FREEDOM TRAIN'S ROUTE "AROUND" TEXAS—As is usually the case with nearly everything planned by the politicians, West Texas was again ignored in routing of the Freedom Train through Texas as the map below reveals. Lubbock's Parent-Teacher association groups are lodging a protest in an effort to secure re-routing of the train through this area.

STRONG PROTEST TO BE LODGED

Freedom Train To Pass Up W. Texas

Sponsors of the "Freedom Train," loaded with historic documents of the United States, which is on a nationwide tour have completely ignored West Texas in routing of the train.

Lubbock's 16 Parent-Teacher association groups, headed by Mrs. J. E. Hartley, are lodging a protest with high officials in Washington on the passing up of this great area by the train. A bundle of telegrams will be dispatched this week to Attorney General Tom Clark, U. S. Senator Tom Connally and Rep. Geo. Mahon vigorously protesting the slighting of West Texas in the train's route and asking that its itinerary be changed to include at least two or three towns in West Texas, including Lubbock, on the tour.

Others Asked To Join

Mrs. Hartley said today the P.-T.A. groups were asking other Lubbock organizations to join them in sending telegrams or air mail letters to the trio in Washington.

"We may not do any good, but at least we believe in voicing a protest when something like this occurs," Mrs. Hartley said. She said she believed the train would be seen by more people if it came through West Texas to Lubbock than in any other section of the state. She cited the fact that its route from Del Rio to El Paso covered the most sparsely-settled section of all of Texas.

Mrs. Hartley said the state Parent-Teacher organization was urging local groups to charter buses to take children to see the train at the nearest spot at which the train stop.

Not Much Chance

"With Fort Worth 307 miles away, Austin 388 miles and El Paso 350 miles, there won't be much of a chance for any children of the South Plains to see the train," Mrs. Hartley said. "Children in other areas of West Texas won't be much better off."

"We believe that anyone who knows Texas could have arranged a better schedule for the train so that the greatest number of people could view the historic documents," Mrs. Hartley added.

Texas Mother Leaps From Car With Her Daughter In Arms

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 8 (U.P.)—A young Texas mother leaped from a slowly-moving automobile with her 10-month-old daughter in her arms today after a motorist who had offered her a lift struck her with a blackjack.

Dazed and bleeding from a head wound, Mrs. Ruth Lenz, 26, of Dallas, screamed for help after tumbling from the car. Her cries attracted John J. Dean, who helped Mrs. Lenz into his house and then called police.

Taken to Allegheny General hospital, Mrs. Lenz was treated for a deep head cut. Her daughter, Margaret, was not injured in the leap.

The Dallas housewife told police she accepted a ride from the motorist because she didn't have enough money to take a taxi cab to the home of her sister here. She said she arrived in the city early today for a delayed holiday visit with relatives in Dubois, Pa.

Two Nominees Are Selected

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP) — President Truman today announced he is appointing George V. Allen, now ambassador to Iran, as assistant Secretary of State for public affairs.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross made the announcement for the President.

Is Marshall's Choice

The post carries with it direction of the State department's "Voice of America" broadcasts and other foreign information programs.

Allen, 44, was understood to be Secretary of State Marshall's choice for the job.

Mr. Truman must send a formal nomination of Allen to the Senate which can approve or reject his selection for the post.

KUTER IS CHOSEN AS LANDIS' SUCCESSOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP) — President Truman today selected Maj. Gen. Laurence S. Kuter for chairmanship of the Civil Aeronautics Board, succeeding James M. Landis.

Rich New Oil Field Is Found In Texas

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 8. (AP)—Walter S. Hallanan, president of the Plymouth Oil Co., announced through his offices here today the discovery of a new oil field in western Texas said to be the greatest in that state in 15 years.

About 800 acres immediately surrounding the well are jointly owned by Plymouth and the Slick-Urschel Oil Co., of San Antonio. Plymouth also controls 8,000 acres in the immediate vicinity. Slick-Urschel controls another 4,000 acres.

The present well, located in Upton county, has been drilled to 1,222 feet, is producing an allowable 500 barrels a day. The new field, Hallanan said, contains an estimated minimum of 200,000,000 barrels recoverable. Petroleum engineers predicted the field, already proven at least 1,000 feet thick, has another 700 feet to drill into, all of oil-producing Ellenburger lime.

Morgenthau's Grain Deals To Be Probed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—A Senate committee investigating grain speculation is going to look into trading activities of Henry Morgenthau, jr., former Secretary of Treasury, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said today.

Ferguson told reporters the appropriations subcommittee which he heads at least will want to know the extent of Morgenthau's grain dealings and whether they extend back to the time he was in the cabinet.

Morgenthau's name appeared on a new list of corn traders made public by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson.

Tax Reduction, Anti-Inflation Face Rejection

Compromise For Some Proposals Believed Likely

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Most of President Truman's major 1948 legislative proposals, particularly his tax reduction and anti-inflation plans, appeared headed today for a congressional wastebasket.

But several, including rent control extension, foreign aid, broadened social security coverage, higher minimum wages and civil rights guarantees, seemed likely to pass in compromise form.

In Doubtful Category

Still others, such as national health insurance and compulsory military training, were lumped in the "highly doubtful" category.

Mr. Truman outlined the program yesterday in a 43-minute speech to a politically minded and election-conscious Congress which reacted generally along partisan lines. Republicans claimed Mr. Truman was playing politics, Democrats credited him with statesmanship.

But leaders of both the Republican majority and the Democratic minority left little doubt that they look for the President's tax and anti-inflation plans to be rejected.

$40 Saving Proposed

Mr. Truman asked Congress to give every individual taxpayer an immediate cut of $40 for himself and each dependent and to offset the estimated $3,200,000,000 revenue loss by boosting corporate levies.

He asked also for the inflation curb powers he was denied last month, including standby wage-price control and rationing authority.

The immediate Republican reaction was to speed plans for passage of the GOP bill to lop $5,600,000,000 from the tax take by boosting personal exemptions, applying the community property principle to all states and trimming all tax rates.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn), author of the GOP measure and chairman of the House ways and means committee, termed Mr. Truman's counter proposal "dead as a mackerel."

Inclined To Agree

And while House Minority Leader Rayburn of Texas declared "I don't concede anything," some Democrats said they are inclined to agree with Knutson's view.

In requesting standby rationing and price-wage control powers, Mr. Truman said the current price spiral is "undermining the living standards of millions" and holds

Stalin Death Rumors Aired

BERN, Switzerland, Jan. 8 (AP)—Two Bern newspapers speculated today that Prime Minister Stalin was dead. The Soviet embassy in London said there was nothing to the rumor.

Der Bund headlined its story "Stalin Dead?" in one edition, but changed this later to "About Stalin." This newspaper has good access to government sources in the Swiss capital. It said reports of Stalin's chief executive authority of Switzerland.

"Topic Of The Day"

"There is a serious background to these reports," Der Bund said. It called the rumor "the topic of the day in Moscow." How it learned this was not clear. No Bern newspaper has a Moscow correspondent.

A Socialist newspaper, the Berner Tagwacht, used the headline "Stalin Died?" It said:

"Obivously the report of the death of Stalin was nourished and a certain credence given it by previous reports that Stalin was sick,

CHARLES MICHELSON

Veteran News Reporter Dies

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP) — Charles Michelson, newspaperman and former hard-hitting publicity director of the Democratic national committee, died at his apartment here today at the age of 79.

Dr. Walter A. Bloedorn, his physician, said death was due to congestive heart failure.

Michelson, who did his most celebrated sharp-shooting at the Republicans in the Hoover regime, had been in poor health for more than two years. He retired from his committee post in 1943, but stayed on in an advisory capacity.

Kept To Apartment

In recent months he has kept to his apartment resting and under the care of a nurse, Ann Reisinger.

Michelson awoke at 7:30 o'clock this morning and asked the nurse to get him a cup of coffee. When she returned to the bedside, she found him dead.

Michelson leaves three nieces and five nephews. A brother, Dr. Albert Michelson, the noted physicist, died in 1931.

Funeral services have been tentatively arranged for Sunday. Burial probably will be in Washington.

Michelson, veteran political writer, took over as Democratic press agent in 1929 and held the post for 13 years.

Promoted Third Term

In 1940 he promoted a third term for Franklin D. Roosevelt—the first even given a President.

Michelson had been chief Washington correspondent for the New York World for 12 years before taking the party job—which eventually paid him $25,000 a year.

Ruling On Search Of Automobiles Given

AUSTIN, Jan. 8. (U.P.)—State liquor control board agents or any peace officer can search an automobile for liquor without a search warrant, Attorney General Price Daniel ruled today.

Daniel settled the question for Lubbock County Attorney John M. Steele, who had viewed decisions on the subject as being in conflict.

The search can be made legally without a warrant merely on probable cause, Daniel explained.

"We reach this conclusion," the ruling stated, "since . . . there is no question of arrest without a warrant vitiating such search accompanying, preceding or subsequent to the arrest."

The attorney general told Steele it was his opinion that the laws and cases on the topic are reconciliable.

Heavy Seas Stalling Motorship Rescue

Russian Craft Sinking Off The Coast Of Japan With 800 Passengers Aboard

(By The United Press)

TOKYO, Jan. 8 — Mountainous seas today prevented rescue ships from removing 800 passengers from the Russian motorship Dvina which was sinking off the coast of northern Japan.

Skippers of ships which rushed to the Dvina's aid after she flashed an SOS yesterday, said they had had some hope of averting a major marine disaster. The U. S. Navy reported that the Dvina's list had been reduced from 45 to 30 degrees.

Navy officials were hopeful that the Dvina could be towed out of danger if she remained afloat. American aviators believed, however, that she was settling slowly.

The vessel was reached early today by Russian patrol ship No. 30, thought to be a lend-lease destroyer escort, and two smaller Russian ships, as well as the Japanese tanker Yoko Maru and the salvage tug Kentai Maru.

American B-29s and B-17s circled above with lifeboats and emergency equipment. Five other Japanese ships, including two repatriation vessels, were racing

Black Market Hikes Prices Of Machinery

Fantastic Costs Cited; Farmers Make Complaints

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Chairman Clifford Hope disclosed today that his House agriculture committee is investigating to find out why farmers can't get all the farm machinery they need.

The Kansas Republican said the committee also is trying to find out why much of the machinery that is available "must be bought at fantastic prices in what approaches a black market." Manufacturers will be asked to correct this, he said.

Inquire Into Exports

Hope said the inquiry is aimed at finding out whether exports have reduced the amount of farm machinery available to American farmers and how much the general steel shortage has contributed to the problem.

The committee also is checking what effect, if any, the long-range European aid program will have on this country's farm machinery picture. Hope said many farmers must have new machinery to meet this year's food production goals.

"We've had all kinds of complaints about the farm machinery situation," he said. "Farmers complain that they just can't get machinery and that when it is available they have to buy it in the black market."

Held By Speculators

Hope said information reaching the committee indicated that "a lot of farm machinery is getting out of the hands of dealers into the hands of speculators." He said manufacturers will be asked to put a tighter rein on distributors to halt this.

"In some respects," he said, "the situation in farm machinery is closely parallel to the automobile situation. Farmers need new machinery and they're willing to pay to get it. But that doesn't mean it's fair."

"We want to ascertain what the facts are concerning farm machinery production, what the steel shortage has to do with it and what effects exports have had. We also want to know what the future effects of the Marshall plan may be."

Dealers Questioned

Hope said committee investigators already have questioned farm machinery dealers about the shortages and that others will be called the public hearings later this month. Farm machinery manufacturers also will testify.

"My motion is that the manufacturers may be able to do something about this so-called black market," he said. "The shortage of machinery is the one thing that farmers complain about particularly."

School Job Bids To Be Opened Tonight

Bids for construction of an addition to Dunbar school, the negro school in the Lubbock public school system, will be opened at a meeting of the board of education at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Lubbock Independent School district business office.

FIVE LEATHERNECKS ARE MISSING

U.S. Marine Killed By Reds In China

(By The Associated Press)

TSINGTAO, China, Jan. 8—Slaying of a U. S. Marine by Chinese Communists at a remote village in North China was reported today by the Chinese commander of the Tsingtao garrison. He said the victim was one of five leathernecks missing on a Christmas day hunting trip.

U. S. Navy headquarters declined either to confirm or deny the report, made by Gen. Ting Chi-Pan at a news conference. The Navy continued to withhold the identities of the five.

The Chinese commander said the hunting party had been halted by sentries at government lines — beyond which U. S. personnel was forbidden to go—but the the jeep riding Marines drove on to Tayu, a small village near Linshan, about 50 miles north of Tsingtao.

Ting added that a Marine search party went to Tayu later and was told by villagers that the slain Marine had been removed by the Communists. He said it was presumed the remaining four were taken along by the withdrawing Reds.

Marine headquarters in Tsingtao had reported that four Harines disappeared in Communist territory on the holiday hunting trip, and that the fifth was AWOL and missing in the same area. Navy authorities reported that the jeep was found—looted, wrecked and burned.

(In Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. Aglaia Kapodistria said Tuesday she had received an official message Dec. 26 that her son, Marine Pfc Thomas Kapodistria, 19, was missing in the Tsingtao area.)

ARMY CHIEF HAS TREMENDOUS JOB

Gen. Lucius Clay Is In A Hot Spot

(NOTE TO READERS: This is the eleventh article in a series being written on conditions in Europe today by The Avalanche-Journal's Editor, back from five weeks in the U. S. and British Occupation zones of Germany, Austria, the Free State of Trieste and Paris. Mr. Guy was one of 14 U. S. editors who went to Europe as the guests of the Department of the Army.)

BY CHAS. A. GUY, EDITOR
The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal

NEXT to Secretary of State George Marshall, the American sitting in the hottest seat today is four-star Gen. Lucius D. Clay, chief of the U. S. Army's European Command.

General Clay's job is much tougher than that of his counterpart in the Pacific, five-star Gen. Douglas MacArthur. It's tougher because in Japan, General MacArthur runs the whole show without help or interference from wartime allies. In Germany, General Clay not only has the British and French to think of, but also the disagreeable and unpredictable Russians.

General Clay's job is even tougher than that of President Truman because, after all, members of the Congress and Mr. Truman speak the same language and are answerable to the same people.

In General Clay's case, his woes and his problems are international and the bars of language and custom constantly plague his efforts.

• • •

An Insight Into Character

Members of our party had two long sessions with General Clay, the second one being unscheduled and a surprise to us.

Since our second meeting with the U. S. Military governor is a fair index to his character and complete faithfulness to his task, recounting it here is essential to an undertanding of the man and his purpose.

General Clay met with us in a scheduled session, at noon on our first full day in Berlin.

He outlined the progress and the problems of our occupation to date, then settled back for questions.

From every part of the circle in which we 14 U. S. newsmen sat with General Clay, questions crackled. Some of them were involved. Some were pointed. Some sought to put a probing finger on parts of the program which are lagging, or seem to be.

General Clay never dodged a question. His knowledge of minute details was amazing; his honesty complete. Of all the questions asked—and there must have been nearly a half-hundred, only two were answered "off the record," and those for reasons of security, readily discernible.

• • •

WE WENT ahead with our tour after three days in Berlin, to Vienna, to Trieste, to all the big German cities in the U. S. zone and into the Ruhr where the British run the show. Almost a month later we reached Frankfurt, near the end of our inspection—and were advised "General Clay would like to see you gentlemen tomorrow."

General Clay at that time was in London, attending the meeting of foreign ministers. But he flew to Frankfurt from London in "the soup"—abominable weather—for another long session and this time it was the General who asked most of the questions.

We told him what we had seen and what we thought about the situation. He added background, but mostly listened attentively.

After the conference one of the busiest of Americans lay down for a few hours, then flew back to London through rain and fog. His plane, which was to have left Rhein-Main airport at Frankfurt at 2:15 a. m., didn't get off the ground until 4:20, so bad was the weather.

• • •

Completely Faithful To Responsibility

A man as busy as General Clay wouldn't have taken the time—or undergone the discomforts — of that flight if didn't take his job most seriously.

As a matter of fact, several of us in the party were worried for fear his desire to talk with us, and to further inform us, might

Rustle Of Taffeta Sweeping The Country

Biggest News In Spring Fashion Parade Will Be The Beguiling Shirtwaist Girl

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 8—Leap year styles will be feminine, flirtatious and deceptively demure, according to the spring fashion picture taking shape as New York designers prepare to unveil the 1948 silhouette for the benefit of the nation's press next week.

Biggest news in the spring fashion parade will be the shirtwaist girl, a sleeker and more beguiling edition of her famous ancestor, the Gibson girl, with cinched-in waistline, whirling skirt over taffeta petticoat, a tailored look that has no hint of the masculine, and a new modesty as to neckline and skirt length.

Designers for the most part have compromised with the hard-fought "New Look." The hemlines do not yet require dust ruffles, being for the moment stabilized at twelve inches from the floor, about two inches longer than the average fall should just cover the calf of the styles. This means that the skirt leg, instead of ending at mid-calf, as was the approved street-length last season.

Style has adopted sound effects, as petticoat fever sweeps the country, and the rustle of taffeta is

Marshall Says That Security Is Threatened

Secretary Starts Fight For Costly Relief Program

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8—Secretary of State George C. Marshall made an all-or-nothing appeal to Congress today to approve the European recovery program because the world situation is "critical in the extreme."

The gray-haired soldier-statesman formally presented the administration's case for the Marshall plan to the Senate foreign relations committee and then dropped his prepared manuscript on the committee table. Leaning forward in his chair, he declared in a firm voice:

People Must Understand

"The people of the United States must thoroughly understand the critical world situation."

The four-year recovery program, he said will require sacrifices by the American people.

"When we measure these sacrifices against what we are fighting for . . . the whole world hangs in the balance," he said.

He read his formal statement in a firm, clipped voice. He gave the committee a firm challenge to put up the entire $6,800,000,000 downpayment for the first 15 months of the Marshall plan or "don't undertake it at all."

Underscores Challenge

He underscored that challenge in his closing and extemporaneous remarks. He reminded Congress that in many parts of the world "there is more fighting now than there was in the war."

"The whole situation is critical in the extreme," he said.

Marshall said the U. S. "happens to be the strongest nation in the world today, certainly economically, and I think in most other respects."

The alternatives to an adequate program, he said, are intense distress and social and political upheavals which could well wind up eventually in a third world war.

Security Threatened

"Our national security will be seriously threatened," Marshall continued. "We shall in effect live in an armed camp, regulated and controlled."

Marshall testified before the Senate foreign relations committee as the first administration witness for the plan he conceived seven months ago and which he described today as "an investment in peace."

He acknowledged that the multi-billion dollar program, a 4¼ year project, would require sacrifices at

Vast Area Is Hit By Flood

(By The Associated Press)

Vast lowland areas of Oregon, Washington and Idaho were inundated today as flooding rivers swept through widely scattered valleys of the Pacific Northwest states.

Five persons have drowned in Oregon, where damage will be in millions of dollars, and one drowned in Washington.

The populous middle Williamette valley of Oregon braced for crests of six to eight feet above flood stage as the river receded from upper valley sectors where some 2,000 are still homeless near Eugene.

Transportation Tied Up

Normal transportation services are reduced to an uncertain trickle. Trains are behind schedule, buses are unable to complete terminal to terminal runs and motorists have been ordered off many highways.

There were reports also that winter wheat plantings in eastern Washington and Oregon were badly eroded by rain but there was no official estimate of damage.

Most of the stricken area in Oregon centered around Eugene, where the river and tributaries are now receding rapidly. At Salem, in the heart of the middle valley, Red Cross and army authorities directed evacuations from low points.

CIO Asking For Another Round Of Wage Boosts For Members

(By The United Press)

Two large CIO unions demanded wage boosts for their 1,100,000 members today, as one large electrical manufacturer cut prices as much as 24½ per cent in an announced effort to stabilize prices and wages.

Other fluctuations in the cost of living saw beer prices increased $1 a barrel by one major brewery while wholesale butter prices dropped in Chicago and New York.

UAW Head Optimistic

Walter E. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers (CIO), said his 800,000 union followers "will demand and win" a new round of pay increases. He declined to state a specific figure, but was reported favoring a 25-cent-an-hour wage hike.

The United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (CIO) with 300,000 members announced it would seek "substantial wage increases" from three major electrical manufacturers—General Electric, Westinghouse, and General Motors electrical division.

Price Cuts Made

General Electric disclosed that recently announced price cuts will save consumers an estimated $50,000,000 and will include reductions of from 4 to 24½ per cent in prices of radios and television receivers.

Hotpoint, Inc., large Chicago subsidiary of General Electric, announced it was following the lead of its parent organization in reducing prices as much as 10 per cent on electric refrigerators, ranges and other products.

James J. Nepve, president of Hotpoint, said the price slash was intended to fight inflation and would result in $20 markdowns on some items.

Beer Price Upped

White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said President Truman was "very gratified" to hear of the price cut.

The Joseph Schultz Brewing company at Milwaukee announced that it was raising the price of beer $1 a barrel and 10 cents a case for bottled beer. Other brewers in Milwaukee, St. Louis and New York were reported following suit.

Aid School Payments Cause Revenue Drop

AUSTIN, Jan. 8 (AP) — Payment of $8,000,000 to rural aid schools during December was the principal factor in the big reduction of the general revenue fund's balance at the end of the month, State Comptroller George H. Sheppard announced today.

The general fund balance slumped from $49,000,000 Dec. 1 to $42,000,000 at the end of the month.

Sheppard's monthly report on state revenues and expenditures also showed:

Total revenue receipts from Sept. 1 to Dec. 31 were $167,514,117 compared with $112,137,975 for the same period last year. Of the increase, approximately 28 million was "spendable" or not tied up by law for specific purposes.

Of the 55 million dollar increase in revenue, almost ten millions came from the ad valorem tax which was not levied during the last fiscal year for general revenue.

Receipts from the tax on crude oil increased nearly seven million dollars, reflecting rising production and prices.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

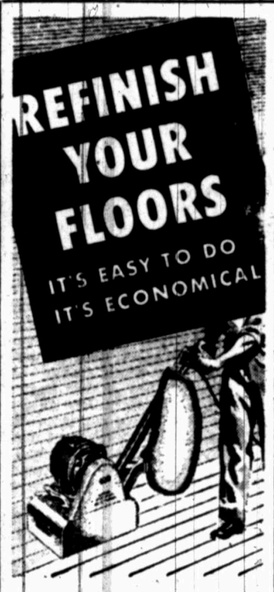

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula, which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin, firm flesh fill out hollow places. Parents Not Only Ones To Be Considered

Child Guidance Experts Don't Bother To Advise Godfathers

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 8—Child guidance experts never bother to give advice to the people who need it most—godfathers.

Their books on the care and feeding of ordinary children have more rules than a modern landlord's lease. But they are all written for parents—the people who have children. You can find therein how to burp Junior, how to decide whether he has colic or cigarette cough, or how to tell him about the stork and who brings Santa Claus.

But a man will scan them in vain for the slightest hint on how to get along with his godchild. This is unfair and undemocratic and discriminates against a large and little appreciated class. Few people give much thought to the matter, but actually there are probably more godfathers in America than there are fathers.

Godfather Ignored

Take a family with four children, for example. They all have the same father — unless mama took a trip to Reno along the way—but each has a different godfather, four in all.

You'd think that with the adult population simply crawling with godfathers someone would write a book for them. But no! Their duties, privileges and responsibilities are usually kissed off vaguely by the proud father in this manner:

"You're little junior's godfather. I know that if anything happens to me you'll watch over him until he can stand on his own feet."

Outside of that pleasant prospect, the godfather has no more work to do than a stand-in for a cigar store wooden Indian.

Some time ago a friend announced he wanted me to be godfather to his son. I accepted gratefully. I like kids but I am still batting .000 in the paternity league myself, so I though this would enable me to have some of the joys of child-raising by proxy.

Well, I went over one day and my friend formally introduced me to my squirming godson:

Godson Frightened

"See the nice man, Terry. He's your godfather. If anything happens to daddy, the nice man will send you through college."

The infant took one look at me and let out a yell as if I had scalped him. He wept and screamed and got red in the face, and everytime I even glanced his way he broke out in wild calls of terror.

That was a year ago. Every month or so I drop by to visit him. The same thing happens every time. He sees "that nice man" and immediately erupts in a wailing Niagara of tears.

At the age of fourteen months he has only one word of greeting for me:

"Ugh!"

I get along famously with every other kid in the neighborhood. They even drop by sometimes to share their used bubble gum.

The only thing I can figure out is that the child is allergic to higher education.

Tomorrow I'm going around to see him and say:

"Terry, I don't care what happens to your daddy I'm not going to make you go to college. I'll get you a job racking up balls in a poolroom, kid."

Murder Charge Filed Against Former Dallas Police Chief

DALLAS, Jan. 8 (AP)—Robert L. Jones, 51, former Dallas chief of police, was at liberty today on $7,500 bond after being charged with murder in the fatal shooting of his son-in-law, George A. Vadere, a private detective, in a downtown jewelry store yesterday.

"He ruined my baby daughter. He'll never bother anyone else," Jones, onetime FBI agent and now operator of three Dallas liquor stores, commented after the shooting.

Married Five Months

Vadere, about 31, and Jones' daughter, Marjorie, were married five months ago.

Scores of afternoon shoppers watched yesterday as Vadere ran out into one of Dallas' busiest downtown streets. First he dodged behind an express truck, then fled to a doorway, where he slumped to the sidewalk dead.

Witnesses said Vadere a few minutes before had been in a jewelry store returning a wedding and engagement ring when Jones walked in and grabbed him by the shoulder.

Vadere broke and ran, but was hit by a bullet from a .38 caliber pistol as he reached the doorway.

Jones turned over a pistol to a patrolman who was directing traffic when he heard the shot in the jewelry store.

Expert Pistol Shot

The veteran peace officer had been chief of Dallas police from 1935 to 1939. He was born in Collin county. As an FBI agent he took part in the Chicago slaying of John Dillinger and the capture of Machine Gun Kelly. He was an expert pistol shot.

Vadere had visited relatives in Los Angeles last week and returned to Dallas Sunday night.

His mother, Mrs. Gladys M. Bowman, said last night that her son was "very much in love" with his wife and that he tried to telephone her in Dallas from Los Angeles last Friday night. Mrs. Bowman said that her son's wife refused to speak to him.

Vadere left Los Angeles to live in Dallas in 1938.

RICHARD TAUBER

* * *

Noted Singer Death Victim

LONDON, Jan. 8. (AP)—Richard Tauber, 56, noted singer, composer and conductor, died at a London nursing home today.

One of the leading tenors of the German-speaking world, Tauber was one of the greatest interpreters of Mozart, and was frequently heard at Mozart festivals in Munich and Salzburg.

He was born in Linz, Austria, in 1892, and made his debut in 1913, scoring an immediate success. Within a few days he was given a five-year contract at the Dresden opera house, where he sang all the leading lyrical tenor roles.

Was Widely Known

In 1915, he appeared for the first time at the Berlin opera house and by the end of 1919 was widely known throughout the German-speaking world. From about 1925 on he began appearing in lighter operettas, such as those of Franz Lehar, and it was in these roles that he made his greatest name with the general public.

He became a British subject in 1940. His wife, the former Diana Napier, one-time film actress, was at his bedside when he died.

Tauber made his first appearance in the United States in 1931, singing at New York's Town Hall. He also scored successes in Vienna and in Australia and Africa.

He also composed symphonic music and conducted orchestras on four continents. He made several motion pictures in England.

Victor Mature Declares That Actors Face Law Of Survival

BY BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 8 — The movie melting pot is boiling again, and film stars are fighting to stay on top.

That's Victor Mature's view of the current, prolonged crisis in the motion picture industry. He says it's a renewal of a Hollywood cycle.

"Ten years ago, a group of stars ruled this town," Vic said on the set of "The Chair for Martin Rome." "It was a tight little bunch and a newcomer had very small change of breaking into it."

Closed Shop Broken

This "closed shop" was broken up by the war, which took many male stars away from the screen and brought the need for more pictures and more new personalities. "A guy like Gregory Peck never would have had a chance to break into the winner's circle before the war," Vic opined.

Hollywood is in the process of going back to the old star oligarchy, the actor declared. He said when he returned from the coast guard he made a list of other 20th-Fox actors and checked the ones who he thought would be leaving the studio. So far all but one of his choices have departed. He expects news on the remaining one any day now.

Vic, now secure in the comfort of a new five-year contract, said that his war service turned out to be a big break for him.

"How far can you go with a reputation as a swell-headed jerk?" He inquired, referring to his prewar "beautiful hunk of man" build-up. "I had reached a point where the only direction I could have gone was down."

Sights And Sounds

Sights and sounds on the Hollywood beat . . . Betty Hutton, who enacted "Dream Girl" on the screen, watching Lucille Ball's fine stage version of the role . . . Dana Andrews, in a crew cut for "The Iron Curtain," wondering how he is going to do retakes for "Deep Waters," in which his hair was long.

Cornel Wilde painting a landscape in his dressing room and making a New Year's resolution: "To play Lord Byron on the screen in 1948" . . . Marguerite Chapman taking fencing lessons on the "Gallant Blade" set . . . Larry Parks waiting to trap a prowler behind his home (not far from the heart of Hollywood) and flashing lights on a large, bewildered raccoon . . . Satan, a 16-year-old tiger, prowling around the "Man Eaters of Kumaon" set and startling visitors, including a reporter.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Anti-Social Husband Opposes His Wife's Wish To Invite Friends To Their Apartment

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My husband and I have been happily married for about five months. We are greatly interested in a common hobby and quite content to lead a quiet home life, keeping pretty much to ourselves. But I think we rather overdo this.

My husband, I'll call him Jim, inclines to be anti-social to a certain extent, and while I like a quiet life, I would enjoy entertaining our friends now and again, especially as we have a really hice well furnished apartment.

Our friends before marriage were for the most part people with whom we worked, meaning that Jim had his friends and I had mine. By now I have met all his friends, but he hasn't met all of mine, and he is opposed to our entertaining them.

GUESTS A STRAIN FROM MAN'S VIEW

HE SAYS it would be a strain on him to entertain friends of mine whom he doesn't know, but I have been invited to their homes so often that I want to reciprocate.

I am always willing to entertain his friends and we have done so a couple of times; but when I suggest inviting mine it always leads to a slight argument and ends with my dropping the subject, as I don't want to force the issue against his wishes. Above all, I don't wnat to cause dissension between ourselves.

Jim is well educated, more so than most of my friends, and his views are more sound, I think, although he is the quiet type, not given to ready conversation. But to return to my problem: Am I justified in my desire to entertain these friends with whom he is not yet acquainted?

(Signed) P. A.

MAN'S INTROVERTED LOGIC IS MORBID

DEAR P. A.: There is something wrong in a conjugal relationship when a wife must cudgel her brains to try to justify a wish to entertain old friends who have been warmly hospitable to her. She shouldn't have to plead in defense of an impulse so cheery and wholesome.

So what's wrong here? Your husband's introverted logic, obviously. Or call it his narrowing self-concern, which impels him to withdraw progressively from the open field of human relatoins, and to try at the same time to impose upon those whose lives touch his a way of behavior which has only his comfort—on his terms — in view.

Possibly you and he have some factors of temperament in common. Perhaps there was the attraction of co-equal intelligence in addition to sex appeal and one or two shared cultural interests, to spark mutual desire for life companionship.

WIFE'S WISHES SHOULD PREVAIL

BUT IN any event, it seems you are predominantly extroverted, or socially outgoing, as versus his marked introverted bias. And in all probability it was your very difference from him in this respect that made him most eager to sign you on as "the light of his life."

Doubtless he felt, unconsciously at least, that your great forte as his wife would be relieving him of loneliness and/or need to exert himself against his grain to keep channels of friendship open. And so it would—if he'd stand out of your light and second your lead; or even sit back shyly and let you swing it.

In my opinion, the issue should be resolved in your favor. Jim's isolationist tendencies, if humored, would breed a stagnant atmosphere and eventually you'd be two of a kind; both growing morbid together. You need the fresh air of friendship flowing through the home, and it will be good for him too—so go ahead with plucky initiative and entertain your friends on a modest scale.

Advice Given On How To Avoid Colds, Flu

AUSTIN, Jan. 8 (AP) — State Health Officer George W. Cox advised Texans today to "keep your body in good physical condition" if colds, influenza and pneumonia are to be avoided.

"All three may be brought on or made worse by lowered bodily resistance, and all three may often be prevented in the same ways," he said.

Dr. Cox recommended that crowds be avoided. "Be sure that the room where you are is always well ventilated. Drink plenty of water and don't let your system get clogged."

Small Home Building Triples In Texas

Skyrocketing Prices Failing To Halt Present Record Rate Of Construction

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—There are more than three times as many small houses being produced in Texas no wthan in pre-war years, construction authorities reported today.

In 1941 a total of 9,098 homes were built in the $5,000 or less bracket, Hanford Reed, editor of the Texas Contractor, reported. The overall figure was $31,634,600.

But in 1947 the number of small units rose to 32,636 costing $7,000 or less. Reed said he had to use $7,000 as the present figure for a "low-priced" home because of price advances. The total cost of those homes was $236,182,516.

With costs up 100 per cent, the average price jumped from slightly over $3,000 in 1941 to $7,000 in 1947 for low-cost dwellings.

In 1940, Reed's survey showed, 4,903 homes were built in the low-cost bracket below $5,000. The total figure for the state was $15,559,500, or an average slightly above $3,000.

Even in 1945 a home, if it could be built at all, still hovered around the $3,000 average. There were 3,073 dwelling units in the $5,000 or lower bracket that year, the overall figure reaching $10,715,400.

Small Homes Affected

But in 1946 prices skyrocketed in the small-unit classification. For homes under $7,000, of which 17,849 were built that year, the total for Texas was $100,180,468.

"Costs are up about 100 per cent," Reed said after his survey. "It cost about $3.50 or $4 per square foot in 1939-40, but now it is up to $7.50 or $8."

Thanks Extended For Lebanon Society Aid

SANTA FE, N. M., Jan. 8. (U.P.)—A. Richards of Espanola said today that he had received a letter from Ignatius Hobarak, archbishop of Beyrouth in Lebanon, thanking him for his work in sponsoring the "Friends of Lebanon" society in New Mexico.

Richards explained that the society's purpose was to preserve Lebanon, which is in the Mediterranean area, as a Christian nation. He said that the activities of the society in this country were backed nationally by the Knights of Columbus.

Superintendents Of Schools Will Meet

AUSTIN, Jan. 8. (AP)—Plans for extended school and community health programs over the state will be formed at a meeting of county school superintendents here tonight.

The plan will be offered by State School Superintendent L. A. Woods. Its objective is to organize health education on the county level to improve health conditions in schools and communities throughout the entire state.

Survivors Of Airliner Crash Claim Ship Unfit For Flight

By ED BRIDGES
United Press Staff Writer

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 8—Authorities today investigated claims of survivors that they had tried unsuccessfully to cancel their reservations on a chartered DC-3 airliner that crashed near here yesterday, killing 17 persons and injuring nine.

The converted army C-47, en route from Newark, N. J. to Puerto Rico, crashed and burned in swampy marshes near the mouth of the Savannah river.

Plane's Captain Dead

Of the dead, 14 were Puerto Ricans from the New York area making a pilgrimage to their homeland. Another was plane Captain Aldioni Atoniolli.

Two other bodies, burned to a crisp, were said to be those of U. S. internal revenue agents picked up in Philadelphia. They were burned so badly that they were not immediately identifiable.

Co-pilot Raymond Eick of Trenton, N. J., one of the survivors, said the revenue agents were put aboard at Philadelphia.

In Philadelphia, it was disclosed that revenue agents Harry Woodcock, 37, and Gerson Brody, also 37, had left for Florida.

Woodcock is division chief of the Philadelphia bureau of the department of internal revenue, Frankford Branch, and Brody is deputy collector for the same office.

Injuries Serious

Brody's brother, Dr. Moris W. Brody of Cynwyd, Pa., said the two men had gone to Florida for a vacation. The crashed DC-3 was scheduled to stop at Miami en route to Florida.

The nine injured survivors were taken to a hospital here where most of them were in serious condition.

Two Puerto Rican survivors charged from their hospital beds that the plane, operated by coastal airlines of Tetterboro, N. J., had not been fully converted for civilian use. They said it still had bucket seats for passengers.

Pinol Octavio and Pilar Diaz, both of New York, said they were dissatisfied with the plane when they saw it at Newark airport. They claimed all the passengers tried to get their $57 refunded from the travel agent Manuel Cassiano of New York who arranged the trip.

They said the agent sent his son to the airport to inspect the plane and he told them they would have to take the plane or lose their money.

Second Tragedy

It was the second crash in less than six months involving Puerto Ricans flying in chartered planes to their homeland. Eighteen Puerto Ricans were among 21 killed when another chartered was surplus DC-3 crashed near Melbourne, Fla., on July 13, 1947.

Three civil aeronautics administration inspectors from Atlanta arrived here late last night to investigate the crash. They were told of the survivors' charges and said they might question the passengers.

Besides the two crewmen the DC-3 carried 24 passengers, three over the regular seating capacity of similar commercial airliners.

Co-pilot Eick, who suffered a crushed shoulder and other injuries, blamed the crash on control failure. He said the plane went into a side-slip and spiraled down to crash on one wing.

The wing was torn off and the gas tanks exploded, leaving only a 15-foot section of the tail assembly intact.

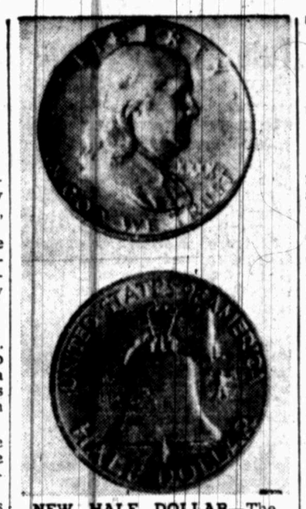

Coast guardsmen and the crew of a U. E. engineer dredgeboat had to pole flatboats into the tangled swamp to bring out the mangled bodies and the injured survivors.

One girl, a 10-year-old Puerto Rican, was taken from the wreckage alive but died later.

The craft plummeted into the swamp yesterday morning, but it was nine o'clock last night before the coast guard cutter Aurora finally slid into the city dock bearing the burned bodies. Class rings, scraps of clothing and baggage tags offered faint clues of identification.

Some of the bodies had been decapitated and all were horribly mangled. Red Cross officials said it might be hours before they could be individually identified.

At Philadelphia, officials of the charter line said the plane had recently received a 100-hour check at Miami and should have been "as mechanically perfect as possible."

Two More Firms Facing Charges Of Violating Anti-Trust Laws

AUSTIN, Jan. 8. (AP) — Two more corporations today faced state charges of anti-trust violations.

The Borden company and Rettig's, ice cream manufacturers and distributors, were named defendants in a suit filed by Attorney General Price Daniel in 98th district court yesterday alleging violations of the state's anti-trust law by the two corporations in 78 Texas counties.

Second In Two Days

It was the second anti-trust action brought by the state in as many days. Tuesday suit was filed charging eight milk corporations in Dallas and Fort Worth with violations of the anti-trust statute.

Daniel promised there would be still more.

The state alleges in its most recent suit that the Borden company and Rettig's since April 1, 1947, have required their retail dealers to follow, maintain, and agree to a uniform retail price on their ice cream products.

The two companies, both of which Daniel said are owned by Borden, are alleged to have fixed and enforced so-called "suggested retail prices through their officers and agents.

"The agreements and acts of the retail dealers in following such fixed prices amount to a trust in restraint of trade," Daniel alleged.

The suit specifically contends that price arrangements exist between the Borden company and 734 retail dealers in 47 counties and between Rettig's and 516 retail dealers in 31 Texas counties.

Statutory penalties of from $50 to $1,500 per day from April 1, 1947, to Jan. 7, 1948, are asked for each violation together with an injunction to prevent other violations of the anti-trust laws.

Total penalties for the 352,500 separate violations alleged between the two dates would amount to a minimum of $17,625,000 and a maximum of $528,750,000.

Assistant Attorney General Clarence Y. Mills, who prepared the state's petition, said no penalties would be sought against the retailers since they furnished most of the evidence upon which the suit is based.

Organization Plan In Germany Mapped

FRANKFURT, Jan. 8 (U.P.)—German leaders of the Anglo-American occupation zone met today to accept an offer by Gen. Lucius D. Clay giving them a west German state in all but name.

The organization blueprint for the merged zones calls for a cabinet, a two-house legislature, a high court, a central bank and other departments with full control over all eight states in the two zones.

The proposals were outlined yesterday by Clay, who carefully refrained from referring to them as a central government. Clay insisted that a United Germany including all four zones still is the Allied objective despite failure of the London conference.

At the same time the British and American occupation armies in the merged zones will be placed under a new unified command patterned after the supreme Allied headquarters established in Paris to direct all armies on the Western front.

Clay told the Germans that the "little SHAEF" will be established in Frankfurt. It was expected that many officers from Berlin would be called in to serve in the new headquarters.

Rites Planned Today For Asberry W. Ford

LEVELLAND, Jan. 8 (Special)—Funeral services for Asberry W. Ford, 62, who operated the grocery store and filling station at Clauene 16 years, were planned for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in Clauene Baptist church, with Rev. Pat Jordan, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Ford died at his home at Clauene at 8:20 o'clock Wednesday morning.

He had been in ill health, suffering from a heart ailment, for several months.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Opal Blair of Levelland and Mrs. Mildred Kirkland of Winslow Ariz., and Miss Ethel Lee Ford of Levelland; a stepson, Richard Lee Howell of Powell, Wyo.; a stepdaughter, Miss Carol Mitchell of Levelland; a grandson and a granddaughter.

King Michael Not To Make Any Statement "Until People Safe"

By LUDWIG POPPER
United Press Staff Writer

LAUSANNE, Jan. 8.—Former King Michael of Romania let it be known today that he would remain silent on events surrounding his abdication while Communists still controlled the government of his homeland.

Michael did not say so in so many words but the young monarch's decision to take the vow of silence was indicated by his secretary, Mircea Ionitiu.

Will Meet Fiancee

Ionitiu said that Michael would make no statement "until the people of Romania are safe." The secretary then explained that he meant the entire population would have to be safe before Michael talked.

The exiled monarch's long-awaited reunion with his unofficial fiancee, Princess Anne of Bourbon Parma and Denmark, is scheduled to take place shortly after 5:30 p. m. GMT (11:30 a.m. CST) next Saturday.

Reports from Copenhagen said tickets for Princess Anne and her mother, Princess Margrethe, have been purchased on the Nord express from Copenhagen to Basle.

The express leaves Copenhagen Friday morning, traveling by way of Hamburg and Frankfurt, and is scheduled to arrive in Basle Saturday afternoon.

Others Face Exile

Basle is some 30 miles north of Lausanne. There has been no official announcement but it is believed that Michael, who has four cars with him in exile, might wish to meet the train in person.

Dispatches from Bucharest said that at least eight more members of Michael's household have received permission to leave Romania. This will bring to 30 the number permitted to go into exile with him, although he originally asked the Romanian government for 60 passports.

Those who are leaving are Princess Elizabeth, the former queen of Greece; Princess Ileana and her husband, Archduke Anton of Habsburg, and their six children.

The eldest of the six children, Stefan, 16, would have been next in line to the throne of Romania if Michael had not been forced to renounce his monarchial rights.

It is not known whether the newest exiles will join Michael in Switzerland or head for some other haven. The Bucharest reports said the Romanian press has been silent on Michael's actions, printing neither his departure from Bucharest nor his arrival in Switzerland.

Wings Over Jordan Choir Here Today

Wings Over Jordan, nationally known negro choir, will be presented in two performances today at the Senior High School auditorium, one at 5:15 p. m. and the other at 7:30 p. m.

Tickets for the first performance are priced at $1.20 and for the last appearance tickets sell for $1.80, both prices including tax. Tickets are on sale at Mark Halsey's No. 1 drug store, and Dr. J. A. Chatman, chairman of the sponsoring committee, reports that advance sales are exceptionally good.

The Wings Over Jordan choir broadcasts on Sunday morning over the Columbia Broadcasting system.

VFW Official Will Speak Here Tonight

Roger Q. Evans of Austin, Texas department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, arrived in Lubbock about 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon on one leg of his current tour of the state to inspect veterans facilities, Homer McDonald, Lubbock district commander of the VFW, reported.

Evans is accompanied by his wife; H. A. Calkins of Kansas City, a regional director of the National Rehabilitation service of the VFW; and R. H. Claypool of Dallas, claims officer of the National Rehabilitation service.

Evans, Calkins and Claypool will speak before a meeting of the Lubbock post of VFW at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Pine room at Lubbock hotel, McDonald said.

The three men will end their inspection tour after visits to San Angelo, San Antonio, Waco and Houston. They came to Lubbock from Dallas where their most recent inspection was held.

Brazil Votes Ban On Reds

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 8 (U.P.)—Seventy six Communist public officials, including 14 members of the chamber of deputies, were ejected from office today under a new Brazilian law barring Communists from legislative posts.

The law went into effect shortly before midnight last night when it was signed by President Eurico Gaspar Dutra immediately after being approved by the chamber of deputies 181 to 74.

Final approval of the measure was marked by violent debate in the chamber. Two pro-government deputies drew revolvers during course of an argument with Communist deputies, but were prevented from firing by other members.

Session Postponed

Assembly President Samuel Duarte postponed the session after the show of guns. Communist Deputy Gervasio Azvedo also attempted to delay the measure with a one-man filibuster, refusing to yield the floor until he was ordered to sit down by Duarte.

Ten of the 14 Communist deputies who had taken part in the debate left the chamber without protest after the final vote was announced, but other Communists attempted demonstrations in front of the assembly building.

The demonstrations were suppressed by police and more than a dozen persons were arrested. Guards at power plants, public utilities and industrial plants throughout the nation were reinforced to prevent sabotage.

Salesgirl Falls At Yule Shopping Plan

HOUSTON, Jan. 8. (U.P.)—A 17-year-old Christmas "extra" girl who nearly got away with $1,000 in store merchandise was released by police today to her shocked husband.

Police said the girl used a customer's name in signing 55 charge slips before she was caught.

"I figured someone rich wouldn't notice a few extra things on their bills," the girl told Mrs. Genevieve Hartsfield, supervisor in the crime prevention division.

Her 22-year-old husband of six months said he would divorce her. But he changed his mind and said he would help her pay back a balance of $527 in goods not recovered because she gave them as Christmas presents.

Mertox Compound Is A Wonderful Remedy, Says Fort Worth Man

"I want to write and tell you that I think your Mertox Compound will do everything you claim for it," writes Mr. John H. Tyler, Route 8, Box 294, Fort Worth, Texas. "I think it is a wonderful remedy."

This great herbal compound containing 25 ingredients is being endorsed by many, many people because they have found that it is just the medicine they need. Mertox helps to throw off poisonous wastes from the system, promotes a more rhythmic bowel action; helps to build rich, red blood. It helps rheumatic pain; relieves kidney and bladder trouble and should make you feel, look and act like a different person in a very short time. Seven Baseball Leagues Will Operate In Texas This Year

DALLAS, Jan. 8 (AP)—Texas will have seven professional baseball leagues with 37 and possibly 38 clubs next season—the all-time high for the state.

Still another league than operated last year has been formed—the La-Tex, a class D circuit made up of six Texas and Louisiana cities. The Longhorn league, class D loop that started up last year plans to expand from six to eight clubs but is having trouble getting there. At this time the Longhorn has seven members but will drop back to six unless an eighth club is obtained.

Carolina Holds Pace

This was the year the baseball leaders thought the state would become the nation's leader in total clubs but North Carolina, the only state to eclipse Texas last year, held the pace. That state will have at least 40 clubs in seven leagues next spring and may have still another circuit. Efforts are being made to form the Central Carolina league but the number of clubs has not been determined.

Here is the Texas professional league roster for 1948:

Texas league (class AA)—Houton, San Antonio, Dallas, Beaumont, and Fort Worth (Tulsa and Oklahoma City, and Shreveport, La., other members).

Big State league (class B)—Wichita Falls, Paris, Sherman-Denison, Texarkana, Austin, Waco, Greenville, Gainesville.

Lone Star league (class C)—Longview, Marshall, Tyler, Jacksonville, Henderson, Bryan, Kilgore, Lufkin.

West Texas-New Mexico league (class C)—Amarillo, Lubbock, Borger, Pampa, Lamesa, Abilene (Albuquerque and Clovis, N. M., other members).

Arizona-Texas league (class C)—El Paso only Texas member. Other members—Phoenix, Tucson, Globe - Miami, Douglas - Bisbee, and possibly Juarez, Mexico.

Longhorn league (class D)—Big Spring, Sweetwater, Ballinger, Odessa, Midland, Vernon, San Angelo (Altus, Okla., probable eighth member but if no eighth club obtained San Angelo to drop out).

La-Texas league (class D)—Port Arthur, Orange and Galveston, Tex.; Lake Charles, Crowley and Opelousas, La.

La Belle Scores Mat Victory Over Burns

Pierre La Belle of Portland, Ore., defeated "Cyclone" Bobby Burns in two of three falls to grab top honors in the main event of Sled Allen's Wednesday night mat program.

Burns surprised the Oregon grappler with a one-minute first fall victory, but La Belle bounced back to top the second fall in 12 minutes with a reverse crab hold. La Belle took the decisive third fall in just six minutes with the same reverse crab.

Gordon Hessel, tough Milwaukee mat veteran, clinched a victory over Johnny Carlin of Tampa, Fla., with a flying head scissor in the third fall of the semi-final setto. Carlin took the first decision with a body lift and smother in 11 minutes, but Hessel evened the count with a stepover toe hold. Hessel's winning head scissor was timed 10 minutes after the start of the final go.

In the preliminary event "Lightning" Rod Fenton of Edmonton, Canada, and George Lopez of Tampico, Mexico, battled 15 minutes to a deadlock.

A special "Wrestle Royal" feature provided excitement for a capacity crowd of Lubbock mat fans and provided the pairings for the three regular bouts. Rod Fenton was the first wrestler eliminated, followed by George Lopez, Johnny Carlin and Gordon Hessel. Burns and La Belle were the final survivors and gained the main event nominations.

Sale Of Waco Club To Pirates Okayed

DALLAS, Jan. 8. (AP)—Club owners and representatives of the Big State league have approved the purchase of the Waco club by the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National league.

At a meeting here yesterday, Greenville opposed the purchase in the open meeting but after the session changed the vote to make it unanimous.

Greenville Vice-President J. I. Holderness protested the move on the grounds that it was "chain store baseball."

The new club will train in Waco, A. H. Kirksey, vice-president of the club last year, said. He said a field manager would be named soon.

Every league member except Austin was represented at the meeting.

The next meeting of the league will be Feb. 8 at Texarkana.

Kramer Takes Lead

HERSHEY, Pa., Jan. 8 (AP)—Jack Kramer, a newcomer in the ranks of pro tennis, took the lead in the play-for-pay series when he defeated Bobby Riggs, the world champion, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3 last night.

Kramer now holds a 5 to 4 edge in the series which opened in New York City and will be played out in 35 cities.

First Of Three-Game Weekend Series

Westerners And El Paso Will Tangle In Border City Game

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

• • •

Bill Henderson of Texas Tech is to be the guest of honor Friday noon at a small dinner in the Hilton Hotel given by one of his chief advisors and trainers, Bert Kahn, himself a former pugilist. Henderson, a featherweight fighter, will soon be seen in the regional Golden Glove tournament in Lubbock and is expected to walk off with honors in his division.

• • •

The perky little fighter last year won the state title and a place on the Texas team, after winning in Ft. Worth. He went through three bouts successfully in Chicago, but lost on the fourth attempt. Bert Kahn believes that if illness hadn't forced him to desert Bill's corner, the Lubbock fighter would have won his division in the Windy City. Bert also believes that Bill this year will go through to victory in Ft. Worth and Chicago.

• • •

We watched the latest and brightest prospect since LaVern Roach go through his paces at Kahn's training rooms in the Lubbock National Bank building yesterday. Although paired for two rounds with a middleweight, Bill more than held his own, experience being his chief asset. But Kahn tells us that Bill will take on any man he is asked to without raising a question. He's that kind of a fighter.

• • •

Kahn says that Henderson loves to fight, that he doesn't cut easily and that he packs more dynamite in his fists than several men bigger than he is. Which is getting off the subject of why there is a dinner being given him. The dinner is in recognition of his success at Memphis, Tenn., where he was a member of the Texas fight team that won five of eight bouts at the Delta Bowl. And of greater significance is the fact that Henderson was the only winner who won by a knockout.

• • •

Bert Kahn is an interesting chap, greatly concerned with the development of athletes, the physical well-being of all persons, but more interested in boxing and wrestling men than anyone else. It's only natural for, until 1938, Kahn was a grappler himself with more than average ability. His place on the 1932 Olympic wrestling team is ordinary proof of that, but his experience in the professional ring is a still further proof. From his experienc Kahn decided that too many men allowed themselves to grow flabby and soft, cutting valuable years from their life span.

• • •

His health club has all the facilities to send the tired business man home refreshed, while at the same time building resilient muscles. And the younger man, possibly a former athlete of sorts, can go to Bert's small gym and find the utensils with which he can retain his pyhsical form, to say nothing of improving the present shape. But if you don't like perspiration, arnica and heat—and exercise—stay away!

Swinging the lasso: Thurman Tucker of the Chicago White Sox outfield is in town visiting his sisters, the former Mary Fae Tucker of Gordon, and her husband, Bill Dennis . . . Hubert Bechtol, former Texas Tech end and All-America at Texas university, has finished a year in the play-for-pay ranks and is visiting his parents here . . . J. G. "Goober" Keyes is working for the Baker company, a sporting goods concern on 14th street . . . Charley Reynolds, Raider speedster and football halfback, will take the center aisle march with a hometown sweetheart between college semesters . . . Arizona is here for a cage game with Tech Friday night and the Raiders must show more than they did against Hardin . . . The public was admitted—to the tune of 150 persons—to the Tech-Hardin game last night, but there was still a lot of empty space . . . And keep your fingers crossed for the Westerners on this three-day invasion of El Paso.

El Paso High's Tigers, defending Class AA basketball champions, will try to find out just how good the Lubbock Westerner cagers really are tonight at El Paso when the two quints tangle in an important non-conference game.

The tilt, first of a three-game weekend series against El Paso fives, is slated at the Austin High (of El Paso) gymnasium as the opening game of a doubleheader featuring two District 1-AA teams. The Amarillo Sandies meet the Austin High quint in the second setto. Friday night the Westerners play the Ysleta High five at the Ysleta gym, with the Sandies battling Bowie of El Paso in the nightcap, then the Lubbock cagers tangle with Austin High in the final tussle Saturday night. All the El Paso teams are members of District 4-AA.

Westerner hopes for victory against the highly-rated border city quints took a sharp drop Wednesday night when Coach Dunn announced that Jack Alderson, stellar veteran and high scorer, had contracted a mild case of influenza and would not make the trip with the rest of the squad. The loss of Alderson will greatly handicap the Westerner offense, since the Black and Gold stalwart is probably the best ball-handler on the starting quint as well as the most accurate point-maker.

Ten players will leave early this morning by chartered bus, Dunn said, and the squad should arrive in El Paso in time for a short rest period before the game against the Tigers. Players named to the travelling squad include Virgil Johnson, Jim Wilson, Billy Max Henry, Charles Galey, Richard Hershenroeder, Bob Schmidt, Doral Sandlin, Sam Davis, Bob Swain and Blair Hankins. Johnson and Henry will probably start at the forward slots, Dunn said, with Wilson at center and Galey and Hershenroeder at guards.

The El Paso High quint has won eight games this season while dropping three decisions, but has improved steadily in recent weeks and is rated as one of the top powers of West Texas. All three of the defeats were suffered on a lengthy road trip, with Carlsbad, N. M., copping one of the tilts and Amarillo winning the other two. The Austin High five, Lubbock's foe Saturday night, has a more impressive record with eleven victories and only one defeat.

Tech Defeats Hardin 60-33

The basketball players were resting comfortably at Texas Tech today following their shellacking of an impotent Hardin college quintet last night 60-33, but the suspicion existed that maybe Coach Polk Robison wasn't entirely pleased over the exhibition.

There was no reason why he should be pleased by the victory, what with the Border Conference champion Arizona university quintet due in town Friday night. His Raiders showed a strong tendency to catch the enthusiasm of the visiting Indians in the second half, an enthusiasm that led to bad passing and bad floor work.

Indeed, had the visitors possessed more finesse and some semblance of smoothness, there is reason to doubt that the score would have been so lopsided. The Indians did everything except put the ball in the netting for the Raiders, as they passed wildly, fumbled invitingly and generally gave the impression that they wanted Tech to win.

Raiders Start Slowly

Despite this, it took the Raiders seven and a half minutes to build up a lead of 8-5 and that was founded on four free throws and two field goals. In fact, five and a half minutes elapsed before Center Don Grove dropped a hook shot through the mesh to bring Tech from behind to a 5-5 tie.

After Jiggs Jackson, who played a great game for Tech, had driven in for an easy layup on a fast break, the deluge started. Guard Ardis Barton drove in for a layup, Forward Jay Kerr followed on a ditto play, Jackson repeated, Grove tipped in a follow shot and Jackson tallied again on a fast break to send the Raiders into a 20-5 margin.

The Raiders held Hardin scoreless for nearly nine minutes before Froggy Williams went in on a layup and it was another three minutes before Don Robbins dropped in a one-hand set shot to bring the count to 28-9. A free throw and two field goals gave Tech a 33-11 lead at the intermission period.

Three Tie For High

Cecil Crenshaw was one of the big reasons why Tech didn't roll up an even larger score, the chunky forward tossing in five field goals in the final 20-minute stanza. Crenshaw also was aided by a Tech team that allowed itself to play the type of ball Hardin presented.

Three men tied for high scoring honors, Grove and Barton topping the Raider cagers and Crenshaw leading the Indians, all with 11 points.

Frosh Show Power

The Texas Tech freshman basketball team, showing unexpected power and ability, smothered a good Big Spring Junior college quintet in the opening game last night, 60-48.

The box score:

Bowling Scores

Hackel's, Larrymore Dance studio and Southwestern Public service bowlers topped the Ladies Commercial league Wednesday night at Lubbock Bowling club by sweeping three game series with loop opponents. Home Lumber and Supply joined the winning group, but lost one game to the Westerner cafe keglers.

Gail Tyson scored a 198-520 series high to pace the Hackel's five to the triumph over Grollman's, although Inez Green shot a 146-404 for the losers. Billy Slover led the Larrymore pin-toppiers to a three game victory over Hemphill-Wells with a 179-507 tally, while Aleene Hilton chalked up a 179-491 high for the Hemphill-Wells squad.

Norma Crossland topped individual honors in the Southwestern Public Service win over Glassman's, scoring a 203-526 series. Irma Jeffboat led Glassman's crew with a 141-411. E. Vickery topped Home Lumber and Supply to two decisions over Westerner cafe with a 190-498, while B. Maslovar was credited with a 174-466 for the losers.

Failure For Sanity Code Is Predicted

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP)—The NCAA's "sanity code" starts through the final mill today with athletic chieftains freely predicting its approval but many of them foreseeing failure in the accomplishment of its aims."

"You can't enforce it," one prominent coach said. "Many will vote for the code while figuring out ways to beat it."

Such expressions as "just a scrap of paper" and "rules without teeth" were bandied about the smoke-filled hotel lobbies as the National Collegiate Athletic association's executive committee repared to dig into the code today.

Scattered Resistance

The code, a group of proposed constitutional amendments designed to curb athletic subsidization, will be placed before the entire NCAA membership Saturday. Indications are it will meet only scattered and no organized resistance.

Representatives of the Southeast, Southwest and Southern conferences where the loudest protests were expected, said last night they expected the new standard of conduct to be approved "without trouble."

But many of them were cynical, asserting it would do little to purify college athletics.

"I am sure you will still see a lot of poor boys going to college because they are good halfbacks," commented Coach Carl Snavely of South Carolina.

Can Do Own Policing

Dana X. Bible, athletic director of the University of Texas, was one of the more optimistic.

"I am sure a set of standards will be worked out this week-end that will be satisfactory to everybody," he stated. "I also think the various conferences can do their own policing."

The code has been liberalized somewhat since it was first presented to the NCAA a year ago. It permits grants to athletics under certain conditions and allows institutions to contact players as long as they keep their sales talk within catalogued bounds.

The NCAA plan calls for enforcement through special committees which investigate complaints and take measures against offending members.

In the major meeting yesterday the rules committee of the American Football Coaches association decided the football game is fine as it is and recommended no major changes.

The group, headed by Coach Lou Little of Columbia, suggested two minor alterations in rules: (1) after a second successive out of bounds kickoff, the ball goes to the receiving team ten yards in front of the kick instead of on the kicker's 40; (2) when a player is injured after the fourth time out in a half, only the injured player can be substituted for without penalty.

Blackwell Okays His Contract With Reds

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8 (AP)—Ewell Blackwell, the whip-armed righthander who put together 16 straight wins—including a no-hitter — in winning 22 and losing eight games for the Cincinnati Reds last season, today was under contract for the 1948 campaign, at a salary that may exceed $25,000.

Reds' President Warren Giles announced yesterday that the limber six feet-five inch pitcher from San Dimas, Calif., had accepted terms.

One source close to the club's master minds and players guessed Blackwell's new salary at $25,000. Another said $27,000.

SMU Downs TCU In Cage Opener, 62-58

(By The Associated Press)

The Southern Methodist Mustangs cut the ribbon on the Southwest conference basketball race last night with a 62-58 defeat of the Texas Christian Horned Frogs.

That one entry in the standings will remain until Arkansas and Texas A. and M. begin in a two-game series at College Station tomorrow. Saturday Baylor will challenge SMU at Dallas.

The Methodists had to come from behind in the Southwest conference starter. Giant Roy Pugh tossed in 29 points and paced the last half drive which had the Mustangs 18 points ahead at one time.

Sharp shooting Bryan Jerrel put the Frogs back in the game late in the last period and at the finish the Christians were pushing hard.

TCU led 21-18 at the half.

Fighting Kirkpatricks Will Not Be Back

Golden Gloves Candidates To Tangle At Tech Gym Feb 2-5

Top-flight awards, in the form of division crowns, are wide open and waiting for seven young boxers to claim here Feb. 2-3-4-5.

All it will take for a South Plains leather pusher to win one of those open division titles is a solid expression of his fistic supremacy.

Those titular spots which J. D. and Howard Kirkpatrick, the Petersburg punchers claimed last year during the annual Golden Gloves tourney here by virtue of fistic supremacy, are waiting for newcomers to take over in this year's boxing meet.

Is Working, Married

J. D. Kirkpatrick, who won the heavyweight title here last year, won his first bout in the state tournament only to be forced out because of a painful kidney injury, won't be back because, he said:

"I'm a working man and a married man, too, and I just haven't had any time to train."

His brother, Howard, is now employed at Plainview, and will not return to defend his lightweight crown, J. D. Kirkpatrick said.

Misfortune struck another regional Golden Gloves titlist hard. Ray Crenshaw, the middleweight from Temple, and a stellar Red Raider backfielder, still carries his right arm in a cast because of the bone fracture he received late in the grid season.

Of the eight open division winners here in the 1947 tourney only one is definitely set to return in defense of his crown. He is Bill Henderson, the featherweight from Levelland and Texas Tech, who only Wednesday was dubbed by Bert Kahn, his trainer, sponsor and most enthusiastic follower as "the greatest prospect in the feather-weight division in the world today."

All this adds up to the fact that there will be seven titular spots wide open when the Golden Gloves tourney gets under way in the Tech gym on Feb. 2.

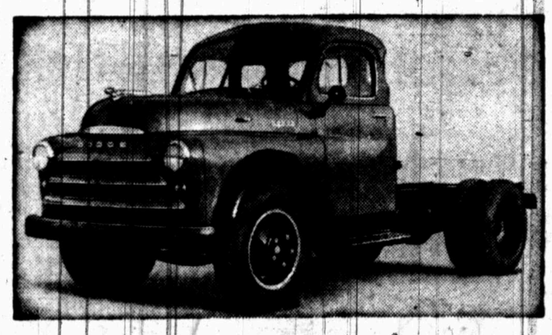

It means that eight South Plains simon pures will battle their way to titles and a trip to the state tournament. Victory there means more glory for such a triumph will rocket the young fighter into the national Golden Gloves spotlight as an entry in the national tournament.

Thus waiting to be won by young area fighters through exercise of boxing supremacy are these titles: heavyweight, light heavyweight, middleweight, welterweight, lightweight, bantam weight and flyweight.

Other title winners last year were: Tom Adams of Brownfield, now at Hardin-Simmons university, light heavy; Ray Crenshaw of Texas Tech, middleweight; Bill Mills of Plainview, welterweight; Billy Brackeen of Slaton, bantamweight, and Kenneth Davis of Clarendon, flyweight.

Baylor's Tenth President In 103 Years Takes Office Feb. 1

WACO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Dr. William Richardson White, Southern Baptist leader and pastor, on Feb. 1 will become the 10th president of 103-year-old Baylor university at Waco.

He succeeds former Texas governor Pat M. Neff, who retired Dec. 31.

Unanimous Election

Dr. White, now pastor of the First Baptist church at Austin, was unanimously elected to succeed Neff Saturday at a meeting of 29 of the Baylor board's 36 members. He accepted the presidency in a telegram yesterday to Dr. W. W. Malton, president of the Baylor board.

"I feel so unworthy of such an honor and sacred trust," the 56-year-old educator and minister said in his reply to the board's offer. "To carry such a responsibility, to succeed such a group of notable administrators as cluster about the name of Baylor university will necessitate the usual cooperation of trustees, faculty, student body and administration.

"In happy anticipation of that reality and having been led as I believe by our common Lord, I now accept the presidency of Baylor university to become effective Feb. 1, 1948."

After the board announced that Dr. White had been named as president, Neff said the trustees had made a "wise selection."

Selection Praised

In Dallas, Charles R. Moore, chairman of the Dallas executive of the Baylor board, said that Dr. White would take the presidency "in the prime of life and exceptionally equipped for the job."

Dr. W. A. Criswell, board member and pastor of the First Baptist church of Dallas, said: "Dr. White has the love and confidence of all the Baylor constituency of Texas as few men have ever commanded it. He will make a great president."

Dr. W. T. Gooch, head of the Baylor chemistry department and chairman of the graduate council, is interim president of the school. Dr. White said that for the next three months he would leave the university's administration to Dr. Gooch and Dr. Monroe Carroll, dean.

The new president said he hoped to advance the institution scholastically and make it "more potent in world reconstruction." He said otherwise he had no specific policies or plans to announce.

Dr. White, born on an east Texas farm, was educated in Texas Baptist colleges. He has served the Baptist denomination in Texas in practically every available position of leadership and has been a member of many of the denomination's southwide boards and committees.

Widely Experienced

For more than 30 years he has been connected with Baptist educational institutions as a teacher, president, or board member. He is a former president of Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene. He had been pastor of the Austin church since 1944. Before that he was editorial secretary of the Baptist Sunday School board in Nashville, Tenn.

At the Texas capitol, Dr. White became the unofficial spokesman for Texas Baptists in legislative matters. He played a leading role in the defeat of a bill to legalize pari-mutuel betting at horse race tracks during the 50th legislature.

Dr. White is an ardent dry and a frequent speaker before Baptist meetings on civic righteousness.

Garwood Given Court Position

AUSTIN, Jan. 8 (AP)—St. John Garwood of Houston, veteran of both World wars and well-known lawyer, has been named associate justice of the state supreme court by Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

Garwood, 51, was appointed yesterday to fill the vacancy by elevation of J. E. Hickman to the chief justiceship. He is a son of the late Judge Hiram M. Garwood.

He was educated in the La Grange and Houston public schools and was graduated from Georgetown college in 1917 with a B. A. degree. After service in World war I as a first lieutenant of cavalry with the First Texas brigade, Garwood attended the University of Texas for one semester and then went to Harvard where he was graduated in law in 1922.

Returned To Houston

Garwood worked for the legal department of the Texas company in New York until 1924. He returned to Houston and practiced with his father's firm until 1928, when he went to Beunos Aires as South American counsel for the Standard Oil company of New Jersey until 1933.

He began independent law practice in 1941 after eight years with the firm of Andrews, Kelley, Kurth and Campbell.

Garwood served with naval intelligence in South America from February, 1942, until February, 1945. From 1945 through 1946 he was civil service commissioner in Houston.

He married Ellen Clayton, daughter of William L. Clayton of Houston, in 1927. They have two sons, St. John Garwood, jr., 19, and William L. Garwood, 16.

To Help Relations

Gov. Jester expressed the opinion that Garwood's appointment to the supreme court would strengthen Texas' relations with its Latin American neighbors. Garwood has many friends in Mexico and South American countries, he said.

In succeeding to Judge Hickman's place, Garwood will have to run for the four-year unexpired term at the next general election. Hickman will also have to run for re-election as chief justice.

Hickman took the oath of office as chief justice yqesterday.

Brooklyn Dogs Will Get Cemetery Jobs

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP)—Brooklyn put two dogs on its payroll today.

They'll get $5 each as watchdogs at Canarsie cemetery, where many Revolutionary War heroes are buried. Borough President John Cashmore said the $5 was for monthly maintenance of the dogs, Lassie and the son of Lassie, Belgian shepherds.

Dr. And Mrs. Gates To Return To Tech

Dr. and Mrs. William Bryan Gates, former members of the faculty at Texas Technological college, will return to the college in September, for the start of the fall term, Pres. W. M. Whyburn announced Wednesday.

Dr. Gates is now professor and head of the English department at Texas Christian university and Mrs. Gates is a professor of foreign languages there. He has accepted a position as professor of English here while she will be a professor in the foreign language department.

Mrs. Gates was given a leave of absence from Texas Tech in 1945 because of a rider in the 1945-47 biennium higher education appropriation bill which prevented both man and wife to be employed at a state college. Dr. Gates remained in the English department until the fall of 1946, when they both accepted positions at TCU. The appropriation bill rider was omitted for the current biennium.

In announcing Dr. and Mrs. Gates' acceptance of the positions here, Dr. Whyburn stated, "We are delighted to have these two outstanding scholars return to our faculty. Their return is indicative of the high professional stature which the college is attaining and, more and more, we may expect other outstanding scholars to join with us in this rapidly developing institution."

Both Dr. and Mrs. Gates were on the original Texas Tech faculty and are widely recognized for outstanding work in their respective fields. Both hold Ph.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania.

Aubrey Shouse Named Tech Club President

Aubrey Shouse, senior arts and science student, from Merkel, will serve as president of the Texas Technological college Press club for the spring term as a result of an election of officers held Tuesday afternoon following a business meeting of the club.

Shouse succeeds Jan Blackwell, senior Journalism major from Littlefield, who presided during the fall semester.

Other officers elected include Bob Lilly, first vice-president; Billy Carpenter, second vice-president; Mary Ellen Duffy, secretary; Betty Ramsey, treasurer; Clint Formby, parliamentarian; and Jan Blackwell, sergeant at arms.

Influenza Bacillus Believed Cause Of Midland's Epidemic

MIDLAND, Jan. 8 (AP)—Research specialists seeking to identify the respiratory ailment which has caused seven deaths among young children here said this morning that they believed they were approaching a solution to identification of the disease.

They said that they believed it to be influenza. In children, they explained, it is thought to be caused by an influenza bacillus, which is not related to the influenza virus suspected of causing illness among adults.

Believe Crest Passed

A general difference between a bacillus and a virus, they added, is that a bacillus can be seen through a conventional microscope. A virus is invisible except through special microscopes of exceedingly high power.

Three children were admitted to the hospital here for treatment of the disease between Wednesday noon and 10 a.m. today. Seven children altogether are under treatment. However, there have been no deaths here since Saturday night and doctors said today none of their patients seemed to be in extreme danger. The wave of illness appeared to have passed its crest, they said.

Dr. S. Edward Sulkin and Dr. Elias Strauss, professors at Southwestern Medical college at Dallas, and Dr. W. S. Brumage of the State Health department at Austin, qualified their statements on the malady's origin by saying laboratory analysis or organisms found in throats and lungs of victims has not been carried far enough to enable them to announce positively the exact cause of the disease.

Renewed Sugar Goal System Is Revealed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP) — The Agriculture department announced today the quantities of sugar which various domestic, offshore and foreign producing areas will be allowed to supply the United States this year under a renewed quota system.

The total amount allocated is 7,800,000 short tons, raw value. This compared with 7,431,000 tons used in this country during the eleven months ended October 1, 1947.

Cuba got the largest quota, 3,239,429 short tons.

The next largest, 1,847,378 short tons went to the domestic beet sugar producing area.

The quota system is designed to stabilize supplies and prices at levels equitable to producers and consumers alike. It prevents dumping of excess world supplies on the American market.

Marshall Warning

home. And he made no attempt to minimize the "avowed determination of the Soviet union and the Communist party to oppose and sabotage it at every turn."

Way Of Life In Balance

"It is a calculated risk," he declared. "But there can be no doubts as to the alternatives. The way of life that we have known is literally in the balance."

Strongly supporting President Truman's proposal to administer the program through a new executive agency, the secretary appealed to Congress to reject suggestions from "some quarters" that it be placed under an independent, government corporation.

"It would be unfortunate to create an entirely new agency of foreign policy for this government," he said.

"There cannot be two secretaries of state."

Rock-Bottom Estimate

Here Marshall turned to the cost of the program. He told the senators that the $6,800,000,000 requested for the 15-month period beginning April 1 was a rock-bottom estimate — that it was not an "asking" figure based on the assumption Congress would cut it.

"Either undertake to meet the requirements of the problem or don't undertake it at all."

Marshall did not side-step the impact of the program on the American economy. But he said:

"It will require sacrifices today in order that we may enjoy security and peace tomorrow. Should the Congres approve the program for European recovery, as I urgently recommended, we Americans will have made an historic decision of our peacetime history."

Would Cost More

But to abandon the 270,000,000 people of western Europe to the threats of hunger, poverty, desperation and resulting chaos would ultimately cost the United States much more, Marshall predicted.

Marshall's 5,000 - word opening statement earnestly sought to lay a solid foundation for the long and acrimonious debate certain to follow as the program runs the congressional gamut. He asked the lawmakers to keep in mind the difference between the recovery project and the "blind alley of mere continuing relief."

And he asked that the deliberations during the coming weeks be judged in terms of peace and "maintenance of true freedom for the individual."

Refers To Russians

Marshall, who has met Soviet obstructionism directly at Moscow, New York and London in less than one year, dotted his remarks with references to Russian "aggravation and destructive policies." But he said that the basic dislocations in the present European situation stem "directly from the war."

A program of "too little and too late," he warned, would be no problem at all. And the sooner it gets underway, he said, "the greater its chances of success."

"Unless the program can be placed in operation on or soon after April 1st, there will, undoubtedly, be a serious deterioration in some of the basic conditions upon which the whole project is predicated," he added.

RISE IS EXTENDED

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (UP)—The stock market swung forward again late today, extending the rise of the previous session under the leadership of rails and selected oils.

Common and foreign stock of International Telephone also featured late dealings. The foreign issue rose more than a point, while the common had a rise of nearly a point.

Rails were paced by Alleghany preferred, Santa Fe and Nickel Plate preferred, all of which rose more than a point. Southern Railway, Nickel Plate common and C and O were fractionally higher. Some of the buying in this group reflected increasing likelihood of a prosperous year for the carriers as a result of the recently-approved interim boost in freight rates.

Plymouth Oil had a rise of 8 points to a new high in its group, responding to disclosure that the company's recent well discovery in West Texas had increased its known reserves by at least 200,000 barrels.

Elsewhere in oils Atlantic Refining, Skelley, Shell Union and Deep Rock were all up a point or more.

Motors were firm. Steels had gains ranging to a point or more in Bath Iron Works, Bethlehem and Lukens. Follansbee Steel, a fabricator, dropped a point on official company denial of the latest rumors of plans for a merger.

Two wide movers on the down side were New York and Harlem, down more than 12 points to a new 1947-48 low, and Abraham and Straus, off 8.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP)—Cotton futures were lower in moderately active dealings today. Scattered liquidation and hedging depressed prices more than $1 a bale before the market recovered partially on mill buying and short covering. More active selling of spot cotton at the ten primary markets accounted for the pressure of trade selling.

A weakening in textile prices for nearby delivery, lack of aggressive mill demand, and the confused Washington situation prompted liquidation.

France entered the market for more American cotton and there were reports that arrangements for the longer term Japanese cotton buying program would be completed soon.

Late afternoon prices were 35 to 55 cents a bale lower than the previous close. March 35.31, May 35.25, July 34.30.

Cotton closed very steady.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 8 (AP)—Cash corn rang up a new record high on the board of trade today, but quotations on grain futures were lower most of the day.

A car of No. 1 yellow corn sold in the cash market at $2.77 a bushel, a record price for yellow corn in this market. However, cash prices slumped late in the session.

The May oats futures made a new seasonal peak and March oats, which is lightly traded, went to an all-time record for any oats contract.

The record high for March oats was $1.30 1/8 while the seasonal peak for the May delivery was $1.23 1/8.

Wheat closed 1/2-1 1/2 higher, May $2.95-2.95 1/2, corn was 1/4 - 3/4 higher, May $2.57 1/4-1 1/8 higher, May $1.23-1.23 1/8.

Midland Man Named AIME Section Head

MIDLAND, Jan. 8. (UP)—Burton Atkinson of the Humble Oil and Refining Co., Midland, was elected chairman of the Permian Basin section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers at a meeting here last night.

Officers named were Joe (Buck) Miller of the Texas Co., Midland, vice chairman and Harvin L. Landau, of the Humble Co., at Odessa, was elected secretary-treasurer. E. B. Armstrong of the Honolulu Oil Co., Midland, is the retiring chairman.

Clyde E. Williams, national president of the AIME, was the principal speaker. He discussed industrial research, emphasizing the importance of engineers and technically trained men in the future.

"Research is a new tool," he said, pointing to government research now under way as contributing to "basic knowledge" which will lead to commercial applications in the future. Williams is director of the Battelle Memorial institute of Columbus, O.

Spring Fashions

the accepted accompaniment to dress-up fashions.

Women have won one point in their fight against completely French styles—practically all designers have retained shoulder pads. These are modified or rounded, but they still are present.

Few hip pads are evident in daytime styles for spring. The rounded hipline is achieved in other, more subtle ways, by skillful cut or flaring peplum and seldom by the bunchy drapery that was evident in the first experiments with the "New Look."

Center of attention is the waistline, which means the entire midriff section, accented by skin-tight cummerbunds, wide belts or corselet effects, all requiring minimum proportions.

Brief messages from the American planes said the Dvina was "wallowing dangerously in a heavy sea" with a list of 45 degrees. The ship's engine was knocked out and it was reported taking on water rapidly.

Raging seas prevented the first two vessels from taking off the Dvina's passengers immediately, aerial messages said. It was believed they were awaiting more help from other vessels before attempting the dangerous transfer.

the threat of another depression."

Republican reaction on this score was reflected generally in the comment of Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) of the House banking committee, that "Mr. Truman wants to turn this country into a police state."

Wolcott agreed, however, that rent control, expiring at the end of next month, will have to be extended.

The President asked not only for extension but strengthening of rent controls.

Hobbs Hospital Bond Issue Is Purchased

HOBBS, N. M., Jan. 8 (UP)—Construction of a 75-bed hospital here was assured today with the announcement that a Chicago firm has purchased Lea county's $750,000 hospital bond issue.

The successful bidder was the John Nuveen Co. and associates which submitted a 3 per cent per annum interest offer.

Light Showers Fall In Texas

(By The United Press)

Clouds which hovered over most of the east half of Texas today were not expected to bring great amounts of precipitation, the U. S. weather bureau reported, although some light showers were reported early today.

Galveston reported .15 of an inch rain, Beaumont .04 and Houston .02, while other points received light drizzles.

Fog extended into the Central Plains area in the vicinities of Abilene and Big Spring.

Clouds Will Lift

The clouds were expected to begin lifting slowly sometime during the afternoon.

Exceedingly mild weather was reported from all of Texas, with Brownsville reporting what weather bureau officials believed to be the highest temperature reading in the nation yesterday when the mercury reached 81 degrees in that South Texas city.

Coolest maximum in the state yesterday was 55 degrees at Texarkana.

Minimum early today ranged from 29 at Wink to 60 at Brownsville. Only sub-freezing temperatures were in the Guadalupe mountains of Southwest Texas.

Hearing On Habeas Corpus Is Changed

CROSBYTON, Jan. 8 (Special)—W. Fred Jones, 37, must bring his habeas corpus action for release from custody under bail in Floyd county, where he was indicted for murder, it was ruled this morning in Judge Dan Blair's 72nd district court of Crosby county.

Jones' hearing was conducted on an application saying he was illegally held in restraint of his liberty by Sheriff L. E. Haynes of Crosby county. He pleaded that the state, in a Hale county trial that resulted in the death penalty for the Sept. 27, 1946, slaying in Floydada of H. C. Love, jr., 23, had failed to show "express malice." Therefore, he maintained, his case is bailable.

The assessment was reversed and remanded by the court of criminal appeals.

Venue remains in Crosby county, where it was transferred after the case was remanded, and Judge Blair set trial date of March 29.

Judge Alton B. Chapman of the 110th judicial district will set a date for a habeas corpus hearing on the application for bond, it was understood after the application was dismissed here. Additional papers were drawn and served here this morning, court officials said.

Nine Dead In Plane Crash Near Algiers

ALGIERS, Jan. 8 (UP)—Nine persons, including two children, were killed today when a transport plane crashed and burned near Algiers.

The plane left Algiers at 7 a. m., bound for Biskra, 173 miles to the southeast, and Philippeville, east of here. Witness at Maison Blanshe airport said there was trouble with one of the engines on the takeoff.

Seven passengers and two crewmen were reported burned to death when the transport crashed into a hilside.

In Moscow, Dr. Berven said today he had no comment on the case he came to Moscow to treat, and would have none.

Republican Slogan For 1948 Chosen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP) — The Republican party came up with a 1948 slogan today:

In 1946 it was, "Had Enough?"

The new slogan appeared in the January issue of the Republican News, national committee organ. It was printed at the bottom of a three-column wide article entitled "Second Truman Doctrine—Inflation!"

Bands Of Jewish And Arab Snipers Active

JERUSALEM, Jan. 8 (UP)—Sizeable bands of Arab and Jewish snipers traded brisk rifle fire for more than an hour today in the Montfiore quarter near the old city walls, with some of their bullets zipping over nearby British military headquarters.

Two Jews were killed and a number of persons wounded in new flareups in Palestine. Mahmoud Husseini, 25, cousin and closest living relative of the mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin El Husseini, was shot to death in Jerusalem. Arab sources said his bodyguard fired his weapon accidentally.

Arab snipers entrenched on Mount Zion and behind the old city walls opened fire on the Montefiore quarter, 100 yards distant and only 50 yards from army headquarters in the King David hotel.

Ewe Shipment Sets Near Record Price

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 8.—An outstanding shipment of Texas ewes set a near record price on the Kansas City livestock market Wednesday when they were sold for $12 per hundred. The ewes belonged to Wesley Webb of Abernathy, Texas.

The price was the highest paid on the market here, with the exception of the day price controls were lifted when ewes brought $12.25 per hundred.

The 170 head shipped in by Webb averaged 107 pounds each and were sold to a buyer for an eastern packing concern.

Official Turns Down Rent Boost Requests

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (UP) — Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods today rejected a recommended 15 per cent boost in the St. Louis area and a 10 per cent boost in the Danville, Va., area.

Local rent advisory boards in the two areas based their recommendations for rent boosts on increased operating costs and increases in taxes.

Woods said, in disapproving the recommendations, that they had submitted no evidence comparing current operating costs and taxes of landlords generally to those of past years.

Anti-Inflation Tax Goes Into Effect

PARIS, Jan. 8 (UP) — Premier Robert Schuman's drastic $1,050,000,000 (B) soak-the-rich anti-inflation tax program became law today when it was published in the official journal.

For businessmen and shopkeepers the tax will be from 20 to 50 per cent of their excess profits. For farmers it will be 50 to 60 per cent and for professional men it will be 25 per cent.

Jap Paper Tells Of Emperor's Dexterity

TOKYO, Jan. 8 (AP)—The Nippon Times, in a feature story reporting Emperor Hirohito's efforts to "humanize" himself, said today among other things:

". . . It is not everybody who can take a fan between his toes and fan himself. Not only can Emperor Hirohito perform this stunt, but he is able to do so while swimming. He can also swim in the rain holding an open umbrella in one hand."

$15,000 Damage In Fort Worth Blaze

FORT WORTH, Jan. 8. (UP)—Marvin Browder of the Browder Oil Co. today estimated damage at $15,000 in the two-alarm fire that swept through the company's warehouse yesterday.

The loss in oil and storage equipment was approximately $10,000, and damage to the building was $5,000, Browder said.

Stassen Will Arrive In Lubbock Jan. 18

Harold E. Stassen, probably the Republican party's strongest avowed candidate for the presidency, has changed his itiniery so as to arrive in Lubbock the evening of Jan. 18, rather than the morning of the 19th, it was learned here this afternoon.

M. D. Temple, president of Lubbock County Republican club, said he had received a phone call from W. C. Briggs, district GOP committeeman and member of the state GOP executive board, of Paducah, saying that former Minnesota Gov. Stassen, had telephoned him to advise of the change.

Stassen asked that 10 rooms be reserved for his party the night of the 18th. He will remain here until 1:30 p. m. on the 19th, speaking at Texas Tech's gymnasium at 11 a. m. on Jan. 19. A formal invitational breakfast will be given for him that morning.

Original plans were for his arrival at 11 a. m. on the 19th, Temple said. The candidate will come here from Albuquerque, N. M.

Saucer Hunt Leads To Pilot's Death

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 8 (AP)—The Kentucky National guard headquarters revealed here today that Capt. Thomas F Mantell, jr., 25, was killed in a plane explosion near Franklin, Ky., yesterday while chasing what was believed to be a "flying saucer."

Mantell was one of three Kentucky National guard officers sent to investigate a reported "flying saucer" in the air near Fort Knox. The object also was reported visible at Hopkinsville, Ky., Nashville, Tenn., and other points in the two states.

Mantell was flying a P-51 National guard plane which witnesses said apparently exploded in the air and crashed near Franklin.

Gen. Lucius Clay Faces Tremendous Task

result in an airplane accident and death or injury to one of the most useful and important of present-day Americans.

Happily, there was no accident. But when a man in General Clay's position did what he did to make that last conference, it spells this:

He's doing everything he can to do his job.

* * *

GENERAL CLAY is not the typical Army officer. He definitely is no the battle commnader, the field general, the red-faced, hell-for-leather, blast-'em-outa-the-foxholes sort of general.

Sharp featured, in his early fifties, he has little gray in his dark hair and he wouldn't weigh 155 pounds, dripping wet.

A West Point engineer, Lucius Clay is the quiet, exact and exacting type of man most engineers are—in or out of the Army. He is an excellent executive, which is probably one reason you never saw any wartime pictures of him astraddle of a tank, an Army automatic in each hand, shouting "Nuts!" or "Phooey" to the enemy on the ridge.

I don't think I ever met and listened to a man, in either civilian or military life, who was more impressive than General Clay. And I saw him perform under fire of questions from several men who are experts in the field of foreign affairs.

"Chuck" Gratke, foreign editor of the Christian Science Monitor; Marty Sommers, foreign editor of the Saturday Evening Post; Barry Bingham, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times who has been steeped in foreign affairs since his late youth during which his father was ambassador to London, all know Europe, and Germany, as they know the palms of their hands. All, along with Ralph McGill, of the Atlanta Constitution, and Phil Parrish, of the Portland Oregonian, have been in Germany several times since the war. Yet General Clay met their questions with quick and complete answers, without ducking, or quibbling.

* * *

"Keep The Army On The Job!"

The Army, doubtless for reasons of appropriations, is anxious to turn most, if not all, of the job of rebuilding German over to civilians.

This trend undoubtedly is accentuated by insistence upon the part of anti-militarists in the U. S. that military government is incompatible with complete democracy. The hue and cry these people set up for civilian control in Germany is certain to have some effect in some quarters.

In my opinion, however, it will be a mistake if the job in Germany is taken away from the military and given over to civilian direction, at least any time soon.

General Clay and his advisors in the military are doing a tremendous and intricate job as well as it can be done, it seems to me. And it is a matter of common knowledge that until the German mind is re-educated, the Germans will continue to give more respect to the military than to civilians, because they have been trained in that way to thinking for many generations.

* * *

I ONLY WISH General Clay could come to the States and have the same sort of open meeting with members of the House and Senate that he had with our group. I wish, in that event, that members of the Congress would pay the same sort of attention to what he says as members of our party did.

General Clay's theme ought to make sense to all Americans and does make sense to those who have viewed the German problem firsthand, Said he:

"Let us attack this job in the belief that we shall stay in Germany for 50 years, if necessary. If we attack it in that light, we might get the whole business cleaned up in five years!"

TOMORROW: Pvt. Doakes is a good soldier in Germany. Tomorrow Mr. Guy will tell of his experiences with our troops, in the barracks, sharing their mess and mixing casually with them on the streets of German cities.

Death Valley Scotty's "Gold Mine" Dead

Millionaire Who Gave Aged Miner Money Is Death Victim

By PATRICIA CLARY
United Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—Death Valley Scotty's secret "gold mine" was dead today.

He was Albert M. Johnson, 75, Chicago millionaire, who admitted 10 years ago he was the source of the money the grizzled miner had been throwing around since 1905.

Scotty—Walter Scott—always said the money came from a hidden gold mine in Death Valley. It wasn't until 1937 that he admitted under oath the Johnson had been giving him the money purely because he got a kick out of watching Scotty spend it.

Repaid In Laughs

Johnson died at a hospital yesterday after a brief illness. Services will be held Saturday at Forest Lawn, and he will be buried at Oberlin, O.

"Scotty paid me back in laughs," Johnson always said, "for every cent I ever gave him."

The retired president of the National Life Insurance Co. said he started giving Scotty money in 1902 when Scotty persuaded him to come to the desert for his health. He remained in the back of Scotty's life, laughing to himself as legends snowballed about his hidden gold mines and unbelievable wealth.

Scotty Liked Money

"We have been partners," he said. "Scotty has a great appetite for money, and I like to give it to him."

Johnson financed Scotty's $3,000,000 Spanish-Moorish castle in barren Death Valley and gave him at least $500,000. Scotty poured that out from coin-filled kegs.

Scotty bought railroad tickets with rolls of yellow-backed currency, tipped bellboys $20, hired a special train for a record-breaking cross-country run, scattered golden coins over the streets of Chicago, and bought a 225-horsepower car and a $50,000 pipe organ.

"I've got a million dollar hole in the ground," he told everybody who wondered where the flood of gold came from.

Scotty Confesses

"I reckon I've spent $8,000,000, but I've still got a good-sized bankroll left. Everytime I need a little money, I just grind up some more rock."

The golden fountain's source was uncovered when Scotty's wife sued him for alimony. He said he didn't have a dime.

"Have you ever owned a mine?" he was asked.

"Nope," he said.

"Did you ever sell any gold?"

"Nope."

"If he has a gold mine," Johnson said, "I'm it."

Scotty still lives in a cabin near the $3,000,000 castle Johnson built for him. There was no indication whether he planned to attend the funeral.

Trieste Strike Not Effective

TRIESTE, Jan. 8 (U.P.) — Communist controlled labor unions ordered a general strike today but by mid-morning only about 10,000 of the city's 40,000 workers had joined the walkout.

The walkout was called by the pro-Yugoslav Sindicati Unici to protest the arrest of 29 pro-Communist partisans Sunday during a parade in a Trieste suburb.

The partisans were brought to trial before an Allied military court this morning after notices of the strike appeared in morning newspapers. They were released on bail immediately.

Many Ignore Call

Many workers ignored the strike call after being assured of police protection. These included street car and bus employes.

Up until noon the chamber of labor, the anti-Communist pro-Italian labor council, declined to join in the strike call. The Communist union organization controls about 25,000 workers and the chamber of labor controls about 15,000.

The strike was completely effective only in the small shipbuilding suburb of Muggia, where 2,000 walked out. The strike call did not set any duration limit but it is not expected to last more than a day.

The official name of Albania is Shqiperia.

Agreed Settlement Approved By Court

Judge G. V. Pardue of 99th district court has approved an agreed settlement whereby $3,500 in damages will be paid into the registry of the court for plaintiffs in the action of Gerald Parsons and others against Barnet Raskin.

Plaintiffs, Gerald and Harold Parsons, minors, acting by and through Lester Parson, as next friend, and individually, brought the suit. They live at Lamesa. The defendant Barnet Raskin lives in South Fallsburg, N. Y.

Plaintiffs said in their petition the minors were injured March 25 when their motorcycle and a car driven by Raskin were in collision near Winslow, Ariz. Lester Parsons, their father, asked $2,500 in damages for alleged deprivation of the minors' services, the minors $500 each. That allocation was approved by the court.

Classified as a "friendly suit," the plaintiffs' petition was filed by the law firm of Carr and Carr. Answer of defendant was by the firm of Croslin and Pharr. Ralph Brock appeared for the minors as guardian ad litem.

PLENTY OF RED TAPE

SHANGHAI, Jan. 8. (U.P.)—Applicants for drivers' licenses today were informed they must summit 14 photographs and fill out a three-page questionnaire but need not take a driving test.

The pole in "polecat" comes from the French word "poule," meaning pullet, or chicken.

Juvenile Offenders Continuing To Trouble Lubbock Officials

The spotlight of investigation continued to be played this morning on juvenile offenders, law enforcement agencies said.

Capt. Pat Davidson of the police detective bureau said officials there had received a telegram from B. Bruce, chief of Colorado Springs, Colo., police, saying two Lubbock boys, 15 and 17, were being detained there as runaways, and that they had admitted writing spurious checks here—some of which, they said, had been forged.

Talk With Parents

Colorado Springs police asked what disposition should be made in the case. Capt. Davidson said he would talk the case over with parents, then advise Chief Bruce. Juvenile officials were expected to be asked to enter the investigation.

The younger boy, Capt. Davidson said, only a few weeks ago had been returned from Colorado, where he had gone without leave in his father's car. The parent went to Colorado to accept custody of his son and the car.

Checks Still Missing

In the meantime, it was announced that approximately $55,000 in paid and bank-endorsed non-negotiable checks had not been found by city, county, juvenile and federal officials who had cooperated to locate in various hiding places the remainder of $494,282 in such checks which had been stolen from a mail sack Monday night in the lobby of Lubbock National building.

Six boys, ranging in age from about 10 to 14 years, were implicated, officials said. Six thick manila envelopes addressed to other banking institutions of several states were stolen, allegedly divided among the boys, or some of them, and hidden in alleys, drain pipes and elsewhere.

Confession Is Made

One of the boys, 11, attempted to cash two of the checks, resulting in his arrest Tuesday. He confessed his role Wednesday, officials said, and implicated the others.

A 10-year-boy, one of those implicated, informed one of the investigators he had "told all I know. I go to the movies and you're about to fix it where I won't see one of the continued episodes. So I don't talk any more, see?"

Officials said the 11-year-old "has a habit of staying away from home plenty of nights. One night recently he spent in the lobby of a small hotel here. He was observed, with some of his friends, trying to get in a railway express car Monday afternoon."

Trouble For Bank

Lubbock National bank, which had paid the checks, probably will have to stop payment on all checks taken and have duplicate checks issued, or obtain authority for drawing drafts to replace them, officials said they understood. That would entail a great amount of bookkeeping and other extra work.

Four of the boys had been talked with, parents of all had discussed the matter with police. All parents were "cooperative."

Theft of a new tire valued at $17.44 was reported to police by S. M. Cunningham of 902 Ave. H.

A quantity of jewelry was received Wednesday afternoon at the sheriff's office after it had been taken from a Marine deserter and a juvenile who were recently convicted of Dyer act violation and imprisoned at Durango, Colo.

The two told authorities they took the jewelry in a burglary five miles south and six west of Lorenzo. Included were three bracelets, three rings, one a wedding band, a watch without strap and a locket. A camera supposedly taken in the same burglary was still in Durango.

The sheriff's department was attempting to find the owner.

Funeral Rites Today For Joe B. Birdwell

LEVELLAND, Jan. 8 (Special)—Funeral services were to be conducted in San Augustine today for Joe B. Birdwell, 30, oil field worker who was killed instantly at 5:35 o'clock Wednesday morning on a well location one-half mile north of Levelland.

Plains Funeral home of Levelland, announced the body of Mr. Birdwell had been taken to San Augustine.

Birdwell, working on Parker's Drilling rig half a mile north of the Hockley county courthouse, was crushed by a heavy block falling from near the top of the derrick. The entire crew was "on the floor" at the time, it was said.

Justice of Peace A. F. Odell visited the scene and returned a verdict of accidental death by traumatism due to crushing.

Birdwell had been in Levelland about six months. He is survived by his wife, who was in Levelland, his mother, Mrs. P. H. Birdwell of San Augustine, three brothers, Bob, of Woodville, S. H. of Beaumont, and Murry of San Augustine; five sisters, Mrs. E. V. Dixon, of Levelland, Mrs. H. E. Bylie and Mrs. Grady Mills, both of San Augustine, and Misses Delina and Katherine Birdwell of Houston.

The vast majority of deaths from tuberculosis among white, male Americans are among men aged 35 to 64.

S(T)UN SUIT—Shirley Modell sports a new hair-do at Miami Beach, Fla., called the brow cluster which features a cluster of ringlets at the left side of the head. If you have time, you might also glance at her French-style, zebra-striped bathing suit, which is also new.

36,000 Are Added To Electric Co-Op List

AUSTIN, Jan. 8 (AP)—Addition of 36,000 farm and ranch families to Texas' 76 rural electric co-ops during 1947 was announced today by the Texas Power Reserve, Inc.

This brings the total number of rural consumers served by electric co-ops to 182,000, with approximately 170,000 farm families still without electricity.

Named In Complaint

Dorman E. Shaw, held in Tulsa, Okla., allegedly on a charge of car theft at Muskogee, Okla., was named in a felony complaint filed Wednesday afternoon in the justice court of D. W. Robertson of Lubbock.

It charges burglary Dec. 31 of an office under control of J. M. Bass, and was sworn to by Dep Sheriff Earl Horton.

Taken in the burglary were title papers to cars, and one of the titles allegedly was presented when Shaw was accused of having tried to sell the Muskogee car, it was said here.

Sheriff Grady Harrist, in telephone conversations with Oklahoma officials, asked custody of the defendant, but was informed Oklahoma wants to try him first.

However, the charge filed here was certified by Robertson, which could be a prerequisite to filing in Oklahoma of a fugitive warrant, Harrist explained, adding that the defendant would be asked for eventually, after Oklahoma authorities have finished with him.

Rites Set Sunday

SLATON, Nov. 8 (Special)—Funeral services for Mrs. E. R. Legge, 52, of Slaton, who was killed instantly late Tuesday afternoon when the car in which and her husband were occupants was struck by a train at McAllen, will be conducted in Slaton First Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

Burial will follow in Slaton cemetery, under direction of Williams Funeral home.

Time of services is to be announced later.

Students Study Plan To Lift Racial Ban

NORMAN, Okla., Jan. 8 (AP) — Administrators of the University of Oklahoma today debated a student senate resolution asking that negro athletes at other Big Six conference schools be allowed to play against Sooner teams.

The measure was passed yesterday by the senate, 18-9.

Student representaives from all Big Six schools except Oklahoma recommended in December that negroes on conference teams be permitted to play any other team.

Oklahoma and Missouri have state laws segregating whites and negroes in public schools, and it has been a custom in the conference to oppose the two universities with all-white teams.

Pan-Am Strike Is Continued

HOUSTON, Jan. 8 (AP) — The Houston Post said last night that the strike of 1,640 CIO oil workers at the Texas City Pan American refinery is "the opening wedge in a campaign for an industry wide pay boost."

The strike of 1,400 refinery workers began its second week today and that of 240 pipeline workers went into its fifth day.

The Post said that observers believed no settlement was likely in the Pan-American refinery strike until after a meeting of the Oil Workers International union's wage policy committee in Fort Worth on Feb. 9, at which time the Union National Wage policy toward third round postwar wage boost is expected.

Company Makes Offer

At Texas City, the company has offered the union a 31½ cents hourly raise, while the union is asking 50 cents.

On another Houston strike front, the "continuous meeting" of Houston AFL plumbers went into the ninth day today. Yesterday's meeting was recessed until 9 a. m. Friday.

The plumbers are asking a wage boost of $2 to $19 for an eight-hour day. They rejected an employers offer of $18 daily, time and a half for work over eight hours, and double time for all work on Sundays and holidays.

Many Never Suspect Cause of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

U. S. Expert Predicts Defeat For Greek Rebels

ATHENS, Jan. 8. (U.P.)—Lt. Gen. William Livesay, chief military attache of the American aid mission to Greece, predicted today that a strongly reinforced Greek army with American guns and American advisers should crush guerrilla activities by late spring or early summer.

Livesay arrived by plane from Washington last night to begin immediate conferences with government officials on plans to increase the national guard to 50,000 men and free the army for their spring offensive.

More Officers Leaving

"I see no reason why they cannot clean up this situation by late spring or early summer," he said.

He disclosed that 20 more American officers are leaving Washington today aboard a special plane and will be sent directly into the field after a week of orientation in Athens.

The first 20 officers to arrive will be stationed with Greek army and corps staffs in the field. Others to arrive soon will be attached to Greek divisions.

Direct Communications

Once the Americans are in the field, Livesay said, he would have direct communications from Athens to all Greek divisions now battling the Communists in scattered parts of central, northern and northeastern Greece.

"I expect to keep them here one week and then send them right out," he said.

He made it plain that the American officers will be assigned to give operational advice to the Greek forces.

Livesay also disclosed that the Greek army already has been bolstered with $96,000,000 worth of American army equipment which has arrived thus far and that more is expected.

Expert In Mountains

Livesay, commander of the U. S. 91st infantry division fighting with the 5th Army in Italy during the war, is an expert on the mountain warfare now going on in Greece. He has been selected to help the government build up its forces for the spring attack.

Latest reports from the Albanian border area said that guerrillas in the strife-torn Konitsa area were continuing their retreat to the north and avoiding battle with their army pursuers.

Front line reports said guerrilla artillery which has been shelling army forces from within Albania now has been withdrawn some distance from the frontier.

Batteries Knocked Out

Military reports said the Greek air force had knocked out two batteries on Greek soil, one in the village of Nikanoras, 3 1-2 miles north of Konitsa, and the other near Kaloriisi, seven miles northwest of Konitsa.

Heavy vehicles were able to cross the temporary bridge at Bourazani today and engineers constructed two more bridges across the Aoos river at Mameikon and Senovon, six miles west of Konitsa. Telephone communication with Konitsa was restored.

Town Without A Toothache Has A Booster

Byrle Elliston Spends A Lot Of Time Telling About Texas

BY BOB WEDDLE
United Press Staff Writer

Out in Hereford, the town without a toothache, lives a man named Byrle Elliston, who might be called Texas' No. 1 booster.

A realtor by trade, Elliston devotes his full time to promoting Texas in general and Deaf Smith county (pronounced to rhyme with beef) in particular.

History On Film

He can tell you about the marvelous resources of all of Texas in the same breath with a story about what makes Deaf Smith county one of the most healthful spots in the world and, why the people there almost never have trouble with their teeth.

Elliston, the son of a trail driver and himself a pioneer cattleman, has compiled a motion picture series on the wonders of the Hereford region — the bountiful harvests, and the healthy, happy people, with a few special scenes thrown in of natives undergoing dental examinations to show their even rows of gleaming white teeth.

He stopped long enough on his way to Austin, where he will show the picture to Governor Beauford H. Jester, who appears in a few scenes, to show us the picture in Dallas.

When he gets to Austin, he will join Dr. Edward Taylor, director of dental health for the State Health board, for a tour of the Eastern states and a portion of Canada.

Dr. Taylor will lecture before dental and medical societies and civic clubs on the conditions which make Hereford residents' teeth so healthy. Elliston will show his film before those groups and will attempt to interest capitalists and agriculturists in coming to Hereford to further develop the region's possibilities.

Decay Preventative

He wants to bring 2,000 more families to Deaf Smith county before the end of the year, and he hopes to bring a sugar beet plant to handle the produce from 10,000 acres of sugar beets grown there each year.

Hereford, a town of about 5,000 population, is the crest of a region comprising three counties — Deaf Smith, Parmer and Castro — which is inexplicably endowed with minerals needed for a balanced diet and to prevent tooth decay.

Residents get the beneficial minerals from the numerous varieties of vegetables grown there, from beef and milk of cattle which feed on the grass and from water which comes out of the ground.

The geologists say the minerals were deposited there by a dust storm millions of years ago, and that a glacier came along at just the right time to seal and preserve them.

There's nobody who can tell you about it like Byrle Elliston, who at 62 still makes out very nicely with his natural teeth. "There's a world of opportunity in Deaf Smith county," he says, "and everybody can see it but people right out there in our own territory."

Potato Promoter

At one time he even got himself arrested in order to promote Irish potatoes grown in Deaf Smith county over those imported from Idaho.

Now he envisions stepping up production in the area so that people in other parts of the country who need the health-giving mineralized vegetables can have them. He hopes for — and is working toward — canneries and freezing facilities to preserve the foods to that end.

"But I know," he says, "that if East Texas doesn't develop, West Texas won't. So I'm for the whole damn state. We will go up together as a state, or we will go down together."

RITES SCHEDULED

WACO, Jan. 8 (AP)—Funeral services were to be held here today for Dr. Wallace Wilcox, 85, practicing physician in the Waco area for more than 50 years. He died yesterday.

JOHN HALSEY'S CUT RATE DRUG

Demos Have $315,367 In Their War Chest; GOP Total $28,575

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP) — Democratic headquarters is heading into the presidential campaign with $315,367 in the war chest. Republicans report they came through 1947 with contributions of $28,575 above expenses.

The figures, which showed up today in reports filed with the Clerk of the House, are not strictly comparable.

Required By Law

The law requires political organizations to tell Congress about the contributions they receive and the money they pay out. The Republican National committee did just that, whereas the Democrats supplied some extra information.

The Democratic financial statement showed the committee stated 1947 with $141,488 in the bank, took in contributions totalling $656,903 had "other receipts" of $244,767 and paid out $727,791.

The Democrats said they also had $23,346 in unpaid bills on Dec. 31, and $85,000 in loans receivable from three State Democratic committees.

The Republicans reported contributions of $733,849 in 1947 and payments of $705,274. They said nothing about the bank balance at the start or close of the year, or about unpaid bills or loans receivable, if any.

GOP Adds To Total

GOP supporters came through with $480,200 in the last four months of the year, compared with only $60,317 in contributions but $203,014 in other receipts for the Democrats in the same period.

Individual contributions for the first eight months of 1947 were reported previously by both parties. The new reports for the last four months showed the Republicans received heavy financial backing from various state committees as well as contributions from the pews of Philadelphia, the DuPonts of Wilmington and the Rockefellers of New York.

Big Contributors

But no single Republican gave as much as the $5,000 each the Democrats reported from James D. Hedges, Havana, Cuba, Paul Moss of Odessa, and Allen E. Atherton of Kansas City.

On the Republican list for $3,000 each were: Mrs. Edith H. Timken, Canton, Ohio; J. J. Pew, Jr., J. Howard Pew, Miss Mary Ether Pew and Mrs. Mabel Pew Myrin, all of Philadelphia; T. Dwight Partridge, Tucson, Ariz.; and Ernest T. Weir, Pittsburgh.

And in the $2,500 class for the GOP were: John D. Rockefeller, Jr., New York; Zeke L. Harmon, Dallas; and E. W. Brown, Jr., Orange, Tex. Donating $2,000 were Irene DuPont of Wilmington, Mrs. Eleanor F. Rust, Wilmington; Mrs. Octavia M. DuPont Bredin, Wilmington; Margaret L. Greenwalt, Wilmington, and Mrs. Lucille E. D. Flint, Greenville, Del.

Contributions of $1,000 to the GOP cause included: L. H. Lockhart, San Antonio; John R. Black, Dallas; E. Degolyer, Dallas; W. P. Luse, Dallas; W. L. Pickens, Dallas; Jay Simmons, Dallas; Joseph E. Broussard, Beaumont; Dee Davenport, San Antonio; J. H. Frost, San Antonio, and Edgar Pfeil, Kerrville, Texas.

Discussion Staged

A Scout masters' round-table discussion was held last night at Asbury Methodist church for the purpose of talking over Boy Scout affairs in the Plainsman district, Gene Quest, district Boy Scout commissioner, reported.

Major subjects for discussion during the evening were plans for the observance of National Scout Week in Lubbock, scheduled for Feb. 6 through Feb. 12.

During Scout Week, Boy Scout troops of this district will be guests of various Lubbock civic clubs. Scouts in uniform will also be recognized in their individual churches during Sunday services that week. Other plans to be worked out for the week consist of a union church service, first aid demonstrations, Indian war dances and other scout projects, Quest said.

Present for the round-table discussion were Quest, district scout executive Pat Lewis, Herb Teal, district camping and activities chairman, Fred Widmoyer, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 5, and the following scoutmasters Bill Sesser, Troop 2; Sam Henry, Troop 3; Monte Lee, Troop 6; George Holman, Troop 7; Frank Runkles, Troop 8; Dewey Flannigan, Troop 10; and Claude Brown, Troop 103.

It is estimated the average person has two colds a year.

Officers Installed By 20-30 Members

In their first regular meeting of the New Year, Lubbock 20-30 club members gathered last night at Lubbock hotel for a dinner and installation of new officers for the first six months of 1948.

Bill Raymond, retiring president, officially installed the new officers and directors of the club, turning the meeting over to Raymond D. Mack, new president, immediately after his installation.

Announcement was made of the 20-30 club mid-winter district convention to be held at Monahans on January 10 and 11. A delegate and alternate delegate to represent the Lubbock club at the convention were elected by the members present. Charles Nelson was named as delegate and Bill Raymond was designated as alternate. Several other Lubbock 20-30 members plan to attend.

Service Project Planned

It was also announced that the Big Spring 20-30 club charter night, originally scheduled for Jan. 10, would be postponed until Feb. 7 because of conflict with the district convention.

A public service project, a "Pay Your Poll Tax" drive, was introduced by President Mack and was approved by a vote of the club. Mack named a committee to work out details of the drive. Appointed to the committee were Jack Robinson, Bob Rhodes, Dick Feiden, Roy Cannon and Charles Stone.

A proposal to name the first meeting of each month as Business Night was submitted to a vote and passed by a large majority. The arrangement was planned to allow more club meetings each month for strictly social gatherings.

Clubs To Hold Installations

American Business club and the ABC Dames, the women's auxiliary of the organization, will install officers and boards of governors at an 8 o'clock dinner program Friday night at the Supper club.

A. B. Watkins, credit manager of a Lubbock department store, will be installed as president of the ABC, Mrs. Hugh Anderson of the ABC Dames.

Others To Be Installed

Other ABC officers to be installed will be Bob Rose, first vice president; Bill Pittman, second vice president; W. D. McCarty, secretary-treasurer; and Ed Hambright, sergeant-at-arms.

Other ABC Dames officers to be installed will be Mrs. Briggs Irvin, first vice president; Mrs. J. D. Hinson, second vice president; Mrs. Grady Harrist, secretary; and Mrs. John Wilson, treasurer.

The ABC board of governors is composed of G. H. Nelson, O. B. Ratliff, Leland Payne, and an ex-officio member, Alton Taylor, retiring president.

Board of governors of the ABC Dames is composed of Mrs Bill Pittman, Mrs. Ratliff, Mrs. Gordon Thompson, and an ex-officio member, Mrs. Taylor.

H. B. Bryan will be installing officer for the men's club, Oliver Thomas for the women's auxiliary. Hugh Anderson will be master of ceremonies. George Dale is chairman of the arrangements committee.

Unions Withdraw As American Labor Party Endorses Wallace

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP) — The New York State American Labor party today plumped for Henry A. Wallace for president but the endorsement caused several big unions to quit the party.

The party split attracted attention from political observers who felt it might have an important bearing on the disposition of New York state's 47 electoral votes in the 1948 presidential campaign.

The walkout from the ALP was led by the CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers. It also included the CIO United Automobile Workers, the CIO United Steel Workers, the AFL Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, and others. The Amalgamated alone places its membership in the state at 135,000.

Voted Heavy For FDR

The split made it problematical how many votes the ALP, which functions only in this state, could deliver in the 1948 election.

The party rolled up 496,405 votes for President Franklin D. Roosevelt four years ago.

Hyman Blumberg, state ALP chairman and executive vice president of the Amalgamated, resigned as the top party executive, declaring "a third party in 1948 must inevitably play into the hands of labor's enemies."

Blumberg said the Amalgamated supported national policies of the CIO and the CIO's Political Action committee on a third party. The PAC has gone on record against a third party candidacy.

Campaign Is Planned

An ALP spokesman pointed out that the party's endorsemnet of Wallace would let the former vice president run as the choice of a legal party in New York State, without the necessity of seeking to get on the ballot by petition.

Arthur Schutzer, ALP executive secretary, said the party would launch a "state-wide drive to roll up a record vote for Henry A. Wallace."

Rep. Vito Marcantonio was elected interim chairman of the ALP's state executive committee to succeed Blumberg.

The unions whose representatives on the executive committee approved the Wallace endorsement included: CIO United Electrical Workers, the CIO Transport Workers Union, the AFL Chefs, Cooks and Pastry Workers union, the CIO Fur and Lesther Workers International union, the CIO Amalgamated Lithographers union, and the CIO United Office and Professional Workers union.

Restrictions On Gas Exports Requested

DALLAS, Jan. 8 (AP) — Gov. Beauford H. Jester has today a request from State Senator Fred (Red) Harris of Dallas that butane and propone gas producers be asked to restrict exports until Texas consumers are adequately supplied through January, February and March.

Last Saturday Harris asked for a Senate investigation of the Texas shortage of butane.

Earlier this week the Texas Butane Dealers association asked the Railroad commission to "use its persuasive powers to relieve the situation." The association said the shortage was caused by producers shipping liquefied petroleum gas out of the state this year in unprecedented quantities.

MULES SENT TO MEXICO

LAREDO, Jan. 8 (AP)—Eleven carloads of Texas mules are en route to San Luis Potosi, Mexico, today where they will be sold to farmers to replace oxen killed in the foot and mouth disease campaign.

The 300 animals cleared through here yesterday.

South Texas Weekly To Become A Daily

HOUSTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—Effective Jan. 15, the Pasadena Weekly Times will become a daily morning newspaper, publishing six days a week with no edition on Saturdays.

R. E. Smith, president of the Seaport Publishing company, said yesterday the Times would serve an area that includes Pasadena, LaPorte, South Houston, Deer Park, and the Spencer highway communities. These towns are generally considered a part of metropolitan Houston.

Prices are still high, and those too-many new cafeterias are flopping. (Cafeterias are for "poor people," anyhow) . . . "R. R." still uses only $1,000 bills (no 500s or chicken feed like "C" notes for him) at the craps games, and Mr. and Mrs. Schmoap would rather gamble than shop on Lincoln Rd. . . . No money? They use it for gambling, instead of lavish tips, etc . . . And what about that terrific stud poker game, where they wagered 5 Gs on the last card the other night? And there was a $100,000 pot . . . No money? The expensive Beach hotels are jammed to the gills . . . If you haven't got a lotta money (to get careless with), stay home and freeze . . . The old Miami Beach-Miami feud has broken out again. John Montgomery's beachy paper now designates Miami as "West Miami Beach."

NEW York Novelette: It happened at Dinty Moore's, the famed midtown corned-beef-and-cabbage restaurant . . . A N. Y. Times feature writer was dining there, and an old waiter got on his nerves with his hard-of-hearing, his slow pace and the way he got orders mixed up . . . He scolded him gently . . . Next day he learned that Dinty heard of the "scene" and had fired the old gent . . . Oh, no! Not that! That's not what he wanted, at all . . . Oh, for heaven's sakes . . . The poor man fired . . . No job in this hellish Winter, too . . . He couldn't sleep that night thinking about it . . . Next day he rushed to Moore's . . . "Where can I find that waiter you fired on account of me? I didn't want anybody fired! I can't sleep over it" . . . "Well," well'd Mr. Moore, "let's see. I think you can find him about now at E. F. Hutton's brokerage, where he usually can be found every day until the market closes" . . . The "poor waiter" is worth only half a million smackers. Owns several apartment houses, etc., etc.

BY DREW PEARSON: AMERICAN PEOPLE STILL AHEAD OF THEIR GOVERNMENT

Nickel-Nursing Solons Hampering Peace Efforts

PEARSON

NAPLES, (By Wireless) — In France, a lot of people on New Year's day don't say "Happy New Year" any more. They say: "Here's hoping you don't have any worse year than last year." In other words, they don't expect things to get any better. They have lost hope.

Today, as we begin the year 1948 the big problem is to prevent that year from becoming another 1939. War is easy to start when men lose hope. When they have nothing to lose they take desperate gambles. One big problem now facing the world, therefore, is to restore men's hope. Another is to persuade people that they must work just as hard to win the peace as they did to win victory in war.

When war strikes, Congress throws economy to the winds. Money is voted in a hand-over-fist manner. People work long hours, pay heavy taxes, put up with all kinds of sacrifices. Then, when the war is won, Congress immediately begins whittling down all important instruments for winning the peace. The State department, just as important to peace as the army and navy are to war, gets its budget pruned instead of increased. Even the few paltry dollars spent to tell European newspapers about the United States are pared away by nickel-nursing congressmen and then, having chopped away all our instruments for keeping the peace we pretended to be surprised when a few years later, to find ourselves at war.

The same Republican isolationists who voted against defenses for Guam and have been trying to make their constituents back home for get the fact that now they have been sabotaging our defenses for peace — defenses which are just as important, perhaps more so than Guam. And if 1948 or the years immediately following should bring war, then the debates on the State department's budget, and on interim aid for Europe and on the Marshall plan will be adjusted just as important cornerstones for defense as the pre-Pearl Harbor votes of Minnesota's Knutson and New York's Ham Fish and all the others who tried to obstruct wartime preparation of the United States.

But entirely aside from these U. S. governmental attempts to wage the battle for peace, I am convinced that the American people are frequently ahead of their government in believing that we must work just as hard to build for peace as we did to win the war. The letters I have received from readers, the talks I have had in different parts of the country and, especially, the reaction to the Friendship Train all indicate this to be the fact.

• • •

European Public Impressed

In Europe the public seems to have been impressed with the people-to-people feature of the Friendship Train. Even the Communists, who have been waging the most vitriolic anti-American campaign since the days of Hitler, have been forced to treat the Friendship Train with cordiality. Politically, they couldn't afford to do otherwise. The Communists have been telling the European people that all Americans are bandits and imperialists; following which, a gesture comes from school kids and the labor unions and the railroads and the churches and businessmen of America which proves that they're not bandits at all.

Folks over here have been impressed with the fact that a Brazilian, Ambassador Oswaldo Aranha, came to Philadelphia to bid God-speed to the first Friend Ship when it departed for France. Brazil was getting no part of the food and they wondered why he came. It took them some time to understand that a lot of people in other parts of the world wished Europe well. It gave them hope.

The other day my brother phoned me from London saying that Foreign Minister Gruber of Austria was disappointed because the Friendship Train did not visit Austria. Actually Austria is getting part of the recent congressonal intrim-aid appropriation; also, several U. S. cities allocated Friendship boxcars to Austria through church world service. However, Foreign Minister Gruber wanted visible evidence of American friendship —for the Friendship Train itself to come to Austria so his people could know about it.

So, with scientists in a good part of the world working on the latest and most fiendish weapons for unloosing death in the world, there has been at least one experiment in going back to one of the oldest principles of mankind — the brotherhood of man.

During the war we dropped rifles to the Maquis in France and with the rifles we dropped bags of tea and messages of cheer. We also dropped cakes of soap over Germany, with messages on the wrappers calculated to woo the people away from Hitler. And we sent American labor leaders behind enemy lines to win over the enemy's labor unions. In fact, we stopped at nothing, spared no dollar to hasten the end of the war. This was important and successful strategy.

• • •

But successful strategy in war, with slight variations, sometimes can be equally successful in peace. For instance, Amon Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, together with the Lions club and various other big-hearted Texans, carefully stamped their flour bags for the Friendship Train with messages to the French and Italian people. Those flour bags are certain to be used as dresses for children and for dish rags and washcloths and the messages of friendship will be read and reread.

Likewise will be read the messages sent by President Truman's home folks in Jackson county, Missouri, and by various others including, we hope, the message we are pasting on Friendship food.

There are all sorts of ways of making friends, of getting people close to people — from exchanging students and books and professors to sending American labor leaders to convince left-wingers that we are not imperialists and that our only ambition is to get along peacefully with the rest of the world. So far, however, we haven't even scratched the surface and it's going to take a real offensive for peace if we are going to win the peace in 1948 and the immedate years to come.

U. S. per capita consumption of fresh milk and cream is 16 percent above pre-war levels.

Wallace's "Peace Party" Is Destined For Unhappy Fate

WASHINGTON — The political dust-bin is crowded with the debris of so-called third parties that flitted across the stage of American history for a little while and then disappeared.

There is no reason to believe that Henry Wallace's new "peace party" will not meet with a different fate.

His recent speeches have revealed the former Vice President to be astonishingly—sometimes, one suspects, wilfully—ignorant of many things: ignorant of the world as it really is, ignorant of what the American people are thinking, ignorant of Russian tactics, strategy and ambitions and their real meaning.

Yet Wallace is not so ignorant as to be unaware that his chances of becoming the next President of the United States are one in a trillion.

• • •

Wallace's Beliefs

It is fair to point out that, when he announced his candidacy, he made no claims of future success. His claims at that stage were modest.

What he wants, he said, is to pile up a big "peace vote".

The bigger the vote, he declared, "the more definitely the world will know that the United States is not behind the bipartisan reactionary war policy which is dividing the world into two armed camps and making inevitable the day when American soldiers will be lying in their Artic suits in the Russian snow."

That figure of speech is, from a psychological point of view, extraordinarily revealing.

It gives us a clue as to Wallace's mind set. It suggests, as well, the type of campaign he intends to wage as a candidate.

The picture of American soldiers lying in Russian snows was consciously or unconsciously designed to frighten Americans, to drive them into the Wallace camp by letting their imaginations play on the grim developments that, according to Wallace, will follow if the present bipartisan foreign policy is continued.

At the same time, it contains the unspoken accusation that if war comes the United States will be the aggressor—clearly underlined by the circumstance that American soldiers are portrayed fighting on Russian soil—and Russia the victim of aggression.

Wallace hastened to deny the familiar accusations level-at him and his followers.

"We are not for Russia," he said, "and we are not for Communism." To give point to this denial he gave Russia and the Russian leaders a very gentle slap on the wrist.

• • •

"JUST as we here fight against the spreaders of hate and falsehood against Russia," he said, "the Russian leaders can make a great contribution by restraining those extremists who try to widen the gap between our two countries."

Does Wallace suggest that Vishinsky, Molotov, and the writers in Pravda, Izvestia and the New Times and other Russian spokesmen are only giving vent to their personal spleen when they denounce the United States and are not reflecting in every word and syllable the deliberate, considered and carefully calculated policy of the Kremlin?

It is hard to believe that Wallace thinks that. Nor is it reasonable to assume that he is as ignorant and as naive regarding Russian policy as, ostensibly, he seems to be when he proposes, with a straight face, that an international police force should be created" that is stronger than the military establishment of any nation, including Russia and the United States.

Every schoolboy knows that the efforts thus far made to create an international police force as provided for in the Charter of the United Nations have been balked at every turn by Russian intransigeance. Apparently, Wallace does not know—or care to know.

He gives himself away completely when he denounces the United States for trying "to hem Russia in."

The opposite of such a policy, if words have any meaning would be to let Russia expand. Does Wallace believe in letting her do that?

Apparently not, so far as his words go.

"I am utterly against any kind of imperialism or expansionism whether sponsored by Britain, Russia, or the United States." But his attitude toward Russia, from beginning to end, belies his words.

He has a double-standard in these matters: one for the United States, another for Russia; otherwise, he might have said something about that Russian expansionism—not potential but actual —which he professes to abhor.

Wallace's policy, reduced to its bare bones, is one of undiluted appeasement. He would achieve peace through a process of capitulation. The history of our disorderly and blood-drenched era proves that appeasement of aggressors, whatever their stripe, produces the very evils it was designed to avert. It is only in Russia and in quarters that follow the dictates of the Kremlin that Wallace's new role will arouse any enthusiasm. Regardless of his denials, while the hand revealed by the Chicago speech was the hand of an Iowa Esau, the voice was the voice of a Mustovite Jacob.

Texans Call Admiral "Little Nimitz Boy"

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8 (AP) — It may sound like heresy to the Texas navy—of which he is "chief of naval operations"—but Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz believes it is safer for his dignity to live in California than his native Texas.

"When I go to Texas for a visit, I am Admiral Nimitz," he told reporters today.

"But after I stay home awhile, I soon get to be 'that little Nimitz boy' again. Too many uncles and aunts and people who knew me."

A native of Fredericksburg, Texas, the Admiral on Dec. 15 was designated "Chief of Naval Operations of the Texas Navy" by Gov. Beauford Jester as naval commander in chief.

More Telephone Rate Hikes To Be Sought

DALLAS, Jan. 8 (AP) — Eleven Texas towns have granted rate increases to the Southwestern Bell Telephone company recently, the company disclosed today. Increase applications are pending in four others.

The company applied yesterday to the Brownsville City commission for a hike of $2.25 a month for business phones and 25 cents a month for residence phones. Brownsville is the largest city thus far where increases have been sought.

Other cities where applications for increase are pending are Cleburne, Vernon and Eagle Lake. Increases have been granted by Tyler, Odessa, Liberty, Port Neches, Nederland, Anna, Troy, Princeton, Pottsboro and Farmers Branch.

How to ease a husband through a grouch without having a fight with him.

How to make a caller, who arrives unexpectedly at the wrong time, feel completely at ease.

How to get up and go home when a visit is over, without awkwardness or excuses.

How to deal effectively with a catty woman, without being catty herself.

How to do three or more jobs at once, such as keeping an eye on a 2-year-old, doing an ironing, and cooking a meal.

How to change a man's mind without letting him know it is being changed for him.

THE irascible screen star, Monty Woolley, sometimes known as "The Beard," breezed through Oklahoma City recently, and did not exactly endear himself to the press when he rasped, "All I ask is that you let me alone. But let some lousy movie actor like me come along and you won't let me rest."

To imploring photographers, he added, "Nothing doing. Just use anybody with a beard. Charles Evans Hughes ought to do. He was nobody—just Chief Justice of the United States."

Big Spring Will Be Water Confab Site

BIG SPRING, Jan. 8 (AP)—The water supply situation in 92 West Texas counties will be presented to a Regional Water conference here Jan. 20 for action.

The conference was called by Gov. Beauford H. Jester, who appointed Frank Kelly of Colorado City as coordinator.

At a meeting here yesterday deputy coordinators were selected for nine regions to prepare surveys and briefs for the Jan. 20 meeting.

Deputy coordinators selected include Rex Baxter, Amarillo; A. B. Davis, Lubbock; A. C. Bishop, Stamford; M. J. Benefield, Odessa; Milo Roth, San Angelo; Paul Counts, Fort Stockton, and Frank B. Clayton, El Paso.

Representatives are yet to be announced for the Childress-Cottle counties area, and the Howard county to Callahan county area.

Big Political Riddle Of '48 Is Revolving Around Labor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Big political riddle of 1948 is how much weight labor unions will be able to throw aruond in the election.

Beyond question, labor took an awful pasting in 1946. Instead of being a potent political force, labor leaders were shown up as a bunch of rank political amateurs. But now the Taft-Hartley Act has stirred up the animals. There are a half-dozen political movements within organized labor today. Whether they are just noise, or whether they have some political substance, is what the wiseacres are trying to dope out.

EDSON

Oldest of the lot is Labor's Non-Partisan League, whose front man is John T. Jones. In reality the head man is John L. Lewis of United Mine Workers. Lewis started the League when he was head man of CIO. It had some influence in 1936. But, when Lewis pulled away from Roosevelt, and the CIO pulled away from Lewis, the League began to decline. When Lewis switched to Willkie in 1940, he failed to deliver the votes of his miners. Today the League is pretty much of a political dead duck.

Next in line is the CIO's Political Action Committee, now headed by Jack Kroll. There is ample evidence that CIO-PAC learned a lesson from the beating it got in 1946. Since that time, licking its wounds, CIO-PAC has been working quietly but hard, out in the country, to build a real political organization from the bottom up. It has the making of a much more potent political force in 1948.

• • •

Machinists' New Venture

A third political-labor movement is backed by the big, powerful, conservative, independent International Association of Machinists. Its new Non-Partisan League will, during January, hold a membership campaign and a drive to collect a million dollars. The money is to be used in educating its members on the principles of good government.

Primarily, the Machinists say they are interested in replacing the present Taft-Hartley Congress which, by its every action last year — on taxes, price and rent controls, as well as labor legislation—showed favoritism and obedience to employers.

Eighteen of the railroad brotherhoods have formed the Railway Labor's Political League, fourth of the movements now active. Its chairman is A. E. Lyon. Its objectives are to inform their million and a quarter members on the voting records and qualifications of candidates, from the labor point of view.

Finally, there is the new AFL Labor's Education and Political League, which is asking its eight million members for "voluntary" contributions of a dollar to finance operations. Half of the money will be spent nationally, half locally.

Traditionally, ever since the days of Sam Gompers, AFL has stayed out of politics. This year the Federation's 105 international unions are in. Their main aim is to defeat every congressman who voted for the Taft-Hartley Act in 1947.

• • •

THUS far, there is no central direction and very little co-operation of these five political movements. Definitely, they are not seeking to form a labor party. There is no truck with the American Labor Party of New York, which is the sixth of these movements.

Outside of Washington, however, there is apparently a lot more co-operation. In city central labor councils, AFL, CIO and independent unions are getting together for direct action.

Potentially, there are some 20 million members of labor unions. That is enough balance of power to throw any national election—if it can be organized.

The Republican attitude seems to be that it cannot be organized, and that labor's political power has always been overemphasized. There is considerable GOP sentiment that labor leaders can't sell their membership on the idea that the Taft-Hartley Act is anti-labor. So the whole political crusade will flop.

From the Democratic politicians' point of view, if labor is to be politically effective the union leaders must get over the idea that what they want has priority over every other interest. What they must learn to look out for is the national interest.

If the union labor leaders can get over their idea of just running a big publicity campaign, and get down to working with county chairmen and precinct committeemen, then the Democratic political leaders say they can do some good.

DIPPY — By John Cross

Today's Journal Editorial

A MOUNTAINOUS MOLEHILL

Probably publicized out of all proportion to its real significance has been the departure of a detachment of Marines for reinforcement duty on U. S. warships in Italian and Grecian waters.

While the size of the detachment has been kept secret, the number of men involved could not be large. By no stretch of the imagination can there be any supposition that it will place the U. S. forces involved on a war footing. On the contrary, since most of this nation's military facilities of all kinds, including war vessels, are reported to be undermanned, it is reasonable to believe that the recent movement will do no more than bring the personnel of the affected ships more closely to authorized strength.

The departure probably would have received much less publicity if the whole thing had been handled more openly. The extraordinary secrecy merely focused attention upon it. Russia almost certainly will make the most of it as "evidence" the United States is preparing for war.

The whole thing has the appearance of a molehill which has grown into somewhat mountainous proportions because of the apparently stupid insistence of someone upon a secrecy thus far not justified.
