SOILS AWARD WINNER AND HIS FARM

Here are two parts of a diversified program that helped J. C. Hartman Jr. win one of the two regional "Save the Soil and Save Texas" awards that came to Collingsworth County this year. The other award went to the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District for its outstanding work. In the top picture, Hartman is seen with a few of his white-face cattle that he keeps, along with sheep. In the lower picture is a view of his alfalfa, which has been a life-saver during the past two dry years.

Diversified Farming Pays Off For J. C. Hartman Jr.

Soils Award Winner Does Big Conservation Job in 8 Years

J. C. Hartman, Jr., who last week has named winner of one of the regional "Save the Soil and Save Texas" awards, has done a job of soil conservation in eight years that many farmers never do in a lifetime.

That is how long it has been since he came home from service in the Navy, took over the farm on which he was reared, from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartman, when he returned and went to work on it.

He had a good farm to start with, for his father is also a firm believer in soil conservation.

J. C. Hartman Jr. has put many things into the farm to make it still more productive. There has been a good fund of practical know-how, lots of hard work, close-knit family life and co-operation, thinking and planning, and one is sure, a great deal of prayer, for the Hartmans are a religious family.

"If we have succeeded in any measure, it has been through the opportunities the Almighty God has given us," the young farmer said this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartman Jr. began farming on the land they now own in 1946. They bought the place two years later.

It already had some terraces, built some years' back with horse-drawn equipment.

"Since we have owned the place we have built and rebuilt some seven miles of terraces. Three miles of which are wide base terraces.

"We have 35 acres of alfalfa which was planted for forage purposes. It has surely helped the past two years for grazing in summer and fall months," Hartman said.

Methodist Revival Will Continue Until April 25

Revival services began Sunday, April 11 at the First Methodist Church in Wellington and will continue through Sunday, April 25, with the Rev. J. F. Michael, the pastor, doing the preaching. L. B. Bratten is directing the singing.

This revival was planned as the first major event to take place in the new sanctuary.

Services will be held twice daily on Sunday, at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Services from Monday through Saturday are at 7:30 p. m.

In addition to the preaching services, a systematic campaign of visitation, stressing stewardship, is being directed by the commission of evangelism headed by John Forbis in cooperation with the official board, of which Henry Sullivan is president.

"In 1951, I started trying kerosene on mesquites and up to now have covered 70 acres. Believe I have an 80 per cent kill at the present, but it will take another year or two to complete the job. "I have chiseled 30 acres of (Continued on Page Eight)

"The fundamentals of the evangelical Gospel of Christ will be preached throughout the Revival," Rev. Michael said.

Dan Jameson, 19 Victim of Car Accident Sunday

Dan Jameson of Dodson, one of Wellington High School's outstanding all-round athletes of recent years, was fatally injured Sunday, April 11, about 1:30 a. m. when his car overturned at the intersection of Highway 83 and Highway 62, 13 miles south of Wellington.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jameson, of Dodson. Nineteen years old, he was a sophomore student in West Texas State College, Canyon. He had come home to spend the weekend with his family.

Patrolmen Noel Calloway, who investigated the accident, said that apparently Jameson, who was driving west, dozed, struck the highway sign at the intersection, his car went into a skid and turned over twice.

Jameson was thrown clear of the car.

First person to reach the scene was Melvin Scarberry of Wellington, and shortly afterward two (Continued on Page Eight)

Norwood Juniors Give Play Here

Samnorwood Juniors will present their class play, "Hobgoblin House," at the Wellington High School gymnasium Monday, April 19, at 8:15 p. m.

Former Deputy Here Slain

Sheriff Claude McKinney has received word that W. H. Stuart, who served as a deputy sheriff and tax collector under him here in 1928, was shot and killed March 23 at Claiborn, Alabama, by a negro whose home he was attempting to search for a moonshine still.

Mr. Stuart has been an Adcohol Tax Unit agent in Alabama since 1932.

Mr. Stuart, 65, lived at Staunton, Ala.

George Dean, a crippled Negro, has been charged with murder.

According to newspaper clippings, Mr. Stuart, Frank Farish, another agent, and two Adcohol Beverage Control agents, entered Dean's small rural home with a search warrant to search for a still, Dean, without saying anything, fired just as the officers entered, and the charge hit Stuart in the stomach. He fired with a pistol as he fell but Dean wasn't hit.

Mr. Stuart had been a federal agent 22 years and worked out of the ATU office at Selma, Ala.

Records indicated the slaying was the first of a treasury agent in the line of duty in more than 20 years.

Funeral services were at Staunton.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Charles Brooks, Huntsville, Ala.; and a son, Douglas Stuart of Lewisburg, Ala. Also surviving are his mother, two sisters and three brothers. The only one living in this area is a sister, Mrs. Roy Brewer of Memphis.

Rain From Half Inch to Two Inches Breaks Winter-Long Area Drouth

Rain that fell during the week end, beginning Saturday, April 10, broke the winter-long drouth, and while it is far from what is needed, it will carry the wheat for a time yet and mean the difference between a crop and a loss to many farmers. It also has put the cotton and feed land in condition and by Wednesday a majority who had not prepared their land had started plowing operations.

The rain was spotted, with the heaviest fall generally in the southern part of the county.

Wellington received .94 inch altogether, Jim Williams said.

Quail has had a total of about an inch and a half, but a heavy shower north of there Wednesday morning April 14, amounting to about an inch was reported, to give that area approximately two inches, according to Tom Crabtree. The rain was lighter north of Salt Fork River.

At Lutie, Everett Fain reported about one half inch, with a similar amount falling east to the Oklahoma line.

Roy Hoffman of Dozier said the rainfall in that area varied from one-half inch to an inch. In addition to the week-end rain one-half inch fell Wednesday morning a half mile west of Dozier, in the area of the James Murray, Wood Coleman and Alex Coleman farms. Dozier got only a sprinkle.

Mr. Hoffman, driver of one of the Samnorwood school buses, said that east of Dozier only about one-half inch has fallen. In the Lone Mound area, around the Ewel Darrow and Arthur Taylor farms, a quarter of an inch fell Wednesday morning to bring their total to around .6 or .75.

About 50 per cent of the land is ready for planting.

Floyd Teutsch said that one inch was received at Dodson during the week end. This will carry much of the wheat, and one more rain should give farmers in that area a crop. Some wheat is dead, Mr. Teutsch gave a rough estimate 15 to 20 per cent. Alfalfa in that area is in good condition, and most farmers have already had their plowing done or have started this week.

Tom Crabtree of Quail said that rain south and east of there had been a little lighter. A shower fell between 7:00 and 8:00 a. m. Sunday.

As to the surge of optimism that has come over farmers since the rain began, Mr. Crabtree summed it up for that section, "I'm not feeling any better, but I sure am thinking different."

Mrs. Sugg and Brooks Re-elected

The county School Board, in a meeting Saturday, April 10, re-elected Stanley Brooks as counselor of all schools of Collingsworth County and Mrs. Cal Sugg as school nurse in three of the four schools.

Mrs. Sugg serves the Samnorwood Quail and Dodson schools on a co-operative basis, and this arrangement will be continued for the 1954-55 term.

Brooks will serve Wellington, Samnorwood, Quail and Dodson schools on a co-operative basis for the 1954-55 term.

Rural Members Stressed

C-C Opens Intensive Membership Drive

The membership drive of the Wellington Chamber of Commerce gets underway this week when all non-member business houses receive a letter inviting them to become members, Dr. Carter Holcomb, membership chairman, announced today.

As the next step, letters will go out to prospective individual members, including a large number of farmers of the county, and this in turn will be followed by an intensive campaign of personal contact, Dr. Holcomb said.

Emphasis will be put on securing members from the rural communities of the county.

"Everything hinges on agriculture, and we've all got to work together," the membership chairman declared. "We are not out to push a chamber of commerce program down anybody's throat. We are out to help where we can in any way we can. "If all of us get together and work, we can do something beneficial, he emphasized. It's purpose is to work for all of Collingsworth County and not Wellington alone.

"We need active members," Dr. Holcomb continued, "We are out for your ideas and your help. Not so much financial help, as the help that working members can give us."

He pointed out that the money paid into the Chamber of Commerce as dues is spent at home. There is only one paid employee, the secretary, who handles the office work of the organization. No officer or director receives any remuneration.

To give prospective members a better idea of the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Holcomb cited its accomplishments during the winter and spring months: the Christmas decoration program in Wellington, which attracted the attention of visitors from many points; the sponsorship of the awards for the Youth Project Show, with the money raised for the first time without solicitation; plans to sponsor the Girls 4-H Club Achievement Day program next fall; bringing to a reality the Grade C milk route operating in the county; work of the industrial committee with area authorities on the Salt Fork Dam; and a brochure of the county, now in the process of being compiled.

Dr. Holcomb said that he and other members of his committee, J. W. Wells and Jack Brisbin, will name membership workers within the next week.

All Kiddies Invited

Annual Kiwanis-Ritz Easter Show Saturday

The Wellington Kiwanis Club and Ritz Theatre are sponsoring the annual free Easter show for the kiddies, Saturday morning, April 17, starting at 10:00 A. M., Emmett Passmore, Ritz Manager, and Cicero Gulley, Kiwanis president, have announced.

The show will be all cartoon comedies, according to Mr. Passmore. The Kiwanis cordially invite all the kiddies of the county and surrounding counties to attend the Easter Show at the Ritz Theatre.

This traditional entertainment, one of two given each year for the boys and girls of the area, is almost as old as the club itself.

For a number of years it was in the form of a giant Easter egg hunt. With the coming of World War II, when candy eggs became scarce, the entertainment was turned into a free show and this has been continued for the past dozen years.

Salt Fork Dam Bill Signed By Governor Shivers on Wednesday

The Salt Fork Dam bill, passed by the state legislature last week, was signed by Governor Allan Shivers at 10:00 a. m. Wednesday, April 14.

Specifically this bill, known as House Bill No. 88, is an enabling bill, providing for the creation of the new Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority, which proposed the dam across Salt Fork River in Donley County, near the Collingsworth county line.

Information that the bill would be signed by Governor Shivers Wednesday came in a phone call Tuesday to Judge R. L. Templeton from State Senator Andy Rogers, who introduced it in the Senate.

Representative Elbert Reeves of Matador was author of the bill, with Representative Grainger McIlhenny of Wheeler, and Representative Jack E. Hightower of Vernon as co-authors.

The rapidity with which the Salt

Fork dam bill became a reality has surprised residents of the area, and set the work a year ahead of the schedule originally anticipated. ordinarily it would not have been introduced in the legislature until the regular session.

Much groundwork has been done over the last year by the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Association, which includes 7 towns, Wellington, Childress, Clarendon, Hedley, Memphis, Paducah, and Quanah. Cap Morris of Clarendon is president of the Association and Clifford Johnson of Hedley is secretary. Wellington's representatives to the body are City Manager, Bura Handley, Judge Templeton, Jimmie Lee and Orval Couch.

In Austin recently to secure surplus for this and other counties, Judge Templeton discussed with Governor Shivers the proposed dam and was assured by the Governor that he was in favor of it.

The bill was reported out of the conservation and reclamation committee of the house Tuesday, April 6, Senator Rogers then introduced

Deeds Ready on Rolla FM Road

Right-of-way deeds on the approved Farm-to-Market road from Rolla to Swearingen have been placed in the hands of Judge R. L. Templeton, and signing the deeds by the landowners along the road is due to begin immediately, he announced this week.

Right-of-way deeds have been signed on the two Dodson farm-to-market roads by all landowners except one, and a jury of view consisting of Floyd Teutsch, J. C. Howell and Marvin Wynn, all of Dodson, has been appointed to award damages on that plot, Judge Templeton said.

Clyde Drake, resident engineer for the State Highway Department, has estimated that the Rolla-Swearingen road will be finished by the end of the summer. The Dodson road, along with the road extending into the Needwood community, are expected to be completed in June, and work on the three projects in the county probably will overlap, he added.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Puryear visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dickey Hensley of Dallas last week. Also Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Woodruff and children and the Lindgreen family of Corpus Christi.

Mrs. R. E. Cooley spent the week end in Amarillo visiting her grandchildren, J. D., S. A. and N. C. Maples and Bobby and Norma Tinkler.

Hudson Sets Pace in Low Price Family Car Field

A Hudson Jet Family Club Sedan with a list price of $1465 was announced today by the Hudson Motor Car Company. This is under the lowest priced car of any of the Big Three and is $200 under the previous lowest priced Hudson.

The new two-door sedan is designed to penetrate new market areas, according to N. K. VanDerzee, vice-president in charge of sales.

"There are many millions of American families without an automobile, and many more in need of an economical and dependable second family car," VanDerzee said. "By careful planning, we were able to effect new economies in the production of a Jet Family Club Sedan which will bring Hudson quality and performance within the reach of many more families."

The Jet Club Sedan, VanDerzee said, offers the same advantages in performance, roadability and safety as the higher-priced Hudson cars.

Like all 1954 Hudsons, the Jet Family Club Sedan is powered by Hudson's newly developed Instant Action engine with Super Induction. This new engine design gives flashing power response and quicker acceleration throughout the driving range.

It develops from 104 to 114 horsepower, depending on choice of equipment. It has a compression ratio of 7.5 to 1 with standard cylinder head, and 8 to 1 with optional aluminum head. Displacement is 202 cu. inches. Twin H-Power, Hudson's high-performance multiple fueling system, is available at extra cost.

The L-head, in-line six-cylinder engine is uncomplicated in design, inexpensive to maintain, and delivers unusual gas mileage. Cylinder blocks are of chrome-alloy, the same type used in the famous Hudson Hornet engine, for long motor life and minimum oil consumption.

The new family sedan has Hudson's "step-down" design and low center of gravity. Outstanding durability and safety are provided by Monobilt body-and-frame construction.

Despite its compact size, the Jet Family Club Sedan has ample room for six passengers. Wheelbase is 105 inches. Ingenious design of the trunk lid provides an exceptional amount of luggage space.

Flight-Line Styling and minimum exterior broughwork give the new Jet the clean-lined simplicity associated with expensive custom car styling. Special grille design carries through the note of fresh simplicity, and gives a wider, lower-built appearance.

Smart interior of the Club Sedan offers surprising luxury, in view of the car's low price. Handsome striped upholstery fabrics are color-harmonized with solid color bolsters.

Instrument panels are finished in complementary tones. Three types of transmission are offered standard synchromesh, synchromesh with overdrive, and Dual Hydra-Matic Drive.

The car is available in a wide choice of colors, including six standard, two optional solid colors, and four special colors.

It is an honor indeed for one county to produce two winners in the annual soils program sponsored by the Fort Worth Press. It reveals the trend of our thinking and working on soil conservation.

As the dust has hazed the sun so many days recently, we are again made aware of the care which we must give the soil of Collingsworth, the work which must go into putting fertility back into the soil, in the development of grass and livestock programs. It is heartening to know this work is already under way.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Saturday is the day and 10 a. m. is the hour for the annual Kiwanis-Ritz free Easter show. This is an annual event that has been enjoyed by the children of the Wellington area for years. It is the sort of thing that makes good-will and helps business.

Mrs. Dan Henard and Mrs. Bess Owens were talking about the Easter egg hunt for the Methodist children Thursday and the possibility of the event being rained out was brought up. Mrs. Henard said: "Oh lets not talk about that. If it will rain enough the children can have the hunt in my living room muddy feet and all.

Perhaps our weather cycle is beginning to change. Even in the dry cycle there are three or four years when the annual rainfall is above average and in the wet cycles there about the same number that are below average.

The reason I am not interested in a new car is that I bought a Cadillac from the Shrine for $1. It is supposed to be delivered June 19, Emancipation Day. Incidentally Fred LeDerer, Mrs. Donna Dukeminier and Mrs. A. L. Nowlin have birthdays on that date. If my car arrives in time, think I will take all three of them for a ride. Mrs. Nowlin is now able to be out for short rides.

Flowers and grass have really come to life since the slow rain. A rain just does something that can't be done with a sprinkler and city water. Mrs. Charlie Neece wants to start a garden club in Wellington. Any of the rest of you who are interested might get in touch with her. Gardening is such a happy way to use up a lot of time and money; but there is something deeply satisfying in seeing pretty yards and flowers.

The robins that were in my yard all winter have departed; but the mocking birds have returned and I will make that swap any year. During the winter we had wrens, finches, woodpeckers, cardinals, blue jays and robins in our yard. Oh yes we also had a few sparrows and starlings and one tame crow visited us one morning.

Everybody knows that one word can sometimes make a tremendous difference; but in the newspaper business one letter can make quite a difference. For instance we made quit a bust in Bob Leggett's ad this week. He wrote: "I have mended my fire, automobile and casualty insurance with the agency of Wells & Wells. We set it: "I have merged BY fire" but we didn't discover the error until that particular run had been printed. I hasten to correct lest some of Bob's out of town friends decide that his office burned down.

The City is thinking in the right direction. There is nothing definite yet; but they hope to have a complete recreational program at Marian Airpark this summer. If the plan goes through their will be various activities in addition to the operation of Wellington's magnificent swimming pool. Entertainment and recreation are tremendous factors in pulling business to a town.

Quail got some more rain Wednesday morning. Tom Crabtree was asked if he felt better. "Can't say that I feel any better physically; but I sure am thinking different."

investigation, and if it is found that misrepresentations have been made, that the applicant now has a job or has quit a job to get on the roll, he will be prosecuted.

Distribution of the surplus commodities is made according to a department of agriculture schedule as to the need per individual, Mr. Robinson said.

John Bevers is in charge of the distribution, which so far is made at the Gilmore Locker Plant, where the food is stored.

Mr. Bevers said that another shipment of surplus food is not expected until around May 7.

The quality of food distributed on April 7 included: butter, 230 pounds; lard, 84 3-pound pails; beef and gravy, 624 cans; and cheese, 630 pounds.

The April 14 shipment included: 480 pounds of butter; lard, 144 3-pound pails; beef and gravy, 888 cans; and cheese, 1200 pounds.

Growers Urged too Attend

Cotton Production Meet For 2-County Farmers

Fred Elliott, cotton production specialist, Edd Bush gin specialist, and Freeman Fuller, entomologist; all of the Texas A & M College Extension Service will hold a two county cotton production meeting at the Shamrock Fair Building Monday night April 19th.

County Agent J. W. Thomas is urging all cotton growers of the county to attend this meeting, since it is due to be one of the most valuable to be held in this area from the standpoint of the cotton farmer this spring.

Mr. Elliott will show slides and discuss cotton production from the angle of seed treatment, johnson grass and weed control with ool, adapted varieties, land preparation and machinery, and other pertinent information which experiment stations and farmers have found essential in efficient cotton production over the area and state.

Bush will speak and show slides on efficient mechanical harvesting, ginning, and various labor saving equipment, which have been developed by ginners, farmers, and experiment stations in Texas.

Mr. Fuller will speak and show slides on insects of cotton and will help the farmer by showing him what insects to watch, also when and how to watch.

"Farmers, Ginners, Machinery men, lets all go. For those that it is convenient, meet at Jay's Drive Inn at 7:00 p. m. April 19th and leave together," Mr. Thomas said.

Directors to Meet April 15

CURRY ELECTED TO HEAD COUNTY CAMP FIRE COUNCIL

Organization of the Collingsworth County Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., was completed Thursday night, April 8, with the election of permanent officers and adoption of the constitution and by-laws.

Donald Curry was elected president of the group; Sam Thompson vice-president; Richard Bailey treasurer; and Mrs. James Ross of Quail regional representative.

Chairmen of the various committees, who with the officers make up the official board, include: Orval Couch, finance; Mrs. James Richardson, training; Mrs. E. K. Jones, group organization and registrar; Bryan Denley, adult membership and nomination; Emil Kersten and Tom Crabtree of Quail, public relations; Mrs. Dudley McMillin, program; and Ray Peoples, camping.

The next meeting of the board of directors has been called by Mr. Curry for Thur. night at 8:00 p. m. in the commissioners court room.

It was pointed out that the duties of the council will be administrative, taking over the work formerly done by the leaders and sponsors of the Camp Fire groups. The Camp Fire activities have been so in Wellington and Quail that such an organization became necessary, allowing the leaders and sponsors opportunity to devote their time to work with the girls themselves.

There are 11 Camp Fire Groups in Wellington and one in Quail.

The Wellington units include the Ko Shari and Ticia Horizon Clubs for older girls; These Camp Fire groups: Tejas, Mo-Na-Ko; Ta-Wan-Ka; O-da-ko-owa; and Oki-ci-Oya-pl. The Fairy Blue Bird Group was advanced to Camp Fire Status at the Meeting Thursday.

Other groups for the younger girls are the Busy Blue Birds; the Friendly Blue Birds and the Sunny Blue Birds.

Reunion of First Students Sought

Carey Dysart, pioneer county resident now living at Mobeetie, is interested in a reunion this summer of the seven living students of the county's school and their teacher, Mrs. W. O. Richards of Wellington. Mr. Dysart is one of that group. He is asking that the other six contact him giving their ideas on the reunion.

The school was taught in the summer of 1889 at Fresno, with Mrs. Richards, then 15 years old, as teacher.

It has been suggested that the reunion be held about the time of the annual Myers family reunion in Lubbock, the third Sunday of each July.

The seven students still living include Mr. Dysart, his sister Gerlie, now Mrs. J. A. Loter of Wellington; Lela Atteberry, now Mrs. A. V. Cooke of Wellington; Tom Elliott of Altus, Oklahoma; Ed Myers, Littlefield Park, Arizona; Ida Myers Karnes, who lives at Craig, Colorado and Clara Forbis McCune, who lives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Dysart were here Monday, April 12, and he recalled that that was the 65th anniversary of his reaching Collingsworth County with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dysart. He was eight years old at the time.

that area had received about one-half inch altogether, including a light shower Wednesday morning. The rain then appeared to be heavier along the River.

Jim Clark, south of Dozier two miles, reported .9.

"Everything's greening up, and the wheat will hang on for a while, but we need more rain to make a crop," Mr. Christie declared. "But it was enough to do a lot of good and it has put a lot of smiles on a lot of faces."

County Agent J. W. Thomas said in his weekly report to the Extension Service, in the sandy-land area, much of the land has not been touched in preparation for crops, and farmers are due to be awfully busy immediately.

With rain, there are prospects for a wheat yield of from 25 to 30 per cent normal, and there will be some good pasturage from other wheat fields up to June.

Mr. Williams, checking the records for the winter, said this is the first moisture of any kind since January, when snow gave .11 inch of moisture. It is the first rain since November 2, when .63 inch was recorded.

truck drivers from Oklahoma arrived.

Arriving within a few minutes was an ambulance from the Kelso Funeral Home, driven by Jimmie Kelso, who was returning from a call to Childress. One of the truck drivers told Mr. Kelso that the youth was alive but unconscious when he arrived. He was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Jameson, one of the county's most popular and respected youths graduated from Wellington high school in 1952. He had attended the Dodson school, then transferred here to take advantage of the school's athletic program. A member of the Skyrocket football team, he lettered three years. He lettered three years in basketball and made an outstanding record as a schoolboy boxer. He had participated in the Golden Gloves competition.

He also was a member of the Buffalo football team at West Texas State.

Walter Dan Jameson was born at Hollis November 18, 1934, and was 19 years, four months and 23 days of age.

Funeral services were to be held at the First Methodist Church in Wellington Wednesday, April 14. Pallbearers, all former Skyrocket athletes, included Gene Baird, Vesta Lee Orr, Orville Copeland, Wilbur Earl Smith, Don Van Pelt, Bing Crosby, Seldon Wood and Lonnie Fuson.

pasture this spring with a sub-soiler chisel, on the contour, 14 inches deep and about 15 feet spacing. This is especially good on sloping pasture. The chisel ridges serve to catch the run-off, and when the water seeps down through the plowed ground. You lose little of the water that falls.

Hartman continued his account of his farming practices.

"In the past years I have reseeded and turned back for grazing purposes some 50 acres of the rougher land. In 1953 I sowed a mixture of seven different grasses, including western wheat grass, weeping and sand love grass, blue grama, sideots grama, sand drop seed and buffalo. It was a hard year to try to get grass started, but this some that stayed and I believe there is some yet to come up."

The Hartmans are among the small number of Collingsworth stock farmers who find sheep profitable.

"I've heard that sheep are hard on grassland. I don't really believe it. I have been running sheep with cows, about 35 head of ewes, then around 100 lambs on the wheat and alfalfa.

"Sheep like grass, but weeds are their desert. They really go for sagebrush and cockleburs, and I've made just as much for dollar invested in sheep as in cattle," Hartman declared.

Most of the farm had a three-wire fence when The Hartmans bought it. Now the 320 acres is sheep proof, woven wire or six strand barbed.

"We have also put in two separate water systems," he said. "Last year we irrigated a garden from one, and believe it or not, we had some nice tomatoes—the first time it had happened to us."

"You hear a lot about diversified farming—I believe it to be the surest way. Our cash crops in 1953 were cotton, wheat, grain sorghums, cattle, sheep that we raised and also a hundred lambs we bought and fed three months. Some made money and some did not," the soils award winner said.

He plans to continue buying lambs in the late summer, keeping them four or five months, then selling them.

Hartman has a knack with machinery and making his own equipment. His well-equipped farm has three tractors with full equipment, a self propelled combine, truck, bulldozer, terracing plow, having equipment, etc.

Then there is the shop equipped with acetylene and arc welding equipment. The latter he made, using, among other things, the generator off an airplane. His posthole digger was made from the rear end of truck and a gin auger.

This spring, the Hartmans moved their house from a field to pasture land. They set out trees and shrubs. "But they don't show much yet," Hartman grinned.

"Our house is small, and we plan to build a new one, but right now, we don't want to go in debt for something we can do without," He explained.

Hartman was born in Collingsworth County May 11, 1921. He graduated from Wellington high school in 1940 then studied a year at Draughon's Business College in Wichita Falls. He entered the Navy December 31, 1941, just three weeks after Pearl Harbor and served until September, 1945. Two and one-half years of his service was aboard the Destroyer USS Edsall.

Mrs. Hartman is the former Madonna Thomas of Universal, Indiana. She had lived on a farm as a child, but most of her life was in the coal-mining area of that state.

for building the dam.

Later, possibly this summer, the seven towns now in the authority will vote as to whether they remain in. Still later, revenue bearing bonds must be voted upon.

The R. A. Underwood Investment Company of Dallas is acting as fiscal agent for the Greenbelt Association. This firm is to secure industrial users for water from the Salt Fork dam, since the municipal users alone will not be in a position to finance such a project.

"We may be certain that this company will do its best to find industrial users interested in our proposition, for agreement with the R. A. Underwood Company is that they are to be paid only if they succeed in locating users," Judge Templeton explained.

Palo Cummings, who suffered a heart attack March 5, has recovered sufficiently that he was able to leave his home for the first time Tuesday, April 13, to come to town for a check-up by his doctor. Money Substituted For Land for Texas Public Schools Austin, Texas, The frontier endowed Texas' public school system with public lands, but now that the frontier is gone money must be substituted for land. Dr. Walter Prescott Webb, University of Texas historian, declared.

Dr. Webb addressed College of Education students and faculty at the second in a series of four meetings marking the centennial of Texas public education, being observed this year throughout the state.

"It is to be hoped that the people will do as well by the public 'free' schools as the frontier did when it was young and rich," Dr. Webb told his audience.

By giving public lands, some 19th Century Texans saw the opportunity to endow the state's educational system without resorting to taxes, the famed historian of the frontier explained. But in 1898 it was discovered that the supply of unappropriated lands of the public domain had been exhausted, leaving the Permanent School Fund with shortage of 5,728,023 acres.

"The state had written a hot check on the frontier, and an era in public education had come to an end," Dr. Webb said. He explained the "check" was made good with other lands and a real check for $17,180.

In considering the frontier's contributions to public education in Texas, Dr. Webb asserted:

"In my opinion we would have had some form of public education without the frontier, but the system in the nation and in the state would not have been established as early, and it would not be nearly as well developed or as generally accepted or as well endowed as it is."

How smart can machines be?

Back in the twenties there was a stage play about mechanical men, who repaid their creators by trying to wreck civilization. "Robots" have made people uneasy ever since.

How smart can a machine be? At General Electric we're beginning to find out. For some years now we've been working with machines that come startlingly close to thinking like men.

Can they outsmart men? Just the opposite: they make men even smarter by taking over routine mental chores and freeing men for the creative thinking only human minds can encompass.

A jet engine used to be designed by trial and error. You had to build it first, or a costly model, to find out how it would work. Now, an electronic computer helps solve long and complex jet development problems in advance. In 15 minutes it goes through 8 million mathematical calculations and comes up with an answer that would take a mathematician 7 years.

In management, "hunch" is giving way to fact. Electronic data-processing machines zip through head-spinning statistics on market changes, product design and income trends to come up with the answers General Electric managers need to make sound decisions, not hopeful guesses.

Their ability to digest tons of data in a hurry may one day help the farmer by making weather predictions more accurate. They may shed new light on the reasons for boom and bust.

Machines that can read, write, do arithmetic, measure, feel, remember, now take the load off men's minds, just as machines have eased the burden on our backs.

But these fantastic machines still depend on people to design and build and guide and use them. What they replace is drudgery—not people.

Don't worry; smart though they are, machines will never be as smart as people. Not while people are smart enough to think them up, smart enough to let them do a man's drudging work.

Progress is our most important product

FHA Outlines Loan Program

CHANGE FROM CASH CROP TO DIVERSIFIED SYSTEM ADVISED

Weather conditions being one of the paramount factors a farmer has to take into consideration if he is to make a success of farming the fact that many farmers in all parts of Texas are changing from cash-crop farming to a diversified system may be attributed to a extent to unfavorable weather conditions. This is indicated by figures taken from adjustment loans FHA has made; amounting to more than $12 million since July 1, L. J. Cappleman, the agency's 1953. This statement was made by State Director, in an announcement from his Dallas office, to Arrell Cummings, Collingsworth County supervisor.

Farmers who in the past have depended almost entirely on cash crops, in recent years have been among those most in need of farming adjustments, he said. "Benefits of these adjustments include a sound system of farming which follows diversified production on their farms," Cappleman said. "We round many farmers seeking credit necessary to put in livestock enterprises to go along with their crops; and FHA provided such credit. There is a growing tendency toward pasture improvement; and the farmers we are serving are expected to develop good pastures for their livestock." He added that this type of adjustment usually takes a few years for completion, which is taken into consideration in the making of an adjustment type of loan. No more funds for adjustment loans will be available until new appropriations are ready for disbursement July 1.

Many farmers needing loans for a short time — perhaps only a year — or farmers needing emergency loans in designated areas, are finding the credit they need at the FHA county office. Long term loans for purchasing or developing family-type farms are also available as insured farm ownership loans. Funds for direct farm ownership loans will also be available July 1.

A special program of loans to livestock-men, hard hit by drought conditions is also administered by FHA. These loans are to help farmers retain their normal position in the production of cattle and sheep and to restock ranges where herds were reduced by drought or economic reasons.

No matter what type of credit is sought, FHA cannot approve applications from farmers whose credit needs can be handled by private or cooperative lenders. Banks and other lending agencies have referred hundreds of applicants they could not accommodate to FHA offices since July 1, 1953.

In the eight months' period following June 30, 1953, a total of over 14,000 loans were made for more than $44,750,000. Of this amount $12 million special livestock loans were made to 800 ranchmen; and approximately $20 million in emergency loans to 10 thousand Texas farmers, of whom 150 received $508,000 to establish or improve water facilities on their farms.

EDITORIAL COMMENT — THE WELLINGTON LEADER

Engineers Can't Cure the Nut Behind the Wheel

"I personally pledge myself to drive and walk safely and think in terms of safety. I pledge myself to work through my church, civic, business and labor groups to carry out the White House Action Program for Highway Safety. I give this pledge in seriousness and earnestness, having considered fully my obligations to protect my life and the lives of my family and my fellow-man."

This pledge was proposed recently by a White House Conference on Highway Safety called by President Dwight Eisenhower. It was the consensus of the conference that the pledge should be taken by every American driver.

The conference recognized one vitally important fact; that it is the motorist... and pedestrian... as an individual... and not the technical engineering of our highway and motor vehicles, that is the greatest contributing factor to our growing national toll of traffic death.

It is the individual's walking or driving habits that make the traffic problem; it is his own efforts at improvement that are going to solve that problem, the conferees concluded.

This is an important point.

It is all very well to improve our highways... to build into them all the safety factors which engineers can devise. We need wider highways, fewer obstructions, easier curves, divided lanes, and better road surfaces... but engineering improvements by our road builders, accomplished at tremendous cost, have not kept pace with the rising accidents toll.

It is well, too, to build our motor vehicles all the safety devices which modern engineering can devise... better brakes, better lights, better steering controls, and safer tires... but mechanical failures are a minor cause in our tremendous accident toll.

The engineers can fix everything about the car but the nut behind the wheel.

This is the glaring defect in our system of safety engineering which the White House Safety Conference spotlighted.

Last year alone, 28,000 Americans died in traffic accidents, and millions more were injured. The toll of dead and injured last year alone was greater than the whole casualty list from the Korean war.

Why not "take the pledge" today.

The life you save may be your own.
The Canadian Record

Surplus Grain Use

Dr. G. E. Hilbert, Department of Agriculture chemist, says grain alcohol can be converted into motor fuel in quantities to take care of any surplus produced on American farms.

One bug in the proposal in the present support price of wheat, corn, and grain sorghums, which would make the fuel come a bit high in comparison to gasoline. But the process of turning the grain into fuel is an accomplished fact, and something for the economists to work out.

According to the details, given by Dr. Hilbert to a meeting of the National Chemurgic Council, at Memphis, Tenn., grain would have to be selling at 80 to 90 cents a bushel to make the process economical and practical. This definitely puts the grain fuel out of the picture for the present, as it is a virtually impossibility for farmers to produce at that figure.

The process has potential value, nevertheless, for the time may come when we shall need our petroleum reserves for something else while the productive capacity of the soil is inexhaustible — or so we hope.

Jesus' Authority Was In His Words

Jesus, so far as we know, had no authority other than that inherent in His words and deeds. He was neither a priest, a Levite nor a scribe.

He had nothing corresponding to a modern diploma or credentials, and His "school" must have been almost, if not completely, unique in the annals of education.

The great fact of this supreme but unofficial Teacher, depending only on the inherent authority of the truth He uttered, in impressive. The lesson which is significant should not be minimized.

In our complex world, standards are necessary. Our schools would suffer without some standard of qualification for teachers. We would be at the mercy of quacks if doctors did not need proper credentials.

All that is plain. But what is important, and sometimes forgotten, is that such authoritative and official credentials do not by any means guarantee what they are supposed to imply.

Incompetent doctors and untrustworthy lawyers are fairly common. So authority rests ultimately upon something more than official status. Sometimes a teacher, a bone-setter, a preacher comes along who, without any official standing, reveals a knowledge and competency beyond that of many who are outwardly qualified.

Such a one pre-eminently was Jesus. But He has not been alone among the great unofficial teachers of religion. Many unofficial prophets have proclaimed God's truth and won men to the truth they declared.

And it ought to be so in the realm of religion, where values are inherent, or lacking, in actual word and action.

The realm of religion ought to be the most free and untrammelled.

A lot of fellows who complain about the boss being so dumb would be out of a job if the boss were any smarter.

Salt Fork Soil Coin Conservation District News

Group of County Farmers Seeding Native and Introduced Grasses

Supervisors: Zook Thomas, Tom Cunningham, Frank Coleman, Frank Ford, and John R. Henard, Jr.

Several cooperators in the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District are now busy sowing native and introduced grasses to be used as a permanent pasture.

The proper procedure in restoring cropland or abandoned land to grass according to SCS technicians, is to provide an adequate cover. A cover is necessary to keep the small grass seedlings from being injured by blowing sand, and it also keeps the soil temperature down in the hot summer months.

The most effective cover is grain sorghum drilled or planted in rows the year before, and harvested to leave a stubble 10 to 16 inches in height. The grass is sowed the following winter and spring in the stubble.

On land where weeds have been allowed to grow up last year, some farmers are using this as a cover and plan to follow up with spraying or mowing when the grass is in the seedling stage to kill the weed crop.

The Salt Fork Conservation District has all kinds of grass seed available to farmers who wish to seed land. These seed can be purchased from any of the vocational agriculture teachers in the district. Each of these men are also custodians of grass seeding rdills which can be leased for a small fee.

Those having adequate cover now and are interested in grass seeding should contact the ASC and SCS offices for approvals and payments. The Salt Fork Soil Conservation District Board will take an assignment drill after the farmer gets approval from ASC and SCS. Therefore the farmer is not out any money until he gets the payment from the ASC which in most cases will cover the entire cost of seeding.

STAGGARD PLANTINGS OF SUDAN ADVISED BY FORMER RESIDENT

COLLEGE STATION—Staggered plantings of Sudangrass can go far toward stretching temporary summer grazing for livestock, says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist. Planting in areas where frost may yet occur should wait until all danger of a freeze has past, he says.

In addition to furnishing abundant grazing when moisture permits, Sudangrass an important "link" in any year-round grazing program—enables livestock to lay off permanent pastures giving them time to rest and get a better foothold before their next grazing season.

Trew recommends planting one acre of temporary pasture for each animal unit. By commencing plantings when frost danger passes and planting at three to four week intervals as long as moisture is available, Sudan grazing can be greatly extended.

"Some stockmen have had grazing from about six weeks after frost until frost in the fall by using this system," Trew says. Different plantings, however, must be fenced separately, he adds.

Sudan is adapted to the entire state, but should be planted in the humid area. Common and tift are also well suited to Texas conditions, the specialist says.

Highest benefits from temporary grazing are obtained from rotation. Concentrate livestock on a small area, graze it off in a hurry and then move on to another block. Fertilization pays off even on temporary pastures, Trew concludes. If there isn't time for a soil test before you desire to plant, contact the local county agent for fertilizer recommendations.

POWER OF ATTORNEY VALUABLE LEGAL DOCUMENT

Prior to World War II many thousands of people had never heard of a power of attorney. Some thought reference was made to an attorney or lawyer and did not know it was a written document.

But, with enlistments and the hundreds of thousands of young people, practically all who were heads of families were suddenly faced with the necessity of business being transacted during their absence: the selling, leasing or mortgaging of houses, farms, automobiles, refrigerators, household goods—in fact nearly all kinds of property.

A document called a "power of attorney" solved many dire domestic and small business problems

A WOLF CALL CAUGHT THIS CAT

Frank Massey, who lives a mile south and one-half east of Dozier, is shown with the bob cat killed in his pasture by his nephew, Barto Riley of Floydada, Monday morning, March 29. They called the cat up with a wolf caller. It weighed 25 pounds. Mr. Massey has lived there since 1917.

during the war. A power of attorney is a paper, a legal document, as is a deed, mortgage, note, etc. To be eligible for record, the document must be acknowledged before a notary public, or other like officer, or before a military officer authorized to administer oaths.

A power of attorney may be general or special. If the former, then the party named therein as agent or "attorney in fact" for the party signing the document is granted authority to "do all things that I could do if present in person." In a special power of attorney another person is given the right to convey, mortgage, or sell a certain described tract of land, a certain car, only household goods, only to endorse and cash checks, or some other certain limited authority.

Obviously, whether the power of attorney is general or special, the signer of the document must have unlimited faith in the agent therein. That agent, as respects the power conferred on him or her, can act as completely as if the principals were present in person.

The use of a power of attorney as a convenient document is not limited to war times. Any person may occasionally have extended absences, or perhaps foreign trips may contemplate a lengthy vacation, or a person may be hospitalized by extended illness requiring entire freedom from business responsibilities. In any of these regard the transaction of important business.

Every act which one can delegate to another, may be authorized and legalized by a power of attorney designating the agent and the powers given. One's relatives, his attorney or banker, or a close business associate, may be given the most confidential and trustworthy authority. Any competent adult, male or female, may execute a power of attorney.

It is obvious that a document granting so much authority should be prepared with the greatest of care. A business man or attorney examining the document might at too late a date find that the agent was not given the authority needed to carry into effect the will and purpose of the absent or ill principal. Hence it should be drawn up only by an attorney, whose training and experience qualify and enable him to prepare a legal instrument which will make fully effective the wishes and intent of the principal.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

New Jobs for Texans

Texas industries have been providing new jobs for Texans at the rate of about 70,000 a year. That's about 200 new jobs every day.

All kinds of jobs . . . in offices, on construction work, in manufacturing plants, in the development of the natural resources of the State. Jobs for riggers, for secretaries, for engineers, for truck drivers, for accountants, for lawyers, for crane operators, for decorators, for sailors . . . all kinds of jobs.

And the reason why these new jobs have been, and continue to be available is this: Texas industry is expanding, and industry makes jobs.

On the average, each new job created in Texas requires the investment of $12,000 capital*. Thus, Texas industry invests over three-quarters of a billion dollars each year in new plants and in plant expansion to create 70,000 new Texas jobs.

Much of this annual investment in new jobs for Texans is made by the oil industry itself and industries which depend on oil and natural gas for fuel and raw materials. Every year a wider variety of industries put to profitable use a larger number of the resources of the State, and call on a broader assortment of available Texas skills.

Forecasters predict an even greater industrial development in Texas, and an even larger number of new jobs, as more industries recognize the advantages that Texas offers: good markets, raw and manufactured resources, trustworthy and dependable people, efficient and abundant fuel, a mild climate, and a good state government . . . In that list of advantages, the Texas oil industry provides raw materials for processing, and the world's finest industrial fuel—natural gas.

*In the oil industry, the required investment for each new job is over $50,000.

Crossroads Report

Dear Mr. Ike:

I see where the government is now putting out a very handy little booklet which tells about how to pick out, cook and serve the cheaper cuts of meats. I just wanted to tell you how much I appreciate the efforts of the stout-hearted experts who got all of this information together for us.

I understand there are several congressmen who are distributing these useful little pamphlets to their lower-income constituents in lieu of tax relief for this class of citizen, which they aim to vote against. There is, of course, more than one way to help people, or skin a cat, or a taxpayer.

As I see it, this little booklet will eliminate some of the need for tax relief by helping us to overcome any expensive diet habits we might have picked up here and there. After all, we can't have everybody addicted to T-bone steaks and top ham. There has to be somebody to eat up the ribs, front legs and backbones. I expect the real reason why the Lord made so many poor people was not because He loved them so much as because there had to be a market for soup bones and chitterlings.

D. E. SCOTT
Crossroads, U. S. A.

Dr. and Mrs. Reese Nowlin and children, Richard, Jewel and Bill, of Perryton, were here Sunday to visit in the home of his uncle, and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nowlin.

SINUSITIS

We are having spectacular results with sinus conditions that failed to respond to other forms of treatment. We usually find the cause of most sinus conditions similar to those of Asthma and Hay Fever. All respond swiftly under proper Chiropractic care.

MIGRAINE HEADACHES

Lady, 45 — This patient spent one week every month in the hospital due to the severity of her condition. Under Chiropractic care the headaches became less severe and in four months time stopped completely. Since starting under Chiropractic care she had not thought about going to the hospital with a headache.

All migraine conditions who have given Chiropractic a fair trial have been pleased with the results.

Neuritis and sinus headaches also respond swiftly under adjustments.

ASTHMA—HAY FEVER

Girl, 12—Had asthma 7 years. Case well in two weeks. No recurrence in past year.

Girl, 13—Had asthma two months. Case cleared after six weeks at our clinic.

Man, 67—Asthma 7 years. Clear after 10 weeks health service.

Lady, 26—Asthma and Hay Fever 5 years. No attacks in past 16 months.

Lady, 80—Asthma 30 years. Case well in eight weeks. No attacks since taking Chiropractic adjustments.

Lady, 37—Asthma, Sinusitis and Hay Fever 17 years. Case clear after 12 weeks service.

Above are a few case histories taken from the files of the Rose Chiropractic Clinic. Chiropractic offers the only known cure for Asthma. If you have Asthma consult Dr. Rose as soon as possible and be back on the road to good health.

ANGINA PECTORIS (Nervous Heart)

Man, 72—Angina 22 years. Noticed relief after very few adjustments. Gained strength swiftly.

Man, 63—Angina 2 months before starting under Chiropractic care. Case near normal in three months.

Lady, 33—Angina condition well after four months Chiropractic care. Other Angina patients are still under service at the Rose Chiropractic Clinic and making good progress.

ARTHRITIS, RHEUMATISM (Chronic and Acute)

Lady, 50—Hands and fingers nearly paralyzed, joints swollen. Condition had existed for six years. Under Chiropractic care at our clinic she recovered fully in three months time. No trouble with hands for past 16 months.

Lady, 56—Arthritis of the Spine was making life miserable for this lady until she discovered Chiropractic. Spinal X-rays taken one year after she started taking adjustments revealed a breakdown of calcium deposits between the vertebra and the removal of spur and nodular growth from vertebra.

Lady, 67—Rheumatism of the knee made this patient's leg stiff. Under Chiropractic care the leg was as good as new in less than three months time. Patient reports no trouble with knee in past nine months.

Man, 33—Rheumatism and Lumbago caused this patient to walk in a stopped position most of the time. After a course of Chiropractic adjustments patient walks and feels better than he had in years.

A. A. Gregory, M. D., write:

"Under Spinal Adjustments, acute diseases are cut short and chronic diseases recover which have been believed to be incurable."

All Case histories shown here are taken from the files of the Rose Chiropractic Clinic and are placed here to show the extent of Chiropractic.

NEURITIS and NEURALGIA

These diseases are caused by a direct nerve pinch. Hundreds of cases have been handled at our Clinic. Cases last from one hour to several months. Chief factors involved which determine how fast patient will get well are: 1. Age of patient. 2. Severity of nerve pinch. 3. Length of time condition has existed.

STOMACH-COLON DISORDERS

Under adjustments at our clinic the headache and dizziness were gone after one week. All signs of ulcer and pain gone in two months. Six months later patient was still feeling like a new man. Several other ulcer cases have been given permanent relief.

PARALYSIS

Chiropractic has been recognized as the foremost healing profession in obtaining lasting results on paralysis cases.

Girl, 16—Facial Paralysis (Bell's Palsy). Couldn't open mouth, smile or close right eye. Sharp pain at base of brain. Following the first adjustment, patient could use mouth freely. Following second adjustment pain in neck and head stopped. In two weeks time patient could smile naturally and in four weeks could close right eye. Patient dismissed after four weeks.

Many cases have entered the Rose Chiropractic Clinic with a condition which has been diagnosed as ruptured disc. We have been successful in returning over 90 per cent of these cases to perfect health. We have recommended operation for less than 5 per cent of these cases.

The usual cause of these symptoms is a pinched nerve and a misaligned vertebra. If it's Nerves—See Your CHIROPRACTOR!
