Col-Tex Seniors

AT ANNUAL DINNER

Six Col-Tex Employes Honored for Service

The gents who put the experience into Col-Tex Refining Company's operation had their applause Saturday night from those who count the most—their bosses.

Six of the real seniors at the refinery stepped forward to the head banquet table in the Baker Club's Garden Terrace Room for their plaudits and service awards. They represented 170 of man years on the job.

At the top of the list were 3 foremen—A. C. Benson, E.L. Tiller, R. C. Johnson — each with 35 years of continuous service at the refinery.

Willis Tilley received a 25-year award and 2 others — Carroll Walker and Julius Smith were recognized for 20 years of service.

Master of ceremonies for the banquet was Jack Y. Smith, personnel officer for Cosden Petroleum Corporation, parent firm of Col-Tex.

Sending his regrets for missing the annual dinner the first time since Cosden purchased Col-Tex was R. L. Tollett, Cosden president, who was hospitalized with pneumonia.

George Grimes, who heads the refining division for Cosden, cited Walker, crude stillman, and Smith, maintenance department employe, for their 20 years of service.

Then, Grimes presented awards to the 35-year veterans — Benson, refinery day foreman; Tiller, refinery night foreman, and Johnson, loading and blending foreman.

Tilley, boiler fireman, received his 25-year award from Charles F. Wakefield, refinery superintendent, who has 48 years of refinery service to his credit.

Smith, who announced that Cosden's annual cash Christmas gifts to all Col-Tex employes were to be distributed this week, also revealed plans for a big open house party and dance at the new expanded Col-Tex Employes Club at Lake Colorado City. Committee has been appointed for the event, which will be scheduled just as soon as the club house is completed.

Quarter Century Award

Willis R. Tilley, seated, receives congratulations from Col-Tex Refining Company superintendent Charles F. Wakefield after receiving recognition at a Col-Tex dinner for 25 years of continuous service with the company.

FOR CHRISTMAS CHEER

300 Baskets, But More Are Needed

Clubs, students, firemen, churches, working groups and individuals are joining hands in an attempt to provide Christmas cheer baskets for needy families.

But the task is almost staggering, for the list of needy families is the largest in years.

More than 300 baskets already are assured for the cheer project.

However, more are needed. And any person or organization desiring to donate food, clothing or bedding should deliver the contribution to the basket "clearing house" in the pastor's study at First Christian Church or Phone RA 8-2566.

These contributions are needed immediately so the gifts can be distributed before Christmas, according to Mrs. Mary Lee Moore, who is serving as coordinator for the "clearing house" sponsored by Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance.

At least 300 baskets for needy families have been provided by individuals, study clubs, Jaycees, firemen, Col-Tex Refinery workers, Lions, Kiwanis and churches. Need is so acute that approximately 60 of these baskets already have been delivered, Mrs. Moore said.

The fact that more needy families this year face prospects of a hungry Christmas—unless cheer baskets are delivered to them—is backed up by reports from Dee Tonn, head of the State Welfare Department office here, and Mrs. Bonnie Burt, executive secretary of the Mitchell County Red Cross.

New bright spot in the Christmas cheer program are 174 toys and riding vehicles, plus more than 20 dolls which have been repaired by Colorado High's industrial arts classes and Junior High homemaking students. These 2 projects — sponsored by Junior Chamber of Commerce — were supervised in the schools by Charles Hogue, industrial arts teacher, and Mrs. Caddo Matthews, homemaking teacher.

Flees From Alamogordo Officers

New Mexico police Wednesday held an ex-convict wanted in Mitchell County for forgery and burglary, but they were hunting again for David W. Leach, the 34-year-old Colorado City ex-convict and escape artist.

Leach and a man identified as Joe Davis Martin, former convict at Texas Prison in Huntsville, were arrested in Alamogordo, N. M., Monday after their car broke down between Alamogordo and Artesia.

But the Colorado City man, twice an inmate in the state prison, slipped out of the New Mexico State Police headquarters in Alamogordo—his fifth escape in recent years.

His escape came Monday night as police were questioning Leach and his companion, Martin, in the police station.

Officers turned their attention to Martin for a few minutes. And when they thought of Leach again . . . he had eased out of the room and to freedom.

New Mexico authorities immediately signalled an extensive search for the fleeing suspect throughout New Mexico and West Texas.

Leach walked out of the Abilene sheriff's office last Sept. 23 while held on a simple assault charge of beating his ex-wife. He had not been in custody since then until his arrest in New Mexico Monday.

Martin and Leach were apprehended in New Mexico as suspects in a $200 Artesia burglary. A check writing instrument and blank checks were taken in the break-in.

A felony charge of forgery was filed here in Colorado City against Martin, alleging that he forged a $48.50 check at Matlock Butane Service Dec. 10.

Officers here also want Martin for investigation concerning at least 2 burglaries of cabins at Lake Colorado City reported early this month.

And that means local officers also would like to talk to Leach in the same investigation especially since he has been with Martin in New Mexico.

Leach, who walked away from Abilene officers in September and repeated the trick this week in New Mexico, returned from the state pen only in mid-September.

He had fled Colorado City's 32nd District Courtroom last February to lead police on a chase of several days and nights. In 1954 he sawed out of Big Spring jail and in 1952 escaped from Mitchell County jail.

Leach returned to Colorado City first after being released last September from prison. He's been on the run ever since the Abilene escape.

FOR WESTBROOK

Cantata Presented By Church Group

A Christmas cantata was presented Sunday evening in Westbrook Baptist Church.

The presentation was by the young people of the church and the choir was directed by Rev. Kenneth Andress, pastor.

Opening the program were the choir's "O Come All Ye Faithful" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem," which featured a vocal solo by Mike Ogleby.

Vicki Jarratt read the Christmas story from Bible scriptures with background accompaniment by the choir. Choruses by the choir featured Donna Bryant, Ethel Buchanan, Darlene Lankford and Janella Williamson.

TB Association Wins Light-a-Window Prize

First place in Colorado City's annual Light-a-Window contest goes to Mitchell County Tuberculosis Association.

With the No. 1 award goes $50 in cash, too.

Winners in the contest were announced Wednesday by Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the event for the 1960 Christmas season.

Wallace High Chapter of New Homemakers of America is the second place winner. And third is Zetagathian Study Club.

The Wallace students earn $32.50 prize money and the Zetagathian win $17.50.

Judges named 2 other organizations for honorable mention — The Debs, a group of teenagers, and Maranatha Study Club.

Theme for the contest was "Christ Through the Ages."

The TB Association's top winning window, located in the Max Berman Dept. Store, features a quotation concerning Christ's help for others.

An open Bible in the center of the window, a picture of Christ and the words — "His Hand has been extended to man down through the ages" — dominate the TB window. Miniature caroling figures, hands clasp in prayer and heralding angels add to the theme.

Second place decoration by Wallace students is located in the C-C Printing Company window, 100 block Walnut, and the Zetagathians' third-place entry is at the southeast corner of E. Second and Walnut (the former Landau location).

A large painting of Christ dominates a world globe in the Wallace window. Streamers extend from the painting to the globe and 3 open Bibles.

Location of the honorable mention windows are The Debs, in Baker Hotel's south side, and Maranatha Club, in the Craddock - Witten Insurance building, 200 block Walnut.

Tourney Title To Wallace Second Time

Those Wallace Wildcats, seeking their second Cleburne tournament championship in two years, accomplished the feat Saturday night by walloping Alvarado 90-46.

Wallace beat Fort Worth Lake Como High earlier to play Alvarado in the finals.

Alvarado previously beat Cleburne, 38-28, and Grand Prairie 56-48 to enter into the finals.

In the final game between Alvarado and Colorado City, they played on even basis the first two minutes of the game. Alvarado even took a 6-4 lead. Then Wallace tied it up, took the lead, and was well in command by the time the quarter ended, 19-6. The half - time score was 43-23 in Wallace's favor.

The starting and finishing Wildcats and their scoring sums were: C. Scott 31, A. Biggers 21, T. Jones 15, H. Burton 14, and D. Miles 9.

Coaches Harris and Smith thought this was the best game the Wildcats played this year as they worked the ball with machine-like precision.

There were three Alvaradoes who hit in double figures. They were J. Mathis 12, Bowser 12, and Winkfield 11.

Wallace beat Munday here Friday night 72-39. The Wallace girls and B team lost 23-52 and 20-27 respectively.

The Wildcats journeyed to Brady Tuesday and will play Sweetwater there Thursday night.

B-TEAM WINS, TOO

Wolves Speed by Post, 58 to 46

By JERRY McKAY,
Record Staff Writer.

Colorado City's hustling Wolves beat Post by a score of 58-46 here Tuesday night.

Clinton (Buddy) Compton and Steve Hillhouse took over early in the first quarter to score 8 and 4 points respectively. The score at the end of this period stood 16-6.

After 6 quick Wolf points, Coach Caddo Matthews sent in his second team who held Post to 10 points in that quarter. Halftime found Post trailing by a score of 27-16.

The Antelopes rallied in the third quarter to come within 3 points of the Wolves. Compton, Hillhouse, and Ronald Lyon beat off this attack and pulled the Wolves out front 47-26 at the quarter's end.

Once again Matthews called on his reserves who fought to add 1 point to the lead. Ollie Newell and Alex Campbell were responsible for 6 of the points scored in the final quarter. When the buzzer sounded, the Wolves emerged victorious by a score of 58-46.

Compton was top scorer for the game with 19. Steve Hillhouse had 14 for C-City.

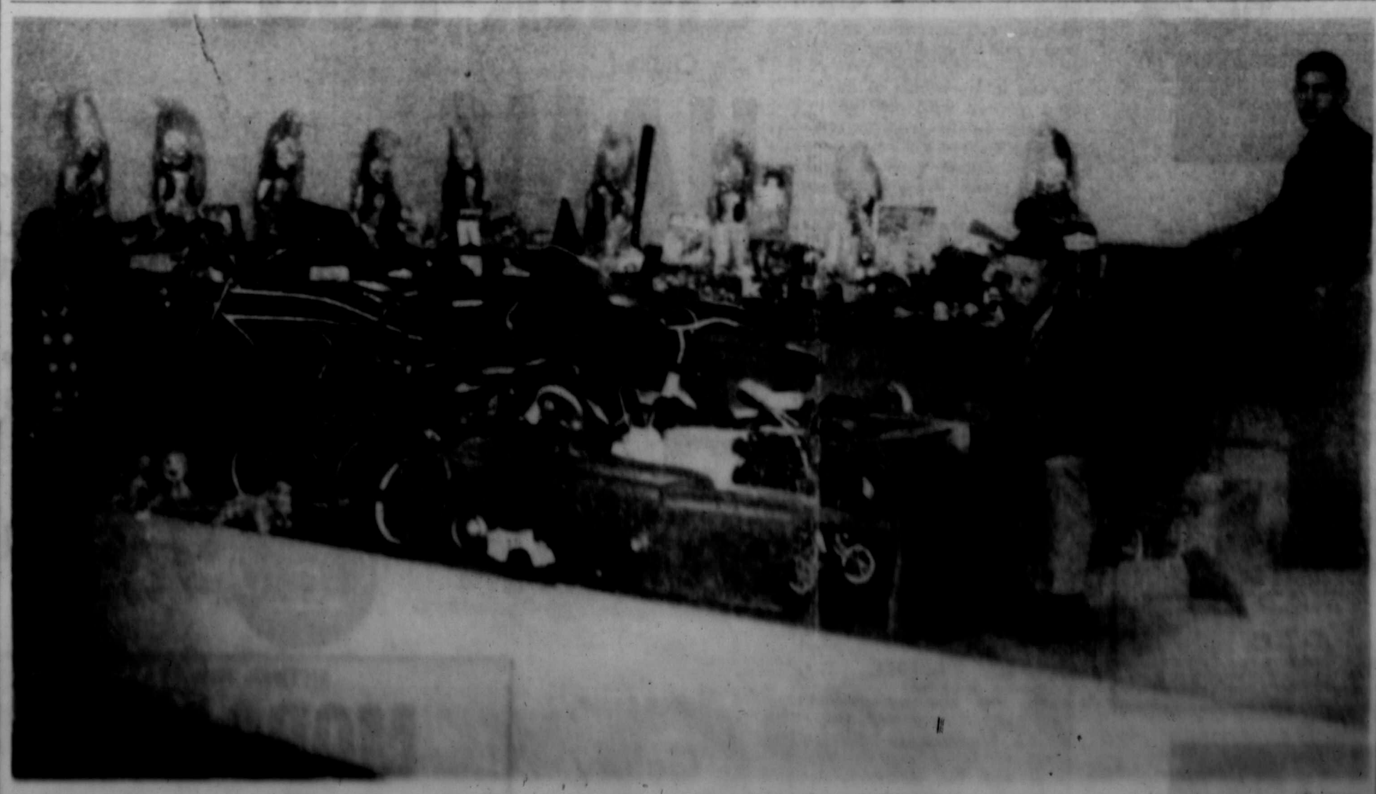

Leslie Acker and Bob Beard had 10 for the Antelopes.

Charles Houston led the B Wolves past Post 33-26. The B's were only one point ahead at the half 18-17.

The strong second half effort brought 15 more points and victory. Houston had 15 points for the Wolves and Irvin had 13 for Post.

Students' Toy Cheer For Needy Children

Brrr! 14 Freezing Days This Month

You may not have noticed, but this chilly weather has been no short period for Colorado City.

A check Wednesday revealed that 14 out of the last 15 days have had minimum temperature below freezing.

Infact, Tuesday was the first time since Dec. 3 that the thermometers here have not dipped below 32 degrees. And Tuesday the low temp was just above freezing at 34 degrees.

The extended sub-freezing weather began Dec. 6 with a low of 30 degrees. Dec. 7 was a repeat 30 degrees, followed by 31 low Dec. 8 and 9. Down to 26 on Dec. 10 and 28 that night on Dec. 11, the temperature then hit 30 degrees Dec. 12, lower to 28 degrees Dec. 13.

There were 2 days of 31 degree lows Dec. 14 and Dec. 15—and then a 22 low Dec. 16. Last Saturday, Dec. 17, the temperature warmed up to 28 degrees, leveled off at 27 for Dec. 18 and 19 before moving to 34 Tuesday.

Highest of the daily temperature minimums this month was Dec. 4 with a 48-degree reading. The month opened with 33 degree low, moved to 38 on Dec. 2 and 43 on Dec. 3.

December was preceded with [illegible] straight sub-freezing days, [illegible] Dec. 14, the temperatures Nov. 29 and Nov. 30.

IN CHURCH CEREMONY

Miss Jackie Coffee Becomes The Bride of James Hickman

Miss Jackie Ruth Coffee of Loraine became the bride of James F. Hickman of Alice Sunday at 3:00 p. m. in the Loraine Lightfoot St. Church of Christ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coffee of Loraine and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hickman of Alice.

Dr. Max Leach of Abilene Christian College performed the double ring ceremony before an archway and pulpit flanked by candleabras and a large sunburst of white mums and gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an origin chapel-length gown of diamond white pure silk taffeta. The deep neckline enhanced with a wide band of re-embroidered lace was edged in scallops which stood away at the shoulder line. The long molded sleeves tapered to petal points over her hands. Her princess line skirt flared from her waist in pleats at either side over layers of net and taffeta and formed into a sweeping train.

Her fingertip veil of imported pure silk illusion fell in tiers from a crown of pearlized flowers and dainty tulle leaves. She carried a white Bible atop a spray of garlenias and stephanotis.

The bride wore pearls which were a gift from the groom.

The bride's gown and veil were worn by Mrs. Doyle Clark and Mrs. Scott Johnson in their weddings. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Long of McKinney.

Nuptial music was presented by Marty Hooper of Colorado City and Nora Boyd of Lubbock.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Scott Johnson of McKinney. She wore a dress of American beauty peau-de-soul with a fitted bodice, full skirt and long sleeves. She carried a white fur muff accented with an American beauty corsage.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Marion Zetzman of Abilene and Miss Melba Thompson of San Angelo. Their attire was identical to tha tof the matron of honor.

Candlelighters were Nancy Coffee, sister of the bride, and Diana McCollum of Midland, cousin of the bride.

Serving the groom as best man was Robbie Fleet of Gilmer. Groomsmen were Jerry Miller of Merket and Duane Purcell of Coleman. Marty Hooper and Herman Phillips from Eldorado were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents hosted a reception in their home.

The traditional wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered a table covered with imported cloth. Table appointments were in crystal and silver. A bouquet of American beauty roses in a silver container accented the serving etable.

For a honeymoon trip to San Antonio, the bride wore a white 3-piece knit suit with brown accessories and a mink hat.

The couple will be at home at Hillcrest Apartments in Abilene where she is a sophomore and he is a senior student at Abilene Christian College. The bride is a 1959 graduate of Loraine High School and the groom is a 1957 graduate of Alice High School.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. L. K. Long, McKinney; Miss Pat Taylor of Alice; and Miss Linda Wilks of Lubbock.

Also, Mrs. Rex McDaniel, Miss Golda Cary, Miss Virginia Templeton, Mrs. Glen Coon, Miss Peggy Williams, Mrs. Bob Looney, Mrs. Joe Terry, Mrs. Ira Coffee, Mrs. Floyd Coffee, Mrs. Woodrow Pratt, Mrs. H. E. Thomas, Susan Terry and Mrs. C. R. Green, all from Loraine.

MRS. JAMES F. HICKMAN, . . . nee Jackie Ruth Coffee.

Penney Staff Honored with Annual Party

J. C. Penney Company employees and their families were honored with a Christmas party at the Col-Tex Club Friday night.

Games of 42 and bingo were played and gifts were exchanged.

Attending were the following employees and guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ridley, Janie, Jimmy and Robyn; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gainey, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Free and Mr. and Mrs. David Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck May, Cheryl and Cary, Mrs. Erdine Morgan, Mrs. Roxie Witten, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Hill, Don, Jerry and Elaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. D W. Kennemur and Danny, Rev. and Mrs. James W. Carraway and Paula, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Kelley and Don Free.

Also Dorothy Owens, Mickey Redwine and Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Robinson.

Dr. Logan Clendening (1924) said:

"SURGERY SEPARATES THE PATIENT FROM THE DISEASE"

Formerly, surgery was more complicated. We did not have the anti-biotics that eliminate infection. Local and systemic anesthesia now prevent pain. New "miracle" drugs quickly restore lost energy.

A modern surgical operation is almost like a vacation. Sickness time has been lessened. If your physician prescribes surgery, follow his advice fearlessly.

Civic House Setting for Annual Party

Civic House was the setting for the annual Lone Wolf Electric Co-operative Christmas party for the board of directors and the employees and their families, Dec. 15.

The meal was served to a group of approximately 65 people. Entertainment consisted of songs by Dolores Smith and her sister, Mrs. Coleen Palmer.

Manager Raymond Perdue reported that ice storm damage which consisted of approximately 70 poles supporting 3 phase distribution line was, for the most part, repaired. Perdue concluded his remarks by expressing appreciation to the co-operative members, board of directors and employees for a successful 1960.

Board President, W. H. Cooper, then spoke briefly concerning the co-operative attitudes and dedicated services that employees had exhibited throughout 1960.

"I know of no other workgroup which did a more efficient job, more economically with such a true co-operative spirit, and with so few employees as does Lone Wolf Electric Co-operative, Cooper said.

The party officially ended with a visit from Santa Claus, who presented various toy gifts to all the children present.

Department Meets for Banquet

Junior II Sunday School Department of the First Baptist Church met for a Christmas banquet Friday night.

Theme for the program was "The Angelic Host." Decorations of red and white angels, stars and candles carried out the theme. Programs were designed in the shape of angels and covered with gold glitter.

Those on the program were Brooks Teague, master of ceremonies; Linda Preston, Joan Wallace and the speaker for the evening, Danny Yeary. Yeary is a student at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene and president of the student council.

All the teachers and workers of the department were present with their husbands or wives.

Those attending were Mr and Mrs. Wayne Shawn, Mr and Mrs. Teague, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, Dick Burdick, Mrs. Earline Sellier and department sweetheart, Mrs. Mary Lynch.

Mrs. Wynn Talley's class was in charge of decorations and programs were made and planned by Mrs. Teague's class.

Holiday Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Berman and sons, Layne and Ricky, of Ft. Worth were here last weekend for a pre-Christmas visit with Mr. Berman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Berman. Joining Mr. and Mrs. Philip Berman for the holidays will be another son, Melvyn, of Rice Institute in Houston.

Mrs. Noble Presents "The Spirit of Christmas"

"The Spirit of Christmas" was the title of the program presented by Mrs. Ray Noble at the meeting of the Zetagathian Club Dec. 15 at the home of Mrs. Jay Craddock.

"Thanksgiving has just passed and we are in the midst of the Christmas season. We have all been experiencing some emotion these past few weeks and your own spirit of Christmas possibly depends on your prior preparations, your attitude toward the season as a whole and the demands being made upo your time, energy and bil fold," Mrs. Noble stated.

"Spirit of Christmas"—wha is it? We know and love th Bible story of Jesus' birt and that is what we are cele brating. But how near or hov far removed is this year' 1960 celebration from the firs celebration recorded so beaut fully in Luke and so histor cally in Matthew. Possibl nearer than we think," sh continued.

"Thanksgiving is the fe tival of receiving or of grat tude for what we have recei ed; Christmas is the festiv of giving," Mrs. Noble said

"Whatever your imperfec tions, Mrs. Noble said in con clusion, "the epitomy of all re ligion and the observance c Christmas — the true spir of Christmas, becomes thu your attempt to create an re-affirm a trustworthy worl around the next generation This is your holy day com municating its spirit to H holiday. Yes, we still have th Herods, the unaware keepe of the inn and the sleepin populace, but we still hav also the Christ Child, the per sonality of love, trust, fait and eternal life filled with hope."

Mrs. W. S. Rhode opene the meeting with prayer.

Elected a new member o the club was Mrs. Bob Shur der.

Each member brought a basket to the needy and a white gift for a Christma basket were exchanged b members of the club.

Refreshments were served from a table accented with Christmas decorations. Candles interspersed with silver-sprayed pine branches, red Christmas balls and white carnations stressed the holiday theme.

Mrs. Martin Weaver poured coffee from a silver coffee service.

Attending were the following members:

Mrs. John Brand, Mrs. L. S. Girvin Jr., Mrs. Curtis Latimer and Mrs. Henry L. Lewis.

FOR MISS WINDHAM

Wedding Date Set

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Windham announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Martha Sue, to Jay R. Allen.

Prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe P. Allen of Seminole.

Date for the wedding has been set for Dec. 29 at 8:30 p. m. at the Oak Street Baptist Church.

Miss Windham and Allen are 1960 graduates of Colorado High School and both are employed in Midland.

NINETY-FIVE ATTEND

Homemaking Girls Host Open House

Ninety-five parents, students, faculty and friends were present Sunday, Dec. 11, at the open house of the Colorado High homemaking department.

The department was decorated in the Christmas theme by the homemaking girls. Decorations accented the study room tables, dining room and kitchen tables and the front door entrance.

The door was covered with red foil paper and a white angel with angel hair attached to the paper.

A snowman made of popcorn centered by cedar was placed on one table. The other two tables were accented with a Christmas wreath made of assorted nuts and silver candies surrounded by sprayed cedar.

The coffee table in the dining room was covered with angel hair accented with a large Bible and a white cross in the center. The serving tables were covered with red net over white satin cloth.

The ledge in the study room was accented with a church surrounded by cedar and Christmas lights. The study room tables were decorated with a silver log and a Christmas tree made from red balls and an umbrella base.

Refreshments consisted of Christmas cookies made by the homemaking girls, punch and coffee.

Included in the houseparty were Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. W. W. Holman, Mrs. Earline Sellier and J. S. Craddock Jr.

Welcoming guests were Ann Sellier, Sue Holman and Mari were Cecilia Lee and Carol Ellis. Mary Frances Mitchell and Orinea Feaster presided at the punch table.

MISS MARTHA SUE WINDHAM, . . . to wed Dec. 29

Cantata Presented By Group

Young people of the First Baptist Church will present a Christmas Cantata Sunday night, Dec. 18, at the church.

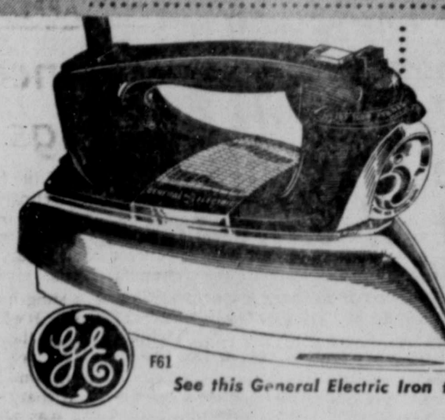

The church voted to have an early Christmas service on Christmas Day, with services at 9:00 a. m. and closing at 11:00 a. m.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. P. K. Mackey Host 1921 Study Club Meeting

Mrs. P. K. Mackey hosted a Christmas party for the 1921 Study Club Friday. Other hostesses for the occassion were Mrs. W. C. Hooks, Mrs. J. T. Pritchett and Mrs. R.P. Price.

A Christmas card and a letter from a club member, Mrs. W. R. Martin, was read by the corresponding secretary.

All club members made a contribution for the club projects. Roll call was answered with, "my favorite hymn."

"Flowers of the Madonna" was presented by Mrs. Ed Jones.

"Flowers associated with Mary, the Mother of Jesus, are deeply interwined with ancient lore that can be traced to ages antedating the Christmas era. In heathen mythology almost every common plant was the emblem of a god; every tree was the abode of a nymph," Mrs. Jones began.

"When Christianity spread from land to land and nation to nation, its early missionaries soon discovered that it was far easier not to attempt to eliminate entirely all the customs and rites of the pagan religions which they were attempting to supplant, but rather to take over and adopt such of these as were not incompatible with their own faith. This happened many times with flowers and with plants," Mrs. Jones stated.

Figures of the Madonna are popular in present-day flower arrangements. Cyclamen blossoms have been used most effectively in such arrangements; white tropical plants such as the aspidistra, Floria holly, magnolia leaves, small pine cones, gilded walnuts and pecans have proved themselves beautiful to look at and easy to manage. Just as the figure of the Madonna brings to mind the purity of the one it represents, so the use of nature's choicest blossoms registers anew the love and devotion the flower gardener has for the Saviour whom the Holy Mother bore us," the speaker concluded.

"Christmas Legends" was presented by Mrs. Sam L. Majors.

"All the old stories of Christ's birth are a part of us today — the shepherds keeping watch over their flocks by night, the singing of the angels, the bright, new star that guided the Wise Men to the Child's home. Such is the magic, such is the divine gift of life to us all. If, for one moment, we feel that hush and solemnity that pervaded all nature when Christ was born, in the miracle of God's grace, Christ is born again," Mrs. Majors said.

Mrs. Majors told of Christmas legends which had been told down through the years and repeated through the ages.

Mrs. Betty Garrett sang "Star of the East" and "Holy Night."

The program concluded with the group singing," I Wish You A Merry Christmas."

Gifts were exchanged and refreshments of pecan pie, whipped cream and coffee were served. Favors of Christmas corsages were on each plate.

Those attending were Mrs. Pete Ainsworth, Mrs. W. L. Doss, Mrs. E. L. Dorn, Mrs. Hooks and Mrs. Pritchett.

Mrs. M. J. Dawson, Mrs. Majors, Mrs. Price, Mrs. J. S. Craddock and Mrs. V. R. Trulock.

Also Mrs. C. L. Root, Mrs. W. W. Rhode, Mrs. A. O. Hickman, Mrs. Lee Lavendera and Mrs. Mackey.

The next club meeting will be conducted in the home of Mrs. Ainsworth.

Paint Nativity Scene

Recent Visitors

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Merket were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Echols of Ira, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Vernon from Hermleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Murphy of Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Merket and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pylant and Gerald, all of Colorado City.

Kenn Eastin Entertains at Bank Party

Kenn Eastin of Midland, formerly of Colorado City, entertained the City National Bank employees when they were honored with a Christmas dinner Saturday night at Civic House.

Several participation games were played then Magic Show. Gifts were exchanged.

Those attending the dinner were as follows

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Gus D. Chesney, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Trevlyn Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. Don Delaney.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shawn, Mr. and Mrs. Bim Carlock, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fortenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Gwan C. Strange, Mr. and Mrs. Hulen Bagwell, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Majors and Mr. and Mrs. Don Flippin.

Mrs. Sue Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Law, Mr. and Mrs. James Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Bradley, Miss Frances Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rhea and Mrs. Avalene Hallmark.

Also, Mrs. P. K. Mackey, Mrs. Lillie Eckleberry, Mr. and Mrs. William Marchel, Mr. and Mrs. Lois Briley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenn Eastin and

GUEST APPEARANCE

Concert Choir Sings at Meeting

Highlight of the Senior Citizen's Club meeting last Thursday night was guest appearance of the Colorado High concert choir under the direction of Curtis.

Numbers sung by the choir were "Come Holy Spirit", "Christmas is the Day" and "Alleluia". A special number, "Pray Ye to Him", composed by Porter Richardson of Colorado City, was also presented by the choir.

A trio composed of Anette Freeman, Jean Findley and Carol Ellis sang "As lately We Watched."

Closing number was "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Mrs. Leola Crabtree spoke the opening prayer.

Burt Smith was spokesman for the club members in presenting a gift to the president, Mrs. C. W. Bloodworth, in appreciation for her effort and time devoted to the club.

Mrs. Nona Letcher was appointed secretary for the club and Mrs. Stella Mize will serve as new assistant secretary.

Games of 42 and canasta were played by members and visitors.

Attending were Mrs. Emma Blackard, Mrs. Ivy Key, Mrs. Crabtree, Mrs. Bertie Aldrige.

Mrs. Lula Elliot, Mrs. Carmen Schafer, Mrs. A. C. Johnson, Burt Smith, Garvin Rose and Mrs. Grace Thomas.

Mrs. Bessie Summer, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bloodworth, W. M. Turner, Mrs. Nona Letcher and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bishop.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Blane Morgan, Mrs. A. T. Barker, Mrs. Nora Jones, Mrs. Jewell Goodrich and two guests, Mrs. Glen Egglestone and Loyd Pheling.

Gifts were exchanged by all members before refreshments were served. Host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Blane Morgan.

The gift table was centered with a white Christmas tree, which was furnished by Mrs. Clara Mae Jones, who was unable to attend the meeting because of her recent illness.

Next meeting has been scheduled for Jan. 5.

Funeral Rites Conducted for Mrs. Henkel

Funeral rites for Mrs. Armanda Emma Henkel were conducted Wednesday afternoon in Angleton. Mrs. Henkel died Monday afternoon. Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery Thursday at 3:00 p. m. beside the grave of her husband, Bill Henkel, who died in 1932.

Mrs. Henkel was a former resident of the Buford community, having lived there about 27 years. She moved away in 1936 and had lived in Houston and Agleton since that time.

Mrs. Henkel is survived by one son, Adrian (Buster) Henkel, and one daughter, Mrs. Cleo Amos, both of Houston.

Air" by the choir, Rev. Andress related the history of Christmas.

Judy Ranne was presented in a solo, "O Holy Night," and the choir — with the sextet of Mike Oglesby, Laveral Sullivan, Elmer McMahan, Richard Clemmer, Ray Conaway and Tommy Bryant in featured roles — sang "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."

Concluding the cantata were "Away in a Manger," by Sue Bell; "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day," "Angels We Have Heard on High" and "Joy to the World" — all by the choir with Laveral Sullivan and the sextet in leading roles; "Silent Night," with the audience joining in the singing.

Benediction was by Mrs. Hoyt Roberts.

C-City High Runner-up

Colorado City's Wolves ended up second place winners in the Winters invitational basketball tournament and placed Buddy Compton and Steve Hillhouse on the all-tournament team.

In the final game, the Wolves lost to Jim Ned 62-46.

Jim Ned had a hot first quarter. Colorado City was held to 9 points while 21 were scored against them.

At the half, the score was 31-17 in favor of Jim Ned. Buddy Compton and Steve Hillhouse scored all but 2 of C-City's first half points.

Wolves came to life after the half with Compton leading the way. The third quarter found the Wolves making 17 points, while they held their opponents to 10.
