MURDER SUSPECTS ARE INDICTED

Commissioners May Oust Treasurer

NEW BOND IN 20 DAYS OR NO JOB, HE IS TOLD

Present Security Is "Improper," Again Ordered to Redeem Road Warrants.

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Nov. 19.—The commissioners' court today issued an order directing County Treasurer Pritchard to make a new bond within twenty days and provided that his office should be declared vacant and his successor elected in the event he failed to comply with the order within the stated time. Pritchard's bond of $100,000 was made by the National Surety company of New York and it is the contention of the commissioners' court that the bond is not properly made out, in that it was not signed before "recording."

An order was also issued to the treasurer directing him to redeem $5,000 additional of the Fleming & Stitzer road warrants, bringing the total amount of road warrants which the treasurer has been directed to redeem up to $37,500.

It is understood that the county treasurer will again disregard the court order concerning the road warrants but will comply within the given time with the order directing another bond.

RANGERS SEIZE TON OF TEQUILA AFTER BATTLE

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 19.—Six men and thirty horses were captured and 1,000 bottles of Mexican tequila and several saddles were seized following a gun fight near the Mexican border between three Texas rangers and federal customs officers on one side and eight Mexicans on the other, according to telephone information received at the San Antonio customs office this afternoon. One of the alleged liquor smugglers was wounded by escaping, the report said. The skirmish took place five miles from the town of Bruni, in Webb county.

GOVERNOR GRANTS REQUISITION FOR GEORGIA BANKER

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Governor Neff today granted extradition papers for John D. Walker, wanted in Sparta, Ga., for embezzlement. The papers were granted at the request of Governor Hardwick of Georgia.

Walker is reported to be in San Antonio. It was also reported that he would fight extradition and Governor Neff announced when he signed the papers today that he had delayed doing so in order that Walker might file protest if he so desired. None was filed, so the governor signed the papers.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 19.—John D. Walker, well known oil man, who up until Nov. 1 made his residence in San Antonio but who is now in Mexia, Texas, will fight action taken today by Governor Neff of Texas in granting requisition of Governor Hardwick of Georgia, for the return to that state of Walker.

DRY LAND IN SIGHT

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Prohibition Commissioner Haynes returned today from a personal survey of liquor conditions in Michigan and declared in a formal statement he was "more optimistic as to enforcement of the eighteenth amendment than at any time since assuming the office." Confirmation of the "gentlemen's agreement" between American and Canadian officials along the border, he added, would reduce rum running to a minimum.

MATERNITY BILL PASSES. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The house late today passed in amended form the Sheppard-Towner maternity bill, previously approved by the senate. The measure now goes to conference.

JAPAN STANDS ALONE IN VIEWS AS TO CHINESE

Doesn't Want Conference to Lay Down Specific Rules.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Japan joined with the other powers today in an expression of sympathy for the national aspirations of China, but added a postscript, regretting "any tendency" toward a detailed examination by the arms conference into "unnumerable minor matters" in the Far East.

In a statement omitting mention of specific points of controversy between the two countries, the Japanese delegation informed the conference delegates that their government claimed no special rights and privileges in the procurement of raw materials from China, harbored no policy of territorial aggrandizement "at China's expense and was ready to join in any readjustment of extra territorial rights which appeared satisfactory."

To enter upon an examination of details, however, the statement declared, would be an attempt bound to result in undue protraction of the discussions—a reiteration of the objections Japan has expressed repeatedly against reopening the many controversies in the Far East.

Agree With U. S. In turn, Great Britain, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Portugal expressed in broad terms their desire for the emancipation of China through commercial liberty and preserved territorial integrity this general position already having the adherence of the United States. Then the committee adjourned until Monday, when the discussion of principles will give way to a more detailed consideration of China's declaration.

On Monday the conference will turn its attention for the moment to the question of land armaments and the plenary session will hear from Premier Briand the French position regarding the maintenance of armies. It is not expected, however, that details of the question will be taken up until later; perhaps not before the naval armament and Far Eastern questions are near solution.

The committee meeting to resume the Far Eastern discussion will be held in the late afternoon, after the plenary session.

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—After three urgent requests by the editor of a national magazine, Governor Neff today made a statement in regard to the disarmament conference in Washington. The statement follows:

"The history now being made by the disarmament conference in Washington will be frequently referred to by writers, speakers and thinkers for generations to come. It constitutes an epochmaking milestone that ineffably marks the march of man. The students of today who are to be the men and women of tomorrow should have as a part of their daily curriculum the detailed proceedings of this world-wide conference now assembled, as it seeks to turn the tide of civilization away from the wreckage of the past.

FUTURE REPARATIONS MAY BE POSTPONED

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—Future installments of German reparations may be postponed after those due in January are paid, if the allies "are convinced of Germany's sincerity," it was intimated semi-officially today after a final conference between Chancellor Wirth and members of the reparations commission.

RESCUED HIS CHILDREN BUT DIES FROM BURNS

By Associated Press.

HOUSTON, Nov. 19.—J. Katz, seriously burned on Armistice day when his home caught fire and he braved death to save his three children, died here today as a result of the burns.

ALICE BRADY'S ROMANCE ENDS IN DIVORCE SUIT

Rumors persistent for weeks of a crisis in the domestic life of Miss Alice Brady, actress and daughter of William A. Brady, theatrical manager and producer, found confirmation in a supreme court order revealing she had sued James L. Crane for a divorce. James L. Crane, who is the son of Dr. Frank Crane, editorial writer and publicist, is charged in the complaint with misconduct with a young woman last August. Miss Brady's marriage took place while her father was in Europe, news of it not becoming public until two days later. It was a romance of the movies, Miss Brady having met her husband while both were working in the same studio several months before. The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. Crane, the bridegroom's father, in his home early in the evening of May 19, 1919.

NORTHERN FARMERS WILL BE INVITED TO 'COME TO EASTLAND'

WARNS AGAINST STATE CONTROL OF RAIL RATES

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Enactment of the Capper or other bills withdrawing from the interstate commerce commission control over the state rates would result in "guerrilla warfare" among the states on rate questions, H. A. Schandrett, counsel for the Union Pacific lines, told the senate interstate commerce committee. Edgar E. Clark, former chairman of the interstate commerce commission, who also appeared before the committee, described the transportation act as "a piece of constructive legislation about which there exists now for some unaccountable reason widespread misunderstanding." He urged the committee to go fully into any proposed changes that a backward step might not be taken.

EARLY BIRDS GET WELL PAID FOR LOST SLEEP

By Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 19.—Three robbers who entered the Gittleston Jewelry company's store some time during the night, overpowered Henry Weisman, the manager, upon his arrival today, forced him to turn off the burglar alarm and open the safe, and escaped with jewels valued at $100,000, according to the police.

TWELVE KILLED BY ARKANSAS STORMS

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 19.—Twelve persons were killed, thirty or more injured and considerable property damage done by two tornadoes which struck in widely separated parts of this state Thursday night.

One storm near Mena, in the extreme western part of the state, wiped out a family of eight persons.

Another storm striking a lumber camp near Arkadelphia killed one person, injured twenty-four others and then skipped north to a point near Malvern, where three more persons were killed and a number injured.

RANGER GREEK GOES HUNTING, DOESN'T RETURN

Friends Fear Man, Who Hasn't Been Seen for Five Days, Is Lying Helpless.

Friends of Nick Metaxakis, an employee of the Ranger cafe living at the Pacific rooms, are beginning to feel anxiety over Metaxakis' disappearance last Tuesday.

It is stated that the restaurant employee left his rooms with his shotgun and is presumed to have gone hunting, alone, as was his custom. He has not been heard of since, his friends state. As the direction in which he went on his hunt is unknown, his friends are undecided in what direction from the city to search for him.

Metaxakis is about 40 years old, medium height and heavyset. The condition of his room indicates that he intended to return and his friends say there was no reason for his leaving without notice.

They fear he was accidentally shot or otherwise injured himself and is lying in the hills.

14 MEN HELD FOR ASSAULTING CHICAGO GIRL

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Fourteen men, all between the ages of 18 and 25 years, were held to the grand jury under bonds of $4,000 each today, charged with criminally assaulting Miss Geraldine Rose, aged 23, last Sunday night.

HANK FIDDLER BEST WITH A CORKSCREW

WINSTED, Conn., Nov. 19.—Hank Hotchkiss, famed throughout Winsted, Conn., and the surrounding country as "Ye Olde Time Fiddler," paid the penalty of success yesterday.

When Hank picked up his old fiddle case and started for a country dance, men flocked in his wake as the children trooped after the Pied Piper.

Hank's marvellous popularity attracted the attention of the police. It isn't intuition with a cop, it's just plain suspicion—even in Winsted. So they arrested Hank and—found hooch in his fiddle case.

Hank might have played the cello, and again he might have tooted a bass drum. But he stuck to the fiddle. Some say he lacked imagination—or a business sense. Who can tell? Hank was fined $50 and costs. Music hath charms—yes, but, we'll say it has!

ALICE BRADY ASKS DIVORCE FROM JAMES CRANE, ACTOR

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Miss Alice Brady, stage and film star and daughter of William A. Brady, producer, is to file an action for divorce from her actor-husband, James L. Crane, it is announced by Nathan Vidaver, her attorney.

Miss Brady's complaint, Vidaver said, would charge misconduct on the part of her husband in August. Crane is a son of Dr. Frank Crane, well known preacher and writer. He was married to Miss Brady in May, 1919, his father performing the ceremony. The ceremony was repeated a month later in the Catholic Church of the Ascension at the request of the actress' parents.

A general denial of his wife's charges will be made in the answer to her action by Crane, his attorney said.

Miss Brady and her husband separated following differences between Crane and his father-in-law.

BENTLEY WILL MAKE RACE FOR EDUCATION CHIEF

LENTON, Nov. 19.—Ed R. Bentley, former student at the North Texas Normal college here and now superintendent of schools in McAllen, has announced his candidacy for the office of state superintendent of public instruction, subject to the action of the Democratic primary next year.

LINE AND BOYD TO FACE TWO CHARGES FOR TAILOR'S DEATH

"With Malice Aforethought Having Killed," and Conspiracy to Rob, Are Acts Alleged in Bill Returned.

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Nov. 19.—Lloyd Line and Johnny Boyd of Ranger were indicted separately here today on a charge of first degree murder for the killing of Joe Fiebrich, Ranger tailor, who was shot through the heart by hijackers on the night of Nov. 11. The two men also were indicted jointly on a charge of conspiracy to rob the tailor. The murder indictments charge Line and Boyd with killing Fiebrich with malice aforethought.

Both men have been held in jail without bail since they were rushed here Saturday a week ago following their arrest by Ranger officers.

BOOSTERS WILL INVADE CISCO AND EASTLAND ON TUESDAY'S TRIP

TEXAS CO. TO PUT FIRST PIPE LINE IN MEXIA FIELD

Fifteen-Mile Line Will Connect With Tulsa-Gulf Trunk; Ready Jan. 1.

The construction of the first main pipe line into Mexia was started today by the Texas Pipe Line company, according to an announcement from J. B. Haden, superintendent of the company here. The line will be eight inches in diameter and will connect fifteen miles west of Mexia with the trunk line of the company which starts in Tulsa and has its southern terminus at Port Arthur. The company expects to have the line completed by the first of the year as the first main line into Mexia, Haden stated.

At the present time the company has loading racks and a system of gathering lines over the fields.

CUDAHY BANKROLL COOLS HEIRESS' LOVE FOR BANK CLERK HUSBAND

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19.—Percy F. Browne, popular young Pasadena banker and sportsman, and his wife, Mrs. Edna Cudahy Browne, daughter of Mrs. Jack Cudahy of Hollywood, have separated. Friends of the young couple say when Mrs. Browne's money, bequeathed her by her grandfather, Michael Cudahy, flew in the window of the Browne villa her love flew out and that when her fortune was paid to her she found life in Pasadena as the wife of a junior bank official a trifle dull and went to San Francisco to reside.

Browne is employed by the National Bank & Trust company of Pasadena.

"Come Along" Is Their Invitation; Next Trade Day to Be on Friday.

Members of the Retail Merchants' association, accompanied by other business men of the city and a band, will leave here Tuesday morning on the second booster trip. The boosters will on this occasion invade the trade territory to the south and west of Ranger, visiting the cities of Desdemona, Gorman, Carbon, Cisco, Eastland, Olden and then back to Ranger.

Fifty boosters made the trip through the north and eastern territory two weeks ago and it is desired to carry along three times this number on the trip Tuesday. It is pointed out that Cisco and Eastland are larger towns than any encountered on the first trip and that more boosters will be necessary to make the proper showing. Automobiles and people to fill them are sought by the association for the trip. The association will provide dinner and cigars for the entire party and it was demonstrated on the first trip that such excursions were enjoyable as well as profitable to the city.

All Rangerites who can make the trip are asked to call the association offices in the Guaranty bank building.

The regular Thursday "Trade Day" next week has been moved back to Friday in view of the fact that all the stores will be closed for part of the day at least, on Thanksgiving day.

SHOP CRAFT WORKING RULES TO BE CHANGED, WAGE SCALE REOPENED

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—New working rules for the six railroad shop crafts will be completed by the United States railroad labor board and issued in time to take effect Dec. 1, according to announcement of the board, made public today.

Issuance of these shop rules will pave the way for the railroads to request revision of the shopcrafts' wage schedules, according to recent rulings of the board.

RANGER MERCHANTS ASK FRIENDS WHO ARE OUT OF LUCK TO BE THEIR GUESTS AT THANKSGIVING DINNER

Members of the Retail Merchants' association of Ranger will be hosts at a free Thanksgiving dinner Thursday afternoon from 12 to 2 o'clock, at the old Simpson-Alexander location, 328 Marston street. Fifty-two turkeys, with all the trimmings that go with Thanksgiving turkey, will be served. The room will be decorated, and the merchants will not only receive their guests, but will act as servants as well. A committee of members composed of those best qualified in the line of catering to the needs of hungry humanity, is attending to the details.

While the dinner is free, the merchants declare it is not a charity affair, although those able to supply their own holiday meal are expected to do so. Their motive, they say, is purely to see that everyone in Ranger gets the kind of Thanksgiving dinner that is traditional in America; because without such a dinner, the holiday is not complete. They realize that conditions have been hard, that many persons, through no fault of their own, are unable to indulge in the luxuries which symbolize Thanksgiving, and they propose to see that any such condition is remedied. It is their way of showing appreciation of their fellow townsmen who have stood the brunt with them, and who do the best they can, without any fuss about it.

With this spirit in their hearts, the merchants therefore urge those who have been buffeted by fate, and who are temporarily unable to provide a holiday feast for themselves and their kiddies, to come and be the guests of the association on this day.

LOVING CUPS FOR WINNERS IN SCHOOL MEET

Oratorical and Track Events to Be Contested at Cisco Next Spring.

Details of the county interscholastic oratorical and track meet, to be held in Cisco on March 31 and April 1, 1922, were worked out yesterday in Cisco at a meeting of the Eastland County Interscholastic league. Superintendent J. J. Godbey, as director-general of the University Interscholastic league, presided, and this city was represented by H. D. Woods, principal of the High school and J. W. Harrington, principal of the Central ward school. Cisco was decided on as the place for the spring meet, at a meeting held several weeks ago.

The Cisco schools have arranged to supply all medals and ribbons for the winners of the various contests, it was announced at the meeting. This action on the part of the Cisco schools will set a precedent, to be followed by the schools of other towns where the meets may be held in the future, it is stated.

Loving Cups for Winners.

An agreement was reached whereby the schools of Ranger, Cisco, Gorman, Eastland, Carbon and Rising Star will each furnish a loving cup for the winners in the boys' and girls' debate; the boys' and girls' doubles in tennis; girls' volleyball ball and a "sweepstakes cup" for the highest point winner of the whole meet. In order that a cup may be permanently won by a school it must be captured three consecutive years.

No basketball game played before the first of the year will count toward the elimination of a team from the county or district championship race, it was agreed at the meeting. Basketball schedules will be made irrespective of the dates set for the county meet and winners of basketball games will not be allowed to count points toward the winning of the county meet, it was further decided.

Schools in County.

The University Interscholastic league has grown in importance during the last few years and its good influence in school life is being felt more and more each year. In Eastland county there are ten independent schools, namely: Ranger, Cisco, Eastland, Rising Star, Gorman, Carbon, Desdemona, Olden, Scranton, and Nimrod. There are sixty-four rural schools, namely: Yellow Mound, Morton Valley, Pleasant Grove, Central, Freedom, Lone Cedar, Union, Flatwoods, Old Colony, New Colony, Corner, Cross Roads, Hunteter, Triumph, Tanner, Tudor, Marsdon, Lone Star, Kokomo, Alemeda, Young Springs, Bear Springs, Jewel, Friendship, Bluffbranch, Cottonwood, Sandy, Word, Reich, Cozart, Dan Horn, Curtis, Long Branch, Pioneer, Haskell, Mountain, Howard, Elm, Crocker, Grigsby, Grandview, Peak, Okra, Union Hill, Salem, New Hope, Dathan, Bullock, Oak Grove, Sabanno, Britton, Cheaney, Romney, Pleasant Hill, Griggs, George Hill, Davis, Cook, Ballard, Center Point, Bedford, Grapevine, Mangum, and Reagan.

FORD IS SURE TO GET NITRATE PLANT, HE SAYS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—"You bet it's going through," Henry Ford said today regarding his proposal to buy and lease the Muscle Shoals, Ala., nitrate and water power project. The terms, he added, were up to the government.

Ford, who conferred here today with Thomas A. Edison regarding the Muscle Shoals project, was asked if he proposed to compete with Chile in the production of nitrate.

Makes Harding Laugh.

"If we can't beat the Chileans, we ought to quit," he answered. Referring to his visit to Washington yesterday, when he conferred with Secretary Hoover regarding the purchase, Ford said that he also had had a conference with President Harding and at that time had offered to buy for junk, battleships scrapped by the government as a result of the arms conference. He added that the President had enjoyed a hearty laugh.

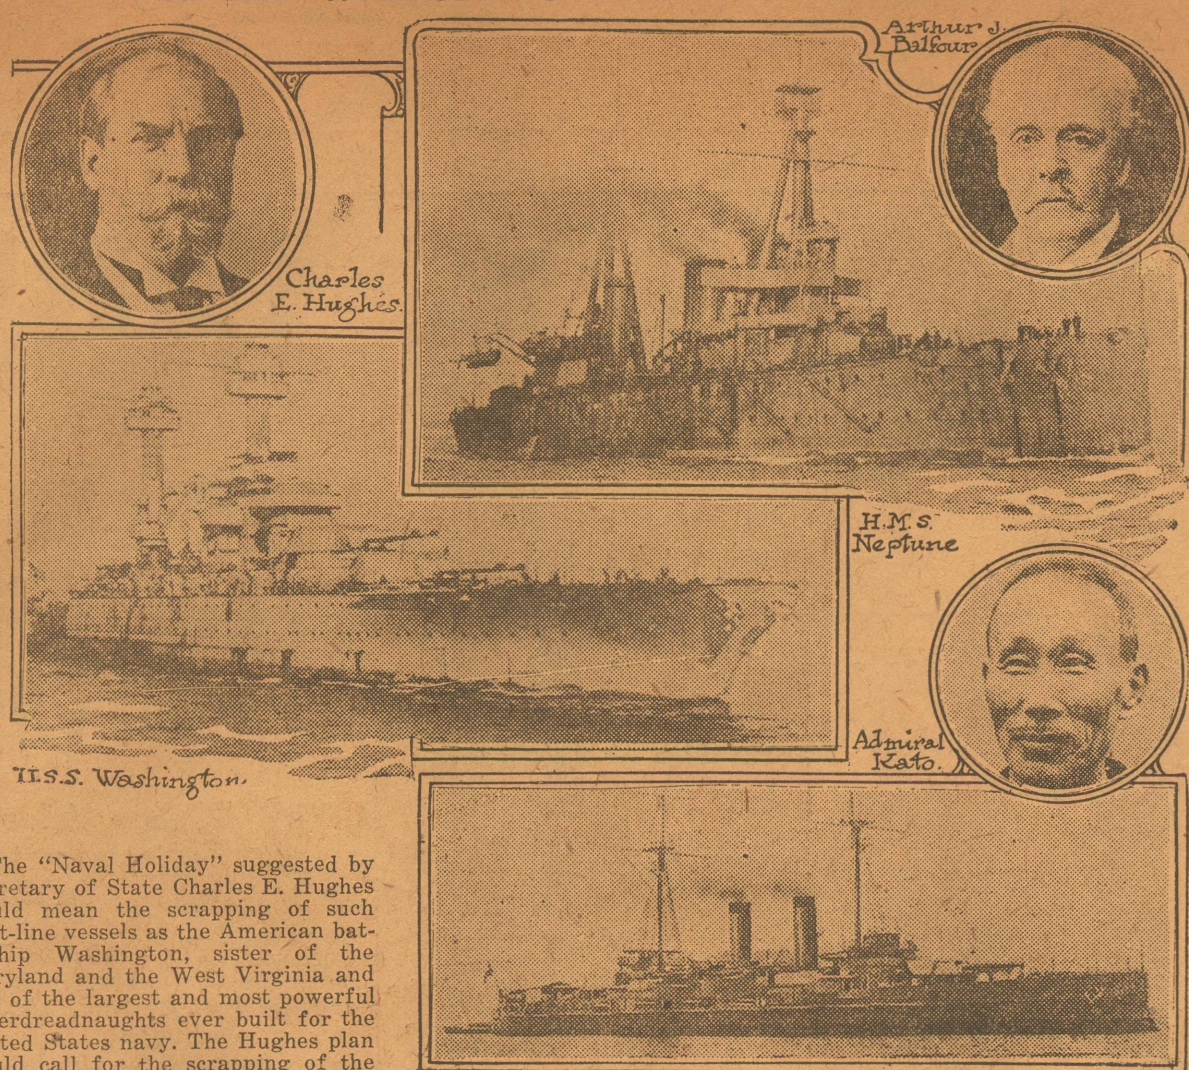

Before leaving for Detroit the automobile manufacturer mentioned that he went to the bedside of Secretary Weeks, who was ill, late last night in Washington and placed before him the proposition to take over the Muscle Shoals property. He declined to say whether they had reached a definite agreement. He also presented to Secretary Weeks his proposition to buy scrapped battleships for use in making

Just Business.

"It's nothing," he remarked. "We buy scrap iron all the time."

Ford said he would "leave it to the experts" to figure how much horsepower could be developed and the amount of nitrate it would be possible to produce at the plant. That would be determined, he said, "after he and Edison with technical advisers had inspected the property."

THREE WARSHIPS U. S. WOULD SCRAP

U.S.S. Washington.

H.M.S. Neptune.

Admiral Kato.

Japanese Warship Katori.

The "Naval Holiday" suggested by Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes would mean the scrapping of such first-line vessels as the American battleship Washington, sister of the Maryland and the West Virginia and one of the largest and most powerful superdreadnaughts ever built for the United States navy. The Hughes plan would call for the scrapping of the British gunboat H. M. S. Neptune and the Japanese warship Katori.

Secretary Hughes, Baron Kato and Arthur Balfour constitute the "Big Three" at the Washington parley and whether disarmament is an actuality or an ethereal dream will depend upon whether they reach an agreement to consign these sea-monsters—the Washington, Neptune and Katori—to the junk heap.

The U. S. S. Washington was launched Sept. 1, 1912. She displaces 32,000 tons and mounts eight 16-inch guns in her main battery. Her secondary battery consists of fourteen 5-inch rapid-fire guns. She has 28,000 horsepower, is electrically driven and develops twenty knots an hour. She carries a crew of 1,080 officers and men.

H. M. S. Neptune, launched Sept. 30, 1909, is 546 feet long, with a 19,900-ton displacement. She has 28,000 horsepower and averages twenty-one knots. She carries ten 12-inch guns, sixteen 4-inch, two 3-pound anti-aircraft guns, five machine guns and several torpedo tubes.

The Katori, built July 4, 1905, is 455 feet long and displaces 15,950 tons. She develops 18½ knots. She mounts four 12-inch guns, four 10-inch and twelve 6-inch guns, three 3-pounders, twelve 12-pounders and carries numerous torpedo tubes, five submerged. She carries a crew of 864 men and officers.

EAST SIDE FIRE HALL IS CLOSED

The East Side fire station which was ordered abandoned at the city commission meeting Tuesday will be closed today, instead of Dec. 1, as originally intended. The old model Cadillac truck, which has cost the city considerable money in repair bills since it was put into operation here, has been brought to the Elm street station, where it will be held in reserve. Frank LaCone who has been in charge of the East Side station for the last year, has been relieved from duty. The reduction of another man from the department in the economy program of the city administration will not become effective until Dec. 1.

It was agreed by the commissioners Tuesday that the Elm street station could furnish adequate fire protection to the East Side and that the closing of the station in that section need cause no uneasiness on the part of residents. The truck used there, it was stated was, as the result of its rundown condition, out of service most of the time and it was necessary for the other trucks to answer all alarms in that section while the station was open.

MURPHY'S DODGE RUNS AWAY FROM ITS GAS TANK

A reward of fifteen gallons of gasoline is offered by Chief Murphy of the gas tank from his Dodge car of the ga tank from his Dodge car which was lost last night in a hurried trip over the east side to investigate a trash fire. The "reward" is inside the tank or was inside it, the chief stated, and urges that the finder keep the gas if he cares to but return the tank. The tank is thought to have dropped from the car somewhere on Young street or on the Spring road.

With the exception of royal effigies there are only four statues of women erected in London.

Ranger Retail Merchants Association

Fire Boys' Burro Goes on Auction Block With Prizes Ropers Didn't Win

The Retail Merchants' association's auction to be held Monday night for the benefit of the Thanksgiving dinner fund continues to increase in size and importance. To the list of rodeo prizes, which local merchants and business men failed to win in their roping contest on Armistice day, has been added forty other articles of merchandise by seven local firms. The fire department has donated its pet burro to the list and the saddened voice of the latter may rise even above that of Auctioneer Raymond Teal on the occasion.

A wide range of merchandise is covered in the list or articles to be sold to the highest bidder. Firms donating the forty additional articles are: Summers' market, H. Fair, the Texas Drug company, Humes, Joseph's Dry Goods store, the Boston store and the Model market.

At a meeting of the association Friday it was decided that none of the participants in the merchants' and business men's roping contest had qualified as prize winners, and should therefore not even have the credit of "donating" the prizes for the auction.

Raymond Teal and E. J. Barnes, who were awarded the bleacher decisions, were charged with having come upon their calves unawares and to have persuaded them under the loop. Other participants, it was brought out, had failed to even ring their respective calves. Doc Hodges, rodeo officials testified, roped his own horse around the hind quarters and Scott Hill, it was claimed, roped one of the cannon in left field.

As ropers, Dr. Craig, Gifford Clegg and Karl Jones were said to have demonstrated to an appreciative grandstand that they were splendid harpooners, the whole meeting agreed.

It is claimed that American women get more fun out of life than English women.

JUDGE REGRETS LAW FORBIDS HANGING FOR CONFESSED SLAYER

By Associated Press

SAGINAW, Mich., Nov. 19.—Richard Champlain, 22 years old, who confessed he had shot and killed his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Adrain Champlain, was sentenced to life imprisonment following his plea of guilty in circuit court here Friday.

Young Champlain, in his confession, made at the behest of his 19-year-old sweetheart, Clara A. Humpert, a school teacher, declared a quarrel with his parents over their objections to his courtship led to the crime. They objected, he said, because of differences in religious beliefs of the Champlain and Humpert families. Following the shooting, the youth said he set fire to the house in an effort to conceal the crime.

Judge Clarence M. Browne, in passing sentence, expressed regret that the Michigan law did not permit capital punishment for high crimes.

CANE ALCOHOL AS FUEL MAKES FLIVVERS PRANCE

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The alcohol which is one of the by-products of sugar manufacture in Cuba is being used by the islanders as motor car fuel. It is called "motor spirit," according to Purser Fuchs of the Ward liner Morro Castle, which came into port Wednesday, and is said to possess the ability to wake up the oldest "bus" and make it prance about like a colt.

The Morro Castle brought 404 drums of this alcohol in her cargo, but it is destined for Constantinople.

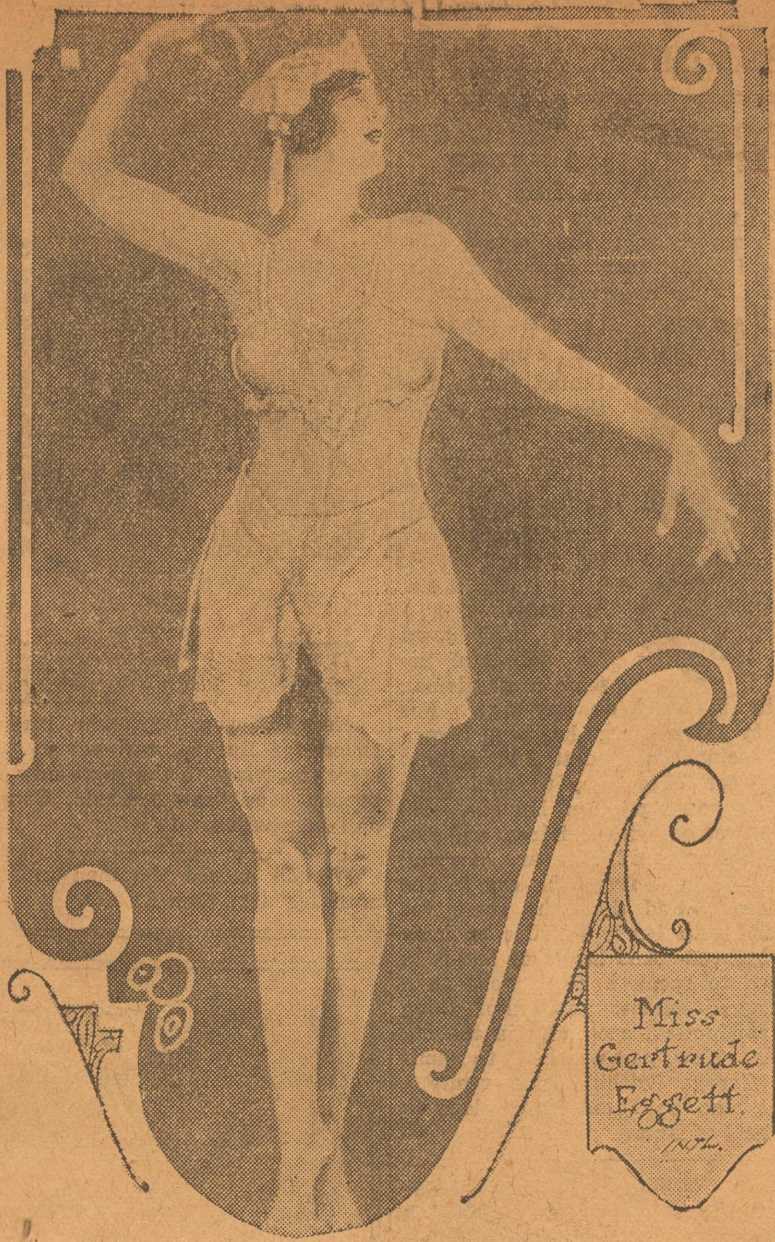

It is claimed that the product eventually will cheapen motor fuel and bring down the price of gasoline.

ONLY WOMAN ELECTED TO OFFICE IN NEW YORK

MOST SHAPELY GIRL IN AMERICA

Miss Gertrude Eggett

Miss Gertrude Eggett, aged 25, of Fresno, Calif., is the most beautifully formed young woman in America. At least that is what the judges in a contest in which over 10,000 photographs were submitted decided. The slender, marvelously supple girl is a natural athlete. She is a brunette, with brown eyes and dark brown hair, perfect teeth and super-abundant vitality and health. Although 25, she does not look over twenty. She is 5 feet 7 inches in height and weighs 136 pounds.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL POSTPONED; REPORT OF ACTIVITIES FOR YEAR

Although the annual Red Cross roll call started over the country on Nov. 11, it has been decided by the Eastland county chapter to postpone its drive to a later date, when the district recovers from the adverse conditions of the last year. This decision, which has been approved by the roll call director of the organization, was formally announced today by Mrs. Philip Pettitt of Cisco, executive secretary.

In connection with the announcement, Mrs. Pettitt also submits a report of the activities of the chapter during the last year, which follows:

Home Service.

Report of home service activities of Eastland county chapter, American Red Cross, from Jan. 1 to Nov. 1, 1921:

Services rendered ex-service men or their families.....1,495
Services rendered disabled men or their families..... 42
Service rendered men now in service or their families.... 21

Service rendered civilian families..... 59
Visits made ex-service men or their families..... 221
Visits to civilian families..... 32

The Red Cross has co-operated with the county, schools and city authorities in various forms of social welfare work. Rendering financial assistance in army navy cases where necessary. And handling relief work for other organizations as directed by those in charge.

Veterans' Claims.

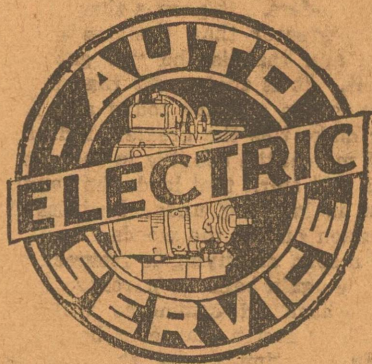

The following report of ex-service men claims adjusted through the efforts of the Red Cross is as nearly correct as the shifting population of our county will permit. There are doubtless others whose claims were granted in other chapters. The assistance of the Red Cross in securing an adjustment of these claims has made many families self-sustaining, that would otherwise be a financial burden to the county or city. ceiving training under section 2, ten, at $135 per month, total$18,360
Disabled ex-service men receiving $100 per month, eight; total 9,600

LET'S CHOOSE BANKERS.

Indications are that the new bank announced last week, will not materialize. The Oklahoma capitalists appear to have withdrawn from the proposition, for reasons which they did not state. It is said by others that an offer they had made for establishing an Oklahoma bank had been accepted, after they had come here under the assumption that it would be rejected, and they accordingly returned to that state.

Now the proposition is what to do.
Ranger has waited three weeks since the P. & M. bank closed, under the assumption that it would be reorganized or a new one opened which would be in a position to help those with money tied up. And under those circumstances, Ranger has done amazingly well. It has "carried on" just the same, and to all outward appearances has sustained no shock. However, it is reasonable to suppose that many persons would fare better if they could secure a portion of the money they have on deposit, and if this is true, the success of the scrip plan during the early fall argues that it should again be put in operation. No reason is now conceivable why the banking board would have objection to it.

Also, it seems inevitable that Ranger will have a new bank. It is easily large enough for two strong institutions and many smaller places have even more. However, two large banks would be better than a number of smaller ones. The two would be more in a position to cater to the real needs of the community.

Now in obtaining this new bank,
why should Ranger wait for someone to come along and see the opportunity? Why shouldn't it go further than that, and go out and get some bankers who will bring real prestige with them when they come here?
Why shouldn't it go to the Texas & Pacific, the Prairie, the Sinclair, and the other large companies that maintain offices here, and say:

"We want a bank here, owned and operated by men whom you have done business with, have confidence in, and whom you would be willing to trust the funds that you would normally put in a town where your interests are as important as here. Tell us who those men are, and help us get them interested."

Such a course, be it understood,
would not be intended to reflect upon the People's bank, which is owned and officered by men of the highest standing. It would simply be a recognition of the facts that Ranger is entitled to two institutions, and that the general banking situation, including the People's bank itself, would be strengthened by such an accession. Ranger could then say truthfully, Ranger banks are both clean and strong. Bring your money to Ranger.

Success in such a step would bring money here. It would bring prestige here for men recommended by the oil interests and brought here through their aid would have a ready-made standing, which could not be quickly built up by those who are new to the oil fields. It would furthermore, be a business bringer that would encompass the whole North Central field in its scope.

BIG REDUCTION
IN TIRE PRICES
IS ANNOUNCED

AKRON, Ohio, Nov. 19.—Drastic reductions in tire and tube prices are announced by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company. They were effective
Nov. 15.

The new price schedule brings the cost of tires definitely below pre-war costs, despite the fact that tires today are twice as good as they were a few years ago, according to actual average mileage records.

An interesting feature is the fact that the changes announced by Goodyear bring down the margin of difference between fabric and cord tires.
Cords can be bought within 25 to 30 per cent as cheaply as fabrics under the new schedule.

NATIONAL MOTOR SHOWS
HONOR BUICK MAKERS

In the automobile world, Buick several years ago attained the enviable position of leadership, evidenced by the fact that it was awarded first choice of space at the national automobile shows, an honor conferred upon Buick by all other automobile manufacturers who are members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, in recognition of the fact that Buick had done the greatest volume of business during the previous year.

As each year has since rolled around, Buick has been in the lead.
Not only for a short period does it lead all others but year after year its business constantly increases, with the result that the Buick exhibit will be found this year occupying the same space at the shows it has occupied for the past few years.

It is significant to note that the figures on which the award for the 1922 shows were made comprised only the sales of six-cylinder cars, proving Buick to be the largest builder of six-cylinder cars in the world.

OHIO MAYOR TO FURNISH PARK SPOONERS WITH POLICE PROTECTION

Meet Mr. George L. Oles, recently elected mayor of Youngstown, Ohio.
Young and ambitious politician, take notice and please study the platform of the popular mayor-elect. Mr. Oles was elected on a freak platform providing for discontinuance of streetcar service, turning the streets over to jitney busses and for jailing any citizens who paid taxes under a recent re-valuation, which he considered too high. Other planks in Oles' platform include permitting "spoon-ing" in city parks under police protection, dismissing the entire police force if it doesn't mend its ways,
and a promise to turn his entire salary over to charity. Oles started in business in Youngstown with a barrel of potatoes and a wheelbarrow.
Now he has one of the largest food businesses in the city.

WANT ANYTHING? TRY

The long arm of advertising reached out Friday and converted Dr. D. M. Steele to a belief in its efficacy.

Six months or so ago, Dr.
Steele ran a want ad in the Times, for three days. He sought horned frogs and armadillos to be sent East. The horned frogs were brought in abundance, but no armadillo.
Friday a farmer brought one in.
He had read the ad when it appeared in the Times and answered it as soon as the armadillo was available. Dr. Steele did not get the farmer's name, but said he lived about nine miles out of town.

Just as Straws Show Direction of Wind,
Big Contract Reveals Business Outlook

There is great significance in the big order we have just received for advertising Calumet-Baking Powder.
This company has just given us a contract for one of the largest and most vigorous advertising campaigns attempted in years.

This, coming at a time when merchants think business is slow and believe the outlook for the winter none too promising, really spells columes.

Any company that spends such an enormous amount of money employs experts who study and analyze conditions before such a campaign is launched. The agents of the company enter the field to find out what's going on and to learn whether or not the time is ripe for a big advertising campaign.

Evidently the investigators of the Calumet Baking Powder company found conditions in our town none better than we thought they were and much more favorable, for never has this paper had the pleasure of lending its columns to such a big drive.

The action of the Calumet people is certainly a great lesson to all business leaders. It proves there is one thing greater than business depression and that is the "go get 'em" spirit. It is that spirit that is sustaining the country today and helping make this the greatest industrial and mercantile country in the world;
it is that spirit that leads the country that is laboring under business depression out of the woods.

As soon as buying is resumed and people again begin to purchase freely
the wheels of commerce will turn and turn faster than ever before.

Such optimism as the Calumet Baking Powder company display should certainly be an example for all who have something to sell.

An old preacher once said that the sounder his congregation slept the louder he talked until the very force of his voice held up their eyelids and made them listen, and just so it is possible for you—for any merchant—for any advertiser to win
the attention of the public if you just talk loud enough.

GEORGE WASHINGTON,
AND HE HAS NEVER TOLD A LIE

Let us present this most remarkable man, George Washington, Cincinnati street car conductor, who claims to be a direct descendant of the first president of the United States, and, like the great man for whom he was named, has never told a lie. Honest to goodness! And after hearing of his record you'll believe it, too.

Anybody who could hold down
his job and remain a gentleman
as he is could do anything. For twenty years George has been known as Cincinnati's kindest and politest conductor. He tries to find seats for all passengers on his car. He helps women with children and babies on and off his car, carrying the little ones from the car to the pavement, and does the same for women with heavy bundles or market baskets. And he never has been known to speak a cross word to a passenger—almost unheard of thing for conductors, especially in the big towns. Now, you will have to admit that George Washington is really a great man and deserves a place in the Hall of Fame.

It now transpires that the cargo of whisky shipped to Washington from the port of Dumfries, Scotland, was for the use of the delegates at the disarmament congress.
Having sent no delegates of her own,
yet Scotland is now sure of having several voices in the conference.—

TIME LIMIT FOR FILING CLAIMS AGAINST FIRST NATIONAL BANK EXPIRES TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Some of Those Who Signed Agreement to Starnes Reopening Plan Have Not Made Proof of Claim: All Should See L. L. Neal and Get These Papers.

Monday afternoon will mark the expiration of the time limit allowed by the United States treasury department for the filing of claims against the First National bank of Ranger with the receiver, E. B. Cushing, as is set forth in the weekly notices that have been appearing under the date of August, 1920, and signed by T. P. Kane, deputy comptroller of the currency. Claims not filed within the time limit may be disallowed by the department, according to the notice. The receiver stated this morning that the allowance of claims not filed within the prescribed time would be optional with the department.

The number and holders of unproven claims are not available for publication, the receiver explained.

It is stated that the proper procedure in filing or proving claims against the bank is for the holders to call there, secure a blank to be filled out stating the character and amount of the claim and acknowledge before a notary public. On the proper execution of the claim, a receiver's certificate is issued by the receiver. Whenever a dividend is declared by the federal department, checks are sent here and paid to the holders of the certificates.

L. L. Neal of the Joseph Dry Goods company is holding over 100 deeds of trust issued by those who signed the Starnes agreement for the reorganization which promised two-thirds of their respective deposits payable in periods extending over a year. The papers now held by Neal for the owners were returned when mailed out with the original list of over 1,600.

The following named persons may receive the papers by calling for L. L. Neal at the Joseph Dry Goods company between the hours of 7:30 a. m. and noon. Written orders must be presented in cases where the owners do not call in person.

Some of those named have not made out proofs of claim, Mr. Neal said last night, and in all cases the papers will be necessary to collect any dividend that might be allowed:

A. Teddy Alexander, Mrs. T. F. Alston.

B. R. L. Boone, C. D. Brubaker, Steve Bryan, C. M. Bair, H. F. Burt, Angelo Bayes, Mrs. Frank Basso, Frank Beard, Mrs. Mamie Bruce, Arthur Burleson, Lula Bell, Mrs. T. L. Bush, T. E. Barron.

MULE SKINNER, THEY SAY, TOOK GASOLINE BUGGY

A mule skinner charged with stealing the Buick roadster from a Mexia driller, which was recovered here several weeks ago, was arrested on Rusk street last night by Assistant Chief Reynolds and lodged in the police jail. The car was turned over to a representative of a Dallas theft bureau following its recovery. The prisoner is being held pending instructions from Mexia.

A Ford coupe belonging to D. Boon of Strawn was stolen here last night from in front of the Majestic theatre, according to a report received by the police.

A description of the car was phoned to surrounding towns by the officers. The motor number of the stolen machine is given as 5227920.

CUDAHY PACKERY WORKERS ACCEPT CUT

By Associated Press.
OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 19.—Announcement that Sioux City, Iowa, employees of the Cudahy packing company had decided to accept a wage reduction similar to that accepted by Armour & Company and other packing house workers in Chicago was made here late today by the company. The action was taken by the conference board of employers of the plant, the superintendent announced, adding that similar meetings in Kansas City and Omaha were adjourned today without final action being taken. He expressed the opinion, however, that there was no doubt they too, would accept a wage cut.

FORMER SMOKE EATER FINDS FIRE STATION AIN'T HOME NO MORE

One of the former firemen under the Buttomer administration, alleged to have been one of the number who have been hanging around the fire station on Elm street seeking to stir up dissatisfaction among the men, was taken into custody last night by Chief Murphy and turned over to the police. A charge of vagrancy was placed against him on the blotter.

The matter of ridding the fire station of agitators who were said to be visiting there, was taken up by the city commission Tuesday. It was charged at the meeting by Commissioner Davenport that the trouble makers all bore bad reputations and that there was a possibility of their going so far as to damage the fire equipment in order to discredit the present department.

BETTER SCHEDULES ON HAMON LINE IN PROSPECT

Officials of the Hamon line and of the Wichita Falls & Southern road will meet next week to improve train schedules, particularly that of the early morning train from Ranger to Breckenridge, General Manager

McCarthy of the Hamon road, stated yesterday. It is hoped to have this train leave Ranger at a later hour.

McCarthy expressed the opinion that as soon as the drouth is ended, the business will revive sufficiently to justify another train being put on between here and Breckenridge.

MAJORS COULD USE 150 NEW BALL PLAYERS, BROOKLYN OWNER SAYS

By GEORGE CHADWICK.
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—"If there were 150 young and fairly promising ball players scattered around the United States, I presume that every one of them could get a position now with a major league club," said Charles H. Ebbets, owner of the Brooklyn team, when he was asked about the outlook for next year's players.

"I think the New York American league club will make some changes in 1922, but I am only speaking in a general way," said Colonel Huston, of that club. "We are always looking for good ball players. My motto is to have as good men in reserve as you have regulars and to have plenty being brought up in the primary schools. I wish we had had more in 1921."

"Could 100 young players find a chance this coming year if they were good? The surest thing you know, I venture to say they could find it any year—if they were good enough."

Always Opening.
"There is always an opening for a young ball player," said Barney Dreyfuss of Pittsburgh, "but where are they? Where are the young ball players who will meet the expectations of those who have fed on major league baseball for the last quarter of a century? You tell me where they are and I'll get after them."

"The Western team can stand plenty of new talent in both leagues," said Garry Hermann. "There has been so little new talent since the war that we cannot put the same well-balanced teams in the game that we did before 1914."

Always Pitchers.
"In what position is baseball least prepared of all?" was asked of Wilbert Robertson, the Brooklyn manager.

"Everywhere," he replied with a sweeping gesture of his hands. Then he proceeded to answer in detail. "It is always pitchers," he continued. There never are enough of them and there never will be. There never has been a time in baseball history, if you stop and look back, when you could say that every club in the major leagues had a well-balanced lot of pitchers."

"Suppose that each club had only two pitchers. Will you tell me of a year where there were sixteen, two pitchers to each team and each pair about as good as the others. Only sixteen, mind you. You cannot remember such a year and neither can I. That is my specific reply, then, to your question. Always pitchers. Let 300 boys grow up together and how many will make good pitchers, providing you are training them especially to be pitchers? You'd be lucky if you got six. I don't know how many pitchers I have caught and how many I have tried in my baseball days, but I can name the really good ones on the fingers of both hands."

No Mattys.
"The National league hasn't a Mathewson today, but here is this kid Hoyt getting away from the National league right under the noses of everybody and pitching baseball nearer right than any kid of his years since before the war. If there were fifteen more like him what do you suppose they would be worth to the baseball clubs that could get hold of them? Thirty thousand dollars a pitcher, as pitchers go now. But you wouldn't get all the clubs to pay that amount, because they haven't got it to pay."

"Is there any way by which ball players can be transferred from one club to another without selling their services exactly as you would sell

HEADS OF BRITISH AND AMERICAN WAR MOTHERS PLEDGE FIDELITY

Mrs. R.A. Dingley and Mrs. Amelia McCudden, mrs.

"And never so long as we shall live will we raise our hands in mortal combat against each other!" declared Mrs. R. A. Dingley of White Plains, N. Y., national head of the American War Mothers, as she clasped hands with Mrs. Amelia E. McCudden, British war mother, who decorated America's unknown soldier, at a recent meeting in Philadelphia, where the mothers of the two nations' men pledged allegiance to each other and work for the cause of peace between nations. Their joint declaration of fidelity brought forth thunderous applause from the assembled throng of women, all of whom wore gold stars on their breasts, significant of the great sacrifice they had made during the great world war.

chattels?" the writer asked of a man not a club owner but who is a deep student of baseball problems. "Yes," he replied, "release them outright just as they do in other lines of business."

"What effect would it have if the players were not sold?"
"It would make the managers earn their salaries," he growled. "a manager nowadays has a snap. He buys them ready-made."
"What clubs will stand pat for 1922?" was asked of a scout for one of the major league clubs.
"Not a darned club," he replied, "unless it is the Giants, and they are likely to go after players if they can get anything which will look big in print and come high in dollars."

HARVARD RUINS
YALE DREAM OF PERFECT YEARScore Touchdown and Field Goal in Last Quarter and Win 10-3.

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 19.—A Crimson victory—the success of Harvard spirit and Harvard system—marked the annual Yale-Harvard game today. The score was 10 to 3.

It was a last-period victory in which a touchdown by Owen, a goal kicked from it by Buell, and a goal from the field by Owen gave the team of Captain Keith Kane points which surpassed the three gained by Yale through a field goal by Captain Mac Aldrich, kicked in the first quarter.

The Harvard triumph was unexpected generally, coming at the close of a season of uncertainty for the Crimson eleven and of previously unknown success for Yale. It caused an unprecedented triple tie in the standing among the "Big Three"— Princeton winner over Harvard, Yale tamer of the Tiger and Harvard the victor over Yale.

The fortieth Yale-Harvard game was played in the Harvard stadium before a crowd numbering almost 55-000, and organized cheering, the outbursts of applause, the massed songs and the band concerts that are traditional with these contests all livened and colored the picture.

GIVE BIG TEN
TITLE TO IOWAIllinois Breaks Tie by Handing
Ohio State an Unexpected Beating.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The Western Conference football season ended
today with the University of Iowa eleven the undisputed champions, for the first time in twenty years. The upset through which Illinois bested Ohio State, 7 to 0, combined with Iowa's victory over Northwestern left the Hawkeyes at the top of the percentage table and avoided what appeared to be an uncertain tie between Ohio State and Iowa for the title. Ohio State and Chicago tied for the second and third places and Wisconsin was fourth.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 19.— Illinois today dashed to earth the hopes of Ohio State for a claim to the western conference football championship. The Illinois, defeated by every conference team they had met this season, battled the Buckeyes to a standstill and raced off the field victors by a score of 7 to 0. The feat was accomplished before a home-coming crowd of more than 20,000, which packed all available space in the stands.

MIDDLEWEIGHT BOXERS POOREST
IN RING HISTORY, FLOTO THINKS

By OTTO FLOTO.
DENVER, Nov. 19.—To give an idea of what mediocre and worthless material constitutes the middleweight class of the present day we might mention that Mike Gibbons, who is in the sere and yellow and not within 50 per cent of the gallant Michael we knew some years back is the best representative of America in that division of the pugilistic bargain counter. Not since the late Stanley Ketchel have we had a real middleweight champion and not since the days of Frank Klaus have we had a middleweight who was even a good boxer. So Mike Gibbons' path seems cleared unless some unknown bobs up and upsets the plans.

Not since this writer became connected with sport have we ever viewed so bad a lot of middleweights. It almost makes us weep to note the decadence of the once great class headed by Jack Dempsey (the first), Bob Fitzsimmons, Dan Creedon, Stanley Ketchel, Jim Hall, Kid McCoy, Tommy Ryan and a few others. Perhaps in some future day another such grand bunch will flourish as middleweights. Today's counterfeits will live only as the poor excuses that once held the title.

Not in It With Old-Timers.
The lightweight of a few years back wouldn't have had any trouble at all whipping the middleweights of today. Jim Carney, George Lavigne, Jack McAuliffe, Dick Burge and perhaps one or two others would go through the entire outfit like breaking sticks or, as we say in the classics, like taking candy from a baby. There isn't a middleweight in the game today that Jack McAuliffe of Kid Lavigne, for that matter, couldn't have boxed rings around and made them appear as novices. There isn't a one this pair, even though there was a difference of twenty-five pounds between them and the middleweight champion of today, couldn't have knocked out inside of ten rounds. This statement may stagger some, but it is true, nevertheless, in my opinion, and I have seen them all in operation and under fire.

Two Real Champions.
Neither can we brag much about the brilliancy of the other classes—
Jack Dempsey and Benny Leonard excepted. The margin between Dempsey and the next best man is so wide it's unbelievable. There is only one way in which Dempsey could lose, and that is to stage a battle royal and pit
the combined force against Dempsey, and then it still would be a probability that Dempsey would score a victory over them all. The strange part of it all is there are still fight critics who fail to realize or understand the greatness of Jack Dempsey. He's simply superhuman, that's all. Outside of Jim Jeffries and Peter Jackson he's the greatest of all time and he's every bit as good as they were in their best days.

Benny Leonard is far the best of the lightweight, but not by the same margin that prevails with Dempsey in the heavyweight class. But Leonard is a pipkin and just have a bet on him no matter who he fights.

Nelson Square Shooter.
Real square shooters are born. Once the quality of "being on the level" infects them it remains with them thru life. Take Battling Nelson, always "on the level," a boy who wouldn't have thrown a fight for a million dollars. Last summer Nelson, whose father died, became financially
entangled and short of ready money.
He borrowed from his friends to tide him over and then began to straighten out his affairs. As fast as he got the money he sent checks to the friends who had aided him. Many inwardly believed the money was gone when they gave it to the Battler and let it go at that. But Nelson is made of different clay than the average fighter and made good his obligations as he always made good in the ring. Battling Nelson is a 100 per cent man from any angle you care to weigh him.

Do not let this statement impress you that Nelson is broke. He is far from being broke, but the Battler,

Italy, photographed upon the occasion

auspicious occasion.

like many others, is what may be termed "property poor." When the estate, which he created and by which his whole family was supported and his brother educated, is disentangled and the courts have ruled on Nelson's claims to the property that stood in his father's name, the Battler will come into his own. The interest will be sufficient to support him for all time.

MOTOR RACES
AND FOOTBALL
AT ABILENE

Special to the Times.

ABILENE, Texas, Nov. 19.—The gathering of a crowd that will break
all attendance records at a West Texas football game is predicted for Thanksgiving day here when Simmons college and Howard Payne of Brownwood will meet in their annual Turkey day gridiron battle. The game is to be played on the centerfield of the race track at the West Texas Fair grounds and will be preceded by a big card of motorcycle races which have been arranged for by the fair association.

Unusual interest attaches to the clash between Simmons and Howard Payne this year. Both schools have the strongest teams they have ever developed, teams which, in fact, are rated among the top-notchers of the state this season.

The races are scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock Thanksgiving afternoon and the football game will be called at 3:30.

BOOZE VENDOR
MAKES MILLIONS
IN TWO YEARS

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Two years ago, just before national prohibition went into effect, Edward J. Donegan, of 821 Twelfth avenue, Brooklyn, earned his living doing odd jobs along the water front.

Last January he was indicted by the federal grand jury in Manhattan as the alleged leader of one of the biggest bootleg conspiracies that has come to the attention of government agents since the Volstead act became law.

And Thursday, when Frederick L.
Kopf, assistant United States attorney in Brooklyn, received an order from the treasury department in Washington to foreclose a lien on some property of Donegan's it was learned that his income during 1920
was of such size that he must pay the government $1,653,797.25 in income taxes and penalties for failure to make a return.

The discoveries made in Donegan's case, it was stated, will lead the internal revenue bureau to a rounding up of many other instances in which similar findings are expected.

CALIFORNIA AGAIN
WINS COAST TITLE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal.,
Nov. 19.—California retained the Pacific coast title today by defeating Stanford, 42 to 7, before approximately 57,000 persons.

The power of the Bear football machine, which has not been defeated in two years, was too much for the fighting Cardinals. They were unable to stop the Bears' backfield in its line attacks or round the ends.

MAN, WOUNDED WHEN DOG DISCHARGES GUN, DIES

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 19.—Thomas
M. Watt of Birmingham died here Friday, the result of a shotgun wound sustained when the gun was discharged by a dog.

While hunting one of Mr. Watt's dogs became tangled in a vine. He laid his shotgun on the ground and while freeing the animal a second dog rushed up and evidently stepped on the gun trigger. It was discharged and the full load of birdshot entered one of Watt's legs. He was brought here and the leg amputated in an effort to save his life, but he succumbed early Friday.

HER KISS FOR BRIDEGROOM.

ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 19.—Mrs.
Cecelia Champion, elected yesterday
a justice of the peace of Somers Point, has announced that the bridegroom is to be kissed instead of the bride when she has married a couple.

"Why should I kiss a woman when there is a man present also?" she asked. "I have my eye on several likely looking men who, I understand, are soon going to take the pledge and they going to be kissed just as soon as I have tied the knot."

Mrs. Champion is a sister of Charles E. C. Steelman, yesterday elected mayor of Somers Point.

RANGER HIGH CLOSES FOOTBALL SEASON WITH TURKEY DAY GAMEBreckenridge, Out After Revenge for Defeat Handed Out Three Weeks Ago, Will Furnish Opposition; Local Team
Has Fine Record on Season's Play.

With the Thurber game canceled,
Ranger High footballers took a well deserved rest Saturday from the strenuous practice that has endured all the season, and with the kinks ironed out, will hit the ball again Monday to put the finishing touches on the finishing game of the season.

Thursday, Breckenridge comes here
for the windup game of the season, with stern brows and blood in their eye, ready for revenge with a capital
"R." For the Breck lads are frankly peevish. They had expected to gain much glory by going almost through the season in the "undefeated" class, and when Ranger went up there and showed them how football was played —right before the home folks—the feat awoke no plaudits in the hearts of the Breckvillians.

Game of the Season.

Knowing this, the midget wonders that have swept the oil fields clean are taking no chances. They are going out to show Breckenridge that the victory three weeks ago was no fluke and that they can spank "most any" body in these parts any time they take a notion. They expect to put on a game that will delight the thousand or more fans who undoubtedly will turn out to see the fray.

Next to Comanche, Breckenridge is perhaps the strongest team Ranger has faced this year. They are big enough for a college eleven and there is a halfback named Avery that has made most teams look like fence posts when he started down the field with the ball. Ranger only beat them 13 to 0, on the previous occasion, and that is a margin that can be overcome, Breck thinks. In proof, they'll say "Why, look what Harvard and Illinois did today!"

Breck Sends Trainload.

That's the reason the High athletes expect and deserve a crowd. Breckenridge is going to send down a Hamon train packed so thick that a sardine would feel cramped, and the boys want to match 'em. Aside from that, Thursday is "sweater day," dependent upon to provide the purple garment with a big gold "R" which will denote who's who in high school circles. There is going to be a big advance sale of tickets, so have your money handy.

A crowd Thursday will inspire the boys to successfully wind up as good a season as nearly any team could hope to have. Although eliminated from the state race by Comanche, early in the season, they have surprised the oil field section by ticking to their knitting and walloping
every other team met on the gridiron.
To date they are the acknowledged champs of Oldland and propose to stay that way. To date, they have piled up 168 points to 26 opponents.
In nine games played, only four touchdowns have been scored against them.

One-fifth of the medical students
in London are women.

JAPAN WANTS BIGGER SHARE IN WORLD NAVY

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The first crisis in the arms limitation conference appeared near today.

Despite a warning by the United States that the major point of America's sweeping program for naval disarmament must be accepted, Japan was insisting that her capital ship tonnage under the plan be increased to a ratio of 70 per cent as great as that of the United States and Great Britain, instead of 60 per cent, as suggested by Secretary Hughes.

The United States is standing firm on its program, and vigorously opposing what it regards as unnecessary bargaining and dickering.

The smaller powers were rallying strongly to the support of the United States on the submarine issue, raised by Great Britain's suggestion for a reduction of the American tonnage figure. The technical sub-committee of admirals continued to discuss the submarine problem. The United States navy was launching at Newport News the battleship West Virginia, while the Japanese navy was launching the Akagi, another modern dreadnaught.

Premier Briand of France was preparing to bring before the third plenary session of the conference Monday France's position on land armament.

MEXICO MAKES ATONEMENT FOR BOMBING IMAGE

By Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—Catholic Mexico at noon today made solemn atonement in all the churches of the republic for the recent desecration of the Virgin of Guadalupe, the patron saint of the nation, by the explosion of a bomb placed beneath the pedestal on which it rests at the Guadalupe cathedral near here.

At noon today more than 6,000 persons gathered in front of the cathedral here and after listening to several speeches, sang religious and patriotic songs and then paraded the principal streets.

Cathedrals throughout the republic were asked to observe the day as one of mourning. Streets were crowded with black garbed pedestrians and houses were draped with crepe.

"JOKE" MARRIAGE IS NO JOKE IN WEST VIRGINIA

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 19.—Declaring marriage is a sacred institution and that the ceremony should not be tampered with in jest or fraud, Judge Graham, in circuit court here today refused to annul the "joke" marriage of Mrs. Lucile Crouch Wartenberg and Floyd Wartenberg, of this city, who separated five minutes after their marriage and have lived apart since.

Mrs. Wartenberg brought the annulment action. Wartenberg testified it was agreed that following the marriage the two were to part at the church door and this was done. Testimony was introduced, however, that the couple had been engaged, that the girl had changed her mind, but that the plea from Wartenberg that failure of the marriage to take place would wreck his reputation among his friends induced Miss Crouch to consent to the marriage ceremony.

Following this decision Wartenberg brought suit for divorce on the grounds that his wife refused to live with him. The groom is a business man and the bride is a student at Ohio University at Athens, Ohio.

UNKNOWN'S MEDALS LAST.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—America's unknown soldier received the last congressional medal of honor and the last distinguished service cross which can be bestowed for deeds performed in the world war, the war department announces.

The act of congress authorizing the President to make these awards, as well as to bestow the distinguished service medal prescribed in effect, it was explained, that the awards must be made within three years of the date of the act justifying the reward.

The time limit expired Nov. 11 on the third anniversary of the armistice.

GIRLS AT $5 PER HEAD.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—"Children, chiefly girls, change hands at $5 a head in Hongkong," said J. H. Harris, in an address on slavery to the women's branch of the League of Nations.

"The system is called 'adoption,'" he continued. "There are 50,000 little slaves in the colony."

"In Turkey there still are 30,000 Armenian slaves in harems. One hundred and fifty thousand slaves await liberation in what formerly was German East Africa."

A large proportion of the hospitals and many of the schools and relief organizations in France are operated by women.

IRENE CASTLE BACK TO STAGE IN NEW DANCES

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Irene Castle has come back to Broadway with some new dance steps. More lithe and boyishly slim than ever, with her hair still in bobbed curls, Miss Castle will introduce the very latest dance steps in a five weeks engagement at the Knickerbocker Grill.

Just as she introduced the Castle clip style of coiffure, she now brings a new fad to New York. At a rehearsal yesterday Miss Castle wore on her left ankle a bracelet studded with diamonds under a pair of dark blue sheer stockings. The anklet gleamed in the spotlight as she glided about on the shiny floor of the Knickerbocker grill room.

Wants Waltz Back.

Miss Castle has come back to dance before the public because she loves to dance. Her desire is to reintroduce the old-fashioned waltz. [Miss Castle said:

"The 'Chicago,' the 'shimmy' and the 'toddle' are absurd. People look ridiculous doing them. The waltz is the most beautiful step of any and I am going to try to get New York to adopt it. It is far more graceful than shimmying—which I really think is vulgar."

Captain Robert E. Tremm, Jr., her husband, was with her yesterday at the rehearsal. Although Miss Castle had retired from dancing at the time of her marriage in 1918 to wealthy "Bob" Tremm, he said:

"I am not averse to Irene's returning to the stage. She loves to dance and I shall never stand in the way of anything that will make her happy."

A gliding waltz step half way down the dance floor, a backward hesitation, slide and turn characterizes Miss Castle's newest steps.

William Reardon, who has been with Elsie Janis, is now Miss Castle's dancing partner. After Christmas Miss Castle will go on a six weeks' vaudeville tour and then go abroad for a time.

DETROIT'S 'SUITCASE' BABY, MOTHER UNKNOWN, IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 19.—Death has claimed one of the unidentified babies found in a locked suitcase abandoned on the Windsor ferry Sept. 15 last.

The child died in a Windsor hospital where it had been under treatment apparently never having recovered from confinement in the suitcase, where it was almost suffocated.

Windsor authorities have received several letters signed "Jessie," in which the writer claimed to be the mother of the twins and said their father was "a prominent business man" of Windsor.

M. R. Winters, secretary of the Children's Aid society of Windsor, which had been caring for the children, Friday issued a public appeal to "Jessie" to attend the baby's funeral Saturday, promising her immunity if she complies.

The other baby has been placed in a private home.

THE TOWN MYSTERY.

They were seated beneath a tree in the park, and the moon was shining to make one's thoughts turn to love.

Presently the girl said: "Oh, James, dear, I can't understand why you lavish your affections on me above all the other girls in the world. Do tell me why it is."

"Blowed if I know, Jenny," he replied, "and all my pals say they're blowed if they can make it out, either!"—London Telegraph.

TEMPLE.

The cast supporting George Arliss, the distinguished actor, in his screen version of "Disraeli," is a star cast of the first magnitude. This production will be the feature at the Temple theatre beginning today.

At the outset, for the benefit of those who read and sometimes believe false reports, Louise Huff, whose admirers are legion, did not retire from the screen a year ago. Miss Huff is the particular bright little star in Mr. Arliss' support, and she returns to the screen after a needed rest more beautiful, more charming, seemingly more talented than ever before.

Reginald Denny, who has played opposite many famous screen stars, has one of the leading parts and Mrs. George Arliss, an actress of rare charm and undoubted ability, supports her husband in this production.

Henry Cavill, a prominent English actor who has played in many stage plays and in many pictures in America that one almost forgets he is an Englishman, plays the "Duke of Glastonbury" with Mr. Arliss as he did in the stage version.

Frank Losee is known to every film "fan" through his long association in pictures during the last six years. One of his greatest roles was "Uncle Tom" in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," but Mr. Losee has several hundred roles to his credit.

Edward J. Ratcliffe, an English actor who has been so closely identified with the American stage and screen, is another star in this production.

Margaret Dale who was leading lady for Henry Miller, John Drew, played with Mr. Arliss in the stage production of "Disraeli" from the opening night, and in the picture she has her familiar role of "Mrs. Travers," the beautiful Russian agent and head of the spy system surrounding Disraeli.

Grace Griswold also has played in support of many famous stage stars, and she brings all of her abilities to bear on her characterization of the maid Denny, comes down from several generations of English actors. "Duchess of Glastonbury."

Noel Tearle, as in the case of Reginald Denny, played in "Dream Street"

GIRL DECLARES LOVE MADE HER "VOLSTEAD VAMP"

Mrs. K. Hiraga

The "Volstead Vamp," veiled woman of mystery, skirted Nemesis of booze-selling druggists and inscrutable interrogation point of police courts, has bared her mysterious soul. "I loved him, so I helped him in his work. That's all. It's really very simple." This is the explanation given by Mrs. K. Hiraga for her action in assisting a police officer in his prohibition work. She was born in Canada and married a Japanese in Vancouver, Wash., seven years ago. She was then nineteen, and now is twenty-six and still pretty and does not live with her husband. A dozen vamped and bewildered druggists have been haled into court and listened in amazement to the roguish girl tell her story of how she obtained the booze, and, after telling her story, the defendants usually left the court room with lighter pockets and heavier hearts. Policemen, speculating as to the identity of the "Volstead Vamp," have stepped into her store, purchased cigars and other things and have stepped out again none the wiser. Mrs. Hiraga says, "I'm Scotch, you know, and I like excitement. One day this officer came into my life. He made love to me, and I thought we would be married. And now, to my dismay, I find he has fallen in love with another woman. Back to the stationery store for me. No more trailing bootleggers for mine; no sir!"

Henry Kolker is the director, and Harry A. Fischbeck the cameraman, the latter having achieved some excellent results in photography and in lighting in this picture. Charles Osborn Seessel was the art director.

MAJESTIC.

"The Scarab Ring," is the title of the Alice Joyce production which will be shown at the Majestic theatre today and Monday. It was made under the direction of Edward Jose, one-time director for Sarah Bernhardt, and is based upon a popular novel published under the name of "A Desperate Heritage." This novel was written by Harriet Gayford, and has found ready sale with lovers of detective fiction. It is a strong society play which offers Miss Joyce what is said to be the most emotional role she has undertaken in her screen career. The star will have added laurels, after this film picture has been shown, throughout the country for it proves that in this new type of role Miss Joyce is excelling anything she has done in the past.

Beautiful scenic backgrounds, exquisite sets, costumes that are sure to please the women, the last word in fashions, elements of love, suspense and mystery cleverly interwoven in a story that holds the attention from the first flash, are the things of which "The Scarab Ring" boasts and which will make for it an enviable place in the hall of fame.

PACKING HOUSE PAY ENVELOPE TO BE SKINNY

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 19.—Plant committees of Armour & Co., Friday agreed to accept a general reduction of wages in accordance with the request made by the company ten days ago. The same cuts, it was said, will be accepted in plants of the other packing companies.

This is said to be the first time in the industry that employers and employees have met in plant conferences and agreed on a wage cut.

The following reductions will be made in all plants of Armour & Co., except the one at Fort Worth, Texas:

Employees receiving less than 46 cents an hour, cut 7½ cents. Between 46 cents and 50 cents, inclusive, cut 5 cents. All over 50 cents, cut 3 cents an hour.

A minimum wage of 25 cents an hour for adult female labor is provided.

Fort Worth Cuts.

At Fort Worth the reductions agreed on are: Employees receiving more than 47½ cents, 3 cents; employees receiving between 42½ cents, 7½ cents an hour; piece-work rates in all plants are cut 8 per cent.

When similar reductions are made in the plants of the other members of the big five—Morris & Co., Swift & Co., Cudahy & Sons, and Wilson & Co.—125,000 men and women will be affected.

No change is made in the 40-hour a week working guarantee of working conditions.

The wage reductions will become effective Nov. 28.

Thanksgiving Festivities

"Thanksgiving time is here again and Turkey is the leading question," as well as home comings, parties, family reunions and all those things that go to make Thanksgiving one of the main family days of the year.

For several days now the lordly turkey gobbler has announced to the world that his day is in the ascendancy. Already hostesses are using the symbols of the day as color and decoration schemes and one school club had a very clever Thanksgiving theme for its entertainment this week.

Thanksgiving week in Ranger promises to be a very active one. The week begins with the musical at the Baptist church, Monday night, given by the Ranger Symphony club, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church, for the benefit of Buckner's Orphans home. The Elks dance at the Summer Garden Wednesday evening will no doubt be the largest social function of the week. The Shrine club smoker for the sterner sex, promises to be something out of the ordinary. The 1920 club party on Nov. 23 will no doubt be right in line with all the excellent affairs that are given by this club. On Thanksgiving night there will be a dance at the Summer Garden and there will also be a number of private dinner parties with turkey as the "piece de resistance" on that day. A number of club meetings and private parties are scheduled for the week, so it is very evident that "time will not hang heavily" on one's hands this week.

A RARE MUSICAL TREAT.

On Monday evening at the First Baptist church, music lovers of Ranger will be given an opportunity to enjoy a rare musical treat in the program that will be rendered by the Ranger Symphony club, sponsored by the Women's Missionary society of the Baptist church. The musicale will be given for the benefit of the Buckner's Orphan home, of Dallas.

It is very fitting that at this Thanksgiving season we who have been so wonderfully blessed throughout the year, should remember the orphans, and this musicale will offer us the opportunity not only to give, but to enjoy one of the best programs ever rendered in Ranger. It promises to be an evening rich in melody, as evidenced by the program which follows:

MRS. WILLIAM FROST ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. William Frost entertained the Friday Bridge club at her home in Hodges Oak Park, Friday afternoon. In the awarding of the prizes, Mrs. Harry Reid received a lovely sewing basket as the first prize; Mrs. H. Fair, the guest prize, a dainty hand-made apron, and Miss Ella Dreinhof, the consolation, an incense burner.

Mrs. Frost served a salad course to the following members and guests: Mmes. Harold Whitbeck, H. Fair, M. O. Burt, Harry Reid, J. E. Liles, E. A. Langston, S. W. Bobo, D. K. Lerner, J. C. Pullen, Fred Dreinhof, A. E. Ernst, W. H. Davis of Tulsa; Misses Emily and Ella Dreinhof, Douschka Bobo.

YOUNG MATRONS' CLUB.

Mrs. Arthur Kinard of 805 Marston street, was hostess to the members of the Young Matrons' club and a number of other guests Friday afternoon. Autumn leaves in all their scarlet and yellow were used very effectively throughout the house as a decoration motif. When the cards were laid aside, the club prize, a pair of hand decorated candle sticks, was awarded to Mrs. Charles Conley. The guest prize, an incense burner, went to Mrs. D. J. Jameson. Mrs. Cunningham of Cisco, received the guest prize, a set of hand-made card table markers, while Mrs. Eben Finney won the consolation.

After the awarding of the various prizes, the hostess served a delicious salad course to the following club members and guests: Mmes. Charles Conley, E. E. Crawford, D. M. Steele, W. A. Cunningham, William Clegg, Ed Maher, L. A. Vandervoort, Frank Brashers, C. C. Craig, J. S. Hill, Howard Gels, J. W. Walter Barden, Robert McCoy, M. M. Collier, C. L. MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS.

The Missionary society of the First Christian church met with Mrs. E. C. Shipp Thursday afternoon. In addition to a good attendance of the members, several visitors were present. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Blodgett, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Wilson.

After a short business session a social hour was spent, after which the hostess served delicious refreshments. A gloom was cast over the assemblage on account of the very serious illness of Mrs. Revis, one of its members.

Those present were Mmes. Wilson, Hunt, Dyer, Davidson, Flowers, Elgin, Adams, Wolf, Brooks and Miss Pratt.

HONORING MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR KINARD

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill entertained a few friends at their home, 1204 Young street, Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kinard, who are leaving Ranger to reside in Mexico. Bridge was played, after which the hostess served a salad course to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Eben Finney, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kinard.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY.

The teachers of the Episcopal Sunday school entertained their pupils at the home of Mrs. W. H. Burden, Saturday from 2 to 4 o'clock. Games that children like were played and following the games the hostesses served cocoa, cake and home-made candy.

The children present were: Nicol Crawford, Charles Boswell, Grace Kaylor, Jack Palmer, Betty Jean Burden, Robert Cunningham of Cisco. The teachers were Mmes. Able, Boswell, Wakefield and Burden, with Mrs. W. A. Cunningham of Cisco as a guest.

1920 CLUB PARTY.

The members of the 1920 club and their husbands will have a Thanksgiving party Wednesday night, Nov. 23, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barnes, in the Gholson addition. All members are urged to be present.

BAKE SHOP.

The Missionary society of the Baptist church will give a "Bake Shop" in the lobby of the Paramount hotel, Saturday, Nov. 26. They will have for sale cakes, pies, candy and other such "goodies" and they will take orders for any special eatable that one may desire, if notified in time for its preparation.

BAZAR AND DINNER A SUCCESS.

The bazar and dinner given by the Women's Missionary union of the East Ranger Baptist church on Friday and Saturday was quite a success from every standpoint. The dinner on Friday was largely attended and greatly appreciated by those participating. The display of gifts in the bazar was very attractive and no doubt solved the Christmas gift problem for many shoppers.

The ladies are very grateful to all who contributed to the success of this affair and wish to announce that all articles from the bazar unsold, including potted bulbs, will be on display in the J. M. White show window, and there will be some one in charge of them.

THE CLIMBERS ENTERTAIN.

"The Climbers" Sunday school class entertained at the Methodist church on Friday evening. The "Climbers" were hostesses for the evening and proved themselves adept in the art of entertaining. There was a good crowd present and everybody reported a most excellent time.

THEDA BARA SAYS SHE'S HARMLESS OUT OF FILMS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—Theda Bara, who has broken up more homes and kicked up more devilment than any other woman—in the movies—addressed the Advertising club at its luncheon in Hotel Statler today, revealing that a vamp after all is a harmless creature—out of the movies. She kept the club in laughter with her stories of the films' trying side. To prove how innocuous she really was, Miss Bara said that in her first picture she wore a one-piece bathing suit only under vehement protest.

Illustrating how exasperating boards of review can be, she said that one elderly woman on the censorship board insisted that she would not approve the film "Anthony and Cleopatra," unless Anthony did the right thing by Cleo and married her. Directors, too, are irritating, she said. Miss Bara told how one, when informed that "The Tale of Two Cities" was copyrighted, sent a cablegram to London asking Charles Dickens for the movie rights.

A Column for Card Players and Question Box—Conducted by Hoyle, Jr.

Auction Bridge—No. 6

"The Play's the Thing"
With the bidding finished, and the right to play the hand purchased, then—"The Play's the Thing."

The original leader, who is the player to the left of the highest bidder, or the one who first mentioned the suit, should strive to help his partner make good his suit.

In auction the leader always has a cue for his opening lead. If his partner has made no bid, the inference is that he holds no valuable suit. If he has bid, then lead the highest of three or less and the lowest of four or more cards of his suit. If you hold the command of your partner's suit, always play it. If you hold honors in sequence, lead the highest. This is in accordance with the old rule, "Get rid of the command of your partner's suit."

Keep the command of the opponent's suit.

Against a no-trump make, the eldest hand or leader should open with the following cards:

Lead ace when holding—
1. Ace, Queen, Jack, and others, with re-entry card.
2. Ace and seven small cards.
3. Ace, Queen and five small cards.
4. Ace, Jack and five small cards.
Lead king when holding—
1. Ace, king, queen and others.
2. Ace, king, jack and others.
3. Ace, king, ten and three small cards, with a re-entry card.
4. Ace, king and five small cards.
5. King, queen, jack and others.
6. King, queen, ten and others.
7. King, queen and five small cards.

Lead queen when holding—
1. Queen, jack, ten and others.
2. Queen, jack, nine and others.
3. Ace, queen, jack and others, without re-entry card.

Jack, ten and others.
Lead ten when holding—
King, jack, ten and others.
In a no-trump make your long suit is in no danger of being ruffed, (as each card is worth its face value), so unless it is already established, the chances for bringing it in will be increased by opening with a low card. When opening low, always lead your fourth best.

The only exception to the above in opening high card combinations is when you hold no re-entry card and have no show to make your suit. In that case, cash any trick the hand may have to save a little slam and to see dummy's strength.

There are but few, indeed, very few, exceptions to the rule that your partner's suit be led at once.

More tricks, games, and rubbers are lost by the failure to give the partner his suit than by any other single error.

Give partner his suit first. Your good suit will keep, and the dummy's weakness will generally reveal which it is.

If possible, lead to hold the first trick. After seeing dummy's hand you are in a position to lead against his strength.

Opening Lead Against a Declared Trump.

Quick action is good against a declared trump, as the knowledge is positive that your opponent holds strength and generally length of trumps. Cash in your suit cards, especially if you have length or strength of a suit.

1. With ace, king and others, lead the king.
2. With ace and king alone, lead the ace.
3. Lead a singleton if short in trumps.
4. With king, queen and others, lead the queen. (A suit with king, queen and one other is a weak opening. Better let the suit be led to you, in which case two tricks may be made from the suit.)
5. Holding low honors in sequence lead the highest, regardless of number.

6. Lead the ace from any suit of five or more, unless the suit includes the queen, in which case it forms the major tenace and it is best to have the lead come to you.
7. With any two card suit, open with the high one, except in the case of ace and queen, or king and one other.
8. With any other combination, lead the fourth best card of your longest suit.

Second Leads.

No-Trumps. If you have opened the suit from a sequence, let the second lead be the lowest card of the sequence.

When a fourth best card is led, deduct the face value of the card led from eleven, and the remainder will be the number of higher cards held by the other three players. For example: Eight is led. Eight from eleven leaves three. There are three higher cards than eight which are not in the leader's hand.

The rule is especially valuable in the no-trump play to the third hand player, and enables him to finesse. It is known as Foster's Rule of Eleven.

Second Hand Plays.

Cover an honor with an honor, if you hold a perfect or imperfect fourchette.

Holding two or more cards in sequence, play the lower or lowest,

If possible, beat Dummy's holding, for it may save high cards in your partner's hand.

If dummy can beat any card you hold of the suit, play low.

If you hold the ace and other cards of the suit which the dummy leads, and trumps are against you, play your ace second in hand. If you wait, your ace may be trumped.

Never hesitate. By hesitation, information is given to the dealer and you assist him to place the strength and to finesse in dummy's hand.

Third Hand Plays.

Play your highest card if you can go higher than the cards already played. If you hold cards in sequence, play the lower or lowest of the sequence.

Questions and Answers.

Q. What is a book?
A. The first six tricks won by a pair of partners.

CHEESE DISHES

Milk and Cheese Soup.

Three cups milk, 1 1-2 tablespoons flour, one cup grated cheese, salt and paprika.

Thicken the milk with the flour, cooking thoroughly. This is best done in a double boiler. When ready to serve add the cheese and the seasoning. (The proteins in this soup are equal in amount to those in five-sixths of a pound of beef.

Luncheon Toast.

Rub smooth with a fork the yolk of six hard boiled eggs, one-half teaspoonful of dry mustard, one tablespoon olive oil or substitute, salt and tabasco sauce to taste. Put in a saucepan, one cup milk, rub together one tablespoon of butter, with two tablespoons of flour and stir carefully into the boiling milk; then add the whites of the hard boiled eggs, chopped fine. Stir well and remove when the boiling point is reached. Have ready thin slices of buttered toast, spread with the yellow of egg paste thickly and over this sprinkle some grated cheese. Arrange on a platter and pour the hot, white sauce over it and serve with lettuce sandwiches.

Cheese Souffle.

Make a white sauce by cooking together two tablespoons of butter and two of flour until smooth, then add one-half cup of boiling milk slowly; a cup of dry, grated American cheese that has been seasoned with a teaspoon of salt and paprika to taste. Add the yolks of three beaten eggs and take from the fire. When cool add the whites beaten stiff and dry. Turn into a buttered baking dish; put into a moderate oven. When brown, it is done and serve at once.

Cheese Fonden.

Soak two cups grated bread crumbs in as much milk, in which a pinch of soda has been dissolved as the crumbs will take up—usually about two cups. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs to the crumbs, with a tablespoon of soft butter and beat up, then add a cup of grated American cheese, seasoned with salt and paprika. Beat to a cream. Last of all, fold the whites beaten dry, bake until puffy and brown a straw color and serve at once.

Cheese Puffs.

Put on to boil a cup of water, and a heaping teaspoon of butter; when boiling stir briskly with a spoon in the right hand; while with the left sprinkle in eight tablespoons of flour. It will soon form a ball which will cleave to the sides of the saucepan. Put this aside, and when cold add four eggs, beating them in one at a time; when they are all in, beat briskly exactly five minutes. The mixture is now to remain in a warm place and stirred occasionally; it is then ready to be dropped, a tablespoon at a time, two inches apart, on a buttered tin; put into a brisk, but not too scorching oven and bake about twenty minutes. When done, they will be puffed and brown. When cold, make an opening in the sides and fill with the following mixture while hot. They may be shut up in an over for a moment just before sending to the table:

Filling—One-fourth pound of grated cheese, one-half cup milk in which is dissolved as much bicarbonate of potash as will stand on a 10-cent piece, one-half teaspoon of mustard, salt, paprika and a dash of nutmeg to taste, two tablespoons flour lightly browned, two tablespoons butter, stirred over a slow fire until the cheese is completely melted and add three eggs beaten together and bake in a buttered dish until nearly solidified, then fill the puffs.

Cheese Puffs.

Melt a little Neufchatel cheese in a saucepan, add a tablespoon of butter, moisten with rich milk and when blended season with salt, cayenne, powdered garlic and anchovy paste. Strain through a fine sieve. Put into a pastry bag and squeeze through tubes of puff paste. Serve with salad.

Cheese Cutlets.

Place in a saucepan, 1 1-2 cups milk, nine tablespoons flour. Stir to dissolve the flour and then bring to

LATEST IN MASKS

NOT VERY BECOMING—This grotesque mask used by one of the leading British mentors of society at a recent tableaux caused consternation and fear among the patrons of the affair. Only after the lady had removed her mask, showing that underneath it there was really a beautiful face, was order restored.

a boil. Cook for two minutes and then add one-fourth pound of cheese, cut fine; stir until cheese is melted and then remove from the fire and add one small onion grated, one teaspoon paprika, 1 1-2 teaspoons salt. Turn on a greased platter and set to cool. Mould. It takes about four hours to become firm enough to mould into shape and then roll in flour and dip in beaten egg then in fine crumbs and fry until golden brown in hot fat.

LITTLE THINGS

To make oatmeal soap—Shave into fine bits any small pieces of good toilet soap, ivory, white wool and similar soaps. To one-half cup soap, add one cup boiling water and keep hot until dissolved. Then add ground rolled oats to make a stiff batter. Mould in any desired shape and set aside until hard and dry. This makes a good toilet soap for children's baths or for adults whose skin is very sensitive, as the oatmeal has a soothing effect on the skin.

Oatmeal or other cereal that stands always has a tough crust on top that is sheer waste. If a little hot water is poured over it, there will be no crust. This will be useful in a large family or boarding house where some members come down late to breakfast.

To prevent rugs from slipping on a polished floor, sew strips of rubber on the under side at each end.

When washing a white woolen sweater be sure that it is thoroughly rinsed in several waters to remove all soap, otherwise it will become yellow.

ENTERTAINMENTS THAT ARE UNIQUE

A GROWN-UP PARTY FOR CHILDREN.

Children's parties for grown-ups have been very popular, and now the youngsters from six to eight years of age are having loads of fun by giving imitations of mother's afternoon teas. Real grown-up names are presented to the youthful butler and all the youthful guests are dressed in long skirts, hair done up, and have all the accessories of the grand dames who go to "teas" and "bridges." If desired some of the guests may be asked to bring their children (dolls). Arrange a tea table, a small one, of course, with doll china, and have the little hostess' friends assist in "pouring." Dainty sandwiches, cambric tea, peppermint bonbons, vanilla ice cream and angel food cake will make a satisfactory menu. A visit to the toy department will reveal some very interesting card games within the comprehension of the guests and prizes may be given. If this feature is not practical, the children will have a grand time in just being permitted to dress up and go to a party.

NOVEL MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

In reply to the request from a correspondent for a "shower," we think by way of novelty this scheme probably exceeds any "shower" yet bestowed upon a bride-elect: Twelve close friends made out a list of things very useful but very often forgotten in the best regulated families. When the afternoon arrived for the farewell tea, a huge paper sack was deposited at the feet of the honored guests with the request to look for anything she didn't have, or could not find. As the couple was going right to housekeeping the contents were purchased with that thought in mind.

The following are some of the objects: A paper of tacks, ball of string, paper of needles, labels for bottles, box of wax matches, lead pencils, clipping scissors, tack hammer, corkscrew, memorandum pad and a bottle of ink.

NOAH'S ARK ENTERTAINMENT. This party will delight the children, and if careful supervision is given

THE SEWING ROOM

UNDER THE CLOTHESLINE.

Have your clothespins and line clean.
Hang like clothes together.
Hang all clothes wrong side out.
Hang garments by bands, belts or seams.
Dry white cotton and linen clothes in the sun.
Dry colored materials in the shade.
Dry knitted in the shade or indoors.
Lay woollen and crocheted articles flat and dry them indoors.

Remember That—

Sunlight bleaches and whitens cotton and linen material.
Hardens and shrinks woollens.
Yellow white silk and woollens.
Fades colors.
Temperature—Sudden changes hardens and shrinks woollens. Anything hotter than lukewarm injures silk and may change or remove color from any fabric.

It Pays to Give Clothes Good Care.

Wise spending for clothing, as for everything else, does not mean going without what we need or can legitimately afford. It means deciding definitely what we really want and how much we ought to pay for it and then trying to procure it as economically as possible and to get from it the maximum of service.

There are a few simple rules for the care of your clothing, once you have chosen material or well shaped, well fitted garments with a view to getting the very best values for your money, that will make it last longer, look better and cost less.

Outer garments.

Hang carefully when not in use. Plenty of rods and hangers save space and prevent wrinkles.

Do not keep partly-soiled garments in an unaired place. They are likely to become discolored.

Wool.

Brush and shake outer garments after each use. Brush with the nap. Keep tailor-made garments carefully pressed. Cover with a thick, damp cloth and use a heavy hot iron.

Remember that "shine" is caused by the wearing down of the nap and sometimes by grease. Remove by sponging, pressing and brushing up the nap with stiff brush. A tablespoon of ammonia may be used to a quart of tepid water for sponging.

Silk.

Remove dust by wiping it carefully with a piece of velvet, a soft cloth, or with a clean, soft brush.

Avoid pressing with hot iron. The heat injures the fiber and sometimes the color.

MELLON GETS IN DUTCH WITH CONGRESSMAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Secretary Mellon has become unpopular with many Republicans at the capitol. The fact is likely to cause embarrassment for the President unless the Secretary mends his ways, if it has not become so already.

His unpopularity started with his attitude on taxation matters. It was increased by the original plan proposed for handling the allied debt, and most recently by his issuance of the beer regulations.

Another matter that gave concern to some members of his party was his reported interference regarding personnel in the department of justice handling the cases concerning war contracts. The secretary denied seeking the removal of one of the officials, but the rumor persists in Capitol Hill that he took some step in the matter about the time of a certain cabinet meeting.

Big Money Interests.

One criticism is that he "seems to have been too active in the cause of big moneyed interests" since he became head of the treasury department.

Keen resentment was felt among some of the Republicans at one of his proposals that the highest rate of surtaxes on big incomes be not in excess of 25 per cent after 1921, or 36 per cent total income tax after adding the 8 per cent normal rate. For 1921 he suggested 32 per cent as the highest rate, plus the 8 per cent normal, or a total of 40 per cent.

The house finally fixed the permanent surtax maximum at 32 per cent, or a total of 40, while the senate fixed it at 50 per cent, or a total of 58.

When the secretary got behind the proposed sales tax plan it did not please many members in both house and senate. This form of taxation has proved exceedingly unpopular, the senate defeating it by a very large majority. The house is known to be overwhelmingly against it.

When the beer regulations were issued recently the dries felt bitterly toward the secretary, holding that he had acted most unwisely while the anti-beer bill was yet pending. The country began to take up this matter. Some members have received letters and resolutions from churches and various organizations protesting against the action of the secretary.

Recent reports that Mr. Mellon might resign, which were denied, are believed to have grown out of the unfavorable comment going on in cloak rooms of the two houses of congress.

ENGLISH PAPERS APPROVE SUSPENSION OF BUILDING

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Suspension of all naval construction by Great Britain, including work on the four capital ships of the "super-Hood" type, was the chief topic of today's newspapers. FROM NORTH POLE SANTA CLAUS HEADQUARTERS

To J. H. MEAD TOYLAND

My Dear Sir:

You have no doubt received several loads of Toys, including Dolls, Doll Buggies, Wagons, Drums, Guns, Tricycles, Horns, Toy Pianos, Toy Dishes, Automobiles and hundreds of other Toys.

We are undecided what other kinds of Toys you need way down there in the South. I believe if you ask the boys and girls to write me (Santa Claus) a letter in care of you and tell me what they want, so I won't be worried over the fact of sending the wrong kinds of Toys. Please have them write early for I am short of reindeer and will have to make early deliveries to your Toyland.

It is snowing hard way up here at the North Pole and my reindeer are raring to go. I expect to bring to you in the next few days several sleigh loads of Toys. Say, old Top, I am going to let you in on a secret if you promise that you will not tell anybody—I have several hundred brand-new Toys that I made myself—and the boys and girls have never seen before. I will bring them to you on my next trip, which will be in the next few days.

Please write me real soon and let me know what the boys and girls of Ranger have to say. I am, as ever, Your old friend,

SANTA CLAUS.

P. S.—Tell the boys and girls of Ranger to be sure and visit Toyland—for I will have many surprises there for them.

A. & M. COLLEGE, WITHOUT HOTEL OR RESTAURANT, WILL CARE FOR 20,000 GUESTS ON THANKSGIVING

By Associated Press.

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 19.—This quiet little college community town with a population of 1,800 students living in dormitories and 400 officers, professors, teachers and employees residing in residences on the campus is preparing to entertain 20,000 persons who will come here on Nov. 24, to witness the Southwestern conference championship football game between the Texas A. & M. college and the University of Texas.

Special trains will be run here from every section of the state and visitors will be here from many other states to see this, expected to be the greatest football game of the southwest.

Is Municipality.

College Station is an independent municipality and the nearest other center of population is Bryan, several miles away, consequently the crowd must be taken care of here. There are no hotels or restaurants at College Station. The town is the college. It is situated in the center of a tract of 4,000 acres belonging to the state of Texas and everything on top of the ground belongs to the state, too.

So the state's property which has been assembled and built here only to take care of the education of 2,000 men will have to be utilized on Nov. 24 to lodge and feed and entertain about 22,000 persons. While this is the largest crowd ever accommodated here, similar conditions have been met before and assurance is given by the college officials that all will be accommodated comfortably on this day.

Girls Use Dormitory.

The greater part of the monster crowd will depart from the college the night following the game, but several hundred, mostly girls, will remain to enjoy the annual Thanksgiving dances given by the A. & M. students in honor of the football team on Friday and Saturday nights. For these the cadets will vacate one dormitory, finding sleeping room with their comrades in other buildings or occupying their shelter tents on the drill grounds.

Meals will be served in the college mess hall for all those who attend the game.

By far the largest gathering of former students ever assembled at the college is expected on this day and a barbecue has been arranged for them.

Practically all the furnishings in the Grace Dodge hotel, the first model hotel exclusively for women and manned by women, recently opened in Washington, D. C., were selected by Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Queen Helena of Italy has a pet hobby—that of collecting curious and historic footgear. Among her collection are the shoes worn by Mary Queen of Scots on the scaffold, a pair of rough wooden shoes which once belonged to Joan of Arc and the dainty shoes worn by the beautiful and ill-fated Marie Antoinette.

CHAMPION SALESMAN? WHY, MR. C. COLUMBUS!

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The Executive club of Chicago learned that Christopher Columbus was the best salesman the world has known. Frank A. Sykes, an insurance man, made it plain.

"He sold his voyage to Queen Isabella and she had to hook her jewels to pay for it," said Sykes. "When he asked Genoans to sign on the dotted line they told the office boy to give him the gate. But was he discouraged? Did he quit trying like a rebuffed drummer, No! He took the first boat for Spain, bluffed his way into Queen Isabella's private office and gave the lady a spiel that might well be incorporated in 'salesmanship in ten lessons.'"

"Madam," he said, "no royal family should be without a private entrance to the Indies. Here's the opportunity of a lifetime. Three caravels down and a small monthly payment will give you our patented, guaranteed new world. Try it, madam, and you'll never regret the investment."

"He talked so fast and so well that Isabella took her jewels to the royal hockshop and signed a contract.

"And Columbus wasn't the only great salesman whom history remembers," said Sykes. "The world war was won by salesmanship. America and the allies sold the world the idea that democracy must not be crushed. Salesmanship won the Marne and in the Argonne."

"Salesmanship is needed now. If the right idea is sold with the bunch that put the great Marne contract over, victory will be with the right in the present industrial conflict. Salesmen are the dynamos of civilization."

Still Happy.

"Do you know, Marie, whether my dressmaker's bill came for the master while I was out?"

"Oh no, madam, he can't have had it yet—I hear him singing."—Sans-Gene, Paris.

APPROPRIATE.

"This old grouch can't find anything to suit him."

"Show him the crab apples," directed the grocer.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Only Another Buick Can Ever Satisfy a Buick Owner"

"I have owned seventeen Buicks," says Dr. Victor L. Garbutt, Detroit. "During all the years I have driven a Buick I have never had to walk home. And that's going some. I doubt if there is another car on the market that would have given me such service and I know of no car that would have given me better."

There is no proof of an automobile's intrinsic merit so convincing as year-in-and-year-out dependability. Dr. Garbutt speaks from experience.
