Rundown victim dies

IN HAPPIER TIMES, Sylvia and Freddie Diaz held their grand-daughter Alexis. Freddie Diaz may now be charged with murder in connection with his wife's death this week.

Critically injured in a vehicular assault here last Tuesday, Sylvia Diaz of Colorado City died of her injuries at 7:52 p.m. Monday at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Sheriff Patrick Toombs said an attempted murder charge against her husband, 41-year-old Federico C. "Freddie" Diaz of 1819 Plum St., will be upgraded by the district attorney's office in Sweetwater.

The case will be presented to a Mitchell County grand jury in the third week of October.

Diaz remained incarcerated in the county jail Tuesday on charges of attempted murder and possession of marijuana. His bonds have been set at $25,000 and $1,500.

Mrs. Diaz, 39, never regained consciousness after being run over about 1:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 22, at North Hwy. 208 and the north service road of Interstate 20.

She went under the car and sustained a major head injury along with "multiple trauma," said a spokesman at Mitchell County Hospital, where she was treated before being airlifted to Lubbock at 3 a.m. that morning.

She had been on a life support system at the Lubbock hospital.

Diaz was indicted for attempted murder by the August grand jury in connection with a gunshot that was fired at his wife on the night of Aug. 5 in the 200 block of East Eighth Street.

He was released on a $3,500 bond after that incident.

Mrs. Diaz obtained a protective order against him but had it rescinded to resume living with him the day before she was run over, the sheriff said.

Diaz was arrested by city police near noon outside his home on Wednesday, Sept. 23, after his low-slung blue Chevrolet Camaro was found abandoned near Cuthbert in northwestern Mitchell County.

He was taken into custody after a county-wide search for him and his car by city and county law enforcement officers.

Justice of the Peace Kay Richmond ordered that an autopsy be performed Tuesday in Lubbock, and funeral services for Mrs. Diaz were announced Tuesday afternoon by Kiker-Seale Funeral Home at 338 Locust St.

A Rosary will be held for her at 7 p.m. Thursday in Kiker-Seale Chapel.

Her funeral will be at 10 a.m. Friday in the funeral home chapel, and burial will be at Mitchell County Cemetery.

Mrs. Diaz was born in Colorado City and attended schools here.

She was a nurse's aide, homemaker and mother. She was a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church.

Speakers' lineup set for Wednesday tour

Transgenic cotton is one of the new developments in modern agriculture that will be reviewed in the annual Mitchell County Farm Tour on Wednesday, Oct. 7.

Transgenic cotton's genetic makeup makes it resistant to boll worms and to chemicals that farmers use to prevent crop losses from insect damages, said County Agent Vance Christie.

The tour's day-long agenda will begin with registration from 8:30 to 9 a.m. in the Colorado City Civic Center at 157 W. Second St. and continue with Christie's instructions about CEU continuing education certificates at 9.

Buses provided by the Colorado School District will be loaded at 9:15 and go to Tony Turner's farm five miles southeast of town off County Road 418.

Christie expects about 30 participants.

"We will only visit two farms because of the limited production this year," he said.

The agent said test plots of Roundup Ready and BT cotton and a drip irrigation system will be examined at Turner's farm.

Speakers will be Steve Biles of Sweetwater, insect pest management (IPM) agent for the Lower Rolling Plains, entomologist Chris Sansone of San Angelo and Extension Service irrigation engineer Dana Porter of Lubbock.

Steve Shrode of the Natural Resources Conservation Service here will review Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) seed enhancement and burning policies.

The tour will proceed at 11 a.m. to the Hal Morren farm two miles northeast of Turner's, where an aphid control trial and a harvest aid demonstration will be featured.

Billy Henderson of the Texas Department of Agriculture in Abilene will discuss pesticide laws at 1 p.m. at the Civic Center, and Sansone will review insect-related problems

Appreciation dinner set for Rob Junell

State Rep. Rob Junell of San Angelo and State Parks Executive Director Andrew Sansom of Austin will be featured speakers at a Monday, Oct. 19, observance at Lake Colorado City State Park.

Rep. Junell will be honored at an appreciation dinner from 5 to 7 p.m. that day in the county agricultural show barn off West Hwy. 80.

The park observance is the 75th anniversary of the Texas Department of Parks and Wildlife, and the creation of the state park west of here will also be commemorated.

Park Manager Mark Fambro said the tentative schedule begins at 2 p.m. in the group dining hall on the second road to the right just past the park headquarters building.

With a "Past, Present and Future" theme, Fambro will introduce former Colorado City Mayor Mike Burt at 2:15 and Burt will review the creation of Lake Colorado City State Park in the early 1970's.

Former City Manager J. A. Sadler will speak at 2:30, followed by current Mayor Jim Baum, who will discuss issues of the present day.

Rep. Junell and Director Sansom will preview the future of the park beginning at 3 p.m., and closing remarks by Fambro will be followed by a tour of the park.

Junell, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee in Austin, will be feted by Mitchell County supporters and greet constituents at the late afternoon dinner.

Tickets are $5 and are on sale at City National Bank and the First National Bank in Colorado City and First Bank of West Texas in Loraine.

"It's an opportunity to eat dinner for $5 and say hello to Rep. Junell," said an organizer.

HOMECOMING QUEEN Jamie Mason, escorted by her father, Larry Mason, was a popular choice for the honor at the Friday night homecoming game against Clyde. King Flame, named at the Thursday night bonfire, was Ty Wood.

Big Spring players shut out by cops

Two prominent Big Spring High School football players were arrested in a 1:30 a.m. Sunday raid by city, county and state law enforcement officers at a "beer bust" on the west side of Lake Colorado City.

They were among 19 Big Spring teenagers apprehended during the episode.

Sheriff Patrick Toombs said Chief Deputy Mike Redwine had been looking for the party because of a heavy amount of traffic in the area, with numerous vehicles apparently seeking a party without knowing its exact location.

Big Spring Steers starting senior quarterback Joe Don

Owens and wide receiver Daniel Blake Profitt II, both 17, were taken into custody for evading arrest.

Kasha Lanna Burton and Carlos Chapa, both 17, were also arrested and held overnight in Mitchell County Jail -- Ms. Burton for evading arrest and Chapa for public intoxication.

Owens was released Sunday on two $1,000 bonds. Profitt and Ms. Burton were let go on a $1,000 bond each, and Chapa was released on a $500 bond.

Sheriff Toombs said Owens had been handcuffed and was sitting in the back seat of a patrol car off County Road 254

Class of '48 livens up gathering

From Florida to Alabama to California to Hawaii, 38 members of the Colorado High School Class of 1948 returned to their old hometown last weekend for a memorable homecoming of reminiscence and high humor.

An unusually good crowd of 325 people jammed Colorado City Civic Center Saturday for the annual Mitchell County Reunion, which was held in conjunction with the Class of '48's 50th anniversary.

"Mary Anne kept us laughing the whole time," said Reunion Chairman Arlene Morris, referring to featured speaker Mary Anne McCloud of Eastland, one of the class members.

"She came up with things that we had forgot about."

Morris said Mrs. McCloud recalled riding her horse to Colorado Drug at East Second Street and Walnut "and getting curb service" for a soft drink.

She also remembered going to Keybrook Confectionary for the same purpose on Walnut between First and Second streets.

"When they took their senior trip in 1948, they decided to meet again in 50 years," Morris said. "They decided then, so that's the way it came out."

Morris, a 1934 CHS graduate when Colorado Middle School was the high school, said he did not recognize Willa Bradford McCurdy of Albuquerque, N. M., when she approached him at the reunion.

"You don't know who I am, do you?" asked Mrs. McCurdy, a member of the Class of '48.

"She knew me, but I sure didn't know her," said Morris. "The last time I saw her, she was a slim, red-headed girl. She's gray-headed now."

Mrs. McCurdy was the daughter of the pastor of the First Baptist Church.

"Some of them look the same, but a lot of them change," Morris said.

Morris, postmaster here from 1959 to 1991, said the Business groups endorse Rep. Junell's re-election

Citing his support for such pro-business issues as tort reform and insurance accessibility, two influential business organizations have endorsed State Rep. Rob Junell of San Angelo for re-election.

In a Wednesday, Sept. 23, announcement, the Texas Association of Business and Chambers of Commerce (TABCC) and the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) said Rep. Junell "has proven himself to be a devoted friend of business."

The organizations represent more than 140,000 Texas businesses, individuals and chambers of commerce.

Tort reform deals with changes in the way lawsuits are filed and adjudicated.

"NFIB is truly pleased to support Rob for his hard work and recognize his deep understanding of what it takes for small businesses to survive and thrive in the future," said NIFB State Director Robert Howden in Austin.

TABCC President Bill Hammond said Rep. Junell "has shown his commitment to the needs of business in his 10 years as a state representative in West Texas."

"Without his support, Texas business would not have the success it has today. It is in our best interest to re-elect Rob so that he may continue his stellar work for Texas."

San Angelo businessman and TABCC board member Steve Stephens said he, too, is an enthusiastic Junell supporter.

"As a constituent in House District 72 and as a business owner, it is my honor and privilege to give my wholehearted support to Rep. Rob Junell for re-election," Stephens said.

Junell is opposed in the Nov. 3 election by Republican Ross Duerstine, a San Angelo computer consultant.

He represents Mitchell County in the 72nd District.

Junell, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee in Austin, has received a long list of business-related awards.

They include the Outstanding Effort and Achievement Award of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce in 1997; the Friend of Business Award and Legislative Leadership Award from the Texas Chamber of Commerce; and the 1994 Citizen of the Year Award from the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce.

He was recognized by the Texas Civil Justice League for "Outstanding Contributions on Behalf of Tort and Civil Justice Reform" in 1991, '92, '93, '94 and '95.

Junell was named one of the state's "Top 10 Legislators" by Texas Monthly magazine in 1991 and '95.

annual Cowboy Breakfast in Kiwanis Park downtown was also well-attended, with a large crowd showing up when the breakfast started at 7 a.m.

He said the reunion's 9:30 a.m. business meeting at the Civic Center was relatively uneventful and that the celebrants enjoyed caterer David Stubblefield's barbecued brisket meal.

"They really got us served quick, and that's what we appreciated," he said.

Mrs. McCloud spoke about 1 p.m.

Morris said most of the returning class members gathered at the home of classmate Billy Joe Wood here Saturday night and that many also attended the Friday night homecoming football game.

Wilson, McCall tangle in judicial contest

"If you were to lay his qualifications next to mine, there is no comparison whatsoever. For 28 years, I've been in the courtroom."

Attorney Randy Wilson of Abilene, Democratic nominee for the 11th Court of Appeals in Eastland, draws this comparison between himself and his opponent, Comanche Republican Terry McCall.

Wilson, 51, is running a gentleman's race, but he is confident that his experience and reputation will carry the day.

"I don't have to beat him," Wilson said during a Friday campaign visit to Colorado City. "He has to beat me."

Wilson said McCall, who owned an equipment manufacturing company in Houston before moving to his wife's home county in 1992, spent $153,000 to win the GOP nomination and "has vowed to spend that much to beat me."

McCall's primary opponents were Robert Pelton and Kollin Shadle.

Wilson said he initially wondered why some of McCall's biggest campaign contributors were large law firms in Houston.

"I learned that under the Texas Docket Equalization Act, the Eastland Court of Appeals accepts transfers of Houston cases and hears numerous Houston cases which are appealed," he said.

"I believe the Court of Appeals is there to enforce the law, uphold the law, but not to make law."

The job is as follows: to examine the record and the transcription of the testimony and the evidence and then to apply the laws and rules of procedure and evidence to determine whether or not they have been followed."

Wilson said he has been disturbed to hear McCall say in candidates' forums that he "would not overturn decisions on mere technicalities and would consider the economic impact of decisions on areas where the cases came from."

"This is not the law," Wilson said. "A judge can consider the law only."

"I think if I could get him to debate me or even speak side by side, people would see that he doesn't know anything because he just never practiced law."

"You really need somebody on the bench who has been in the courtroom."

Although McCall has presented himself as an experienced prosecutor, Wilson said, a check of Comanche County court records proves that he has prosecuted no more than seven cases.

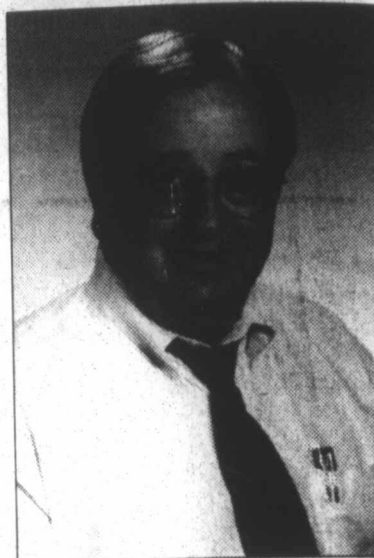

The 11th Court of Appeals hears civil and criminal cases from 23 West Texas counties, including Mitchell, and rules on transferred cases from the First and 14th Courts of Appeals in Houston and the Fifth Court of Appeals in Dallas.

Wilson is a Callahan County native whose late father, Don Wilson, was an attorney. His great-grandfather, J. B. Cutbirth, was a pioneer Callahan County rancher and oilman.

He graduated from Abilene High School in 1965, attended Baylor University in Waco and East Texas State University in Commerce before graduating from Baylor Law School in 1970.

He worked for law firms in Dallas and Houston before settling in Abilene in 1975.

Wilson has worked extensively as a special prosecutor for the Office of the General Counsel of the State Bar of Texas, prosecuting fellow lawyers for ethical violations.

Randy Wilson

He is chairman of the Trial Advocacy Institute in Huntsville, where he spends eight days each spring teaching lawyers of less than three years' experience how to try cases.

Wilson would join wealthy Chief Justice William "Bud" Arnot III and retired district judge Jim Wright on the court.

The winner of the Nov. 3 election will replace retiring Justice Bob Dickenson.

Although the Eastland court is not considered a demanding position, Wilson said, he will continue his practice of working 60 to 70 hours per week if elected.

Wilson and his wife Jo Ann have been married for 31 years and have two grown children.

They are members of First Central Presbyterian Church in Abilene.

when he got out of the car, ran, fell over a barbed wire fence and tumbled down an incline into some trees and brush.

Owens was then also arrested on an escape charge.

Owens claimed his shoulder was broken and Profit said he had a broken hip, but Mitchell County EMS paramedics who were called to the scene determined that neither boy was seriously injured.

Sheriff Toombs said the Big Spring Steers have an open date this weekend.

Fifteen youngsters were written tickets at the scene for being minors in possession of alcohol and were allowed to wait there for their parents to come from Big Spring and take custody of them.

There were three 16-year-olds, three 18-year-olds, six 17-year-olds, two 14-year-olds and a 19-year-old.

Criminal defendants are treated as adults in Texas at age 17.

Sheriff Toombs said there were five cases of empty beer containers in and around the lake house and another case that had not yet been consumed.

He said two different youngsters said their parents had a part ownership of the house, which had a broken window.

The sheriff said four to 10 teenagers were believed to have escaped.

He said breaking up the party was as much a safety issue as it was terminating a public disturbance because many of the teenagers were in no condition to drive.

"There were cars all up and down the road," he said.

Chief Deputy Redwine was assisted by Game Warden Randy Bullard, Department of Public Safety Trooper Shane Johnson, City Police Officer George Oliver and Reserve Deputies Jimmy Browne and Scott Morton.

The sheriff said he monitored the episode, which was humorous in some respects, on his police radio.

REGGIE GARDNER, right, a Colorado City native, has been recognized as the top recreation specialist in Region 5 of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. The award was presented by Regional Recreation Supervisor Johnny Bland of Snyder. Gardner works at the Ware Unit.

Inmates' games helpful

Colorado City native Reggie Gardner has been named "Outstanding Recreation Specialist" for the 23-unit Region 5 of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

Gardner, a 1987 graduate of Colorado High School, earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology at Angelo State University in San Angelo in 1991 but took a few years to find a job to match his interest in sports. He managed a restaurant and a rent-to-own store in Midland, but he missed athletics and joined the TDCJ to become a recreation specialist at the French Robertson Unit in Abilene.

He worked there for 18 months and then leaped at an opportunity to return to his hometown.

Gardner, 29, says many state penitentiary inmates have athletic ability but have never been on an organized team.

Under his guidance at the Ware Unit, they get that opportunity.

Then occasionally an inmate arrives who played college athletics and the competition intensifies.

"It's not a high-stress job," he said. "It's something I can do at work and not have to bring home."

"I enjoy being involved, providing a service for these guys that most people don't care about. But to them it's very important."

"It relieves stress, relative to security, and it's probably one of the best things the TDCJ has going."

Region 5 Recreation Supervisor Johnny Bland of Snyder said Gardner was chosen for the honor for a number of reasons.

"Reggie always presents a very professional bearing," Bland said. "He's efficient, very dependable, and he has the flexibility and type of character to fit in and work with other people."

"He's very meticulous in what he does with the audits and compliance issues."

Region 5 is also referred to in the TDCJ as "The Western Region." It encompasses units in Amarillo, Dalhart, Pampa, Childress, Lubbock, Lamesa, Brownfield, Breckenridge, Abilene, Brownwood, Wichita Falls and El Paso, among others.

Gardner supervises inmates' activities on volleyball, handball and basketball courts at each of the Ware Unit's five buildings, along with weightlifting and games of dominoes, Scrabble, checkers and chess in the day rooms.

Each building has its own recreation yard.

Bland noted that recreational equipment and specialists' salaries are paid for with profits from inmate commissaries.

Gardner said he enjoys working with inmates and has had few problems with them because of his approach.

"If you respect them, they will respect you," he said. "If you try to talk bad to them, they're going to talk pretty bad to you."

He directs intramural competition in the various sports, acting as a coach, and organizes monthly tournaments.

Inmates do all the manual labor like cleaning the "rec" yards and day rooms and maintaining the courts and equipment.

Gardner and his wife have two children, 10-year-old Emily and 2-year-old Rylan.

His wife, the former Tory Claxton, is also a Mitchell County native. She is the grand-daughter of the late Sheriff Louis Claxton of Lorraine and has numerous relatives here.

The Gardners are members of Calvary Baptist Church in Colorado City, where Reggie teaches a young adults' Sunday school class.

Administration proffers agriculture relief package

WACO -- Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman and President Bill Clinton have been singled out for praise for their creation of a $7.1-billion farm relief package.

Texas Farmers Union (TFU) President Wes Sims said the package "rightly puts the price problem first by including more than $5 billion to uncapped marketing loan rates."

"The administration has shown a solid commitment to lifting America's producers out of the collapsing farm economy," Sims said.

"With commodity prices falling beyond 20-year lows, any federal response must recognize the fundamental problem of depressed prices."

Secretary Glickman visited Mitchell County on Aug. 11 with U. S. Rep. Charles Stenholm of Stamford and then spoke at a panel discussion for farmers and ranchers in Snyder.

The relief package also offers more than $2 billion in nationwide disaster assistance.

"The administration clearly recognizes the magnitude of losses incurred because of the farm crisis and is willing to provide adequate resources to address the economic damage," the Farmers Union leader said.

"We thank President Clinton, Secretary Glickman and members of Congress for their support of action to respond to the deepening farm crisis."

The proposal follows meetings two weeks ago at which Clinton and Glickman asked 200 Farmers Union members in Washington to lobby lawmakers on the marketing loan cap program and other measures.

TFU has led efforts to remove loan caps to protect farmers from falling commodity prices after a nationwide poll showed that 73 percent of farmers want Congress to uncapped the loan rates.

Sims said the action is necessary not only to help farmers whose crops were destroyed by drought but also those who have good crops but "are suffering losses due to disastrously low prices."

"We have never faced the kind of disaster that we are facing right now," he said.

"It's a disaster for the banks and the businesses that depend on agriculture, as well as farmers and ranchers."

"We believe Congress must pass the disaster relief and also take action to improve commodity loan rates, which are currently capped at 1995 levels."

He noted that congressional Republicans have proposed a $3.9-billion relief package.

Census workers needed in C-City

Applicants to work in the 2000 Census are invited to take a qualifying test at 6 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 1, at the Colorado City Civic Center at 157 W. Second St.

Work is scheduled to begin this fall in Mitchell County.

Census Bureau spokeswoman Donna Morgan of Odessa said successful applicants will earn from $7.50 to $9 per hour, primarily updating maps and checking addresses.

Deriving a complete count of Mitchell County citizens is considered important because federal grants, school funding and other governmental actions are based on population.

Ms. Morgan said workers must be American citizens, own their own transportation and pass the written test of basic skills.

They will drive through communities and rural areas to update Census Bureau maps and go street by street to check the accuracy of Bureau address lists, she said.

Some will be assigned to manage teams of field workers.

If you miss taking the Thursday test, you may get more details or make an application on the telephone at 1-888-325-7733.

The work is expected to continue through most of next year.

Ms. Morgan's Odessa office number is 1-800-248-6451.

Commissioners slate forfeiture audits

Mitchell County commissioners Tuesday approved a low bid for the purchase of a roadgrader in Commissioner Carl Guelker's Pct. 2.

Guelker's motion was approved to accept a $128,325 bid from Airmaster Corp. of Odessa for a John Deere Model 770-CH.

Other business in the brief 9 a.m. meeting included approval of an annual audit of the district attorney's and sheriff's offices' forfeiture accounts.

County Auditor Susan Buckalew said the accounts totaled $21,484 for the district attorney and $16,125 for the sheriff on Aug. 31.

Bids were opened for the proposed purchase of a steel wheel roller for roadwork in Pcts. 1 and 3, but Pct. 1 Commissioner Ed Roach moved to table the matter because Pct. 3 Commissioner Wendy Inman was absent.

Commissioner Inman and his wife went to Columbus, Ga., to see their newborn grandchild and were delayed returning because of Hurricane Georges, Ms. Buckalew said.

Sheriff Patrick Toombs said Jail Deputy Margaret Morris has resigned to move with her husband to Duncanville.

Sheriff Patrick Toombs needed authorization to hire a replacement because the county has a hiring freeze in effect.

The authorization was given.

Hobby garners mayor's okay

AUSTIN — Democratic state comptroller nominee Paul Hobby was endorsed Monday by the mayors of Dallas and Austin and four former Austin mayors.

"The comptroller and the cities of Texas have a unique partnership," Hobby said. "The vibrancy and economic strength of Texas' cities are of utmost importance to the economic prosperity of this state."

"I am honored to receive endorsements from these mayors, who are leading their cities with great energy and a vision for the future."

Austin Mayor Kirk Watson said Hobby, son of former longtime Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, "comes from a family with a strong tradition of public service to Texas and the nation, but his record of success is his very own."

Dallas Mayor Ron Kirk said the 38-year-old candidate's experience as a businessman and in two state government positions "make him uniquely qualified to serve as comptroller."

"Paul Hobby will put the people's business ahead of partisan politics," Mayor Kirk said.

Hobby faces Republican nominee Carole Keeton Rylander, a former mayor of Austin, in the Nov. 3 general election.

He was also endorsed Monday by four former mayors of Austin — Bruce Todd, who served from 1991 to 1997; Frank Cooksey, '85-91; Jeff Friedman, '75-77; and Roy Butler, '71-75.

His Internet campaign site is at www.paulhobby98.com.

Christians must be faithful

By Pastor Ron Garner

LORAIN -- What most Christians don't seem to understand is that Christianity is not a religion. God gave Israel a religion of keeping the Mosaic Law, but that law ended with the death of Jesus Christ on the cross and with the forming of the "Body of Christ Church."

Mosaic Law was supplanted by a whole new economy, that of grace, grace and more grace -- unlimited grace even for the unsaved of the whole world (First John 2:2).

Now Christians can be religious, but they shouldn't because it's idolatry!

God states that we are to live in, with and on the same grace that saved us, to "live only by the faith of the Son of God" (Galatians 2:20).

This faith belongs to God. It's His gift, renewable over and over.

It flows like water out of a faucet when the believer is filled with the Holy Spirit and when he or she walks in the Spirit, led by the Spirit and not the flesh.

Galatians 5:16-17 says, "The flesh is at warfare with the Spirit; therefore you may not do as you please."

Most Christians think that being strong or doing good works produces spirituality.

In actuality, if the work is not done in weakness to self and in the power of the Spirit, it is in fleshly warfare with the Spirit.

God takes us through the impassable and impossible by producing whatever our need is from what at present does not exist.

All self-performance and and trying to help God is to be eliminated.

You don't passively sit down, but when you thank, praise or study the Word, God speaks to you through the Word and then the Spirit leads you into the right situation and supplies your need.

You got saved by believing, coming and asking. Then He saved you. That's exactly how you live by faith and get your needs supplied.

Jesus Christ is "the power that works from within you" (Ephesians 3:20).

When I'm weak to self, "Christ is strong in me" (Second Corinthians 12:9-10).

Find a passage of Scripture in the 11th Chapter of Hebrews that meets your needs and read it aloud every day to the Lord until your need is supplied.

The Scripture my wife and I use for this is Proverbs 3:5-6.

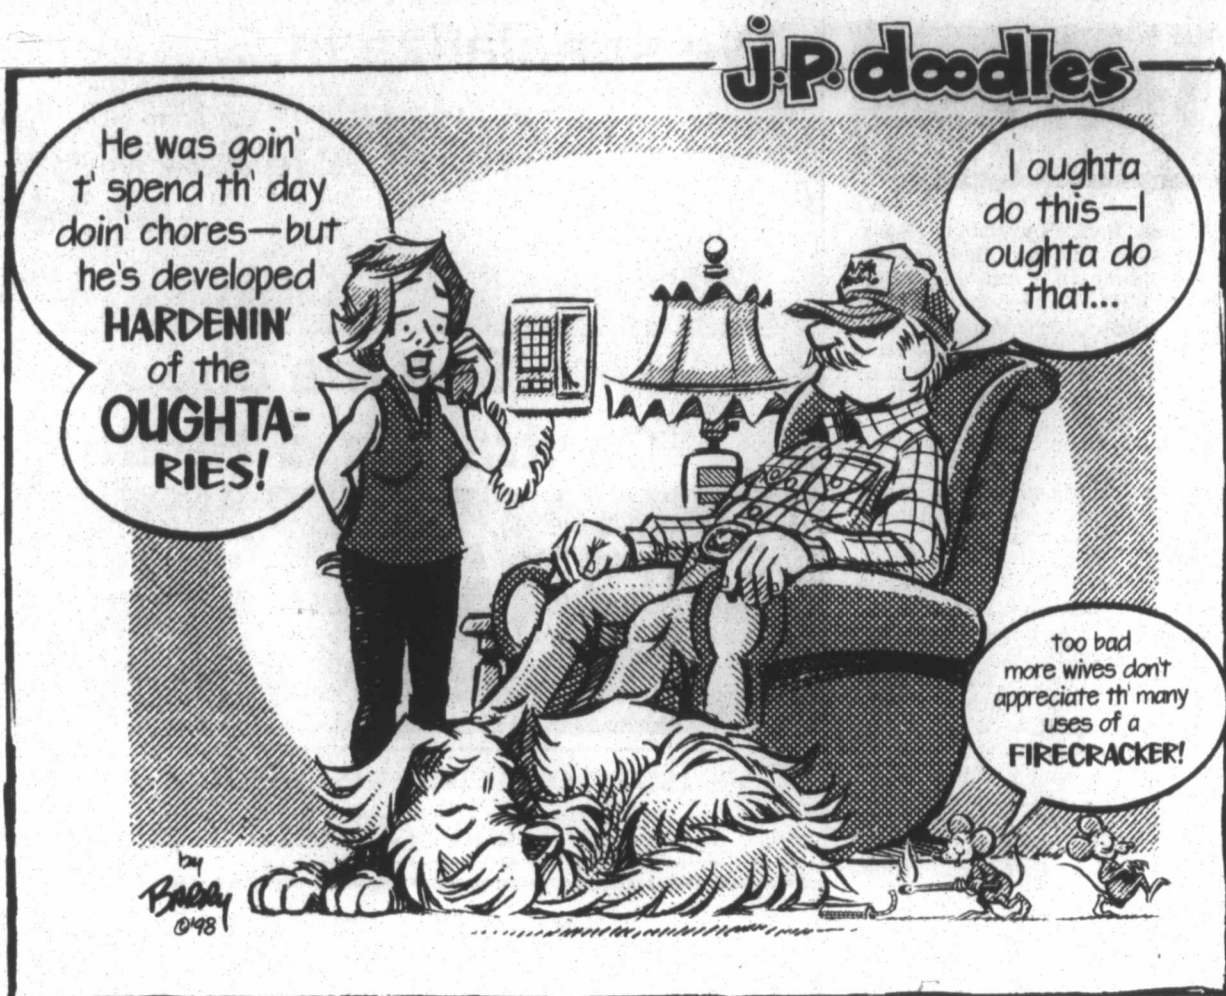

Vocalize it to the Lord that you remember how He delivered you and supplied your needs in a past experience.

Get an effective, discreet prayer partner with whom you can share troubled areas in your life, or ask God in prayer to supply you with someone.

How were Daniel and his companions delivered from certain disaster? By standing firm in Christ's strength, He being their full armor of God (Ephesians 6:10-17).

Every genuine Christian I have talked to feels immorality and evil pressing in.

If you are to survive, you must have the mindset of totally depending on the Lord because you could be placed in the position of taking a Daniel-like stand of faith based solely upon your faith and trust in the Lord to deliver in the fire (Daniel 3:14-18).

FACELIFT FOR A HANGAR

By Tumbleweed Smith

The old building was weathered, showing its age. It was literally coming apart at the seams. Its twin next to it was doing the same thing. But coming to the rescue was a group of folks who realized the significance of the two old structures and didn't want them to suffer a prolonged and undignified death.

So if things go according to plan, one of the new structures will be restored by the end of the year. Material from the other will be used in the restoration. The result will be HANGAR 25, a museum in Big Spring, Texas dedicated to the training of bombardiers and pilots.

The Big Spring Bombardier School opened at the beginning of World War Two and closed in 1946. In 1952, the base was re-opened as Webb Air Force Base. Webb closed in 1977. Residents of Big Spring feel that the military played such an important role in the city's history that the hangar should stand as a physical tribute to the role it played in our country's war efforts.

Many veterans have retired in Big Spring and may come back to remember. With the addition of the Hangar to an already outstanding Vietnam Memorial, Big Spring should be seeing more veterans who spent time in the military at either the bombardier school or Webb.

The restoration committee, headed by Jerry Worthing, has proven to be a capable money raiser. The application for a grant to restore HANGAR 25 was approved by the Texas Department of Transportation. It was one of only 55 selected as a "significant historical monument" from the 387 applications submitted. The HANGAR 25 project has been followed with great interest by the Texas Historical Commission.

HANGAR 25 will receive 80 percent of the architect's estimate of $573,600 to restore the hangar. The community raised the other 20 percent without any public funds. Part of the money was raised by selling memorial plaques for $50 which will decorate one wall of the museum. The plaques honor anyone who served in the military or had some connection to it. The sale of T-shirts, caps and food at various events brought in more donations.

Restoration plans were done by CADCO architects of Abilene, Texas. The restoration work is being done by Lee George construction of Big Spring. Completion is due in November.

The restored hangar will be one of a kind in Texas. The museum's emphasis of training planes and aids will fill a vacuum not covered by any other flight museum. It will include a comfortable community meeting room.

Planes used in the training at Webb will be displayed in the hangar once it is completed. These include the AT-11, T-28, T-33, T-37 and T-38. Also, and F-104 from the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron stationed at Webb is being considered.

The call is out for memorabilia related to the base from 1941-1977. Inquiries should be mailed to Nelda Reagan, HANGAR 25 RESTORATION PROJECT, PO Box 2925, Big Spring, Texas 79720.

Shooting sports planned

Vance Christie

The Lone Wolf 4-H Club wants to revive its once-active skeet shooting and rifle teams.

County Agent Vance Christie, chief sponsor of the club, said last Thursday that the rifle team will be the easier of the two because it will only require some bullet traps and a barn or quonset hut to practice in. "We're going to be doing more with the shooting sports," Christie said. "We need to train and certify some leaders to supervise the kids."

"To start the shotgun program as well, we will need a trap range or skeet range to practice on."

Christie, who has been the county agent for almost a year, said more than 50 4-H members and their parents attended an enrollment meeting at 6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 21, at the Thompson Room behind City National Bank in Colorado City.

Of those, 20 represented new memberships.

The chapter's annual achievement banquet has been scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 17, at the agricultural show barn on the county fairgrounds off West Hwy. 80.

Highlighting the banquet will be the annual presentation of the chapter's Gold Star Award, which went to Haley Smith, daughter of Donald and Peggy Smith, last year.

Brisket will be served as the main dish, and 4-H families will bring salads, vegetables and desserts.

Christie will serve as disc jockey for a dance after the banquet.

"This year is off to a good start with so many new members," he said. "We look to exceed that number by a great deal as more new members trickle in, particularly with the start of the horse program in the spring."

He also believes that the chapter's most ambitious project -- to build a barn and stock pens on city-owned land north of town -- will come to pass within the year.

Christie and chapter leader Mark Sheets appeared before the city council a few weeks ago to ask for the land, three to five acres on the south side of the city landfill.

The landfill is just north of the city on County Road 141, west of Hwy. 208.

Although the council has not acted on the proposal, the agent said the possibility that the project will go through appears to be good.

He said Cap Rock Electric Cooperative has indicated it might run electricity to the barn to supply part of the matching funds that would be required by a state grant.

The city would also run water to it.

Christie and young Sheets said the program is needed mostly to give youngsters who do not live on farms or ranches a place to raise livestock.

He said the chapter wants to raise sheep, goats, hogs and a few steers at the site with "a good barn" and outside pens.

"We want something we can be proud of and utilize rather than just throw something together," he said.

"If we can get the proper kind of facility, the kinds of uses we could have are unlimited."

Stenholm sends money to Lorraine

LORAIN -- Thanks to Congressman Charles "Charlie" Stenholm, the Lorraine Housing Authority will be able to fix sewer lines and repair heaters at its 22 apartments in time for winter.

Rep. Stenholm, who represents Mitchell County in the 17th Congressional District, announced in Washington Friday that the housing authority has been awarded $121,500 by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

Joan Long, executive director of the authority, said Monday that sewer lines at 14 of the apartments need to be repaired.

Heating elements and wall furnaces in a number of the apartments also must be replaced, she said.

"We don't know if it's age or dry weather," Ms. Long said. "This dry weather has done some strange things to the underground lines."

She said the money was deemed by HUD to be the "emergency" part of an $800,000 grant she applied for earlier this year.

She will reapply next year for at least $500,000 to build a new community center and expand more of the apartments into two- and three-bedroom units.

Mitchell County has deeded four lots to the authority at Looby and Pacific streets as a site on which to build the community center.

It will house a new office for the housing authority, replacing the current one at Smiley and Colorado, and other governmental offices.

The authority operates two three-bedroom and six two-bedroom apartments along with 14 one-bedroom units.

They are scattered around Lorraine on Cemetery, Looby, Smiley, Market, Reeves, Campbell and Colorado streets.

"Hopefully, I can get Congressman Stenholm to help me make them realize the need that we have here in Lorraine," Ms. Long said. "We need at least a half-million."

Rep. Stenholm, a Democrat who has been in office since 1979, announced that the award was made under HUD's Comprehensive Improvement Assistance Program, which provides money for urgently needed work items at public housing facilities.

"I am pleased to announce this grant award which is due recognition for the efforts of the Lorraine Housing Authority, and I am glad that this funding will go to the local level to meet the housing needs of the Lorraine community," the congressman said.

Stenholm staff member Ed Lorenzen said Monday that the authority "will have to show that they have a need for expansion" for next year's grant to be approved.

Lorenzen said the Lorraine Housing Authority was one of a dozen public housing groups in the 17th District to be awarded a total of more than $1 million last week.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

While visiting relatives in Colorado City the past couple of weeks I have been checking out the school menus.

I was shocked to see that CISD young elementary students are served a menu suited for the upper grade students or adults while the older students all have a choice of that menu or a child type menu.

PARENTS, I am amazed you are not demanding menus for the younger children to include types of food they will eat.

This includes my daughter, too. Four year olds to 8 year old children do lots better with the type of food they can handle.

Look those menus over good and ask questions. I'd like to see my grandkids served a meal they will eat rather than go home hungry because they are served so many adult type meals.

Loraine has 98% passing rate after first 6 weeks

With a schedule modification for the 1998-99 school year, a renewed focus on achievement, and collaboration among students, parents, and staff, Loraine School students had 98% of all students passing all classes for the first six weeks.

Loraine principal Tanya Sorrells related, "This is phenomenal. We are all very proud of our students' accomplishments."

Senior Cuatro Byrne said, "Miss Sorrells came up with this new schedule idea for the Junior High and High School where a detention and tutorial time was built in at the end of the day.

We don't have to go to that detention/tutorial time as long as we don't get in trouble and have at least a 76 in all of our classes.

Miss Sorrells said that we would have to make really good grades if we wanted to keep the schedule."

Senior Andi Chavez said, "School is still hard, but the students like the new schedule so they are all passing their classes to keep it."

Seniors T.J. Aguilar and Chris Morris agreed that this just shows what can happen when all of the students work together toward the same goal.

Notes from the Colorado Independent School District

By Buddy Compton, Principal Colorado High School

There are hundreds of ways to tell your son/daughter, "I love you," in addition to saying the words. Here are some important ways to demonstrate this:

1. The next time you drop your son/daughter off for an athletic or other practice, stay awhile and watch.
2. Laugh at your son's/daughter's jokes.
3. Ask about your son's/daughter's daily activities.
4. Stop what you are doing to listen to your son/daughter when they want to talk. If you sense a need for conversation, talk.
5. Always say, "I know you can do it."
6. Insist on eating your evening meal as a family on a regular basis. This family time is very valuable.
7. On occasions, watch your child's favorite television show(s) and listen to his/her music. It shows that you are interested in them and what they like.
8. Share with your son/daughter what makes you happy and what stresses you out.
9. Remember to ask for help and advice from your child from time to time. They really have a lot to offer.
10. At the beginning of each year, help your son/daughter in setting and meeting goals.
11. Don't be late in picking your child up from school, movies, dances or any other outing.
12. Plan a special time just for you and your child.
13. Assist in chaperoning a school trip, dance or any other function that occurs with the school.
14. Notice the good things about your child's friends.
15. Most importantly say "I trust you."

Wolves mangle Bulldogs

By Russell Benson

The 1998 version of the Colorado City Wolves gave homecoming visitors and the CHS class of 1948 a gift they could be proud of as they demolished the Clyde Bulldogs 45-7 Friday night in Wolf Stadium.

If not for a blown coverage in the Wolf secondary late in the second period, the shocked Bulldogs would have been shut out by the Wolves, eager to avenge last week's loss to Stanton and win their homecoming game.

The Wolves' defense stymied the Dogs all night long as they allowed only 239 yards of total offense, 61 of those on a play in which the Bulldog receiver scampered through the middle of the Wolf secondary unchecked.

The Wolves got the ball first and drove downfield 75 yards in 13 plays as running back Terry Green broke two tackles in a 15 yard romp to paydirt.

A stiff wind and a strong Bulldog rush from the left side forced Randy Byington to miss his second PAT of the season.

With 7:07 left in the first quarter, the Wolves had a 6-0 lead.

The Bulldogs' first possession gathered three first downs and 33 yards before they had to punt after a Frank Martinez quarterback sack.

The Wolves' drive started at their own 21 after a dismal 15 yard Bulldog punt.

Green rushed for two first downs and 31 yards, then quarterback Justin Hill was given the nod for three pass plays in a row.

The passes failed and Hill's aerial arsenal just wasn't clicking... yet.

As the second quarter began, the Bulldogs were forced to go three and out, and the Wolves would start on their own 32.

After handing off to Green for a quick nine yards and a quarterback keeper for eight yards and the first down, Hill began to click, or tick, as he threw a 49 yard bomb to wide receiver Byington for six points.

The senior quarterback ran the ball in for two points on the conversion, giving the Wolves a 14-0 lead with 7:33 remaining in the half.

On the Bulldogs' next possession, the Wolves were caught napping in the backfield as Clyde's receiver gained 61 yards to the Wolf two yard line before being brought down by Green.

Junior Luke Fambro stuffed the Dogs' first attempt, but Clyde scored on the next play, making it Wolves 14, Bulldogs 7 with 3:40 left in the half.

The next Wolf possession started on the Wolves' 30 yard line and only lasted 44 seconds: Hill to Byington for 14 yards, Hill to Byington for a 56 yard touchdown bomb.

Click, click -- Wolves 21, Bulldogs 7 for the halftime homecoming activities.

After a rousing halftime ceremony in which Jamie Mason was crowned Homecoming Queen and escorted by King Flame Ty Wood, the Wolves came out and kept the excitement going.

The Bulldogs got the ball first and, after Abel Bonilla and Chase Phariss stuffed the Dogs' running game, Armando Rocha intercepted a desperate Bulldog pass attempt to give the Pack the ball at the Bulldog 43.

Running back Green accounted for 24 yards and the offense overcame a 10 yard holding penalty as 6-4, 220-pound senior tight end Brett Hoyle broke three tackles en route to a 26 yard scoring strike from Hill.

With only three minutes gone in the third, the score was 28-7 Wolves.

The helpless Bulldogs were in real trouble now, and it only got worse for the Dogs-in-the-Den as Green broke loose for a 36 yard touchdown run only two minutes later.

Clyde went three and out again, and Rocha got the call on a pretty 25 yard run but then lost a fumble at the Dogs' 2 yard line.

But the Wolf defense forced a fumble on the first play and got the ball right back for Rocha, who promptly scored a two yard touchdown.

It was Wolves 42, Bulldogs 7 with 2:03 left in the third.

The Bulldogs started at their own 15 after trying to run back a Byington kickoff. Randy kept them deep in the endzone all night.

Clyde had some success moving the ball downfield as the Wolf defense was content to let them have small gains, but on the first attempt to pass for substantial yardage, the Wolf secondary closed in and Green intercepted.

Sophomore quarterback Chase Phariss came in on this series and orchestrated a nice 13-play, 65 yard drive that culminated in a 40 yard Byington field goal but, more importantly, burned up the clock.

The Bulldogs got the ball back with 3:21 left in the ballgame and on the first play from scrimmage, Philip Castro intercepted and returned it 27 yards to the Dogs' 38.

Game over... Wolves 45, Bulldogs 7.

The Wolves amassed 526 yards in total offense, which included 304 passing and 222 rushing. The Pack earned 23 first downs to Clyde's 13.

Hill was 14 of 22 for 264 yards and two touchdowns. Phariss went three for three for 40 yards. Green rushed 12 times for 107 yards and two touchdowns.

Head Coach Gerald James got the traditional "bath" in the winning seconds of the contest. In fact, he got a double dip because it was homecoming.

The coach is optimistic about his team's level of play with only one non-district game to go before the district opener against Denver City Oct. 9 at Wolf Stadium.

"The kids have been playing hard all season, but their technique is getting better, which is what you want to see at this time of year," said the 3-1 first year coach.

The Wolves' next contest will be at 8 p.m. Friday in Sonora.

Wolves head to Sonora

The Colorado City Wolves (3-1) head south to battle the Sonora Broncos (3-1) this Friday night at 8 p.m.

Sonora slipped down into the 2A classification this season and are favorites to win district 2-2A.

Players to watch on the Bronco squad include 5'10 185 lb. sophomore running back Tom Jacoby and 5'10 170 lb. senior running back

Anthony Renfro.

Renfro rushed for 115 yards and two touchdowns against Alpine two weeks ago and had two scores against Brackettville last week, including a 50 yarder.

Sonora beat Reagan County 20-6 in week one and then lost the "mudbowl" in Brady 14-6 in week two.

Two weeks ago the Broncos beat Alpine 26-16 and last week they skunked the Brackettville Tigers 17-0.

Known this season for their strong defense against the run, the Broncos have not faced a team as balanced as Colorado City.

Sonora middle linebacker Brad Legan, at 6'3 205 lb., runs 4.6 in the 40 and has been an all-district linebacker for the last two years.

Hornets sting Bulldogs 54-6

The Loraine Bulldogs opened district 10A play on a dismal note last Friday night by taking a knockout punch at the hands of the Highland Hornets by a 54-6 count.

Highland rolled to a 24-0 first quarter lead on two Bowen runs of 43 and 6 yards coupled with Steve Lomas' six yard touchdown carry.

This would be enough to take the fight out of the "Dogs" as the Hornets scored 22 more points in the second quarter.

The only thing that saved the game from being rolled at half-time was a 75 yard kick-off return by 135 pound senior running back Leonard Williams.

The Bulldogs did play a more inspired third quarter with strong defense by Josh Wooddell and Ralph Martinez but the offense continued to sputter.

Finally, with 1:47 to go in the third period Highland brought the game to an end when Jared Brown scored on a 65 yard touchdown run. Brown accounted for 175 yards rushing by himself.

The win raised the Hornets record to 3-1 for the season while Loraine is still seeking it's first win under new head coach Jerry Miller.

Loraine will continue district play this Friday when they travel to Trent in search of that first elusive win. Game time is 7:30.

Wildcats win 82-60 over Paint Creek

The Westbrook Wildcats hosted Paint Creek last Friday night and won 82-60 in an offensive showdown.

The Wildcats racked up 673 yards in total offense for the contest including a 189 yard outing by running back Roland Matos.

Matos led the 2-2 Wildcats with five touchdowns as teammate Chris Chambers added three scores and 180 yards rushing.

Quarterback Sam Harless continues to improve weekly as he was a crisp 9 of 11 passing for 112 yards.

Senior Thadd Rich ran back a kickoff for an 85 yard touchdown and added another eight points with eight of ten extra point kicks.

The Cats were tied with Paint Creek at the end of the first quarter, 14-14, but began to pull away just before the break as the halftime score revealed a 50-44 Westbrook advantage.

The Wildcats applied even more pressure in the second half, outscoring Paint Creek 32-16 to make the final score 82-60.

Head Coach Jim Hill definitely has his finger on the pulse of his team, citing strengths and weaknesses of the young group.

"Our kicking game looks a lot better," said Coach Hill, referring to the Cats' 9 of 11 extra point kicks. "We need to work on tackling. We are getting better. We just need to work harder."

The Wildcats play their last pre-district game in Moran at 7:30 Friday, October 2, before opening district at home against Borden County October 9.

Loraine Bulldogs travel to Trent in quest of first win

With the Novice Hornets having to drop out of competition in district 10A, the Loraine Bulldogs have completed half of this year's season still looking for their first win.

This week's hope for a victory will come when they travel up Interstate 20 to Trent to take on the Gorillas.

Trent has jumped off to a surprising 3-1 record losing only to Lueders-Avoca who the Bulldogs also lost to.

Coach Phil Boone has six seniors to provide some leadership for the Gorillas.

Senior quarterback Rusty Brown, end Chris Wolford and quarterback-end Luis Sargent are among returning starters playing their final season.

Running back Kevin Sanford has also returned after missing most of last season due to an injury in the first game of the year.

Sophomore running back and linebacker Albert Booker is also a serious threat as he rushed for almost 400 yards in one game last year.

Coach Boone lists speed and work ethics as his main strengths while the team weakness was listed as lack of a passing game and lack of confidence.

Through the first four games of this season, it seems they have already overcome those weaknesses.

8th grade Wolves beat Clyde

The Colorado City Wolves eighth grade football team improved their record to 3-0 on the season after last Thursday's 32-14 win over the Clyde Bulldogs in Wolf stadium.

Running back Mickey Green rushed for two touchdowns and almost 200 yards in the first half.

Green replaces Kinji Johnson in the lineup. Kinji suffered a broken ankle against Stanton last week and will miss the rest of the season.

As Green came off the field after his first 80 yard touchdown run, he went straight to his cousin Kinji and dedicated the awesome run to him.

Mickey promised Kinji two more scores and, a few plays later, he bounced off tacklers for another touchdown run, this time for 88 yards.

The Wolves, after failing on both conversion attempts, led at the half 12-0.

Unfortunately, Green pulled a muscle on the opening third quarter kickoff return or he might have scored several more times.

But teammates Landon Graham and David Leanos would pick up where Green left off as Graham ran one in from two yards out with 4:06 left in the third. Wolves 18, Bulldogs 0.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Dogs bobbled the ball and Josh Ritchey recovered the fumble giving the young Pack great field position at the Dog 30 yard line.

After a couple of four yard gainers by Graham and Jonathan Spear, Leanos rumbled in for a two yard score.

The two-point conversion failed, making it Wolves 24, Bulldogs 0 with 22 seconds left in the third quarter.

But the Clyde boys never gave up as they took the kickoff back to the Wolf 39 and scored three plays later.

Their conversion attempt failed and the score stood at Wolves 24, Clyde 6 but not for long.

On the Wolves' next play from scrimmage, Leanos fumbled a Spear pitchout only to pick it up, reverse field and scamper 68 yards to the endzone.

Spear's two-point pass was good and with 6:52 left in the game the Wolves' lead lead was now 32-6.

Clyde would score eight points with 25 seconds remaining. But it was too little, too late as the final margin was Wolves 32, Bulldogs 14.

Clyde has a good ballclub but were never able to overcome the early deficit put on

Lady Wolves start district play

The Colorado City Lady Wolves varsity volleyball team began district play in Seminole Tuesday and learned the meaning of home-court advantage as they stumbled out of the blocks in a three-game loss to the Lady Indians.

The Lady Wolves entered Seminole's gym and faced not only the Lady Indians, but the majority of the SHS student body as well.

The first game was a 3-15 blowout but in the last two games the girls settled down and started to play ball as they won game two 15-13 and extended the third and deciding game to a 19-21 marathon loss.

In spite of the loss, the ladies showed improvement in service percentage, digs and shot deflections.

Kendra Anderson led the team with 17 error-free serves and was joined by teammates Staci Turnbow and Margaret Ann Jameson who had 14 and 10 flawless serve attempts respectively.

As a team, the ladies were a sizzling 92 percent on serve percentage, the best this season.

Jameson had a busy night setting the ball as she successfully attempted 103 out of 110 sets.

Anderson and Liz Rivera led the team in kills with three each. Rivera had a 92 percent attack ratio and Edwina Ceballos was 85 percent with a 23 of 2 effort, including one kill.

Dig numbers are still climbing as four players reached double digit figures. Anderson was successful on 13 of 18 dig attempts. James Mason went 10 for 16. Ann Marie Scott was 12 for 19 and Eivera was 13 for 30. Sharie Ritchey was a perfect two for two, the only 100 percent dig ratio.

Blocked or deflected shot numbers have been weak this season but are improving as Anderson and Ceballos combined for 29 deflections. Anderson had four solo blocks to her credit.

The (13-6) (0-1) Lady Wolves still have a few kinks to work out and have nine more district contests to go. If this talented group of young ladies are going to earn a berth in the post-season, kink-free is the way to be.

The team plays at Lubbock Cooper this Saturday at 4 p.m. before hosting Lamesa at the Pit on Tuesday, October 6.

Seventh grade travels to Snyder

The Colorado City Lady Wolves seventh grade A and B volleyball teams made a trip to Snyder Monday to play the Lady Tigers.

The Lady Wolves B team played first and won in three games (15-7) (11-15) (15-11). In game one, 14 of the 15 points scored were won by two girls, Shalynn Harris and Crystal Gonzales, who had seven each.

The high point scorer for game two was Nina Herrera with six points.

In the match-deciding game three, Crystal Gonzales dominated with eight points.

The A team had a rough outing as they lost to the Snyder A team in two (5-15) (12-15).

In game one Ashley Wright and Sandra Leija scored two points apiece.

Game two was a little more competitive for the Lady Wolves as 12 points were scored.

Robyn Rodriguez and Hannah Bassham scored five each in the game.

Head coach Linda Mathis says the girls are working hard and getting better.

"All the girls are improving and working on the skills needed to play good volleyball. Their serves are more consistent and harder," said Mathis.

"Teamwork on the B team has really improved."

The B team will play in a Sweetwater tournament this Saturday, Oct. 3.

Next Tuesday, Oct. 6, both teams will travel to Midland Christian with the B team starting at 3:45 and the A team starting at 4:45.

Eighth grade A & B loses

The Colorado City Lady Wolves eighth grade A and B volleyball teams traveled to Snyder Monday to play the Lady Tigers. The B team lost in two games to their Snyder counterparts (6-15) (0-15).

High point scorers for the girls were Andrea Hoback with three, Misty Pineda with two, and Shawna McGuire with one.

The A team had a marathon match in a three-game loss to the Lady Tigers.

The first game was lost 4-15, but the Lady Wolves did not give in as it took over 40 minutes to finish the game due to some tremendously long volleys.

Game two, a 17-15 Wolf win, took another 40 minutes to finish. The Lady Wolves were down 7-14 and fought back to win and force a third game.

The girls must have been plum tucked out after all that volleying as they lost the third game 7-15.

Terri Phariss led in points scored with a whopping 12 points. Alison Lopez followed with six points to her credit.

Stephanie Boyd had four points and Jami Thackerson contributed three. Jackie Davila, Camielle Duran and Natalie Sharp all had one point apiece in the long-lasting match.

The girls' next match will be against Midland Christian in Midland on Tuesday, October 6.

JV Black wins

The Colorado City Wolves JV Black football team traveled to Clyde last Thursday night and came away with a 29-6 victory to improve their record to 3-1 on the season.

The only score of the first quarter came on a Tony Leanos run from two yards out.

Danny Torrez came in and kicked the PAT to make it 7-0 Wolves.

Quarterback Andrew Spear, running the option and play-action pass most of the day, rushed for a 17 yard score midway through the second quarter.

After the PAT went wide right, the tally was now Colorado City 13, Clyde 0.

Late in the second half, Clyde's quarterback connected with a receiver in the middle of the field.

Wolf defender Tim Boyd put a monster hit on the guy and knocked the ball away from him.

But another Clyde receiver happened to be in the right spot and grabbed the loose ball in mid-air and trotted into the endzone.

Their PAT failed and the score stood at Wolves 13, Bulldogs 6 during the break.

The third quarter turned out to be a scoreless battle of defense, but the Wolves offense exploded for another 16 points in the fourth.

Leanos ran one in from four yards out and Mr. Spear ran in the two-point conversion.

On the final score of the day, Spear scored from one yard out on a quarterback sneak.

The Wolves attempted to kick the PAT, but the snap was errant and Spear raced in for two.

Coach Dan Gainey gave the team credit for the win when describing the game.

"Tony, Andrew and Nick Rodriguez all did a great job running. The offensive line controlled the line of scrimmage," said Gainey.

"The defense played well as a whole."

The team will combine with the JV red unit at Wolf stadium Thursday to play the Sonora Broncos JV unit at 6 p.m.

JV red team plays to tie

"It was a battle of field position between two strong defenses," said coach Dan Gainey of the 0-0 tie between the Clyde Bulldogs and the Colorado Wolves JV red team in Clyde last Thursday evening.

The Wolves drove inside the Dog 10 yard line twice in the first half but were held out of the endzone by a stingy Clyde defense.

The two teams traded stalled-drives for four quarters but in the end, the home team Bulldogs had the edge as they drove to the Wolf one yard line with only seconds to go in the game.

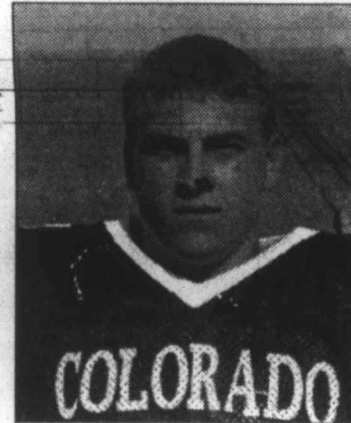

But the defensive battle would not be lost by Colorado City as the young team showed its heart with a great goal-line stand at the buzzer.

The JV red will combine with the JV black team this Thursday evening at Wolf stadium for a 6 p.m. battle with the Sonora Broncos JV unit.

Loraine news

By Bessie Ann Vaughn

Greetings to our readers, September's song has now been sung and though it is 93 degrees, we want to see some frost on the pumpkins.

Let us hope that mother nature will provide enough moisture for frost. A big snow would be better.

I hope you didn't put up a big pot of money on Cowboy's to win yesterday. I was sure rooting for them. Maybe next time!

I think everyone should have enjoyed Baseball.

I recently spoke with Carol Parham and she reports that she and her mother Monica Chavez have opened the Loraine CreeMee.

It is good to have the CreeMee open again.

Christine Sanderson underwent major surgery recently at Rolling Plains Hospital in Sweetwater.

Mr. Sanderson reported that she is now at home and doing well. She would enjoy hearing from you, 411 Rector Ave. Loraine, Tx. 79532.

Our friend Shirley Kendall is working part-time at the Loraine Bank.

She is still working at the center part-time and we are happy she is.

Jack and Mary Love Albright of Midland along with some of their grandchildren plus Troy and Jean Keagans of Arlington were here over the week-end for Syble Walker's 95th birthday.

Syble's party was held at Loraine Manor.

Ramon Badillo's birthday was celebrated at the Manor as well as by friends and family.

Virgil and Geraldine Parnell went to San Angelo Sunday to visit their grandson and his family.

The group also went to church there.

Rachel and Chuck Watson, their daughter Donna Dunkle and her new baby from California, visited with Audra Beights one day last week.

Chris Hall, his wife and two young sons from Panama City were here again to visit their grandmother Chrystene Hall. Jim Hall stays in Loraine often now to check on his mom.

Chrystene Hall has just recently been moved to Intensive Care facility on 12th St. in Sweetwater.

Iris reports that her sister has made some improvements.

Joe Bill and Janette Hale of Austin are proud parents of a baby girl named Hattie Marie.

Grandparents are Clovis and Jean Hale and maternal great-grandmother is Irene Kidd of Loraine.

Dale Baird of Dallas was here last week to visit his mother, Ida Baird.

Becky and Tommy Doyle of Arlington, Chester and Beverly Collier of Westbrook, grandson Jimmy and wife Jodie, plus Hudson from Silver visited with Nell Doyle Sat. 26th and wished her a happy birthday.

Senior Center News

It was good to have Doris back at the center last week and to learn that Theron in doing well with his "new" knee.

Bro. Dan Marshall entertained us with some beautiful religious music and singing Monday. He used an electronic band which worked very well. We want a repeat visit.

Recent visitors at the center lately have included Gypsy (McCollum) Gulley, Fay Spikes, McCollum, Doris Dockery, Johnny Price, Debbie Zabica and Joshua and Ira Williamson, Irene Hester, Don Hester, plus Robert and Bess Miller.

Cleo Grant and Geneva Bynum were at the center last Wednesday.

Cleo is Geneva's sister. She said she was from beautiful Nappa, CA, wine country!

Irene Hester of Fort Worth and her nephew Don Hester of Dallas ate with old friends and neighbors last Friday.

Robert Miller and Bessie (Hendricks) Miller who now reside in Austin also visited with us and had lunch.

Both the Millers and Hesters came to Mitchell County for the Old Timers reunion.

Both Irene "Brown" Hester and Bess "Hendricks" Miller are former Lorainians.

Our indoor garage sale did well and will continue until next week.

J.A. Sadler was overheard telling a crowd that pastor James Merrill preached four sermons on Joan of Arc thinking she was Noah's wife!

I feel certain Bro. James will have a good come back for Sadler.

By the way, they are good friends!

A woman on a bench in the park was discussing wash day with her companion.

"I ain't gonna wash Monday until Tuesday," she said, "and then if something else has gotta be done Tuesday, I ain't gonna wash this week till next week."
