FIGHT FANS CROWD N. Y. HOTELS

SMALLEST CROP OF COTTON IN A 25 YEAR PERIOD

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Cotton production this year promises to be the smallest crop of the last quarter of a century, today's forecase by the department of agriculture, placing it at 8,433,000 bales, or nearly five million bales smaller than last year's crop and nearly eight million bales below the record crop of 1914. This year's average is 28.4 per cent smaller than last year's.

The preliminary estimate of acreage and the condition on June 25 by states follows: Virginia—Acreage 28,000 condition 70; North Carolina, 1,186,000 and 67; South Carolina, 2,189,000 and 65; Georgia, 3,600,000 and 64; Florida, 82,000 and 70; Alabama, 2,029,000 and 59; Mississippi, 2,325,000 and 67; Louisiana, 1,011,000 and 64; Texas, 9,199,000 and 72; Arkansas, 2,138,000 and 78; Tennessee, 609,000 and 84; Missouri, 93,000 and 80; Oklahoma, 1,853,000 and 75; California, 131,000 and 77; Arizona, 89,000 and 88; New Mexico, 15,000 and 87. Lower California's area, about 59,000 acres, is included in the California figures, but excluded from the United States total.

The acreage this year is the smallest since 1900, and never before, the department of agriculture said, has there been so great a change from one year to another in acreage as there has been from last year to this year.

The condition of the growing crop has not in 20 years been so low on June 25 as it was this year. All sections of the cotton belt have been affected. It is due, according to government experts, to an adversely late, wet spring, and to the presence of boll weevil in large numbers.

Owing to the unfavorable conditions of April and May, and to other discouraging factors, shortage of fertilizer and unsatisfactory price, abandonment of planted cotton acreage has been greater than usual east of the Mississippi river, ranging from 5 per cent in North Carolina and Mississippi to as high as 10 per cent in Georgia. West of the Mississippi abandonment has been slight.

The condition of the crop on May 25, this year, was 66 per cent of normal. The production last year was 13,365,754 equivalent 500-pound bales, the revision area in cultivation a year ago was 37,043,000 acres and the condition of the crop June 25, last year, was 70.7 per cent of normal.

In 1919 the crop was 11,420,763 equivalent 500-pound bales.

TEXAS COTTON TERRITORY IS INFESTED WITH BOLL WEEVIL

DALLAS, July 1.—Two-thirds of the cotton producing counties of Texas are infested with the boll weevil and the situation is serious in some sections, according to a statement today by the Texas farm bureau federation. The crop is reported ten days to two weeks late and needs dry hot weather badly. The condition is given as 72 per cent of normal, the report showing an acreage reduction of 31 per cent. Condition of feed and food crops is very good, the statement says.

FIRST TRAIN REACHES YOUNG COUNTY OIL TOWN AHEAD OF TIME.

THOUSANDS ASSEMBLED TO GREET EXCURSIONISTS

Parade Headed by Band And School Children Followed by Speech-Making.

(With the South Bend Excursionists.)

SOUTH BEND, YOUNG COUNTY, Texas, July 1.—South Bend's first passenger train arrived over the Wichita Falls and Southern at 12:40 this afternoon, a few minutes ahead of scheduled time, but the early arrival did not catch the people of this town unawares and they gave the excursionists from Wichita Falls and other points a rousing welcome.

Thousands of people from the southern part of Young county and from Stephens county and adjoining districts were on hands to give a demonstration to the first passenger train over the Wichita Falls and Southern into this place and to welcome the people it brought.

The train carried about 75 people from Wichita Falls and several hundred from intervening points, including a party from Fort Worth and a party from Dallas.

An air plane escorted the train from Graham to South Bend, a distance of ten miles.

The excursionists were met with a band which headed a parade of school children and several thousand people.

After lunch a short program was carried out. C. A. Bennett of the west Texas chamber of commerce, presided at the meeting. Judge W. B. Witcher, president of the South Bend chamber of commerce, delivered the address of welcome, to which response was made by B. J. Bean of Wichita Falls.

Judge Witcher called attention to the fact that the Wichita Falls and Southern was the only railroad under construction today in the United States and paid a tribute to the business men of Wichita Falls and those who had built the road.

Mr. Bean declared that South Bend was the cleanest new oil town he had ever seen and complimented the people of the town upon their civic spirit.

R. H. Graham, mayor of Graham, spoke, as did several others, including speakers from Fort Worth and Dallas.

The return to Wichita Falls will be started at 6 p. m.

PRESIDENT CALLS TO ORDER SECOND MEETING ON BUDGET

WASHINGTON, July 1.—President Harding called to order today a second meeting of government officials on the budget. After a brief address he left the meeting and visited with Secretary Mellon in the latter's office before returning to the White House to preside over the regular cabinet meeting.

Today's budget session was behind closed doors.

Col. William Proctor of Cincinnati, former chairman of the Wood national committee, filed a suit in Chicago asking for a decree to compel 11 other members of the organization to reimburse him their share of the $813,200 he paid out, which, he said, amounts to $745,473.

DEFENSE TESTIMONY IS BEING INTRODUCED IN THE GAINES CASE

DALLAS, July 1.—Introduction of defense testimony started at the opening of criminal district court today in the trial of Charles E. Gaines, alias George Wheeler, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of George W. Street, postal clerk, last January.

The state rested last night after nearly a score of witnesses had testified. Two of these, W. S. Scrivner, and Leon Kinsel, postoffice clerk, identified Gaines as a member of the band which robbed the Jackson street postoffice sub-station January 14. Street was shot during the progress of the robbery. Scrivner is a confessed member of the robber band. Kinsell was an eye witness to the robbery and testified that Gaines fired a number of shots in a fusillade that accompanied the holdup which netted the bandits a few thousand dollars in currency and more than $2,000,000 in canceled government bonds.

The defense rested shortly before noon and Judge Pippen retired to prepare his charge to the jury. It was expected the case would go to the jury this afternoon.

Gaines was not placed on the stand. In charging the jury this afternoon Judge Pippen said Gaines' failure to testify is not to be held against him.

TRIPARTITE PLAN IS GIVEN PROMINENCE BY LONDON NEWSPAPERS

LONDON, July 1.—Reports that the imperial conference is considering a tripartite agreement between the United States, Great Britain and Japan relative to the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, are given prominence by the Morning Post and other newspapers of this city. By such an agreement, it is declared, a virtual triple entente for the Pacific would be established and the operation of the Anglo-Japanese treaty would be confined to the Pacific.

Discussions between representatives of three nations, as well as those of the British dominions, are foreshadowed.

HAVANA, July 1.—Police of this city are searching for N. D. Patterson, whose home is believed to be New Orleans, who has been missing a week. MILLION AND HALF RAILWAY EMPLOYES WORK AT NEW RATE

AT THE SAME TIME 1,000 OF THE LEADERS CONFER AT CHICAGO.

MAY ABIDE BY DECISION WITH A FORMAL PROTEST

Conclusion to Walk Out Would Not Be Final as Order Must Go to a Vote.

CHICAGO, July 1.—Final decision whether the railway employes of the country shall accept or reject the wage decrease which went into effect today will be referred to a committee of five representing the 16 railroad unions.

Executives of the unions reached this decision today and instructed the committee to receive reports from the various group meetings now in Chicago, and formulate general recommendations to the union membership.

The committee is composed of B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of Labor; E. H. Fitzgerald, president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employes; L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors; E. J. Manion, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers; Timothy Shea, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen, and W. F. Kriz, Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers.

The big four brotherhoods, after a short session at which the wage situation was outlined, separated, the engineers, firemen and conductors and trainmen going into separate meetings to consider the wage cut.

The four groups will report back to a general session at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

WORK AT REDUCED WAGES WHILE CONFERENCE IS HELD

CHICAGO, July 1.—One million, five hundred thousand railway employes today went to work at reduced wages while one thousand of their union leaders assembled here for conferences that are relied on to work transportation channels open and to decide what action railway employes will take regarding wage cuts.

While union leaders voiced general dissatisfaction of the rail workers toward the United States labor board's decision authorizing a wage cut, there were predictions that they will vote to abide by the order with some formal protest, these being based on the fact that the union leaders have the authority to do so, and with their knowledge of industrial conditions, will not advocate swelling the ranks of the unemployed.

A decision on their part to order a walkout would in any event not be final, as such an order would first be submitted to a referendum vote of many organizations that have not yet voted on the question.

FIREMEN AND OILERS VOTE AGAINST WAGE REDUCTION

CHICAGO, July 1.—Ninety-five per cent of the membership of the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers have voted against accepting the wage cut ordered by the United States railroad labor board on all roads effective today, Timothy Healy, international president, made the announcement today as 1,500 union leaders gathered here to pass on the order.

GOVERNOR HAS CONFERENCE 'ALONG AGRICULTURAL LINES'

AUSTIN, July 1.—Governor Neff's conference today was "along agricultural lines," as the governor expressed it. He said that he sought of the men who conferred with him this morning ideas for legislation concerning agriculture to be submitted to the special session. The marketing and warehousing of cotton was the chief subject of discussion, the governor said.

The measure was adopted by the second chamber on April 29.

PRESENT CONGRESS WILL NOT PROVIDE RELIEF FOR ROADS

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Senate investigation of the railway situation was suspended today by Chairman Cummins of the interstate commerce committee until the middle or latter part of August. This was taken to mean that there would be no railway relief legislation at the present extra session of congress.

Chairman Cummings said suspension of the inquiry was deemed advisable in view of the inclination of the senate to take a summer recess.

Representatives of labor and shippers are yet to be heard.

FORMER WIDOW OF ASTOR ASKS TO BE RELIEVED OF GUARDIANSHIP OF INFANT

NEW YORK, July 1.—Mrs. Madeleine Force Dick, former widow of John Jacob Astor, has filed a petition in surrogate's court asking to be relieved of the guardianship of her infant son, John Jacob Astor III.

Mrs. Dick declared she had received no money or property from the three million dollar trust fund left to her son since 1917, and did not expect to receive any in the future. The petition made no mention of why she had failed to receive any funds. Her attorney declined to make any statement.

The former Mrs. Astor lost the income from a trust fund of five million dollars by marrying a second time, following the death of John Jacob Astor in the Titanic disaster of 1912.

SEATTLE, WASH., July 1.—The Scandinavian-American bank here, a large institution, will not open for business today, the board of directors announced this morning. The bank, it was explained, has been turned over to the state supervisor of banking.

Following the announcement that the bank had closed, John P. Duke, state supervisor of banking, issued a statement absolving the present management from blame.

The current statement of the bank shows the capital and surplus to be $1,250,000. Deposits were placed at $13,000,000.

HOLD UP TRAIN AND SHOOT MESSENGER

Express Safe is Robbed But No Money is Obtained, the Officials Report.

DANVILLE, ILL., July 1.—Big Four passenger train No. 44 was held up early this morning near Covington, Ind., near here, the messenger shot and the safe thrown from the train. Two men boarded the express car as the train started from Covington. At Veederaburg, the next stop, 12 miles east, Frank Beckman, the express messenger, was found shot through the hip and leg. Packages of express matter were piled on him. A steel safe, was robbed of a quantity of non-negotiable securities.

NO MONEY WAS OBTAINED, ACCORDING TO OFFICIALS

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 1.—No money was obtained by the bandits who robbed the Big Four passenger train near Covington, Ind., according to officials of the American Railway Express company here.

UNABLE TO ACCOMMODATE THRONG MAKING ITS WAY TO JERSEY CITY; MANY WOMEN TO SEE BIG BATTLE

WASHINGTON, July 1.—A temperature of between 80 and 85 degrees and generally fair weather was forecast today by the weather bureau for the Dempsey-Carpentier fight tomorrow. There is a probability that the principals and spectators will not have to endure a broiling sun as the weather experts say it may not be absolutely clear over "Boyle's thirty acres."

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 1.—The Hudson county grand jury late today declined to return an indictment, sought by the International Reform bureau, to stop the Dempsey-Carpentier bout here tomorrow. This was regarded as the last legal obstacle to the match.

Eight witnesses were heard, their testimony taking up an hour and a half. The jury deliberated only ten minutes before rendering its decision against returning an indictment.

NEW YORK, July 1.—New York hotels were crowded today, and in the lobbies, dining-rooms and hallways there was a buzz of conversation in which the words "Dempsey" and "Carpentier" predominated.

Fully 5,000 out-of-town folks registered yesterday who announced their intention of seeing the championship bout tomorrow at Jersey City, and some 20,000 were expected to flow in today from every quarter of the continent. Those arriving yesterday included residents of cities from Miami to Medicine Hat and from Bangor to El Paso.

At the hotels it was said there would be difficulty in caring for guests who had not made reservations in advance. One hotel last night announced it could care for no more guests. One of the largest hostelries announced that they planned to install army cots in corridors, on the roofs and in other places not often slept in.

The hotels presented a scene of brilliancy, for many of the out-of-town enthusiasts were accompanied by their wives and daughters, who were no less enthusiastic than husband or father. In fashionable dining-rooms there could be heard fight talk at nearly every table where superbly gowned women sat with conventionally dressed men. The outcome of the contest was, of course, the main topic of conversation, and over many a cup of coffee the battle was prematurely fought, each enthusiast explaining just how his or her favorite would emerge victorious.

ADVANCE SALE OF SEATS APPROXIMATELY $1,250,000

NEW YORK, July 1.—The advance sales of seats for the Dempsey-Carpentier bout tomorrow already have yielded gross receipts of approximately $1,250,000. This was announced today by Promoter Tex Rickard. The announcement was based upon sales up to 10 a. m. today.

With the sales of $5 seats tomorrow and a continuation of the present rate of reserved seat sales, total sales were expected to pass the million and a half mark.

Aviators today were put on their honor not to fly over the arena during the fray.

DR. FARRELL TIMEKEEPER SAVAGE ALTERNATE REFEREE

NEW YORK, July 1.—Dr. K. B. Farrell of Jersey City today was named as timekeeper for the Dempsey-Carpentier bout tomorrow, it was announced by Chairman Doherty of the New Jersey state athletic commission.

Jim Savage of Orange, N. J., was designated alternate referee, in case the regular referee, Harry Ertle, should be unable to officiate. He has fought several bouts in the heavyweight division in the last ten years.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DAUGHERTY WILL NOT ATTEND THE FIGHT

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Attorney General Daugherty announced today that he would not attend the Dempsey-Carpentier fight because he "had too much respect for the opinion of people who disapproved of prize fights, and of whom I must be a sort of unofficial representative."

SMALL LETTER ON TICKET RESULTS IN AN ARREST

NEW YORK, July 1.—A small letter "d" instead of a capital "D" on a ringside ticket to the Dempsey-Carpentier fight today caused the arrest of a man calling himself Moe Levy on a charge of selling counterfeit tickets. He was held in $1,000 bail.

POSSIBLE EFFECT ON MEXICO THOUGHT TO HAVE CHANGED VOTE

SUCH A RESULT IN TARIFF DECISION HINTED BY ONE OF COMMITTEE.

BIG INTERESTS SUDDENLY WITHDRAW OBJECTIONS

Opens Way For Negotiations by the President to Protect American Interests.

By CHAS. N. HAYDEN,
Washington Correspondent Wichita Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—While there has been no official announcement as to the reasons prompting members of the ways and means committee to reverse themselves and provide a tariff on crude oil in the Fordney bill, it was hinted by an influential member today that the possible effect on Mexico was one of the compelling influences. Whether or not this was the cause, it is significant that opposition of the big importing and refining oil companies, which had been exerted against such a tariff in an unobtrusive way, suddenly was withdrawn while the activities of the so-called independents, who have demanded protection, were renewed. After the bill had been printed, carrying petroleum and its products on the free list, a meeting of the republican members on the committee was held and the duty of 35 cents a barrel on crude oil and 25 cents on fuel oil decreed.

The source of practically all petroleum imported into the United States is Mexico and that country, in order to raise revenue, has recently established an export duty of 25 cents a barrel on crude oil. If the Fordney tariff rate is sustained Mexican crude oil will bear a differential of 60 cents a barrel over oil produced in this country and that charge, it is held, will cut down exports from Mexico, thus reducing the amount which the Mexican government had planned to raise by the tariff on export oil.

It is pointed out that under section 303 of the Fordney bill the president is given authority to negotiate with any other country for reciprocal tariff reductions and this could be utilized in dealing with Mexico to induce more liberal treatment of American interests established there.

CHAIRMAN FORDNEY DEFENDS PERMANENT TARIFF BILL

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee in his first formal statement today on the permanent tariff bill said he did "not herald it as a panacea for all national difficulties," but predicted that its effect upon American industry and American labor would be entirely beneficial.

Discussing the American valuation provision, Mr. Fordney said it had been contended that "the proposal was one to secure some sort of concealed protection" and that "it was a cloak under which import duties would be materially increased."

"Examination of the bill, however," he added, "will correct this erroneous impression. The committee has taken full cognisance of the fact that it is proposing higher values generally, and has reduced the rates accordingly."

"Comparison of the rates with the Payne-Aldrich bill," Mr. Fordney declared, "will indicate a reduction in rates."

"Where there is a very great disparity of production costs between a particular foreign country and America," the statement said, "the ad valorem duties of American values will tend toward higher rates. Where foreign costs, however, are more nearly equal to American costs the change to the American basis will have a tendency to reduce duties."

PRESIDENT AND PARTY GO TO FRELINGHUYSEN

STRONG OPPOSITION TO SPLIT LEAGUE SEASON VOTE 'NO' IS UNANIMOUS

HOUSTON, July 1.—By unanimous vote club owners of the Texas league today decided against splitting the schedule of the 1921 championship season. With little sentiment there was in favor of a split vanished when it became evident early in the meeting that a majority of the clubs were against the proposition.

HOUSTON, July 1.—Strong opposition to the proposed splitting of the Texas league season was indicated this morning just before the club owners went into executive session with President Doak Roberts presiding. The Fort Worth and Houston clubs already have committed themselves as opposed to a division of the season and it was reported just before the call to order that Wichita Falls and Dallas might join them.

Wichita Falls regards its pennant chances as highly favorable because of the large number of games yet to be played at home. This club and Fort Worth have met in but two series so far this season.

Dallas already has played to 78,000 paid admissions this year.

SPUDDER PILOT UNABLE TO MAKE SATISFACTORY DEAL WITH THE BROWNS

Walter Salm's trip to St. Louis was in vain, according to a telegram received by the Times from the skipper today. Though he has never committed himself as to what the proposed deal was, it has been learned from fairly reliable sources that Danny Clark would figure prominently in it.

Ever since Scout Monohan of the Browns started looking over Texas league prospects it has been no secret that he was greatly impressed with Danny's work. He said as much while he was here and intimated that the Browns could use him. The St. Louis club is in a bad way for a hard-hitting keystone guardian and overtures were made to Salm for Danny.

The Browns probably offered him Gleason, the former Chattanooga second baseman who is the property of the Browns now, and a couple of other players. The chances are that if Walter could have secured a reliable hurler or two in addition to Gleason, the deal would have been consummated. Walter wants hurlers and is leaving no stone unturned to get them, but he would not part with a star for a couple of lemons. His telegram follows:

"Was unable to make trade satisfactory to us. Still trying to purchase pitchers."

The telegram was from Houston.

SUSPENSION OF SENTENCE GIVEN IN OIL THEFT CASE

Army Records of Michna And MacDonald Influence Jury For Clemency.

It was a compassionate jury of 12 men that retired in the 89th district court Friday morning and returned a few moments later recommending a two-year suspended sentence for Adolph Michna and C. A. McDonald, who entered a plea of guilty to the charge of conspiracy to commit the crime of theft over $50.

The two defendants were found guilty of the charge at a trial held last month. A motion for new trial was sustained by Judge P. A. Martin upon agreement between counsel in the case. Attorneys Fred Weeks and J. A. Hughes represented the defendants while the state was represented by Judge A. H. Carrigan and District Attorney Bert Wilson.

The two defendants pleaded guilty to the charge at the abrupt ending of the trial of George Hustead last month when the plea of not guilty in the Hustead case was withdrawn and a plea of guilty entered. All three of the men at that time were sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. The motion for new trial in the Hustead case was overruled two weeks ago and an appeal was taken.

The men were indicted in connection with the theft of 2,400 barrels of oil from the Empire Oil and Gas company in the Northwest fields last December.

The testimony Friday showed that Adolph Michna had paid back to the company $7,000 for the oil and had never received any benefits from the oil that was stolen and sold.

The army records of both men were introduced as well as testimony from a half-dozen character witnesses.

The court in receiving the verdict from the jury stated that doubtless the jury and the court would be criticised for the action taken in the case, but that the sworn obligations of their duty had been carried out and that the criticism that might be offered could not have any effect on sworn duties.

It developed in the hearing of testimony in the case that the two defendants were trained under and went to France with Judge Carrigan's son who was killed while overseas.

In the closing remarks to the jury, Judge Carrigan stated that he did not learn until the close of the first trial that the men had trained under his son and stated had he known this fact that he could not have been employed in the case. Judge Carrigan recommended that the two defendants be given the minimum sentence of two years and also endorsed a suspension of their sentence.

Judge Carrigan attempted to say something with reference to the army service of the two men on trial under his own son, but was unable to complete and sat down. The court room and the jury was a silent sympathetic audience.

"LILLY WHITES" ANSWER ALLEGATIONS OPPOSITION IN WARM LANGUAGE

That gentle and universal attribute of the human race generally known as "brotherly love" has apparently been kicked into utter oblivion by a number of this city's estimable business men.

Such a condition, deplorable as it may seem, has not been brought about, however, without provocation, and whatever deeds of infamy may be committed as a result of this unholy situation will, in the opinions of those involved, be wholly justifiable.

The special clique referred to is the membership of the local University club, which is now in the midst of a hot political campaign to be terminated next Tuesday when officers are to be elected. The "brotherly love" phase comes in as a result of the campaign tactics adopted by the two contending parties, and a review of the slanderous allegations handed out by the publicity hounds of the "Lily Whites" and "The Other Ticket" should convince the most skeptical that civil war and bloodshed is not without the range of possibility.

In announcing its list of candidates Friday, the "Lily White" campaign committee unburdened itself of a few remarks more or less derogatory to the characters, ancestors, habits and intelligence of "The Other Ticket." The "Lily White" opposition, it seems, has made various and sundry rash statements regarding its chances of winning the election, and here are the answers filed by Paul Von Allmen and his cohorts.

"We note that 'The Other Ticket' supporters say they are behind the chamber of commerce and every other club in the city. We admit they are so far behind everything and everybody that should they, by misrepresentation, be put in office, their terms will expire before they catch up with the live wires of our town.

"We also note that 'they' dropped Judge Haney from the nominating committee and placed him on their own ticket. Why?

"And where do they get the information that Dick Bailey is a physical culture expert? He couldn't even run to first after getting a base on balls in the Wichita-Rotary club baseball game.

"And will someone please tell us the name of the man who 'they' say accused Walter Curlee of being 'intellectual'?

"If it wasn't for complying with the by-laws of the club, the election could be dispensed with, but we suppose that it will have to be gone through with just to give 'The Other Ticket' the satisfaction of being 'also rans.'"

(Signed) "PAUL VON ALLMEN,
"AL ELLIS,
"C. A. ROGERS."

Incidentally, the "Lily Whites" have announced that their ticket has been made up as follows: C. W. Reid, president; E. M. Mann, first vice-president; H. R. Voelker, second vice-president; J. P. Marrs, secretary, and J. T. Harroll, treasurer.

WILLIAM TARVER, JAIL NIGHT WATCHMAN, RESIGNS

William Tarver, night watchman at the county jail, tendered his resignation Friday morning. He stated that he was unable to live on $90 a month, the salary paid for this position, and further stated that he had a much more lucrative position offered him.

ENGINEERS' MAP SHOWS INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT CITY

6,788 Acres in City Limits Which Cover 1,265 Blocks—Sixty-Eight Additions.

A revised city map of Wichita Falls has just been completed by John A. Donald of the city engineering department after three years of compiling data and tracing the map itself.

Some interesting facts relating to the city have been found by Mr. Donald in his work, chief among these being that relating to size. There are just 6,788 acres, or 10.61 square miles contained in the city limits, according to his figures, and the geographical center is located near the corner of Brook and Seventh streets, one block northwest of the Wichita General hospital.

Aside from the original townsite, the city has 68 additions, 81 subdivisions and resurveys and 300 tracts that were described only by meets and bounds, all of which had to be located and verified before being traced. There are 1,265 blocks in the city limits, the information shows, and 16,809 lots.

Mr. Donald started compiling his data in 1919 and began the tracing work of the map about four months ago. The map itself is 80 inches square and uses a scale of 300 feet equalling one inch, which allows room for showing and describing all individual tracts. It was made in two sections so as to permit of easier handling and will be sent to an engraving plant in order that blue prints may be made.

According to the surveyor, this city is one of the most difficult to map he ever saw, as it is laid out so irregularly. He has made maps of equal size of Decatur and McKinney, Texas; Okmulgee and Muskogee, Okla., and a score of smaller places.

FIREMAN ARRESTED FOR ENGAGING IN FIGHT

A brawl which started late Thursday afternoon at the Seventh street fire station was terminated Friday morning when S. M. Gee and L. E. Gregory, the latter a city fireman, were arrested for fighting in the city hall.

Gee and Paul Gailey, another fireman at the No. 3 station, had an altercation at the fire house swimming pool late yesterday which resulted in both being considerably bruised up. The pool had been drained and scrubbed, according to testimony introduced in court, and Gee and a lady friend were exploring the bottom. Gailey ordered them out, as the pool was to be refilled, and when this was not complied with, he undertook to effect the removal by more strenuous measures.

The two fought for some time, it is stated, and the fireman is alleged to have struck Gee in the head with an empty pop bottle. Gee was placed under arrest and gave bond for his appearance in court Friday morning. Gailey was not booked.

After hearing evidence, Judge Ogle censored both combatants and released them without assessing a fine, and as Gee was leaving the court room with his mother Gregory attacked him and a sharp scuffle ensued before they were parted. Both were arrested and ordered to appear for trial Saturday morning.

VISITS OF AUDITORS AND METER READERS PRECEDED ACTION IN COURTS IN GAS CONTROVERSY

Visits of auditors, said to be in the employ of the Ohio Cities Gas company, to offices of the North Texas Gas company in cities and towns served by that company in northwest Texas; tests of gas meters measuring gas from the Lone Star Gas company's mains into the distributing pipes of the North Texas Gas company in a number of cities by agents of the Lone Star Gas company and of the federal government, and other mysterious acts are reported to have preceded the action in the courts by the North Texas Gas company to prevent the Lone Star company from cutting off its gas supply.

City authorities here and representatives of the North Texas Gas company were still without definite information as to the cause of the trouble Friday morning, but copies of legal papers filed at Dallas were expected to reach here Friday night.

Wichita Falls has been invited to intervene in the action to prevent the Lone Star company from cutting off the supply of gas to the North Texas company, but Public Utilities Commissioner Bonner will advise that no action be taken until more definite information is obtained.

It has been reported that the Ohio Cities Gas company has acquired a considerable block of stock in the Lone Star Gas company and is objecting to the contract between the Lone Star company and the North Texas Gas company, alleging that it encourages waste of gas. It is said to be demanding that the North Texas Gas company pay a flat rate for its gas at the meter, and there is a very strong suspicion that the move is preliminary to a demand for a higher rate from the consumer.

EXPRESS COMPANY MAY TRANSPORT LIQUOR UNDER DIRECTION HEALTH OFFICER

AUSTIN, July 1.—An express company or other common carrier in Texas does not violate the law by transporting intoxicating liquor under the direction of the state health office, when such liquor is secured by him in performance of his duties, the attorney general's department ruled today. Neither do these agencies violate the law when a prosecuting official ships intoxicating liquors for analytical purposes, needed in prosecutions.

FISHERMEN WILL LEAVE FOR COLORADO SUNDAY

Eight Wichita Falls sportsmen will leave Sunday morning in cars for a fishing trip on the Rio Grande in northern Colorado.

The eight include Clifford and Clarence Moore, Withers (Bill) Lee, Carl Yeager, James Elliott, H. R. Hanks, Dave Shepherd and J. M. Williams. They will make the trip in three cars, expecting to get to their camping destination in about three days, and will be away 15 or 20 days in all.

SMALL NUMBER GO ON SOUTH BEND TRIP

The Wichita Falls delegation which departed at 8 o'clock Friday morning for South Bend to celebrate the completion of the Wichita Falls and Southern railway into that city numbered only 30, according to a report of Union Ticket Agent G. A. Allman, who handled the outgoing train.

The local excursionists were scheduled to arrive at the southern terminal at 1 o'clock, where the South Bend chamber of commerce was to take them in tow for the remainder of the afternoon. Speeches apropos of the railway completion, a ball game, a big barbecue and numerous other diversions were planned for the afternoon.

The return trip to this city was to begin at 6 o'clock, according to railway officials.

A large copper bottom slide is now being installed at Haven Park swimming pool. If you don't think it will be slick try it the Fourth of July.

"TABLE SERVICE" IS NEW BULLETIN OUT AT C. I. A.

"Table service," one of the most alluring subjects in which homemakers are interested at any time of the year, is the name of a bulletin announced ready for free distribution now at the College of Industrial Arts in Denton.

The bulletin was written and arranged with helpful illustrations by Miss Sarah Best, professor of foods in the C. I. A., and may be obtained free simply by directing a postcard or letter to the Department of Extension, College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas, requesting a copy.

The extension publicity service has to say with regard to the bulletin:

"The publication deals with all of the vital problems connected with table service, including preparing the dining room, decorating and laying the table, announcing the meal, receiving and seating the guests and serving the meal. The various forms of table service are also discussed, with full page pictures to illustrate each form. A part of the bulletin is devoted to the correct service of afternoon teas and buffet meals. Another part contains, in concise form, general rules of etiquette for hostess and for guest. The entire discussion is arranged in outline form, thus making the bulletin practicable as a handbook for use in the home."

WAYSIDE BLOSSOMS.

By ELEANOR DUNCAN WOOD.

Part of no formal garden, strayed from no prim parterre,
We gem the gray of the dusty way and set Beauty's signet there.
Gay Vagabonds of the Highway, sprung from the dust and heat,
We bud and blow in a world we know, and our vagrant life is sweet.

For always to bless our blooming are those whom our grace makes glad.
When we heap the hands of children with bands and lift the hearts of the sad.
We have gleamed in no princeling's garden, we have glowed on no castle sod,
But let men take heed, for One sowed our seed, and the Sower's name is God.

CAN BUY CABARET GIRLS A FROCK, BUT CAN'T GET FRESH

"Cabaret girls are young in years, but old in worldliness," O. O. McIntyre says in special correspondence to the Houston Chronicle from the eastern metropolis.

"They are adepts at polite pillage. They think nothing of permitting a gentleman friend to buy them a bit of jewelry, a hat or even a frock, but if he thinks that gives him permission to wax sentimental on the way home in a taxicab he may get his ears boxed or his face scratched. Broadway has taught them that every man is fair loot. • • • but if he gets fresh, he ain't no gentleman."

LATEST STYLE

By LENORE.

The simplest sport frock becomes a chic outfit when made of lilac colored jersey, and worn with a maize organdy tailored blouse. This sleeveless frock idea, which is one of the most practical designs introduced this season, may be carried out in a variety of materials and trimmed with bindings of contrasting color.

In the models made of wool jersey, leather is frequently employed, and one smart shop made a feature of selling hip-length circular capes to match the frock. In the model shown above, note the slight fullness allowed just below the shoulders. This pattern may also be cut to provide for slight gathers at the hips.

PATTERN NO. 199.

A pattern for the above model (No. 199) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36, 38 or 40, by sending to Lenore, 8 West Fortieth street, New York City, your name, address, the number of this pattern and the size required and 25 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time—The Editor.

Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of state for the colonies, testified how his mother had met with an accident a month ago and had her leg amputated. He was present at her death.

Dr. Thomas Harding of London said a sudden, suffused hemorrhage began last Wednesday due to the main artery giving way near the point of amputation.

JUBILEE'S PARDNER

by Judd Mortimer Lewis

Illustrations by Edwin

When I woke up this morning I was wondering where Younies was yesterday. And I said to Jubilee that she did not need to think that I cared where she was I guess I had a good time. When I clumb out of the manure hole and Jubilee jumped out after me and was going down the alley I saw her way down the alley coming as fast as she could run. I whistled on my fingers and she waved and when she got to me and I asted her where she was at yesterday she said she was afraid of my mother about the sugar we had dipped our all day sucker in. I told her my mother did not think anything about that and then she asted me to show her how to whistle on my fingers.

I kept showing her till my finger was as clean as anything, but she could not do it, so I opened up my mouth and showed her how to hold her tongue and she held it that way and then I showed her how to fix her fingers, and then I fixed my fingers and put them in her mouth and told her to blow but nothing but wind came out. Then I took hold of her hands and fixed her fingers and put them in my mouth and blowed a perfectly good whistle on them and that proved to her that her fingers would make a good whistle if she could only wrap her mouth around them right.

The Fourth of July is next Monday and she asted me what I was going to do, and I said I guest I would have a few bunches of fire crackers and some roamin candles and a few devil chasers and torpedoes and mebby my father would give me a shotgun or something, and she, said I was certainly going to have a good time. She said that she did not know what she was going to do, but there was a man and woman going to get married in an airplane and then fly away together and mebby her mother would take her to see that, if I did not want her to come to my house and watch me shoot off my fireworks.

The bunch wanted to go swimming so me and Younies could not go as we went back to my house and Younie

Then I took hold of her hands and fixed her fingers and put them in my mouth and blowed a perfectly good whistle on them.

I washed my hands before I et supper and my feet before I went to bed. Because maybe I will get some fireworks if my father notices. I wish my grandfather and unkle would strain themselves.

ERAL DAWES TO PUT GOVERNMENT ON BETTER BASIS

FIVE MONTHS IN WHICH TO PUT THE MACHINERY IN MOTION.

ALDED AS MAN OF IMAGINATION AND FORCE

Will Follow Closely That ployed by the Large Corporations.

By MARK SULLIVAN

Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times.

Copyright 1921 by the New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, July 1.—If General es could be made a permanent of- of the United States; or he could made assistant president, so, to k, or if we could create the office eneral manager of the United s and give it to Dawes, or if we reorganize the government along lines that some cities have done give General Dawes a job ana- s to that which has come to he n in many parts of the country as w manager"—if any of these things be brought about, and if General s could be kepton the job perma- y, there is no doubt that the d States would be better managed business way.

eral Dawes has imagination and . Those of us who have followed r closely the way he has begun resent task observe that he under- s both public psychology and in- ual phychology and knows how ake both serve his purpose. There be more of this before General s is through, and the public will e familiar with him as an able , with a racy and attractive per- ity. Of course, all that General s can do is to lay the machinery et it in motion. To do this he ive months of time and a quarter million dollars in money. The y is ample, for General Dawes' ds do not depend much on money. akes his personality serve as a titute for funds, but the five s of time is rather short, and it ends it will be wished that Dawes might be drafted for a period.

rely aside from General Dawes' ility, a good deal has been rt in the way of fundamental re- ation which will remain. The od of making appropriations however. By that old method, described, the head of a bu- e a rule-of-thumb guess as to how much money he would need for the coming year. His whole motive was to make his estimate as large as possible. Then a committee of congress made a rule-of-thumb reduction in the estimate.

There was nothing scientific or businesslike in either end of the process. Those most concerned did not take it seriously; in some cases the reductions made by congress were ignored by the bureau chiefs. They went ahead and spent as much money as they thought they ought to have and then called on congress for a deficiency appropriation. There was no one man in the government who had the responsibility which some one man in every private corporation has for making ends meet and avoiding bankruptcy.

In the new system we shall not have quite what exists in private corporations, but we shall have one man who at least will have the power and duty of critical supervision of estimates made by the various departments. His power will fall far short of what many cities have given to one man under the title of city manager. Nevertheless the new job will be largely what its occupant makes it.

The appointee to this new office, known as controller general, will be J. R. McCarl of Nebraska. If he should turn out to have as much imagination and energy as General Dawes, he can, with the sympathetic support that he will undoubtedly have from President Harding, make his new office as potent as it is hoped to be.

Reports Two Men Are Following Him and Seek Revenge

DALLAS, July 1.—A story that he had overheard details of a plot to assassinate the president of Cuba last year before that official took office, and since had been followed by two men he believed were seeking revenge, was told to the police here by Eduardo Herrera of Bogota, Columbia.

According to Herrera's story an attempt was made by leaders in the alleged plot to bribe him to act as a messenger, and when he refused he was threatened. He claims to have been followed to New York, New Orleans, Houston, San Antonio and Dallas.

The police officials told Herrera they could not provide a guard for him. The case was referred to F. M. Spencer, chief of the United States department of justice here. Mr. Spencer talked with Herrera and the police. He said today his department was taking no further action.

MEXICAN PETROLEUM SCORES A NEW LOW RECORD ON MARKET

NEW YORK, July 1.—Shares of the Mexican Petroleum company, focal point of the recent spectacular movement on the stock exchange, were again under pressure today and dropped to a new low point of 96 in the first hour's trading.

The stock, which closed yesterday at 101, was offered freely after opening at 101¼ and quickly fell below yesterday's low mark of 98. At 96 it showed a loss from the high mark of the week of 224. It was a decline within two months from 167¼. The record high price is 264, made October 22, 1919.

The decline in Mexican Petroleum is attributed by Edward L. Doheny, president of the corporation, largely to circular letters sent out by W. C. Moore, who was arrested yesterday after his indictment on a charge of criminally libelling Mr. Doheny. The indictment charged Mr. Moore contributed in stock market letters of which he is the publisher, statements calculated to depress Mexican Petroleum stocks. Mr. Moore pleaded not guilty and is held for trial.

President Confers With Leaders in Senate and With Secretary Mellon.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The administration's bill proposing broad powers for the secretary of the treasury in funing the allied dibts to the United States was discussd at a dinner conference last night between President Harding and Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania and Watson of Indiana, and also is understood to have been the subject of a conversation between the president and Secretary Mellon today at the latter's office.

The executive is understood to have been informed by senate leaders that such opposition to the bill in its present form has devloped that some changes probably will be necessary. Opposition was said to center particularly on that section of the bill which would authorize the secretary, in funding the depts, to accept bonds of other than debtor nations.

TAFT WILL BECOME CHIEF JUSTICE WHEN COURT MEETS IN OCT.

IMPORTANT CASES ARE ON THE DOCKET FOR CONSIDERATION.

FOUR SENATORS VOTE AGAINST CONFIRMATION

Borah and Johnson Criticise the Former President's Capacity for the Position.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—William Howard Taft, former president of the United States, will succeed the late Chief Justice White as head of the United States supreme court when that tribunal convenes in October. Nominated by President Harding late yesterday, Mr. Taft's confirmation was voted by the senate in executive session little more than an hour afterwards.

Although elected to the presidency from Ohio, the new chief justice will be credited to Connecticut of the supreme court, having made New Haven his legal residence since leaving the White House.

Confirmation of his appointment was not without opposition, Senators Borah, Johnson, LaFollette and Watson of Georgia voting against the nomination and, according to reports, Senators Borah and Johnson expressed criticism of Mr Taft's capacity for the position.

Under the leadership of the late Chief Justice White, the supreme court docket was materially reduced during the last term, but after his death several important cases were ordered reargued by a complete bench in October. Among the more prominent in which Mr. Taft will now participate are:

Coronado Coal company, in which the United Mine Workers of America are appealing from a verdict holding that organization liable under the Sherman laws for $400,000 damages resulting from a strike. The legal issue involved—whether a national labor organization can be held liable for damages caused by the activities of an affiliated local—has been declared by labor leaders to be the most important in the history of organized labor.

The child labor case involving the validity of sections of the 1919 revenue act imposing a special excise tax on profits derived from the product of labor of minors.

American hardwood case involving the right of some 400 lumber dealers to continue co-operative selling methods, with exchange of production and sales data.

The Wisconsin rate case, which, with other suits now pending in the lower courts, will determine the authority of the interstate commerce commission to supervise state rates over common carriers.

GENERAL PERSHING IS CHIEF OF STAFF

Succeeds Major General March Who Is Given Leave of Absence Until Retirement.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—General John J. Pershing today became chief of staff of the United States army, relieving Major General Peyton C. March, who was given leave of absence effective until his retirement from active service in November. It was the first assignment to definite duty given the general since he relinquished command of the American expeditionary forces in France. Major General James G. Harbord, who was his principal staff assistant in France, is his assistant in the new office.

Under plans approved by Secretary Weeks, General Pershing will be relieved by his assistant of all routine duties and will be free to direct the larger operations of the military establishment, particularly the organization and training of the national guard and civilian reserve forces, and be prepared personally to assume command of field forces in case of emergency. In such an event General Harbord would automatically move in the office of his present chief.

General March probably will remain in an advisory capacity in the war department until Generals Pershing and Harbord are thoroughly informed of all details pertaining to staff work in the department. Later General March intends to visit Europe and write on military subjects there and in the United States.

ONE MILLION TONS OF SUGAR TO BE WITHDRAWN FROM THE CUBAN MARKET

HAVANA, June 30.—Purchase by the government of one million tons of sugar and its withdrawal from the market was agreed to last night at a conference between Cuban sugar magnates, President Zayas and Secretary of the Presidency Jose M. Cortina, it was announced today in an official statement which fixed the amount of sugar on hand in Cuba at two million tons.

BUSINESS SITUATION SHOWS LITTLE CHANGE SAYS RESERVE BOARD

WASHINGTON, July 1.—June business activities in the United States, although showing an acceleration in price declines, were classed as "inconclusive" with respect to probable future developments by the monthly review of the federal reserve board issued today. Theories that prices had reached a stable basis, founded on a slowing up of the price fall in May, the board found, were set aside by later records, and the board concluded that "it is even more evident that the close of readjustment period has not been reached" in some lines of business, notably iron and steel. In several branches of domestic trade the board said good conditions have continued and such recession as has occurred is evidently only seasonal."

Unemployment continued practically unchanged, the report said, "with slight tendencies to betterment, notably in agriculture."

"Hesitation in purchasing," the board said, marked all the channels of distribution, with little improvement in exports, but in banking there was noted "a steady growth of strength and liquidity."

The reserves of the federal reserve banks have been much enlarged through continuous addition of gold, the board said, "while their outstanding liabilities have been reduced. Interest rates have become more moderate during the month."

A tendency toward the "evening up of prices" in distributive channels, the board said, was noted during the month, resulting in the passing on of price reductions to the consumer in the form of lower retail profits."

This was coupled with downward modifications of freight rates. In general the board found the month to be a period of "transition, with seasonal recession in many industries and continued downward readjustment in others, while with productive prospects favorable and prices apparently reaching a condition of greater stability, the outlook for autumn trade appears reasonably encouraging."

MEET NEXT TUESDAY TO DISCUSS NEW WAGE SCALE

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—M. F. Tighe, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Plate Workers, expected to discuss a new wage scale with representatives of the Western Sheet and Tin Plate Manufacturers association in Columbus, Ohio, next Tuesday, he announced today.

The contract expired last midnight and no work will be done by members of the amalgamated until the new scale has been signed.

EXPERTS PLAN TO EXPLORE RED RIVER

Will Study Stream in Connection With The Texas-Oklahoma Boundary Suit.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 1.—For the purpose of studying the formation of the Red rived bed, and to be able to testify as to where the banks of the river were at different periods, a party of experts will be assembled by Attorney General Freeling of Oklahoma, and immediately after July 1 will make explorations of the river bed. It is expected to require at least a month to do the work, which will include examination of the river bed the entire distance that may be touched by Oklahoma, about 500 miles.

In the party, which will be accompanied by Mr. Freeling and W. A. Durant, the latter oil and gas agent of the state school land office, will be Dr. L. C. Glenn, geologist of Vanderbilt university; Dr. Henry C. Cowles, professor of ecology of the University of Chicago; L. L. Jones, ecologist of New Orleans; Major Charles H. Miller, hydrographic engineer of Little Rock, Ark., and Mr. Banks, Van Alstyne, Texas.

Experts to Gather Data.

The purpose is to gather the most accurate information obtainable relative to the river bed and banks of the Red river. These experts will be used as witnesses in the hearing on the boundary line that will be started on August 15 in Oklahoma City. Frederick S. Tyler, representing the United States, it is understood, will conduct the hearing.

The information sought to be obtained will be used by Oklahoma in its contentions concerning the bed and meandering lines of Red river. Excavations will be made to find roots of trees, or tops of trees, and the formation of the soil will be studied for the purpose of locating the banks of the river at different periods. The research work will go back possibly 100 years or more.

FEE AND FRANCHISE TAX BASED ON LAWS OF STATE ORIGINATING CORPORATION

AUSTIN, July 1.—A foreign corporation, organized for profit, with non par value stock, may do business in Texas but the fee and franchise tax for admittance to the state will be charged in accordance with the laws of the state in which the corporation originated, according to an opinion rendered by the attorney general's department today. In case the state from which the corporation came has no law or rulings for that purpose, the Texas taxes will be assessed by the secretary of state.

MEXICO MAY NOT PAY INTEREST EARLY THIS MONTH

MEXICO CITY, July 1.—Rumors that payments of the interest of the Mexican national debt probably will not be made early this month have been called to attention of officials but they remained silent.

ARROYO IS PRESIDENT OF CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES OF THE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, July 1.—Augustine Arroyo was elected president of the Mexican chamber of deputies by the liberal constitutionalist members at the monthly election of a president which was held yesterday. The opposition was headed by Dr. Jose Macias, social democrat.

The election of Senor Arroyo was regarded as significant as various groups within the chamber had declared their intention to oust the liberal constitutionalists from power.

There are reports that the chamber soon will discuss the committee report on article 27 of the constitution, which nationalizes oil deposits, and will attempt to reach some sort of adjustment.

MISS DOLORES DAUGHERTY OF HASKELL WEDS D. H. BOLIN

Patterson at the First Methodist church last evening at 8:30 in the presence of many friends and invited guests. Mr. Bolin is engaged in the oil well supply business at Graham. The bride is one of Haskell's most popular young women and a teacher in the Haskell schools. They will reside in Graham.

FORMER INSURANCE OFFICIAL HERE IS UNDER ARREST

John S. Mabry, Former Manager of Wichita Great Western Underwriters Indicted.

John S. Mabry, formerly general manager of the Wichita Great Western Underwriters, was arrested in Dallas Thursday by United States Postal Inspector H. A. Wallace on charges of using the mails to defraud.

Mabry was indicted at Amarillo, Texas, June 13, after the local insurance agency had closed its doors. An investigation of the affairs of the company was immediately started by Inspector Wallace and culminated Thursday in the arrest of Mabry at his home in Dallas.

The information was given in a letter received by Postmaster Ed Howard, but no mention was made of what the inspector had found in his investigations. Mabry will be tried on the charge of "using the United States mails in a scheme to defraud" at the next term of the federal court in this city, which will probably be late next fall.

TEMPLARS CONFER ORDERS AT SEYMOUR WEDNESDAY EVENING

At the grand commandery conclave held in Wichita Falls during the month of April, the Knights Templar of Seymour received dispensation for the institution of a commandery in that city. Several weeks ago Grand Commander Hawkins instituted their commandery and put them to work. On Wednesday morning C. R. Hartsook, E. C.; W. Y. Hammack, G.; Otto Stehlik, C. G.; J. R. Bachman, S. W.; M. M. Cook, J. W.; C. O. Fritz, P.; A. A. Vermillion, St. B.; Robert Nolen, Sw. B.; W. B. Guthrie, W.; Leslie Stringer, Warren Smith, C. R. Bancroft, Lee Faught, J. J. Jenkins, C. C. Willard, E. G. Boardman, Charles Fuller and R. C. Coffee motored to Seymour, and after being entertained by the chamber of commerce with a delightful luncheon at Young's cafe at noon, opened the new Seymour commandery, U. D., in full form at 1 o'clock, conferring the orders of knighthood on the following candidates: G. E. Whiteside, M. E. Tarver, J. S. Shultz, I. O. Newton, B. F. Rupe, G. S. Plants, R. D. Mugg, J. R. Wilson, W. H. Miller, Jos. A. P. Dickson, W. H. Francis, Thomas C. Irby Jr. and Wright McClatchy.

A splendid chicken dinner was served to all visiting Templars at 7 p. m.

Morgan H. Jones and Camp Mirick of Fort Worth, and T. S. Guimarin and S. J. Marcell of Olney were visitors at this meeting.

The Masons of Seymour have secured a building site and expect to build a new Masonic temple some time during the year. It will be located on the main street of the city and will be two stories high. It will be devoted to the exclusive use of Masonry, the ground floor to be used as club rooms and banquet hall, and the second floor for lodge purposes.

The officers of the new commandery at Seymour are as follows:

C. E. Rupe, eminent commander; F. H. Runkley, generalissimo; W. P. McLarty, captain general; A. E. Richmond, prelate; D. J. Bailes, recorder; W. Whiteside, treasurer; W. B. Alexander, senior warden; R. R. Kellum, junior warden; J. L. Russell, sword bearer; F. F. Fisher, standard bearer; W. F. Thompkins, warder; H. C. Lankford, sentinel.

The local Templars report a splendid time, and expect to make a similar trip at some future date.

It is understood that Wichita Falls commandery No. 59 ranks very high in ritualistic work among Texas commanderies.

DIVORCE SUIT RATIO HIGH EVEN IN JUNE, MONTH OF MARRIAGES

June, the accepted month for marriages, has set a new starting record with reference to the ratio of divorces. The records of the county show that the ratio of divorces to marriages for the month is 1 to 2.102.

A total of 103 marriage licenses were issued during the entire month while 49 divorce suits were filed in the district courts.

The number of marriages for June, 1921, is far below that of 1920, when over 200 were issued. During the same month last year a total of 67 divorce suits were filed, setting a ratio of 1 divorce to every 3.12 marriages.

TARRANT COUNTY PLANS MARKING FOR CROSS ROADS

FORT WORTH, July 1.—Automobilists touring Texas this summer will be able to "get their bearings" when they reach crossroads in Tarrant county, according to plans of the county commissioners and the Fort Worth Automobile club.

Markers will be placed at every cross road in the county, telling the direction and distance to Fort Worth and the direction and distance to the principal towns and cities in the opposite direction from Fort Worth. The markers which will be constructed of steel and imbedded in concrete, will be in place within sixty days, the club announced. The markers are expected to stand at the crossroads for five years.

Tarrant county is the first in Texas to erect markers, the club's officials said, and other Texas counties are expected to take up the plan.

Fort Worth has the only "glass wagon" in the state, according to the automobile club, which operates it. The wagon makes daily rounds of the city, picking up all broken glass that is found or that is reported to the club's office.

LARGE QUANTITY NARCOTIC RECEIVED AT WASHINGTON

EL PASO, July 1.—The safe arrival in Washington, D. C., of narcotics valued at $862,103 was announced by John A. Toomey, acting prohibition enforcement supervisor for the El Paso district.

The drugs were confiscated by federal narcotic agents of the El Paso district. They consist of morphine, cocaine, opium and other narcotics. The shipment was made secretly in order to frustrate any attempts at robbery, according to Mr. Toomey. During the fiscal year in El Paso 353 cases have been investigated, 396 suspects arrested and 146 convictions secured, Mr. Toomey said.

TOOTS AND CASPER—Casper's Not Going to Let the Cow Oversleep

THE ADVENTURE OF BLACK PETER

By A. CONAN DOYLE

Copyright, 1921, by Harper & Bros. Published by special arrangement with The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

The story thus far:

Inspector Stanley Hopkins goes to Sherlock Holmes for help on his first big case. Captain Peter Carey, fifty years old, a most daring and successful seal and whale fisher, has retired and settled down on a small place called Woodman's Lee. He lives with his wife, his daughter and two women servants. He is a gloomy sort of man, a friend when he is drunk. He was known on shipboard of Black Peter.

He sleeps in a hut near his house, a stonemason passing the place a few nights before had seen a shadow on the window which was not Peter's. Several days later Peter was found killed, pinned to the floor of the hut by a harpoon which had been torn down from a rack on the wall. There was an untouched decanter of brandy and whiskey with two soiled glasses, also a half-full sealskin tobacco pouch with the letters P. C. on it. Carey seldom smoked. There was likewise a notebook containing many letters and figures, among them C. P. R., which Holmes pointed out obviously meant Canadian Pacific Railway, and J. H. N.

They all went to look at the hut and found that the lock had been tampered with. Holmes carefully looked on the floor for any clues. After nightfall he and Watson returned to wait outside the hut for the possible return of the person or persons who had tampered with the lock.

About half past two they were startled by a low click from the direction of the gate, indicating that somebody had entered the drive. Then there came a stealthy scraping. Someone was trying to force the lock. They heard the door creak open on its hinges, and then a candle lighted the inside of the hut. The watchers saw a young and frightened man look about, take down one of the log books from the shelf, look through it, and then, with an angry gesture, replaced it. Hopkins seized him as he came from the hut and asked an explanation. He said he was John Hopley Neligan, son of Neligan of Dawson and Neligan, a banking firm that had failed some time ago, ruining many. His father had disappeared. The young man said he had gone off in a yacht with a lot of securities, telling the boy and his wife that he would return with his honor cleared, and that nobody would suffer from him. He had never been heard from but finally some of the securities had appeared in London, and had been traced to Captain Carey. The young man then found out that Carey was returning from the Arctic seas in a whaler at the time his father disappeared, and thought possibly his father's boat had been blown into Captain Carey's course. He had come to question the captain, he said, just when he heard of the murder, and had then tried to get information from the log books, but the entry for that date was torn out. He protested that he knew nothing more. Hopkins then showed him the little notebook containing his initials and asked him what that meant. The wretched man collapsed, and Hopkins put him under arrest.

PART FIVE.

"Well, Watson, what do you think of it?" asked Holmes, as we traveled back next morning.

"I can see that you are not satisfied."

"Oh, yes, my dear Watson, I am perfectly satisfied. At the same time, Stanley Hopkins' methods do not commend themselves to me. I am disappointed in Stanley Hopkins. I had hoped for better things from him. One should always look for a possible alternative, and provide against it. It is the first rule of criminal investigation."

"What, then, is the alternative?"

"The line of investigation which I have myself been pursuing. It may give us nothing. I cannot tell. But at least I shall follow it to the end."

Several letters were waiting for Holmes at Baker street. He snatched one of them up, opened it, and burst out into a triumphant chuckle of laughter.

"Excellent, Watson! The alternative develops. Have you telegraph forms? Just write a couple of messages for me: Sumner, Shipping Agent, Ratcliff Highway. Send three men on, to arrive ten tomorrow morning.—Basil.' That's my name in those parts. The other is 'Inspector Stanley Hopkins, 46 Lord street, Brixton. Come breakfast tomorrow at nine-thirty. Important. Wire if unable to come.—Sherlock Holmes.' There, Watson, this infernal case has haunted me for ten days. I hereby banish it completely from my presence. Tomorrow, I trust that we shall hear the last of it for ever."

Sharp at the hour named Inspector Stanley Hopkins appeared, and we sat down together to the excellent breakfast which Mrs. Hudson had prepared. The young detective was in high spirits at his success.

"You really think that your solution must be correct?" asked Holmes.

"I could not imagine a more complete case."

"It did not seem to me conclusive."

"You astonish me, Mr. Holmes. What more could one ask for?"

"Does your explanation cover every point?"

"Undoubtedly. I find that young Neligan arrived at the Framblety Hotel on the very day of the crime. He came on the pretence of playing golf. His room was on the ground floor, and he could get out when he liked. That very night he went down to Woodman's Lee, saw Peter Carey at the hut, quarreled with him, and killed him with the harpoon. Then, horrified by what he had done, he fled out of the hut, dropping the notebook which he had brought with him in order to question Peter Carey about these different securities. You may have observed that some of them were marked with ticks, and the others—the great majority—were not. Those which are ticked have been traced on the London market, but the others, presumably, were still in the possession of Carey, and young Neligan, according to his own account, was anxious to recover them in order to do the right thing by his father's creditors. After his flight he did not dare to approach the hut again for some time, but at last he forced himself to do so in order to obtain the information which he needed. Surely that is all simple and obvious?"

Holmes smiled and shook his head.

"It seems to me to have only one drawback, Hopkins, and that is that it is intrinsically impossible. Have you tried to drive a harpoon through a body? No? Tut, tut, my dear sir, you must really pay attention to these details. My friend Watson could tell you that I spent a whole morning in that exercise. It is no easy matter, and requires a strong and practiced arm. But this blow was delivered with such violence that the head of the weapon sank deep into the wall. Do you imagine that this anaemic youth was capable of so frightful an assault? Is he the man who hobnobbed in rum and water with Black Peter in the dead of the night? Was it his profile that was seen on the blind two nights before. No, no, Hopkins, it is another and more formidable person for whom we must seek."

The detectives face had grown longer and longer during Holmes' speech. His hopes and his ambitions were all crumbling about him. But he would not abandon his position without a struggle.

"You can't deny that Neligan was present that night, Mr. Holmes. The book will prove that. I fancy that I have evidence enough to satisfy a jury, even if you are able to pick a hole in it. Besides, Mr. Holmes, I have laid my hand upon my man. As to this terrible person of yours, where is he?"

"I rather fancy that he is on the stair," said Holmes, serenely. "I think Watson, that you would do well to put that revolver where you can reach it." He rose and laid a written paper upon a side-table.

"Now we are ready," said he.

There had been some talking in gruff voices outside, and now Mrs. Hudson opened the door to say that there were three men inquiring for Captain Basil.

"Show them in one by one," said Holmes.

The first who entered was a little ribstone pippin of a man, with ruddy cheeks and fluffy white side-whiskers. Holmes had drawn a letter from his pocket.

"What name?" he asked.

"James Lancaster."

"I am sorry, Lancaster, but the berth is full. Here is half a sovereign for your trouble. Just step into this room, and wait there for a few minutes."

The second man was a long, dried-up creature, with lank hair and sallow cheeks. His name was Hugh Pattins. He also received his dismissal, his half-sovereign, and the order to wait.

The third applicant was a man of remarkable appearance. A fierce bull-dog face was framed in a tangle of hair and beard, and two bold, dark eyes gleamed behind the cover of thick, tufted, overhung eyebrows. He saluted and stood sailor-fashion, turning his cap round in his hands.

"Your name?" said Holmes.

"Patrick Cairns."

"Harpooner?"

"Yes, sir. Twenty-six voyages."

"Dundee, I suppose?"

"Yes, sir."

"And ready to start with an exploring ship?"

"Yes, sir."

"What wages?"

"Eight pounds a month."

"Could you start at once?"

"As soon as I get my kit."

"Have you your papers?"

"Yes, sir." He took a sheaf of worn and greasy forms from his pocket. Holmes glanced over them and returned them.

"You are just the man I want," said he. "Here's the agreement on the side-table. If you sign it the whole matter will be settled."

The seaman lurched across the room and took up the pen.

"Shall I sign here?" he asked, stooping over the table.

Holmes leaned over his shoulder and passed both hands over his neck.

"This will do," said he.

I heard a click of steel and a bellow like an enraged bull. The next instant Holmes and the seaman were rolling on the ground together. He was a man of such gigantic strength that, even with the handcuffs which Holmes had so deftly fastened upon his wrists, he would have very quickly overpowered my friend had Hopkins and I not rushed to his rescue. Only when I pressed the cold muzzle of the revolver to his temple did he at last understand that resistance was vain. We lashed his ankles with cord, and rose breathless from the struggle.

Tomorrow—The Adventure of Black Peter, concluded.

The canvasback duck was known to the epicure long before it was described by the naturalists.

HOUSTON BUSINESS MAN IS DELIGHTED

Dalton Beard Says He Eats Better, Sleeps Better and Feels Better Now

"Put me down as a firm believer in Taniac, for when I tell you it has helped me over troubles that bothered me for three years I am giving you the plain, unvarnished facts," said Dalton D. Beard, 223 Lennox avenue, a well-known and popular young business man of Houston, Texas.

"I don't know when I have found anything that did me as much good as Taniac and I sure don't mind telling people about it, for it delivers the goods. I was in a run-down, nervous condition, was frequently bilious and nearly always constipated, having awful headaches every little while which seemed to be getting more and more frequently, and was so restless at night I could hardly sleep at all. I used to get up in the morning feeling heavy and all worn out and wouldn't feel very much better during the day. I felt sure it was my stomach that caused this trouble, for nothing I ate agreed with me.

"I would be hard to satisfy if I wasn't pleased with what Taniac did for me and there is hardly anything good enough for me to say about it. I am eating three good, hearty meals a day now, am rid of the nervous headaches and every last thing resembling in any way stomach trouble. I eat better, sleep better and feel betetr, and no reasonable man could ask more of a medicine."

Taniac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Store, in Electra by Tarleton Drug Store, in Burkburnett by West End Drug Co., and all leading druggists.—adv.

FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1921.

THE PUBLIC MAY BE THE BIRD THEY'RE AFTER.

About a year ago the city of Wichita Falls, along with a number of other municipalities in Texas, was forced to accept terms imposed by the North Texas Gas company in order to obtain that company's agreement to make some effort or attempt to provide a better gas supply than it had been furnishing. The city accepted the company's terms and the alacrity and apparent ease with which the company furnished an adequate gas supply has led to some suspicion that the company may have known it had the gas all along and was only holding back until the several municipalities came to its terms.

And that contract that the city was forced to sign in order to prevent its people from freezing is a peculiar kind of an instrument. It appears that when a higher price is paid for gas at the wells that a higher price may automatically be charged all along the line from well owners, whoever they may be, to the Lone Star Gas company, the pipe line company, the North Texas Gas company, which is the distributing company, onto the consumer who may be charged, after a certain time, as much as a dollar per thousand cubic feet for gas.

It appears from all available information that the Lone Star Gas company and the North Texas Gas company were very intimate up until recently when the Lone Star company, for some reason or other, attempted to disown the North Texas company, which has gone into the courts to ask that its contracts with the Lone Star company not be abrogated. About the merits of the controversy The Times knows nothing. It does feel that it is the duty of those to whom we have entrusted our affairs to watch developments closely and to leave nothing undone that they can do for the protection of the people, for when pipe line and distributing companies fall out it may happen that the bird who gets plucked will be the dear public which may be invited to dollar gas.

IT IS GOOD TO LIVE AMONG SUCH A PEOPLE.

The Christian citizenship of Wichita Falls never made a finer demonstration of its spirit of sacrifice and generosity than it did last Sunday morning at the First Baptist church when more than $83,000 was pledged within fifteen minutes to pay off the debt incurred in erecting that splendid edifice of worship. When it is considered that many had already made great financial sacrifices in their gifts to this church and that the financial stringency of recent months has borne heavily upon the community, the spontaneous and generous response to the appeal to meet the need of the church was all the more notable.

But this was what might have been expected from a devoted, earnest people filled with high resolve and a sense of duty and a willingness to sacrifice, who had built a noble edifice for a noble and holy purpose. Such people have always been ready for the sacrifices that have wrought great accomplishments. All of us in Wichita Falls can congratulate and rejoice with the congregation and all others who have helped in the building of the First Baptist church. It is a good thing to live among such a people.

A contribution to a more splendid purpose could scarcely be conceived than for a part in the erection of the beautiful place of worship and plant for the manifold charitable, social, educational and other activities of this congregation. For hundreds of years this building should remain a fitting temple of worship and a place of service to God and humanity.

And it is one of the recompenses of sacrifice that the greater the sacrifices the more there is to sacrifice and the money given for this splendid purpose has not lessened one dollar the amount that will be available for other good causes in this community.

WAR RISK INSURANCE STATISTICS.

The government has to date made a total disbursement of $226,486,891.34 in meeting both the compensation claims of former service men disabled by reason of wounds, injuries or disease incurred in the world war, and the death claims of the dependents of those who made the supreme sacrifice, according to an announcement of Director C. R. Forbes of the bureau of war risk insurance. The disbursements for disability have aggregated $192,677,589.48 and the death disbursements $33,809,301.86.

For the month of May alone the total amount disbursed by the bureau for compensation purposes was $10,575,416, the monthly payments on disability compensation claims for that period amounting to $9,145,288 and the monthly payments to the dependents of deceased soldiers amounting to $1,430,128.00. Between June 1 and June 15 the bureau mailed 221,612 checks to cover this disbursement to former service men.

The increase in the number of claims filed with the bureau has exceeded any estimate. The number of claims filed from the inception of the bureau to May, 1919, was 209,700 while on June 1, 1921, the number in file was 631,980, showing an increase during that period of 422,280. The number of awards for death and disability for the first period was 41,073; the number of awards at the end of the second period was 323,415, an increase during the second period of 282,342. For the first period the ratio was one claim pending to every two filed. For the second period, the ratio was one claim pending to every eight claims filed.

ONE WAY OF SHIFTING TAXATION.

If estimates that the proposed new tariff bill will raise revenues of $700,000,000 annually are correct, Representative Garner's declaration that it will place a burden of two billion dollars annually upon the homes of the American people appears reasonable. That is about the proportion in which it has been found that revenues derived from high tariffs have added to the aggregate of living costs and if we have the tariff we must expect to foot the bill.

Even with expenditures as huge as they now are a revenue item of $700,000,000 is one of no mean importance. The tariff bill is one method by which the party in power expects to shift the burden of taxation. The shift will mean that the tax payer will be relieved of about one dollar indirect taxation for which he will be forced to pay three dollars in indirect taxes.

That is one solution of our taxation problem that is pretty certain of adoption.

Editorial Echoes

Strike Improbable.
(Amarillo Tribune).

Strike of railroad shop employes as favored by a great majority of the shopmen according to the recent vote on the issue, would doubtless culminate in the worst defeat ever suffered by organized workers. At this time when the nation seeks to recover its industrial balance; when the producer and consumer, employer and employe, business man and professional worker, farmer and the shop worker, all are making sacrifices in the inevitable readjustment of economical conditions—a strike by any class of workers so vitally affecting the welfare of the entire people as rail employes, in opposition to a wage cut of approximately 12 per cent, would not only be disastrous to the workers who would walk out but would be costly to the business, economic and industrial life of the country.

Such action would result in a serious setback to the steady improvement and recovery of general conditions, so essential to the welfare of the business life of the country and is essential to the future of workers of all trades, rail workers included.

Not only would a strike of rail workers throw confusion into the wheels of industry but such action at this time in view of all the circumstances would cause the condemnation of the public to be heaped upon these workers, which would be far more costly than the reduction of 12 per cent in their pay.

They would have the public solidly against them. Without public approval strikes, seldom if ever, are won. That is one reason they could not hope to win. The fact that thousands of workers, just as skilled as they, now out of work, stand ready to take their places in case they walk out, is another point against their chances of winning such a strike.

But despite the overwhelming majority in favor of the strike it is hardly possible that any radical action will be taken soon. With all the chances against them they would give the matter more than a first thought before striking and on top of that, the leaders of the organization are openly opposed to such a move. While they are bound to obey the decisions of the men, they would no doubt convince many of them of their error recorded in the first vote and their opposition to a strike would outweigh the opinions of a great per cent of the men, which might ultimately lead to a retraction of their demands.

After the Jobs.
(Denison Herald):

Another federal official in Texas, the collector of customs at Galveston, has been requested to resign in order to make way for a deserving republican. Just a short time ago the democratic district attorney in the west Texas district was requested to vacate and on his refusal to accommodate the powers that be, his summary removal followed by executive order. We presume the same course will be pursued in the Galveston case should the incumbent display the least spirit of recalcitrancy.

Nearly four months have elapsed since the administration came into power and the number of democrats continuing to make monthly connection with the national treasury is causing wails of distress in the republican camp. For eight years they have been out in the cold, feeding on the husks left by swine, as it were, and now that control of the temple has been wrung from the enemy, they see no valid reason for the outposts to be guarded by those of opposite faith. Besides, jobs are scarce and wages are being reduced. Unless the administration comes to their relief they will face embarrassment from many angles.

Since the administration has expressed a desire to eliminate the endless mass of red tape characterizing official Washington, we suggest that a start in that direction be made by discontinuing requests to democratic office holders to hand in their resignations. After all it is a matter of form, an easy way to let them down, to be followed later by an order to get out without further ceremony. Why not have the president, in the interest of time as well as to save him needless interruptions, issue a general order to all democratic federal officials to step down and out to the end that the hungry though faithful republicans may have a seat at the table?

"What are we here for anyway, Mr. President, if it is not to divide the spoils for which we fought with distinguished valor a few months ago?" they inquire. "Why delay the hour of our enjoyment of the fruits of victory when necessity stands unbidden at the door? The devilish democrats have feasted long enough. Let them take their appointed places with the goats and made to feel the bitterness of defeat, even as we have felt it for all these years."

And when the situation is viewed from a non-partisan standpoint the conclusion is irresistable that election contests after all are mere struggles to determine who shall enjoy the spoils.

HUMANISMS
Inner Lights on Lives and Whims of Personages in the Public Eye

By WILLIAM ATHERTON DU PUY.

A minister up in Michigan acquired preacher's sore throat from talking too much and because of this a blonde young woman was started on a career which has led her to become one of the few women who occupy departmental posts in the Harding government.

The woman in question is Mrs. Haviland H. Lund, expert in rural organization, attached to the office of the secretary of the interior. This minister, who had to leave his job, took up life insurance. He explained that the one logical opportunity for people with education and no means was soliciting. It was their open door.

This sounded reasonable, so the young woman decided to get her training as a book agent. She did so well that, in six months, she was offered the agency for a whole state. But instead she went down to Chicago and presented herself at the offices of a big insurance company.

"We don't hire women," they said. "We don't want to see them around." The day of woman in business had not then dawned.

"You wouldn't mind me," ventured the girl from Michigan.

They tried her out. She picked her own prospects and ignored all but the big ones. The year she was nineteen she wrote more insurance than any man in the organization.

W. W. Husband, now commissioner general of immigration, was in Berlin two weeks after the signing of the armistice.

One day he went to see Dr. Solf, who was temporarily at the head of the government.

Could Mr. Husband tell him, he wanted to know, where Herbert Hoover was. The interest was gone in Foch, Pershing & Co. They were interested in the man with the food.

Mr. Husband said he did not know. Dr. Solf said they knew Hoover had left London the night before, that he had been in Havre at 9 that morning, but they could not find out whether he had gone to Paris or Brussels.

It looked, though, as if the defeated Germans still had an information staff that was working pretty well.

Another incident of that time that impressed upon him the nature of the German, says Mr. Husband, was the day that the Spartacus forces attempted to seize the government. Most of the action was obligingly right in front of his hotel. There was a little park there about as big as a half square. It was densely thronged.

But not once did those throngs forget that the grass was "forbidden" and not once did they step off the walks and paths and on to it.

There is no other people in the world, he thinks, that is so well disciplined and so amenable to it.

Fred C. Kelly, the author and humorist is in private, an inordinate practical joker.

He chuckled for a month over a little trick he played not long ago at the book table of a department store.

He was idly turning over the books, largely for lack of anything better to do, and a lot of other people were fiddling around in a most desultory, not to say, trifling way.

Kelly observed an idea that he figured would wake them up.

He took from his pocket a dollar bill. Then he turned the leaves of the book in the same careless way that he had been using.

Presently the dollar fell out. He pressed his hand down upon it, closed upon it, glanced furtively around and slipped it into his pocket.

But the other shoppers had seen. They grasped the idea. The proprietor of that store had hidden dollar bills in the books. They would find some of them. They went steadily and earnestly to work. Their activity increased. Presently they were clawing wildly through those books.

And Kelly stood by and chuckled.

JUST FOLKS
By EDGAR A. GUEST.

Howdy Mister Sunshine.

Here's Howdy, Mister Sunshine, for you're welcome round the place.
We're mighty glad to greet you and to see your smiling face,
Just nose around the blossoms in the garden as you will,
And do a little dancing on each dusty window sill;
There's a sleepy boy up yonder that will give you back a smile
If you'll let your brightest sunbeam go and tickle him awhile.

Here's Howdy, Mister Sunshine, an we're mighty glad you're back,
Come along an' spill the roses an' the peonies from your pack;
There's a pair o' little robins in the elm tree nestin' high
That have waited for your coming; an' today I guess they'll fly
Cos I've heard their mother tellin' to those most impatient things
That the first day it was sunny she would let 'em try their wings.

Here's Howdy, Mister Sunshine, an' a welcome that is true,
Every living thing, I fancy, gets the breath o' life from you,
An' I don't know if you know it, but the baby seems to grin
Just a little more delighted when you're tickling' his chin,
An' the old man in his corner with his journey almost done,
Finds a thousand joys to please him when he's sittin' in the sun.

Here's Howdy, Mister Sunshine! Oh, it seems to me our girls
Are loveliest the mornings you are dancin' in their curls,
An' though we must have sorrow an' there must be days of rain,
The joy is all the sweeter when you come to us again,
So it's Howdy, Mister Sunshine, from the lips of man an' boy,
An' the women folks who love you—here's a day we'll all enjoy.

POKER PORTRAITS—The Man With the Feeble Memory

The History of Your Name

LYNCH.

Variation—Lynn.
Racial Origin—Anglo-Saxon; also Irish.
Source—Geographically descriptive.

Lynch and Lynn are two family names which sound so much alike that families have often changed from one spelling to the other, particularly in the period before schooling became virtually universal. Yet, though they have become so entangled as to be almost considered the same name, they are, as a matter of fact, from entirely different sources, and have different meanings.

It is very doubtful if Lynch and Lynn have been changed from one to the other to any extent in this country, though there are many families in the United States named Lynch which are of undoubted Irish origin. Yet Lynch is not Celtic. It is Anglo-Saxon. The original Lynches must have lived on meadow lands or near thickets of small woody sections, for the word has that meaning in different sections of England. We have the Scottish equivalent of it in the phrase "golf links."

Lynn is a Celtic word and means a pool or tiny lake. At the period when the people of many sections of Ireland were forced to substitute English for Irish family names, more often than not they selected English name with the closest sound rather than the closest meaning, which is the explanation of the number of Lynches of Irish ancestry in this country today.

COMPLAINANTS DROP CASE AGAINST MRS. JESSIE R. WOOD

The five or six merchants from Burkburnett who complained Wednesday of Mrs. Jessie R. Wood and effected her arrest at Decatur, dropped the charge against her Thursday evening and permitted her to go free. It appears that the woman bought goods from the business men and gave worthless checks in payment. The woman was taken from a Fort Worth train at Decatur and returned here. When the woman agreed to give them back all the goods purchased they dropped the case.

Do We Speak of "Tipping" a Waiter?

While words which have been formed by the abbrevation of other words are far from uncommon, those which are nothing more than the initials of the words of a phrase are unusual to place them in a class by themselves. Of these, "fad"—reputed to be nothing more than the first letters of "for a day"—and "tip" are excellent examples. To trace the history of the latter we have to go back to the days when club houses flourished in England, the days of Ben Johnson and his associates. The practice of tipping waiters, as we refer to it today, was then unknown, but boxes began to be placed in the chop-houses and other restaurants, with signs on them "to insure promptness." The guests were expected to drop some donation into these boxes and the proceeds were divided among the waiters at the end of the week. In time the legend on the cards was shortened to "T. I. P." and the "tip" thus found its way into the language.

OLD TEXHOMA FIELD SHOWING ACTIVITY EVEN IN DULL TIMES

At present the greatest activity in this section for the week seems to be going on in the old Texhoma field. On the M., K. & T. right of way the Weona Oil company has set the 6⅝ at 1,140 feet and are preparing to test.

Scott and Sheegog in their No. 1 Beach are swabbing around 30 barrels and will clean out to drill deeper into the sand. On the same lease J. I. Staley et al are also on the sand in their No. 2 well and are swabbing 25 barrels but will drill deeper. On the Cropper the Stumpf Oil and Gas company is still pumping 50 barrels in their No. 1 well.

On the Roller tract the Pioneer Oil corporation is drilling at 1,280 feet. On the Rexford the Jones Oil and Gas company has completed their No. 2 well on the 1,275-foot sand and is making around 100 barrels. In their No. 4 on the same tract the drill has reached the gas sand but the well will not be completed until they reach the 1,400-foot oil sand. The Sinclair Oil and Gas company on the No. 2 Cropper are cleaning out at 1,390.

Electra.

The Gloria Oil company on the Douglass has completed their power and are putting No. 1 well on the pump. The initial flow of this well was 75 barrels from the 1,780 sand, a new sand to this district. The location for well No. 2 has been made but on account of the bad condition of the market the company has decided to do nothing further in the drilling line until it takes an upward trend.

Archer County.

The Archer Oil Refining company's test on the Andrews, one mile south of Archer City, which was bailed out Wednesday to test a sand that was encountered at 1,394 feet, showed some oil and considerable gas, are now shut down, waiting on orders.

ESCAPED PRISONER FROM GRAHAM JAIL IS CAPTURED HERE

Joe Palmer, who escaped from the Graham jail last April when eight men gained their freedom, was captured in Wichita county Thursday evening by Rangers McCormick and Gonzaullas and Charles Bebout, special agent of the Anti-Theft Automobile association.

Palmer is charged with the theft of an automobile and was apprehended while watching a baseball game at Newtown Thursday afternoon.

The rangers also swooped down upon a big poker game that was in progress in the oil fields Thursday night.

While in Archer county seeking the whereabouts of Heinie Jackson, who, it was thought, had escaped, Rangers McCormick and Gonzaullas and Archer county officers raided Ghost City and secured a still and arrested two men on charges of violation of the prohibition laws.

LEE CLARK HONORED AT SUMMER UNIVERSITY

Superintendent of Schools Lee Clark, who is now studying for his master's degree in education at the University of Texas, has been appointed as a member of the honor council for men students at the summer sessions of the school.

An account of the appointments was carried in the Daily Texan, official student publication of the university, and is given below:

"Members of the honor council for women students will be appointed in the next few days, according to an announcement made today by Dean Eby. The honor council for men has already been appointed and consists of Crozier Gowan, chairman; R. Lee Clark, Cecil R. Chamberlain, Frank McGehee and John F. Humphries.

"The two honor councils form the judicial branch of the student government. They have jurisdiction over cases involving a breach of the honor system and in all cases involving a violation of the constitution or statutes of the legislative branch of the student government, the students' assembly. During the long session the members of both honor councils are elected, but in the summer school the dean appoints them, since the best qualified candidates are not so well known to the student body. Those who have council experience are appointed whenever possible. All members must be students who have given evidence of serious purpose by their records."

OLD FASHIONED CAMP MEETING OPENS HERE

A series of camp meetings patterned after the old fashioned services in vogue 25 years ago will open Friday night at Tenth and Buchanan streets, with Charles F. Parham, noted evangelist of Baxter Springs, Kan., in charge.

A regular encampment which is reported to be drawing a large congregation from out of town is to be held in conjunction with the meetings, camping space having been provided on vacant lots near the main tent, and it is the hope of those in charge of the revival that local residents will avail themselves of the privileges offered by the camp and services.

Parham and his musical director, Fred A. Campbell, have conducted services the nation over and are reported to have obtained over 50,000 converts in that time.

All day services will be held at the tent next Sunday, as well as on Monday, July 4.

City Briefs

Lee Bloomingdale of the New Domain Oil company, has returned from Hardeman county, looking after the affairs of the above company.

C. W. Hanley, chief scout of the Gulf Production company, has returned with his family from Brownwood and Coleman, where they had been spending the past ten days with relatives.

Will Keenan has returned from Lewiston, Montana, where he is interested in some promising oil properties in the Cat creek district. Mr. Keenan says Texas has not yet felt the full force of the depression in business caused by the drop in crude, and Wichita Falls is booming in comparison to the city of Billings, Lewiston and other cities in the Montana fields. The same conditions also prevail in the Wyoming fields, especially around the Casper district, he reports.

MEXICAN ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERTS HERE ON TUESDAY

A musical treat of more than ordinary proportions is in store for music lovers of this city when the presidential orchestra of Alvaro Obregon, president of the republic of Mexico, comes to Wichita Falls for two concerts, Tuesday, July 5.

Matinee and evening performances will be given at the Wichita theatre and will include numbers by the orchestra itself, operatic selections by a troup of noted Mexican vocalists and several classic dances by Mexican terpsichorean artists. The orchestra includes a membership of 45 musicians, gleaned from the best musical talent of the country, and directed by Senor Torreblanco, Mexico's foremost musical authority. Its tour of this country was ordered by Obregon as a part of the program to cement the friendship and extend trade relations between Mexico and the United States and is being financed at national expense. The present trip, which will include practically all the northern and eastern states, will cost in the neighborhood of $200,000.

Leroy Lockwood and J. T. McCully, advance representatives of the organization, were in Wichita Falls Friday completing arrangements for its engagement here. The advance sale of tickets opened Friday morning at the Palace theatre.

The orchestra is scheduled to arrive in this city early Tuesday morning aboard its special train from Fort Worth, where concerts are scheduled for Sunday and Monday. Following the local engagement it will play in Denison, the last Texas city to be visited before departure for northern and eastern points.

SENATOR FRANCE IS ON HIS WAY TO MOSCOW TO CONFER WITH THE SOVIET

RIGA, July 1.—United States Senator Joseph I. France, who plans to confer with Russian soviet officials relative to trade conditions, left Riga for Moscow last night. He rode in a dingy old second-class car which would take him through to the bolshevik capital, and was accompanied by a fuzzy haired, bespectacled young man who spoke with more or less accuracy twelve languages, and for whom the bolshevik legation here asked for a double passport, as he was to enact the role of official courier and interpreter.

The luxurious sleeping car usually provided for bolshevik diplomats on the trip from Riga to Moscow and in which distinguished guests of the soviet government have been taken to the capital, failed to materialize for some unexplained reason. The car in which Senator France rode had a capacity which would give accommodations for fourteen persons and provide considerable baggage space. It had fifteen persons aboard and differed from the other fourteen cars on the train only in being less crowded than the rest.

Senator France and his companion had one small compartment entirely to themselves, but there was no bedding but a mattress, but the senator had provided his own sleeping bag.

"I will be perfectly comfortable," the senator declared as the train pulled out. "I have traveled standing before this."

WANDERER CASE MAY GO TO THE JURY LATE TODAY

CHICAGO, July 1.—Testimony of state's illnists in the hearing of Carl Wanderer, convicted of killing his wife and a "ragged stranger", and seeking to escape a death penalty on a plea of insanity is to be completed today and the case may go to the jury this evening.

The "hope chest" bank account of Wanderer's wife is being used to pay for his defense, it became known today. Receipts for $1,606 of her money, signed by Wanderer, were introduced as evidence.

The state is endeavoring to prove that at the time the receipts were made out last March, Wanderer was sane.

Six Men of Zion Could Not Agree on Modest Dress

ZION, ILL., July 1.—Six men of Zion, members of the colony of Wilbur Glenn Voliva, inspected the evidence today in the first case brought of violation of Zion's new modest dress law and failed to agree.

Mrs. Sarah Johnson, 21, of Winthrop Harbor, Ill., appeared in court wearing the low neck, short sleeve, transparent blouse, which led to her arrest about two weeks ago for fracturing the dress law in three places. But after a careful appraisal of the evidence two of the jurors held out for acquittal.

Judge W. E. Semilfuss granted the motion of Prosecutor J. L. Bishop for a new trial.

DR. BUTLER DENIES HE IS COLONEL HOUSE OF THE ADMINISTRATION

By Associated Press.

LONDON, July 1.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, has emphasized to all inquirers during his visit here that he had not come to Europe as "President Harding's Colonel House," and that any suggestion to that effect was preposterous and ridiculous.

Dr. Butler has taken every opportunity at the numerous functions he has attended where he has met many of the most influential figures in British official and social circles, of assuring them that America's "birthright" rejection of the league of nations, as first enunciated here by Ambassador Harvey in his speech before the Pilgrims society, is firm and absolute.

D'ANNUNZIO ADHERENTS REORGANIZING FORCES

FIUME, July 1.—Capt. Gabriele D'Annunzio's adherents are reorganizing their forces into a contingent which will respond to any emergency which arises here. The war cry has gone out to former followers of the poet-aviator and they are congregating here and have already organized a body called the "Service Triest." D'Annunzio has sent out a message to his legionnaires, saying: "This year is ours. It belongs to the legionnaires and the Arditi, and we again consecrate ourselves in one vast and solemn bond."

The obstinancy of political leaders inside the city prevents the constitutional government from functioning and control of affairs is in the hands of General Foschin, commander of the Italian troops in Fiume.

AUTHORITIES INVESTIGATE DISAPPEARANCE OF THREE DIPLOMATIC MAIL SACKS

WASHINGTON, July 1.—At the request of the state department postal authorities are investigating the disappearance from three diplomatic mail pouches of official papers addressed to American representatives in Europe. The inquiry followed the report of the American consul at Stockholm that upon the arrival of the pouches there, the documents were missing.

The pouches were said to have contained mail regarded as of less importance than that in certain other pouches. Most of the material removed had been done up in packages, which has given rise to the theory that whoever removed the packages believed they were obtaining food.

WICHITA-KIWANIS BASEBALL BRAWL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

All preparations for the big Wichita "Top Floor" vs. Kiwanis "Konkrete" baseball brawl, scheduled for 4 o'clock at Spudder park this afternoon, were completed early in the day and the skippers of the two contending organizations reported their charges to be in the pink of condition and itching for a crack at their adversaries. Ticket sales have been light, more so than the officials of the two clubs had expected, but indications pointed to a fair sized crowd for the game and an equal financial return for the worthy poor of the city, who are to receive the proceeds.

Lloyd Weaver and Sid Gaines, managers of the two club teams, declared that they were each confident of "wiping up the earth" with the other, and Weaver went so far as to assert that after his crowd had beaten the Kiwanians they were going to whip them also.

Neither manager would announce his battery choice for the game, stating that they preferred to keep this information secret so that heavy bets which have been rumored to be pending might not be placed. Both intimated, however, that they had groomed their best pitching talent carefully and were fortified with strong catchers.

The game will be called at 4 o'clock sharp.

CONVICT 77 OF THE FILIPINO POLICE FOR KILLING AMERICANS

Referee Gleason declined again to accept it.

SENATE DEMOCRATS LAUNCH FIGHT ON PEACE PROPOSAL

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Senate democrats launched a last assault today on the republican peace resolution, a final vote on which was expected before adjournment tonight. Senators Walsh of Montana and Pomerene of Ohio, democrats, criticized the measure at length. Senator Walsh reiterated that it violated the armistice terms by holding German property until all American claims should be settled. Senator Pomerene said the resolution would "greatly handicap" the president in negotiating peace terms.

MUST APPLY TO FOREIGN OFFICE IN MEXICO CITY

EL PASO, TEXAS, July 1.—Mexicans who desire to return to their native land from the United States must make application to the foreign office in Mexico instead of the Mexican consulate here, it was announced by F. A. Pesquerra, Mexican consul in El Paso.

The Mexican consulate here has repatriated 15,000 Mexican citizens during the past six months, according to Mr. Pesqueira.

SALTILLO, COAHUILA, MEXICO, July 1.—According to information received in Saltillo the Mexican government has acquired several large haciendas in the state of Coahuila and will proceed at once to divide and colonize them at the expense and under the direction of the federal government.

The San Carlos and Hornos ranches which embrace an extensive area of fertile soil adapted to the culture of cotton, corn, beans, alfalfa and wheat are among those to be taken over. To those who do not care to buy subdivisions on long installments will be alloted small plots to work on shares or by paying a small annual rental. To these colonists all seeds, supplies and implements will be furnished practically at cost and may be paid for on installments, it was announced here.

Blows Exchanged While Spudders Are Creeping Up On Slipping Buffs

HOUSTON, June 30.—A two-round fist fight between Umpire Paul Sentell and Acting Manager Tanner of the Wichita Falls team, which took place in the fifth inning, featured the game won by the Spudders here today by the score of 5 to 3.

The Spudder players protested a decision made on Bailey at first base. Tanner rushed from the players' bench and a general argument ensued. Finally Tanner struck Sentell and Sentell retliated. The men mixed it for fully thirty seconds before players interfered. When the game was resumed Sentell went to the Spudder bench and ordered Tanner from the park. Tanner rushed him again and once more a fight ensued. Special officers rushed to the field and Tanner was escorted from the ball park and thence to the police station. After the game Sentell was also taken to the station.

Ray Blades lifted the ball over the right field fence, the first time the sturt has been done in two years. Blades had two homers and a double.

Timely hitting by Bescher and Darrough won for the visitors. Bescher's triple and double were responsible for two runs, while Darrough's two-ply wallop were responsible for the two others.

First Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Bescher walked; Gross sacrificed him to second, Potts touching Gross out on the line; Bescher went to third while McElwee was grounding out, Darringer to Bottomsley, and died there when Clark fouled out to Bottomsley. No runs, no hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Darrough got away to a great start. Baggan popped to Clark; Darringer flew out to Bescher; Bailey was disposed of by McDonald and Griggs. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: McDonald got a life when Bottomsley dropped Blades' throw; Miller lined to Whiteman; Griggs hit the first ball pitched straight into Bailey's capable mitts. Kitchens fanned. No runs, no hits, 1 error.

HOUSTON: Whiteman lined to Clark; Bottomsley fanned; Doyle singled to left with the count three and two on him, but was thrown out stealing, Kitchens to Clark. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

Third Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Bescher's big bat broke the ice in this round; after Darrough had drawn a pass for a starter, Bob tripled to right and sent "Rabbit" over the pan, but the next three men were helpless, and Bescher remained anchored at third; Gross was thrown out by Doyle; McElwee hit weakly to Potts and was an easy out while Clark fouled out again, this time to Eiffert. One run, 1 hit, no errors.

HOUSTON: The Buffs also got started in this round and broke into the run column. A sterling defense by the Spudders held them to one run. Blades, first up, socked one to deep center for the circuit; Eiffert followed with a safe punch to right and went to second on Potts' sacrifice, Griggs dropped Darrough's peg and Potts was safe; Eiffert stole third, Baggan swung three times and missed and Potts tried to steal second on the third strike; he was thrown out and Eiffert was held at third; Darringer walked; on an attempted double steal Eiffert was nipped at the plate, Kitchens to Clark to Kitchens. One run, 2 hits, 1 error.

Fourth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: Darrough did his best to win his own game in this chapter. McDonald flew out to Baggan for a starter, but Miller dropped a safety in right; Griggs beat out a slow roller down the third base line and after Kitchens had fanned for the second time Darrough slammed a double to left that scored Miller and Griggs; Bescher flew out to Baggan. Two runs, 3 hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Blades proved a thorn in Darrough's side again in this canto and the Buffs added one more as a result of his willow. Bailey flew out to left and Whiteman was thrown out by Gross; Danny Clark then started Darrough on the road to destruction by foozling Bottomsley's bounder; Doyle thumped a bingle to right that put Bottomsley on third and Blades pasted a double to center that scored Bottomsley. Fast fielding held Doyle on third. Eiffert was purposely passed and it proved to be a good move as Potts grounded out, Clark to Griggs. One run, 2 hits, 1 error.

Fifth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: The Spudders passed up another chance to tally when two singles were wasted; Gross grounded to Doyle and was thrown out at first; McElwee poked a bingle to right and after Clark had skied to Whiteman on the first ball pitched McDonald singled to center; Miller, however, fouled out Doyle. No runs, 2 hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: A short bout between Acting Manager "Buddy" Tanner and Umpire Sentell, which was won by the latter added a little zest to the occasion in this round. Baggan beat out a hit down the third base line as a starter. Darringer forced Baggan at second, Darrough to Clark. Bailey hit to Gross and when the latter's throw pulled Griggs off the bag, Sentell called him safe. Tanner saw things differently and quickly challenged Sentell. The latter was not averse to mixing it up and the scrap was finally broken up by a cop, though the latter had his hands full. Bescher tried to part the duo and had a tough time holding Sentell. A large portion of the fans surged onto the field, but Sentell parked Tanner and order was resumed after a short period. Whiteman advanced both runners by grounding out, Clark to Griggs; Bottomsley went out swinging. No runs, 1 hit, 1 error.

Sixth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: The Spudders added one more in this chapter and once again Bescher was the responsible party. Griggs took three healthy swats and sat down; Kitchens walked; after Darrough had fanned Bescher poled a long double to deep center that scored Kitchens; Gross hit the first ball pitched to Darfinger and was thrown out at first. One run, 1 hit, no errors.

HOUSTON: Darrough put 'em out in order in this inning. Doyle fouled out to McElwee in left; Blades whiffed and Eiffert's best was a pop to Gross. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning.

HICHITA FALLS: The Salmites were lucky in this chucker and swelled their total by one more. McElwee waited until the count was three and two on him before singling to right and he went to second shortly after when Eiffert let a passed ball go by; Clark hit the ozone three times; McDonald popped to Blades and the goddess of luck smiled, Miller hit a fly to deep short and though Whiteman had the ball in his hands, Darringer ran into him and forced him to drop it, McElwee scoring. Miller stole second, but his efforts availed him nothing as Griggs popped to Blades. One run, 1 hit, 1 error.

HOUSTON: Potts had no luck and swung three times in vain; Baggan was safe at first when a peg by Danny Gross pulled Griggs off the bag. There was no argument this time. Darringer put Baggan on second when he grounded out, Clark to Griggs; Bailey watched four wide ones sail by and mabled; Whiteman fouled out to McDonald. No runs, no hits, 1 error.

Eighth Inning.

WICHITA FALLS: It was three up and three down for the Spudders in this inning. Kitchens socked the first ball pitched to Baggan; Darrough took three cuts at the pill and then sat down. Bescher hit one on the nose, but drove it on a line straight into Whiteman's hands. No runs, no hits, no errors.

HOUSTON: Once again Blades proved a nemesis to Darrough and tried to keep his mates in the running. After Bottomsley had gone out on the first ball served him, Darrough to Griggs, and Doyle had lofted to McElwee, Blades caught another on the nose and drove it over the left field fence; Eiffert popped to Gross. One run, 1 hit, no errors.

NINTH INNING.

WICHITA FALLS: Gross flew out to Baggan on the first ball pitched; McElwee poled his third hit of the game to right field; Clark popped to Blades and the same man threw McDonald out at first. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

HOUSTON: Miller hit for Potts and knocked a weak roller to Darrough. Baggan drew a pass, but first was his stopping place as Darringer fouled out to McDonald and Bailey forced him at second, Clark unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CHAMPION IN FINAL TRAINING BOUT

Air of Mystery Surrounds Dempsey's Departure; Does Not Appear to Be Worried

ATLANTIC CITY, July 1.—This is getaway day for Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion. Before sundown this evening, the grim, determined Dempsey will be secluded amid the strange surroundings of a private residence in Jersey City, perhaps to face a night that may seem endless, there to remain until he faces Georges Carpentier in the battle of his life tomorrow afternoon. Everything is in readiness for the champion's departure. The exact hour, however, has not been divulged, nor has Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, revealed the railroad over which the champion and his party will travel. Where Dempsey will sleep in Jersey City tonight also is a guarded secret. The location will not be revealed even to the champion himself as Manager Kearns is taking every precaution to have him rest in absolute quiet, away from the eyes of the curious thousands.

Released from the close confinement of two months' training, Dempsey is happy in his liberation and more like a boy brimming over with anticipation than a heavyweight champion facing the most important battle of his career.

Dempsey revealed his happy, carefree state of mind yesterday when he sat on the front porch of his home and for more than two hours took part in a conversation that included a variety of subjects. While a driving rain beat on the huge field surrounding his camp, the pugilist laughed heartily and joked with a small circle of friends, frequently taking a friendly slap at whoever might be within range.

Weather Interfered Yesterday.

Dempsey had intended taking a light workout of a round or two at the punching bag in the oil airplane shed back of his camp yesterday, but the rain prevented all exercise except a long walk in the morning with "Mike" Trant, the Chicago detective sergeant, who will act as Dempsey's bodyguard in and out of the arena tomorrow. The hike was nothing more than a brisk walk, just enough for a bit of exercise.

After playing cards with his handlers last night and reading telegrams containing messages of good luck, the titleholder went to bed at 9:30 o'clock, and Trant, who slept in an adjoining room, is authority for the statement that the champion slept for nearly nine hours.

Dempsey is an unusual champion in at least one conspicuous respect. Virtually on the eve of his engagement with Carpentier, he is displaying none of that grouchiness and unapproachibility that traditionally has come to be regarded as the conclusive proof of a fighter being on "edge" for an important battle. The development of irritability has long been considered necessary to the attainment of prime physical condition.

This does not hold true with Dempsey. Manager Kearns and others connected with the champion have felt the strain of the protracted training period and are showing it more than the latter. What some of those around him consider an annoyance, Dempsey accepts as an amusing interruption. With hundreds of casual acquaintances and utter strangers meeting him every day, he has preserved a cordiality and heartiness which his associates have lost.

Moving Day For Champ.

Final preparations for the departure to Jersey City were completed soon after breakfast today. Expressmen were busy hauling trunks to the station. All outstanding accounts with the sparring partners, cooks and other attaches of the camp were settled up and the keys of the two houses, which have been Dempsey's camp during the ten weeks training, were turned over to their owners.

Dempsey's three Belgian police dogs, which have been with him during the training grind, already are in Jersey City. They were taken into the champion's limousine by his brother, Bernard Dempsey, yesterday.

Battling Nelson, who predicted the downfall of Jess Willard at Toledo two years ago, predicts that tomorrow's contest will be the shortest and most viciously fought in heavyweight history. Nelson will not be surprised if Dempsey wins in the first round. The "battler" has been here for a week.

"I look for the battle to end before either Dempsey or Carpentier get warmed up," Nelson said today. "They are terrific hitters and one of them will drop in short order. Of course, I am sticking to Dempsey. He looks to me better than when he fought Willard; he's got more class, knows more 'stuff' and is a better and more polished boxer.

"You'll recall that I told the boys at Toledo that Willard would get the punching of his life. Well, the same thing goes for Carpentier. Dempsey looks like a cinch."

NOTHING BUT PEACE FOR FRENCHMAN TODAY

Friendly Callers Unable to Wish Challenger Well on Eve of Bout.

MANHASSET, N. Y., July 1.—Only light exercise was on the work program of Georges Carpentier today, and to keep his mind off tomorrow's battle, Trainer Wilson prescribed phonograph music, a walk through the woods and a long automobile ride. The camp was besieged by an army of last-minute well-wishers, but they met stout resistance at the gate in a squad of county policemen and camp attaches and were turned away.

This of all days, Trainer Wilson said, was to be a day of peace for the challenger and he was to be bothered not even by personal friends.

All members of the camp were busy getting things in order for the morrow. Everybody was champing at the bit in their impatience, but there was only a slight display of real nervousness. This was on the part of Manager Descamps, who appeared to be "up in the air" because of a number of telephone calls. He said there had been no less than 75 up to noon and that he had been asked all the foolish questions imaginable.

Some fellow, who said he was going to bet on Carpentier, wanted to talk to the challenger himself and ask his advice. A woman though Descamps rude because he refused an invitation for the challenger to attend an ice cream social tonight.

Although he declined to say what plans had been made for after the fight, Descamps intimated that the camp here would be retained. Trainer Wilson will be placed in charge and will condition Charles Ledoux, the French bantamweight champion, and Paul Journee, the big French heavyweight. It is also probable that Marcel Denis, the French lightweight, will train here under the supervision of Wilson. Should Georges win his fight with Dempsey, it is almost certain that he will come to this country later and make Manhasset his headquarters, if only temporarily.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

CLEVELAND, June 30.—Detroit turned the tables on Cleveland today and won 6 to 3. Bagby was driven from the box in the third inning but Caldwell proved effective. NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pirates 5, Reds 3.

PITTSBURGH, June 30.—Pittsburgh won both games from Cincinnati by scores of 4 to 3 and 5 to 3 today. The first contest was a one and one-half inning play off of a protested game, the major portion of which was played May 28 and was won in the ninth inning, with two out, when Grim hit into the right field bleachers for a home run.

Luque was the pitcher and he also started the second game, but was driven from the box in the seventh when Pittsburgh broke a 2 to 2 tie and scored 2 runs on 5 hits.

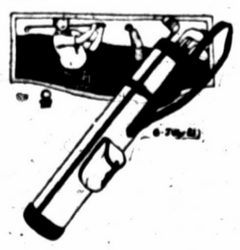

Yellowhorse was unsteady, but fast fielding helped him materially.

By innings—										R.	H.	E.
Cincinnati	0	0	0	0	2	0	1	0	0—	3	8	1
Pittsburgh	2	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	1—	5	12	1

COBB OUT THREE WEEKS

CLEVELAND, July 1.—Injuries received by Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, in sliding into a base in yesterday's game with Cleveland, probably will keep the star outfielder out of the game for at least three weeks, physicians announced today. In doing a hook slide, Cobb spiked himself in the knee. Five stitches were necessary.

A CONFESSION.

When I was young and in my prime,
Say six or seven months ago,
Before I heard the fight bells chime
Sonatus to the Gods of Dough,
I thought—"Some day I'll see J. D.
Exchanging wallops with G. C."

But now it seems, gray age on age,
I can't remember, looking back,
The line-up of a sporting page
That didn't feature Georges or Jack.
Years must have passed since they were booked
To have their features punched or hooked.

Yes, I have always followed fights
While eagerly I read the dope
Attached to vicious lefts and rights
From champion to budding hope.
But now I shout, "Lay on, Macduff!"
For I have more than read enough.

In two days more both Georges and Jack
Though only one can gather clover,
Beyond the final jab and whack
Can say "Thank heaven, it is over."
In which respect, O jubilee,
How little they will have on me!

THE UNEXPECTED.

If pugilism follows golf, the Frenchman's chance may be expanded several kilometers.

Our amateurs were expected to win at Hoylake—and they wilted. Our pros were not expected to cut any fancy figure at St. Andrews and one finished first, with another in at third.

Few actually believe that Carpentier can stop Dempsey, but how many were willing to wager important dollars that Zbyszko at forty-six could toss both Stetcher and Lewis in a row without taking an extra breath?

What proportion believed that Corbett would whip Sullivan, Jeffries would stop Fitzsimmons, Willard would knock out Johnson?

TRAINING METHODS.

The best way to train for a championship fight is to disappear with trainers and sparring partners and then not pop out again until the day of battle.

The strain of working constantly before a crowd is terrific. The pressure upon the nervous system is enormous. In this respect Carpentier, or Descamps, has pursued the wisest course. Dempsey's physical advantage at the start may have been quite enough to overcome this latter disadvantage. But to train day after day in the midst of the multitude soon has a wearying, depressing effect on the nerves.

"We have had a much better chance to get right at Hurlingham," said Devereux Milburn, "than we would have had at Meadow Brook in the midst of our friends."

If the combat goes beyond six rounds this added nervous pressure from public training will show more upon Dempsey than it will upon the challenger.

Those who were at Toledo two years ago may recall the suddenness with which Dempsey began to tire in the middle of the second round.

It isn't the play of two hours a day that wears down a ball club, but the daily play before crowds where the contestant knows that every move is closely inspected.

CARPENTIER'S BATTLE SONG.

He who shifts on the rebound
May live to fight another round.

You can never tell. The British sun of glory that shone at Hoylake and Turnberry came under the shadow of St. Andrews. The lone ray of light was this—the name of the winner was Jock.

SPORT SHOTS by Paul W. Barkin

Wonder who ran the club after Tanner's banishment yesterday.

Should "Buddy" ever land a managerial berth (and that is not at all unlikely), his fiery temper will play havoc with him. When a decision is rendered against him, he sees nothing but red. However, "Buddy" deserves a world of credit for his actions on the ball field this year. With the season half gone, he has been parked only once. One never knew last year when he would be chased.

If our memory serves us correctly, yesterday's fracas was Buddy's third with Paul Sentell. In years gone by the two have met twice, and we believe Buddy was awarded the decision in both tilts. The battle yesterday was not a finish affair, however, as it was called at the end of the second round with the honors even. Both men wound up in the police station. Suppose Buddy has a fine and suspension coming.

The "Rabbit" had one of his best days, both with the willow and in the box. He didn't wait for his mates to win the contest for him but banged out a timely double that chased a brace of tallies over.

Bob Bescher's short layoff did him a world of good. The way he crashed that apple yesterday was a caution.

Some day seven clubs in the Texas league will learn that the Spudders thrive on southpaws. They had enough practice on them to perfect themselves.

There's no doubt about the coming fight putting all other sporting events in the shadow these days, but in this neck of the woods there's almost as much talk about the coming Spudder-Panther series. Man, that's going to be some set of games.

The Skipper is due back in Houston today to attend the Texas league meeting, and we should know by tomorrow anyway what he did in St. Louis. Nothing new has developed yet except another batch of sidewalk rumors.

George Gibson turned the tables on the Reds yesterday in the protested game. The Reds won the original game 4 to 3, but the Pirates won yesterday by the same count. The odds were against the Pirates, too.

Tomorrow at this time there'll be a lotta guys saying, "I told you so." There'll be a lot saying other things, too.

Rickard's decision to pay the scrappers' lump sums of $200,000 and $200,000 is a good indication that the receipts have passed the $1,000,000 mark. Tex had his choice of paying stipulated sums or of giving Dempsey 36 per cent and Carpentier 24 per cent. If a capacity crowd attend the receipts will total $1,600,000.

Wonder how these will compare with the receipts of the Martin Gersh-Soldier Jack bout at Athletic park tomorrow.

Passing years may have slowed up the Georgia Peach, but we note that he's still so fast that he can't keep out of his own way. He cut himself with his own spikes sliding yesterday, and will be out for three weeks.

While sport followers throughout the country are bemoaning the showing of our tennis team in Europe it might be well to call attention to the fact that the United States tennis team is composed of only one man—Bill Tilden. Tilden is the only man sent across the pond by the United States Tennis association to represent this country. All the others are paying their own expenses, but they do not make up the "team." The "team's" showing has been beyond reproach. His coming championship battle in Wimbledon is being watched with untold interest.

FIGHT CROWD TO BE ORDERLY SAY POLICE

"Way of The Transgressor" Will Be Hard in Jersey City Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The crowd attending the Dempsey-Carpentier bout, the largest in the history of the sport, also will be the most orderly that has witnessed a heavyweight title bout, police officials of the metropolitan district promised today.

Elaborate preparations for the protection of spectators from pickpockets have been made by Jersey City police. Co-operation has been offered by the forces of other cities in the metropolitan area. Ferry boats, tube stations and other points of access will be watched by detectives. Police record notables will be arrested on sight and held on technical charges if encountered in the vicinity. The "way of the transgressor" promises to be made hazardous by nearly two thousand policemen and detectives inside and outside the arena.

Most novel in the plan to prevent confusion will be the establishment of a "dead line" extending approximately four blocks on all sides of the arena. Blue coats stationed at intervals of a few yards on this boundary will bar admittance to all persons who do not possess tickets or other proper credentials.

The issue of bogus tickets in many sections of the country has added to the problems confronting Promoter Tex Rickard and the police authorities.

Persons presenting such tickets will be held in an effort to chase down the counterfeiters. A "court of last appeal," composed of a dozen or more engravers, will be furnished by Rickard, before which persons with counterfeit tickets will be taken for expert decision as to the worth of the questioned pasteboards. Precautions taken against the possibility of fire virtually eliminates such danger. The gates of the arena have been closed to the celebrated "hot dog" friend of the hungry fight fan. Newspapers must be left outside the "dead line" due to the danger of ignition from cigar or cigarette. Sandwiches and cold drinks will be the recognized menu staples. Two hose companies and 400 firemen will guard against fire.

Even medical officials have been enlisted in the campaign for public safety. An emergency hospital will be established in a few hundred yards from the arena with equipment to handle adequately all cases which the heat of the day and numerous other emergencies may develop.

DODSON SOUNDS CALOMEL'S DOOM

The "Liver Tone" Man Warns Folks Against the Sickening, Salivating Drug.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you lose a day.

Calomel is mercury! When it comes into contact with sour bile, it crashes into it, breaking it up. Then is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish, if liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous, go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it can not salivate or make you sick.—

FIRST NATIONALS TROUNCE WICHITA MOTORS 12 TO 10

The First Nationals put another crimp in the Wichita Motors' pennant aspirations yesterday by winning a free hitting contest 12 to 10. Both clubs hit the ball hard and often, circuit clouts by Hill of the First National with two on and by Rinehart of the Motors under the same conditions, featuring. Six hurlers were used in the fray, Kilgore, Mathis and Lee working for the Motors and Wyatt, Hart and Nolen serving 'em up for the money counters.

FINAL MATCHES IN FIRST ROUND ARE COMPLETED

Final matches in the first round of the local net championship tourney resulted yesterday as follows:

Gallencamp defeated Coffey, 6-1, 6-0; Fisk defeated Cohen, 6-3, 6-2, 6-0; Maxwell defeated Alderson, 6-4, 6-2; Highfill defeated Oates, 6-1, 6-1; Smith defeated G. Coffey, 7-5, 8-6; Cook defeated Elbert, 6-2, 6-2.

Real Reproduction of Fight Will Be Given by Leonards

BENTON HARBOR, MICH., July 1.—Benton Harbor fight followers probably will get a more realistic description of the international argument between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier than anyone not actually at "Boyle's Thirty Acres" at Jersey City, for they will see a world's champion duplicating every blow delivered by Dempsey with another fighter taking the part of Carpentier as the returns are received over a special wire from the New Jersey ringside.

Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, here to defend his title against Sailor Freedman of Chicago Monday, will play Dempsey's part, and his brother, Charley Leonard, will duplicate Carpentier's moves. If the wire ticks out that Dempsey shot a left hook to Carpentier's chin, Benny will send a left hook to Brother Charley, and if the wire then says that Carpentier countered with a right to the champion's jaw, Charley will shoot a right across. The full fight will be carried out to the last detail in this way.

MEAT MARKET OWNER WILL APPEAL CASE

A verdict of guilty and a fine of $25 was returned in the city police court Friday morning when M. Mitcham, proprietor of a local meat market, was tried on charges of selling food unfit for human consumption. The defendant served notice of appeal immediately after the verdict was handed down.

Mitcham was arrested by Dr. L. L. Lucey, food inspector of the city health department. It was charged that he sold a quantity of spoiled meat to a local man, who took it to the health department for inspection. The arrest followed.

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The cotton market was very quiet during today's early trading, with operators evidently inclined to wait for the government report. Liverpool was relatively firm and private cables attributed the advance to covering of shorts because of unfavorable crop reports and the failure of the first July tenders there to cause any particular weakness. The market here opened steady at an advance of 2 to 6 points with active months selling about 8 to 10 points net higher after the call, or around 12.37 for October. Business was considered largely in the way of local evening up and switching between months with the advance held in check by scattering liquidation.

The government crop reports making the condition 69.2, the reduction in acreage 28.4 per cent and the indicated yield 8,423,000 bales, had very little effect on the immediate market as it was closely in line with average expectations. There was some Liverpool selling and realizing just before the report was issued which sent October off to 12.03, or 14 points net lower. A rally followed the publication of the figures which carried October up to 12.53, or 6 points net higher but general business remained quiet.

No fresh feature developed later in the morning and trading remained very quiet. The undertone, however, was steady and prices held some 8 to 10 points above last night's closing figures shortly after midday.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—Better cables than due put the price of cotton higher on the opening today and in the first hour of the session the trading months rose 5 to 12 points, July trading up to 11.05 and October to 11.76. The bureau reports due at 11:30 o'clock made the market a small affair in the early hours.

The market became very small with all classes of traders holding off because of the bureau report. At the best in the trading up to 11 o'clock the trading months were 6 to 12points up, but at 11 o'clock the market was a couple of points off from the highest.

Just prior to the bureau report enough liquidation came in to force the more active months 14 to 19 points under yesterday's close, October falling to 11.55c. It was at these levels that the ring heard the government figures of 69.2 for condition, 28.3 per cent as the decrease in acreage and 8,423,000 bales as the indicated crop. While these figures were not far from average expectations, they were bullish enough to cause an immediate rally of about 20 points, and later the advance was further widened, October later in the session standing at 11.97c. At this level the list of active months was 25 to 28 points higher than the close yesterday.

Cotton closed very steady at a net advance of 22 to 25 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, July 1.—Hot dry weather northwest accompanied by crop damage reports had a bullish effect on the wheat market today. In Minnesota the loss was estimated at five bushels an acre already, throughout a large section. Opening prices, which varied from ½c lower to ½c advance, with July $1.23½ to $1.24½ and September $1.23 to $1.24, were followed by material advances all around, and then something of a reaction.

Subsequently the market lacked support and it was said that acceptances on bids to the country had been heavy. Prices closed weak, 1½c to 2½c net lower, with July $1.22 to $1.22½ and September $1.21½ to $1.22.

Corn rose with wheat and as a result of advices that Nebraska corn was curling in the fields owing to abnormal heat. After opening ½c to 1½c higher, including September at 62½ to 62½c, the market scored a further advance.

Later the market was bearishly affected by estimates that the crop condition as a whole was 90, the highest in ten years. Prices closed unsettled, ½ to 1½c net higher, with September 62¼c.

Oats started ½c to ¾c up. September 38½ to 38¾c and then continued to ascend.

Firmness in hogs helped provisions.

LIVESTOCK.

Fort Worth Livestock.

FORT WORTH, July 1.—Under small receipts the cattle market performed in a fairly creditable manner today, a supply of 700 head of cattle and 500 calves clearing at prices that were considered generally steady.

Hogs continued to display strength, the market being active with 3,000 head here, at prices that averaged 5 cents higher. Some sales looked steady and in cases there was an advance of as much as 10 cents. Shippers paid $9.20 and the top to packers was $9.10. Bulk sales ranged from $9 to $9.10.

Steady prices were paid for the few sheep and lambs of good quality that were available. Some lambs went at $7 and lambs and yearlings cleared at $5. Receipts reached only 400 head.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Pressure against oils was renewed at the opening of today's stock market. Mexican Petroleum was firm at the outset, but soon reacted to 98. This duplicated the low record of several years made during yesterday's slump. The Pan-American issues, General Asphalt and Houston Oil lost 1 to 1½ points. U. S. Rubber and the popular steels and motors were inclined to ease. Gains running from fractions to 1 point were made by Chicago and Northwestern, Western Pacific, Southern Railway preferred and Endicott-Johnson. Virginia-Carolina Chemical preferred was conspicuously strong, rising 5½ points. Sears-Roebuck, American Woolen, Continental Can and Kelsey Wheel were among the heavy features of the dull mid-session. Mexican Petroleum rallied 2 points and rails such as Louisville and Nashville, Atlantic Coast Line and New York, Chicago and St. Louis were strong.

The closing was heavy.

GREAT AUDIENCE OF WOMEN HEAR BURKE CULPEPPER

Evangelist Appeals For Higher Ideals And Draws Lessons From Story Of Esther.

TONIGHT'S ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At 8 o'clock tonight Evangelist Culpepper will preach to men only at the open air tabernacle. Subject, "Detectives," or "The Sleuth Hounds of Hell Are on Your Track."

There will be a service for women only at the First Methodist church, Tenth and Lamar, at 8 o'clock, conducted by Mrs. E. C. Huckabee.

Evangelist Burke Culpepper spoke before the largest audience of women that ever gathered for a religious service this morning at the First Methodist church. He again demonstrated his ability as a speaker and a portrayer of human nature. He has a fine sense of humor, and also a fine pathos that completely captivated his large audience. The sermon was on "The Twentieth Century Woman," and showed what a woman can do when driven to desperation.

Mr. Culpepper based his sermon on Queen Esther, and related the story in a most ghaphic way of King Ahasuerus; of the feast the king gave his subjects; how they had gathered from all the different provinces of the great Shusan palaces. King Ahasuerus told his guests that he not only had the greatest kingdom but the most beautiful queen that eyes ever beheld. The women entertained in one part of the palace and the men in the other.

"There is nothing in modern society today," said the speaker, "that can compare with the color scheme of Vashti. There were hangings of white, blue and green, fastened with cords of purple in silver rings. The beds were of fine gold on marble floors.

"In his drunken condition this wicked king ordered his beautiful queen Vashti to appear in a state of seminudity before that mob of rowdies, but she would not go. You have no right to ask an immodest thing or an unnatural thing of a woman, even though she be your wife. Vashti would not go, whereupon the king had her dethroned, and as she laid aside her royal robes and went out into that starless night, we never hear of her again, but God thought enough of her modesty to incorporate her acts in holy writ.

"After Vashti's dethronement, the king realized that he played the fool, as a great many men do today. Then it was the king ordered all the maidens gathered together and brought to the palace that he might select his queen. Esther was among the number, and it is said the king loved her and she became his queen.

Esther Was a Jewish Girl.

"The whole story of Esther's appearance before the king, after she had found out that he had signed a decree to put to death all the Jews in the Shusan district; her calling her maidens together and praying for three days; how she dressed in the very latest fashion and appeared before her husband; her shrewdness in handling the situation; how she had the faith and courage to stand out against all odds and win out."

Mr. Culpepper applied the story to conditions today, saying that woman was locally omnipotent. He said that woman had been given an enlarged liberty, but with that liberty there was also an enlarged peril. God saved Esther and her people and she became the mother of a great nation.

Mr. Culpepper's appeal for higher ideals among womankind was strong and the message was well received.

Thursday Night's Service.

Another very large audience greeted the evangelist at the open air tabernacle last night. His sermon was based on just one word, "Neglect." He said that one of the greatest sins today was just simple neglect. Instead of people putting God first, they were putting Him last.

Mr. Culpepper said he hated to close this meeting, for there were some who would be left out. He said he never saw a better time to hold a meeting; that the weather had been fine, and that he never had better treatment from newspapers, that the papers of Wichita Falls had been most generous with their space; that men looked after oil leases, their land and houses, but were neglecting God.

A strong appeal was made for those who were out of the church to line up and put God first, and a great number responded to the proposition, among them many men who, for the first time, wanted to connect themselves with some church.

CHIHUAHUA CITY TO HAVE WIRELESS TELEPHONE STATION

EL PASO, July 1.—Chihuahua City, Mexico, soon will begin construction of a combination radio and wireless telephone station, according to reports from the Mexican consulate at Juarez.

The material and apparatus have arrived in El Paso and will be exported to Mexico. The erection of the station was contracted for by an American firm and will be financed by the Chihuahua state government. The station will have a range of 6,000 miles and will put the city in direct communication with all parts of the United States and Europe and other countries.

Stations probably will be established at Ojinaja, Juarez and Madera Chili, according to J. B. Stewart, American consul at Chihuahua City. Steps have been taken, he said, to establish wireless communication for a smelting and refining company.

IOWA PARK WILL CELEBRATE OPENING OF CONCRETE ROAD

IOWA PARK, TEXAS, June 1.—To commemorate the opening of the Iowa Park and Wichita Falls concrete road, the longest stretch of concrete road in the entire Panhandle, 14 miles in length, Iowa Park will celebrate Friday and Saturday, July 15 and 16. A trades day, barbecue and auction sale have been arranged for Friday, including an athletic program, farmers' Ford race, baseball game and other amusement features. The barbecue will be absolutely free and bread, pickles and coffee will go with each lunch. Saturday's program will be a trades day, basket dinner, auction sale and an amusement and athletic program and a baseball game between the fats and leans. Both days will be full of something to cause laughter with every move.

Handsome premiums will be given in many of the events.

The auction sales start at 10 o'clock each day and continue for two hours. Everything will be sold—nothing reserved.

A general program will be issued in a few days, giving the time of each event.

The city park in front of the Park inn will be cleaned off and freed from grass and weeds and all programs will be staged thereon. A large arbor will be constructed to protect the barbecue tables. The big cedar trees will furnish plenty of shade for the old folks and babies. Plenty of seats, ice water and other conveniences will be served to make all feel at home and comfortable.

"THE HIGHEST PATRIOTISM" SUNDAY MORNING TEXT AT FLORAL HEIGHTS CHURCH

Rev. W. L. Tittle, pastor of Floral Heights Methodist church, announces that next Sunday morning he will preach a special sermon on the subject, "The Highest Patriotism." The Fourth of July with all of its patriotic associations should be turned to account in behalf of the higher and better things, according to Mr. Tittle. This pastor is also making next Sunday morning "church joining hour." He is of the opinion that as a result of the special evangelistic efforts put forth by Dr. Burke Culpepper and Dr. George Truett in this city during the last few weeks every church in the city ought to receive a number of new members in their regular services next Sunday morning.

Mr. Tittle says that his congregation is getting accustomed to their new church building now, and is settling down to real worthwhile work. He reports all of the organizations of the church in good working order and do not expect the hot summer months to interfere materially with the work at any time during the summer.
