Home Beautiful Contest Under Way Woman's Club Joins News in Drive

Entrance Blanks Are Now Ready

Effort to be made to make City More Beautiful—Plans for Gardens Published

At the meeting of the Portales Woman's club Wednesday of last week a committee to co-operate with the News in the "Home Beautiful" contest was appointed, composed of Mrs. Lucy Armstrong, Mrs. Jim Warnica and Mrs. E. L. Wright.

Score card entrance blanks, window cards and plans for the contest are now ready, and the committee will meet in a few days to perfect arrangements for this civic campaign.

From time to time the News will publish plans for flower beds and lawns prepared by the National Association of Yard and Garden Beautification.

These plans are free and have been prepared by the nation's leading landscape gardeners, and will be a great help in beautifying your premises.

It is hoped that every citizen will join in this contest for they will win even if they lose.

Mrs. Lee Armstrong came down from her home at Vaughn the first of the week to visit her father, I. L. Adams, and sister, Mrs. Lillian Taylor.

Portales School Board Honors Every Teacher With Re-election

Two Leave to Attend School

Economy Forces Discontinuance of Music Study in Common School Grades

At a recent meeting of the members of the Portales school board every teacher was re-elected to a place on the faculty next year.

This was truly a compliment to the staff of the Portales school system, but did not come as a surprise to the patrons of the school, for the success of the past school term has been such that only efficiency and co-operation could have accomplished the results obtained.

All are sorry the economy campaign made necessary the discontinuance of the school music and thus deprived the children of the splendid training given by Miss Alene Harris, musical supervisor.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. McCall are leaving Portales after having been connected with the school for several years. Mr. McCall will further his education at some university which he will select, and his wife is leaving the teaching profession.

Miss Vada Mae Jackson has resigned from her position in the grade school after several very successful years as teacher and will attend college this next year.

The board has not made any selections to fill these two places. Mr. McCall was history teacher and Mrs. McCall was head of the science department. Both were members of the high school faculty.

The persons having accepted a position with the Portales school system for next year are: Senior high school—F. D. Golden, superintendent; J. P. Steiner, principal; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Brown, Mrs. W. E. Daniel, Marion Binnett, B. A. Young, K. J. Brough, Miss Bernice Van Kirk, Miss Ruth Bloomer, Miss Elizabeth Greaves, Miss Ruth Wheeler, P. M. Bailey and Ernest Pogue.

The faculty of the junior high school will be: K. E. Livingston, principal; Mrs. Ray Bonner, Mrs. F. M. Bailey, Miss Adie Oldham, Miss Jamie Greenwald, Miss Lorraine Robinson, Burth Compton and Frode McAllister.

In Unit 1 of the grade school Miss Sybil Autry, Miss Berenice Hayes and Mrs. N. T. Watson will preside.

In Unit 2 Mrs. T. E. Allen, Mrs. Keith Payne and Miss Edna Disney.

In the main building of the grade school L. L. Brown, principal; Miss Kate McManaway, Mrs. L. E. Canon, Miss Clara Florence, Mrs. Lucille Cumble, Miss Fay Walker, Miss Rosalie Littlefield, Miss Janie V. Hamon, Miss Cymbeline Warnica, Alfred Powell, Aubrey Davis and Jay Thompson.

Stray Dogs Are a Real Nuisance

Portales is overrun with stray dogs, which are damaging lawns and flower beds.

These dogs should be destroyed by the proper officers, and owners of dogs which damage a neighbor's property should be made to keep their dogs up and pay for the damage done.

In poisoning stray dogs, the sad part is that valuable dogs are killed.

Baptist Revival Closes Sunday

The two weeks' revival meeting which was in progress at the local Baptist church closed with the services of last Sunday evening.

Rev. Rolfe Barnard, local pastor, has been in charge of the series of meetings and has given messages which have drawn large crowds and brought forth many conversions.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor McCasland were in charge of the musical program of the meeting.

Twenty-one persons united with the church Sunday evening, thus bringing the total number during the meeting to sixty-eight.

Some of these came by letter from other churches and many were by conversion.

Many nights during the meetings it was necessary to turn away crowds as the seating capacity of the church was exhausted.

Every available space had been filled with extra chairs.

Last night, Wednesday, baptismal services were held at the church and following this a well-attended service was held for all the new members and a time of rejoicing over the Sunday school, which passed the 435 mark last Sunday.

Mrs. J. S. Green and Taylor McCasland were in charge of the arrangements of the refreshments which were served last evening.

Almost the Largest Class to Graduate

Only Ten Members of This Class Started in Primary Work Here in Portales

This month, on April 29, Portales is graduating one of the largest classes in the history of the local high school.

There are twenty-seven boys and twenty-five girls forming this senior class and of this number but ten started school together in the primary class here in Portales, with Miss Kennedy as their teacher.

Of the fifty-two members of the class thirteen have been here for their entire school life. These are Elmer Jones, Jay Morgan, Nora Mae Chapman, Eva Fisher, John Meiner, J. B. Maxwell, Wallace Crume, Oliver Fenton, Edith Wheeler, Green Kerr, Charles Compton, Knight Edward Kornegay and Charles Price.

In addition to these thirteen, there are eleven who have done all their high school work in Portales. These are Lorena Finley, Ruth Richardson, Clifton Bankston, Floyd Gibson, Owen Disney, Gayle Esley, Helen Baker, D. H. Smith, Evelyn Rogers, Freida Jenkins and Chris Wright.

When a survey of the class was made it was learned that thirty-three of the seniors started their school work in New Mexico, sixteen in Texas, two in Oklahoma and one in Missouri.

Delbert Suggs, the valedictorian of the class, did some of his high school work at Harvard and Doris, the remainder at Portales.

Clarence Kirksey, the class salutatorian, came to the Portales high school from Rogers, and Edith Wheeler, the senior selected for the University medal, has spent her school life here, being one of the ten starting with the primary class under Miss Kennedy.

The class has for its motto, "Life is like a picture, so paint it well," and they have given to the school two large pictures as their parting gift to the institution. These are splendid prints of masterpieces, and will be hung in the study hall of the high school and be both a pleasure and inspiration to the students in after years.

Clarence Kirksey is president of the class, Cleo Fortner is vice president and Eva Fisher is secretary-treasurer.

Jack Morgan, one of the seniors, is a member of the debating class which won the district meet, and will go to Albuquerque to participate in the state debating contest.

Mrs. C. F. Brown and P. M. Bailey have been sponsors for the senior class during the past year, and are delighted at the great number of these boys and girls who are graduating with high honors.

The students who have come to Portales to finish their high school education with this class of 1932, after having started in some other school, are Olin Caviness, Dennis Fields, Vaughan Gaultier, Irby Harris, Clyde Kemp, Clarence Kirksey, Calvin McCullough, Harris Ray, Delbert Suggs, Aubrey Thompson, Lloyd Vaughan, Raymond Worrell, Miriam Cox, Luella Ferguson, Cleo Fortner, Gladys Harris, Elizabeth Kirksey, Florence Lee, Grace Long, Gladys Massonigill, Gladys Onstott, Annie Sue Parrish, Naomi Silvers, Margaret Sims, Ethel Vick, Dee Bee Westfall, Joan Williamson and Thelma Worrell.

Death of Big Boy Brings Grief to Many Children

Last week Big Boy, the German police dog of Dr. Meenas, was the victim of dog poisoning.

Several years ago, when the pony of Junior Means died, Big Boy was missed, and after being missed for several days, was found lying beside the dead pony, literally starving to death.

He was constant companion of Junior and this pony, and was a familiar sight wherever they went.

Since the death of this pony, he had taken up with the pony of Warren Wright, and, as he made his evening delivery of papers, Big Boy always accompanied him.

The morning that he was found dead, hundreds of the grade school children passed the Means home with tears in their eyes, as he was the playmate and companion of these children.

Big Boy was kind and loving, and his passing was a tragedy in the life of the children of Portales.

Campers Must Move Out of Limits of City

By order of the city health department, all campers are notified that they must move out of the city limits at once, as warm weather is here and the unsanitary conditions of camp life is endangering the health of the community.

It is also ordered that all cow and horse lots must be kept clean, so as to eliminate breeding places for flies.

Edwin N. Neer Elected President Panhandle Hardware Association

Edith R. Wheeler Is Awarded the University Medal

The record of all previous attendance at a Boy Scout camp was broken on Friday and Saturday of last week when 441 registered Scouts from fourteen towns gathered in Roswell for the Camp O'Ral. With these more than four hundred boys were between fifty and sixty leaders.

There were forty-one boys from Portales and they were accompanied by seven adults, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Case, Rev. C. A. Lorta, A. C. Youngblood, Jay Thompson, H. E. Taylor and E. N. Smith.

There were twenty-nine troops represented in the boys assembled and these gathered for the establishing of camp at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, and all were ready for the inspection which was conducted before the serving of supper at 5 o'clock.

The competitive events occupied the first hours of the evening and was closed in ample season to give time for the program about the camp fire.

Uncle Benny Hyde, who has been connected with the New York Natural History museum and the Columbia museum, was present and gave the boys a wonderful address on "Natural History." He finds New Mexico one of the most interesting of states in his research work.

Saturday morning the remainder of the contests were given and from 10 until 1 o'clock the swimming pool at the New Mexico Military institute was open to the boys. It proved a very popular place and many of the boys were able to complete their swimming tests.

The competition placed the Scout troops in classes of A, B and C. Troop 7 of Portales received an R rating and Troop 18 received B. Troop 18 is the one organized within the past months and many of the boys have just completed their tenderfoot test.

Mr. Youngblood felt a B rating was a compliment to his boys. Leon Pogue of this troop received first place in building and Billy Schumpert second in bugling.

Troop 7 was awarded first place in knot tying, second place in hatchet throwing and third place in relay message.

The mounted troop from Hope was present and Saturday morning gave a drill on horseback.

The blind troop from Alamogordo also was in camp and, while the members were unable to enter all the events, they were adepts in some of the competitions.

The attendance at camp this year was an increase of almost 100 per cent over that of any previous year and the boys returned to Portales satisfied the two days had been delightful in every detail.

ACCEPTS POSITION WITH TEXAS BUSINESS COLLEGE

Miss Ro Jean Herndon has accepted a position with the Draughtman's Business college in Lubbock, Tex., and has left for the Texas city to assume her responsibilities.

Miss Herndon graduated from the Portales high school and then went to the University of New Mexico to continue her education. She was an honor student at the university, and her friends are sure her work with the college will give the greatest of satisfaction.

In addition to Miss Herndon's satisfactory academic work, she is a splendid musician.

Portales Merchant Highly Honored

Local Dealer Presides Over Convocation in Absence of Former President

Wednesday Edwin N. Neer was elected president of the Panhandle Hardware Men's association, which was in session at Amarillo this week, and which was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin N. Neer.

On Monday the Amarillo News stated that Ed N. Neer, Portales, vice president of the association, presided in the absence of President C. E. Williams of Lamesa, who recently moved from this section.

"The Road to Profit" "Set the carburetor for high speed," said Mr. Neer, in the opening address, "throw the machine in high gear and get ready to tear 'The Road to Profit'."

"Unquestionably 1931 was a year of business grief, not only for hardware dealers, but for every business. To review the past or what is back of us is of little value from a profit standpoint. Profit is the life blood of our business and represents the difference between cost and selling price, with that old bugaboo of expense in between. Now, we should forget what is back of us, set our eyes for the 'road signs' and plan to make progress on the road ahead."

The setting is on the rock-bound coast of Maine, and portrays the simple life of these fishermen and sailors.

Portales people now have the opportunity to see this great picture. See announcement elsewhere for dates.

Deputies' Car Is Bullet Riddled

ARTESIA DEPUTY IS KILLED
Escape to the Rough Country West of Roswell After Fighting Off Foes

Last Friday night Mr. Tusha of Elida was awakened by noises across the street in the Kemp Lumber company offices. He notified central and officers were informed. Three men left town in a car with the body consisting of guns, ammunition, fountain pens, money and other articles of merchandise were taken from the Kemp store.

Sheriff Jernigan was notified and immediately joined the search for the robbers.

The car in which they escaped was a Ford sedan, and was identified by the license number as a car belonging to W. H. (Buz) Tarantola of Elida.

A short distance this side of Roswell the three men turned their car sharply and sped westward. Deputies McCue and Dunagan, in close pursuit, pushed the car with their bumpers and fired into the tires.

The three men opened fire on the deputies and a running battle was engaged in, about seventy shots being exchanged between the officers and bandits.

The radiator of the officers' car was pierced and the car soon became hot and had to be abandoned. The car of the bandits later was found abandoned on the Pine Lodge road, and the bandits had taken to the hills afoot.

For thirty-six miles they were chased by a posse of officers and citizens, and on Monday Deputy Sheriff Jim Williams of Artesia came upon two of them, arresting them and starting to Artesia with them in his coupe.

At a filling station he called for assistance and handcuff got them, but was refused aid.

At Hagerman a merchant got in the car to assist in taking them to Artesia.

A mile or so out of Artesia, the bandits turned upon their captors, and in the scuffle pulled them from the car.

Deputy Williams was struck over the head with a revolver, and, as he was lying on the ground, was shot twice, once above and once below the heart, the bandits taking their own ammunition and car and driving rapidly toward Hope.

A mail carrier later reported seeing them near Hope driving west. Williams, the deputy sheriff, was rushed to the hospital at Carlsbad, where he died on Monday night. He was conscious before his death and gave a clear description of the two men, who had admitted their identity.

A posse of several hundred men, including farmers, ranchmen, officers of several counties, joined in the chase.

Telephone communication from Sheriff Jernigan Tuesday afternoon stated that two were captured at Cloudcroft and one at Carlsbad.

Sheriff Jernigan from Nan Head Sheriff Jernigan returned Tuesday night from a three-day man hunt, where he joined the Chase and Bddy county officers in the pursuit of the three bandits who

Last week Governor Curry had the pleasure of reading his obituaries in the daily papers. The governor stated that the report of his death was highly exaggerated.

Which brings to mind Mark Twain, who enjoyed the same unique experience.

Also, we recall that back in Texas, about thirty years ago, the press dispatches carried the story of the death of "Candy" Johnson, pioneer porter on the Texas & Pacific railway.

A few days after the notices of his death were carried in the daily papers, the passenger train pulled into the station of the writer's home town. "Candy" alighted, and the crowd threw up their hands and began to back off.

"Candy" cried: "Pore God, boss, ah ain't dead!"

Many of us would not enjoy reading our obituaries, especially if they were confined to the truth.

For instance, how would you appreciate a notice as follows: "Bill Smith, the ornery cuss, who whipped his wife last week, kicked the bucket after a prolonged spree."

The newspaper boys may be a hard bunch, but it is noticed that when a man dies, all of the unpleasant things are forgotten and only his virtues are recorded.

Yet many condemn editors and reporters as unmitigated liars.

More dogs were the victims of poison the past week.

Several valuable dogs, loved by every child in town, became victims of the poisoner.

Scattering poison is one of the most heinous of crimes and should be brought to justice and given the limit.

Some child may pick up the poisoned bait and die from this cause.

The person who scatters poison is beneath the contempt of all respectable people.

If you are bothered by dogs, report the same to the town marshal and have them disposed of in a legal way.

What A World of Grief It Saves You! We know a seed house that proves each season's crop of seeds in their own trial gardens before they offer them to the public. Flowers and vegetables grown from these seeds must measure up to definite standards, or else the entire crops from which the samples were taken are burned. We know a manufacturer of dry batteries who tested a new product two years before he sold a single battery to a single dealer. We know a manufacturer of an anti-freeze solution for automobile radiators who spent two years testing his product under all conditions before he said a word in advertising about the merits of his goods. We know a manufacturer of household pharmaceutical products whose self-imposed standard of purity and efficacy is even higher than that laid down by the United States Pharmacopoeia and the National Formulary. If we mentioned their names you would recognize them immediately. You probably would say, "I plant those seeds," "I use that battery," "I use that anti-freeze," "My medicine cabinet contains those products." The four instances cited are typical of every reliable manufacturer in America. Millions of dollars are spent annually to develop, to improve, to standardize, and to take the guesswork out of merchandise. Other millions of dollars are spent in advertising to tell you about them. All of which is to say that in putting your trust in advertised merchandise you save yourself the bother, the expense, the disappointment—yes, the danger—of experimenting and discovering for yourself which make of soap, breakfast food, radio tubes, lingerie, gasoline, tea, electrical device, stationery—or what-not—gives you the most service for your money. The news columns of this paper keep you informed of the happenings in which you are most keenly interested. PLANTING KEY TO PLAN

Due to varying climatic conditions these plans show only the best arrangement for the planting and grounds, and indicate with symbols a method of selecting suitable plants to produce harmonious effects. On the shady side of buildings use only plants which thrive in shade.

EVERGREENS are indicated by symbol at left. General types and shapes are shown in perspective drawings. As a rule, medium and dwarf evergreens are best suited for foundation planting; taller aggressive growing varieties for specimens and screens.

TREES are indicated by symbol at right. Some grow tall and others lower. Varieties which should be of the smaller growing type are marked "Low Tree."

SHRUBS are indicated by symbol at left. Shrub borders are divided into plant groups of one variety with number of plants for each group indicated. There are three classes of shrubs according to height. First, low growing (LS), medium growing (MS), and tall growing (TS), as shown in chart to right, in their proper relationship as shown on the plan.

FLOWERS are most advantageously confined to beds in formal gardens and to borders. Flower borders are shown by symbol at left. They may be sections of hardy perennials, annuals, spring and summer flowering bulbs.

VINES are indicated by symbol at right.

People all over the country are modernizing their home grounds this spring, for they know now that styles change in gardening and that their place with its old-fashioned appearance is now out of date, just like everything else. To families like these "The Cedarhurst" offers a short cut to the latest fashion in yard beautification. It possesses that indefinable something which we call the modern touch.

For one thing, this garden plan provides an outdoor living room, indispensable to the modern nowadays. There, out among the colorful flowers, friends may be entertained, a hand of bridge may be played, or afternoon tea served, a change from the usual indoors procedure most welcome to both hostess and guests. In the garden room, too, the private life of the family can run on more comfortably. For, with its walks of green shading out the prying eyes and the unsightly objects of the neighborhood, the family can relax in the out-of-doors at will without feeling on parade.

For recreation it presents many a suggestion—croquet, tossing an indoor ball, even miniature golf. And what games the kiddies could think up on a playground like this would be bounded only by their fertile imaginations.

But this landscaping design is ultra modern in many other ways than its spacious outdoor living room. A discerning eye, for instance, will note how skillfully the service area, driveway, garage, drying yard, and vegetable garden, has been grouped to one side of the lot, leaving the remaining portion of the ground free for the growing things that develop beauty in texture, form, color and harmonious grouping.

The evergreens, also, although but a dozen are used, add a distinctly modern atmosphere. The rock garden, too, looking down on the pool, is in the best spirit of today. This plan is scaled to a lot 60x150 feet. It tells one just how many plants will be needed and provides a method by which the right variety may be selected for your locality. The plan also shows where to plant the trees, shrubs, evergreens, flowers and vines that will paint this beautiful garden picture.

I want to state that I am making this campaign as candidate for Sheriff solely on my own merits, and am not being run by any person or group of persons, clique or clan. And if elected I will not be obligated in any way that will keep me from enforcing all laws alike and with special privileges to none, and if you see fit to give me this trust I will do my dead level best to make you an efficient and economical Sheriff.

The Most Fooled Man Is the Man Who Fools Himself

—particularly when it comes to paying his bills. Bad credit is like backyard gossip—it travels fast—and it is magnified as it goes. Therefore the man who fools himself by not paying his bills promptly when due is hurting himself far more than he can hurt his creditors. They lose money. He loses their good opinion and eventually his own self-respect.

Most people appreciate this and therefore—pay up and keep their credit good.

Junior-Senior Banquet Friday Evening

The members of the senior class of the Portales high school were the honored guests at a banquet given in the basement of the Methodist church last Friday evening by the junior girls and boys, with the assistance of their sponsors, Miss Ruth Bloomer and K. J. Brough.

A banquet is an annual obligation given the graduating class by the members of the junior class and this year the event was combined with a Washington bi-centennial celebration.

Streamers of red, white and blue crepe papers were used to partition the large room of the basement into a secluded space large enough for the banquet table, which was arranged in the shape of a U.

Red, white and blue flowers in bowls were used as table decoration and the banquet board was lighted by means of red and white candles in crystal holders.

The nut cups were of red, white and blue crepe paper. A small flag floated from a staff at each of the plates. The staff was firm in a base of candy in the national colors.

The roster of the two classes, together with the program, menu and names of the faculty members were printed upon strips of linen cloth paper and rolled into scrolls. These were printed in red ink and tied with blue cords.

Across one end of the banquet room were floating Old Glory and the New Mexico state flag, while at the other end of the room hung a print of Stuart's painting of George Washington, with the national colors draped beneath the picture.

Floor lamps, easy chairs and a round table gave a homelike air to the space near the front of the room which was used as a welcome hall.

The four-course dinner was arranged to suggest the national colors, which were accented in the decorations. The after-dinner mints were in the red, white and blue.

The delicious meal was prepared by the ladies of the Methodist church under the chairmanship of Mrs. E. N. Wheeler, and was served by girls from the sophomore and freshman classes.

A very splendid program had been arranged by the sponsors and this was given during the course of the evening.

J. V. Bostick, president of the junior class, served as toastmaster and greeted the guests with cordial words of welcome and introduced the several persons appearing upon the program.

J. P. Steiner, principal of the high school, was the first speaker on the program, with the subject, "The Wilderness" or preparation.

He was followed by Clarence Kirksey, president of the senior class, with "The Virginia Convention"—the dream or ideal.

Miss Alene Harris gave a vocal solo which preceded the talk by F. D. Golden, city school superintendent, on "Valley Forge"—perseverance.

Annie Maud Hunter had for her subject, "Yorktown"—the dream realized. Jack Carr, a member of the junior class, was introduced and gave a much appreciated violin solo, with his sister, Ruth Carr, as his accompanist at the piano.

Edith Wheeler, president of the student body, had for her subject, "Philadelphia"—constitutions, and E. M. Bailey closed the evening's program with "Mount Vernon"—achievement.

Places were arranged for the fifty-two seniors, fifty-three juniors, seventeen senior high school faculty members and six special guests.

The senior-junior banquet is always a very important function in the social life of the students of the two classes and each year it is one of the outstanding events of the city.

The girls are always their very prettiest in beautiful evening gowns and the boys are handsome in well-tailored suits of the latest style.

ANNOUNCEMENT LUNCHEON
The approaching wedding of Miss Elizabeth Greaves and Marion M. Stinnett was announced at a beautiful luncheon in the Greaves home last Saturday when Miss Jamie Greenwaldt and Miss Rosalie Littlefield entertained the high school teachers and some additional friends at 1 o'clock.

Miss Greaves has been head of the home economics department in the Portales school for the past two years and Mr. Stinnett is one of the instructors in mathematics. It was during their association as members of the same school faculty that the romance between the two young people began.

Green and white were the accented colors of the Saturday luncheon. The dining table was arranged to accommodate the entire luncheon party. The table was spread with a lace cover and centered with a basket of white carnations and ferns. In the shadow of the graceful carnations stood the miniature bride and groom. The dolls were dressed in perfect form for a very stylish wedding. The groom was in the conventional black, while the bride was in white satin with long veil and orange blossoms. These dolls stood about nine inches high and gave a decidedly bridal air to the table.

Tall tapers in crystal holders added to the table decorations.

The nut cups were green and white and the place cards also bore out the party colors.

At each plate was a corsage of white sweet peas and green sprays. In these flowers was nestled the little message announcing the marriage of Miss Greaves and Mr. Stinnett on May 11.

The delicious luncheon was served in four courses and, since the bride-to-be is the only daughter of one of the true southern families of the city, the courses of the luncheon followed a true southern menu.

The two young hostesses were assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. J. G. Greaves. Flowers and ferns were used in profusion about the rooms of the home and a beautiful display of harder pot plants were arranged upon the front porch.

Miss Greaves wore a straight line dress of yellow silk with white trimmings.

The guests included Mesdames F. D. Golden, J. P. Steiner, C. F. Brown, K. D. McCall, W. E. Daniel, N. T. Watson, Misses Berenice Van Kirk, Ruth Bloomer, Alene Harris, and the guest of honor, Miss Elizabeth Greaves.

U. D. C. MEETING
The members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy gathered at the home of Mrs. C. V. Harris Tuesday noon for a club luncheon. The dining table and four quartet tables provided table accommodations for the diners.

Each member furnished some portion of the very delicious meal and this was served buffet style during the noon hour, thus permitting some of the members who are business and professional women to attend.

The ladies remaining for the afternoon spent the hours most happily visiting and sewing.

Mrs. G. T. Littlefield, a guest of Mrs. J. G. Greaves, enjoyed the occasion with her hostesses and the other friends as did also Mrs. Perry Connolly of Clovis, who was visiting her mother, Mrs. C. V. Harris. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. E. A. Herndon.

The ladies having the happy luncheon together were Miss Kate McManaway, Mesdames T. Mears, E. A. Herndon, E. L. Wright, Carl Case, A. D. Ribble, Bert Rawlins, W. B. Oldham, Coe Howard, J. L. May, J. W. McMillan, J. C. Compton, C. M. Compton, J. G. Greaves, G. T. Littlefield, C. V. Harris, N. F. Wollard, E. R. Buchanan, Prue Connally and Mrs. James Christie.

EVENING PARTY
Miss Frances Estelle Bryant entertained a few of her friends at a little dancing party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bryant, last Saturday evening.

After a few hours of dancing, Mrs. Bryant assisted her daughter in serving a plate lunch to the guests, who included Mildred Lyons, Winifred Gower, Jeffrie Hunter, Margaret Perry, Nadine Brown, Earl Stratton, J. B. Maxwell, John Melner, Louie Long, Tilden Cassell and J. K. Hilliard.

HOME ROOM CONTESTS
The program given last Friday by the freshman girls of Miss Berenice Van Kirk's room closed the series of home room programs which have been entertaining the student body and teachers at the weekly assemblies for the past several weeks.

F. D. Golden, P. M. Bailey and Miss Ruth Bloomer were the judges and they gave their decision in favor of the program furnished by the freshman boys of Mr. McCall's room. The second honors went to the freshman girls of Mrs. McCall's room and third place to the sophomore girls of Mrs. Daniel's room.

These series of programs completed all the home room contests of the school year and the sophomore girls of Mrs. Daniel's room were declared the winner with a total of 1,575 points. Mrs. McCall's room was second with 1,000 points and Mr. McCall's and Miss Van Kirk's rooms tied for third place, with 585 points each.

DORA 4-H GIRLS
The meeting last Thursday of the 4-H clubs of Dora was very interesting and the leader, Frances Hodges, is planning that each week's meeting be helpful as well as pleasant.

This is a baking club, with Frances Richards as the president. The girls gather at the school house for the club sessions and after the close of school the meeting places will be selected and announced.

At the meeting last Thursday the girls practiced the club creed, sang and pledge, and every member was present.

ART EXHIBIT
The art exhibit which was held in the gymnasium of the high school building on Thursday and Friday of last week was a collection of one hundred and fifty interesting pictures.

These were all prints of masterpieces and each was accompanied by a short history of the painting as well as a sketch of the artist. A small charge was made for admission to the gymnasium and this netted a sum sufficient to buy two of the pictures. One each for the senior and junior high schools.

The home economics girls served punch and wafers to the callers coming to enjoy the collection of pictures.

LUCKY THIRTEEN CLUB
Eight members of the Lucky Thirteen club were entertained last week in the home of Mrs. C. M. Wallace.

The ladies enjoyed five progressions of auction bridge and the contest closed with Mrs. Wesley Little holding high score.

Mrs. Wallace served a plate lunch to her guests after the close of the games.

The players consisted of Mrs. Leonard Westerman, Mrs. H. F. Crow, Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. Wesley Little, Misses Norene and Jessie Yeachum, Murie Kimmons and the hostess.

STUDENT COUNCIL BANQUET
Twenty-four members of the student council of the Portales high school together with Superintendent F. D. Golden and Principal J. P. Steiner gathered in the basement of the Methodist church on Tuesday evening for their annual banquet.

The ladies of the Methodist church were in charge of the preparation of the delicious three-course meal and were assisted in serving the same by Misses Ruth Wheeler, Jamie Greenwaldt and Glenda Patterson. Miss Edith Wheeler, retiring president of the student council, was in charge of the program which was held at the close of the dinner.

Miss Edith is the first girl to have been elected president of the council and she was delighted to introduce the second girl to be given this honor, Miss Annie Maud Hunter, who will be a senior next year.

Lynville Scott, the recently elected vice president, was presented and made a few remarks relative to the work next year. The other officers to serve next year who were present and were called upon for short talks were Ida Mae Hart, secretary-treasurer; Bill Maxwell, yell leader; Thelma Crow, girl's athletic director.

Mr. Steiner was invited to tell of the council assistance in the school problems during the past year, and this was followed by Mr. Golden, who was very complimentary concerning the value of the student council during the closing school year. He was very frank to say this had been the most helpful council which the school had known and was sure the school had lost nothing by electing a girl to the head of the organization.

I. O. O. F. CELEBRATION
The Odd Fellow members of the sixth district in New Mexico are making plans for an anniversary celebration to be held in Portales at the high school auditorium on Sunday, May 1.

ARCH HOMEMAKERS CLUB
Seventeen members were present at the meeting of the Arch Home-makers' club last Thursday, April 14, when the ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. M. C. Pate.

Miss Verda Oakley was present with the members and gave a very helpful talk on the home garden and the vegetables best suited for a Roosevelt county family garden.

The club has asked Miss Ottilie Schlapp to meet with members on Thursday, April 20, and all mothers are requested to bring their babies and children of pre-school age, that they may receive the benefit of the nurse's examination.

This meeting will be at the club house in the afternoon and is open to everyone. The work of the nurse is given free of charge.

KEY-PORTER
Miss Earlene Key and Camp Porter drove to Portales and were married by Rev. C. A. Loris of the Christian church.

Mrs. Porter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Key of Clovis and the groom is now located at Farwell, but at one time lived in Portales, where his parents conducted the Porter grocery store.

After a wedding trip to points in Texas the young people will establish their home in Farwell.

ROEBUCK
The wedding bells continue to ring, regardless of the depression. Miss Opal Gates and Jake Scott motored to Portales last Saturday afternoon and were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Opal's sisters, Ruby and Velma, accompanied them to Portales. Then the newlyweds, D. B. and Velma Judah, went to Luther Blakey's home and spent the day Sunday, Jake and Opal will make Elida their home for the present.

Mrs. F. Croft has been real poorly for some time. She has been at her son's home at Cameron, Tex., the last three weeks. Mr. Croft received a message last Sunday night saying she was not expected to live through the night. He and Fete went, hoping to get there before she passed away. We hope they found her better, instead.

Bro. Orbin Tabor of Morton, Tex., preached for us at Causey last Sunday. He surely delivered a fine sermon. He is a young man just starting out in the ministry. If he continues to improve he will some day be a wonderful preacher of the Gospel. May the Lord bless and direct him, is my prayer.

D. B. (Beans) Judah is building an adobe house. We will be glad for them when they get it finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Burnett called on Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Gates last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harding were dinner guests and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henry last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Snelson are very thankful to all who have contributed to their necessity since they lost their house and most of its contents by fire a short time ago.

M. L. Blakley was improving slowly the last word we had.

A. E. Merwick is still very poorly. The doctors say he will have to have an operation before he gets any better. He intends to go to Lubbock some time this week for that purpose. We hope he will soon be restored to health.

APPRECIATION
In days of sadness our friends are more deeply appreciated than ever before, and thus we will always remember those friends and neighbors who were so kind and helpful to us during the illness and burial of our husband and father, J. M. Jenkins—Mrs. J. M. Jenkins, Gertrude Jenkins, Ruby Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Baylor Jenkins, B. T. Jenkins, Mrs. A. L. Beckner.

Mrs. G. T. Littlefield came up from her home in Elida Saturday and visited a portion of the week with her daughter, Miss Rosalie, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Greaves.

N. Stool was in Lubbock, Tex., the first of the week attending to some business matters.

Mrs. R. C. Reed, president of the Third district of the Federated Women's clubs, came from her home in Dexter Wednesday and was an overnight guest in the home of Judge and Mrs. T. E. Mears. She was en route to the district meeting in Clovis.

J. L. Simon and J. W. Case have the contract for erecting a residence for Mrs. Ray J. Noble on her five-acre tract of land near the Simon property. Mrs. Noble is Mrs. Simon's mother.

A. F. Jones Jr., a student in the Military Institute at Roswell, was a week end guest with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Jones, here in Portales.

Mrs. A. D. Ribble and Mrs. F. D. Golden are in Clovis today attending the district meeting of the Federated Women's clubs of New Mexico. The two ladies are delegates from the Portales Women's club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. King are going to Roswell for a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lundgren. Mr. Lundgren has been ill for several months and it is now decided to take him to Fort Bayard for treatment.

FELT SICK AFTER EATING
"None of my food agreed with me—I would frequently taste what I ate, long after my meals, and I did not see a well day for weeks," says Mr. Peter Seeger, 329 S. Elmwood St., Kansas City, Mo. "I began taking a pinch of Black-Draught after each meal, and kept this up for weeks. Gradually the pain left me and I began to feel better. I ceased to be troubled with uneasiness and could eat what I liked."

Kite-Flying Is Fun, But—
Spring breezes invite the youngsters to fly their kites. And it is a fine, healthy fun, too.
But there is grave danger in such sport if carried on near electric lines. For the string or kite comes in contact with an electric wire the consequences may be serious.
Children should never attempt to recover a kite which has become entangled in the wires or on the pole of an electric line.
We urge parents to join us in conveying these friendly words of warning.

Causes Epidemic of Spring Fever

Dr. R. T. Hensley is responsible for an epidemic of spring fever in Portales.

Dr. and Mrs. Hensley returned from Austin, Tex., Tuesday afternoon, where they had been visiting their son, Turner, and wife.

The doctor takes advantage of everyone he meets and tells of the fishing with grasshoppers for bait on the shady streams of southern Texas.

This is cruel and inhuman treatment on the part of the doctor, and unless he is restrained Portales will soon suffer from an epidemic of the greater part of the population, who will hike off to the Pecos and other fishing points to test out the doctor's theory, and when they come back disappointed it will be just too bad for the doctor.

Alfred Powell, a teacher in the grade school, served punch and wafers to the grade school faculty members Tuesday afternoon at the close of the day's work, as a note of his appreciation of their friendship.

Rainbow Girls Visit Littlefield

On Monday night Ed J. Neer and Mrs. John V. Miller accompanied twelve or fifteen Rainbow Girls to Littlefield, Tex., to attend a reception given by the Littlefield Rainbow Girls to assist them in the initiation of six of the Littlefield assembly.

The Masons and the girls had a wonderful trip.

Mrs. Grizzle and the Littlefield girls certainly know how to entertain and showed the visitors a splendid time. They were loud in their praise of the splendid way in which the Portales girls put on the initiatory work.

After the lodge work Ed J. Neer treated the crowd to a luncheon.

Borrowers Must Use Good Seed

Farmers who receive Federal Crop loans are expected to use seeds of good quality and to use methods of farming that are generally recognized as safe and sound in their particular locality. In fact, the farmer agrees to do this in his application for the loan, which constitutes an agreement with the Department of Agriculture.

In addition to this, there is an agreement to plant a home garden and to raise feed for livestock. It is also expected that recognized methods of treating seed for disease and combating insects will be employed.

The government is making these regulations regarding the crop loans in order to protect its own interests as well as the farmers. It does not desire to finance farmers who will not use the best known methods of farming.

Turfing Athletic Field

The pipe lines are being placed to run the water from the main line over to the high school athletic field and when this work is completed the students will begin the task of setting Bermuda grass.

The turf will be obtained at the homes of Mrs. Opal Disney and Hugh Knox, and all the work will be done by the students. The task of turfing the athletic field is a project of the student body and the expense of the same is being borne by them.

A carnival was given last fall which placed the first money in this fund and then later the Glee club added to the amount with the proceeds from its operetta.

This money will pay for the water used this summer when the grass is being started and by the opening of school next September and the when football season starts the team should have a pretty green plot upon which to play.

The field is 300 feet by 180 feet and, since Bermuda is one of the grasses which can thrive under much use, the field, once seeded, should be in excellent condition for any number of years, if given the proper care.

The students having the responsibility of setting the grass will be assisted by some of the high school faculty members, that all may feel they have had an interest and part in the splendid work.

Vocational Item Cut Fought by Seligman

Governor Portales Discontinuance of Vocational Work in New Mexico

Governor Seligman is asking New Mexico's national legislators to attempt to have the vocational training item retained in the appropriation bill, according to a press dispatch from Santa Fe.

Mrs. Georgia Lusk, state superintendent of public instruction, said the item of $53,000, heretofore used for vocational training in New Mexico, had been stricken from the bill.

Loss of this fund will seriously cripple the educational structure of the state, Mrs. Lusk said.

Another prospective federal economy move that will affect New Mexico is the failure to make appropriation for maintenance of the new federal warm water fish hatchery built at Dexter at a cost of $250,000.

The state game and fish department has been advised by Fred Fisher, federal district superintendent, that the appropriation now under consideration for the department means no provision for maintenance of the hatchery.

United Has Annual Quilt Contest Week

Between twenty and thirty quilts are on display at the United Dry Goods Store this week, the entries have been made in the Quilt contest which is an annual feature of the local store.

During the week the patrons of the store are permitted to vote upon the quilts for beauty and neatness of work and the winner will be the recipient of a prize of some nature.

While there are several quilts of the same pattern, there are also many different kinds.

The "Democratic Donkey" is attracting much attention.

The quilts will be on display all this week and doubtless scores of people will call at the store to see the exhibit.

Some of the newer patterns make use of the present-day prints which are very popular.

2,200 People Saw New Ford Here Last Week

Over two thousand people were in Portales last Friday and Saturday taking a look at the new Ford V-8 cylinder car which was on display at the Universal Motor company.

The new Ford V-8 has many new features which make it one of the best low-priced cars on the market.

Wallace King, owner and manager of the Universal Motor company, says that they will soon have one of these new cars here for demonstration.

LONGS CLUB HAS ALL DAY MEETING

The Homemakers' club of the Longs community went to Rogers on Tuesday, April 12, and the members had a most delightful all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. Lem Miller.

There were ten from Longs present, one new member who joined the club during the business meeting and twenty-nine Rogers ladies who were guests of the day.

This was a large and happy gathering of forty women and the day will remain in the memory of all as one of the outstanding meetings of the season.

Miss Oakley was present and was in charge of the program.

Each of the women had taken a dish of food and a real feast was spread at the noon hour.

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, April 25, when the members will gather again for an all-day meeting, this time in the home of Mrs. Will Overstreet.

SON DIES AT CARLSBAD

William N. Hudgins, age 30, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hudgins, died at his home in Carlsbad last Thursday night, according to news in the Roswell Record.

Mr. Hudgins died of pneumonia following a tonsil operation earlier in the week.

J. D. Hudgins is with the delinquent tax department of the state and he and Mrs. Hudgins have made several visits to Portales and have many friends here who deeply sympathize with them in this sadness.

FLOYD HOME MAKERS' CLUB

The Home Makers' club of Floyd met last Friday, April 8, in the home of Mrs. J. I. Jones in an all-day gathering.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Wilson, and as the secretary called the roll the members present responded with the name of some new vegetable which they were intending to raise this year for the first time. There were thirteen members present and five visitors.

Some business matters concerning the activities of the club during the summer occupied much of the business hour.

The program subject was "Gardening and the Values of a Garden." Many things were learned concerning the health-giving qualities of a vegetable garden for every family.

At noon a regular feast was spread. Each member took a dish of food and this made a meal which was truly bountiful as well as delicious.

After the business meeting and the program the ladies spent the remainder of the day quilting.

The next meeting will be Friday, April 22. Mrs. J. E. Gaasch will be hostess and every member is requested to be present, as there will be some business of importance to come before the organization.

Future Farmers Club Has Feast

The Future Farmers of America club of the Floyd school held a father and son banquet in the home of the economics teacher at Floyd school last Friday evening, and rendered a program which was most instructive, very interesting and was fully enjoyed by all the fathers and sons present.

Together with the fathers of the several boys of the club were distinguished guests from Portales and Amarillo, Tex. Mr. Tinsley, state agricultural representative of the Santa Fe railroad, came down from Amarillo and had a delightful evening with the boys of the club and the other men of the party.

A. F. Jones, J. G. Greaves, Watt Stewart and Ralph R. Will were the Portales visitors present.

The very delicious meal had been prepared by the girls of the home economics department with the advice and counsel of their teacher, Mrs. Don C. Foster. The menu arrangement on the program was quite unique. The place cards were cooking cards.

Alton Miller was toastmaster for the evening and introduced the several persons appearing upon the evening program.

The menu and program numbers were as follows:

PORTALES WELCOMES SPANISH WAR VETS

Portales extends a hearty welcome to the Spanish War Veterans, who are in session here today.

May their visit to Portales be pleasant and profitable work for the United States when San Juan Hill was captured, ending the war with Spain.

In behalf of Portales, the News again bids them welcome to our city, and will extend every courtesy possible.

HOT BEDS CONQUER SNOW

Fifty Potter county (Texas) women had to shovel snow from the tops of their hot beds last March, but underneath they gathered fresh crisp lettuce and radishes, according to Miss Mary Sifton, home demonstration agent there, who is stressing again this year the importance of the hot bed in the development of year round gardens in the plains country. Eighty-six per cent of home demonstration club women had spring gardens, and 61 per cent had fall gardens, that yielded $2,734 worth of garden products at a cost of $133.95. Forty-seven women have rhubarb beds and 43 asparagus beds.

After the business meeting and the program the ladies spent the remainder of the day quilting.

The next meeting will be Friday, April 22. Mrs. J. E. Gaasch will be hostess and every member is requested to be present, as there will be some business of importance to come before the organization.

Pres. Zimmerman Addresses High School Students

Pupils of the Portales high school and several of the residents of the city enjoyed the address given at the auditorium last Thursday afternoon by J. F. Zimmerman, president of the New Mexico State university.

President Zimmerman was a member of the party spending several weeks abroad last year studying the political and economic conditions of Europe, and he is fully convinced America is no longer a country that can live unto herself alone.

When we were an agricultural country, he said, we were not so dependent upon the other nations of the world, but now since we are foremost in manufacturing and industry, it is not only necessary that we have a market for our products, but we must depend upon other countries for many of the raw materials in our manufacturing.

He pointed out that America has no tin, no rubber or many other articles which were necessary in peace time, to say nothing of the wartime requirements.

If cut off from the rest of the world, it would be impossible for America to manufacture the electric bulbs which illuminate our homes, business houses and factories.

President Zimmerman feels the best and only sane way of settling all national disputes is through a world tribunal, for throughout the years no disputes has been satisfactorily concluded through war.

His address was directed to the young people, as they are the rising men and women who must bear the weight of the American problems within the next few years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Simon have just received the announcement of the marriage of their sister, Miss Pearl Simon, of Yeso, N. M., to Terrill Smith, also of Yeso, Sunday, April 17, 1932.

Miss Simon formerly was a resident of Portales and attended the Portales schools until the family moved to Yeso to make their home.

Mr. Smith was born and reared in Yeso and has a cattle ranch there, where the young couple will make their home.

C. E. Herbert, with his son Glenn and daughter Miss Charlotte, were in Portales Wednesday. The young people were shopping and visiting while Mr. Herbert was attending to business matters.
