Members of the Chamber of Commerce Producers Club (gold coaters) and Jaycees are selling tickets to the All-America Cities Banquet, scheduled for the night of April 11 in the Scurry County Coliseum.

It is hoped that attendance at this banquet will be the largest ever in Snyder. It is not a banquet sponsored or promoted by any organization, although a lot of organizations have roles in planning it. Also, it is being stressed that it is a banquet for persons of all ages, including school pupils, and not just for businessmen and their wives, or any other group.

So many people shared in the various projects that led to the All-America City award that the entire community has occasion to celebrate the event.

Meanwhile, events for the All-America City Day celebration are growing. The two special major events planned are a parade and flag-raising ceremony, along with the banquet.

In addition, The Snyder Palette Club is making plans for a sidewalk show and sale of paintings on the square that day. Also, local merchants are planning to put their best foot forward for the big day.

Several well - known personalities will be here for the banquet, and some of them undoubtedly will arrive in time for the parade at 4 p.m., including a representative of each of the All-America Cities contest sponsors, LOOK Magazine and the National Municipal League.

Snyder citizens decided on a one-day celebration after conferring with some All-America cities of past years, some of which celebrated over periods as long as a full week. All suggested that a good, one - day event was much better.

If you want banquet tickets and are not in contact with gold coaters of Jaycees, just call the Chamber of Commerce office. The tickets are priced at $3.50 each, which will include a meal and a full evening's entertainment.

Communists Impose New Czech Restraint

By PETER REHAK
Associated Press Writer

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — The Communist leaders of Czechoslovakia announced today a far-reaching crackdown against the country's newspapers, radio and television and said they would no longer tolerate any deviation from the Moscow-imposed party line.

The announcement was carried in radio broadcasts from Prague. One broadcast said the nation was "on the verge of disaster," indicating the Russians had threatened to use troops to impose their will.

The move evidently came in response to a Soviet ultimatum following last week's anti-Soviet demonstrations during which the offices of the Soviet airline Aeroflot were sacked in Prague and Soviet installations were damaged elsewhere in the country.

The outbursts came during celebrations of the Czechoslovak ice hockey team's victory over the Soviet Union in Stockholm, Sweden.

In a resolution, the party's ruling presidium said "the organizers of the lawless acts" will be punished.

It did not say who the organizers were but blamed Czechoslovak mass media for "creating an atmosphere of artificially evoked emotions." It added that "anti-Socialist forces" were responsible for the situation.

Despite the Soviet-led military intervention last August, designed to halt the reform course of the Prague leadership, the country's news media have up to now remained relatively free of censorship.

The language of the resolution seemed to suggest that this would now end.

The presidium added it also would tolerate no longer any deviation from the party line.

In the field of publications, the presidium ordered the suspension of the magazine Zitrek —Tomorrow—and said other outspoken journals, such as Listy and Reporter are deviating gravely from the party line.

These and other journals will be allowed to function only "on condition that there will be guarantees that their activity will be in complete agreement with the Socialist aims of our society."

Communist journalists "who are expressing themselves contrary to party policy" will be called to give an account of themselves, the presidium said.

The Communist party's official organ, Rude Pravo, is fulfilling its role "in an unsatisfactory manner," the presidium went on.

She's Alive, But Shaken

EVERGREEN, Montgomery County (AP)—Mrs. Jennie Lee Hammond was badly shaken today by the mystery of the missing bullet.

She related that a holdup man entered Hammond's Grocery about 9 a.m. and demanded her money.

Mrs. Hammond said she opened the store's safe and put the money in a bag for the man.

He was pressing the pistol to her back and, said Mrs. Hammond, he pulled the trigger.

But all Mrs. Hammond suffered were powder burns on her dress. She does not know where the bullet—if any—went.

Mrs. Hammond said the man escaped with $4,000.

Evergreen is about 60 miles north of Houston.

23 BODIES RECOVERED

Teams Dig For Buried Miners

By BENNET M. BOLTON
Associated Press Writer

BARROTERAN, Mexico (AP) — Rescue workers braved cave-ins, 100-degree heat and poison gas as they dug deep today in a soft-coal mine in which officials said between 151 and 155 Mexican miners were buried by an explosion two days ago.

Before dawn 23 bodies had been recovered. Mine officials said another 128 to 132 men were still trapped 450 feet underground. It was generally believed all were dead.

Seven experts of the U.S. Bureau of Mines in Washington are to reach this small mining town later today to advise Mexican authorities on faster removal of the dead and restoration of the shattered mine.

Juan Heitz, managing director of the Altos Hornos de Mexico S.A. mining concern that owns the diggings, said hours of checking assignment sheets still left the whreabouts of four men in doubt. This produced the uncertainty about the number of victims.

Heitz spoke of them all as "bodies" but emphasized: "We are changing nothing in our efforts. We are not stopping for a minute, even though there is no life, until every man is out."

The disaster was described by Gomez Sada, secretary of mining, as the worst in Mexico's mining history.

When methane gas exploded and set off a two-hour fire in the underground tunnels Monday afternoon, most of Barroteran's 8,000 population converged on the mine entrances. Troops had to hold them back.

By Tuesday grim resignation had set in.

"No one would be able to live through those explosions and gas," said Fortunato Salinas, one of the oldest miners here. "This is the worst of them all."

Ordinance Code Ok'd, Two Plats Approved

The Snyder City Council last night authorized a contract with a Florida firm to codify the city's ordinances and accepted plats of two pieces of property which are slated for residential development.

A contract with Municipal Code Corp. of Tallahassee, Fla., was agreed upon for codifying the ordinances. This project has been under consideration for some five years. The Florida firm agreed to furnish 100 copies of a 400-page code book with 25 copies bound, at a total cost of $6,187.50, or a 350-page book for $5,337.50. It is impossible to determine in advance the exact number of pages that will be required. However, C. C. Crutchfield, representing Municipal Code Corp., said that estimates based on the firm's experience indicated that it would require somewhere between 350 and 400 pages to codify Snyder's ordinances. Crutchfield, who said his firm had performed similar service for 103 Texas cities, explained in detail the precedure for compiling and publishing the code. The project will require some nine to 12 months, he said.

A Seattle, Wash., firm had turned in a bid of $5,750 and $4,950. Based on samples submitted, councilmen estimated that it would require more pages to produce the code book in the size of type used by the Washington firm. Also, the Seattle firm, Book Publishing Co., has not operated before in Texas and was not represented at the session Tuesday night.

A plat of five lots in an area designated as Western Hills Addition was approved by the council. The plat, submitted by Joe Middleton, involves property on the west side of El Paso Avenue between Twenty-eighth and Thirtieth Streets.

Also approved was a plat of Valley View Addition submitted by Rodney Smith. Valley View Addition is immediately west of Bassridge West Addition and a substantial tract has been proposed for residential development there. The council also agreed to annex a portion of the Valley View Addition.

In other business, the council named Joe Box, John Fagin and Eddie Don Floyd to serve on the board of tax equalization

Thomas, Boren, Reed Are Elected

A light turnout of Snyder voters Tuesday returned two incumbents and elected one new member to the city council.

John Thomas was returned to Council Place 1, receiving 195 votes, compared to 80 for Homer Godair and 66 for Joe Carrasco.

In the only other contested race, John H. Boren was elected to Council Place 3 with a total of 255 votes. His opponent, Wayne Monroney, received 83 votes.

Herbert Reed, seeking a second term, was unopposed in the race of Council Place 5. Reed received 286 votes. There was only a sprinkling of write - in votes, with Gene Bowlin, Godair, Ben Miller and Ralph Eades getting one vote each and Harold Denson getting five write-in votes for Place 5.

Only 344 ballots were issued in the election.

The three who were elected were sworn in at the conclusion of the council meetiig.

Boren succeeds R. C. Patton on the council. Patton who declined to seek re-election, expressed appreciation for the opportunity to serve on the council.

"I feel that I have learned a lot and I have learned to appreciate even more the work that the council does," Patton said.

Mayor Bobby McCormick thanked Patton for his service to the community.

Fever Cure For Cancer?

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A new nurse to help cure many desperate human cancers could be a fever.

A feverish heat is one of nature's ways of throwing off germ and virus infections.

So scientists now are planning to heat up the whole human body with artificial fevers in hopes of killing cancers. They also plan to use anticancer drugs simultaneously for a double punch.

Fever as a helpful nurse is not a new idea. Some 100 years ago, a German doctor noticed that a man with cancer of the jaw recovered after an infection causing high fever.

Much more recent research points to heat as a weapon against cancer. Dr. Charles Heidelberger of the University of Wisconsin said today in a report to an American Cancer Society seminar for science writers.

Eisenhower Is Buried In Kansas

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT
Associated Press Writer

ABILENE, Kan. (AP) — The body of Dwight D. Eisenhower came home today, to be honored and buried in the heart of the land he loved.

The long and melancholy journey from the nation's Capitol across half the continent to the town of his youth, ended at 6:57 a.m. as the train bearing the general's body and his loved ones slid to a gentle stop beside the little freight station in Abilene.

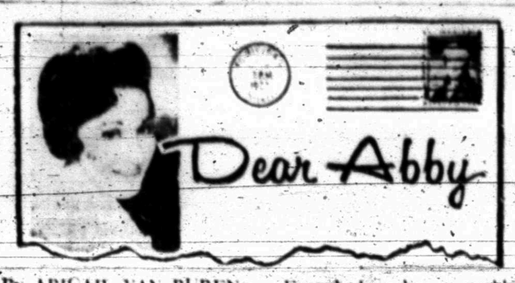
Here, the man who commanded the mighty Allied war machine to victory in Europe and was honored by his countrymen with its presidency in peacetime, would be entombed beneath the floor of a tiny chapel near the Eisenhower Library.

Several hundred residents of the former president's home town stood silently behind rope barricades guarded by troops as the funeral train entered Abilene.

The sun beamed over the top of a tall grain elevator, and skies were clear.

Nobody talked. All eyes were on the train as military personnel and Secret Servicemen descended to a concrete ramp.

The window shades remained down on the last car, the Santa Fe, in which Mrs. Eisenhower and other members of the family had ridden from Washington.



By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married only two years and have already violated our marriage beyond forgiveness.

My husband had to be away for six months, and during his absence I lived alone in a big apartment. I was lonely, but everything went along fine until about a month before his return. At this time I met a man, and his attentions led me to the most regrettable experience of my life.

I never thought it could happen to me, but I was unfaithful to my husband.

Abby, my husband is the most wonderful man in the world, and I love him so very much. The guilt from this "affair" is driving me out of my mind. I am trying to be the most perfect wife possible to make it up to him, but my conscience is torturing me. In a way I would like to tell my husband, but I know it would just kill him and he may never trust me again. Please tell me what to do. And don't condemn me for my actions. I've already condemned myself enough.

GUILTY AND ASHAMED

DEAR GUILTY: Telling your husband would be cruel and unwise. If you feel the need to "confess" further, tell your clergyman. (Frankly, you've told me and I'm telling about 55 million people, which is more than enough.) Quit punishing yourself, and forget the unfortunate incident, continue to be a good wife, and if your husband ever has to leave town on an extended trip, go with him or ask a friend (a girl) to stay with you to relieve your loneliness.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: What can you get for appearing in a see-thru blouse in Fargo, N. D.?

JUST CURIOUS

DEAR JUST: Pneumonia, for sure. Arrested, probably.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I just read where a well-known marriage counselor and psychologist says, "Couples who fight together, stay together, and a fight a day keeps the doctor away."

I would like to know how you feel about this?

BIRMINGHAM

DEAR BIRMINGHAM: That well-known marriage counselor and psychologist can go to his church and I'll go to mine. It doesn't take any brains to pick a fight. Civilized people learn to control their tempers and keep their mouths shut. And it's my view that a fight a day keeps a lot of doctors busy.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: A man wrote in saying he was upset because the doctor had told him he could never father children, and now his wife was pregnant. He says the baby can't be his. Well, listen to this:

Twenty years ago I married, and we had four children, then my husband got very sick and when he recovered the doctor told him he couldn't father any more children. He went to FOUR other doctors and they all told him the same thing. That makes FIVE doctors, right? We didn't care because we had a nice family. Then all of a sudden I found myself pregnant!

Abby, my hand to God, I never had another man touch me. My husband refused to believe me. He left me and filed for divorce. I got myself a good lawyer and fought it tooth and nail. The courts gave me custody of the children and support.

My husband tried to straighten it out later with me when he saw that the boy looked, walked, talked, and even ACTED exactly like him, but it was too late. I wouldn't take him back because he didn't trust me when I was innocent. So, Abby, tell that man that here is one case where FIVE doctors were wrong, so his doctor can be wrong, too.

Jaycees Plan For Election

Snyder Jaycees made plans for their annual election and received reports on some projects at their meeting Monday night.

Jaycees also are assisting in the sale of tickets to the All-America City banquet scheduled for April 11 at the Scurry County Coliseum. Several Jaycees took supplies of the tickets Monday evening.

Bill Nixon reported on the regional forum held last week at Colorado City. Johnny Floyd was inducted as a new member. Dr. Jim Morrow gave the invocation, Bill Nixon led in the pledge and Ken Aldridge the Jaycee Creed.

American Soprano To La Scala Debut

MILAN, Italy (AP) — America's leading coloratura soprano, Beverly Sills of the New York City Opera company, will make her La Scala debut April 11 in a Rossini revival celebrating the centenary of the composer's death.

Miss Sills will apear with three other Americans—mezzo-soprano Marilyn Horne, baritone Justino Diaz and conductor Thomas Schippers in — in "The Siege of Corinth."

Unusual Poster Ropes In Crowd

THRAPSTON, England (AP) — The poster on High Street had a sketch of a nude man and woman with these words underneath: "Nothing on? See you at the annual parish meeting. We can't guarantee a strip but at least you can air your views."

Some members of the Parish (village) Council were shocked and ordered the posters down.

"I merely used the idea to improve the council's public relations," said artist, Phil Loring, 42, a member of the council. "I wanted to attract more people to our meetings."

He did. The crowd was twice the usual size. The liveliest items on the agenda were playing fields and street lighting.

Ordinance

and set July 30 as the date for the board's final session.

There was considerable discussion about a "junk car" ordinance and City Attorney Joe Carroll was asked to draw up such an ordinance for presentation to the council at a future meeting.

A petition signed by operators of five beauty shops operating in commercial areas, and calling for a halt to "illegal" operations in areas zoned for one-family residences. The zoning ordinance was consulted and attention was called to a provision allowing home operation of certain types of professional services, provided no outside personnel are employed. City Secretary K. O. Pitner said that all beauty shops operating in such zones had been advised at the time they began operations that only the one resident operator would be permitted.

The council instructed the city manager to writer letters to operators of such facilities and advise them concerning the zoning ordinance.

Renewal of the city's contract with Edgar Taylor to collect delinquent taxes was approved, and a special session of the council was set for 5 p.m. April 7 for a zone change hearing and to tabulate bids on a new fire truck.

Teacher Pay Raise Eligible Fer Debate

By LEE JONES
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — A $220 million teacher pay raise bill that will be the big factor in bringing on new taxes this year if it passes was out of a Senate committee today and eligible for debate.

Floor action on the measure giving the state's teachers an average salary increase of $1,800 over the next two years is unlikely, however, for several weeks.

Legislators faced full debate calendars today, including a measure removing constitutional "dead wood" and bills establishing the University of Texas at Dallas and allowing policemen to go from one city to another to help quell riots.

A five-day Easter recess began on adjournament of the two chambers.

Rains Soak Wide Area Of Nation

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Balmy spring air fought against an intrusion of arctic chill and rain soaked a wide area of the nation today.

The warm southerly breezes extended as far north as the Ohio River Valley where early readings today were in the 60s. But a cold air mass filtered across the Canadian border to the Northern Plains and upper Great Lakes area.

The temperature fell to nearly zero in extreme parts of Minnesota and the Dakotas.

Rain fell from New England to Oklahoma with snow falling in upstate New York and northern New England. Much of the 2-inch fall in New York was confined to the mountain regions.

Pope Paul Cites Threat To Church

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI said today the very existence of the Roman Catholic Church is threatened by the "restless, critical, unruly and demolishing rebellion" of priests and laymen.

The pontiff said the rebellion was against the Church's canon rule, its tradition and its authority.

He also assailed prelates who have quit the Church and said their "scandal" crucified the Church.

Thefts Reported

A pistol valued at $16.75 was reported stolen from Gibson's Discount Center between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. Monday. Also reported stolen was a bicycle, valued at $30.00. It disappeared from the yard of Mrs. Pat Mann, 1911 Ave. M. during the day Monday.

Hot Issues Draw Little Fire

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Horse racing, liquor by the drink, women's rights—what more could a fun-seeker ask of a legislative committee hearing?

But the three blood pressure issues have been around so long they scarcely made a good sideshow as all came up before the same committee Tuesday night.

"Theres hardly any mail on it at all this year. Perhaps it's due to these ministers getting more broad-minded," said Sen. V. E. Berry of San Antonio as he boosted horse racing before the House Constitutional Amendments Committee.

Berry's once red hair has turned a little whiter, his gait a little slower, his tongue a little sharper since he came to the Legislature eight years ago on a one-plank platform: Legalized horse race betting.

The committee heard a proposal by Rep. Glenn Kothmann, also of San Antonio, to allow local option elections on parimutuel betting in Galveston, Bexar, Webb and Hidalgio counties, then sent it to an unnamed subcommittee.

Nobody turned up to oppose the bill. This must have disappointed Berry, who said he missed the House because "there are more people to fuss with."

A Senate-approved women's rights amendment generated a few more witnesses. Senators regularly approve such measures. House members just as regularly deny them the two-thirds majorities they need to go to the voters.

"I've sat through this so often I feel like we ought to do like these people who were on an island and finally just numbered the jokes," Rep. Carl Parker of Port Arthur told a witness. "Maybe we ought to number our questions."

The measure also went to an unnamed subcommittee.

"We are the oppressed majority," said Mrs. Lillian Collier of Mumford. Who got a laugh out of the committee when she said she represented "the rural women and the farm women and the church women. Who They would think."

The women said they are unhappy because the law doesn't let them work as long as men, denies them a man's right to shoot his spouse's paramour and gives husband control of community property.

Senate-approved amendment authorizing local option liquor by the drink—if the Legislature passes a separate law—was supposed to have gone winging out of committee.

Several members were absent, however, and sponsors decided there was no rush because they are short three or four of the required 100 House votes anyway.

So the measure was sent to the same friendly subcommittee that approved the companion House measure some six weeks ago.

Only two witnesses fought the measure, one of them a Methodist preacher who said he represented "myself and four narrow-minded Methodist bishops."

Rep. C. A. Davis of Houston, the sponsor, sounded almost apologetic as he told the committee the issue was "still one of permitting people to vote on a constitutional amendment on Nov. 3, 1970." After all, they had heard it all before.

The committee approved three proposed constitutional changes and sent them to the floor for action, probably next Tuesday.

Permission Granted For Indian Flights

NEW DELHI (AP) — The Indian government has granted the Soviet Union permission to fly over India en route to North Vietnam and back once a week, Foreign Minister Dinesh Singh told parliament.

He said the "civilian" Iluyshin 18 flights will stop in Calcutta for a check to see that no military supplies are carried.

"These aircraft carry passengers, baggage, mail and cargo but no military equipment," Singh said. "No planes carrying arms will be allowed to fly across India.

Differ Over State Birds And Flowers

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas House has killed a resolution that would have declared the goldfinch—Iowa's state bird—a public nuisance.

Iowa legislators have been considering a bill to outlaw the sunflower—Kansas' state flower—as a noxious weed.

Rep. Bob Madden, a sponsor of the antigoldfinch resolution, said Monday: "We made the first step toward peace, and will even consent to peace talks in Hawaii—at their expense."

Meanwhile, Sen. Joseph Coleman, sponsor of the sunflower bill in the Iowa Legislature, said Iowa would take all the goldfinches in Kansas if Kansas would take all the sunflowers in Iowa.

Ray Case Presents New Dilemma

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Two prison cell letters from James Earl Ray and the death of the judge who received them have placed the state of Tennessee in an apparent legal dilemma.

The problem is whether the circumstances may force authorities to give the admitted killer of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the trial by jury he has been quoted as saying he wants.

Faced by seemingly conflicting opinions from higher judicial authority, four judges of the Shelby County Criminal Court huddled with prosecution officials Tuesday. None of those at the meeting would say what, if any, conclusion was reached.

Judge W. Preston Battle, who accepted Ray's guilty plea in Criminal Court March 10 and sentenced him to 99 years, disclosed nine days later that he had received a letter from Ray, saying he intended to "file for a postconviction hearing."

Battle, 60, died of a heart attack Monday in his chambers.

Associates who searched his official effects said Tuesday they found a second letter which Ray asked the judge to treat "as a legal notice of an intent to ask for a reversal of the 99 year sentence."

Existence of the second letter written from the state penitentiary in Nashville, had not been made public by the judge. Its wording raised the question whether it was the valid equivalent of a motion for a new trial, or perhaps a writ of habeas corpus.

High court judges differed on the implications of the letters.

State Criminal Appeals Court Judge Charles Galbreath says a motion for a new trial filed within the 30-day review period is automatically granted when the judge who presided over the case dies before acting on it.

But Chief Justice Hamilton Burnett of the Tennessee Supreme Court said Ray's letters' even if construed as motions, do not automatically guarantee a new trial.

"The new trial plea is one of the rights Ray waived in pleading guilty, along with his right of appeal to other state courts," said Burnett.

Crabmeat

Cooked Crabmeat
Sliced oranges or membrane-free orange sections
Mixed salad greens
Mayonnaise
Dry vermouth
Chili sauce
Worcestershire sauce

Arrange the crabmeat and oranges on the salad greens. For the dressing, whisk together the remaining ingredients; for each generous serving use 1 tablespoon mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons vermouth, 1 tablespoon chili sauce and ½ teaspoon Worcesterchire sauce. (The dressing is a pale pink color and the vermouth gives interesting flavor.) Pass the mayonnaise at the table for those who wish it.

A mixture of lamb neck and shoulder makes an excellent combination for a stew.

DEMOCRATS NEW LOOK

Harris Has Firm Control

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new look at Democratic national headquarters these days is a little bit of Kennedy and a lot of Humphrey but mostly it's of Fred R. Harris, the party's new national chairman.

For the first time in nearly a decade, there has been what amounts to a full committee changeover and Harris, the 37-year-old Oklahoma senator who campaigned openly for the job, is firmly in control.

But Hubert H. Humphrey's influence remains. Harris, after all, was campaign manager for the former vice president before the Democratic National Convention last year and was unanimously elected committee chairman after Humphrey's endorsment.

The position provided by the committee is important to Humphrey, since he doesn't have a family political organization like Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts—already a figure for a possible role in the 1972 presidential sweepstakes.

Another likely contender for the party's nomination, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, apparently carries less influence in committee circles, although he evolved from a Senate backbencher to a sought-after party spokesman during his unsuccessful campaign for the vice presidency last year.

But it is Harris, who is trying to prove he can be a full-time party chairman and a full-time senator simultaneously, who clearly is running the show.

And should Kennedy or Muskie—both New England Catholics—need a Protestant Southwesterner to balance the 1972 ticket, his efforts could pay big personal dividends.

Harris marks a departure from the committee leadership that was controlled from 1960 by President John F. Kennedy and then President Lyndon B. Johnson. Kennedy appointed John Bailey national chairman, a choice later carried forth by Johnson. Another Kennedy-Johnson man, Lawrence O'Brien, ran the committee during Humphrey's 1968 campaign.

Harris admits he is faced with considerable problems—the party is $6 million in debt and may in addition assume $2 million in debts from the Humphrey and Robert F. Kennedy preconvention campaigns.

Harris is confident the new sustaining membership program, asking contributors to donate $15 annually, will raise $1.3 million to support the expanded party operations he envisions. He said more than $300,000 trickled in last year without any appeals.

In addition, he is setting up what he calls the National Democratic Sponsor's Club—an outgrowth of the President's Club when the party was in power—and is seeking $1,000 annual contributions from younger men oriented toward issues.

Harris also is working quietly to heal internal party splits. A series of state-by-state meetings is under way and he expects to become involved in the selection of candidates to face incumbent GOP senators and representatives.

Inflation And Aspirations Help The Money Disappear

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — For most American families there never will be an adequate answer to the mystery of where the money goes. If salaries are rising, they ask, why is so little money left from each paycheck?

One attempt at an answer: Inflation and aspirations.

The problem is faced more and more these days as thousands of families squeeze into the middle-income areas, that "average" group that makes Uncle Sam's midriff look fat and prosperous.

This is the group of rising aspirations. Whereas those in poverty hardly dare to wish, and those in the upper classes don't wish but do, the middle income people often strive for what they can't afford.

When they finally come within reach of that for which they strive, they find that not only has it risen in price but that their aspirations have risen also. One new car, for example, might awaken the desire for a second car.

After studying this phenomenon for years, George Katona, a pioneer in consumer studies, concluded that there is no limit to consumer desire; there is little likelihood, in other words, that this appetite will become sated.

Aspirations cost money. And while the paycheck grows, so also does the food bill and the monthly installment payments and the college tuitions. The family arguments grow hotter, and sometimes even lead to divorce.

Inflation and aspirations—that's one explanation of where the money goes. Both are insidious, one slowly raising prices and the other converting distant hopes into immediate needs. It takes a distant view to observe the process, but then it is quite obvious. The National Industrial Conference Board, a private research group, recently observed that the median income of American families in 1967 was 50 per cent larger than in 1960 and 2½ times that of the 1950 level.

But then it noted: "About one-third of these money gains were offset by rising prices."

The manner in which wages are paid also is changing. In 1950, for example, employer payments for employe security, such as insurance and pensions, was 5 per cent of total compensation. Now it's about 10.

Since 1960, employer contributions to Social Security have risen 150 per cent, and contributions to private pension and welfare systems have jumped 125 per cent. Employers now are paying about $1.5 billion a year for medicare.

In other words, some of the increased standard of living is not immediately obvious. Americans are more financially secure than a few years ago, but this doesn't show up when the checking account is being balanced.

There are some indications also that this better life is not coming easily to many Americans.

The 40-hour week, sought after so long, has frequently been found unworkable, and second jobs often occupy the time that had been planned for leisure.

In many households the good life can be afforded only because wives, too, are working. In 1952, the conference board study shows, less than 25 per cent of families had working wives. That percentage is now more than 35.

Perhaps the biggest frustration of the middle-income family is that it really can't sit back and enjoy the results of its leisure. To slow down is to slip behind. Aspirations might become dulled, but the sharp edge of inflation may not.

Comments Of A Pavement Philosopher

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

Would you like to live a two-career life? In another generation it may be commonplace.

One of anything no longer seems to satisfy us. In an age of abundance we crave at least two of everything—and sometimes more than two.

There was a time in American life, and not too long ago, when a family took pride in the fact that it had finally moved into a house with an indoor bathroom. Now if we don't have a bath for every bedroom we feel underprivileged because we are not keeping up with the Joneses, that mythical, live-it-up family that sets the standards of status.

It is the same way with automobiles, radios and television sets. Once we counted ourselves fortunate if we had one of these mechanical symbols of plenty.

Today these onetime luxuries have become necessities, and many a family feels like it is living on Tobacco Road if it can afford but one of each of them.

A suburban wife whose husband drives his car to work thinks her existence unbearable if she doesn't have a runabout chariot for her own needs also. Two teen-agers in the same house find it impossible to listen to the same radio, and each would be sure his growth would be stunted if he had to watch the same television programs as his parents. Thus a minimum of two sets is imperative.

The same trend is taking place in homes. More and more families with a house or apartment in the city are finding it difficult to hold their heads up in the neighborhood if they don't also own a small place in the country.

Since the two-of-everything philosophy has spread so widely, how long will men stay happy having only one career in their lifetime? Why should man labor at the same task, sinking ever deeper in its dull routine, from the age of 20 or 25 until he retires at 65?

Well, as a matter of fact, millions of Americans already are enjoying second careers or planning them.

Many government employes across the nation, ranging from bus drives, firemen and cops to military personnel and FBI agents, can retire at half-pay after a stated period, usually 20 years, leaving them free to start fresh careers. A growing number of business firms are also offering inducements for early retirement.

Often those who have a chance at a second career do better than they did in the first one. Their lives are happier and more interesting. They regret only that they didn't make the change sooner.

Junior Editors Quiz on MICHELANGELO

QUESTION: Why is Michelangelo so famous?

* * * * *

ANSWER: Unlike some artists of our time, who present broken up or highly distorted pictures of the human figure, the artists of the Italian Renaissance took delight in showing human beings in as majestic and beautiful a manner as possible. It is because Michelangelo achieved a power and glory in his figures greater than any other artist, that his name is world famous and will always remain so. He himself wrote: "Nor hath God deigned to show Himself elsewhere, More clearly then in human forms sublime, Which, since they image him, compel my love." This artist, both sculptor and painter, lived between 1475 and 1564. The figure shown is from Michelangelo's great fresco on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in Rome. Compare the hand — also from this fresco — to the branch of a tree below. All living things have rhythm. Michelangelo has expressed this life quality with tremendous force. This artist's favorite medium was sculpture. He seemed to enjoy overcoming the resistance of the hard stone. His great figures in marble, such as the David and the Moses, are among the most glorious triumphs of Italian art.

Tigers Trip Estacado, Tors Lose

Shelling three Lubbock Estacado pitchers for eight hits, Snyder's Tigers smashed the Matadors 10-1 for their second District 3-AAA victory of the season without a loss. The tilt was held in Towle Park yesterday afternoon.

The Bengals erupted for four runs in the 3rd frame and for six tallies in the 5th inning while holding Estacado to a single run in the 3rd.

A single by Lee Shed sandwiched between two errors gave the visitors a 1-0 lead that didn't hold up for long.

In their half of the 3rd, Snyder cashed in on singles by Wesley Bishop and Richie Thompson and a double by Jim Patrick for their three runs. Jim's hit drove in Bishop and Holder, who had walked. Richie drove in Jim.

The roof fell in on the Matadors in the 5th after two outs. Jodi Williamson and Thompson got on base on an error and a fielder's choice. Both scored on a double by David McGinnis. Larry Wall, who went two for four at bat, singled in McGinnis and advanced himself when Merce Hernandez walked. Ronnie Lewis drilled another double to left center and both runners scored. Wesley Bishop then cracked a hot grounder to second that enabled Lewis to score.

Snyder also put men on base in every inning in which the Tigers didn't score.

Patrick pitched the first three frames for Snyder, giving up three hits and one run while fanning four. Steve Holder, who started in right field, was switched to the mound in the fourth and he allowed only two hits in the four innings he worked. Steve also put down four on strikeouts.

Elsewhere in District 3-AAA, Brownfield socked Lamesa 7-1 on the 3-hit pitching of Ruben Garcia, who stroked a home run to aid his own cause.

The Tigers meet Dunbar next at 2 p.m. Friday in Lubbock.

Colonels Clinch Tie For Second

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the division championships locked up by Indiana and Oakland, the rest of the American Basketball Association teams are spending the last few days of the season settling the other spots.

Tuesday night, Denver wrapped up third place in the Western Division by edging Kentucky 94-90. The Colonels' defeat enabled Miami to clinch at least a tie for second place in the East with a 137-119 rout of Los Angeles.

In other games, New Orleans polished off Dallas 112-96 and Oakland slaughtered New York 169-122.

In National Basketball Association playoff action, Philadelphia nipped Boston 119-116 and San Diego beat Atlanta 104-97.

Larry Jones' 34 points paced Denver's victory over Kentucky. Gene Moore led the Colonels with 28 but Kentucky's high-scoring guards had their troubles—Louie Dampier shooting 0-for-14 and Darel Carrier 3-for-12.

Los Angeles also had cold hands against Miami, falling behind 68-48. At one stretch, the Stars went more than seven minutes without a basket.

Maurice McHartley scored 36 points for the Floridians, 17 in the final period. Larry Miller canned 31 for the Stars.

The New Orleans-Dallas contest was a preview of the first-round playoffs, which open Saturday night. It was the 13th straight triumph for the Bucs, second-place finishers in the West. They were sparked by James Jones' 26 points.

Oakland, which faces Denver in the first round of the playoffs, warmed up by blasting New York with a team record 169 points and tied the ABA standard with 90 first-half points.

Gary Bradds led the point parade with 28. Willie Somerset had 23 for the hapless Nets, who suffered their 13th consecutive setback.

Allen Turns In A 20.8 220

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Baylor's Ronnie Allen served notice Tuesday that he will be a definite threat to take the 220-yard dash event in the Southwest Conference track and field meet in Waco next month.

Allen ran a 20.8 in the 220 to spur the Bears to a 72-63 dual track meet victory over Abilene Christian. It was the best time in the event by a SWC trackster this year.

Allen just did nip ACC's Roger Colglazier who turned in a 20.9. The SWC record is 20.7 by Billy Foster of SMU in 1965.

Money Talks For Lew Alcindor?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If Lew Alcindor, basketball's hottest item, wasn't saying in advance what his news conference was about, the Milwaukee Bucks were. In the most understandable English—a million dollars.

John Erickson, Bucks' general manager, said the late afternoon session at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, was called for the "purpose of signing the contract of Lew Alcindor."

The 7-foot-1½ three-time All-American said last week the National Basketball Association team offered a million dollars.

"We spent several hours Tuesday fine-combing the contract and ironing out the details so we can be ready for the official announcement Wednesday," Erickson said.

Alcindor and his advisers called the conference only a day after he turned down a $3.25-million five-year contract from the fledgling American Basketball Association.

The UCLA star, who graduates this spring, said the Milwaukee offer was more solid than the original pact tendered by the New York Nets of the ABA.

The agile young giant said he rejected the latter and "fantastic" second New York offer because he had told both teams at the outset he would consider the first and only offers.

His oral agreement with the Bucks would stand, Alcindor declared.

Alcindor's advisers, including construction executive Sam Gilbert, an alumnus of UCLA, began final negotiations Tuesday with Erickson.

Milwaukee, obtained last in the Eastern Division, the draft rights in the NBA in a coin toss with Phoenix, the Western Division cellar-dweller.

Stuart Socks Grand Slam, But California Still Loses

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

One dose of Dick Stuart's patent medicine revived California's sinking offense. But the patient died in a tragedy of errors—through no fault of the good Dr. Strangeglove.

Stuart, the good hit-no field journeyman making a comeback bid with California, pinch hit a grand slam homer in the top of the sixth inning of Tuesday's exhibition game against Seattle.

The blast sent the Angels ahead 8-7, but Stuart's new teammates committed four errors in the bottom of the sixth, handing the Pilots seven unearned runs and a 14-9 victory.

Elsewhere, St. Louis edged Detroit 5-4 in 10 innings, Boston blanked the New York Yankees 2-0, Montreal beat Cincinnati 5-0, Kansas City trimmed Baltimore 3-0, Philadelphia slugged Minnesota 11-5, the Chicago Cubs whipped San Diego 8-5, the New York Mets drubbed Pittsburgh 7-3, Atlanta topped the Chicago White Sox 7-5 and Cleveland nipped San Francisco 6-5.

Los Angeles downed Houston 7-3 in 10 innings Tuesday night.

Stuart, a non-roster California candidate who played in Japan the past two years after earning the Dr. Strangeglove tag during turbulent stints with Pittsburgh, Boston, the Mets and the Dodgers, cleared the bases with his third spring homer.

But the Pilots quickly regained the edge on a walk, the four errors and singles by Jim Gosger, Jerry McNertney, Gus Gil, Mike Hegan and Tommy Davis.

Seattle has won five in a row and is 5-0 against the Angels.

Detroit's Ron Woods dropped Tim McCarver's fly ball for a two-base error in the 10th and Steve Huntz' two-out single delivered the winning run for the Cardinals. Jim Price's eighth inning homer had pulled the Tigers even.

Ray Culp allowed just two hits for eight innings and Sparky Lyle pitched a hitless ninth, leading the Red Sox past the Yankees.

Montreal shut out the Reds behind Jim Grant, who scattered eight hits through eight innings, and Carroll Sembera.

Phils Edge Celtics, Rockets Rap Hawks

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia 76ers and San Diego Rockets got off the floor in the National Basketball Association playoffs Tuesday night, leaving the Baltimore Bullets, with the best regular season record, facing the possibility of becoming the first team to be eliminated from the post-season competition.

The 76ers, down three games to none, stayed alive by edging Boston 119-116 on the Celtics' court. The Rockets, losers of two games in Atlanta, returned home and rallied to beat the Hawks 104-97.

The other two series resume tonight. Baltimore is at New York and the Eastern champions must win to stave off the humiliation of a four-game sweep by the Knicks. Los Angeles, trailing 2-1, plays at San Francisco.

Archie Clark, Hal Greer and Darrall Imhoff led Philadelphia to its must victory with 29, 23 and 22 points, respectively. John Havlicek had 28 for the Celts.

Greer, whose lack of scoring has hurt the 76ers in the playoffs, hit a long jumper to break a 109-all tie with 2:18 left. Matty Guokas sank a free throw and Greer made two foul shots and another basket.

"I don't consider this a good shooting game," said Greer, who hit on eight of 15 shots. "A lot of those shots I missed I usually make."

The 76ers' backcourt ace said the Celtics stopped him in the first three games "by getting between me and the ball. They were still doing it but we just played well against it."

Clark called it his "best game of the year . . . my best ever, considering the circumstances."

Boston suffered at the foul line, sinking only 24 of 41 with league leader Larry Siegfried missing five-of-nine.

San Diego's John Block scored 10 of his 15 points in the final period as the rockets battled from behind. They trailed by 17 in the first half but sliced Atlanta's lead to three after three quarters.

Block's 20-foot jump shot with 4:54 left put the Rockets ahead to stay 93-91. Elvin Hayes contributed 26 points. Zelmo Beaty was high for the Hawks with 31.

Baltimore Coach Gene Shue thought his team played well against the Knicks on Sunday despite dropping a 119-116 decision when New York rallied in the final six minutes.

"We had a chance to win," Shue said. "If we can play that well again Wednesday night, I'll take our chances."

The Los Angeles-San Francisco clash is a pivotal one and both coaches know it.

"We can rest on one game," said LA's Bill van Breda Kolff. "The fourth game is the big one," echoed Frisco's George Lee. "Big for us and big for them."

In the American Basketball Association play Tuesday night Miami walloped Los Angeles 137-119, New Orleans downed Dallas 112-96; Oakland mauled New York 169-122 and Denver got by Kentucky 94-90.

HE'S OUT! — Snyder third baseman Stewart Sims relayed in a throw from rightfielder David McGinnis to nip Lubbock Estacado's Lee Shed at home plate here yesterday in the thrilling District 3-AAA contest held in Towle Park. Catcher Larry Wall made the put out. The host Tigers prevailed 10-1, shelling three Matador pitchers for eight hits, including three doubles.

Two SWC Nines Fall

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baylor and Southern Methodist did little to boost Southwest Conference baseball prestige Tuesday.

The Bears booted away a two-run lead, losing 4-2 to Lamar Tech while Southern Methodist fell 1-0 to the Missouri Tigers of the Big Eight.

Baylor is now 4-9 for the season and SMU is 1-8.

The SWC stands 30-20 against outside competition for the year.

Baylor jumped to a 2-0 over Lamar Tech in the first inning on a double by Larry Boone and a single by Roland Lundy.

The Cardinals rallied for two runs in the eighth on a two-base throwing error. Mickey Accardo singled across the winning runs in the bottom of the eighth inning.

Shortstop Kurt Boenker doubled across the only run in the eighth frame as Missouri outlasted the Mustangs. Bob Sheets picked up the win in relief.

Pete Stare was tagged with the loss.

Bears Pull Out Plum

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baylor landed a plum Tuesday in the basketball recruiting wars.

The Bears signed Sid Kuykendall, a 6-foot-2 guard from Midlothian, who has made several "blue chip" teams. Kuykendall averaged 27.1 points and 13 rebounds per game.

In Austin, coach Leon Black announced that Texas has signed 6-8 Robert White of Hearne and 6-7 Jack Louis of Austin Reagan.

White, who averaged 31 points and 20 rebounds a game, is the first Negro athlete to win a basketball scholarship at Texas.

Black said Mike Dukes, a 6-3 all-state guard from Levelland also plans to sign.

SMU announced it had signed Clayton Korver, a 6-6, 230-pound rebounding demon from Irving High School.

The New York Yankees led the American League in road attendance in 1968, playing before 1,354,276 fans.

Board To Reconsider TSU Ruling

By ANGELA PENNA
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas College Coordinating Board rescinded Tuesday an order to phase out the law school at Texas Southern University by 1972 and said they would reconsider the problem in three more years.

The board earlier issued the phase out order on the basis that it was economically unfeasible to operate two law schools practically across the street from each other. Under the order, TSU was to have merged with the University of Houston Law School.

Kenneth Tollett, dean of the TSU Law School, told the board Tuesday other schools in the state simply were not supplying the Negro lawyers Texas needs.

"The seven other law schools in Texas have graduated 25 Negroes in the last 19 years, in that same time, 117 blacks have graduated from Texas Southern," Tollett said.

The dean said the school now has an enrollment of 87, including 65 black students and five Spanish-speaking Americans. "We hope to have 130 or 150 by next semester," he said.

Tollett argued that even tough the school was predominantly Negro, he did not feel law students were being trained in an "artificial environment."

"When a student gets out of our law school, he knows he will face white judges and white juries," Tollett said. "I submit that six or seven black students with 1,400 white students in the University of Texas Law School is an even more artificial situation.

"We're not stressing separation of the races; we're just trying to turn out more Negro lawyers."

CONFLICTING REPORTS FILED

Will Unemployment Grow?

By EDMOND LeBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic members of the Senate-House Economic Committee say administration efforts to curb inflation could boost unemployment by up to half a million workers.

Not so, say Republican members of the committee. They say gradual but firm restraints on the economy need not have such an effect on a work force made up increasingly of people in stable service jobs.

And, they add, manpower and training programs can help cushion the impact of an economic downturn.

These views were included in separate reports filed Tuesday by Republican and Democratic members of the joint committee after lengthy hearings into the state of the nation's economy.

Generally, they agreed on what was wrong, but not on what to do about it.

The Democrats said the country still needs wage-price guidelines—which the Republicans said didn't work.

The new Nixon administration scuttled the guidelines, the Democrats wrote, and "at the same time it proposes an anti-inflationary mix of monetary and fiscal policies sufficiently restrictive to raise unemployment ... by between 300,000 and 500,000 workers."

Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York, ranking Republican on the committee, told a news conference his party is not for "putting on the brakes so hard as to bring on a recession or worse."

No increase in unemployment is acceptable Jvavits said, and an increase from the present 3.3 per cent to 5 per cent would mean real trouble.

Both reports spoke of continuing the 10 per cent income surtax, but both hedged a bit.

The Democrats said this was one of several measures that could be used alone or in combination to fight inflation. The others were a wholly unlikely $12 billion cut in spending or extensive tax reforms.

The Republicans said the surtax should be continued, but the President should be given authority to reduce it if conditions changed.

The Republicans repeated their advocacy of tax incentives for private business to take on some of the problems of cities and minorities.

The Democrats said "such tax incentives open additional loopholes" and added "we urge that the new administration not retreat from the direct attack on poverty begun five years ago."

Republicans said Congress might have to enact once again a ceiling on government spending.

Democrats urged President Nixon to investigate defense spending because of "the evidence of widespread waste, mismanagement and inefficiency." They called for better accounting methods for government contractors.

Tavern Loans Are Studied

AUSTIN (AP) — Vending machine companies have loaned close to $1 million to beer joint operators this year, but they haven't violated the law doing it, consumer credit Commissioner Francis A. Miskell said Tuesday.

Miskell said the volume of loans has dropped considerably due to various investigations.

The commissioner said his investigators had looked at the books of four vending machine companies in Houston, four in Dallas and two in San Antonio but so far have found no violations of state loan laws.

Miskell said his investigators looked only at the procedures used by vending companies to furnish funds to tavern operators, which would be repaid by proceeds from vending machines in taverns.

A special legislative committee probed control of taverns by vendors last year and recommended legislation to outlaw vendor loans to taverns.

Miskell said his investigators found a few instances where excess interest was being charged through use of 10 per cent add-on interest instead of 10 per cent simple interest. Add-on interest remains the same each year while simple interest is on the remaining balance only.

Even Rich Americans Still Eat Beans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says that no matter how affluent they become Americans are great bean eaters.

Per capita consumption of beans has risen slowly but steadily over the years to about seven pounds estimated today. And, according to surveys, as family income increases—up to around $7,000 a year—more canned beans are eaten.

"And even when family incomes topped $15,000," the department reported, "canned beans were served at least once a week in about a third of the households."

When a recipe calls for "crushed garlic," you can use either a garlic crusher or a mortar and pestle for reducing the garlic clove to a pulp. If you use a garlic crusher, it is not necessary to peel the garlic clove before crushing.

12 Held After Nude Beach Party

PORT ISABEL, Tex. (AP) — Twelve persons accused of indecent exposure Tuesday after they allegedly appeared nude on the South Padre Island beach remained in jail at Brownsville today.

Deputy sheriff Nem Bryan said he and other deputies arrested them after receiving a report that someone was running up and down the beach and swimming unclad in the Gulf of Mexico.

Bryan said the 12 were observed and photographed before their arrest.

He said the 11 New York residents and a Pennsylvania man were playing on the beach near a park at the north end of the populated south section of the resort island.

Justice of the Peace Bud Emmons set bond at $200 each after they were charged with indecent exposure and vagrancy.

Hector Lujan, 19, of Austin was arrested by Bryan on a charge of interfering with a police officer. Bryan said Lujan was not with the other group but he interfered with the arrests.

Lujan was held in lieu of $200 bond.

All those in custody entered pleas of innocent.

A woman among those arrested refused to give her name. Bryan said a small child with her would be placed in custody of welfare officials.

CAREER CORNER

By F. J. LAIN

Miss Lain awards a Mercury portable, courtesy of the Royal Typewriter Co., to Phillip Jones II, Dallas, Texas, for his question:

"I would like to be a professional photographer. What should I do?"

A — Smile. If you're focusing on a portrait photographer's career, you'll need winning ways to click with people as well as at them. Don't expect picture - taking to be one big snap — you'll be expected to have artistic ability, manual dexterity, and technical skill with cameras, lenses, light filters and lighting techniques, various films, developing and printing processes, color techniques, use of makeup and props, and proportion and composition.

PHOTO ALBUM. If you're planning to open your own studio, the Professional Photographers of America, Inc., says that perseverance, money to live, and a head for business are other things you can't do without; success does not come Polaroid-quick. Photographers may work with still, self-developing or motion pictures (though here we're not talking about TV of movie camermen). There's a gallery of different specializations: commercial photographers, who often shoot pictures of products for use in advertising, industrial photographers whose work is similar but they generally work for a single company, often filming workers and equipment, press photographers, who combine a news-nose with photographic ability, aerial photographers, who make shots from planes for news, scientific or military purposes, educational photographers, who may prepare slides, films and filmstrips for classroom use, science and engineering photographers, who take pictures for research purposes (such as space photography) and technical journals.

Other photographers write for trade and technical publications, represent photo equipment manufacturers, manage photo-finishing shops, sell equipment and supplies, produce documentary films, or do freelance work. Want to know more?

A FREE PRINT of the Professional Photographers of America, Inc.'s crisp new brochure "Focus on Your Future," is yours if you drop me a postcard in care of this newspaper before June 1st.

GETTING STARTED. After high school, you may work several years learning informally in a portrait or commercial studio, or train in a three-year apprenticeship program. Others learn in the Armed Forces. Many colleges and universities, trade schools, technical institutes and correspondence schools also offer photographic training. A trio of the best-known schools are the Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, N.Y.; Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara, Calif.; and Ohio University in Athens, Ohio.

EARNINGS AND OUTLOOK. Financial compensation varies widely but many beginners start at around $100 a week in large cities. The portrait and commercial fields are crowded but demand will continue strong for industrial scientific and engineering, and press photographers.

Delicious to serve with cold cuts: kidney beans (from a can) mixed with enough wine vinegar and brown sugar to make sweet-and-sour. Add a little finely chopped sweet onion if you like. And drain the kidney beans and rinse under cold water before using. This combination is, of course, served cold.

How Can This Lass List Her Birthplace?

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Doris Savinkoff's new 6-pound, 14-ounce daughter may have a little trouble later listing her birthplace: 11,000 feet over Vancouver Island?

The family's fifth child was born Monday on a 30-minute British Columbia Airlines flight here. Mrs. Savinkoff had boarded the 11-passenger Grumman Mallard at the port of Tahsis on the island's West Coast where the Avinkoff's live.

Savinkoff said he sent his wife to Vancouver on the family doctor's advice "just in case of complications."

Mother and child were reported doing fine Tuesday at the nearest hospital to the Vancouver International Airport.

Mao's Final Effort To Remake Nation

TOKYO (AP) — Red China's ninth Communist party congress which opened in Peking Tuesday, is Mao Tse-tung's last great effort to remake his nation.

In the early days of his 20-year-old regime, when he held the reins of both the party and the government, he sought to impose his will through both. Rebellions in the army and at the top of the Communist hierarchy blasted his dreams.

In 1966, placing his faith in a great mass movement dubbed the "Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution," Mao tried to achieve mastery through revolutionary committees modeled on the Paris Communes in 1871.

The breakdown of party and government which accompanied his epic purge thrust the often unreliable army into a position of dangerous leadership. Mao countered by decreeing, fruitlessly, that the workers and peasants should take over the revolution.

Now, finally, he has had to fall back on the party he spurned and shattered. He is trying to rebuild it on Maoist lines from the shambles it had become.

The task of the party congress is to revise the constitution to include Mao's political philosophy, designate Defense Minister Lin Piao his successor and name a new central committee for the party.

Mao, now 75 and nearing the end of his turbulent revolutionary life, is taking no chances on failure this time. The 1,512 delegates have been handpicked rather than elected. As the opening-day communique put it, they were chosen "through full democratic consultation by party organizations at various levels and after extensively seeking the opinion of the broad masses."

The criterion for membership was simple: loyalty to Mao.

Mao's fight to give the new Central Committee control of the army will be bolstered by a record number of industrial workers and peasants among the delegates to the congress.

The new Central Committee later will name its own ruling Politburo and standing committee, the select inner groups responsible for the day-to-day operation of the party, the army, and the government.

The next formality will be a national people's congress to go through the motions of naming a new president and a new government.

It is possible that a few of Mao's former opponents may be retained on the Central Committee as "teachers by negative example." But they are unlikely to include any of the leaders of the anti-Mao group which former President Liu Shao-chi led.

New Labels To Be Used On Poisons

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department plans to modify labeling requirements for a wide range of poisons used in controlling insects, rodents and plant diseases so consumers can clearly understand their dangers.

The new requirements, expected to go into effect this summer, will set standards for exact use of words, meanings, symbols and antidote information on pesticide labels.

"At present, there is no standard wording or phrasing for warning, caution and antidote statements," says Dr. Harry W. Hays, head of the Pesticide Regulation Division. "This is confusing to consumers because label information on similar products may be phrased many different ways."

For the first time commonly used terms will be defined by department regulations, including "antidote," "flammable liquid" and "highly toxic substance."

The new regulations also will set up guidelines for classifying the degree of hazard to health by the poisons, and spells out the exact language for the warning, caution and antidote statements applicable to each category, Hays said.

The department has the responsibility of registering all pesticides in interstate commerce. Registration is not granted unless products meet standards for effectiveness and safety when used according to directions on labels.

Spokesmen said the new labeling requirements will go into effect after a 60-day period allowed for public comments. They will apply to all new labeling after the effective date, but products already in market channels will be permitted a grace period.

Utah's Buck Jones Returns To Mine

LARK, Utah (AP) — William "Buck" Jones, the 61-year-old miner entombed eight days by a March 1 cave-in, returned to work Monday at the Lark mine.

Mrs. Jones said her husband has no fear of the mine, and added: "You can be killed just as quickly on the highway."

She said Jones planned to continue working at the U.S. Smelting, Mining and Refining Co. mine until he reaches retirement age in about four years.

The couple returned late last week from an expense-paid trip to southern Utah.

Mrs. Jones said the company offered to pay expenses for the couple to travel anywhere in the United States, but they chose southern Utah because "we're just home folks."

Judge Declares Draft Law Illegal

BOSTON (AP) — A federal judge says the 1967 draft law violates the constitutional rights of atheists and agnostics by allowing conscientious objector status for religious reasons only.

"It is difficult to imagine any grounds for this statutory discrimination except religious discrimination," said U.S. District Court Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr.—and that, he held, is counter to the First Amendment.

The First Amendment states that "Congress shall make no law respecting the establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

Judge Wyzanski's ruling came in the case of John H. Sisson, 22, of Lincoln, Mass., recently convicted of violating the Selective Service Act by refusing induction into the armed forces. Sisson said he regarded the Vietnam war as "illegal and immoral."

Sisson came before the court for sentencing, but instead, Wyzanski stayed sentence pending a decision by the U.S. Supreme Court on the question raised.

"Sisson is not in a formal sense a religious conscientious objector," the judge said. "His claim may seem less weighty than that of one who embraces a creed which recognizes a Supreme Being and which has as part of its training and discipline opposition to war in any form."

However, the judge said, "When the state through its laws seeks to override reasonable moral commitments, it makes a dangerously uncharacteristic choice."

In a 1966 decision the U.S. Supreme Court said the draft law provisions on conscientious objectors should be interpreted broadly and not necessarily confined to those with orthodox religious beliefs.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Stanislaw R. J. Suchecki said he thought the Wyzanski ruling "builds beyond" the Supreme Court decision.

"Basically, it extends the 1966 ruling to cover those who object to bearing arms, whether their reasons be religious or not," Suchecki said.

The 1967 draft law extended until July 1, 1971, the basic provisions of the act in force since 1948, including the section on conscientious objectors.

Lawyers Play Host But Not Intentionally

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A group of young attorneys inadvertently played host to Tulsa school teachers Tuesday.

The attorneys, who just passed the Oklahoma bar examination, were being sworn in before the state Supreme Court.

The association had coffee and doughnuts waiting for them outside the courtroom but a group of Tulsa teachers, here to protest a proposed teacher retirement bill, thought it was a Capitol "welcoming committee." They ate the doughnuts and drank the coffee.
