Austin. — Crucial, make-or-break decisions on state spending confront legislators this week as they enter the windup of their 1967 session.

Senators have submitted a $437,700,000 budget for 1968. This was followed by a bill providing $55,500,000 for teacher pay raises (an average of $640 a year).

House action was delayed by printing problems, but representatives were due to take up the Senate bill and substitute their own appropriations measure calling for $449,400,000 in general fund outlays. House bill would leave about $35,000,000 for such add-on spending as teacher pay raises.

Big unanswered question is whether the House will be able to convince a majority of senators to accept the House appropriations measure without a conference committee.

Speaker Ben Barnes and Gov. John Connally have been working for Senate support of the House bill.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Senate leadership feel differences between House and Senate bills should be worked out as usual — in a joint conference of five senators and five representatives.

Senate's more-generous figure for teacher pay makes the selling job somewhat harder for the House. But the fact that its bill runs some $12,000,000 over the latest general revenue forecast of Comptroller Robert S. Calvert weakens the Senate argument for the bigger pay raise.

Outcome will determine whether the Legislature must go into special session this year to finish writing a one-year budget.

Still on the unfinished business list: congressional, legislative and judicial redistricting bills.

STATE PROPERTY TAX NEAR END? — The proposed constitutional amendment to phase out bulk of the state's 47 cents per $100 valuation property tax levy by 1977 is near legislative approval.

Senate has passed it and the House Constitutional Amendment Committee has recommended it. Proposal would go to the voters in November, 1968.

If measure is approved, all but 10 cents of the state ad valorem tax (that which is earmarked for state college construction) would be wiped out by December 1, 1976.

While this may be cheering news to property owners, it must be noted that the $47,900,000 in revenue must be made up from other sources.

VOTER REGISTRATION PLAN IN TROUBLE — A new voter registration plan, product of a long study, came out of committee for Senate consideration. It immediately ran into criticism.

Bill would require personal registration with tax assessor-collector or authorized deputy at a public place sometime next year. Voters could register by mail for the big 1968 elections. Once registered in the 1968-69 sign-up, they could renew eligibility by simply signing and mailing back to tax offices a form card between October 1 and January 31 each year. A special supplementary registration period would be held August 11 - September 15 during general election years.

Sen. Barbara Jordan of Houston assailed the bill as more restrictive than the present law. She hit sections prohibiting ro-ing deputies and outlawing husbands registering for wives and vice versa. Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells acknowledged he will have a problem passing his measure in the Senate as it stands.

WATER QUALITY BOARD APPROVED — Bill to establish a Texas Water Quality Board to replace the Water Pollution Control Board has been approved.

Governor Connally recommended the measure as an aid to strengthening water pollution control. Bill will create a seven-member board with its own professional staff and provide for local enforcement of water quality standards.

SAFETY BILL SIGNED — Texas' first major occupational safety bill, designed to cut the soaring industrial accident toll, has been signed into law.

It creates within the State Department of Health a division of occupational safety to be administered by a three-member board, assisted by a safety engineer and an advisory committee. Board would conduct a continuing educational, promotional and enforcement campaign.

AG OPINIONS — Bill creating appraisal service districts and boards for tax appraisal and assessment of property for taxation is unconstitutional, as it eliminates county tax assessor-collector from duties. So ruled Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin.

In a variety of other recent opinions, Martin held that:

• In writing a single-year budget, the Legislature can spend only funds in sight during that year.

• "Texas Treasure Hunt" a soft drink promotion (featuring "lucky" pictures under bottle cap corks) is not a lottery.

• Disability benefits under teacher retirement system may be reduced when person receiving them becomes engaged in gainful occupation.

SHORT SNORTS

The proposed constitutional amendment to give equal legal rights to women cleared the Senate and is ready for final House vote.

Bill to increase maximum unemployment compensation from $37 to $41 a week (for those who earn $85 or more) and hike minimum from $10 to $11 has cleared the Legislature.

After early faltering, the Open Meetings Bill to require all governmental agencies to meet in public gathered steam and won final legislative approval.

Governor Connally signed "medicaid" implementing legislation (effective September 1) which will bring an estimated $130,000,000 in medical benefits to 350,000 Texans on welfare rolls during the next year.

House has passed a bill permitting experimental 10-month school programs involving 50,000 Texas students in selected districts.

A resolution establishing an interim committee to study pricing and marketing prices in Texas has been favorably reported out of the House State Affairs Committee.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has set 10 a. m. August 1 for an oil-and-gas lease sale of the School Land Board and other state boards; School Land Board will hold a sulphur lease sale at the same time.

Rivercrest Junior Senior Banquet Has Southern Theme

Southern Serenade was theme for the Rivercrest High School Junior - Senior banquet. The seniors were the guests of honor in the Paris Junior College ballroom, May 5 at 7:30 p. m.

Guests were welcomed into the courtyard of a Southern plantation. The walls of the ballroom were covered to resemble a high brick wall surrounding a courtyard. Towering above the wall was the beautiful blue sky with dogwood trees blooming in the distance. Following the wall to the west end of the room and the center of the courtyard was a giant mural of a plantation house. Extending from each side of the house were small green hedges with blooming yellow flowers. Also decorating the front yard were white lawn furniture and a white bird bath with a fish pond to the side. Draping from each side of the room were long streamers of blue and white crepe paper. Large daisies and white and yellow tissue balls also added color to the ceiling decorations. This typical plantation house could not survive without food. At this dinner the plantation cooks prepared a typical southern menu of Southern fried chicken, fleecy clouds, sunset glow, green berries, petals and leaves, short-nin bread, buttermilk, Dixie delight, planter's punch and watermelon seed. For the table arrangements the Southern ladies used sweet smelling magnolia blossoms.

Following dinner John Lee Roach gave the invocation and Kay White welcomed the guests. Lyndon Reed of the senior class gave the response to the welcome. Guests were entertained by a skit by Susan Gage and Sheila Eudy. A group of girls composed of Sue Love, Brenda Brown, Sue Morris, Rita Branch, Sheila Eudy, Gayla Caldwell, and Joyce Lewis, accompanied by Diane Marshall, sang several songs about the south. Rita Branch read the prophesy and Kay Mayes read the senior will. Concluding remarks were given by Susan Gage. After the banquet students remained for the prom. The Rock-Its provided the music.

Student of Month

KAY MAYES was elected as Student of the Month for April. She is vice-president of the senior class and has served as second vice-president of the FHA senior chapter. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Mayes. She is also a member of the FTA, the annual staff, and the senior class play cast. Kay represented her class as Christmas Queen in the Christmas parade.
