AFTER TWO-MONTH EFFORT

Mail Delivery Begins Saturday At Della Plains

Two months ago a group of citizens from Della Plains began work to secure mail delivery for their area of town which cover 19 blocks and about 92 families. This extended mail service was made possible by Postmaster General Blount's program to improve mail service to customers living one-quarter mile or more from the Post Office. A petition was circulated by several people under the leadership of Prince Stidom and John Campbell and they got 57 signatures from families interested in mail service. Postmaster Wester and John Campbell counted the homes or number of families living in the area that could be patrons. The department requires 1/2 of these (46) to put up mail boxes. Boxes have been going up at a rapid rate in the last two weeks to meet their deadline. On the last count taken there were 33 boxes ready for services and when delivery begins Saturday June 27, Mrs. Stidom feels there will be the required number ready for service.

The department is requiring they have boxes on moveable stands 42 to 44 inches from the ground to the bottom of the box, with their name, house number and street printed on the box. They will be served by Route 4, Floydada, Texas 79235 by Orville Newberry.

To be eligible for this improved mail service, a map of the area, the petition with signatures of at least 50% of the families in the area had to be approved by the department before June 30, 1970. PMG

Blount began the program in February. Floydada had another extension in March for 15 families on Garrison, Childers and Leonard Street.

Community Prayer Meetings Set For June 29 - July 3

In preparation for the Ed Robb City-wide Crusade being held the week of July 5-12, prayer meetings are to be conducted in about sixty homes each morning next week. Persons have been contacted for the first day, June 29, and for the remaining days a home shall be selected each day for the following day.

All the prayer meetings will be conducted at 10 each morning. The devotion will be broadcast over KFLD from 10:05-10:15. A different speaker will be used each morning. The hostess is encouraged to call neighbors and friends to attend the prayer time in their home and it is suggested that refreshments not be served.

Placards will be provided each home to designate the daily place of prayer. These will be displayed in a prominent place the afternoon and morning where a group will meet to pray.

Wheat Harvest Nears Completion

Wheat harvest in the Floydada area is reported to be almost complete, with only a very small amount left in the fields. Elevator officials report 95% completion of the harvest.

Bushel-per-acre yields are reported to be above average on both dry-land and irrigated wheat crops in the area, with some dryland producers experiencing yields of up to twice that of some previous years.

Dry-land yields have gone as high as 35 bushels per acre, with best estimates of the average yields to be 20 bushels per acre.

Numerous irrigated fields have gone as high as the 60-bushel-per-acre mark, with the average being in the 40-50 bushel-per-acre range.

A late May hail storm was responsible for reducing the total amount of wheat harvested in the area. The hail

Fair Board Plans Western Show

The Floyd County Fair Board met last Thursday in Lockney and made additional plans for the September Fair which will be highlighted by a country-western show featuring Jack Greene and Jeanne Sealy. Advanced tickets to the one night performance will be sold for $2.50. They will be $3 at the gate.

Two new directors were named to the Fair Board, these being Weldon Pruitt of Floydada and Mrs. Bill (Wanda) Dubois of Cedar Hill.

Members of the board said this year steers would be the only domestic livestock accepted by judges in open classes. Beef cattle, swine and sheep will be omitted. This is the result of lack of entries in past Floyd County Fairs, directors said.

The Rabbit Show is expected to be expanded, and the person showing the all-around quarterhorse in their show, will receive a saddle. Directors feel this year's Quarterhorse Show will also have a greater increase in participation due to Amarillo having their show a week earlier. Prior, their show was held the same week as Floyd County held theirs.

A new sound system at the Fair grounds is to also be installed before the event.

Also on the agenda of events will be the Floyd County Fair Queen's Contest, Gospel Singing and Ladies Day.

The board will meet again July 6.

Direct Dialing Scheduled Here

Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) is scheduled for introduction in Floydada on September 20.

"Southwestern Bell is pleased to provide this service improvement for Floydada telephone customers," said Doug Simpson, manager for the company.

Installation of equipment for the DDD conversion is underway, Simpson said.

With DDD, telephone customers may dial their own station to - station long distance calls.

A maximum of eleven digits will be dialed on a DDD call. Customers will dial "1" for access to the DDD network, then three-digit Area Code and the seven-digit number being called.

For calls to other telephones in the 806 area, Floydada residents will dial only eight digits - "1" and the seven-digit number. The 806 Area Code will not be required.

DDD calls will be billed automatically. Simpson pointed out. The equipment currently being installed will identify the calling number, the called number, the time the call was answered and the time the call is terminated.

All this information is punched into paper tape. The tape in turn is put through a computer which compiles all information on the calls for billing purposes.

AFS Student Peter Prischl Leaves Sunday On U.S. Tour

"I really appreciate all the great hospitality all year long. I would like to thank everybody who had a part in making this year so successful for me. I'll try to keep up contact with as many of you as possible, and I sure hope to come back someday."

American Field Service student Peter Prischl has these words for his friends in Floydada as he prepared to return to Austria this week. Peter's plans include a bus trip Sunday, June 28 to Tulsa, Okla., where he will join other AFS students from the area for a tour of the United States and then a conference in Milwaukee, Wisconsin with AFS students from all over the country.

On July 17, Peter will board a plane which will take him back to Austria and his family there. His parents will meet him at the airport on the 18th. He has already sent 100 pounds of baggage home.

Before he leaves West Texas, Peter plans to see the "Texas" musical at Palo Duro Canyon on Friday night, and the Coaches All-America football game at Jones Stadium in Lubbock on Saturday.

Peter has promised the Hesperian a more detailed report on the places he will visit on his United States tour. The report, along with Peter's farewell letter to his West Texas friends, will appear in next week's issue.

Gas Production From Soft Coal Avoids Pollution

The possible production of high quality gas from soft coal is being explored by two companies.

Peabody Coal Company and Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company have agreed to undertake jointly the necessary steps which could lead to a combined venture.

The objective is to construct and operate a gasification plant at a coal mine, and to transport the gas produced as a supplemental supply in the central midwest and Great Lakes region. Since the gasification process occurs entirely in closed vessels, there will be no pollution of the atmosphere involved. The gas produced would be free of sulfur and other pollutants, and would be suitable in every application where natural gas is used, according to the company spokesmen.

MRS. JAMES LEE NICHOLS JR.

Wedding Vows Read For Miss Janice Smith, James Nichols Jr.

Wedding vows for Miss Janice Smith and James Lee Nichols Jr., were repeated Friday, June 19, in a candlelight ceremony read at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Floydada, Delmer Andrews, minister of the City Park Church of Christ, Floydada, performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Neal Smith Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Nichols Sr., all of Floydada.

Mrs. Bob Copeland was organist and accompanied Miss Charlotte Decker as she sang, "More", "White on White" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Arched brass candelabra holding arrangements of white daisies and white pom-pom mums, flanked by palm arrangements of commodore foliage formed the wedding scene. A tall palm of commodore foliage high in the choir loft and a kneeling bench in front of the altar, completed the sanctuary decorations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of Chantilly lace over peau de soie. It was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, fitted bodice and long tapering sleeves which came to petal points at the hands. The full skirt, complemented with tiers of Chantilly lace, was embellished with pearls and sequins, as was the chapel length train. The train extended from the back waist and was attached by a silk organza bow. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of peau de soie and lace petals, highlighted by seed pearls and crystals.

She carried a white lace covered prayer book with streamers of white simulated pearls. Atop the prayer book were garlands of stephanotis blooms, centered with a white cattail orchid.

The bride carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. In her bridal bouquet was placed a gold wedding band belonging to her maternal great grandmother, Mrs. Ben B. Osburn of Estelline. Something new was a pearl pendant, a gift from the groom; something borrowed was the prayer book belonging to Mrs. Clifford Hacker of Archer City and the touch of blue was her wedding garter. She also wore pennies in her slippers bearing her birth date and that of the groom.

Bridal attendants were Miss Jackie Nichols, Floydada, sister of the groom, maid of honor; Miss Vicki Smith, Floydada, sister of the bride, who was bridesmaid, and Lori White, flower girl.

All were gowned in mint green color dresses fashioned of peau de soie. The ensembles were designed with low necks, sleeveless, and empire waists with a bow of self material in the back. Their headpieces were mint green bows which held shoulder length silk illusion veils of matching color. Each carried a single stem red rose.

Stephen Fyfe served as best man and Larry Noland was groomsmen. Ushers were Johnny Harris and Kenneth Cockrell, who also served as candlelighters. Doug Settiff of Quitaque, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mothers of the bride and groom wore shoulder corsages of white stephanotis and white cymbidium orchids to match their dresses.

A reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over mint green and held a centerpiece of white daisies and white pom-pom mums. A three tiered wedding cake, decorated in white roses and mint green leaves was served along with punch from milk glass appointments.

At the table were Miss Kathy Patzer, Miss Nancy Williams, and Mrs. Johnny Harris, all of Floydada.

Mrs. Imogene Lang of Estelline, aunt of the bride, was at the guest register. Net rice bags of mint green were distributed by cousins of the bride, Misses Pam and Christi Lang. Assisting with the houseparty were Mrs. Clifford Helms, Miss Laynette Payne and Miss Sandra Marrs, all of Floydada and Mrs. Ross Freeze, Estelline, aunt of the bride.

After a brief wedding trip the couple will make their home on Route 4, Floydada.

For travel the bride changed to a navy and white long waisted knit dress with white accessories, and wore the orchid corsage detached from her bridal bouquet.

A senior in Floydada High School, the bride is currently employed at City Auto, Inc. The groom is also a senior at Floydada High and is employed by Noxious Weed Control.

Special guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Ben B. Osburn, maternal great grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Freeze, maternal grandparents of the bride, all of Estelline; Mrs. Bertie Smith, Amarillo, the bride's paternal grandmother; Mrs. W. E. Oden, Floydada; the groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. R. L. Nichols, his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Doyle Blythe, Houston, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Jimmy Baker, Houston, cousin of the bride.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal supper held Thursday night in Kings Restaurant.

Birthday Party Held At Floydada Nursing Home

R's birthday party time again . . . And wouldn't you just know it . . . There's only one in all this house On whom we can bestow it! He probably wouldn't tell his age . . . I'm speaking of Mr. Harrison. . . To let us ladies "know it all" Might be a bit embarrassing! So we'll forget just how many years And remember only "the day". . . Wishing him all the happiness That can possibly come his way!

The above poem introduced the guest of honor when the women of the City Park Church of Christ, with a special assist from Mrs. C. B. Hartsell, daughter of J. M. Harrison, hosted the birthday party at the local rest home. Mr. Harrison was the only one in the home with a birthday this month.

The serving table was laid with a blue cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow daisies in a burnt orange pitcher. Yellow fruit punch and the beautifully decorated cake, prepared by Mrs. Hartsell, was served to the home residents and a number of friends and relatives.

Mr. Harrison's place was marked at the serving table with a place card and after the reading of the poem everyone joined in singing the "Happy Birthday" song.

The next party will be held around mid-July.

Women now comprise almost 38 per cent of the total work force, according to the U. S. Department of Labor.

The family has made plans to hold another reunion in 1973.

Brow and Randy Doyle Miller. Jimmy McGuire, minister of the Arnett-Benson Baptist Church in Lubbock, performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Calvin Eugene Brow of Plainview and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle B. Miller of Floydada.

Greenery and white daisies decorated the church for the wedding. Naomi Patterson, Plainview, was organist and Don Crumbly, Amarillo, was soloist.

Lucy Gunter, Olton, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Kay Brow, sister of the bride, and Cathy Allen, both of Plainview. Kimberly Gearhart was flower girl and Steve Brow, brother of the bride, and Kirk Crumbly, were candlelighters. Mark Crumbly of Amarillo was ring bearer.

Garland Martin, Floydada, served as best man. Groomsmen were David Sims, Canyon, and James McGuire, Lubbock. G. A. Grimes and Lynn Smith, Petersburg, were ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white Satapeauorgandy fashioned with an empire bodice, which featured vertical rows of tiny tucks and Val lace. A high crystal pleated collar accented the neck and long Bishop sleeves with wide cuffs were outlined in matching crystal pleats and were closed with tiny self covered buttons. The softly draped slender skirt was completed with a detachable train, bordered in Val lace and caught beneath a flat bow at the back waistline.

The bridal bouquet was formed with white daisies and white roses. Her veil of illusion was attached to a flat Satapeau bow and was edged in Val lace.

For something old the bride carried a handkerchief belonging to her maternal great grandmother designed some 80 years ago; something new was her gift from the groom; something blue was her bridal garter worn by her mother at her wedding 22 years ago, and borrowed were diamond earrings, belonging to an aunt of the bride.

Feminine attendants wore baby blue peau de soie gowns styled with empire waistlines with attached Dior bows of royal blue, puffed sleeves and scooped necklines. They carried daisies with royal blue streamers.

A reception, held in the parlor of the church, followed the ceremony. Mrs. David McGowen registered guests and serving were Misses Celia Brown, Lubbock, cousin of the bride and Vickie Bond, Plainview.

MRS. RANDY DOYLE MILLER

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth, overlaid with white net. The bride's bouquet and those of her attendants formed the centerpiece, flanked by a three tiered wedding cake.

For traveling the bride changed to a light blue color street length dress. After a trip to Lake Travis near Austin the couple will reside in San Marcos, Tex.

The bride is a graduate of Plainview High School and attended West Texas State. She was formerly employed by Bob Hooper Motor Co., in Plainview.

The groom, a graduate of Tarrant County Junior College, Lubbock, is currently employed by the Highway Department, to enroll in Southern State at San Marcos.

The rehearsal, hosted by the groom at the Alcorn Hall, Plainview. The Altar was also the bridesmaids luncheon, and the bride, John Smith and Mrs. Smith.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. John Gilbert Miller, Springs, Texas, of the groom and Preston Smith, of the bride.

Floydada High 1970 Salutatorian Speech In Congressional Record

THE CHALLENGE THAT IS OURS
(By Willa Finley)

Fathers, mothers, teachers, and friends: It is a great honor for me to welcome you in behalf of the graduating class of 1970. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks." Tonight our hearts are full of love and gratitude, for without your help, we would not be here as graduating seniors. For the wisdom and patience of you, our parents and teachers, we thank you.

We, the youth of this country working together with the older generation, must take up the challenge of retrieving and upholding those principles - patriotism, reverence for God, and high moral standards - which have made America a great nation and a world power.

In times like these, America needs men - men who dare to stand up for her and defend her. Instead of trying to seek deferments, our young men should be willing to serve in uniform, remembering that in receiving freedom's benefits, they must be ready to give in return their services to keep those freedoms. Have we become too sophisticated to want to do what our brave boys have done in the seven wars of America's history?

There is at work within this country an ideological force known as communism. The puppets under the oversight of the Kremlin are too wise to engage America in pitched battle. Rather, they weaken the foundations by instilling fear into people's minds - arsons, bombings, and bomb threats by the score occur daily. To further impress us, they are carrying out massive worldwide naval maneuvers and make an open show of their military might. As I have been saying this, some of you immediately put up a mental block at the word "Communism." But if we will open our minds and spend some time finding facts about the Kremlin's plans for a world take-over, we will see that communism is a very real threat to our country's future as a free nation.

We must cherish the symbols of our country - the flag, the pledge of allegiance, and "The Star-Spangled Banner." Did you truly think about the words the last time you repeated the pledge of allegiance to the United States of America? Listen closely to the words of "The Star-Spangled Banner" when you next hear them, and try to revive that old spark of love that moved Francis Scott Key to write our national anthem.

Just before Moses' death, he gave to the people of Israel God's warning if they turned from Him: "I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end will be, for they are a perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness." These words could as easily have been spoken to our country today. Theologians are proclaiming that there is no God or that he is dead, and that only parts of the Bible are true. Because of the work of one woman, prayer and Bible reading in public schools are unconstitutional. David wrote in the Psalms, "The fool has said in his heart, There is no God."

Not since the days of the Roman Empire have a nation's morals been so low as they are today. "Situation ethics" is the thing. Under this code of "nonconduct," one is absolutely uninhibited by any moral laws. Total physical and mental abandonment are his, as long as the occasion is right and he feels nothing is wrong with it. Movies, magazines, books, and pictures unfit for so noble a creation as a human being are published, shown, and read without any cry of protest. Pornography and its attendant vices would all disappear if groups of enraged parents and citizens would launch a campaign against movie houses, theaters, and stores which exhibit the trash and against those who peddle it. As long ago as 1932, a ranking member of the Communist Party said that the surest and easiest way to destroy America is to weaken the morals of the young people. Times have changed, but God's principles haven't, and the "new morality" is but a euphemism for sin.

The words of Dr. W. H. Thompson sum it up well. In a speech to the West Omaha Rotary Club in 1968, he said:

"I ask you - what is wrong with an honest devotion to the things that have made this country great - its Constitution, its moral fiber, its productive work, its great freedoms, its mighty expressions of mercy and good will, its happy, cooperative living, its unprecedented opportunities?"

I ask you - what is wrong with, "In God We Trust"? Every true teacher knows that if these banners are held high - our youth will respond.

I ask you - shall we shake ourselves out of the slough of despondency and stand again in the sunshine of our righteousness, our strength, our manhood, and our proven values - or shall we go stumbling and stumbling, bawling and burning, reeling and bleeding, back over the hill of yesterday to barbarism?"

And John Francis Gallagher III of Boston, both brothers of the bride, and Brent Barker, cousin of the groom were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Barker, uncle and aunt of the groom.

The serving table was covered with a white cloth, highlighted by a three tiered wedding cake and the brides bouquet. Silver candelabra and silver table appointments completed the table decor.

Miss Willa Finley, salutatorian of the 1970 graduating class of Floydada High School, has been informed that her speech has been printed in the Congressional Record. Miss Finley received the news by way of letter from Sen. John Tower.

For those unable to attend commencement exercises and hear the speech, the Hesperian is printing the text.

THERE is a new way to fry fish, quick and easy to prepare by using buttermilk and bisquick. Use two pounds fillets, fresh or frozen, one cup buttermilk, one and one fourth biscuit mix, two teaspoon salt and lemon wedges. Cut the fish in serving portions, place in a single layer in a shallow baking dish. Pour buttermilk over the fish, turn in about 15 minutes and let other side soak 15 minutes. Combine biscuit mix and salt. Remove fish from liquid and roll in dry mixture. Fry in hot fat at moderate heat about four or five minutes. Turn carefully and fry on other side same length of time or until golden brown. When done fish will flake easily with fork. Drain on absorbent paper and serve with lemon wedges. This amount will serve six.

WHILE on the subject of fried foods, did you know that you can now purchase bacon, prefried in a can? It is not on the grocery racks in Floydada yet but soon will be. Another new item in

"I THINK That I Shall Never See A Poem Lovely As A Tree"

...more and more people of today are appreciating the beauty of trees, but did you know that unless using extreme caution while spraying weed killers, you can destroy your trees and shrubs. Some local residents have lost beautiful trees this summer due to a drift of the weed killer. Experts say when using a weed killer in a spray gun do the chore on a calm day, usually after the wind had laid of an evening or early in the morning. Remember! your neighbors have shrubs and trees they would like to stay healthy, as well as your own.

A WILMETTE, Ill., homemaker, Mrs. Philip M. Wolf, has started a chain prayer, asking aid from heaven for our troubled times. More than 3,000 people in the Chicago area have been contacted, it's estimated by Mrs. Wolf. The chain letter by telephone call seeks to induce people to pray. It started when Mrs. Philip R. Wolf, Pittsburgh called her mother, Mrs. E. F. Hinkle, Wilmette, who began the campaign with Mrs. Wolf of Wilmette by calling 15 friends, asking them to call five friends and pass the message along. It reads: The passage is taken from 2 Chronicles 7:14 of the Bible. "If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

A different type of peace march and rally is expected to draw more than 10,000 young people to Fort Worth from across Texas July 2-3.

On the evening of July 2, plans call for the lights in downtown Fort Worth to be turned off for 15 seconds and 10,000 flashlights to be turned on by young people. The torchlight rally and parade are part of the 1970 Youth Evangelism Conference which will emphasize the "Peace of Christ" that illuminates the lives of people committed to Him.

A department store in Illinois recently advised husbands who had forgotten to buy their wives a box of their franchise brand of candy to try this regimen:

1-When someone tells you the children are beautiful...say they take after their mother.

2-With your arms around your mother - in - law say you know why her daughter is such a dream.

3-Feed her the first bite of our candy...at the same time look into her eyes.

4-When you're holding her chair while she sits down...don't forget a gentle squeeze of her waist...as she gets seated.

5-Be sentimental...call her baby, darling, pussycat, honey-baby.

6-Watch her closely at parties, interrupt any man who spends more than ten minutes with her.

7-Once in a while, unobserved, take out the garbage.

8-Tell her you never believed it could be like this.

9-Tell her not to wear her skirts, "that short"...say what she has is for you alone.

10-If you're both in shape, carry her across the room.

11-On the day the repairman is coming...get terribly jealous.

12-Remark, sweetly, that she doesn't need any make-up.

13-Be sure to put the biggest portion of the egg roll on her plate.

14-Tell her you love her...even when she is diapering the baby.

15-Grow sideburns just because she is wild about them...even if they kid you about them.

16-Ask her to feed you chicken soup when you're sick.

17-Take a nibble at her ear when she's stirring up your favorite cake...and...

18-Send her a schmalzy card on an unimportant holiday.

I REMEMBER, I REMEMBER....

A Goose For Dinner

You don't quarrel with good luck if it comes your way. But good luck usually is better luck if you prepare for it. Like the rancher who prayed for rain, then tied his slicker on behind the cantle before he rode off to the range.

Or like that time when Bill Hambricht took his shot gun out to the milk pen the morning he bagged the big goose he had been trying for so long.

It must have been (about) 1932, in the fall, shortly before water fowl changed their fly way from over Floyd County to some area further east. As far back as 1900 and I don't know how long before, ducks, geese and brants, of many species, made business brisk in Floyd County skies for two weeks or so in the spring and then again in the fall.

Overhead and as far east and west as the eye could carry, flocks, big and little, flew in serried waves toward the appointed sanctuary on the gulf, or to the Canadian marshes, depending on the season. Only an occasional honk as the leaders sped their flocks north or south.

CHANGE CAME QUICKLY. When change came it was all at once. One season the air was filled with water fowl by the thousands, the next season none.

It was about this time newspapers began to print stories about "The dust bowl." The wind really blew and the sand really flew. It seemed the pattern would never change. The misery of wind and dust, miserly crops only equaled by miserly markets.

Mr. Hambricht suspects the continued winds and dust may have been responsible for the water fowl changing their fly way to another area. He doesn't argue the point, it just might have been that way. The exact reason is recorded only in the memory boxes of duck and geese in-built computers.

Whatever the cause the people of Floyd County have been cheated of a semi-annual show of great beauty in their skyways for thirty years or so. (A boy who raised his sight from the cotton field below to see in the heavens a phalanx of geese with the matriarch in the center of the wedge, honking occasional encouragement, viewed one of nature's wonders of beauty and precision, only 600 feet above his head.)

BILL WENT PREPARED
Will Hambricht thinks his chance of bagging a really big goose came about one morning when rising wind and dust may have confused the leader of one of these flights. About sun-up he had gone out to milk, taking his shot gun along on the chance that he might be lucky. Standing the gun up by a big post, he went about his business, with a wary eye turned toward the sky.

Directly some commotion in an approaching flock told him something unusual was happening. Sure enough something was happening. The leader had given orders to light in the big wheat field that surrounded the Hambricht home. Just at the moment Hambricht readied his gun to fire, the big bird was caught spread-eagled in the process of lighting. She was in close range and realized her fateful dilemma too late to escape.

Bill doesn't speak of his feat with so much enthusiasm in recent years. But that day I remember it was a jubilant young fellow who told me about it. He even went to the trouble to weigh the bird. The scale beam leveled off and was steady with the weight on the 13-pound mark.

'I Was Shamed'

SIR: Twenty-six years ago I was in a small town outside Salerno, Italy. It was around the end of World War II. The town had been completely destroyed, deserted by all the inhabitants—smoke, ruins, flame and destruction were all around us.

I was a young boy then. My friends and I were looking around for food; we were starving and scared. The Germans were all around us. All of a sudden we heard the terrible noise of machines—tanks were coming our way. We were scared, we embraced each other from fear. Who was the enemy? Were they Germans? If they were, they would certainly kill us.

Suddenly, in all these clouds of smoke we saw a flag; we saw a flag standing up straight, full of pride and honor. You should have been there; it was the most beautiful sight any man could have wished for. The tanks were getting closer; we didn't know what to do. We kept looking at that flag, looking, looking; and all of a sudden a smile was coming back to our face, first slowly and then bigger, bigger and deeper. It was the American flag, the American flag, and we cried and screamed with joy in our heart. The fear was gone, there were no more soldiers to kill us.

It's the American flag, the Americans, the Americans are here," we cried. "We are free, freedom is here at last." And we ran down the hills, we ran to our mothers hiding in the hills, in caves, even in wells. We ran with the scene of that beautiful flag we had just seen in these clouds in our eyes. . . . The Americans, the Americans are here. Boy! What a joy it was; what a sight to remember.

We cried, we cried in our mothers' arms with joy, and I remember saying to my mother: "We are not going to be killed any more, mother, the Americans are here."

How I have learned to love that flag ever since. How beautiful it was to see the sight of those American soldiers coming to our town to bring us justice, liberty, peace. How we learned to love those soldiers standing there outside of their tanks, beside the American flag. What men they were; what heroes.

Now, after twenty-six years, I am living in America. I have lived here for 24 years and have been a citizen for 20 years. I have learned to love and respect that flag more and more, and, today, I feel just as strong about it as when I first saw that flag on the hills of Salerno. But the other day, when I saw on television, in the Capital of this great nation, a young American burning the American flag in the middle of Dupont Circle and waving the Communist flag straight up in the air, I could not feel anything but horror. I was shamed, broken-hearted. Then tears came down to my face. "Man," I said, "you are not an American. Your father could not be the same soldier that gave me life, freedom and justice on those far hills of Salerno. You are not an American. You don't really know what freedom means. If you believe so deeply that your country is wrong and the enemy is right, then go there. Go to China, to Russia, wherever you think that you want to be. I will pay your one-way ticket."

"I am sure that down deep there are many Americans that would be more than willing to help you and other people like you with a one-way ticket out of this country, but don't come running back home to us because you didn't find running water."

To burn the American flag is treason. Ignoring the act is worse.

John A. Delizza.

LOCAL YOUNGSTERS pause on steps of the nation's Capitol during tour to see their government in action. They are, from the left, Miss Jill Marie Wheeler of Floydada, Miss Marla Dee Peterson of Plainview and Rick Dale Rhodes of Plainview. Their sponsor on the tour was Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc., of Floydada. The tour group included 71 Texas boys and girls, most of whom were selected for the 12-day trip as winners of oratorical contests. While in Washington, the young Texans hosted a reception for their US Senators and Representatives and visited numerous historical and educational points, including the Smithsonian Institution, the White House, Mount Vernon, Arlington Cemetery, US Department of Agriculture, the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, and the Washington, Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials.

Community Action Supper A Success

The Board Members of the Community Action program, along with the president, Prince Stiddom, are grateful to each person who helped make the recent spaghetti supper, which the board sponsored, such a successful event. One hundred and 50 people ignored threatening clouds and went to Della Plains to a meal of spaghetti and meat sauce, tossed salad, bread sticks, cake and iced tea.

Table decorations were toys from the Day Care Nursery, to which artificial flowers had been ingeniously added, giving each decoration an especially festive look. Young people, volunteering to help, were responsible for the attractive tables.

The board is especially appreciative to the following firms who contributed so generously: Hall Mart, Stewart Printing, Lighthouse Electric, Piggly Wiggly, Floydada Greenhouse and Floydada Nursing Home.

To the Hesperian and KFLD we are grateful for publicity given; and to each individual who are not members of the board; but gave so generously of their time and/or money, a special thanks.

The dinner netted $173.59, which was deposited to the account of the Day Care Nursery, a project worthy of financial support from each citizen of Floydada.

TEC Playing Important Role

The local offices of the Texas Employment Commission are playing an increasingly important role in the national emphasis on manpower development and training.

As the prime deliverer of man power services in the community, TEC retains its traditional functions of matching workers with job openings, and handling the payment of unemployment insurance to covered workers.

Now TEC, as a part of the Manpower Administration, has a major job in the effort to train the unemployed and the underemployed to fill critical skills shortages that exist. Under the Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962 (MDTA), as amended, persons can get basic education as needed, classroom training, on-the-job training, or a combination of both institutional and on-the-job training.

"TEC shares with the Texas Education Agency the responsibility of administering the provisions of this act in Texas," explains Robert Ham-bright, in charge of the Floydada TEC office.

Who can enroll in an MDTA project? Youth and adults in either urban or rural areas who are jobless, or whose job does not make use of their skills or qualifications. Those whose skill has been outdated by new technical advances. Minority groups who may have cultural, emotional, social or other handicaps. Persons whose education or financial condition make it hard to learn new skills or to enter or train for meaningful jobs. Returning servicemen.

Last fiscal year, Texas had 120 MDTA projects approved for 4,193 trainees. There will be many more in the future. How is an MDTA institutional training project formed? Texas Employment Commission plays a vital role in the earliest steps.

First, a local group, organization or firm, or just a citizen, thinks that there is a local need for such training. They make this known to the local TEC office manager.

TEC then determines the extent of such need. This it does by consulting employers in that particular skill; by analyzing records in the local TEC office; by consulting other sources of workers in the community, if there are any; and by securing information from whatever training facilities there are available.

The information it finds is then given to the local MDTA operating committee, which includes on its roster representatives of TEC and the Texas Education Agency (TEA). This body decides how the training can be conducted best; as institutional instruction, or on-the-job training, or as a combination of both.

TEC then takes the proposal before the local MDTA advisory committee, which includes members of management, labor, minority groups, and the public at large. When this committee makes its recommendations, and the proposal is signed by local TEC officials, the project is officially proposed as an MDTA project, and the ground work is complete.

Next, Texas Education Agency negotiates with schools in the area to determine cost of training, location, length and content of training. The training proposals thus formed are submitted to a review team in Austin, made up of TEC, TEA, Manpower Administration, and Health, Education and Welfare members, and this group determines how to best attain the training objectives.

State TEC and TEA officials sign the proposal, send it to the regional Manpower and HEW offices in Dallas for review and signing. This usually constitutes funding of the project. In some cases the project may be sent to Washington for review and funding. Regional offices of the Manpower Administration or HEW are notified of the funding. Then the TEC and TEA offices on the state level and then local level are informed that the project has been funded.

Here Texas Employment Commission gets into action again. It works with the training facility to set the starting dates. Then, unless it has made other recruiting arrangements with sponsors, selects from its files the persons it recommends for the training.

TEC also makes the payment of allowances to qualified trainees during training, if such are included in this particular project. It also conducts follow-up services to the trainee after he completes his training.

In this way, Manpower Development and Training moves from an idea into actuality, to serve both employees and employers through the joint efforts of the local, state and national agencies.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:
Millions of wage and salary earners will receive a small increase in take-home pay effective July 1. Your employer will reduce the amount of income tax withheld from your pay on July 1. The 1969 Tax Reform Act dropped the tax surcharge which has been 5% from January 1, 1970 through June 30, 1970, and each of your exemptions will increase from $600 to $650 effective July 1. You won't feel like you have quit paying income tax, but every little bit helps.

VA Information

Editor's note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q — Can a veteran whose VA benefits have been forfeited apply for reinstatement of those benefits?

A — Yes, he may apply for a presidential pardon which, if granted, may again entitle him to VA benefits for which he is eligible.

Q — I have an uncle who is a veteran of World War I who desires domiciliary care. Does the VA have any of these institutions?

A — Yes, the VA has 16 of these institutions. Any VA office will help your uncle file an application.

Q — I am the daughter of a veteran who died of a service-connected disability. Having completed high school, I would now like to apply for VA educational assistance. I understand VA provides counseling, and I would appreciate such as-stance to help me meet educational goal. Will the VA provide this counseling without charge?

A — Yes. The VA will provide the assistance of a professional counselor to help you decide upon an educational goal. This is at no cost to you, and is required for an eligible person to receive approval of a course, re-entrance to a course, or continuation of a program.

When you come to a perfect day, things you haven't done are going to come tomorrow. Harold S. Florence (Ala.) Hesperian

AUSTIN - GOVERNOR PRESTON SMITH presents a Certificate of Recognition to Jake Webb of Floydada at the Third Annual Meeting of the Beauty Texas Council in Austin (June 11). The certificate was in recognition of the Floydada entry in the first annual competition for the Governor's Community Achievement Awards. Cities under 12 thousand population were eligible for competition to determine which had made the most progress toward community improvement in the last year.

Southwestern Says No Power Shortage

"Don't hold back. Use all the electric power you want whenever and wherever you want in the 45,000 square mile area that we serve. There is no electric power shortage in this part of the country," Roy Tolp, president of the Southwestern Public Service Company, said today.

The statement of the electric company president was made as a result of frequent articles in national magazines and other media which leave the implication that the whole nation faces a power shortage not only this year but "in the decade ahead," as one publication put it.

"At the end of last year, when we announced our plans to invest $25,000,000 in new plant and equipment this year, I said, 'there'll be no blackouts in our service area in 1970.' That still goes. I'll add at this time that there won't be any in the future, either, as long as we have the right to plan our own future without outside interference. We have a responsibility to meet the electric service needs of this area and we have done the planning required to carry out that responsibility," Tolp continued.

Southwestern Public Service Company has generating capacity reserves that are 15% greater than the peak load which has been predicted for 1970.

"That's like saying you have $118 put aside to pay a $100 bill that you owe," Tolp pointed out.

Adequate reserves are normally considered to be generating capability that is equal to the largest single generating unit on your system. Southwestern's reserve capability for 1970 exceeds that margin of safety by nearly 100,000 kilowatts.

Southwestern is already looking down the line at its next 500,000 kilowatts of electric generating capability. At the present time, a 210,000 kilowatt unit, the first in a new facility southeast of Lubbock, is under construction and is scheduled to go into service in mid-1971. Projected units of 289,000 kilowatts of capacity are in the planning stage for 1973 and beyond.

"With the help of our area development department and in cooperation with other local industrial development groups, I have started to write to presidents of some companies and to telephone others whose organizations are interested in expansion to tell them of the availability of electric power and other resources in this area. We have outstanding people, lots of space for expansion, a superb climate and energy reserves. Not many areas can say that these days and all of us should work to benefit from these advantages," Tolp concluded.

"Blithe Spirit" To Be Presented At Wayland

Mrs. Ted Bell said holders of Plainview Wayland Fine Arts Association tickets are reminded of the first play available to them. It's a new concept in Wayland Baptist College.

The production of "Blithe Spirit", a moving three act comedy by Noel Coward will be presented in Harrah Memorial Auditorium, June 25-26-27 at 8 p.m.

Critics say that "Blithe Spirit" offers several of Coward's best characters and most hilarious scenes in addition to a good measure of his typical satire.

If you are not a season ticket holder, tickets may be purchased at the door of the theatre on any night of the performance.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON - SERMON

Instructions given by Jesus to his twelve disciples and to seventy other followers, who were sent out to heal and save mankind, are included in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon subject is "Christian Science," which is explained in passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. One of the passages states: "Now, as then, signs and wonders are wrought in the metaphysical healing of physical disease; but these signs are only to demonstrate its divine origin - to attest the reality of the higher mission of the Christ-power to take away the sins of the world."

Electric Air Conditioning? NO QUESTION ABOUT IT!!!

OVER 30 YEARS OF PROVEN DEPENDABILITY

Just like your refrigerator, electric air conditioning uses the same experience-proven method of cooling. A dependable compressor keeps on cooling no matter how high the outside temperature.

LOW OPERATING COST

Before you buy, be sure you have complete information. Electric air conditioning saves you money when you buy and because it uses only electricity and free air, your operating cost is low... no extra installation costs, either!

NO LOSS OF EFFICIENCY BECAUSE OF ALTITUDE

Our area is several thousand feet above sea level yet electric air conditioning is not adversely affected. It does its cooling job as efficiently as if it were at sea level. An important point to consider when buying.

CHOICE OF BRANDS

There are 58 manufacturers of electric air conditioning and all major brands are available in our area. Brands in your area are listed in the Yellow Pages or identified on your neighborhood dealer's store front.

CHOICE OF SIZES

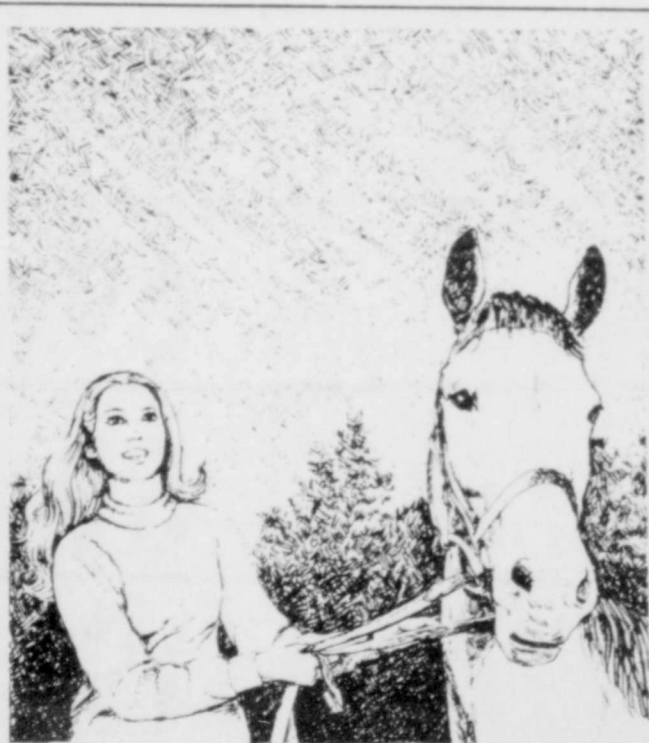

Only electric air conditioning offers the right size for your cooling job. Too large a unit makes first cost unnecessarily high; too small runs operating cost. Electric air conditioning can save you money on both counts.

COMPLETE SERVICE

The principle of electric air conditioning is so understood and the parts so easy to change that any air conditioning man can give you service quickly should you ever need it.

CENTER NEWS

CENTER, June 22 - The shower Saturday night really cooled things off, but the clouds were bigger than the rain. Vacation time, camp time, revival time, harvest time. Everybody busy. "What is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days!"

Mrs. W.L. Hartline went to Plainview Saturday to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Bob (June) Laundry. Then Mrs. Hartline and June and children went to Lubbock where they visited with Mrs. Jimmy Hartline and children at Buckner Children's Home where Addie is a matron. (Don't you know she makes a good one?) They found all well except Addie and Jimmy's baby boy had chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frizzell spent Father's Day with their daughter and girls, the Garvin Beedys of South Plains. La Tonia came home with her grandparents to visit a few days. Mrs. Ava Jackson spent Sunday in Lubbock with her son, Vernie and wife.

Brenda Landes, a Tech student, visited Mrs. Jackson Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hucklebee of Weatherford spent two nights with Mrs. Ola Warren. They dined Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Battey. They were here for the Hucklebee Reunion at Lockney Sunday, June 14. There were 53 present for the get-together.

Weekend guests at the Fred Battey home were his daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Edmondson and Gay Lynn of Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Cook, Amarillo.

Worth, Bobby and family and Jo Ann and Roger Gooch and family of Floydada. The Ft. Worth granddaughters, who had been visiting their grandparents here, had gone to Lubbock to visit their maternal grandmother and James David and Nancy went over there Sunday to get the girls.

Mrs. Frank Dunn visited Mrs. O.C. Vinson Friday evening, and Mrs. M.A. Woods came Thursday evening.

Mrs. Dunn kept her grandchildren over the weekend while Mary Grace and Eddie were enjoying the Colorado mountains. Part of the children's time is also being spent with South Plains parental grandparents. Becky Williams of Hartley was a house guest of the Bob Thompsons last week. She accompanied the Thompsons to Plainview Friday evening where they attended a band concert at Wayland. Lee Ann had attended the band clinic Friday.

Saturday evening the Thompson and the Carroll families attended the rodeo at Plainview. Sunday the Thompsons took Becky home and the Thompson girls, Lee Ann and Linda, remained to spend a few days with Becky.

Sunday dinner guests of the Thomas Warrens were the Bob Aldredges and Elaine and Paul Stout. After evening church services the Warrens, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Battey and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Edmondson (of Phillips) visited in the Bob Aldredges home.

Visitors Sunday afternoon with the Doyle Sandifurs were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sellers, city. All four then drove to Floreat to Mrs. Sandifur's childhood home, now occupied by her brother.
