Until electricity came along, all cooking was done substantially the same way this Eskimo is doing it — over a fire. Whether you make your fire with whale oil or wood... whether you build it outside or bring it in the house, a fire is still a fire. It makes heat and smoke.

Electricity makes heat, too... but no flame or smoke. The heat can be perfectly controlled and transferred directly to food in the cooking process, so there's no waste.

That's why electric cooking is cool... the heat cooks the food, not the cook. Because there's no waste heat, electric cooking is also fast, clean and economical.

In thousands of kitchens all over South Texas today, you'll find automatic electric ranges. Homemakers know electricity is the modern, easy way to cook. Ask your friends and neighbors who have electric ranges to tell you why they like to cook electrically.

Enjoy cool cooking this summer. See your appliance dealer for your electric range right away.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How Nervy Can a "Tenant" Get?

"Harry the Hermit" dropped in to see Judge Cunningham the other day and started complaining about that dilapidated house he lives in over near Greenwood Lake.

"Who's my landlord?" Harry wanted to know. "Whoever you pay rent to," says the Judge. "Don't pay any rent," says Harry. "Moved into that house twelve years ago and nobody ever came to collect."

"Well," says the Judge, looking mystified, "what do you have to complain about?" "Plenty," replies Harry. "Rain's pouring in my living room and if someone doesn't fix that roof, I'm moving out!"

Now Harry was only having a little joke, but from where I sit I've seen people act just about as nervy as this sometimes—seriously. Like those who enjoy all the rights Americans have worked for, and yet would take away some of those freedoms from others—for example, our right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer. I say these "leaks of intolerance" have no place in the "home of liberty."

MISS POLLY ISAACKS BECOMES BRIDE OF JAMES C. BRACHT IN TWILIGHT CEREMONY

At a twilight ceremony, Sunday, June 29, at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Miss Dorothy Jean Isaacks of Gregory became the bride of James Campbell Bracht. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Virgil Isaacks of Gregory, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allyn Bracht. The Rev. Fr. Paul Swarton officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The wedding music was played by Miss Mabel Bracht, who also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Philip Wilson of Houston.

Arrangements of white Majestic daisies and jade fern were on either side of the altar, flanking candelabra holding white tapers. Floor baskets of white gladioli, daisies and fern formed the chancel decorations. James Richard Fox and DeWilton Jeffries, Jr., served as altar boys.

The bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. Her ballerina length dress was of imported white Chantilly lace over slipper satin, fashioned with a molded strapless bodice tapering to deep points at the waist. The very bouffant skirt ended in scallops of the lace motif over a fluted ruffle of net. The lace bolero was edged in the natural scallops of the lace. The tiered illusion shoulder length veil was held in place by a bandeau of seed pearls. Her colonial bouquet was fashioned of white rosebuds, and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid and shower of white satin ribbon.

Mrs. John Nolan Harrel of Robstown, was matron of honor. Miss Nell Adams of Jewett and Miss Mary Jo Bracht, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of nylon tulle over net and taffeta. The strapless bodices were draped with folds of tulle over very bouffant, ballerina length skirts and they wore matching stoles. The matron of honor wore mint green; Miss Adams, aqua, and Miss Bracht, turquoise. Matching nose veils and white daisies fashioned their headdresses, and they carried colonial bouquets of Marguerite daisies.

Fred Allyn Bracht, Jr., was his brother's best man and the groomsmen were T. J. Johnson and John Cox. Jim Kautz and John Robert Barber were ushers, and James Marley Isaacks, brother of the bride, was junior usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Woman's Club building.

The tea table was laid in white organdy flounced to the floor and caught at intervals with fern and white satin ribbons. An arrangement of pink peonies with lemon foliage, centered the table. The three-tiered cake was decorated with pale pink rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Luther Ellison of Delmita and Miss Catherine Warnken of Poth served the cake and Mrs. Wesley Walberg of Corpus Christi and Mrs. Charles Watson of Harlingen poured punch. Mrs. Robert Ruble of Austin, furnished background music during the reception.

Other members of the house party included Miss Charlotte Cron of Rockport, Mrs. Forrest French, Taft; Mrs. Scott Dickerson, Bay City; Miss Bettye Walker, Corpus Christi, and Mrs. Bill Lively, Cotulla.

For a wedding trip to New Orleans, Mrs. Bracht wore a suit of navy blue tissue shantung with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage. After July 10, Mr. and Mrs. Bracht will be at home in Rockport.

Mrs. Bracht graduated from the Gregory High School and A&I College, where she was a member of Delta Theta sorority and Kappa Omicron Phi, honorary home economics societies. She has been a member of the Rockport High School faculty for the past two years.

Mr. Bracht attended Rockport High School and Schreiner Institute and served in the Navy during World War II.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Frank Oliver, Mrs. Tommie Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Francisco, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wilson, Mrs. Lewis Bailey, Miss Olia Blackshear, all of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. William Ricks, Mrs. Robert Ruble, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Tom O'Connor, Victoria; Edward Pat Mixon, Beeville; Miss Patsy Hayden, San Angelo; Mrs. Waddie Munson, Angleton; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ellison, Delmita; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Underwood, Refugio; Mr. and Mrs. Foorrest French, Taft; Mr. and Mrs. August Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. H.
