Ike Prefers Middle Road

CHICAGO (AP)—President Eisenhower today urged Republican candidates to follow "the great middle road" and ignore the right, left or right.

Eisenhower held forth to Republican office-seekers at a party breakfast the philosophy of Abraham Lincoln that the government should undertake only those things that the people are unable to do themselves.

"We ought to use it as a flaming battle flag on the highest mast the Republican party can put up and fight for it always," Eisenhower said.

More Fires Are Ignited In Northwest

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Pacific Northwest, its biggest week-end fires still out of control, had more than 50 new lightning-caused fires today.

The new blazes in Oregon and Washington and Idaho came as a lightning storm passed over the area Tuesday. Most were small and fire fighters rushed to quell them early.

At Boise, Idaho, Bill Logan, 22, was jailed for arson in connection with a 25,000-acre fire that blackened rangeland near Marsing, Idaho, and along the Oregon border.

Thousands of fire fighters continued their struggle. The biggest, the 20,000-acre Anthony Lakes fire in the Wallawa-Whitman National forest, remained unchecked.

Other big fires in the Wallawa-Whitman broke over fire lines Tuesday. They were the Cummings Creek fire of 2,000 acres in the Pomeroy district of southeastern Washington; the 3,000-acre Spring Creek fire at the eastern tip of Oregon; and Cow Creek fire, also in eastern Oregon of 100-acre. The Pony Creek fire in the Snake River Canyon was not roused by lines and had burned 10,500 acres.

In Idaho, the 12,000-acre Hells Canyon fire in Payette National Forest, a 4,000-acre Johnson Bar fire in north-central Idaho, and a 7,000-acre brush fire north of Dubois in Targhee National Forest were still out of control.

Snyder Youth Drowns In Stock Tank

A Snyder youth drowned Tuesday evening in a stock tank on the G. W. Parks Lease 10 miles north of Snyder while four companions swam in the gathering dusk. Frantic efforts on the part of the swimmers when they discovered him missing failed to locate the boy by diving and one of them raced to the nearest house about four miles away to call for help.

Edward Botts, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Botts of 1801 Dursey Street, was last seen floating on an inner tube in the 25-foot deep tank while two men and two other boys dived from a float improvised of another tube and a plank.

Melvin and M. R. Way told officials that Botts said he could swim but they could not recall having seen him do so. They could not estimate the exact time of Botts' disappearance, but stated they had dived over and over to try to locate him. When they could not find him they raced for the nearest house about four miles away to call for help.

Snyder firemen dragged the tank and recovered the body at 10:15 p.m., over two hours after he had been missed. Efforts to revive him by resuscitator failed and Justice of the Peace W. C. Davidson ruled death by drowning at 10:30 p.m.

Funeral services will be held in the First Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Thursday, with Rev. Walter Mitchell officiating.

Burial will be in the Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Edward Lamar Botts was born Jan. 5, 1945, in Somerville. He had lived in Snyder since 1954.

He is survived by his parents and one brother, Steven Ray Botts of the home.

Negroes Held In Assaults

CHICAGO (AP)—A gang of Negroes assaulted two white men with baseball bats, raped their pregnant wives and knifed another youth Tuesday night in Lincoln Park.

Police fettered one man with a bullet in his neck and seized the other four within a mile of the park, which fronts Lake Michigan on the North Side.

The Negroes, 15 to 18, admitted taking part in the assaults, police said. The five victims required hospital treatment.

Police said the gang first assaulted and robbed Roy Helmut, 18, as he walked alone in the park about 10 last night. Helmut was stabbed twice in the back, but his wounds were not serious and he was discharged after treatment.

Next, police said, the youths surrounded a couple who were walking with their two children and beat the husband to the ground with a bat. The 27-year-old mother was raped three times.

The youths also waylaid a 23-year-old woman and her husband, again beating the husband with a bat. The woman was raped twice. Both couples were hospitalized.

Police said all five youths in custody have police records and that when they were seized some of them were carrying articles taken from the victims.

Seaton Presents Unusual Platform

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of the Interior Prof. Seaton came up with an unusual platform when Nebraska delegates launched a campaign to get the Republican vice presidential nomination for him.

Before discussing serious matters, Seaton said he advocates three things:

"1. All electric hand driers in men's washrooms be taken out and towels be put back in their proper place.

"2. Hated protesters should be forced to shave under the lights which they furnish for that purpose.

"3. Nothing of consequence at a convention shall begin before 9 a.m."

Tension Is Fading Out

By JACK BELL

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, (AP)—In relaxed mood, the Republicans whirled through a round of social activities and sightseeing today preliminary to their convention's big moment tonight—the nomination of Richard M. Nixon for president.

Tensions and quarrels over the platform had faded. The mood was: Close ranks and wham the Democrats.

Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who are booked as prospective antagonists at this convention, breakfasted together in great harmony.

Accompanied by Mrs. Nixon, the vice president went over to Rockefeller's hotel for breakfast with the governor and the New York delegation.

Rockefeller met him at the curb and they all embraced, looking like a couple of old college buddies at a 25th class reunion.

Snyder Youth Faubus Returned For Fourth Term

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus, an unprecedented fourth term in his pocket, rested today after a smashing victory over four opponents in Tuesday's Democratic primary.

Faubus, central figure in the Little Rock school integration crisis of 1957-58, faces Republican opposition in the November general election, but Arkansas has not elected a GOP governor since Reconstruction days.

Returns from 2,242 of the state's 2,553 precincts showed: Faubus, 252,748; Joe C. Hardin of Grady 63,644; Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett 55,444; H. E. Williams of Walnut Ridge 29,951; and Neal Millsaps Jr. of Siloam Springs 12,000.

Faubus' total was about 60 per cent of the vote. He polled 70 per cent when he won a third term against two opponents in 1958.

Reps. Dale Alford of Little Rock and Jim Trimble of Berryville easily won re-nomination in the state's two contested congressional races.

Reports from 225 of 228 precincts in the 5th District gave Alford 2,441 votes to 31,051 for State Sen. Robert Hayes Williams of Russellville.

Trimble had 47,138 votes and Donald Poe of Waldron—16,823 with 475 of 504 precincts reported in the 3rd District.

Gas Wells Sold In South Texas

NEW YORK (AP)—Gas wells that produce 25 million cubic feet a month in Hidalgo and Wilcox Counties, Tex., were purchased Tuesday by American Petroleum.

The 28 wells were acquired from a group headed by John Loch. The price was not disclosed.

Petro officials said the wells will increase the firm's natural gas sales and proven gas reserves by about 10 per cent.

Soviet Charges Rejected By Vote Of U. N. Council

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Security Council debate on the American RB47 reconnaissance plane shot down by the Soviets ended Tuesday night with a 9-2 council vote rejecting Soviet charges against the United States and a Soviet veto of the U.S. proposal for an international investigation.

The Soviets also vetoed an Italian proposal that the international Red Cross contact the two surviving crewmen of the American plane who are being held by the Soviets for trial as spies.

Despite the official impasse, U.N. diplomats checked up on the outcome as a defeat for the Soviet Union and a victory for the United States. They pointed out that in all three resolutions the vote was 9-2 with the Soviet Union abstaining.

They pointed out that the United States had proposed an international investigation of the plane's disappearance.

Nixon Called New York Key State In What He Said Was Going To Be A Very Close Election Contest

Nixon called New York the key state in what he said was going to be a very close election contest.

Rockefeller, his arm around Nixon, declared "he's going to win with New York state in the fall."

In an informal interview, Nixon indicated his vice presidential running mate would not be selected until Thursday.

But GOP National Chairman Thurston B. Morton in a statement an hour later said the convention "is going to try to nominate the vice presidential candidate as planned tonight."

"However, if the hour should become late," Morton added, "we will put the nomination of the vice president over until Thursday."

Nixon's indication of a delay until Thursday was in a discussion of his plans to consult with party leaders on the question of the No. 2 spot on the ticket.

He said there would be a meeting tonight—or Thursday if tonight's convention session runs late—of party leaders from all sections to talk about a vice presidential nominee.

"I want to have a full discussion of it before we have a final decision," Nixon said.

In response to questions, he said Rockefeller will certainly be one of those consulted. He also mentioned Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois as among those whose opinions he desires.

Goldwater is at the extreme right wing of the GOP. He was critical of last weekend's Nixon-Rockefeller statement of principles, calling it a surrender by Nixon. He also didn't like some aspects of the platform.

Nixon's mention of the Arizona senator as one of those to be consulted after the vice presidential nominees tended to emphasize the rank-and-file phase into which Nixon, in firm control of the convention, has now carried it. The name of the vice presidential nominee in speculation as to the No. 2 spot on the ticket was that of U. N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Also figuring in it were Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, Rep. Walter Judd of Minnesota and Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton.

Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan had his backers too.

President Eisenhower, who was given his big day and night here yesterday in what the convention called "Thank You Day," breakfasted with his new Cabinet officers and GOP candidates for various offices—about 600 in all. Eisenhower was presented a bust of Abraham Lincoln. Gov. William G. Stratton gave it to him on behalf of the people of Illinois.

In a little speech of acceptance, Eisenhower recalled Lincoln's pronouncement that the government should undertake only those things that the people are unable to do themselves.

Congo Chief Requests Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba, arriving today in quest of American economic and technical aid, pledged to establish a "true democracy" in his crisis-ridden country.

Secretary of State Cristian A. Herter, greeting him at the airport in steady rain, expressed return of tranquility of your country.

"We are, as you know," Herter said, "doing all in our power to support the United Nations in its response to your appeal for aid."

The bespectacled Lumumba avoided any criticism of Belgium in his arrival remarks. He described as "unfortunate events" the riots and army mutiny which broke to the Congo to protect European settlers.

Lumumba came from New York in a special U. S. Air Force transport for a hastily arranged two-day visit.

An honor guard of Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force units, drenched by the rain, stood at attention. The Army band, plus a big color guard also greeted him.

A Congo flag, a blue banner with gold stars, fluttered from the fender of the car in which he rode with Herter, along with the Stars and Stripes. The Congo flag had been hastily sewn Tuesday night in advance of his arrival.

The Army band did not have time to learn the Congo national anthem. Instead they played the "Stars and Stripes Forever" when Lumumba stepped out of the plane to the sound of a 19-gun salute.

Lumumba, who only last week was talking of asking Russian help to oust Belgian troops from the Congo, was to meet officially with Herter and top administration aides later today as a follow-up to his New York meetings with U.N. officials.

He will be an honor guest during his stay, residing at the government's Blair House. He is to mix some sightseeing with his official call, including a talk with representatives of the World Bank who might help ease his government's financial plight.

African ambassadors have arranged a dinner and a big diplomatic reception in his honor, to demonstrate their backing for the newest independent African nation to emerge from colonialism.

Lumumba's arrival coincided with an appeal from his finance minister back in Leopoldville for money and doctors to help restore essential services in the Congo.

He said that between 8 and 10 million dollars are urgently needed to meet government payrolls in August and to keep the government from collapsing in new riots and disorder.

Storm Hits Parker Area

By The Associated Press

Skies were clear over Texas Wednesday after a damaging storm battered two Parker County rural areas Tuesday night.

Forecasters, issued Wednesday by the Weather Bureau, called for above normal temperatures and light to moderate precipitation in isolated thundershowers and thundersqualls.

Searchers called off a hunt early Wednesday for two boats missing at Lake Weatherford. Officials had not determined whether anybody was aboard the light crafts.

Accompanied by brief, heavy rains, the Parker County winds—some witnesses called it a tornado—wrecked a cabin and a boat dock and blew down several sheet-iron boat sheds at Lake Weatherford, five miles east of the Parker County seat.

Charles Beard, Parker County Civil Defense director, estimated damage around the lake at about $10,000.

The Parker County sheriff's office said Wednesday that high winds struck the Springtown community, 35 miles northwest of Fort Worth, but there was no damage. Other sources said a house was damaged and trees uprooted at Springtown.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE means a great deal when a Miss Texas aspirant meets the public, the press and the judges. Here Sherene Gladson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gladson, models a jacketed afternoon dress she was to wear Tuesday when she arrived in Beaumont for the registration of contestants for the title of Miss Texas.

FOR THAT BIG NIGHT when all contestants in the Miss Texas Pageant at Beaumont will parade for the judges for the final showing Saturday night, Snyder's Miss Sherene Gladson has chosen a white princess gown with back-entrance. She was chosen to represent Snyder in May on the same basis as Miss Texas and then Miss America will be selected.

'Johnson Law' Is Challenged

By LEE JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—The so-called "Johnson law" which prohibits a candidate for the U.S. Senate from appearing in a suit filed in federal court because "we feel that the Federal Constitution and federal law, particularly the civil rights statutes, offer better possibilities" than the state courts, was challenged in state court.

Michael H. Schwille, a 24-year-old North Texas State College senior, filed the suit Tuesday to test the constitutionality of a state law that permits Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's name to appear twice on the general election ballot.

The student's attorneys said they based their case on the provision in the U.S. Constitution prohibiting a man from simultaneously holding two offices. Johnson also prevents a man from running for two offices at the same time, the attorneys claim.

The suit seeks an injunction to prevent Johnson's certification by the State Democratic Executive Committee, and to stop Secretary of State Zolie Steagler from entering Johnson's name on the ballot as a candidate for the vice presidency and the U.S. Senate.

It names as defendants Steagler, J. E. Connally of Abilene, State Democratic Executive Committee chairman, Mrs. R. Max Brooks, vice chairman of the committee, Austin, and Jake Jacobson, committee secretary, Austin. Schwille, who said he is a Democrat, denied he favors any possible challenger for Johnson's Senate post.

"It's strictly a matter of testing the Constitution," he said. Schwille, of Dallas, is the son of an "independent business man," Ed Schwille, Dallas sources say, the older Schwille has been at least mildly active in distributing literature for Rep. Bruce Alger (R-Tx).

Schwille said in a prepared statement that he is a Democrat. "I have brought this action to protect my right and the right of other Democrats to vote for two different Democratic candidates for vice president and United States senator at the General Election Nov. 8, 1960."

"It is my belief that the law which was passed to permit Johnson to be a candidate for two offices at the same time is basically unfair, dangerous, and unconstitutional. A ruthless and overly ambitious candidate in a similar situation could hold the threat of senatorial reprisal over the heads of potential supporters of the national ticket and gain unmerited support."

The basic civil right involved in this lawsuit is the right to have one's vote counted. Eight thousand men are involved.

After voting the "stoppage" at an early morning meeting the workers began a demonstration to publicize the protest.

They marched to City Hall from their meeting, the parade stretching six blocks and causing traffic snarls en route.

The union did not announce immediately how long the work stoppage would last. A spokesman for the union, Uniformed Sanitationmen's Assn., Local 831, of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers of America, said the wording of the resolution calling for a "work stoppage" was important since the state's Condon-Wadlin law prohibits strikes by public employees.

Sanitation Commissioner Paul R. Screevan said that about 25 per cent of the usual daily work force of 5,000 sanitation men showed up for the morning shift.

The department operates on a day-and-night basis six days a week with garbage collections at this time of year normally totaling about 5,000 truck loads daily—about 8,000 tons of refuse a day.

"We have asked the public to be patient," Screevan said. "A substantial number of households in the city will not receive refuse collection service today."

If the stoppage is prolonged, he said, steps would have to be taken to avoid a health emergency. Already action was under way to certify about 3,500 other men on departmental civil service lists for possible special-duty calls.

The suit was filed in Austin because three of the defendants reside here, he said.

Dallas attorney William F. Billings said the suit was filed in federal court because "we feel that the Federal Constitution and federal law, particularly the civil rights statutes, offer better possibilities" than the state courts.

The law under attack was passed last year by the 56th Legislature and provides that a candidate seeking election to the U.S. Senate can also have his name on the ballot as a candidate for either president or vice president.

Jacobson, a former executive assistant to Gov. Price Daniel, said he does not believe the Constitution forbids anyone to seek two offices. The Austin attorney retailed that former Vice President John Naftali Garner of Texas ran for U.S. Representative and for vice president in 1936.

Federal District Clerk Joe Steiner said a suit ordinarily takes from two to six weeks to get before the court after it is filed. Steiner said the attorneys must confer with Federal District Judge Ben Rice, who in turn must take the matter up with the chief judge of the Fifth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans.

The New Orleans judge must appoint two other judges to sit with Rice if the case comes to court.

Schwille and Billings were flown to Austin by Dallas public relations man Largent Parks in Parks' private plane. Parks, a Republican, said he was interested in the case only as a casual bystander.

Billings said he was optimistic about the suit's chances.

"We think it's good or we wouldn't file it," he told The Associated Press.

Schwille said Billings came to his attention because of the lawyer's recent defense of J. Everett Haley Jr. in a government suit for overproduction of wheat.

The Dallas attorney said if Johnson wins both his races and declines one office, as he must, "everybody that votes for him for the office he declines loses his office."

The student, a Navy veteran, said he is paying all the expenses of the suit, but "any support would be welcome," Schwille said after he gets his degree next month he plans to either go to law school or to graduate school.

Pope John Announces New Code

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII in major liturgical reform for the Roman Catholic Church, today announced that a new code of rules for the Roman Breviary and Mass will become effective Jan. 1.

In a formal document—a "Motto Proprio" or order by the Pope's "own hand"—the head of the Roman Catholic Church said the new rules will be promulgated soon.

He said the new code combines the rules in a better form, arranged in a clearer order, and religious services will be shortened and simplified.

He did not specify what changes will be made.

The 77-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church said a new calendar of the Breviary and Mass also will be issued.

Pope John noted that the rules have undergone constant change through the centuries. He said these changes were "not always in a systematic order and therefore not without damage to the primitive original simplicity and foresight."

Pope John said he decided to propose to the ecclesiastical council—a meeting of Roman Catholic prelates from around the world, expected to convene in a year or two—a fundamental principles for liturgical reforms.

Italian Alpinists Are Found Dead

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—Seven young Italian alpinists were found dead today in a 1,500-foot deep crevasse in the Aneto Peak. They were roped together.

The four men, and three women from 17 to 30 years old, alpinist mountain climbers, left Tuesday to climb 36,760-foot Aneto 51, one of the Dolomite peaks overlooking the north Italian sports resort where the 1956 winter Olympics were held.

Texans Warming To Nixon Again

By JIM MONROE
CHICAGO (AP)—Texas Republicans today appeared ready to warm up to Nixon again.

Those angry at Nixon began to cool after the platform committee released a compromise version of the civil rights plank Tuesday night.

Chargers of a civil rights fight on the floor of the Republican National Convention also faded.

Texas GOP Chairman Thad Hutchison said the platform still is too strong to suit the South, Methodist Hospital there. He had entered the hospital Saturday night following a heart attack.

A former rural carrier in Brownfield, Mr. Dodson had lived in Lubbock since his retirement in 1952.

Survivors include the wife, three daughters, Mrs. Wanda Whitted of Midland who formerly lived in Snyder, Mrs. James Farquhar of 2125 Sunset, Snyder, and Mrs. Harry Dawson of Jefferson; three sons, C. J. and D. A. Dodson, both of Midland, and Warner Dodson of Wyoming; three sisters, Mrs. Ed Duncan of Cleco, Mrs. Paul Dodson of Houston, Ariz., and Mrs. Edith Johnson of Los Angeles, a brother, Leslie Dodson of California, and 13 grandchildren.

Employees Of Dallas Banks Post Bonds
DALLAS (AP)—Employees of two banks here posted $1350 bonds Tuesday on charges of taking money.

Federal authorities charge a Mrs. Virginia Spencer, 50, with violating $500 bonded for deposit in the Hillcrest State Bank, where she had been a teller for 10 years.

Law Thomas Jr., a 265-pound Negro porter admitted on arrangement that he lifted 470 in dropped coins after finding a $1000 sack after hours in the First National Bank.

Dosonal inspectors said officers found unmarked money in Mrs. Spencer's possession.

Sanitation Workers In NYC Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—City Sanitation Department workers stopped work today in protest over the breakdown of contract negotiations. Eight thousand men are involved.

After voting the "stoppage" at an early morning meeting the workers began a demonstration to publicize the protest.

Road Plans Presented

The Texas Highway Commission yesterday took under advisement a proposal to give farm-to-market designation to 318 miles of Scurry County roads.

County Judge J. Ray Martin appeared before the commission to make the request in behalf of the county. It was estimated that $135,000 would be required in laying the roads up to FM requirements.

Roads involved include the following: Extension of FM 1600 from U. S. 180 north to U. S. 81, 7.8 miles; from FM 1673 north-east of Snyder east to Camp Springs, 11.8 miles; from FM 1683 west to FM 1221 serving Ennis Creek Community, 12.2 miles.

It was estimated that the project would entail expenditures totaling $38,000, the second $60,000 and the third $31,200.

Bids Tabulated On Dam Project

NEW BRAUNFELS, Tex. (AP)—Army Engineers reported a sum bid of $6,256,876 from two firms was the apparent low offer Tuesday to complete canyon dam near here.

Taxon Construction Co. of Dallas and Green Construction Co. of Des Moines, Iowa, submitted the bid. The government had estimated the work would cost $6,717,200.

Here's Hobby Uncluttered With People

By SI MOODY
NEW YORK (AP)—You want a hobby uncluttered with people? Want to get away from it all? Take up the 1922 trombone. You'll learn just what true loneliness can be.

Lift the trombone slide from the swollen case. Tap to the mouth-piece. Purse your lips and watch 'em run—the wife, the kids, and the dog—treachery! the dog, vomited.

My wife, deferring in the first blush of young love, took the trombone as a part—although perhaps not the best—of the complete ME.

Junior Editors Quiz on RAINBOWS

QUESTION: Where do the colors of the rainbow come from?

ANSWER: A rainbow is formed when sunlight strikes tiny raindrops in the air. The sunlight appears to be white or yellow but it really is made up of seven colors—red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. When it strikes the raindrop, the sunbeam is bent or refracted and broken down into the component seven colors. Each color is reflected off the inner surface of the raindrop at a different angle. When these colors, reflected off millions and millions of tiny raindrops, strike the eye of a watcher they appear as bands of brilliant colors in the sky. Rainbows have colorful names in many parts of the world. In some parts of the Orient they are known as "little windows in the sky." In Central Europe they are called "bridles of God."

FOR YOU TO DO: Although a rainbow is made up of seven colors, sometimes it is difficult to see more than four or five. The next time you are watching a rainbow see how many colors you can detect.

Kennedy Resting While Bob Works

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, took a day off today while his campaign manager brother Robert meets in New York with wrangling pro-Kennedy party leaders of that pivotal state.

The senator scheduled no appointments. He planned some boating and a lot of rest at his summer home, where his vacation up to now has featured more high-powered work than relaxation.

Kennedy said his brother would confer during the day with Michael H. Prendergast, New York state Democratic chairman, on plans to bring rival New York factions into some unified effort in the November election campaign.

Prendergast has voiced vigorous protest against Kennedy's efforts to create a New York branch of "Citizens for Kennedy" as an organization through which independent voters, dissident Democrats and even disgruntled Republicans could work for the Democratic ticket.

Robert Kennedy has been assigned to talk with various factional leaders. The senator said he felt pretty sure his brother would work out something with them before returning here Friday.

The senator says he has been keeping an eye, when he feels like it, on television broadcasts from the Republican National Convention. He said Tuesday he hoped the GOP would write a platform plank on civil rights "as clear and effective as ours."

Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, new Democratic national chairman, flies here Thursday for strategy talks with Kennedy.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the vice presidential nominee, is due to arrive Friday for a day of conferences on plans for the campaign Kennedy will launch with a speech in Hawaii around Sept. 1.

Kennedy has yet to spell out the legislative program he plans to offer when Congress reconvenes Aug. 2. This is one of the major problems to be considered in his talk with Johnson.

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A nearly blind veteran of Bataan and a state senator from Tulsa scored victories in Oklahoma's lackluster primary runoff election Tuesday.

This Joint Was Jumping

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Things were really jumping around a Hagerstown shopping center Monday.

Deputy Sheriff Lester Isanogle couldn't believe his eyes. Bouncing across the road in front of him was a kangaroo.

After doing a double take, he began to pursue it. "Some shoppers and several curiosity seekers joined him.

They cornered the five-foot, fat-made kangaroo in a corn field. During the excitement she had given birth to a joey.

The kangaroo had escaped from a cage toppled by wind which hit a small circus compound in the shopping center.

She and her offspring were reported in fair shape, despite the ordeal.

Chile Valley Is Flooded

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) Water continued to pour today over a 100,000 persons are estimated to be crumpled further below Lake Rincón in southern Chile.

Heavy rainstorms, strong winds and earth tremors added to the plight of the thousands of refugees from Valdivia, in the heart of the valley, a city devastated by earthquakes in May and now almost certain to be destroyed by flood waters from the swollen lake 50 miles upstream.

Several towns in the valley already were under water. Only the tops of houses were visible from the air.

Four fishermen were reported drowned when their boat overturned in the rampaging torrent. Army engineers Tuesday evacuated persons from Valdivia and took them to temporary quarters on high ground.

Castro Cites Revolution As Example

By ROBERT BERLEZ
LAS MERCEDES, Cuba (AP)—An ailing Fidel Castro offered his revolution as an example to other Latin American countries Tuesday and repeated charges of U.S. aggression against his government.

Obviously not fully recovered from his bout with pneumonia, the Prime Minister looked drawn and haggard as he hoarsely harangued the crowd. He spoke for two hours and 15 minutes and in the end practically stumbled into the arms of his followers behind him.

Instead of a predicted half million, about 200,000 Cubans struggled through rain, heat and muddy roads to celebrate the seventh anniversary of Castro's revolutionary movement in his birthplace, the Sierra Maestra mountains of eastern Cuba.

Accusing the United States once again of aggression against his regime, Castro said "the principal reason for aggression against our country is to prevent our being an example" to the rest of Latin America.

"We will continue making our fatherland an example that will convert the Andes range into the Sierra Maestra of the continent," he declared.

The Cuban leader also repeated his charges that the proposed new U.S. aid program for Latin America is a bribe to whip up opposition to him.

Shivers Not Running, Yet

AUSTIN (AP)—Former Gov. Allan Shivers says he has no plans to run for office this year.

But his statement issued to newsmen Tuesday clearly left the door open to any change of mind later.

"I have not made any announcement of an intention to run for any office and I have no present plans to make such an announcement. The interest of state and national politics," he said.

A report floated around Dallas last week that backers of the former governor were seeking to get him to run against Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson in November.

Shivers said he appreciated "The interest of friends who, at various times since I left the governor's office, have urged me to seek public office again." He issued his statement on his return from a trip to Canada.

Halleck Delivers Blistering Attack On Democratic Party

CHICAGO (AP)—Rep. Charles A. Halleck Tuesday night delivered a blistering attack on the Democratic party's leaders, he said, are "betraying the progress of a people they seek to lead."

Halleck's hammer blows drew partisan roars from Republican conventioners packed into the International Amphitheater, waiting to hear President Eisenhower later.

The occasion was Halleck's assumption of the convention's permanent chairmanship.

"There are no crying towels in this Republican convention," the House GOP leader said. "And there are no panic buttons. There will be no wringing of hands—no shameful attempts to downgrade the majesty of America."

Republicans know, Halleck said, that the Russians "are not suddenly 14 feet tall. We do not propose to operate from a posture of fear. We are not going to mistake a big mouth for a big stick."

Halleck took his biggest club to the record of the past Democratic-controlled Congress, in which he serves as a veteran member from Indiana.

The farmer, he said, "is the low man on the totem pole of our economy" and he charged the Democrats in Congress put him there.

"If anyone has been 'vetoed' it's the farmer; and by a Democratic 'sit' Congress," Halleck shouted.

And yet, he added, the Congress in these recent years has been controlled by "the very same Democrats who at Los Angeles were so loud in their insistence that something had to be done—and quick—to solve all the problems they claim have come about in recent years."

"There has been the responsibility and they can't duck it," Halleck wove in digs at Harry S. Truman, the last Democratic president, and Sen. John F. Kennedy, who wants to be the next one.

It was Truman, he reminded, who once called Joseph Stalin "Old Joe" during the period they were dealing with each other as allies.

In the Los Angeles oratory, he said, "there was a strange silence about the record of a Democrat Congress. Only the father of the nominee got less attention." This was a swipe at the fact that Kennedy's controversial father, Joseph Kennedy, kept himself scarce at the Los Angeles convention.

As for the choice of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson as Kennedy's running mate, Halleck said "it's strictly a marriage of convenience—it doesn't fool anybody and it won't last."

Relaxed GOP Nearing Big Hour

Ike Prefers Middle Road

CHICAGO (AP)—President Eisenhower today urged Republican candidates to follow "the great middle road" and ignore the gutter, left or right.

Eisenhower held forth to Republican office-seekers at a breakfast breakfast the philosophy of Abraham Lincoln that the government should undertake only those things that the people are unable to do themselves.

"We ought to use it as a flaming battle flag on the highest mat the Republican party can use up and fight for it always," Eisenhower said.

Tension Is Fading Out

By JACK BELL

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (AP)—In relaxed mood, the Republicans whirled through a round of social activities and sightseeing today preliminary to their convention's big moment tonight—the nomination of Richard M. Nixon for president.

Tensions and quarrels over the platform had faded the mood was: Close ranks and wham! the Democrats.

Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York who once looked as prospective antagonists at this convention, breakfasted together in great harmony.

Accompanied by Mrs. Nixon, the vice president went over to Rockefeller's hotel for breakfast with the governor and the New York delegation.

Rockefeller met him at the curb and they all but embraced, looking like a couple of old college buddies at a 25th class reunion.

More Fires Are Ignited In Northwest

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Pacific Northwest, its biggest week-old fires still out of control, had more than 50 new lightning-caused fires today.

The new blazes in Oregon and Washington and Idaho came as a lightning storm passed over the area Tuesday. Most were small and fire fighters rushed to quell them early.

At Boise, Idaho, Bill Logan, 29, was jailed for arson in connection with a 25,000-acre fire that blackened rangeland near Marsing, Idaho, and along the Oregon border.

Thousands of fire fighters continued their struggle. The biggest, the 20,000-acre Anthony Lakes fire in the Wallowa-Whitman National Forest, remained unchecked.

Other big fires in the Wallowa-Whitman broke over fire lines Tuesday. They were the Cummings Creek fire of 2,000 acres in the Pomeroy district of southeastern Washington; the 5,000-acre Spring Creek fire at the eastern tip of Oregon; and Cow Creek fire also in eastern Oregon of 16,000 acres. The Pony Creek fire in the Snake River Canyon was not ringed by lines and had burned 10,500 acres.

In Idaho, the 12,000-acre Hell Canyon fire in Payette National Forest, a 4,000-acre Johnson Bar fire in north-central Idaho, and a 7,000-acre brush fire north of Dubois in Targhee National Forest were still out of control.

Snyder Youth Drowns In Stock Tank

A Snyder youth drowned Tuesday evening in a stock tank on the G. W. Parks Lease 10 miles north of Snyder while four companions swam in the gathering dusk. Frantic efforts on the part of the swimmers when they discovered him missing failed to locate the boy by diving and one of them raced to the nearest house about four miles away to call for help.

Edward Botts, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Botts of 1805 Dorsey Street, was last seen floating on an inner tube in the 25-foot deep tank while two men and two other boys dived from a float improvised of another tube and a plank.

Elvin and M. R. Way told officials that Botts had said he could swim but they could not recall having seen him do so. They could not estimate the exact time of Botts' disappearance, but stated they had dived over and over to try to locate him. When they could not find him they raced for the nearest house about four miles away to call for help.

Snyder firemen dragged the tank and recovered the body at 4:15 p.m., over two hours after he had been missed. Efforts to revive him by resuscitator failed and justice of the Peace W. C. Davidson ruled death by drowning at 10:30 p.m.

Funeral services will be held in the First Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Tuesday with Rev. Walter Mitchell officiating.

Burial will be in the Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Edward Lamar Botts was born Jan. 5, 1945, in Seminole. He had lived in Snyder since 1954.

He is survived by his parents and one brother, Steven Ray Botts of the home.

Faubus Returned For Fourth Term

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus, an unprecedented fourth term in his second year, won a smashing victory over four opponents in Tuesday's Democratic primary.

Faubus, central figure in the Little Rock school integration crisis of 1957-58, faces Republican opposition in the November general election, but Arkansas has not elected a GOP governor since Reconstruction days.

Returns from 2,242 of the state's 2,353 precincts showed Faubus 226,748; Joe C. Hardin of Grady 63,609; Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett 55,444; H. E. Williams of Walnut Ridge 29,651; and Hal Millapp Jr. of Searcy 11,520.

Faubus' total was about 60 percent of the vote. He polled 70 percent when he won a third term against two opponents in 1954.

Reps. Dale Africk of Little Rock and Jim Trimble of Berryville easily won re-nomination in the state's two contested congressional districts.

Reports from 225 of 228 precincts in the 8th District give Alf Ford 3,441 votes to 31,051 for State Sen. Robert Hays Williams of Russellville.

Faubus had 47,138 votes and Donald Poe of Waldron 16,823 with 473 of 503 precincts reported in the 3rd District.

Negroes Held In Assaults

CHICAGO (AP)—A gang of Negroes assaulted two white men with baseball bats, raped their pregnant wives and knifed another youth Tuesday night in Lincoln Park.

Police "felled one thug with a bullet in his neck and seized the other four within a mile of the park, which fronts Lake Michigan on the North Side.

The Negroes, 15 to 18, admitted taking part in the assaults, police said. The five victims required hospital treatment.

Police said the gang first assaulted and robbed Roy Helmut, 18, as he walked alone in the park about 10:15 last night. Helmut was stabbed twice in the back, but his wounds were not serious and he was discharged after treatment.

Next, police said, the youths surrounded a couple who were walking with their two children and beat the husband to the ground with a bat. The 27-year-old mother was raped three times.

The youths also waylaid a 23-year-old woman and her husband, again beating the husband with a bat. The woman was raped twice.

Both couples were hospitalized.

Police said all five youths in custody have police records and that when they were seized some of them were carrying articles taken from the victims.

Seaton Presents Unusual Platform

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton, came up with an unusual platform when Nebraska delegates launched a campaign to get the Republican vice presidential nomination for him.

Before discussing serious matters, Seaton said he advocates the three things:

"1. All electric hand driers in men's washrooms be taken out and towels be put back in their proper place.

"2. Hotel proprietors should be forced to shove under the lights, which they furnish for that purpose.

"3. Nothing of consequence at a convention shall begin before 9 a.m."

Soviet Charges Rejected By Vote Of U. N. Council

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Security Council debate on the American RB47 reconnaissance plane shot down by the Soviets ended Tuesday night with a 9-2 council vote rejecting Soviet charges against the United States and a Soviet veto of the U.S. proposal for an international investigation.

The Soviets also vetoed an Italian proposal that the International Red Cross contact the two surviving crewmen of the American plane, also are being held by the Soviets for trial as spies.

Despite the official impasse, diplomats checked up on the council as a defeat for the Soviet Union and a victory for the United States. They pointed out that on all three resolutions the vote was 9-2 with the Soviet Union and Poland opposed by all nine non-communist members of the council including Ceylon and Thailand, which usually abstain from voting in civil war disputes.

Mamie To Be Honored Today With Luncheon And Fashions

By FRANCES LEWINE
CHICAGO (AP) — First Lady Mamie Eisenhower, after a Republican convention ovation, stars today at a showing of historic fashions of past GOP occupants of the White House.
She is the guest of honor at a "Great Ladies" luncheon, a gala social event of the GOP convention.
It was much publicized, rehearsed and even previewed on television before the actual production today before some 2,000 women.
The display included a replica of Mrs. Eisenhower's Renoir pink inaugural hallogown, with 2,000 glittering pink rhinestones, modeled by attractive Mrs. William Stratton, wife of the governor of Illinois.
The gowns, representing the 12 first ladies of Republican presidents from 1860 to 1960, were careful copies of actual dresses now on display in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C.
It has been estimated the copying job cost $25,000. It was done by Mrs. Barbara Karinsky, who has costumed the New York City Ballet.
With professional staging and amateur models — all prominent GOP wives — the showing included narration by Arlene Dahl and Wendell Corey.
Such care was taken in the planning of the affair that Mrs. Styles Bridges, wife of the New Hampshire senator, even was wearing a University of Vermont sorority pin like one Grace Coolidge wore. Mrs. Bridges was modeling the dusty rose velvet shawl flapper-era dress of Mrs. Coolidge.
Mrs. Lawrence Averill of Detroit, in the same sorority chapter as Mrs. Coolidge, provided her pin for Mrs. Bridges' costume.
The dresses are considered so elegant and historic that they will

Gay-Ninety Look Shown By Designer

PARIS (AP) — Designer Yves Saint Laurent of Dior dropped a fashion bomb today by chopping skirts off short enough to show the kneecap and dropping the waistline nearly to the bottom of the hips.
The line was basically a sack, or cocoon, with a low-slung back tacked on at the bottom.
Jackets, too, were dropped drastically to the bottom of the hip, where gathered-on melon skirts took over. Skirts were moderately tucked in at the hem, which usually hit mid-knee level.
Saint Laurent did not baptize his new shape with a name, but it looked a bit like a bomb or elongated melon. It always hung on a long, slack midly top.
The flapper era influence is strong, but to complicate matters there is an African theme in his shaped like native huts or ant-hills, and baroque costume jewelry. Colors are dark for day—brown, black, prune and steel gray, with gold and silver lames, beading and bright shades for evening.
A folksy or down-to-earth touch comes in with knit toboggan cap topped with a wool pom-pom. That they are teamed up with mink and sable does not seem to matter. Several luxurious fur coats have rib-knit sleeves and the knit turtle neck, rolled over into almost a horse collar.
For cocktail and evening there are outright sacks—whatever they may choose to call them this time—and floor-length tents, sometimes dragging yards of mink hem along the floor.

Fur Hits Fashion Show In Second Day

By NADEANE WALKER
PARIS (AP) — A cylinder silhouette, frankly feminine and flattering, was Pierre Balmain's line today on the second day of the Paris fashion openings.
Zipped-up tube coats that fit like a glove and tightly belted waistlines gave many Balmain creations a hug-me-tight line. His skirts stopped at the top of the calf—a little longer than last season.
Unlike the designers who opened Monday, Balmain scorned bias cuts. But he shared a tendency to bands of fur edging, back-buttoned jackets, high helmet hats, kangaroo or wool draping, and sober colors.
A big laugh and a big hand greeted a mannequin wearing a big cap collar and a cascade of long-haired Mongolian sheep fur, and carrying an exactly matching poodle.

Not a single cracked egg since Chevy took over the route
That '60 Fleetside pickup you see takes whatever kind of road comes along, and makes about 250 stops a day delivering eggs house to house for Mr. Harry Hansen of Missoula, Montana. "With my previous truck," Mr. Hansen writes, "I always had some cracked eggs. Cargo damage always cut into my profits. But the new Chevy eliminated that problem completely. I haven't had one cracked egg with my new truck and I've had up to a ton of eggs in it, without any difficulty... I didn't know a truck could ride so nice."
Chevy rides nice all right, takes good care of fragile cargoes. But that's not even the half of it. Torson-sprung suspension also means longer life for the truck, extra thousands of working miles, because the sheet metal and body components take less of a beating. You can run off-the-road or over back trails at faster speeds, too, get in more trips a day, make more money. These facts are as true of the big Chevrolet heavyweights as they are of the pickups. Any model you name. Get one on your job and you've got the world's most efficient, most economical truck. It'll pay you back over any road. Your dealer will be happy to prove that statement any day you so.
"I'm getting close to 20 miles to the gallon," Mr. Hansen states, "and that's on stop-and-go delivery."

Teddy's Daughter Still Gets A Bang Out Of Conventions

BY INEZ ROBB

CHICAGO — Politically ambitious women are a lifelong habit with Alice Roosevelt Longworth, 76, still strenuous daughter of the strenuous Teddy, and widow of Nicholas, former Republican Speaker of the House.

"This is the 12th Republican convention I've attended," she said when we met in the lobby of the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel. "And, by the way, I helped open this hotel 50 years ago."

"And in addition to all the Republican conventions," she continued, "I've been to seven or eight Democratic conventions. I can't remember the exact number because Franklin ran so often I couldn't keep them straight."

"But why Democratic conventions?" I asked.

"Just because I think conventions are such fun," said the slim woman who has been the belle of every Republican gathering since her father entered the White House, which is almost 60 years ago.

"I missed the Republican conventions in 1924 and 1956 because I thought they'd be dull," she continued.

"But what makes you think this one wouldn't be in the same class?" I asked.

"Oh, well, I just like conventions," she countered. "And I'm a Nixon woman. I think he'll make an excellent President."

"But turning to conventions again, Mrs. Longworth said she had enjoyed wonderful times at Democratic conclaves. "The one that nominated William Jennings Bryan in Denver in 1896 was a great fun," she said. "And the Baltimore one that nominated Woodrow Wilson in 1912 was exciting."

"Then the Democratic convention that went 103 ballots in New York in 1924 before nominating John W. Davis was exhilarating, too. I kept going back and forth to Washington all the time it was on, but always returning to New York for the next round."

Mrs. Longworth is one of those lucky women for whom age seems to stand still. She doesn't look a minute older than when I saw her here at the Republican convention eight years ago. Again, she is obviously blessed with tremendous physical and mental vitality that distinguished Roosevelts, no matter what their political faith.

She still wears the simple wide-brimmed hats that are one of her trademarks. It was of black straw when I chatted with her, matching the large black buttons down the front of her simple but elegant dark beige dress.

I asked her if she had any sharp horn motts up her sleeves, comparable to the famous couple of Thomas E. Dewey, when a Presidential candidate, to the man on the wedding cake.

"You know, I never said that," Mrs. Longworth said, with an impish smile. "It was really Ethel Barrymore who said that. But I'm someone I got the credit. About a year after it had been in circulation, I saw Ethel and she asked me what I was doing with her story."

"It really was Ethel's hot and not mine, but no matter how much I disclaim it, I still get the credit."

"What about your mot, in reference to Mr. Dewey's second campaign, that no soufflé ever rises twice?" I asked.

"Now I didn't say that either," Mrs. Longworth insisted, but she looked very amused under her broad-brimmed hat. "Truly,

Hey's Hobby Uncluttered With People

By SI DMOODY

NEW YORK (AP)—You want a hobby uncluttered with people? Want to get away from it all? Take up the jazz trombone. You'll learn just what true loneliness can be.

Lift the slippery slide from its velvet case. Tap in the mouthpiece. Purse your lips and patly run—the wife, the kids, and then (ah, treachery) the dog. Vomposed, all.

Then blow to your heart's content. Until the neighbor calls—the tone deaf lout.

The trombone—once called the sackbut—is an old friend who came long before the wife, kids or dog. They have all since posed the same question put to mountain climbers—why?

Why, indeed. Because after a long, worrisome day there's no greater pinnacle of pleasure than to point the sackbut ceilingward and blast out the soul-clearing notes of the first downhill slide to "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen."

That's how to get even with the world.

My wife, deferring in the first blush of young love, took the trombone as a part—although perhaps not the best—of the complete ME.

Customarily I play solo along with such titans of trombonia as Jack Teagarden and Miff Mole. They're on records. I'm on the coffee table alongside the speaker. Hi was never fier.

But misery loves company. So we have a hand. "We" are mostly journalists of assorted stripe who worrisome day there's no greater pinnacle of pleasure than to point the sackbut ceilingward and blast out the soul-clearing notes of the first downhill slide to "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen."

We play five or six times a year. Never the same place twice. We're no pros. Neither are our hosts.

Politicians Slow To Endorse Ruling

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

CHICAGO (AP)—It has taken the Republicans, as a party, six years to get around to saying they think the Supreme Court was right in outlawing segregation in public schools. The Democrats, as a party, haven't said it yet.

The court handed down its decision May 17, 1954. The first chance either party had to come out flatly in approval of the court's historic and far-reaching action was in their party platforms in the 1954 campaign. Both backed away from a flat approval.

Both parties, of course, had their eye on the Southern white vote. Too heavy an endorsement of the court ruling was a cinch to cost votes in the South for the party bold enough to try it.

In their 1956 platform the Republicans wouldn't go any further than saying their "party accepts the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court that racial discrimination in publicly supported schools must be progressively eliminated."

This was quite a long way from saying the party approved what the court did. President Eisenhower himself set the pace for such a caution by avoiding saying to this day that he approves the court's action.

But in 1956 the Democrats' platform was even more cagey than that of the Republicans. The Democrats, whose Southern members have been a constant obstacle to civil rights legislation in Congress, contented themselves with this:

"Recent decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States relating to segregation in publicly supported schools and elsewhere have brought consequences of vast importance to our nation as a whole and especially to communities directly affected."

It was hardly news that the court decision was going to force big changes.

Two weeks ago at Los Angeles the Democrats produced the strongest civil rights plank in their history—one which may cost them some Southern white votes—but still avoided flat endorsement of what the court did in 1954.

Junior Editors Quiz on RAINBOWS

QUESTION: Where do the colors of the rainbow come from?

ANSWER: A rainbow is formed when sunlight strikes tiny raindrops in the air. The sunlight appears to be white or yellow but it really is made up of seven colors - red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. When it strikes the raindrop, the sunbeam is bent or refracted and broken down into the component seven colors. Each color is reflected off the inner surface of the raindrop at a different angle. When these colors, reflected off millions and millions of tiny raindrops, strike the eye of a watcher they appear as bright colored bands in the sky. Rainbows have colorful names in many parts of the world. In some parts of the Orient they are known as "little windows in the sky." In Central Europe they are called "bridges of God."

FOR YOU TO DO: Although a rainbow is made up of seven colors, sometimes it is difficult to see more than four or five. The next time you are watching a rainbow see how many colors you can detect.

Here's Comparison Of Two Platforms

By OVID A. MARTIN CHICAGO (AP)—Here is a brief comparison between the civil rights plank adopted by the Democratic party and that approved by the Republican Platform Committee for submission to the party's convention tonight. Voting — Democrats pledged use of full powers of existing law to secure ballot for all. They promised to support action to eliminate state literacy tests and payment of poll taxes as requirements for voting. The Republican plank also pledged use of existing law to end discrimination at the ballot box. But it pledged legislation to provide that completion of six primary grades in state accredited schools is conclusive evidence of literacy for voting purposes. EDUCATION — Democrats promised to use full powers—legal and moral—to ensure the beginning of good faith compliance with the Supreme Court's school desegregation decision. They would give local school districts until 1963 to submit plans for first-step compliance with that decision. The Republican plank pledged use of the Civil Rights Act of 1960 to present obstruction of court desegregation orders. It proposed legislation authorizing the Justice Department to bring actions for school desegregation in appropriate cases, as when economic coercion or threat of physical harm is used to deter persons from going to court to establish their rights. It rejected the Democratic proposal to give school districts three years to submit plans for beginning integration. REPRESENTATIVES — Democrats promised support of legislation to establish a fair employment practices commission to help end discrimination in employment. They also promised to use full executive powers to assure racial equality in federal employment and in all activities carried on under government contracts. The Republican plank pledged creation of a commission on equal job opportunities to continue present federal efforts to end job discrimination on government contracts. It promised legislation to end discriminatory membership practices of some labor union locals, unless such practices are ended by the unions themselves. It pledged also development of a federal-state program to end discrimination in all employment areas. HUMANITIES — Democrats promised to take action to end discrimination in federal housing programs. The Republican plank pledged action to prohibit discrimination in housing contracted with aid of federal authorities. FEDERAL FACILITIES AND SERVICES — Democrats said the Justice Department should be empowered and directed to file civil suits to remove any person discriminating in all areas of community life such as schools, hospitals, swimming pools and public facilities. The Republican plank promised to end discrimination in federal funds for building segregated

Halleck Delivers Blistering Attack On Democratic Party

CHICAGO (AP)—Rep. Charles A. Halleck Tuesday night delivered a blistering attack on the Democratic party—its leaders, he said, are "betting the progress of a people they seek to lead." Halleck's hammer blows drew partisan roars from Republican conventioners packed into the International Amphitheater, waiting to hear President Eisenhower later.

The occasion was Halleck's assumption of the convention's permanent chairmanship. "There are no crying towels in this Republican convention," the House GOP leader said. "And there are no panic buttons. There will be no wringing of hands—no shameful attempts to downgrade the majesty of America."

He said, "is the low man on the totem pole of our economy" and he charged the Democrats in Congress put him there. "If anyone has been 'voted,' it's the farmer, and by a Democrat (sic) Congress," Halleck shouted.

And yet, he added, the Congress in these recent years has been controlled by "the very same Democrats who at Los Angeles were so loud in their insistence that something had to be done—and quick—to solve all the problems they claim have come about in recent years."

In the Los Angeles oratory, he said, "there was a strange silence about the record of a Democrat Congress. Only the father of the nominee got less attention." This was a swipe at the fact that Kennedy's controversial father, Joseph Kennedy, kept himself scarce at the Los Angeles convention.

As for the choice of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson as Kennedy's running mate, Halleck said "it's strictly a marriage of convenience—it doesn't fool anybody and it won't last."

Kennedy Resting While Bob Works

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, took a day off today while his campaign manager brother Robert meets in New York with wrangling pro-Kennedy party leaders of that pivotal state.

The senator scheduled no appointments. He planned some boating and a lot of rest at his summer home, where his vacation up to now has featured more high-powered work than relaxation.

Kennedy said his brother would confer during the day with Michael H. Prendergast, New York state Democratic chairman, on plans to bring rival New York factions into some unified effort in the November election campaign.

Prendergast has voiced vigorous protest against Kennedy's efforts to create a New York branch of "Citizens for Kennedy" as an organization through which independent voters, dissident Democrats and even disgruntled Republicans could work for the Democratic ticket.

Castro Cites Revolution As Example

By ROBERT BERRELEZ LAS MERCEDES, Cuba (AP)—An ailing Fidel Castro offered his revolution as an example to other Latin American countries Tuesday and repeated charges of U.S. aggression against his government.

Obviously not fully recovered from his bout with pneumonia, the Prime Minister looked drawn and haggard as he hoarsely harangued the crowd. He spoke for two hours and 15 minutes and in the end practically stumbled into the arms of his followers behind him.

Instead of a predicted half million, about 200,000 Cubans struggled through rain, heat and muddy roads to celebrate the seventh anniversary of Castro's revolutionary movement in its birthplace, the Sierra Maestra mountains of eastern Cuba.

Accusing the United States once again of aggression against his regime, Castro said "the principal reason for aggression against our country is to prevent our being an example" to the rest of Latin America.

"We will continue making our fatherland an example that will convert the Andes range into the Sierra Maestra of the continent," he declared.

The Cuban leader also repeated his charge that the proposed new U.S. aid program for Latin America is a bribe to whip up opposition to him.

Blind Veteran Is Oklahoma Victor

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A nearly blind veteran of Bataan and a state senator from Tulsa scored victories in Oklahoma's lachrymose primary runoff election Tuesday.

Herz Bussey, 37, a county attorney, won a 6-year term on the State Court of Criminal Appeals, beating presiding Judge John Powell almost 7 to 5.

Bussey, a prisoner of the Japanese for four years, lost part of his vision to shrapnel and part to malnutrition. He led Powell in the first primary July 5 and has no Republican opposition.

In the race for the Democratic First District congressional nomination state Sen. Yates Land apparently beat Wesley Disney. Both are from Tulsa. Unofficial counts showed Land won 13,348 to 12,672. Land meets Rep. Page Belcher, Oklahoma's lone Republican congressman, in November.

In the only statewide race, veteran politician Wilburn Cartwright won renomination to a 10th 6-year term on the State Corporation Commission, whipping state Supreme Court Clerk Andy Payne by almost 25,000 votes.

Supreme Court Justice Harry Halley won another 6-year term by defeating District Judge Leslie Webb. Both are from Tulsa.

One of the state questions, approved by more than 24,000 votes, authorizes a 19 million dollar bond issue to set up a revolving loan

This Joint Was Jumping

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Things were really jumping around a Hagerstown shopping center Monday.

Deputy Sheriff Lester Isanogle couldn't believe his eyes. Bouncing across the road in front of him was a kangaroo.

After doing a double take, he began to pursue it. Some shoppers and several curiosity seekers joined him.

They cornered the five-foot female kangaroo in a corn field. During the excitement she had given birth to a joey.

The kangaroo had escaped from a cage toppled by wind which hit a small circus compound in the shopping center.

She and her offspring were reported in fair shape, despite the ordeal.

Shivers Not Running, Yet

AUSTIN (AP)—Former Gov. Allan Shivers says he has no plans to run for office this year.

But his statement issued to newsmen Tuesday clearly left the door open to any change of mind later.

"I have not made any announcement of an intention to run for any office and I have no present plans to make such an announcement. I continue to be very much interested in state and national politics," he said.

A report floated around Dallas last week that backers of the former governor were seeking to get him to run against Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson in November.

Shivers said he appreciated "the interest of friends who, at various times since I left the governor's office, have urged me to seek public office again." He is scheduled to do for 15 or 20 years," the jurist said.

Chile Valley Is Flooded

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Water continued to pour today over a valley normally inhabited by 100,000 persons as earth-dam mounds crumbled further below Lake Rincón in southern Chile.

Heavy rainstorms, strong winds and earth tremors added to the plight of the thousands of refugees from Valdivia, in the heart of the valley, a city devastated by earth quakes in May and now almost certain to be destroyed by flood waters from the swollen lake, 30 miles upstream.

Several towns in the valley already were under water. Only the tops of houses were visible from the air.
