R. B. (Dick) Miller called Hereford Wednesday p.m. and notified friends here that his mother, Mrs. H. T. Miller Sr., died Wednesday at 3 p.m. A double funeral service for Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Miller Sr. will be held Thursday at 3 p.m. in Guardian Funeral home in Oklahoma City. Miller's father died Monday.

The Hereford Safety Council will hold its next regular meeting next Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. in the mayor's office, President Bob Wear said Wednesday.

The commissioners court met last Monday and named Dr. R. R. Wills as county health officer for the coming year in place of Dr. L. B. Barnett, who asked for a year's leave of absence to study in Dallas on specialized work.

June 30, not June 23, is the probable date legal work on the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative's rural telephone application will be completed. A story in The Sunday Brand listed the date as June 23. We were just a week ahead of ourselves.

Six speeches on different phases of the United Nations was the program for the Toastmasters club when it met Monday night at the Hotel Jim Hill.

Bob Wear acted as toastmaster for the evening. Welcomed as a guest was M. P. Copeland of the Bakersfield, Calif. Toastmasters club.

The next meeting will be a family picnic held at 7:30, Monday, July 2, at the Jaycee park. Dr. M. C. Adams will be in charge of the program.

Hereford Kiwanians will be making a trip to Lubbock on Thursday, July 5, with "the pig", which was brought to the club a week ago by the Borger club. President John Poole asks all members make a special effort to be at next Thursday's meeting so the local organization may use the proceeds in the "pig" bank for youth activity use.

E. C. Eubanks attended a convention of the Texas Accountant's association June 22 and 23 at Lubbock. He also attended two meetings of the board of governors of the association as vice-president of the Panhandle district.

The Riding club's trip to Santa Fe for July 12 has been called off. The club will make a trip to Levelland on July 18 instead.

THIS PICTURE shows how the tornado hitting the R. C. Childers farm lifted a 28x11-foot feeder over the tractor just behind the feeder and deposited it some 100 feet to the northwest. The feeder was originally where the cow in the left of the picture is standing. The tornado carried it to the extreme right corner of the above picture ,where it lies in the above picture. —Brand Staff Photo.

THE CHILDERS GARAGE was demolished completely by the twister as shown in the above picture. Both the family auto and a pick-up truck were parked in front of the garage at the time. They were undamaged. The twister carried the garage some 75 feet and smashed it to bits. Estimated replacement cost of the two-car garage is $1000. —Brand Photo.

Tornado Causes $1500 in Damage at Childers Farm

The Hereford area was once again visited by a tornado as a small twister Sunday caused an estimated $1500 in damage at the R. C. Childers farm four miles west and one mile north of Hereford.

A double garage and a 28x11-foot feeder were completely demolished by the twister, which hit between 6:30 and 7 p.m. while Childers, his son, Raymon Jr., and J. H. Babcock Jr., were in the milking shed northwest of the house and garage.

The three watched the twister from the shed as it picked up the large feeder and held it in the air, then turned it end-over-end and deposited it on the ground about 100 feet to the northwest of where it originally stood.

The twister, which had already demolished the garage when it hit the feeder, came from a soutneasterly direction. Childers and the two youths couldn't see it level the garage as the barn obstructed their view.

Childers said he saw no tornado funnel, apparently because the twister didn't hit the ground, but stayed a short distance in the air. That would explain why an older barn in the path of the tornado escaped practically untoucned.

The tin roof of the 12-foot high feeder was the first thing to come off the feeder, discounting any theory that the feeder was lifted by an updraft. created by the roof.

Forty cows were at or near the feeder when the twister hit. As the feeder twirled through the air, the cattle followed it northwest – towards where it finally hit the ground.

A 9200-pound tractor, which was right behind the feeder, was moved 12 inches in front and the back wheels were moved a distance of eight inches.

The Childers house was damaged slightly by the twister as it shook and twisted the house, cracking the wall paper at the seams. Mrs. Childers and Patsy were in the house at the time and didn't feel or see anything except when the weatherstripping "started singing." Patsy called her mother that the small trees in the yard were "laying flat on the ground." The trees were not broken, however.

After the twister left the Childers place, it disappeared into the clouds again within a distance of 1¼ miles, but not before it dipped to the ground

Crop Damage Heavy in Spots From Storm

Scattered reports of heavy crop damage from Sunday's storm were received at The Brand Office during the week. Most of the damage, however, seemed to lie from Summerfield on northeast of Hereford.

The Reinauer brothers reported that their wheat crop was hailed out. Taft McGee lost his wheat crop northeast of Hereford about eight miles.

This area's worst electrical storm in many years knocked out transformers for the Southwestern Public Service company and cut the power line in back of the city hall.

Damage from the lightning was reported as "pretty serious" although no final accounting of the damage has been made as yet.

Power interruptions were reported by the company with service off for about an hour.

REA service was off for a period of time because their supplier, the Southwest Public Service company, was also affected. About six transformers blew from lightning, Manager Leo Forrest said.

Fireworks Display July 4 at Vets Park

A huge aerial fireworks display will be presented free of charge for the entertainment of residents of the entire community at Veterans Memorial park Wednesday night, July 4, according to Tom McFarland, secretary-manager of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

The show begins prompty at 9:15 p.m.

An hour-long display, with $400 of fireworks to be touched off, will climax individual observances of Independence Day in Hereford.

The display is being presented free of charge by the Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the city's service clubs Francis Hardwick is helping McFarland in arranging for the display.

Included in the display, McFarland said, will be fountains, flags, aerial bombs and waterfalls. Members of the Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce will be asked to aid in firing the display, McFarland said.

There was no community-wide sponsorship of a fireworks display on July 4, last year.

City ordinance forbids shooting of firecrackers in the city limits.

The fireworks will be touched off beyond the ball park in the draw. Cars will be parked on the hill, according to McFarland.

Wheat Harvesting To Get Started After July 1

Harvesting of wheat in many sections of the county has begun, with small amounts being brought into Hereford elevators.

The bulk of the harvest, which is expected to exceed that of 1950, will begin shortly after July 1.

A check of the elevators in Hereford revealed that all the wheat coming in to date is good, weighing mostly about 62 pounds. Moisture content is about 12 to 13 per cent.

Practically all the wheat brought to local elevators so far has been placed in open storage pending the establishing of a loan rate around July 1.

Anticipated rate for the 1951 crop is in the neighborhood of $2.12 as compared with the old loan rate of $1.95 per bushel.

A Davis and McCracken cutting of 120 acres netted about 30 bushels plus per acre. Testing at 62 pounds, the wheat contained 12% moisture. They finished hauling their wheat to Bradley Grain company on Tuesday.

Ivan Block and Claude Dameron were alo early harvesters who brought their crop to Bradley's. Both these samples contained 13% or 14% moisture.

Packard Milling company reported receipt of two loads totalling 20,000 pounds of good wheat.

Pitman's reported that what little wheat was brought in has been quite moist, running around 17% moisture.

The general concensus is that about 15 per cent of the acreage planted will be harvested.

Father of Dick Miller Dies in Oklahoma City

H. T. Miller, father of R. B. Miller of Hereford, died early Monday moring in Oklahoma City.

Funeral arrangements are pending. They will be held in the Guardian Funeral home in Oklahoma City.

Mr. Miller underwent surgery on January 25 and never fully recovered.

He is survived by his wife and the following sons and daughters: R. B. (Dick) Miller, Hereford; H. T. Miller Jr., Tulia; J. P. Miller, San Antonio; R. L. (Bob) Miller, San Antonio; Mrs. Geurney Peoples of Fort Worth; and Elizabeth B. Miller of Oklahoma City.

Two Air Force Enlistees Sent To Amarillo

Two Air Force enlistees left Hereford on Monday for Amarillo, M/Sgt. Hicklin Harrell, local recruiter, told The Brand.

Ralph Barnard Miller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Miller of Friona, enlisted in the Air Force for four years. He will be sent to Lackland Air Base, San Antonio, for basic training.

Dub Douglas Parks, son of Mrs. Roy Hickman of Dimmitt, enlisted for four years and was also sent to Amarillo, then to Lackland.

McGuire Given Two Years on Forgery Count

Harry McGuire was given two years in the pententiary by Judge Harry Schulz Saturday after he pled guilty to a charge of forgery and passing a forged check.

McGuire was indicted by the grand jury at the January term of district court but was not tried because he was serving a sentence in Oklahoma on a forgery count. He was returned here early in June under extradition proceedings between Texas and Oklahoma authorities.

He pled guilty to forging the name of O. G. Hill to a $56 check.

Vet Ag Class Time Limit is July 25

All non-disabled veterans seeking to enroll or re-enroll in the veterans' agriculture training at Hereford must be in training by July 25, according to Charles Crowell, co-ordinator of the Deaf Smith county vocational school.

Disabled veterans may enroll after this date but must complete their training by 1956, Crowell said.

In order to enroll in the Deaf Smith County Vocational Agriculture school, a veteran must either own or lease 80 acres of irrigated land or 160 acers of dry land, all of which must be under his complete control.

All veterans who have completed three years of training should come by the school before July 25 and file the necessary papers for entering the fourth year.

At the present time, four three-year classes in general agriculture and one fourth-year class in advanced agriculture are in operation in Hereford, emphasizing diversified - type farming.

All veterans interested in this course should contact Crowell at the school as soon as possible.

Venezuelan Schools as Good As Those in States: Wilson

Hereford, Texas or San Tone' Venezuela—Woodrow B. Wilson finds that he likes them both.

Wilson, son of S. O. Wilson of Hereford, is in the states on medical leave from his position as superintendent of schools in San Tone', a large oil camp in the eastern part of Venezuela.

"San Tone' isn't like most people's idea of an oil camp. It is large and clean and has beautiful homes," Wilson commented.

Wilson is superintendent of two American schools and six native schools. The American schools employ much the same teaching methods that U.S. schools do since the teachers are brought from the States.

"If anything, the schools are better than the ones in the States," said Wilson, "because the teachers must pass stricter tests in order to be allowed to teach in Venezuela."

The native schools are controlled by the Venezuelan government and use entirely different teaching methods.

Five years ago, none of the natives employed by the oil companies could read or write, but the companies provided free educational facilities. Now all the workers can read and write.

Outside of oil company employees, the natives of Venezuela are very poor. Many of them live in one-room huts with their kitchens out under the trees. They sleep in hammock-like affairs made of native fibers. In the daytime, the hammocks are unhooked from one wall in order that the room may be used for living quarters.

Prices in Venezuela are about three times higher than they are in the United States. If an article doesn't cost more than three times what it does in the States it is considered moderately-priced. Foodstuffs are especially high, since all the food for Venezuela is imported. Higher wages compensate for the higher prices.

The climatic conditions around San Tone' are the same as they are around Hereford, although around the capitol, the terrain is mountainous, a great deal like Colorado.

The only roads in the country were built by the oil companies and are very few so it is comparatively easy to control the population by throwing up road blocks on all the roads.

Wilson said that he had to carry all his papers with him everywhere he went because the government was always throwing up a road block and vaccinating the entire population or trying to prove that someone was a cigarette smuggler.

"Revolutions, which are quite frequent are fun to watch from the sidelines," said Wilson. "You never have to worry about them bothering the oil companies and their employees, because that is where all the profits in the country come from. No matter what government is in control, they are good to the oil companies."

After four years in Venezuela Wilson is well satisfied and will return as soon as the doctors feel it is all right for him to do so. —N.G.L.

Grand Jury Indicts Five; Tries Cases

The grand jury issued five indictments when it met in Hereford Saturday morning.

Nora U. Drinkard, Amarillo, driving while intoxicated; Adolph Castillo, child desertion; Roy V. Blanks, burglary with intent to commit theft; and Pete Encinios, second offense DWI.

Trials for those indicted were conducted in the afternoon.

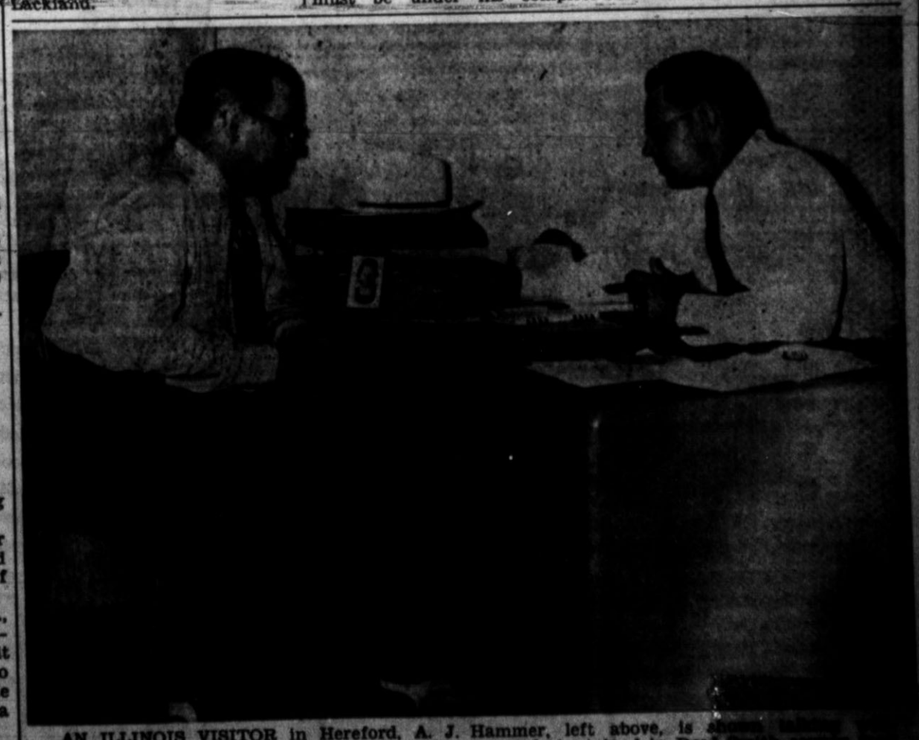

Nora U. Drinkard pled guilty to driving while intoxicated on June 22, 1951. Investigation further revealed that she had been convicted at Amarillo in December, 1950 for driving while intoxicated.

She was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary but placed on probation for a period of three years.

Roy V. Blanks, Gowery, Okla., pled guilty to charges of burglary with intent to commit theft. He was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. He was placed on probation for a period of five years.

Blanks, in a written statement, confessed to breaking into the Lee Benefield place just

4-H Roundup, First Aid Class Area Activities

By Mrs. R. C. Childers

Sue Cooke left Sunday morning at 5:30 for College Station to attend the 4-H Round-Up and to participate in the poultry judging. The other members of the judging team were in the group. Miss Mahaffey took her car and all that could be comfortable rode with her. They will be gone most of this week.

Fred Wolfington, who has been quite ill, is able to be up and resume part of his work. Mrs. Wolfington thinks that they will get to move this week for sure.

Mrs. Earl DeHart is taking the 15-hour course of instruction for prospective instructors in Red Cross first aid. These classes began Wednesday. Mrs. DeHart has had her basic training. This will qualify her as a First Aid instructor. Mrs. DeHart is also civil defense chiarman for this community.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Childers visited in the homes of Mrs. R. N. Cooke and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfington Sunday. The group visited the ruins of the Wolfington home which was flooded with water during the heavy rains which fell the week of May 16.

The Cultural Home Demonstration club will meet in the home of Mrs. C. S. Barclay on Thursday, June 28. Mrs. Wayne Johnson, who is clothing demonstrator, will will have charge of a program on putting in zippers.

Mrs. R. N. Cooke and her daughter Sue shopped in Amarillo Saturday.

Scattered amounts of rainfall were received over the community Sunday. To the west and north only a shower was received while the Paul Corbett, Robert Kerschen and R. C. Childers farms received an inch or more.

In most places row crops are up and looking good. This rain was just what it was needing. Several farmers were having to irrigate.

Gardens over the community are beginning to provide a few fresh vegetables for the table. Onions and radishes, spinach and English peas are in the peak of production now.

Beef Price Posting Delay Changes Date to August 1

LUBBOCK — The Office of Price Stabilization announced that the requirement that retail meat sellers publicly post ceiling beef prices by June 26 would be postponed until August 1.

In view of the fact that mechanical difficulties had forced a delay in the intended June 18 posting date and that August 1 is the end of the present price level based on the first 10 per cent roll back of live cattle prices, it was decided to delay the posting of the charges for the brief period of time before that date. On August 1, new lower price levels at retail are scheduled under the present regulations.

In addition OPS officials said continued study of the operation of the program indicates that a few adjustments in prices of some cuts may be necessary, to bring them in line with others in the same region.

Meantime, it was pointed out, the order requires that all prices be posted on the tray in which the beef cuts are displayed, and that these prices must be at or below ceilings prescribed in the regulation.

Kosher beef retailers, who were required to post their prices on June 11, will continue to display their charts, OPS said.

Also, any other retail dealers who desire to post their prices for the benefit of their customers may prepare their own from the prices in the regulation and post them, it was pointed out.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

The scholastic census for Deaf Smith county for the school year of 1905-1906 shows the following number of children within the scholastic age enrolled:

Hereford school, 328 against 281 for 1904-1905, an increase of 47; Union school, 9; Burrtam school, 13; Day school, 21; Wyche school, 8; Walcott school, 9; Summerfield school, 12; County Line school, 9; Dawn school, 5; and Ward school, 4. A total for the county of 439 against 369 for 1904-1905; an increase in the county of 70.

The electric light management this week received their large cedar poles which have been placed on the ground and will be erected within the next few days, the holes already having been dug.

Two main cables will be placed; one leading to the college, the other to the vicinity of Judge Gough's residence from which the entire city will be lighted.

The dynamo engine and other machine have been placed and poles and wires only remain to be placed in their positions to make the system complete.

25 Years Ago

Not since the old prosperous days of 1908 has Hereford and the territory surrounding it carried such an air of coming prosperity, when everything looked so promising, when the people were all so confident.

There is a simply magnificient wheat crop in the county, just beginning to come in. The big rush is ahead in the weeks to come. Even so the elevators men and the buyers are open all night to receive the golden flood.

A trip around Hereford is an eye-opener just now. Hardly a block but has its new residence or its addition or its new roofs or its crew of carpenters or painters—all busy.

Farming in Deaf Smith county is very profitable if the farmer will "get-on-the ball" and practice the "live-at-home" plan, according to M. J. Lennox, who has 100 laying hens and has been milking 7 cows in addition to farming 375 acres. From February 24 to June 15, Lennonx sold $225.50 worth of cream and averaged $5 a week from the sale of eggs.

Hereford Girls Lose Second to Umbarger Nine

Phillips and Lawrence's girl's softball team lost their second game of the season Tuesday night when they dropped a return tilt with Umbarger by a 6-0 score.

Umbarger tallied their scores in the bottom of a big fifth inning.

Kathleen Paul and Norene Poarch got the only two hits for the Hereford nine—both singles.

Doris Witherspoon went the route on the hill for the losers and June Caraway carried the back-stopping chores.

The Childers family automobile and a pick-up truck were directly in front of the garage at the time it was demolished. Damage to the feeder was estimated at $500 and replacement cost of the double garage would be about $1000, Childers estimated.

Childers said he saw the cloud form out west and south of his place. The same cloud was over Hereford, he said and looked "mighty bad."

Explorer Scouts Return From Don Harrington

Five members of Explorer Post 50 returned Saturday from the second period of summer camp held at Boy Scout Camp Don Harrington.

Those attending during this period were: Arol Acton, Robert Miller, Larry Slaughter, Lanny Wilkins, and Tom Woodford. Slaughter, Wilkins, and Woodford also attended the first period held a week earlier.

Tom Woodford served as a member of the Camp staff during both periods. He was assistant to Field Executive W. M. Teague who was camp program director and served as life guard and waterfront instructor.

During the second period, Robert Miller was selected as honor camper and Lanny Wilkins as camp goat. These honors were announced at the Indian Campfire held on Friday night.

Tom Woodford took part in the fire lighting ceremony as an Indian Brave representing the South Wind. Larry Slaughter together with Eddie Waite of Dalhart who taught the Indian dances performed the Ceremonial Fire Dance. Arol Acton did the part of the Indion Brave and Lanny Wilkins of the Evil Spirit in the Spirit Dance and Robert Miller was one of the Braves in the Skunk dance.

At the conclusion of the campfire Larry Slaughter, Robert Miller, and Lanny Wilkins were called out as candidates for the Order of the Black Arrow, honorary camping and serivce society. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Woodford and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Slaughter and Dickie, and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wilkins were camp visitors for the campfire program.

During the camp periods, Robert Miller and Larry Slaughter completed the requirements for Life Scout Rank, Larry Slaughter completed Explorer Apprentice Rank, Arol Acton completed Second Class Scout Rank, and Tom Wodford qualified for the Explorer Bronze Award. These and other awards will be presented at a Trail of Honor to be held by Post 50 in the near future.

Three Auto Accidents in Hereford Over Week End

The Hereford police department had a busy week-end with three automobile accidents Saturday and Sunday. Damage to the autos involved amounted to about $1500, according to estimates.

An auto driven by Betty Taylor of National City, Calif., hit the parked auto belonging to James Wallace Robinson on the northeast corner of Fith and Lee at about 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

Damage to the auto driven by Miss Taylor, a 1950 Chevrolet, was about $200. The Robinson vehcile, a 1949 Buick, was damaged to the extent of about $400.

Miss Taylor was fined a total of $41, $16 for driving without an operator's license and $25 for reckless driving.

At 8:25 the same night, a 1939 Chevrolet sedan driven by Donald Wayne Zellner and a 1942 Ford driven by Lee Cobb of Route 1, collided at the corner of Fourth and Sampson.

Damage to the Zellner auto totaled $100, and damage to the left front of the Lee Cobb auto was about $300.

On Sunday at about 4:15 p.m., a 1948 Pontiac driven by Melvin Lynn Hill of Dalhart ran into the rear of a 1950 Dodge pickup driven by Billy Mae Akens of Clovis. The Hill vehicle was heading west and stopped at the intersection of Main and Highway 60 for a traffic light when hit from the rear.

Five-year-old Keith Akens, a passenger in the pickup, received head injuries and was released from the hospital .

Hill, who is stationed at El Paso, was on his way to Texico to pick up two soldiers and return them to the base.

Damage to the Hill vehicle was $500 and $5 to the pickup.

City Patrolman Leland Alderson investigated all three of the accidents.

By JIMMIE GILLENTINE

An automobile drove up in front of Hotel Jim Hill Sunday and before it came to a complete halt a woman dashed out in the rain, ran into the coffee shop and demanded to know where was the basement. Finding out, she made another mad dash and didn't stop until she reached it. Still panting, the woman said she thought she was in at least a tornado, maybe worse. Further conversation evolved the fact that the car ran into the heavy hail storm near Summerfield. The windshield was broken out and the woman was cut and bleeding slightly. Mrs. Paul Holland, the manager's wife, said she never saw anyone so frightened.

Come to think of it, we are having some rather unusual weather lately. Summer hail storms are not too uncommon in this area—but we seldom have them when the wheat crop is so short.

Jim Wheelan was telling me that he took Don Bruhl, husband of the former Leona Blood, to Amarillo to catch a plane Monday morning—and that Mr. Bruhl did not lok too kindly upon the weather conditions of this area. Mr. Bruhl lives in Llano, where it gets pretty hot during the summer, and he says he won't mind the heat near so much in the future after having spent Sunday and Sunday night in Hereford.

Here's a poem Robert Thompson ran across during World War II and saved. He seems to think it fits the present meat-shortage situation even better than before:

NEW MOTHER HUBBARD
She went to the butcher's
For Spareribs and suet,
But found that some others
Had beat her tuet.
She said she would settle
For sausage and liver,
The butcher insisted
He had none to giver.
She pleaded for pork chops...
For meat balls, for mutton
But the butcher said, "Lady,
I just ain't got nutton."

However, the meat situation seems to be getting a little bit easier with food dealers. As one old boy put it "everything's worth a lot more nowdays except money."

The wheat crop, what the greenbugs and hail left, is surprising everyone. Yields are running well above average; 35 bushels is not uncommon and a lot of tracts are cutting 25 bushels. Estimates place the crop at around twice that of 1950, probably between 200,000 and 250,000 bushels. Potato harvest will get into high gear around July 5. Some of the potatoes are also looking good.

Despite all of these things, plus a possible good lettuce crop and a large cotton acreage for this area, the fate of the territory will again depend upon the row crop. Probably a bigger row crop than even last year is the prediction of many farmers. The price bids to be up, too. Many other areas have planted more cotton than in 1950, due to restrictions last year, and the competition should not be so great. Government support on grain sorghums is another incentive this season.

Maybe this will put a stop to all of the talk about fishing. Every time you turn around Dubbs Reeves or Jim Lipscomb is telling some sort of fish story. Bruce Wooddell and Dale Tinnin are getting just about as bad. Joe Bishop used to be champion in these parts, but he seems to be slipping.

Here's an interesting letter about old times:

Dear Editor:

That story in Sunday's Hereford Brand, June 10, about the finding of an Indian's grave, by George Millard, on the O. K. Higgins ranch, recently, brought to mind those two or three graves we used to see—surrounded by decaying picket fences—along the north side of the highway, east of Hereford, perhaps between here and Dawn, or Umbarger, and I have wondered many times about them, as to how anyone happened to be buried away out there on the prairie. We saw those graves thirty or thirty-five years ago as we flivvered over to Amarillo, perhaps once a year, with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Huckert in their Model "T". The road then, much of it, cut sharp corners around section lines, and no pavement from here to Canyon, but we got there just the same; from Canyon on to Amarillo we sort of "roller coasted" as the car went up and down over the pavement. Those were happy days!

Concerning those roadside graves, it may be that some of the early settlers, who are still here, will recall those graves, and details concerning the burials out along the trail, for surely that is all it could be called—just a road, or trail, across the prairie—at the time of the burials.

The late, Mr. Ed Connell, an early day Sheriff here, once told me of a tragic happening—to a Sunday School picnic crowd as they went by team and wagon to the gathering place out east of Hereford, but that's another story.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Independence - America's

Most Precious Heritage

On the 175th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, we are more than ever dedicated to the founding spirit of the great nation. There has been no greater evidence anywhere, than history itself to give credence to the proposition that independence once gained . . . must be loved, defended and guarded, that it may long survive. Enemies within and without our borders are constantly hammering away at the foundations of our freedom. Let us all take inventory of the freedoms we enjoy, and rededicate ourselves to its protection.

Summerfield Downs Dawn In Extra - Inning Affair

Summerfield remained undefeated in the Hereford Softball League when it won its fourth straight contest Monday night at Veterans Memorial park by defeating Dawn, 12-9 in a nine-inning game.

Hereford Hardware won its third contest as against one loss by polishing off the Knights of Columbus by a 9-2 margin.

League-leading Summerfield took its fourth contest on 11 hits. Dawn had 10 for their nine runs. Both teams had a bad night afield, committing eight miscues apiece.

May and E. Lemon formed the battery for the losers and J. Clark and Baize went the route for Summerfield.

The KC's hurt their own cause in the opener, committing six errors while Hereford Hardware erred only twice. The hits were fairly even, with seven for KC and eight for Hereford Hardware.

Dub Hair was on the mound for the winners with Howard and Turpen sharing the backstopping duties. T. Albracht and Diller hurles for the KC's with Noggler behind the plate.

First "Scotch Foursome" is On July 15

The first "Scotch Foursome" of the year will be held on Sunday, July 15, according to Irma Terry, president of the Hereford Ladies' Golf association, sponsor of the event.

The man and woman partner in this event, playing the same ball on alternate strokes, will play a nine-hole match with another couple.

According to Mrs. Terry the event will be conducted on a handicap basis with each partner receiving ¼ of his or her individual handicap. The two handicaps will be added together and subtracted from the nine-hole for the net score.

Pairings for First Round Of Golf Tourney Named

Pairings for the first round in the Hereford Golf Handicap tournament were released this week by Pro Jim Terry.

The first round of match play must be completed on or before July 1. Prizes of merchandise totaling approximately $100 are being given away.

Three prizes will be given in each flight, Terry said. One to the winner, one to the runner-up, and one to the winner of the loser's consolation play-off.

All first round losers will go into a consolation flight and play other losers.

The low handicapper in each pairing must spot the high handicaper the difference between ther two scores on the 18-hole total.

First round scores will appear in part in the July 1 and July 5 Brand. Pairings for the second round will appear in the July 1 Sunday Brand.

Pairings for the first round of match play are and handicaps are:

Estes - Murdock Title Go Saturday at Bull Barn

Balk Estes won the right to meet Southwestern Sates Junior Heavyweight Champion Frankie Hill Murdock in a title go at the Bull barn on June 30 by defeating George Curtis in a main-event thriller here last Saturday.

The Oklahoma "alligator clutch" artist outlasted Curtis in a good match—the best the two have given the local fans here.

For Estes, it means another shot at the crown he once wore when he climbs into the ring next Saturday night with Murdock, "sleeper hold" artist who wrested the crown off the head of Dory Funk only recently at Lubbock.

Curtis has the consolation of losing a good clean match to a grappler who just outfought and outhustled him.

In the first match, a supporting bout for the elimination event, Gene Blackley of Buffalo Gap, Texas, pounded out a victory over George Overhuls, popular young strongman from Amarillo. More of that later, however.

In the final match of the evening, Estes took the first fall in 15 minutes with his "alligator clutch", which no doubt left Curtis feeling like the most helpless person in the world. The hold isn't the kind that hurts, just hangs a person up.

Curtis registered his disgust in an unmistakable manner after falling prey to Estes' "baby."

The two grapplers provided the fans with a little humor after the first fall when they got themselves into a leg hold that took on the complications of a Chinese puzzle. Even Referee Jack Carter was puzzled, but they finally worked out of it after some helpless and humorous gestures.

Curtis came back to even things up when, after 10 minutes of good wrestling, he slapped an abdominal stretch on Estes. The Oklahoman was forced to concede the fall.

Curtis kicked himself out of the championship when he was flooring Estes with flying tackles with the feet. He tried once too often and missed Estes, flopping down to the mat. Estes capitalized on the situation and covered Curtis with a body press, clinching a title shot.

The two, in addition to their unique footsie hold, each had field days with the ropes. Twice Estes looked as though he were going to heave Curtis over the top strand and Curtis did the same on two different occasions. Of course, both men held off because they knew doing so would disqualify them.

Estes and Curtis pleased the fans with their exhibition of Where Have You Been all its Life?

THIS ad is addressed to the fellow known as "the man on the street."

From that vantage point, you must have noticed that a lot of folks are driving 1951 Buicks.

You must have noted that you can spot one of these beauties—by its sparkling forefront—its gleaming fender ports—(three for the SPECIAL and SUPER, four for the ROADMASTER)—and by its fluent grace of lines and contours.

You've probably noticed, also, that these Buicks give a good account of themselves in traffic—ease to a gentle stop—get away to a nimble start when the light says, "Go."

You may even have noticed that these cars have a level-gaited stride that traces, as we've said before, to the fact that each wheel rides beneath its own coil spring.

But what we'd like to know is—when are you going to try one?

It's about time you climbed in the driver's seat.

It's about time that you sensed for yourself the thrill that comes from feeling your shoulders sink back in the cushions, when your toe gives the gas treadle a gentle nudge.

It's about time for you to be on the receiving end of those admiring glances which are the due of folks smart enough to pick the smart buy of the year.

What's holding you back? It can't be prices—for as you can quickly discover for yourself, you can own a SPECIAL for less than the price of some sixes—and SUPERS or ROADMASTERS are just as smart a buy in their fields.

So why not end the suspense? The welcome mat is out at our showrooms. We hope to greet you soon.

Saturday night. Either one of them would have made a worthy opponent for Frankie Hill Murdock.

Back to the mayhem of the first match.

George Overhuls took plenty of punishment, or what seemed like punishment, when he met Gene Blackley of Buffalo Gap in the supporting match, a one-hour, two-fall affair.

It took 25 minutes of pounding for Blackley to do it, but he forced Overhuls to concede the first fall after coming in with knee smashes to the muscle of the Amarilloan's leg and applying an inside step-over toe hold.

Blackley worked plenty on the left leg of Overhuls and it hurt.

Overhuls made quick work of Blackley in the second fall by flooring him with a spinning full-nelson.

The toughie from Buffalo Gap came back to power the win over Overhuls by flattening him with an inside step-over toe-hold in a quick five minutes to end the match.

Saturday's title match concludes the Lions Club wrestling program for the summer.

First Lt. Clifford H. Estes Graduates From Weapon Course

DARMSTADT, GERMANY — First Lieutenant Clifford H. Estes, son of Mr. Cliff Estes of Hereford, recently graduated from a three-day course in the operation of the Army's M-2 A-1 flame thrower, Headquarters, 1st Infantry Division announced here this week.

Conducted by the division's chemical section, this school gives Lieutenant Estes, 1st Battalion adjutant of the 18th Infantry Regiment, a thorough grounding in the operation and maintenance of the flame thrower. To graduate, students must demonstrate their mastery of the weapon in actual firing tests.

Fully loaded, the flame thrower weighs 65 pounds and firing it is much like directing water from a high pressure hose. Students get the feel of the flame thrower by first firing water from the M-2 A-1. Flame throwers are designed for close infantry support in attacking pillboxes or tanks. When the 2500 degree heat of the liquid flame engulfs a pillbox or tank, the occupants are either barbecued or suffocate from lack of oxygen.

A former student of Texas A&M, Lieutenant Estes entered the Army during June 1942 and served in Europe with the 9th Infantry Division during World War II, formerly assigned to the 101st Airborne Division at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., he has been a member of the famed 1st Division for the past 26 months.

Lieutenant Estes is accompanied in the command by his wife, Laura, and their two children.

State Draft Quota for August Up Over July

The Texas draft quota for August, received today at State Selective Service headquarters, is 485 men, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state director, announced.

The quota for the Deaf Smith county selective service board has not yet been received, according to Mrs. A. Peterson, clerk.

This is the state's share of a national quota of 22,000, announced in Washington in late May. The August quota of 485 compares to a July quota of 367 and a June quota of 521 in Texas.

The August call brings the Texas total of men called for since the beginning of the United Nations fight in Korea to 27,692. During the same period the entire nation has been called upon to furnish 587,000 men.

Local board quotas for the August call are not yet determined by state headquarters. General Wakefield estimated that calls to the boards will be issued on or about June 27.

When the August call is filled, it will bring to a close a full year of inductions in Texas which began in September 1950. Below are the monthly calls received for the one-year period.

September, 2,513; October, 2,514; November, 3,453; December, 2,008; January, 4,142; February, 4,137; March, 4,145; April 2,075; May, 1,332; June 521; July, 367; August, 485. Total, 27,692.

During the period from August 1950 through May 1951, Army examining authorities in Texas examined a total of 74,528 Texas draft registrants to determine acceptability or rejection for military service.

General Wakefield said there will be no physical examination of registrants scheduled during July and August, as the state now has a "sufficient pool of men examined and acceptable to take care of induction needs.

"As long as calls are as small as we are getting now," the state director of Selective Service commented, "we will be able to fill them for a considerable length of time without having more men examined.

"We are prepared for bigger calls if day-to-day developments in the world bring about need for an increase."

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Lunsford, Jerry, Jimmy and Barbara, who have recently moved to Hereford from Levelland, left yesterday for a short vacation. They will visit Mrs. Lunsford's mother, Mrs. S. L. Anderson, at Pampa and his mother, Mrs. M. I. Lunsford, of Oklahoma City.

California Resident Seeks Identification of Girls

The Hereford Brand has been handed a poser to identify five young ladies of 1909. We don't know the answer, so we'll have to enlist the aid of some of our older residents.

Here is the problem:

In the Pioneer Day edition, (May 17, 1951) in the section of the paper dealing with the "Struggle for North-South Rail Link", a picture and story deals on the argument regarding ladies hats in church. Five young ladies are pictured wearing 1909 vintage toppers. They are unidentified.

The Brand received the following letter from San Diego, California, dated June 22, from Mrs. Gertrude Cooper, 4371 Oregon street:

"I am writing you to see if I can get some information—the names of the girls in the picture on page 13 in the May 17, 1951 issue of your paper.

"My brother, who lives in Amarillo, sent that part of the paper to m ethis week. I believe I am the last one (extreme right) in the picture. I graduated from high school there in 1910 and I believe those other grls were my chums.

"The one next to the end (second from right) I believe, is Dimple Gass, of course she is married now.

"Would please do me a favor by sending me the names of the girls in the picture? My father, Dr. A. L. Taylor, was a medical doctor there for several years ,later moving to Brownwood.

"We hear so much about your fine soil and healthful living, good for everyone except the dentist!

"The 'hats off in church' drive is the picture I refer to. I will surely appreciate any information you can give me about the picture. Thank you kindly, Mrs. Gertrude Cooper, 4371 Oregon street, San Diego, Calif.'

WHO ARE THESE five girls? Can you identify them for one of Hereford's old residents who has written the accompanying letter? Call The Brand office if you know their identity.

* * *

There, old-timers, is a challenge. Can any of our readers help Mrs. Cooper wtih the identification of thse five girls? If so, please let The Brand know the corect identification so we can re-run the picture and give Mrs. Coper the information she seeks.

Seventh Day Adventists Hold Dedication

The Seventh-Day Adventist church held the dedication services for the church building, which is located at Third and Lawton, on June 23.

The building, which was the former Rance school building, was moved to its present location in the fall of 1945. R. E. Delafield was the pastor at the time the building was moved to Hereford.

Elder C. E. Gordon, president of the Texico Conference of SDA, gave the dedication address and Elder G. A. Lagrone of Amarillo, who organized the Sabbath school here in 1917, gave the history of the church.

District Pastor R. E. Reiger gave the scripture reading. Assisting in the program were: Educational Director T. V. Stonebrook and E. L. Moore, secretary-treasurer of the conference.

A score of friends and fellow members from surrounding churches were in Hereford to attend the services.

Crop Damage May Result from Improper Spraying, SDA Warns

Numerous reports of crop damages from harmone herbicides, such as 2,4-D, are coming into the Commissioner's office daily. The majority of thse crop damages are being caused by people using this chemical who are without State license to do so. Such license may be obtained from the State Department of Agriculture upon application in writing for a nominal fee.

People using 2,4-D or any of its derivatives should bear this in mind. In addition to a general law protecting people against injury, there is a special law governing the use and sale of 2,4-D or any of its derivatives in many of the counties in Texas. Such local officials as the county judge, the county attorney, or perhaps the county agent and vocational teacher in agriculture can give good advice on the contents of this special law regulating the use and sale of thse chemicals referred to above, commonly called "weed-killers."

A "day of reckoning" is coming to a lot of folks if they do not observe the provisions of this law regulating the use and sale of these "weed-killers".

Briefly, users of thse "weed-killers" should be registered with the State Department of Agriculture showing they have a bond, permit or license. The sellers of this chemical should do the same. The law requires this in many of the counties in Texas, an das stated above, your local officials know to which counties this law applies. In such counties, the Department is obliged to inspect your 2,4-D spraying equipment and many inspect the land where it is to be used. All this is for the purpose of protecting valuable crops such as cotton, legumes, shrubs, and vegetables against injury, and at the same time allow producers of such crops as grass, small grain, and rice to kill out their weeds and brush.

By all working together and using precaution, 2,4-D and its derivatives can save Texas agriculture a lot of money. In many sections of the State weeds and brush are the number one problem. By following the information and guidance of our research people on 2,4-D, it can be used with perfect safety.
