

Polling Places Named for July Wheat Voting

On July 23, at five different polling places, wheat growers of Collingsworth County will vote for or against marketing quotas for the 1955 crop. The referendum, according to Odis Bradley of the Collingsworth County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, will determine whether or not the quota program now in effect will continue for next year's crop.

Two-thirds of those who vote must approve quotas before they can be put into operation. The current program, which was voted on a year ago, was approved by 87 percent of the voters—390,221 to 57,536.

Chairman Bradley urges every eligible wheat grower in Collingsworth County to vote. A producer is eligible to vote if he will have more than 15 acres of wheat on his farm for harvest in 1955. In other words, he can vote if he would be affected directly by quotas, which apply only to farms with more than 15 acres of wheat.

"There still seems to be a good deal of misunderstanding among farmers regarding the effect of the coming July 23 wheat quota referendum on acreage allotments," Mr. Bradley said today.

If quotas are approved, there will be marketing penalties on any

E. W. COCKE

E. W. Cocke, Long Time Civic Leader, Dies in Colorado

E. W. Cocke, 75, for many years a leader in the building of Wellington, a former mayor, and a man who was identified with those institutions which were responsible for the town's growth and development, died Saturday night, July 10, Gunnison, Colorado, his home in recent years.

He was a member of a family that settled here before the town and country were organized, and he himself spent his active life here, leaving only when he sought retirement.

Early in life, he entered the cattle business, and operated his ranch northeast of town. After disposing of this, he invested in business property in Wellington, and until recent years owned several of the larger buildings. In the 1920's he and a brother, Henry Cocke, owned and operated two motion picture theatres here, and it was they who first brought sound pictures to Wellington.

Among his investments was a tract of land just south of the original town section. It was on this that the Cocke home, known for its hospitality, was located. This became a desirable area for homes, and he opened the Cocke addition. Part of it was developed many years ago, then after World War II, there was an even greater demand for homes in that section.

Mr. Cocke enjoyed the outdoors, and he was a sportsman in the true sense of the word. After his retirement, he spent much of his time hunting and fishing, and

Quarter Million Dollar Lease Sale Recorded; Panoma Change Listed

A quarter of a million dollar oil, gas and mineral leasehold estate transaction covering 11,622 acres in the northeast part of Collingsworth County was filed in the office of David Robinson, county clerk, July 7, one of two major transactions filed since the first of the month.

In this legal instrument, Oil Associates, Inc., a Delaware Corporation headed by Nicholas R. DuPont of the famous DuPont family, sold its holdings to Murmanil Corporation, headed by Gerald C. Mann of Dallas, former attorney general of Texas and friend of a number of Collingsworth people, and to Monumental Gas Company. The total price involved is $244,763.35, but this is the taxable valuation only, and those familiar with the lease situation here said they could make no estimate of what the parties might consider the actual value.

The second transaction actually involved a change in name of ownership only, with certain legal implications. Five Amarillo residents, major stockholders in the recently dissolved, Panoma Corporation, obtained title as individuals to the Collingsworth county holdings of Panoma. The money transaction was not given, but Panoma held lease on 32,873.10 acres in the north and northwest parts of the county, with a number of producing gas wells.

In the Oil Association, Inc. transaction, that corporation assigned or sold to Murmanil 93-95th of its 7/8ths interest in leases on 11,622 acres in the Ella, China Grove and Elm Valley communities, in the extreme northeast part of the county, for a cash consideration of $97,894.74, subject to certain reservations held by R. R. Kyner who originally took the leases. In addition to this cash consideration, Oil Associates is to receive from production on this property an additional $146,842.11 "free of all cost of production, marketing and handling, plus an amount equal to interest from date of assignment at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent upon the reducing balance thereof, plus an additional amount equal to all severance, gross production, occupation and ad valorem taxes payable in aspect of such reserved production payment, whereupon said reservation shall in all things terminate."

The second instrument, filed at the same time, simply to Monumental Gas Company the above $146,842.11 oil payment reservation.

Landowners listed on the instruments, at the time they conveyed their leases to Mr. Kyner, include Mrs. A. J. Laycock of Shamrock, C. S. Boren, Dora L. McFarland, Edgar Wischkaemper, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wischkaemper, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Polls, A. A. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Dean M. Stacey, Persis A. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Emmert, H. H. Munday, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Tittle and Mrs. J. I. Willoughby. This property is in the area that has been producing gas for about two years. A source here close to oil and gas development considers the Panoma transaction most significant.

Heat Stroke Fatal to Worker July 6

Mrs. Dominga Esquivel, 55, died of a heat stroke Tuesday evening, July 6, about 5:00 p. m. She was stricken as she and other members of the family were chopping cotton for V. K. Orr Jr. on the Earl Alexander farm south of Wellington. She was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mrs. Esquivel was the wife of Jose Marie Esquivel, their home was in San Antonio. The family has been coming here each fall for about 10 years to work in the cotton harvest for V. K. Orr of Vinson, then this year, the couple, with a son and grandchild, came to work during cotton chopping.

Her body was returned to San Antonio by the Kelso Funeral Home for services and burial.

Mrs. Esquivel is survived by seven sons and two daughters.

Some Farmers Helped

Freak Rain Gives Small County Area Three Inches

A small area of Collingsworth County benefitted from a torrential downpour which fell about 6:00 p. m. last Thursday evening, July 8. The rain, a trace in downtown Wellington, made its biggest mark about four miles east of the townsite and this was in the Beanhill community, near the R. T. Savage, John Ingram, Henard Gray, Rufus Nelson, and Richard Bailey farms. Each of these farmers received from two and one-half to three inches of much needed moisture.

The rain belt, from five to six miles in length and about two and one-half miles wide, did little damage, but it helped the crops in that area. However, the rain fell in sheets, which accounted for much of the localized run-off.

The late afternoon shower increased in intensity as it went east from the city and on the edge of the town, residents recorded one-fourth to one-half inch of rain. Mr. Barney Glenn, who lives on a farm just east of the swimming pool said that their farm was in the edge of the rain, while Dick Sweat, who lives one mile north of Wellington recorded one inch.

No crop damage was reported in any of the area. Terraces, which were in the wake of the flood, carried the water and held it to insure some moisture for the farmers on whose land the rain fell.

The only benefit that the rest of the county received from the rain except in local areas that got some thunder showers earlier was the cooler weather that it brought.

Friday, July 9, the thermometer began its rise and since then the county has baked under 100 degrees and plus temperature.

Countians, who have been under the air-conditioners and have used fans, can complain about the unseasonable conditions and hope for rain that must come quickly if some of the county cotton and row crops are to be saved.

In a Wellington Leader poll Tuesday afternoon, the temperature at the Neely Station was 108, while the temperature at the E. H. Hartman farm, which is located four and one-half miles west of Wellington on the Rolla road, was 102 degrees.

Garvin McCaskill, manager of the Marian Airpark Pool reported that the swimming pool was having a good business and that the run over the week end and the first two days of this week had been exceptional. "The water temperature is probably the warmest it has been in years with a 74 degree reading," the manager said.

"Rummel accumulated his earnings and profits from a heifer, a cow and twin calves, and some crops, while Thomas used his dairy cattle and bees to show for his project work. Martin raised beef calves, gilts, and some row crop, Burks revealed.

"More county F. F. A.'ers would have been eligible for the honors if the area had not been in the

Mr. and Mrs. Burks and family will accompany the boys to San Antonio.

Pasture Program Evidences Worth In Looks And Quality of Beef Sold

A combination of Sand Love grass, yearly rest for the pasture, and mowing gives A. Y. "Andy" Bell, one of the county's pioneer farmers and stockmen, some of the best grazing land in this area of Texas.

Bell, who pastures some 720 acres of grassland which is located about 7 miles north of Wellington on Highway 83, found, as many others in a manner, that the poundage and looks of one's cattle depended upon the way that they were cared for in the pasture. The pasture, Mr. Bell feels, is the starter for a good foundation for his cattle and therefore in the spring of 1952, he started on his way for a good pasture improvement program, which added up to dollars and cents. Here is his story:

"In the early spring of 1952, I mowed sagebrush and shinnery, which amounted to some 500 acres. The brush and small trees had choked-out the small native grass that had inhabited the ground for many years. After I had mowed the ground, I did not do anything else to the pasture for that year.

"Nineteen hundred and fifty-three was the big red-letter year for my pasture improvement program. With the aid of my jeep and a power driven seeder, I was able to cover some 500 or more acres with Sand Love grass and clover. Two pounds of this mixture was put to the acre and it came up in a good even stand." Bell told interested members of the soil district on a tour recently.

Bell then let the grass rest during 1953 so that accumulated growth and seed could get the grass to a better and firmer start during the next growing season.

To eliminate the possibility of weeds, he sprayed the pasture with 2 4-D, which in the eye of most weed control experts is the best weed preventative. It even stopped and secured the control of the shinnery that had for so long plagued his pasture land.

To help the grass grow and to be sure of a plentiful supply each year, Bell cross-fenced the land. This year the west pasture in resting all year to let seed mature and fall upon the ground to continue the long-livity of the pasture, while

Miss Bonnie Willis and Miss Sara Jones, who were in Austin for a two-weeks course at the University of Texas, returned Sunday. They had also spent two days with the sister and brother-in-law of Miss Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin West of San Antonio.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Texas' campaign trails are sizzling as figures in the quest for the state's top political job enter the speech-making home stretch.

Governor Allan Shivers' bid for re-election was boosted by the announcement of State Senator A. M. Aikin that he would support the governor.

Aikin, champion of public education and co-author of the Gilmer Aikin laws, said he has never doubted the sincerity, integrity, or ability of the governor.

In a string of campaign speeches broken by a personal visit to the Rio Grande flood area and a request to President Eisenhower to designate five hard-hit counties as disaster areas, Shivers:

1. Charged that opponent Ralph Yarbrough does not have the interest of the state's old people at heart. The governor said that his opponent has "never lifted a finger to help increase old-age assistance," but he has worked to boost pensions for retired judges.

2. Received support from an Austin union barber who said that charges made against the governor in a Corpus Christi labor convention were "unjust." G. O. Eddleman said that the governor had always been helpful to the laboring people and that the "anti-labor" accusation brought against Shivers was the work of labor's "would-be bosses."

3. Reiterated his stand against changes in segregation laws and hit out at Yarbrough for "mud-slinging."

4. Cited industrial gains and the fact that more people are working and making more money in Texas than ever before. "Is this what Yarbrough wants to change?" Shivers inquired.

Yarbrough Busy
Candidate Yarbrough continued his campaign, aided by a chartered airplane that shuttled him to more than 30 towns for brief speeches.

He promised to "clean out" the Texas Insurance Commission if elected.

He also demanded an audit of the books of John Vaa Cronkrite, a former Shivers campaign manager whose name came up in the bankruptcy case of Lloyd's of North America.

Yarbrough declared against third terms, saying that "When politicians become fixtures their cronies become fixers."

The candidate promised an administration dedicated to quick tidings for farmers and ranchers, better roads and highways, better schools, and expanded land, health, and welfare programs.

Commissioner

PRECINCT 1

At this important time our county needs someone who knows how its business affairs are handled, and who can use past experience to make decisions for the best interest of everyone. Neither the business of the county nor the problems of road care and construction can be learned overnight.

I believe in a business-like operation of every part of the county's government. This is the kind I have supported during my time as your commissioner.

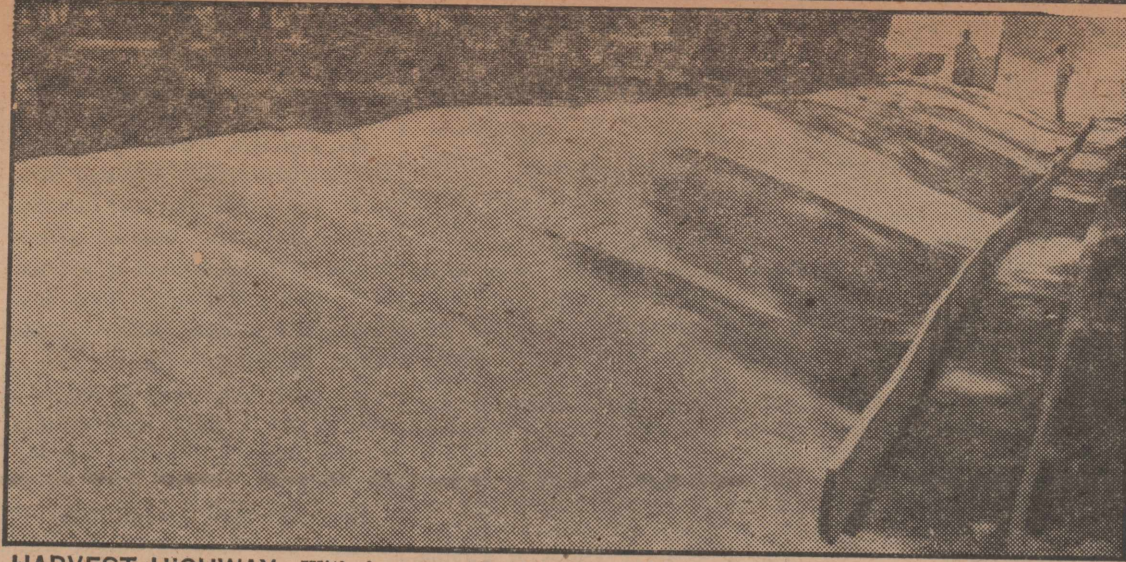

We have had each precinct bearing its own expense during the past year.

I appreciate your most generous support in the past. It has inspired me to do my best in serving you, and if you return me to office, this is how I will continue to serve you. If I have not seen you please accept this as a personal solicitation of your vote.

State Courts

One state court has wound up business for a summer vacation and two more will soon follow suit.

The Court of Criminal Appeals finished its nine-month term and recessed until October 1. Expected to shut up shop soon were the Supreme Court and the Third Court of Criminal Appeals.

A new associate justice for the Supreme Court is to be appointed by the governor before the court resumes business in the Fall. The new justice will replace the late Judge Graham B. Smedley.

Lyerly Leaves

Hugh Lyerly, executive assistant attorney general, resigned July 1 to enter the private practice of law in Dallas.

He joined the firm of Coke and Coke.

"Mr. Lyerly set an outstanding record as a trial and appellate attorney during his three years of service with our office," said Attorney General John Ben Shepperd in announcing Lyerly's resignation.

Insurance Business

Texas insurance companies' charter amendment applications are receiving close examination before being approved, says Attorney General John Ben Shepperd.

He announced that his office has returned 10 of 27 applications in the last two months because of failure to meet insurance law requirements.

Draft Call

Letters calling for 2,416 Texans to be examined in August for military duty have gone out to state draft boards, according to Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state selective service director.

Texas boards will induct 1,092 men during the month who have received previous examinations.

Wakefield said that draft calls for both July and August are running above previous months. The August call asked for men 20 or older, but authorized boards to call men below 20 if necessary to fill quotas.

Texas Navy

Now non-existent, the Texas Navy will be honored September 1-7, designated as "Texas Navy Week."

Governor Allan Shivers credited the one-time Republic's small fleet as playing a big part in winning independence from Mexico.

"It was their fighting spirit that made the difference," stated the governor in his proclamation.

Toll Road

Moving ahead are plans for the state's first toll road.

After a month of consultation, the Texas Turnpike Authority voted to employ Howard, Needles, Tammen & Bergendorff, consulting engineers, to work out plans for the Fort Worth-Dallas thoroughfare, cost of which will be an estimated $31 million.

Fire Causes Little Damage

Wellington's first fire in recent months was responsible for plenty of commotion by local townsmen and little damage. The fire broke out shortly before 11:00 p. m. Monday, July 5, in an old doghouse in the backyard of Judge Luther Gribble's residence.

Sparks from a trash fire are reported to have ignited the fire, which sent some 100 or more locals speeding to the scene. It was the climax to a perfect "Fifth of July."

By the time that members of the local fire department arrive, the smoldering remains of the building was all that was left of the once dog house.

No other buildings in the neighborhood were threatened by the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Mid Scott and son,

It's Time For A Check-Up On The Affairs Of Precinct 3

First, I want to recognize and thank the people of Precinct 3 for their kindness and consideration in the past.

Next, I want to report to you on the affairs of our precinct.

This precinct has 194 miles of road and last year we spent on the average $85.83 per mile, including repair and maintenance of all machinery and bridges.

We have 97 wooden bridges with average length of 31 feet, only 5 now need any repair, all of these minor jobs. All of them are strong enough to be safe.

We have 14 steel or concrete drainage structures, one of which was put in during 1952 at a cost of near $5000.00, being heavy multi-plate steel, 9 feet in diameter and 90 feet long, replacing an old dangerous wooden bridge, 240 feet long. This job was done strictly to state specifications.

Since this January we have topped with clay eleven miles of our sandiest roads.

This was possible because last year Precinct 3 acquired full interest in this additional machinery to assist our maintainer.

TD-18 International Crawler Tractor with dozer-1949 model 8 yd. Carryall Scraper. Adams pull-type grader.

At this time our precinct owes $875.00. on this machinery. Our equipment bought new would cost about $40,000.00.

More than enough custom work has been done for farmers, to pay the dozer operators wages since January 1. Our parts-repair bill has been less than 80 cents per working hour, so this makes it plain this machinery is in good operating condition.

Only the last six months have we had this set of equipment to operate since it took several years of planning, studying, and work to get this set-up.

When the approved Farm-to-Market road to Swearingen is constructed we will have 17 miles of Farm-to-Market pavement in our precinct. While we are yet behind either of two other precincts in our county by 5 or 6 miles, we have received 12.5 miles of very important road in the last four years.

Working in co-operation with the State Highway Department has been a pleasure to me. I have the highest regard for the fairness and efficiency of our Texas Highway Department.

The county has agreed to pay for moving the electric line between Rolla and Swearingen and this job is due to start soon.

I enjoy serving as County Commissioner even when this job requires full time duty as it has since last November, because I want to meet the challenge thinking I can see a much better situation ahead.

I realize any experience I may have gained has been at taxpayers expense, and, should I be re-elected, I shall use to your advantage.

Please consider me when you go to vote.

Thanking You

Pat O' Hair

Miss Terry Weds Vesta Lee Orr in Formal Rites

A mid-summer wedding of dignity and beauty was that of Miss Nelda Terry and Vesta Lee Orr, solemnized Saturday evening at five o'clock at the Church of Christ in Wellington.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Osa Black of Hollis and the late Jim Terry, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Orr Sr. of Vinson, Oklahoma.

Minister G. B. Stanley read the double ring ceremony as the couple stood beneath an arch entwined with huckleberry. Forming the background were arrangements of Emerald leaf, tied with white satin bows, alternating across the chancel with wrought iron candelabra, holding lighted cathedral tapers. The pews along the aisle by which the wedding party entered were marked with huckleberry, tied with white satin ribbon.

Wedding music was provided by a vocal quintet composed of Misses Mary Beth Kelso, Genevieve Bartlett, Doris Lewis, Jean Stingle and Beatrice Hutchins. Preceding the ceremony, they sang "I Love You Truly," and, as the candles were lighter, "Always." They hummed the recessional as the wedding party left the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her older brother, Jimmy Terry of Pampa. Her wedding gown was of white chantilly lace and tulle over satin, styled with a moulded bodice of the lace, with a deep v neckline, accented by folds of tulle. It was fastened down the back with tiny self-covered buttons, and the long sleeves came to deep points at her wrists. The lace also came to deep points over the bouffant skirt of tulle over satin, worn ankle length.

Her double wedding veil of bridal illusion edged in lace fell from a half-hat of lace over pink. The only touch of color were satin rosebuds on her white slippers.

The bride's bouquet was an orchid surrounded by feathered carnations and tied with satin streamers.

She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. She carried out the traditional something old, something new and something borrowed.

Miss Donna Black attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore an orchid net dress styled with a strapless bodice edged in a pleated ruffle, and a bouffant waltz-length skirt in which bands of lace were inserted. Her stole was of matching net, and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white daisies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ann Hunter and Miss Renee Thomason. Both wore dresses styled with strapless moulded bodices edged in pleated ruffles, bouffant waltz-length skirts and matching stoles. Miss Hunter wore white with a pink cummerbund and Miss Thomason blue with a white cummerbund. Their flowers were colonial bouquets of yellow, chartreuse and white daisies.

The candlelighters, Miss Nancy Elliott and Miss Sharon Swift, wore dresses of white tulle, styled like those of the other attendants, and their corsages were of white carnations.

D. J. Shelby of Ron, Oklahoma, was best man, while the ushers were Newell Van Pelt and Duggan. Eddie Orr, small nephew groom, was the ring bearer.

her daughter's wedding, she chose a grey linen dress with a dusty rose velvet hat and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Orr wore a navy sheer dress with accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception in the community building followed. The bride's table was laid with a white damask cloth and centered with the three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Frank Orr, sister-in-law of the groom, served the cake after the couple had cut the first slice and Mrs. V. K. Orr Jr., another sister-in-law, presided at the crystal punch service.

As the couple left on their wedding trip to Colorado, the bride was wearing a black dress with white daisies and rhinestone trim.

Both the bride and groom are life-long residents of the area. Mrs. Orr is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Terry, who were among the early settlers of the county, and she made her home in Wellington until she moved with her family to near Hollis last month. She graduated from Wellington high school with the class of 1954, after having been chosen for honors that included listing in "Who's Who in American High Schools; candidate from her class for school queen; selection as the Best All-Round Girl in high school. She was sweetheart of the Kiwanis Club. A talented musician, she has received her district certificate in this field.

The groom received his education at Vinson and Wellington, graduating in 1953. An outstanding athlete, he was a letterman on the Skyrocket football team. He also attended Southwestern State College at Weatherford, Oklahoma.

A reunion of the children and other relatives of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sweat of Wellington was held during the July 4 holidays at Rogers, Ark., with a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Sweat as hosts. A fish fry was held Saturday, July 3, and dinner was served at the community building Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sweat had gone two weeks before the reunion to visit.

Attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Green Stokes and children, Sylvia and Brad of Mineral Wells; Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Keener and Carol of Perrin; Mrs. Thellie L. Herring and children, Ann, Lydia and Rita, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Smulcer, and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. M. Moore of Bentonville, Ark., formerly of Wellington. In addition to these a number of friends from Rogers also attended.

Mrs. Russell Yates left Saturday by plane from Amarillo to visit two sisters in Washington. She will go first to the home of Comdr. and Mrs. Carmen Cerullo and baby son, Joseph Alexander, of the Naval Base at Whidby Island. During the time she is there, she will act as godmother at the baby's christening. Later she will visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bryant, and daughter, Katherine, on Orcas Island, near Seattle. She will be away about two weeks.

WELLINGTON TEACHER TOURS EAST WITH W. T. S. C. GROUP

CANYON, July, (WTNC)—Mrs. Lorena Barnett, 1409 Bowie, Wellington will be among the nearly 70 persons who will go on a 25-day field geography tour of the eastern portion of the United States and Canada July 16-Aug. 10, conducted by the West Texas State College geography department.

The extended tour by chartered air-conditioned buses is the second to be directed at WTSC by Dr. Murry B. Measamer, professor and head of the geography department. Last summer a single bus toured the western states and Canada, and demands from students this year brought a second bus for the tour.

Emphasizing study at first hand of geologic formations, soils, climate, water and natural resources and their influence on man's industrial, urbanization, transportation and population growth, the tour also brings directly to the student the daily laboratory of actual experience.

First bus, or first class section, will leave the WTSC campus July 16, with the second section, directed by Prof. T. V. Crounse, leaving July 17. The two sections will join in major cities and points of interest.

Tour route will take students through Corinth, Miss., Chattanooga, Morgantown, N. C., Richmond, Va., Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Portland, Me., Quebec, Montreal, Niagara Falls, Detroit, Peoria, Ill., and Lincoln, Neb.

During the first few days, students will visit the gigantic T.V.A. projects, Wilson Dam, Lookout Mountain, the Great Smoky Mountain National Park, and will visit textile factories and the tobacco industry from farm to factory. In and around Richmond, the groups will see Mt. Vernon, Yorktown, St. John's Church, where Patrick Henry made his famed speech, and other points of historic interest.

A guided tour of Washington, D. C., where the groups will spend over two days, will be made, and a full day will be spent in Philadelphia. Three days are scheduled in New York City, where tourists will see everything from the United Nations to a ball game between the New York Giants and the Chicago Cubs. Historic Boston, colorful Quebec and Montreal, famed Niagara Falls, and the industrial Mid-West complete the "chock-full" days of the tour.

Classwork will be conducted each day, and students will make observations and take notes as though they were sitting in a classroom at WTSC. When the groups return to the campus, they will take final examinations, being tested out of their "living textbooks."

Hopper Threat Believed Over

Pastures are the chief source of the present grasshopper plague that has been raging in some sections of the county during the past few weeks, J. W. "Lefty" Thomas, county agent, said. However, the danger is believed over and most of the grasshoppers are in localized areas.

"The farmers that have crops near the pastures are having the most trouble with the pests. They are coming from the grass into the cotton and sorghum fields and in places farmers have reported that the grasshoppers have eaten from three to 20 rows of cotton, Thomas declared.

"Bait is being used effectively to kill the pests; however, the crops are in little danger as long as the green matter in the pastures does not wither away," Thomas declared.

County Schools Get $310,162.07 of State School Fund

Austin, Texas, July 15—Colingsworth County school children are among those over the state sharing the most impressive period of Texas Public Education in state history, a compilation of figures from 1949-1953 released in Austin this week shows.

The county received $310,162.07 for public education during the last fiscal year as its share of the giant 211 million total spent over the state, The Texas Education Agency report said. It also showed that money for the state's school children had increased from 145 million in 1949 to the present figure.

Interviewed this week, Governor Allan Shivers noted that education funds were distributed through Gilmer Aikin formula to a wide variety of uses.

Largest amounts went for salary and operations. Fifteen thousand more teachers with average salary increases of $1,000 in the last few years took a large percentage.

Shivers also explained that last year school administrations received more money to spend for needed improvements than ever before.

Figures also showed lesser known—but important—uses for funds. These included school buses that pick up children in rural areas and transport them safely to school.

Cafeterias with hot noon lunches, only recently becoming less than a luxury to public schools, received financial help also, figures showed.

Shivers, who called the present school system "the best yet in Texas" bid for better education," said that the picture looked even better for future students.

"With the continuance of this aggressive improvement program,

Texas can expect to meet efficiently increasing demands of public education," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Ward and Bruce of Dallas visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Mack Saied.

Mrs. Lena Miller left Tuesday for Andrews where she will spend a week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy Martin and family.

Mrs. Bill Tyler and daughter, Janet of Torrance, Calif. visited Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Tyler and other relatives and friends last week. Mrs. Pearl Parker of Odessa visited friends in Wellington over the week end.

Elvis Crawley, prominent Wellington farmer, was seriously burned Monday afternoon, July 12, when gasoline spilled while filling his tractor and caught fire.

The accident happened at the Fresno Store, and Mr. Crawley said he had left the motor of the tractor running, probably the first time he had ever done this. The gas tank run over, but no gas was spilled on him.

Mr. Crawley received third degree burns on his right hand, and painful burns on his right arm and right side.

He was rushed to the Jones-Watkins Clinic for emergency treatment, then taken to St. Joseph's Hospital for observatin and treatment.

He was due to be released from the Hospital Tuesday evening.

enjoying an out-door life. His summers were spent in Colorado, his winters at Carrizzo Springs in South Texas.

Edmund Winston Cocke Sr. was born in Denton County October 28, 1878. Friends through the years had best known him as Winse Cocke. His parents were Richard Hundley Cocke, who had fought in the Civil War, and Martha Petuse Cocke, a member of a family prominent in political life of Mississippi.

His father came to Collingsworth County with the oldest son, A. V. Cocke, in 1888, and bought land a mile east of what was to become Wellington. The remainder of the family followed in 1889.

Mr. Cocke was married to Miss Gussie Maude Sherwood, member of another prominent pioneer family, October 3, 1906. She preceded him in death in December 1935.

E. W. Cocke served Wellington as Mayor for two terms, 1917 to 1921.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and a member of the Wellington Lodge No. 763, A. F. & A. M., of which he was past master. He was a member of the Knights Templar and the Shrine.

Mr. Cocke became ill almost two months ago, suffering from cancer. Two years ago in May he had undergone surgery here and had made remarkable recovery.

Funeral services for Mr. Cocke were held at the Methodist Church in Wellington Tuesday at 3:00 p. m., with the Rev. J. P. Michael, pastor, officiating. Pall bearers were Bura Handley, Claude McKinney, Dan Henard, James Sullivan, Frank Campbell and Denzil Bevers.

Graveside services were by the Masonic Lodge, with enternment in the Wellington cemetery directed by the Kelso Funeral Home.

Surviving Mr. Cocke are four children, Sam Dick Cocke of Gunnison, Colo., Edmund Winston Cocke Jr. of Climax, Colorado, B. J. Cocke of Yoder, Colorado, and Mrs. Earl F. Ross of Santa Fe, New Mexico. There are five grandsons, Winston, David and Bill Cocke, Freddy and John Ross, Three brothers and a sister also

"excess" wheat produced outside the acreage allotment—and the full level of price support authorized for 1955 will be available for those who comply with their allotments. If quotas are not approved, there will be no quotas or marketing penalties, and price support for those who stay within their allotments will be at 50 percent of parity. Farm Allotment notices, as well as an explanatory leaflet giving the essential facts of the 1955 program, were sent out July 12 to Collingsworth County wheat growers of record. The following voting places in the county will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. on Friday, July 23:

Dodson and Fresno communities will vote at the Farmers Co-op Gin offices in Dodson; Shinnery, Rolla, Wellington, Crossroads, Quail and Marella communities will vote in County Court room in Wellington; Dozier community will vote at Tindall Gin office in Dozier; Samnorwood community will vote at Samnorwood School Gym; Aberdeen community will vote at the Lutie Gin office.

"Whether quotas are approved or not, the wheat allotment proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture will be in effect for the 1955 crop. The controlling legislation requires the establishment of wheat acreage allotments every year, unless they are suspended because of emergency conditions.

"Allotments are the basis for quota administration when quotas are in effect, but when there are no quotas the allotments are still in operation. Producers must comply with acreage allotments in order to be eligible for price supports—with or without quotas. If quotas are not in operation, there is of course no 'marketing penalty' involved in exceeding acreage allotments—the only penalty is the loss of price-support eligibility."

"The vote on the 23rd will decide about marketing quotas for next year. This is a vitally important decision for wheat farmers. It will affect their operations, the degree of production controls, and the level of price support which is available. But the vote on quotas will have no direct effect on acreage allotments."

LOOKING AHEAD

DIRECTOR - NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

A CITIZEN'S AWAKENING

Our mail has been unusually heavy as a result of the series of columns on Herbert Philbrick who served nine years as an FBI counter-spy deep within the U. S. Communist underground. We condensed the series and used it in our June National Program Letter. Great volumes of mail came in from the estimated 100,000 readers of the Letter. The recurring question in these letters has been: "What can I do?" A young mother and homemaker on the Pacific Coast asks the question, then answers it. She writes:

"I most certainly have been guilty of the apathy of which you speak. And I'm sure this is also true of the majority of all my friends. The Velde Un-American Activities Committee recently completed a short hearing on Communism here in the Northwest, which was televised, and this was a jolting eye-opener. If the Committee accomplished nothing else, the public enlightenment obtained would justify their time and effort.

"My circle of friends are in the 30 to 40 age group, busy establishing themselves in their jobs, buying homes, rearing their children, and trying to keep half-way informed. 'Communism' is not a new word to us. I have some sort of vague idea of what Communism is, but could not possibly put that idea in words. Heretofore we have all felt that as long as we were not Communists and didn't associate with any, that was all that was necessary.

"We are guilty of more than apathy—we have a downright reluctance to believe that the Communists are a serious threat, and that they could ever gain any substantial foothold in our country. In the light of our lack of information, and our unwillingness to believe, we have felt that the situation was being taken care of by the Velde, the Jenners and the McCarthys. And even when thinking that all might not be well, comes the inevitable question: 'Well, after all, what can I do?'

HER ANSWER

"I've been pondering that question for a few weeks now, in direct relation to myself. What CAN I do? Your Letter gave the first answer of any kind that I have run across. Here is the answer I came up with:

"1. Make my way to the public library and get one of the only two books that I know of, either 'I Led Three Lives' (Herbert Philbrick) or 'Witness' (Whittaker Chambers) and start reading.

"2. Order more copies of your Letter, which I am doing now, and give them to my friends to read, in an attempt to get them interested in doing what they can do.

"3. Ask you for a list of books on Communism mentioned in Herbert Philbrick's comment; and, after getting the list, give copies of it to my friends.

"4. Not believe everything I see in print, with no thought as to the author, or as to my own common sense.

"5. Try to get my friends to prevail upon their friends to embark on a self-education program. WE CAN WIN

"It seems that each city could have some sort of organized effort or program to acquaint its citizens with 'What You Can Do.' Most cities have many media through which most of its residents can be reached—but particularly the papers, the radio and television. It seems to me that a series of articles in the local paper informing the public as to what they as citizens can do might have some effect.

"At any rate I'm going to see what I can do, step (please send June Letter). I these to ten fr upon them to the Communists far with their knows how far go with the truth.

Ten people can go a long way with the truth. One person, so inspired with a love of freedom and moved into action by an understanding of Communism's terrible threat against it, can go far. Herbert Philbrick says the forces of freedom still are losing to the forces of slavery. Will enough of us awaken out of apathy in time? Letters like the above strengthen my belief that we will.

Some Reasons For Keeping Him

A man should know the law before asking to handle the many legal duties of the Judge's office, such as probating wills, handling guardianships and especially civil and criminal jury trials.
- 2. HE HAS THE EXPERIENCE
There is no substitute for five and one-half years studying law, two years passing laws in the Legislature, and five and one-half years administering laws as your judge.
- 3. HE GETS THE JOB DONE
56 miles of paved roads have been built. 749 bridges and culverts kept up. 720 miles of dirt roads maintained and yet the county's finances (Published every 6 months) are in as good condition as they have ever been in.

EDITORIAL COMMENT — THE WELLINGTON LEADER

Close Farm Vote

Both camps in the farm-price support battle are claiming victory, a fact which can only mean that the outcome is going to be very, very close.

Lobbyists for the two leading farm organizations claim to have polled the members of the United States Senate with these results:

Roger Fleming, secretary-treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation, says the Senate will uphold flexible supports for basic commodities by at least two votes, and possibly by as many as 20. John Baker, legislative representative of the National Farmers Union predicts victory for rigid supports—which the administration opposes—by from 4 to 10 votes.

CONGRESSIONAL QUARTERLY, after summarizing these predictions, says that "significant guideposts indicated a larger hard core of senators backing rigid supports than flexible supports, the balance lying with a large group of 'swing' men. If one of the two guideposts is given greater weight, the flexible camp stands to win enough of the doubtful votes to prevail. The other guidepost, however, indicates a margin for rigid supports. These two guides are, incidentally, former roll call votes on farm legislation.

"Over in the House clues to what may happen are not so concrete. However, the pattern of recent years has had the House generally favoring rigid supports. The House Agriculture Committee went on record June 8 by approving a one-year extension of rigid supports.

"There have been efforts to work out a compromise, similar to the outcome in 1949, calling for a one-year extension of rigid supports, with provision for some form of flexible supports after 1955. Before approving a simple one-year extension, the House committee rejected proposals for gradual conversion to flexible supports after 1955, as well as turning down long-range extension of rigid supports."

Last week President Eisenhower told Congress—and the nation that he was unwilling to compromise on the principles of his farm program. This implies, if it does not actually promise, a veto if the rigid support plan is accepted.

In case of a veto, the close voting as outlined above, precludes any possibility of the rigid support group being able to muster the two-third majority needed to override.

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's notes: The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson Grass farm on Buck Creek tries to explain the lack of interest in politics this week. Don't know whether he succeeds or not.

Dear editor: Some of my neighbors and me were talking the other afternoon about politics, or I better put it the lack of politics.

Nobody, it seems, has gotten very steamed up over politics this year, and here the election is right on us. It used to be, along about this time, all you could hear was politics, and when four or five people got together, a hot argument always developed, with maybe a little fist-fitin on the side. But nowadays not only can you fail to get any arguments, you can't even get a crowd at a political speakin, and the few that do turn up just sit there and eye the speaker without much show of response, and there ain't nothin more discouragin than a candidate flailin his arms and meltin down his collar, with nobody listenin.

My neighbors were offering all kinds of explanations for this luke-warm interest in politics, one of em said it was the fault of the voters, they just was fallin down on their job of makin democracy work; another said it was the fault of radio and television, they offered too much competition.

I do not agree with any of these. The fault lies mostly with the candidates, and it's not that the candidates aren't as good as they ever was, it's just that they've used up all the adjectives against each other. There ain't nothin original left to call an opponent.

Time was when, if a candidate promised to take the skin off his opponent, a big crowd would turn out to hear him pour it on, and some really colorful speakin resulted, but after a few years of it, after candidates have called each other about all there is to call a man, the novelty wears off. When candidates have succeeded in describing each other down a certain point, there ain't nothin to say, there ain't no more skin left to lose interest.

Where the candidates made their mistake years ago was in bein too generous in the use of adjectives. If everybody calls everybody a loose-jointed liar and a horse thief, there just ain't no shock value left, and voters switch on "I Love Lucy." They should have rationed em, usin up just a few words each year, so the supply would have lasted at least through the 20th take off, and consequently people century. But here the century is only a little past half gone and they're at the bottom of the barrel. Seems like a great lack of foresight, to me. When is the election this year anyway?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elbert and Jerry entertained a group of guests in their home during the past week that have included Mrs. Elbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Stanford of Hayward, Calif.; her aunt, and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Jarrett and son, Denny of San Jose, Calif.; Sgt. and Mrs. Garland Elbert, brother of Mr. Elbert and son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Elbert, visited here in their homes. They recently returned from Japan, where they were stationed for three years. Other visitors were the daughters of the Cecil Elbert's, and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Max Davis and son, Stevie of Oklahoma City, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoot Gibson and baby daughter, Nanette, of Ranger.

The Long View

Although the nation's cattle population stands at an all-time high, some economists are worried as to the ability of the industry to stay ahead of the rising population.

In other words, there's plenty of beef now, but what about 1965? The nearly 95 million head of cattle on United States pastures and farms may or may not represent total carrying capacity. In some parts of the country, no doubt, there is an over-abundance, due to such natural disasters as flood or drouth. But there also are areas where more cattle could be grown and fed out to marketable weights and quality.

Present consumption of 150 pounds of beef per capita per year, if maintained through the next ten-year period, means that 15 per cent more cattle must be grown and fattened. One way to provide pasture for them is to make better use of the available land, perhaps to the point of retiring some of the less profitable crop land to grass or other forage.

I appreciate the fact that I do not have an opponent in this election, but I still want to solicit your vote of confidence in the July 24 Primary.

I have done my utmost to make you an efficient, conscientious public servant, and my success in office has been due to your thoughtful consideration and your fine co-operation.

I will be unable to see all of you before election because I must fulfill the duties of this office, and I hope you will consider this a personal solicitation for your vote and an expression of my gratitude to you.

Sheriff - Tax Assessor-Collector

YOUNG-EXPERIENCED-ANXIOUS TO SERVE

I am making the race for sheriff tax assessor-collector on the basis of knowledge of the duties and of experience in law enforcement work. I feel I am capable of handling these duties, as I served you for a time as deputy sheriff and know the technical aspects of that work.

I know most of you people of the county and I promise that I will serve every individual, impartially and faithfully and justly if you elect me your sheriff.

I will be on call at all hours, ready to do whatever I must to make you a good sheriff.

I will uphold the duties of the office and the laws of the land. I will keep capable deputies in the tax office.

Since I must make a living for my family at the same time I am running for sheriff, I have had to be away in harvest, and I may not be able to contact some of you personally, but I take this means of asking for your vote and support in getting me elected your sheriff, tax assessor.

Welfare At Top of List

Eleven Amendments Face Voters in November

An increase in state spending for public welfare aid will top the list of 11 proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on next November.

The order of the ballot on the proposed changes which the legislature submitted to the people was determined Friday by a drawing in the office of Secretary of State C. E. Fulgham.

Rep. Pearce Johnson of Austin, a visitor in the office, did the actual drawing.

The first amendment would increase the permitted state spending for old-age from $45,000,000 to $52,000,000 a year. A similar amendment was defeated in 1951.

Other proposals to be voted on, in the order in which they will appear on the ballot, are:

2. Permitting the exchange of credits earned under the teacher retirement system and the employees retirement system.

3. Permitting the Legislature to provide for agreements with the Federal Government to put employees of political subdivisions under social security.

4. Transferring unneeded money from the Confederate pension fund to a state building fund and permitting up to 6 per cent to be used for memorials to Texans who served in the Texas Revolution and Confederate army.

5. Permitting the Legislature to set salaries of state constitutional officers at not less than present constitutional maximums and raising the pay of legislators from $10 to $25 a day.

6. Prohibiting the credit of the state to be pledged for bonds issued for construction of toll roads.

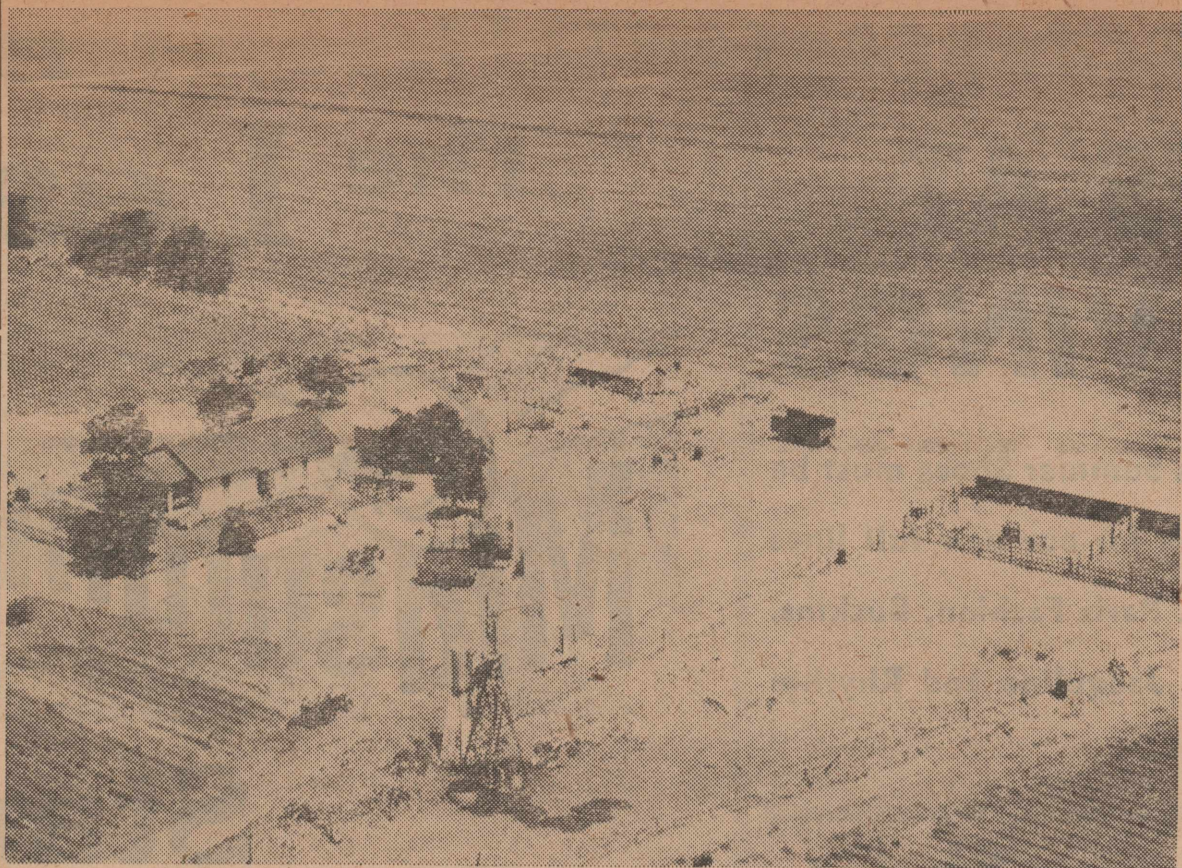

7. Requiring women to serve on juries.

8. Providing a four-year term of office for elective district, county and precinct offices.

9. Empowering the Legislature to authorize creation of county-wide hospital districts in Dallas, Tarrant, Harris, Bexar, and Galveston counties.

10. Permitting Texans in the regular establishment of the armed forces to vote.

11. Permitting counties with less than 10,000 population to vote on having separate office of assessor-collector of taxes which now is combined with that of sheriff in those counties.

Leader, and let us know your answer. No calls or callers can be accepted before 8:00 a. m. on Thursday, July 15. The first person to call and give the correct answer will receive two show passes and the owner will receive a free picture; however, the owner must come the Leader office to identify the farm. The staff at the Wellington Leader does not know the farm's identity.

Honey on Wheels
—and only a few dollars more than the low-price cars!

HAVE you been thinking you can't afford a new Buick? Listen: If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick — and a look at the figure on the price tag proves it. Look again, and you'll see that this is the local delivered price of the new Buick SPECIAL 2-door, 6-passenger Sedan. Compare, and you'll learn that this price is just a few dollars away from those of the so-called "low-price three."

But — dig a little deeper if you want the real clincher. That's when you find that those few dollars more you pay for a Buick buy you a lot more automobile. They buy a whale of a lot more power — Buick V8 power — plus the new economy of Power-Head combustion.

They buy a lot more luxury and comfort and solidity — more room, more glass area, more frame strength, more tread width, more ride steadiness — including the million dollar "feel" of all-coil springing and torque-tube stability.

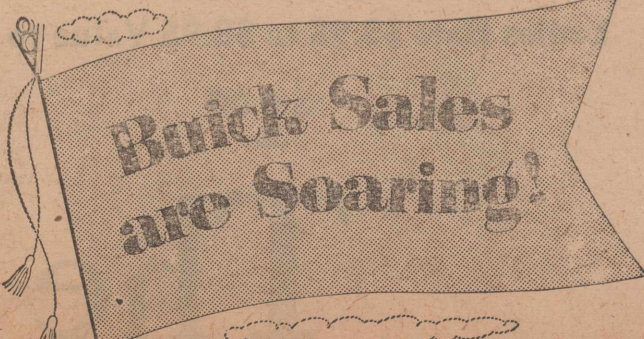

They buy, too, the most advanced styling of the time, and the great panoramic windshield, and the surety that such fresh-looking beauty will stay in the style parade for seasons to come. (That means a better deal for you come resale time.)

Is it any wonder, then, that Buick now outsells all other cars in America except two of the so-called "low-price three"?

Come in for a demonstration — this week, for sure. And learn, in the doing, what a big trade-in allowance our volume sales can bring you.

NO OWNERS?

Take a second look, does this beautiful home and farm belong to you? Well, if it does, please call the Wellington Leader, phone 16, and let us know. At the same time, you can pick up your free picture like the one that appears above.

you have to do is ask the farmer. If the farm economy of this country is allowed to sag, you won't need to ask some statistician what happened to the little businessman and the small towns and communities, and then the wholesalers and the larger towns and the cities. Just ask the farmer.

President's Speech to NEA
Deskins Wells and his lovely wife, of Wellington, took me and my lovely wife, Jean, to the NEA dinner at which President Eisenhower spoke. We had a wonderful time. The President's speech covered a lot of territory. The one remark that received loud applause was his statement that "give-away programs were going to stop. I hope he meant this, both in this country and abroad. The difference between domestic and a foreign give-away program is about ten per cent. Many of the people here want you to sell them government property at ten cents on the dollar. The foreign folks are willing to do the same thing, but you have to give them the ten cents. These dimes add up, as is evidenced by the foreign aid bill, which we are now debating, involving the three and one-half billion dollars mentioned above. Try dividing that into dimes.

Holiday visitors in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones of Quail were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones and son, Claude Darby, and their niece, Ellene Charlton, of Borger. Jones is the son of R. D. Jones and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Wilson and children spent the July Fourth week end with their families in Wortham.

the three and one-half billion dollars that has been proposed as foreign aid this year and the people who will be benefited thereby, my understanding might be cleared up. However, I do not intend to use any such crazy formula. If you want to know why the farmer's children do not have shoes on their feet, it is not necessary to burden your brain with a long, complex international-domestic formula. All

News Letter

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS

ATTENTION: FARMERS

The Under Secretary of Agriculture and President of the Commodity Credit Corporation, Honorable True D. Morse, addressed the National Poultry Improvement Plan Conference in Washington, D. C., on June 22, 1954. The notes he used in addressing this group contained the following statements which disturbed me very much. I give them to you as I obtained them from the Department of Agriculture:

"The prosperity of the United States in 1955 will be put under further pressure as more of the farm business is closed down. In accordance with existing laws, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, on June 21, announced, "The wheat acreage will be cut 55 million—Acres taken out of wheat cannot in general be planted in other grain or cotton without foregoing price supports.

"A farmer must comply with all acreage allotments to get price supports, and farmers with more than 10 diverted acres must hold their crops within a 'total acreage allotment.'

"For 1955, with few exceptions, diverted acres cannot be planted in other cash crops. In general they can only be put to such uses as pastures, hay, cover crops, green manure crops, summer fallow, or be left idle.

"If farmers choose to comply in order to get price supports, there may be 35 million acres diverted out of high income crops. These will include some of the nation's most fertile and productive lands.

"It will tend to slow down the expansion of the total economy.

That is why you as leaders, gathered from 47 states, share the concern about this growing problem.

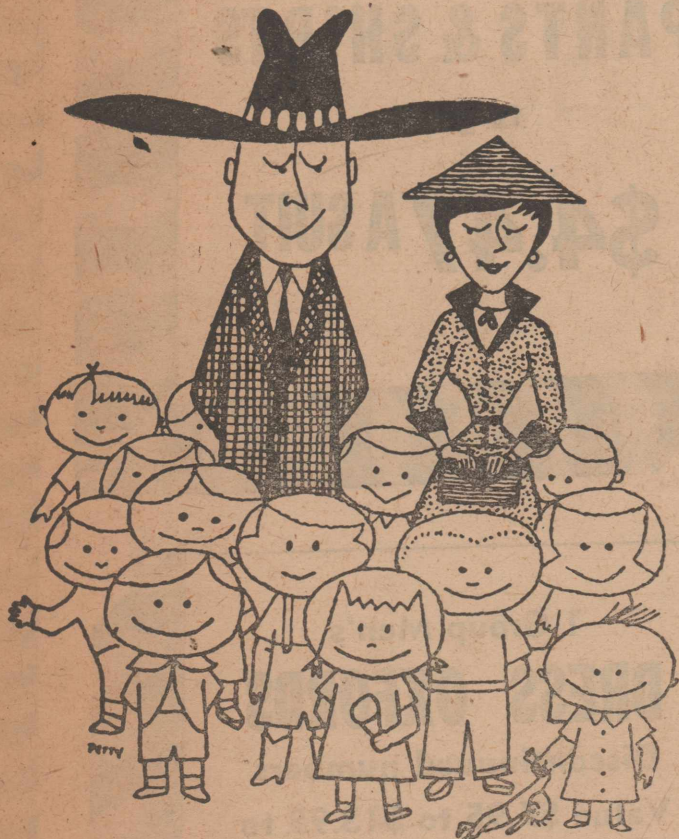

"There will be less profits for farmers.
"All those who sell to, or serve farmers, will transact less business—sell less machinery, fertilizers, chemicals, gas and oil, and all other supplies and services that are required to keep farms in full production.

"There will be less labor to do—less crop work, harvesting, processing, transporting, storage and sales.

"To the extent farm production is cut back and restricted—it tends to weaken the consumer demand and national prosperity on which profitable farm markets depend.

"Agriculture should be making its full contribution to the future national welfare. Farmers are greatly dependent upon full employment, and a vigorous, productive and prosperous America. The degree to which we have such is to no small extent dependent upon the rate at which farms produce.

If these observations on the part of Mr. Morse are correct, it would seem that everyone is going to get along fine except the farmer and those who trade with him, in the United States. Frankly, I find it most difficult to understand how the best interests of this country will be served by doing the injury to each individual's economy. Of course, I am using the old-fashioned method of viewing the situation strictly from the standpoint of this country and the people who make it up. Perhaps if I took into account

Vote For Mrs. O. E. Dodson
For District Clerk

In soliciting your active influence and vote for the July 24 Primary, May I first thank you for your generous support during the time I have served as your district clerk.

I have put forth every effort to do a good job as your district clerk, having at all times kept the office and its records in order, just as you would want your own office records kept. I feel that it is my duty to keep this office open during the regular office hours for any person that may have business here, and for that reason I cannot spend the time in seeing the voters personally that I would like to spend.

I feel the experience that I have gained in office, will enable me to render more efficient service in the future.

I have shown favoritism to no one, and have tried to treat everyone who has business with the District Clerk office with kindness and equal consideration.

I invite public inspection of the District Clerk's records since I have been in office, and it will be indeed a pleasure to acquaint you further with the duties of your District Clerk, and the part we contribute in making good and efficient County Government.

I hope you will consider this a personal solicitation for your vote on July 24, although I will continue trying to see you until the last minute. If you see fit to return me to this office, I shall continue to carry out its duties in the same conscientious manner that I have tried to in the past.

Lyndon Johnson Reports

At the time this is being written, the best informed sources are sounding a note of cautious optimism over the situation in Guatemala.

The optimism is based upon events in Guatemala than upon events in the Western Hemisphere. There is a general impression that the American republics have at last been aroused to the dangers of communist penetration.

The communist-influenced government of Guatemala has been turned out of office. But there is no clear indication as to what will replace it. The present military government is considered only temporary. The communists could still return to power although this is unlikely.

However, the reaction of the other American states is very definitely anti-communist. The military junta which replaced the Arbenz government had to agree to outlaw the communist party. This was a response to Western Hemisphere countries.

Even more important is the Congressional reaction. By an overwhelming vote, Congress has gone on record as ready to take the necessary steps to repel communist aggression in the Western Hemisphere. In the Senate, the vote was 69 to 1; in the House, 371 to 0. The meaning of this expression is unmistakable.

I was the author of the resolution that expressed this Congressional sentiment. It is a resolution which I believe expresses the true sentiment of America—we must maintain our freedoms against communist aggression. The communists must not be allowed to penetrate the Western Hemisphere.

We do not intend to interfere in the domestic affairs of Latin-America. But neither do we intend to allow communists to ship arms into the Western Hemisphere with which their followers can carry on aggression.

We know the danger. We must take whatever steps are necessary to combat it.

In explaining the resolution to the House of Representatives, Representative Sam Rayburn, Minority Leader of the House, said:

"I want to take a moment to express my pride in the senior Senator from Texas (Mr. Johnson). I congratulate him for his wisdom in taking this very necessary and important step in reaffirming the ancient policy of the United States of America with reference to the encroachment of any country in the Western Hemisphere. I think not only Texas should be proud of him, but the entire country should be proud of him."

"I take a particular sense of pleasure in urging adoption of this resolution."

"That feeling flows from the fact that this is a move to unite—rather than to divide—our people."

"There is no partnership in this resolution, other than the partisanship of defending American freedoms against Communist dictatorship. That is the sole issue embodied in this declaration."

"This resolution is a modern restatement of a policy that has guided our people for 130 years. It is a notice to the world that the Monroe Doctrine can be—and will be—adopted to the changing conditions imposed upon us by aggressive Communist imperialism."

TEXAS WATER PROJECTS: Considerable progress has been made recently on several water projects of vital importance to people living in large areas of Texas.

The Texas water problem is one we can and must solve. The best solution lies in cooperative action by the Federal Government, the State Government, local governmental units, and affected landowners. We are getting such action.

FERRELL'S BRIDGE DAM. The Rivers and Harbors Bill, as finally passed, includes $750,000 to begin construction on Ferrell's Bridge Dam and Reservoir in East Texas.

I have fought hard for this project and am delighted by the assurance that it can now go forward. Construction will begin soon. Either Lady Bird or I will participate in groundbreaking ceremonies marking the start of the project.

CANON DAM: Senator Daniel and I introduced legislation which would pave the way for an early start on construction of Canyon Dam and Reservoir on the Guadalupe River. The project is the key to development of water resources in the Guadalupe-Blanco Rivers Basins, including the counties of Refugio, Calhoun, Victoria, De-Witt Gonzales, Caldwell, Guadalupe, Hays, Comal and Kendall.

Our bill would clear legislative obstacles to actual construction. The legislation provides for construction of a reservoir of 760,000 acre-feet at an estimated cost of 13,300,000. Provision is made for the allocation of costs to the local participants and beneficiaries for the water conservation, stream flow regulation and power features of the project.

GUADALUPE-SAN ANTONIO RIVERS: Several weeks ago, I appeared before the Rivers and Harbors Subcommittee of the House Public Works Committee, urging that congressional authority be given for carrying out the Guadalupe and San Antonio Rivers projects.

Committee approval has since been given for these projects.

The projects are of vital importance to a large section of Texas. They call for channel improvement for the San Antonio River and tributaries in the vicinity of San Antonio and Kenedy, and for construction of Gonzales Dam and Reservoir on the San Marcos River near the point at which it enters the Guadalupe River.

I hope we can get approval for these projects during this session. Delay in getting them under way will be costly.

INDEPENDENCE DAY: The fact that Independence Day fell this year on Sunday should cause all of us to renew our determination, as a people to whom freedom is most dear, to seek constantly for Divine Strength in our effort to maintain our freedom.

MORE MONEY for SCHOOLS

During Governor Allan Shivers' administration more money has been spent for schools than ever before.

The result? — better schools, more and higher paid teachers, and better guidance for your children.

Since Allan Shivers became your Governor, school funds have increased from 145 million to 211 million dollars per year. Teachers get $1000 a year more. Your child receives individual attention from 15,000 more teachers.

This educational climb is your child's guarantee of a profitable and happy future. For you it means assurance about his growing-up years. It means a better Texas for everyone.

IN COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY $310,162.07 was spent for your child's education during the last fiscal year. He got better teacher's with higher salaries and an administration that had more money to spend for its needs. Texas veterans received more educational aid. The money went for other—but mighty important—things too, like school buses and cafeterias with hot noontime lunches. It meant more vocational help for your child. It went for many things, all necessary for a better education for him.
