Hitler 'Killed'; Doenitz Takes Over

Four Small Nations Gain Parley Posts

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The United Nations conference today put Belgium, South Africa, Norway and Venezuela in charge of four major commissions which will draft its charter for a world organization.

Without a change or a hitch, it approved assignments to the commissions and to a dozen committees which will serve under them. The lineup was as recommended by executive and steering committees. Thus small nations won top spots in the conference.

The conference thereby squared away to real work, but with the question of its voting procedure still undecided. Yet to be determined is whether majority or two-third rules, or a combination of these, should be employed in reaching decisions.

Smuts' Admonition

But as an afternoon plenary session of all delegates began, South Africa's grey-bearded Jan Christian Smuts admonished little powers that the big nations must have to veto use of force against aggressors, he argued, wasn't "too heavy a price to pay."

Many delegates walked into San Francisco's massive Opera house from the plenary session reading of a German radio report that Adolf Hitler is dead.

At a news conference a few minutes before, China's T. V. Soong remarked that "dictators die easily these days."

Jap Peace Overtures

He told reporters that China had been getting Japanese peace overtures "by the dozen and bushel," but he left no doubt there would be no separate peace.

"Our answer," he said, "is go talk to the United Nations. We will not talk to you alone."

Now that the leadership of commissions and committees has been decided, these important agencies will buckle down to work tomorrow and Thursday.

And once they are under way, the conference probably will have to get along without the help of Molotov. Secretary of State Stettinius told a news conference the Russian may leave soon for Moscow to take care of war problems.

Stettinius said there was no indication Molotov might come back to San Francisco later on.

While reporters applauded, the secretary of state said he planned to see the conference through to a successful conclusion. As for Britain's foreign secretary, Anthony Eden, Stettinius reported he has no plans to leave the Golden Gate at the moment.

DIES WITH MUSSO—Pretty Claretta Petacci, above, dashing young mistress of Benito Mussolini, fallen Duce of Italy, was slain along with Mussolini and 16 others by Italian Patriots, and their bodies hauled in a truck to Milan for display in the streets. Their bodies were buried Tuesday in a potter's field near Milan.

Jury Returns 23 Indictments Here

A 99th district grand jury of which R. S. Hobgood of route 1 Ropesville was foreman reported 23 bills of indictment shortly after 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon to Judge G. V. Pardue.

Accused were 18 defendants, only two of whom had not been arrested or posted bond.

A breakdown revealed there were two indictments charging murder, 1 desertion of minor children, 3 forgery, 2 obtaining property with intent to defraud by giving insufficient check, 6 theft over $50, 1 theft of property of value of $50, 1 wilfully burning a haystack, 1 assault with a prohibited weapon, and 6 burglary.

Negro Woman Charged

Indicted on murder charges were Helen Johnson, 56, a negro woman who had been charged by complaint in connection with the fatal shooting at Saturday midnight of Earl Day, a negro man; and Willie Wilson, 20, a Mexican who had been charged by complaint in connection with the fatal shooting two weeks earlier of Mercy Romero, 19, a Mexican girl. Bond of $10,000 was set by Judge Pardue for the negro, $7,500 for the Mexican.

District Attorney Burton S. Burks said he had been informed the Johnson woman had served a penitentiary sentence for murder, "either in Louisiana or Arkansas," and that her record, if any, would be mailed here for study. There was evidence of witnesses that the Mexican had not intended to shoot Miss Romero; that his gun was fired when he was in controversy with another Mexican man at a dance, and that his arm might have been struck about the time the gun was discharged.

Other names released by court officials and the sheriff's department as privileged for publication, together with charges:

Six Burglary Counts

Weldon Webb, 20, of Lubbock, burglary of property owned by J. B. Vickery.

Dale Hall, 23, of Lubbock, burglary (two cases) of Wilkerson Cold storage and of the Vickery property. The latter indictment

Germans Agree To 'Leave' Prisoners

WASHINGTON, May 1. (AP)—Definite assurances from Germany that imprisoned Americans will be left in German camps for liberation by advancing Allied armies have been received through the Swiss government, the State and War departments announced today.

The German government's message said that all transfers of Allied prisoners of war have ceased and that the Swiss government as protecting power and the international Red Cross have been requested to send representatives to those camps not yet liberated.

The Swiss and Red Cross representatives will assist in the orderly turnover of the camps to Allied control, the departments said.

According to the latest available information, the Germans are still holding some 45,000 to 50,000 American prisoners.

Allied armies have taken 64 to 78 prison camps and hospitals where American soldiers are known to be held.

Lamesa Votes City Manager Government

LAMESA, May 1. (AP)—Lamesa citizens voted today for the city manager form of government, 257 to 98, following a campaign of wide city interest. In another issue a board of city development was adopted, 244 to 99.

L. M. Olson New Railway Official

Appointment of L. M. Olson as superintendent of the Slaton division of the Santa Fe Railway Western lines succeeding H. R. McKee, who has been seriously ill several months, was announced Tuesday by G. C. Jefferis, general manager.

The announcement coupled the appointment of Olson with Mr. McKee's retirement from Santa Fe service.

Other changes in Santa Fe operating positions in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado were made known by Jefferis. Olson has been acting superintendent of the Pecos division with headquarters at Clovis, during the absence on sick leave of Dan Trahey, superintendent. Trahey returned to active duty Tuesday.

Landing On Rich Borneo Is Reported

By RAY CRONIN
Associated Press War Editor

Australia reported Allied invasion yesterday of Borneo, one of Japan's richest oil and rubber conquests, as American doughboys on Mindanao in the Philippines overran two airfields in a swift drive to within six miles of Davao city.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur was silent on Borneo developments in today's communique, which normally lags two days behind operations.

The Canberra radio quoted Australia's acting Prime Minister Joseph Chiefley as stating that a famous Aussie division was in action on Dutch Borneo.

Tokyo Reports Landing

Radio Tokyo reported that Allied forces landed near Tarakan, great oil shipping port just off Borneo's northeast coast. The Japanese claimed a daylight invasion attempt was thwarted but that the Allied troops made the landing Tuesday night, Borneo time, and were engaged in fierce fighting with the Nippon garrison.

Yank doughboys on the left wing of the bloody southern Okinawa battlefront slugged their way to high ground in an effort to outflank the Yonaburu airfield. These American troops entered the village of Kuhazu, a mile west of the airdrome. Only local gains on the remainder of the front were reported by Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz.

A few Japanese planes slipped through the American sea defense ring around Okinawa and damaged a medium sized ship.

Lt. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, jr., commander of the U. S. 10th Army on Okinawa, termed Japanese fortifications and artillery there the strongest and heaviest yet encountered in the Pacific. He declared the remaining objective on the strategic island was to "kill as many Japanese as possible, as soon as possible, with the least loss to us."

Third Army Takes Hitler's 'Cradle'

"Patton Express" Rumbles On, Makes Radio Contact With Reds From Vienna

By ROBERT EUNSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Wednesday, May 2—Braunau, quaint little Austrian town where Adolf Hitler was born 56 years ago, was captured last night by U. S. Third Army tanks just as the German radio was telling the world that the Nazi fuehrer was dead.

The 13th Armored division took Braunau on the Inn river after storming across the Isar river and driving 25 miles.

Radio Contact With Reds

A field dispatch said Gen. Patton's forces had established radio contact with Russian columns pounding westward from Vienna and that the two armies were probably less than 40 miles from a junction which would trap all Germans in Czechoslovakia and isolate Nazi forces in the alpine redoubt below Munich.

The broadcast report of Hitler's death brought no comment from Gen. Eisenhower, whose several million fighting men had crushed the Nazi foe on the battlefields of France, Belgium, Holland and Germany and broken into the sanctuary of his long-planned southern redoubt.

Might Be A Mask

Military observers here did not overlook the possibility that the dramatic announcement of Hitler's death might be a mask and recalled previous intimations that when the end was inevitable Hitler might "go underground," with his subordinates making a false announcement of his death in some heroic role in order to cover his disappearance.

Units of the 13th Armored division which hammered to the Braunau area on the German-Austrian border were only 30 miles from Salzburg, eastern rampart of the Nazi southern stronghold, and 44 miles from Berchtesgaden.

"Patton Express" Plows On

The Third Army—called by field correspondents the "General Patton Express"—plunged forward along a 100-mile front. Towns identified as swept up in the drive included Eccenfeld, 15 miles northwest of Braunau, and Geisberg, 16 miles northeast of Hitler' birthplace, but they were well behind the advance.

Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh Army, fired to new peaks of fighting fury by the evidences of Nazi barbarism unfolding before them in the vicinity of captured Munich, smashed on beyond that city to within 10 miles of Innsbruck in Austria and within 15 miles of the northern gateway to

Reds Push On In Berlin's Rubble

By ROMNEY WHEELER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Wednesday, May 2—Russian shock troops captured 100 rubbled blocks in the blazing administrative heart of tottering Berlin yesterday as they closed in on the Reichschancellery area where the German radio said Adolf Hitler died Tuesday afternoon.

There was little of the German capital left in the hands of Nazi die-hards—perhaps 10 square miles at the most—for west and south of the Reichschancellery the Russians cleared out the city districts of Charlottenburg and Schoeneberg.

Silent On Hitler Report

The Soviet high command, keeping silent on the Hamburg radio's report of Hitler's death, did not announce the capture of any specific building in Berlin's shell-raked center. It was not known whether the Russians had reached the Reichschancellery by the time of the Nazi leader's reported death.

Twenty-four hours previously, the Russians had raised their banner of victory over the Reichstag, a half-mile to the north, and on Sunday they captured the Anhalter station, a half-mile to the south.

German resistance in the capital was nearing total collapse, Monday, a day before the reported death of Hitler, 14,000 weary, battle-stunned German troops surrendered to the Red Army. During yesterday, 8,000 were killed, for a five-day total of 87,500 killed or captured.

Baltic Port Captured

Meanwhile, Premier Stalin announced that Soviet tanks, maintaining their 20 miles a day sweep across northern Germany, had captured the Baltic port of Stralsund, terminus for the main railroad ferry to Malmo, Sweden, and had surged within 23 miles of Rostock by the capture of Gnoien.

Far to the south in Czechoslovakia, two Soviet armies cleared the Vah river valley in Moravia and Slovakia and converged on the great Moravian rail center of Olmuetz (Olomouc), while Cieszyn, last German-held city in southwestern Poland was imminently threatened.

While the last dramatic chapter of the battle for Berlin drew to

Allies Ordered To Halt At Elbe River

WITH THE U. S. NINTH ARMY, In Germany, April 26. (Delayed by Censorship) (AP)—A direct order from supreme Allied headquarters halted the U. S. Ninth Army's drive to Berlin at the Elbe river at a time when the most pessimistic officers were predicting Lt. Gen. William H. Simpson's forces could reduce the German capital in ten days "even if the Germans fought hard."

Gen. Eisenhower's order stated the Ninth would halt on the Elbe and await the arrival of Russian forces from the east, thereby leaving the capture of the capital to the Red Army.

It also was understood the American First and Third and British and Canadian armies received similar orders to halt at the Elbe.

Graziani Orders Troops To Quit

ROME, May 1 (AP)—Fascist Commander Marshal Graziani announced the unconditional surrender tonight of his Ligurian Army as New Zealand units linked up with Yugoslav forces near Trieste at the head of the Adriatic sea and American units raced for the southern end of the Brenner pass into Austria.

Graziani told his troops in a broadcast that "the time has arrived when further resistance would be useless and inhuman, and, as far as I am concerned, criminal."

Chief Of Staff Follows

Lt. Gen. Pemsel, German chief of staff to the Ligurian Army, followed Graziani on the air and declared: "I confirm without reserve the words of my commander, Marshal Graziani. You must obey his orders."

Thus the two and a half-year-old Italian campaign was rapidly drawing to a close. Only skirmishes were reported as the Allied troops spread over the northern end of the peninsula to engulf the few knots of German soldiers offering a demoralized resistance.

The bag of prisoners continued to grow with the British Eighth Army taking 10,000 yesterday and the U. S. First Armored division

World Greets Report With Joy And Doubt

(By The Associated Press)

THE German report of Adolf Hitler's "death" spread like a tidal wave throughout the Allied world last night and the millions of enemies of the fanatical Nazi overlord greeted it with joy—and doubt.

From quiet homes of America to the doughboys' foxholes in Europe, the reaction was substantially the same—summed up in the terse comments: "Great news if true!"; "Just plain dying's too good for him;" "It's at least five years too late," and, "There's still a war to be won and dying to do."

New York Surprised

New York's millions learned of the Hamburg radio report with surprise—but with few demonstrations.

Thousands of commuters rushed for newsstands in Grand Central station when a newsboy shouted, "the paperhanger is dead; Hitler, the big bum, is finished!", but many of the crowds moved on when the source of the report was learned.

A quickly improvised effigy of Hitler was burned at a downtown intersection in Toronto, Ont.

In Bogota, Colombia, thousands demonstrated in front of the national capital.

The news hit Paris late at night, but no one seemed inclined to mourn.

Doughboys Consoled

"It's a pity you didn't get your hands on him and really make him suffer," the pretty cashier of a Parisian night club told American doughboys.

In Washington, congressmen accepted the report with questioning.

In San Francisco, delegates to the United Nations security conference were overjoyed.

"What a strange reversal of fate that Hitler and Mussolini should die violent deaths so close to each other," said the Earl of Halifax, British ambassador to the United States.

The German statement that Hitler had "fallen at his command post" met skepticism from British members of Parliament.

Reaction To Doenitz

Throughout the world, thoughtful persons considered the announced plan of Hitler's self-styled successor, Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz, who said Germany would fight on. Official quarters in London and Washington reserved decision on the possible effects of the report on German peace overtures previously credited to Heinrich Himmler.

Among the thousands of GI's in London, the cheers turned to jeers when newspapers and the radio told of the Nazi's claim that their fuehrer died a hero.

Out in the foxholes, the news created not only excitement and skepticism—but a mild form of disappointment.

Wanted Revenge

It has been the dream of thousands of doughboys to seal Hitler's fate themselves, as some small atonement for the terrific change he has wrought in their lives.

Everywhere along the fronts there was realization that fighting remained to be done and, although the first announcements brought jubilation in canteens and command posts, officers cautioned that Hitler's death might prolong the war rather than shorten it.

In Philadelphia, the city hall telephone switchboard was flooded with calls inquiring "does that mean the war's over?"

A Philadelphia newsboy hawked, "Heil, Hitler — Hitler joins Benny the Bum — the greatest break the world ever got!"

FRENCH GET STUTTGART

PARIS, May 1. (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower turned Stuttgart over to the French First Army today, announcing the U. S. Seventh Army had moved its headquarters elsewhere, but left unanswered the question what troops would occupy the important German industrial city after the war.

New Rallying Cry Is Issued

Adolf 'The Hero' Said Slain As He Bossed Death Struggle For Berlin

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Wednesday, May 2—The Hamburg Nazi radio said last night that Adolf Hitler died yesterday afternoon in Berlin and had been succeeded by Admiral Karl Doenitz, his personal choice to command the German nation.

The official Moscow radio this morning called the German broadcast "a new Fascist trick," by which "the German Fascists evidently hope to prepare for Hitler the possibility of disappearing from the scene and going to an underground position."

At the British foreign office, however, the report of Hitler's death—but not necessarily of the place or manner—was accepted as true.

QUESTION MARK: (1) Is Adolf Hitler, the scourge of present-day humanity, really dead, or is his "death" merely a subterfuge to permit him to attempt to escape punishment for his countless crimes?; (2) If he is dead, did he really die in the Battle of Berlin, or was he killed by followers who knew that only with Hitler out of the way could the German armies surrender unconditionally?

(EDITOR'S NOTE: We have 50 or 75 various pictures of Hitler in as many poses, but they all make him appear as an ordinary human being of decent appearance. Hence, we chose the above caracature, because more than any other likeness we've seen it best fits his nature and the mark his crazed ambitions have left upon mankind.) Below, Grand Admiral Doenitz, pretender to the Hitler "throne."

World May Never Know Hitler Truth

(By The Associated Press)

Whether Adolf Hitler actually died at his command post in Berlin Tuesday, as the German radio said, the world may not know with assurance for some time—perhaps never.

He may have been dead for days or weeks; he may still be alive and this announcement only a ruse to help his escape plans.

However, the Hamburg radio announcement could mean that this is the official end of Adolf Hitler, as far as what authority remains in Germany is concerned.

Could Be, Could Be

Whether he is living or dead, it could mean that the Nazi hierarchy has decided that the myth of Hitler dead now suits its purposes better than the myth of Hitler living and leading the last forlorn hope in Berlin.

A legend of Hitler dying in a goetterdaemmerung finale to the terrible tragedy he precipitated may also fit in with Nazi propaganda plans for the years or generations ahead.

The possibility remains that Hitler actually may have died as described.

Demands Same Loyalty

Doenitz broadcast a proclamation and an order of the day pledging continuance of the war and demanding the same loyalty as previously sworn to Hitler.

The Hamburg broadcast opened with a ruffle of drums and signed off with Wagnerian music.

"It is reported from the fuehrer's headquarters that our fuehrer Adolf Hitler, fighting to the last breath against Bolshevism,

WHO'S TO BE NEXT?
LONDON, Wednesday, May 2 (AP)—The German-controlled Goerlitz radio broke into its regular program with an announcement that "important news" would be broadcast today between 10:30 a. m. and noon.
The announcement, monitored here, did not give the slightest indication of the nature of the news.

fell for Germany this afternoon in his operational headquarters in the Reichschancellery," said the German-language announcement recorded by the Associated Press listening post in London at 10:27 p.m. (3:27 p.m., central war time).

Appointed April 30

"On April 30 the fuehrer appointed Grand Admiral Doenitz his successor. The grand admiral and successor of the fuehrer now speaks to the German people."

A speaker identifying himself as Doenitz then pledged continuance of the war, declaring:

"It is my first task to save Germany from destruction by the advancing Bolshevist enemy. For this aim alone the military struggle continues.

"As far and for so long as achievement of this aim is impeded by the English and the Americans, we shall be forced to carry on our defensive fight against them as well. Under such conditions, however, the Anglo-Americans will continue the war not for their own peoples but solely for the spreading of Bol-

Doenitz Choice Said Plausible

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—It Adolf Hitler really designated Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz as his successor, military men here believe he did so for the following reasons:

1. Doenitz is a Nazi supporter who could be counted upon to keep German resistance going if possible.

2. But he is not associated in the Allies' minds with Nazi atrocities and the extreme policies of the party. Therefore, Hitler probably figured he might be able to get better treatment from the Allies when the hour of surrender comes.

3. He is immensely popular with the German people.

Continued Resistance

There was a disposition here tonight to look for continued organized resistance, with the core of that activity now centered in the Baltic and North sea port areas and in Norway and Denmark. Those places are the home of the German Navy and especially of the U-boat fleet which Doenitz commanded from 1936 until he succeeded Admiral Erich Raeder as chief of the Navy in 1943.

There may be some continued resistance in the southern pocket, but there are well-positioned officials who now say flatly that there is no national redoubt area—nor ever has been.

Doenitz took a hand about 1920 in starting the secret rebuilding of the German Navy, subsequently specializing in U-boats. He and Raeder quarreled in 1943 about where the emphasis of German naval effort should be put Hitler sided with Doenitz and his ideas of intensified U-boat warfare and Raeder was relieved of his command.

Churchill Says 'Important Information' May Be Announced Before Next Saturday

By ALEX SINGLETON
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 1.—Prime Minister Churchill told the House of Commons today that he might have "information of importance" to impart before Saturday, but disappointed hopes that he would clarify immediately the prospects of peace in Europe.

Never once using the word "peace," Churchill told an expectant House that "should information of importance reach His Majesty's government during the four days of our sitting this week as it might do—I will ask the speaker's permission to ask the indulgence of the House to interrupt the business and make a brief announcement."

Parliament's normal weekly program ends Friday night.

The fact that the prime minister did not divulge the progress of peace negotiations carried potential significance. Only a few hours earlier the foreign office had announced Churchill would have a statement to make when he appeared in Commons. In the interval he changed his plans.

Shortly before Churchill spoke Count Folke Bernadotte, the Swedish intermediary who carried Heinrich Himmler's first surrender offer to the Allies, returned to Stockholm from Denmark, where it had been reported he had a fresh meeting with Himmler.

The Swedish foreign office, however, announced that "Count Bernadotte did not bring with him any new message to be handed over through the foreign office to the Allies."

Speaking with unusual hesitancy, obviously guarding against a premature disclosure in this delicate moment, Churchill told the packed chamber the victory proclamation might come before the last pockets of Nazi resistance had surrendered.

To Commons Churchill made it clear that "the good news will not be delayed," but will be announced whether Parliament is in session or not. Then he added with a grin, "it will come from some authorized or unauthorized source; if the House is sitting I will take the liberty of coming down and informing them myself."

Churchill's high spirits were taken as a good omen.

"There is general belief that peace will be announced this week," said the British Press association. "That is based on Mr. Churchill's rather smiling and happy demeanor during the question-and answer interlude in the House today."

Hitler's Downfall Foreseen In Spite Of His 'Divine Protection'

(By The Associated Press)

As Adolf Hitler started the 13th year of his reign in the early part of 1945, his downfall and that of all who had clung to him was apparent in signs blasting in a Europe battered by nearly five and a half years of war.

The German nation was beset by powerful invading armies from both the east and the west. Many of its cities were piles of rubble. The once proud luftwaffe was utterly defeated. The fuehrer himself was described by a radio spokesman as turning gray and developing a stoop.

Had Narrow Escape

He had barely escaped assassination a few months previously in a bomb plot for which high-ranking Junkers generals and nobles were executed. It was officially announced a few days after the plot failed that eight officers, including a field marshal, were hanged in a two-hour period.

It was reliably reported that Col. Count Claus von Stauffenberg, a one-armed, one-legged hero of World war I, had actually placed the bomb under Hitler's chair. The fuehrer escaped death only because he had gotten up just before it exploded and stepped to a cupboard to look for a magnifying glass.

Louis Lochner, former chief of the Associated Press in Berlin, was told by a man who was a fugitive from German authority because he was implicated in the conspiracy that an estimated 1,200 to 1,500 persons were immediate victims of the plot's aftermath—convicted of complicity by the people's court. Besides them, he added, many thousands of Germany's "better people" were liquidated, many noble families wiped out.

Reign Of Terror

The informant said there was a "reign of terror" so severe that the outside world could not comprehend it. "Friends whom we knew to be political, harmless disappeared overnight," he said. "We never saw them again." He declared that at Cologne it was not an uncommon sight to see eight or twelve bodies swing from a gallows, left there for 24 hours "exposed to public view as an example."

For more than five months after the assassination attempt, which occurred July 20, 1944, the fuehrer remained silent. He had hurried to the microphone immediately after its failure, but was not heard again by the outside world until his 1945 New Year's speech. It appeared certain he had been badly hurt and apparently his hearing was impaired permanently.

Lapses Of Memory

Mr. Lochner's informant reported that Hitler often suffered lapses of memory. London heard he had been treated by a brain specialist.

His New Year's speech sounded apathetic. In it he described the war as "a merciless struggle for existence" and said "we are going to destroy everybody who does not take part in the common effort for the country or who makes himself a tool of the enemy."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the supreme allied commander, said there had been some reason to believe that Germany might have called it quits after losing the battle of France, but that Hitler and his Gestapo had managed to maintain their pistol-in-the-back control of the Reich.

The Allies placed Hitler at the head of the roster of war criminals. Britons generally agreed that "shooting is too good" for him. In a sampling of opinion by the London Evening Standard, many wanted him exhibited in zoos and in devastated countries, with receipts going to charity. Hitler's terror weapon, the robot bomb, caused indiscriminate damage and casualties in England.

Pravda Offers "Cure"

Russia's Pravda said Hitler could not be sent to an island like Napoleon was, but "needs the rope."

Even in Berlin there was a story going the rounds that linked the fuehrer with the gallows. A traveler from that city told the story in Stockholm. It was to the effect that after the war was lost, Hitler and Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering were hanging side by side, convicted as war criminals. Goering turned to Hitler and said: "Didn't I always tell you, Adolf, the war would be decided in the air?"

In a speech January 30, 1945, marking the 12th anniversary of his assumption of power, Hitler acknowledged the many tribulations of his people, but exhorted them to accept "boundless misery" as the price of continued resistance and held out the hoary promise that somehow they would win eventually. He insisted that Germany would "never capitulate."

He referred to the bomb attempt on his life and attributed his survival to an act of providence.

Confirms Command

"It rested with providence to extinguish my life and thereby end my life work by the bomb which July 20 exploded one and one-half meters away from me," he said. "The fact of the Almighty protecting me that day I look upon to be confirmation of the command given to me.

"In years to come, therefore, I shall continue along this road and uncompromisingly represent the interests of my people, unswervingly and absolutely convinced that eventually the Almighty will not leave him who, during all his life, wanted nothing else but to preserve his people from a fate which they never deserved. . . ."

Sample German V-2 Rocket Flown From Norway To England

LONDON, May 1 (AP) — A sample German V-2 rocket bomb was flown here from Sweden by a U. S. Army Transport plane last August, a month before the first rocket fell on England, it was officially disclosed today.

The weird looking weapon weighing several tons had fallen virtually intact in June near Kalmar in southeast Sweden. The British were striving to discover the secrets of the new weapon and, after urgent diplomatic negotiations, neutral Sweden agreed to release the rocket, said a statement issued by the office of Brig. Gen. Earl S. Hoag, commander of the ATC European division.

Lt. Col. Keith N. Allen, Washington, D. C., later killed in action, was assigned the hazardous job of bringing back the V-2. He picked a crew consisting of Capt. Robert C. Durham of New York City, Lt. Robert J. Withrow of Calif., and a Norwegian radio operator.

They flew an unarmed unescorted C-47 across the North Sea and over a corner of German-occupied Norway to an airport near Stockholm where the strange cargo was waiting. The rocket had been dismantled and created. When all the boxes were aboard there was barely enough room left for the crew to crawl in.

Within three hours after the plane landed back in England with the rocket, British scientists were busy putting it together again. The secrets they learned did much to prepare Britain for her last V-bomb ordeal.

Levelland To Hold Pageant

LEVELLAND, May 1 (Special)—All of the 1,560 pupils in Levelland public schools are to take part in a May pageant to be presented at 8:45 o'clock Friday night in the athletic stadium.

The pageant will be divided into three parts, "The Spirit of the West," "Industrial Levelland" and "Levelland Schools."

Progress of Levelland since it was incorporated in 1926 will be depicted in the pageant. In connection with participation of business firms and organization, 172 letters have been mailed inviting them to display posters giving the name and date of establishment of the firms and organizations. In answer, the first entry was that of an individual, Steve A. Debnam, first county agent of Hockley county, now in military service.

Crowning Of May Queen

An outstanding feature will be the crowning of the May queen, Jean Taylor, daughter of R. A. Taylor, who moved to Hockley county in 1929. Miss Taylor is the youngest of 11 children, five of whom are in military service.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Michael of Sweetwater are to be guests at the pageant. The Michael home was used as the first school house in this area in 1909, on the site where the Shirey farm is now located, when Hockley county was still a part of Lubbock county.

TO ADDRESS GRADUATES

AUSTIN, May 1 (U.P.) — Maj. Gen. Richard Donovan, commanding officer of the Eighth Service command, Dallas, was announced today as commencement speaker for St. Edward's university here. Commencement exercises will be held June 3.

Yanks Unable To Swallow Tribute To Schicklegruber

LANDSBERG, Germany, May 1 (AP)—To have Adolf Hitler proclaimed on a bronze tablet as "Germany's greatest son" was too much for the American 12th Armored division when it captured this Bavarian town on the Lech river and with it a combined prison and house of correction for the Munich area.

GI's promptly removed the tablet.

It was in this prison that Hitler with five other participants sat for about one year after their Munich beer cellar putsch on Nov. 9, 1923.

When the Nazis came to power they made a shrine of Hitler's cell—number seven—and placed over the door a bronze memorial with these words:

"Here a political system without honor kept Germany's greatest son a prisoner from Nov. 11, 1923, to Dec. 20, 1924. In this cell Adolf Hitler wrote the book of the national socialist revolution, Mein Kampf."

Except for the removal of this tablet nothing has been done to disturb Nazidom's shrine save one significant thing. Written in pencil on the wall next to the door were the words, "Adolf, I am here! Julius E. Bernstein, 238 South Alden St., Philadelphia, Pa."

Soviet Paper Cites Security Difficulties

LONDON, May 1. (AP)—The Soviet newspaper Pravda, official organ of the Communist party, declared today that difficulties undeniably stood in the path of creating a world security league but asserted firmly that "they must be surmounted."

"It would be wrong," the Moscow radio quoted Pravda as saying, 'to overlook the considerable difficulties on the road to establishment of international security, but one should not flinch in the face of difficulties."

The paper added that "if some people are frightened by these difficulties, this merely proves their lack of understanding of the significance of collaboration among the great powers, which has developed and strengthened in the course of the present war."

RICE SOCIETY DISSOLVED

HOUSTON, May 1 (AP) — The Rice Institute engineering society, "temporarily" disbanded Saturday after a hazing incident involving some 80 freshmen Wednesday night, will not be reorganized at least until after the war, Dean Harry B. Weiser said today. Dean Weiser stated that dissolving of the society is the only action contemplated. The freshman students were hazed at an initiation Wednesday night by upperclassmen in the organization, it was said.

Captured Yanks Defy Nazis, Keep Soldier Spirit Despite Threats

By ROBERT RICHARDS
United Press War Writer

MOOSBURG, Germany, May 1—The 110,000 prisoners of this great camp won a battle of will and wits from their German captors.

By their own firm attitude and self-discipline the prisoners convinced their captors they would not be bent to their will.

When the 47th Tank battalion, commanded by Lt. Col. James W. Lamm, Amory, Miss., entered the camp, its members were amazed by the iron discipline and military appearance of all the prisoners.

Held Soldier Attitude

The prisoners cheered. They yelled. They nearly stood on their heads. But when enlisted men talked to officers they saluted, and at all times they carried themselves like soldiers.

Much of this was the work of Col. Paul R. Goode, former West Point instructor from Corvalis, Ore., who was captured at Faid pass in North Africa.

Goode never let his fellow prisoners forget they were soldiers. The 11,000 Americans here worked just as if they were a division, and their organization was even broken down into regiments and battalions. There were regular inspections of the enlisted men's barracks each Saturday.

Some In Nearby Camps

There were 29,000 prisoners in Moosburg itself, and the rest of the 110,000 were spread in smaller camps in the immediate neighborhood.

The breakdown was Americans, 14,891; British, 8,965; French, 1,643; Serbs, 436; Poles, 466; Russians, 171; and some Italians and Rumanians.

The prisoners estimated that the Germans were holding another 50,000 Americans, half of them officers, in the areas along the Isar river north and northeast of Munich.

Scores were removed from this camp just before it was liberated, including Lt. John G. Winant, jr., son of the American ambassador to Great Britain. His friends said the Gestapo arrived at the camp and told him to be ready in a few minutes. Then they rushed him away under cover of darkness.

Believed At Salzburg

The prisoners believed young Winant and the others were taken to Salzburg.

Goode told the liberating officers that "we were treated to a real picnic compared to the way the Germans mauled about those poor Russians."

Just before the 14th Armored division arrived the Americans were greatly angered by German posters calling on them to enlist in the wehrmacht "so that you may join in the fight against the Russians."

They never expected any volunteers and they never got any.

The Nazis lost the fight of wills right off the bat when the first 2,500 Americans went on strike after being kept in a large hole, the "shake pit," for two days.

German Threats

The Germans came among them shouting "you will do what we say and end this silly strike or we will shoot you all."

Col. Charles D. Jones of Jackson, Miss., stood up and said: "Go ahead and shoot, damn you. We won't budge."

The Germans thought it over and moved the men to proper barracks where they received greatly improved treatment.

German SS troops attempted to hold the camp when the 14th surrounded it, and told the 14th Tankers they wanted the camp called "neutral ground."

But Col. Lamm told them "I'll give you 45 minutes and then I'm going to bat hell out of you."

The Germans decided to resist and took their places.

When the Tankers finished capturing the place, there were dead SS all over the place and 6,000 Germans had been captured.

When the 14th broke through, some of their former comrades recognized them.

One of these—a slightly built blond boy—recognized his old tank and rushed over to it, yelling "hey, you guys, let me in that tank. One of you fellows get out right now and let me in that tank."

Every battlefield in the history of the second World war was represented at this camp. There were prisoners from Dunkirk on and fliers there from practically every heavy Allied air raid which either the Americans or RAF made against Europe.

Adm. Horthy, High Nazis In U.S. Hands

WITH U.S. SEVENTH ARMY, Germany, May 1. (U.P.)—Admiral Nicholas Horthy, former regent of Hungary, and two German field marshals were revealed today to be in the hands of American Seventh army forces.

The field marshals captured by Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's army were Wilhelm Ritter von Leeb and Wilhelm List. Both commanded large German forces in the Polish, French and Russian campaigns.

Horthy was found at Weilheim in southwest Germany. He was placed in protective custody. Troops of the 36th division found him at Waldbichl castle on the northern fringe of the Austrian tyrol. He was reported in good health.

Horthy's family was with him. He was spirited away to Germany by the Nazis when his Hungarian government tried to make peace with the Allies, and some reports had indicated he was dead.

The Seventh army also reported the capture of three German major generals named Mattner, Becht and Pappe, and two lieutenant generals named Scheurlen and von Boetticher.

MPs Watch As Jap Weds Okinawa Girl

U.S. 24TH CORPS HEADQUARTERS, Okinawa, May 1 (AP)—In a ceremony perhaps unparalleled in American military history, a captured Japanese officer was married here today, under United States army auspices, to a native Okinawan girl. The ceremony was performed by a Mormon chaplain from Utah.

The girl had been serving as a nurse with the Japanese officer's unit.

Lovers for several months, the couple was found in a cave April 28 by an army detail.

Attending the ceremony were perhaps 200 GIs and an ample detail of military police just in case the troops forgot they were back on the lines. The GIs were orderly and didn't even whistle at the bride, who is short and plump and not bad looking for an Okinawan.

After being pronnounced man and wife the couple bowed deeply from the waist. They then were escorted back to the tent where they had been living since their capture. The honeymoon will be supervised by MP's.

BACK IN BARRACKS

BROWNWOOD, May 1. (U.P.)—Two German prisoners of war were back in their barracks today following their escape and capture by J. D. Lewis, Brownwood policeman. The two prisoners, identified as Gerhard Demke and Roebke Hins, escaped from a work detail. When captured by Lewis, they were carrying two dirks and other knives. They were dressed in civilian clothes, believed stolen.

Aunt Lizzie, 114, Says She 'Ain't Never Gonna Die'

SAPULPA, Okla., May 1 (U.P.)—Aunt Lizzie Devers, still full of the salty pioneer spirit, today celebrated her 114th birthday, but shrugged off the fuss made over her and told well-wishers:

"I ain't never going to die!"

The centenarian, who lives with her son—"just 14 years younger than I am"—her goats, chickens and other livestock on the outskirts of Sapulpa, stretched her arms high above her head to disprove any notions she was growing old and feeble.

On the third finger of her left hand, Aunt Lizzie wears nine wedding rings—one for each husband she has outlived.

The aged woman, who has lived through all the United States' wars except the revolution and the War of 1812, gave this unhappy prediction of World War II:

"The war ain't going to end until it comes right here to us, and we'll all be shot down like dogs."

The United Nations peace conference at San Francisco did not mean anything to her, but she said when told it was a meeting to insure future peace:

"It won't do no good. The Lord appeared to me and told me about this war three years before it started, and he's told me it ain't going to end for six more years—and right here."

Death Of New Mexico Girl Laid To Disease

DALLAS, May 1 (U.P.)—A police investigation into the death of Mary Louise Redmon, a run-away girl whose body was found in a downtown hotel room, was ended today following a post-mortem report that the girl died of a highly infectious bloodstream disease that affects the spine, meningoccinia.

A young Dallas waiter said he had rented the hotel room for the 17 year old girl when she became sick while on a date. The waiter was held for investigation, but has since been placed under quarantine because of the contagious nature of the disease.

Police say Miss Redmon's home is in Tucumcari, N. M.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

THE Little Woman who used to drop by the cafeteria on the way home from a bridge party and pick up a few choice dishes here and there and successfully beat her husband home and serve the dishes as her own has another break. Soon to be available to housewives everywhere are frozen unbaked pies, cookies and other products, already selling like hot cakes in Oak Park, Ill., where E. Gordon Male, baker, first offered his customers such products last summer.

We'd lay you a small wager (if we were a betting woman) that when that day comes, many a housewife will get by with serving those delicacies as her own. And power to her and to those frozen bakery goods, we say and now who cares that the art of successful pastry baking seems to have gone with the years. Bring on the frozen goods!

The most popular items, according to Mr. Male, is clover leaf rolls. Next is blueberry muffins, sold in paper cups which double as baking tins; pies come third. Less prosaic products are angel-food cake, which can be baked in the package and miniature cream puffs. Products made with yeast dough, such as bread and rolls, can be defrosted and allowed to rise before baking.

It is claimed all the products will keep at least 90 days if frozen solid. Pies can be kept safely for a week, and certain cookies up to 80 days, at ordinary refrigerator temperature.

IN THE MAIL

Dear Miss Turner:

I may be wrong, but I can't keep from defending my townspeople for not giving in pounds to this marvelous drive for clothes. I'll wager if pieces are counted, we'd exceed any and all towns our size.

The fact that we do not wear heavy materials in our clothes must be taken into consideration. The suit and coat a cousin, whose home is in Cincinnati, wore were heavier than all the clothes in my closet plus my shoes. My sister whose home is in Denver, Colo., had a coat on which we couldn't carry around.

Hope my argument results in our favor. Thanks for listening.

Sincerely,
Mrs. George M. Blackwell.

PARIS WORKERS PARADE

PARIS, May 1 (AP)—Half a million Paris workers marched today in an orderly May day parade whose calm was broken only by repeated calls: "Hang Petain," and "throw Petain under the metro (subway)."

Clothing Campaign Is Continued Here

Continuation of the United National Clothing collection here until Saturday has been announced by F. A. Keinschmidt, chairman. The drive, due to close yesterday, is being continued because the first shipment of clothing will not be ready to send to regional headquarters in Dallas until Saturday.

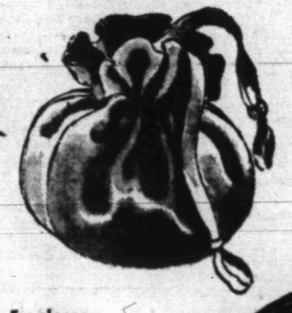

Collection boxes that had been placed in several downtown places have been removed, therefore it will be necessary for all contributions of usable discarded clothing to be taken directly to headquarters in the Lubbock Auto Company warehouse, 910 Texas Ave.

Another plea is being issued by workers in the clothing collection for merchants to save their large cardboard or wooden boxes that will hold as much as 100 pounds of the clothing. City sanitation department trucks collect the boxes if they are put in alleys separate from other papers.

Members of men's service clubs here are helping in the packing and tying up of boxes of clothing, bedding and shoes contributed. An estimated 50,000 pounds has been turned in by Lubbock residents now, and drive workers are pleased with the volume coming in during the past several days.

Sugar Supplies At Rock Bottom, Quotas Third Less Than In 1944

WASHINGTON, May 1. (U.P.) — Sugar available to ration book holders and home canners will be about one-third less than the amount allotted last year, it was announced today by three government agencies.

The new sugar ration is fixed at 15 pounds annually for each individual compared to 24 pounds last year. In addition, sugar stamp 36 which becomes valid today must last for four months. It is good for five pounds of sugar.

Canning Quotas Lower

Home canners will receive altogether only 70 per cent as much sugar this season as they received last year. Local ration boards will limit the amount of sugar for such purposes to 15 pounds for each individual compared to 20 pounds last year. The maximum amount available to any family will be 120 pounds.

In addition, sugar allotments to sandwich bars and soda fountains for coffee, other beverages and ice cream are reduced 25 per cent from the November-December allotment.

Sugar allotments for hotels, schools, restaurants and other institutional users will be made on July 1. They will be considerably lower than present allowances.

Reserves At Rock Bottom

According to the agencies which made the announcement—the Office of War Information, Office of Price administration and War Food administration—the cut is drastic because "domestic reserves are at rock bottom."

The 1945 carry-over at the end of the year is expected to be only 3,000,000 tons, compared with 4,100,000 tons for the end of 1944. At the same time world production of sugar is expected to be 100,000 tons less this year than in 1944.

Total production this year is expected to be 12,000,000 tons, 60 per cent of total going to the United States for military and civilian needs. Despite the cut in sugar announced today, U. S. civilians will receive 50 per cent of the world supply.

Per capita civilian consumption this year will be 62.1 pounds compared with 89 pounds last year. This includes sugar for home canning commercial canned goods, bakery products, soft drinks, candy, etc. British civilians will receive 68 pounds this year per capita and Canadians 69 pounds.

Building, Sales In Lubbock Show Hike

Increases in building permits, retail sales and postal receipts in Lubbock during March over March of last year are shown in summarys given in the Texas Business Review for April.

The city was eighth in the state during the first quarter of this year in building, with a total of $437,443 in building permits, as compared to 15th place in the first quarter of 1944, with a total of $89,939 in building permits. The March figure this year was $113,019, ninth in the state, as compared to $39,627 or 13th in the state in March, 1944, and $177,996, or sixth in the state in February.

In retail sales, 14 representative establishments reporting indicated an increase of 17.6 per cent over those of March 1944 and an increase of 26.8 per cent over the February sales.

Postal receipts were $37,392 in March of this year, ranking 14th among postoffices of the state, as compared to $33,619 and the same placing in the state in March, 1944, and $35,335, also 14th in the state, in February. During the first quarter, receipts totaled $117,210, or 14th in the state, and during the first quarter of 1944, $96,652, or 13th in the state.

Federal Aide Cites Cause For Lack Of Children's Aid Fund

DALLAS, May 1. (AP) — Dr. Martha M. Eliot, associate chief of the U. S. children's bureau of the Social Security administration, said today federal aid had been denied Texas crippled children because of what she called the failure of the Texas department of public instruction to meet certain regulations of the children's bureau.

Dr. Eliot was one of four U. S. Labor department witnesses testifying in a hearing ordered by Secretary Francis Perkins.

Presiding Examiner E. West Parkinson said the purpose of the hearing was to let the state department of public instruction, which supervises aid to Texas' crippled children, know why federal assistance was being held up this year and to give the department a chance to answer charges brought by the U. S. children's bureau.

Refused To Comply

Dr. Eliot said the state had repeatedly refused to comply with federal regulations set up under the national security act and said the federal grant of $1,300,000 could not be continued as long as such a situation existed.

The government witnesses charged the state public instruction department has failed to employ a full-time medical consultant; that the merit system in employing skilled medical services is not complied with; that adequate care has not been given the children; and that methods of operation are not being carried out according to law.

Dr. Eliot described the principal issue as "who shall operate the Texas department."

She charged that the eight state districts of the bureau were understaffed and mismanged.

Parkinson said the allotment would be available if Texas takes steps to meet the requirements.

Rep. Sam Hanna of Dallas and Rep. Houston McMurray of Henrietta, who yesterday introduced in the state House of Representatives a bill to transfer care of crippled children from Woods' department to the state health department, were attending the hearing at the request of the House.

Wm. D. Green's Will Filed For Probate

Application for probate of the will of the late William D. Green was filed Tuesday in county court.

Petitioner was E. L. Klett, Lubbock attorney. Green, in a will dated Aug. 30, 1941, provided that Klett upon his death become independent executor of a "probable estate of $50,000" in real and personal property, and that no further court action be taken other than filing an inventory and appraisement and list of claims.

Judge Walter Davies set a hearing on the application for 10 a. m., May 14.

The will devised to Klett, in trust only, for the benefit of Green's ony child, William Dickson Green, 17, all the father's estate.

Out of the trust fund, preferably from revenues of the estate, Green directed that the trustee provide for the son's education and care; that in addition, the son receive, in distribution of the estate, $25,000 when he becomes 25, $50,000 when he becomes 30, the balance of the estate when he becomes 35, "in money or property."

The will also directed that Miss Helyn Kinslow, Green's secretary for years, be allowed to hold her position "as long as she needs employment" and that the executor-trustee retain her salary "at $125 a month or its equivalent according to present standards."

It also provided $30 a month to five negro "servants," here and at Shiner, where antecedents long had lived.

Green, 47, died here Monday. In terms of the will, burial will be at Shiner Thursday afternoon.

Mussolini And Mistress Buried In Potters Field Unmarked Graves

By JAMES E. ROPER
United Press War Correspondent

MILAN, May 1.—Benito Mussolini and his mistress, Clara Petacci, were buried secretly in unmarked graves in the potters' field of the Maggiore cemetery late yesterday, it was revealed today.

Former Fascist party secretary Achille Starace, who was executed yesterday, was interred a short distance away in the same plot of ground.

Ignominious Burials

The only witnesses to the ignominious burials were 15 members of the cemetery staff who were sworn to secrecy to prevent mobs from learning the graves' location and possibly exhuming the remains of the former dictator.

The three bodies were in rough, unpainted pine coffins, the tops of which were screwed on.

A military chaplain offered a brief Catholic benediction for all three as they were lowered into the ground.

An Italian Red Cross truck had transported the three bodies from the morgue to the burial site under some fir trees.

Vittorio Vertova, cemetery director who supervised the burials, said the brain had been removed from Mussolini's body and criminologists were examining it.

Body Badly Abused

Undertakers did their best to repair the damage done Mussolini's corpse, which had been stoned, kicked, spat upon, and shot at by the Milan mob in two days of unparalleled crowd hysteria.

They built up his face so that it had regained some of its oldtime arrogance. His mouth was stuffed to hide the loss of his teeth which had been kicked out by the mob. A routine autopsy was performed yesterday because no doctor had attended the dictator's death before a firing squad. After the examination, his body was sewed together roughly.

"Little Hitlers" Said Misusing U. S. Japs

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP) — A War Relocation authority director said today "small but well-organized economically interested groups of little Hitlers" were profiting from a commercialized campaign aimed at 2,000 Americans of Japanese descent who have returned to the West coast.

H. Rex Lee, Washington, WRA director of relocation, declared in an address before the City club the campaign was "founded on race prejudice and masked in terms of patriotism."

Tin Can Collection Is Lagging; More Cans Asked Of Housewives

Lubbock's tin can collection committee wants more cans.

And they also want the labels removed from the cans they get.

That was the word passed out Tuesday by J. O. Kuykendall, Clem Boverie and Virgil Musick, members of the Lubbock Lions club committee in charge of tin can collections in Lubbock.

The committee members want to load out a carload of cans as soon as possible and they haven't enough cans. What cans they have, labels have had to be removed before they could be shipped.

Only a few simple rules must be followed:

Cut out the top and bottom from the cans, remove the labels and mash them flat.

Then carry them to your grocery store and place them in a barrel near the entrance of the store.

A bottling company truck will come by and pick up the cans for shipment to a den de-tinning plant where valuable and scarce tin will be removed to aid in our war effort.

Dallas Aircraft Unit To Reduce Personnel

DALLAS, May 1, (U.P) — A minor reduction in personnel will be made this week at North American aviation's Dallas plant because of curtailment of the manufacture of B-25 bomber nose units, division Manager Bob McCullouch said today.

Employes were notified today that layoffs would be effective Wednesday on a seniority basis.

The Dallas plant has been making the eight-gun nose units for Billy Mitchell bombers under a sub-assembly contract and shipping the units either overseas as replacements or to the Kansas City North American plant where the Mitchell is manufactured.

NAZIS KEEP WINANT

WITH THE U. S. THIRD ARMY, May 1 (AP) — Lt. John G. Winant, jr., son of the U. S. ambassador to Britain, was singled out from other American prisoners by the Gestapo several days ago and taken to Salzburg as "a political prisoner," his fellow American fliers liberated by the 14th Armored division reported today.

Ninth And First May Receive New Duties

WITH THE U. S. NINTH ARMY, Germany, May 1 (AP) — The linkup of the Ninth army and the Russians today foreshadowed the freeing of two American armies for new duties.

The Russians now are established along a 25-mile front of the Elbe river and are gradually widening out both north and south of the original meetings places with the First army at Torgau and Riesa. They may eventually be facing the Americans along the Elbe along the whole wide front of the First and Ninth armies.

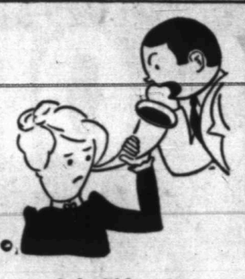

It follows that operationally the First and Ninth armies will be pinched out, except for occupation duties. This will free some of the best divisions the United States has produced for jobs which Gen. Eisenhower or the War department may direct.

Dachau Horror Camp Seared Into Souls Of Noted Rainbow Divison

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
Associated Press Staff Writer

DACHAU, Germany, May 1.—Every soldier, officer and war correspondent attached to the 42nd (Rainbow) division of the U. S. Seventh Army today had one word seared into his soul — "Dachau."

It represents the last word in savagery, depravity, sadism and inhumanity. Here human beings were experimented on as though they were guinea pigs, were eliminated by slow starvation and their bodies burned wholesale in a gigantic crematory. Thirty-five railway cars loaded with corpses emaciated literally to skin and bones are lined up outside the camp.

1,400 Living Corpses

Among Dachau's 32,000 inmates are some 1,400 living corpses These were the survivors of about 4,000 who had been shipped, according to the best information available, from Buchenwald before the Allies took that northern concentration camp.

They had been squeezed like cattle into freight cars, where they were kept for 21 days, 80 to a car. According to their testimony they were left without food for five days, and thereafter given mere scraps.

In the crematory there was a stench that made the strongest men turn pale and flee to the outside for air. In two rooms of this institution were naked bodies, bearing the signs of horrible torture and piled to the ceiling. The SS (Elite Guard) guards had been unable to complete their task of burning the emaciated bodies, though they worked in shifts of 30, two and one-half hours per shift, and kept at it day and night.

Used For Experiments

There was evidence that a section of the prison camp had been given over to scientific experimentation on human beings to study the effects of various types of gas, varying air pressure, degrees of cold and serums.

In February, 6,204 deaths were recorded officially at the camp, from execution or other causes. Of these 4,007 were Jews.

Extension Service Specialist Dies

BRYAN, May 1. (AP)—Mrs. Maggie Wilkins Hill Barry, 82, who had served Texas A. and M. college in various capacities since 1918, died in a hospital here last night.

She was known for her success as an organizer, for her work among rural women, for her unusual ability at briefing legislation and governmental documents, and as a specialist for the college's extension service.

Mrs. Barry was born near Palo Alto, Miss., Jan. 5, 1863, and entered college at the age of 14. She came to Texas in 1888 as head of the English department at Kidd-Key college, Sherman, where she also lectured on literature and arts.

In 1891 she married Frederick George Barry, representative in Congress from Mississippi.

She is survived by a daughter, Jennie Hill Barry of College Station.

Japan Announces Shakeup In Navy

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1 (AP)—Japan reshuffled its naval posts today, announcing creation of a new "overall naval command under Adm. Soemu Toyoda, commander-in-chief of the combined fleet.

The far-reaching shakeup that touched a dozen key administrative posts was announced without explanation by the Domei news agency in overseas broadcasts recorded by the Federal Communications commission.

Admiral Toyoda, who continues as fleet commander, also took under his wing the naval escorts command, relieving Adm. Naokuni Nomura. Nomura was elevated to the supreme war council, Domei said.

In other broadcasts, the Tokyo radio wrote off the European war as unchanging Japan's "life and death struggle," announced Allied forces had invaded Borneo and reported that government employes henceforth will work "without rest periods" such as the first and third Sundays of each month, in effect previously.

Mrs. Metcalfe, the wife of District Judge H. O. Metcalfe, is the daughter of Margaret Mood McKennon who for many years was librarian at Southwestern university. A member of the class of 1914, she also is granddaughter of Dr. Francis Asbury Mood, founder and first president of the school.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — President Truman expressed hope today that Congress will extend price control legislation another year.

"Irresponsible criticisms should not be permitted to break down the confidence of the people in an essential wartime program and a hard working wartime agency," the president said in a statement.

Legislation extending the price control and stabilization program now is pending in Congress.

"As the war proceeds towards a victorious climax," the president's statement said, "the shortages become more acute. The requirements of our military and naval forces are great. We must supplant the economic resources of our fighting allies, such as Britain, Russia, China and France, who have suffered great devastation in this war.

"We must do our part in helping to prevent anarchy, riot and pestilence in the areas liberated from axis domination. These requirements place a greater and greater strain on our resources."

Mrs. Wafford said the bond was at the home of her sister which was demolished by the tornado.

MORE MILES-OF-SAFETY ON RIVERSIDES!

EVERY PLY OF EVERY WARD RIVERSIDE IS 12% STRONGER!

Yes, Riversides are actually stronger than our pre-war first-quality tires! Stronger, because Riverside cords are stronger to start with; then chemically-treated, to make your tire last longer, and to lessen the possibility of a blowout.

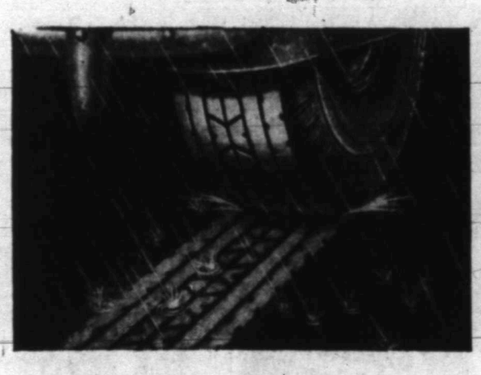

SPIKE-TEST PROVES THAT RIVERSIDES CAN "TAKE IT"!

Tests like this one prove that Riversides' 12% stronger plies give greater protection against blowouts! This big steel spike is "shot" into the spinning tire like a projectile! It actually buries itself in the tire. Yet . . . no rupture, no blowout!

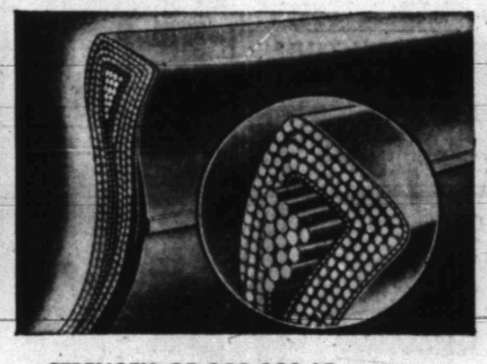

89% OF AUTO-RACE WINNERS CHOSE RIVERSIDE TIRES!

Men to whom tires meant life or death, bought Riversides; regular "stock" Riversides, right in Wards stores. Why? For the same reason that makes thousands of car-owners choose Riversides today:—MORE MILES-OF-SAFETY.

A 6-ROW TIRE-TREAD STOPS FAST, WITHOUT SIDE SKIDS!

Recognized tire-engineers agree that the 6-row tread design (like Riverside's) is "tops". Rubber, braking on water, skids! Notice how the 6 sharp rows squeeze the water out from under . . . forcing it into the grooves for a quick, smooth stop.

STRENGTH OF 280,000-LB. STEEL IN RIVERSIDE'S BEAD!

It's this steel bead (or wire) that keeps your tire on the rim. Riverside's extra-strong bead is extra-firmly anchored. It's thoroughly insulated to minimize friction. (You'll find that in Riversides, not a single safety-detail is overlooked.)

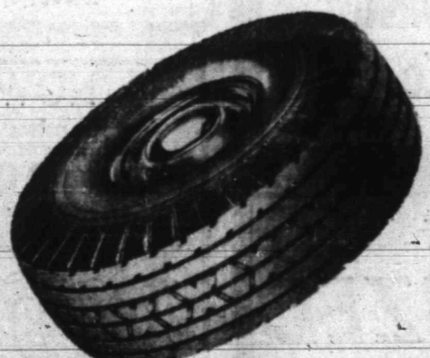

1 OF EVERY 3 OF AMERICA'S "BIGGEST" BOUGHT RIVERSIDES!

When peace-time plenty permitted them to choose ANY tires, 33⅓% of America's biggest truck-operators (who keep a miles-per-dollar record of every tire) bought Riversides. And more Riversides! More miles . . . More Miles-of-Safety.

"RIVERSIDES DIDN'T COME ON MY CAR . . . I CHOSE THEM!"

Your neighbor's Riversides didn't come on his car; he chose them himself, to replace the tires he found on his car as "original equipment." Chose them deliberately, in preference to all the other well-known makes. (Ever ask him why?)

38,621,055 RIVERSIDE TIRES HAVE BEEN SOLD TO DATE!

Yes, more than 38 million Riverside Tires have been sold. And every last one of them was a deliberate "replacement" sale; the careful choice of a person like yourself. (It couldn't have happened . . . without some pretty good reasons!)

THE PRICES OF RIVERSIDE TIRES ARE NOW REDUCED!

Now (with a ration certificate) you can get the extra-wear and extra-safety of Riversides, reduced to the lowest prices in many months! More Miles-of-Safety! Warranted to give you satisfactory service . . . without limit of time or miles!

Chandler Goes To Bat For Baseball

ST. LOUIS, May 1. (U.P.)—Sen. A. B. (Happy) Chandler, new high commissioner of baseball today denounced the "practice" of drafting 4-F's simply "because they happen to be ball players."

He told reporters at a press conference he had discussed "this practice with the President of the United States before I came here. Mr. Truman said he would look into the matter."

"I fear," Chandler said, "That somebody has abused his authority when physically unfit men are inducted into the Army simply because they happen to be ball players."

Chandler is in St. Louis to witness tonight's flag-raising at Sportsman's Park by the American League Champion Browns.

His statement regarding 4-F's was in response to questions by reporters on specific recent cases.

Denounces Practice

"Baseball," he said, "has demonstrated its worthiness to consideration. There are 4,000,000 4-F's in this country. If we cannot spare 400 or 500 of them for the sport the servicemen want, we can't whip anybody."

Also attending the one-hour conference were Alva Bradley, president of the Cleveland Indians; Don Barnes, president of the Browns; Les O'Connor, chairman of the advisory committee of the commissioner's office; and Will Harridge, president of the American League.

Chandler revealed a plan was under consideration to move the commissioner's office from Chicago to Cincinnati. Many of the major and minor league owners, he said, felt Cincinnati would be an ideal spot because of its central location.

Also, he said with a grin, "it's near Kentucky."

He said that O'Connor, long the right hand man of the late Judge K. M. Landis, had agreed to remain with him for at least one year.

Hasn't Signed Yet

Chandler emphasized at the start of the conference that he had not yet signed a contract, and that under the original agreement he has between 30 to 60 days "to think it over."

He said there was certain pfessure for him to retain his offices as the senator of Kentucky, but added that he felt if it became necessary he could retain both offices "if one did not conflict with the other."

The new commissioner's manner was concise and crisp and he made a favorable impression on the assembled newsmen.

Brown fans, whom Chandler will watch tonight, have waited 44 years to see a league pennant nailed to their centerfield pole.

The festivities preliminary to the scheduled game between the Browns and the Indians will have a circus setting. A group of municipal ball players, dressed to resemble the pennant winning Browns of 1885, '86, '87 and '88, B.O.B. (before organized baseball) will be wheeled onto the field in a gay surrey with a fringe on top.

There will follow one inning of bare-handed ball under the old rules.

In those days, first bounce catchers were putouts, and the catcher moved up from his station 30 feet behind the batter only when there was a baserunner.

The one authentic touch to all the "gingerbread" will be the presence of old Arlie Latham, third baseman and sole surviving member of the old Browns team.

Walker Cooper Heads For Bob Feller Nine

ST. LOUIS, May 1. (AP)—Hey, Bobby Feller, here comes another good ballplayer.

Walker Cooper, great catcher and team captain of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, was inducted into the Navy today at Jefferson Barracks and is headed for Great Lakes (Ill.) Naval Training Station.

Walker, who thought he was through with baseball and headed for the Army for the duration, found he had a choice of services and he didn't hesitate in choosing the sea-going branch.

At Great Lakes, Feller, former Cleveland ace, has assembled one of the finest service teams in the country, loaded with former major league stars. Cooper's choice probably won't be bad news to the fireball king who pitched to Walker during one exhibition tour.

The husky Cardinal star has been the mainstay of three championship teams in St. Louis.

Schoolboy Grid Camp Tilt Tied

For the second time in a row, the Lubbock Westerners paired up the spring football training camp squad, and played to a tie in a rugged scrimmage session Tuesday afternoon at Chapman field. The score was 7-7.

The game lasted only for three quarters, with all the scoring coming in the first two periods, and provided railbirds with plenty of excitement. The game also saw some brilliant runs being turned in, but a pair of young scatbacks stole the spotlight.

Rampy, Austin Shine

Arthur Rampy, paired with Don Austin, in the second string backfield had the first stringers putting in a lot of time trying to catch them. Rampy scored the second stringers touchdown by intercepting a pass and galloping 40 yards to score. He also turned in brilliant romps of 70, 50 and 40 yards before he was hauled in.

Austin was not getting the distance to his runs that Rampy was showing, but he showed plenty of heels to the Westerners first stringers, and the pair began to cause lots of worry from George Brewer and Noel Sikes, the considered first string scatbacks. They certainly left some doubt as to which combination would hold the starting jobs.

Booker Scores

Bobby Booker scored the first touchdown of the game, breaking away for a 12-yard gallop for a touchdown. This score came in the first quarter.

A pair of wingmen were showing up well in the scrimmage as Billy Petree and Gerald Davis stood out in their work Tuesday afternoon. Two more lads in the forward wall that were showing great improvement were Bruce LeMaire and Robert Collier.

Stoney Wall was looking good at guard, especially with his defensive work, and was getting his share of the tackles during his stay in the lineup.

The Westerners will close the spring camp with a game on May 11 with the Westerner Exes.

Lufkin Netter Given State Favorite Role

LUFKIN, May 1. (AP)—Time runs short for Lufkin High school's greatest athlete—slender Harmon Carswell, who made all-state in two sports and may climax his career with a No. 1 spot in a third.

Carswell was all-state in football in which he was ranked by leading authorities as the greatest passer in Texas schoolboy history. Next he was named on the all-state basketball team.

Now he's going to Austin for the Texas Interscholastic League tennis tournament—his second trip. Last year he lost to the boy who won the championship, Bernard Bartzen of San Angelo. Bartzen isn't back and they expect around here that Harmon will be the state singles champion.

Carswell already has passed his preinduction physical examination and is due to be called into the armed service in June.

Ex-Westerner Is Killed In Action

Marine Cpl. Wayne "Rusty" Johnston, 24, was killed in action on Okinawa island April 15, it was learned here Tuesday by friends. He was a former star with the Lubbock Westerners, and later proved quite a sensation with Marquette university at Milwaukee.

No details of the death of the former grid star were given.

Parents In Dallas

Cpl. Johnston was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnston, 836 South Cumberland, Dallas. Other survivors include two brothers, M/Sgt. Joe Bob Johnston, who is in the Air Corps in England, and James of Washington, D.C., and one sister in Dallas.

Johnston joined the Marines about three years ago, taking his training at Notre Dame university, and went overseas last fall. He was reported to have left Guadalcanal for Okinawa on March 1. He was a member of the Third Amphibious Corps of the Sixth Marine division.

On '38 Finalists

Johnston played halfback on the Westerners, finishing his high school eligibility with the 1938 Westerner team that went to the finals before losing to Corpus Christi, 20 to 6. The Westerners rolled over such teams as Vernon, Breckenridge and Masonic Home to reach the finals.

In high school, Johnston was an outstanding student as well as athlete.

Following his graduation at Lubbock High school, Johnston attended Texas Tech for one semester, going out for spring football at the Lubbock college, but during the summer he transferred to Coffeyville (Kans.) Junior college where he played during the 1939 and 1940 seasons.

Johnston went to Marquette in 1941, and stepped right into the limelight as a brilliant punter, passer and runner, and made good in the varsity backfield of the Wisconsin school. He received much national praise as a member of the Marquette team prior to his entry into the Marines.

Aggies Get Split In Twin Bill With SMU

COLLEGE STATION, May 1. (AP)—The Texas Aggies split a twin bill with SMU's Mustangs here today. The Ponies copped the first game by a score of 4 to 1 and the Aggies squeezed over a run in the second game to win 2 to 1.

Both games were cut short so the Mustangs could catch a train to Dallas. The first game went seven innings and the second was called at the end of the sixth.

In the second game Buddy Napier pitched fine ball for five innings then faltered, along with his support, in the sixth. Napier allowed six hits, three of them dunkers to the infield. He struck out seven while Kucera allowed eight hits and struck out three.

In the first game Red Shaw pitched a three-hit seven-inning game, striking out ten Aggies. His teammates got to Jim Love in the third and fifth for two runs in each frame. A base on balls, two hits and two errors sent a pair across for the Mustangs in the third. In the fifth two hits and two walks gave the Ponies another pair of runs. Shaw held the Aggies to three hits, one of them a sixth inning homer over the left field wall by Stubby Matthews.

Carter, Hunt Teams Win Two, Dupre One

The Lubbock grade school softball league race moved closer to the showdown Tuesday afternoon with both boys and girls teams from K. Carter and Hunt schools, and the Dupre boys keeping up the blistering pace.

K. Carter teams rolled to a double win over Bean, while Hunt was taking the measure of Wilson in both games. The Dupre boys played a pickup game with Guadalupe, and won. The Guadalupe boys evened the score for the day, by beating Central Ward's boys in the first game, 7 to 6.

Gregoria Ramos hurled Guadalupe to the win in the first game, but Dupre turned on the pressure in the second and won 15 to 4.

Don Sharp pitched the K. Carter Coyotes to a 4 to 0 win over Bean to best Ernest Sullivant in a pitching duel in the boys game. The K. Carter girls were nearly upset in their game, and had to score five runs in the last inning to nose out a 16 to 14 victory. Katy Julian pitched for K. Carter and Katherine West was on the mound for Bean.

With Norman Lindsey and Wayne Stroud sharing the pitching honors, the Hunt Pioneers won the boys game over the Wilson Wranglers, 13 to 5, while Louise Butler was coasting in with a 21 to 10 win for Hunt in the girls game.

Reports To Methodist Conference Indicate Best Year In History

By GEM BOB CALLEY
Avalanche Staff Writer

Indicative of one of the most successful and prosperous years ever experienced by Methodist churches of the Lubbock district, combined reports made by pastors of the 42 charges at district I (Crusade for Christ) conference held Tuesday at First Methodist church revealed 1,041 members had been received into these churches since November.

More than 450 delegates and visitors assembled to hear financial reports of individual churches and combined work plans for the completion of the year 1944-45. Only one pastor, J. E. Peters of Meadow, was absent.

Women Also Meet

Featuring an address by Rev. Neal D. Cannon, pastor of Polk Street church in Amarillo, the morning session was devoted to pastor's reports, roll call and order of business. Dr. L. N. Lipscomb, district superintendent, was chairman for the day and Dr. H. I. Robinson, pastor of the First Methodist church, welcomed visiting delegates.

Meeting jointly with the district conference for the first time, separate sessions for the district Women's Society of Christian Service were attended by approximately 100 members. Two Lubbock residents, Mrs. C. C. Coffee and Mrs. J. D. Strickland served as district chairman and district secretary, respectively.

Members of the WSCS served a covered-dish luncheon in the church basement at 12:30.

Various Phases Of Work

Reports were made by committee members on the various phases of church work representing license to preach, spiritual state of the church, missions and church extension, Christian education, woman's work, church colleges, hospitals and homes, lay activities, Christian literature and publications, support of the church and finance, and quarterly conference records. Conference delegates made recommendations for the continuation of work already begun and the promotion of new projects.

Rev. R. L. Kirk, pastor of the Slaton Methodist church and Golden Cross representative, explained the work of this organization and urged its support. Announcing that May is Golden Cross month, Mr. Kirk requested that each pastor inform his people of the work being done by churches in allocating funds for emergency and immediate hospitalization for those worthy of charity.

Local Preachers Licenses

Local preachers licenses were granted David Orval Strong, a student of Texas Tech, Pvt. Benjamin Arthur Laird, stationed at Lubbock Army Air field, and Miss Lillie Hester, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Hester of Brownfield, and a student of McMurry college.

Rev. W. E. Peterson of Levelland appointed a visiting evangelistic committee who will meet at 2 p.m. Monday at the Lubbock First Methodist church to formulate work plans to be followed until the next district meeting. This committee is composed of Rev. A. H. Carleton of Lubbock, pastor of St. John's church; Rev. C. A. Bickley of Lubbock, pastor of Asbury; Rev. R. L. Kirk of Slaton; Rev. H. H. Bratcher of Ralls, Rev. W. A. Appling of Wolfforth; Rev. Cal C. Wright of Lamesa; and Rev. Charles Lutrich, assistant-pastor of the Lubbock First Methodist church.

Funds were allocated to finance five undergraduates who will attend the pastors school to be held this summer at Southern Methodist university, Dallas. They are J. Paul Eppler, Allen Forbes, E. C. Armstrong, Jesse Young and Cecil Tune.

Total calculations compiled from individual financial reports by Rev. Cecil R. Matthews of Lubbock, district secretary were: contributions to the Methodist home at Waco, $12,558; cash contributions to the Crusade for Christ fund, $46,616; and contributions to world service, $13,235.

Delegates voted to hold next one-day district conference at Slaton, date of which will be set by Dr. Lipscomb.

Coming Events

Announcements made of coming events included McMurry Maintenance day, May 6; Young People's assembly, May 28-June 1; District Intermediate Camp, June 18-22; Town and Country conference (Southwestern university) June 19-23; Pastor's School Southern Methodist university, Dallas, July 2-12; and Conference Youth Camp, August 27-31.

The conference was closed with a prayer by Rev. R. N. Huckabee of Brownfield.

Graziani's Orders

rounding up 12,000, including four German major generals.

British Enter Udine

British troops entered Udine, 33 miles south of the Austrian frontier in northeastern Italy, New Zealand units linked with Marshal Tito's Yugoslavs at Montfalcone, 14 miles northwest of Trieste, and American units in the west apparently already had joined the French tank spearheads pushing into Piedmont from France.

Graziani, who had been erroneously reported executed after his recent capture, is now an Allied prisoner of war. He disclosed that he personally had ordered the unconditional surrender of his Army two days ago and that copies of his order had been dropped to his troops by Allied planes.

Brenner Pass Sector

Precisely how far the Americans were from the Brenner pass was not officially disclosed. Hours-old reports put them in the area north of Lake Garda, heading toward Trento, which is 30 miles slightly southwest of Bolzano, southern terminus of the Brenner pass rail line, and approximately 92 highway miles from the summit of the pass.

Pushing along the Ligurian coast beyond captured Genoa other American troops were driving rapidly toward the French frontier, 50 miles beyond captured Noli. Savona was taken enroute and the Americans found the Genoa-Alessandria railway intact and captured three huge railway ns.

COUNTY JUDGE DIES

COMANCHE, May 1 (UP) — County Judge H. D. Lane, 68, of Comanche county, died today following a brief illness. He was serving his first term as judge. Formerly, Lane was a justice of the peace of precinct one, Comanche county, his native county, where he was a farmer and cotton gin operator.

Ultimatum Of Work Or Jail Is Issued

FORT WORTH, May 1. (UP)—An estimated 2,000 vagrants in Fort Worth are going to work or go to jail.

This ultimatum was agreed upon today by Tarrant county law enforcement officers at a meeting with businessmen in District Attorney Al Clyde's office and cooperation of city officers will be sought when the matter is presented to the city council tomorrow.

Exact proceedings to be followed in relieving the dire manpower shortage here have not been worked out, but they are expected to be:

1. Arrest every able-bodied man not employed.

2. If he gets out on bond, arrest him again and charge him with vagrancy.

3. Notify operators of pool halls and domino parlors to keep vagrants out of their places of business.

Jim R. Ellis, War Manpower commission area director, said that unless the labor supply is increased in Fort Worth, the city faces an embargo on livestock and grain shipments in the summer because of lack of personnel to handle the shipments.

Western Front

the Brenner pass through the Alps.

All of southern Germany was overrun except the southeast corner of Bavaria, and only huge bomb craters and road blocks were impeding the Seventh Army's tanks as they plunged through narrow alpine valleys toward the rail center of Innsbruck.

Hailing the capture of Munich, Germany's third largest city, Gen. Eisenhower asserted in a rare order of the day that "the whole AEF congratulates the Seventh Army on the seizure of Munich, the cradle of the Nazi beast."

Reports persisted at supreme headquarters that the Germans might be expected at any moment to accept the United Nations' demand for unconditional surrender.

In the north, American airborne troops and the British Second Army hammered out a solid bridgehead 20 miles wide and 12 miles deep across the Elbe river east of Hamburg, threatening to cut Denmark and Schleswig-Holstein province off from the rest of Germany and further chop the Nazis into pockets for eventual annihilation.

Paratroops Said In Action

The Hamburg radio said U. S. parachute troops and glider-borne infantry were landed in the bridgehead to support Field Marshal Montgomery's forces in the "bitter" fight on the north German plain. The broadcast said "strong German tank forces" were engaging the Allies.

While Patton's 13th Armored was spearheading the drive toward Salzburg and Berchtesgaden in the south, the 14th Armored plunged east for gains up to 12 miles and entered Oberhausbach, nine miles south of Landshut, and cleared Hubenstein and Hilpolding, each about 13 miles south of Landshut.

The American Ninth and First armies strung out along the Elbe river joined Russian troops in what front dispatches indicated was a very liquid celebration of May day. Red Army troops, as hosts for the day, dispensed food and drink with a lavish hand. "It was just another Russian victory," said one AP correspondent.

60,000 More Prisoners

Another 60,000 prisoners, including Admiral Nicholas Horthy, former regent of Hungary, two German field marshals and eight German generals surrendered to the hard-hitting American forces smashing the southern redoubt.

Field Marshal Wilhelm List, captured at Partenkirchen, was Hitler's regimental commander in the other World war. He said he retired from the wermacht after refusing to storm Stalingrad on Hitler's orders in 1943.

Allied headquarters announced that more than 2,500,000 refugees, displaced persons and prisoners of war had been "uncovered" by Gen. Eisenhower's armies so far, with Russians constituting about 40 per cent of the total.

Resistance Weakening

Resistance weakened everywhere along the wreckage of the German southern front as even elite SS troops joined the throng pouring into Allied cages.

Seventh Army troops driving toward Innsbruck and the northern end of the Brenner pass probably were no more than 110 miles across the Alps from U. S. Fifth Army forces pursuing beaten and demoralized German troops out of northern Italy. There was small chance that any important number of the enemy's Italy force would escape into the Innsbruck area.

French troops on the Seventh Army's right advanced south on a 25-mile front stretching east from Bregenz on Lake Constance to Oberstdorf. The Poilus had gained control of the entire northern shore of Lake Constance.

The Third and 45th Infantry divisions were disclosed to have borne the brunt of clearing the Germans out of Munich yesterday. Both are veterans of the Italian campaign. The 45th stormed into the Nazi shrine city in a fighting frame of mind after capturing the infamous Dachau concentration camp near its northern outskirts. The Third division cleaned up southwest Munich.

Much of the city where Hitler made his first abortive "putsch" in 1923 and which later became Nazi party headquarters was reported in ruins. It was said that Munich, ironically, may become headquarters for American occupation forces after the peace.

SALEM, Ore., May 1 (AP) — Salem wants a quiet, sober V-E day so its citizens are being asked to "take the pledge."

Here it is:

LEADERS UNDER PRESSURE

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Stocks generally suffered a profit taking decline in today's market and, while assorted issues in the peace category put up fair resistance, leading rails, steels, aircrafts and coppers were under pressure.

The approach of victory in Europe with possible economic unsettlement in a number of war-benefitted lines, together with the lengthy climb of the averages to 8-year peaks, inspired the trimming of account.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off .4 of a point at 64.8, first drop since last Thursday. Of 963 issues appearing, 542 were down, 213 up and 208 unchanged.

Conspicuous casualties included Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Kennecott, Radio Corp., International Telephone, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Studebaker, Eastman Kodak and North American. Heavy buying of Willys-Overland in the last quarter hour lifted this stock 2¼ points to a new 1945 top. Modest gainers were Standard Oil (NJ); General Motors, Goodyear, Westinghouse and Philip Morris.

Bonds were mixed. At Chicago wheat was off ¼ to ¾ of a cent a bushel. Cotton was up 5 cents a bale to down 10 cents.

NEW YORK FUTURES

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—After reaching gains of 45 cents a bale and establishing new seasonal highs, the cotton futures market turned reactionary on increased hedge selling and profit taking today.

Final prices were 5 cents a bale higher to 10 cents a bale lower.

The early advance was stimulated by the War Production board announcement calling for a sharp step-up in textile production to peak levels of 1942-43 in order to fill the tremendous needs for goods here and abroad.

Traders interpreted this as additional evidence that demand for cotton will be heavy regardless of the end of the war in Europe. Reports were persistent in the trade that the purchase program will likely be succeeded by a support plan similar to that in wheat whereby unredeemed loan stocks are taken up by the government at parity less carrying charges on a specified date. Spot cotton markets were firm.

NEW ORLEANS, May 1 (AP) — Cotton futures made new season highs here today but profit taking late in the session pared the gain. Closing prices were steady, 25 cents a bale higher to 5 cents lower.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, May 1 (AP)—The average price of middling 15-16ths-inch cotton at ten designated southern markets today was unchanged at 22.40 cents a pound. Average for the past 30 market days was 21.95. Middling ⅞ths-inch average was 21.12.

by America's mighty Pacific fleet and air force, reshuffled high sea commands. The Nipponese created an "overall-naval command" under Adm. Soemu Toyoda, chief of the combined fleet. A dozen other naval jobs were given to new commanders.

The Japanese Army in southern Burma—estimated at 30,000—was virtually cut off from escape eastward as British and Indian armored forces stormed Pegu and severed the main road and rail line leading to Thailand. Pegu is 50 miles north of Rangoon.

Rangoon To Fall Soon

The fall of Rangoon appeared near. Last official reports placed British armored spearheads only 36 miles from the big port city.

The British southward smash in Burma caused the Japanese to abandon 400 Allied prisoners, including 100 American airmen who were shot down in that area. The fleeing Japanese took a few Yank and British prisoners with them. The liberated American fliers were flown immediately to hospitals in India.

Heavy fighting continued in China's western Hunan province where the Japanese objective is the American air base at Chihkiang. The Chinese high command said the invaders suffered heavy casualties 75 miles east of Chihkiang and on the left flank 80 miles southeast. After the Chinese practically wiped out a Japanese force 25 miles northwest of Paoching, Nipponese reinforcements arrived and gained five miles from the original position.

El Paso Man Named Director Of Tech

AUSTIN, May 1. (AP)—Charles F. Ashcroft, Sulphur Springs business man, today was appointed to the board of Texas State College for Women, Denton, for a term expiring Jan. 10, 1951.

His appointment was sent to the Senate by Gov. Coke R. Stevenson with a request for confirmation. The Senate recently rejected the nomination of J. K. Brim, Sulphur Springs attorney, for the same position.

The governor also appointed Robert D. Price, El Paso dairy farmer, to the board of directors of Texas Technological college, Lubbock, for a term expiring Feb. 19, 1949. The appointment is to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Lee Pfluger of Eden.

NEW TECH DIRECTOR IS EL PASO LEADER

Robert B. Price, whose appointment to Texas Tech's directorate was announced today by Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, is one of the leading figures in the dairy industry in the Southwest. Age 51, he has been vice-president and general manager of the large Price dairies, which he owns with his brothers, for the past 14 years.

Born in Ohio, Price has been a resident of El Paso for 40 years. He is active in the Masonic bodies of the Border city; is a past president and active member of both the El Paso Chamber of Commerce and the El Paso Lions club; he also takes a leading part in El Paso Country club affairs and is a member of the board of directors of El Paso National bank.

He has important connection with state, area and national organizations of men in the dairying industry and is expected to be of especial help to the department of dairying at Tech.

Hitler Reported Slain In Berlin

shevism in Europe."

Neither Doenitz nor the Hamburg announcer made any mention of Heinrich Himmler, Gestapo chief who within the past few days had tried to surrender Germany to Britain and the United States but not to Russia, and had been rebuffed by the Western Allies. Yet Doenitz' pointing of the struggle against Russia was in line with Himmler's offer and Nazi propaganda designed to split the Allies.

Doenitz eulogized Hitler as a man who had dedicated his life to Germany and to warring against "Bolshevism," and who now had died a "hero's death."

A powerful ghost voice interrupted him, shouting, "this is a lie!"

The ghost voice continued to heckle throughout the Doenitz speech.

Questions immediately arose throughout the world whether Hitler actually died in battle against the Russians who now are near complete conquest of his ravaged capital, whether he died in some more ignominious manner, or whether he was dead at all.

British Skeptical

Members of Parliament and others expressed skepticism, fearing that perhaps the dramatic death broadcast was but an elaborate hoax.

At the British foreign office the report of Hitler's death was accepted as true but official sources refused to comment on the possible accuracy of the Hamburg account of how he died.

It was positive in any event that as soon as the European war was ended the Allies would demand that Hitler's body be produced to remove all doubt.

A spokesman for Scotland Yard declined to confirm or deny reports that British police or the secret service had dental records, measurements and fingerprints of Hitler already on file so that identification would be possible even long after death.

Russian Attitude

The Russians in the past have said repeatedly that they believed Hitler long ago had fled from Berlin and possibly left a "double" to "die in action" there to maintain Hitler's name as a Nazi martyr. The Germans have insisted many times daily, however, that he was in Berlin, personally directing its faltering defense.

The Germans furbished the report of Hitler's death tonight with all the trappings of drama at their command.

At 5:43 p. m. (2:43 p. m., CWT), the Hamburg radio instructed all Germans to keep tuned in for an important announcement. One minute later the renegade Englishman who throughout the war has broadcast Nazi propaganda as "Lord Haw Haw" reiterated the standby order.

Then, 43 minutes afterward, there was a ruffle of drums on the air and the unidentified announcer gave the report of Hitler's death and introduced Doenitz.

Three Days After Musso

The German announcement came just three days after the execution of Hitler's fallen Axis partner, Benito Mussolini, at the hands of Italian patriots in northern Italy.

The announcement came just as American tanks plunged into the Inn river village of Braunnau, Austria, where Adolf Hitler was born on April 20, 1889.

Doenitz, the tough, 53-year-old naval officer who made his reputation as chief of submarines and then was elevated to command of the dwindling German navy, made a brief, impassioned plea to the German people to continue the struggle, concluding, "If we do all that is in our power, God will not forsake us after so much suffering and sacrifice."

Special Order Of Day

Then the radio played the German national anthem, Deutschland Uber Alles, and the Nazi party anthem, the Horst Wessel Lied. There followed three minutes of silence, then a special order of the day was read from Doenitz to the German military services.

Repeating the gist of his speech to the whole people, it had the added line:

"For every single one of you the oath of loyalty to the fuehrer is transferred straight to my person as the fuehrer's appointed successor.

"German soldiers! Do your duty! The existence of our people is at stake!"

Oath Of Loyalty

Reference to the oath of loyalty apparently was an effort by Doenitz to hold German officers to the personal oath they had been forced to swear to Hitler, and from which his death might presumably release them to go their own chosen courses.

Immediately after the Doenitz order was concluded, Lord Haw Haw repeated the program in English. The Hamburg station then played a series of dirges.

Emergence of Doenitz as the proclaimed leader of what remains of Nazi Germany was puzzling to London observers. He never had been considered high enough in the Nazi hierarchy to be successor to Hitler, who at the start of the war had nominated Hermann Goering and Rudolf Hess as his first and second alternates.

Hess now is a prisoner in England, and Goering recently was declared by the German radio to have resigned because of heart trouble.

Himmler "Out"

If Doenitz' nomination by Hitler was bona fide, it was obvious that Himmler no longer was in a position to speak as the leader of all Germany, as he had made himself appear in his peace bid to Britain and America last week.

One theory put forward by a responsible but unofficial quarter here was that Himmler realized his own unpopularity and that Doenitz was considered more likely to succeed with the armed forces.

The news of the German broadcast was relayed promptly to Prime Minister Churchill, General Eisenhower and other high officials, but no comment was forthcoming from them.

Americans Asked Not To Celebrate

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — President Truman said today he hopes there will be no celebration when hostilities end in Europe "but a national understanding of the importance of the job which remains."

It was emphasized this did not mean the end of hostilities was necessarily imminent.

Jonathan Daniels, White House press secretary, called newsmen to his office and dictated this statement:

"The president authorized me to say that in event of a cessation of hostilities in Europe he will speak to America by radio to emphasize the necessity for thankfulness and for continuation by all Americans in the great war job which still lies before us.

"He hopes there will be no celebration, but a national understanding of the importance of the job which remains."

In London it was announced earlier in the day that a two-day public holiday had been authorized for victory in Europe.

Russian Front

ward its close, 22 miles to the west of the ravaged capital, Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First White Russian Army seized the great 13-way communications city of Brandenburg, capital of Berlin's own Brandenburg province.

Even as the Hamburg radio announced the death of Hitler, the Moscow radio said: "Berlin's last strongholds are falling."

Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky's Second White Russian Army tanks and cavalry, plunging across the Mecklenburg plains captured Demmin, Grimmen, Malchin, Waren and Wessenberg in a drive that knifed within 63 miles of Field Marshal Bernard Montgomery's British Second Army on the lower Elbe.

Brandenburg Taken

In the second order of the day Premier Stalin announced capture of the great city of Brandenburg, capital of Brandenburg province and 22 miles west of Berlin. The City fell to Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First White Russian Army troops, as the Moscow radio declared: "The last strongholds in Berlin are falling."

In Berlin, dozens of new suicides were reported by Soviet war correspondents as the Red Army closed in on the Tiergarten fortress with Nazi officers—actors to the last—draping themselves over machine guns and wrapping themselves in Nazi flags.

Tons of Russian explosives tore into the Tiergarten while Russian tanks, advancing behind curtain fire from mortars, rockets and light artillery, drove the Germans from one building after another in the area of the Wilhelmstrasse and Unter Den Linden.

Bitter Fighting

In hand-to-hand fighting, the Russians were reported by the Hamburg radio to have swept south from the Reichstag to Brandenburg gate at the western end of Unter Den Linden, and only a few hundred yards north of the intersection of Unter Den Linden and Friedrichstrasse a giant battle raged for Friedrichstrasse rail station.

The Russian-held area of Berlin—more than 95 per cent of the entire capital—was bedecked with Red banners as the Soviet troops, relentlessly pursuing their grim conquest of the capital, celebrated May day.

The Germans admitted the relief attacks from outside Berlin — which Propaganda Minister Goebbels promised would reinforce the doomed garrison—had failed and for the first time since the encirclement of the city the Nazi high command made no claim that supplies and parachute troops had been dropped to bolster the Germans' suicidal stand.

A Cheer For Pat Neff!

He "Speaks Out" At Houston!

ALTHOUGH Pat. M. Neff, president of Baylor university, Waco, undoubtedly was making a bid for support of more conservative parents of youngsters of college age, his recent remarks in a public speech at Houston are worthy of attention—and applause.

Said Baylor's President Neff:

"If and when it is decided that the students of Baylor university should run the school, it will have to look for another president;"

And:

"There are no 'isms' at Baylor, either on the faculty, or among the students."

The former governor was, of course, taking a deserved crack at the University of Texas, where both student body and faculty "isms" apparently run rampant and where students are permitted to cut classes at will to shout and parade while carrying signs insulting and criticizing constituted authorities of the institution. Yet despite the fact that Baylor's president was attempting to "cash in" on the university's recent "Rainey mess" it must be admitted there is much to commend in his words and attitude.

Too much "monkey business" is carried on at too many institutions of higher learning under the cloak of "academic freedom." Campus discipline in too many colleges and universities has been supplanted by harum-scarum activities of student organizations led by inexperienced youngsters and encouraged by trouble-makers among "free thinkers" on the faculties.

If everything at Baylor is like President Neff claims, other colleges and universities of Texas will do well to emulate the example of that venerable Baptist institution.

Oil Supplies Nearer Japan

BEFORE long the Allies may overcome one of the major handicaps in mounting an all-out assault on Japan. This is the necessity of carrying oil to fuel warships, planes, tanks and trucks half-way around the world.

At present, virtually all of the oil and gasoline used in the Pacific war must be carried thousands of miles by tanker. British forces are probably supplied by the oil fields of the Middle East. American forces must get their fuel from wells in the United States, or in South America. This entails a long haul.

But in recent days the British have recaptured the main oil fields in Burma and this should soon prove to be a tremendous asset, particularly since a land route to the interior of China now is open. Before long it may be possible to run a pipeline across the mountains and relieve an acute shortage of fuel which has severely limited the number of American planes that could be operated from Chinese air fields.

And General MacArthur's forces are now in a position to begin a campaign for the recapture of some of the richest oil fields in the world—those in the Dutch East Indies. These petroleum reserves were one of the main objectives of the Japanese three years ago. When they are again in Allied hands they should simplify immensely the supply problem in the Far East.

It may be taken for granted that many of the wells and refineries have been badly damaged, either by the Japanese or by American air attacks. But the oil will still be there—in some cases of such high quality and so close to the surface that it can be taken out with little drilling and used with little processing.

Boon For Europe's Starving

THERE is much hope for the rebuilding of wrecked bodies in starved Europe from discoveries now being rushed from American laboratories to liberated countries. These body-builders are called amino acids.

Their usefulness lies in the chemical fact that they are elementary building-blocks of human tissue, blood and the body chemicals which build tissue. They are made of proteins.

Normally the human gets all his proteins from his daily diet. Meat, dairy products, eggs, beans and fish are all protein foods. When people have been starved, they reach a point where the human body no longer can readily assimilate protein foods. That's where the amino acids step in. They are in effect predigested food made from wheat gluten, dried beef, dried skim milk and yeast.

Fed to a starved man, they win his appetite back for him so that he can again digest protein foods and return to health. Prisoners of war, starved laborers and millions in war-ravaged Europe are in a weakened condition. Europe may be plagued by poor health for decades unless the amino acids live up to expectations.

Research men believe they are second only to blood plasma and penicillin as a war contribution to human health. If this belief is upheld by actual use of amino acids upon many humans over a lengthy period of time they will justly be hailed as a great boon to mankind.

A Song To Remember

THE LONG NIGHT

The night was long and it was not yet over. The concert at the home of the Duchess of Orleans seemed hours away.

Frederic could not sleep. He had sent a message to Louis Pleyel and expected him to arrive at any moment.

The room was dark except for a single lighted candle on the table. Frederic peered out the window. Then he came back into the room and sat at the table on which was the package Jozef Elsner had left at the home of the Duchess of Orleans.

—Dirt—earth—Polish earth.

He felt it. He sifted it through his fingers. He stared at it. He stirred his fingers in it.

He felt it. He sifted it through his fingers. He stared at it. He stirred his fingers in it.

—"And when that day comes, Frederic, you will remember that Jozef Elsner said it. I don't think so. No, Frederic. I have the knowledge. Now I don't say it will happen tomorrow, or even next week. Nothing like that. I only say, Frederic, it will happen, because it must happen, and whatever must happen never fails to happen," and some day they would straighten their bent bodies, not to bow again. And he had heard then with his inward ear their all but broken spirit burst into thunderous music—a song of freedom. It was again beginning to ring in his ears—a song to remember—a song to be heard some day throughout all Poland, perhaps even throughout the world—a rising chorus of free men!

A servant in nightdress looked in at the door. He was followed by Louis Pleyel. The servant went out.

"—Forgive me, Louis, for asking you to come here at this hour—"

"Something wrong?"

"—Louis, do they still ask for me to appear in London—in Rome—in Vienna?"

"Frederic, what is it?"

"—Do they ask it, Louis?"

"Yes, of course."

"—Louis, I have changed my mind. Yes, I have changed it. Don't stare like that—"

"Have you talked it over with George?"

"—Louis, listen to me. You are to arrange a tour—"

"Well, Frederic, that's easily done, of course, but George—"

"—But you are to make it pay, Louis. You know how to do that. You are to squeeze every last franc out of them. Yes, every last franc—

"—And Louis, the money—all the money—every franc of it—is to be sent to Professor Elsner. He will know what to do—"

The night was long and it was not yet over. The concert at the home of the Dutchess of Orleans seemed hours away but when Jozef Elsner arrived home, Mlle. Gladkowska was still waiting.

"—Tch, tch. Late — very late, my dear. It was very hard to tear myself away. We talked and talked—and the time passed and before we realized it—"

"He will do something?"

"—Frederic? Of course. Yes, anything. That's what he said, and when Frederic says it— Well, that's all there is to it."

"What will he do?"

"—Umm. Well, concerts would of course be the answer. He looks better, just as I've said—but, to speak frankly, I doubt whether concerts are possible. But that's what we talked about—the whole time, and he will consider it—"

"Will he?"

"—That's what I said! And he will—if it's humanly possible—" Jozef Elsner peered at her. He saw plain enough that Mlle. Gladkowska was not impressed. "All right, you've made up your mind! I'm a liar! Eh? Go back to Poland! Slander him! Tell them all the lies you can think of! Don't listen to me—everything I say is a lie. I only swear to you—on my honor—Frederic is Frederic—"

The door flung open to admit a breathless Louis Pleyel.

"—Louis!"

Louis Pleyel pumped for breath. When he finally caught it, he said: "I have just come from Frederic—"

"—Eh?"

"Elsner! Jozef! He has asked me to arrange a tour!"

Jozef Elsner said nothing. He did not even seem surprised.

"—Elsner; did you hear what I said! Frederic, on concert tour! He will make a million francs!"

"What's so amazing about that, Louis?" Jozef Elsner stretched his neck out of his collar. "—Tch, tch—I was just telling this young lady—I was certain he would!"

The night was long and it was not yet over.

Screeching to be heard over the vibrant Polonaise that issued from the keyboard the Witch of Nohant was trying to reach the Chopin she had known but only a few hourse before.

"Not strength, Frederic! Neither strength nor high purpose. No. I tell you, my blessed demon, it is weakness of the softest kind. To give your life over into the hands of others! Frederic! Stop it! Who knows this human jungle better than I? Who ever fought more bitterly to survive in it? But I survived! Yes! They didn't kill me off—and they won't kill you off—but listen to me—for God's sake—listen!

"—Rule your own life, Frederic! Live for yourself alone, as I did—and you will be rewarded—with love—with affection—with fame. Close your eyes to weaklings — don't let them draw you in! Forbid it, Frederic! Forbid it!"

Louder and louder the theme of the Polonaise. And louder still and ever louder—

"—Stop it! Stop it!"

Sounds! Sounds! Fearful, awful bursting sounds to break all bounds—to build and build—

"Stop it! You damned idiot, stop it!"

But the spell of the Witch of Nohant was broken.

Looking At Life - - - - - - By Erich Brandeis

PROBABLY I shouldn't tell you about this letter which I received from a reader in Baltimore today.

It may have a bad influence on you, and, as my editor in chief has told me, my function is to show you the way to bigger and better things.

And yet, I enjoyed the letter. It's Spring, you know, and who hasn't felt lazy and restless in Spring?

Here is part of the letter:

"I have been married to the same wife for about 28 years. I have had 37 jobs in that time.

"I work for a while. Then I knock off, read, write, commune with nature and do all the things I want to. When my money runs low, I hunt another job.

"I have had a most interesting life. I am 51 years of age now and am getting a bit concerned about the future. Still, as I look back, I am sure I would have gone completely crazy if I had had to look at one office for even as long as ten years. So I have no regrets.

"As I see it, it is idiotic for people to work the long hours that most of them do year after year. I know that if all the duplication of effort and screwy things such as wars were eliminated everybody could live swell without working more than 30 hours a week, and for not more than ten months in a year."

BRANDEIS

Somehow this letter brought back to me an incident that happened many years ago when I was a young reporter in San Francisco.

Thomas Edison, Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone were out there on a visit and I was assigned to cover the trip. The three celebrities took a journey over to Santa Rosa to have luncheon with Luther Burbank, the plant wizard.

A public reception was scheduled in front of the county courthouse and all the local dignitaries had assembled on the steps.

As the three visitors walked up the steps one of the police officers noticed a dilapidated-looking bum fast asleep on one of the steps, his back leaning against the railing.

He was about to awaken the bum and shoo him away.

Thomas Edison stopped the officer.

"Leave him alone" he said. "That fellow is happier than I am right now."

* * *

ACCORDING to all the rules I should call my Baltimore friend a bum and condemn him for his laziness, his lack of ambition, his imprudence.

On second thought I shan't.

Maybe he is happier than we are.

Truman "In Command"

New President Shows Sturdiness

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

PRESIDENT Truman has shown a willingness to "talk turkey" to Stalin several times since he took over the backstage management of the San Francisco conference. But an unpublished anecdote involving punishment of Axis war criminals depicts the new Chief Executive at his American sturdiest.

On April 2, Rep. Cecil King of Los Angeles introduced a resolution committing Congress and the government to an extremely stern policy toward international lawbreakers. It proposed that the United States pursue and drag them to trial without regard to questions of sovereignty or extradition treaties, and to use force if necessary.

Sol Bloom, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs committee, opposed this. He was backing a milder proposition sponsored by Rep. Emanuel Celler of Brooklyn. Under the Brooklynite's scheme, the President would have appointed a special unit to cooperate with the United Nations War Crimes commission now sitting in London. Members suspect that had this idea been adopted it would have meant a free ride to Europe for Bloom or Celler.

TUCKER

Secretary Edward R. Stettinius, jr., and Secretaries Grew and Acheson, gave quick support to the Celler-Bloom suggestion, because they feel it advisable to keep in the good graces of the Foreign Affairs chairman.

They raised serious objection to King's resolution. The State department people point out that such a forcefully worded proposal would make us appear as hard-boiled as the rest. They took the position that the United States should not assert itself so forthrightly. Delicate matters, they explained, should be dealt with more quietly and politely behind the scenes at the Golden Gate conference.

When State's fears were laid before President Truman, he dismissed them and gave his complete approval to Congressman King's expression of Capitol Hill sentiment. Answering the statement that this country must not be as realistic as Russia, he asked, in effect, "Why not?"

The Presidential attitude meant no disrespect to our great Ally or to Stalin's representative at San Francisco, Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov. The two hit it off extremely well in their White House conversations. But the fact is that Mr. Truman was advised by Roosevelt aides such as Harry Hopkins and James F. Byrnes that Uncle Joe appreciates men and nations that stand up for their rights. He detests wishy-washy folks.

So the King resolution was approved unanimously by Foreign Affairs and reported to the House.

PALESTINE: Celler, however, won a minor success in negotiations with the State department on the question of postwar disposition of the Jewish homeland—Palestine. This problem will not loom so large on the San Francisco stage as the Polish difficulty—it may not even be discussed publicly—but it has serious international implications.

The Brooklyn member, who is Jewish, protested bitterly the appointment of two American diplomats to key positions in the Middle East. In conference with Grew and Acheson, he charged that Harry Hopkins, newly named economic adviser to Cairo, and Wallace Murray, new minister to Iran, favored the Arabs over the Jews.

The State department men denied that their Middle Eastern aides are Arabphiles. But they promised that, if possible, they would find other jobs for them and appoint substitutes whose impartiality cannot be questioned. So far, however, Hopkins and Murray are still getting in Mr. Celler's hair.

American Zionists insist that Britain shall not be given the trusteeship of Palestine in any final settlement. They would like their ancestral land to be placed under the control of England, the United States and Russia. London, however, wants to maintain a sole and firm mandate in this vital area—the bridge between Europe and Asia. With Moscow enjoying hegemony over the Balkans and possibly Turkey, 10 Downing Street insists on postwar domination in Palestine, Iran, Iraq and Egypt.

These knotty international questions may not be raised openly at San Francisco as the Polish situation has been; but they will have to be faced by the peacemakers.

POWERS: President Truman's overruling of the State department in the Bloom-Celler-Grew controversy reveals what many Washington observers had expected would happen—namely, that the San Francisco conference would be directed and stage-managed by three state heads in the capital, London and Moscow.

The Russians have a ship in the Golden Gate harbor. It has direct wireless communication lines with the Kremlin and contact with the tenth floor of the St. Francis hotel, where the Soviet delegation is lodged. It is obvious that Molotoff will not make a move or a decision without prior consultation with Stalin. He has no plenipotentiary powers.

The White Huse has a similar communications tie-up with Secretary Stettinius, and through him with the members of the American delegation. Unless Republican members—Sen. Arthur Vandenberg and Commander Harold Stassen—feel compelled to kick over the traces on vital questions, our group will simply serve as Administration spokesmen.

WINNING THE WAR
By Albert Leman

CZECHOSLOVAKIA, first victim of Nazi aggression after the Munich sellout, is on the verge of liberation by Americans on the west and Russians on the east.

One more Swastika citadel is falling. Replete with munitions plants, excellent transportation and agricultural hinterlands and girt by mountains and the "Little Maginot Line" of forts, the country was to have been the core of the Nazis last-ditch stand.

LEMAN

"The master of Bohemia," declared Bismarck, "is the master of Europe." The Iron Chancellor was right. Patton will hold it; already his soldiers are driving across the Bohemian frontier.

Czechoslovakian officials, passing through New York en route to the San Francisco conference, and underground agents report that Hitler's relentless attitude to President Benes and his countrymen is fully as vicious as it was when the Czechs first defied the then mighty dictator.

Even in these last days firing squads are blotting out patriots. Refined cruelties—shocks by electric currents, tongues pricked by needles and other tortures reserved for those Der Fuehrer hates most—are daily occurrences.

SABOTAGE: But the patriots are striking back by practicing sabotage and with guerrilla warfare. The erasure of Lidice and the wave of reprisals that followed the assassination of 'Hangman' Heydrich did not stop them. Now, with freedom in sight, they are bending every effort to destroy the Germans.

One form of sabotage, "untraceable agents," is performed so cleverly that the Nazis can never be quite sure whether the acts are intentional or accidents.

A train is derailed, and loose screws are found afterward. An axle breaks; it was improperly greased. A telegram in code is delivered to a German official; a few letters or figures have been carelessly misplaced, ruining the cipher. After much delay, a long distance telephone call is put through; the exasperated speaker finds he has the wrong number.

Holes are drilled in the bottoms of oil cars and sealed; as the train starts the plugs are removed and precious gasoline drips away before the leak is detected. Twenty million rounds of small arms ammunition were rejected by inspectors at the Vlasim munitions factory; the workers said the artificial light made it impossible for them to distinguish between yellow and white fillings.

Best Aspects Of Conference Described As:

Democracy And Free Expression

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO. — There are two aspects of this United Nations conference that are most encouraging.

They become manifest now that the political maneuvers are mostly out o' the way—though not entirely — and the conference is settling down, in the committee stage, to its serious business of drafting a charter for an international security organization.

STOKES

One is the show of a democratic spirit in the arrangement whereby at regular plenary sessions the representatives of all of the 46 nations here, small as well as large, are given an opportunity to express their views freely—and some of them are speaking out plainly and with good suggestions.

The other is the flexibility in the approach to framing of a constitution, as it might be called, for the organization.

* * *

No Set Rules

This latter works out in two important ways.

In the first place, while there is a broad outline on which to begin work in the Dumbarton Oaks proposals, it is not hard and fast and rigid. Scores of amendments are being offered for consideration from including the United States, designed to improve and strenghten the organization in various ways.

Russian Foreign Commissar Molotov phrased this flexibility rather neatly. When asked at a press conference whether Russia favored any changes in Dumbarton Oaks he replied that it did, otherwise there would be no use in holding this conference.

IN the second place, there is a general recognition here that the charter which comes from this meeting is not in any way final, but the basis of a growing and changing world government, somewhat after the ideal of our own Constitution. It has been amended and re-interpreted through the years to meet changing political, economic and social conditions in a nation that started with 13 states.

This process of growth and adaptation is a peculiarly Anglo-Saxon conception, as was pointed out by British Foreign Minister Eden, speaking from the tradition of the development of British democracy and institutions over hundreds of years.

It is the hope that, in time, the necessarily loose and sketchy structure to be created here may be transformed gradually into a real world government. This ideal has been raised often and effectively by one forward-looking young man here, a member of the American delegation, Commander Harold Stassen of Minnesota. Though, unfortunately, it seems too bold to be worked out yet at this stage of international political development.

Senators Offer Amendments

The framework here can be the eventual basis for such a world government. Unless it is, then this conference will not have fully achieved its purpose. It would seem that something more closely approximating the Stassen concept could be devised here, especially after one try 25 years ago and two world wars. But it is still difficult for the politician or diplomat to put himself in a foxhole, though it must be said that there is a deep realization of the need to avert another such war.

Two amendments prepared by the American delegation look toward growth and change. One by Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) would give the general assembly of the security organization the right to review treaties and commitments made by United Nations members during the war. The other, by Senator Connally (D., Tex.), would provide machinery for amendment to the basic constitution on petition of seven members of the security council, the proposed top governing body, and three-fourths of the assembly, in which every nation is represented.

GENERALLY the medium and smaller nations here will endeavor to get more power for the assembly. They want to make it more than "a debating society." Some, too, are demanding that the security council be enlarged to give them more representation. Under the Dumbarton Oaks plan it would consist of 11 members; the five big powers, Great Britain, Russia, France, China and the United States, as permanent members, with six other rotating members from smaller nations.

There is also some dissatisfaction here among the smaller nations over the Yalta voting agreement, which requires unanimous agreement by the five permanent members of the security council for action against an aggressor. Thus one of the big nations could veto such action. But it seems unlikely that this can be changed.

Treasury After Black Market Tax Evaders

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — Twenty-five hundred cases of reported income tax evasion by black marketeers and others are now under investigation, the Treasury announced tonight.

War contractors "figure in several large cases," it was stated. No indictments were announced, but criminal prosecutions and assessments of millions of dollars in taxes and penalties are expected to grow out of the anti-evasion drive being conducted by 600 Treasury agents.

Cases involving a manufacturing concern, a wholesaler, and a jewelry store were described without naming the companies. One of the cases was said to involve $2,000,000 in individual taxes and penalties.

Hitler's Death, If True, May Add To Confusion Among Nazi Hordes

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

The death of Adolf Hitler—if he is dead—at first glance only adds to the confusion in Germany.

It would remove the one voice that could conceivably have ended all hostilities promptly by a general surrender order to German troops in all categories. But that Hitler would ever have issued such an order, or surrendered himself to the fate that certainly awaited him, is beyond belief.

SIMPSON

It follows, should his death be confirmed, that responsibility for surrender of their troops to save useless slaughter must fall on German field commanders wherever they are. And there are hints that just that course was strongly indicated to them in Anglo-American rejection of recent Nazi proposals for surrender negotiations.

Follow Italy's Lead

It seems logical to expect what is left of the wehrmacht to deal with Russian and Allied commanders in the field as the Nazi-Fascist leaders in western Italy have done in ordering their Ligurian forces to lay down their arms.

The Hamburg radio report of Hitler's death has another angle, however. It put forward Admiral Doenitz, ranking naval officer, as Hitler's designated successor.

It is in the coastal sector in the Hamburg area that the most formidable Nazi resistance is being encountered by Russian and Allied troops. Presumably German naval personnel form a considerable part of the garrison of the "northern redoubt" into which United Nations troops are driving relentlessly. There is no German Navy any longer to be manned.

Friction Indicated

Selection of a naval member of the Nazi high command to succeed Hitler might indicate sharp friction between the Nazis and the German Army professionals over the course to be taken in this hour of supreme crisis for Germany.

There have been unconfirmed reports that Hitler and his generals were desperately at odds, the latter urging unconditional surrender. If that is the case, the Hamburg version of Hitler's death and of his having entrusted national leadership to a naval man might cause civil war in parts of Germany still in German hands and add confusion rather than expedite the end of fighting.

New Phase In Pacific

While world attention still focused on the confused war scene in Europe, however, there were developments beyond the Pacific indictating that the campaign against Japan is just entering a new phase. British occupation of Pagu, 50 miles above Rangoon, was laconically reported from Calcutta.

Its seizure isolated Japanese forces in western Burma, cutting their last escape corridor leading into Thailand and French Indo-China. It also foreshadowed recapture of Rangoon, main Burmese Bay of Bengal port, before the wet monsoon season. That would lay the groundwork for beginning a campaign by the Southeastern Asia command to reclaim the Malay peninsula and Singapore.

Joe Teague Funeral Set At Slaton Today

SLATON, May 2. (Special) — Funeral services for Joe H. Teague, 72, a resident of Slaton for 34 years and mayor of the city for three terms, who died early Tuesday at his home, will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church.

Rev. W. F. Ferguson, pastor, will officiate; and Rev. Luther Kirk, pastor of the First Methodist church, will assist. Burial will be in Slaton cemetery, Williams Funeral home announced.

The Teague family moved to West Texas from Anderson, Tex., in 1906 and to Slaton in 1911. He served as the city's first marshal, was a member of the city commission for several years and was elected mayor for the first time in 1939.

Teague and his son, Joe H. Teague, jr., have been in the drug business here for many years.

He was born in Anderson March 15, 1873. He married Miss Myrtle Smith of Anderson in 1891.

Other survivors are his wife; three grandchildren, Myrtle Teague of Slaton, Mrs. Courtney Sanders of Corpus Christi and Joe Teague III, a Marine who served overseas for two years and is now stationed at Santa Barbara, Calif. Two great granddaughters also survive.

Teague, who had been in bad health the last year, was unable to serve out his last term of office as mayor and L. B. Wootton was appointed to fill out the unexpired term. Wootton recently was elected to the office.

Responsibilities Of Parents Emphasized

Urging parents to accept their responsibilities, G. M. Unger, executive of the South Plains Boy Scout council, declared "You can't be a dad by proxy," when he addressed members of the Lubbock Lions club at regular luncheon meeting held Tuesday in Hilton hotel.

"Let's tie in with our boys and girls . . . if you lose them when they're young, you've lost them forever," Unger continued . . . . "Do a little along the line of carrying out responsibilities of family life.

"The majority of juvenile delinquency cases, we are told, come from the middle class of better homes. . . . Every boy or girl is inhibited with basic urges and these urges don't fit a lot of the man-made laws. . . . A youngster from nine to 14 years old lives in his or her imagination. . . . The things they play are not commonplace. They range into the romantic and adventurous."

Unger declared Scouting is turning more and more to ideals and regarding this phase, he pleaded for more practice of tolerance on the part of parents.

He was introduced by Bob Glass, who with P. H. Polk, was co-chairman of the day's program. Dr. F. A. Green of Crosbyton, S/Sgt. James H. Wood, stationed at Meridian, Miss., and Lt. Wm. C. Jones, who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Jones, were guests at the luncheon.

Output Of Planes To Be Decreased

DALLAS, May 1. (AP)—North American Aviation, Inc., said today the reduction in output at its Texas plant of P-51 Mustangs and AT-6 trainers was contained in advanced planning schedules given the company by the Army Air forces April 16.

The company said in a statement that shortly after the schedules go into effect there will be "some reduction in personnel because C82 production cannot absorb all displaced workers for several months. It is estimated that production personnel will be reduced by about 2,000."

North American has contracts for production of the C82 cargo plane at its Texas plant, and company officials said the schedules called for sharply increased output of C-82's for a long period of time. The statement said that the company was recruiting tooling personnel for the C82, but not now hiring any production workers.

A story from Washington today said reduction in output of P-51's would be brought about by a tapering off at the Dallas, Tex., plant of North American until April, 1946, when the fighter will go out of production there, and that the AT-6 would go out of production at Dallas by the end of the year.

North American said that there would be a layoff of 400 production workers at its Texas plant tomorrow because of the end of manufacture there of B-25 gun nose units.

FEC Sells 7,000,000 Pounds Of Mohair

WASHINGTON, May 1. (AP)—Sale by the Foreign Economics administration of approximately 7,000,000 pounds of turkish mohair was disclosed today by Rep. Fisher (D-Tex).

The fiber was brought over a year ago by the government under a "preclusive purchase" program, Fisher told a reporter, to keep it out of the hands of the Germans. The FEA sold the mohair at 35 cents per pound to five American buying firms, he said, adding that it cost the FEA about $1 per pound.

Transfer Of Shares Approved By SEC

PHILADELPHIA, May 1. (AP) — American Power & Light company's transfer to Texas Power and Light company, Dallas, of 1,500,000 shares of Texas' no par value common stock was approved today by the securities and exchange commission.

Texas is restating the remaining 2,500,000 outstanding common shares, owned by American, at $6 per share. It will cancel the 1,500,000 shares, thereby creating a capital surplus of $5,000,000.

TRADE PROGRAM FLAYED

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — Representatives of state agriculture administrators told Congress today the reciprocal trade program has been injurious to agriculture. They said they wanted trade dealings with other nations to assure parity prices for American farmers.
