Fire Destroys Two Buildings West Of City

Ashes and burned out hulls of pieces of metal equipment are all that remain today of a service station and warehouse building which burned just outside the west city limits of Snyder yesterday afternoon.

Cause of the fire is unknown, D. A. Porter, fire chief, said.

"For some reason the fire alarm was called in late, and the warehouse and service station both were completely afire when fire fighting equipment arrived at the scene," Porter said.

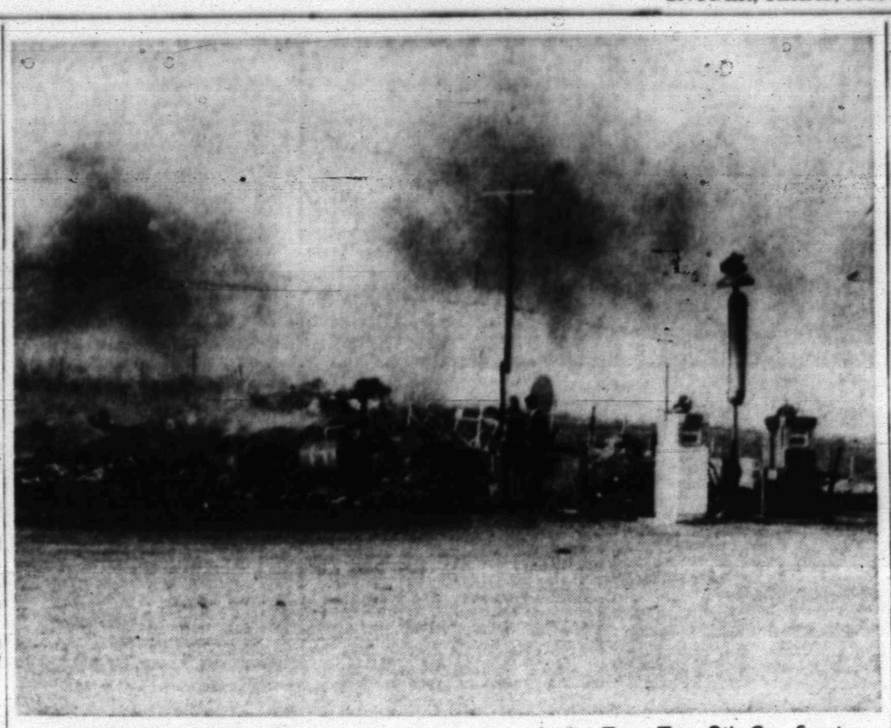

The amount of loss has not been determined.

Owners of the warehouse and station are the Southwest Co. Agency, and the station was operated by the Tem Tex Oil Co., with H. H. Templeton, as operator.

The warehouse was filled with assorted oil field materials, all of which were destroyed.

"Both buildings are a total loss, Porter said.

Firemen put the fire out yesterday afternoon, but were called back about midnight last night to put out a second fire which caught from smoldering embers in the pile of oil field materials.

Girl's Fate Big Worry To France

PARIS (AP)—The fate of a condemned Moslem girl, Djamila Bouhired, 21, is giving the conscience of France a workout.

She was sentenced to death last July by a military court which convicted her of complicity in two terrorist bombings in Algiers that killed one person and wounded 40.

Her sentence to the guillotine is now pending before the French Clemency Board in Paris. In France women are traditionally not subject to the death sentence. The last one was executed 15 years ago.

Djamila's defenders have not attempted to make a case of whether she was guilty of the crimes charged, which she denied. Rather, the conduct of her trial and her treatment beforehand have come under attack.

It was charged she was held by paratroops for two weeks before being handed over to judicial authorities. French paratroopers have been charged with perpetrating torture on some of their prisoners. The government has denied any widespread torture in Algeria but independent investigations have turned up some cases.

SPOT MUSE

EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE was the report on the city-county fire truck's new pump following its test yesterday when it was employed in fighting a service station fire here. D. A. Porter, fire chief, said the new pump gave better water pressure and more water than the old pump, and should afford firemen a more effective piece of equipment for fighting fires of all types, especially oil and chemical fires. However, the alarm on yesterday's fire was received so long after the fire started that the buildings were consumed by fire.

Shah Still Seeks Heir

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The Shah of Iran conferred with his Royal Court Council today to see if it can help him find an heir to his throne without divorcing his childless Queen.

The 38-year-old monarch also heard a report from his special envoy to Queen Soraya. She is reported to prefer a divorce rather than allowing her husband to take an additional wife as permitted by Moslem law.

The green-eyed queen is in West Germany, where her father is the Iranian ambassador.

Educated in Europe, Soraya apparently would not accept the Shah's taking another wife, but it is not known what she suggested instead. The Shah divorced his first wife in 1948 after fathering one daughter, who is ineligible to ascend the throne.

Nickel-Cobalt Plant Is Due By Next Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Freeport Sulphur Co.'s nickel-cobalt project, which will use ores mined and concentrated in Cuba and refined in Louisiana, will be ready for operation in the summer of 1959, the company's annual report said. The operation involves a 119 million dollar investment.

Group Asks Tentative Plans On Youth Center

Half a six-person special delegation which appeared before the county commissioners court this morning walked out before their interview ended.

Appearing before the court were some members of a steering committee proposing a $145,000 recreation center for youths in Towle Memorial Park. Petitions have been turned in asking a bond election, but the court had not yet called the election today. It was awaiting the arrival of Charley Smith of First Southwest Co. the county's fiscal agent, before considering the bond election.

The special delegation this morning was composed of Mrs. Frank LaFeuver, Mrs. Bill Atwood, Mrs. Theo Lamb, Bill Atwood, W. W. Greif, and Bill Cantrell of the Lubbock arthitectural-engineering firm of Cantrell, Burns & Whitaker.

Cantrell told the court that his firm was interested in working for the county on the recreation center, if the bond election carries, and that it would employ Grief, local engineer, as its consulting resident engineer there at no extra cost to the county. The firm's fee would be five per cent of the cost of the project, he said.

He said he had met with the steering committee and that it desires to have some kind of sketches or drawings to show taxpayers what they have in mind in the way of a recreation center before the bond election is held. His firm, he said, would do that work at no cost if the bond election failed, provided the commissioners court would "Tentatively" employ the firm, agreeing that the firm would be hired for the project if the bond election carries.

The majority of the court, although no action was taken, indicated reluctance to employ an architect for a project not yet approved. One of the commissioners, Doyle Parmer, said the court had done similarly once and that he had promised himself then that he would never favor such again. Another, Cullen Toombs, said the court at one time found it did not want an architect it had hired in that manner but found it was too late. T. B. Knight, also a commissioner, said there are residents against the recreation center proposal and that the court might get criticism if it hired an architect now, that some might interpret that as endorsement of the project by the court.

Members of the delegation said they believed the proposal would stand a better chance if there were more specific information on what was planned for the recreation center. "All we're asking is cooperation," Mrs. Lamb said. All but Atwood, Cantrell, and Greif walked out of the meeting. Those three stayed and discussed the proposal further. Atwood said there

Yarbrough Says Action 'Surprise'

Snyder schools were in operation today under supervision of M. E. Stanfield, assistant superintendent, following board action Saturday night ousting Supt. C. L. Yarbrough and Business Manager A. T. Nicholas.

The board, in an unannounced meeting, voted in a split decision to purchase the remainder of the contracts of both Yarbrough and Nicholas. Yarbrough's contract extends to July 1, 1959, while that of Nicholas expires next Sept. 1.

Meanwhile, Yarbrough, who was out of town over the weekend, returned to his home here Sunday.

He said he was notified of the action by telephone Saturday night while he was in Lindale visiting his mother. He said the action came as a "complete surprise" to him.

Yarbrough said he felt that Snyder had a "first class" school system and that much progress had been made during his administration.

He said noboby had asked him for his resignation, or indicated that the board planned to take action on his contract.

Board members told the Daily News Saturday night that both Yarbrough and Nicholas had been "given an opportunity to resign."

In response to a direct question board members said both Yarbrough and Nicholas knew that such action was under consideration.

Yarbrough said the last expression he heard from the board conserning school administration was last Thursday when the board called a meeting of teachers to discuss policy. At that time, Dr. Wilton N. Jones told the faculty that the board was well pleased with the administrative staff. Dr. Jones was out of town when the board met Saturday night.

Yarbrough said he had been given no reason for the action.

"I think Snyder has a first class school system, and I had every reason to believe that the board would give me a hearing before taking any action on my contract," he concluded.

Yarbrough said he asked for a hearing Saturday night when he was called and informed about the board meeting.

In announcing the action to press and radio representatives late Saturday night, board members said the action was taken because a majority of the board did not agree with Yarbrough and Nicholas on methods of operation of the school system.

Continental Gets Route

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) examiner recommended today that Continental Air Lines be granted a hotly contested route between Dallas and the West Coast.

Examiner Thomas Wrenn said Continental should be given the route in competition with American Airlines, the only carrier now operating between the Texas city and the Coast.

His ruling turned down petitions of Braniff, California Eastern Aviation, Delta, Eastern Air Lines, National Airlines and Western Air Lines.

If exceptions are filed within 15 days as expected, the final decision will be made by the board itself.

Solon Says Natural Gas Bill 'Dead' For Current Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. O'Hara (R-Minn), co-sponsor of legislation to ease federal controls over natural gas producers, said today the gas bill is dead for this year.

It is almost certain, O'Hara said, that Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) will not even call it up for a House vote.

Proponents of the legislation were confident earlier this year they had the votes to assure passage by a narrow margin in the House and by a more comfortable spread in the Senate.

But, O'Hara said, a letter sent out in January by Jack Porter, Republican national committeeman for Texas, ended any chance of action on the bill this year.

Porter, soliciting guest contributions to a Houston fund-raising dinner at which Republican House Leader Martin (Mass) spoke, said the gas bill needed strong Republican support. A wave of protest arose after the letter was published, and the Republican National Committee, with White House support, said it would not accept any funds raised by the dinner.

O'Hara said he sponsored the gas bill along with Rep. Harris (D-Ark) because he believed in the principles of the legislation, even though he came from a gas-consuming rather than gas-producing state.

O'Hara said he believed the measure would assure more ample supplies of natural gas and, as a result, would tend in the long run to keep down the price to the consumer.

"It is obvious that under the present situation where gas wells are put under public utility statutes, many independent gas producers will sell gas locally, thus cutting the supply to distant points," he said.

Opponents of the bill contend its passage would result in increased costs to the consumer.

O'Hara said he believes that if the Porter letter had not been written the gas bill would have been passed by Congress ths year and been signed by President Eisenhower.

Eisenhower vetoed the 1956 version because of what he said was arrogant lobbying but said he favored the principle of the measure.

O'Hara said there has been an increasing demand for gas in Minnesota and he believes his measure would give greater assurance of larger supplies in the future.

Johnson Calls For Action, Not Credit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) testified today for an accelerated federal public works program and declared, "what we want is action—not credit, not an issue."

"We want to get rid of the issue by putting people on jobs," the Senate Democratic leader said.

Johnson was the first witness at a public works committee hearing on a resolution he and 65 other senators are sponsoring to put the Senate on record as favoring a speedup of civil public works projects.

The Texan said the resolution covered about four billion dollars already appropriated for such projects as dams, river and harbor improvements, and public buildings.

Johnson noted that President Eisenhower on Saturday "announced some steps to pump new vigor into the economy."

"I believe most of us would endorse those steps—insofar as they have been explained up to this point," he said. "In return, I believe we should let him know that we endorse the fullest practicable use of his resources to battle unemployment."

Eisenhower announced that some already appropriated public works funds would be released. He also called for extension of the period during which workers are eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said a special message dealing with extension of unemployment insurance benefits probably will go to Congress about midweek.

Hagerty replied "I just don't know" when asked whether that program will require action by state legislatures, in addition to approval by Congress.

He added that no dates have been fixed for sending other phases of the Eisenhower anti-recession program to Congress.

Johnson and the other senators have introduced a second resolution to be considered by the Armed Services Committee. It covers about three billion dollars already voted for military construction projects.

The Democratic leader told the Public Works Committee "the question before us involves a high degree of urgency.

"There are men and women out of work—at least five million of them. Their sources of income are vanishing rapidly," he said.

Sen. Martin (R-Pa), senior Republican on the committee, asked if Johnson would favor deficit financing or higher taxes to finance pump-priming efforts.

The Texan answered that he believed that was a matter primarily to be studied by the Finance Committee on which Martin also is the ranking GOP member.

But, Johnson added, "if it is necessary to have deficit financing to accelerate these projects, my answer would be yes."

Johnson said he did not contend that the two resolutions introduced in the Senate last Thursday would be the complete answer to the economic slump.

Dressmakers Strike May Be Settled

NEW YORK (AP) — Striking garment workers and dress manufacturers have reached agreement on money issues and appear headed for a full settlement today or tomorrow.

The ticklish problem of contract enforcement — the other major issue in the six-day-old strike — is still to be resolved.

An employer spokesman said last night both sides agreed on an 11½ per cent package increase.

The spokesman said it includes an 11 per cent boost in base pay and a payroll deduction for severance pay of one half of 1 per cent.

Agreement also was reached on overtime for piece workers — 81 per cent of the workers are employed on this basis — after 35 hours.

Union officials declined to confirm or deny the reported terms.

The dispute, first major strike by the International Ladies Garment workers Union in 25 years, has affected nine Eastern states and idled 105,000 ILGWU members.

The wage agreement came after two days of intensive mediation by two peacemakers appointed by Mayor Robert F. Wagner — former U.S. Sen. Herbert H. Lehman and Harry Uviller, impartial chairman of the dress industry.

The mediators joined with David Dubinsky, president of the union, and employer leaders in expressing confidence that work will be resumed Wednesday.

The industry has complained that nonunion penetration and the union's failure to demand uniform conditions have forced manufacturers to cut corners as a means of staying in business.

Cold Front Invades Area

A new cold front chilled the Snyder area today, and readings at near, or below freezing were predicted for most of West Texas tonight.

Snow fell in the Panhandle early today, but subsided by mid-morning. The Amarillo Weather Bureau lifted a snow warning after a few flurries fell in that area.

A low-pressure trough extending from the Sherman area through the Dallas-Fort Worth area and southwestward early today was responsible for the cooler weather, the Weather Bureau said.

The official reading in Snyder showed 35 degrees this morning and cool northerly winds prevailed.

WEATHER

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Sunday, 72 degrees; low, 35 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. today, 35 degrees. High Saturday, 56 degrees; low, 32 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. Sunday, 35 degrees.

North Central Texas — Cloudy to partly cloudy through Tuesday. Colder tonight with lowest 32 to 40.

Indonesian Troops Invade Rebel Area

SINGAPORE (AP) — Indonesian Central government troops have stormed ashore today at Bengkalis on the east coast of Central Sumatra, revolutionary sources said.

The sources said rebel troops of Lt. Col. Achmad Hussein clashed with the invaders but retreated into surrounding jungle to begin guerrilla activities.

The landings were made about 100 miles west of Singapore at the mouth of the crocodile-infested Siak River leading to the American-owned Caltex oil field headquarters at Pakanbaru.

Informants said 4,000 more troops were crammed aboard transports awaiting to land at Dumai, one of the two Caltex oilfields evacuated today on the advice of the Jakarta government.

Caltex announced it is ceasing production in the oil fields of rebellious Central Sumatra and suspending operations.

A spokesman for the company in Singapore said the action was taken on the advice of the Indonesian Central government in Jakarta.

Caltex was the first major American casualty in the economic struggle touched off by rebel attempts to bring the Jakarta government of President Sukarno to terms.

Rebel Premier Sjafruddin Prawiranegara's regime on Sumatra recently issued an order to all foreign firms to halt oil shipments and royalty payments to the Jakarta government. Halting oil shipments would start an economic squeeze that rebel leaders hope will cripple the financially pressed Central government.

The three big foreign oil operators in Indonesia—Caltex, American Standard Vacuum, and Royal Dutch Shell—had not heeded the rebel order. Caltex was chiefly affected, because it has big installations in rebel territory. Stanvac's refinery is at Palembang, in South Sumatra, which is controlled by a military commander who so far has been neutral in the struggle between the rebels and Jakarta.

A Caltex executive said the company is evacuating the women and children among the nearly 400 Americans at two fields, Dumai and Pakning.

The first group of women and children arrived here aboard the company's ship, Caltex Medan. Others are expected aboard the Caltex Migdalia.

Deposits In Banks Tops Since 1951

Bank deposits in Snyder now stand at the highest they have been for this time of year since 1951.

Total deposits, as of the close of business March 4, amounted to $21,192,135.86.

That is the highest reported in condition statements of banks for this time of year since the $21,945,181.80 in April, 1951, which is reportedly the record figure for this time of year.

Loans at the Snyder banks totaled $7,348,656.47.

Usually at this time of year, deposits have been running from $17 to $19 million.

The Snyder National Bank reported deposits of $12,402,175.92, while those at the West Texas State Bank were $8,789,959.94.

The West Texas Bank had loans of $3,709,188.73, and loans at the Snyder National totaled $3,639,467.74.

Boys Sought After Blaze

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police and fire inspectors are searching for two boys believed to have started fires which destroyed a school for retarded and wayward youth here.

Policemen saw two boys running from McKinley Occupational School but were unable to catch them. Officers found five separate fires going in the 60-year-old, three-story building.

Police said vandals had written obscene remarks on blackboards. They said a comparison of that handwriting and that of the 180 pupils in the school will be made in an attempt to identify the arsonists.

The Dayton superintendent of schools, Robert B. French, said it would take $350,000 to rebuild the building and another $50,000 to replace the equipment.

Whiteside Fails To Appear For Questioning By Panel

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thurman A. Whiteside, Miami lawyer, failed to appear today for scheduled questioning by a House committee investigating the Federal Communications Commission.

Chairman Harris (D-Ark) declined to tell reporters immediately what, if any, word he had received from Whiteside.

Harris ordered a closed meeting of the committee.

Whiteside had not been subpoenaed for more questioning on his relationship with former FCC Commissioner Richard A. Mack.

Neither Whiteside nor his attorney, Richard A. Hunt, was reported registered at the Washington hotel where the Miami businessman-lawyer had been staying.

Whiteside appeared twice last week before a U.S. grand jury investigating matters relating to the FCC. He is scheduled to report to the grand jury again.

Whiteside gave the grand jury records of financial dealings with Mack.

Like the House committee, the grand jury is studying the conduct of Mack in connection with the FCC's grant of television Channel 10 in Miami to a subsidiary of National Airlines.

Whiteside at one time pushed the application of Public Service, which won the channel over three other applicants.

Mack, who voted with the FCC majority in favor of Public Service, acknowledged accepting thousands of dollars in loans and free stock in two firms from Whiteside, whom Mack described as a long-time friend. Mack denied he was swayed by Whiteside to vote for Public Service, and contended he had not done anything wrong.

Harris told newsmen there were records indicating that Mack had an income of about $75,000 in two years, adding: "I believe Mack received some $41,000 beyond what he received in his salary."

Harris announced that Col. George Gordon Moore, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower, will testify before the subcommittee next Monday. Moore will not appear under subpoena and has not been asked to bring his records, Harris said.

During the hearings, one of the unsuccessful applicants for Channel 10 said Moore "engineered" the winning application of the National Airlines subsidiary. This testimony came from A. Frank Katzentine, a Miami Beach radio station owner, who has been recalled for tomorrow.

Moore said at the time such "insinuations have no basis in fact."

Jail Escapees In Miami Are Hunted

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Roadblocks were thrown across every highway leading out of Miami in the effort to snare an accused cop killer and a rapist who escaped last night from the 23rd floor of Miami's skyscraper jail.

"These men have nothing to lose," officers were warned. "Capturing them will be tough."

At large after the "human fly" breakout from the jail in midtown Miami were Norman J. Mackiewicz, 32, accused murderer of a policeman in suburban Bal Harbour, and Howard B. Piccott, who is charged with the rape of a child.

They mingled with the crowds and got safely away after coming down the side of the building on a rope made of mattress ticking.

Roger Wayne Carter, 18, Chicago, charged with slaying a bar worker, and Edward L. Kille, 27, held on a federal car theft charge, were collared in the jail-courthouse within an hour of the daring escape bid at 7:42 p.m.

Investigators said the quartet sawed out a bar of a window with a smuggled hacksaw blade, made fast a rop of torn-up mattress ticks and inched down the northeast corner of the 26-story building in downtown Miami.

Carter kicked in a window pane at 19th floor level, possibly in a misstep while "walking" down the side of the building, and got into the County Criminal Investigation Bureau laborator. He hid in the building after women employes who heard the crash of glass summoned help, and gave himself up after about an hour.

Kille was captured downstairs by guard mobilizing to check the break.

Officers said Mackiewicz and Piccott, wearing civilian clothes as prisoners awaiting trial, apparently mingled with street floor passes-by and vanished. They and Kille appeared to have descended on their makeshift rope to the 17th story, wriggled in a window, and walked down stairways to the second floor and slid down to the street on a roller towel they found in a second-floor washroom.

Police quoted Piccott as bragging that he escaped from a jail at Hanover, Pa., while being booked there last April 19.

School Music Groups Start Sales Drive

Members of the Snyder high school band and choral departments have started a drive to sell subscriptions to nationally known magazines to help pay part of the expenses to the Buccaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi next May.

The drive starts today.

"Since many hundreds of dollars are mailed in annually from Snyder for magazine subscriptions it should be possible to keep some of the profits here in these musical organizations," Steve Melton, a spokesman for the groups, said.

"We have arranged to keep as much as 50 per cent of the profits on the major subscriptions," he added.

The band and choral department offer subscriptions to the best magazines in the American market — magazines which are generally found in the homes of Snyder, he said.

The members of the departments selling the subscriptions can extend any subscriptions that are now in effect for a customer, without loss of any issues of the magazine.

The large selection of magazines includes science, art, music, medicine, news publications, sports children's publications and general reading magazines for all ages.

The departments ask your cooperation in saving your subscriptions and making them through the high school salesmen. They unconditionally guarantee all subscriptions or you will get your money back.

The band and choral members selling the subscriptions will identify themselves by wearing jackets of their departments, and will furnish further indentification on request.

Contes Parents Of Their First Child

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—A 6-pound boy, their first child, was born to actor John Conte and his wife, Ruth, in Doctors Hospital last night.

The baby, John Charles, and his actress mother were reported doing fine.

Conte, the host of "NBC Matinee Theater," a daytime TV drame, said his part in today's show will be televised from a room at the hospital so he can stay with his wife and the new arrival.

GROUP

are persons who are against the proposal "who are putting out a lot of good rumors about it." If some presentation were made on what is planned, that would kill rumors, he opined. He added that the steering committee could hire an architect to draw preliminary sketches, but in that way there would be no assurance that the court would hire the same architect and that the project, if approved, would be the same as sketches showed.

Cantrell told the court it would be unethical for an architect to draw sketches unless there were some kind of employment provision. If he were tentatively employed, he would be released to help educate the public on the proposal, he said.

The group was told the court would consider the proposal.

Another delegation also appeared before the court, representing the agriculture committee of the Chamber of Commerce, and asked about the status of proposed rural parks and about possibilities of employing an assistant county agent.

Members of that delegation were Bill Jordan, chairman of the committee, Floyd Boston, Billy Bob Mc Mullan, D. T. Pierce, Max von Roeder, and Grady Elder.

There is now no provision in the budget for an assistant county agent, commissioners said. They suggested the group keep the proposal in mind and appear before the court again in July while it is working on the 1959 budget.

The commissioners reported on rural park plans. A proposal for rural parks at Fluvanna, Hermleigh, Dunn, and Ira was included in a bond election in 1956, but bond funds were exhausted on other projects which were also included in that election, the airport, county library, and park in south Snyder.

The court was forced to wait until the 1958 budget year to continue work on rural parks, and they are now in progress, they said. Pat Moore reported he has a deed on property at Ira where a community building is to be constructed. Toombs showed the group plans for a pavilion to be built at Fluvanna, which includes picnic tables, barbecue pit, and a community rooms. A water well is now being drilled on property at Fluvanna, to which he has a deed. Parmer said a survey has just been completed at Hermleigh on property where a lighted baseball field is to be built. At Dunn, there is still indecision as to what will be built.

The court opened bids for two new pickups to be bought for the county park system, with a 1951 Ford and 1953 Chevrolet pickup to be traded in.

The low bid of $2,356.56 difference by Wilson Mortor Co. on two Ford eight-cylinder pickups was accepted, provided there is delivery within 21 days. Other bids were $2,475 by Snyder Truck & Tractor Co. on International pickups, $2,-632.96 by Lamb Chevrolet Co. on Chevrolet pickups, and $2,700 by Snyder Motor Mart on Dodge pickups.

Net Earnings Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Richfield Oil Corp. reported today net earnings last year of $28,176,000 compared to $26,573,621 in 1956.

Chicago teams won the pennants in the first year of play in both the National and American Leagues.

Hearing On Affairs Of Risk Firm Launched By Harrison

AUSTIN (AP)—Hearings on the affairs of Estate Life Insurance Co. of Amarillo before Commissioner William Harrison started at 10:40 a.m. after a short delay.

On the schedule were both a show cause order and an appeal from another order of the commission. The show cause will determine whether Estate Life can continue to operate or whether it will be put into receivership.

At the request of E. A. Simpson, Estate Life attorney, the appeal was started first. It is Estate Life's effort to set aside a commission ruling in which Harrison refused to recommend that Estate Life be freed of the business it took over from the defunct Physician's Life and Accident Insurance Co.

Harrison ordered Estate Life on Feb. 27 to show cause today why it should not be put into receivership. He said a Sept. 30 examination showed the Amarillo firm had a deficit of about $1,215,290 which "renders the company totally insolvent."

Harrison's order also allegded that the Estate Life had invested part of its funds in five real estate mortgate loans totaling $818,743 in such a manner to make an illegal investment for an insurance company. One loan for $667,200 was secured by real estate appraised at $346,000, the order said.

The order also alleged that the firm's home office had been placed on the books as an investment at a value "greatly in excess of the percentage permissible" under state law.

After a lengthy hearing, Harrison refused on Jan. 17 to recommend to the courts that Estate Life be freed of 11½ million dollars in business it took over from defunct Physicians Life and Accident Insurance Co. Estate Life appealed the order to the Board of Insurance Feb. 5 and a hearing was set for March 4. That appeal hearing later was reset for 2 p.m. today.

Appeal Due In Map Case

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Defense lawyers say they will appeal the convictions of two men on charges of conspiring to transport stolen Gulf Oil Corp. maps across state lines.

Emanuel Lester of New York and Odie Seagraves, 73, of Houston were convicted Saturday. Lester's brother, Edward Liberman, also of New York, was acquitted. The jury recommended mercy for Seagraves.

Lester was given a three year federal prison term. Seagraves was fined $5,000. Lester was freed on $5,000 bond pnding outcome of his appeal.

The government charged the men knowingly dealt in oil exploration maps stolen from Gulf's headquarters in Pittsburgh.

HONEY BARS

Ingredients: 1¼ cups sifted cake flour, ½ teaspoon doubleacting baking powder, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 1 egg, ½ cup (¼ pound) butter or margarine, grated rind of 1 orange, 1-3 cup honey, 1 tablespoon milk, ¼ cup flaked coconut, ½ cup chopped filberts, ¼ cup (about) sifted confectioners' sugar.

Method: Sift together the cake flour, baking powder and slt. Beat egg until thick and pale colored. Cream butter and grated orange rind; add honey gradually, continuing to cream. Blend in beaten egg and milk. Add sifted dry ingredients and beat gently until smooth. Fold in coconut and filberts. Turn into buttered baking pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Place pan on wire rack to cool for about 5 minutes. Cut in bars and remove with spatula; while still warm roll in confectioners' sugar. These probably taste best when eaten shortly after baking, stored in a tightly covered container.

A perfume that has become concentrated can be stretched for further satisfactory use. Do this by adding a matching cologne or toilet water. This thins out the concentrate effectively.

Eggs Rate First On The Lenten And Easter Menus

An abundant supply of fresh farm eggs means that prices are low—and it's a good thing! Eggs star on Lenten menus and, during this season, the usual hard-boiled egg dons Easter finery in brunch and luncheon hot dishes that tempt any hostess to fete her friends.

Here are three receipes, high in egg protein content, yet low in cost. All three are tasty, certainly fit for company while easy enough for noon lunch. You will find Savory Eggs a pleasing (and a bit different!) baked egg and cheese combination. Eggs Florentine is an unusually good spinach-egg casserole suitable for luncheons or supper.

Don't overlook Creme Caramel! This chilled creamy dessert which covers itself with caramel sauce is so easy to make yet so elegant! To caramelize sugar, place specified quantity in a heavy skillet and let melt over medium heat, stirring until all sugar is a golden syrup.

EGGS FLORENTINE

1 lb. fresh or two 10-oz pkg. frozen spinach
4 hard-cooked eggs, cut in halves
White Sauce and Crumbe Topping (recipes below)

Cook spinach until just tender; drain. Season well. Chop finely. Spread in 8 inch baking dish. Arrange eggs on top of spinach. Cover with White Sauce. Sprinkle with Crumb Topping. Bake 20 minutes at 400 degrees. Makes 4 servings.

White Sauce

2 tbsp. butter or margarine
1½ tbsp. flour
¼ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. dry mustard
⅛ tsp. pepper
1 cup milk

Melt butter over low heat. Blend in flour, seasonings. Cook over low heat, stirring until mixture is smooth, bubbly. Remove from heat. Stir in milk. Bring to boil. Boil 1 minute, stirring constantly.

Crumb Topping

2 tbsp. Butter
1 clove garlic, sliced
½ cup dry bread or cracker crumbs
2 tbsp. commericaly grated cheese

Melt butter. Add garlic. Cook slowly about 3 minutes. Remove from heat; remove garlic. Mix in crumbs, cheese.

CREME CARAMEL

½ cup sugar
3 eggs
1-3 cup sugar
¼ tsp. salt
2 cups milk
½ tsp. vanilla

Caramelize ½ cup sugar by melting over medium heat, stirring constantly when sugar begins to melt. When sauce is golden brown pour a little into each of 6 custard cups. Move cups about so that caramael will coat sides. When caramel is hard fill cups with custard.

Beat eggs, 1-3 cup sugar, and salt slightly to mix. Scald milk (crinkly film forms on top) and stir milk into egg mixture. Add vanilla and pour into caramel custard cups. Set cups in pan of hot water 1 inch deep and bake 45 to 50 minutes at 350 degrees, until silver knife comes out clean. Remove from heat and chill. When unmolded, caramel runs down sides forming a sauce.

SAVORY EGGS

1 cup grated American cheese
2 tbsp. butter
½ cup cream
1 tsp. prepared mustard
½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
6 eggs, slightly beaten

Place cheese in bottom of square pan, 9x9x2 inches. Dot with butter. Mix cream, mustard, and seasonings and pour half over cheese. Pour eggs and remaining cream mixture over top. Bake about 25 minutes at 325 degrees. Serve at once. Makes six servings.

Segregation For North Predicted

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A Louisiana segregation leader predicts racial segregation in the North in years to come.

State Sen. W. M. Rainach of Summerfield, La., said on the Mississippi Citizens Council's weekly television program last night the North is ready to accept the Southern system.

He called for joint efforts by state governments and private groups to take a case to the North and win public opinion.

Rainach, a Citizens Council leader, is chairman of the Louisiana Joint Legislative Committee on Segregation which placed a pro-segregation advertisement in the New York Herald Tribune Feb. 17.

In Baton Rouge Saturday, Rainach said his main interest in the ad ran better than 4 to 1 favoring the South's position.

He said the ad was "the first positive stance in putting the South's cause in the Northern realm of public opinion." He called for plans to devise a "full scale campaign by the Southern states with tax money and donations from private sources."

Rainach said the newspaper ad cost $40,000 and the money did not come from Louisiana taxpayers.

He said the ad told the South was the product of years of experience in adjustment to a biracial society.

Rainach said response to the ad indicates that the South has a record for which there is a demand in the North—a racially sensitive society. All we need is a reasonable opportunity to present our case, he said.

He quoted from a letter from a New York Negro who lives in the New York area and who is the highest paid man in the city as an executive of a large corporation. The writer, Rainach said, told him that the South was right in its racial views and that the Southerners have stated so clearly . . . It gives us a long awaited opportunity to explode some of their misconceptions."

Stassen Has 2 Proposals For Security

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Stassen has proposed a twofold expansion of the United Nations to include a permanent atomic-armed police force and an international space development agency.

The former disarmament adviser to President Eisenhower broached the suggestions in a speech last night before a conference of the American Assn. of the United Nations.

Stassen said both proposals should be preceded by a Soviet-American agreement to suspend nuclear testing for two years.

The possibility of negotiating such an agreement, he said, makes it well worthwhile to pursue a summit meeting. He voiced confidence an agreement could be worked out in time for ratification by the Senate this summer.

Stassen and another speaker, Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), urged that any summit conference be held under U.N. sponsorship.

Stassen said a permanent U.N. police force could be equipped with atomic weapons of "limited number and size." A U.N. space agency, he argued, could undertake to send the first human being into outer space and set up the first round-the-world photographic satellite.

Elman Practices Three Hours Daily

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Many a youthful violinist grumbles rebelliously to his parents: "I'll bet Mischa Elman doesn't practice as much as I do."

But he's wrong. At 67, Elman, who has no intention of hanging up the fiddle and bow he first clutched in a Russian ghetto at the age of 5, still practices up to three hours daily.

Some artists, as they get older, lose interest in practicing, he said. They regard it as drudgery.

"To me it is still a pleasure. Even in practicing you make discoveries and it is the discoveries that inspire you."

This is the golden jubilee season in America for the small, sturdy wizard of the strings who has a puckish face resembling one of Santa Claus' elves. But he had been a child wonder in Europe for more than five years when he made his debut here as an artist of 17.

Acclaimed as one of the great masters of the violin in this century, Elman has given more than 3,500 concerts. He has a repertoire of more than 600 numbers and enlarges it each year.

"If you cease doing new things," he remarked, "you cease to grow."

More than ten million of his records have been sold. Some of the earlier ones, made with tenor Enrico Caruso, with whom he used to tour in joint concerts, are now highly prized by collectors.

Asked the most important factors in a concert artist's career, Elman grinned and said:

"Well, entrances and exits are important—just as important as they are to an actor.

"Technical skill is important, of course, but the most important thing is heart. The artist's contact with his audience is through his heart. If he has no heart, he has no contact.

"And work is important. People think a person of genius or great talent doesn't have to work. Actually, he has to work harder because he has higher standards and higher ideals to satisfy.

"My definition of talent is self-criticism."

At 67 Elman still has two great loves—the sound of his Stradivarius, and the voice of his wife who, he says, "has made my life happy from the day we married. We have never had a quarrel."

Ag Measures Reach Floor Of Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Campaigns to relax cotton controls and to prevent an announced cut in dairy price supports reach the Senate floor today.

They faced an uphill fight during Senate consideration of a bill to provide $2,865,963,718 to various government agencies during the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 30.

Included in the bill is 250 million dollars additional for soil bank payments to farmers who agree to reduce their assigned acreages of cotton, rice, wheat, corn and tobacco. The House has passed the bill including that amount, and no controversy over it is expected in the Senate.

But the cotton and dairy proposals require a two-thirds vote for consideration, because rules must be suspended to attach such provisions to an appropriation bill.

Sponsored by Sen. Ellender (D-La.), one of the amendments would allow cotton growers to overplant their 1958 acreage allotments by 30 per cent and still get government price supports on the original acreage. Ellender contends this is needed because he says rains and bad weather lowered the quality of much of last year's crops.

Summit Debate Is Egg-Heaving Duel

BY JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — JAMES MARLOW looks at Washington, D.C., with all eggs and [illegible] splattered in the name of American-Soviet discussions on how to hold a summit meeting.

Premier Bulganin has urged President Eisenhower for letter since December. Eisenhower has replied with three. Bulganin's peace is wonderful. But [illegible] lot of paper blaming the other side for the mess the world's in.

Others heaved eggs of their own from the sidelines. Secretary of State Dulles. Communist party boss Khrushchev. the State Department, the Soviet Foreign Office.

So, while both sides talk of the summit, both are using the exchanges for propaganda. [illegible] may be the diplomats [illegible] now to arrange a meeting. To a layman it may seem the best [illegible] to have none at all.

Bulganin, sandwiching in topics he'd like a summit meeting to discuss, has charged the United States with war preparations, taken a crack at Dulles by [illegible] ing of the idea that foreign ministers should meet to arrange a summit conference, accused people in this country of calling for a government coup, blamed this government for not squelching [illegible] That's just a briefed down version of all he said. He got under Eisenhower's skin. The President, pushing the whole world was [illegible] his correspondence with Bulganin went to great lengths to point this country and blast.

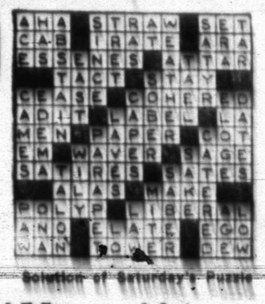

He blamed the "cold war" on [illegible] accused the Soviets [illegible] on promises to withdraw from Germany and let the Germans hold free elections; condemned the State Union for unnerving nations with its $2 [illegible] United Nations.

He scolded Bulganin for being the Soviet in his letters, blamed the South Union for the arms race and wanting to overthrow other governments, and he told Bulganin only part of his letters was just a big smash at a "hot spot" speech Khrushchev before a bunch of farmers in Minsk last Jan. 22.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

WHETHER ITS GOOD or bad, there's a good reason for the continued basketball success of the Pampa Harvesters, the newly crowned state 4-A champions.

Many people believe the reason is that Pampa has an organized basketball program in the grammar schools. Such isn't the case, though.

We'll now that there are more basketball goals hung up on garages, barns and what have you in Pampa than in most cities. But, the kids there don't really start playing on an organized basis until they reach junior high.

Much of the reason for the Pampa cage success may be atributed to this factor:

When a boy reaches high school in Pampa he chooses between football and basketball. He may play both sports well in junior high but he drops one when he gets to high school.

We're not implying that the boy is forced to do this. We're not that close to the situation.

But, in very few instances have there been boys who played both sports within the past 10 years at Pampa High School.

Big Advantage

The big advantage of a boy devoting full time to basketball, of course, is that he can begin working out weeks before the season begins. The starting date for official basketball workouts as set up by the Texas Interscholastic League is Oct. 15.

This gives the boys six weeks to prepare for the coming season. When you can get pratically your whole team together that early, then you can see the advantage you will have over other teams who have to wait until football season is over, around Dec. 1, to start workouts.

Then, another big factor of Pampa's cage success, to be sure, is that she has two full-time basketball coaches.

In Clifton McNeely, the Harvesters have one of the finest basketball coaches in Texas schoolboy history. And McNeely has a full-time assistant who is quite a hand at teaching the cage sport in Terry Cully.

By full time, we mean the coaches have no other major sport coaching duties other than basketball.

Many other Class 4A schools other than Pampa, though, have full-time basketball coaches.

Our candid opinion on this matter is that we don't believe in one sport suffering because of another.

By that we mean boys should be encouraged to play as many sports of which he has talent, even though a boy may have to "double-up" on occasions.

It's important to win and in many instances winning is a necessity, but we don't believe any talent a boy may have should go "un-used."

SHS Does Real Well, Anyway

Under the circumstances, we think Snyder High School has been doing real well in all sports in recent years from a winning standpoint.

SHS has been turning out several all-around athletes the past few years and all their talents have been put to use.

Two district champions in football, two in basketball, two in baseball and one in track within the past three years is a pretty good record for any school.

And we've had several boys who have played three sports and some who have even participated in four.

Now there may be some boys in high school here who have some athletic talent who don't even participate in any sport at all. But the welcome mat is out at all times and if a boy just does not want to participate there is not much a coach can do about this.

For an all-around sports program, Snyder High School ranks with the best of 'em.

The detailed tabulations on the All-District 3-AAA basketball selections was misplaced Saturday night and consequently it was left out of Sunday's story in this seation.

For your benefit, we'll give them to you at this time.

Fort Worth's James Swindell and Lou Levy quickly followed up with 1371 to take over second place, while a Wichita Falls duo of David Brackett and Don Weir were entrenched in third with 1,358 as the field cleared for a fourth week's assault next weekend.

Ted Kleinhans, Syracuse University baseball coach, was a southpaw pitcher with the pennant winning Yankees of 1936.

College Basketeers Eye 4 Major Crowns

Berg Leads By 2 In Jacksonville Tourney

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A Series of third-round frustrations slowed Patty Berg's golf game but she still was two strokes ahead at 223 today going into the final round of the $5,000 Jacksonville Women's Open.

IN SHREVEPORT TOMORROW

SMU, Hogs Clash In Playoff Tilt

DALLAS (AP)—The wildest Southwest Conference basketball race finally ends tomorrow night on a neutral court as Southern Methodist and Arkansas play off a tie for the NCAA regional tournament berth.

The regular-season race ended last week with the two tied for the top. The race was so tight the final night's results last Tuesday could have left it in a four-way tie.

SMU beat Arkansas by three points here during the regular-season and Arkansas won by two at Fayetteville.

So they'll play tomorrow on a neutral court at Shreveport, La., with the game rated a tossup.

"Your guess is as good as mine. Just look at the scores between the two teams and consider that we're playing on a neutral court," said Glen Rose, Arkansas coach.

SMU Coach Doc Hayes pointed out the narrow margins and said, "That's all I know about it."

Lee Boss, University of Arkansas reserve guard, was released from the infirmary yesterday after a light case of the measles. Rose said no other members of the team were affected.

Rose said he'd take his team to Shreveport today for a final workout there.

SMU will take its final full-fledged workout here before flying to Shreveport.

Neither team has ever played there.

CITY BASEBALL MEETING TONIGHT

A City League baseball meeting will be held tonight, league secretary Moon Mullins announced this morning.

The meeting will be held in Room 120 in the high school building starting at 7:30.

All players, sponsors and anyone interested in the City League are invited to attend the meeting.

Maxwell, 2 Others Share Orleans Lead

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Sizzling Ken Venturi faced threats from two unexpected contenders today as he entered the second round of the $20,000 Greater New Orleans Open Tournament tied with two golfers seeking their first titles of the winter tour.

Venturi, 26, of San Francisco, who has won three times this winter, knocked four strokes off par with his 34-34—68 over the soggy City Park course yesterday. But he could do no better than tie Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., and Gene Littler, Singing Hills, Calif.

Play had been delayed three days by rains. The fairways were dotted with puddles, but the pros found the greens in good shape.

After today's 18 holes, the field will be cut to the low 60 for the final two rounds, both scheduled tomorrow.

In a tie for fourth with first-round 69s were Doug Ford, Mahopac, N.Y.; Bill Casper, Apple Valley, Calif.; and Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa. Tied with 70s were Bob Goalby, Darien, Conn.; George Bayer, Dallas, Tex.; John Barnum, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Howie Johnson, Glenwoodie, Ill.

Sun Devils Face Idaho 5 In NCAA

By The Associated Press

ARIZONA STATE Tempe sewed up the Border Conference basketball title last week.

The Sun Devils finished 8-2, one game ahead of New Mexico A&M.

Arizona State lost its first two conference games, then surged back to win eight in a row.

A&M finished its conference play two weeks ago. That left the Sun Devils with the task of defeating Arizona or being forced into a playoff.

The Sun Devils came from 14 points back in less than seven minutes to win 78-76 on two free throws in the last three seconds of play.

The Border title was the first in history for the Sun Devils and gives them their first crack at an NCAA playoff berth. Arizona State faces Idaho State in a first round game.

NY 'HITLESS WONDERS'

Cards Win 2nd In Row With Yanks

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

Could the proud New York Yankees be turning into a bunch of hitless wonders — and not so wonderful at that.

The Yanks wound up their 1957 business by going 11 scoreless innings against the Milwaukee Braves in the final two games of the World Series.

They opened their exhibition season Saturday by being shut out by the St. Louis Cardinals. Yesterday, they finally scored a run, but it wasn't enough, and the Cards won the ball game at St. Petersburg, Fla., 2-1.

Yank Manager Casey Stengel can take a measure of solace in the performance of 19-year-old rookie Daron Johnson.

The Yanks managed only seven hits but two were long doubles by Johnson.

Bonus baby Johnny DeMerit bashed in three runs to lead the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers at Bradenton. Earl Hersh homered for the other run.

In other games, the Cincinnati Redlegs defeated the Chicago White Sox 5-4 at Tampa; the San Francisco Giants whipped the Cleveland Indians 5-1 at Phoenix; the Chicago Cubs licked the Baltimore Orioles 5-4 at Mesa, and the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Philadelphia Phillies 5-4 at Miami.

The Redlegs blew a three-run lead, but came back to score two runs in the fifth with the aid of a couple of White Sox errors.

Only a two-out home run by Gene Woodling off Marv Grissom saved the Indians from being shut out by the Giants.

Chuck Tanner blasted a grand-slam home run for the Cubs in the fourth inning off Chuck Beamon.

The Dodgers had to go 11 innings before Felip e Montemayor singled Charlie Neal home from second.

DiBiase Is 8-5 Pick Over Schmidt

By The Associated Press

Tony DiBiase, the fighting Geology student who has been finding the boxing road rocky of late, returns to action tonight against Peter Schmidt in an all-New York welterweight 10-rounder at New York's St. Nicholas Arena.

The 22-year-old DiBiase has been out of action for five months by both studies at New York University and cuts suffered in a seventh round technical knockout loss to Tony DeCola.

Both DiBiase and the 24-year-old Schmidt are aggressive fighters who like to mix it up. Tony's record is 18-4-1. Schmidt's is 9-6-1.

DiBiase is an 8-5 favorite.

The bout will be telecast to some parts of the country by DuMont, 10 p.m., EST.

Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore also is slated for action tonight. The 41-year-old 175 pound king goes after his tenth straight victory in an non-title 10-rounder with heavyweight Bob Albright of Los Angeles at Vancouver, B.C.

Yvon Durelle, the brawny Canadian fisherman-fighter who would like a crack at Moore's crown, will be in a good position to get it if he defeats New York's Tony Anthony in their return 10-rounder at New York's Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The bout will be broadcast and telecast over NBC, 10 p.m., EST., coast to coast.

Spider Webb, the classy middleweight contender from Chicago, goes after his fifth straight victory in the Wednesday night TV feature over ABC 10 p.m., EST against veteran Holly Mims of Washington. The site is the Memorial Auitorium in Fort Wayne, Ind. Webb's record is 26-2, Mims 42-16-6.

Bob Hazle Confident He Will Stick

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP — Bob (Hurricane) Hazle, whose bat helped rocket the Milwaukee Braves to the pennant last year, is confident he can still hit big league pitching even if some of his employers complain about him.

"Flash in the pan?" drawled the 27-year-old outfielder today. "I don't think so. Sure, I was lucky last year and you can't expect anybody to hit .400 again. But, I know I can hit up here."

Hazle batted .500-plus for the first couple of weeks after the Braves called him up from their Wichita, Kan., farm team July 28. He finished up with a .403 average for 41 games, but then tailed off to .154 in four World Series games against the Yankees.

"I've got to hit up here," said Hazle. "If I hadn't made the grade last year, I was all set to quit. I feel the same way this spring. I've had my fill of the minors."

Leading members of the Braves' brain trust, including batting instructor Paul Waner and Wichita Manager Ben Geraghty, have their doubts about Hazle.

"When Bob isn't hitting, he's too far out front with his bat—keeps lunging at the ball all the time," said Waner. "He's too jerky and can't hit a thing. That's how he was in the World Series. But, when he's right, he'll hit anything."

Dulles Doubts U. S. Can Win Race To Moon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles has doubts that America will beat the Soviet Union to the moon because of the Soviets' head start in outer space exploration.

He told a recent session of the House Foreign Affairs Committee that the country that reaches the moon first will most certainly score an important propaganda victory.

"I think whenever the Soviets register a first in an area that is spectacular, they gain greatly from it, and we go down in the popular estimation," said Dulles.

He told the committee in a Feb. 26 appearance that the United States is closing the scientific gap on the Soviets but perhaps not fast enough to win the race to the moon. The committee made Dulles' testimony public yesterday.

Dulles said "despotisms" are able to push the people harder to achieve certain spectacular results over the democracies. He raised the question of how much the government would be justified in making taxpayers "sweat" to win a race that would have little practical value.

The secretary reiterated that he sees at this time little likelihood of an agreement with the Soviets on ending nuclear tests.

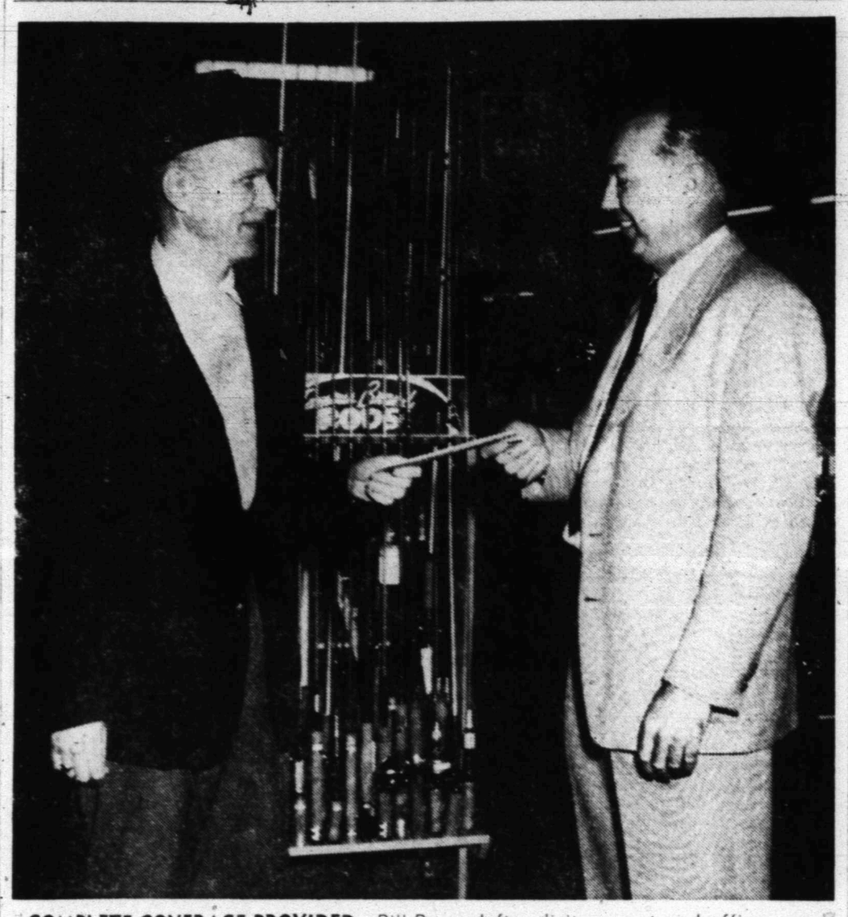

Youngster Sets A Family Record

BRUNSWICK, Maine (AP) — Dexter Alden Gagne is too young to know it, but he set up quite a record when christened in St. John's Church.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Doue A. Gagne, he is the 10th child in his family to have the initials D.A.G.

He is the 32nd grandchild to be carried to the sacristy by his grandmother, Mrs. Arthur J. Gagne, who has missed the baptism of only one of her grandchildren.

He is the 41st infant to wear the traditional christening garments that have been in the family for 47 years.

COMPLETE COVERAGE PROVIDED—Bill Byers, left, solicitor agent and office manager of the Lamb Insurance Agency, located at East Highway and Avenue H, is shown above handing an insurance policy to Worth Sayner, owner of the Western Auto Associate Store, 2502 Avenue R. The policy provides complete fire and extended insurance coverage on Sayner's business and building. (Lee Watson photograph)

Senior Hospital Policy Is Featured By Lamb Agency

Are you an elderly man or woman, or are there older persons in your family?

There are older persons in almost every family, and one of the biggest problems connected with advanced age is hospital and surgical costs.

But now that need no longer be a financial problem to the older person or his or her family.

Lamb Insurance Agency, Twenty-fifth Street and Avenue H, specializes in "Senior" hospitalization insurance policies for men and women up to and including 79 years of age.

"The senior hospitalization policies give hospital and surgical benefits at a low cost," Bill Byers, solicitor agent and office manager of Lamb Insurance Agency, said.

"A number of policies have been written and everyone has been pleased with the servicing by our agency here," Byers said.

The policies are written through the American Casualty Company of Reading, Pa., by Lamb Insurance Agency.

"This is just one of the many types of unusual, but greatly needed insurance coverages we offer to persons of the Snyder area," Byers said.

The firm is set up to write insurance policies of any type needed by any individual, home owner or business or industrial firm.

One of the more popular policies of the firm recently has been a home owners policy which provides fire, extended coverage (wind, hail or storm damage), and public liability all in one policy for less than what some fire insurance policies alone have previously cost the home owners.

Insurance policies of Lamb Insurance Agency are written only through strong, capital stock companies and the firm can service any type of business large or small through all of its insurance needs.

Byers points out that through its servicing agents, Lamb Insurance Agency can offer savings on complete insurance programs many times by making a comprehensive study of a businesses insurance coverage and needs, and eliminating the overlapping coverages or unnecessary coverages.

"We offer this insurance needs analysis at no cost or obligation to the individual or businessman," Byers said.

One of the types of policies most needed by service-type businesses is offered by the firm in its service station hazards liability policy.

The policy protects customers of the service station against extra-legal damages such as an attendants forgetting to replace oil in in the car engine after old oil has been drained out for an oil change.

"If such an error should occur, your car engine could be completely ruined by driving it only a few blocks," he said.

Both the service station operator and the individual owner of the car would be protected, because if such did happen, the insurance coverage would put a new engine in the car at no cost to the owner or service station operator," he said.

For any type of insurance coverage or information consult the Lamb Insurance Agency.

WHEEL ALIGNMENT is one of many tasks performed at Central Tire Service in working with safety equipment on the automobile. Alignment, balancing, brakes and tire tread all have much to do with the car's safety, and Central Tire Service specializes in service on that equipment. Here, Darrell Heard checks wheel alignment on a car with Central's modern equipment.

Central Tire Service Offers Rapid Check On Auto Safety

One of the major causes of accidents is lack of good brakes and lack of tread on tires.

And those are only two of the safety features which can be rapidly checked at Central Tire Service, 1931 Twenty-fifth Street.

Central, in addition to its serving a wide area with Gates Tires and its widely-known recapping service, specializes in checking and making right safety features on the automobile.

Front end alignment and brake service are included in the specialties.

Safety features of a car should be checked often, and now is a good time to have that done, since April 15 is the deadline for the required state vehicle safety inspection, according to Stanley Noah, owner of Central Tire.

Central Tire has one of the state authorized safety inspection stations here, and Noah reminded motorists that if they wait much longer the lines will begin to form.

In the safety inspection many things are checked which have to do with the car's being safe on the highway.

But to be sure and to make sure his family is safe, a motorist should keep check on his car's wheel alignment, tire tread, brakes, and many other things on his car. This is especially true if a person uses his car for trips out of town at highway speeds or if he is planning a vacation soon.

Besides the safety angle, it costs the motorist more many times to operate his car if he doesn't keep up with such things as wheel alignment and balancing. The extra cost of gasoline for a person on vacation if wheels out of line or our of balance would be more, for example, than the cost of the alignment or balancing.

Central has a Visualine front end machine which is very accurate in checking the car to see that it is in proper balance and alignment. Central's employes are specialists in all safety work on a car, including brake service.

If it is time for the motorist to re-tire, Centra, has a complete line of Gates tires in rayon and nylon cords. If he does not want to invest in a set of new tires, Central offers guaranteed recapping service at about half the cost of new tires.

For the farmer getting plans underway for this year's crop, Central offers complete farm tire service. At Central, equipment includes a hydroflation machine which will take water out of tractor tires and put it back in.

Rome Police Eye Rioters

ROME (AP)—Five hundred police occupied Rome University buildings before dawn today to prevent protest riots by students who have been striking for more than a month.

Students all over Italy have been striking against a new Ministry of Education rule requiring graduates to take state examinations to qualify for the law, engineering, medicine and such professions. In the past they needed only a school degree. This was the day for the state tests in Rome. A spokesman said police learned that students were planning a huge protest demonstration. Only six students out of some 300 eligible appeared to take the exam.

Youth Accused Of Beating Grandmother

NEW YORK (AP)—Marco Feliciano, 19, is accused of beating his 102-year-old grandmother with a belt and buckle.

Mrs. Patrona Belosa of Manhattan was taken to a hospital, where she was reported today in fair condition and suffering from a cut of the left ear and mulnutrition.

Her grandson was charged with felonious assault. Police gave no explanation for the alleged beating, which occurred last night.

Junior Editors Quiz on HISTORY

QUESTION: Was there a real Davy Crockett?

• • •

ANSWER: Yes, Colonel David Crockett, who died in 1836, was a real Tennessee backwoods hero, a mighty hunter and Indian fighter.

Crockett combined great courage with good sense and wit, with the result that he was chosen by the people of his area to represent them in Washington, where he was very popular and became known as "the coonskin congressman." But when he opposed President Jackson's plans for dealing with the Indians he lost favor, and so he decided to move to Texas, a state which was then struggling for independence from Mexico.

Crockett fought hard for Texas, and met a hero's death in the famous defense of the Alamo.

Soon after his death, the story of Davy Crockett turned into an American legend. Many of the wise things he had said, such as "Be always sure you're right, then go ahead", became household phrases. His humor was also remembered. He was so ugly, he once said, that he could make a coon fall from a tree by grinning at it. As people told and retold his story, more strange and wonderful things were added, until we have the Davy Crockett legend as it exists today.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Color the illustration (Crockett's buckskin suit should be a light tan) then cut it out and mount it on a piece of cardboard. Then make your own picture of the Crockett legend—say of Davy grinning and the coon falling.

No Wiggles For Soviets

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio said today Soviet girls must stop wiggling their hips. There are other ways they can let men know they are female.

"A woman's dress should suit the shape of her figure, stressing her contours and grace," the broadcast noted. But it added: "It is not very attractive to pose as some women do with the express purpose of displaying quite unnecessarily the mobility of their hips while walking.

"This may be good training for girls of fashion abroad who senselessly indulge in rock 'n' roll with its hideous stamping, wriggling and somersaulting. But this is not at all suitable for our girls."

Portrait Of Ike Slashed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—An oil portrait of President Eisenhower was found slashed in the exclusive Houston Club yesterday and a note found on the picture said "We don't like Ike in Texas."

Henry O. Barbour, club manager, told police he found the picture slashed. Barbour, who valued the painting at more than $1,000, said it had been in the club 10 days and was sent to the State Capitol, in Austin. The portrait was by Boris G. Gordon of Washington.

The slash in the 36x36 inch painting extended about 12 inches across the upper part of the President's face.

THE REAL SACK LOOK—If milady wishes to achieve "the sack look" real easy she can do so and still look quite chic by taking a plain old feed sack and going to work with scissors, as Cladia Kaszynski, Beaumont Lamar Tech sophomore, demonstrates, while Don Dixon, center, and George Harvey, also Lamar students, look on admiringly. North Korea Agrees To Hand Over Downed U. S. Jet Pilot PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—North Korea today agreed to return a U.S. Air Force pilot shot down over the demilitarized zone last Thursday by Communist gunfire. No date for the release was given.

The Communist announcement came at a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission at which the U.N. Command warned it would shoot down any Red planes deliberately crossing the truce line.

Capt. Leon Pfeiffer of Kenosha, Wis., who parachuted from the stricken Sabre Jet into Communist territory, was being given "humanitarian treatment," the Communist delegates said. There was no indication whether he was wounded.

The U.N. delegate, Gen. Olaf Kyster, admitted that Pfeiffer's and other American planes had violated the demilitarized zone but told the Reds it was because of "mistakes and carelessness on the part of the pilots.

Kyster protested the shooting was an "unnecessary armed attack" and warned that Communist aircraft violating U.N. territory also would be fired upon "if these violations are not due to navigational error."

Kyster emphasized at a press conference later that this was not a new policy.

The North Korean delegate charged U.N. forces had violated the demilitarized zone 588 times since the 1953 armistice to spy on Communist territory.

The Korean, Maj. Gen. Kang Sang Ho, charged that the latest U.N. violations were "along with a series of provocative acts by your side . . . in converting South Korea into a United States atomic war base."

The Communist delegate said Pfeiffer's Sabre Jet was shot down because the pilot disregarded Communist warning fire by continuing to "perpetrate hostile acts at low altitude."

Kyster also demanded return of the South Korean airliner hijacked in flight Feb. 16, its cargo and punishment of those responsible in accordance with the armistice agreement. Kang in effect rejected the demand.

Ambush Slayers Of Deputies Hunted

COPPERHILL, Tenn. (AP)—"We haven't caught them yet. But we will. We won't quit until we do."

So said Polk County Sheriff Bud Payne of the ambush slayers of two of his deputies.

Payne said he had several leads to the Saturday night shotgun killings of Louis Wright, 49, and R. A. (Bob) Rogers, 65, but not enough evidence to make any arrests.

"So far we've had to confine a lot of our investigation to questioning persons who were in the beer tavern when the deputies were ambushed outside," Payne said.

Wright and Rogers, the father of 10 children, were killed as they stepped from their patrol car on a routine check of the tavern located on State Highway 68 about six miles north of here.

The probability that politics may have entered into the slaying was voiced by Copperhill Mayor Emil Greene.

"I think it was politics," Greene said, "and most of those with whom I have talked agree."

Payne said he was uncertain as to the cause. "I have heard speculation it may have been politics. But it may have been personal — a deputy sheriff is bound to make enemies. I just don't know for sure."

An all-night search of the barren Copper Basin Hills after the deputies were killed proved fruitless.

Fumes Fatal To Child, 3

ORANGE, Calif. (AP) — Mercury fumes from a gold extraction process are blamed for the death of a 3-month-old baby and the illness of four other members of the family.

The infant, Brian Robinson, died Saturday night. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, and their daughter Barbara, 4, and son, William Jr., 18 months, are reported recovering in a hospital.

Robinson said the fumes spread through his home while he and his father, Wallace, were extracting gold last Thursday. The men had taken a gold ore sample, mixed it with mercury and heated the mixture in a frying pan on the kitchen stove.

Youths Held In Drowning

DALLAS (AP)—Felipe Hernandez, 8, drowned in a gravel pit yesterday. And today two boys admitted they had tossed him naked over a 6-foot cliff.

Police said the two, aged 10 and 14, told officers the drowning came after a dispute. Officers quoted several other boys as saying the Hernandez lad was first shoved into shallow muddy water and that when he scrambled out he was stripped of clothing and tossed into deeper water.

Police held and questioned several youngsters, all Latin-American. No names, including those of most witnesses, were released.

Liz Taylor Plans To Quit Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor, a top contender for this year's Oscar as best actress, said today that 1958 will probably be her last year as a movie queen.

"My husband (Mike Todd) doesn't want me to be an actress," she told a reporter. "And I don't want it either."

She currently is making "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" at MGM, the studio where she made her first picture in 1942 — "Lassie, Come Home."

Only 26, she has spent 16 of those years working in front of cameras.

Her contract winds up with "Cat." She's also committed to work for her husband in "Don Quixote," the picture that may be her farewell performance.

But what of an exceptional script—the lure that has brought many an actress out of announced retirement?

"There's no script good enough to get me back once I quit—and that time is no more than two—at the most, three—pictures away.

"I am just too busy otherwise."

She has three children, two by her previous husband, Michael Wilding, and one by Todd. That's what she means by "too busy otherwise."

Liz, despite publicity to the contrary, is less actressy than most movie stars. To intimates, she seemed more thrilled about being a Connecticut housewife than anything else.

Snow Slide Sweeps Skier To Death; Rescuer Follows

SNOW BASIN, Utah (AP) — A snow slide swept a skier to his death down a steep mountainside yesterday. Hours later, a second slide killed a member of his rescue party.

Ironically, the second slide may have been touched off by a rescue unit farther up the slope.

The bodies were found about 200 yards apart, on the east face of Mt. Ogden. They were left overnight.

The victims were Dr. Lincoln Ellison, 49, Ogden, a U.S. Forest Service official, and John Anthony (Tony) Deane, 23, Salt Lake City, a former Denver University and Colorado State University skier. Deane, formerly of Aspen, Colo., had been married just a month.

Ellison was research director for the Intermountain Forest and Range Experiment Station at Ogden, 18 miles west of this northern Utah ski resort.

He was part of a group of four experienced skiers touring through expert-class country high above the top of the Snow Basin ski lift. The others, following his tracks, emerged from a clump of trees to find his trail disappeared under snow left by an avalanche.

Two began probing for Ellison while Fred Montmorency, 58, Ogden, started back for help. A second slide tumbled him 100 yards down a nearby slope but he got out and kept going.

He met some members of the Snow basin ski patrol, who quickly organized a rescue party — Deane among them — and started off.

Some, but not all, were roped together. The going was treacherous.

Suddenly, a second avalanche swept six of the party away. One grabbed a tree and successfully hung on. Four others were able to pull themselves out. Deane had disappeared.

Patrol head Ray Nye said the avalanche that claimed Deane probably was inadvertently touched off by part of the patrol party working farther up the slope.

Talks On Marriage Draw Teen-Agers

CHICAGO (AP) — How will you know when you meet the right one?

That's one of the questions that figure in discussions of love, dating and marriage that drew hundreds of teen-agers to 14 Roman Catholic churches in the Chicago area last night.

The talks, a series of six running through Lent and getting down to such facts of life as sex, dishes and garbage, are conducted by the Cana Conference of Chicago.

The Rev. Walter Imbiorski, assistant director of the organization, said you will know that you have met the right one, boys and girls, if you can say "yes" to the following queries:

"1. Can I find happiness making the other person happy?

"2. Will he — or she — see my faults and weaknesses and still love me?

"3. Can I reveal my fears, ambitions and dreams and still be desired?

"4. Can I see myself washing 50,000 dishes for him, or carrying out the garbage for her 365 days a year for 50 years?

"5. Will I love her when she's 30 pounds heavier, or love him when he's bald?

"6. Am I a better person since we met — more thoughtful, less selfish?

"7. Am I proud of the partner I have chosen? Do I enjoy introducing her — or him — to my friends?"

Father Imbiorski said the answers should come from the head, not the heart.

Cana conferences — the name is derived from the biblical marriage feast — are aimed generally at making good marriages and protecting them.

Briton Raps Violence On TV Programs

LONDON (AP) — In one recent week in Britain, 18 persons were murdered, 23 attacked with blunt instruments and 11 kicked in the stomach—on television that is.

So states Vivian Milroy of the Assn. of Cinematograph, television and Allied Technicians, and he says this sort of thing has got to stop. The way to stop it, he told a union meeting yesterday, is to put a quota on American films used in British television.

Milroy said he thought a ruling that 90 per cent of all television material and personnel must be of British origin would be about right.

The recent large-scale mayhem he referred to, Milroy said, all took place on British television between the hours of 5 and 6 p.m., known as the "Children's Hour."

"The only reassuring feature about all this," he said, "was that 90 per cent of the victims were Americans. But I question whether seeing even Americans unremittingly and continuously done to death is a good thing.

"Perhaps we can do nothing about teen-age violence, but we can do something about the wholesale importation of American films."

Having heard Milroy's views, his union passed unanimously a resolution urging that henceforth U.S. programs be limited to 10 per cent of the total used on British TV shows.

The number of Puerto Rican children enrolled in New York City schools has increased from [illegible] to more than 100,000 in the past six years.

Ingrid, Lars Make Plans

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — Ingrid Bergman and Swedish millionaire Lars Schmidt say they will spend the summer together on a small island off Sweden's west coast. But they wont talk about wedding plans.

Standing with Ingrid in the courtyard of his big estate, the 45-year-old play producer told newsmen he recently bought a house on the island in the Swedish Archipelago.

"I love that little island," interposed Ingrid, 40, whose romance with her now-estranged husband, Italian movie director Roberto Rossellini, developed on the volcanic isle of Stromboli. Rossellini seeks an annulment in Italy of their Mexican marriage by proxy.

Cuba Police Stand Alert

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Contingents of heavily armed national police stood special alert duty today with orders to act decisively if Fidel Castro's rebels use their "ultimate weapon" — a general strike call.

The 7,700 policemen and 22,000-man armed forces were ordered to take "whatever steps necessary" to break a strike and crush any outbreaks of violence that might develop on this sixth anniversary of President Fulgencio Batista's last military coup.

Batista canceled all celebrations except for a radio speech from a nearby military garrison, sands of troops.

Castro has threatened a general strike at any moment. The rebel mountain guerrillas are reported running short of arms, and Castro has declared that a general strike would be his last blow — and the one sure to topple Batista.
