County Crime Prevention Drive Opens

Sheriff John Rainey announced the beginning of a year-long crime prevention program today with the kickoff of Operation Identification, a property marking program designed to thwart burglars and help the Collingsworth County Sheriff's Department return stolen property.

"Crime prevention is a vital part of law enforcement," Sheriff Rainey said in announcing the program. "If we can stop some of the crimes before they happen, not only will we have a safer community, but also we'll be saving some tax dollars, since the money that would be spent to handle the increased case load of the county's rising crime rate would be cancelled into more productive areas."

Operation Identification is the first project in the crime prevention public information and education program starting today here as well as in Carson, Deaf Smith, Donley, Hartley, Lipscomb, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Swisher and Wheeler County Sheriff's Departments and the Berger, Canyon, Clarendon, Friona, Fritch, Pampa, Shamrock and Tulia Police Departments. The Collingsworth County Sheriff's Department is assisting with the initiation of the program.

The project's objective is to make individuals more aware of the steps they can take as private citizens to arrest the growth of crime. The primary target of this year's activities is burglary.

Panhandle Regional Planning Commission has enlisted the aid of Austin-based Travis Froehlich Associates to consult on the implementation of the program.

Overton Honored at Radiography Meeting

Noel Overton, director of the laboratory and x-ray departments of Collingsworth General Hospital, was accepted into fellowship in the National College of Radiography Technology and was awarded the Key of Fellowship Friday, September 20, in Chicago.

He also received a citation for service rendered during the past year.

The ceremony took place during the National Conference of Clinical Radiography Technologists, held September 17 through 21 at the Blackstone Hotel.

Mr. Overton's acceptance into the fellowship of this college was in recognition of his contributions of scientific educational material in radiography technology over an 8-year period, and his service rendered in behalf of the members of the Clinical Radiography Technologists Society.

"We are fortunate to have this calibre trained person on our hospital staff," said Garner Altom, hospital administrator.

Hospital Board Adopts Record $411,904 Budget

The Collingsworth County Hospital Board Monday night, September 23, adopted a record budget of $411,904 to operate Collingsworth General Hospital during the 1974-75 fiscal year. At the same time it set a public hearing on the budget for the next regular board meeting, Monday, October 28.

The new budget provides for mandatory salary increases for employees January 1, 1975, under the Minimum Wage Law for anticipated higher costs of everything the hospital has to buy, according to Garner Altom, hospital administrator.

The new budget is approximately $62,000 higher than the budget adopted by the board a year ago, and around $25,000 above the amended budget later approved by the board. This latter amounts to $386,769, which will be the actual cost of operating the hospital for the year ending September 30, 1974.

The budget for the year ending had to be amended when the new minimum wage law was passed, and when costs of supplies rose after the economic stabilization program went off, Mr. Altom said.

The new budget includes the minimum wage increase to $2.00 on January 1, 1975, and allows at least 10 per cent increase for other expenses and supplies.

The Hospital district derives most of its revenue from three sources:

- The 70 cents per $100 tax rate on a county property valuation of a little more than $12 million.

- Hospital bills paid by patients.

- Medicare, which is an unknown figure until after the annual audit, Mr. Altom said.

Board members present Monday were Otis Emmert, Bill Janes, Tom Cunningham, J.C. Howell and John Eron Forbis.

Mr. Altom said that anyone who had any questions can call him or any member of the board.

Charles Waugh In Holy Land

Charles Waugh, minister of First Christian Church, left Monday, September 23, on a 10-day tour of the Holy Land.

Mr. Waugh said he will be traveling with a group of Christian people who are interested in visiting places related to the Bible and the Christian religion.

Free Speech and Hearing Clinic For Children to Be on Oct. 5

A team composed of speech and hearing specialists from the Panhandle Regional Speech and Hearing Association will visit Collingsworth County Saturday, October 5, to provide free speech and hearing examinations for children in the county's three schools who are four, five and six years old.

They will be at Wellington High School from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and again from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

"It is now understood that all types of speech, language and hearing problems can be dealt with far more effectively when diagnosed at an early age," said Miss Rita Lowrie, who is working with this project.

"Some of these problems are subtle and not easy for parents and teachers to identify, therefore, these experienced professional volunteers are coming to evaluate every child in the four to six age range."

It was pointed out that although Mrs. Thurman Adkins, the speech therapist for the Wellington Schools under the Plan A Program, may have checked a child, it is suggested that the parents have the child reevaluated by the team which will be here

Kiwanis Plans Pancake Supper

Wellington Kiwanis has announced their annual Pancake Supper for Friday, October 11, before the Wheeler-Skyrocket football game.

It will be in the Elementary School Cafeteria from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m., according to Bill Spillman, incoming president.

Additional plans will be announced. Tickets will be available from the Kiwanis.

Mark Fourmentin Shows Grand Champion Steer

Mark Fourmentin, 11 year old Collingsworth County 4-H Club youth, showed the Grand Champion Feeder, light weight, in the 1974 Tri-State Fair Junior Steer Show Saturday, September 21.

Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fourmentin, and this is the first time that the steer, Rusty, has been shown.

The Hereford steer was bred by the Mill Iron Ranch, according to County Agent Don Reeves. While the ranch now maintains a commercial herd, many of the animals are from the old Mill Iron blood line.

Mark has had the calf since May.

Its show weight was 895 pounds. Mr. Reeves said it will not be shown again until January, when it will begin a circuit of some of the major livestock shows of the southwest. Tentatively, these will be the livestock shows at Amarillo, Fort Saturday, as they check hearing with equipment not available in the local school, said Miss Lowrie.

This visit of the evaluation team to Wellington is being sponsored by La Paisana

Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

They urge every parent to bring their children in this age range to the team for assessment.

There is no charge for this evaluation and consultation. Those children found to have significant problems will be referred to appropriate professionals for complete diagnosis and recommendations.

Rain Totals Up to 8 Inches During 10-Day Period

Rain-drenched Collingsworth soaked up 6 to 8 inches of moisture in the 10-day spell in which every bit of water went in the ground where it fell.

The county received moisture from mid-week on, and Tuesday's daylong rainfall amounted to 1.28 to two inches or more county-wide. Wellington measured 1.28 inches Tuesday, September 24, and a total of 6.02 for the 10-day period which began Sunday, September 15.

These figures were reported by Charles Floyd, who is in charge of the Weather Bureau Rain Gauge.

Quail received two inches since Sunday, and altogether a little more than six inches, according to Cary Don Neeley.

Harold Caldwell, rural carrier for Route One Wellington and Route One Quail, said the entire area, from the Bean Hill area west

Rockets Travel to Childress Friday

Wellington Skyrockets travel to Childress Friday night, September 27, for their last game before conference play starts.

They will also try a repeat performance of last year's startling upset when they took a victory over a AA team that went on to play in the regionals.

This year the picture is a little different.

Coach James Williams says the Skyrockets are young but scrappy and willing to tie into the larger Childress line.

The Bobcats, on the other hand, can boast of 17 seniors from last year's victorious season. "As far as Childress team is concerned it is better than they had last year," conceded Coach Williams.

He cited one of Childress fine halfbacks, Ronnie Hawkins, who has lots of speed and catches the ball well.

Most of the Bobcat linemen he calls pretty good and quick on their blocking. Childress has won two of its three games played this season. After losing to Class 2-A Memphis 14-12, the

Mrs. Fulcher Dies Monday of Long Illness

Mrs. J.M. Fulcher, 94, died at 12:05 p.m. Monday, September 23, in Thomas Nursing Center, where she had been a resident for 11 years.

She had lived in the area 58 years, coming from Coke County.

A native Texan, Mrs. Fulcher was born in Bosque County May 18, 1880, the daughter of Andrew J. and Florida Malone. She was married to J.M. Fulcher December 25, 1894, in Erath County. He died January 3, 1963.

PTO Begins Plans For 1974 Carnival

The Parent-Teachers Organization of Wellington Elementary School held its first meeting of the year on Thursday, September 19.

With Mrs. Elmer Keller, president, directing the business session, projects for the coming year were discussed and plans made for the annual Halloween Carnival.

Co-chairmen for the carnival were announced, Mrs. Earl Lynn Bartlett and Mrs. Bob Weatherly.

Officers serving with Mrs.

Keller this year are Mrs. Dennis Pepper, vice-president; Miss Rita Lowrie, secretary; and Mrs. Carroll Nunneley, publicity director.

The next PTO meeting will be in November, when plans will be made for Education Week. Another meeting is planned for March and a final meeting near the end of school when officers for next year will be named.

After the Thursday meeting was adjourned, those attending went to their homerooms to elect homeroom chairmen and plan room parties for the year.

tation and public information portions of the program. The Austin public relations and advertising firm is assisting 13 other Texas law enforcement agencies in the same type of crime prevention program.

The regional crime prevention program is funded by the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office with federal funds from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. Partially matching local funds also support the project.

Crime prevention is a relatively new concept for law enforcement agencies whose duties have previously been involved with crime "after-the-fact." This project, however, concerns itself with the preventive aspects of crime control and seeks to enlist public participation which is vital to its success.

Operation Identification is aimed at marking property with an easily-traced identification number and is only one portion of the overall crime prevention effort. Once an article is marked—usually with the owner's driver's license number—it carries his "brand" and is, therefore, more difficult for a thief to resell and easier for the owner and law enforcement officers to positively identify if recovered. The return of stolen property marked in Operation Identification is made easier.

Leland Wood, Crime Prevention Specialist for the PRPC, will work with the participating law enforcement agencies in implementing their crime prevention programs. Mr. Wood is a graduate of the National Crime Prevention Institute in Kentucky and formerly served with the Potter County Sheriff's Department.

"We recognize that existing law enforcement forces would be completely inadequate to handle the total burden of crime prevention in addition to their current activities, and that the responsibility for crime prevention, as well as crime control, lies with the public," said Sheriff Rainey.

"Therefore, our first responsibility is to let the public know what they can do to prevent crime, using whatever means we can—media, speeches, brochures and person-to-person contact. The first phase of the program is designed to enlist the support, understanding and participation of citizens," added Sheriff Rainey.

During the year the participating police and sheriff's departments will try to reach as many as possible. "Public awareness of the fact that there is a problem is the crux of the matter," Sheriff Rainey said. "The more everyone knows of the crime problem and the steps they can take to prevent it from ever occurring, the less trouble we're all going to have with crime."

Information on Operation Identification is available through the participating law enforcement departments.

to the county line had about two inches Tuesday. Some crops are beginning to show the effect of the moisture and need for sunshine, and some cotton is beginning to take the second growth.

County roads are beginning to wash, especially in the Bean Hill and Cottonwood communities.

The Dodson area has received approximately 8 inches for the entire period, according to Mrs. T.E. Lennon.

At Rolla, 6.50 inches has fallen since September 15. There, too, cotton is beginning to need the sun.

Mrs. Kenneth Davis, four and one-half miles northwest of Wellington, reported 1.5 inches of rain from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, and a total of more than seven inches for the period.

While cotton farmers are needing sunshine, grain sorghum growers feel this is a big boost to the late crop, and the only complaint wheat farmers have is that they didn't have more of their crop in the ground when it came. Most agreed that it was too dry to plant before mid-September, and had they done so, there was the possibility of losing their seed.

Water was backing up behind some terraces this week but in no fields could any washing be detected.

Bobcats defeated Clarendon 25-14, and last Friday, on a muddy field, downed Shamrock 13-9.

The mud will be with both teams again this week, for it means the Rockets are going to have to get in a lot of work in the day left to them.

"It's according to how much work each team can get in," said the coach.

"I know Childress is going to be ready for us and it's going to take tremendous effort. But if we play good pass defense and stop the Hawkins boy, we can win," he predicted.

Since the Rockets had an open date last week, all their injuries have healed, and if someone doesn't get hurt in the two weeks remaining, they will probably be in as good shape as any team this season.

Families Receive VA Pamphlet Soon

Families eligible for the Veterans Administration's Civilian Health and Medical Program (CHAMPVA) will soon be receiving in the mail a new VA pamphlet on these health benefits services for dependents and survivors, according to Jack Coker, VA Regional Office Director.

The just published CHAMPVA pamphlet (VA information bulletin 13-6) furnishes detailed information on eligibility, medical services, and methods for filing claims.

Coker said copies are available at all VA hospitals, clinics, domiciliaries, and regional offices, at the veterans' assistance centers, nationwide, and at U.S. embassies and consulates overseas.

Request for the pamphlet should be sent to the nearest VA hospital or regional office, not to the VA Central Office in Washington, D.C.

CHAMPVA provides partial VA payment for the health care of wives and children of veterans who are 100 percent disabled from service-connected causes and for the survivors of those who died of such causes after leaving military service.

IT'S A GOOD FEELING TO HAVE AN OLDS AROUND YOU.

We raised the gas mileage in every 1975 Olds model.

Every '75 Olds has a new Maximum Mileage System that helps make it a better car in several ways: Our best mileage in years. Smooth-running engines. Fewer tune-ups and less routine maintenance.

And—better exhaust emission control. The System represents the most advanced engineering and technology we can build into a '75 Olds. It includes a new catalytic converter (see below)—and a lot more.

There's a new high-energy ignition, for a hotter spark and improved ignition performance. Also, Olds engineers adjusted shift points in transmissions. Installed low-ratio economy axles. And made GM-spec steel-belted radial tires standard.

As you can see, we've done a lot to improve the gas mileage capability of every 1975 Oldsmobile.

New Catalytic Converter—designed for long life.

This "pod" full of platinum-palladium coated beads provides a new way to reduce most emissions—after combustion, in the exhaust. It does a more effective job—and it eliminates some of the gas-robbing, combustion-stage controls of the past. Best of all, it allowed Olds engineers to re-tune the engines to run smoother and give better MPG than last year.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. Does the Catholic Church have any secret societies, such as the IRA and the Knights of Columbus?

A. The only secret in the Church is that of the confessional, which has never been violated. The IRA has nothing whatever to do with the Church; it is a guerrilla army, dedicated to the overthrow of British domination in North Ireland. The Church condemns its killings and atrocities. The Knights are a highly respected organization all over the world; a brotherhood of men, such as the Lions, Rotary or Elks, devoted to good works and charitable enterprises. Nothing secret about them.

Q. I have heard the term Pro-Cana Conferences in your Church. What is it?

A. They are a series of lectures or conferences for couples who are engaged to be married, or even thinking about marriage. Their purpose is a spiritual, intellectual, emotional, and practical preparation for Catholic marriage. They get their name from the miracle at the marriage feast of Cana.

Today's modern electric range offers you a host of special features which assure uniform cooking results each time. You'll find that cooking electrically is clean, cool and economical.

For best results, use flat bottom utensils with tight fitting covers. Utensils of medium or heavy weight aluminum conduct heat faster, transfer heat evenly and respond quickly to temperature changes.

Match the utensil to the size of the unit. Use 8 inch units for large utensils. Use 6 inch units for small to average sized pans.

Use high setting for a quick start for any surface cooking, or to boil water quickly. When cooking temperature is reached, switch to a lower setting.

Do not pre-heat the oven for roasting or broiling, but do pre-heat the oven to the temperature given in the recipe for baking.

Select correct, measured heat. The accurate heat selector switch or oven thermostat enables you to select, exactly, the same correct temperature each time you use it.

For good heat distribution around the pans, when baking, they should not touch the sides of the oven or each other. Allow one inch clearance. Check for doneness at minimum baking time on recipe, don't keep opening oven door to peek.

La Paisana Chapter, DAR, Observes Constitution Week, Sept. 17-23

"Can we, will we, do our part to keep alive the enduring values which brought this Nation to pinnacle of greatness?" Bill Spillman, young Wellin-ton attorney, asked as he addressed members of La Paisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution at their meeting Monday evening, Sept. 23.

"We must rededicate ourselves to the proposition that this Nation shall remain morally and militarily strong, financially sound, sovereign and free. Only thus can we hope to pass on our proud heritage of freedom into the future."

Continuing on the theme, "Stand Up and Be Counted," Mr. Spillman said

"Freedom is at once our most priceless heritage and serious responsibility, for God does not grant freedom for those who will not guard it or defend it. The lesson of history is that freedom cannot be passed from one generation to another without continuing effort on the part of the people. Each generation must earn freedom if it is to deserve it."

The dinner meeting, held at Cherokee Inn Restaurant, came near the close of Constitution Week, observed nationally by Daughters of the American Revolution.

A group from the chapter presented a skit which they gave earlier to Elementary School students, depicting symbols of freedom or those who fought for it. Mrs. Earl L.

Bartlett was Old Glory; Mrs. Jack Davis, George Washington; Mrs. John Henard, Betty Ross; Miss Rita Lowrie, Benjamin Franklin; Mrs. Dan Langford, Clara Barton; and Uncle Sam, Mrs. Richard Fourmentin.

With Mrs. Les White, regent, presiding, Mrs. Bartlett reported on the program at school and winners of the patriotic poster contest.

Mrs. White announced the death of Mrs. Donald Spicer, former president general, NSDAR, and read a letter from the new president general, Mrs. Sara R. Jones.

Mrs. Jack Davis spoke on developing events in the news which DAR members should watch. Among these is Senate Bill 1134, which would define ownership of the lands beneath the Ocean floor—an area now highly valued for the minerals it contains. Mrs. Davis urged members to inform themselves on this legislation and write their congressmen. She continued with a report on Bacone Indian College at Muskogee, Oklahoma, which DAR supports. She urged members to read 1/2 "To the Republic" in the DAR Magazine.

Reports were given by Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, treasurer and Mrs. Richard Fourmentin, chairman of the DAR Schools committee.

Miss Rita Lowrie announced the speech and hearing clinic

Senior Citizens Must Eat Well

It's often hard for the senior citizen to be sure he is eating well, one foods and nutrition specialist contended last week.

She's Frances Reasonover, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System.

"If the older person lives alone, it's easy to get in the habit of cooking only convenience foods. They're easy to prepare and generally easy to chew -- but many of them are too high in carbohydrates," she pointed out.

Another pitfall for the senior citizen is putting too much faith in the claims for "miracle diets." The specialist suggested if you aren't feeling well, don't be misled by advertisements for these products. A balanced diet is still the best way to maintain good health, she said.

Older persons' eyesight and sense of smell are not as keen as in earlier years. Serving meals attractively and seasoning food well are important to keep the appetite alive.

"Try meat blended with textured protein -- it usually costs less than ten percent of ground meat," she advised.

which La Paisana Chapter is sponsoring.

Attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Spillman, Mrs. Ansel McDowell of Perryton and Miss Virginia Robey, guests, and Mrs. Langford, Mrs. Davis, Miss Lowrie, Mrs. Bartlett, Mrs. White, Mrs. Henard, Mrs. Frank Fourmentin, Mrs. Richard Fourmentin, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Mrs. J. Frank Johnson, Miss Maudie Coffee, Mrs. Hubert Bowen, Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, and Mrs. Louise Templeton.

Those present were Gail Rudy, Beverly Orr, Callie McDonald, Pam Turner, Tina Young, Carla Seitz, Tami Boswell, Mrs. V.K. Orr, Jr., Mrs. George Henry and Mrs. James Boswell.

Other activities during the three-day meeting were workshops on delegates, publicity, citizenship, family life, 4-H, health, cultural arts and recreation, safety and THDA itself.

Officers for 1975 were elected and installed Thursday.

Haralson, Mrs. Fred Yarbrough, and Mrs. Arla Felts, home extension agent.

CHEVROLET FOR 1975. CARS THAT MAKE SENSE FOR TODAY.

Nova LN Sedan

Monza 2+2

MONZA 2+2 The small car of tomorrow will probably be a little more powerful, handy and comfortable than ever. The 1975 Monza 2+2, shown above, offers this today. It has advances like rectangular headlights set in a soft front end, fold-down rear seat, and a new 4.3-litre V8 engine available.

NOVA In the background above, our new Nova LN Sedan. A luxurious Nova with thick carpeting and wide-back reclining front seats. For 1975, all Novas have been emphatically refined along the lines of elegant European sedans. Nova's always been good. Now it's beautiful.

CAMARO Our sensibly sporty compact. It looks like a million and drives like it looks.

IMPALA America's favorite car continues to provide the room many families need plus plenty of quiet and comfort. Still the great American value.

WAGONS Big ones, small ones, in-between ones. Practical wagons that make sense for America. And you.

CHEVELLE Mid-size, easy to drive, room for six, mid-priced, strong reputation for value. America's most popular intermediate.

MONTE CARLO Its special ability: making you feel good. About the way it looks and drives. About your own taste and judgment.

CHEVROLET'S NEW EFFICIENCY SYSTEM FOR 1975

It's the key part of a program aimed at helping our new cars run leaner (more economically), run cleaner—and save you money every mile.

The Efficiency System is standard on all 1975 Chevrolets with V8 or 6-cylinder engines. It's a series of significant engineering improvements working together for the very first time.

Components include High Energy Ignition, catalytic converter, Early Fuel Evaporation and steel-belted radial ply tires. In sum, the System is designed to heighten the pleasure and lower the cost of driving a 1975 Chevrolet—to bring you a better running car in many ways, along with improved fuel economy, more miles between recommended maintenance and an engine that stays cleaner internally because of no-lead fuel.

Your Chevrolet dealer will gladly give you the details and answer your questions. See him and the sensible 1975 Chevrolets starting September 27.

Bishop Carleton Dedicates First Methodist Parsonage

Dedication of the parsonage of First United Methodist Church was held Sunday, September 22, at 6:00 p.m. as that congregation cleared the home of all indebtedness and moved on to the next step of its building program.

Bishop Alsie Carleton of Albuquerque, N.M., Bishop of the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences, preached the dedication sermon and conducted the service which followed. Taking part with him were The Rev. Ted Dotts of Pampa, district superintendent; The Rev. James Boswell, pastor; and Dan Henard, Jr., chairman of the church board.

The Dedication was preceded by an open house held at the parsonage from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. A salad supper for the congregation was held in the church dining room after the service.

Bishop Carleton spoke briefly on "The Powers of God," which he defined as the power of the Bible, the power of the church, and the power of the Son of God. He reminded that the scriptures given by Christ's followers in the early years of the church are as applicable now as then, and that no times are easy times for God's people.

The congregation joined with their bishop in the dedication ritual.

Bishop Carleton noted from the pulpit that he was among friends, and remarked on his friendship for both the pastor and the district superintendent.

A West Texan, he was reared at Floydada and was ordained a deacon in the Methodist Church at Memphis.

He studied at McMurry College, Abilene and Perkins School of Theology of Southern Methodist University. Years as a pastor followed, leading to the pastorate of University Park Methodist Church, Dallas. He was then appointed a district superintendent of the Dallas District.

His next step was into the place he now holds, Bishop of the Northwest Texas and

New Mexico Conferences. The handsome light brick home for pastors of First United Methodist Church is at 906 Childress Street. It was completed at a cost of approximately $20,000 in 1971, during the pastorate of the Rev. R.T. Dyess, now of Kress.

It was the second step in the program which, when completed, will give First United Methodist Church in Wellington a complete new church facility.

First to be completed was the Educational Building, lying immediately south of the Church sanctuary.

School Converts to Nine Weeks Grading

Wellington schools have converted to the 9-weeks grading system and High School Principal Melvin Cardwell explained this week how the new system will work.

Formerly the school has been on a six-weeks grading system.

Regular report cards will be given the students at the end of each nine weeks, Mr. Cardwell said.

Midway in the 9-weeks, students whom the teachers feel are not working to their capacity, or who are lagging, will receive progress reports, which are to be examined by the parents, signed and returned to the school.

First of the progress reports will be given the students Thursday, September 26, Mr. Cardwell said.

Parents are asked to examine the progress reports, sign them and return them by the students Friday.

"The reason we are doing this is to inform the parents of the progress of their children or the areas of deficiencies," Mr. Cardwell said.

Upon receiving a progress report, any parent who would like a conference with the principal or with the teacher is urged to call the school, 447-2527.

Not all students will get a progress report, it was pointed out, but only those boys and girls who the teachers feel could do better work or who have some deficiency in their work.

At the end of the nine weeks all students will receive a regular report card. "We hope this may eliminate excessive absences, excessive tardies, and also inadequate preparation both inside and outside of class," explained the principal.

Many schools already have gone to the 9-weeks grading system with a progress report at mid-point.

Each instructor will give progress report cards in each subject taught.

Annual Soil Tour Will Be Held Oct. 10

The annual soil conservation and farm result demonstration tour will be held Thursday, October 10, County Extension Agent Don Reeves has announced.

The tour is sponsored jointly by the Extension Service and the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District.

The crops visited will include some of the demonstration plots of the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration program in Collingsworth County, and these will be announced in detail next week.

A barbecue, with the SCD as host, will be served at noon.

Kiwanians Install Bill Spillman Oct. 1

Wellington Kiwanians will install 1974-75 officers at their annual banquet Tuesday, October 1, at 7:30 p.m. in Bura Handley Community Center.

Installing the officers will be Jerry Davis of Pampa, the incoming lieutenant governor of Division VI, while Gerald Hall of Vega, who presently holds that office, will be a special guest.

Bill Spillman will take the office of president, succeeding Pat McAlister.

Other incoming officers will be Lyman Daniel, first vice president; Jack Sanford,

TRACTOR MOWER . . . COLLECTING MONEY

Tractor Stolen at Fairview Cemetery

The 129 Cadet International Tractor-Mower, bought by the Wellington Cemetery Association four months ago, was stolen from a locked building in Fairview Cemetery recently.

This is the little tractor-mower that sat on downtown sidewalks for several weeks as Collingsworth residents of all ages gave their nickels and quarters and dollars to pay for it.

The Cemetery Association is offering a $200 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons taking the tractor-mower, said County Judge Zook Thomas, who serves as chairman of the Cemetery Association.

The machine cost $1,387. The hap was torn from the door of the building in which the tractor was kept in order for the burglars to get inside.

The loss was reported to Judge Thomas Monday, September 16, he said, and it is not known what day the burglary occurred. The announcement was made after a called meeting of the Cemetery Association directors Thursday.

"The Cemetery Association is not financially able to replace the tractor, and it is real important that we get it back," Judge Thomas said. For several years, the association has been able to ments to bring Electra Malone to Wellington, as members of her family in the Dallas area have studied with the artist.

Miss Malone has received critical acclaim for the freshness and spontaneity with which her works depict her intense interest in form, value and color.

A native Texan, she has been painting since she was a teen-ager, and works equally well in acrylics, oils, pastels and mixed media, although she is primarily known for her water colors.

She lives in Dallas and paints and teaches in her studio at Lakeside Village on Lake Ray Hubbard. She has taught at Southern Methodist University and was an instructor for a workshop in Spain and Portugal.

Her works are in many public and private collections and owners of her paintings include a former president, governor of Texas, and members of Congress.

Past president of the Southwestern Water Color Society, the artist holds workshops and serves as juror at shows across the country.

Electra Malone is represented at the Crest-Dallas Galleries in Dallas; Kaching Galleries in Santa Fe; Oklahoma City Art Center; Western Galleries in Cheyenne, Wyoming; Baker Collector's Gallery in Lubbock; The Rubin Dario National Theatre for the Arts in Managua, Nicaragua, and many others.

collect barely enough money to cover actual costs. Now equipment that was bought some years ago is wearing out, and the tractor-mower was one of the replacement items bought.

Tickets for the barbecue are available here from David Baumgardner, J.C. Hartman, or from Ike Paschall of Lutie.

The beef is being barbecued in pits at the ranch under the supervision of Caylor Caddell of Dalhart.

Vinson Men Take Rabies Shots

Three Vinson men began taking anti-rabies shots in Hollis Monday, September 23, after treating a calf which died of rabies.

They are Lloyd Chambers, owner of the calf, and two neighbors, James Taylor and Monroe Keys, who helped him treat the animal.

When it died, Mr. Chambers called a Mangum veterinarian who removed its brain and sent it to the Oklahoma State Health Department. A positive diagnosis was returned.

Mr. Chambers believes the calf was bitten by a rabid coyote or skunk in a pasture.

Mrs. Maroney and her mother, Mrs. Arthur Hudson, live in the family home in Northwest Wellington. She told friends that she fell as she was walking across a room.

It looks as if sugar is headed for 40 cents a pound, double the price bulk consumers were paying just last spring. Producer costs are up sharply; fertilizer has doubled in price and the chains, sprockets and drives used in harvesting equipment have doubled in cost. Fuel and rubber costs are also up sharply from a year ago.

Another visitor from the Caribbean like Hurricane Carmen could force sugar prices even higher. Carmen wiped out up to 200,000 tons of raw sugar in Louisiana. That amounts to a week of total U.S. sugar consumption.

The U.S. will produce 5.9-million tons of sugar this year and consume 10.4-million tons. Cane sugar amounts to half that figure of 5.9-million tons. Louisiana is the third largest cane producer, with Hawaii and Florida producing substantially higher amounts. Texas will produce about 100,000 tons. Hawaii's cane production is limited by a lack of land and water. Florida lacks mill capacity and Texas has a state air pollution regulation that limits burning cane in open fields, effectively limiting production to 100,000 tons.

Even if trade with Cuba becomes a reality, sugar prices will continue to soar. Cuba has committed most of its 1974-75 crop to the Soviet Union and is selling any surplus sugar on the world spot market for more than the going U.S. wholesale price. Any sugar coming into the U.S. from Cuba will only replace sugar imports from Brazil, the Philippines and Australia which supply 40% of U.S. sugar needs. These countries can sell their sugar more profitably closer to their own shores.

A shortage of sugar and the resulting high price can also act to discourage increased production. Farmers will be slow to expand production because just about the time they are ready to cash in with their higher production, the price may fall. Production experts now predict high sugar prices for the U.S. at least through 1980.

Students Named On Dean's List

Three Wellington students are among those listed on the Dean's List for the summer semester at Southwestern Oklahoma State University, Weatherford.

They are Robert E. Cantrell, Donald E. Martin and Charles L. Mauldin. To be eligible for the honor, a student must be enrolled in at least six semester hours of courses offering letter grades, and must have a grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale and no letter grade below C.

Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.Y. Martin, and Mauldin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Mauldin, are pharmacy students.

City-County Law Enforcement to Receive Radios

AUSTIN -- Governor Dolph Briscoe today announced his approval of a criminal justice grant of $21,143 to the Amarillo-based Panhandle Regional Planning Commission for the area's law enforcement radio communications system.

The supplemental funding will purchase 15 additional mobile radios to be installed in newly-acquired police vehicles. Both the county and city will receive radio equipment for law enforcement vehicles, according to Sheriff's Deputy Alvin Minatrea.

Other radio equipment will be purchased for Hansford, Lipscombe and Randall counties and the cities of Friona and Sunray.

Money comes from the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office. CJD administers the state's block grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration under the Crime Control Act of 1973.

The local grant was among 41, for a total of $1,946,713, which the governor approved.

Mrs. Vertie Saunders of Wichita Falls visited recently with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Littleton.

Fall Time to Visit At Fort Richardson

JACKSBORO -- Labor Day is over and the crush of summer crowds is gone from the state parks.

Now is the time to get out to a local park such as Fort Richardson State Historic Park near Jacksboro in Jack County.

Just a short drive from Fort Worth, Fort Richardson is steeped in the history of the Indian Wars and recently outfitted with new camping facilities to accommodate organizations such as scouting groups.

Back in the 1860s attempts to contain the Kiowas and Comanches inside reservations on the Indian Territory (now the State of Oklahoma) largely were futile and the Reconstruction Government was forced to build new forts and reoccupy old ones to protect the westward expansion of white men.

Of the new outposts, Fort Richardson was the farthest north, only some 70 miles from the Indian Territory.

Tents and picket houses were set up hastily in 1866 on the banks of Lost Creek, a tributary of the Trinity River, near the village of Jacksboro.

But before a permanent camp could be built, order came down to abandon Fort Richardson and move to Buffalo Springs, about 20 miles north of Jacksboro.

This decision proved to be a fatal mistake. Buffalo Springs had no water -- and too much rum -- and it was too far from supply routes and there was no timber to build with.

By 1867 the Buffalo Springs site was abandoned and the troops were ordered to establish a permanent post back at Jacksboro.

The fort brought prosperity to Jacksboro. It provided employment for 150 civilians and extra pay for off-duty soldiers.

Life at Richardson was typical of other frontier towns of the era. A combination of lawlessness and the continual menace of Indians created a feeling of danger and excitement.

Across the creek from the fort was an area known as "Sudsville," a section frequented by gamblers, gunmen, traildrivers and camp followers. Diseases attendant with such localities were common in "Sudsville."

Life for the Comanches and Kiowas in the Indian Territory was one of boredom and subjugation after the freedom of the plains they once knew. Horse and scalp raids south into Texas were frequent.

The most infamous episode was the Warren wagon train massacre on May 17, 1871. A wagon-master, 10 teamsters and a night watchman were attacked by a large force of Kiowas and Comanches near Salt Creek.

Six of the teamsters and the wagon-master were killed.

It was the misfortune of the marauding Indians that General William Tecumseh Sherman was at Fort Richardson when the survivors came in. As a matter of fact, he passed over the same trail as the wagon train and only the prophecies by a medicine man of easier prey to come prevented the Indians from attacking.

Sherman ordered Colonel Ranald Mackenzie to pursue the Indians and bring them back for trial. This was a relatively easy task for Mackenzie for when the Indians returned to Fort Sill they bragged of their exploits to the Indian agent.

One of the captured Kiowa chiefs, Satank, was killed on the return trip to Jacksboro, but two others, Santanta and Big Tree, stood trial for the raid and set the precedent of trial for Indians in a white man's court.

The Warren Creek incident prompted Sherman to give Mackenzie's Sixth Cavalry carte blanche to carry out a policy of search-and-destroy of Indians in the area.

Fort Richardson remained occupied by the military until 1878 when the last troopers were ordered to Fort Griffin, presently another, historical park operated by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Fort Richardson lives on in its restored military buildings, museum and new camping facilities.

History is offset by modern campsites, picnic areas and utilities. Fees are minimal: $1 for regular campsites and $1.50 for sites with water and electricity. Vehicle entrance fees are $1 per vehicle per day.

Hiking and nature trails also are included in the park along with an eight-acre lake.

Fort Richardson is off Highway 281, one mile out of Jacksboro toward Fort Worth.

W.J. BOYKIN

W. J. Boykin Appointed to PCA Board

W.J. Boykin of the Northfield community has been appointed to the Board of Directors of Rolling Plains PCA, replacing Dean Decker of Childress, who resigned his position in order to devote more time to a recently acquired ranching operation in South Dakota, according to J.R. Gleaton, President of the Association.

Boykin and his wife Margaret reside on their ranch in the Northfield community southwest of Childress where he is engaged in ranching and farming. They have one son, David, who attends Clarendon College and one daughter, Mrs. Richard Stotts, of near Clarendon.

Mr. Boykin has been a stockholder-member of the Association for 27 years and brings to the organization a great wealth of experience in all phases of agriculture.

Mr. Boykin's appointment is until the next annual stockholder's meeting in April, 1975, at which time he will be eligible for election to a three year term to the Board of Directors.

Christians In Dallas

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Christian were in Dallas Thursday through Saturday, September 19-22, to attend a Product Knowledge business meeting. The meeting was to look over new merchandise for 1975. A high-light of the trip was a tour through the mail order house.

There were 217 Sears merchants representing five states attending the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian also visited with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Marsh of Mineral Wells.

residence must also have in their possession a valid state hunting license.

Revenue from the Migratory Bird Hunting Stamps, which cost $5, is used by the U.S. Department of Interior to purchase waterfowl nesting, resting and wintering areas.

Since the issue of the first stamps in 1934, more than 2 million acres of land have been purchased with annual receipts of more than $11 million through the purchase of duck stamps by hunters.

You don't have to be a duck hunter to purchase the stamps, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

Persons interested in conservation may purchase the stamps with the assurance that the money they spend will be used to insure the future of waterfowl and other numerous species of birds, mammals and fish directly dependent upon wetlands.

FOOD MARKETING ALERT

USDA
Agricultural Marketing Service

As of mid-August, the food supply situation in September is expected to look like this . . .

RED MEATS —

Beef supplies will be moderately above September 1973. But all of the gain will come from grass-fed cattle, which will move to market in larger volume. Supplies of grain-fed beef will approximate the low level of September 1973.

Pork production should exceed year-earlier rates, but run below the 1970-72 average. Hog slaughter rates should be starting the seasonal increase.

POULTRY & EGGS —

Egg output should be slightly below September 1973 and about 4% under the 1971-73 average.

Broiler-fryers should be down 2% to 4% from last September and 4% to 6% below the 1971-73 average.

Turkey new-crop marketings should be about 2% below September 1973 and about 9% under the 1971-73 average. Cold storage holdings remain at record levels — one-third more than the most recent 3-year average.

MILK & DAIRY PRODUCTS —

Fluid milk, butter, cheese, and nonfat dry milk supplies should be adequate. Although milk production continues to decline seasonally, commercial stocks of the three manufactured items remain above levels of a year ago and the 1971-73 average.

FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS

Bartlett pear supplies will be ample, with output from California, Oregon, and Washington nearly equal to the 1971-73 average but 6% under 1973.

Prune and plum production in Michigan, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon should be about 10% less than last year and 5% below the 1971-73 average.

California grape supplies will be ample. Production is slightly less than a year ago, but 17% more than the 1971-73 average.

Apples will be ample as the late summer-fall harvest gets underway. The 1974 crop will be slightly under last year's, but about equal to the 1971-73 average.

Canned non-citrus fruits will continue tight, but citrus juices will be plentiful. At the end of July, Florida concentrated orange juice stocks were 20% larger than 1973's abundant supply.

Dried prunes remain ample. This year's production is expected to run 24% less than last year, but be greater than the latest 3-year average.

Raisin supplies will be moderate, due mainly to 1973-crop inventories. That crop was 32% above the 1970-72 average.

Fresh vegetables will be ample and canned vegetables generally adequate. Stocks of most processed tomato products may be heavy.

Frozen vegetables will be in good supply. July 1 stocks were 34% above 1973 and 22% ahead of the 1971-73 average.

Potato supplies are increasing seasonally. The 1974 summer crop is 11% above 1973, and more fall-crop acreage — 7% over 1973 — should boost fall production. July 1 frozen potato stocks were 5% above 1973, but 14% below the 1971-73 average.

Walnuts will be abundant. Production in 1974 should be about 19% less than the large 1973 crop but about equal to the 1971-73 average.

Almond supplies will be more than adequate, since 1974 production is expected to be much larger than both the 1973 and the 1971-73 averages.

Peanuts remain ample. Production in 1974 is expected to be slightly under last year's record crop but larger than the 1971-73 average.

GRAINS & LEGUMES —

Dry bean supplies should be ample, with expected record output 24% above last year and the 1971-73 average. Dry peas and lentils should be ample, with dry peas nearly doubling last year's crop and totaling 28% more than the most recent 3-year average. A larger than average lentil crop is expected.

Rice supplies are expected to be fully adequate. A record crop is forecast — 15% above a year ago and 22% above the latest 3-year average.

Wheat will be tight but adequate for U.S. needs. The new crop, mostly harvested, is pegged at a record — 8% above 1973 and 13% over the 1971-73 average.

Corn for food should be adequate even though the corn crop is forecast at 12% below a year ago and the 1971-73 average.

Mrs. Elliott With Grandchildren

Mrs. A.L. Elliott is in Dallas caring for her grandchildren, Cathy and Cindy Parkhouse, while their mother, Mrs. Jack Parkhouse, is a surgical patient in Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio. Her condition is presently improving, Mr. Elliott reported.

Mrs. Parkhouse, the former Nancy Elliott, underwent surgery September 9, to correct an aneurism which formed just behind her left eye.

She remained in the intensive care unit until last week, when she was moved to a private room, Mr. Elliott said. She is now undergoing therapy, and it is hoped that she can be returned to a Dallas hospital within a short time.

Mrs. Parkhouse was stricken ill while driving in Dallas with her husband and was hospitalized there two weeks before being transferred to Cincinnati. Mr. Parkhouse is with his wife.

Crop Prices Down . . . 1973 Was Good Year . . . Rain Slows Harvest . . . Many Honored Families

TEXAS FARMERS and ranchers don't have to be told that 1973 was a good year, but this year is another matter. The 1973 prices just haven't held up. Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service says that all farm products price index on August 15 was 13 per cent below last year although three per cent above the same time the previous month. Prices on livestock and livestock products were 35 per cent below last year and seven per cent above the previous month. That means that a beef animal that brought 34.90 cents a pound in August would have brought 54.20 at the same time in 1973. Hogs that brought $36.20 a hundred (up $3.80 over July 15 prices) would have brought $55.80 on August 15, 1973. On the other hand, the price index on all field crops was 21 per cent higher than a year ago. Sorghum at $5.03 a hundred was $1.50 higher than a year ago. Upland cotton that brought 44.2 cents a pound was 9.2 cents above last year. But wheat was 19 cents a bushel-at $4.05-below last year; and $9.80 rice was $1.20 below last year. Corn that brought $2.75 a bushel on August 15, 1973 brought $3.16 on August 15 this year. Corn was only $2.74 a bushel a month earlier.

COMMISSIONER JOHN C. WHITE earlier released figures showing that Texas cash receipts for all crops and livestock in 1973 totaled $6,467,923,000 (that's billions), which has to be a record. Production was better than in 1972, except in rice, pecans and fruits, and possibly a few other minor crops. Livestock cash receipts in 1973 in this State amounted to half of the total, $3,673,825,000, which was an increase of a billion over 1972. Texas, as usual, was first of all the states in the production of cotton, grain sorghum, wool, mohair, watermelon, cabbage, spinach.

MORE RAIN over the State delayed harvesting, and Hurricane Carmen threw a scare into Texans and accounted for a part of the rain. Cotton harvest was judged 16 per cent completed, much farther along than the four per cent harvested at the same time in 1973. Fall plowing of cotton land is well along in the Valley and Gulf Coast. Rain across the Northern High Plains delayed wheat planting, but Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service estimated that four per cent of the planting was complete. Oat planting was not that far along. More than half the grain sorghum has been combined in the State, and peanut harvest is about a quarter complete and also delayed by rain. Most of the first 1973 rice crop has gone to market. The first oranges and grapefruit from the 1974-75 crop in the Valley have gone to market. Yield is expected to be below the 1973-74 crop.

BEFORE AUGUST 31, the deadline for entering farms and ranches in Texas Department of Agriculture's Family Land Heritage Program, over 1,200 inquiries had been made. As checking of the mass of mail and applications continues, more than 500 Texas farms and ranches have qualified. Those families who have owned and used their farms and ranches 100 years or longer are qualified for the honor. As has been announced previously, special recognition will be given those families during State Fair ceremonies in October.

TEXAS COMMERCIAL slaughter plants reported 211 million pounds of red meat produced during July, which is an eight per cent increase over June's production and 13 per cent more than in July, 1973. The 1,341,000,000 pounds produced in Texas for the first seven months of the year was five per cent more than for the same seven months in 1973.

Neighbor States Require Hunter Safety Training

AUSTIN -- Got everything packed for that out-of-state hunting trip this fall: guns, scopes, thermal underwear, camping gear, hunter safety certificates?

If you forgot the last item -- hunter safety certificates -- you might as well forget the whole trip in some of the states which neighbor Texas.

To date 18 states require some kind of hunter safety education before issuing a hunting license: California,

Mrs. Gertrude Wolf visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Christian from Thursday until Monday was Mrs. Dora Marsh.

Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah and Washington.

In Colorado, those born Jan. 1, 1949, must complete an eight-hour training course to purchase a first-time hunting license. You also must be at least 14 years of age to purchase a hunting license.

All persons born after Jan. 1, 1958, who wish to hunt in New Mexico must have completed a hunter safety course unless they are immediately accompanied by a parent or guardian. After Jan. 1, 1976, all persons 18 years of age or younger must have this training prior to hunting or shooting a firearm regardless of whether they are accompanied by a parent or guardian or not.

Regardless of hunter safety requirements, such instruction is life insurance.

In Texas, a Volunteer Hunter Safety Program is administered by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. The program is open to everyone 12 years and older for a fee of $1.

The course is a recommended eight hours of instruction and covers firearms handling, first aid and survival, conservation and hunter ethics.

Contact your local Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game warden for the name of a volunteer hunter safety instructor in your area.

National Highway Week a Reminder of Texas Growth

This week, September 22 to 28 we observe National Highway Week, in which the Texas Highway Department joins.

This comes as construction on widening US 83 a dual highway is making such progress. More of this on US 83, plus completion of FM 3070 is in the picture for years immediately ahead.

The Texas Highway Department is responsible for the splendid network of highways that make people of this state so mobile -- our highways so superior to those in many other states.

Locally, not only do our highways make it so convenient for us to move about, but we may especially apply this year's Highway week slogan to ourselves: "Better Roads -- Better Living." Everything we eat except what we grow in our gardens, everything we wear on our backs, almost everything we use, comes to us over the highways. (Even Dallas receives 90 percent and Houston 80 percent of their food over highway systems.)

The highway system has opened opportunities to individual Texas families by widening their range in seeking jobs, education, and recreation opportunities, noted State Highway Engineer Luther DeBerry. Consider the number of Collingsworth people who work in nearby towns, who live in town and operate their farms, who commute to college, or who take extension classes from more distant colleges on week ends. The traveling about we do for recreation speaks for itself.

The present nostalgia for the era of the 30's certainly doesn't include what our road conditions were. Highway 83 was paved half-way across the county. (It was completed during that period.) A wet spell such as we have been having could sink a car to the axel, and there weren't any 4-wheel drive vehicles around either.

Housing

There is a chronic demand for housing in Perryton. Yet when it comes time to take a look at how to build housing to satisfy this demand, the cold economic facts of what it costs to build rental units as compared with the expected income from these scares a lot of prospective builders away. There have been a lot of older homes change hands in Perryton recently and a lot of people think these older houses may be selling too high. It may turn out that they are cheap as compared to what their price will be a few years from now.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Fur flew at both Democratic and Republican conventions last week. When the smoke cleared, the record showed Democrats in Austin:

- Re-elected State Democratic Executive Committee Chairman Calvin Guest of Bryan 3,125 to 2,183 votes over liberal challenger Leonel Castillo, Houston city controller. Guest is the choice of Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

- Selected a new SDEC, about equally divided between liberals and conservatives. Both sides claimed control.
- Wrote a platform encompassing most of what Briscoe wanted but added some things he didn't ask for and eliminated some he did.

- Named 76 delegates to the December mini-convention in Kansas City to write a national party charter. Again, both sides are well represented. Liberals wanted more minorities on the slate.

Texas Republicans, at Houston:

- Criticized President Ford for his earned-amnesty proposal and nomination of Nelson Rockefeller for vice-president.

- Turned down a resolution calling for support of the president on the pardon of former President Richard Nixon.

- Adopted a conservative platform confined to state issues, including support of the right-to-work law and opposition to agency shop legislation and a recommendation for a one per cent reduction in the state sales tax.

- Re-elected Jack Warren of Tyler chairman and named the 1975-76 GOP state executive committee.

OIL "WIDE OPEN" — Texas Railroad Commission, for the 31st straight month, set the oil production allowable for October at 100 per cent.

Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Langdon said he thinks "we can get through this winter without undue hardship." He warned, however, that there is a threat of coal strike, possible new Arab oil embargo and a cold winter.

U. S. stocks of crude oil are 55.6 million barrels above a year ago. Langdon credited conservation and voluntary use cutbacks by consumers with much of the increase.

Buyers increased nominations to purchase by 18,511 barrels a day—to 4,092,783 for October.

STILL RUNNING—An endorsement by the AFL-CIO executive board revived Rep. Carl Parker's lagging campaign for House speaker.

Meanwhile, Parker pledged to swing whatever remaining support he has to another pro-labor candidate if he sees he has no chance of winning.

Rep. Neil Caldwell of Alvin and Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale indicated they are making soundings to see if any of Parker's votes can be switched to them.

Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake claimed to have more than 100 votes—of the 150 House members committed to him.

HEARING PUT OFF — Public hearing on auto insurance rates has been postponed.

poned from October 1 to October 17.

State Board of Insurance Chairman Joe Christie said the delay was necessary because the industry has not made available needed statistical data on which rate making is based.

COURTS SPEAK—Misconduct of a prosecutor brought reversal of a life imprisonment sentence given a Dallas man for strangling his 10-month-old son with a towel.

The Court of Criminal Appeals also affirmed the life sentence assessed a Glasscock County man in a murder case.

The same court declined to revoke the probated sentence of an Ector County burglar, though he admitted defying terms of the probation by leaving the county and failing to meet with his probation officer for a five-and-a-half-month period.

A Houston district judge ordered Gulf Oil Chemicals Company to pay a $20,000 penalty for violation of a state air control regulation.

AG OPINIONS—Atty. Gen. John Hill held a county commissioners court cannot authorize back pay to an employee temporarily suspended following felony charges.

In other recent opinions, the attorney general concluded:

- A church-provided residence for a minister of music may qualify for tax exempt status provided other requirements of law are met.

- A fireman may receive retirement credit for service rendered prior to the effective date of the pension act except where the law specifically conditions benefits on a certain period of participation in the pension fund.

- The Texas Board of License Administrators may license directors of group homes as nursing home administrators, but it may not establish a separate type of license for them.

- The Agriculture Department can build an export station on leased land.

DEADLINE SET—Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reminded South Texas cotton farmers of a September 25 deadline for plow-up and stalk destruction.

Cotton harvest for the state has reached 18 per cent completion compared with only six per cent at this time last year, and prospects for South Texas crops are excellent. However, White said the state's cotton production is projected at 3.1 million bales, a decrease from the 4.6 million bales of 1973.

The 13-county area affected by the deadline is bordered by Webb, Duval, Jim Wells and San Patricio counties on the north and on the south by Starr, Hidalgo and Willacy counties.

ERRORS NOTED — About 150,000 taxpayers in South Texas have received questionnaires asking them to provide correct information on social security numbers.

Internal Revenue Service District Director Richard J. Stakem Jr. said thousands of discrepancies were discovered when names and social security numbers of wives filing income tax returns were matched with Social Security Administration data.

IRS and SSA said correc-

Dear Editor:

My distrustful neighbor says he doesn't have much faith in the highly-publicized and widely fetichized "opinion" polls.

How, he quibbles, does Mr. Gallup, Mr. Harris et al know that their poll takers ever ask anybody for an opinion, or religiously report what he says if they do?

So it is this neighbor's opinion (not recorded on any opinion poll) that the polls don't report public opinion as it is but as the hired "interviewers" think the public's opinion had ought to be.

Houston Stock Show Offers 20 Scholarships

The critical shortage of agricultural leadership throughout the world is being reduced as a result of the large and wide-ranging scholarship program of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

So says Dr. R.C. Potts, associate dean of instruction of the school of agriculture at Texas A&M University.

The present program of the show, which involves young men from over the entire state, started in 1962 and has been expanded constantly as funds have become available.

*The Livestock Show awards 20 $4,000 scholarships statewide every year. Ten go to 4-H members and 10 to members of the Future Farmers of America.

These scholarship winners must assure that they intend to enter the field of agriculture and Potts says that the type of young men who win these scholarships are the kind that are needed to meet the great challenge facing the world in food and fiber production.

In addition the show annually offers $1,000 scholarships in 29 counties in the Houston area.

At this time 76 students are studying agriculture in Texas colleges on the 14,000 scholarships. Another 26 are in school on the $1,000 grants. In addition, special scholarships have been set up at Prairie View A&M College for four students in the amount of $1,000.

Home Management

BY MRS. ARLA FELTS CO. EXTENSION AGENT

On your piano, Middle C should stand for care. An expensive investment, a piano should have definite care to preserve its value.

Piano manufacturers recommend tuning the piano three or four times a year. Atmospheric changes, not frequency of use, affect the tune. However, an annual "check-up" for the piano is adequate if it's impossible to have a tuner more often.

The "check-up" should include regulating tone and action when necessary. The tone of the piano may become "brilliant" with use due to constant pounding of the hammer felts against the steel string.

Action refers to the smooth and responsive touch of the player. The desired action may become sluggish when the felt brushings in the action parts absorb moisture and swell, or the keys may seem to stick.

Location of the instrument is important -- it should be kept in a normal temperature and free from dampness and sudden changes of temperature. This will help protect both the inside mechanisms and the finish of the case.

Cases of new pianos do not have to be waxed or polished. Cleaning with a soft, damp chamois or cheesecloth, following with a dry cloth, brings out the natural sheen of the wood.

The keyboard can be covered when the piano is not in use, but genuine ivory keyboards should be exposed to light. Otherwise, the ivory turns yellow over a period of time.

Keyboards on most new pianos are constructed from a plastic that will not yellow. Clean the keys by wiping them lengthwise with a soft, slightly dampened cloth and then following with a soft, dry cloth.

Concerning piano storage, if you are leaving "the instrument in an unoccupied house or putting it into storage for a period of time, place quantities of newspaper in the interior to absorb moisture. Cover the case with heavy flannel or blankets.

Out of town entries are to be submitted from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. Saturday, and are to be checked out between 5:00 and 6:00 p.m. Sunday. All entries must be checked in and out through the registration desk. There is a fee of $1.00 per entry, but there is no limit to the size or number of paintings, however the club requests that no paintings be shown that have been in a Le Atelier show previously.

Ribbon prizes will be awarded. Artists may price their entries for sale, and no commission will be charged.

Media will include oils and acrylics, watercolors, pastels and graphics. Categories are landscape, portrait, still life, streets and buildings and animals. All paintings must be framed or matted and equipped to hang. No wet paintings will be accepted.

The show is open to the public and there is no admission charge.

Those wishing additional information may contact Mrs. Johnsey or Mr. Paul R. Eford at Childress.

AC Will Offer Saturday Classes

Amarillo College is exerting extra efforts on behalf of the 9 to 5, five-day-a-week individual who may not be able to attend classes during the evening and is unable to arrange a day class schedule.

Six college-credit courses from the College of Arts and Sciences and the School of Technology will be offered beginning Saturday, Sept. 7.

These classes are English 131, Government 234, Psychology 233, Math 131, Business 139 (office machines), DPE 119 (beginning skiing) and two beginning tennis classes for men and women.

Interested students may register between 8:30 and 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 7, said J. Fred Balderston, AC registrar. Registration will be held in Washington Street Administration Building.

Class sessions will be held from 9 to 11:45 a.m. on the Washington Street campus. Skiing classes will be located at the Polk Street campus.

These classes are being offered on an experimental basis, said Dr. Gene Byrd, and "we will continue to offer them if there is an enrollment large enough for justification."

Classes resulted from numerous meetings of the enrollment committee, headed by Everett Williams, dean of development.

Mr. and Mrs. D.R. McKinney and Harold were in Amarillo Saturday and Sunday to attend the Tri-State Fair and visit with Mrs. McKinney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Arthur.

THE '75 FORDS, INCLUDING THE NEW GRANADA!

The new Ford Granada designed to give you efficient use of space, fuel and money.

Almost identical in size and weight to the Mercedes 280, the Granada is about two feet shorter and half a ton lighter than most standard size cars.* So you can expect excellent gas mileage, and exceptional handling ease. Yet there's family-size room inside: front legroom and headroom front to rear, comparable to many standard size cars. The trunk holds 8 pieces of luggage.

And here's just the top of the list of standard equipment: 200 CID 6-cylinder engine; 3-speed manual transmission; steel-belted radials; solid state ignition; front disc brakes; full wheel covers and accent moldings; individual reclining seats; cut-pile carpeting, and much more.

Ford LTD Landau: a logical alternative to longer, heavier, more expensive luxury cars.

Compare the workmanship in LTD Landau as well as its size, comfort and luxury to much more expensive luxury cars. The main thing you don't get is hundreds of pounds of extra weight and almost a foot of extra length (compared to longer, heavier, costlier cars). You do get the security of a solid, full-size, well-made automobile.

The small Fords: BIGGER VALUES THAN EVER.

Personal luxury in 3 sizes . . . and at three price levels.

Mustang II: the sporty personal luxury car now with optional V-8 engine.

Maverick: the proven family compact.

Pinto: still the leader in basic transportation.
