Dallas Gets Borah Talk On Politics

SPEECH WILL BE HEARD BY RADIO THROUGH REGIONAL NETWORK

(By Associated Press) DALLAS, Oct. 22.—Senator William E. Borah of Idaho today came into the traditional democratic stronghold of Texas to deliver a speech here which was regarded by republican leaders as one of the most important thrusts of the campaign to sway the Lone Star State's voters to the cause of Herbert Hoover.

The address, which will be delivered tonight at 8 o'clock at the state fair park auditorium to the north of the city, is the first of the campaign trip that the senator has been making through the "solid south" and border states in behalf of the republican presidential nominee. It will be broadcast over a regional radio hook-up which includes most of Texas and Oklahoma.

A busy time has been arranged for the senator during his one day here. A group of republican and Hoover democratic leaders, including R. B. Creager, republican national committeeman for Texas, and Governor Moore, former democratic national committeeman for Texas and former Governor O. B. Colquitt, was on hand to greet Borah at the train.

Replies to Raakob Senator Borah in a conference with newspaper men replied to the charge of J. J. Raakob, democratic national chairman that the republican party had become the prohibition party by saying "the republicans and democrats agree on prohibition, but the republicans do not agree with Raakob and Tammany on the question." Both parties are pledged to uphold the constitution, he added, "and Raakob and Governor Smith made it an issue, not the democratic party."

The senator denied a declaration by Governor Moore of Texas that he had "bitterly opposed" Woodrow Wilson. Mr. Borah said that he had "disagreed with President Wilson on the League of Nations, but can search in vain my record to find any personal attacks on him."

MRS. BACON IS BURIED HERE

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS FUNERAL SERVICES OF PIONEER

Following funeral services at the First Presbyterian church, burial rites for Mrs. J. P. Bacon, Lubbock pioneer, were conducted at the Lubbock cemetery yesterday afternoon with a large concourse of friends of the Bacon family from this city and the surrounding territory in attendance. Rev. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Bacon was a member, read the funeral service.

Mrs. Bacon died shortly after noon on Saturday after an illness of about three weeks in a local hospital, where she had been moved from her home at 1820 Broadway. Her husband and three children, Misses Blanche and Virginia Bacon and Charlie Bacon; one sister, Mrs. Walter Adams of this city, and a brother, P. C. Stacey of Chickasha, Okla., were with her at the time of her death.

She is survived, in addition to these, by a brother, J. W. Stacey, of St. Louis, and three sisters, Madames Mattie E. Chivers and Emma Ross, of Kansas City, and Mrs. E. M. Laird of Cullendale, Iowa.

Mrs. Bacon came to Lubbock county in 1900 when she was married.

BROWNFIELD CHILDREN ARE POISONED

FATHER GIVES DRUG INSTEAD OF MEDICINE

MISTAKES POISON FOR EPSOM SALTS; TWO DIE QUICKLY

(Special To The Journal) BROWNFIELD, Oct. 22.—Sodium fluoride, an insecticide, administered by an anxious parent who sought to relieve their illness, was today blamed for the death last night of the two young children of Bill Dorman, farmer living a few miles from Brownfield.

The drug was in an Epsom Salts container and the father, unaware that the crystals he saw were dangerous poison, gave a large dose to both children, who had been complaining of illness.

Death followed quickly, efforts of three physicians being unavailing. The insecticide was purchased by a neighbor last week, and a portion was given Mrs. Dorman, mother of the children. She placed it in the Epsom Salts container and forgot to mention the fact to her husband.

Georgia Man Victim Of Brutal Assault

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 22 (AP)—Ernest H. Sykes, 35, of Clyde, Ga., lay in a hospital here today, his body a welter of severe burns and his eyesight gone, as a result of an attack of two unidentified assailants who waylaid him early yesterday.

Sykes said he was enroute home about 4 a. m., and was riding in his automobile when he had to slow his automobile down in passing a rough place in the road. The assailants leaped into the car, Sykes declared, forced him from the seat and halted the motor a short distance down the road.

A few paces from his front yard the car was halted and he was forced to get out, Sykes added. It was at this point, he said, that the gasoline was dashed on him and his clothing fired.

Moody To Speak In Behalf Of Nominee

DALLAS, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Times-Herald today said that assurance was being expressed at state democratic headquarters that Governor Moody has decided definitely to deliver an address here appealing for the support of Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Senator Joe Robinson.

The governor does not want it to appear that he would come out in answer to U. S. Senator William E. Borah—He does not think there is a necessity for answering the invader; his address will be an appeal to Texas democrats to stand by their party and platform designed to aid the south and the agricultural interests, the Times-Herald said.

J., Oct. 22 (AP)—More than 500 persons, many of them girls and young men, were at liberty today under nominal cash bail as a result of preliminary hearings after a series of raids on Camden county road houses early Sunday. The raids were conducted by the entire staff of county detectives and 50 state troopers amid scenes of confusion.

FIRST TELEVISION WEDDING GOES ON THE WIRES

When a man first discovered how to use a camera, a couple were married in 1927. Then came successively, the automobile and balloon and airplane, and couples were married in them. Now television is being perfected, so it was perfectly natural that a wedding should be broadcast. Here it is. They are Miss Cora Dennison of Chicago and James Powles of Kansas City, Mo., married before the microphone and television apparatus at the Chicago radio exposition.

DREAMS OF FLIER

McDonald's Wife Makes Plea For Rescue Trip

LONDON, Oct. 22 (AP)—Hopes of Mrs. H. C. McDonald that her husband had survived his attempt to fly the Atlantic in a tiny Moth plane were buoyed up today by the dreams of friends that he was on a small island. Government circles, however, were unwilling to send searching parties to try to verify the dreams.

Two friends of Mrs. MacDonald, one of the Sir Herbert Parker, a surgeon, told her that they had identical dreams that the airman had been "cast on a rocky island."

The flier's wife went to the admiralty and asked if anything could be done. Officials were sympathetic but informed her that Rockwell was nothing but a small high rock, inaccessible to boats in the present stormy weather and so cold and exposed that nobody could survive there very long.

Mrs. MacDonald then went to Crovdon airforce and suggested that a plane be sent to the island. Again she received sympathy but no help.

35,000 Bales Forecast As County Cotton Yield

The 1928 cotton yield of Lubbock county today was estimated by Lubbock County Agent D. P. Eaton, at 35,000 bales, a decrease of 13,000 bales from the production peak of 48,000 bales produced in the county last year.

This estimate was made following an inspection tour over a part of the county by Mr. Eaton. Injurious worms were given by Mr. Eaton as one of the principal causes of the decrease in the estimate.

He stated, however, that farmers throughout the county were reporting greater productions that thought possible thirty days previously.

The present fair weather is causing the cotton to pop open at a rapid pace, according to Mr. Eaton. Should the cold weather continue it will cause a delay in the maturity of the cotton. Don L. Jones, superintendent of the state experiment station here, said this morning.

Ten Percent Gained According to Mr. Eaton's estimate, slightly more than 10 percent of the county's cotton has already been ginned. Up until last Saturday night, 4,096 bales had been ginned, and for more than a week the ginning trend of the county has increased in speed, placing the county in the middle of the harvest season at the present time.

The need of cotton pickers, having been met to a considerable extent, continues a problem to Chamber of Commerce officials and government employment bureau officials stationed here. Although hundreds of pickers have come into this section during the past week, calls for pickers were still coming in to the Chamber of Commerce offices this morning.

R. F. Nelson, U. S. Federal farm employment official here, is on the job distributing the pickers to the points where they are needed most. It is thought that the problem will be completely relieved by the end of the week.

The total number of bales ginned up until this time one year ago was considerably less than this year's total, indicating an earlier maturity of the cotton crop should Mr. Eaton's estimate prove accurate.

BOTH PARTIES CENTER DRIVE IN EAST AREA

HOOPER SPEAKS IN NEW YORK TONIGHT; AL MAKES SEABOARD

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Herbert Hoover today was the home ground of his democratic opponent to end up his campaign in the East with an address tonight at Madison Square garden.

The republican presidential candidate arrived here last night from Washington so that he might give a full day to conferences with party leaders and aid them in mapping out the strategy for the closing day of the fight for the 45 electoral votes of New York state.

In addition, he was to receive various groups of foreign-born voters and delegations from independent organizations working on behalf of the republican national ticket and make an address at a luncheon to which county chairmen and vice chairmen of the Empire State and many republican campaign workers had been invited.

Rests During Day After spending the entire day at his hotel, the nominee is to go to Madison Square garden shortly before 8 p. m., to deliver the last speech he will make until he starts to his California home to vote early next week.

Elihu Root, secretary of state in the administration of President Taft, will preside and will first present Vice President Dawes, who will make his first speech of the campaign. Hoover will start speaking about 8:30 o'clock and the whole program will be carried to the county on an extensive radio hook-up.

Mrs. Hoover, who with her son Allen Hoover, accompanied the nominee from Washington, was to breakfast with the women's auxiliary of the Engineers National Committee and also to attend the midday luncheon to state and county leaders.

The republican candidate was given an enthusiastic reception upon his arrival here late last night. Several thousand persons were present.

Death Penalty Is Assessed To Youth

EASTLAND, Oct. 22 (AP)—Lawyers for Thomas Davis, 17 year old Eastland youth, convicted of the murder of Lucian Shook, prepared today to make a stubborn effort to upset the verdict and to save Davis from the electric chair.

The jury reported late yesterday and the severity of the verdict was a surprise to defense counsel. The defense had been so confident that the jurors would not heed the state's plea for the death penalty that a motion for suspended sentence had already been made, to be acted upon in case a prison term was recommended.

Davis was led stumbling from the court room to a cell beside that of Clyde Thompson, another 17 year old youth given the death sentence in the same case last week.

Ervin, of the Chicago engineering department of the company, today began a survey of a proposed extension of the Lubbock-Seagraves branch line toward the Southwest, and in the general direction of Hobbs, New Mexico, scene of the latest Southwestern oil strike.

Smith To Talk In Boston Wednesday

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Confident that he has laid an under his banner all of the water touched on the 3,600 mile tour ended, Governor Smith here is pre-ning his hopes on five strategic Atlantic seaboard states with a total electoral vote of 123, or ten less than half the number needed to place him in the White House.

Starting on Wednesday with a speech at Boston, the Democratic presidential nominee will carry his fight to Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, making his final ten days of campaigning before election a whirlwind affair closely paralleling his past gubernatorial battle finishes.

Only a tentative schedule had been mapped out today beyond the Boston address. Subject to change, it calls for speeches at Philadelphia next Saturday, Baltimore October 29, Newark, October 31; Brooklyn, November 2 and New York City, November 3.

While labor, foreign relations, reorganization of government and other subjects remain to be discussed by the candidate, he has not definitely settled in his mind where he will take up these particular questions. He has indicated that he may make his Boston address an appeal to the labor elements of that center, but he is with-holding decisions.

Were Republican in 1924

All five seaboard states to be visited by the nominee were in the republican column four years ago. Massachusetts with its 18 electoral votes, New York's 45, Pennsylvania's 38, New Jersey's 14, and Maryland's 8—all fell under the avalanche of ballots that swept Calvin Coolidge to victory.

Governor Smith, however, is confident that he has bright prospects in the vital political region and is preparing to bring his best oratorical talents into play in a supreme effort to swing all five states into line for the democrat.

Assessing the results of his second campaign tour he said: "We have pretty well settled the states we have been in, from what I can hear. Of course, I never shared the doubt about Tennessee that was going around. I never believed that was off the hook, or North Carolina either. I did not know about Kenucky when we started, but I am satisfied with it.

The governor said his optimism also embraced Virginia, Alabama, Texas, Florida, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois.

Referring to anti-Smith sentiment in some of the southern states, the nominee said all that were heard from in those states "are the noisy minorities."

To the Hoover Supporters of South Plains:

I want to inform you that in my honest opinion, based on reports from this Senatorial District, that Herbert Hoover has a splendid chance to carry this district and the State of Texas.

To insure this desired result it is highly important that we have some money to meet necessary expenses. We want to place sample ballots in hands of voters, we want to print the Ballot in our local papers. We have to pay expenses of speakers. That is the use the money goes to.

We need a few hundred dollars. It is impossible for us to see you in person. I am therefore addressing you publicly asking every one who can to send in check for $1.00 or more to assist in the work. Many of us are giving both time and money. Your contribution will be a big help.

If you desire to assist in keeping America Dry and to elect Herbert Hoover, send in your mite or much. Make check payable to the undersigned or to F. E. Wheelock.

Thanking you and assuring you that we will do our utmost for Herbert Hoover, I am,

Yours very truly,

Chairman Senatorial Anti Smith Democratic Committee.

- 15—Flueway—long, narrow flueway entirely surrounding the boiler. Permits use of the entire surface of the boiler as heating surface.
- 16—Heat Deflector—shields the base from the radiant heat of the burner.

- 17—Heavy brass gas cock handle nickel-plated.
- 18—Fire Door Assembly—heavy pressed steel finished in black, baked enamel. The fire door is equipped with a radiant heat shield—it is held closed by a spring.
- 19—Thermostat—a simple, sturdy, all metal thermostat developed in our own plant. It is of the graduate type but is at least 50 times as fast in its action as the graduated thermostats heretofore made. Thermostat screws directly into the boiler—no nipples.
- 20—Drain Cock—3-4 inch, heavy brass drain cock nickel-plated. Screws directly into the boiler. It is located at the very bottom of the boiler, assuring perfect drain.
- 21—Gas Filter—a feature not found on any other heater made. Prevents foreign matter from entering the thermostat and eliminates stoppage of pilot ducts. The filter will positively remove all impurities from the gas.
- 22—Base—Same as No. 4.
- 23—Bottom Boiler Head—concave. Same as No. 8.
- 24—Legs—heavy, pressed steel legs gracefully designed, finished in black baked enamel.
- 25—Automatic Pilot Control. All metal, of Everhot design, it is exceedingly simple in construction assuring positive action.
- 26—Surface boiler always hot. Condensation practically eliminated.
- 27—Requires only small meter and ordinary water and gas lines.
- 28—The EverHot has more heating surface than any other type of storage heater.
- 29—Only three adjustments—one for temperature regulation, pilot adjustment, and the automatic pilot control may be regulated to change the period of operation, if desired.
- 30—Boiler easily removed—simply disconnect leakage by-pass, unscrew hot and cold water connections, drain cock and thermostat and the boiler may be lifted out.
- 31—Perfect temperature control—not more than 3 degrees difference in temperature between the water in top and water in bottom of boiler. No over-building of temperature—liming prevented.

VICTORY

*"Peace hath her Victories
No less renowned than War"*

—MILTON

NOT a Victory of spoils but a Victory of toil—a Victory of endurance born; a pursuance of an inspiration;
the development of an ideal.

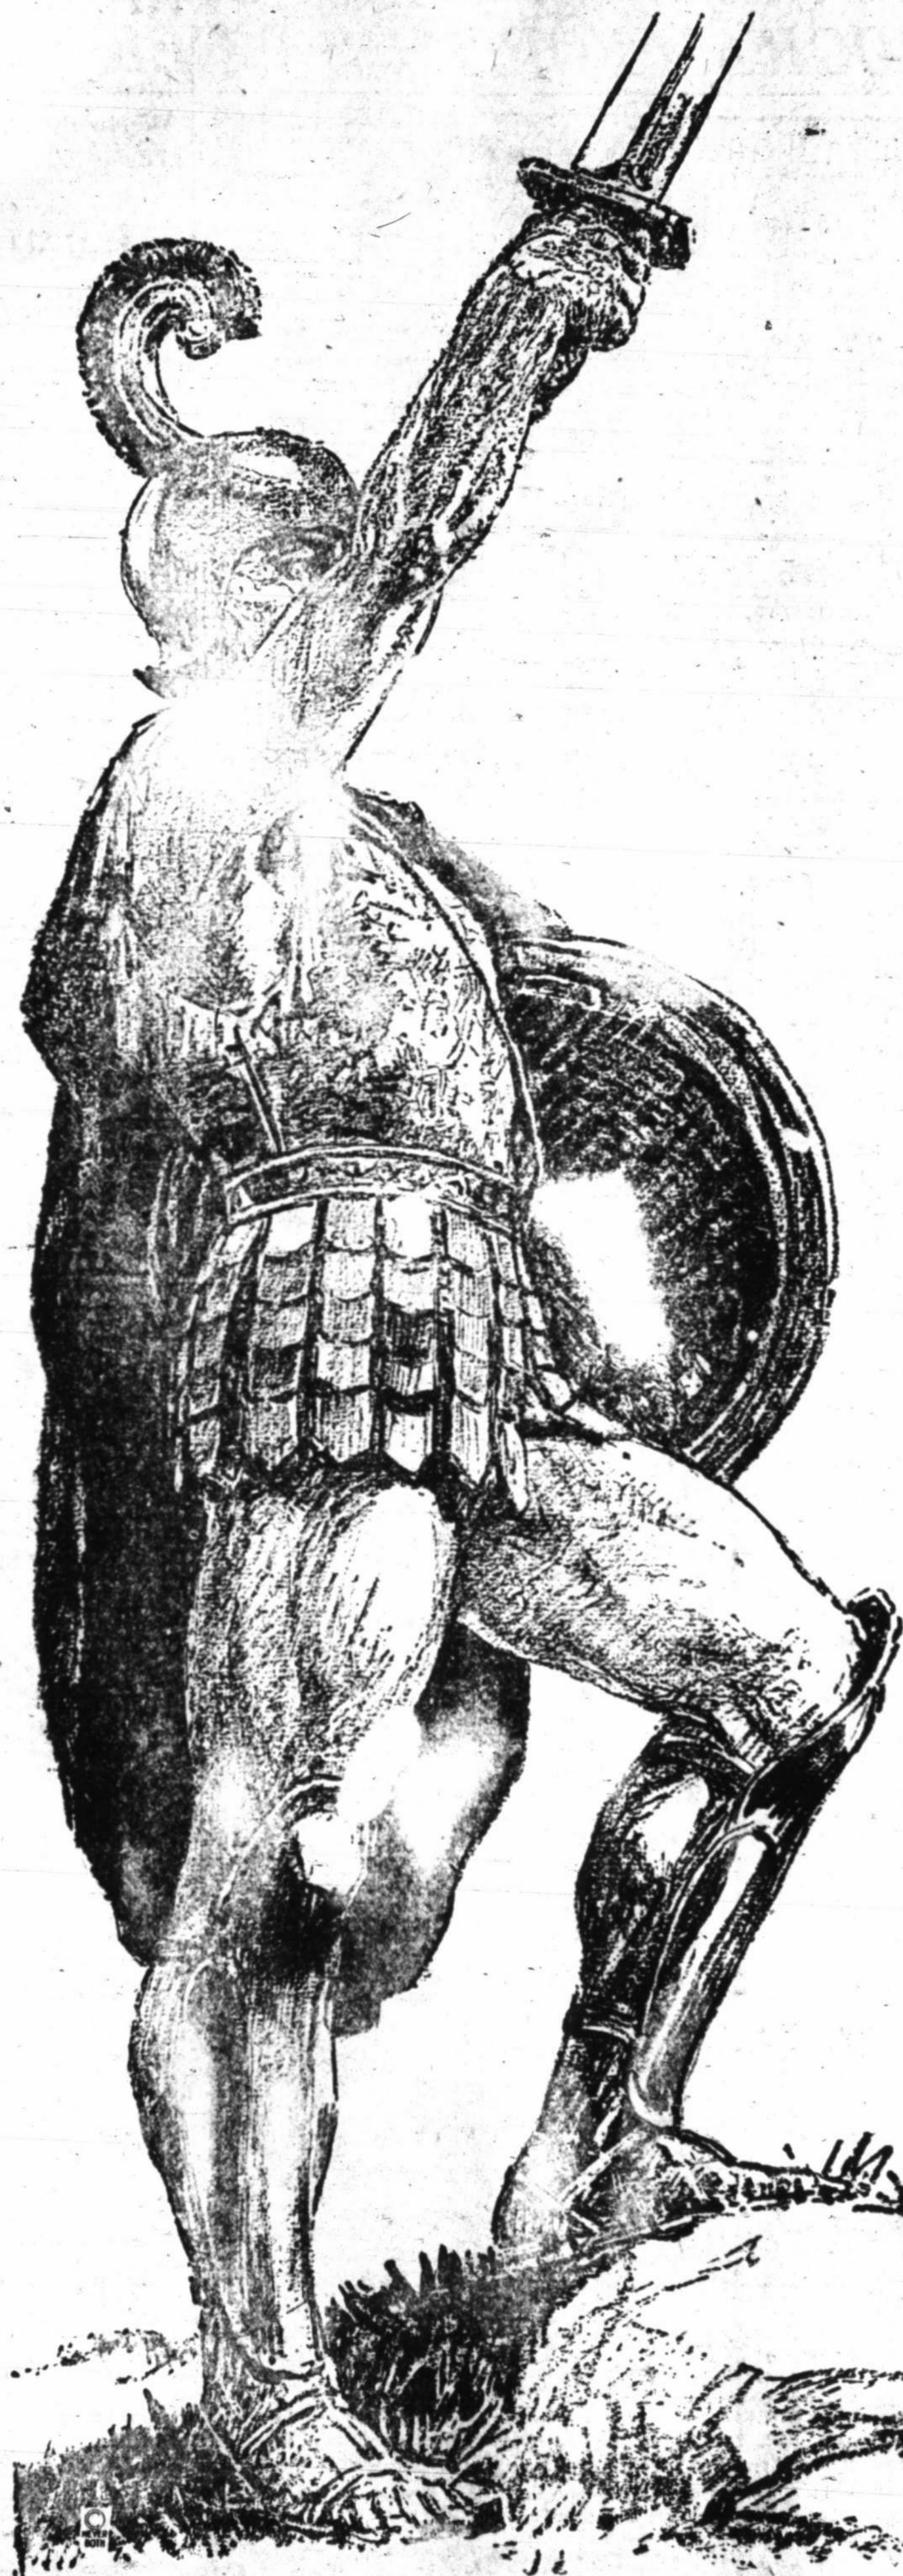

Perseverance plodding the lanes of Service to the Promised Land of Leadership. But the goal is ever onward. Attaining Leadership is but the prelude to maintaining Leadership.

Service must be ceaseless, seeking and developing higher standards; accepting the most modern interpretations of Service; the most efficient facilities; exercising the most progressive and aggressive methods in news gathering; establishing greater buying resources, competitive advantages and value achievements.

Victory, yes, but not vainglorious Victory; rather a Victory that regards success only as an evidence of community trust to be perpetuated by still greater degrees of Service.

TECH MUSTERS STRENGTH FOR THRUST AT HORNED FROGS

YALE-ARMY GAME HEADS GRID PROGRAM FOR THIS WEEK-END

MATADORS ARE POINTED FOR T. C. U. BATTLE

CHRISTIANS ODDS-ON FAVORITES BUT THIS IS YEAR OF UPSETS

The Tech Matadors with their eyes glued on a possible Southwestern Conference berth next year face their acid test this week at Fort Worth when they take the field against the Horned Frogs. The Tech Matadors have usually turned in their best game against T. C. U. No one has forgotten how the Matadors lost a year into the supporters of the Frogs in 1926 when the first half found Tech leading 10-7.

Tech Pointed For Leads

The Tech has been pointed especially for this game. The Matadors would rather win this clash than all the others of their grid calendar.

Tech, so far, has shown no offense to speak of. Except in the Texas game the Matadors have been able to win without the necessity of "opening up" when the Frogs have had purpose. The Tech simply doesn't perform on one can see. The fan will certainly find out this week at Fort Worth.

Passing Looks Better

A try of more zimmered into the ranks of the Tech followers last Saturday in the second half of the McMurry game. The Tech passing offense showed potentialities and a possibility that it may develop into a real scoring threat. Walker, although able at tossing the ball, seems to have become accurate at last in the game Saturday. Walker was the ideal passer—cool, calculating, waiting to spot his man and then shooting rifle-like heave. Because Tech may unleash an overhead attack that will dazzle even the brilliant Frogs, who have more than a "dark horse" capable of conference championship title.

Answer It Will Be a Battle Worth Watching

Answers it will be a battle worth watching to Fort Worth to see hundreds of students and fans are expected to board the special train Friday night and follow the team on its invasion of Cowtown.

Olton Smashes To Victory Off Kress

OLTON, Oct. 21 (Sp.)—The light "fast" Olton high school team defeated another team to its belt here Friday when the Kress high eleven bowed to the Lamb county lads by a 6 to 0 score.

The game was the hardest of the season thus far and for the first time this year the home team made less first downs than their opponents. Kress counted 18 first downs to Olton's 10 but lacked the scoring punch when the goal line was in prospect.

Callahan To Meet Tracey In Fight

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (Sp.)—Mack Callahan, world junior welterweight champion, will meet Bobby Tracey of Buffalo in the feature match of Chicago's program this week. They will fight 10 rounds to a decision Tuesday night.

Callahan's title will not be at stake.

Speaking of Football

New Rule on Forward Pass Should Develop Increased Use of Pass As Offensive Weapon in Football

The rules committee has delayed the difference between a "muffed" and a fumbled ball last year if the safety man failed to gain complete possession and control of the ball and fumbled, it was called a "muff".

The defensive team could recover, but could not advance the muffed ball. However, if the safety man had possession and control of the ball for a number of steps and then fumbled it was a free ball and might be recovered and advanced by either side.

The safety man in returning a punt now may carry the ball any distance, and in the event of a fumble the ball is declared dead at the point of recovery by either team.

The shift rule has been so clarified that its interpretation should have the same meaning in all parts of the country. In many intercollegiate games last season it was necessary by agreement of coaches and officials to determine before the game how the shift rule should be applied.

The new rules say that players must come to a stop for a full second after the shift or huddle and that no man can be in motion until the full second has elapsed, after which one man can be in motion toward his own goal line, or ob-

FATE IS KIND TO ONE BUT HARSH TO TWO OR THREE GREAT JOCKEYS

BY ALEXANDER C. HERMAN

It was the same kind of shock which came to the jockey who has been in a wreck. Science calls it a "psychological" strike. But whatever it was, Steve was through as a great rider.

It was a tough break—but one that might have been expected. No provision for the future had been made—and Steve now suffers the consequence.

Sande's Case Different

But Earl Sande, the American jockey-part has been thinking further ahead than the "nose" of his mount. He has been saving his wits.

As just about the time that Steve was being thrown into bankruptcy, Sande was sending his own horse to the barrier. He had graduated from jockey to owner.

And his colors came through a winner at 15 to 1 in the very first race.

Refused Kaiser's Offer

Fifteen years ago he refused a $30,000-a-year offer from the Kaiser to ride his colors. Three years ago he got $30,000 for one race. Yet, now according to his statement in bankruptcy he has assets of only $2,400—and debts of about $23,000.

How come? Steve was too good a fellow, always counting on another good workout tomorrow. This was all right as long as something was coming. But in 1923 in Grand Prix at Paris, he was thrown and badly hurt in a jump at the turn.

There is little moral to this tale. But in the background is the fading figure of an American jockey who was the Sande of his day—Tod Sloan. He was an international turf idol. But he had some of the Donoghue's "hot" temper.

And now he is doing odd jobs in the Tia Juana for a living.

BAYLOR AND FROGS FURNISH SURPRISES

CONFERENCE PROGRAM OFFERS TWO TILTS THIS WEEK-END

BY HAROLD BANKS

Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (Sp.)—The day apparently passed when Southwest Conference football teams can ease up in their training program for weak opponents and roll up imposing scores against helpless adversaries by simply going through the motions of playing football. The reason is that in the conference this year, with the possible exception of Rice, no such "set-ups" exist.

Displaying a staunch defense and an attack that marks them as title threats, Baylor and T. C. U. set their gridding wings about with unexpected victories Saturday over Central and Longhorn, the stalwart Texas Aggies.

Baylor Win Impressive

Baylor's margin of victory, 28 to 0, was decisive, and although the Horned Frog outscored the Farmers by punching across a single touchdown, the Big Purple equal was the aggressor throughout most of the game. As the result of smashing the Centenary line the Bears set the pace for conference scores for the season with 137 points one ahead of B. M. U. By virtue of smothering the Aggie attack by the great play of its line and turning the Farmers back from their goal, the Horned Frogs stamped themselves as one of the most potent defensive aggregations in the country. While counting 53 points against the Frogs this year, the Redskins have limited scoring against them to a field goal booted in the Simmons contest.

Rice Has Air Attack

Even Rice despite a crushing 33 to 13 defeat at the hands of Coach Ray Morrison's Mustangs, showed that it is not to be considered too lightly. The Opa displayed in Smith and Although two of the best passers seen since the grid season got under way and the Mustang backs spent a busy afternoon in attempting to quell the aerial offense.

In the other conference contest Texas ran true to form by downing Arkansas 26 to 7.

The week's gridiron calendar contains only two melées between conference teams, only one of which appears to have any bearing on the final outcome of the race.

Forker-Aggie Tilt Important

Coach D. E. Billie's Aggies go to Arkansas for their annual tilt with the Razorbacks and Texas plays Rice. The Aggie-Forker clash will be watched with interest, for not only will it reveal the comparative strength of the Farmers with Baylor and Texas, both of which have previously played Arkansas, but the contest will determine if the Aggies this season are but a whispser of last year's great championship squad. Another loss would undermine greatly the team's morale.

T. C. U. engages Texas Technological college, S. M. U. meets Trinity and Baylor is given a slight pause for breath before taking on the Horned Frogs by clashing with St. Edwards.

INTERSECTION GAMES SHOVED IN BACKGROUND

SIX UNBEATEN TEAMS WILL BATTLE IN FEATURE GAMES

(By Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 21 (Sp.)—The intersectional angle that has been so conspicuous so far in college football faded into the background this week. The spotlight turns on at least a dozen games of outstanding importance to conference or sectional championship aspirations in the East, South and Middle West.

Three of these conspicuous contests bring together the undefeated national products so far, and the atmosphere may be distinctly cleared as a result.

The East's big spectacle will see West Point's cadets charging upon Yale before some 75,000 in the Bowl at New Haven. Minnesota's Jagerman craves Iowa's stronghold for the all-important "Big Ten" clash of the day. Those ancient Missouri Valley rivals, Missouri and Nebraska, furnish a third vital attraction at Lincoln with the leadership of the West.

A few others should be mentioned. Two of the three unbeaten Rocky Mountain conference eleven, Utah and University of Colorado, will fight it out to see who will stay with Colorado College at the top.

South Tilt Important

In the South, where the main conference race is getting hotter every week, two of the pace-setters, Clemson and South Carolina, renew an ancient feud on Thursday, in advance of such other important football Saturdays as Georgia Tech-North Carolina, Vanderbilt-Virginia, Georgia-Tulane and Tennessee-Washington and Lee.

The eastern program is somewhat overshadowed by the Yale Army affair, which will be featured by the first severe test ever given to the Princeton Tiger's last year's unbeaten record.

Coaches' Meeting

Coaches' meeting at the top flight Dartmouth's effort to maintain a winning streak against Harvard, Pennsylvania's attack upon the battered Navy crew, and Cornell's invasion of the Princeton Tiger's last year's unbeaten record.

Wayland Rabbits Trounce Cordell

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 21.—Wayland again added to her victories Friday, Oct. 19, when she decisively defeated Cordell Christian College of Cordell, Okla., by a score of 51 to 0.

Edgar Coose, star quarterback for the Jackrabbits, took open field for a touchdown on a fake play in the first few minutes of the game.

The Jackrabbits are off for a good season and are now showing their plans to give the Panhandle A. & M. a good trimming here next Saturday. So far the Rabbits have defeated their opponents by a 3 to 1 point margin. Three out of four games have been won with the following results: Abilene Christian College at Plainview, 12-0; Edwards at Rowell 18-0; Clarendon our old rival at Clarendon, 13-6; and Cordell C. C. at Plainview, 51-0.

Opponents 24; Jackrabbits' 75. Local support is keen and the Jackrabbits are working hard to maintain this high standing.

San Antonio Man Held For Slaying

BOERNE, Tex., Oct. 21 (Sp.)—Grover Rohrer, of San Antonio, is scheduled for examining trial here today in connection with the killing Saturday of Pat Lewis, formerly a ranger and deputy sheriff of Guadalupe county.

Lewis was struck in the face by two charges from a shotgun. After an inquest Rohrer was remanded to jail without bond. The shooting occurred at a camp and witnesses at the inquest said that several guns and bottles smelling of alcohol were found there after the shooting.

Rohrer is not likely to uncover any of the tricks they have in store for other foemen.

Who's Who among GRID LEADERS

By NEA Service

FORT COLLINS, Col., Oct. 21.—Glenn Davis is captain of two teams at Colorado Agricultural College here, football and basketball. And he's good at both sports.

Harry Hughes and Glenn Davis

Davis is one of the most versatile and consistent players of his section. He does everything well, from his quarterback berth, although he is the kind of a fellow who likes to see the other fellows carry the ball for the touchdowns.

Davis has to his credit one of the longest runs ever made in a conference game. In his sophomore year, playing against Denver, he caught a punt on his own eighty-yard line and ran the entire distance of the field—and tied the score. The added point won the game for the Aggies.

The Aggies last year won the championship of the Rocky Mountain conference, but have a difficult task ahead of this season. Many valuable players are missing.

WESTERNERS GRIND FOR ELECTRA GAME

OVERHEAD ATTACK OF HIGH SCHOOL MAY BECOME THREAT

In prime condition after a week of rest, the High School Westerners this afternoon will start gridding away in earnest for their conference tilt with Electra on the latter home field Friday.

The Westerners loom as a potential passing machine and an overhead attack is likely to figure conspicuously in Lubbock games from now on. This doesn't come figured conspicuously in both high school and college football this year. Amarillo's overwhelming victory over Plainview Saturday further dimmed Lubbock's chances of trouncing the Sandies. The coaches and team are not giving up but figure their chances of tipping up Amarillo to be slim—very slim. Amarillo is now the heavy favorite to be district tilt.

LABOR HITS COMMUNISTS

REVOLUTIONARY AIMS OF PARTY DRAW UNION ATTACK

(By Associated Press)
 LONDON, Oct. 22.—Asserting that reports had reached the government of communist agitation at naval dockyards, the Daily Sketch today said that all communists now employed at the Woolwich arsenal and naval dockyards would be dismissed unless they renounced allegiance to communist doctrines. The decision was also said to be due to the open revolutionary aims of the communist party.

Percy Glading, a workman at the Woolwich arsenal, has been dismissed after he rejected the alternative of abandoning communism. Glading is a member of the amalgamated engineers union. Union officials interview Lord Stanhope, civil lord of the admiralty, concerning his case.

The Daily Sketch said Lord Stanhope held that the question was whether political nor one concerning trade unions but was a matter of national safety. He said in effect that it was impossible for a man to be a loyal member of the communist party and at the same time a loyal servant of the government.

Having received this reply, the engineers union referred the case of Glading to the trades union council. A member of the council was quoted by the paper as saying the situation was very delicate and embarrassing. It has been the policy of trade unions to oppose communist doctrines but not to exclude communists from membership.

Morrow's Room Being Repaired

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—American Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow's earthquake battered bed room is being repaired again.

The walls and ceiling of his sleeping quarters in the embassy residence have been cracked three times this year by earthquakes. Mr. Morrow has never been in the bed room at the time. After each jolt the repairs have been scarcely completed when another tremor has reopened the cracks of caused new ones. The damage has not been serious or dangerous, and other parts of the embassy residence, and the office building, have been cracked even less than this particular bed room.

Ambassador Morrow makes light of the matter. Friends have commented that it is rather considerable of Mexican earthquakes to occur early in the evenings, before Mr. Morrow retires to his bed room which seems to have an earthquake hoodoo.

Laredo Oil Man Dies In Plane

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22 (AP)—Edward St. Albans, 50, Laredo oil man, died in an improvised hospital which his physicians had established in an airplane 25 minutes before the plane reached San Antonio where St. Albans was to have been placed in a hospital yesterday.

Mary St. Albans, his wife, well known as a fiction writer under the pen name, Mary White, flew in another plane beside that occupied by her husband, but did not know of his death until the plane landed here.

St. Albans, stricken with hemorrhages of the stomach in Laredo, had ordered the plane to take him to a San Antonio hospital.

QUIZ DEATH OF CHILDREN

BABIES' JLUUGE FROM TOP OF BUILDING IS INVESTIGATED

(By Associated Press)
 NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—Inquiry into the death of two baby-grandsons of the late Benjamin Gurgenheim by falls from the roof of the Hotel Surrey Friday has been ordered by Chief Medical Examiner Charles Norris.

While playing on the roof with their mother, Mrs. Milton S. Waldman, wife of an associate editor of the London Mercury and youngest daughter of the late copper magnate, the two boys, Terrence, 4, and Benjamin, 14 months, fell 13 stories to the roof of an adjoining building.

Mrs. Waldman told police the older boy was attempting to climb into her lap and knocked the baby from her arms, then lost his balance and followed his small brother over the two foot wall. She has been confined to a hospital since the occurrence.

Dr. Norris visited the scene of the tragedy, made measurements and marked the approximate position of the bodies.

"makes me feel that it warrants an inquiry and is best for all concerned that all the facts of this deplorable tragedy be placed in the official record.

Police have listed the two boys' deaths as "accidental."

Mrs. Waldman recently returned from abroad with the two children. Her husband is still in Europe.

Cupid Works This Week On The Sly

Although marriage was on a boom over the week-end, most of cupid's work was on the sly.

Of the seven couples issued marriage licenses Saturday and yesterday from the offices of the county clerk, three asked that their names not be published.

Forty licenses already have been granted here this month and with more to go, the month promises a record total.

The licenses issued over the week-end included: M. R. Gillard and Marie Wilson; J. C. Johnson and Ida Burrows; R. B. Cokerham and Beulah Blake; and W. B. Kelley and Dorothy Campbell.

SUN-PROOF LIQUID PAINT

The life of a building is indefinite if it is properly protected with an armor of paint. Much depends on the choice of paint. A few people may be able to judge the value of paint by its composition, but to the average user the formula on the can means nothing. Paint should be bought on the basis of service. How many square feet will it cover? How many years will it last?

WEEKLY HOUSE PLAN FOR FIRST FAMILIES

THE WASHINGTON has a stately dignity in its Colonial beauty that would inevitably give its owner standing in the community.

It is the kind of home that people of good taste, background and stability would choose.

There is solid comfort inside the Washington, comparable to the decidedly satisfactory beauty of its external architecture.

A hospitable center hall is the keynote to the spacious restfulness of the whole house. You are not surprised, after entering this hall, to find a very large living room, 24 feet and beyond it, a cheery sun parlor inviting one's further roaming.

A dining room, of large enough proportions to accommodate the kind of formal parties this home would house, opens off the reception hall by French doors. These are directly opposite similar French doors into the living room and when both are open, one is afforded a long sweep of space across the house similar to the one through the living room and sun parlor.

Two baths accommodate the family and guests. There are three spacious bedrooms, two of them with two closets each, a blessed boon when two occupy the same room.

The price of the Washington is from $8,000 to $10,000.

An 86-year-old man appeared in the police court at Boston the other day to answer to a charge of vagrancy.

The old chap was about gone for He was a Vermont Southerner by trade but he had no health to begeth.

All of this was explained to the judge "The old chap was a theatrical man and appeared to resemble the man to three months in jail.

Then, however, it developed that the old man had not lived in Boston for 30 years.

Under the law therefore he could not be found guilty of vagrancy.

The judge, who was a very old man, obliged to turn him loose—and to go home to know what.

At first glance this looks like just another common case of legal hair-splitting.

But it is something more than that. It is a warning to us.

Most of us are pretty well-intentioned. We would really like to live by the Golden Rule.

But most of the time it is too much trouble. We prefer to act on our own terms.

We are surrounded by enemies. Nobody there is capable of cutting the knot and seeing to it that the old man got relief.

Everybody wanted to see him go. Yet in the end he might as well have been surrounded by enemies.

McWhorter's Artistic Genius Is Devoted To Organizing Glee Clubs To Further Cause Of Candidate Herb Hoover

By RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Senator J. McWhorter, friend of the people and champion of the rights every four years, has thrown himself into the presidential campaign and is busily engaged in organizing Hoover glee clubs.

Forced to employ his inventive genius along with his artistic talents the senator has produced a brand new set of Hoover campaign songs.

He explains himself, that he found a menacing shortage of Hoover songs. He found, in fact, only one and invariably noticed that as soon as one of his glee clubs had sung that over a half dozen times, the members began to dribble away to their homes.

There are those at republican headquarters who whisper that what broke up the glee club fees was the fact that Senator McWhorter always insisted on joining in the singing himself.

Chairman Work contended that anything as preferable to having McWhorter sing for the cause and that it would be better to have him speak, since he insisted on lunging.

Nevertheless, there is no denying that McWhorter's Hoover songs are as good as any of the Smith songs and tower above the numerous songs up for vice presidential candidates at Houston and Kansas City.

Take "H-O-O-V-E-R" which goes to the tune of the famous song "M-O-T-H-E-R."

It is for efficiency, that's him all over enemy.

O is for the oil, but we don't care. O is also for our opportunity.

V is for his virtues—not Bill Vane! It is for efficiency, that's him all over. R is for Republicans, that's we.

Put them all together, they spell HOO-OO-VER.

He'll lead us on to victories!

The time of this one is that of "The Sidewalks of New York."

Herbert Hoover is our candidate; We'll all vote next November To give Al Smith the gate.

Dry's will stand together To hush the popping cork. We'll tramp the old brown derby On the Sidewalks of New York!

And if you remember "Two Little Girls in Blue," you can sing this:

Two little boys in blue, Herbie and Charlie, too. Please don't reject 'em! We must elect 'em!

And his rotten administration as head of national prohibition, then why does Mr. Hoover tell the southern people so and promise them that when he is elected his first official act will be to kick Mellon out?

But Hoover won't do it. He is afraid to. He can't. Mellon put Hoover in, and Hoover will keep Mellon.

Good women, when you vote for Hoover, you vote to keep Mellon in office and wipe out national prohibition.

In New York

By Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—To record the passing of "Con" Conway may be rated by no less a tall-talented literary gentleman than Christopher Morley with being the high priest of American slang.

Yet there are in Manhattan certain individuals who remain anonymous to most of the world, even in death, and yet who have an amazing influence on the modes, manners—the very language itself, for that matter.

By way of illustration: It is not unlikely that this very day your colleague son or your neighbor's daughter disturbed the simple Victorian dignity of the household by bursting out with: "Say, laugh this one off!"

That's only one of a thousand expressions credited to Conway. He was a tall, thin, well-dressed literary gentleman than Christopher Morley with being the high priest of American slang.

It was Conway who diffused the theatrical slang paper into a sort of American slang classic.

Yet off Broadway and outside the "show racket," he was practically unknown.

Here are a few of the few set expressions that Conway is credited with creating:

"Knocked stiffer than a shirt front"—if something is successful, it "knicks"—that's a lot of boloney.

"Meet the headache," referring to a wife—a "palooka" is used from coast to coast—a "pushover" became synonymous of something easy to attack.

"Con" who never did get the recognition he deserved, largely because most of his gags were "stolen" by others as soon as they had been uttered and soon were "gone."

The greatest army ever to serve under the American flag was assembled for an attack on September 12, 1918, during the World War.

Dandelions are able to maintain their supremacy in the green-sward because of the fleshy roots that live from year to year.

Omaha is the connecting link between Iowa and Nebraska, which represent one-sixth of the country's farm wealth.

A pirate can be nobler than a queen; sometimes, and certainly Drake appears as a nobleman of high quality when you stand him beside his queen.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D. Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

SUN BATHS AND AIR BATHS ARE VALUABLE TO EVERYONE

Air Baths The importance to the health of a daily water scrub and cleansing bath, followed by a cold shower (or, for most) is pretty generally known.

But not many realize that air baths are also of value. In fact, probably a large part of the value of the air bath which it entails.

Not all of us are situated so we can take air baths of any duration, but a little thought, by a little thought, we can get about as much benefit from a scrub and cold shower, for instance, many things can be done in the nude before dressing—teeth brushed, nails manicured, shaved (if we're men), three to six minutes of brushing and massaging the scalp, etc.

Our setting up exercise time can also be utilized. The value of the air bath for those suffering from pulmonary (lung) tuberculosis in which the direct sunlight or artificial sunlight, in most cases, is written up by Dr. E. S. Bullock in the Journal of the Outdoor Life, as follows:

But air baths, let me be equally emphatic, are of great importance, and the time will certainly come when, in favorably situated patients will be stripped of all clothing but a breech-cloth and given air baths. Patients so exposed do not take cold easily, are not dependent upon artificial heat, feel better, eat better, and, briefly, recover faster and more surely.

HOOVER TO WIN, POLL TAKEN OF EDITORS SAYS

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER STRAW VOTE GIVES SOUTH TO SMITH

Hoover will win with 287 electoral votes to Smith's 126, but Texas will remain in the democratic column and give its twenty votes to Smith. This prediction is not just a guess, but is the result of a nationwide poll, conducted by Editor and Publisher, and represents the composite opinion of the country's editors and publishers. If newspaper people know their business, the election is all over. Editor and Publisher compiled the opinions of 223 newspaper executives all over the country, and discovered that Hoover will poll a total of 16,271,276 votes while Smith's total will be 12,863,939 votes, giving the republican candidate a majority of 3,387,337 votes. Only one state is regarded as doubtful. In Missouri 15 editors gave Hoover a majority and 14 said Smith would carry the state while two declined to express an opinion. Maryland and New York are also regarded as somewhat doubtful in view of their votes in past elections. The "solid south" is given to Smith, with the exception of Oklahoma and Kentucky. In these two states the editors think Hoover will triumph. Forty seven editors in this state took part in the poll. Four of them said Hoover would carry the state and 43 gave Texas to Smith. The Hoover editors said the republican majority would be 50,000 while the democratic editors said Smith's majority in this state would be 162,170. The same editors, however, predicted a Hoover victory in the nation at large, 27 thinking the republicans would win while 19 predicted a Smith victory. They agreed that the republican majority would be comparatively small, the average vote predicted for Hoover being 14,889,000 and for Smith 13,867,000. The electoral college vote necessary for election is 266.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

"Oh, my!" cried Clowny. "I'll just bet that we will all get soaking wet. The waves are splashing near us. I am sure I felt a spray. Why did we ever get inside this crazy plane to take a ride. If we could just land safely, it would be a happy day."

The plane sailed on above the sea, about as close as it could be to foam upon the rolling waves. Oh, what would happen next? It didn't drop. It didn't rise. The Times all heaved heavy sighs. Just why they stayed out of the sea had all of them perplexed. Said Scouty. "This is mighty queer. What is it keeping us up here? Perhaps the wind is blowing strong, and holds our plane in air. This sort of fun is not so good. If we must land, I wish we would. Just flying on and on is bound to give us all a scare."

"Don't worry," whispered Coppy. "I just wish we were up in the sky, but shucks we cannot get there 'cause our airplane has no power. The water down below looks cold, but let's try hard to be real bold. We may said on like this, you know, for hour after hour." Just then, however, came a shock. The little plane began to rock. "It's going down," cried Coppy. "Oh, my goodness, what's in store? We're almost in the water now. Oh, can't we all be saved somehow? It even scares me badly just to hear the wild waves roar."

The plane then took a sudden dip. It seemed that it would surely slip into the rushing water. All the Tynymites turned pale. But then it seemed to strike the ground. Soon Scouty cried. "We're safe and sound. At least, we've missed the sea and landed on a monstrous whale."

(The Tynymite get a ducking in the next story.)

ARAB RUNNER DEFEATS RAY

GALLANT AMERICAN IS OUTDISTANCED BY YOUNG EL OUAFI

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 22—Somebody always is taking the joy out of life for "Chesty Jole" Ray. When Jole was a miller it was Paavo Nurmi, the famous Finn. At the marathon distance it's El Ouafl, the little dark-skinned, wire-haired Arab. Making his professional running debut at Madison Square Garden last night, Ray, once king of American millers, was distanced by El Ouafl who repeated, by a decisive margin, his triumph over the little Chicagoan in the Olympic Marathon at Amsterdam this summer. The gallant little American runner hung like a shadow to the spindle-legged Arab for more than a score of miles but in the end El Ouafl's superior stamina told. Ray began to falter on the 23rd mile and the Arab, sensing his condition, immediately lengthened his stride and soon picked up a full lap on the American. Before the punishing grind of 26 miles, 385 yards was completed, El Ouafl had stretched his advantage to close upon three laps. His time was 2:44:35.2-8, remarkably fast for indoor running.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs crocote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crocote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the crocote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist (adv.)

DIAMONDS DISAPPEAR IN 'RUSH'

SHIPMENT VIA AIR MAIL SCATTERED AMONG SPECTATORS WHEN PLANE CRASHES

FRANKLIN, Pa., Oct. 22.—A postal inspector today was collecting diamonds which disappeared in a crash on the burned remains of the air mail plane in which a National Air Transport plane fell to the earth near Pottsville. The diamonds were part of the mail cargo in the plane.

The plane, piloted by William G. Hopson, crashed and burned some time Thursday night. Wesley L. Smith, superintendent of mails of the Air Transport company, salvaged part of the mail and what he thought was all of the diamonds and then announced that the plane had been abandoned.

Southern hunters found a few diamonds in the wreckage and the rush was on. One man spotted up south near the plane which he took home and tried to find four dia-

REPUBLICANS MAKE DOUBLE DRIVE IN EAST

CURTIS SPEAKS IN UP STATE SECTOR OF NEW YORK TODAY

EN ROUTE WITH SENATOR CURTIS TO UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 22.—A double-headed Republican attack for New York's 48 electoral votes today brought Senator Curtis, the party's vice-presidential nominee into the up-state sector while Herbert Hoover was in New York City.

Senator Curtis speaks tonight at Utica. Wednesday he speaks at Rochester, his is his second sally into upper New York. He appeared at the state fair in August at Syracuse.

The senator has objected to going into the official home city of the Democratic presidential nominee, saying it is against his way of campaigning, but it is planned for him to have luncheon at Albany tomorrow with party leaders.

Opening the final two weeks drive of the campaign, the 68 year old nominee came into New York state today facing a steady grind from now until election day, but he pronounced himself "fit" and "ready to go." He rested in Hartford, Conn., yesterday. He is due in Utica by mid-afternoon.

Senator Curtis has abandoned writing his speeches in advance, but he indicated today he would discuss the tariff and Gov. Smith's tariff views on his campaign in New York. He has gone in entirely for extemporaneous speaking of late.

JUST HOME SEEN BY LARGE CROWD HERE YESTERDAY

With the primary purpose of showing to Lubbock that it is possible to furnish a home in a modern, beautiful and distinctive manner without making excessive expenditures, Montgomery-Ward and company in connection with W. T. Coburn and the Lubbock Lumber company were here at the "Just Home" 2421 22nd street, yesterday to about 400 local persons.

Three hundred and eighty-four registered during the day and many visitors inspected the model home. The registration book was "manicured" by the visitors and comments on the buildings and furnishings. The home will be open for the remainder of the week from 1 to 4 and from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening.

C. J. Myers, manager of the local Montgomery-Ward and company store this morning said that he was well pleased with yesterday's reception. "It is the purpose of the company to show the people of Lubbock that we handle first class merchandise and that homes that we furnished beautifully without a millionaire's salary," he said.

The "Just Home" model residence for the average family, was designed, built and is owned by W. T. Coburn. Material and lumber was furnished by the Lubbock Lumber company and all of the furnishings by Montgomery-Ward and company. The home is for sale either with or without the furnishings.

LAMESA, Oct. 22 (Special).—J. R. Martin, special agent for the United States farm labor service bureau, was busy all day Sunday and is still swamped with requests for cotton pickers and maize headers. It is estimated that a quick need for labor in this immediate section totals better than 2,000 laborers. Calls have come from Seminole, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Brownfield, Seagraves and the northern part of Matagorda county for pickers and maize headers. The office here, according to Martin, has secured the concentration of the offices at Sweetwater, Brady and Lubbock on this point. Martin says that if calls come in this week as they have the past two days it will be hard to supply the labor demands with the present influx of labor.

NEBRASKA DEMOS RALLY TO GREET ROBINSON TODAY

By RAYMOND Z. HENLE (Associated Press Staff Writer)

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 22.—Nebraska Democrats, working strenuously to put their state in the Smith-Robinson column, made the visit to Lincoln of Senator Joe T. Robinson today the vehicle for one of the biggest rallies of the campaign.

On hand to welcome the vice-presidential nominee of their party were former Senator G. M. Hitchcock, himself a candidate at Houston for the presidential nomination, and Charles W. Bryan, brother of the Commoner.

Senator Robinson was prepared to send the host of party workers who had come to hear him speak tonight in the 20,000 seat University of Nebraska auditorium back to their labors with additional campaign arguments. Among the subjects he has selected to carry on his Middle Western campaign are an attack upon the Republican farm relief policy and a bid for the support of women voters.

One of the questions over which Nebraska Democrats are manifesting great interest is whether Senator G. W. Norris, one of the state's independent Republican group, will make a flat declaration in favor of Gov. Smith. Some Democratic leaders of this state are sanguine while others profess skepticism on this score. At any rate, the party workers calculated that Senator Robinson would recognize the praise Norris has given some of Smith's speeches by a reputation of the eulogy he spoke for Senator Norris at Hastings, Neb., Saturday night.
