School homecomings usually bring about a lot of "visiting" among old grads and a sprinkling of social activities, but the headline event mostly is an athletic contest, nearly always a football game.

But the "football" of today may be far different from that engaged in by many of the old grads. Through the efforts of Polly Underwood, Jeanne Bullard, et al, we have been able to publish pictures of two Snyder football squads of "back when" vintage. The squads were smaller in those early days and the apparel worn by the players was different from that used today. Of course, in most cases and especially Snyder's, the schools were smaller, which meant fewer boys eligible for the teams. In most cases, there was no such thing as a "B" team or junior varsity. A team was lucky if it had enough players for a practice scrimmage. And nobody ever heard of junior high football.

I have heard various Snyder residents who played on teams before World War II recall some experiences. I believe it was John Boren who told how difficult it was for a team to have a full-scale scrimmage in practice, because that required a minimum of 22 men and many teams had only 15 or 16. Sometimes, they would lure a few "railbirds" onto the practice field to fill in at a few vacant positions for a scrimmage session.

However, a small squad in numbers was not considered a disadvantage, because the opponents had the same problem. Nowadays, if a high school varsity squad has less than 30 men it usually is considered "small."

The University Interscholastic League has changed a lot itself since World War II. Back in the thirties there were only two classifications, Class A and Class B. Class A was composed of all high schools with 500 or more pupils enrolled in the top four grades. All other schools were Class B. Now, the classification list runs from Class 4A down through the 6-man ranks.

Incidentally, the "tentative" UIL football list for the 1969 has been distributed. Our district (3-AAA) has no changes this year, which indicates an 11-team loop again next season. That, in turn, means no non-conference games again, unless the district committee "zones" the district for 1969 play.

Curiously, there have been some changes in some 3A districts, although the re-alignment for this year ostensibly was for the prescribed two-year period. The UIL advised that "changes from the past year's official list are primarily a result of consolidation and the entrance of new schools." Of course our district picked up a new school the past year that in fact has enrollment considerably beyond Class 3-A requirements, but according to the tentative list there will be no change here.

Today In History

Today is Friday, Oct. 18, the 292nd day of 1968. There are 74 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1867, in a ceremony at Sitka, Alaska, the United States took formal possession of Alaska from Russia.

On this date in 1540, the Spanish explorer, Hernando de Soto, was fighting against the Indians in southern Alabama.

In 1767, the boundary line between Maryland and Pennsylvania — the Mason - Dixon line — was agreed upon.

In 1892, the first commercial long-distance telephone line opened between New York and Chicago.

In 1944, Soviet troops moved into Czechoslovakia in World War II.

In 1945, 24 high - ranking Nazis were indicted in Berlin as having conspired against world peace.

In 1963, Sir Alec Douglas - Home succeeded Harold Macmillan as Britain's prime minister.

Ten years ago — Britain said that all British troops which had been sent into Jordan to help maintain order would be withdrawn within a matter of days.

Five years ago — The U. N. General Assembly elected Bolivia and the Ivory Coast to two of the three nonpermanent seats on the Security Council. There was a deadlock over Malaysia and Czechoslovakia for the third seat.

One year ago — An unmanned Soviet spacecraft dropped instruments onto the surface of Venus, and data was relayed back to earth.

Will Marriage Change Jacqueline's Image?

By JOY MILLE
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — In those rare times when America creates its own royalty, it lavishes upon the chosen few all the fierce, jealous affection that practical people render unto dreams.

For this adulation, Americans exact obedience. The rules are few but firm, and paramount is the preservation, at all costs, of the public image we know and love.

Jacqueline Kennedy's reign has flourished for nearly eight years. It began early in her White House life when she brought a rare youth, charm and beauty to the highest seat of government. It gained stature when she met shattering tragedy with a dignity and restraint that moved millions to compassionate, admiring tears. Her lonely widowhood, circumscribed as it is by the careful rearing of her two fatherless children—Caroline, now 10, and John Jr., 7—and the perpetuating of her assassinated husband's memory, is in the tradition of the great dowager queens.

Today at 39 she is perhaps the most admired woman in the world.

With her forthcoming marriage to 62-year-old Aristotle Onassis, Greek shipping magnate, jet-set playboy and one of the richest men in the world, her image in America, as well as her status, might change.

As the news of the approaching wedding broke, some of Mrs. Kennedy's closest friends, reached by telephone, expressed hope the marriage would be a happy one.

William Walton, the painter, an old friend of both Jack and Jackie Kennedy, put it this way: "One wishes her great happiness. She deserves it and I hope she finds it."

Several suggested that the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, her brother-in-law, was a key factor. "Jackie depended on him completely," said one. "Since he died she has been very lonely."

Another agreed. "She's certainly lonelier now than before Bobby died. He was a sort of an Irish uncle, you know; something she and the children could lean on."

Mrs. Kennedy, [illegible] seemed to [illegible] and armchair psychologists might attribute it to her deep attachment to her father, the dashing Jack Bouvier, sports man and stockbroker whom her mother, now Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, divorced when Jacqueline was 10.

Hurricane Gladys Remains A Threat

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Gladys drifted north in the Gulf of Mexico today just out of wind reach from the populous Tampa Bay area but armed with a deceptive punch.

"The danger really is due to high water and not to winds," said Dr. Robert Simpson, director of the National Hurricane Center in Miami.

Simpson said he feared shoreline cities would drop their guard because of weak winds and then be caught unprepared for tides five feet above normal when Gladys makes landfall.

Forecaster Ray Kraft said Gladys could turn northeast and hit land near Cedar Key in the Big Bend area of the Gulf Coast.

But the storm was barely moving. Forward speed was clocked at 5 miles per hour with bare hurricane-force winds of 75 m.p.h. The storm center moved just one-tenth of a degree—well under 10 miles—between the 6 a.m. and 9 a.m. sightings today.

Winds in the area of Tampa and St. Petersburg were mild with top gusts clocked at about 17-25 m.p.h.

Simpson said this was because the winds at that point were far from the center and in the northeast quadrant. The winds came from the southeast and wore themselves out overland, Simpson said.

"We do not consider the hazard of the wind will be a major one," Simpson said. "That's the blessing enjoyed by the people on the West Coast.

"We are concerned, however, that people who are not experiencing any damaging winds now may become complacent and think this storm has no punch. This storm does have a punch and it lies mainly in the potential for rapid rise of tides," Simpson said.

The Weather Bureau had forecast earlier that Gladys would turn toward the cities of the Tampa Bay area where more than one million people live.

Rains of four inches or more were predicted for central and northeast Florida and hurricane warnings fluttered almost limply between Sarasota and Clearwater. A hurricane watch was in effect northward to St. Marks.

At 9 a.m. Gladys' center was near Latitude 27.5 North, Longitude 84.0 West, a position about 90 miles west of Bradenton.

RED HAWKS, DOVES DISAGREE?

Hanoi Reply Delayed

By JOHN HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disagreement between "Hawks" and "Doves" in Hanoi may be delaying a response to Washington proposals for ending all bombing of North Vietnam, diplomatic authorities here believe.

These authorities suggest a debate has been going on within the North Vietnamese leadership over the issue of giving assurances of limiting the war on the Communist side if President Johnson halts attacks on the North.

The Paris sources said the U.S. proposals were made contingent on firm acceptance by Hanoi of the Saigon government as a party to any ultimate peace negotiations.

Participation in some form of the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Vietnam, was said to have been conceded by the United States.

The official North Vietnamese newspaper, Nhan Dan, Thursday denounced Johnson's demand for what the North Vietnamese call "reciprocity" for ending the bombing.

But U.S. officials said this appeared to be more a continuation of the familiar Hanoi position stated many times in the Paris peace talks than actual rejection of the U.S. proposals in the present situation.

Johnson's requirements have been reported to include restoration of the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam, with removal of Communist forces from the zone, and an end to terror attacks on South Vietnamese cities and towns.

U.S. officials say that arrangements for a bombing halt have been thoroughly covered in consultations with governments allied in the war, including the South Vietnamese government, and that the "hangup" is now entirely in Hanoi.

Press reports from Saigon, however, have stressed objections by President Nguyen Van Thieu to any termination of the bombing of the North without a guarantee of Communist de-escalation.

It is argued here that the North Vietnamese already have de-escalated the conflict over the last several weeks. A number of Communist military units are reported to have been withdrawn from South Vietnam, either back into North Vietnam or into neighboring Laos and Cambodia. The level of fighting has declined. These actions have been taken on communist initiative.

Frost Glazes Windshields

The sharpest cold spell of the season produced patches of frost in the Snyder area early today.

The temperature dipped to a low of 36 degrees at about dawn, the lowest reading of the autumn season. Automobile tops and windshields were glazed with frost, as were roofs of dwellings and business buildings.

The cold weather followed passage of a frontal system that had moved through the area Wednesday with light moisture and blowing sand. A warm - up was due to set in today.

Jackie Will Relinquish Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy's remarriage will end her Secret Service protection and government pension of $10,000 a year, government sources say.

Secret Service protection for her two children, John Jr., 7, and Caroline, 10, will continue, however until they are 16 unless such protection is declined.

The presidential widow's pension and the Secret Service protection were among various special privileges Congress voted for Mrs. Kennedy after her husband was assassinated in November 1963. Those two privileges were to end with remarriage.

A $50,000 payment for office and staff, later cut to $30,000 was ended July 1, 1967 when she said she didn't need it any more.

A Post Office spokesman said a legal decision probably will be needed to determine whether remarriage will put an end to free mail privileges, also granted by Congress.

Mrs. Kennedy comes from a wealthy family and her husband left a sizeable fortune. Aristotle Onassis, the man she is marrying, is one of the world's richest men.

Homecoming Activities Are Underway

Snyder High School was in the midst of homecoming activities today.

Biggest event at the school during the day was a pep rally scheduled for 2:45 p.m. in the gymnasium. This, of course, was in preparation for the football game tonight between the Tigers and the Sweetwater Mustangs, with the kickoff set for 7:30 p.m. in Tiger Stadium.

The homecoming queen will be crowned during half - time ceremonies at the game.

A social event for ex-students is scheduled in the Scurry County Coliseum following the football game.

An enthusiastic audience last night applauded the SHS Drama Department's presentation of "Spoon River Anthology" in the auditorium. A second performance of the production is scheduled for 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Also scheduled for Saturday is a coffee for ex-students at 10 a.m. at the SHS cafeteria. The coffee is being sponsored by SHS graduating classes before 1925, but ex-students of all years are invited to attend.

STEERING ENGINE FIRED

Apollo Performs 'Beautifully'

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON (AP) — With a jolting burst of energy, the Apollo 7 astronauts fired their steering engine today in the most powerful maneuver ever made by a manned space ship.

"Yabba-dabba-doo!" shouted Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr. as the huge engine flashed to life and spurted a steady tail of flame for 6 seconds as Apollo 7 raced 120 miles above the Gulf of Mexico.

"That was a real nice to-do, the machine performed beautifully," spacecraft commander Schirra reported at the completion of this vital test of the engine that one day will guide American astronauts to the moon.

Minutes earlier, the wives of Schirra, Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele and civilian Walter Cunningham were disappointed at not being able to see their husbands zip over their Houston homes.

All three gathered at a boat landing at Clear Lake near the Manned Spacecraft Center, hoping to catch a glimpse of Apollo 7 as it dashed across the heavens south of Houston.

But their view was obscured by low level clouds in the southwest.

When the burn started, it was under the automatic control of

General Freeze In Panhandle Area

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frosty weather nipped the Panhandle-Plains country in West Texas this morning and most other sections of the state felt at least some chilling.

Although temperatures had slipped below freezing at a few points the day before, it was the most general freeze so far this fall.

Generally clear skies helped the mercury drop. Cloudy to partly cloudy conditions occurred only in South Central and part of Southeast Texas.

Readings dropped before dawn to 28 degrees at Plainview and 29 at Dalhart.

Readings elsewhere included Amarillo and Lubbock 33, Abilene and Childress 36, Midland 37, Wink 40, El Paso 41, Big Spring, San Angelo and Wichita Falls 42, Sherman and Denison 44, Fort Worth and Mineral Wells 45 Dallas 47, and Texarkana, Tyler and Waco 49.

Farther south the early morning marks were in the 50s and 60s, ranging up to 70 at Brownsville.

In the Plainview area the temperature held below freezing for several hours and farmers expected the cold to kill cotton plants and other vegetation.

Other places, like Amarillo, were fanned by a light breeze which served to blunt the effects of the freeze. Some points saw only enough frost to glaze auto windshields lightly.

Olympic Athletes Suspended By US

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The U.S. Olympic Committee suspended star Negro sprinters Tommie Smith and John Carlos from the U.S. Olympic team after midnight Thursday for "untypical exhibitionism" during an Olympic victory ceremony Wednesday.

The decision followed a complaint by the International Olympic Committee regarding the conduct of Smith when he received the gold medal for winning the 200-meter event and Carlos when he was presented the bronze medal for finishing third in the 200-meter finals Wednesday.

Both Smith and Carlos raised clenched fists clothed in black gloves during the playing of the Star Spangled Banner and also wore black knee socks without shoes during the presentation ceremony.

They also wore identical buttons on their team uniforms citing demands for racial equality.

Two members of the U.S. Olympic Committee's board of consultants, John Sayre, a rower in the 1960 Olympics, and Billy Mills, the 10,000-meter winner in 1964, went to the Olympic Village after midnight to notify Smith and Carlos to leave.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: If I live to be 100, I'll never be able to understand why a man says he can't stand to stay home and look at the four walls, yet he can go to a neighborhood bar and sit there for hours on end. How about the four walls there?

We are both 56 and have a good marriage, except for this one difference of opinion which seems to give us cause for argument. I'm not a drinking woman, but if I were, I'd just as soon stay home and drink by myself. Why should I go to a bar and buy drinks for other people? I don't care for friends that much. They are a lot of trouble and expense. My husband's not a drunkard, but he likes to sit in bars. Why?

Maybe you or one of your readers can give me an answer.

LIZ

DEAR LIZ: The "difference of opinion" that seems to give you cause for argument is that you don't care for friends and your husband does. The reason the neighborhood bar is so popular is that people need people. I say moderation is essential to the enjoyment of everything, but the man who drinks alone could be a bigger problem than the one who seeks companionship.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: The problem that concerns me right now is the bugging some of my buddies are giving me because of your being my "pin up girl." Yes, that is right, Abby, I cut your picture out of the STARS AND STRIPES, which all the guys here in South Viet Nam get, and I pinned your picture up on my wall locker.

I don't care what the guys think. Every guy has himself a pin up girl he likes to dream about, and mine is YOU. The thing that bugs me the most is that people say that the picture isn't really you, Abby. They say the newspapers get a picture of a beautiful girl and they say it's you.

So, please, do me a favor and send me a picture of yourself. It doesn't have to be in a bathing suit like all the other guys have in their lockers. Just a plain picture of your face so I can really show you off.

YOUR SECRET ADMIRER

DEAR ADMIRER: Your letter made my day. I like secret admirers, but you're TOO secret for your own good. Please send me your name and address and I'll send you my picture.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I haven't had a well day in 3 years. First I had trouble with my back and was in traction for 5 weeks. Then I got a sinus infection which gave me a headache I couldn't shake for a month. Next I got a bad case of the shingles which hung on for nearly 3 months.

All of a sudden my hearing went bad and my doctor discovered I had high blood pressure and diabetes.

I was telling my neighbor about this and she says I should throw away all my pills, think positive, and stay with wheat germ and yogurt, and in 30 days I'll be bowling. (She is 58, looks like 40, bowls 3 night a week. I'm 55, and look like 90.) Should I listen to my neighbor? I'm willing to try anything.

A SICK WOMAN

DEAR SICK: I'm all for "positive thinking," but the best place to get medical advice is from your doctor.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: There is a cheap little flirt who is a freshman at school and she is the hit and run type. She likes to go after a boy who is going with another girl just to see if she can get him. After she breaks them up, she drops the boy and finds somebody else to break up.

This girl is now after my boyfriend. Should I bust her one in the mouth?

LAURIE

DEAR LAURIE: Don't bust anyone in the mouth. If a cheap little flirt can break up your romance, it's a break for you. Let her have him.

Special Effects Aid 'Spoon River'

By DANA THOMPSON

The auditorium darkened, the audience became tensely silent as they waited for the curtains to open on the first performance of "Spoon River Anthology," the special homecoming production by the high school drama department.

The scene which unfolded last night on the SHS stage was a soft one of blue light, silhouetting trees, hanging limbs, a bridge, a fence. Four of the silhouetted figures began moving forward. They were the singers, introducing the action of the play with the song of "Spoon River —" a lulling folk song which set the tempo for the entrance of players, who added to the picture of silhouettes.

As the singers moved forward, they were lighted in their progression, finishing their tune on the thrust stage — a new device used this year by Jerry Worsham, drama coach, in order to bring the players closer to the audience. A blackout followed the conclusion of the introducing melody, and then the action started.

The special stage construction proved to be one of the greatest assets to the play. Instead of being set back and removed from the audience, the actors became vivid, living characters. Sometimes they came to the very front and center, into a circle of light to speak their message. Other times they appeared at one side. The regular stage became the scene for more special effects to provide background for what was taking place on the thrust stage.

The action was continuous, a series of soliloquies and songs without pause and without monotony. The changing moods, the special lighting effects, the variety of characters portrayed, the depth of thought behind the play — all served to convey the message it contained.

Edgar Lee Masters got his inspiration for the composition of the poems in Spoon River Anthology from a graveyard visit to a small Illinois town. In play form, the lesson he teaches comes to life in the believable portrayal of each of the characters. Otis Archie speaks for the Negro. He tells of the jokes and pranks the white men made him victim of and scorns their blindness. The white light fades, a red glow covers the stage and Brad Maule's voice, singing a plea for freedom, rings from behind a vine covered trellis. Silhouettes reaching from the heavens against the backdrop create the impression of a race crying for freedom from the slavery of prejudice.

This is just one example of how the special effects are used to convey a deeper shade of expression. Such innovations of technique appear throughout the play.

And a lot of special effects are needed to completely give life and meaning to the message of the play. The characters are dead people come to life because they have something to say — a bit of inspiration to pass on.

What is said does not appear in simple form in the script alone, although such direct passages as Patty Smyth's interpretation of an old woman who has experienced the full meaning of life appear. The old woman says, "what is this I hear of anger and discontent? Degenerate sons and daughters, life is too strong for you . . . it takes life to love life. . ." Certainly this voices one of the main ideas behind Edgar Lee Masters writing — that we must not miss out on life, that it can be a beautiful thing if we let. But much of the theme is not stated this directly. A lot of Symbolism lies beneath this multitude of faces. Spoon River, the town itself, is life itself. A small town, ironically, represents the whole of life. Death, also ironically shows the truth of life.

The actors in "Spoon River" realized the significance of their roles and what they said, as exemplified by Brad Maule's composition of a song, which was used as a finale. He wrote of the people who had lived in Spoon River. "Some had great things like this make a small town endure. . . If small towns are this way, then cities must be tenfold . . of happiness and sorrow and growing old."

The play has been in preparation for five weeks . . . a length of time necessary to achieve the coordination which existed between the moods and lighting effects, the characters and their costumes, the over-all scenery and the content. Much work was necessary to make the smooth transitions from one part to another. As a result, the play stands as a meaningful whole, unified by its message.

The singers are Brad Maule, Gary Terrell, Mina Emerson, Anthony Brown and Dennis Williamson. Brad, Gary and Dennis also had speaking roles. Also in Spoon River as actors were: Gingy Dulaney, Patty Smyth, LaVerne Nix, Ben Gafford, Kathie Martin, Neal Starnes, Joe Wilson, Mike Levens Debbie Hall, Marsha Ballard, Otis Archie, Pam Black, Katherine Feather and Jamie Boren.

Final performance will be on the SHS stage at 8 Saturday evening.

the spacecraft guidance and navigation system. Schirra took control manually the last 30 seconds to demonstrate the ability of the pilot to take over in case the automatic system failed.

He reported that momentarily during the firing, the astronauts were jolted out of their weightless world and that the gravity reading in the cabin was 1 G—equal to the force of gravity at ground level.

The engine was the most powerful ever fired on a manned space ship. It had been ignited four times earlier on the Apollo 7 mission, with a maximum burn of 15 seconds. Thus, the amount of energy produced was a record.

The 68-second firing today burned two tons of fuel, reducing the weight of the spaceship from about 29,000 to 25,000 pounds.

The burst of energy from the 2,500-pound thrust engine temporarily added 1,120 miles an hour to the speed of the vehicle. Had the astronauts fired only their east-west line of flight, they would have shot several thousand miles into space.

To prevent this, Schirra pointed the craft directly south and fired the engine out-of-plane—at right angles to the normal flight path. A great amount of energy is required to shift from one plane to another in space, so the resulting change in orbital path was minimal.

The high point of the orbital path was raised from 174 to about 277 miles. The low point of 103 miles was raised less than a mile.

The spaceship wound up about 70 miles south of its original path. Schirra then turned it back to its line of flight and Apollo 7 assumed its normal orbital speed of about 17,500 miles an hour. The increase in speed imparted by the engine had been absorbed by the out-of-plane maneuver.

Space Center Is Booming Again

By MIKE COCHARN
Associated Press Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—"This hotel," the bartender was saying, "has turned into something unbelievable. Parties—my god, the parties.

"You wouldn't believe it. You name it, it's happened here this week."

"There's kinda that glow again of the space age," a publicity man explained. "Really, it was quite dreary for a while."

"We're swinging again," said Princess Torcia, 25, a topless waitress-dancer. "You have a lot of expense accounts back, a lot of the money people."

What they're saying is that happy days are here again, thanks to the overwhelming success, at least to this point, of the three-man Apollo 7 flight.

After shattering tragedy and a 20-month lull, the American space program again is on the move. And nowhere could it be more evident than in this throbbing Texas space capital.

It is reflected in a variety of ways.

The four major hotels—three of which changed hands after the Apollo fire disaster—are packed with reporters and industrial representatives. Restaurant business is booming. Bars are jammed nightly. Office buildings are filled.

Go-go dancers are in. The prophets of doom are out. Topless waitresses are in. Silence is out. Parties are in. Congress is out.

Congress, however, can get back in, should it decide to restore to the space budget the money it slashed off in recent months.

"Space officials think if this flight goes well, Congress will loosen up a bit," aerospace writers report.

"Everybody is enthusiastic and optimistic and happy again," said the publicity man, H. R. Williams.

"It's been a good shot. That's the only reason it's been so much fun," said the bartender, Jeff Taylor, a Chicago native.

Actually, the prosperity of the moment is not necessarily fleeting. This space community has become a boom town of sorts.

Land in Nassau Bay, in the heart of the space community, sold several years ago for $200 an acre. The going rate now is $5,300 for lots 120 by 60 feet.

There's a three-month waiting list for home buyers.

Apartment houses, churches, restaurants are going up. A shopping center is approaching capacity. An industrial district is in the works nearby.

"All these people are betting on the come," explained one resident, using a crapshooter's term for opportunity.

Some 4,700 government and civil service workers are employed already at the Manned Spacecraft Center that sprawls adjacent to a highway called NASA 1.

Thousands more hold space-related industrial jobs around the $250 million center, which is halfway between downtown Houston and the coastal resort city of Galveston.

It's a far cry from a few years back when a magnificent herd of cattle roamed what then was the 1776 Ranch.

Cows are out, Go-go girls are in.

Ministers' Bodies Found

Bodies of two Assembly of God ministers lost in a plane crash in Liberia have been found, it was learned here late yesterday.

Mrs. Allen Owens of Snyder said she was informed Thursday that the body of her brother-in-law, the Rev. James Edward Parsons, had been found. Earlier searchers had found the body of the Rev. B. J. Manley. Body of the pilot of their plane also was found.

First word of the crash was received from Liberia on Oct. 10. The two ministers had gone there to visit Assembly of God mission stations. Rev. Parsons was pastor of the Bascom Assembly of God Church, and Rev. Manley was pastor of First Assembly of God Church at Whitehouse.

Broiled Fish With Nectarines

2 or 3 fresh nectarines
4 (1¼ pounds) thin skinless fish fillets (such as sole)
¼ cup butter
1½ teaspoons mixed dried salad herbs
½ teaspoon dried basil
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup minced parsley, if desired

Thinly slice nectarines (do not peel) to make 1½ cups. Place fillets in bottom of buttered broiler pan (without rack). In a small saucepan melt butter; stir in salad herbs, basil and salt. Spread fillets with a little of the butter mixture; broil 2 to 3 inches from high heat for 4 to 5 minutes, or until fish flakes easily and is opaque throughout when tested with a fork. Overlap nectarine slices on fillets; carefully spread with remaining butter sauce. Place under broiler again just long enough to heat nectarines — a minute or so. If desired, sprinkle with parsley. Use 2 wide spatulas or pancake turners to remove nectarine - laden fillets intact. Makes 4 servings.

Pack And Mail Cookies

If you are going to send cookies overseas, you may want to use this advice:

Use empty metal coffee or shortening cans that come with plastic lids, or metal boxes that are available in variety or housewares stores. Sturdy plastic containers are a satisfactory choice if the cookies are being sent only a short distance. For a bright holiday look, it's fun to cover the container with gaily colored wallpaper of self-adhesive plastic.

To pack, wrap cookies in pairs, flat sides together, in pieces of foil long enough to allow a generous overlap, seal each with cellophane tape. Cushion the bottom of the container with a layer of crumpled foil and arrange the cookies on top, packing them in as tightly as possible. Stuff any holes between with more foil to keep the cookies from bouncing about. Affix the lid and seal with tape.

To wrap, cover the container with a layer of corrugated cardboard, then wrap in a double layer of brown paper. Tie securely with twine or heavy string and affix and address label (typed or printed) on one side only.

Scented Dust Cloths

Autumn brings back-to-school fashions, color-coated leaves—and fall housecleaning. The job's made easier with disposable cleaning aids, used and tossed away. Lemon-scented dusting cloths, marvelous metal polishers and lint-free window cleaners form a trio of indispensable disposables, which lighten the housework load during busy fall days.

Chili Goes In Casserole

Feel like you just can't think of another casserole? Look to your canned goods shelf of convenience foods for two cans of chili con carne.

These can be dressed up with chopped green pepper, popped into a casserole with a corn bread toping and baked for a quick and easy main dish, says Reba Staggs, home economist with the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

When making the corn bread, it's important not to over heat so it stays tender.

Chili Deluxe

2 cans (15 ounces each) chili con carne
¼ cup finely chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon baking powder
1¼ cups corn meal
1 egg, beaten
2-3 cup milk
2 tablespoons lard, melted

Mix chili con carne and green pepper. Place in 8x8 inch cake pan. Place in oven (400 degrees) to heat for 5 minutes. Sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Stir in corn meal. Add egg, milk and melted lard, stirring only until dry ingredients are moistened. Do not over beat. Cover meat mixture with batter and bake in a hot oven 400 degrees, 15 to 20 minutes or until browned. 6 servings.

Cooler weather is just the right temperature for hot, hearty stew.

"But stew takes time," says a homemaker, "and I have to shop, sew, do the laundry, fix sandwiches for lunch, snacks for after school, attend PTA meetings, unpire all the hassles the family gets into and get to church on Sundays."

What about a quick-fix stew for the busiest of those days? Cook a package of frozen green beans while you open two of the one and one-half pound cans of beef stew, pop in a casserole and top with ready-made biscuits, advises Reba Staggs, meat authority with the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

It's a great help to a homemaker to have cans of beef stew in the kitchen cabinet. These can be varied with different kinds of frozen or canned vegetables as well as topping.

Want it fancy? Add mushrooms to canned beef stew and tube hot, seasoned mashed potatoes, fluted or in rosette fashion, atop the stew.

Speedy Beef Stew

2 cans (1 pound 8 ounces each) beef stew
1 package (9 ounces) frozen green beans
1 package (8 ounces) refrigerator biscuits
Sliced stuffed olives

Cook green beans according to package directions. Drain and combine with stew. Place mixture in a 2-crust baking dish. Arrange biscuits on top. Bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes, or until biscuits are done. Garnish biscuits with sliced stuffed olives. 6 servings.

Glazed Squash

2 medium-sized acorn squash
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
2 tablespoons chopped cocktail peanuts
½ teaspoon ground cinnamon

Wash squash and halve lengthwise. With a sturdy teaspoon, remove seeds and stringy portion. Sprinkle cut surfaces with salt. Arrange, cut sides down, in a shallow greased baking dish. Bake in preheated 400-degree oven for 30 minutes. Mix together the butter, brown sugar, peanuts and cinnamon. Turn squash cut sides up; spread butter mixture in cavities and on cut surfaces of squash. Bake 15 minutes longer or until squash is tender. Makes 4 servings.

The "waal" that gave Wall street its name was built in 1653 to protect the Dutch inhabitants of Manhattan.

Blueberry Pie

Pastry for 9-inch pie
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup flour
4 cups cultivated fresh blueberries
2 tablespoons butter

Roll out half of pastry and fit into 9-inch glass pie plate; trim overhang. In a medium bowl stir together sugar and flour; add berries and mix gently; turn into pastry-lined plate; dot with butter. Roll out remaining pastry 1 inch larger than edge of pie plate; cut vents in it, place over berries. Fold edge of top pastry under edge of bottom pastry; flute edge. Bake on rack below center of preheated 450-degree oven for 40 minutes.

LABELED THE MAN TOY

Tractor Now Status Symbol

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Do you remember how dazzled the neighbors were when you rolled up to the house in your new chrome-shiney automobile, its 400 horses restrained but ready, its interior as sumptuous as an old-fashioned parlor?

Want to relive that thrill? Today you do it with a tractor, perhaps one of the 14 horsepower jobs with attached lawn mower and snow thrower, electric starting, four speeds, solid state radio, chrome hubcaps . . .

In suburbia, two cars fail today to have the impact of just one big new car a few years ago. In 1961 17 per cent of American families owned two cars; now its 32 per cent, too high for snobbery.

The tractor instead is the thing to rouse the envy of your neighbors, to use up that leisure time constructively and, incidentally, to get the work done.

"We call it the man toy," said a spokesman for International Harvester, one of the biggest of the nearly 50 companies that make lawn tractors of one size or another. "Many buyers don't need them; they could get by with something smaller."

Studying the warranty tags that come back to the factory, the IH man finds the average purchaser is a $12,000-a-year man owning ½ acre or more. But some also are two-home owners, perhaps with a vacation home in the country.

Another marketing man, from Deere & Co., claims his outfit brought out its biggest lawn tractor at 14 h.p. as something for motels and institutions. "But we can't stop homeowners from buying them," he said.

Not that any manufacturer would try to stop them. They couldn't. Demand goes up each year, and something like 300,000 might be sold in 1968. Lawns someday might be the most mechanized real estate in America, aside from federal highways.

One manufacturer estimates that nearly three million riding mowers and yard tractors now cruise suburban lawns. Make that figure 25 million if you count the old machines, the low prestige types, the power mowers you must walk behind.

And just as on the highway, there's a real horsepower battle out on the lawn. For a while the industry seemed to stall at a top range of 14 h.p. Then this month one manufacturer announced a 15 h.p. job.

Will others now be content with their 14 horses? Likely not, for each year, marketing studies show, people trade up to bigger models.

Junior Editors Quiz on UNICORNS

QUESTION: Did unicorns ever exist?

* * * *

ANSWER: In Arctic seas, there is a kind of whale, the narwhal, which carries a slender, ivory horn projecting from the left side of his head. Explorers from ancient civilizations may have seen narwhals, or perhaps obtained their horns in trade. Ancient artists were impressed with the idea of an animal with one horn on his head, instead of the two found on cattle and deer. One of them must have experimented with the idea of putting the long narwhal horn on the head of a white horse. The result was so stirring and beautiful that unicorns, or one horns, became widely used in ancient and medieval art, sometimes as symbols of fierceness, sometimes of purity. Knights often used unicorns on their shields as heraldic devices. These, of course, were purely imaginary and mythical creatures. No real unicorn ever existed. But unicorns still stir the feelings of artists, as our picture shows. Ancient unicorns often had beards and cloven hoofs, but the artist of our picture has painted his unicorn in the way he liked it the best.

A Woman Comments On Football

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — I admit I still don't understand all the finer points of the game, but as a captive audience for televised football every weekend I am nevertheless in a position to offer my observations, conclusions and suggestions.

I now feel qualified not only to comment on gridiron activity as presently conducted, but also to give advice on how its quality and safety can be improved and, especially, how to speed it up. Although playing time is supposed to be only one hour, I have never seen a game completed in less than two.

First of all, it's asking too much for all those boys to play with just one ball. Giving each side its own would cut down considerably on all the dangerous pushing and shoving that goes on when everybody fights for the only available ball.

Then, the players themselves should come to a firm decision about which way they want to go, instead of chasing halfway down the field and then suddenly deciding they prefer to move in the opposite direction, after all.

They should also quit changing their minds about whether they even want to play, rather than to keep running back and forth from the sidelines onto the field every few minutes.

One of the most obvious practices slowing down the game is their habit of doing so many things twice. They run, pass or kick—and then they do exactly the same thing again, only this time very, very slowly. No wonder a 15-minute quarter lasts half an hour

There's another contributing factor. The stadium clocks leave a lot to be desired. They're always stopping, and the participants have to hang around waiting till they get them started again.

The players could speed the action a good deal if they'd hold the jokes until later instead of gathering their pals together in a tight little knot to tell them the latest, right in the midst of the game.

Though my husband is always too intent on watching the action to further my education in the esoteric realm of pigskin parlance, I have on my own absorbed the idea that a screen pass is a pass viewed on the television screen, an offside is the team that' having an off day, two quarterbacks make a halfback and two halfbacks equal one fullback, and a 220-pound safety man doesn't sound very safe to me.

My final bit of free counsel to those who would make football a better game is, send in those men in striped shirts who are always hanging around the field. They are the fastest runners of all.

Jack Brown Sentenced

EL PASO (AP) — A former Texas Tech student wept Thursday when a jury sentenced him to 13 years in prison for killing his parents.

Dolphus Jack Brown, 26, was convicted in the bludgeon deaths of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. "Buzz" Brown at their Shallowater home about 18 months ago.

Shallowater is near Lubbock. The case was transferred here on a change of venue.

The jury deliberated seven hours Wednesday before returning the guilty verdict and returned Thursday to decide the penalty. Prosecutors had not asked for the death penalty.

Defense counsel filed notice of appeal.

Dist. Atty. Alton Griffin of Lubbock contended that Brown killed his parents because of a desperate need of money.

The defense told the jury that the state's circumstantial evidence did not justify a conviction.

Billy Sherill Named Top Music Writer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Billy Sherill, who has written such hits as "Almost Persuaded" and "My Elusive Dreams," has been named top country music writer of the year by Broadcast Music, Inc.

Sherill was awarded five BMI certificates of achievement in ceremonies Thursday night which marked the first round of the festivities of the annual Country Music Convention.

Young Kennedy Is In Hospital

BOSTON (AP) — Joseph P. Kennedy III, oldest son of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, has been a patient at New England Baptist Hospital since Tuesday, it was disclosed Thursday night.

The nature of his ailment was not revealed.

The 15-year-old Kennedy broke both legs in skiing accidents over the past two years. Last June he suffered a minor gash in the head at Seville, Spain, while trying a matador's role with a bull calf.

Mustangs Invade Tiger Lair

Can David slay Goliath? That question will be answered tonight in Tiger Stadium when the powerful Sweetwater Mustangs seek to nail another spike for their title train at the expense of the Snyder Tigers. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Against any other foe with the Ponies' credentials, the question would simply be by how big a margin? But, tonight is Homecoming night and anything can happen when Snyder and Sweetwater tangle on a gridiron. Past records and comparative scores usually go out the window when these two teams tangle. As often as not the underdog wins.

This fact and this fact alone is what gives most Bengal boosters hope tonight. For it is an undeniable fact that the visiting charges of Coach Joe Boyd are as powerful as any previous team ever to come out of old Sweetwater town.

The Big Red is 4-0-1 for the campaign, compared with Snyder's 1-3 mark. The Ponies have run up 153 points while holding the opposition to only 19 while Snyder holds a slim 99-85 scoring edge over its foes.

Both teams have met three common foes. The Tigers knocked off Lake View 48-0 while Sweetwater waxed the Chiefs 60-0. Dunbar blanked Snyder 21-0, yet was lucky to gain a 6-6 tie with Sweetwater. Slaton edged the Bengals 21-10. Sweetwater flailed the same team 42-0.

At the very least, past history indicates the Mustangs are as strong as Dunbar and they may be the best team the Tigers have met this season.

The Ponies hold a 13-8 edge in this storied rivalry that dates back to 1925. Not since 1963 — the last time they won the crown — have the Bengals been able to beat Sweetwater, although the 1965 team gained a stunning 0-0 tie.

The Pony roster includes eight offensive and six defensive regulars from a team that missed the district championship last year by one game. Garry Smith, a 195-pound sophomore linebacker, is the only underclassman to win a starting berth on defense for the visitors. The only non-seniors in the offensive alignment are right guard Mike Sample, a 180-pound junior, and center Larry Smith, a 200-pound soph.

Weight seldom is a factor in football anymore where speed is about equal. Yet the Ponies do have more beef with an offensive team average of 177.6, compared with 163.2 for Snyder. The Pony line averages 179.8, compared with 167.5 and the backfield holds a 173.7 to 155.7 advantage. Defensively, Sweetwater averages 173.5 pounds per man, compared to 168.5 per man for Snyder.

Sweetwater has sort of a "seven yards and a cloud of dust" offense with big quarterback (190) Aubrey McCain and fullback Benji Kemp (175) doing most of the ground work. McCain is probably the best running quarterback in the district while Kemp may be the hardest - running fullback. David Redwine (160), the tailback, knows how to hurt a team on tailback slants from the I formation. Wingback Frank Castro (170) can catch the sprintout pass. He has speed.

The ponies don't pass much, as hard tonight as they did last season against Big Spring, then they have a chance to derail the title express. Otherwise, don't be surprised if the visitors take another triumph by about a 35-7 count. It's too late for Custer against the Indians. The Tigers still have a chance — but the odds are almost the same.

That ain't all Snyder Coach Wayne Tyrone and his staff have to worry about. Injuries have taken out some key personnel. To counteract this, Steve Dillaha, a 215-pound sophomore tackle, has been moved up to take over an offensive berth.

Joe Greer, 162-pound senior, was moved to tackle last week and he will be back at the new position tonight. Eddie Ray McClain, 166-pound junior, will be used solely on defense since he still has an ankle ailment.

At first, it was thought David McGinnis, 180-pound senior fullback and defensive cornerback, would be out for the year with a knee injury. The latest word, however, is that he will probably be able to play some on defense.

Moving back to fullback will be Randy Levens, a talented 156-pound junior, who has proven he can handle any running position in the backfield. Taking over at first-string halfback is Efrain Cervantez, 145-pound senior, who has scored three touchdowns as a substitute.

The Tiger attack has good balance. The offensive line, led by Delbert Hirst, a lightweight junior guard who hits like a heavy senior, can move 'em out. Quarterback Lee McNair, 170-pound junior, is probably as accurate as any other thrower in the league.

Snyder's pro type offense includes flanker back Willis Harrison, a 152-pound junior speedster, who, combined with McNair, can keep any defense honest.

What the big worry around the Bengal lair is and has been all season is the defense. There's just not enough heft and experience, although the lads have tried hard and are improving.

If the defense can slow the Ponies, then the offense may be able to outscore them. That is, if the Tigers have a chance at all. They certainly have the spirit. A surprise pep rally at the high school Tuesday morning let the boys know their efforts still are appreciated. And another pep rally was to be held this afternoon.

Where there is a will there is a way, and if the Tgiers try

Kittens Sock Ponies Again, By 14-7 Count

SWEETWATER — It took Snyder's "B" team awhile to fathom the new Sweetwater defense, but after some adjustments at halftime the Kittens overcame a 7-0 deficit Thursday night to sock the Ponies 14-7. It was the second loss the Kittens have handed Sweetwater on a gridiron this season.

The hosts took a 7-0 lead in the second period on a 65-yard pass and run play and a kick from placement that found the mark.

Bobby Thompson unreeled a 55-yard run for Snyder in the third period, but he was halted on a run for extra points as the hosts still led, 7-6.

James Norred blocked a Pony punt in the fourth quarter and Snyder took over at the Sweetwater 33. After two first downs, the Kittens had set up first and goal from the nine. Bid Cooper took the pigskin into the end zone on a quarterback sneak from that point. Then he passed to Scott Morgan for extra points as the Kittens took their final margin, 14-7.

Thomspon was the leading ball carrier for Snyder, gaining 142 yards on 27 runs, Larry Wall netted 47 paces on 13 efforts and Bid Cooper collected 10 yards on six trys.

The defensive unit did a tremendous job keeping Sweetwater in check during the last half. Front line troops Elton Cates, Melvin Edwards, Barry Welsh, Tony Breedlove and Jerry Beard looked good.

The JV hosts San Angelo's sophs at 7:30 p.m. Saturday week.

Jack Shares Vegas Lead

LAS VEGAS, Nev (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and two less renowned rivial led the way into the second round of the $100,000 Sahara Invitational golf tournament today.

The winner the last two years and in 1963, Nicklaus, along with long Bill Collins and Dale Douglass, all shot first round scores of 34-33—67.

Tied at 68 were Julius Boros, Kermit Zarley and Joe Porter.

Included in the 70 or better class was National Open champion Lee Trevino, whose 70 deadlocked him with such pros as Chi Chi Rodriguez and R. H. Sikes.

George Archer, one of the top five money winners on the tour, was in the 69 group, while the leading money winner of the year, Billy Casper, had to settle for 71.

Fish Sink Cubs

WACO (AP) — John Gardner caught touchdown bombs of 31 and 58 yards Thursday night to give the Texas Aggies Fish a 24-0 Southwest Conference freshman football victory over Baylor Cubs.

Mike Bunger fired the first touchdown pass and Joe King connected on the second. Steve Burks scored the other touchdown on a two-yard run. Richard Baldeschwiler kicked a 32-yard field goal to end the scoring.

THE TIGERS, 1942 EDITION—Here are the 1942 Snyder Tigers who compiled a 4-4 record on the gridiron. The same team played four games the next year, in the midst of World War II, and went undefeated, but lost their coach, Frank Weaver, to the U. S. Navy. Bobby Hicks (No. 70) took over as player-coach for the abbreviated season. Weaver is now principal of East Elementary School. From left, top row, are Raymond Keller, W. T. Thompson, Howard Crenshaw, Billy Bob McMullan, Bobby Hicks, Eddie Richardson and Bill Smith. Bottom row, from left, Doug McGlaun, Owen Dorman, Jack Blanchard, Tommy Majors, Forrest Bruton, Jimmy Randals and Kenneth Snyder. Several of the 1942 Tigers still live here and others are likely to be on hand for SHS Homecoming this weekend.

Devils Move Ball, But Lose 8-36

BIG SPRING — Travis 8th grade moved the ball well here Thursday night, but the Blue Devils' defense made some critical mistakes as host Goliad was able to take a 36-8 gridiron decision.

The Snyder team racked up 299 yards total offense, completing 9 of 13 passes for 148 yards, but penalties and fumbles in key situations proved their undoing.

It didn't take Big Spring long to get the show on the road as Ricky Steen took the opening kickoff back 85 yards for a touchdown. A passing attempt for two points was incomplete.

Later in the first period, Alan Davis shook loose on a 38 yard TD for Goliad following a fumble recovery. Steen's run for bonus points boosted the margin to 14-0.

The hosts took a 20-0 lead in the second period when Davis passed three - yards into the end zone to Triebe. The same combo failed to click on the conversion point try.

Just before halftime, the young Blue Devils got on the scoreboard as Mike Boles and William Clayton teamed up on a pass-run play that spanned 76 yards. Boles hit Scotty Sullivan on a pass for the extra points.

Steen unreeled an 80 yard runback of a punt for Goliad in the third period, then passed to Nat Poss for extra points as Goliad took a 28-8 lead. In the fourth period, the hosts boosted the score to 36-8 as Mike Treadaway went three yards over left tackle to cap a 23-yard drive set up by a fumble recovery. Steen passed to Poss for the extra points.

Travis had a 75-yard touchdown play called back on an illegal use of hands penalty. Boles had passed to Sullivan. The Blue Devils also were hurt on offense by a fumble at the seven and a penalty on the three.

Travis ran 60 plays, compared to 32 for Big Spring. The Snyder boys go to Lamesa next Thursday.

U.S. Gold Glitters

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Russians are on the move and the racially-troubled Americans are officially—but perhaps temporarily—embarrassed in these harassed, politically tainted 19th Olympic Games.

Russia picked up 10 medals Thursday, two of them gold, and moved past the United States in total medals 19-17. The Americans still lead in gold medals, 9-5, including a 1-2 finish in the 110-meter hurdles and record-breaking victories by two swimming relay teams.

Off the playing fields and in the conference rooms, the United States received a slap on the wrist from the International Olympic Committee over the conduct of black athletes Tommie Smith and John Carlos.

Smith and Carlos, 1-3 finishers in the 200 meters Wednesday, refused to look at the American flag after receiving their medals and raised black-gloved, clinched fists in protest of the racial question in the United States.

The IOC, through President Avery Brundage, released a statement saying Smith and Carlos violated the Olympics no-politics principle "by using the occasion to advertise domestic political views."

"I am embarrassed," acting USOC Director Everett Barnes told a newsman. "All of us are embarrassed. It makes our country look like the devil."

There was no such incident Thursday, when Willie Davenport of Warren, Ohio, and Ervin Hall of Philadelphia swept a 1-2 finish in the 110-meter hurdles, Davenport winning in 13.3, matching the Olympic record.

Both Negroes stood at attention during the victory ceremony, and refused to discuss the racial question.

The American victories in the two swimming relays, the women's 400-meter medley and the men's 400-meter freestyle, was expected but completely unxpected was a bronze medal from Larry Young of San Pedro, Calif.

It was the first medal the United States had ever won in Olympic walking competition. Young was near exhaustion when he came in more than 10 minutes after the winner, Christoph Hohne of East Germany, who was timed in four hours, 20:13.6.

Antel Kiss of Hungary was second and Young was third in 4:31:55.4.

The U.S. men's 400-meter freestyle relay team broke all the records, world and Olympic, with a 3:31.7 clocking.

The foursome of Zac Zorn of Buena Park, Calif., Steve Rerych of Paterson, N.J., Mark Spitz of Santa Clara, Calif., and Ken Walsh of Ponte Verda, Calif., beat the world record of 3:32.5.

Russia was second, four meters back, in 3:34.2.

The U.S. girls broke the listed world and olympic records in the medley.

The team, made up of Kaye Hall, 17-year-old from Tacoma, Wash.; Catie Ball, 17, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Ellie Daniels, 18 of Elkins Park, Pa., and Sue Redersen 15, of Sacramento, Calif., was timed in 4:28.3. The same quartet, however, has a pending world mark of 4:28.1.

Brahmas Trounce Texans, 24 To 0

The big, tough Big Spring Brahmas trounced Lamar 9th grade 24-0 here Thursday night on the Junior High field, taking advantage of several Texan punting attempts that backfired.

Fullback David Stanley hurt the Texans with his slants in the first half, and halfback Billy Wood did the same thing with his wide stuff. In the second half, they moved the ball well inside and out.

Still, the biggest damage was done by the Texans themselves.

The first Brahma score came with about 2:50 left in the first half following a blocked punt by Mendoza at the Lamar 15. Stanley shot over right guard and made it all the way to the goal on the first play. He also added the extra points.

Lamar fought back with determination but just didn't have enough time to score. The Texans almost broke all the way on a right end around on an old statue of liberty play. David Wittie did a nice job of broken field running just before the gun.

That first half was fought on about equal terms with the big mistake by the Texans accounting for the difference. Each team had a long drive in the first quarter with Stanley and Wood doing the damage for the visitors. David Wittie made a nice reception of a Travis Bunch pass for Lamar.

Another Texan punt misfired in the third period, and the Brahamas took over on the Lamar 17. Stanley swept left end to the five, then cracked left guard for the TD with 1:28 showing on the cock. He tried right guard for the bonus points as the count soared to 16-0.

Following a fumble recovery at midfield in the fourth period, Jones tucked in a long pass and made it to the Texan 24. The Brahmas had the momentum to drive in with Stanley getting the TD on a 12 yard sweep around right end. He added the extra points on a plunge over the center.

The Brahmas also took over on the Lamar 31 with 1:24 remaining when another punting attempt went awry, but were halted by the clock.

John Tue tackled Jones behind the line on a fourth down play to halt a long Big Spring drive at the seven in the second period. There were other bright spots for the Texans. Mike Line, Wittie, Bunch and Bostick all turned in some nice gainers. Lamar went down, but not without a struggle. They have several boys who like to hit.

Runnels Thrashes Lamar 8th, 20-6

Runnels 8th grade of Big Spring spotted Lamar's Texans an early lead, then took command just before the first half ended and added touchdowns in each of the final two periods to claim a 20-6 gridiron decision here last night.

Lamar benefitted from a penalty in the first quarter to take over at the Runnels 20 following a punt. Then David Tyrone and Hessler churned out yardage to the one. Hoyle carried it over with 5:16 left as the Texans went ahead 6-0. Tyrone attempted a sweep around right end for the extra points, but he was stopped short of the goal.

The hosts muffed a good opportunity to go ahead in the second period after Tyrone ripped off a 45-yard gainer. He made two more carries to set up first and goal from the 10. Hessler added five, Hoyle made it to the two, then the Texans fumbled into the end zone and J. T. Smith recovered for Big Spring.

With 2:16 remaining before halftime, Ramirez caught a long pass for the visitors at the Lamar 40. He juggled the ball for the last 10 yards before getting a good grip on it. Smith then ripped off a 20 yard run to the 20 on a double reverse, and then he took a pass from Connally to the one yard line with 30 seconds left. Runnels had trouble getting into the end zone, but a couple of plays later Hobbs hit Connally slanting towards the southeast corner of the end zone with 16 seconds left. Hobbs then skirted left end for bonus points as the visitors went out front, 8-6.

The third period was a tragedy of errors with both teams trading fumbles. Runnels blocked a Lamar punt at midfield and drove in for its second TD which came on a 12-yard toss, Hobbs to Lovines with 55 seconds remaining in the period. Connally's pass for extra points was broken up by Hartsfied.

With 2:11 left in the game, Smith broke over right guard on a 13-yard jaunt for Big Spring's final TD, capping a 65 yard drive on the ground. Hobbs' pass was broken up by Ramos.

Lamar also moved again following a blocked kick by Cumbie and Holder and a long run by Tyrone, but the clock halted the Texans' efforts.

Johnson and Ramos were outstanding on defense for Lamar.

Travis 9th Hits Big Spring, 8-0

BIG SPRING — Travis 9th grade won a tight defensive battle, 8-0, here Thursday night over the Big Spring Toros.

The Blue Devils scored the first time they got the ball, driving 60 yards in the first period with George Alderete, Jackie Murray and Billy Clayton doing some good running. The TD resulted from a 15 yard run by Murray on a bootleg play. Snyder fumbled the snap on the try for extra points and had to settle for a 6-0 lead.

Led by Albert Hernandez, Mike Glasscock, Jerry Hardin, Gary Jor... and Billy Clayton, the Blue Devils halted the Toros in their tracks.

In the third period, Murray kicked out on the Toros' one. Donnie Durst barrelled through to block a punt. One of the Big Spring boys fell on it and Travis was credited with a 2-point safety.

The Toros broke a big play in the fourth period to the Snyder four. Clayton crashed through and dumped the quarterback at the 10 to lessen the threat, then Albert Hernandez intercepted a screen pass at the 15 to end it. Albert returned the ball all the way to the Big Spring one, but the Blue Devils fumbled and missed the opportunity to get another touchdown.

The defensive secondary did an outstanding job for the Blue Devils all night.

Travis was in control of the contest most of the way with the defense thwarting all of the Toros' drives.

First Baptist

Bob Harrington, the Bourbon Street Chaplain, will begin revival services at First Baptist Church Sunday morning at 11. Rev. Harrington is one of the outstanding evangelists today. He has a most unique approach, using wit and humor to get across his message.

Joe Jones, the music director, will direct the combined youth and adult choirs for the revival. This choir will rehearse at 5:30 Sunday and at 7 the following nights.

The Training Departments meet at 6 Sunday, followed by the evening service at 7. This will be Sunday School at Night observance and all departments will sit together in assigned pews. Following the service the Young Adult I Department will have a social in the newly-renovated basement and the Adult III Department will have a get-together at the home of Mrs. F. G. Sears.

Monday night at 6:30 the youth and guests will have "Tiger Burgers" in fellowship hall. Following this, Rev. Harrington will speak briefly. The evening service is at 7:30 Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights.

WMU and Sunbeams meet at 9:30 Tuesday morning. Wednesday supper is served at 6 followed by visitation and mission organizations at 6:30. The final service of the revival will be held at 7:30 Wednesday.

Game Warden Is On Program For Rotary

David Palmer, game warden, presented the program Thursday at the regular luncheon meeting of the Snyder Rotary Club.

He discussed quail hunting and showed color slides of quail. He was introduced by Bentley Baize, who was in charge of the program.

Guests at the meeting included Frank Taylor, Junior Rotarian Randy Levens, Club Sweetheart Barbara Carter, and Rotarian Clements of Abilene. Jay Rogers, president of the local club, presided.

Young Woman's Body Is Identified

DALLAS (AP) — Sheriff's deputies said the body of a young woman fished from the Trinity River was identified today by her parents as Barbara Ann Bryan, 15, of Dallas.

She was the red-haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Bryan and had been missing since Sunday, officers reported.

Investigators disclosed an autopsy finding earlier that the teen-ager had been strangled, presumably by a pillow case weapped around the neck.

Two fishermen came upon the body Thursday in an area near the University of Dallas.

Noted Evangelist Is Due Sunday At First Baptist

The Rev. Bob Harrington, the noted "Chaplain of Bourbon Street" in New Orleans, will begin a series of revival services at 11 a.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Snyder.

Rev. Harrington will speak again at 7 p.m. Sunday and then on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, revival services will begin at 7:30.

Rev. Harrington has been enthusiastically acclaimed by political, civic and religious leaders of New Orleans.

This man preaches the Gospel with love, wit and "good humor," declared New Orleans Mayor Victor H. Schiro.

"Twentieth century's most unusual preacher," said The Times Picayune.

"Here is a man with unusual gifts in evangelism, a burning passion for souls and one who is truly on fire for God," said Dr. J. D. Grey, pastor of the First Baptist Church in New Orleans.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings of the revival, groups from other churches, including those from Snyder and from out of town, will be seated together and will be recognized during the service.

Aerospace Strike Looms

DALLAS (AP) — Negotiations between union and LTV Aerospace officials continued late into the night Thursday as the strike date loomed just days away.

A spokesman for LTV, repeating what he had said earlier, commented, "It's been rough going." He said the early part of the day had been taken with proposals and counter proposals.

Negotiations were adjourned at 7 p.m. and were scheduled to start anew at 7 a.m. today.

He said a wide range of wage and fringe benefit issues were at stake, but he could not discuss them in detail.

Earlier in the week the union, local 848 of United Auto Workers, formally filed notice to strike, giving members legal authority to strike at 1:05 a.m. Monday.

The LTV spokesman said the strike would involve 15,000 workers at plants in Grand Prairie and Garland.

Businessmen See Growth In Output

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — A panel of industry economists predicts an increase of some $80 billion in national output next year, nearly matching 1968's giant strides despite the tax increase.

The forecast was prepared for the fall meeting of the Business Council, blue-ribbon organization of industry executives, by its advisory team of some 20 professional economists.

The growth estimate would lift the Gross National Product to a total of about $915 billion.

Sources said the forecast sees continued price inflation. Thus far in 1968 price increases have accounted for about half the GNP increases, which amounted to $21.2 billion in the first quarter, $21.7 billion in the second, and $17.9 billion in the third.

Chairman Arthur H. Okun of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, who is attending the closed business session as a guest, has insisted that the administration's anti-inflation package—surtax plus federal spending cutback—will be felt with some severity later this year and early next.

Church Conflict In Jacqueline's Plans

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Greek Orthodoxy, the church to which shipping tycoon Aristotle Onassis belongs, would approve his planned marriage to Jacqueline Kennedy. But it was highly uncertain that her church, Roman Catholicism, would do so.

That was the mixed ecclesiastical picture today in the wake of the announcement that they plan to wed.

He was divorced in 1960 after 14 years of marriage and two children. Roman Catholic rules do not allow divorce.

Only if Onassis' earlier marriage were found to be invalid, and thereby annulled, would the Catholic rules sanction his marriage to Mrs. Kennedy in that church.

Catholic authorities here saw slim chances for such a determination, and in Rome, a Vatican theologian said, "It would not be a valid marriage in the eyes of the church."

But the door was open to their marriage in the Greek Orthodox Church of North and South America, whose marital court in 1961 granted approval of Onassis' divorce.

"As far as we're concerned, a second marriage can be contracted in the Orthodox Church," said the Rev. Constantine Eliades, an Orthodox matrimonial expert here.

Orthodoxy in this country authorizes divorce on various grounds, such as adultery, prolonged desertion or imprisonment, or threats against the life of a partner in the marriage.

The basis cited in the Onassis case was not disclosed.

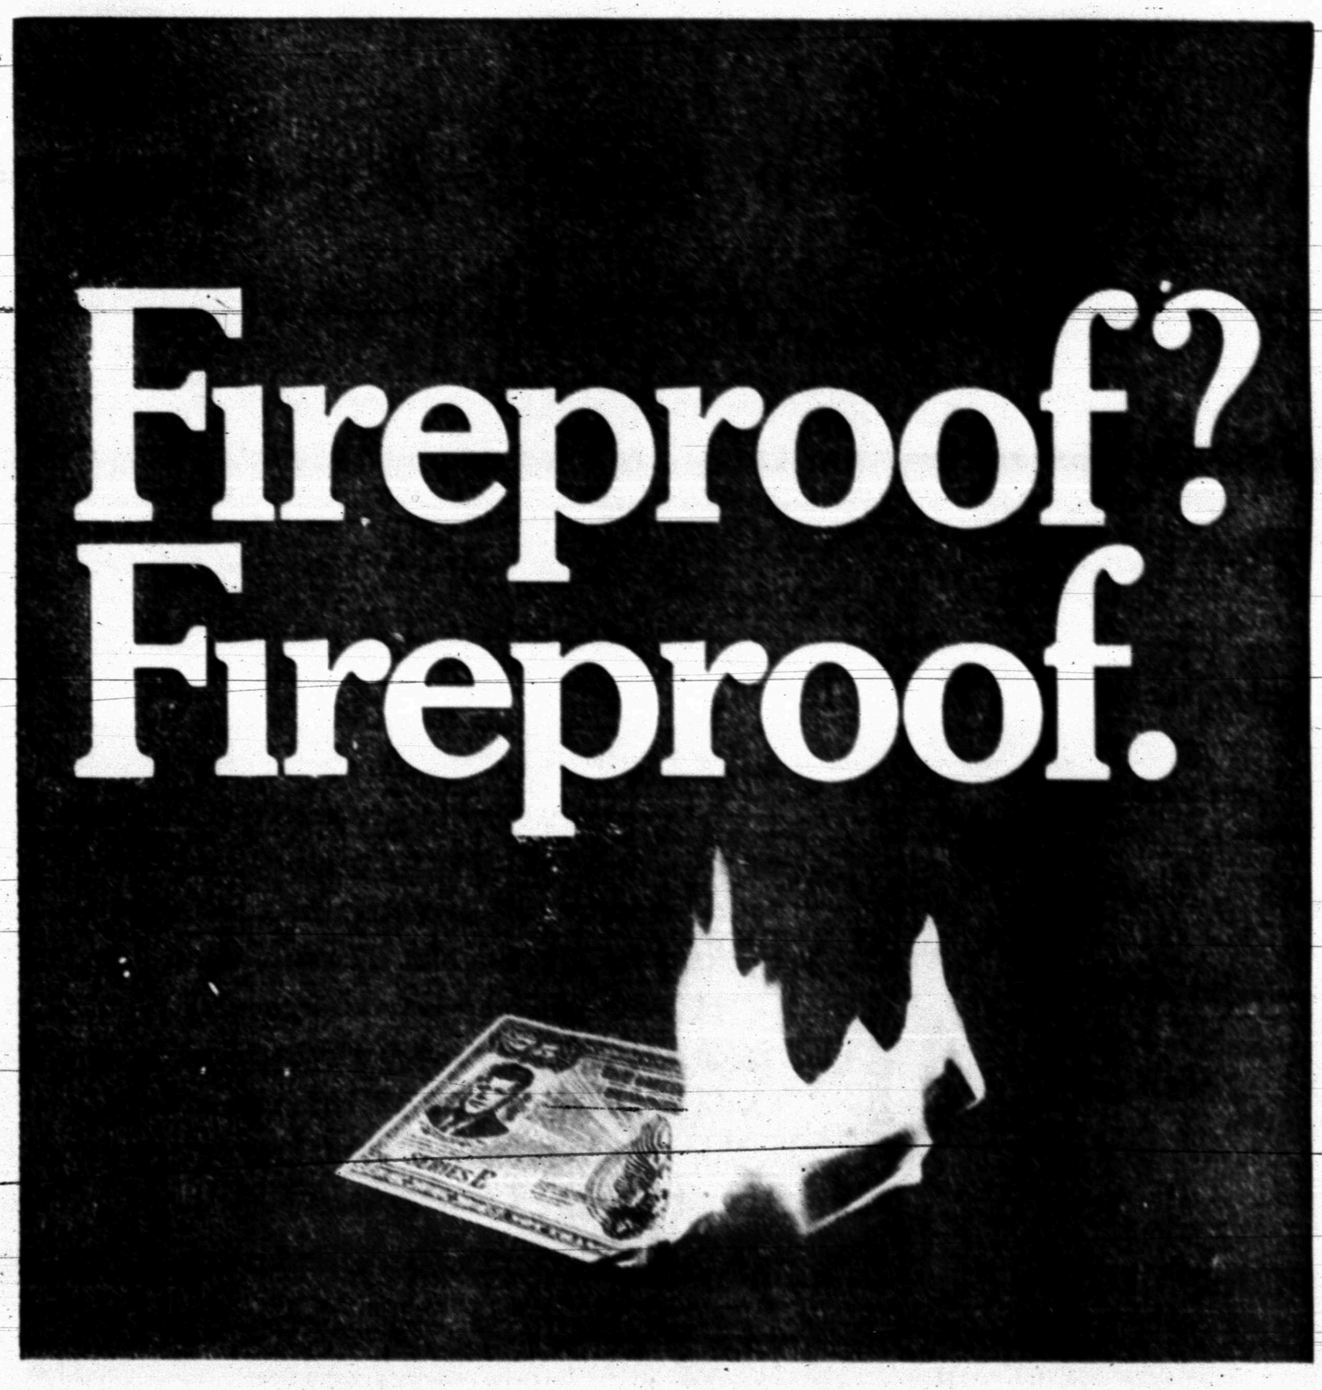
Roman Catholic rules allowing annulment are considerably more restrictive the chief contentions being mental illness at the time of marriage or fraud by not really intending to enter a permanent, faithful marriage and to rear children.

Whether such factors could be established in the Onassis case was regarded doubtful.

To gain an annulment is usually a long, intricate process, requiring court hearings, evidence and witnesses.

Onassis and his first wife, Tina, were married in 1946 under Greek Orthodox auspices. Roman Catholicism regards as valid marriages of non-Catholics outside the Catholic Church, such as between Protestants or Orthodox unless one of the impediments is found making it void.

Recruited largely from the rank of skilled construction workers, the first Seabees of World War II averaged 33 years old. Marines on Guadalcanal quipped, "Never hit a Seabee, he might be some Marine's father."



U.S. Savings Bonds are actually better than money. The paper can be burned. But the value behind a Bond can never be destroyed, burned, lost or stolen. The Treasury Department has a record of every Bond you buy. If anything ever happens to one, it will be replaced, free.

Bonds are better in another way, too. They return an average of 4.25% when held to maturity of seven years. And now, with each Series E Bond you buy, you're entitled to purchase the same or lower denomination Freedom Share. Freedom Shares pay 5% when held to maturity of 4½ years, and are redeemable after one year.

Sign up now for a regular savings plan where you work or bank. America needs your help. You'll be investing in freedom and your future with one of the world's finest investments.

ONLY WHEN ILL

Or does your concern extend its self to his other needs? He may need someone to lead him too, when he is well... to guide his very destiny. However, when he is seriously sick, it's a mighty good time to measure your real care, the extent to which you go to make a man of him. Of course his physical well-being is your responsibility, but since his spirit belongs to God, maybe you should have concern for it too. Don't quit the job half finished. Help him get well, but then help him get saved... help him get to church.
