SHIPMENT OF ARMS IS TO BE HELD UP

CARGO FOR CONSTITUTIONALISTS WILL BE STOPPED AT GALVESTON PORT

Another Boat Which Cleared for Hamburg Believed to Be Bound for Mexican Port

By Associated Press. Washington, June 9.—At the meeting of the cabinet today the question of ammunition reaching the constitutionalists from the United States was the chief subject of discussion. Secretary of Commerce Redfield was directed to hold up at Galveston the cargo of arms consigned to Carranza's agent which is en route to the Texas port on the Morgan liner, El Sud. The El Sud has 45,000 rounds of ammunition from a New York firm. The ship cleared for Galveston and was to trans-ship the cargo to a ship of the Wolvin line for Tampico. As Secretary Redfield left the White House, he said he would at once notify the Galveston customs officials to hold the ammunition there. The president and cabinet learned from the collector of customs at Baltimore that the Hamburg American liner, Arcadia was loading there $10,000 consigned to Hamburg. The collector reported that he believed the consignment was actually destined for Mexico.

Secretary Redfield said this government could do nothing if the ship actually cleared for Hamburg; as to the Antilla there was considerable discussion in the cabinet and it was declared no directions had been issued relative to permitting her to land her cargo of ammunition at Tampico.

Secretary Daniels said that no new instructions had been sent to Admiral Badger and that he did not expect any would.

ANTILLA IS LIKELY TO BE ALLOWED TO DISCHARGE

By Associated Press. New York, June 9.—The Ward liner, Antilla, laden with ammunition for the Mexican constitutionalists will discharge her cargo at Tampico early tomorrow, without interference, according to the opinion expressed today by A. G. Smith, vice president and general manager of the Ward Line Company. Mr. Smith's statement is in flat contradiction of Washington dispatches and other reports that the Washington administration had prevailed upon the line's officers to stop voluntarily the discharge of the ammunition. Mr. Smith said he had received no instructions from Washington, but any instructions would be obeyed.

SISTER THERESA SAINTED BY CEREMONY AT ROME

Rome, June 9.—The Sacred Congregation of Rites today voted practically unanimously to admit the cause of beatification and canonization as a saint of Sister Theresa of the Infant Jesus. Should the canonization final take place it will be that of the most recently recognized saint in Vatican history, as Sister Theresa died only 14 years ago. She was a nun in the Carmel convent at Lisieux, France, and as a result of the numerous miracles that are declared to have been wrought through her acquired world wide fame and the name of "The Little Flower of Jesus."

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, June 9.—A few days search for Thomas Goff, an aged carpenter, ended this morning with the finding of the body, face down in a branch near Turtle Creek reservoir. A large hole in the back of the head indicated the manner of his death. No arrest has been made. Goff was seventy-three years old, a pioneer resident of Dallas and left a widow and children.

COMMANDER CONFERS WITH ADMIRAL MAYO IN PORT—DESTINATION UNKNOWN

REBELS SUBMIT PROPOSITION

Try To Get Commanders To Join Their Cause—Blockade Is Not Officially Established

By Associated Press. Tampico, June 8, via Brownsville, Texas, June 9.—President Huerta's so-called blockading squadron which arrived off Tampico this morning vanished from view this evening without having an opportunity to establish officially the proposed blockade against port. The two Mexican gunboats were accompanied by the American cruiser Tacoma and the gunboat Sacramento. Their destination was not stated, but was said to Coahuila. Immediately after their arrival Rear Admiral Mayo summoned the captain of the Saragoza aboard the battleship Minnesota and informed him that instructions of the utmost importance had been received from Washington with orders to communicate same to the Mexican commander. Details of the instructions were not revealed. The only communication from shore with boat was in the afternoon when a tug went to the Saragoza with constitutional officials who offered the proposition that both vessels transfer their allegiance to the rebels.

FAMOUS ROSE FESTIVAL IS ON AT PORTLAND, ORE.

Portland, Ore., June 9.—With the crowning of Miss Thelma Hollingsworth as "Queen of Rosaria" Portland today entered into a week of festivities in honor of the rose which has made the city famous the world over. This will be the eighth annual Rose Festival to be held. Thousands of visitors, many from the eastern states were in the city.

The queen, with her eleven maids of honor, entered the city from the mythical "Land of Rosaria" on a gaily bedecked royal barge, escorted by the largest and most picturesquely decorated squadron ever assembled in the local harbor. The sirens of hundreds of merchantmen, pleasure craft and dothervessels, shrieked a welcome to "Her Majesty."

SPEND FOUR BITS, BECOME PROPERTY OWNERS, AND VOTE

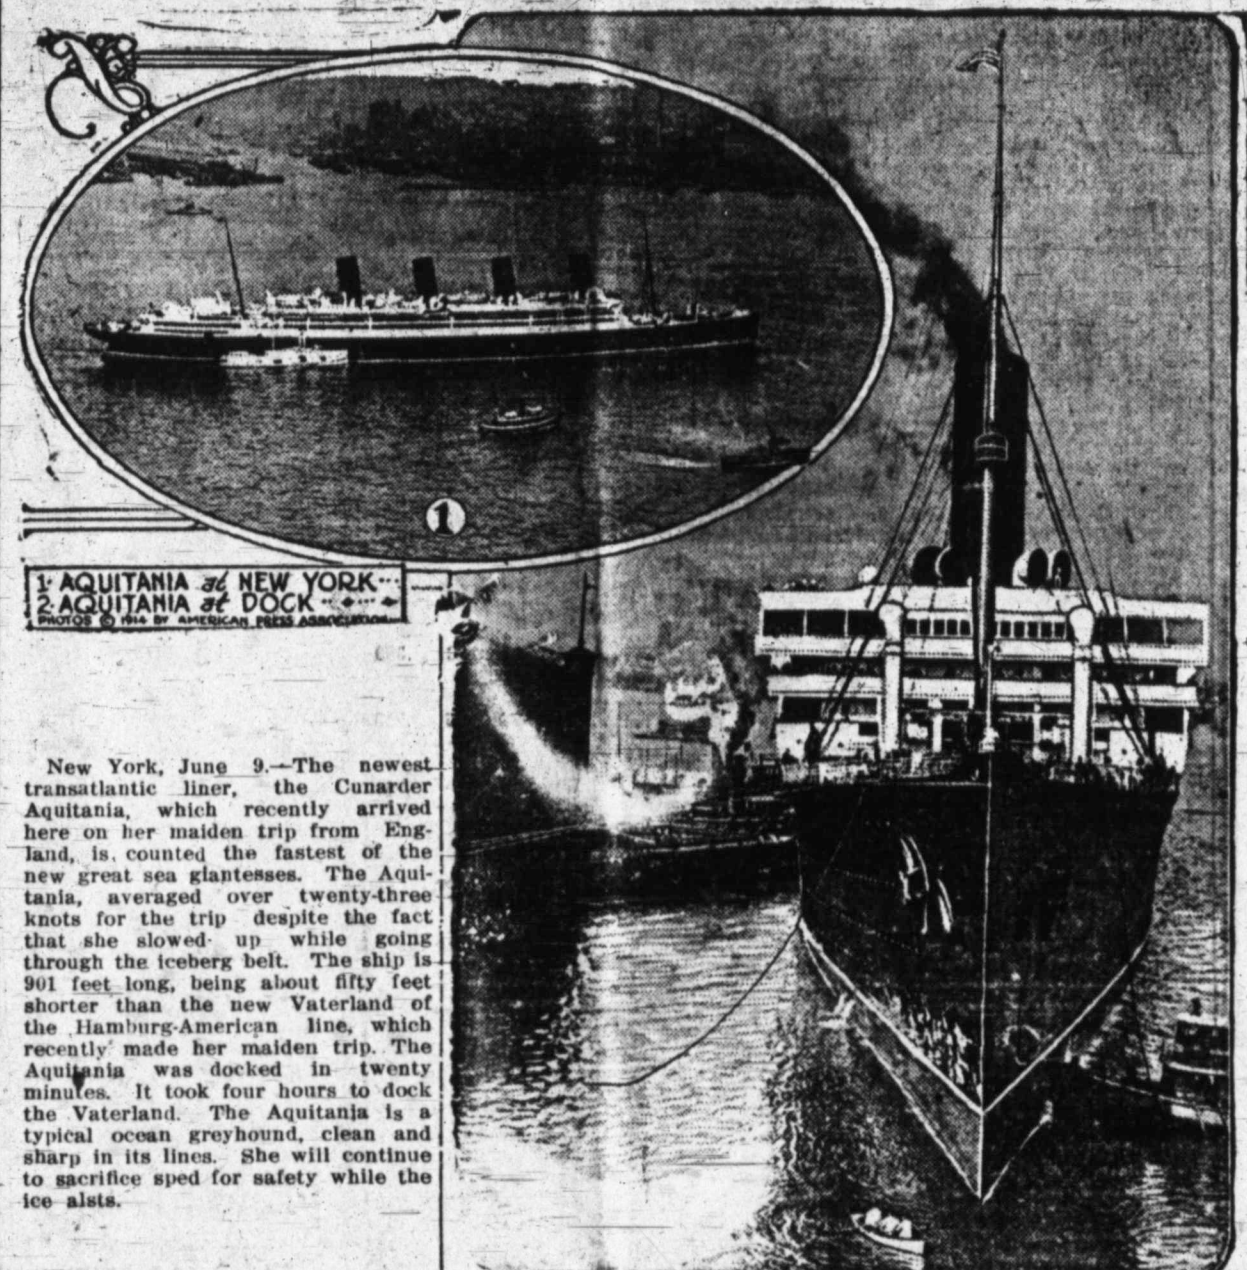

Novel Scheme Is Resorted To At Iowa Park To Defeat Stock Law at Election

In a stock law election held in the Iowa Park precinct recently, the stock law was defeated. This was a surprise to the leaders of the movement for the adoption of the law as they had made a careful canvass of the real estate owners, these alone being qualified to vote and had found a majority of them in favor of the adoption of the law.

WEATHER CONDITIONS IN SOUTH GOOD FOR CROPS

By Associated Press. Washington, June 9.—Better weather conditions for crop growth prevailed in the South during the week which ended yesterday, according to the National Weekly Weather Bulletin issued by the bureau today. It says: "Warm and dry weather permitted planting and cultivation in Texas and Oklahoma and conditions in those states are generally improved. An Arkansas cotton is reported as making slow growth on account of drought."

GREAT AQUITANIA, FASTEST OF THE OCEAN GREYHOUNDS, SACRIFICES SPEED IN ICE BELT

New York, June 9.—The newest transatlantic liner, the Cunarder Aquitania, which recently arrived here on her maiden trip from England, is counted the fastest of the new great sea giants. The Aquitania, averaged over twenty-three knots for the trip despite the fact that she slowed up while going through the iceberg belt. The ship is 901 feet long, being about fifty feet shorter than the new Vaterland of the Hamburg-American line, which recently made her maiden trip. The Aquitania was docked in twenty minutes. It took four hours to dock the Vaterland. The Aquitania is a typical ocean greyhound, clean and sharp in its lines. She will continue to sacrifice speed for safety while the ice lasts.

PEACE CONGRESS OPENS TODAY AT LIVERPOOL

Liverpool, June 9.—All kinds of political, social, religious, educational, labor and co-operative organizations were represented by the 500 delegates who met at the Church Hall here this afternoon for the tenth National Peace Congress of Great Britain, under the Presidency of Lord Channing of Wellborough.

Particular interest attaches to the Congress this year on account of the preparations it is expected to make in connection with the forthcoming Third Hague Conference. Among the special questions to be discussed are: immunity of private property in naval warfare, floating mines, rights of neutrals, the effect of armament expenditure on commerce and industry, the effect of militarism on wages, and the promotion of international peace through universities and schools. The congress will be in session four days.

SCHUMANN-HEINK IS GRANTED DIVORCE

JUDGE INSTRUCTS JURY TO RETURN VERDICT IN AVOR OF OPERA SINGER

EVIDENCE NOT CONTROVERTED

Defense Unable to Show Any Wrong Committed by Complainant—Contract Is Pleaded

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 9.—Madame Schumann-Heink was today granted a divorce from her husband, William Rapp, Jr., whose ardent epistles to Mrs. Catherine Dean of New York were the sensation of the suit. The victory for the famous contralto came with Superior Judge Sullivan instructed the jury to return a verdict in favor of the complainant.

Like a Celluloid Dog

"I am smiling for cause, but I can't say at this time what has been agreed on," said Elias Mayer, counsel for Madame Schumann-Heink, after a conference late yesterday in the judge's chamber when the taking of testimony had ceased. "I've got about as much chance as a celluloid dog chasing an asbestos cat through Gehenna," said Rapp after a colloquy with his attorney, former Judge Ben M. Smith. Questioning of witnesses for Rapp yesterday developed nothing colorful. The only feature of the case has been the reading of many love letters from Rapp to Mrs. Catherine Dean, named by Madame Schumann-Heink as co-respondent. Testimony ended yesterday when Mayer moved that the case be taken from the jury. The conference in Judge Sullivan's chambers followed.

BANTAM TITLE AT STAKE IN LOS ANGELES FIGHT

Los Angeles, June 9.—After an absence from the ring of over a year, Bantam-weight Champion Johnny Coulton will defend his title tonight against Kite Williams, who has practically every other man of his weight of note put back into the discard. Coulton fresh from three weeks in the California mountains, claims to have reached his old time condition. Williams trained at the sea shore, and he, too, seems to be in perfect shape. The McCarey diamond belt will go to the winner.

SUFFRAGE LOOMS IN FEDERATED CLUBS

GENERAL COUNCIL SAID TO FAVOR ADMITTING VOTES FOR WOMEN CROWD

MAY BE FIGHT ON QUESTION

Thousands of Women are Gathering in Chicago for Twelfth Biennial Conference of Organization

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 9.—The equal suffrage element of the General Federation of Women's Clubs which will meet in biennial session tomorrow night, today claimed a victory in a preliminary skirmish. The skirmish took place in a secret meeting of the general council of the Federation yesterday. A majority of those present expressed themselves, it is said, in favor of allowing women's suffrage organizations to have representation in conventions on equality with non-political clubs.

A bit of gossip about headquarters was that real practical politicians, with an eye on the women's votes, were working to keep the prohibition question from arising in the convention. Delegates from Indiana have a candidate for the presidency of the Federation in 1916, in the person of Grace Julia Clarke of Indianapolis. It is assumed that custom will be followed in the re-election of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Texas as president this year.

Will Insist on Action

With the arrival of every train load of delegates to the twelfth biennial conference of the Federation the question of the indorsement of women's suffrage by the Federation apparently assumed greater importance. Some excitement was caused in the suffrage wing last night by the rumor that the official board of the Federation had indorsed a suffrage resolution at an executive session. The rumor was promptly denied, but that did not stop its discussion.

Suffrage leaders insisted that the assemblage of women would be unable to resist the pressure brought to bear by a large portion of their number who are ardent devotees of the suffrage cause. More than 4000 women arrived yesterday. Six thousand are expected today.

CONSIDERATION OF PANAMA BILL RESUMED IN SENATE

Early Vote is Expected—Senator Smith of Michigan Speaks in Opposition to Bill

By Associated Press. Washington, June 9.—With Democratic leaders hopeful of final disposition of the Panama canal tolls exemption repeal bill before adjournment, the Senate today resumed its consideration of that measure. All the parliamentary preliminaries had been completed and administration supporters expected to reach a vote on the bill. They hope to have the compromise amendment as drawn by Senator Simmons and Senator Norris voted upon this afternoon. Senator Smith of Michigan continued his speech opposing the bill. He insisted that the tolls repeal was urged by President Wilson to take an ally out of England in the Mexican situation. "If the United States would only give the A B - mediators a free hand, the occasion for the passage of the bill would be removed," said the senator.

Says Husband Beat Her Once Each Week During Married Life

The case of Geneva (May) Keys vs. Pat Keys, for divorce, was on trial in the district court this morning. The plaintiff alleged cruelty, among other things and said that Pat had frequently beaten her. "How often did he beat you?" inquired Judge Scurry. "Well," answered the wife, "we were married in December, 1910. Since then I guess he's beat me up on an average of about once a week." The divorce was granted.

MEXICO NOT ASKED TO PAY INDEMNITY

UNITED STATES WILL NOT DEMAND REPARATION FOR RECENT LOSS

SUBMIT PACIFICATION PLAN

Details of Proposed Provisional Government For Republic Now Being Worked Out

By Associated Press. Niagara Falls, June 9.—Mexico will not be asked by the United States to pay war indemnity. The Huerta government has learned through the American delegates that the Wilson administration will be content to have set up in Mexico a stable government to succeed Huerta's rule.

An intimation that the United States would not demand reparation for the pacification of Mexico, or expect to be recouped for the heavy expenditures already made, in an attempt to pacify Mexico, was given to the Mexican delegates soon after the conference opened.

This made it easy for the opposing delegates to meet harmoniously. It was responsible largely for the ease with which a general understanding was reached between them and it lent consistency to the American demand that consideration be given to the constitutionalist cause. The submission yesterday of the American plan, accompanied by verbal statements from the delegates of the United States, removed all doubt that this country was not disposed to make any unnecessary drain upon Mexico's already depleted finances.

The mediators today submitted to the Mexican delegates the counter proposal of the American government for the pacification of Mexico. The American plan, with few modifications, is the same as that which the mediators and Mexican delegates recently agreed upon and which General Huerta approved. It provides the method of transferring the executive power in Mexico City from the present regime to a new provisional government which shall in a few months conduct elections for president, vice president and members of Congress.

No names have been agreed upon between the Mexican and American delegates for president, vice president or cabinet. In fact, neither side has made its nominations. Should there be any new suggestions from the constitutionalists, the United States government will endeavor to arrive at a compromise with them. When an agreement is reached the result again will be placed before the mediation board and the Huerta delegates.

Armistice is Difficult. The expectation is that if the constitutionalists are willing to discuss the plan with the American government, an agreement can be reached in a short time as the program already makes provision for liberal participation by the constitutionalists in the new provisional government. No answer from the constitutionalists which does not declare for an immediate armistice will permit them to enter the conference. The mediators have taken a strong stand on this point.

A difficulty in the way of an armistice is the pact signed by all the constitutionalist leaders a year ago, known as the plan of Guadalupe which provides specifically that the constitutionalists shall take possession of Mexico City by force of arms and establish a provisional presidency. To effect a change in that plan harmoniously, another conference of chiefs might be necessary and this could not be had, the constitutionalists say, unless there was framed in advance a peace plan likely to be satisfactory to all. A compromise arrangement is believed to be at sight whereby the peace plan will be taken up with the constitutionalists in channels separate from the mediation.

SUFFRAGETTE HEADQUARTERS ARE RAIDED BY POLICE TODAY

Secure Much Documentary Evidence—Invasion Is Complete Surprise to Occupants

By Associated Press. London, June 9.—The police today raided the premises occupied by the Woman's Social and Political Union, the militant organization and a thorough search was made for documentary evidence of the activities of the society. After the closing of the offices in King's Way early in May the women established new headquarters in Westminster and today the detectives succeeded in collecting large quantities of documents, books and letters. The descent of the police was unexpected and caused great excitement among the occupants of the offices who after being searched, were ejected. No arrests were made.

The Eternal Feminine. She's an old fashioned girl and ashamed not a bit of the consequent facts: All her friends, all her foes, will be sure to admit

What she proves by her acts; She has old-fashioned thoughts, she has old-fashioned ways, And her name's Sally Brown; But this old-fashioned dame's find; nothing to praise In an old-fashioned gown.

She's an old-fashioned cook of the excellent kind. That our palates desire, And the old-fashioned housekeeper truly might find In her much to admire; She's an old-fashioned girl—as was mentioned above—

There's no doubt about that! But she hasn't one bit of an old-fashioned love For an old-fashioned hat.

So it seems, though the years may effect their sweet will, Say, in matters of dress, When it comes to the old-fashioned nature Time still rules. His defeat must confess; For when cave-men had wives there were women to yearn For the fad of the day, And our old-fashioned maidens to new fashions turn In the old-fashioned way.

DULLED BY CONSTIPATION

Some People Only Half Alive; Dodson's Liver Tonic Cleans You Out and Wakes You Up. When constipation is having its evil effects on your body and brain, Nature is doing her best to offset them and overcome the cause itself. But usually Nature cannot do this unless aided.

In the past, many sufferers at such a time used to turn to dangerous calomel in hope of relief. For some people calomel does appear to give a temporary benefit, but as a matter of fact it is a poison that roves to be injurious and even dangerous to many. If you have ever taken calomel, you probably have suffered from evil conditions following its use. But nowadays great numbers of people have learned how to feel better, brighter and healthier by using Dodson's Liver Tonic instead of calomel. Indeed, this harmless vegetable fluid is recommended and warranted by your druggist, who will refund the purchase price to you without question if you are not completely satisfied with it.

Get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for only 50c and learn for yourself how easily and naturally it restores Nature in getting rid of and correcting constipation and biliousness, how it clears away the sick headache and coated tongue and sets you right without ache or gripe without any interference with your regular habits. Fine to rife children. They like to take it. (Advt.)

THEN

"Home, Sweet Home" was being sung for the first time by just 81 years ago. The song came from the operatic stage. Its author, John Howard Payne, posed as a dramatic critic in New York when he was only 14 years of age; before maturity he was successful on the stage; then came 20 years of varying success abroad as actor manager and playwright. Pressed for funds, he sold the opera "Clari" for $250. In this was "Home, Sweet Home." Payne had written it, recalling his early cottage home at East Hampton, N. Y. The opera had a phenomenal run and the song brought a fortune to its publishers. Payne never received another cent from it. He later became United States consul at Tunis where he died.

NOW

Today is the 123rd anniversary of John Howard Payne's birth. His song is known throughout the English speaking world and it rises above all else including the 60 plays and operas which Payne wrote, as a monument to his memory. Surviving the hazards of rag-time, the ballad is as popular as ever for knitting home ties. It is said to have had a more universal circulation than any song ever written. Payne's body, originally buried at Tunis, was disinterred after many years and brought to the United States for re-interment in Oak Hill cemetery at Washington, in 1883. The remains were placed beneath an appropriate monument which was unveiled while a great chorus sang "Home, Sweet Home."

WICHITA PUBLISHING CO. ED HOWARD, Mar.

"The Fakers" is the subject of a novel that has recently been sprung on the unsuspecting public in recent issues of a popular publication. If the author undertakes to tell about all the fakery, he has a life time job, and the publication might as well pension him to start with. Fakery exists in all lands and most occupations. We have seen students who tried to fake their lessons, men trying to fake knowledge of a subject about which they were clearly ignorant, and the closer one looks about him the more fake he sees. To paraphrase an old saying, "There are fakes in all trades except ours."—Brownwood Bulletin.

By action of the city authorities of Oklahoma City fourteen cows belonging to a local dairyman were condemned and killed, and the post mortem justified the slaughter of the animals, as all were infected with tuberculosis. The slaughtering was done in the presence of federal inspectors at the packing plant, in addition to several interested dairymen and milk consumers. The animals slaughtered came from Illinois in January of this year. The cows were first subjected to the "tuberculosis test," as the process of determining whether or not an animal is infected with tuberculosis, is known. Fourteen cows "reacted"—that is, responded to the treatment with symptoms developed in animals suffering from tuberculosis. Two cows were held as "suspects" to undergo additional tests and four were found free from disease. The "reactors" were condemned by the city authorities, and the owner objected and wished for confirmation of the verdict. The government veterinarians were then called upon to settle the matter, with the result as above outlined. The cows slaughtered looked healthy, with sleek coats and good condition of flesh that gave no indication of the disease with which they were infected and spreading to the unsuspecting patrons of that dairy. The object of the Times has in publishing this is to preserve as far as possible the health of our people. The new charter adopted by this city wisely makes provision for a food inspector. If this has been compiled with the Times has overlooked the matter. If it has not, then there is good reason for insisting that the matter be not delayed further.

Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald in the Fort Worth Record says the saloon has not made the 250,000 tenant farmers in Texas. But has it helped them?—Denton Record and Chronicle.

Col. Fitzgerald is correct on the farm proposition. But he cannot say with truthfulness that the saloon has not made thousands of paupers and criminals in Texas.—Bonham Favorite.

That is a fact. The reason there are so many tenant farmers is, principally from the fact that there are entirely too many large land-owners in Texas. One man alone is credited with having 350,000 acres, and all this land is located in counties where the climate and soil are such that any man can make a fairly good living for himself and family on a 160-acre tract. The Times is not the defender of the saloon. If the people of Texas did not want the saloon they could get rid of them. Those who vote to keep them must share equally with those who conduct them the responsibility for the damage they do. It will not do to throw all the blame at the door of the man who conducts the saloon. The State issues him a license to do this, and so long as he does not violate the law in the conduct of his establishment, he is no more to blame for the paupers and criminals created through the drink habit than you, Mr. Voter, who voted to give him the license. At least that is the way this paper has always viewed that proposition. The saloon, when properly conducted, is merely acting as the agent of our state, county and city governments, all of which share in the revenue collected as a license.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a communication from Judge Hiram Glass of Austin in reply to Judge Williams, state railroad commissioner, who attacked the contract that existed between the Katy railroad and the Wichita Falls Railway company, by which the latter company received an agent in one year for its line a sum greater than the outstanding stock and bonds of the corporation. Judge Williams' communication has provoked much comment over the state and in all this comment attention is called to the marvelous growth of Wichita Falls. This is all very nice and proper, but it seems to the Times that all the commentators have missed the main point in the matter. That is, that in order to make a traffic contract made in 1894 profitable certain men in Wichita Falls took the lead in supplying the traffic, and in doing so built up Wichita Falls from a struggling village to a prosperous little city and one of the most important manufacturing and commercial centers in the Southwest. In the first place the Wichita Falls spirit made possible the Wichita Falls railway, and secondly the Wichita Falls railway helped largely in the making of Wichita Falls today. Without concert of action on the part of Wichita Falls citizens the Wichita Falls Railway would never have been built and the Katy trains would still have been stopping at Henrietta. After the line was built it was necessary to furnish it with traffic if the contract was to be made profitable. The effort to furnish this traffic has been a large factor in making Wichita Falls what it is today as a manufacturing center. It's made a nice thing for those who owned the stock of the Wichita Falls Railway Company and it's been pretty soft for them. It has made and given to the Katy millions of dollars in freight revenues that it would not have had and which would not have existed but for this traffic contract. The Wichita Falls railway, the Times believes, not only contributed largely to the building of Wichita Falls, but without it there is small probability that the Wichita Falls and Northwestern and the Wichita Falls and Southern would have been built.

IT PAYS TO TAKE CARE OF GOOD CATTLE

Our fellow townsman, Mr. W. M. Coleman, whose ranch is about 12 miles south of Wichita Falls, has just sold on the market 38 head of steers that averaged in weight 1276 pounds an animal for $7.85 per hundred. After all freight and other expenses incident to shipping, these steers netted Mr. Coleman the handsome sum of $98.83 each. During the past winter Mr. Coleman informs us that these steers were fed about $17.00 worth of feed per head, and, of course, they were looked after probably some better than the average ranch cattle. Nevertheless it goes to prove that if our stock farmers pay a little more attention to the care and breeding of cattle it would be one of the most profitable results of the farm. The 38 head of cattle which he sold brought the sum of $2984.31. This alone would buy a fair sized farm at the present prices at which our lands are now selling. The average farmer in this vicinity each year has a few steer yearlings that are usually sold before maturity and it looks like it would be reasonable that those cattle could almost be matured on the stuff that actually goes to waste on the farm.

CAMPAIGN COMMENT

It isn't that Ball is desirable to the anti, but that Ferguson is impossible to intelligence.—Austin Tribune.

Mr. Ferguson is now charging that the papers are discriminating against him—that they want to charge him for his speeches and publish Col. Ball's free. "Ferguson is no Denton. We published three columns of Ball's speech and three columns of Ferguson's speech, undertaking to give a fair presentation of the views of each insofar as was compatible with the limits of the space at hand."—Denton Record and Chronicle.

Some politicians are expressing great surprise that Col. R. M. Johnston of the Houston Post, is supporting Thomas Ball for governor. Col. Johnston in 1892 supported James S. Hogg for governor to the surprise and chagrin of many. The average politician is unwise and does not know it. Col. Johnston is a better Democrat than those who are criticizing him and has done more for Democracy in Texas than those who are now bitter. He was a Democrat when Democrats were needed. Now everybody is a Democrat—in 1892 it was different.—Georgetown Commercial.

The announcement that Houston educators have started a movement to bring F. W. Horn, superintendent of public schools in that city, into the race for United States senator in 1916 is interesting. Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University, has already definitely announced for the place. If Mr. Horn should also run, then probably the people of Texas will be treated to the long heralded campaign of education. However, 1916 is a long time off and many things may occur. It is worth remembering that the election law has been reformed as to United States senator. Nomination will not be by plurality rule, instead, a majority is necessary. "Elimination" movements will not be in order. A preferential ballot will be used. Provision for preferential voting as to all offices ought to be made by the time the 1916 election rolls around.—Dallas Journal.

A little more light on the prohibition elimination program and Col. Ball will be unable to carry a single county.—Guadalupe Gazette.

Chas. B. White, who was recently placed among the slain by the eliminators rises again "Phoenix like out of his ashes." He declares he is a second "Banquo's ghost" and "will not get down." Mr. White had better get good and get out. He should remember Huerta.—Georgetown Commercial.

Hon. Leopold Morris, candidate for governor, would abolish one house of the legislature and reduce the membership. The idea is not without merit, but it is inconceivable to imagine that either branch of the Texas legislature could ever be induced to abolish itself.—Denison Herald.

The Waco Times-Herald cannot see how Senator Bailey can support Ball when the latter supported Wilson and Bryan. The Herald fails to understand how the Waco paper can support Wilson and Bryan and oppose Bailey, while acknowledging that the latter comes nearer the Jeffersonian standard of a Democrat.—Hamilton Herald.

Tom Ball had to resign his position as special attorney for the big trusts before he felt that he was clean enough to go before the people and ask them to elect him governor. Jim Ferguson is just a plain farmer and business man, he is proud of his calling and won't have to resign his job whether elected governor or not.—Hamilton Record.

It was too bad that after Tom McClure had his picture in the big papers and a big write up as the six shootless sheriff of Texas, hailing from several different West Texas counties, where he captured all the bad men from Bitter Creek with his bare hands as it were, that he took cold feet when the saloon bunch got after him. Too bad, too bad.—Sherman Democrat.

The gubernatorial "Ball" is still rolling an dit looks to be down hill all the way to the State House. Let 'er roll and gain force as she travels.—Florence Vidette.

One good reason for electing Tom Ball governor is that he has sufficient ability to draw a salary of $20,000 per year as a railroad lawyer. It takes a man of ability and brains to be worth $20,000 per year. If he can earn that amount from railroads as their attorney, it is sufficient to say that he has the ability to make Texas as a good governor. Texas needs no cheap man in the governor's chair. That has been one of the troubles for the past few years.—Tyler Courier-Times.

TRUCK GROWERS TO HAVE SELLING PLAN

AGREEMENT AS TO HANDLING OF PRODUCE IN THIS CITY IS PROPOSED

Hope To Reach Definite Understanding As To Prices and Grades To Prevail

At a meeting of the Wichita Produce Growers Association this morning in the band stand at the court house park a committee of three was appointed to confer with the sellers of produce in an effort to agree upon some plan for the handling of produce raised here and to reach an understanding as to prices and grades. This committee is made up of the following: J. B. Nicholson, M. L. Thompson and J. F. Crayson. It will make a report at another meeting to be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 8 o'clock tonight.

At this morning's meeting H. H. Miller, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, assured the truck growers of the sympathy and co-operation of that organization.

TYPHOID FEVER BANISHED FROM UNCLE SAM'S ARMY

Washington, June 9.—Typhoid fever has been banished from the United States army. Major F. F. Russell in a recent issue of "The Journal of the American Medical Association" makes this statement and says the disappearance of typhoid is due directly to typhoid vaccination. In the entire enrollment of over 90,000 men in barracks or camps in the United States, Philippines, China, Porto Rico, Cuba and Hawaii there were during 1913 only three cases of typhoid. Two of these were recruits who after five days enlistment, developed the disease. Out of the entire body of 90,000 men only one case occurred in an inoculated soldier during the entire year.

The case was a soldier in the battalion on duty in China. All three of these cases fully recovered. It is pointed out that typhoid fever has been for centuries the most dangerous disease to soldiers and that every army, whether on post duty or

NO IMPROVEMENT IN BALKAN SITUATION

RACIAL AND RELIGIOUS STRIFE GO MERRILY ON WITHOUT CESSATION NEARBY NATIONS INVOLVED
Launching of Albanian As An Autonomous State Breeds Troubles On All Sides
By Associated Press
London, June 9.—The doubles of Mexico and Uster have wholly overshadowed public interest in the near east during recent months. But the formal ending of the Balkan war has brought us back to that long suffering region. Thrace, Macedonia and Albania are boiling with racial and religious strife. Stories of fighting, of persecution and of massacres come to the London papers from many correspondents, and are printed in small type with little comment. Europe has come to accept these conditions as a matter-of-course.
The changes of boundaries and of sovereignty which resulted from the peace treaties, and the launching of Albania as an autonomous state, are responsible for the new era of struggle and butchery. Every power concerned in the new allotments is trying to impress not only its laws but its own state religion upon those who have become its subjects, if the current historians are to be believed.
Religion by the Sword
Forcible "conversions" by wholesale seem the order of the day. Between the Christian and the Musselman dispendencies, between Greeks, Turks, Bulgarians, Roumanians, Servians and Albanians, there is little choice of standards of civilization. Much of the information comes from Athens which presents events only from the standpoint of Greek interests; much is disseminated by the newspapers of Vienna, which is a fountain of canards.
The Turkish government is determined to drive the Greek population from Thrace, according to accounts from Greek sources. It has organized a campaign of oppression which is making life impossible for people of Greek affiliations in the country above Kirk Killise, Lulu Burgas and all the land which Bulgaria conquered in the first war and lost through the final treaty. By Greeks is meant the adherents of the Greek church, since nationality is recognized as following religion rather than blood in those regions.
The Greeks are pictured as having desperate times in Thrace under the rod of the Young Turk, as the Bulgarians had in Macedonia under Abdul Hamid. The methods of terrorism are the same.
Pillaging and Ravishing
Irregular troops, who get their living by loot, and bands of so-called brigades, all supposed to be acting under inspiration from Constantinople, are over running the country. Burning villages light the sky, as during the days of war; cattle and sheep are driven away—pillage and ravishing go on. Life is made so intolerable that Greek inhabitants are glad to escape to the coast with what bundles they can carry on their backs. A recent report that 25,000 refugees have arrived at Salonika by ships, and that 15,000 more are waiting on the coast to get away.
The Greek government, on its part, does not lack enterprise at oppression, if witnesses from non-Greeks be credited. Restrictive laws against the Jews in Salonika have been made so strong that 80,000 are leaving that once prosperous port. The battalions of Greeks from Thrace seeking asylum, and of departing Jews, number between two and three thousand persons daily, so that all shipping is crowded and the normal life and business are as much disturbed as they were during the days of war. An important factor of the upheaval is that both the Greeks of Thrace and the Jews of Salonika were the most prosperous peoples in those communities, and their expulsion means disaster and ruin to both.
Prince William's Troubles
Meanwhile the new ruler of Albania, Prince William of Wied who bears the title Mpret, is having a troublesome honeymoon with his domain. Civil war, which customarily is the chief industry of that more than half barbarous principality is proceeding as usual. The Greeks claim 400,000 adherents out of the 550,000 inhabitants of the southern portion of the new Albania. These people of Epirus known as Epiotes refuse allegiance to the Mpret. Fierce fighting has been going on about Koritza, and the rebellion is said to be led by officers from the Greek army. The Epiotes have the advantage of an organized army possessed of some artillery. Apart from a small force of gendarmes, some 1500 or 2000, the Albanians rely upon volunteers recruited from the Southern Albanian clan. No attempt to mobilize them has been made and they scatter along the front, fighting in the old free and easy way dear to their hearts, but making the advance of a regular force an easy task. The Greek government disavows responsibility for the Greek officers who have cast their fortunes with their friends, but the feud is a religious one—Musselman against Christian—and the animosity is far fiercer than in any mere political war. The worst tale of atrocity which the near East has yielded in many days came from this field. The bodies of 200 Albanian Musselmans were reported to have been found in a church at Corca, all cruci-

DESECRATION OF SUNDAY IS SCORED

DR. SCOVILLE DISCUSSES PRESENT DAY TENDENCY TO DISREGARD SABBATH

SIXTEEN ANSWER INVITATION

Evangelist Deplores Permitting of Sunday Ball Games, Races and Other Amusements

A scathing attack on present-day methods of observing the Sabbath or rather of failing to observe it, was the feature of the sermon by Dr. Charles R. Scoville at the tent last night. Dr. Scoville spoke of the tendency to permit amusement parks, baseball games, races and the like to be open on Sunday and showed how it was indirect antipathy to the teachings of the Bible.
While his talk dealt with the general tendency in this connection, he took occasion to refer to local conditions as well, mentioning several incidents of what he considered Sabbath desecration in this city.
The tent was well filled for the service and the meeting was one of unusual interest in sixteen responses to the evangelist's invitation at the close of the sermon.

SUBMISSION GOES ON BALLOT WITHOUT ANY COMPROMISE

Committee Meets at Waco Monday. El Paso Backs Up Claims With Check For $4500

Special to the Times.
Waco, Texas, June 9.—The submission proposition will be submitted to the voters of Texas at the July primary without anything in the way of a compromise hitched onto it. This was decided at yesterday's meeting of the state executive committee. The form of the question, as it goes on the ballot:
"For the submission by the Thirty-Fourth Legislature of the State of Texas of a constitutional amendment prohibiting within this State the manufacture, sale, exchange and shipment of intoxicating liquors, except for medicinal and sacramental purposes," and "against" the same proposition. The words eliminated from the question as it appeared in 1910 are "spirituous, vinous and malt liquors and medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication."
El Paso won the convention before the whole committee, as was forecast yesterday when the sub-committee recommended the western city. A certified check for $4500 was quite convincing and proved decidedly more eloquent than the arguments presented by other cities, which had no such checks appended to them.

ENGLAND'S ROYAL HEADS ALARMED OVER OUTBREAKS OF VOTE "FURIES"

THE KING and QUEEN OF ENGLAND

London, June 9.—The birthday festivities for King George, who is forty-nine years old, were marred by the outbreaks of the "furies," as the militant suffragettes are now called. London is tired of their outrages. On the other hand, the "wild women" claim they will continue their crusade until the vote is granted. They consider themselves martyrs in the cause for women suffrage. The king is closely guarded, and he has ceased his daily rides in the parks. The queen is deeply alarmed, it is known. She is against the suffragettes, and she fears they will attack the king in person.

Mrs. Tucker's Shortening. UNTIL this ideal shortening came on the market the trouble that most women experienced in cake making was not only to get the texture light, soft and palatable, but to make cake that would "keep." Lord and butter were at the bottom of the whole trouble. Cake made with lard is heavy, soggy and indigestible and quickly loses its freshness. Butter, except a few kinds that could not be used for cooking, owing to their prohibitive prices, was not free from taint. Mrs. Tucker's Shortening is the direct answer to the housewife's demand for a pure, wholesome, economical cooking fat. Makes Light, Soft Cakes That Will Keep Fresh. Making Progress

Constantinople, June 9.—All but wiped from the face of Europe—by the political calamities that in the past three years have assailed it, Turkey still has within itself the power to rise phoenix-like to one of the most brilliant futures of a modern civilized nation. And this for the very simple reason that up to the present moment, one entire-half of the Turkish people has conserved within itself, intact and uncomtaminated, all those primitive virtues and qualities of the race that once enabled it to sweep across a goodly portion of Asia, Africa and Europe. That half of the Turkish people is just now coming into its own and that half is the Turkish woman.

So declared Madame Rifaat, wife of Rifaat Bey, and leader of the feminist movement in Turkey to the United Press correspondent. She declared it, too, with a zeal, a faith and conviction that could not be greater than her zeal and her faith and her conviction in the eternal tenets of the Koran itself. Madame Rifaat's exposition of Turkish feminism—and the consequent future salvation of the Turkish race and nation—took place in the salon of her home, surrounded by the other women of the Turkish household all of whom sanctioned her declarations. As she talked Rifaat Bey, husband and high official of the Turkish cavalry, passed the inevitable Turkish cigarette to all present—women and men alike—and listened with sympathetic approval to his wife's statements. His attitude alone bore wonderful evidence of the progress feminism has made in Turkey.

Their Love of Life.
"The highest virtues of the Turkish race have been preserved intact in the Turkish woman," declared Madame Rifaat. "In fact it is really remarkable that centuries of sad almost cloister like seclusion have in no way sterilized the soul of the Turkish woman or inflicted incurable wounds on her heart. Coupled with this conservation of all the highest qualities of the Turkish race in general, the Turkish woman has also retained one quality particular to her—which in itself is sufficient to restore the greatness of the Turkish people and that is her love of life. By love of life, I do not mean mere love of existence, but love of actual active living in the highest sense of the term. Our faith and our religion is an active one and our life must be the same."

Must Fight Traditions.
"It is these qualities that are counting for the rapid strides which feminism is making in Turkey and which means the ultimate salvation through the Turkish women, of the Turkish race.—Coming out of our secluded segregated life of centuries we are meeting the present crisis of our race without a single quality of virtue tarnished and with all the virtue primitive forces that once made our race great. Coupled, too, with the usual feminine aspirations for a higher culture, for dress reforms and for changes in our marriage customs every Turkish woman is also giving evidence of a profound desire to participate in the actual renovation and re-establishment of our social and our national existence. That she merits this participation, the Turkish woman has already given, too, ample proofs. During the dark period that preceded the revolution of a few years ago when many of our women risked, without a moment's hesitation, life itself in the carrying out of important political missions and of these and for this, more than one was condemned to death by Abdul Hamid. Naturally the Turkish woman has had to fight against centuries of iron-traditions to gain her liberty and yet it is remarkable the effect which even slight steps have had in this direction. I may almost say that the emancipation of the Turkish women dates from the day that Madame Belkis Chawket, the first Turkish woman ever to do such a thing, flew in an aeroplane over the cupolas and minarets of San Stefano."

BODY OF DROWNED MAN IS RECOVERED

COMES TO SURFACE OF WATER
IN LAKE EARLY THIS MORNING

LONG SEARCH WITHOUT RESULT

Body Is Seen Monday When Dynamite Is Used, But Sinks Again and Is Found Today

Nearly forty-eight hours after D. J. Minnick was drowned his body was recovered from the waters of Lake Wichita shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, near the spot where he sank to his death. While the searchers were dragging the lake nearby, the man's form rose to the surface and was quickly seized and pulled into a boat.

Dynamite was resorted to yesterday in an effort to bring the body to the surface and after two shots had been fired the body was seen floating on the water. Before those in the boats could row to the place it had disappeared again beneath the surface and could not again be located. More dynamite was used but without result.

A large number of men have been on duty at the point since the drowning, making every effort to find the body and every known means was resorted to in the attempt to locate it. The search continued day and night. E. Minnick of Burk Burnett, brother of the deceased was among the searchers; E. G. Hill, Judge C. B. Felder, Frankie Burns, O. T. Gorman, J. Blacklock, Dick Wheeler, Ben Savage, J. O. Holling and a number of others were on duty this morning when the body was found.

TEXAS CATTLE RAISERS OBJECT TO DISCRIMINATION

San Antonio, Texas, June 9.—Texas cattle raisers are considering the possibility of protesting what they consider an unfair ruling from the United States army commissary department. They claim the department, whether knowingly or not, is discriminating against American beef and in favor of Argentine meat. Their ruling was announced last week when the commissary officers for the southern department at Fort Sam Houston withdrew a request for bids on a large quantity of meat and announced that specifications allowing cows and young steers to be included in these bids would be changed so that the old requirement of five hundred pound steers would again go into effect. "President" Jackson of the Texas Cattle Raisers Association said that at present American cattlemen have not on hand a sufficient supply of five to six year old steers to meet the 500 pound requirement in competition with Argentine, which he said, has a good supply of such steers. These older

Council Asked To Act—Cotton Mill Proposition Comes Up at This Morning's Meeting

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution this morning requesting the city council to postpone the bond election set for June 23rd, the opening date of the race meet here.

The action was taken upon the suggestion of J. B. Marlow but not without some debate and opposition. Mr. Marlow declared that having the election during the race meet would lessen the chance that the bonds would carry. He said there was considerable opposition to the bond issue and that the race meet would take the best workers for the bonds out of town on election day.

The American Dollar

is a unit in the measurement of values. A kind of a commercial yardstick. A universal speedometer on the business machinery of the world. The dollar has a most varied effect on humanity. To one it is a blessing, it buys food; to another it is a curse, it pays for follies and paves the way to perdition.

There are few things that dollars won't buy. Dollars won't buy friends or square our accounts in the great beyond and the poorest man on this earth is the man who has nothing but money.

Honest dollars spent for legitimate merchandise for the comfort, health and happiness of the spender are dollars that do good and these are kind of dollars we are looking for. These are the dollars we guarantee to pay for in drugs, sundries and service. There is keen satisfaction to us in watching our business grow. And we know it can't topple over because the foundation is laid on business principles that can't fall.

DADDY'S FORTUNE

"Daddy was a good man." I happened to hear a well-to-do young man say, so I went out to the cemetery and looked for his record on the family MEMORIAL. There wasn't one. The plot was neglected, grown up in weeds and the like. The young man and his associates were riding around in a big six, leading a gay life, spending the neat little fortune daddy left them. Looks to me like they were very ungrateful. Did not think enough of him to buy a simple little headstone, but what's the use. Such is life.

Anyway the above class is in the minority and there are many that don't forget. To those who believe in remembering the departed I invite you to come and see me. I will be glad to do your work and do it right.
