Absentee Voting Ends on Dec. 14

The last day to vote absentee in the election calling for the creation of a hospital district is 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, December 14.

The election is called for Saturday, December 18.

Only 9 absentee votes have been cast so far, Mrs. Carmen Lindley, county clerk, said.

All persons who may not be able to vote in person in the election are urged to vote absentee before the deadline.

The election procedure was again outlined. There will be two propositions. The first calls for the creation of the hospital district and authority to levy a tax which shall never exceed 75 cents per $100 valuation. This is the most that the law allows.

It has been emphasized from the beginning that the actual tax levied will be far less than this—something like 20 cents per $100 valuation, those working with the election declare.

The second proposition calls for the issuance of $150,000 in bonds to acquire a hospital and get it going. As hospital costs are at present, this amount is small. This also accounts for the fact that the hospital district tax rate will be low.

Every qualified voter can vote in this election. However, there will be two ballot boxes, with the votes of property owning tax payers going in one and votes of non property owners in the other.

If a hospital district is established to cover Collingsworth County, how will it be operated?

As the first step after the election, the Commissioners Court will appoint a 7-member board of directors and then step down, explains Bob Davis of Columbia Securities, Amarillo, who is assisting the commissioners in handling the election.

This board will serve until the First Saturday in April, 1972, when an election will be held, whereby all qualified voters in the district will vote on the candidates of their choice, to form a new board of directors.

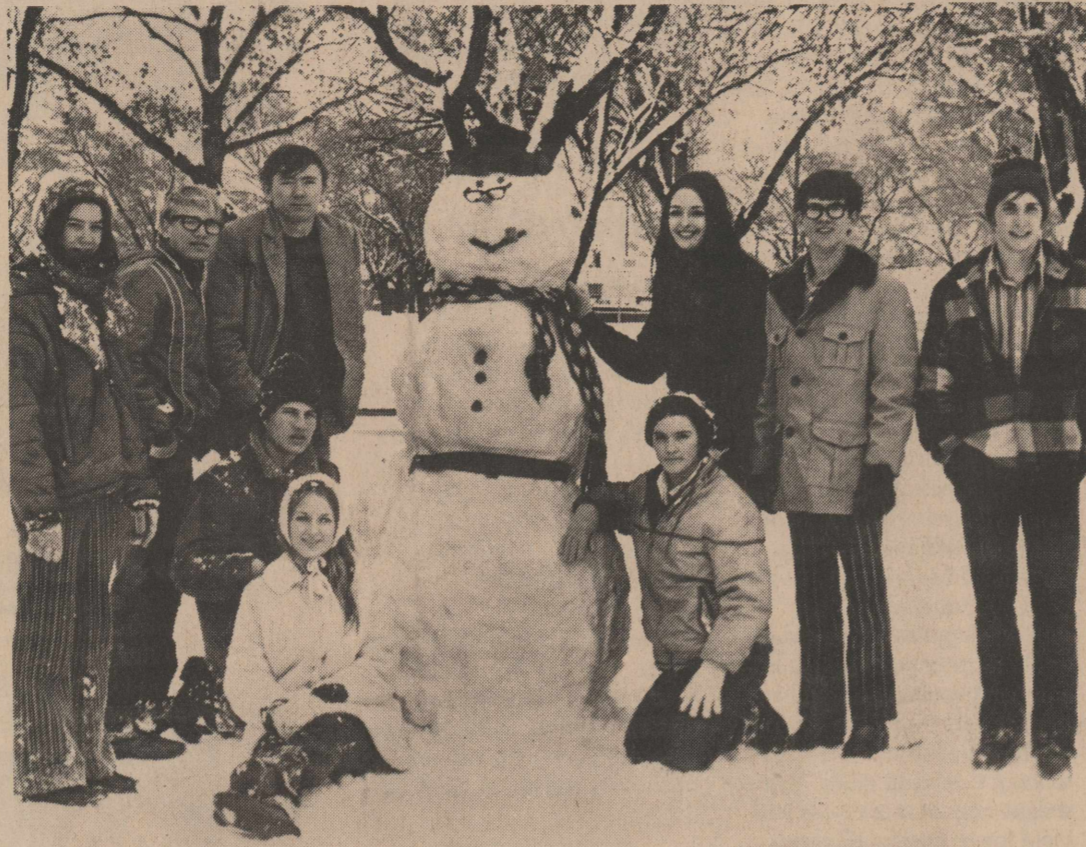

As soon as the interim board is appointed, it will hold an organizational meeting and begin operation under the laws of the state of Texas.

A board of directors of a hospital district is a separate governing body, just as are a commissioners court, city council or school board. No other governing body can step in and tell the hospital board how it shall operate the hospital, Mr. Davis pointed out.

The board will hire the hospital administrator and set the hospital policies.

It was again emphasized that the law provides that the tax roll for the hospital district shall be the lowest percentages

Southern Association

Accreditation of School Continues

Wellington Independent School Dist. of Wellington, Texas has been continued as an accredited school by the Commission on Secondary Schools of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

The action was taken at the annual meeting of the Association held November 28-December 1, in Miami Beach, Florida, and was announced by Principal E.W. Clement and Thayne Amnett, superintendent of the school.

Membership in the Association is official recognition that a school is committed to school improvement through the accreditation process. Each member school periodically conducts a thorough self-study and is visited by teams of competent educators who help to determine the school's strengths and indicate areas needing improvement. Only those schools which voluntarily enter into these self-improvement programs and commit themselves to compliance with accepted educational standards are admitted to membership.

"The regional accreditation program has been in operation for 76 years and has demonstrated, by concrete educational

Ambulance Service Plans Discussed

There are several ways by which Wellington can be provided with ambulance service, and it is up to the community to decide which will best serve its needs.

Once the choice is made, the Texas State Department of Health has offered assistance in setting up the system, including training of personnel to operate the ambulance at no cost to the community.

This was explained by Wallace D. Lawson, field supervisor for ambulance consultation with the department at an open meeting here Tuesday morning, December 7.

Jimmie Kelso of Kelso Funeral Home was in charge of the meeting. He recently announced that it has become necessary that he discontinue his ambulance service, but he is working in every way for a continuation of the service here.

Ambulance services may be operated by funeral homes, and between 65 and 70 per cent in Texas are, Mr. Lawson said. Other methods of operation are by private ambulance firms, which may or may not be subsidized by the city or county; ambulances operated by fire or police departments; by volunteer fire departments, or by volunteer groups set up specifically for the purpose.

Five ambulance services in Texas are operated by Hospital Districts and two by Lions Clubs.

Mr. Lawson has helped more than 200 Texas towns, from Houston to those of less than 500 population, work out ambulance problems.

"Once you make up your mind which you will use, we will come back and help you work out the details," Mr. Lawson said. These include such

Ten-Inch Snow Covers County Through Week

Snow ranging from 7 to 10 inches blanketed Collingsworth County as December began, halting the harvesting of all crops. At the same time, however, every drop of this snow is sinking deep into pastures and wheat fields to give moisture that will be needed in the months ahead. Not in recent years has this much snow fallen so early in the season.

This was not only a snow of unusual beauty, with flakes piling up where they fell, it was a peaceful snow, and to those who must be out in it, a relatively uneventful one.

Law enforcement officers reported no accidents and no problems related to the snow. It was a quieter than usual week end.

Jake Meadows of the State Highway Department maintenance section, said his men had no problems. At no time did the snow freeze to the pavement. All paved roads were bladed off, and Mr. Meadows said the fall was about even over the county. At no time did the crews have to get anyone out of the ditch or a snow bank and they found only a few ruts to indicate vehicles had skidded off the highways. Roads were never closed.

Livestock came through well, also, and there have been no reports of any losses of either cattle or hogs attributed to the weather. Most livestock owners put out extra feed to carry the stock.

John Barton of Sagebrush

Feedlot reported that their cattle came through the weather in good shape.

The three county schools were dismissed Thursday and classes

A certified police officer, he has completed 196 hours at the Police School of Amarillo College, and this is considerably above the number of hours required by Texas law.

Mr. King said that he has participated in civic work as his duties permit. In Panhandle, his wife, Nellie, was police dispatcher and kept the department records.

An organ prelude beginning at 5:00 p.m. will be presented by Mrs. Granvel Killian of Hollis. To be followed by the cantata at 5:30. Directed by Mrs.

There will be a number of solo and chorus numbers, most of them with the choir joining in.

After the choir opens with the prologue and "Holy Night" it will provide accompanists for these numbers: "He Shall Feed His Flock," with L.B. Bratten as soloist; "Come Thou Long Expected Jesus," with the Women's Chorus; "O Little Town of Bethlehem," a duet by Mrs. W.O. Vaughan and Austin Luther; and "Good Tidings" by Mrs. Richard Nall.

Speech-Hearing Clinic Dec. 10

The free speech and hearing testing clinic has been rescheduled for Friday, December 10, Mrs. B.M. Sims announced.

The clinic, originally set for Friday, Dec. 3, was postponed due to the snow.

Those who had appointments for the original clinic are to come at the same time this Friday, Mrs. Sims emphasized.

She said response has been good and only a few openings are left on the schedule. However, any person who needs an appointment and does not have one scheduled should call and arrangements will be made to take care of the child.

Calls for appointments may be to Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Jimmy Langford or Mrs. Kenyard Potet in the office of County Judge Zook Thomas.

The clinic will be held in several rooms of the court house.

Rockets Take Double Header From Norwood

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes won a double header from Samnorwood on the Eagles court Tuesday evening, November 30. The boys were victors 77 to 56 and the girls won 46-33.

Wellington girls had a 9-point lead at the half, but they experienced a poor third quarter and the Eaglettes caught up to tie the score 25-25 at the third period. The Rockettes then came back for a strong last quarter to score 21 points while holding the Eaglettes to 8.

The teams were well matched, and both played excellent basketball at times. Wellington shot about 30 per cent of its field tries and 45 per cent of the free throws. Norwood made 44 per cent of its free shots and about 25 per cent from the field.

Patti McAlister led the scoring with 30 points for Wellington and Lyna Coleman had 23 for Norwood.

Wellington players were Patti, Leigh Nall, Phyllis Sullivan, Edi Watkins, Teresa Patterson and Pam Black, forwards; and Mary Saied, Katy Sullivan, Janie Davis, Gwen Lewis, Mary Thomas and Gwen Barber.

Playing for Norwood were Lyna, Robin Waters, Teresa Ray, Ada Bryant, Ethel Bryant, Elaine Purkey, forwards; and Janice Snead, Rosa Oldham, Diane Barefoot, Judy Bell and Shirley Kirkland, guards.

ROCKETTES - EAGLES

The boys game was fairly close during the first half, which ended 34-28, then Wellington pulled away in the third period scoring 24 points while holding Norwood to 13. The Rockettes continued this kind of play through the fourth to end the game 77-56.

The Rockets shot a poor average from the free throw line, only about 33 per cent, while Samnorwood made 51 per cent. From the floor, it was another story, with Wellington hitting about 45 per cent of the goals attempted, while Norwood's 25 per cent was one of the things that made the difference in the score.

Jay Thomas scored 22 points for Wellington and Joel Rainey 9 for Samnorwood.

All boys active on both teams got to play. For Wellington these were Ray Shrubs, Jay, Ronnie Pennon, Denny Carter, Bruce Oney, Gary Wright, Randall Hodges, Barry Long, Mike Belew, Mike Williams and Steve Hunter. Danny Waters and Rozell Outley, out with ankle and leg injuries, traveled with the team.

Norwood players were Johnny Christner, Feliciano Segura, Randy Garner, Kyle Janes, John Stages, Joe Stice, Laron Breeding, Doug Coleman, Jr., Ben Segura, Mark Simpson, Johnny Morgan, Byron Bell, and Joel Rainey.

Tree Seedlings Available at Forest Service

COLLEGE STATION, Texas Shipments of tree seedlings will not begin until about mid-December but tree farmers and planters are reminded to place their orders now. Orders may be placed with Don Reeves, county agent.

Genetically superior trees are sold out, however, regular loblolly and regular slash pine are still available, according to Mason C. Cloud, head, Forest Environment Department, Texas Forest Service, College Station.

"More than 400 million pine seedlings have been produced and sold to more than 28,000 Texas landowners over the past 40 years," Cloud said. "To help us continue to improve the quality of our seedlings and the quality of our service, tree farmers are asked to complete and return a brief questionnaire which accompanies their seedling application."

Regular slash and loblolly pine seedlings sell for $6 per thousand plus state sales tax and are sent F.O.B. the Indian Mound Nursery near Alto.

Species suited for windbreak plantings sell for $2.50 per hundred, plus state sales tax, and are delivered post paid. Species still available include Baldcypress, Black Locust, Black Walnut (stratified seed), Catalpa, Chinese Elm, Cottonwood (cuttings), Eucalyptus, Mulberry, Osage Orange, Loblolly, Ponderosa, and Slash Pines; Sweetgum, and Sycamore.

Seedlings are sold for reforestation and windbreak purposes and may not be sold or resold for ornamental plantings. Shipments will begin in mid-December and continue through February.

Sergeant Britt is a 1953 graduate of Lexington High School. His wife, Margaret, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.C. Zeck of Wellington, Tex.

WATCH SELLING WEIGHTS ON HOGS

With the present supply and prices of corn and grain sorghum, many swine producers will be tempted to feed their hogs to heavier weights. Be careful, your reaction to current situation could cause another reduction in hog prices because heavier weight hogs will increase the supply of pork which in turn may reduce prices for "top" hogs.

With the exception of last fall, we will most probably have one of the heaviest runs of market hogs in recent history on the market this fall even though there has been a reduction in breeding stock. In addition, the USDA reports that there are 84 million more pounds of bacon and hams in cold storage than this time last year.

Pork supplies have been generally moving good during this year with consumption up approximately 5 pounds per person during the first half. We need to keep this trend going. Heavier weight hogs in most cases will yield lower quality carcasses which in turn could slow down the consumer's demand for the finished products.

Feeding to heavier weights will require more pounds of feeding per pound of gain and in most cases, there will be a discount in prices received at the market for these heavy hogs.

Texas' average selling weight for top hogs during the first 9 months of 1971 was approximately 236 pounds. If producers would sell their hogs 15 pounds lighter in late 1971 and early 1972, this could mean an equivalent reduction of even 100,000 "top" hogs going to market with the current brood sow population in Texas just by selling at the lower weights.

Boys Ranch Opens Christmas Suit Projects

The annual goal to provide each of the 370 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch with a new suit or clothing package began today through the Christmas Suit Fund Project.

Providing new suits for the boys has become a favorite way of Christmas giving for many of their friends who contribute $25.00 for a suit. Amarillo merchants permit the boys to select suits or clothing combinations according to their preferences at a special discount. Ages of all the boys are from four to 18, and the difference in the prices of the clothing for the younger boys and older boys will make the average cost approximately $25.00. In many cases, they are the first new suits the boys ever owned, and for others the suits replace those that have become worn or outgrown.

"All during the week the boys wear their work or school clothes, and they look forward to Sunday because they get to dress up for that one day or for their Saturday town trips." Virgil Patterson, Ranch president said, "These will also be suits worn by graduating seniors next spring and those who get to return to their hometowns for Christmas will also be all dressed up. Even more important, the suits are year-around reminders to the boys that there are those who really care."

Contributions to the Boys Ranch Christmas Suit Fund may be mailed to the Boys Ranch office, P.O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas or taken to the office at 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo.

Weather Halts Work of Cotton Classing Office

Cotton harvest was halted this week by six to ten inches of snow over the Memphis Classing Office area, according to W.E. Cain, in charge of the USDA's Memphis Office.

The Memphis office has classed 8550 samples as of Friday, December 3, compared to 38,800 by the same date last year.

Strict Low Middling Light Spot was the predominant grade and accounted for 60 percent of cotton classed for the week. Low Middling Light Spot accounted for 19 percent. Samples with bark accounted for 14 percent.

The predominant staple was 31 with 49 percent followed by 32 with 30 percent and 30 with 14 percent.

Fiber strength readings showed 87 percent of the samples tested 75,000 psi or higher.

Micronaire readings were in the 3.5 to 4.9 range on 54 percent. The 3.0 to 3.2 range accounted for 18 percent. The 3.3 to 3.4 range accounted for 16 percent.

Demand for current ginnings continued strong. Prices were steady to 25 points higher compared to last week. Mixed lots, Light Spots in grade, 31 and higher in staple, 3.5 to 4.9 mike sold for 28.00.

Average price paid farmers for cottonseed at gins was $58.00 to $60.00 per ton.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

- Q. WOULD YOU PLEASE LIST THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?
- A. They are Baptism, Confession, Holy Communion, Confirmation, Holy Orders, Marriage, and the Sacrament of the Sick. All are explicitly or implicitly contained in the New Testament.
- Q. HOW MANY GENERAL COUNCILS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH HAVE THERE BEEN?
- A. Twenty! One for each century of the Church's existence, since her founding by Jesus Christ, the Son of God, two thousand years ago.
- Q. DOES THE CATHOLIC CHURCH APPROVE OF HOMOSEXUALITY?
- A. No. Such behaviour is condemned more than once by Holy Scripture. However, homosexuals need not always be treated as criminals, but rather as sick people with a disease, and therefore should be attended to by psychiatrists and other professionals. A truly Christian attitude of understanding and tolerance would help here.

Give a Plant For Christmas

COLLEGE STATION. - Having trouble with your Christmas shopping? Why not give a living plant that can be enjoyed through out 1972 and that will increase in value and beauty as time rolls on, suggests Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

Select good quality trees, shrubs or house plants from your local florist, nursery or garden center as gifts for your gardening friends.

Evergreen plants or potted house plants make very attractive gift items, especially if the base is wrapped with Christmas paper and tied with a colorful ribbon, says Janne.

Some of the ornamental plants that will make attractive gifts include: Yaupon, Possumhaw, Burford Holly, American Holly, Juniper, Deodar Cedar, Pyracantha, Pittosporum, Nandina and Japanese Yew.

For plants to be used in the home, Janne suggests the following: Poinsettia, Azalea, Camelia, Jerusalem Cherry, Christmas Pepper and Chrysanthemum, as well as the multitude of foliage plants that are available.

Be sure to select a plant that is adapted to the area in which it will be grown, he adds. In case of inclement weather, the recipient of the plant should know to keep it in a cool place where the oil ball or container will not become too dry until it can be placed in its permanent location.

For that distant relative or friend that is interested in gardening, how about a useful gardening tool or a copy of a good garden book for a Christmas gift, proposes Janne.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

When oiling your sewing machine, try letting a few drops of the oil slide down a long, thin nail to those little holes that are hard to reach with the short spout of your machine oil can.

Keep a roll of cellophane tape and a box of facial tissue in the baby's room. When someone has a cold, fold several tissues in half and put a piece of tape at each corner to make a fine, disposable mask.

One way for a teen-ager to make a bulletin board is to take some ribbon, perhaps a shade darker than the wall color, and run it from a spot on the wall just above the top of a table or chest of drawers to the ceiling. Fasten with tape, or glue, at top and bottom, then pin on pictures of favorite movie stars, basketball players and other things.

When crocheting or tatting, stick a hatpin firmly into the arm of an upholstered chair and slip the spool of thread over the pin. This will prevent the spool from falling to the floor, yet permit it to rotate freely as you work.

To prevent scratching the fenders of your car when backing out of the garage, tack a section of an old inner tube on each side of the garage entrance.

WEATHER-WISE COTTONS

The stylish way to go out in the weather this winter is in cotton. The miss at left opts for quilted blue denim trimmed with fake lamb's fur at the collar and cuffs for a cozy and comfortable look. The wide shouldered look (center) of the Forties is given a Seventies flavor in this artful design.

In quilted cotton strewn with pink and red flowers, the coat is styled with a semi-cape over long full sleeves. Ribless cotton corduroy in a distinctive rust and blue print shapes a winter-ready coat with luxurious fur trim, seen at right.

Comanche District Fellowship Slated

The Comanche Boy Scout District recognition fellowship will be held Thursday evening, December 16, at 7 p.m. at the fellowship hall of First Christian Church, according to Dr. Byron Range of Shamrock, district chairman.

This will be in the form of a covered dish supper, to which all unit leaders and their families, den mothers, members of the district committee and district officers, in addition to outstanding scouters on the council level.

This will be the last official function of the Comanche District, at which time Dr. Range will announce the appointment of a nominating committee representing Collingsworth and Wheeler Counties to meet with a like committee from the present Kiowa District, to form and elect officers of the new district, which includes these five counties.

At this time recognition in the form of awards earned by scouters in the field of training, recognition certificates and other honors will be presented to scouters of the Comanche District.

Since this is the last function of the Comanche District, Dr. Range expressed the hope that Scouting leaders will gather for this last opportunity of fellowship. He concluded that this is not the end, but rather the beginning of a new era of scouting in the eastern part of the Panhandle.

Use Care in Planting Trees and Shrubbery

COLLEGE STATION, -- So you've decided to add some trees or shrubs to your landscape this fall! Then do a good job of planting and caring for them and reap the benefits in later years, says Don Reeves, county agent.

Whether planting bare-root or balled and burlapped trees and shrubs, the first step is to dig a hole of sufficient size. If the plant is bare-root, the hole should be large to allow the root system to spread out naturally.

As far as depth is concerned, plant the tree or shrub about the same depth it was growing in the nursery, points out Reeves. This is often two to three inches above the uppermost roots. On a bare-root plant the trunk or main stem is often discolored at the original soil line. Plant a balled and burlapped plant so the top of the soil ball is at the soil surface.

When planting small balled and burlapped plants, the planting pit should be about 1 1/2 times the diameter of the ball, explains Reeves. The depth should be the same as the depth of the ball. Larger plants will require an even greater hole size in relation to the ball diameter.

After setting the tree or shrub in its hole, backfill with a good soil mixture, using one-third peat moss and two-thirds good topsoil. Then water the plant thoroughly, says the horticulturist. In drier areas of the state, a soil ridge around the edge of the hole will catch rainwater as well as facilitate watering with a garden hose.

Fertilizer should not be used in the fall on new plants, cautions Don. It should be used only after the plant has become well established in the new location.

oil from the water that they did not even leave a sheen on the water.

On large bodies of water during an actual spill the hulls might be spread on the oil from a helicopter. In a stream or standing water they could be easily blown over the water from a work boat.

Placing a floating boom around the oil soaked hulls enables them to be readily removed by a suction pump, discharged into a truck and disposed of in a conventional manner.

Children's Play

Speech Classes Set "Pale Pink Dragon"

All the ingredients of a good fairy story go into "The Pale Pink Dragon," the annual children's play to be presented Wednesday December 15, at a 1:00 p.m. matinee.

A play for the children of Wellington Elementary School and for pre-school children is a tradition of the Speech II classes.

This year, there is the pretty princess Pinkie, played by Leigh Nall, who is changed into a dragon by the Wicked Witch, a role taken by Jane Campbell.

Woven in the story, which is different to most fairy tales, are Good King Clement, played by Jerry Bowen, Queen Contempua, by Kathlynn Scott, and Princess Pea Green (who is green with envy) part taken by Mary Saied.

There is a real dragon, supported by Danny Waters. Others in the cast are Princess Pinkie three ladies in waiting, Valerie, Vanessa and Veronica, played by RoseMary Popwell, Zanna Jenkins and Marcia King, also Prince Hal, who effects the rescue. Benny Stallings and Edward Thrush, his right hand man, played by Leon Parker.

Jerry Maxwell becomes Hannibal the Cat and Kenneth Porter is Poutchekien, the king's chamberlain. Doris Tingle is Dragon Fly.

The roles of the villagers are taken by Dale Thomas, Judy Jones, Mike Belev, Janie Christoph, Don Judd and Teddy Sango.

Deany Carter is the stage manager and Johnny Holton and Eddie Lee are in charge of lights and sounds, and Ray Shrubs of the curtain. Judy Jones and Janie Christoph designed and built the dragon, while Paula Kiker is assistant to the director. All members of the two Speech II classes have worked on props and costumes.

Mrs. Bob McAlister, director, emphasized that adults are welcome as are all pre school children. There is a small charge.

Bear meat is considered quite savory and palatable.

Quail News

By Mrs. G. T. Stephens

Mr. and Mrs. Monty Mitchell and Mrs. H.G. Mitchell visited in Tyler during Thanksgiving holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mitchell.

Mrs. Mary C. Boyett, who makes her home with her son, Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Boyett, celebrated her 90th birthday on Dec. 5. She received several long distance calls from her children and grandchildren and gifts from friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Ray who have lived east of Quail for the past several years are moving to White Deer this week. This was their former home.

The Quail Community received approximately six inches of snow last week. There is still a lot on the ground. The farmers are looking forward to the sunshine so the cotton strippers can be put in the fields. This is the latest cotton harvest this community has had.

Mrs. W.A. Gollighugh is spending this week in Mobeetie with her daughter, Mrs. W.F. Howard and children.

Quail Teams Down Memphis

Quail Quails and Bobwhites won a double header over Memphis Cyclone and Cyclonettes Tuesday evening, November 30, on their home court.

Quail girls took an early lead and stayed ahead on free shots until the half, then were able to make enough field baskets to maintain this lead and win 55-46. Lenora Oatman scored 31 points to lead Quail; Gloria Johnson had 18 for Memphis.

The Quail boys 83-74 victory at times was closer than that. With only three minutes to go in the fourth, Memphis trailed by only three points. The Quails were able to break the press, however, and get a 9-point lead.

Gary Brown led Quail's scoring with 19 points.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Robinson during the Thanksgiving holidays were Mrs. Claude Jett, Vicki, Sandi, Eli, and Neada of Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown, Rhonda, Byron, and Gina, of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Robinson of Pampa and Mr. and Mrs. Sesse Robinson and sons, Lee, Otis, Jess, Arthur, and Ira Lynn of Hereford; Jodie Claude Jett who is stationed at Clovis Air Force Base. Cleo Robinson and his brother-in-law of Amarillo were here Monday and Tuesday.

Rice Hulls May Handle Oil Spill Problem

CLEVELAND, Ohio -- A pipeline superintendent for The Standard Oil Company (Ohio), invested 25 cents in something nobody wanted. It may now become a valuable tool in environmental protection.

Lyle Bertram was experimenting with different methods of cleaning up oil spills.

One idea he had was to improve on the usual method of using straw on a spill by grinding it up for better absorbency. He went to a feed mill operator and asked him to grind up some straw. He told Bertram it would be expensive and mentioned the availability of rice hulls.

Bertram discovered that "the rice industry considers the disposal of hulls a problem. There are two to each grain of rice, and they must be removed before the rice can be used in food. There are relatively few uses for these discarded hulls."

He decided to give the hulls a try and bought a quarter's worth. At three cents a pound it turned out to be a pretty big sack of the nearly weightless material.

During his tests under controlled experimental conditions, he discovered that the rice hulls were so efficient in soaking up

Film Initiates Year-Long WHS Drug Program

A film entitled "The Distant Drummer" was shown to the Wellington Junior and Senior High Schools December 6. This was the first part of the Wellington Independent School District Drug Program for 1971-72.

The film was selected by team leaders of the drug program and previewed by Earl Hartman, Sue Wolf, and Jim Forrester, Drug Program Coordinator.

The film was narrated by Paul Newman. It began with a historical perspective of the origin of opium. The film discussed opium's refinement to a morphine base and to heroin. It traced the import route of heroin from the Far East to Mexico and the United States along with the accompanying price rise.

Several rehabilitation techniques briefly discussed against a review of federal rehabilitation laws. The film focused on the use of drugs by young, rebellious, middle-class Americans.

Spontaneous interviews with drug users depicted the drug scene in San Francisco, New Orleans, and New York, as well as several foreign cities.

Sandhill Crane Season Opens

AUSTIN -- Preliminary counts of sandhill cranes in West Texas indicate a drop in population.

But Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists say these early counts sometimes do not give an accurate picture of things to come.

In fact, after biologists counted approximately 112, 800 birds, reports came in from game management officers and the public that a great many more sandhills were invading West Texas.

Last year biologists reported a lower-than-usual population. The birds stayed in New Mexico because of the drought in Texas which made food scarce.

Two zones are set aside for hunting sandhill cranes.

Zone B, which includes this area, opens Dec. 4 through Jan. 30, lies west of a line from San Angelo following U.S. 277 to Abilene; then following State 351 to Albany; then following U.S. 283 to Vernon; then following U.S. 183 to the point where it crosses the state boundary in Wilbarger County. Zone B also lies east of a line from San Angelo following U.S. 87 to its junction with U.S. 287 at Dumas; then following U.S. 287 to the point where it crosses the state boundary in Dallam County.

Police Science Course Offered

Beryl Clinton, Dean of Clarendon College, announced this week that a course in Police Science will be offered to the public by Clarendon College beginning January 17, 1972.

The course, Government 250, dealing with Criminal Jurisprudence will be taught on Saturday mornings at Clarendon College, Clarendon, during the spring semester. Three college semester hours of institutional credit may be earned -- at regular college cost.

This course will be a study of crimes and public offenses, law enforcement agencies, and special peace officers, court systems, criminal procedure, criminal institutions, and pardon and parole boards.

Dr. Brent Lynch, Associate Professor of Government at West Texas State University, will conduct the course.

Three Teams Enter Tournament Play

The Wellington Varsity boys and girls and Junior Varsity boys will be in tournament play this week end, and each team, along with Junior Varsity girls, has another tournament slated before the Christmas holidays.

The Skyrockets and Rockettes will be in the Samnorwood tournament Thursday through Saturday, December 9, 10, and 11. Wellington girls will meet Lakeview as their first opponent at 3:30 p.m. Thursday and the boys will play McLean at 8:30.

Junior Varsity boys will play in the Childress B Team Boys Tournament on the same dates. The Wellington teams return to their home court Tuesday, December 14, with the Junior Varsity boys joining the Rockettes and Rockets in a triple-header against Wheeler. The Junior Varsity will play at 5:00 p.m.

This will give Wellington basketball fans an opportunity to see one of the teams that will be district opponent next year, when Wellington goes into District 2-A.

Wheeler girls have a strong team this year and have won all their games so far. The Mustangs are still without two starters who are still recovering from football injuries, and this is hurting their record.

The Skyrockets and Rockettes will be in the Clarendon Invitational Tournament Thursday through Saturday, December 16, 17, and 18, and at the same time the Junior Varsity, both boys and girls, will play in the Memphis B Team Tournament.

Wellington has another home game before the holidays, meeting Paducah Here Tuesday, December 21.

New Cottonseed Food of Future

AUSTIN, (Sp.) -- Glandless cottonseed may be the food of the future.

According to University of Texas Natural Fibers Economic Research (formerly Cotton Economic Research), the day may not be very far off when people will be eating toasted cottonseed nuts and cottonseed brittle candy.

The glandless cottonseed, besides providing flour, could be used as a substitute for casein

January 1 Deadline for Required Immunizations

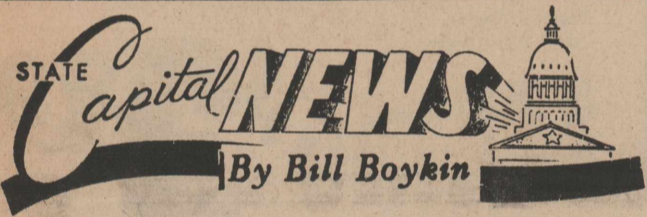

In the past, immunization records have been of concern primarily to doctors and their patients, but beginning January 1, 1972, they take on new significance.

That is the date that the new compulsory immunization law goes in effect, requiring that all students, through college, have certain immunizations.

Collingsworth County schools heads have outlined these requirements to parents of their districts, and an immunization program is now under way in the Wellington School to assure that our children be vaccinated for measles, whooping cough-tetanus, polio, rubella and diphtheria.

Pre-schoolers who attend a child care center are included under the provisions of the new law.

Although we have the means at hand to eliminate these five dangerous childhood diseases, public health experts point to the incidence to be found among younger children each year. It is the aim and hope that all youngsters can be spared the suffering that can come from any one of these diseases for which immunization is now required.

AUSTIN, Tex. -- House Speaker Gus Mutscher's bribery trial site switched abruptly from Austin to Abilene, with February or March now the expected date.

With both the defense and state filing rival motions for change of venue, Austin District Judge Tom Blackwell concluded extensive publicity in the capital city area made a transfer of the case advisable.

He sent it to the 104th district court of Judge J. Neil Daniel in Taylor County, along with indictments of co-defendants Rep. Thomas C. Shannon of Fort Worth and S. Rush McGinty of Austin, a Mutscher aide.

Defense attorneys had contended widespread news coverage made a fair trial of the speaker in the Central Texas area impossible. The indictment grew out of Mutscher's and co-defendant's 1969 profits on National Bankers Life Insurance Company stock. State alleges he received the stock tips and loans for purchases in exchange for helping pass bank deposit insurance legislation favored by Houston banker Frank Sharp.

Travis County District Attorney Robert O. Smith turned the defense argument around. He said Mutscher has so much power in Austin, where many citizens work for the state, that finding a jury free to give the state's case open consideration there may be difficult.

Blackwell didn't buy either argument entirely, but conceded Austin newspapers, radio and television stations had covered the case rather enthusiastically since last January. Further, he stated the coverage blanketed counties surrounding the capital city.

Mutscher said he was satisfied with Abilene as the trial site.

"The only thing that we have ever asked is that we be afforded a fair trial," Mutscher commented after the brief court hearing. "I feel that the citizens of Taylor County will afford us an ample opportunity to establish my innocence."

Along to Daniel went a stack of defense pre-trial motions, including one to quash the indictment. Mutscher's attorney predicted a February or March trial date. January 10 had been set originally.

DRUG REFUNDS DUE -- Texans who filed valid claims under an anti-trust case may receive up to 60 per cent refunds on purchases of broad spectrum antibiotic drugs purchased during 1954-66.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin said refunds will be made probably no later than March, 1972.

Tax supported hospitals and other state agencies which bought the antibiotics will share the $4.6 million recovery against five large drug companies' last October 12.

Martin and his staff are working on an allocation formula. A New York federal court will hold a hearing after notice to all claimants, hopefully in January.

The drug case is the pioneer "treble damage" anti-trust case allowing individual consumers to be represented by the Attorney General and recover damages for overcharges paid as a result of price-fixing conspiracies.

LEGAL OPINIONS -- Candidates who moved into new districts before Nov. 7 (a year prior to the 1972 general election) are eligible to run for House and Senate seats in those districts, Secretary of State Bob Bullock held in an opinion prepared as chief state election officer.

Atty. Gen. Martin released a long list of opinions including the following:

* The time natural gas is produced under "take or pay" purchase contracts actuates accrual of production taxation on deficiency payments. The total price paid under contracts is the measure of the market value, based on the tax rate in effect at the time of actual production

* Potter County may not legally employ a flagman at a railroad crossing on a county road, but services can be performed by a traffic officer or a signal light and bell may be provided under county contract.

* Commissioners courts or boards of district judges need not give notice of an official meeting to appoint or employ a public officer or employee.

* The Court of Criminal Appeals presiding judge is to receive a $33,500 a year annual SPANISH TREASURE APPRAISAL -- Appraisers have completed the preliminary process of putting a value on treasure recovered from four-centuries-old shipwrecks off Padre Island.

Final reports will go to Federal District Judge Reynaldo Garza of Brownsville who directed the appraisal be made as the result of a lawsuit. Platoro Inc., the Indiana firm

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

A psychologist reports that 80 percent of the U.S. work force is laboring at jobs for which they are not optimally suited.

And he has proved his point by working to discover a fact which everybody with an ounce or two of sense already knows.

Which is that Nature is in perfect balance, and when we have too many politicians and psychologists and not enough mop and broom jockeys, it's because too many natural-born janitors are trying to be statesmen, Ph. D.s, etc.

A Senate committee studying about old folks says one of every four in the U.S.A. over 65 lives in poverty.

Which may not be as horrible as it sounds, if we remember that Senators were living in what they thought was poverty when their pay was only $30,000 a year.

But it's not real clear whether the committee is distressed about the plight of the one-fourth living in poverty, or if they are pointing out that Congress is not doing its job properly until it gets the other three-fourths of the elderly taxed down to poverty.

SAFETY TIPS OFFERED -- Texas Safety Association warns holiday tipplers that 70 driving drunks may end up dead in traffic crashes.

Along with the verbal warning, TSA sent out clarts showing how much alcohol by weight a driver can consume before reaching the state legal "drunk" test level of .10 per cent blood alcohol concentration.

The motorists of Texas, for their sake and the sake of their passengers, need to recognize the potential dangers during the upcoming holiday season. They need to be alert, ready to take evasive action," said TSA.

Conservationists called for a minimum 100,000 acre Big Thicket National Park in East Texas.

Sen. W.E. Snelson of Midland took over the governor's job -- for a day -- December 4.

Russell International Mining Corporation was enjoined in a Beaumont district court from offering RIMCO securities for sale in Texas.

This year will be "an exceptionally good" one for construction, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Drunk Driving Can Wreck Your Holiday

AUSTIN -- Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's are traditionally the season to be jolly, but for an estimated 70 Texans it may turn out to be a time to be drunk and dead as a result of a traffic crash.

The Texas Safety Association issued its estimate of the toll drunk drivers will take during the holiday periods in a news release from its Austin headquarters.

TSA stated that recent studies released by the Department of Transportation and other agencies points to the fact that during festive periods more than half of all drivers drink alcoholic beverages.

"This does not mean," said J.U. Parker of Houston, President of the statewide safety group, "that a majority of drivers on Texas streets and highways will consume enough alcohol to be dangerous on the highways. But it does call for extra attention by motorists to be alert to the dangers of drinking and driving."

"In one major city in Texas where roadside spot checks were conducted recently," Parker pointed out, "preliminary studies show 16 per cent of the drivers checked had blood alcohol levels of 0.10 per cent or more. In Texas a driver is presumed by law to be under the influence of intoxicating liquor if he has a blood alcohol concentration of 0.10 per cent or more."

"The motorists of Texas for their sake and the sake of their passengers, need to recognize the potential dangers during the upcoming holiday season. They need to be alert, ready to take evasive action," said Parker.

"It also means," he continued, "that the sober motorist should do everything he can to encourage law enforcement agencies and the courts to get the chronic drunk driver off the road and keep him off the road until he is capable of returning to sober driving."

Childress Wins Over 8th Grade

Wellington Eighth Grade basketball team held their own with the Childress Eighth Grade until the last minute and a half of the game, then got in foul trouble, and went down 46 to 38, Coach Carroll Nunnelley reported.

The game was tied 18-18 at half time, and Wellington trailed only one point, 30-29 at the third period. "Childress had a big final period and we had an average one," the coach commented.

Cameron Moore scored 11 points for Wellington and Edward Thomas 10. David Hernandez had 17 for Childress.

Salt Fork Soil Conservation District News

Increasing numbers of farmers and ranchmen are becoming concerned with establishing some of their lands to grass. Many are interested in planting old fields that have been turned out of cultivation.

It is seldom possible to duplicate composition of what was climax vegetation on a given site, because during the time grasses were missing the site itself underwent certain changes and became either better or worse than it was originally. In the case of abandoned fields, probably worse.

Abandoned fields, even though stable with a cover or threeawn and weedy plants, can be made more productive, with today's planting materials.

Using today's locally adapted seed such as X Sideoats grama, Green Sprangletop, Indiangrass and Switchgrass, old fields can be re-established with climax vegetation with a certainty we didn't always have in the past.

If you are in the ranching business for a profit - make old friends pay their own way. Threeawns and weeds cannot compare in production or palatability with Sideoats grama, Switchgrass and the other adapted grasses previously mentioned.

Threeawns lose their palatability when they start making seed which is in early summer. Grasses such as Sideoats grama and Switchgrass keep their palatability until they make seed in late fall. They also cure out well and are readily taken by livestock in the winter.

In addition to palatability the real eye-opener is the carrying capacity these more palatable grasses have over threeawns. Clipping studies of pure stands of grasses made in August gave the following results: on a shallow soil, threeawn was producing an average of 900 lbs. of forage per acre. X Sideoats grama clipped an average of 1450 lbs. of forage on the same type soil. If you were grazing a cow to every 15 acres, Sideoats would give you an additional four tons of hay per cow -- and that ain't hay.

Make your plans now for next spring's grass plantings.

Peach Diseases Common in Texas

Regardless of whether peach trees are in commercial orchards or in the backyard, they are all subject to several common diseases, reports Jerral Johnson, Extension plant pathologist. He adds that local county agricultural agents have available information and recommendations for control of the diseases. It's time to start control programs in the sections of the state where blooming is underway, he notes.

Quail Second In Tourney At Memphis

Quail Quails won second place trophy in the Memphis invitational basketball tournament Saturday night, December 4, losing by only three points to the Memphis Cyclone, 79-76.

Quail girls lost to Hedley in the second round.

In the finals the Quails had a poor first half and trailed 43-31 at halftime. They began to pull up in the final period, and missed the championship by only a few seconds.

Gary Brown led Quail's scoring with 24 points while Larry Johnson had 29 for Memphis.

Arnett, slated to be Quail's first opponent, forfeited first round games and the Quails defeated Hedley B team 77-43 in the second round. Brown led game scoring with 20 points, Tony Ricken had 18 for Hedley.

Quail girls also took the first game from Arnett on a forfeit, then lost to Hedley 50-25 in the second round. The Bobwhites had a good first half, trailing one point, 18 to 17, at the half. Lenora Oatman scored 17 points for Quail and Renee White had 27 for Hedley.

Arnett boys won third. After forfeiting to Quail, they came in Friday and were slated to meet Groom, which forfeited all the way. The Indians then won over Silverton.

Shop Wisely for Christmas Tree

COLLEGE STATION, -- Christmas trees will soon be on the market, and you will want to make your selection wisely.

A few simple procedures can assure you of selecting and keeping that perfect tree this season, says Bill Smith, Extension forester at Texas A&M University.

First determine where the tree is to be displayed in your home. With this in mind you will be able to determine the most suitable size and shape. Trees generally appear smaller than they really are. Buying the tree early will enable you to be selective in your choice of a fresh tree. Smith suggests checking for signs of needle shedding and brittleness to indicate excessive drying.

Tree limbs should be strong enough to hold ornaments and strings of electric lights. The tree should have a strong fragrance and a good green color for the species.

Texas imports over three million trees annually with some coming from as far away as western Canada, points out Smith. The most popular trees in Texas are the Scotch pine and Douglas fir. Trees are stored in boxcars and undergo extreme temperature changes during their journey southward. "Those undergoing warm temperatures for a period of several weeks may already have dried out by the time they're on Texas markets," says Smith.

Once you purchase your tree, store it outdoors in the shade until you are ready to use it. Spray it frequently with water. When moving the tree indoors, cut the butt end at a diagonal about one inch from the bottom and place it in water. This opens the tree's pores and aids in the absorption of water. Keep the butt end of the tree in water during the entire time it is in the home, advises Smith.

Vietnam Vets Due Help with Jobs and School

The Veterans Administration plans special help for Vietnam veterans who draw unemployment compensation 13 weeks or longer.

Jack Coker, Director of the Veterans Administration Regional Office, in Waco, said that a plan worked out with the Department of Labor provides that state employment security agencies give VA names, addresses, telephone, social security and service serial numbers of the unemployed veterans.

Coker explained that VA, through its 72 Veterans Assistance Centers and other facilities, then makes several contacts with the veteran to interest him in going to school or taking on-the-job training (OJT) under the GI Bill.

The agency has been promoting education and OJT for some time as one means of reducing unemployment among Vietnam veterans. However, Coker pointed out, this latest plan enables VA to more effectively identify veterans, especially the disadvantaged who are in need of jobs.

Although finding jobs is not a primary responsibility of VA, the agency helps in any way it can, and is a leader in hiring veterans under the Veterans Readjustment Appointment Authority. VA has hired 5,000 veterans since 1968.

Through specialists in its Veterans Assistance Centers, VA found jobs for nearly 15,000 veterans in fiscal year 1971, and for about 45,000 veterans since 1968.

Other job-assisting activities are carried out through the agency's "Outreach Program," with job marts, job banks, job counseling, job interview classes and cooperation with the

The best boner of 1970 probably was by an archer who illegally shot an alligator while hunting on the Arnassas National Wildlife Refuge.

The gator's body was recovered later by refuge officials and you guessed it -- the man's name and address were right there on the arrow shaft protruding from the carcass.

Eighth Grade Downs Paducah In Overtime

Wellington Eighth Grade girls defeated Paducah girls 13-12 in an overtime period, but it took two overtime periods for Wellington boys to win 53-45.

Doris Thomas scored 12 of Wellington's points, while Tammy Tomison led Paducah scoring with 5.

The Firecrackers trailed through three periods and were 33-24 at that point. A last quarter surge tied the game 39-39 at the end of regulation play. At the end of the first overtime, the score was 42-42, but Wellington made 11 points in the second period while holding Paducah to three.

Richard Sims scored 15 points to lead Wellington's scoring; Danny Garrett had 32 for Paducah.

Deer Poacher Pulls Boner

AUSTIN -- You don't have to be absent-minded to get caught poaching, but it helps.

A West Texas deer poacher probably pulled the boner of the year this week when he put the head and hide of an illegally-killed deer in a cardboard box and discarded it in a Reagan County dump.

He might have gotten away with the crime except for a minor flaw -- the box had been used to mail something to the poacher and was inscribed with his name and address.

Texas Cattle Numbers Up

For the sixth consecutive year, the number of cattle in Texas on Jan. 1, 1971 was up, this time by 3%. At the same time, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service released figures on the 1970 calf and lamb crops. For the first time since 1961 lamb and sheep numbers were up by 2%. The calf crop was estimated at 5.4 million head in 1970. Texas cattle on feed on Feb. 1 numbered 1.6 million head, 12% above a year earlier.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

YOU READ in the papers and hear on the radio how the dollar has fallen on the international monetary market. This is in your favor unless you had plans to move to Mexico or take an extended trip to Europe. It means that we will have a better chance of selling our cotton, wheat and even beef on the export market.

THE HIGH PRICED dollar has enabled American tourists to tour South America, Europe and Asia and live there for considerable periods of time at comparatively small cost. It has been plain hell for those organizations and firms that were trying to sell cotton and wheat on a world market.

THE NEXT TIME you read that the dollar has gone down in proportion to the mark, yen or pound do not become alarmed. It may mean that you will get more for your cotton, wheat or beef while your cousin living in Japan, Germany or England receives less for his dollar.

EVIDENTLY Howard Hughes is alive and writing. McGraw Hill has announced the publication of the 230,000 word autobiography in March of 1972. Hughes is quoted in the preface as saying: "I believe that more lies have been printed about me than about any living man—therefore it was my purpose to write a book which would set the record straight and restore the balance." I am eager to read the book; but I guess this is another case where I can wait until the paper back edition comes out, which is supposed to become a reality in 1973.

DESPITE the bad weather, of the first nine days of December, a number of merchants report a surprisingly active Christmas business. According to business observers this is also a very good sign for business in the first half of next year.

REV. C. R. HANKINS was among the number of those who found a tractor the only way to feed his cattle last week with the roads and trails sodden with mud and snow. I happened to remark that an old wagon and a team of good mules might be terribly old fashioned; but that it could still be an effective means of feeding cattle in this kind of weather and the remark gleaned an interesting bit of news.

BILL INFORMED me that he was raising two mules that he intended to break next year. You can't buy mules any more, he told me, so two years ago he sent to Missouri and bought a big mammoth jack and he now has two matching mules growing up. He also bought an old wagon that belonged to H.A. Marchbanks and has painted it and put it in good running order. The parade chairman of the 1973 — not next fall please — should make a note of this. There is nothing like a mule team and an old wagon to enhance a parade.

REV. HANKINS also said he was 60 years old and he told his wife that he was retiring from the mother cow business. He intends to sell them and pasture a few steers on grass in the summer.

THE EXTENDED dry weather of the past three years plus the natural hard work of getting cows through bad winters and dry years has caused more and more stockmen to turn to the easier money that is sometimes made from steers. But buying good steer stockers or feeders has become as difficult as buying a pair of "big" matched mules. Some of our nearby stockmen have gone far afield to the south and east to get stockers for the wheat pastures that are the best in twenty years. As a result there are quarantined areas in neighboring counties due to scabies and other imported diseases.

WHEN ADVERSE conditions hit and prevail for too long a time, there is simply no quick nor easy way out of the problem.

of assessed valuation of any county in this part of the state, which means that property owners pay less taxes than those in other counties where the percentage of assessed valuation is greater, Mr. Davis explained. Every county has a certain number of people who must have hospital care and who cannot pay for it. Usually the county pays for this. With the creation of a hospital district, the care of indigent patients is taken over by the district. Likewise, the district will be responsible for those indigent patients who must have specialized treatment which they cannot receive here and must be transferred to another hospital.

Mr. Lawson pointed out such things as the need for incorporating a volunteer ambulance service as a non-profit organization and the necessity of strong leadership if this method is chosen. Volunteer ambulance services have been operated in the east and middle west for as much as 40 years and provide some of the best equipped services to be found, he said.

If an ambulance service is operated by a hospital district, a staff member, along with an off-duty policeman or fireman can operate it. Nacogdoches had ambulance service financed by the hospital district and run by the fire department.

The crisis in ambulance service goes back to the Federal Highway Safety Act, passed by Congress in 1966, which, among other things sets services handling highway accident victims. Medical cases using ambulance are not covered in the Safety Act, but as a matter of course, they also use the same ambulance services and highway cases.

States which do not enforce these regulations are liable to lose their federal highway funds, and this is why states are taking action.

It is these increasingly stringent federal and state regulations, the difficulty of securing liability coverage, and growing expense that has caused most funeral homes to discontinue ambulance services including those in Wellington, McLean, Clarendon and Shamrock.

Mr. Lawson was scheduled to address a group in McLean Tuesday afternoon.
