Shot Fired As Baby Brothers Play With Gun Fatal To Wichita Falls Child

Home Town Talk

By B. D. D.

With a corps of United States engineers busy at Marietta, Okla., Denison, Texas, and Durant, Okla., it begins to look like this Red river flood prevention and navigation project might amount to something after all.

The purpose of the surveys is to determine whether the plans are feasible and to furnish an estimate of the cost. If the plan is found feasible the next step will be to obtain an appropriatioin from congress for the work. Our fellow-townsman, Orville Bullington, has been one of the moving spirits in the project. Mr. Bullington has very evidently helped the move a great deal and with expedition, too, in getting three corps of engineers at work at such an early date.

Our congratulations go to the Perkins-Timberlake company and to J. J. Perkins and Frank Timberlake and to Mr. Perkins' other associates upon the 33rd anniversary of the institution. From a small general merchandise store in Decatur to six splendid department stores in fine towns and cities in Northwest Texas and Southwestern Oklahoma is a mighty development even within 33 years. And stores don't just happen and don't just grow by themselves. There has been a splendid vision and a mighty force in the development of these stores. They are a splendid asset to this whole section.

Dispatches indicate that there is doubt as to whether the proposed new tariff bill can be passed, and the country seems very indifferent about the matter. Congress was called in special session more than a year ago to pass a new tariff bill for the benefit of agriculture and for a limited revision of rates in some other lines. Congress has been wrestling with the problem ever since and in the meantime the farmers have about concluded they cannot expect much from tariff changes and that a new tariff with higher industrial rates might easily cost them more than it would benefit them.

Our sporting editors tell us the night is not far off when we will have night baseball in the Texas league. Baseball at night time under electric lights is now being given a trial in one of the minor leagues. It is said that night baseball has few handicaps but that it does net larger crowds. Attendance is the thing in baseball. If larger crowds can be obtained at night, we can expect to see night baseball generally adopted. We wonder if we will ever hear the expression "called on account of daylight."

A reader suggests that we ought to have a rat extermination campaign. He had just seen three rats at the corner of Eighth and Scott avenue, and he is a man who never took a drink of liquor in his life. Talker is told rats could be exterminated in the business district of Wichita Falls or any other town in a very short time if rat poison was to be put out in every building simultaneously. Here and there rat poison has been put out but rats are roaming, vagrant rodents and only a general distribution of poison will have much results.

Somebody has made an estimate of the damage done by a rat in a single year. Talker doesn't know just what this estimate is but he would guess the aggregate damage done by rats runs into thousands of dollars annually in Wichita Falls. If somebody will proclaim a rat extermination day we are sure Wichita Falls will rid itself of rats.

Frank Curtis of Byers was a visitor in Wichita Falls Thursday. He says the rains have revived the wheat in many fields in the Byers section and that some farmers have a prospect of harvesting from 10 to 15 bushels an acre. The rains have interfered with the planting of row crops but are putting season in the ground that gives a fine prospect for these crops, Mr. Curtis said. Mr. Curtis might have said that when better crops are grown they will be harvested in the Byers section.

Mail Fraud Suspects Make $15,000 Bonds

ST. LOUIS, May 15. (INS)—Bill and Fred Young, president and vice president respectively of the defunct Young & Bros., securities firm, are free on federal bonds of $15,000 apiece, furnished when they surrendered, under warrants charging use of the mails in a scheme to defraud, at the federal building yesterday. Harold C. Young, the third brother, will surrender when he returns from an eastern trip, the Youngs' attorney announced.

PISTOL BULLET PIERCES CHEST OF INFANT, 3

Dorrance Eugene Gressett Succumbs in Hospital From Wound

OLDER BOY AGHAST

Children of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gressett Figure In Tragedy

Dorrance Eugene Gressett, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gressett, 1709 Eleventh street, was fatally wounded about 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon when a shot from a pistol in the hands of his brother, Billy, 4, pierced his chest and passed entirely through his body.

The wounded child was rushed to the Hargrave-Walker hospital in a Merkle ambulance and physicians immediately operated in an effort to save his life, but the course of the bullet through his body removed the possibility of preventing death and the child died about 10:15 o'clock Thursday night. The body was taken in charge by the Dalton-Powell Funeral home. Arrangement for funeral services had not been made late Thursday night.

Children Alone

The two children were alone in the house only a few moments, Mrs. Gressett having stepped across the lawn to a neighbor's home at the time of the accident, it was reported.

The first indication of the shot, it was said, was a sound which was described by neighbors as "like two automobile fenders striking together." Mrs. Gressett had a moment before turned to go back into her house.

There, in a bedroom, she found the 3-year-old boy, gasping with a shot through his body. The other child was standing nearby, his face white and apparently puzzled at what had occurred. Mrs. Gressett immediately called for an ambulance.

Mother Finds Boy

On the floor near where the boy lay as the mother entered the room was a pistol, which the 4-year-old brother had obtained by climbing up to a drawer in a dresser where the gun was concealed, Mrs. Gressett told hospital attendants.

The older child, the mother said, had told her they "only wanted to see the gun." With the arrival of the ambulance and removal of the younger child to the hospital, accompanied by the mother, the 4-year-old brother was left with neighbors attracted to the yard by the emergency siren. He stood watching the ambulance as it sped away, repeating to those standing near him over and over, "I didn't mean to do it. I didn't mean to."

$150,000 Suit Follows Oklahoma Flood Deaths

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 15. (UP)—J. E. Campbell filed a federal court action today against the Santa Fe railroad in the death of his wife, Mrs. Odessa Campbell, and two children in the 1928 Shawnee flood. He asked judgments aggregating $150,000.

South Germany Flooded By Heavy Spring Rains

BERLIN, May 15. (UP)—One of the worst floods in years was feared in South Germany tonight as heavy rains caused rivers to rise and villagers in many districts were forced to flee.

Pampa Population Up 959 Per Cent

PAMPA, Texas, May 15. (AP)—Pampa Thursday claimed the record for population increase, upon learning from the district census supervisor that her population was 10,453 this year, compared to 987 in 1920, an increase of 959 per cent.

Plainview in Hale county reported a census total of 8,834, an increase of 4,845.

26 INITIATED IN MYSTIC SHRINE

All-Day Frolic Attended by 700 Here

Seven hundred visiting nobles were in Wichita Falls Thursday for the annual spring ceremonial of Maskat temple in which 26 novices were initiated.

Members of Maskat temple met at the auditorium at 11 o'clock for a business meeting after which the group, headed by the divan officers, patrol, chanters, band and drum corps, met the visiting potentates and escorted them to the Kemp hotel. Novices registered from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m.

The streets were lined with spectators for the parade which traversed the business area. The antics of the novices afforded many laughs. Those taking part were motorcycle police, mounted past captains, Maskat band, drum corps, Maskat temple flag, Maskat patrol, DeMolay, Medinah temple nobles in automobiles, visiting potentates in automobiles, Maskat past potentates in automobiles, Lions club boys' band, novices, visiting nobles Maskat nobles and the fire department.

Band Concert

A band concert was given at the Memorial auditorium at 5:45 p. m. after which the first and third sections of the ceremonial were held. A dinner at the Kemp hotel honored the visiting potentates at which time Al Ellis, recorder of Maskat temple introduced the distinguished guests. C. A. Rogers had charge of the presentation of medals and Judge A. H. Britain welcomed the charter members. The second section of the ceremonial began at 7 o'clock.

Radio to Be Used To Combat Illiteracy

WASHINGTON, May 15. (US)—Plans to determine the effect of radio as a factor in the campaign against illiteracy were revealed by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur today.

Speaking of an international program of the American school of the air, over the Columbia system, the secretary said:

"We are now making plans to try the experiment of putting 100 radios into 100 homes where no one is able to read or write. This will give us a chance to see just what influences we can bring to a family isolated from neighbors because of inability to read the printed word.

JURY INDICTS CITY LEADERS IN SAN ANTONIO

Lawyers, Bankers, Heads of Concerns Billed in Liquor Cases

RESULT OF SLAYING

Conspiracy Probe Grows Out of Ambush Death Of Pro Agent

SAN ANTONIO, May 15. (UP)—San Antonio lawyers, bankers and business men were included in a blanket indictment, naming 76 persons and charging them with conspiracy to violate the liquor laws, returned in federal district court late today as an aftermath to the ambush slaying of Charles Stevens, federal prohibition agent, near here last September.

Among those who were indicted and upon whom capiases were served this afternoon were: L. B. Randall, president of the Merchants and Mechanic bank; R. C. Caffarelli, wholesale grocer; E. B. Chambers, brother of Mayor C. M. Chambers; Franklin Spears, lawyer who defended Joe Hebrecht in state court on a charge of having murdered Stevens; Earl Chadwell, William Allsbury, R. M. Key and Jack Key, business men.

The above were allowed bonds ranging from $5,000 to $10,000. Deputy marshalls still were serving capiases tonight. It was reported that possibly city and county officials were included in the blanket indictment.

E. B. Chambers, indicted today, already has been tried on other liquor charges in state courts but was found not guilty on each count.

Robbery Charges Placed Against Three Brothers

Special to The Record News.

LAWTON, Okla., May 15. —Two charges of robbery with firearms were filed here today by County Attorney John W. Tyree against Jesse, John and Manuel Cunningham, three of the four brothers who participated in the fatal gun battle with Stephens county officers on highway 81 Monday night.

In one case the men are charged with robbery of the Checkerboard filling station Monday night, and in the other the theft of the J. A. Johnson Buick sedan, in May 1929. It was announced by the sheriff's office today that the Johnson car had been located at Duncan. The car had been reconditioned and repainted and the engine number changed.

WIDOW NEW SHERIFF

Special to The Record News.

DUNCAN, Okla., May 15.—Mrs. Wal Williams, widow of the widely known Oklahoma peace officer slain in a battle with bandits Monday night, Thursday afternoon stepped into her husband's place as sheriff of Stephens county. The widow was appointed by the county commissioners here Thursday morning and qualified for the post in the afternoon. She retained every member of the force that has served under the slain man.

Forrest Cunningham, one of the four bandit brothers, was killed in the gun battle at Marlow Junction in which Sheriff Williams lost his life. John and Manuel Cunningham and Chief of Police Gossett were critically wounded. Jess Cunningham, the youngest of the brothers escaped and is still at large.

The three brothers were positively identified Thursday as members of a gang which held up a bank at Kiowa, Kansas.

Kidnaped Boy Sent Home to Tennessee

DALLAS, May 15. (UP)—Daffie Prater, a 14-year-old newsboy who had been kidnaped from Knoxville, Tenn., was sent home tonight by officers who arrested Otis W. Weatherford, 30, and charged him with abduction.

Prater said Weatherford promised to teach him the tobacco business but in reality used him to forge checks. Six forged checks were found in the man's possession. He will be held for the grand jury.

Jury Frees Kohler On All Counts

Wisconsin Governor Wins Acquittal After Long Trial

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., May 15. (UP)—A jury cleared Gov. Walter J. Kohler of Wisconsin tonight of all charges that he spent too much money to obtain his election.

The jurors answered a list of eight questions in such a manner as to indicate they did not believe the millionaire executive provided free meals at his gigantic plumbing works factory to visitors as part of his political campaign. The jurors further showed by their answers that they did not hold the governor guilty of subsidizing the Kohler company's brass band to play at his campaign meetings.

The jurors, most of them neighbors of the gray-haired governor, deliberated only an hour and a half before they announced their verdict which, in effect, threw out the ouster suit instigated against Kohler by his political enemies, the La Follette Progressive Republicans of Wisconsin.

The Progressives charged that the governor spent more than $100,000 in his campaign and thereby violated the Wisconsin corrupt practices act.

Attorneys for both sides argued acrimoniously for 24 days about the governor's brass band, his free meals and even the pastel colored bath tubs which he manufactures in Kohler VHlage, before the case finally went to the jury late today.

AUTO INJURES BLIND NEWSBOY

Cosby Snodgrass Receives Fracture and Cuts

Cosby Snodgrass, 1507 Blond street, known to business men and office building employes in the downtown section as "the blind newsboy," suffered a fractured leg, a severe cut on the head and other cuts and bruises on the body when he was struck by an automobile as he was crossing the street at the intresection of Scott avenue and Eighth street about 6 o'clock Thursday evening.

The car which struck the young man was driven by Theodore Miken, propritetor of the Oriental cafe. The impact of the crash sent Snodgrass flying half way across the the street where he struck heavily against the rear of a parked machine, police reported.

He was taken immediately to the Wichita General hospital by a passing motorist. His condition was reported "fair" late Thursday evening and attendants said he was resting quietly.

Snodgrass has been a familiar figure on the streets of Wichita Falls for several years, passersby always finding him with his bundle of papers at the corner of Scott and Seventh in the mornings and at Scott and Eighth beside the Kemp hotel each evening. Few remember a day on which he was not to be found at his accustomed stand, with his papers under one arm and a cane in the opposite hand.

Police reported following the accident the blind newsboy was crossing on a green light, in accordance with the flow of traffic. Miken, driver of the car which struck the young man, was released on $50 bond after questioning at police headquarters. Officers said he had been taking part in the Shrine ceremonial activities which were held here Thursday. The case was transferred to the district attorney's department for further investigations Friday.

WOMAN HURT IN AUTO COLLISION

Mrs. C. O. McDuffy, 1814 Huff avenue, suffered severe lacerations on the face and head, caused by shattered glass from the windshield of the car in which she was riding when the machine and another, driven by Don Taylor, 1101 Polk street, collided at the corner of Tenth and Polk streets about 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The injured woman was reported resting well at the Wichita Falls Clinic hospital late Thursday evening. An ambulance from the Hines mortuary was called following the crash but Mrs. McDuffy had already been taken to the hospital in a passing machine.

Miss Bertha Parish, 1102 Alma street, driver of the car in which Mrs. McDuffy was riding, was badly shaken by the crash and was taken to her home in a highly nervous state by a passing motorist. Mr. Taylor, driver of the other car, was not hurt, according to police reports. Both machines were badly damaged.

Self-Defense Plead In Murder Charge

VICTORIA, Texas, May 15. (UP)—A 56-year-old trapper, P. F. Robidoux, charged with murder, today testified in his own defense that he was forced to kill Willits Moore and his brother, James, when they engaged in a drunken brawl.

He said he made them welcome when they visited him in his little cabin but was forced to shoot them when they began fighting.

PRESBYTERIAN CONFERENCE AT OLNEY ELECTS

Rev. O. A. Barbee of Kentucky Named Moderator At Session

300 AT MEETINGS

Addresses by Prominent Ministers and Laymen Are Delivered

Special to The Record News

OLNEY, Texas, May 15.—Rev. O. A. Barbee of Owensboro, Ky., was elected moderator of the general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church by a vote of 87 accredited commissioners in the opening session of the 100th annual assembly here Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Barbee will succeed Rev. H. C. Walton, Birmingham, Ala., retiring moderator. He is the son of Dr. J. T. Barbee who was elected moderator of the 79th assembly in a meeting at Bentonville, Ark., in 1909. For 21 years the new leader has served as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Owensboro.

300 at Assembly

Three hundred delegates, commissioners and visitors attending the assembly and the convention of the Woman's Board of Missions are registered in Olney.

The assembly opened at 11 o'clock Thursday morning with a prayer service led by Rev. S. A. Berrie of Searcy, Ark. The consecration sermon was delivered by Rev. J. W. Duval of Moberly, Mo., followed by an address from Rev. H. C. Walton, retiring moderator, on "Christ and Three Questions Concerning Him." The questions were "What Are You Thinking, Saying and Doing About Christ?"

Credentials Committee

Rev. E. W. Johnson, Springfield, Mo., offered the constituting prayer which was followed by the appointment of Rev. O. A. Barbee, Hon. G. B. Holliday, Camden, Tenn., and Rev. A. C. DeForrest, Texas, as members of the committee on credentials.

The afternoon session opened with the report of the committee, the adoption of the suggested six-day program, and the election of the moderator. Rev. Mr. Barbee immediately took the chair.

Mayor Charles S. Richardson, Rev. Gid J. Bryan, of the First Methodist church, and B. C. Schulkey, superintendent of schools, wel-

Texas Bankers Oppose Federal Reserve Plan

FORT WORTH, May 15. (AP)—Speakers at the Texas Bankers' association convention today assailed the methods of the federal reserve system and denounced chain banking.

"It is preferable to revise the federal reserve system rather than kill the unit plan of banking," said T. P. Minor, cashier of the First State bank of Kileen, Texas. Two reasons for failure of country banks, he declared, were over-banking and financial depression.

The police power of the federal reserve act is throtling agriculture by taking debt power into its hands without assuming the responsibility of credit power, said Nathan Adams president of the First National bank of Dallas.

House Holds Memorial Service for Its Dead

WASHINGTON, May 15. (AP)—The house of representatives laid aside legislative activities today to pay tribute to its dead.

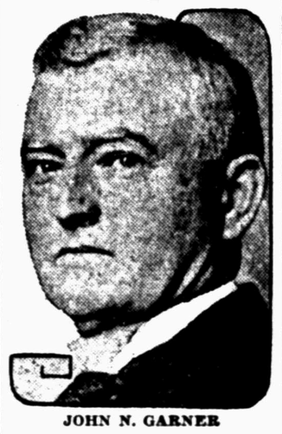

In an hour-long memorial service, its members listened with bowed heads and in silence to a roll call of the 12 house members and three senators who have passed away in the last 14 months. Immediately afterward the house adjourned for the day in further tribute.

TEXAS YOUTH SHOT

RANGER, Texas, May 15. (UP)—Melvin Dunson, 17, was injured seriously today when Oscar Privett, another youth, shot him twice during a quarrel. In a written statement to police, young Privett said Dunson struck him with his fist and he then fired two shots.

COLLIER'S WINS CREAGER SUIT

Magazine Prepares for Second Trial

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, May 15. (UP)—With one victory already won, attorneys for Collier's Weekly prepared tonight to defend the magazine from a second $500,000 libel suit, brought by R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman from Texas.

A federal court jury today returned a verdict in favor of the publication in a half-million dollar suit brought by Creager because an article, "High-Handed and Hell-Bent" charged that he had cooperated with Democratic forces in Hidalgo county. The jury received the case late Wednesday and reported early today.

The second suit is based on "Jobs for Jack" an article published which charges that Texans who received federal positions were forced to sign "Creager notes."

No plans were made today for trial of the second suit.

Union of North and South Baptists Sought

NEW ORLEANS, May 15. (AP)—O. L. Miller of Boston, president of the Northern Baptists convention, today brought a message to the Southern Baptist convention inviting proposals for the welding of the two bodies into one.

"The Northern Baptists would welcome overtures from the Southern Baptists looking toward a union of the two great bodies," said Mr. Miller. "The first step toward union, I believe, will be made in 1933, when the latter part of the Southern Baptists' convention will overlap the first part of the Northern Baptists' convention."

Whisky Found Hidden In Vegetable Shipment

LAREDO, Texas, May 15. (UP)—Harry Kaufman, plantation manager, was arrested in St. Louis today after 28 quarts of liquor had been found in cars of vegetables consigned to a marketing company there, it was reported here.

CALL FOR HELP SENT DUNDEE AFTER STORM

First Reports Indicate Several Mexicans Seriously Hurt

HOUSES DAMAGED

Communication Lines Rent Asunder as Twister Cuts Swath

Special to The Record News

MANKINS, Texas, May 15.—Five Mexicans were seriously injured in a tornado that swept a 500-yard path through the irrigation valley east of diversion dam late Thursday afternoon, striking near Mankins, at Dundee and Holliday and across the Freeman-Hampton oil field.

Reports of the disaster reached here through the operator at Dundee who received a hurried call for a doctor just before the violent wind swept away all telephone connections and cut the town off from communication with the outside world. The operator learned that the five were injured when the tornado caught their home near the river in the irrigation valley, but the disruption of wire service prevented any further inquiries.

Although considerable damage was known to have been done at Dundee, nobody was injured there, reports here indicated.

With Dundee entirely cut off, reports of the storm damage were limited to information gathered at Mankins, which escaped the tornado by less than a mile.

Houses Damaged

The twister ripped through the irrigation valley damaging a group of houses belonging to Mrs. H. S. Griffin at Dundee, partially wrecked the H. G. Helm home, and destroyed three barns on the property of J. I. Parkey.

Heavy damage was reported in the Freeman-Hampton community where many houses were unroofed, power lines destroyed and farm buildings wrecked. No loss of life was reported.

Damage at Holliday

At Holliday one corner of the Wichita County Lumber company was torn away, the Panhandle filling station was unroofed and all electric and power lines shattered.

The twister missed Mankins but struck about one mile west, tossing houses into the air, blowing down derricks, and uprooting large trees.

Some rain and hail accompanied the high wind and much incidental damage to windows, roofs and fruit and grain crops was reported.

The twister formed out of heavy clouds that darkened skies over the whole section late Thursday afternoon, bringing a .66 inch rain in Wichita Falls and similar downpours over most of the county.

Storm Goes East

The Fort Worth and Denver dispatcher reported heavy downpours all the way from Quanah to Bowie, with the clouds moving on toward Fort Worth. The Katy road reported that the heavy rains in Oklahoma Thursday morning were followed by slow showers through the afternoon, with a violent hailstorm reported at Zici, near Woodward.

Both wind and rain went around Archer City where only a light sprinkle fell, but a heavy shower fell at Olney.

Damages to roads and bridges brought by the continuous rains of the last 10 days were being repaired Thursday and railroad schedules were restored to normal, reports from Benjamin, in Knox county said.

Flier to Atempt New Record Parachute Jump

LOS ANGELES, May 15. (US)—"Bailing out" at an altitude of 25,000 feet, Bert White will attempt to set a new world's record parachute jump here Sunday.

Clad in furlined garments, White will leave the plane several miles inland to avoid dropping into the ocean. The descent will take an hour and a half. The present record of 24,402 feet is held by an army officer.

Hambone's Meditations

Trial of Bishop Cannon on Stock Trading Charge Seems Certain

DALLAS, May 15. (UP)—That Bishop Cannon Jr., will be brought to trial before an ecclesiastical court of the Methodist church, South, on a charge of having maintained a marginal account with a New York brokerage was a virtual certainty tonight.

Formal action will be taken Friday night when the episcopacy committee resumes its consideration of the charge, the United Press learned from Dr. Frank P. Culver, chairman of the committee. In executive session Thursday night, the episcopacy acquitted Bishop Cannon and four others on charges that they had participated unduly in the last presidential campaign.

"There is no doubt but that Bishop Cannon will be tried for his stock market activities," Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh, N. C., and a lay leader, said tonight. "It is the duty of the episcopacy committee to bring the bishop before a conference court."

Bishop Cannon's defense against the charge was that monies sent by him to Kable and company, New York brokers, whose failure revealed his stock market transactions, were to have been used for outright purchases of stock instead of for maintenance of a marginal account.

Possibility that the episcopacy committee might report on the stock market charge against the bishop tomorrow were precluded tonight when it was learned Bishop Cannon is scheduled to preside over the general conference Friday.

Brady Trial Climaxed as Wife Bares Story of Judge's Conduct

DALLAS, May 15. (UP)—The second trial of Judge John W. Brady, charged with murdering Lehlia Highsmith, was climaxed today when his 52-year-old wife bared the story of his relations with the attractive court stenographer and testified that he was insane when he stabbed her to death at Austin last year.

The court tonight stood adjourned until Friday morning when arguments are scheduled to start with the case going to the jury Saturday.

Mrs. Brady sobbed as she told how she and John Brady, then a young Austin lawyer, were married 20 years ago. She traced his career to one of state-wide prominence and told the jury of his relations with Miss Highsmith over a long interval. He began to drink heavily and would stay away from home for long intervals, she said.

Both the state and the defense closed their cases conditionally late today. Each side may present one witness Friday and then argument will begin.

William McCraw, district attorney, and Maury Hughes, defense counsel, each were fined $100 by Judge C. A. Pippen when the two men called each other "liars" while examining a witness. The court recessed while the two attorneys wrote checks.

BILL AIMED AT CHAINS PUSHED

House to Consider Re-Sale Price Control Act

WASHINGTON, May 15. (INS)—The first important piece of anti-chain store legislation produced by a congressional committee was knocking at the door of congress today with the house interstate commerce committe prepared to demand consideration of the Capper-Kelly resale price measure.

Under instructions Representative Parker, Republican of New York, chairman of the interstate commerce committee, has asked the rules committee to place the bill on the house program for action in the present session.

With the backing of a big congresional bloc, sponsors of the bill not only expect to place it on the program but to pass it in the house at least.

The bill sets aside the anti-trust laws to permit manufacturers of trade-mark, brand or trade name articles to require retailers to sell them at a price fixed by the manufacturers.

Advocated by many manufacturers of special products before chain store development became a household topic, the measure now is being pushed as a means of preserving the life of the small, independent merchant.

Representative Merritt, Republican of Connecticut has framed the report on the bill, which was introduced in the house by Representative Kelly, Republican of Pennsylvania and in the senate by Senator Capper, Republican of Kansas.

"Perhaps most important for the public welfare, the effect of this bill would be to put the small local dealers more nearly on a competitive basis with the great chain store and other combinations," says the Merritt report.

Outdoor Work Improves Employment Conditions

WASHINGTON, May 15. (US)—Employment increased in connection with practically all outdoor activities during April, according to the monthly review of the department of labor today. The situation existing throughout the country, however, "could not be described as satisfactory," the review stated.

Clergy Dying Out

LONDON.—It is estimated that within 30 years the clergy of England will be extinct if the present rate of loss is continued until that time. The number of clergy in service in 1928 was practically the same as in 1851, with the population of the country nearly doubled. During the seven years from 1921 to 1928, the clergy was decreased by about 4,700 members.

Freed on Texas Charge, Georgian Meets New Rift at Home

ALBANY, Ga., May 15. (AP)—W. H. McGoldrick has returned from Beaumont, Texas, where he was taken several weeks ago to face embezzlement charges, only to meet additional difficulties here.

McGoldrick was freed of the Texas charges, but on his return was met with denials from officials of the Georgia Independent baseball league that he is president of the league.

McGoldrick insisted he was still the league's head, however, and said the group would be operated as scheduled under his direction.

Night Session

The night session opened with a devotional service conducted by Rev. B. O. Wolf, Tennessee, and Rev. Al D. Brantley, Warrenburg, Mo.

Afterwards the meeting was turned over to Rev. J. L. Elliott, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Fort Worth who presided over a program prepared by the Woman's Board of Missions.

The principal address was given by Rev. S. A. Berrie, Arkansas, and brief sketches of missionary work were presented by Rev. Mr. Elliott; Rev. W. R. Reed, Kansas City; Rev. E. W. Johnson, Springfield, Mo.; Rev. F. E. Bright, Alabama City; S. T. Byers, Detroit, Mich.; Rev. T. J. Tanner, San Antonio; and Rev. J. T. Burk, West Tennessee. The night session closed with an address from Rev. Park Williamson of Tennessee on "The Effect and Need of Encampment Work."

Women in Meeting

Members of the Woman's Board of Missions met in separate session during the day, joining the assembly delegates for the night meeting. The Thursday program opened with a devotional service led by Mrs. J. W. Castle, Duncan, Okla. Reports of the committee on credentials and of the board of officers followed. Mrs. Mary M. Graf, Florida, is treasurer; Miss Hal N. Eaves, Tennessee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Daisy Bray Freeman, Missouri, secretary of tithing; Miss Bertha M. Luck, secretary of literature and extension.

Mrs. D. W. Crawford, Mississippi, led the quiet hour that followed the reports.

During the afternoon the board members heard a discussion of "Developing Leadership in Jubilee Years," by Miss Lois Hornbeak, Texas. Special aspects of missionary work and problems were brought before the body. Mrs. Myrtle Coon spoke on "What Tithing Has Meant to Me," and Mrs. Lottie Vancleave Smith presided over the quiet hour that closed the day's session.

The assembly will continue its sessions through next Tuesday. The conference of the board of missions adjourns on Sunday.

MORROW ASKS STATE RIGHTS

Federal Dry Law Repeal Demanded

ed at Krueger's auditorium here, that he favored a substitute amendment "restoring to the states the power to determine their policy toward to the liquor traffic." His proposal also would "vest in the federal government power to give all possible protection and assistance to those states that desire complete prohibition against invasion from the states that do not."

In addition to his advocacy of repeal Morrow outlined his views on present enforcement. As a senator, he said, he would vote for large appropriations with the understanding the government use its enforcement funds to concentrate on the purely federal field—with regard to importation and interstate commerce. Local enforcement measures might well be left to the states, he suggested.

The candidate's statement on prohibition, long promised, had been awaited with extraordinary interest. To begin with he is one of the two former partners of J. P. Morgan (the other was the late Robert Bacon, one-time secretary of state) ever to seek public office. Then, too, as ambassador to Mexico and recently as a delegate to the London naval conference, he has rapidly won his way to acclaim as a statesman. Again, his opponent for the nomination, former Senator Joseph Frelinghusen, has declared himself a convert to the wet cause and for the moment the state Anti-Saloon league is without a candidate it can support. Representative Franklin Fort may make it a three-cornered race by entering as a dry.

Morrow pointed out that he had avoided the words "wet" and "dry."

"It does not help much in a solution of a problem to label men," he said. "Nor is it clear whether the labels are intended to describe personal habits or political views. If they are intended to describe political views they lack definiteness. Men labelled wet may be as much opposed to the saloon as men labelled dry. The saloon must not come back. The people of the United States are rid of the saloon—and well rid of it."

But the ambassador was quick to add that in place of the saloon there had arisen "a wholly unregulated liquor traffic." After admitting that this traffic is one of the many problems in human living incapable of final solution Morrow said:

"I look forward to the time when the old leaders in the temperance movement, the churches and the schools and the social workers will appreciate that they have not reached a final solution of a world-old problem by the present 18th amendment. I look forward to the time when the moral teachers of the country will realize that in the battle for a great social reform there was wisdom in the old system of experimenting in 48 laboratories rather than in one."

Morrow said he was unable to promise relief for the present "deplorable condition." Nevertheless, he said, he felt that he should define his attitude on the problem:

Different Governments

"I believe that the way out of the present difficulty is to recognize clearly the fundamental difference between the nature of the federal government and the state government. I believe this involves a repeal of the 18th amendment and the substitution therefor of an amendment which will restore to the states the power to determine their policy toward the liquor traffic, and vest in the federal government power to give all possible protection and assistance to those states that desire complete prohibition against invasion from the states that do not. If I should be elected to the United States senate I should be prepared to vote for a resolution submitting to the several states an amendment to the constitution in any form that would accomplish the foregoing purpose. I do not believe that the fundamental difficulty can be reached by an amendment of the Volstead act."

FREAKISH FOWL

One-Legged Turkey Has Long Toe Instead Of Drumstick

Special to The Record News.

SEYMOUR, Texas, May 15.—A one-legged freak turkey, with a long toe where the other leg ought to be was hatched along with a normal brood in the barnyard of Mrs. J. A. Frisbie here. The fowl is not so fleet as his brothers but is normal in every other respect, Mrs. Frisbie reports.

Garner Would Divide Texas

legislature alone, Garner said, under the 1854 congressional resolution for annexation of the Republic of Texas. Consent of congress, as required by the federal constitution for such a division, was granted in that resolution, he said.

The Garner proposal was not taken very seriously by Republican leaders. "It would be a fine thing—for Texas," was the first reaction. The effect of such action would be to add eight Democratic senators, and throw the domination of the senate to the Democrats. Critics pointed out it would further increase the disproportion between senators and population representation.

Garner's statement will not affect the present tariff fight, which gives signs of blazing out in a final and mortal combat starting tomorrow in the senate. Other Democratic tariff leaders today said they would move tomorrow when the bill comes up to instruct the senate members of the conference committee to insist to the end on the senate amendments for a farm export debenture bounty and for repeal of the president's tariff-changing powers under the flexible clause.

The house, and President Hoover as well, are committed to fight to the last ditch against these proposals.

Identification Tests Feature Rotary Meet

Rotarians participated in a modern social spelling bee at their weekly luncheon Thursday noon at the Kemp hotel when paired off in two oposing lines for identification of each other in turn by nickname and classification. The innovation marked the advent of Walter K. Campbell to the position of program director.

Encouragement of citywide participation in the program now being sponsored by the Home Modernization bureau was voiced by E. F. Freuchte, representing that bureau. Rotarians were urged to modernize their homes and advertise the project as much as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shepherd officiated in a club singsong before the program proper was introduced.

Progeny of One Red Sow Solves Farm Relief Problems

Special to The Record News.

LAMESA, Texas, May 15.—One red sow has practically solved the farm relief problem for H. S. Phillips, farmer near Mungerville in this county. He advises that he has one red sow which more than pays his federal land bank interest of $81 each six months and has been doing this for two years. The farmer sells the sow's pigs for the needed sum. She is not a registered hog, Phillips says.

Wichitans Return From K. of P. State Meeting

Judge John P. Marrs of the county court returned Thursday morning from Mineral Wells where he attended, with several other delegates from Wichita county lodges, the annual state convention of the Knights of Pythias. More than 2,000 Pythians and their ladies were at the meeting. Temple was selected as the convention city for next year, the judge said.

Judge John W. Birdwell of Mineral Wells was elected grand outer guard and Ellis P. House, Dallas attorney, was selected grand chancellor of Texas.

L. L. Hoge of Austin, chancellor commander of the Mt. Bonnell temple and father-in-law of Judge Marrs, accompanied the judge to Wichita Falls for a visit here. Other representatives of the county at the convention were G. W. Lobaugh L. O. Shudde and C. W. Gorin, all of this city; Ray Corder and R. H. Huffman, both of Electra; C. E. Davis and Mrs. A. D. Butcher, both of Iowa Park; and Joe Gloger of Burkburnett.

William J. Locke Dies After Second Operation

PARIS, May 15. (UP)—William J. Locke, one of the best loved of British novelists, died at 9:30 o'clock tonight at his home here after a relapse from a serious operation performed six weeks ago.

The writer's adopted daughter, Miss Shella Locke, was with him at the end. He was 67 years old.

Mr. Locke had been ill for many weeks and had submitted to two operations for abdominal trouble. The last operation relieved the condition, but left him so weak that he could not combat the relapse successfully.

Chicago Drainage Canal Issue Before Committee

WASHINGTON, May 15. (AP)—With a provision before it involving the ancient dispute over diversion of water from Lake Michigan into the Chicago drainage canal, the senate commerce committee today extended hearings on the house rivers and harbors bill into next week.

Don't fool yourself!

Since halitosis never announces itself to the victim, you simply cannot know when you have it.

Halitosis ruins romance—end it

If the one you're fond of has halitosis (unpleasant breath), it's your duty to call attention to it and suggest the effective remedy—Listerine used full strength.

Certainly this course is a better one than putting up with halitosis and saying nothing about it.

A great many people fool themselves in thinking they never have halitosis. What a presumption! Because nobody knows when he or she is a victim. Halitosis doesn't announce itself to you. But it does to others. And that offends.

Being an active germicide capable of killing 200,000,000 germs in 15 seconds, full-strength Listerine checks mouth fermentation and infection—both a cause of odors. Then it gets rid of the odors; it is a powerful deodorant. Use Listerine morning and night and between times, before meeting others. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U.S.A.

WIFE HELD FOR SLAYING RIVAL

Woman Shoots Into Auto Containing Couple

MOBILE, Ala., May 15. (INS)—Mrs. Angelo S. Puckett, 35, wife of a county license inspector, was held here today on a charge of murdering Mrs. Francis Hines, 26, whom she accused of alienating her husband's affections. Mrs. Hines was the estranged wife of an automobile mechanic.

Police declared Mrs. Puckett followed her husband to a suburban section, crowded his automobile to the curb, and fired twice at Mrs. Hines, who sat beside Puckett. According to the authorities Mrs. Puckett shot Mrs. Hines on a previous occasion, about a month ago, but the shot was ineffectual.

A brother, James S. Wooley, police said, accompanied Mrs. Puckett, when she followed her husband's car last night. Mrs. Puckett shot while her brother and Puckett were scuffling over a gun in the latter's possession, according to the story she told police.

Subsequently, it was stated, Mrs. Puckett made her husband surrender the gun to Wooley under a threat of shooting him also unless he gave up the weapon.

She then got in her automobile and, driving home, surrendered to the authorities. Puckett was detained on a technical charge pending a complete investigation of the case.

Books for Bath

PARIS.—For those who can't sing while bathing, a special book has been perfected which permits reading while immersed in the warm waters of the Saturday night bath. The book is printed on waterproof paper in water-proof ink and cannot be damaged by water or soap. The only disadvantage of bathside reading is that it is apt to hold up the parade in homes where several take their baths on the same night.

Another West Point Eloper Tells Of Red Cagle's Departure From School

(Editor's Note: Chris (Red) Cagle West Point football star, has bid farewell to the academy following announcement that he has been married two years. Paul Capron Jr., now a reporter for the New York Journal, is himself an ex-cadet who eloped with the daughter of a colonel while his fellow-cadets were watching Cagle star in the game against Yale. Capron writes of Cagle's leave-taking.)

By PAUL CAPRON JR.

NEW YORK, May 15. (INS)—Just a red-headed ex-cadet.

That's "Red" Cagle today. The man who a few months ago was amazing millions of spectators with his brilliant dashes through enemy gridiron territory is now Mr. C. K. Cagle, private citizen.

Yesterday afternoon "Red" sneaked out of barracks, eluding reporters as he used to elude tacklers on the football field, jumped into a waiting car, and was driven to New York to meet his wife, the innocent cause of his leaving. She had just arrived in New York from Louisiana in response to a phone call from her husband.

Cagle's sensational resignation, following so closely after a storm of criticism which greeted his announcement that he would leave the army right after his resignation took effect yesterday morning.

The star had spent the morning touring the offices of the military academy, carrying his arms and equipment back to the cadet armory and preparing to leave as soon as he received word from Washington that his resignation had gone through.

That is a wearisome procedure, as anyone who has waited on it knows. It was doubly so for "Red" Cagle, who in another month would have bid farewell to his cadet uniform and stepped out in the regalia of a second lieutenant.

Red's heart was heavy as he carried back to the armory the red silk sash and full dress plume that he wore on parade.

"I am disappointed not to graduate with my class," the gallant little halfback remarked, as he was preparing to leave the academy.

News of Cagle's marriage reached West Point just one month before the red head would have graduated.

To the corps—even to his classmates—Red was just the same old Red up to the very minute he left.

His famous grin was as debonair, as cherry as ever, as he replied to the hundreds of well wishers who shook his hand and wished him luck.

But underneath he was hurt—hurt more, perhaps, than anyone can realize.

Cagle remains the idol of the corps—the man who single handed carried the army to the top of the football heap—the man who, great as he was in victory, put forth his supreme efforts in defeat.

The corps saw him run far over to one side of the field in the 1928 Notre Dame game to take the last kick off of that game. The corps remembers how he tore and twisted his way to the enemy 20-yard line before he went down under four Notre Dame tacklers in a last desperate effort to tie the score.

And they cheered him until their voices were gone when he left the field, gallant, though beaten by the tremendous odds against him.

The corps does not forget these things.

GAS DISLODGES CATTLE THIEF

'Hermit' Driven From Hut By Deputies

RAY, Ariz., May 15. (AP)—Tear gas bombs, hurled through the windows of a stone-walled cabin, drove "the hermit," an asserted cattle thief, from his refuge today. The bombs were thrown by sheriff's deputies who had fired futile volleys of rifle bullets in a 24-hour fight to arrest the man at his mountain cabin on the Howard Parks cattle ranch.

Cham Jones Files For Legislature Post

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 15. (UP)—Cham Jones, leader in the Oklahoma legislature, filed for the legislature again today with the state election board.

Other filings were: Legislature, A. A. Floyd, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma county; W. D. Batman, Beaver and Harper counties; John W. Walker, Sapulpa, all Democrats, and W. E. Simms, Muskogee, Republican.

Guy L. Andrews, McAlester, filed for re-election to the senate.

Stimson Sees Future Peace in Naval Pact

WASHINGTON, May 15. (INS)—From the diplomatic reception room in the state department today Secretary of State Stimson declared in a radio address the London naval treaty was a long step toward peace, and expressed the hope "that with the help and support of the rising generation we may finally arrive at the goal of general disarmament and peace."

Stimson sketched the purposes of the naval conference and said: "I feel confident that in your time and with your help the great movement toward international peace, in which the London conference was an important step, will be successfully completed."

HENDERSON EMBARRASSED

GENEVA, May 15. (INS)—Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson was seriously embarrassed today when obliged to admit that a Soviet Russian vessel carrying 250,000 pounds of opium had recently cleared from the Persian gulf for Vladivostok, Siberia, despite the activity of the British naval opium patrol.

FRANCE GREETS STAR MOTHERS

First Contingent Lands At Cherbourg

PARIS, May 15. (UP)—Three-hundred Gold Star mothers and widows, the first contingent of 6,000 who will visit the war cemeteries of France at the expense of the United States government, arrive at Cherbourg tomorrow morning from New York.

Their arrival aboard the United States liner America marks the commencement of the first organized pilgrimage of its kind ever attempted by the United States. Sixteen other liners will bring similar groups throughout the summer and for two weeks they will visit the chief American war cemeteries and points of interest around Paris.

Twelve D. A. R. Members At Palo Alto Resign

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Palo Alto, Calif., May 15. (UP)—Expressing to believe that policies regarding peace and the world court cannot "be corrected from within," 12 members of the Palo Alto chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution resigned today.

Resignation was made direct to national headquarters of the society and was accompanied by a letter of explanation.

JOAN CRAWFORD reveals the Secret of Fascination . .

Joan Crawford, adorable young M. G. M. star, in the luxurious bathroom created for her in Hollywood. At home, as in her dressing room on location, she uses Lux Toilet Soap, and says: "There's something about a smooth, soft skin that's irresistible. I never found anything like Lux Toilet Soap for keeping my skin lovely."

Joan Crawford

"THERE'S ONE kind of girl who always attracts," says Joan Crawford, the screen star whose vivacious loveliness has won conquests by the thousand. "It's the girl with exquisite skin!

"There's something about a smooth, soft skin that's irresistible, it seems. Just watch the girl who has it. She's sure to be sought after, the center of attention wherever she goes!

"The Hollywood directors found out long ago"—Joan Crawford shook her red-brown head in emphasis—"that a girl simply must have ravishing skin to win her public. Those great glaring close-up lights reveal even tiny flaws, you know.

"So you can imagine how carefully every girl in Hollywood guards her skin! Especially now that the talkies are here, with more close-ups than ever!

CARLOTTA KING (M. G. M.)
"Keeps my skin so smooth!"

GWEN LEE (M. G. M.)
"I find it wonderful!"

JULIA FAYE (M. G. M.)
"I always use it."

"For a long time almost everyone I know has been using Lux Toilet Soap. It does leave the skin so soft and smooth! That lovely Gwen Lee uses it regularly. And Carlotta King. Did you ever see more breath-taking skin than hers? Julia Faye and Dorothy Sebastian, too, and ever so many others.

"If a girl wants to have the charm of temptingly beautiful skin (and what girl doesn't!), she ought to try this nice white soap. She's sure to be delighted with the results!"

Nine out of Ten Lovely Stars use it—in Hollywood—on Broadway—in Europe

Of the 521 important actresses in Hollywood, including all stars, 511 are devoted to Lux Toilet Soap. All the great film studios have made it the official soap for their dressing rooms!

The lovely Broadway stage stars, too, have discovered that Lux Toilet Soap gives their skin just the gentle care that is required to keep it lovely.

And now the European stars are using this fragrant white soap! You, too, will want to try it. Order several cakes—today.

Baptist Sodalitan Class Hostess At Lovely Party

Members of the Sodalitan class of the First Baptist church were hostesses Thursday to members of the Mary-Martha and Fellowship classes in the church parlors, where masses of spring flowers added beauty to the effective pastel class colors of pink and green.

In the receiving line were Mesdames Fred Barron, J. M. Baber, Daisy Dean, H. E. Bradley, David Erickson, A. C. Friberg, E. D. Trevathan, Glenn Dixon, W. R. Ponder, J. H. Stanfill, Geo. B. Dunn and Ed Maag.

After a delightful singsong by the class, the program began with a humorous one-act play in which Mesdames Maag, Foley, Erickson, Miles, King, Dixon, Bradley, Vermillion, Dean and Fooshee took part. Lois Baber gave a pretty piano number and a negro dialog was given by Mrs. Edna Rundell Kirby and Miss Mary Hamilton. Mesdames P. M. Cordell and C. H. Evans, accompanied by Mrs. A. H. Mahaffey gave a lovely duet to close the program.

A delightful refreshment plate carrying out the pink and green class colors was served to Mesdames R. O. Grant, J. L. Fooshee, A. F. Kimmel, Ray Black, Fred Morris, V. E. Stampfli, C. W. Rountree, Charles Harr, J. F. Detlefs, W. L. Holloway, T. A. Garnett, Harry Duren, Walter Parker, E. P. Bass, H. B. Gilbert, J. S. Word, Ralph Hines, O. K. West, Roy I. Carter, J. H. French, J. D. McMahon, A. W. Tooley, W. E. Floyd, C. H. Foley, Fred Carter, L. H. Franks, Henry Hamilton, C. H. Haggard, C. H. Fooshee, G. G. Church, M. C. Vanston, O. M. Smith, J. C. Shepherd, Dave Shepherd, J. A. Morrison, Maye Berry, Joe C. McBee, E. D. McCally, S. A. Rosser, Jim Robinson, J. W. Nossett, J. D. Thweatt, M. Mitcham, Bert King, A. A. Vermillion, J. B. Shearer, Z. P. Owens, T. A. Key, W. R. Little, W. E. Beck, Geo. O. Howery, D. E. Jordan, Willie B. Rayzor, E. A. Miles and the hostess group.

PEEPS AT PEOPLE

By MRS. L. N. CASON

For a week or two now "youth must be served." Graduation day is close upon us and final exams will be followed by a series of parties for those who pass and a season of sorrow for those who do not.

◇ ◇ ◇

Commencement sermons and "speakers of the day," will tell the youth of the land that the closing of school is only the beginning of life, that lessons have not all been finished and there will be tests to pass that will grade men and women up or down in character.

◇ ◇ ◇

Memory seems to tell us that graduations were times of pleasure, and that we never moralized over the future. The triumph, the excitement and the final framing of diplomas was the total of graduation frivolity, some years gone by.

◇ ◇ ◇

But there were no series of class parties, there were no invitations to buy; there were no caps and gowns to be rented; there were no annuals to be purchased. Caps and gowns were donned in high schools to relieve girls of competition in the style of their graduation frocks. It seems that the social life of this day about evens things up.

◇ ◇ ◇

Where once upon a time, girls rivaled one another for one day in dotted swiss and organdy and silk mull, it is now considered necessary to have at least two sport frocks, one evening gown and a couple of afternoon dresses for the series of events of commencement week.

◇ ◇ ◇

And a very important thing is the question of "dates." When parties begin, having "it" is much more important than having a high grade; what girl wishes to go to sunrise and evening dances and be a wallflower?

◇ ◇ ◇

In the mauve decade flowers were almost the only gift (save from proud parents). Happy was the girl at whose feet many bouquets and baskets were laid. Heartache then was measured by these marks of friendship.

◇ ◇ ◇

Save for the baccalaureate sermon, everything took place on one crowded morning. In a little southern city that we remember, the auditoriums were always white and green with magnolias and the scent of cape jasmine hung heavy in the air.

◇ ◇ ◇

In all towns and cities, the thought of commencement is one inalienably connected with fresh, blooming youth, clean, unbroken ideals and high hopes.

◇ ◇ ◇

Yet one of the first 10 pupils in his class in the Warsaw Polytechnic college recently was a graduate in geology, 81 years of age. Edward Klepacki won his sheepskin with honor.

◇ ◇ ◇

Megargel P.-T. A. Has Last Meeting of Spring

Members of the Megargel P.-T. A. met Tuesday evening in the last meeting of the spring term with Miss Hays re-elected to serve as president in 1930-31 term, presiding. There were 42 members and a number of visitors present.

Following the regular business, Mrs. O. M. Smith announced that examination of pre-school children would take place Thursday, May 15. Chairmen of various committees were appointed.

The paper contest closed with the rooms of Mesdames Belcher and Cullers and Miss Hays winners in the race, each room receiving $5 to use as they wished. Sunday school attendance of the high school was announced to be 51 per cent.

Miss Kraft's second grade room won the banner for attendance of parents.

Outlines for next year are already planned by Miss Hayes and committees will meet in the autumn ready to cooperate with her as she thanked them for doing in the past.

◇ ◇ ◇

Grant Street Class Has Business Meet

Mrs. Ed Smith was hostess to the members of the D. O. D. class of Grant Street Methodist church Thursday afternoon when they met in business session at her home on Hollywood.

Mrs. J. B. McMahon was elected vice president and plans were made to hold a rummage sale, the date to be arranged later. The next meeting was announced for the second Thursday in June when Mrs. Jeter will entertain the class at her home on the lake road.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames W. H. Black, W. D. Smithson, H. A. Baker, Bryan Bailey, G. N. Walker, D. A. James, S. Myers, C. W. Thomas, Sam Beard, Ed Smith, Y. C. Clark, C. W. Miller, I. L. Sides, J. B. McMahon and Mrs. Bruce Engle.

Flash in the Pan Economy

By making several trips down town each week and dashing about from store to store, it will always be possible to buy a good many things at special prices. But this business of saving a few pennies at the moment of purchase doesn't always prove to be economy in the long run.

In addition to offering unusually attractive "specials" whenever the value honestly warrants the use of the term, it is the policy of this store to give you economy on a yearly basis by offering you quality merchandise closely priced six days a week, fifty-two weeks a year.

Mrs. Davis Wins Permanent Cup In Tournament

Mrs. C. O. Davis is announced as 1930 winner in the annual tournament for the Woman's Golf Association Permanent championship cup and Mrs. H. L. Ruehl the runner-up. Mrs. Davis' name is the fourth to be engraved on the cup, Mrs. George Hampshire, Miss Laura Lee Hampshire and Mrs. J. L. Waggoner being the three previous winners.

In the regular weekly golf game Thursday Mrs. Davis was winner of low ball. The tournament committee announced a blind bogie tournament for Thursday, May 22.

Luncheon was enjoyed at a table where blue larkspur and pink poppies made a pretty spring decoration, by Mesdames J. B. Hatchitt, W. P. Bolding, Fred Couper, H. L. Ruehl, R. L. Hargrave, C. O. Davis, J. W. Caldwell Jr., H. P. Ledford, L. O. Landon, E. Garonzik, W. C. Witcher, S. F. Keoughan, Helen Kendall, B. F. Caldwell and little Catherine Kendall.

Mrs. Travis Honoree At Pretty Shower

Pink and white in flowers, favors and refreshments was the dainty color scheme emphasized when friends of Mrs. Marshal Travis honored her with a shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Kelm.

Games were enjoyed during the afternoon and prizes were awarded to Mesdames F. K. Brown and Etta Rollins. Many lovely gifts were presented to the honoree.

A dainty ice course was served to Mesdames J. K. Bentley, F. K. Brown, J. H. Brubaker, C. E. Baker, G. M. Lile, E. Raborn, Mamie Ester, Etta Rollins, Stella Menton, Mamie Baker, Marshal Travis and Mrs. Kelm.

Work on compiling statistics for the city manager's annual report was begun Thursday, it was announced. The report will be finished in approximately two weeks.

In Wrong Line

PITTSBURGH.—Nick Mitchell, 52, has a good line. In fact he has three of them. One of them is to stand in the bread line here with the homeless and receive free food. But Patrolman Fay found out that he had two other lines at two banks in which he had more than $2,500 deposited. He was parted from his bread line and put in jail.

Crockett Pre-School Clinic Gives Encouraging Records

Pre-school children participating in the Crockett school summer round-up set an inspiring precedent Wednesday afternoon when five children were found 100 per cent. Miles Bobby Hayes, Jeanne Franklin, Doris Mae Smith, Patsy Ruth Beatty and H. L. Anderson were the perfect children. Doctors, parents and teachers were happy over the outcome of the pre-school clinic, which was pronounced from every standpoint, the most successful ever held in the school.

There were 31 sturdy little firm-fleshed, half-nude 6 year olds with bath towels around their shoulders waiting their turn to be examined by the friendly doctors. They were accompanied by 25 mothers and one dad and the others had neighbors or big brothers with them.

Miss Ida Moore, principal and Mrs. Grover Bullington, health chairman, met the children as they arrived and directed them to the desk where Mrs. T. C. Watkins registered them. Margaret Brenaman and Mary McGee Rogers, Camp Fire Girls, took them to the scales where they were weighed and measured by Mesdames W. O. Beeman and Otis Nelson. Only one child was found underweight and one overweight.

The children were met at the doors of the cafeteria by Mary Pauline Rathke, another Camp Fire Girl, and directed to seats according to their numbers and Mesdames C. E. Roades and H. B. White assisted in undressing them and putting the huge bath towels round them. These towels, as well as the doctors' hand towels and table covers, were furnished by the Martin Linen Supply company. The alcohol used to sterilize the instruments was given by Evans Pharmacy.

Mrs. Horrace Robbins took the children to the proper doctor. Drs. Wallace Masters and Austin Leach gave the general physical examinations. Dr. C. H. Dolph was eye, ear and throat specialist, and Dr. G. P. Raborn dental examiner. Clerks for the doctors were Mesdames J. P. Tarry, W. D. Roland, O. G. Stephens and G. P. Raborn. Miss Matilda Thuman, nurse, assisted, and discussed certain conditions with the mothers. As the last step, the children were directed to the exit where Miss Pearl Rorabaugh, nutritionist, checked examination papers and discussed the correction of defects given each mother by Patty Jean McDaniels, Girl Reserve.

Records showed five perfect children; 13 with perfect teeth; defects were noted as one underweight and one overweight; two, bad posture; four, defective eyes; 23, defective tonsils; 61 temporary and nine permanent teeth decayed; five cases of ear trouble and one of infantile paralysis.

Crockett P.-T. A. members and the health chairman extended thanks to the doctors, the Martin Linen Supply company, Evans Pharmacy and the Camp Fire Girls and mothers for the assistance rendered.

District Nurses Have Luncheon at Forum Clubhouse

With masses of pastel shaded larkspur emphasizing the delicate motif indicated in the pastel crystal service, the District Association of Graduate Nurses met for luncheon at the Woman's Forum clubhouse in their closing meeting of the year Thursday.

Two guests of the association, Mesdames O. B. Kiel and W. L. Parker, added to the pleasure of the occasion when Mrs. Parker, accompanied by Mrs. Kiel sang, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," and responded to an encore with "Courtin' Liza Jane."

Following the luncheon in a short business meeting, Miss May Pearson gave an interesting report of the state nurses' convention at Beaumont.

Covers were laid for Misses Mary Godfrey, Katherine O'Donnell, Cora Golding, Agnes Anderson, Mary Cole, May Pearson, Florence Watson, Mildred McCarthy, Henrietta Goeke, Bobbie Rogers, Tillie Burns, Rosa Lee Harkins, Viona Summers, Marguerite Harris, Lucy Mayes, Josephine Westerman, Ruth Morse, Margaret Harolson, Esther Boelter, Thelma Borsch, Mary Foley, Myrtle Wells, Grace Moore, Vivian Bosley, Eva M. Wallace and Mesdames J. R. McKinney, Lillian Evans, Lillian Ross, Mildred Wright, Sue Loesche, Carrie Yantis, Sarah Newsom, Maude Hill and the guests, Mesdames Parker and Kiel.

Installation of Officers Closes Huey Meetings

Mrs. R. P. Willis was in charge of the installation ceremonies Wednesday afternoon when new officers were installed in the Huey P.-T. A. meeting closing the year's work. She used as her subject, "Service Is the Keynote of Duty," making an inspirational talk when Mrs. R. D. Lewis was installed as president; Mrs. W. L. Goodson, first vice president; Mrs. John Harrington, second vice president; Mrs. John Schiller, third vice president; Miss Margaret Lewis, secretary; Mrs. W. L. Garner, treasurer; Mrs. W. T. Wade, publicity chairman; Miss E. Berry, magazine chairman; Mrs. G. B. Holstead, welfare chairman and Mrs. J. R. Compton, health chairman.

Mrs. W. T. Wade, retiring president, was presented with a P.-T. A. pin in recognition of her faithful service for the past two years. All committees gave splendid reports and Mrs. W. L. Garner, treasurer, reported $96.19 in the treasury with all bills paid.

Following the business session, the mothers were entertained in the cafetria by the high six grade. Mary E. Lewis gave a reading, "The Tapestry Weaver;" Margaret Lamb read "Home" by Edgar Guest and Talma Lee Brooks gave "A Wild White Rose."

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Forrest Tillman, Mary Welch, Will Gillen, A. Gore, J. K. Ricks, B. C. Brooks, J. T. Carr, H. E. Miller, F. M. Robinson, F. A. Bidelspacher, A. B. Curry, W. L. Every Headache Is a Warning

What is a headache? Physicians tell us that headache is "the cry of over-taxed nerves for rest." The cause of simple headache is high nerve tension or strain, which leads to high blood pressure and serious injury to the nervous system.

The next time you have a headache, neuralgic or rheumatic pains, or periodic pains, try the improved method of relief—two teaspoonfuls of Capudine in a little water. Being liquid, Capudine gives relief almost instantly—much quicker than tablets and powders. It relieves by soothing the tense nerves—not by deadening them. Contains no opiates and does not upset the stomach, therefore, is the ideal remedy.

For over thirty years Capudine has been bringing relief to those who suffer from nervous pains. You, too, will find it a joy and comfort when your nerves are unstrung and when you suffer from pain. At drug stores in 30c and 60c sizes.—Adv.

Three Mothers Agree

When mother is tired, nervous or ill the whole home is upset. For her family's sake, every mother wants to be well and strong. These three women tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps them to care for their families.

Mrs. H. Dolhonde,
6318 York St.,
New Orleans, Louisiana

"Before my last baby was born, I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got such good results that I named her Catherine Lydia. I have six older children and five grandchildren, too. I am now taking the Vegetable Compound again because of my age. I eat and sleep better and I do all my housework, and my washing. I will do my best to answer letters."

Mrs. Harold Goodnow
36 Cane St.,
Fitchburg, Massachusetts

"I cannot praise your medicine enough. After my baby came I was rundown. I had to go to bed often through the day. I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I felt like a different woman. If any mother has those tired feelings I advise her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Lloyd R. Blasing,
115 So. Ohio St.,
Anaheim, California

"After my baby came I was so nervous and tired that I felt miserable. One day a booklet was left at our door and after reading it I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now on my fourth bottle and I feel much stronger. It has helped me in every way and I feel sure that other women in rundown condition will pick up if they will only take a few bottles."

Fragrant and Iced Tetley Tea puts a tang in the meals and takes the sting out of the weather.

TETLEY TEA

For any BABY

We can never be sure just what makes an infant restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as Baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

All through babyhood, Castoria should be a mother's standby; and a wise mother does not change to stronger medicines as the child grows older. Castoria is readily obtained at any drugstore, and the genuine easily identified by the Chas. H. Fletcher signature that appears on every wrapper.

Garden Club Has Breakfast In Lovely Floral Setting

Kenneth Bebb was the speaker of the day when the Garden club held the monthly breakfast at the Woman's Forum clubhouse Thursday morning in the midst of a bewildering array of spring blossoms. Approximately 100 enjoyed the delicious breakfast. Mr. Bebb talked on the culture of chrysanthemums, stating that they were very responsive to care.

The original chrysanthemum, Mr. Bebb said, was about the size of a Shasta daisy. Japan, Korea and China experimented with it and in about 1850 its present stage began proving a theory of evolution. Mr. Bebb demonstrated with a small plant, and showed his interested audience how to pinch out the top through May and June for the early blossoms and even through July for late flowers. He went through the stages of the flower's growth, staking, feeding and watering, recommending Vigoro for its chemical contents and telling the ladies to feed flowers as one would feed humans, according to their requirement. He gave valuable information as to watering, and deplored the water of the city for its effect on flowers. Flower lovers were told how to spray for bugs and how to destroy cutworms and Mr. Bebb cautioned them to throw away no organic leaves, grass or any matter organic matter, saying that in this country, it seemed to him a sin to burn leaves, grass or any matter that could be used for fertilization.

Members of the club used pencil and paper for notes and at the close of Mr. Bebb's talk, beseiged him with questions that were pleasantly answered.

The tables were lovely with flowers. A bowl of double pink poppies and one of golden California poppies that shone like a spot of sunshine, were brought by Mrs. Billy Myers of Henrietta. An enormous orchid jar filled with larkspur, columbine, forget-me-nots, poppies and many other pastel blossoms came form the garden of Mrs. Frank Timberlake. Mrs. C. E. McCutchen brought a great bowl that held an exquisite collection, and was asked to exhibit a lovely lily and one gorgeous specimen of poppy. A silver bowl of statis, cornflowers and golden daisies was particularly graceful, and an enormous basket holding long stemmed double pink poppies from Mrs. W. M. Priddy's garden caught every eye. Larkspur in every pastel shade filled many vases. Plate favors were velvet faced pansies.

Mrs. Frank Timberlake, retiring president, presided gracefully throughout the program and Mrs. J. A. Kemp gave an invocation that was beautifully in keeping with the growing season. After the reading of the minutes and the announcement of the federation of the club, Mrs. Pies Crouch was called on for a report on the junior Garden club and reported a membership of 462—the full attendance at Crockett school, stating that Crockett was the first school in America to be 100 per cent a garden club member. Charteres are issued to groups of 10 or more in junior garden clubs, Mrs. Crouch said, and dues are two cents per person, covering the cost of buttons, charters, etc. She stated that the slogan adopted was "Every Boy and Girl in Wichita County a Junior Gardener."

Mrs. E. B. Lehrack reported on the club magazine and it was planned to hold a spring flower show at the close of next year's forum season. Mrs. Timberlake showed specimens of columbine and told of the method of planting and also showed other flowers from her garden, including a calendula that put forth a freak growth of a crown of the same blossoms.

Among those who registered for the breakfast were Mesdames Orville Bullington, A. D. Anderson, William Huff, J. W. Caldwell, J. Merrick, Curtis Atkinson, George Fox, C. C. Kirby, A. N. Lummus, Wiley, O. W. Harvey, M. T. Clements, Featherston, E. B. Lehrack, J. D. Parnell, Cable, F. E. Van Wormer, Walter Campbell, Ella Campbell, Hazel Campbell, W. N. Maer, O. E. Maer, E. P. Scientist Denies Serum Killed German Children

PARIS, May 15. (US)—Professor Guerin, of the Pasteur institute, co-discoverer with Dr. Calmett of the tubercular serum during inoculation with which eight infants at Lubeck, Germany, died, today declared that the serum could not be responsible for their deaths.

"It is impossible for the patient to die when the serum is properly administered," said the professor. "The German doctors must have been negligent in its preparation. We have successfully treated 240,000 children in France."

BAD HEADACHE GONE 15 YEARS

Virginia Lady Tells of Long Benefit From Use of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Wytheville, Va.—Mrs. C. R. Suthers, who lives on the Lee Highway here, says that she used to suffer severely from headache and was relieved by taking a well-known powered herb medicine.

"It seemed like I could not hold up my head," explains Mrs. Suthers, describing her headache trouble. "I would be so nauseated I would just lie in bed and suffer. I would not want anyone to touch my head. For days, after I had these headaches, my eyeballs would be so sore I could hardly bear to touch them.

"I read of Black-Draught and began taking it. After I had used it for some time, it seemed to regulate the bowels and I only had a few more headaches. I took Black-Draught to ward off constipation and it kept off the headaches.

"I have not had one of those severe headaches in fifteen years. When I have a bad taste in my mouth, and don't feel quite well, I take a dose of Black-Draught, and that is about all the medicine I have taken in about twenty years."

Costs only 1 cent a dose.

New Staley Field Ship To Become 'Speed Job'

Fulcher Armstrong, manager of the Wichita Falls Air Transport company, and Keith Berry of Vernon Thursday afternoon landed at Staley field with the new three-place Eaglerock biplane, powered with a Hisso E-2 motor, which is to become the "speed job" for the company.

The ship will be "stream-lined," fitted with a speed cowling, the front cockpit enclosed, and other adjustments made to leave it one of the fastest ships in this part of the state, the manager said. It will be used for emergency trips where speed is essential, company officials explained.

Electra News

Mrs. Robert P. Hall, president, presided over the meeting of the Christian Missionary society Monday afternoon at the church. A short business session was held after which Mrs. Hall led the devotional. The afternoon was spent in quilting and at the conclusion the group went to the home of Mrs. John Houser on West Gibson, where a social hour was enjoyed. Games and contests were played and the hostess served delicious refreshments to 12 ladies.

Mrs. C. F. Buggs entertained the members of the Lampas society of the First Christian church at her home on West Ida Monday afternoon. Mrs. Buggs and a group of the society were hostesses to the winners of a recent contest in selling. The group captained by Mrs. B. R. Hutchins won by a small margin over the group led by Mrs. R. Y. Diddy.

The afternoon was spent in playing an original game, "Skiddo," and Mrs. O. L. Ely won high score. Party favors were attractive hand painted booklets containing the constitution and byiaws of the organization. The society presented a lovely gift to the president, Mrs. F. M. Lisle, as a token of love and appreciation for her work during the past year. She will leave soon to spend the summer in Fort Worth.

A delicious refreshment course was served to Mesdames F. M. Lisle, J. M. Knight, B. R. Hutchins, R. Y. Diddy, C. R. Conyers, Troy Ray, R. N. Richardson, Herman Gibson, George P. Williams, Clara Petty, W. R. Evans, C. P. Price, D. L. Dovel, C. C. Hair, members; Mesdames O. L. Ely, L. M. McLachlin and R. R. Reed of Davidson, Okla.

Miss Norma Andrews was hostess to a group of her friends at a bridge party at her home on North Wichita Monday evening. Ten tables were arranged for the games and a yellow and green color scheme was noted in the table accessories. Miss Bina Magee won high score for the girls and Roy Labus high for the men. Miss Earline McDannald and L. S. Rhodes scored low. All were presented lovely prizes.

A salad and ice course, carrying out the color scheme, was served to Misses Bina Magee, Ava Shaw, Alice Chapman, Lucia Magee, Virginia McDannald, Helen Slaughter, Louise Gaston, Earline McDannald, Lena Smith, Mary Dean Reneau, Katherine Sheldon, Geraldine Franklin, and Mrs. Jack Wilson; Messrs. Kenneth Moore, Ray B. Dickey, Jack Parr, Eddie Shields, Ragon Andrews, Charles McGann, Russell Gilbert, Buddy Wilcoxsin, Kenneth Brush, L. S. Rhodes, Roy Covington, Wayne Gillispie, Dr. P. E. Fish; Messrs. and Mesdames Paul Bilbrey, Paul Brush, Jack Lebus, Roy Lebus, Homer Andrews, Joe Coffey and Herman Gibson.

The Confederate veterans residing in Wichita and surrounding counties were given their annual Confederate dinner at the First Presbyterian church in Wichita Falls last Saturday, and about 65 were served. Col. Ed C. Wilson of Electra was one of the principal speakers, and his subject was on "Retrospection." The people attending from Electra were Col. Ed C. Wilson, J. T. McCracken, John D. Garner and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Garner and Johnnie Mae Garner, Miss Julia Norman, Mary Helen Boutwell, Barbary June Carter and Mrs. H. J. Carter.

Miss Zola Slaughter presented her pupils in a studio recital at the Slaughter home on North Wichita street Thursday evening. Only parents and immediate members of the families of the pupils were present. The program included: "The Jolly Trolly Riders" and "Airy Fairies," Doris Green; "Little Drummer Boy," Charles Vanderver; "The Little Cadet," Lanetta Smuicer; "Dream Song," Jean Ely; Happy Hours," Elodie Williams; "Love Me," (song), Willis Mae and Olga Basham; "Rosetta," Dorothy Parr; "Pixie's Good Night Song," Golden Williams; "Periwinkles," Emeline Schieffue; "Dance of the Dwarfs," Gertrude Gambin; "March of the Classes," (duet), Dorothy Parr and Emeline Schieffue; "Will O' Wisp," Helen Dunham; "Moonlight Revels," Ruie Totten; "Mazurka Di Bravura," Olga Basham.

Wichitan Stricken By Poisoning

C. E. King, 2213 Princeton avenue was reported resting well late Thursday night at the Wichita General hospital where he was taken about 10:30 o'clock after he had suddenly taken ill on a downtown street from the effects of what physicians described as strychnine poisoning.

King, according to police reports, had been in the car with his wife shortly before the violent attack struck him. He was said to have left his wife sitting in the machine while he entered a drug store. Coming out of the drug store, he walked quickly down the street and collapsed on a corner a block from the place where he had left his wife, officers said.

An ambulance from the Albert's Funeral home was called and he was rushed to the hospital, where physicians immediately gave treatment for poison. Attendants said about six grains of the poison had been taken internally and only immediate medical attention saved his life. King is employed as a truck driver by W. J. Howard, police said.

Electra Firm's Tax Appeal Approved

Special to The Record News.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The U. S. board of tax appeals, in a decison handed down today, partially sustained the plea of Ed Foster and Mrs. Seffie Foster of Electra, doing business as Foster & Allen, on deficiency assessments of $3,079 each levied against them on their income tax return for 1920. There were two points at issue, one involving an unsecured note for $27,500 and the other the disallowance by the commisison of $21,000 as a business expense. The board held that petitions were not liable for taxes on the note during that year and that while the $21,000 was not deductible as a business expense it could properly be capitalized as it was spent to protect the firm's other interests.

The auction sale at Travis school, Third and Lee streets, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher's association Thursday night will be continued Friday night due to the inclement weather attending the opening of the sale Thursday evening, according to the announcement of W. E. Walker, principal of the school.

In spite of the rain about 500 persons attended the opening of the sale but the program set out, including the giving away of several gifts in addition to the sale of articles donated by local merchants, was hampered by the rain and it was decided to hold the affair a second night. George H. Hodgins will again be auctioneer and George Taylor, who gave musical numbers Thursday night, will also be on Friday night's program. A floor lamp valued at $15 and donated by the Texas Electric Service company will be one of Friday night's numerous prizes, Principal Walker said.

Whisky, Car and Negro Captured by Officers

One negro was arrested and 25 half-gallons of whisky and an automobile were seized by members of the sheriff's department late Thursday night in a raid at the negro's home on Roosevelt street, according to the report of Warren Belcher, deputy sheriff.

The officer went to the negro's house where they arrested him within a short while as he drove up with the whisky loaded in the car. With Mr. Belcher were H. L. White and R. D. Morris, also deputies. The negro was lodged in the county jail, charges to be filed Friday.

LEACH TO TALK OVER RADIO

Physician Will Discuss Diabetes

Dr. Austin F. Leach, president of the Wichita County Medical society, will make a talk at 10 o'clock Friday morning over station KGKO on the subject of "Diabetes," as the regular Friday morning medical talk given by a representative of the society through the courtesy of the Wichita County Tuberculosis association, it was announced Thursday.

Diabetes, it was explained by officials of the medical society, is a disease caused by disorders of the pancreas and its symptoms are rapid loss of weight and energy and excessive thirst. At least 90 per cent of persons who suffer from the disease have been at some time obese, overweight, it was said. The methods of treatment by use of insulin and proper diet will be explained in Dr. Leach's talk Friday.

WICHITAN NAMED

Ed F. Reilly of Wichita Falls was named a director of the Natural Milk Producers association of Texas at the organization meeting in Dallas, according to an Associated Press dispatch.

Dancing feet won't scuff these floors

Nowadays, with a radio in almost every home, floors must be able to stand up under the slide and scuffle of many dancing feet, for who can resist the rhythm and cadence of modern dance music?

Dame Vogue now comes along and says that floors must also be colored in beautiful tones to harmonize with the scheme of interior decoration—yet, the floor finish must be durable. QUICK-STEP—the new, modern color finish—just fills the bill. You have a choice of many attractive colors and at the same time get a finish that can be used on almost any kind of surface, wood or concrete, and it dries over night. Frequent washings will not dull its velvety lustre nor daily use impair its glossy surface.

Besides colors, you may also get QUICK-STEP clear. Clear QUICK-STEP is the answer to what to use on hardwood floors and linoleum. It brightens the colors of the designs and protects the surface. On oak or maple it enhances the natural grain and coats the wood with a clear, transparent surface that wears like armor-plate.

You'll make no mistake in trying QUICK-STEP for any floor or anything else that gets hard usage. It is sold by dealers generally.

Former Federal Attache Faces Bigamy Charge

CHICAGO, May 15. (INS)—Eiler V. Krarup, reputed son of Sir Jens Krarup, wealthy and renowned resident of Denmark, and an attache of the department of commerce during the regime of President Hoover as secretary, today faces charges of bigamy.

Krarup's first wife, Mrs. Miriam Krarup, a Michigan poet, who caused his arrest, charges that he deserted her and her three-year-old child in favor of his second wife, Lois Demler.

In her complaint Krarup's first wife charges that the second marriage took place while the second Mrs. Krarup knew he was not divorced.

Old friends may excuse pimples and secretly sympathize, but new acquaintances may not be so charitable. Skin blemishes are not inviting. Neither can they be covered up. They embarrass. Hold people back. Steal away joy and happiness.

A lovely, clear skin is within the reach of all. To you who have lost it, hope is offered, that you, too, may have a beautiful skin, rose-petal in texture, pretty as a picture and without a single pimple.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of skin eruptions as being an indication that the body's power of resistance is low.

The natural way to remedy this condition is to restore the red-blood-cells to normal.

This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful skin annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

S.S.S. helps Nature restore the blood to its normal state. Healthy blood nourishes the body and works against infection and disease.

Without plenty of rich, red blood there would be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or healthy, beautiful women.

If you are troubled with so-called skin disorders, take a few bottles of S.S.S.

The Hair Shirt Again
Philosopher Hoover
Absorbs the Shocks
Radio Astrology

By EMILE GAUVREAU

Goldsmith said:—"All that philosophy can teach is to be stubborn or sullen under misfortune."

President Hoover might appreciate Goldsmith or Bacon, along with the hair shirt, as he contemplates what the senate has done to Judge Parker, whom he nominated for the supreme court. People will ask why the president desired to elevate such a man. Parker was so anxious to get the job he bombarded the senate with letters and telegrams while the fight over his confirmation was on. That was enough to prove him unfit for the dignified post the president had in mind for him.

Mr. Hoover is learning the sorry lesson of all headstrong gentlemen.

A lady astrologist who makes a nice income by looking at the stars and telling gullible gentlemen what is going to happen to them, now enters the radio field and broadcasts the alarming prophecy that something terrible will occur in New York this week and that Commissioner Whalen should double the police force immediately.

Unfortunately, the world is full of credulous people and many in New York who heard the lady astrologist's lugubrious announcement have been worrying. If anything is going to happen, the lady astrologist doesn't know anything about it. Some will wonder how, in her investigation of the aspects of the planets, and their imagined influence upon the destinies of men mere specks in the universe, she failed to discover the brand new planet which evidently was there all the time. This alone should throw her "science" sufficiently out of kilter to keep her off the radio.

Radio is too great an invention to make itself a part of such a racket as star divination. Ominous fears and credulity have no place on the air.

A clever editor in Punch once said: "Superstitions would soon die out if so many old women wouldn't act as nurses to keep them alive."

Congress groans under the tariff, the man on the street paying no attention to it until he hears it said that it will increase the cost of living. Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler tells the Royal Society of Arts in London that it is foolish to build up tariff walls while we are trying to limit military and naval armaments. "It is so much easier to be prosperous that it is to be civilized," he says. All will agree with that, but nobody in power will permit civilization to interfere with prosperity.

Prohibition at least is showing up a lot of sneaking hypocrisy. F. Scott McBride, big chief of the anti-saloon league, tells the senate investigating committee that the league makes it its business to furnish the White House with information on prospective appointees. This is the sort of "political pressure" which has made the dry law contemptible. What can be expected for freedom if such fanatics as the anti-saloonists are permitted to whisper in the president's ear any time they please?

Three Youths Obtain $16,000 in Bank Raid

ST. CHARLES, Mo., May 15. (UP)—Three youths forced a janitor to open the front door of the St. Charles Savings bank today. When the assistant cashier arrived they forced him to open the vault, and escaped with $16,000.

Demented Woman Kills Three of Her Children

HALIFAX, N. S., May 15. (INS)—Becoming suddenly demented, Mrs. George Hunro of Dover, near Canso, killed three of her seven children with an axe today. She was taken to the insane asylum at Dartmouth.

Some folks think they're bashful 'cause they return one lost glove. Ever' once in a while ther's somebuddy that hain't satisfied with bein' as mean as the devil while he's alive so he leaves a note behind.

Chicago bandits are said to poison their bullets with some preparation of garlic. The idea being, we suppose, that if the bullets fail, the garlic surely will take your breath away.

A chemist declares that 87 different things can be made from coal. There's a fortune for some ingenious fellow who can make a decent fuel out of it.

Cheating the Motorist

SOMETIME during the next two or three months a good many million Americans will pile into their respective automobiles and start making tire tracks for distant parts. The nation's great vacation tourist army will be on the road, and the motor car will be vindicating its important position in our national life once more.

A vacation trip by automobile, whether it last three days or three weeks, is about as fine a way to get recreation as a man can ask for. However, there are two or three sizable flies in the ointment, and all of us who hit the open road this summer will find them in full measure.

We have a lot of beautiful countryside to look at—America, when you stop to think about it, is an expressibly lovely land—but we have permitted commercial interests to spoil a lot of it for us.

Our roads go through charming scenery; but ramshackle hot dog stands, ugly filling stations and blatant billboards rob the motorist of a good deal of the enjoyment that is rightfully his.

The American Nature association has been surveying country highways recently, and it has turned in a pretty discouraging report.

Pointing out that our highways are built quite as much for pleasure driving as to speed up traffic, the association's report says:

"The people of the state and of the nation pay for these roads. Consequently they are justified in getting the full recreational value for which the roads were created. But are they?

"What happens when an expensive new highway that we have paved with our dollars is opened up? Hot dog stands, filling stations and billboards spring up like magic with no regard for the appearance of the roadside of its immediate vicinity. Raw cuts have been left in the construction of the road. Trees have been sacrificed by road builders and public utilities. The new highway, designed to open up the beauty of the state, has become in itself a thing of ugliness."

All of this is putting it very mildly. The worst of it is that all of this ugliness is quite unnecessary. Hot dog stands and filling stations are necessities, but is there any reason why they have to be ugly? A little landscaping along a new highway is not so terribly expensive. And the billboards—is there any reason on earth why they should be stuck up right at the most beautiful spots along the highway.

Laws can't deal with these eyesores. Aroused public sentiment is the only hope. Each individual motorist can help by vowing not to patronize any refreshment stand or filling station that is not at least passably presentable in its outward appearance, and by slapping a one-man boycott on any business outfit that insults his sense of beauty with an ugly billboard in a spot where he wants to look at the open country.

Daniels and Cannon

JOSEPHUS DANIELS is in Texas. He attended the lawmaking body of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at Dallas. He was for eight years Woodrow Wilson's secretary of the navy. He was a great war secretary of the navy. He issued the first order in American history, as secretary of the navy, against the use of intoxicants on board a naval vessel, on the high seas or in harbor. He is a lifelong pro. He is a regular. He supported the regular ticket in 1928.

Bishop James Cannon is a delegate. He led the bolt from the Smith and Robinson ticket in Old Virginia. His picture and his presence performed double duty on the first page of the American press. Bishop Cannon has asked for a sweeping vindication, as well as a sweeping declaration on the part of the convention as to the attitude of the church in coming campaigns.

Now the former secretary is just as dry as any dry bishop that ever walked the earth, but the methods of the Daniels and the methods of Bishop Cannon are wide apart—just as wide as the poles. Daniels bows to the majority and votes the ticket straight. Bishop Cannon, like Thomas B. Love, has asserted repeatedly that he follows his conscience and has no other guide.

A new political party appears to be necessary in this country, composed of men and women who have adopted the Cannon-Love gospel of political faith, or rather political guidance. There are signs that it is on the way.

Ominous Indications

THE LONDON naval conference, even though it fell short of expectations, did at least give the cause of world peace something of an impetus forward.

But actions speak louder than words. And some of the events recently reported from Europe are rather disturbing.

France announces a great naval demonstration in the Mediterranean, in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the French conquest of north Africa. A celebration is proper enough, of course—but who can doubt that there is an ulterior motive back of this great display of naval strength?

At the same time, the Italian cabinet approves the construction of 20 new warships—three cruisers, four destroyers and 22 submarines.

All of this has an ominous sound. If the cause of peace is being advanced in the Mediterranean, its progress is hardly noticeable.

When 46 Is "Too Old"

HOW OLD is "too old?" Sociologists are growing worried because many American industrialists are replacing middle-aged workers with young men. A man of 50 very often has a hard time finding a new job. In many quarters, evidently, a man is believed to be close to senility when he passes 45.

Most startling of all is the refusal of Capt. John K. Davis to navigate the exploration ship Discovery on a voyage to the antarctic. When the command was offered him, Captain Davis declined, saying that a younger man should be chosen. Yet Captain Davis is only 46!

That is putting the age limit pretty low. If a man of 46 is too old for an important job the premium on youth must be even higher than we had supposed.

WALTER WINCHELL

On Broadway

(Copyright, 1930, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

That Winchell Person

(By Retlaw Chinwell)

New York's biggest-mouth and most notorious gossip, it appears, isn't something in skirts, at all. The town's greatest busybody and curse is a man, and so was Samuel Pepys (the Winchell of the 17th century), but that common scold was paid via the pillory route and not with coin.

The various articles in some of the better magazines about Walter Winchell always struck me as being sugared a lot, altered to interest the respectable subscribers, or prepared to please the vanity of the subject. So I walked into the Daily Mirror editorial rooms last night and cornered him. "If you have any backbone at all," I said point blank, "you will permit me to interview you and clear up all this mackerel the magazines have space-wasted on you. Where were you born and why?"

"In New York, on April 7, 1897," he growled.

"Where were you schooled?"

"At P. S. 184, on 116th street, until I was 13," he replied stiffly (a well-known pose of his), "and I was expelled in grade 6B for being backward, having been left back in that class four times."

"Then you will admit," I challenged, "that you certainly have been pretty lucky, considering your numerous good breaks!"

"I do not think I have been lucky at all," he responded. "I have worked very hard, and whatever good breaks I've enjoyed I've deserved. And please don't misquote me."

"Oh, I see," I said. "You're getting a swelled-head?"

"No," he snapped, "I've always had one."

Which gives you a rough idea of the man.

Of course, the interviewer who says that prejudice never enters into his writings, is a fabricator. I pause now to confess that I am naturally prejudiced against this chap, Winchell. The moment I looked at him, I got his number. So I set forth in this article my personal impressions. Winchell says he is 33. He was one of the obscure small-time entertainers up to 1922, having played now and then on the lesser-known vaudeville circuits. Once at the Grand Opera house in New York, I learn, his act was canceled after the opening matinee because it was third-rate stuff.

During October, 1922, he says, he quit vaudeville. I prefer to believe that vaudeville quit him or made it so unbearable for him that he turned to journalism. And it is only a question of time when the patience of those who employ him gives out and he is pushed back into his hoofing boots.

However, he began his newspaper career for $25 weekly on a publication called The Vaudeville News, the editor, Glenn Condon, now of Tulsa, Okla., teaching him the rudiments of the noble profession. In 1924, because the Park Row gods were kind, Winchell joined the staff of a new newspaper and became its Broadway commentator and dramatic critic. He is, he says, one of the highest salaried newspaper men in the world, which is a sad commentary on American journalism.

He admits he is an illiterate. To quote Winchell: "Naturally when I first joined a newspaper I was worried sick for fear that the other newspaper men would kid me about my English and laugh me back into the show business. So to protect myself I turned to slang and tried to coin my own words. I did this successfully, for one afternoon about 5 o'clock, I woke up and discovered that I was being hailed as a 'stylist'!"

Winchell, as anyone on Broadway or in New York will hasten to tell you, is unquestionably the town's most conceited peasant. Ask him what he thinks of the other columnists and he will say that some of them are good, but you can tell that he isn't sincere, and says so to answer the question. He will say in the same breath that were it not for him, several of his contemporaries would never have had the opportunity to elevate themselves. When I asked him if he ever met O. O. McIntyre, who did a column about New York long before he was out of his short bloomers, he grumbled that he never met Mr. McIntyre and hopes he never does, because when he meets people he's afraid he may get to like them and when he likes people he cannot write about them.

"It must be easier for you now," I remarked, "now that you are better known than you were five years ago."

"Not at all," he countered, "it is tougher. When I wasn't well known, and I didn't know the well-knowns intimately, I could write what I liked about them. Meeting the so-called celebrities and those who think they are celebrated has handcuffed me. They come to me with scandal about themselves and make me promise that I won't publish it. You can't have friends and write what people like to read about them, you know. And gossip, it appears, is most readable. Everybody is interested, so long as it isn't about them."

"You don't seem to like it when people talk about you?" I said. "You saw red when Ethel Barrymore gave you a piece of her mind."

"I didn't see red at all!" he thundered (he is very prima-donnaish and highly strung). "When people dislike me they have damn good reasons!"

I asked him if he thought his gossip column was in poor taste as some people have told him.

"It probably is," he said. "It is always distasteful, unless, of course, it is a compliment. The people who have been saluted by my pen think I'm a great little guy. Still, I know one or two of them who once wept their thanks to me for giving them a boost when they needed it most, but who hurled a knife at me when they learned how to fly."

"You don't really believe that your stuff is of any importance, do you? I mean you don't think it will live?"

"Of course not. But George Jean Nathan, who is good, too, once told me that I wrote a line that will go down in literature."

"You don't say!" I ejaculated. "What was that?"

"The line appeared in my gossip column and read: 'Gloria Winchell, the most beautiful child in the world, has the measles!'"

"Please don't get emotional," I urged.

"What do you think of Mark Hellinger?" I added.

"He's very pretty, but not as pretty as Gladys Glad."

"Who is your favorite author?"

"Forrest Wilson. He has written the greatest short story ever written. It is in the June issue of Cosmopolitan."

"Who is your favorite actor?"

"Walter Winchell," he admitted. "And your favorite press agent?"

"Ethel Barrymore, the woman who talks like a man."

CARESSE ⚜ A Complete Novel By RUTH TAYLOR

SYNOPSIS

Caresse O'Neill, daughter of the owner of Shady Lawn Inn in the village of Riverton, is jilted by her sweetheart, Ted Branard, son of the town's wealthy banker, on the day of the wedding. Caresse insists on continuing the party which had been arranged in her honor, and telephones Billy, a New York friend, to come down and bring two other friends as escorts for Miriam Nowell and Bess Parker, her best friends. They later go to a nearby roadhouse.

A few weeks later Caresse and friends are riding on a lonely road when the car gives out of gas near the old Morton place, which they believe abandoned. They go to the house, find a lighted lamp and a grand piano, and start dancing. Suddenly the door opens and the owner, Lee Deering, enters, to confront them.

Caresse's friends slip out of the house while she tries to explain their presence to Deering, and Caresse accepts his invitation to muffins and coffee before she returns home.

Deering becomes a boarder at Shady Lawn Inn and his friendship with Caresse develops rapidly. Teddy Branard returns suddenly, and calls on Caresse. She forces him to take her to a local roadhouse as a blow at Ted's father.

The elder Branard promises Ted a new boat if he will forget Caresse, then offers Mrs. O'Neill $50,000 for the inn on condition she leave Riverton. The offer is refused.

At a birthday party for Caresse the next night, the village constable appears and informs them a complaint has been signed against them for disturbing the peace.

In court the next day the case is dismissed for lack of prosecution, Teddy forcing his father to drop the matter on the threat to "tell the truth" about the whole affair and the persecution of the O'Neills.

Caresse and Teddy elope, but the car crashes into a wall when Teddy, drunk, loses control.

Teddy is seriously injured, and Caresse loses the friendship of Deering when he smells whisky on her dress and believes she also has been drinking. Edith Leigh, former sweetheart of Deering, is invited by Mrs. Branard to Riverton to be with Teddy during his convalescence.

Caresse and her mother are ostracized by Riverton society because of the affair.

Teddy Branard returns home from the hospital, and Mrs. Branard suggests to Edyth Leigh that she would like to have her capture Teddy's love.

Teddy marries Edyth Leigh and Deering returns to the Shady Lawn inn as boarder.

They return to Riverton and Edyth attempts to renew her friendship with Deering. Teddy finds her at Deering's house and threatens to shoot the composer. Caresse goes daily to clean house for Deering and witnesses the whole affair.

CHAPTER XVI

Mrs. Branard was highly disturbed when she met Ted at the door.

"What's the matter, Teddy?" she asked, tearfully. "Edythe came in a few minutes ago, and flew upstairs like a whirlwind. She was hardly civil to me. Is anything wrong?"

"Nothing to interest you," answered Teddy, shortly. "You say she's upstairs?"

"Teddy! How you look! Oh, there is something wrong, and—"

"Oh, can the weeps! It's nothing for you to worry about. I guess I can run my own wife. If the little fool's got an idea she can make a simp out of me, why, the sooner she gets over it the better."

"Oh, me! Oh, dear me!"

The tears that had been threatening, ran down the furrows in Mrs. Branard's chubby cheeks.

Teddy was in no nice mood. He had been held up by some traffic, and Edythe had reached home sooner than he. He lost no time in getting to her. There was much he was going to say to his young wife.

Edythe's door was locked. It had been her wish, against Teddy's protest, that they should have separate bedrooms and dressing rooms, with their joint sitting room between. In his protest, Ted's mother had upheld him. Hers was the old fashioned belief that husbands and wives should occupy the same connubial bed-chamber.

There was no answer to Ted's knock on Edythe's boudior door. He knocked again, then thundered at the door.

"Edythe!" he called. "Open the door, will you? I'm not going to say anything to you—"

"You're not, Ted! That's true," came Edythe's bitingly cool tones through the door panel. "For the simple reason that I am not going to let you in. You can howl all you wish outside, if you want to take the servants into your confidence. I've had enough for a time. I'm exhausted, and I'm going to have some rest."

She had flung herself into a chair to rest, but she was not tired. She got up and went over and sat before her mirror. As she lightly touched up her complexion that the wind had ravished a little, she nodded complacently.

"So that's that! So far. Things are coming along fairly well, I should say, I think, my dear Ted, that a month of your lovely society is about as much as I can stand. I've earned my wages."

For Edythe felt no doubt whatever that, were she free once more, Lee Deering, feeling as she was sure he did feel, would marry her at once.

She was glad she had started the ball rolling toward her freedom.

At dinner, Mrs. Branard fluttered like an over-fed hen. Edythe came down, calm and aloof, as though nothing had disturbed her equanimity. Not so Ted. He had not forgotten his dignity had been flouted. Ted did not like to have any one palter with his dignity.

"Dear, dear!" sighed Mrs. Branard, heavily. "You children did have me worried. I was afraid there might be something quite wrong. I'm so glad to see it's blown over."

Edythe made no comment, but her lip curled scornfully.

For two long, tedious hours, they sat in the drawing room. Edythe listened with what grace she could to the platitudes of Mrs. Branard, and the occasional reluctant comments of Cyrus Branard. At last she rose.

"I'm so tired," she said, with a delicately suppressed yawn. "Will you excuse me, Mother Branard? I'm booked for early golf in the morning, so—"

"Of course, my dear. And sleep well. In the morning all things look different."

Ted gave his wife no opportunity to evade him again. When she went out of the room, he was at her side. He went up the stairs with her.

Eleanor Boardman And King Vidor Expecting 'Event'

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., May 15. (INS)—Eleanor Boardman and her director-husband, King Vidor, are expecting "a blessed event" in the very near future.

The director, who returned today from a location trip to the Grand Canyon, admitted the event is not far off and declared he would spend his time here until the child's arrival.

This will be the couple's second child. A daughter was born a little over two years ago.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., May 15. (INS)—Often a heroine before the camera, Lucy Savidan, 33, character actress, today occupied a real-life heroine role after saving a group of children from a falling arc light at United Artists studio set.

Several children were directly beneath the big light when it fell, but Miss Savidan rushed at them, shoving them from the path of the heavy falling object, at the same time shielding them with her own body. She was knocked unconscious by the light.

LOS ANGELES, May 15. (INS)—Roy Giusti, who as Roy D'Arcy made villainy his profession on the stage and screen for years, carried his "bad man" tactics into his home life, Mrs. Laura Rhinock Giusti, had testified today in getting a divorce—her second one from the actor.

Q.—Is it true that there is a chemical that is worth 12 million dollars an ounce?—Y. T. R.

A.—The statement has been made that barium is worth that, but not because of its scarcity or value—because of the work it does. Barium is a chemical element that is used to coat the filaments of vacuum tubes with a saving of $400,000 per gram of barium used. At this rate an ounce would be worth $12,000,000.

Q.—How was J. R. McCarl made comptroller general? Is he eligible for reappointment?—A. E. D.

A.—The office of the comptroller general was created by an act of congress, July 1, 1921. Mr. McCarl was appointed to the office by the president with the advice and consent of the senate for 15 years at a salary of $12,000 a year. He is not eligible for another appointment as comptroller general.

Q.—Does it ever rain all over the United States at the same time—J. H. G.

A.—This is said to occur occasionally and to have occurred on Jan. 14 of this year, when the only places in the United States where rain did not fall were the Florida peninsula, a narrow belt along the Mexican border, and small areas just off the coast of New England and Puget Sound.

Q.—When was modern Italian first spoken?

A.—The modern Italian language is developed from the Latin. The earliest definite traces of Italian speech may be found in a document of Monte Cassino, dated 960. Tuscan and especially Florentine has been the classical literary language almost from the beginning of the national literature. During the first half of the 13th century the mass of lyrical poetry was produced by the Sicilian school at Palermo at the court of the Emperor Frederick II. In the second half of the century the seat of lyrical poetry was transferred to Tuscany. The modern Italian literary language, however, is founded on the Florentine dialect which was the language of Dante.

Q.—On what wave length and meter do European radio stations operate?—L. B.

A.—The Federal Radio commission says European radio stations operate on a band of 550 to 1,500 kilocycles, and 545 to 200 meters. This is the same power as we use in this country. In addition to this, they operate on a long wave length band of 160 to 563 kilocycles, or 875 to 560 meters.

The Record News Offers A Booklet on House-cleaning Made Easier

Keeping dirt out of the house, or what is termed "preventive" housecleaning, is a year-round problem that is exaggerated in the spring and summer when windows and doors are open much of the time, and to keep clean rather than to make clean is a thoroughly practical working principle.

This is but one of many subjects discussed by experts of the federal department of agriculture in the booklet, Housecleaning Made Easier, which our readers can now secure through our Washington bureau.

Fill out and send in this coupon, enclosing ten cents in coin or stamps to cover return postage and handling.

GRAHAM GIVES 65 DIPLOMAS

High School Commencement Week Closes Friday

Special to the Record News.

GRAHAM, Texas, May 15.—Commencement week will close in Graham Friday evening, May 16 with about 65 students receiving diplomas. The week's program began Sunday morning with Dr. G. E. Cameron of the Baptist seminary of Fort Worth delivering the baccalaureate sermon at the Memorial auditorium.

The senior class play was given at the Memorial auditorium Wednesday evening, the title of the play being "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy," with about 20 members of the class in the cast. The proceeds of the play will be used to pay for the annual, "The Corral" which is just off the press.

Thursday evening the graduating exercises of Shawnee Junior high school were held with 50 diplomas being presented to the students in the class.

High school orchestra will furnish music for Friday evening's graduating program, along with other musical numbers on the program. The salutatory address will be given by Neal Harlan and valedictory address by Elwin Butler.

An essay, "Meditations of a Senior," will be given by Earl Taylor.

Principal Elbert Matthews, will present the diplomas and penmanship medals.

Presentation of diplomas of honor and medals will be by Superintendent J. T. Gilmer.

Floyd County's Fortieth Birthday To Inspire Celebration May 28

Special to The Record News

FLOYDADA, Texas, May 15.—Officers and directors of the Floyd County Pioneer association met in Floydada for the purpose of perfecting plans and arrangements for the annual celebration of this organization, which will be held in Floydada, Wednesday, May 28.

The Floyd County Pioneer association was formed in Floydada last year with a membership including many of the early pioneers of this section. The present officers of the association are J. J. Day, president; R. E. L. Muncy, vice president; Tom W. Deen, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. E. C. Henry, Mrs. W. M. McGehee, Geo. L. Fawver, directors.

The celebration commemorates the organization of Floyd county, which was organized on May 28, 1890, and this year marks the 40th birthday of the county. On this day 40 years ago an election was called for the purpose of determining the location of a county seat. The records show that there were 88 votes cast in the county-wide election and that Floydada received 55 and Dela Plaine 33.

The celebration will be held on the courthouse lawn. The following program has been outlined: 10 a. m., registration and get-acquainted hour; 11 a. m., welcome address by R. E. L. Muncy; response by Rev. G. T. Palmer, pastor of the First Methodist church; 12 noon, basket lunch spread on the courthouse lawn; 1:30 p. m., address by Judge L. S. Kinder of Plainview; 2 p. m., music, furnished by old time fiddlers, and a round-table discussion reminiscent of pioneer days in West Texas and in Floyd county; 3 p. m., election of officers for the next year. Glad Snodgrass has been named as general manager in charge of arrangements and entertainment.

CHURCH HEADS NAME PASTOR

Rev. E. B. Crump Retained By Electra Board

Special to The Record News

ELECTRA, Texas, May 15.—Rev. E. B. Crump, pastor of the Assembly of God church, was re-elected pastor for the ensuing year at a board meeting of that congregation. During the three years that Rev. Crump has been pastor here, the membership of the congregation has been practically doubled, and the Sunday school attendance has increased from 50 to approximately 200. A circulating library has also been installed in the church at a cost of $150.

Delegates to the state convention were also elected at the meeting. Rev. E. B. Crump and J. S. Swindle will represent the church; Mrs. E. B. Crump, president, and Mrs. T. J. Barnett will represent the Women's Missionary council. Alvin Pearson and Estelle Barnett will be delegates from the Christ's ambassadors. J. L. Hughes was selected as alternate for Mr. Swindle.

Junior C.-C. To Hear Plans For Trip to Quanah

Members of the goodwill trips committee of the Junior chamber of commerce will have charge of the program to be given at the biweekly membership luncheon of the organization at the Kemp hotel Friday noon, and will devote their attention to boosting the trip to Quanah on May 28, according to plans announced Thursday.

Bert King, local attorney, will be the principal speaker to be introduced Friday, and will speak on the benefits to be derived by any community from goodwill tours. An electrically-equipped map will be used at the meeting for demonstrating plans of the committee for the year's work, it was said.

Chamber of commerce secretaries and managers of the cities to be visited have been invited to attend Friday's luncheon. Musical entertainment will be furnished by Frank Bird and his Bluebirds, staff orchestra of radio station KGKO.

When a Child is FEVERISH, CROSS, UPSET

Colic, gas, sour belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally show food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give Baby a teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a tablespoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the bowels free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant-tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information." Address The Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y. It will be sent FREE.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 80 years.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.—Adv.

When Fresh Peas are tasteless, you can improve their flavor as they cook by adding a dash of Sugar

Don't blame the peas if they are flat. If you could have eaten them when fresh picked, they would have been sweet and juicy. But the longer peas are off the vines, the less sweet they are.

Other vegetables—carrots, spinach, cabbage and tomatoes—can also be made much more palatable by adding a dash of sugar while cooking. And the same holds true in the preparation of stewed fruits, cooked cereals, meats, stews.

There is no need to deprive yourself of flavor and enjoyment when you sit down to the table. Use sugar for its flavor value in the wholesome foods that belong in your diet and each meal will be a pleasant event. The Sugar Institute.

Blood Examinations Are Important

Every good phyisician considers blood tests of the utmost importance as an aid in making diagnoses. You will realize how important the blood is when you consider it the principal method of providing nourishment and drainage to practically every living cell in the body.

Contrary to the opinion of many people, taking a blood test is neither painful nor does it require the loss of much blood. In order to obtain the blood a sample is usually taken from the end of the finger or the lobe of the ear. The part is first cleansed with alcohol and dried. Then a small puncture is made with a special instrument which cuts through the skin with no more pain than that from the prick of a pin. The blood is then squeezed through the opening as the doctor presses just below and samples of the blood collected in sterile pipettes. After a few drops of blood have been removed, the spot is again sterlized and covered with some protective substance so that no germs can enter and is in this way, guarded against infection.

One of the usual tests made is to compare the color of the sample with the right shade for normal, healthy blood. If the color is too low it is an indication that the hemoglobin of your blood is not plentiful enough. The color is expressed in percentage, thus the normal blood may be said to range from 85 per cent to 100 per cent. The hemoglobin of the red cells gives them the special ability to absorb oxygen. When the hemoglobin is reduced it means that the cells of your body do not obtain as much oxygen as they should.

Usually the next step is to make a smear, that is, a small amount of blood is put on a glass slide and allowed to dry. This is then placed under the microscope so that the cells can be distinguished and counted. In this way it may be found whether the cells are in the normal range of color, shape and size. The comparative number of red blood cells and white blood cells to each other and to the normal is of great importance.

Much publicity has recently been given in regard to the use of the blood test in determining the paternity of children in contesting divorce cases. The blood from the mother, from the child, and from the supposed father is all taken. By comparing the samples it can sometimes be told from whom the child has inherited its blood. All bloods may be divided into four groups. In case the four tests belong to the same grouping of blood or in case the two suspected fathers both have the same kind of blood, nothing can be determined.

Many parasites inhabiting the blood may be detected by the microscopical examinations. The most common parasites to be found in the blood are those of malaria. In some of the tropical countries an organism known as the trypanosoma or the parasite of sleeping sickness may be present in the blood. Sometimes in tropical countries blood can be found containing quantities of a small worm called the filaria sanginis hominis.

The blood can also be tested for the Wassermann and Widdel reaction. In this way the doctor may be able to determine the presence of diseases which might otherwise only be suspected. My readers know that in this column I have often warned them against accepting snap diagnoses without careful tests and you can see from reading this article how important it is for you to have your blood examined the next time you wish a thorough diagnosis.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

White Patches on Tongue

Question—H. V. Writes: "My tongue and the lining of my mouth have little white patches with branches leading from them. I have tried all kinds of treatments, but seem to be getting worse all the time. I believe the doctor calls it "eukapleka."

Answer—There is a disease called lekoplakia buccalis, commonly called linqual corns. This disease resembles psoriasis in some respects and usually responds to the same type of diet. The trouble is often brought on by some local irritation in the mouth, such as sharp points of teeth. It should be corrected as soon as possible, as there is some danger of epithelial or skin cancer developing. It is a good plan to use a citrus fruit fast until your weight has become slightly below normal, then you could have some local treatments to the growths, such as touching them with nitrate of silver or electrical cautery. They are not likely to recur if you have your teeth corrected and thoroughly cleanse your blood stream.

Contracting Tuberculosis

Question—W. M. Writes: "My work brings me in contact with a man affected with tuberculosis. Do you think there is any danger of my contracting this disease, and if so what caution should I take?"

Answer—It is possible to contract tuberculosis by associating with someone who has this disease, but this is not likely to occur if your guard your health carefully and avoid becoming overtired. Olser, the great medical authority, claims that tuberculosis cannot be contracted by breathing the expired air of a consumptive. However, all persons affected with this disease should use every sanitary method in disposing of sputum.

BOOZE LADEN SHIP SEIZED

Beer and Ale Valued At $600,000 Captured

GREEN BAY, Wis., May 15. (AP)—The tramp steamer Ansterberg, with 4,000 cases of Canadian beer and ale aboard valued at $600,000, was captured late yesterday by a crew of the Plum island coast guard station as it attempted to run into Green bay from Lake Michigan.

The crew of six men, armed with pistols, offered no resistance when the coast guardsmen boarded the ship.

Capt. M. A. Jackson of the Plum island station, sighted the ship, which had been painted black, late yesterday. It was running at top speed.

A coast guard cutter gave chase and soon overhauled the steamer as it was attempting to run the straits into Green bay at the tip of the Door county peninsula.

The Ansterberg cleared Goderich, Ont., last Friday, destination unknown, and on Tuesday Lake Michigan coast guard station received word the ship was running rum into Lake Michigan port.

The steamer, known as Ansterberg No. 18, was taken to Washington island, near Plum island, where it is held pending word from authorities in Washington.

Labor Leaders Appeal From Navy Yard Lay-Offs

WASHINGTON, May 15. (INS)—Alarmed over the laying off of men at navy yards throughout the country, and fearful that more may lose out because of lack of work, Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor and a group of labor leaders called at the White House today to urge President Hoover to have the modernization of naval vessels, as provided in the London treaty, and reconditioning work begun at once.

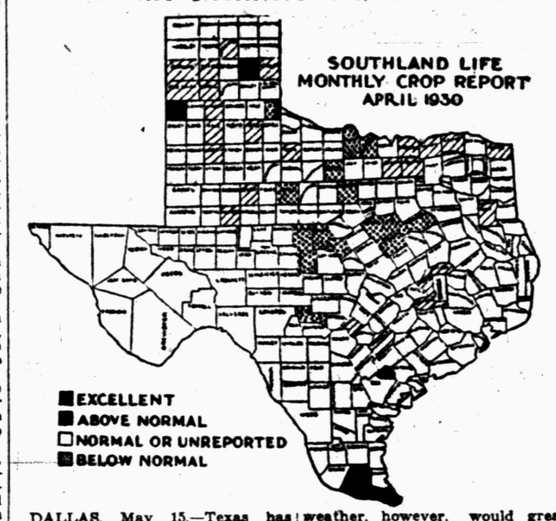

Mr. Hoover, according the labor delegation, received them sympathetically and assured them he would do everything in his power to keep the navy yard workers employed.

Bus Line Extension Granted by Commission

AUSTIN, May 15. (AP)—The railroad commission today granted H. H. Winn Jr., permission to extend a bus line from Austin to Houston over routes used by the Southland Greyhound lines from Hempstead to Houston. The line now terminates at Hempstead. The Southland protested against the use of its route from Hempstead to Houston but the objection was overruled. The opinion of the commission held that it would greatly facilitate travel between Houston and Austin if the line was extended.

Rapidly Changing Crop Outlook Finds Conditions in Texas Better

DALLAS, May 15.—Texas has much to hope for in the way of crop conditions, according to reports complied by the department of public relations of the Southland Life Insurance company. Conditions have changed so rapidly during the past six weeks that an up-to-date report is almost out of the question.

Inspection of the crop condition map must be made with consideration that many things have changed since these reports were gathered together.

According to conditions as of April 30, prospects for grain crops in the northwest and northeast sections are not as good as might be expected. These conditions, however, are extremely spotted, the northwest especially reporting "Wheat crop reported a failure in some counties and excellent in others. Except in the south, conditions in regard to grain, including wheat, oats, corn and feed crops, are not especially optimistic. Warm, dry weather, however, would greatly improve the outlook.

Practically all sections report cotton planting completed. Little, of course, can be predicted about this crop except that the torrential rains of the past two weeks have made replanting necessary in some sections.

General business conditions are better over the entire state than in most states—either in the south or north. General average reports show them as approximately 75 per cent to 85 per cent normal. This, of course, is above the average for the entire country.

The cotton crop naturally will depend very greatly upon conditions during the next few weeks, and it is likely that a clear idea may be obtained as to prospects at the end of this month.

The three bright spots on the map this month are the Rio Grande Valley, Gray and Parmer counties in the Panhandle, and Goliad county in Southeast Texas, where all conditions are reported excellent.

'JACK' WALTON SUES MAGAZINE

Impeached Governor Claims $250,000 Libel

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 15. (UP)—J. C. "Jack" Walton, former governor of Oklahoma, filed a $250,000 suit today in federal court against "Plain Talk" magazine and three local hotel companies because of an article, "Whoopie in Oklahome," published in the May issue.

Walton in his complaint alleged he was libeled in the article written by Walter Liggett. The article purported to be an expose of liquor conditions in Oklahoma.

The paragrah Walton claims, in his petition, is libelous, follows:

"Jack Walton, an alleged radical, was elected governor in 1922. He had a klan card when he took the oath of office. He sold pardons, dispensed patronage, sought and accepted a $30,000 loan from Marland, the oil man."

Walton was impeached from the governor's office in 1923.

POLICY SHOWN CARVER JURY

State Pushes Case Against Florida Realtor

SEBRING, Fla., May 15. (INS)—Drawing rapidly toward the conclusion of its case, the prosecution today succeeded in introducing a $10,000 life insurance policy on the victim's life in the trial of William R. Carver, former Stroudsburg, Pa., real estate man, for the murder of his wife.

The state introduced the document to strengthen its contention that Carver killed his wife, small son and a negro servant in order to collect the insurance on his wife's life. Carver is also under indictment for the boy's and the negro's murder.

The policy on Mrs. Carver's life was issued Dec. 13, 1929, and a premium receipt of the second quarterly installment, also introduced, was dated March 13, 1930. The policy, containing a double indemnity clause, named Carver as beneficiary.

A few minutes later the state introduced into the evidence a blood-stained shirt which it alleges Carver was wearing when the triple murder was discovered on the afternoon of April 2.

Several witnesses identified the shirt.

The introduction of the insurance policy and the shirt followed a short while after the jury and the court officials went to the Carver home this morning to view the scene of the crime.

Dropper-Fed Twin Tips Scales At One Pound, Thirteen Ounces

IOWA PARK, Texas, May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Henson of Iowa Park are parents of twins, named Lawrence and Florence, who weigh three pounds and seven ounces and one pound and 13 ounces respectively. Until the past few days, during which time the little girl has been sick, they seemed to be doing as well as normal sized children. Florence has always been fed with milk from a medicine dropper.

At birth, the little boy weighed three and the little girl two pounds. At this date, the little boy has gained seven ounces and the little girl has lost three ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Henson are parents of five other children, all of whom were normal sized children and are now living.

Texan Halts to Help Repair Tire—Loss $140

SAN ANTONIO, May 15. (AP)—An effort to aid a motorist repair a tire cost O. C. Applewhite, $140 today near Elmendorf.

Applewhite reported to deputy sheriffs that a woman, standing in the road about one mile south of Elmendorf, waved a flashlight to halt him as he approached in his car. Stopping, Applewhite reported that the woman asked to borrow a pump to repair a tire on her car.

Alighting to get the pump, Applewhite said two men got out of a car parked in the side of the road, both armed. Holding him at the point of a pistol while the woman searched his pocket, Applewhite reported the bandits took $140 in cash.

Longworth 'Pinched' By House Police

WASHINGTON, May 15. (UP)—Speaker Nicholas Longworth had an "arrest" on his record today. House Sergeant at Arms Rogers made the "arrest" among a group of others when it was necessary to gather house members quickly in connection with a filibuster. The unusual procedure brought Longworth today considerable chaffing from his colleagues.

The speaker didn't seem to mind, however, as he was only one of a large number of house members brought into the chamber by the sergeant-at-arms after the house found itself stymied because of a filibuster unable even to vote adjournment.

It was the first time in eight years such action had been taken by the house. The last time such procedure had been resorted to was during debate on the Dyer anti-lynching measure.

The bill which caused all the hubbub was the Ketcham bill, a relatively important measure, to establish a foreign service for the agricultural department.

HYDE CATCHES SHARK BROOD

Mother Fish and Five Offspring Are Mounted

PORT ARANSAS, Texas, May 15. (INS)—A mother shark and five of its offspring were being mounted here today for exhibition, following an unparalled catch off the coast yesterday by Secretary of Agriculture Hyde.

Secretary Hyde, harpon fishing here with a party of friends, hooked an 800-pound shark, and succeeded in launching it after a spirited battle.

An hour after the fish had been landed it gave birth to six baby sharks. One of the small fish managed to escape to the water, but five were killed.

Old-time fishermen here today marvelled at the phenomena, and declared it was without precedent in this section.

Men Thought Drowned In Crash Are Rescued

NEW YORK, May 15. (INS)—Three men believed to have been drowned when the Savannah liner City of Atlanta collided with and sunk the schooner Azua early today, were picked up along with the captain and four other members of the crew, a wireless from the City of Atlanta received here informed the company offices.

The ships collided at 12:37 a. m., off Barnegat Light, N. J., about 100 miles from New York.

Germ-Carrying Flies May Cause Epidemic

Take Precaution Now. Spray Kill-Ko — It Kills All Insect Life

CREATES MOST DEADLY INSECT GAS KNOWN

Even without a microscope, you know that a fly's body is literally seething with dangerous disease germs. You never know when one may drop or crawl into your food, bringing serious illness, or perhaps starting an epidemic right in your home.

Kill every fly, mosquito, ant, flea, moth and roach in your home. Keep it clean and sanitary. This is simple and easy to do if you will just spray Kill-Ko—the most deadly gas-forming insect killer known—the one and only preparation that you can trust completely.

Kill-Ko has been used, tested and approved by both health and hospital authorities for years. It does what other insecticides cannot do. Its deadly gas reaches every nook and corner.

Spray Kill-Ko about home. Let its health-protecting gas keep danger from your home, especially if there are children.

Get Rigo's Kill-Ko, in the blue bottles only, from your druggist or grocer. Two sizes, 50c and 75c. You will find nothing else more effective.—Adv.

SPUDDERS WHIP BUFFS, 4 TO 2, TO CINCH TOP POSITION

The Rambler's Corner

By FRED D. THOMPSON

The announcement of President Fred Ankenman of the Houston club Thursday that $25,000 will be spent on equipment for the playing of baseball by artificial light on the Buff diamond indicates definitely that night baseball is taking its hold on other minor league clubs since its introduction in Des Moines, home of the Western league Demons.

Baseball under the light of the stars, even if illuminated by more potent glares, has been under discussion throughout the Texas league since the first night game was played in Des Moines early this month, but it was wholly unexpected that a Texas league club would be so prompt in adopting the plan. The Houston club is going to spend many dollars on this project, and President Ankenman is taking a great chance of a loss, even as the Des Moines club and others in the Western league who are planning night baseball, are taking a chance. For despite the apparent proof that baseball by artificial light does not interfere with hitting or fielding on the part of the players, it is not yet proven that night baseball agrees so well with the turnstile clickers.

It is yet too early, of course, to form a conclusion on the whims of the night baseball fans. Less than a month's time in which to study the gullibility or non-gullibility of the night patrons is far from enough space for reflection on the tastes of the crowd. Nevertheless it is significant to observe that whereas 10,000 people attended the first night game at Des Moines, only 1,200 people turned out the next night to see the second game, even after the home town team had won the initial clash. Editorializing on the subject, The Sporting News asks: "Is it to be assumed that the number represent those who were disappointed after witnessing the first test? Is it possible that perhaps 5,000 of those attending the first night were attracted solely by the promise of a unique spectacle?"

To answer these two questions would not only be to prove oneself as adept as P. T. Barnum at arriving at the psychology of the mass, but would likewise answer immediately the question whether night baseball is going to be a success or not. Obviously, though, the second is the easier to answer. Indeed, there were probably more than 5,000 of the Des Moines crowd of 10,000 who attended the first game purely to get a new thrill. The night game attracted these thousands in the same way the first midnight matinee at a movie attracted a full house. And how many movie managers there are today who would lose a leg to get such a jammed house at one of their present day ere-dawn screen smirches!

It will take more observation, and hence more time to answer the first question. Indeed, in order to find out whether the majority of the Des Moines crowd was disappointed, and whether fans in other cities will be subsequently disappointed with the night games will require a study both intricate and intimate, penetrating to the depths of family life. For instance, when hubby comes strolling in about midnight and replies to Irritated Wife that he went to the ball game and then killed an hour or so talking with the boys, will she believe him? And will she let him out the next night to see the second of the series when he is really panting to see the game having lied about attending the first? A situation like this, even if imagined, shows plainly that there will be many a scene reminiscent of Maggie wielding the rolling pin. But on the other hand, a night baseball game gives the husband of a more believing and trusting mate a very good alibi for the philanderishly late hour he wobbles in. So there it goes, pro and con. The problem is hard to settle.

Houston is to be congratulated for diving in the scarcely explored pool in the depths of which night baseball seems to be immersed. Houston apparently has the courage to lend a helping hand to the swimmer, even at the risk of being sucked under by the counter current. Houston faithfully believes the swimmer will reach the shore, and that when dragged out of the mire will still be wearing his spiked shoes and baseball uniform. Houston believes this to the tune of $25,000, and no Texas league supporter could but hope that the experiment turns into a paying proposition.

Houston, indeed, is the one town in Texas where night baseball should be tried out, if Texans insist on the trial. For Houston has the population, the proper enthusiasm among fans, and, above all, the team. This last factor is all important. With the present edition of the Buffs looking like a first rate ball team, thousands of fans will be wanting to watch them under any kind of light. Of course it is our hope and night-long prayer, uttered fortissimo and with the accompaniment of bull fiddle and trumpets, that the Spudders win the pennant. But we also hope that Houston, in view of its courageous effort toward night baseball, comes pretty close to winning. Say second place. That's good enough to bring the crowds, ain't it?

Waddling off on the subject of Houston's strength, what think you of their purchase of George Washington Payne? Now we know the Buffs will be hard to beat in the days to come.

But don't get discouraged, mates. Our old reliables, Shutout Wiltse and Maul 'Em Milt are looking great these days, to say nothing of our younger twirlers. Who could want a better shutouter than Hal? And wasn't Steengrafe looking great the other day when he held the Exporters to three hits, even as Wiltse did in the preceding game of the double-header. It was unfortunate that one of the hits obtained off Milt was a home run which won the game for the opposition. But that was a matter of fate. There are not many pitchers in any league who can pitch a three-hit game. And we seem to have two of them right here in Wichita Falls, for which all thanks, much obliged and also amen!

Yes sir, Spudderland is turning out some great hurlers. Is it not more or less a tradition? Listen to this: A news dispatch whizzed in over the wires about 1 o'clock Wednesday night—unfortunately too late to get into Thursday morning's paper—which told of a great deed by a former Spudder pitcher. It was this: Jimmy Zinn, of the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league, hurled a no-hit, no-run game against the Sacramento Senators Wednesday. It was the first no-hit game of the 1930 season in that league. According to informed fans here, Zinn was a Spudder here long about 1920. And he's still performing as a true Spudder, though he's now a Seal!

BISONS HELD BY CALDWELL

Victory Breaks Tie for First Place in League

Special to the Record News.

HOUSTON, Texas, May 15.—The Wichita Falls Spudders, borne on the crest of Earl Caldwell's superb pitching, bounded into undisputed possession of first place in the Texas league race today when they administered a defeat to the Houston Buffaloes in a closely contested and hard fought bout. The final score was 4 to 2. The two teams had been tied for the top position.

Both Brown and Caldwell kept their hits scattered. The Buffs outhit the Spudders, 12 to 10.

The teams meet Friday in the second of the series here.

Spuds Score Pair

It was a scoreless game Thursday until the fourth inning. The Spudders in that frame started it with two runs. Burns, first up, beat out a hit down the third base line. Bettencourt hit in front of the plate and Burns was safe at second, catcher to short. Crouch slammed one toward the third baseman, who let it get through him, Burns scoring. Bettencourt taking third and Crouch holding first. Euller flied out to right, Bettencourt scoring after the catch. Caldwell hit in front of the plate and was thrown out, catcher to first. Crouch took second on the play. Levy flied out to right to close the inning.

In their half of the inning the Buffs managed their first. Mishkin flied out to left. Hunt doubled to left. Kaufman fouled out to Crouch. Selph singled to right, Hunt scoring. Felix grounded out, pitcher to first.

The Spudders tallied again in the fifth. Storti, first up, flied out to center. Fitzgerald singled in the same direction. Kloza flied out to center. Burns strolled. Bettencourt singled to center, scoring Fitzgerald and sending Burns to third. Crouch left the runner stranded when he flied out to left.

Buffs Make Tally

It went on then until the seventh, when the Buffs, after holding the Spuds scoreless in their half, pushed over another. Kloza made a spectacular catch of Morrow's fly ball which reached the left field palings. Binder beat out an infield clout to short. Brown fouled out to Burns. Hock doubled to left, scoring Binder, but was thrown out at third, Kloza to Crouch to Euller.

The eighth passed scoreless.

Holding the lead by the slender margin of one run, the Spudders came to bat in the ninth with high hopes. Levey started it off right with a single to left. Storti sacrificed, pitcher to first, advancing Levey to second. Fitzgerald doubled to right, scoring Levey. Kloza went out, second to first, and Fitzgerald took third. Burns grounded out, second to first, leaving Fitzgerald stranded.

The Buffs' half was a tight pinch for Caldwell, who gave up two hits and pulled himself out of the mire miraculously. Morrow, first up, smote a double to center. Binder singled to center, and Morrow advanced to third. Schultz batted for Brown and fouled out to Crouch. Hock storlled. Hock stole second. Mishkin grounded out, Storti to Burns and the game was over.

Crouch Injured

Crouch was injured in the sixth when a foul tip off Kaufmann's bat hit him in the neck, but the injury did not prove serious and the Spudder backstop stayed in the game.

'Big Four' Upset In Semi-Finals Of Dixie Tourney

GREENSBORO, N. C., May 15. (AP)—A couple of Jack the Giant Killers put in a belated appearance in the Women's Southern Golf tournament here today and in consequence the erstwhile "big four" of Dixie golf had dwindled to a badly worried "big two," on the eve of the semi-final round.

Anne Kennedy, diminutive Miss from Tulsa, Okla., engineered the prize coup of the meet by eliminating the defending champion, Miss Margaret Maddox, of Atlanta, 2 and 1, while Mrs. Kennen Rodwell of Savannah, Ga., hopped into the spot light with a sensational one up victory over another favorite, Mrs. Leon Solomon, of Memphis, who, until today was regarded as the "natural" of the tournament.

In the other quarter final matches Mrs. Dave Gaut of Memphis, with eyes on her fourth title, kept Tennessee in the running with an eight and seven win over Mrs. W. L. Pierce, of Charlotte, N. C., and Mrs. Marion Turpie Lake, of New Orleans, and New York, won handily from Mrs. Harry Dodge fo Jacksonville, Fla., 5 and 3.

The semi-finals tomorrow will throw Mrs. Lake against Mrs. Gaut, and Miss Kennedy against Mrs. Rodwell.

HOUSTON PLANS NIGHT GAMES

$25,000 to Be Spent on Lighting Equipment

HOUSTON, Texas, May 15. (UP)—The stadium of the Houston Buffs, Texas league baseball club, will be illuminated so games can be played here at night, Fred Ankenman, president, said today.

Branch Rickey, of the St. Louis Cardinals, owners of the Houston nine, wired Ankenman that he had contracted for installment of illumination facilities that will cost $25,000.

The club plans to have the equipment installed by July 1, is was said.

Glenna Collett Goes to Finals In British Play

FORMBY, England, May 15. (AP)—Glenna Collett, playing an excellent brand of golf, today went into the final of the British Women's golf tournament with defending British girls who forced her to the 18th green, morning and afternoon, and several times threatened to send her home the loser.

She defeated Hilda Cameron of Scotland in the morning and Enid Wilson of England in the afternoon, each oneup.

The hard hitting Helen Hicks went down, five up and four to play, before harder hitting Enid Wilson in the morning play.

Diana Fishwick, who contests with Miss Collett for the championship over a stretch of 36 holes tomorrow, won her way to the finals by defeating Daisy Ferguson of Ireland in the morning and Kathleen MacDonald in the afternoon.

While the betting odds favor the American, because of her greater experience, Miss Fishwick generally was conceded an excellent chance.

Van Ryn Wins Over Canadian Cup Player

PHILADELPHIA, May 15. (INS)—John Van Ryn, former Princeton collegian, representing the United States, conquered Dr. Jack Wright representing Canada, in the first set of the first singles match of the Davis cup competition being played at the Philadelphia country club here today. The score was 6 to 2.

The two players divided the first two games. Van Ryn took the third and fourth games but Dr. Wright came back to cop the fifth game. Van Ryn then bore down in his play and won the next three games and the set.

The American player also took the second set, 6 to 2.

KENTUCKIANS' FAITH IN TANNERY GROWS AS DERBY NEARS

COLT FLASHES IN WORKOUT

Entry Regarded as Better Mud Horse Than Favorite

By ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15. (AP)—The hope that springs eternal in every Kentucky turfman's breast, wherever the classic Derby is concerned, rose with buoyancy today as the result of an impressive workout by Edward F. Prichard's colt, Tannery, the pride of the Blue Grass, in preparation for Saturday's $50,000 added race at Churchill Downs for the most cherished of American three-year-old prizes.

Kentuckians take this race and the desire for victory of its own to heart. Nevertheless, the Prichard colt's performance was good enough to make eastern horsemen take sharp notice, even though not sufficiently so to dislodge the gallant Earl Sande and equally Gallant Fox from the rockbound position of favorite.

Tannery worked a brisk mile and a furlong in 1:59 2-5, impressing all with his long, easy stride. The fractional times were 24 2-5, 50, 1:16 and 1:44 and the workout served to boom the stock of the colt, which is likely to attract even stronger backing if rain makes the going heavy Saturday.

Tannery is considered a much better mud horse than Gallant Fox, although the Preakness winner has never really been tested on a bad track.

With the Derby only two days off, the Earl of Derby himself only 90 miles away at Lexington, and good sized crowds trekking into town, the talk is almost exclusively confined to Gallant Fox and Tannery, with East once more against West in the 57th running of the historic Kentucky race.

The two rivals appear clearly outstanding to most horsemen in a field that may not number more than an even dozen, the smallest since 1822, when they are called to the post around 5:15 p. m., (central standard time) Saturday.

Thursday's Round In City Tennis Meet Rained Out

Thursday's round in the municipal tennis tournament, under way on the Junior college and Weeks Park golf club courts, were cancelled by rain, and will be played this afternoon, Tom McCarty, recreation director of the city park department, which is sponsoring the tournament, announced.

The schedule originally drawn for Thursday will be followed today, McCarty said. The feature event will be the men's singles, in which several seeded players from last year are entered. The events are scheduled to start at 4 p. m.

Bushmen Need More Hurling To Go Places

NEW YORK, May 15. (AP)—Give the Chicago White Sox a fourth starting pitcher to team with Ted Lyons, Al Thomas and the ancient "Red" Faber, let the youngsters on the club keep their present pace and the infield hold together, and Donie Bush, the tiny manager, promises Chicago a minor baseball miracle this season—a first division club.

Just now the White Sox, with youth sticking out all over the club, are sailing merrily along with Bud Clancy banging the ball lustily in the wounded Art Shires' place at first base, Bill Cissell hitting over .400 at second base, Willie Kamm playing fine ball at third and a youngster, Smith, doing a fair job of shortstopping. Smead Jolley, the big coast outfielder, isn't hitting up to predictions, but the rookie "Sheriff" Harris is and Reynolds is a fixture in center field.

To round out the picture, Bush needs only that elusive fourth pitcher, but he has high hopes. Young Ed Walsh, Hal McKain and "Dutch" Henry, the southpaw, are his three entrants in the derby for the starting post. McKain appears to have the best possibilities.

"If the Browns want to let loose of George Blaeholder, the holdout, some of my troubles would be over," Donie said in between belting fungoes to his outfielders before a game with the Yankees at the stadium here.

"I could give them things they need for Blaeholder, but I suppose several of the other clubs could, too.

This is going to be one of the tightest races the American league has ever seen. Washington is going too fast to keep the pace, the Athletics will come on again, Detroit and Cleveland are getting steadily tougher and the Red Sox have been greatly strengthened. The Yanks still have the power.

"And don't count us out either, whether we get that fourth starting pitcher or not. We're tough, too."

Braves and Senators Win in Only Two Major Loop Tilts Thursday

(By United Press)

The Boston Braves and Washington Senators won the only two major league games played Thursday, rain and cold weather causing cancellation of the other six.

A three-run rally in the ninth enabled the Braves to beat the Cubs, 10 to 8, after Chicago had taken the lead on Hornsby's homer with two men on in the eighth. Richbourg drove in five of the Braves' runs.

Sam Jones won his fourth game of the season, pitching Washington to a 4 to 2 victory over Cleveland. Sam Rice hit in his 25th consecutive game.

After the White Sox had tied the score 6-6 with a three-run rally in the first half of the fifth, rain prevented the Athletics from playing their half and the game ended in no contest.

BOSTON DEFEATS CHICAGO, 10 TO 8

CHICAGO, May 15. (AP)—Boston defeated Chicago, 10 to 8, in a contest played today during which the lead changed five times. Rogers Hornsby, hailed by the experts as ailing, and by some as through, got into the game for a while, playing errorless ball and batting 1.000. His one blow was a home run. Score:

U. S. GOLFERS LEAD FIELD

Walker Cup Team Wins in Foursomes

By HORTON SMITH
(French open and Hawaiian champion, and holder of 13 district American golf titles)

SANDWICH, Eng., May 15. (US)—The American Walker cup team, captained by Bobby Jones, won the foursomes today in the Anglo-American matches, to 3 to 1, with Britain winning only with its top team, Roger Wethered and Cyril Tolley.

Tolley and Roger were aided by the weak putting of their American opponents, George Von Elm and George Voight. But Tolley also contributed the holing of two chips, which is plenty toward making anyone weaken. Tolley and Wethered won their success on the last green, amid the frenzied cheering of 5,000 spectators.

Lose Matches

Bobby and Dr. O. F. Willing had an easy task in beating T. A. Torrance and Rex Hartley, 8 and 7, but both the other matches were close affairs.

Don Moe and Roland Mackenzie combined well in pulling out good shots when necessary against Sir Ernest Holderness and J. A. Stout, while Francis Outmet and Jimmy Johnston, after losing a three-hole leading the morning, took advantage of the errors of their Scottish opponents, W. Campbell and J. N. Smith, to win, 2 and 1.

The morning round was played in summer-like weather, but the afternoon was cloudy and windy. The Americans, however, overcame the climate.

Jones and Willing obtained a commanding start at the outset and took the first three holes with two fours and a three. Hartley and Torrance appeared too nervous and drawn too fine.

Tolley, who did not play much golf in the last seven months, developed a fine touch for the greens, which kept his side on even terms against Von Elm and Voight. But Wethered, the British captain, played indifferently.

To Play With Prince

The Prince of Wales, who flew to the course as a spectator, invited Jones, Johnston, Mackenzie and Moe to play with him Sunday at Trent.

With the singles coming up tomorrow and having a lead in the foursomes, it is anticipated that the American team will easily retain their hold on the cup.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, May 15. (AP)—Cotton was quiet with fluctuations narrow and irregular. An early advance on relatively steady cables was followed by the reactions on reports of beneficial rains in the eastern belt, but the outlook for further showers in the western belt was considered unfavorable and prices rallied in the late trading. July after selling off from 16.32 to 16.20 closed at 16.24 while the new October contract, after selling off to 14.69 closed at 14.82. The market closed steady at a decline of 1 point on old crop months but generally 8 to 16 higher on the news.

The opening was steady at an advance of 1 to 7 points with the more active positions selling about 3 to 8 points net higher during the early trading.

After selling up to 16.20, May reacted to 16.08 while new December sold off from 14.90 to 14.78.

The best prices of the day came in the late trading with new December selling up to 14.91 and closing at that figure. May closed at 16.12, showing a discount of 12 points as compared with July, while July was 142 points over the new October compared with a difference of 154 points at the close of the previous day.

May notices issued this morning were estimated at 9,100 bales and may have brought out a little near months liquidation although the offerings were readily absorbed at moderate declines. Certificated stocks of cotton have increased to about 466,000 bales and including today's notices it is calculated the total issued against May contracts in New York so far represented about 339,700 bales.

Exports today 1,445, making 6,385,013 so far this season. Port receipts 17,348. U. S. port stock 1,674,458.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, May 15. (AP)—Trading was quiet in cotton today and price fluctuations were narrow and without definite trend. In late trading the market became irregular and although old crop months remained sluggish new crop positions made new highs on prospects for unfavorable weather in the west. July closed 2 points net down. The general market closed steady net 15 points up to 2 down.

Liverpool came in 3 to 4 points better than due and the only sale here at the opening showed a gain of 3 points. The market rallied after the start and July traded up to 15.97 and October to 14.77 or 7 to 10 points above the previous close.

Later, values eased. July traded down to 15.84 and October to 14.68 or 9 to 13 points below the early highs. In the late trading new crop months advanced on prospects and closed at 14.82 up 12 points net. July on the other hand at 15.87 down 2 points net.

Port receipts, 12,948; for week 66,115; for season 8,310,796; last season, 9,279,316. Exports, 6,445; for week 24,920; for season 6,231,913; last season, 7,256,203. Port stock 1,689,344; last year, 1,243,560. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston, 64,605; last year, 79,464. Spot sales 2,334; last year, 8,260.

General Reaction Follows Heavy Profit-Taking in Quiet Market

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, May 15. (US)—Profit-taking accompanied by heavier short selling influenced general reaction in another quiet stock market session today. Continued nervousness as to the general business situation and unemployment reports combined with belief that the recovery had proceeded far enough for the time being were the main influence to selling. Offerings were well taken and with the single exception of Auburn Auto, in which a very narrow market existed, losses were not drastic. U. S. Steel fell 3 points to 171¾. American Telephone & Telegraph dropped 3¼ points, Westinghouse Electric 2, American Can 3 and Radio 2⅛. Vanadium reacted 4 points, Union Carbide & Carbon lost 2 and moderate setbacks occurred in Kennecott Copper, Warner Bros. Pictures, Anaconda, United Corporation, United Gas Improvement and Public Service corporation. In the Railroad list, New York Central declined 2 points, M-K-T 1¾ and Baltimore & Ohio 1⅝. Call money was steady at 3 per cent. Total turnover fell to the 2,700,000-share level.

The market dries up more each day. Professionals can't trade because the public won't. Until Steel, Can and other standard leaders gain new life it is extremely doubtful that any real activity will be witnessed and present belief in most responsible circles is that no such development is likely for a month or so at least. The banking sponsors for the standard industrial leaders quite obviously do not desire public participation in stock dealings at this time. They are proving none too successful in their effort to popularize the bond market but feel that by continuing extremely low money rates and discouraging speculation in stocks they will ultimately gain their objective of turning the public's attention to the bond market. Of course, they recognize that such policy delays improvement in business but they are reconciled to dull business for the time being.

There were some pools with sufficient courage to go ahead with their operations. Those interested in Zenith Radio continued their constructive operation coincident with report that dealers already have contracted for the company's entire output for the current year. There was considerable discussion of the government's suit against the Radio-General Electric deal but it was felt that the powerful interests dominating these companies would not have announced the plan without first getting the best possible legal advice. Some short covering is reported in Simmons Bed although earnings reports are none too satisfactory.

Emphasis on the decline in Auburn Auto earnings as a result of the weakness of the stock dissipated some of the revived bullishness on other motors. It was claimed, however, that interested groups planned demonstrations in General Motors and Chrysler coincident with the introduction of new models in July. A new group was reported working in G. T. Grant influenced by report that sales were holding the gain recorded in April. F. & W. Grand Silver was the subject of favorable brokerage advices telling of improvement in revenue.

There is an increasing amount of bunk being written and talked regarding the preparations financing. Over a year ago, when the Young plan was first agreed on, it was stated here that the financing would be carried out successfully and that it meant a bear market in stocks during a time of abnormal ease in money. It is doubtful if the bankers themselves know just how each part of the offering will be made. It will depend entirely on investment market conditions, public psychology, etc., the first offering will be oversubscribed on institutional subscription and the second offering will come soon after, it was stated. All the necessary guarantees, etc., to make the securities marketable will be given, bankers declare.

Sterling held firm in a generally quiet and slightly irregular foreign exchange market. Wheat and other grains rallied under short covering. Cotton turned irregular after early strength due to bearish weather advices.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 15. (AP)—Suggestions of possibly the largest export business in breadstuffs this summer that has been witnessed for years had a stimulating effect on wheat prices today.

Attention of traders focused on announcement that the amount of wheat on ocean passage to Europe is down to the smallest total in nearly a quarter century, with shipments from Argentina in particular reduced to an extent seldom equalled. Export buying of North American wheat today was estimated at 1,000,000 bushels.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled ⅜@1¼c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Corn closed ⅛@½c up, oats ⅛@⅜c advanced, and provisions unchanged 5c down.

Wheat values here showed themselves responsive to news that Argentine wheat exports for last week were only 809,000 bushels compared with 2,465,000 bushels the week previous 6,376,000 bushels at this time last year.

Corn and oats sympathized with wheat strength, and also reflected Nebraska and northwestern Iowa reports that corn planting has been delayed.

Provisions were easier, influenced by downturns in hog values.

Closing indemnities—Wheat: July $1.03⅝@¾, $1.03¼@⅜; Sept. $1.06¾; $1.07⅛@1.08; Dec. $1.10⅝@¾, $1.12⅜. Corn: July 79½c, 80½@⅝c; Sept 80½, 81½; Dec. 74⅞c, 75⅝@⅞c.

Graham's Triangle Lease Dispute May Be Settled by Test Suit

Special to The Record News

AUSTIN, May 15.—J. E. Montrief has been granted a permit to drill an oil well on the Rock Island right of way 227 feet from the Nash and Windfohr's McCloud discovery gusher near Graham, but he doesn't know yet whether he is drilling the well for Nash and Windfohr, who contested the permit, or for Amon G. Carter, for whom he sought it.

Nash and Windfohr have secured an oil lease on the railroad right of way strip from the Ragland heirs, original holders, who claim they gave the railroad only an easement. Carter holds a lease from the railroad, claiming the mineral rights. A lawsuit to decide who actually owns the minerals in the right of way probably will follow.

The permit was given Montrief for a spot directly in line between the McCloud well, 227 feet away, and his Ware No. 1 well, 350 feet away, on the north side of the railroad.

If courts hold the railroad had no claim to the minerals, then the output of Montrief's well will belong to Nash and Windfohr under their lease from the Ragland heirs.

Gasoline Stocks Shown Greater

Special to The Record News.

TULSA, Okla., May 15.—Stocks of gasoline in the Mid-Continent refinery district increased 7,549,000 gallons the past week, reports disclose. There was in storage 152,611,000 gallons, as compared with 145,062,000 gallons the week before.

Daily crude oil runs to stills averaged 352,801 barrels against 350,737 barrels a day the previous week, an increase of 2,064 barrels per day. While Oklahoma, Kansas and Louisiana-Arkansas crude oil runs declined they increased in North Texas and West Texas.

Production of gasoline amounted to 50,058,000 gallons against 47,889,000 gallons the week before; shipments of gasoline approximated 43,398,000 gallons against 45,397,000 gallons the week before, and this partly explained the increase in motor fuel stocks.

Daily crude oil runs to stills follow:

Area	Barrels Last week	Previous Week
Oklahoma	116,739	123,037
Kansas	64,382	65,135
North Texas	73,072	67,441
West Texas	45,196	33,017
Louisiana-Arkansas	53,412	61,203

Output of kerosene amounted to 7,250,000 gallons, against 6,836,000 gallons; shipments were 6,205,000 gallons against 6,001,000 gallons and stocks increased 1,043,000 gallons, or a total of 21,568,000 gallons.

Hartshorne Miner Freed In Manslaughter Case

M'ALESTER, Okla., May 15. (UP)—John Markey, a Hartshorne miner, was free today of a manslaughter charge in the death of Salvatore Loungarini August, 1928. He was acquitted by a jury last night.

Salvatore was killed by a blow of a pick handle at Markey's home. Markey's first trial in October, 1928, resulted in a hung jury.

20 Nicaraguans Dead In Recent Skirmishes

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 15. (INS)—Sixteen Nicaraguan bandits and four Nicaraguan national guardsmen have been killed in guerrilla warfare in the northern area of Nicaragua since May 5 it was learned today from an announcement by General Douglas McDougal, commandant of the national guard.

The Horse's Rubbers

LONDON.—They're taking the shock out of the horse's shoes now by supplying rubber soles and heels in place of the steel shoes. Experiments have shown that horses as well as men suffer fatigue when pounding on paved highways all day, and so a rubber pad, fitting over the regulation steel shoe, has been placed on the market to make it easier for the horses.

BUTTRAM TO SPEAK

ENID, Okla., May 15. (UP)—Frank Buttram of Oklahoma City will deliver the commencement address to Phillips university students at Enid at 2:30 p. m. May 26, it was announced today.

84. FARMS, RANCHES FOR SALE

FOR SALE—1,474-acre ranch; owner in distress for money. Write for description. Priced cheap. W. M. Joiner Land company, Hico, Texas.

NEW MEXICO RANCH FOR SALE
Fifty-three acres of land on the west bank of the romantic Rio Grande del Norte, the opposite bank to the wonderful state highway between Taos and Santa Fe, 50 miles from Santa Fe. Besides having a frontage of nearly half a mile on the Rio Grande, which river is becoming more and more noted for its excellent trout fishing, this property is peculiarly beautiful and one of the most remarkable sites for a home that could possibly be imagined. Numerous springs emanate from the base of the 1,000 foot cliff that backs the property on the west and furnish more than an abundance of water for any extensive orchard or garden that might be desired. It so situated that neither early or late frosts would endanger any fruit that is adaptable to this part of the country. This is also one of very few places that can possibly be purchased on the west bank of the Rio Grande. H. H. Dorman, P. O. box 903, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

FOR SALE—Several Plains farms at prices that will insure a good investment for you. Liberal terms and low rate of interest. It will be worth your time to investigate this proposition. Write R. T. Westerfield, Box 2831, Amarillo, Texas.

SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. HALL

Church and School Honor Memory of Woman

Hundreds of friends and co-workers paid tribute to the memory of Mrs. Gaines B. Hall, who died at a hospital here early Wednesday morning, in services held Thursday afternoon at the Zundelowitz Junior high school, in which she was head of the Latin department, and at the First Southern Presbyterian church, of which her husband is the pastor.

Memorial services at the Zundelowitz Junior high school, with the entire student body and faculty participating, were held at 2:45 p. m., T. W. Brumbalow, vice-principal, presiding, and funeral services were conducted at the First Southern Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock by Dr. E. S. Lowrance, pastor of the First Southern Presbyterian church at Iowa Park.

School Groups Attend

Among the subdued assembly which more than filled the entire church building were the pupils of Mrs. Hall's home-room at the Zundelowitz Junior high school who, with the entire faculty of that school attended the funeral services in a body.

Dr. Lowrance was assisted in the service by Rev. John T. Hall, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Bowie; Dr. Nat Grafton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here; and Dr. H. S. Springall, superintendent of the home mission field activities of the Southern Presbyterian church in the Dallas Presbytery. In his tribute to the life of Mrs. Hall, Dr. Springall emphasized the success attained in her vocation of teaching, and the influence of her character upon the hundreds of persons with whom she had associated throughout her life.

Favorite sacred selections of the deceased were included in the funeral service, the choir, of which Mrs. Hall had been a member for more than four years, singing two numbers, and Mrs. J. E. Hall, violinist, playing Johnson's "Face to Face."

Active pallbearers were F. M. Rugeley, C. M. Kitchell, Fred L. Storey, James Biggs, H. A. Glass, and T. W. Brumbalow. Officers and teachers of the church and Sunday school were honorary pallbearers. The entire chancel of the church was heavily banked with a profusion of floral offerings.

Services at Taylor

The body of Mrs. Hall lay in state at the Merkle Undertaking parlors from 5 to 10 o'clock Thursday night, and at 11 o'clock was taken by Dr. Hall and other immediate survivors to Taylor, where interment will take place at 4:30 p. m. Friday beside the body of Mrs. Hall's only sister, who died just three years ago last Wednesday. The funeral party will be met at Taylor by Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Evans parents, Henry C. Evans Jr., all of Tampa, Fla., and Miss Elizabeth Scott of Fort Worth, an aunt of the deceased. Service at Taylor will be conducted by Dr. John T. Minter, pastor of the First Southern Presbyterian church of Austin, and Dr. T. W. Curry, president of the Theological Seminary at Austin.

Memorial services at the Zundelowitz Junior high school were devoted to brief eulogies of Mrs. Hall in her capacity as a teacher. Mrs. W. W. Silk, representing the school board, praised the influence of Mrs. Hall upon pupils in her classes; Dr. J. W. Cantwell, superintendent of the city schools, paid tribute to her recognized excellence as an educator; J. L. Pope, a member of her Latin class, spoke for the students, and H. A. Glass, principal, commended the community-wide benefits of Mrs. Hall's unselfish service.

"Blessed Are They That Readeth," a quartet anthem, was sung at the opening of the service by Willard Underwood, C. M. Kitchell, C. M. McMurray and James Biggs, of the First Southern Presbyterian church choir.

Aside from relatives awaiting the body at Taylor, Mrs. Hall is survived by her husband, Dr. Gaines B. Hall and three children, Clifford, Sarah Beth, and Louise.

$10,000 Damage Suit To Go to Jury Today

Testimony was completed Thursday afternoon in the 78th district court in the trial of the suit brought against the S. H. Kress store here by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stewart on a claim to $10,000 damages growing out of injuries Mrs. Stewart is alleged to have sustained when she fell from a small step in the corridor outside the rest room in the Kress store here. The case will be given to the jury about 10 o'clock Friday morning, according to Judge W. W. Cook.

Lest some forget that Jack Oakie and Evelyn Brent may be seen—if any one really wants some really delectable entertainment — Friday night about 9:30 at the Majestic, attention again is called to their one-night return. Without intimating that Jack and Evelyn fail in any measure to give a real show all by themselves, mention may be made of Chester Conklin's contribution. Chester it is who wears the drooping spectacles, and dunks his doughnuts in the coffee, but just the same he is the mayor of "Rubenville," or wherever it was that Elmer the home-run hitter ruined the pitchers. And as mayor, this same Chester leads the club singsong around the festive board when Elmer receives that ubiquitous wallet on the eve of his departure. No one may boast of having just the proper slant on the "booster song" without this one from Rubenville.

Relative to this "Let's Go Places" over at the State, promise was made to mobilize phrases of commendation immediately upon discovering any reason for such a proceeding. That self-pronounced classic found itself just 51 minutes behind this reviewer Thursday, hence it must wait until Friday afternoon to attempt our conviction. From eyeing those first dozen minutes, however, we glean the following: the lad works in a style vogue art shop—that brings in the indinpensable flock of arms, legs and shoulders; he must sing the theme song he's just heard at the talkies, and of course the little girlies pile all over the art-shop grand piano, just as models are supposed to do during working hours, and the boss comes in, and the lad is fired, and—well, his dear good pal is going to take him to Hollywood and put him over in a big way. He will arrive in Hollywood about Friday afternoon, for our purposes, and we will stand by to witness the triumph—but still retaining doubts.

MOTHER FINED ON QUARANTINE

Violation of City Ordinance Costs $25 Penalty

One of the most unusual situations ever to come before a court here faced corporation court officials Wednesday when a woman, the mother of two small children, admitted having exposed her children to measles.

The woman was taken in custody by oficers of the city health department after neighbors had reported seeing her take the two children into a quarantined house. Her own home is in the southwest portion of the city and the quarantined house, that of a friend, is in the northeast section, it was reported.

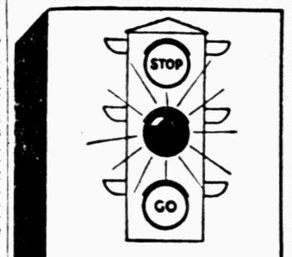

The woman was apparently indifferent to explanations of the dangers of contracting the disease and of spreading it in a locality away from the one in which it had already started, officers said. The woman was quoted as saying her children had been exposed to the disease before. She admitted she knew the quarantine sign was posted on the door.

Judge Bass assessed a fine of $25 after the woman had been warned by health officers not to repeat the offense.

Perkins-Timberlake Stores to Celebrate 33d Anniversary

STORES OVER NORTHERN TEXAS AND SOUTHERN OKLAHOMA ALL SET FOR ANNIVERSARY SALE

The greatest merchandising event ever scheduled by the Perkins-Timberlake stores, advertised more widely than any other sale ever conducted by this enterprising group of stores, will start on May 16 and continue through May 24. It is their anniversary sale, celebrating the 33rd anniversary of the opening of the first store at Decatur, Texas, on May 19, 1897. This sale will be held in all of the Perkins-Timberlake stores located at Wichita Falls, Decatur, Bowie, Vernon and Electra, Texas, and Frederick, Okla.

It was in May, 1897 that the first store of the group opened its doors to the public in Decatur. It was then known as the Red Store and J. J. Perkins was the owner and manager. Mr. Perkins had worked as a clerk at $60 per month to acquire a capital of $1,500, with which to open this place of business. With this modest beginning has developed one of the largest groups of stores in this part of the state.

In all of the stores of the group, special arrangements have been made for the conduct of this sale. Previous buying arrangements have placed in the stores the things that the public demands and extra sales people will be available at all of the stores to assure the public of prompt reception and taking care of their desires.

Those not able, for any reason, to attend the big anniversary event, may place their orders to any of the stores, through the mails and such orders will be given prompt and courteous attention. The mail order business of the Perkins-Timberlake stores has grown with the passing years until they now enjoy quite a volume of business from this source.

MAIL ORDERS TO BE GIVEN READY SERVICE IN SALE

Methods of selling merchandise have changed greatly during the past few years and one of the great changes has been in the matter of handling of mail orders. Almost all big stores today have customers who do not find it convenient to call at the store for merchandise and therefore send in orders by mail to be filled and delivered to them via the same route.

The Perkins-Timberlake stores do not stress their mail-order business but at the same time they will be glad at any time to take care of customers who cannot, for any reason, come to the store and personally supervise their shopping. Every year the Perkins-Timberlake group of six stores finds that its mail order business has grown far beyond expectations and that this method of merchandising is increasing rather than decreasing.

Officials of the store have stated that special attention would be given to mail orders during the 33rd Anniversary Sale, which opens on May 16 and continues throughout May 24. No stone will be left unturned to see that the customer gets exactly what is ordered by mail, the proper size, if size enters into the transaction; and that the customer is pleased with his "sight-unseen" purchase.

Residents of the northwest Texas and southwestern Oklahoma may select from the advertisements of the Perkins-Timberlake stores in The Times and Record News, the things they desire to purchase and send to the store nearest them for the items. Stores are located in Wichita Falls, Bowie, Decatur, Vernon, and Electra, Texas, and Frederick, Oklahoma.

STORES TO BE ALL DECKED OUT FOR 33RD ANNIVERSARY

The interior of the various stores in the Perkins-Timberlake group are being prepared for the big 33rd Anniversary Sale which opens on May 16 and extends through the 24th, commemorating the opening of the first store in Decatur on May 19, 1897.

At the Wichita Falls store the ceilings have been re-finished in white, giving them a fresh, clean, attractive appearance. The store here and at other points have been otherwise bedecked for the occasion. Special decorations will be put up at all stores to be in readiness for the crowd expected to attend this big event, which is heralded as one of the greatest sales ever seen in northwest Texas and southwest Oklahoma.

SPECIAL PURCHASE OF STOCK ENABLES SOME BIG VALUES

In addition to the regular stock of good, clean, seasonable merchandise, the Perkins-Timberlake store will have some special purchases to offer their patrons to the big 33rd Anniversary Sale which opens on May 16 and continues through May 24.

Due to certain business conditions in the market this store was enabled, by big cash purchases, to buy seasonable goods at very reasonable prices and these bargains are being handed down to the buying public in the same manner. The bargains that were offered the Perkins-Timberlake buyers, for cash, will be offered the Perkins-Timberlake trade on the same basis of a real value for the money expended.

A large part of the goods purchased is merchandise that has never before been shown in this section and should appeal to the buying public. The willingness of the jobbers to unload their surplus stocks at sacrifice prices should make this sale one of the most attractive sales that has ever been offered to the people and it is expected that great crowds will be on hand to take advantage of the values offered.

For this special event, a number of extra sales people will be behind the counters at each of the Perkins-Timberlake stores, ready to take care of any reasonable crowd of people.

HEADQUARTERS OF STORES IN WICHTA FALLS

This City Is Pivot for Stores At All Other Points

LOCATED IN A QUARTER MILLION DOLLAR HOME

R. D. Kennedy Manager Since Opening of Store

The mencantile world recognizes the Perkins-Timberlake group of stores as being the most modern and complete stores of their kind in Northwest Texas or Southern Oklahoma. This is especially true of the headquarters store in Wichita Falls, which is the central store and about which the various other stores are located.

The store here was opened in 1916 and is now located in a quarter million dollar building at the corner of Ninth and Indiana. This new building was completed in 1920 and is of sufficient size to give the management an ample opportunity to attractively display the wares along strictly departmental lines.

The local store building, which is one of six scattered over this section of the state, is fireproof throughout and of steel and concrete construction. It is modern in every detail of architecture, design, ventilation, lighting and floor arrangement.

It is a two-story building of a size of 100 by 150 feet. It has a basement and a mezzanine floor. There are approximately 50,000 feet of floor space in the store and all is used advantageously for the display of merchandise.

While the building, on the exterior, is one of the most attractive in the city, nothing is lost by access to the interior where one finds everything neatly displayed and the store presenting a very attractive appearance.

There are two entrances to the main floor of the store, one on Indiana and the other on Ninth street. Above both entrances are traffic exit light globes, with the street name in bold lettering.

Within the store are two main floors, a mezzanine floor and a basement. On the three floors the same circular arrangement prevails as to the show cases that enclose the units of the several departments. There are both big wall cases and floor cabinets.

On the lower or main floor are to be found the men's clothing and furnishings department, all dress goods, shoes, toilet goods, hosiery, toilet novelties and other items of a similar nature. On the second floor are the women's ready-to-wear and millinery departments, the infants' section, the radio department, the gift shop, rest rooms, dressmaking rooms and the beauty parlors.

The offices for the building are located on the mezzanine floor and it is here that all the business is transacted and the accounts taken care of.

The basement is a complete store in itself carrying high-grade merchandise that is popularly priced. The prices of merchandise in the basement section do not overlap the prices in other sections of this great store, but merely give the customer a wider range of merchandise at a varied price, making it easier for them to select the things that they desire and at the price they have planned to pay.

When a customer enters the store at the Indiana avenue entrance he will find on the right hand of the entrance the first two department units of the store, the men's clothing and furnishings, which might be considered as one department. R. E. Davis is the manager and buyer for this department.

Articles which go to make up a man's complete wardrobe are to be found in the men's furnishings department. The display cases contain a full and complete line of men's neckties, shirts, caps, hats, collars, gloves, dressing robes, handkerchiefs and socks, as well as many other items of wearing apparel.

There are 19 large floor cabinets in which men's clothing is kept. Most of these are lined up along the wall on the Ninth street side of the store.

The men's shoe department is just at the right of the Ninth street entrance and near the rear of the first floor of the store. Just left of it is the women's shoe department which carries a full and complete line of footwear for women. These departments are fitted up with mahogany fixtures and chairs, with mahogany dividers separating the different sections, as well as segregating the negro men's and women's shoe sections from those of white people. Charles Patty is is the manager of this department.

The men's tailor shop is just at the rear of the shoe department. Just under the central stairway leading to the mezzanine floor, and to the left of the shoe department is the Hoover electric sweeper section, which is in charge of F. H. Whitley.

Just at the left of the front entrance on Indiana street are the departments for display and sale of ribbon goods, dress goods, household furnishings, toilet goods and other things of a similar nature. In this department can also be found laces, dress accessories, novelties, trimmings and other things. Jerome Stewart is the manager and buyer for this department.

Next down the line comes the display of silks and woolens, in which can be found white goods, linens, ginghams, draperies, bed coverings and other items too numerous to mention. H. O. Bowman is manager and buyer piece goods.

The hosiery and dress noverity departments are near the center of the left section of display cases.

Near the stairway leading to the mezzanine floor is the department where goods are checked for delivery and outgoing express is accommodated.

If one likes they may take the elevator to the second floor, where they will find the ladies' ready-to-wear department filled with the many things that are a woman's heart's desire. This section has beautiful modern stock and wall cases for display of the merchandise. Mrs. F. M. Harbison is in charge and the manager and buyer for this department.

On the second floor there is also a section set aside for the display of misses' and juniors' apparel and for women's wash frocks. Mrs. Charles Hill is the manager of this section.

Facing the central stairway is the infants' section, where can be found all kinds of wearing apparel for the baby and tiny tot. Mrs. M. Steger is manager of this department.

Mrs. P. H. Bennett is manager and buyer for the millinery department in which is carried the latest creations in this line. The corset and underwear department is in charge of Mrs. Mae Patterson. It, too, is located on the second floor.

No matter what the occasion may be, an appropriate gift may be found in the gift department on the second floor of the Perkins-Timberlake store, which is one of the most interesting sections in the entire store. Mrs. C. R. Seals is the buyer and manager of this department.

At the rear of the second floor can be found the beauty department. The furnishings of this section are in ivory, white enamel and steel. This parlor is equipped for permanent waving of the hair, facial treatments, scalp treatments, hair-dressing, manicuring and eyebrow care. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Neal are in charge of the beauty parlors.

Bernard Trevathan is the manager of the radio department, which is one of the most popular places on the second floor. In this department is carried the latest types of Atwater Kent radio receiving sets.

Rest rooms for women are located at the rear of the second floor. They are furnished throughout in French gray wicker furniture and the toilet rooms are in white enamel and contain all conveniences.

To tell of this store is to tell about a business establishment that is not only one of the leading firms in the city but a model for Northwest Texas and Southern Oklahoma. A story of this establishment would not be complete without mentioning the splendid show windows that line Indiana and Ninth streets, where one may see, any day, the latest creations of a department store of this kind and which are an indicator of the items carried in stock in the store itself. This window trimming work is in charge of Talmage Wilson, who is an adept when it comes to placing attractive windows before the public.

DRESS GOODS AND NOVELTIES DEPARTMENT

INTERIOR VIEW OF BASEMENT STORE

PERKINS-TIMBERLAKE BASEMENT STORE IS A STORE WITHIN STORE

A store within a store is the best method of describing the basement store of the Perkins-Timberlake company. While the basement store is separate in itself, at the same time it is but one floor of the three contained in the Perkins-Timberlake store in the headquarters building in Wichita Falls. It is the headquarters store only that has such a department as contained in the basement store.

The basement store, which was opened in 1924, will carry merchandise especially for the big 33rd Anniversary Sale, which opens on Friday, May 16, and continues through the 24th. This store was opened when officials of the company recognized the need for a department carrying high grade merchandise at popular prices.

Since the opening of this store, it has enjoyed such a wonderful business that development has been rapid. It is now looked upon as one of the best stores of its kind in this section of the country. The merchandise carried in this department is purchased especially for the basement store and does not carry "hang-overs" from other departments.

Excellent lighting and ventilating facilities make the basement store a pleasant and attractive place to visit. There is an air cooling system and electric fans also help to maintain a pleasant atmosphere.

An entire row of lights along the Ninth street side of the store assist the regular lights of the basement section to illuminate the store's interior.

Raymond Taylor is the manager of this basement store and he emphasizes to his clerks the importance of rendering the same kind of service in this department that patrons are accorded in other sections of the store.

There are two entrances to the basement store. One is from Ninth street and the other is an interior stairway that is in addition to the elevator that carries people down to the lower floor. The Ninth street entrance is especially attractive and a sign there informs people that this is the entrance to the basement bargain counters.

Supplementing the shoe department on the first floor is the basement shoe department that carries a more moderately priced apparel. This department is located on the right of the Ninth street entrance. It contains a full and complete stock of men's, women's and children's shoes.

To the left of the shoe department can be found the men's department in which will be found a complete line of men's furnishings in work clothes and dress clothes with the exception of suits and hats. The boys' department is located in front of the elevator where everything may be found for the youth with the exception of caps and suits.

The piece goods department is on the right of the elevator. This section carries a wide assortment of goods of fast color. Next comes the millinery department where are shown the latest styles in women's, girls' and children's hats. At the left of this section is the women's ready-to-wear department which specializes in wash dresses of fast-colors.

There are three fitting rooms in the basement section of the store.

Near the Ninth street entrance and on the left, one finds the small-wear department in which are carried such articles as hosiery, gloves, jewelry and handkerchiefs.

Officials of the Perkins-Timberlake store are proud of the strides which this department has made since its establishment. They feel that with this store they have met a popular demand that the purchasing public appreciates.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE WISE COUNTY PAPER OF MAY 14TH, 1897

The following is taken from the Wise County Messenger from the old files of May 14, 1897:

"Don't want me small postoffice,
With red tape on the door;
Don't want me foreign mission
For I'd be seasick, shore;
I've jumped clean off the office train,
But I'd be happy now
If Bill McKinley'd stop the rain
An' let a fellow plow."

The air ship is said to be a fact at last. A Professor Branard exhibited one prepared for the Nashville Exposition. It is said to have made a successful trip. It works on the principle of the bicycle.

Announcement

We wish to announce to the trading public that we will open in Decatur, about the first of the week, in the building on the northwest corner of the square, formerly occupied by C. H. Smith, groceryman. We will open a good, well-assorted stock of dry goods. We promise you that our efforts to please you and our decidedly low prices, will eclipse all previous records. This is rather late in the season to open and the prices are exceedingly low to move all goods in a hurry. Wait until we open to buy your goods and you will save money by so-doing. One price, spot cash. The Red Store, (Perkins-Timberlake Co.) Decatur, Texas.

BOYHOOD CHUM OF J. J. PERKINS LETS CAT OUT OF BAG ON WHAT BECAME OF RED STORE'S BILLS

"It has been recorded that 'he who is diligent in business, shall stand before kings'," says Dick Collins, editor of the Wise County Messenger. "If this be true, Joe J. Perkins, master merchant, is enjoying that experience, for no man has been more diligent and attentive to the business he has given his life to—and, the success that has come to him, should be an incentive to the struggling young man, with no assets, save a strong heart, strict integrity and a determination to succeed. Aside from a small amount of cash, that just about covered Joe Perkins' 'stock' in the beginning of his mercantile career.

"He came to Decatur when in his tender teens, and this writer remembers him as a boy with plenty of industry, never too busy at play to refuse a job of work; and, if I remember correctly, Joe and I on numerous occasions acted in the capacity of 'circular boys' for the Red Store, then owned and operated by Mr. C. L. Mistrot, in that day one of the best known merchants in Texas, having stores at a number of towns in Texas. I believe we were paid the magnificent amount of 50 cents for distributing a thousand or more page circulars. Usually these jobs would come to us on stray sales, or first Mondays. It would require the better part of a day to thoroughly distribute the circulars; or at least, that was the time Mr. Mistrot thought it would take for us to do the job. We were boys, fast of foot, and could cover a considerable amount of territory. We sometimes finished the work an hour or two before our allotted time—and, frequently we would have a quantity of circulars left after thoroughly covering the city—and not wishing to show up Mr. Mr. Mistrot in error in supplying the proper number, we felt in duty bound to appear before the boss empty handed—proving positively that our work, as well as Mr. Mistrot's, had been well done. The few circulars that were left on our hands were taken in charge by the writer. Some 20 years afterwards, according to the building records of Decatur, the old, dilipidated rock building, that for almost a quarter of a century had stood vacant, habitat of bats and owls, near the city waterworks plant, was remodeled and put in shape as a residence. In remodeling the building, said the remodeler, the buckled, rain-soaked and mildewed floor in one room of the building was torn up. And, continues the bulider's report, there, beneath the floor, were thousands of circulars, of different dates, a few of each, covering several years.

"A tell-tale record of the number of times a certain boy—we plead guilty—visited the room with a small surplus of Red store circulars, later engaging in marble games on a near-by lot—until 'time was up.'

"In the opinion of Decatur and Wise county people, Joe J. Perkins belongs to them—one of the 'boys' who has gone out in the big affairs of the state, to become an outstanding figure, and today he is recognized as one of the leading merchants of the great Southwest. Beginning his career in Decatur as a clerk in the Red Store, then owned by Mr. C. L. Mistrot. Upon the approach of failing health of that successful merchant, Joe, with a great portion of his purchasing 'power' borrowed, became owner of the store. By applying modern business methods in the conduct of the business, the establishment soon became one of the most popular in the county. Working hard, and acting as owner-manager and frequently clerk on the floor, he continued to forge ahead, and within a few years he moved his store into larger, more commodious quarters. on May 19, 1897, he became owner of the store, and later his business had grown to such an extent, consisting of a number of stores in some of the leading towns in Texas, he moved to Wichita Falls, to superintend a magnificent establishment he and associates had put in in that city. The management of the Decatur store, the parent store, came into the hands of Frank P. Timberlake, a nephew of Mr. Perkins, and who had taken his lessons and become qualified in the 'Perkins school'—and, right here let this writer state something that was told him in late years about this 'Perkins school' of training. A representative of the late Henry Exall, in conversation with me, said: 'Your man Perkins is considered the John Wanamaker of Texas, and his system is being watched and studied by the biggest merchants in Chicago.' The man had just come from a tour of Chicago's largest establishments.

"I believe Frank Timberlake became identified as manager of the local store in 1907, and two years later was put in control. In 1915 Mr. Timberlake went to Wichita Falls as manager of the store there, Mr. Perkins retiring to give more of his time to over-seeing and keeping in touch with his rapidly growing system of stores which were now located in a large number of towns in Texas and Oklahoma.

"When Frank Timberlake entered the parent store in the capacity of clerk, there came also another, W. A., better known as 'Gus' Hughes, from the good old state of Arkansas, as a clerk. When Mr. Timberlake was called to manage the Wichita Falls store, Mr. Hughes was selected to take over the management of the Decatur interest. And, how well he has done the work given into his hands is attested by the splendid business the store has."

Big Advertising Is Secret of a Good Business

Truthful advertising over a period of many years has had a large part in the success that has come to the Perkins-Timberlake group of stores located in Northwest Texas and Southwestern Oklahoma. An ever-increasing volume of business has followed a consistent advertising plan that has been carefully laid out in advance and regularly followed.

The Perkins-Timberlake stores have always paid very close attention to the advertising of the business and endeavored to give the public a truthful picture of the wares that were to be found in the store—a clear and accurate idea of the merchandise carried in stock.

The advertising for all the stores in the group of six is done through the headquarters store in Wichita Falls. The burden of getting out this vast amount of advertising copy falls upon the capable shoulders of T. A. Bradley, one of the old-time veteran advertising men of Wichita Falls, who came here in 1912 and who has been connected with the Perkins-Timberlake stores since 1916. Hundreds of thousands of inches of advertising copy have been prepared by Mr. Bradley since he first came with this organization. Mr. Bradley came from Kentucky to Altus, Okla., and then on to Wichita Falls. He became connected with the store of Alex Kahn, at the corner of Eighth and Indiana, in 1912. After three years with this store, Mr. Bradley opened up an advertising agency, which he managed for a short time before going with the Perkins-Timberlake stores. He is now their advertising manager.

Mr. Bradley has been identified with the Wichita Falls Advertising club for a number of years, having served as president for a year. He is still active in the organization.

EIGHT FULL PAGES IN CIRCULARS TO ADVERTISE SALES

Approximately 50,00 circulars will be scattered through the various towns in which Perkins-Timberlake stores are located to advertise the big 33rd Anniversary Sale which is scheduled to open on May 16 and to continue through May 24. These circulars will also be scattered on rural routes surrounding those towns and up to a distance of at least 50 miles from each of the cities. Special mailing lists of customers and prospective customers have been secured for this special event.

In addition to the circulars the Perkins-Timberlake stores will carry eight pages of advertising in The Times and Record News and will have smaller advertisements placed in all of the newspapers in the towns in which stores are located and in surrounding towns and cities.

This will be perhaps the most widely advertised sale ever held in northwest Texas and southwest Oklahoma and from all indications the results of the sale will surpass any previous event of this store or of any other store in this territory.

RETIRED FARMER OF DECATUR PURCHASED SUIT AT RED STORE

"The first suit of clothes I ever bought was about 33 years ago from the Red Store (Perkins-Timberlake) company," said L. L. Hoyle, a retired farmer of Decatur, Texas, in commenting on the 33rd anniversary of the opening of the little Red Store on May 19, 1897, which anniversary is being celebrated with a mammoth sale by Perkins-Timberlake company that begins on May 16th and continues through Saturday, May 24th.

"I remember the suit very well," he continued. "It was a pretty brown and as well as I can remember, I paid $8.95 for it. I have traded consistently with the firm since that time and am satisfied with the treatment I receive from the salespeople."

These statements are from a pioneer Decatur man who tells of buying his first suit of clothes from the first store ever started in the string of Perkins-Timberlake stores, now located at Bowie, Decatur, Wichita Falls, Vernon and Electra, in Texas, and Frederick, in Oklahoma.

From his statement it is evident that he has been well pleased with the service rendered by the Perkins-Timberlake store in Decatur from the days of the little Red Store down to the present time. This speaks well of the service rendered, in the opinion of the Perkins-Timberlake management.

PEOPLE IN CHARGE OF DEPARTMENTS IN THE DECATUR STORE

The personnel of the Decatur store includes the manager, W. A. Hughes; Elmer Richter, head of the men's wear; Newton Crabtree, head of the shoe department; Miss Ida Hastey, head of the dress goods and hosiery department; Miss Nell Walker, head of the departments for toilet goods, notions and small wares; Miss Belew, head of the ready-to-wear and millinery, as well as corsets and underwear; and Miss Kerr, the cashier.

Pretty Garnish

Grilled tomatoes make a lively garnish for fried chicken, chops or fish. From now on they are so inexpensive that they are a practical garnish, too.

Perkins-Timberlake Store Located In Frederick, Oklahoma, Boasts of City of More Than 7,000 Population

One of the oldest stores in Frederick, Okla., is the Perkins-Timberlake store, established about 1912. This pioneer store of that city is located in a brick building that is centrally located as regards the business district. The building is 50x150 feet in size with a modern front and with the latest fixtures and equipment on the interior.

R. H. Ermel is the manager of this store. He was display man for the Perkins-Timberlake store in Wichita Falls for a period of 10 years. He came with the organization shortly after the close of the world war, in which he served overseas. It was during the past year that he took charge of the Frederick store, taking the place of Milton Archer who was transferred to the Electra store.

Don Mann is assistant manager and also is in charge of the men's clothing and furnishings department of the Frederick store. Mrs. E. Carter is in charge of the ready-to-wear and hosiery. Mrs. Ola Huffhines is manager of the piece goods and novelties department. Mrs. George Mason has charge of alterations and hemstitching and Mrs. Ila Mae Porter is the cashier. W. J. Haley is in charge of the shoe department.

The Perkins-Timberlake store at this point is located in a city of 7,000 people with the following assets: 15 miles of paved streets, a high school building, a junior high school building, four grade schools, eight churches, a fine courthouse, a good city hall, a city sanitarium, Carnegie library, four hotels, one of them costing $200,000; two up-to-date show houses with a $125,000 theater; one twice-daily and one weekly newspaper; one cotton oil mill; two cotton compresses; nine cotton gins; three grain elevators; a creamery; an ice plant; an ice cream factory; a steam laundry; modern chick hatchery; two modern greenhouses; and funds have already been appropriated for a new federal building.

Among the organizations of the city are: Chamber of commerce, Women's Chamber of Commerce, Retail Merchants association; Lions club of 65 members and American Legion.

The city has two railroads, two [illegible] and enjoys the use of natural gas.

Tillman county is said to be one of the best in the state as far as agriculture is concerned. Crop failures are unknown in the rich Red River valley which comprises a large part of the county's area, while [illegible] are also consistently

The county has 2,655 farms comprising 438,826 acres. The farm lands and buildings have an estimated value of $25,792,561. The value of the crops of 1928 were: Cotton, 65,000 bales, $6,500,000; wheat, 935,000 bushels, $1,122,000; alfalfa, 10,000 tons, $250,000; oats, 275,000 bushels, $137,500; corn, 150,000 bushels, $135,000.

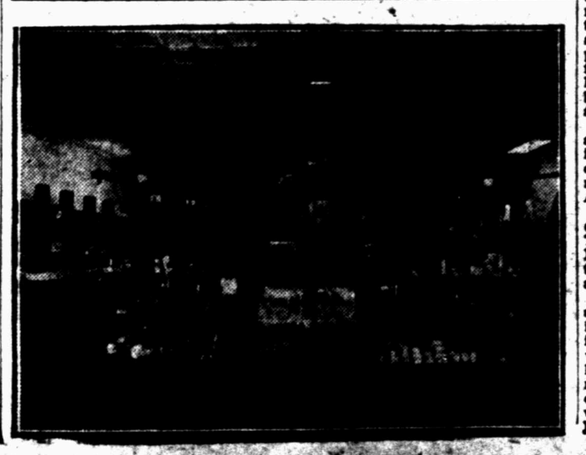

Feed crops are not listed with the foregoing as much of the feed is fed up to livestock on the farms and marketed in that manner. In livestock valuations the county ranks as follows: Horses, $200,000; mules, $360,000; beef cattle, $840,000; dairy cattle, $560,000; swine, $48,000.

Frederick had an assessed valuation in 1928 of $2,900,072. Building permits up to May 12 of that year were $260,000. The city has 1260 electric light meters, 1125 water meters, 800 natural gas meters and 1095 telephones.

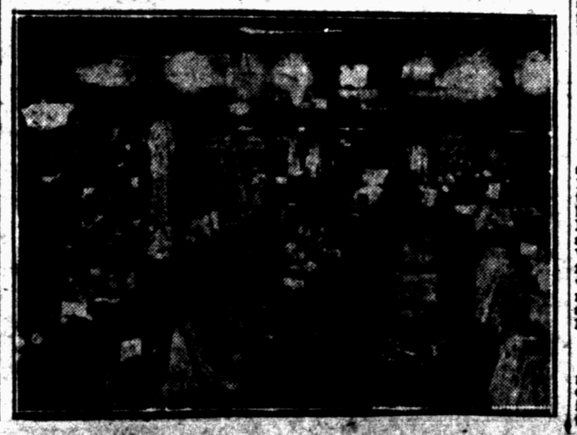

There were 7,400 automobiles registered in the county in 1928. There are 500 tractors in the county.

Frederick is the home of some very noted gravel pits from which have been taken evidences of prehistoric life older than have been discovered elsewhere, and these attract scientists from all over the country.

Six Big Stores Are Included in Perkins-Timberlake Group

EACH STORE A DEFINITE PART OF THE COMMUNITY IN WHICH IT HAS EXISTENCE AND SERVES

J. J. Perkins Had Little Capital To Start With

It was 33 years ago this coming Friday that a young business man armed with a keen determination for success, entered the mercantile field by opening up in Decatur, Texas, on May 19, 1897, the first of what was to become a group of stores bearing his name. The first store was known as the Red Store and from this modest beginning has come the Perkins-Timberlake stores that number six in this part of the state, being located at Wichita Falls, Bowie, Decatur, Vernon and Electra in Texas and Frederick in Oklahoma.

This man who first conceived the mercantile idea that led to the opening of the Red Store was J. J. Perkins, today one of the best known business men in Wichita Falls and prominent in the oil industry.

Mr. Perkins declares that he had only $1,500 to start his first venture with and that that had been accumulated from his savings as a clerk at wages of $60 per month. The first store was housed in a 25100 foot structure, of brick construction, the rent being $20 per month The first year's gross business did not exceed $30,000.

By hard work and good business management Mr. Perkins was able to advance his interests and promote the business until today he is the president of two different groups of stores, the Perkins-Timberlake group of six and the Perkins Watkins group of four. The stores in the latter group are located at Childress, Quanah and Chillicothe, in Texas, and Altus, Oklahoma. While Mr. Perkins is the nominal head of both groups, he is not active in the management of the businesses.

One year after the store was opened in Decatur, in 1898, his brother, S. B. Perkins, came into the business. The firm name was then changed to Perkins Brothers and company. Each year as the capital of the firm increased new stores would be added to the string. In the course of time quite a number of stores operated under that name.

In 1908 some changes were made in the firm and J. J. Perkins took charge of the West Texas stores while S. B. Perkins took those located in East Texas. After this change, the stores in West Texas took up two separate and distinct groups, the Perkins-Timberlake and the Perkins-Watkins.

C. T. Watkins, an early business associate of Mr. Perkins, and Frank P. Timberlake, a nephew of his, were the other two business partners.

Mr. Perkins moved from Decatur to Wichita Falls in 1909, shortly after taking over the West Texas stores. He became associated with Frank Kell and J. A. Kemp in the coal mining development near Newcastle. He also acquired an interest in the Wichita Falls and Southern railroad. In addition to these interests Mr. Perkins is one of the most prominent oil operators and real estate owners in this city. He has long been known here as a community builder and is active in all civic organizations including the chamber of commerce.

No longer can a big business institution exist in a community without taking an active part in the life of that section. It must be a part of the community in which it lives and to which community it owes its existence. The Perkins-Timberlake stores recognize this fact and try to serve in other ways besides dispensing merchandise to the general public.

There are hundreds of ways in which a store may contribute to the life of the community besides in the field of merchandising. It can contribute to the civic organizations, the chamber of commerce, the charity organizations and the churches. The members of the institution may belong to the Rotary, Lion or luncheon club; they may be active members of the chamber of commerce, the local church or Sunday school, or they may take a leading part in a Little Theater movement or other civic enterprise.

The Perkins-Timberlake stores recognize that it is well to contribute to worthwhile affairs in their several communities and do their bit to carry on such movements. The managers and employes of the various stores each have their home in the community in which the store is located and take an active part in community affairs.

Each store of the group, of which there are six in all, realizes that it is located in a section the progress of which is vitally essential to the growth and development of the store. If the community fails to make progress it is the loss of the store as the sales will be curtailed by just that much. If the community develops as it should the store prospers accordingly. Therefore, the Perkins-Timberlake stores are especially anxious to see that the community is given every opportunity for advancement and to develop along normal lines.

R. M. TITTLE IS THE MERCHANDISE AGENT FOR OUTSIDE STORES

R. M. Tittle, merchandise manager for several departments of the Wichita Falls store of the Perkins-Timberlake company, and for all stores of the company outside of Wichita Falls, has been with the Perkins-Timberlake organization since 1916, coming with the organization when the Wichita Falls store was opened.

Mr. Tittle has served as buyer and manager for a number of different departments in the store until he took the position of merchandise manager about a year ago.

His duties are to confer with local store managers at different points where stores are located and give them instructions as to the conduct of the business. His position gives him superiority over local store managers.

Under his jurisdiction the stores have developed a great deal and since he took over his duties as merchandise manager great progress has been made. Mr. Tittle, and in fact all the rest of the executives of the Perkins-Timberlake organization, are vitally interested in the several communities in which the stores are located and would like to see the sections developed, realizing that as the community develops so will the store grow and prosper. Under his regime he has endeavored to see that everything is provided in the various stores for the comfort and pleasure of patrons.

ADVERTISING STYLE OF 1897 AS COMPARED WITH THAT OF TODAY

"Shout the glad tidings," "the reign of high prices is over," "the store that under-buys all others," "leaders, makers and protectors of low prices," "break loose your shackles and join the eager, happy throng," "these are some of the shackle-breaking prices," "buy your goods from us and you forge no chains around your prosperity," "the store that is a friend to the people," "the store that makes prices right," "one price—spot cash—to everybody," "northwest corner square, Decatur, Texas." Those are some of the slogans that appeared in the first advertising of the Red Store in Decatur, established on May 19, 1897 and which was the forerunner of the Perkins-Timberlake group of stores of today.

Capable Managers and High Class Merchandise Responsible for Much Of Success of Perkins-Timberlake

"The fact that traditionally the name of Perkins and latterly the name of Timberlake have been written large in the merchandising history of the Southwest leads to the personal reflection that Decatur and Wise county home people have always responded with pride to the fact that the mother store of the group of institutions had its birth in our own town of Decatur 33 years ago this anniversary date of May 19," according to Cliff Cates secretary of the Decatur Chamber of Commerce.

"Coming to look back through the course of a generation of time during which the establishment known now as the Perkins-Timberlake company has been a prosperous, strictly modern, up to date and aggressive feature of the commercial life of Decatur and Wise county, two facts stand out prominently, the one the high caliber of the men who have successively conducted the business as managers and second, the high and dependable quality of merchandise that has been purveyed across the counters.

"Joe J. Perkins invested personal character and force in his work as founder and a personal director for years, to be followed in train by Frank Timberlake and then by the capable aggressive and ever popular Gus Hughes, the present manager. High ideals of merchandising, the selection of high quality of goods that could be sold to the people at prices within their means of buying were principles implanted from the very beginning of the enterprise.

"There have been changes of managers as the years went by but it is a fact of striking importance that there have been no changes from the original policy nor departure from the original purpose except as has been prompted by the ideal and motive to invoke improvements in every instance where change would help in the rendition of still more service to the community.

"Reviewing these facts, it is a pleasure to say that the Perkins-Timberlake company under its successive names and managers has been an institution we have always tied to in Decatur as belonging in that class of community possessions recognized and known as necessary assets, and without which we could not have maintained the repute of the town as a well balanced and rounded trading point.

"It therefore affords no small source of personal gratification to offer to the local manager, Mr. Hughes, and to all identified with the general business highest congratulations and best wishes for the continuing prosperity of the institution."

MEN'S DEPARTMENT ON MAIN FLOOR

Contrasting Methods of Merchandising Thirty Three Years Ago With the Present

The following picture is a contrast with the picture of the first store. It shows the main aisle in the new Perkins-Timberlake store and gives an idea of what the modern methods of merchandising are like. While a view of the interior store of Decatur of today is not available, the scene representing the Wichita Falls store is not far different from that of the present Decatur business. Hence the contrast between the pictures might easily represent the difference in merchandising methods between periods covering a span of 33 years.

BUYING OFFICES FOR PERKINS-TIMBERLAKE LOCATED IN NEW YORK

Perkins-Timberlake group of stores, located at Wichita Falls, Bowie, Decatur, Vernon and Electra, in Texas, and Frederick, in Oklahoma, maintain a buying office in New York City at 1328 Broadway. This buying office is in charge of L. W. Powers and J. J. Boyd. Mr. Powers formerly lived in Texas and has been in the New York office for the past six or seven years. Mr. Boyd, who has been in the buying office for two years, was formerly manager of one of the Perkins stores in Texas. These men are both widely experienced in the field of merchandising and department store work from the retail end of the business and are fully qualified to look after the buying interests.

By being on the ground in New York City all the time, these buyers are enabled to pick up many exceptional values at odd times and these goods are forwarded on to the local stores of the Perkins-Timberlake firm and offered to the public as regular Perkins-Timberlake values at moderate prices. The maintaining of the buying office has enabled the Perkins-Timberlake group of stores to be able to offer the public many items they would not otherwise have secured and at value prices.

PERSONNEL OF THE COMPANY'S STORE IN WICHITA FALLS

It takes a large group of people to conduct such a large department store as operated by the Perkins-Timberlake company. Not only must there be a large number of salesmen and saleswomen, but there must be heads to every department to see that the department is managed in a systematic manner and that the patronage of the store is given every service and every courtesy.

J. J. Perkins is the head of the entire organization as president; F. P. Timberlake is vice president and general manager of all the stores in the group; R. M. Tittle is merchandise manager for many of the departments of the Wichita Falls store and for all stores in the group outside of Wichita Falls.

R. D. Kennedy is manager of the store in Wichita Falls and T. A. Bradley is manager of the advertising department. The office manager is P. H. Bennett and G. W. Sosebee is the credit manager. Talmadge Wilson is display manager and looks after all the display windows of the store.

R. E. Davis is manager and buyer for the men's and boys' department and also for the new Defiance tire department. Raymond Taylor is manager of the basement store and Charles Petty is manager of the shoe department. H. O. Bowman is manager of the dry goods, dress goods and luggage department. E. B. Jackson is manager and buyer for the shoe department of the basement store.

Miss Myrtle Redding is the manager of the millinery department in the basement store and also does the buying for this section. Mrs. F. M. Harbison is the manager and buyer of the women's ready-to-wear department. Mrs. Chas. Hill is the manager and buyer of the misses' and juniors' section and women's house frocks. Mrs. C. R. Seals is the manager and buyer for the gift and art department. Mrs. M. Steger is manager and buyer for the infants' department and Mrs. Mae Patterson is manager and buyer for the corsets and underwear department. Mrs. P. H. Bennett looks after the managing and buying of the second floor millinery department. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Neal are the managers of the beauty parlors at the rear of the second floor.

F. H. Whitley is the manager of the Hoover sweeper department and Bernard Trevathan is manager of the radio department.

In the foregoing, only the heads of the various departments of the store are listed and there are salesmen and saleswomen in every department to assist the managers in waiting on patrons and looking after the work in general.

The accompanying picture is of the first store of the Perkins-Timberlake group of six stores, opened in Decatur, Texas, on May 19, 1897. It is an interior scene and it will be noticed that the goods are displayed in the fashion of former days, on any kind of a counter and on wires strung through the upper part of the room. This represents a kind of merchandising that was in vogue in days gone by.

Short Sleeves

Short sleeves grow varied on smart new frocks and silk suits. Some flare, with color on the inside, others trail or end in cuffs or bows. One navy blue morocain flares its sleeves below the elbow and then wears separate cuffs of tucked organdie.

F. P. TIMBERLAKE GENERAL MANAGER OF ALL STORES

F. P. Timberlake, vice president and general manager of the Perkins-Timberlake company, gives the larger part of his time to working with the retail departments of the various stores in the group that is scattered over Northwest Texas and Southwestern Oklahoma. The wonderful growth of these stores has testified to the worth-whileness of his work.

Mr. Timberlake is ever ready to point out the steps which the company has taken in making this wonderful progress but is loath to take any credit upon himself for the strides that have been made. However, other officials of the company point with pride to him as having been an important factor in the development of these stores, and agree that it is due to his excellent business and executive ability.

Mr. Timberlake joined the Perkins Brothers company of Decatur, in 1907, at which time the group of stores numbered eight or 10, located both in West and East Texas. However, the present Perkins-Timberlake stores had their beginning in the little Red Store established by J. J. Perkins in Decatur on May 19, 1897, and for which the 33rd anniversary is being celebrated.

When S. B. Perkins took over the group of East Texas stores of the Perkins Brothers company in 1908 and J. J. Perkins took over the stores in West Texas, the stores at Jacksboro and Decatur were soon to be known as Perkins-Timberlake stores. These stores enjoyed a rapid expansion and new stores were added to the group. In 1914 stores were placed in Electra and Vernon, Texas, and Frederick, Okla. The following year saw still another store opened, this time in Bowie. Then in 1916 the Wichita Falls, now headquarters store, was opened on Indiana avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets. In 1920 the new building was erected at the corner of Ninth and Indiana and the business is still in this location.

When the local store was established here in 1916, Mr. Perkins removed his home from Decatur to this city, and with him came the headquarters for the Perkins-Timberlake group which has rested with this store since that time.

"We are holding this 33rd anniversary sale as an expression of our appreciation to the general public of the splendid patronage that has been accorded us during past years," said Mr. Timberlake, "and to continue our policy of giving timely merchandise to the people at popular prices. We want the people of northwestern Texas and southwestern Oklahoma to really learn that we do appreciate their business and that we want to give value received for everything for which we take their money." The policy of the Perkins-Timberlake stores has always been to please the customer first and the profits will take care of themselves.

The Perkins-Timberlake stores have always endeavored to carry high class merchandise so that the customer could not complain of wares he had purchased at one of the stores, and assuring the customer of the best merchandise that can be offered for the price involved. The customer is assured that he will get his money's worth of any article purchased.

Officials of the Perkins-Timberlake stores are all unanimous in stressing the point that the first duty of the salesman is to render prompt and courteous service to patrons and the store managements take pride in the fact that the employes always strive to please.

Mr. Timberlake has long been associated with the business, social and financial life of Wichita Falls and takes a prominent part in all local affairs. He urges his store managers and employes at other points in the territory to become units in the city in which they live and take an active part in various civic institutions. It is by following this method that communities are developed and through the development of communities in which Perkins-Timberlake stores are located that the stores prosper.

PERKINS-TIMBERLAKE STORE IN VERNON IS OLDEST DEPARTMENT STORE IN POINT OF OPERATION

GENERAL MANAGER

F. P. TIMBERLAKE

The Perkins-Timberlake store in Vernon has been operated there for a period of 25 years, the last 16 years under the name of the Perkins-Timberlake company. It is the oldest department store in Vernon in point of continuous operation. It moved from its old quarters on the corner of Pease and Main to the present location at 1716 Pease street, several years ago. The store covers more floor space than any other department store in the city.

Howard Timberlake, the manager of the store, has been with the Perkins-Timberlake company for the past 21 years. He has been in charge at Vernon for the past 11 months. Prior to that time he was in charge of the store at Frederick and before that at Jacksboro, in charge there.

Roland Kennedy is in charge of the department devoted to men's clothing and furnishings. Clifford Taylor heads the shoe department; also does window trimming and interior decoration. Mrs. Ethel Bratton has charge of cosmetics, hosiery and novelties; Mrs. Della White, piece goods; Miss Ida Conoley, ready-to-wear and millinery; Miss Ila Clark, alterations and hemstitching; Mrs. Lily Fowler, cashier; and W. G. McDonald, collections.

The big 33rd Anniversary Sale starts on the 16th of this month, commemorating the opening of the first store of this company on May 19, 1897, at Decatur, Texas. The sale lasts for eight days, continuing through the 24th. Things will be marked down in every department for this special event.

The Vernon store of the Perkins-Timberlake company is located in a city of between 12,000 and 14,000 people and in a county of between 32,000 and 35,000 people. This county population is despite the fact that the southern half of the county is all ranch land.

The average cotton yield of the county is around 50,000 bales. Vernon is an old, well-established oil section and this territory produces from 32,000 to 35,000 barrels daily. Between 225 and 250 carloads of cattle are shipped out annually. Vernon and West Vernon have a total of 2,800 scholastics. There are about 7,000 scholastics in the county.

Vernon had a population in 1910 of 3,195; in 1920 of 5,142; the official estimate of the population in 1928 is 12,487. The native white population of Wilbarger county is 95.6 white.

Vernon has eight brick school buildings; the average mean temperature in winter is 40 degrees; in summer, 73 degrees or for the entire year, 61 degrees. There are approximately 3,700 hours of sunshine per year.

The average yearly rainfall for the past 16 years has been 26 inches. The trade area of Vernon comprises some 50,265 square miles. Only about 25 per cent of the tillable land is under cultivation. The population of the trade territory is around 180,000 people.

The building permits for 1928 amounted to $780,000 and the postal receipts for the same year were $29,459.12.

Vernon has a beautiful country club and a nine-hole golf course. It has three of the best-equipped tourist parks in the Southwest. Vernon has gas, lights, water and adequate police protection. The total city and school tax levy is $1.75. The county tax rate is $1.15.

Vernon has 12 miles of paved streets, a modern sanitary sewer system and an abundance of pure water. It has four banks, two national and two state. The total resources are $6,850,000 and the total deposits are $6,349,203.80.

It has three private brick hospitals with over 200-bed capacity, staffed by capable physicians, surgeons, specialists and nurses.

Vernon has both state and federal highway outlets with eight automobile passenger stage lines and six freight stage lines, augmenting the railroad service which includes the Fort Worth & Denver and Frisco railroad lines with splendid passenger and freight accommodations.

All religious denominations are represented in Vernon, each with large congregations and housed in modern buildings.

In addition to holding first rank as a cotton-producing county, Wilbarger holds high honors in the production of kafir, milo maize, feterita, corn, cane, sudan grass, peanuts, wheat, oats, alfalfa, barley, peas, watermelons, fruits and vegetables.

Under these conditions dairying, poultry raising, hog raising and kindred lines are very successful, and it is due to the wide diversification of proven crops that the citizens enjoy greater prosperity than where the one-crop system prevails.

Vernon is headquarters for some of the largest oil companies in the Southwest. Wilbarger produces more high-grade oil than any other county in the state of Texas. In addition to the proven and producing fields, new locations are being made all the time. Every inducement is offered to the oil fraternity.

Bowie Store Situated in Center of Great Diversified Farming Program With Cows and Chickens in Numbers

The Bowie store of the Perkins-Timberlake group of stores was opened on March 5, 1913. It is one of the pioneer stores of that city and is now housed in a brick building, located in the heart of the business district. It is a building 50x140 feet in size with a thoroughly modern front.

On the interior the store has all the latest, modern, up-to-date equipment and fixtures to suitably display the merchandise and easily handle the volume of business the store enjoys. The store is well lighted and arranged both for appearance and efficiency.

Bowie is a town of about 4,800 people, located on the Fort Worth and Denver railroad and on the Meridian highway. It is said of the highway through Bowie to Wichita Falls and Colorado that this road handles more traffic, especially tourists, than any highway in Texas, with one exception.

Bowie is located in the center of a great trade territory that extends on the north to Ryan, Okla., east to Munster, southeast to Decatur, south to Bridgeport and west to Henrietta. This is a great farming area, with cotton the major crop. Not only do the farmers raise the major crops but much attention is paid to the raising of good dairy cattle, hogs, chickens, fruit, produce, melons and other garden truck.

P. B. Baldridge is the manager of the Bowie store of the Perkins-Timberlake firm. Mr. Baldridge has been with the company for the past 16 months, having come from Plano where he was in business with a partner.

A. B. Wells is the head of the men's clothing department. He has been with the store for the past 16 years. Miss Lillie Huff is the head of the ready-to-wear section. She has been with the company for 17 years.

Mrs. Lee Bailey is the head of the hosiery department. Her tenure with the Perkins-Timberlake stores has been over a period of 16 years. Miss Beulah Horn is the manager of the piece goods department. She has been with the firm for 11 years. Miss Lillian Standard, the cashier, has been with the management for the past five years.

Bill Weatherford is known all over the country around Bowie as "Bill." He has been with the company only about a year but has acquired a wide acquaintance. Charles Wilson, the display man, has also had only one year with the firm.

This store has been in operation in Bowie for the past 17 years and it is said that there are hundreds of customers who began trading with this firm when the store first opened and who are still patrons of this place of business.

Kitchen Garden

Your kitchen window should have flowers. If you don't want a while window box, by all means have a little parsley and mint growing in pots, and perhaps a blooming flower or two.

Two-Tone Bands

Fine felts for sports hats and fine straws for town have a way now of using two colors for banding themselves. Black and pink, brown and green, black and white and navy and gray are some of the popular combinations.

Wrapping Coat

A new Vionnet coat, of beige wool, has a most fascinating cut and wraps across the front to fasten, diagonally across the side. Its narrow belt is attached across the back and ties shut.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT ON SECOND FLOOR

Every Store in Group Ready For Biggest Sale in History In 33rd Anniversary Event

Thirty three years of successful merchandising in the department store line will be celebrated by the Anniversary Sale of the Perkins-Timberlake stores of northwest Texas and southwestern Oklahoma from May 16 to 24, inclusive. These 33 years have been filled with an earnest effort on the part of Perkins-Timberlake management to please the buying public and to give them honest values.

As a result of this mammoth sale that is scheduled to open Friday, it is anticipated that huge crowds will throng the various stores in the group which are located at Wichita Falls, Bowie, Decatur, Vernon and Electra in Texas and in Frederick in Oklahoma. The sale is being given as a means of showing the appreciation of the Perkins-Timberlake stores for the wonderful patronage that has been accorded them in the past years.

In anticipation of great throngs of people, the various stores in the group have already made arrangements to have extra sales people at work and waiting on the will of the public. Buyers for the stores have made special efforts in weeks past to secure a grade and quantity of merchandise that will please the buyers and every effort has been made to make this 33rd Anniversary Sale go over bigger and better than any previous event the stores have ever scheduled.

The stores have been planning for this big anniversary sale for the past several months. No effort has been spared and it is hoped that the public will respond to such an extent that the sale will go down in history as the biggest merchandising event that has ever taken place in northwest Texas and southwestern Oklahoma.

R. D. Kennedy is the manager of the headquarters store in Wichita Falls. Managers of the other stores are: Howard Timberlake, Vernon; Rudolf Ermel, Frederick, Oklahoma; W. A. Hughes, Decatur; Milton Archer, Electra and P. B. Baldridge, Bowie.

New Defiance Tire Department Will Open at Same Time as Big Thirty-Third Anniversary Sale

When the Perkins-Timberlake stores throw open their doors on the morning of May 16, it will be to the mammoth crowds that will attend the big 33rd Anniversary Sale, commemorating the opening of the first store in Decatur, Texas, May 19, 1897. This big sale continues for eight days and will close on the night of May 24.

A new department has been opened in all the Perkins-Timberlake stores, located at Bowie, Decatur, Wichita Falls, Vernon, Electra, Texas, and Frederick, Okla. This new department is the stocking and sale of Defiance Tires, which are especially made for sale by big department stores.

Through adoption of this new department the Perkins-Timberlake stores have become one of a large group of big department stores over the country that have stocked these tires for sale as a greater convenience to their patrons.

The big Anniversary Sale will serve to introduce this tire to the public. It is an ideal time to open this new department with the big event as more people will have an opportunity of inspecting the stock and learning of the wonderful value of this tire for their automobiles.

There is only one agency in each city for the Defiance tire and the Perkins-Timberlake stores have taken the agency in the cities where they are located. This tire is made by one of the largest rubber manufacturing concerns in the country, located at Akron, Ohio. This tire is made especially for big department stores and among the prominent ones handling them are Wanamaker's, Philadelphia; Marshall Field, Chicago; Gimbel's, New York; Crowley, Milner & Co., Detroit; and Sanger Brothers of Dallas.

Defiance tires are sold at the exact cost of production, plus transportation charges and a small profit. The company contemplates making its money off mass production and volume of sales, rather than a large profit off of few sales. For this reason they center their sales efforts on large department stores where they are sure of the money for the tires sold and where a large volume of business is assured.

The Defiance tire was brought out by the company at the request of department stores for a tire that they could vouch for to their customers. It is truly the department store's own tire. It has been developed especially to meet the requirements of the class of trade that patronizes department stores.

The Perkins-Timberlake company has no hesitation in placing their reputation back of this new tire. They have built up a wonderful reputation for reliable and dependant merchandisers in the years past and are staking this on the new tire, which bids fair to give strong competition to all other standard brands on the market. The tire not only carries the guarantee of the factory, but Perkins-Timberlake stands squarely behind that guarantee with one of their own. The guarantee is to the effect that the tire must give satisfaction and must be free from faulty construction or defective workmanship.

The Defiance tire, according to the Perkins-Timberlake management, has already proven so popular that it has brought thousands of repeat sales. The stores believe that they can create an enviable place for itself in tire selling, with this new brand of tire. This tire is, at the present time, being marketed in all the leading cities of the country.

Electra Store In Operation Sixteen Years

The Electra store was opened for business in 1914 and moved to the present location on Cleveland avenue in July 1923. This store has enjoyed a wonderful business and a steady growth since its opening.

The personnel is as follows: Milton Archer, manager; Miss Iva Bickley, head of piece goods department; Miss Beatrice Deleshaw, head of ready to wear department; T. L. Turner, head of men's wear department; Mrs. Bess Stewart, cashier and also other courteous salespeople, who add to the success of this store.

Electra is one of the pioneer oil centers in Texas, a thrifty city of approximately 7,000 population located on the Fort Worth and Denver railroad 28 miles north of Wichita Falls.

The Perkins-Timberlake Co.'s store in Electra has a frontage of 50 feet with modern display windows and the interior is equipped with modern fixtures making it one of the leading mercantile establishments in North Texas.

Slim Coats in Ensembles And Pink

Early birds in the realm of warm weather ensembles with moderately long coats appear to strike the same note of slimness that ensemble coats have done these many seasons. Shoulders are tailored, sleeves are fairly close fitting and only in the skirt portion is there evidence of a very slight flare if any. The unlined coat of silk or rayon is keyed to a dress of perhaps a different material, or another tone.

The two-fabric theme is carried out in the sports ensemble, the slender line three-quarter length coat made of a combination weave of synthetic yarn and silk flat crepe, while the simple knot trimmed one-piece frock is made of another synthetic weave without silk thread. In this dress is further evidence to bear out the fact that necklines for sports are cut a trifle higher than of yore.

Instead of silk in combination with synthetic yarns, wool is used for novelty ensemble fabrics in the two-material alliance, or at least the coat fabric is partly wool and the dress all synthetic or mixed with silk.

Rayon crepe in small prints is one of the spring prophecies for the two-piece suit, with the blouse of sheer ninon in a matching pattern.

A printed moire given permanent finish is a new fabric sponsored for sports frocks as well as evening gowns, many of the designs being large and widely spaced.

Dress Forecast Trims of Blue For Summer

So long has fashion been wedded to silks for summer that it is refreshing to see a few of the old cotton and linen favorites of the early part of the century returning in a very new guise. There is a distinct appeal to the quaint frocks of dotted Swiss, now made with abbreviated sleeves and a muchly beflounced skirt.

One of the latest models shown for resort wear is pictured, a white Swiss daintily dotted in blue, the sleeves and flounces edged with an embroidered finish and the latter shirred to a straight skirt. Borrowing other details of the past its designer uses a string belt of narrow black velvet ribbon with a bow of this at the square neck. Numerous of the current models are too intricate for the home seamstress to attempt, but this frock certainly is one any woman might easily fashion for herself, if she be of that inclination.

A new trend in sports dresses for wear on the tennis courts concedes to the sun-tan cult by omitting a shoulder section altogether and employing straps instead. The dress of pastel tinted silk crepe sketched is completed by a braided leather belt and is credited to Chanel.

Lace on Feminine Lingerie

Under the sponsorship of Parisian creators of lovely feminine underthings, lace has risen to great importance. Chanel features the lace trimmed slip for wear under sheer frocks, favoring a slip composed entirely of lace for a dress of organdie.

The slip correctly underlines the longer draped skirt. It is made usually in wrap-around style or with the flared skirt section and fitted bodice. Alencon lace in cream or coffee color finishes the top and the hemline which is cut straight or dipped in back according to the frock with which it is to be worn.

Another bit of lingerie that has returned to vogue is the envelope chemise with button tab. Being slipped on over the head the chemise is fitted trimly in the bodice section and flares downward from the waistline. Edgings and appliques of Alencon lace or val make these dainty garments very feminine.

Suzanne Talbot is responsible for such novelties as lace gloves to match lace evening gowns. The black lace mitt and gloves of silk mesh in pastel tints are a recent innovation in the metropolitan shops. The mitt does not terminate at the wrist, but extends far up the arm to a point at or above the elbow. It is chic only when worn with a piquant dress having quaint puff sleeves.

Suit Flowers

Some suits do not need a flower. Try wearing one or a little nutonniere at the V neckline of your blouse. It is a new trick and a cute one.

FASHION HINTS

Absinthe Hat

For summer charm, with a chiffon of lace afternoon dress, an absinthe green straw hat is semi-picture in size and has a rippled brim.

Green-Yellow-Black

A stunning country club suit has a black and green checkered skirt, a black belted coat, lined with yellow and a green and yellow blouse.

Foot Scraper

For spring weather, do not forget the lowly foot scraper. It saves the housekeeper the work of sweeping out the mud and gravel tracked in.

Double Flounce

Molyneaux makes a new evening wrap of white satin, with two circular ruffles giving a cape effect in the rear. It has a scarf collar that can be tied or left hanging loose.

Gelatine Salad

There is always a "company air" about a gelatine salad. Also there is no better way to utilize a few left-over peas, beans, carrots, bits of meat and a hard boiled egg or two.

Cleaning Wicker

An old silk stocking, with a big safety pin fastened through one end, makes a fine cleaner for those dirt-catching niches in wicker that the ordinary stiff brush does not touch. Run the stocking through the holes.

Emergency Shelf

Stock up your emergency shelf with canned fish, fowl, fruits and vegetables. For a creamed dish and a good salad suffice for a most enjoyable hurriedly prepared meal when guests arrive unannounced.

Sports Lingerie of Cotton

With cotton fabrics in dress much more fashionable than last year, cotton lingerie naturally falls heir to increased popularity, particularly when women are indulging in active sports.

Cotton undergarments of new designing cling closely to the body and actually are the coolest type of underthings to wear.

The two-piece suit consisting of shirt and shorts offers complete freedom of movement and thereby fits perfectly into the sports regime. It is an excellent garment to wear beneath the sports girdle.

The one-piece chemise or combination of cotton is a smooth fitting type to wear beneath cotton dresses of sports character.

Cotton balbriggan, combed cotton and cotton mesh are three favored fabrics in white or soft pastel shades.

Silk Coats

Black and navy blue faille and crepe coats are getting into the fashion parade. If you haven't rid your soul yet of the cape complex, treat yourself to a silk coat with a cape. Tone is superior for chic and jauntiness.
