleged to have been sent out by Dr. Cook to prospect five buyers. The prosecutors put several farmers on the stand to testify that they had been influenced by the literature of Dr. Cook's into purchasing stock.

Charles Taylor, former mayor of Little Rock, Ark., and Mrs. Mary Hoffman of Webster, N. Y., testified.

It was estimated that the trial would last three weeks.

HISTORY OF CHURCH (By R. C. Crane)

The election on which Nolan County was organized was held in Dec. 1889. The county had been attached to Shackelford County, and when it was organized, Sweetwater post office was designated as the temporary county seat.

On March 31st, 1881 the election ordered by the County Commissioners of Nolan County for the election of a permanent county seat was held, and Sweetwater town having received 59 votes, which was declared to have been a majority of all votes cast in the election, was declared the county site. The Texas & Pacific Railway was then finishing construction of its line through the county.

In December 1881 there met in the law and land office of Cowan & Posey situated on the site of the new building being erected at the Northwest corner of the court house square, G. H. Connell and wife, M. C. Clark and wife an unmarried son or daughter, and his married son Harley and wife and another, for the purpose of organizing the First Baptist Church of Sweetwater. The church was organized with these eight, and it was probably the first church of any denomination to be organized in Sweetwater.

ROAD BONDS

In future years residents of Nolan County will look back to Saturday, Oct. 20, 1923 and characterize it as one of the greatest days this county has ever known.

For upon this day was settled the road question for all time to come.

Glistening bands of hard black pavement will fling their length across the county from north to south, from east to west and bind it together with all weather highways. Communities not on this hard surfaced road will be provided roads leading out to it. Later county and interstate traffic will find here a road comparable with any they may encounter in their travels.

No longer will the "Roscoe Flats" be notorious wherever tourists forgoth; and no longer will Nolan County be characterized as one to be dodged.

With the aid allotted this county from the state and national governments, there will be one and one half millions of dollars spent in this county building roads in the next few months. And after they are built, the state by law, is required to keep them up, with out expense to the county.

Business will be stimulated while the roads are being built. Labor will find employment while the roads are being built. And there will be no barrier to the rich harvest of dollars left in the wake of the tourists.

Nolan County has definitely taken its stand as one of the most progressive counties in West Texas. "By Their Roads Ye Shall Know Them."

There is nothing that can be quite so positive as a woman in her negative.

Pity the coroner who is not in shape for a hard siege when the hunting season opens.

The only convincing proof that a business idea is a good one is the money it puts in the bank.

Sometimes what a man thinks on sober second thought is as much intoxicated as the first one.

WASHINGTON DOES NOTHING

With the price of sugar mounting again, we are reminded that Attorney General Daugherty was going to force it down and keep it down; also that a boycott by housewives was going to do the trick. Meanwhile it comes out that private wine-making, along with the demands for preserving fruits, is a factor in the upward trend of sugar. Old Supply and Demand figuring as usual.

Still all this does not say that the high price of sugar is due wholly to natural causes. It includes two cents a pound tariff by the Fordney-Cumber bill. Yet the administration sought to blame everything else but that.

Meanwhile the apparent inability of the government to force down the price of sugar draws attention to the difficulties of the proposed proposition to force up the price of wheat, the tariff having failed to work there as promised.

Legislative measures may help under certain conditions, but again and again it is impressed upon us that when they get into the realm of economics they may complicate and add to the burden instead of relieving it.

At the time Attorney General Daugherty started out to curb the sugar prices, there were some who looked upon his move more as a political gesture than as a determined effort to get results for the consumers. That may have been too harsh; besides, in the outcome it was not good politics. It shows the administration impatient where it proposed to act strongly.

LITTLE NATIONS' HOPE

It is interesting as comment is made in some quarters that the little nations have lost their confidence in the League of Nations to observe that little nations still are joining it. Right in the midst of the declaration by some of its critics that the association had weakened itself by not taking strong action against Mussolini in the Greco-Italian case, Ireland and Ethiopia joined it. As the fourth session of the Assembly closed at Geneva, the representatives of many small states with those of the larger felicitated the organization on its growth in public sentiment.

So even though it may not have met the Mussolini test as spectacularly and powerfully as some may have wished, the League lives nevertheless.

and many credit its influence with having caused the withdrawal of Italy from Corfu. If scoffing at it could avail it would have been wrecked long ago. For about two years some of its opponents in the United States even spoke of it as dead.

Let it be admitted that in an imperfect world in which no nation or other organization has made a perfect score, all falling short of their ideals, the League has its share of disappointments. But since many a nation has triumphed over its difficulties, so may the League.

Just as two wrongs cannot make one right, comparison of two weaknesses may be futile where there is a call for strength. Still if the League should have to call for patience, it might be able to justify it by pointing to instances of the failure of law in some of the nations. While the League is living down Corfu, if it has to live it down, the United States will have to live down such things as the massacre at Herrin, Ill. The charge that the United States withdrew too soon from co-operation with its allies after the world war also is written in the records.

Such talk, however, might be considered beneath dignified associations. The significant thing is that despite the weakness charged against the League in its operation, the association continues to be recognized as sound in principle and the only system in the world today devised as an instrument for war prevention. If it is weak, the it is the business of civilization to make it strong enough to serve its purpose.

Meanwhile there is the inescapable fact that there is no bloodshed in Europe today where a bombardment was threatening when Greece appealed to the League. So the little nations continue to put faith in the association.

There are persons who do not reach the height of insanity over sports until the football season opens.

After a man has tried about everything else to get along he is not likely to succeed by taking up work.

A woman may not think enough of a proposal of marriage to accept it, but she is not likely to despise it.

"Man wants but little here below," and the noise you hear is from persons who are getting about that much.

REV. CRAWFORD'S FAREWELL

A minister in a certain town in Alabama took permanent leave of his congregation in the following pathetic manner:

"Brothers and Sisters: I come to say good-bye. I don't think God loves this church because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other because I never marry any of you. I don't think you love me, because you have not paid my salary. Your donations are mouldy fruit and wormy apples, and by their fruits ye shall know them.

"Brothers, I am going away to a better place. I have been called to be chaplain of a penitentiary. Where I go ye cannot come, but I go to prepare a place for you, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls. Good-bye.

BAPTIST

Rev. Peter Turner, a Missionary sent to this section by Dr. O. C. Pope in behalf of the Texas Baptist State Convention, was present and effected the organization and preached for the little congregation for a year or more in the first school in Sweetwater located on one of the lots where the Baptist church is being built.

The church which this congregation is about to vacate was built in the latter part of 1882 and was the first church of any description to be built in Sweetwater. In it a union Sunday School was conducted for some time in the afternoon, while the Baptist Sunday School used it in the morning.

In 1891 the church had 108 members and was pastored by Rev. J. A. Moore who was also pastor at Anson which had 153 members, dividing his time between the places but living in Sweetwater.

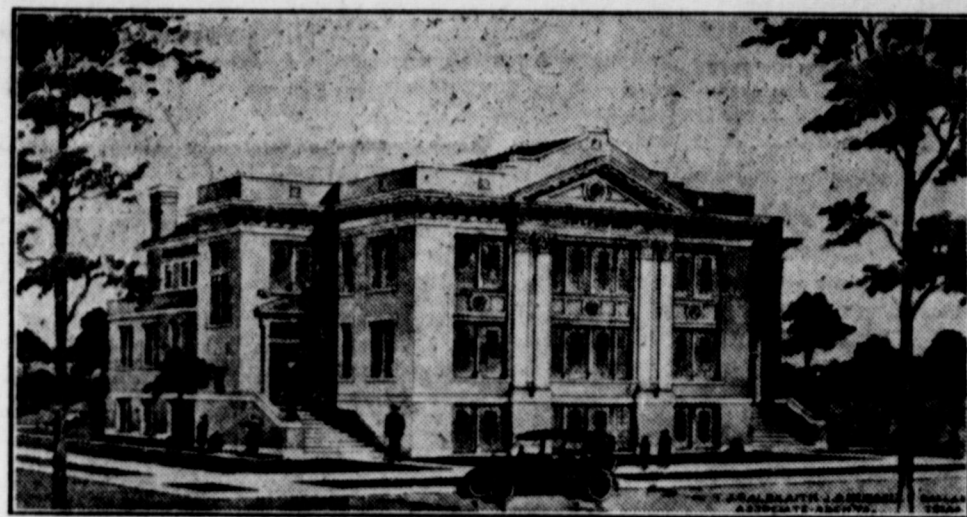

In August 1890 there was held in the old church about to be vacated, the annual meeting of the Sweetwater Baptist Association (which had been organized out of a part of what is the present Cisco Association) and a memorable was taken at the meeting. Judge Hord a member of this church

NEW BAPTIST PARSONAGE

The old Baptist parsonage stood on the site of the new church so it was essential to construct the new parsonage prior to the new church. It was completed early in the summer of 1923.

Material used is the same gray brick used in the construction of the new church which it adjoins on the west. The interior is furnished in keeping with the appearance of the exterior. Eventually a spacious lawn with appropriate shrubbery is planned to surround both structures.

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH

The new church from an architect's drawing of which the cornerstone is being laid. Active steps for building the new church were instituted in 1922 and in the fall of that year, the congregation raised $30,000 in 30 minutes of the estimated cost of nearly $75,000 with equipment. It is planned to have it completed early in 1924.

In collaboration with Judge Legett of Abilene introduced a resolution calling for the establishment of a college at that place which would offer the best inducements all thing considered. The establishment of Simmons College, now recognized as one of the best colleges of the Southwest was the result.

In 1901 two lots were purchased and the pastors home built on the site now occupied by the home of Mrs. B. Bardwell. This property was afterwards sold and the proceeds put into the purchase of the quarter block adjoining the Post Office site and on which the new church is being erected.

Steps were taken as far back as 1912 looking to the erection of the new church.

The church and its membership have been with all of the ups and downs that come this way. In 1918 it had more members on its rolls who had moved away than were then living in Sweetwater.

But after all of the ups and downs the church is growing and doing more than ever before, under pastoral care of Rev. L. G. Moroney who became pastor in April 1922. It now has a membership of 461 after many non-resident members had been placed on a retired list.

It is rather unique that this ceremony should take place on practically the same spot over which the few members of the baby church held their first religious services over 40 years ago.

BIG SPRING TEAM DEFEATS SHS 20-7

High School Teams Play at Swatters Park Friday Afternoon—Many Fans Attend

VISITORS OUTWEIGH LOCALS
Sweetwater Scores Only Touchdown After Completing Three Passes in Third Quarter

Outweighed but not outfought, the Sweetwater High School eleven went down to defeat before the heavy Big Spring team, 20-7, Friday afternoon at Swatters Park. Throughout the tattle game Big Spring was able to pass for long gains. During the first few minutes of play the invader's criss-cross puzzled the local lads.

The first touchdown came through the lack of good generalship. After the change at the end of the first quarter, Sweetwater attempted to make a four yard gain through the line on the last down. It was apparent there was a misunderstanding, thinking it was third down. The plunge failed and it was Big Spring's ball on the local's thirty yard line. A series of line bucks and passes put the ball over.

At the start of the first quarter, Sweetwater stopped the Big Spring rush at the 3 yard line.

During the remainder of the second quarter Sweetwater was hard pressed, the invaders taking offensive throughout the period.

After receiving the ball on the kick-off at the start of the second half, Trammell slipped off tackle for 30 yards. Three line plunges made it first down. Big Spring eleven here braced and held for downs.

Again Sweetwater was held after making a small gain, Mitchell punting to Porter. A pass netted forty yards, and a second put the ball on Sweetwater's 5-yard line. Two line bucks put the ball over. Attempt at goal failed.

The local eleven received on the kick-off. Sweetwater took the offensive and launched three passes, putting the ball on Big Spring's 15-yard line. Four line bucks netted another ten yards and first down. On the next play Sheppard slipped around left end for a touchdown.

After an exchange of downs, Big Spring launched her final drive and ended with their third touchdown after completing three passes and running four line bucks and end runs.

The game ended with Sweetwater in possession of the ball on her own 45 yard line.

PLAN FOR SALES

"Forget-Me-Not" Day to be Observed Nationally With Women and Girls To Aid in Proceedings

By Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—Thousands of girls and women throughout the United States will take an active part in the coming "National Forget-Me-Not Day" of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, according to National Adjutant Raymond A. Lasance.

The splendid success of last year's "National Forget-Me-Not Day" drive will be overshadowed this year, Mr. Lasance says, when the campaign will be opened Saturday, November 10, in every city and town in the United States. Prominent national, state and civic officials have already guaranteed their support and active participation in the disabled veterans' great "Day," when public-spirited citizens all over the United States will purchase the little paper and cloth flowers.

Proceeds of National "Forget-Me-Not Day" will be used for national legislative and welfare work; relief and educational measures in the interests of the world war's maimed and disabled American veterans, and general progressive activities in the national work of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

Roy Campbell, of Hylton, is visiting relatives in the city. He formerly lived here.

Rev. J. C. Moore, Guy Morris and Horace Heath left Saturday night for Dallas to visit the State Fair.

GET FUR COAT

Local Authorities Recover Valuable "Cold Check" Garment

W. W. Hudson of the local police force recovered a fur coat removed from Campbell's Department Store at Abilene via the cold check route Saturday.

A couple who gave their name as Smith used a Dallas firm as a reference in getting a check exchanged for the coat which was valued at more than $100. The Dallas reference proved false and local authorities were notified after it was ascertained the couple had left Abilene. The couple were located at the Santa Fe depot where they had purchased a berth for Amarillo. They were not held, Campbell's not wishing to push the charge following recovery of the coat.

To comfortably heat several rooms rapid movement of a large volume of air is necessary. This is the principle of furnace construction. Restricted air volume and sluggish circulation makes the numerous types of air-tight circulating and ventilating heaters ineffective in throwing heat to far rooms. Ample air space, forced circulation and a large volume of air, furnace construction, durability and principles of heating explains the superiority of the Allen's Parlor Furnace over the ordinary type of heater for comfortably and evenly heating several adjoining rooms.

SHEEP SELLING

Good Demand Seen in Recent Sales
Development of Mexico Seen—
Show Sheep in West Texas

FORT WORTH, Oct. 20.—Movement of sheep from Texas sheep raising counties and particularly from Edwards and Val Verde Counties during September was the largest on record according to J. H. Rasco, chief sheep and cattle scabies inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas. This applies only to sheep moved from premises or counties quarantined for sheep scabies eradication. During September, 216,258 head of sheep were shipped from the sheep country to Texas markets and to markets outside of the State including Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Brawley, California, Omaha and Clovis, N. M., and Joy, Ill. It is estimated that about 75 per cent of this total number originated in Edwards and Val Verde Counties which are under blanket quarantine for sheep scabies eradication.

Two movements of sheep are recorded from Mexico into Texas. Though the shipments amounted to less than 1,000 head, it is considered indicative of a growing production of sheep in Mexico.

Despite the abnormal movement the sheep market has remained good, according to Rasco and the sheep industry is in a prosperous condition. Ranges are good and wool production has been excellent.

The largest previous movement was recorded in June of this year when 202 certificates for movement were issued by the Commission. During September, 317 certificates were issued.

Show sheep are in Texas at the present time from Ohio, Oklahoma, Utah, Arkansas and Missouri. These sheep are making as many fairs as possible during the fair season.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Sometimes after weeks of planning a woman feels she wouldn't mind cooking the dinner if she didn't have to decide what to cook.

There is usually an abundance of fruit and vegetables early in the fall, so that part's easy. And just a suggestion about the fruit. The time is coming when made desserts of dried fruits are going to be necessary, so while it's possible serve the fruit "au naturel." Add a simple cake or cookie of some sort.

The last of the melons or grapes might add the finishing touch to any dinner. Save fuel by cooking meat, potatoes and cauliflower in the oven together. In the course of a year these small items are worth while.

Cream of Celery Soup

One head of celery, two small onions, 2 sprigs parsley, 4 tablespoons rice, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 2 cups milk, 1 quart water, 1 tablespoon butter.

Chop celery, leaves and stalks. Mince onions and parsley. Melt butter in kettle, add onions and cook five minutes. Add celery, parsley and rice cover with water and simmer an hour. Rub through puree strainer and add milk heated to the boiling point. Season with salt and pepper and serve topped with whipped cream if desired.

Veal Birds

Two slices veal steak cut 1-4 inch thick, 1-2 cups bread crumbs, 1-2 cup nut meats, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 egg, hot water, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, flour.

Trim steak and cut in small oval

Thrills Made to Order in the Movies

HANGING by the heels on a 6-inch ledge with the street cavern yawning 12 stories below is no trick at all—in the movies. Missing a foothold on the edge of a tall building and being caught by the hands of a clock 10 floors above the earth, however, contains almost as many thrills for the actor as it does for the spectators. For these are the days of realism in pictures, the result of a ceaseless demand on the part of a public long accustomed to seeing speeding automobiles plunge over steep cliffs, death-defying leaps into a raging sea, and airplane crashes, for more thrills. In some cases "doublers" are employed to take the place of the star for the more hazardous undertakings. Dressed and made up to resemble the actor, they brave leaps from speeding trains to airplanes, jump over cliffs, and ride motorcycles into locomotives with no chance of winning either fame or glory.

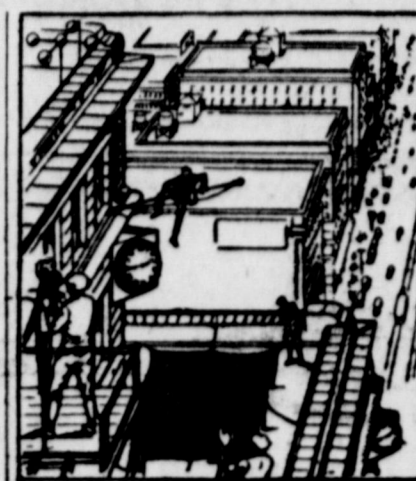

Many risks, however, are taken by the stars. In one instance, during the filming

Leaping from a balcony into the rear seat of an automobile is just one of the "thrills" demanded from high-spirited movie stars.

If a western melodrama, the heroine was called upon to plunge into an icy mountain torrent and float downstream toward a waterfall.

It had been found by experiment that the current would carry floating objects to a sand bar just above the falls, and a watcher was stationed there to pull her from the water as she swept past. But, instead, the current swept her to the other side of the stream and she would have been dashed over the falls to certain death had not her secretary rescued her.

In making a picture of a man climbing the side of a building and doing apparently perilous stunts many floors above the street, a real building was selected and a circus performer employed to double for the actor in the "long shots." Then a fake building was built on top of the real one. The "set" was built in far enough so that the roof would break any fall and also would provide a platform for the camera. By "shooting" at a proper angle, however, the drop to the street looked straight down.

Use Iron to Float Logs of Heavy Wood to Sea

In logging timber tracts in South America and the West Indian islands, the heavier wood, which is not sufficiently light to float, has always proved difficult to move. One firm recently solved this problem by using "floaters," made of rust-resistant iron, by means of which the heavy timber was rafted down a river to the sea.

Keyless Auto Lock Acts When Car is Stopped

Besides automatically blocking the ignition when the car is stopped, a keyless automobile lock positively holds the steering gear. There are no keys to forget, as the device is fitted to the steering post and operates with 10 buttons. It may be set with any number up to 10, and the combination may be changed as often as desired. When a button is touched to shut off the ignition, the car is automatically locked and cannot be operated again until the combination is worked.

Preventing Stream Erosion

Along many streams it is necessary to hold the bank back in some efficient and cheap manner, otherwise the ground will be washed away. An excellent method of preventing this is shown in the drawing.

A woven-wire fence is erected where the new water edge is to be made, the fence posts being driven into the bed of the stream. Brush and saplings are then deposited as indicated, the branches pointing away from the water, and the butts inserted into the fencing. Earth is thrown on the brush to make the wall solid, within a short time the new bank is built together by much grass and weeds.

$55,000. Ranch Deal.—Golson & Summer of Coleman this week sold to B. W. Webb, late of Pioneer and now living at Kress, Texas, 1100 acres of the Clyde Gray ranch situated on Pecan Bayou. The consideration was $55,250, cash and exchange of farm land on the Plains adjoining the town of Kress. The Gray tract purchased by Mr. Webb includes the Clyde Gray headquarters ranch and embodies 1100 acres of the choicest farm land in Coleman county. Pecan Bayou traverses the tract of one mile. Mr. Webb intends to convert the tract into a 1000-acre cotton farm. Mr. Webb formerly lived at Pioneer and the second well of the Pioneer oil field was located on his land. He recently moved to Kress in Swisher county where he bought 650 acres adjoining the town. This tract Clyde Gray secured in the deal and he will move onto the property at an early date. The tract has 400 acres in cultivation and Mr. Gray will immediately go in for wheat farming.—Coleman Democrat Voice.

BRAIN WORK.

No matter what age you have attained, you don't have to halt and mark time on life's highway just because you are 35, 40 or 75 years old.

The brain is a mass of wonderful cells, capable of unlimited development. Supposed age limitation has made many men and women failures because they feared to try or trust their own brains.

We have arteriosclerosis, loss of real power in the arteries. Also locomotor-ataxia, which interferes with our powers of movement. In a far greater degree we have brain lag and atrophied cerebrums.

When we "know it all" we stop growing.

A few moments' conversation with a person who has stopped his mental growth and activities will reveal the situation clearly to one who is in the middle of his mental channel and not looking to either shore.

The brain cells may lie dormant for five or even ten years, but they are capable of recuperation beyond almost any other vital organ. They can stage a comeback if provided with mental food.

Food excess will overload the system with poisonous waste products. This is taking blood supply from needed cells and it brings mental laziness.

Beware of psychic apathy. It is easy to drift into physical reaction through a depressed state of mind. Don't look backward and count the years. If you look forward to renewed mental growth, even though you are sixty, you may be much younger than your neighbor, who is only thirty.

Laclair Robertson left Friday afternoon for Mannard to spend the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Bowen are expected home tonight from a visit at the Dallas Fair.

NOLAN NEWS

Wet and cold weather put an end to the cotton picking in this section for the first of the week. Most of the cotton had been picked anyway.

A. D. Clayton bought out J. W. Bryan last week. Mr. Bryan left for Dallas where he expects to reside the coming year.

Ramon Moon of Oklahoma left here this week for Lubbock where he expects another month of cotton picking. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pool are the parents of a girl, born October 9.

Sudden changes in the weather brought on some bad colds in this section.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP BY THIS SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

SHEEP SELLING

Good Demand Seen in Recent Sales
Development of Mexico Seen—
Show Sheep in West Texas

FORT WORTH, Oct. 20.—Movement of sheep from Texas sheep raising counties and particularly from Edwards and Val Verde Counties during September was the largest on record according to J. H. Rasco, chief sheep and cattle scabies inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas. This applies only to sheep moved from premises or counties quarantined for sheep scabies eradication. During September, 216,258 head of sheep were shipped from the sheep country to Texas markets and to markets outside of the State including Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Brawley, California, Omaha and Clovis, N. M., and Joy, Ill. It is estimated that about 75 per cent of this total number originated in Edwards and Val Verde Counties which are under blanket quarantine for sheep scabies eradication.

Two movements of sheep are recorded from Mexico into Texas. Though the shipments amounted to less than 1,000 head, it is considered indicative of a growing production of sheep in Mexico.

Despite the abnormal movement the sheep market has remained good, according to Rasco and the sheep industry is in a prosperous condition. Ranges are good and wool production has been excellent.

The largest previous movement was recorded in June of this year when 202 certificates for movement were issued by the Commission. During September, 317 certificates were issued.

Show sheep are in Texas at the present time from Ohio, Oklahoma, Utah, Arkansas and Missouri. These sheep are making as many fairs as possible during the fair season.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Sometimes after weeks of planning a woman feels she wouldn't mind cooking the dinner if she didn't have to decide what to cook.

There is usually an abundance of fruit and vegetables early in the fall, so that part's easy. And just a suggestion about the fruit. The time is coming when made desserts of dried fruits are going to be necessary, so while it's possible serve the fruit "au naturel." Add a simple cake or cookie of some sort.

The last of the melons or grapes might add the finishing touch to any dinner. Save fuel by cooking meat, potatoes and cauliflower in the oven together. In the course of a year these small items are worth while.

Cream of Celery Soup

One head of celery, two small onions, 2 sprigs parsley, 4 tablespoons rice, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 2 cups milk, 1 quart water, 1 tablespoon butter.

Chop celery, leaves and stalks. Mince onions and parsley. Melt butter in kettle and add onions and cook five minutes. Add celery, parsley and rice cover with water and simmer an hour. Rub through puree strainer and add milk heated to the boiling point. Season with salt and pepper and serve topped with whipped cream if desired.

Veal Birds

Two slices veal steak cut 1-4 inch thick, 1-2 cups bread crumbs, 1-2 cup nut meats, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 egg, hot water, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, flour.

Thrills Made to Order in the Movies

HANGING by the heels on a 6-inch ledge with the street cavern yawning 12 stories below is no trick at all—in the movies. Missing a foothold on the edge of a tall building and being caught by the hands of a clock 10 floors above the earth, however, contains almost as many thrills for the actor as it does for the spectators.

For these are the days of realism in pictures, the result of a ceaseless demand on the part of a public long accustomed to seeing speeding automobiles plunge over steep cliffs, death-defying leaps into a raging sea, and airplane crashes, for more thrills.

In some cases "doubles" are employed to take the place of the star for the more hazardous undertakings. Dressed and made up to resemble the actor, they brave leaps from speeding trains to airplanes, jump over cliffs, and ride motorcycles into locomotives with no chance of missing either fame or glory.

Many risks, however, are taken by the stars. In one instance, during the filming watcher was stationed there to pull her from the water as she swept past. But, instead, the current swept her to the other side of the stream and she would have been dashed over the falls to certain death had not her secretary rescued her.

In making a picture of a man climbing the side of a building and doing apparently perilous stunts many floors above the street, a real building was selected and a circus performer employed to double for the actor in the "long shots." Then a false building was built on top of the real one. The "set" was built in far enough so that the roof would break any fall and also would provide a platform for the camera. By "shooting" at a proper angle, however, the drop to the street looked straight down.

Use Iron to Float Logs of Heavy Wood to Sea

In logging timber tracts in South America and the West Indian islands, the heavier wood, which is not sufficiently light to float, has always proved difficult to move. One firm recently solved this problem by using "floaters," made of cast-iron, by means of which the heavy timber was rafted down a river to the sea.

shape pieces. Mix bread crumbs and nuts with melted butter. Add egg, unbeaten, and mix well. Add water to make moist enough to hold mixture together. Season with salt and pepper. Put some of the stuffing in the center of each piece of meat, pull edges together and pin with toothpicks. Roll in flour and bake in a moderate oven 45 minutes, basting frequently with 1 tablespoon butter melted in one half cup water. Make a cream gravy with the liquor in the pan.

Cauliflower Au Gratin

One head cauliflower, 1-2 cup milk 2 tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons grated cheese, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1-3 cup coarse stale bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons melted butter.

Remove outer green leaves from cauliflower. Put in a pan of cold salted water for an hour. Drain and cook uncovered in boiling salted water for 30 minutes. Save 1-2 cup of the water in which the cauliflower is cooked. Drain from water and separate into sprigs. Put in buttered baking dish and cover with sauce made by melting butter, stirring in flour and slowly adding milk and cauliflower water. Stir constantly. When smooth add cheese. Cover with bread crumbs which have been mixed with the melted butter. Bake in a moderate oven until brown and serve at once.

NOLAN NEWS

Wet and cold weather put an end to the cotton picking in this section for the first of the week. Most of the cotton had been picked anyway.

A. D. Clayton bought out J. W. Bryan last week. Mr. Bryan left for Dallas where he expects to reside the coming year.

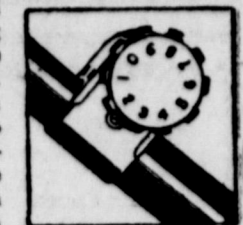

Ramon Moon of Oklahoma left here this week for Lubbock where he expects another month of cotton picking.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pool are the parents of a girl, born October 9.

Sudden changes in the weather brought on some bad colds in this section.

Keyless Auto Lock Acts When Car is Stopped

Besides automatically blocking the ignition when the car is stopped, a keyless automobile lock positively holds the steering gear. There are no keys to forget, as the device is fitted to the steering post and operates with 10 buttons. It may be set with any number up to 10, and the combination may be changed as often as desired. When a button is touched to shut off the ignition, the car is automatically locked and cannot be operated again until the combination is worked.

Preventing Stream Erosion

Along many streams it is necessary to hold the bank back in some efficient and cheap manner, otherwise the ground will be washed away. An excellent method of preventing this is shown in the drawing.

A woven-wire fence is erected where the new water edge is to be made, the fence posts being driven into the bed of the stream.

Brush and saplings are then deposited as indicated, the branches pointing away from the water, and the butts inserted into the fence. Earth is thrown on the bank to make the wall solid, and the stream is kept from cutting a new channel by such grass and weeds.

$55,000. Ranch Deal.—Golson & Summer of Coleman this week sold to H. W. Webb, late of Pioneer and now living at Kress, Texas, 1100 acres of the Clyde Gray ranch situated on Pecan Bayou. The consideration was $55,250, cash and exchange of farm land on the Plains adjoining the town of Kress. The Gray tract purchased by Mr. Webb includes the Clyde Gray headquarters ranch and embodies 1100 acres of the choicest farm land in Coleman county. Pecan Bayou traverses the tract of one mile. Mr. Webb intends to convert the tract into a 1000-acre cotton farm. Mr. Webb formerly lived at Pioneer and the second well of the Pioneer oil field was located on his land. He recently moved to Kress in Swisher county where he bought 650 acres adjoining the town. This tract Clyde Gray secured in the deal and he will move onto the property at an early date. The tract has 400 acres in cultivation and Mr. Gray will immediately go in for wheat farming.—Coleman Democrat Voice.

Children Modern Dictators.—Editor Broyles of the Concho Herald boast of a Paint Rock baby that stands alone at seven months of age. You ought to come to Menard, Bro-Broyles, and see some real babies. We have one just nine months old that can whip its ma and pa and bosses the whole household. —Menard Messenger.

BRAIN WORK.

No matter what age you have attained, you don't have to halt and mark time on life's highway just because you are 35, 40 or 75 years old.

The brain is a mass of wonderful cells, capable of unlimited development. Supposed age limitation has made many men and women failures because they feared to try or trust their own brains.

We have arteriosclerosis, loss of real power in the arteries. Also locomotor-ataxia, which interferes with our powers of movement. In a far greater degree we have brain lag and atrophied cerebrums.

When we "know it all" we stop growing.

A few moments' conversation with a person who has stopped his mental growth and activities will reveal the situation clearly to one who is in the middle of his mental channel and not looking to either shore.

The brain cells may lie dormant for five or even ten years, but they are capable of recuperation beyond almost any other vital organ. They can stage a comeback if provided with mental food.

Food excess will overload the system with poisonous waste products. This is taking blood supply from needed cells and it brings mental laziness.

Beware of psychic apathy. It is easy to drift into physical reaction through a depressed state of mind. Don't look backward and count the years. If you look forward to renewed mental growth, even though you are sixty, you may be much younger than your neighbor, who is only thirty.

Laclair Robertson left Friday afternoon for Mannard to spend the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Bowen are expected home tonight from a visit at the Dallas Fair.
