MEXICAN REBELS GATHER ON BORDER

COL. STEEVER REPORTS REVOLU-TIONISTS CONCENTRATING NEAR AMERICAN TOWNS.

OROZCO IS IN JUAREZ

Rebel Chief Still Gathering Forces at Town On Mexican Side of Rio Grande.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Mexican rebels are concentrating near many American towns on the border and Orozco, their chief, is still gathering forces at Juarez, according to War Department dispatches today from Col. Steever at El Paso. No rebels are reported in United States territory.

TWO WOMEN CARRIED OFF BY A REBEL BAND

By Associated Press.
Mexico City, Aug. 13.—When Amador Salazar led off his band of Zapatistas after their slaughter of soldiers and passengers near Ticuman he took with him two pretty young women whose lives he had saved.
This was one of the stories brought here by eleven passengers who escaped during the attack on the train.
During the fighting the eleven ran into the brush along the right of way and were not found by the rebels. From their hiding place they saw the rebels withdraw from the scene, with their woman captives.
The fugitive passenger finally managed to board a train, arriving here late last night. They said that yesterday according to reports from persons in the district, Salazar's band visited the scene of the slaughter and carried off three men whom they said they would hold for ransom.
Stories of cruelty were told by the passengers. One of the women was carrying in her arms when she arrived here, her dead baby, killed in the fighting. A federal column is now in pursuit.

Skirmish Opposite Fort Hancock
By Associated Press.
El Paso, Texas, Aug. 13.—Federals who have been following rebels on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande fought a battle at the T. O. ranch opposite Fort Hancock yesterday.
The rebels were in command of Hernando Ramirez and there were sixty in the band.

The federal killed five men, wounded several, captured nine, eight wagons with families and some horses and ammunition.

Slaughter Was Fearful.
City of Mexico, Aug. 13.—Thirty-six soldiers and more than twenty passengers were slaughtered by Za-patistas Sunday in a canyon one kilometer north of Ticuman, 110 miles south of the City of Mexico.

Meager details, which did not reach the city until Monday, indicate that the savagery displayed was not less, and perhaps greater, than that which characterized the massacre of troops and passengers on a train between Cuernavaca and the City of Mexico on July 20. So far as known only a part of the train crew escaped.

The first story of the assault was sent back to this city by Conductor Marin and Collector Dominguez, who although wounded, had managed to make their way to Yatepec, twelve miles away. They were forced to steal through the Zapatlita lines and did not arrive at the telegraph station until later in the day.

After the firing had ceased the rebels swarmed down the hillside and set fire to the three cars composing the train. A few of the wounded had crawled out onto the right of way thus escaping the fate of those unable to leave the cars, who were burned.

Sec. Wilson Not Condemned.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—The operations of Assistant Secretary Hays of the Department of Agriculture in North Carolina with J. O.
Wright, a former department employee, are criticized in a report of the commission which investigated the Florida Everglades and other affairs. The report hints that impeachment proceedings were narrowly escaped. Secretary Wilson is not condemned for the Everglades affair.

Knew Nothing About Plan.

By Associated Press.
Berlin, Aug. 13.—The report that Geo. D. Wadleigh, president of the Southern States Cotton Corporation was to come to Germany to negotiate with bankers here for the financing of the cotton crop of the South on a basis of 15 cents a pound, is received skeptically by the leading German bankers.
They declare they know nothing about the matter.

YOUNGEST MOTHER ON RECORD IN IOWA CITY

By Associated Press.
Iowa City, Ia., Aug. 13.— The youngest mother recorded in Iowa's medical history is an eleven-year-old girl near Davenport, who gave birth to a healthy 8½ pound child at the University Hospital yesterday.

REDS AND BLUES WILL CONTEST

YOUNG MEN'S PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE WILL OPEN MEMBER-SHIP CAMPAIGN THURSDAY.

TWO TEAMS ENTERED

Losers in Contest Will Banquet Winners—Campaign to Continue 48 Hours.

Members of the membership committee of the Young Men's Progressive League held a meeting Tuesday morning and laid plans for a whirlwind membership campaign to begin Thursday morning next. The campaign is to be prosecuted for a period of forty-eight hours by two membership teams to be known as the Reds and the Blues, composed of four men each. The Reds are composed of Bert Bean, E. J. Harrison, Claude Woods and H. W. Gaston and the Blues are composed of A. L. Huey, E.
G. Hill, D. M. Perkins and C. E.
Bessey.

It was agreed that the losers should banquet the winners at an early date to be agreed upon. This insures a lively contest and the rivalry will be keen.

Each member already enrolled in the organization will be tagged and each new member will receive a tag from the committee securing his enrollment.

The league already has in the neighborhood of one hundred members this with practically no organized membership campaign. It is the belief of the directorate of the institution that from three to four hundred members will be on the lists at the close of the contest of Thursday and Friday.

FIVE KILLED IN FIREWORKS EXPLOSION

Fatalities Result From Premature Ignition of Explosives at Celebration of Assumption Feast.

By Associated Press.
Auburn, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Five were killed today in an explosion of fireworks which were being prepared in the Italian quarter for the celebration of the Assumption feast by the congregation of St. Francis di Assisi.
The dead are Corlino Carmelengo, manufacturer of fireworks and Mrs.
Mary Cheche and her three children.

A strange bomb was found in the ruins.

TAKE STEPS TO PREVENT CAR SHORTAGE.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 10.—It is urged by the Association of Western Railways that active and energetic preparations be made at the present time to prevent a car shortage, according to a communication received today by the railroad commission from W. A. Garrett, chairman of the association at Chicago. The plan proposed by Chairman Garrett is heartily endorsed by Chairman Mayfield of the commission.
Mr. Garrett declares that the time is at hand for the railways and shippers of the United States to begin these preparations.

"The indications are," declared Chairman Garrett, "that if they do not begin such preparations at once they will be confronted next October with the worst situation that has existed since October, 1907, just before the panic. No railway man or shipper needs to be told what that situation was. None needs to be told what the condition in the preceding fall and winter of 1906-7. Railway facilities were inadequate to move the business; yards were congested and heavy loss to the railways, the shippers and the public resulted."

Mr. Garrett figures out that if the reduction in the available supply of cars should be as great as it was in 1909 the country will be faced on October 25, 1912, with a shortage of 179,833 cars. He urges that the shippers and consignees of the country cooperate with the railroads by moving all the lumber, coal, cement and other freight within the next few weeks.
Instead of delaying and throwing it all on the railways when they are staggering under the crop movement.

OIL STRIKE IN NEW TERRITORY

PROMISING SAND ENCOUNTERED ON EEDS FARM EIGHT MILES EAST OF ELECTRA.

MAY DRILL IN TODAY

When 18 Inches in Sand Oil and Gas Came On So Strong Driller Stopped to Move Back Boiler.

With the drill only eighteen inches in the sand the oil and gas came on so strong in the Western Oil Company's well on Commissioner Eeds farm eight miles northeast of Electra Monday, that Driller Hivie shut down to move back the boiler and fire box fearing a blow out and a fire.

A telephone message from Mr.
Eeds this morning said that preparations were being made to drill in the well as soon as the machinery was connected up and that oil men were very enthusiastic over the prospects.

The sand was encountered at a depth of 1441 feet, according to information received here.
Traffic in leases in the vicinity of the well has been very active, and some good prices have been paid.
If the well comes in as good as now promised there will be another rush of operators into that territory.
The strike is another indication that a series of connected pools lie along the south side of Red River across the north end of Wichita and Clay counties from Electra to Petrolia.
It was reported from Electra this morning that the drillers were expecting to drill in the well on the Jennings tract southeast of that place which is being drilled deeper. The well was giving promise of being a good producer.

The drillers are preparing to under-ream in the well on the Roberts farm about six miles northwest of Iowa Park where a good showing was struck in black shale last Saturday.

Hotel Parlor Now Large Enough to Hold Populists

By Associated Press.
St. Louis, Aug. 13.—A small hotel parlor is the scene today of the Populist National convention which four years ago required a theatre to accommodate the delegates. National Chairman Ferris of Illinois will seek a platform plank for the issuance and regulation of small money by Congress.

GENERAL BUCKNER IS STRONG FOR WILSON

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 13.—General Simon Bolivar Buckner, who admits that he "mixed it up considerably" during the Mexican and civil wars, and who served as governor of Kentucky, after laying down his sword, is in Louisville today for a visit to his soldier son, Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr., of Fort Thomas. As soon as the general got squared around at his hotel and had figured as the center of an old-fashioned levee, he said he intended to enjoy every minute of his stay, despite his ninety years.

"You know," he confided to the newspaper men, "I don't get old like a lot of people. Why, I'm up till 12 o'clock or later every night reading the newspapers and magazines, and I find plenty to keep me awake." General Buckner figured as vice presidential candidate on the gold Democrat ticket in 1896. He says he is keenly interested in politics; he always has been. He declares he's strong for Wilson.

One of the reporters, who said he was tired of politics, asked the general to tell some war stories.
"Oh Lord, son, I could tell you lots of war stories," said the general, "but thank God, war times are all over now. Now we are all Americans and our battles are in common."

The reference to battles appeared to remind the general that once he was editor of the old Louisville Courier, for he told several stories illustrating the point that there have been times when knowledge of the fine art of gunnery was necessary for the successful operation of a newspaper. The general will return to his home in rural Kentucky tomorrow.

First Bale Reached Dallas.
Dallas, Texas, Aug. 13.—J. T. Perry of Seagraveville marketed the first bale of cotton of the season here today.
The bale weighed 440 pounds. Mr. Perry received a bonus of $63 including a bonus of $25 from the chamber of commerce.

Stars and Stripes Pulled Down By Mounted Police

By Associated Press.
Saskatoon, Aug. 13.—The royal mounted police headed by a number of citizens of this city caused a sensation on the street here during the parade of a visiting American circus yesterday when they stopped the procession and ordered the stars and stripes taken off the wagons leaving only the union jack. The police were both hooted and cheered by the crowd.

TWO CONVENTIONS BY REPUBLICANS

ROOSEVELT AND TAFT FORCES ARE MEETING IN SEPARATE HALLS TODAY.

LYON A TRESSPASSER

Regular Republicans Held State Chairman Was Barred From Convention.

By Associated Press.
Dallas, Texas, Aug. 13.—Following the split of the Republican executive committee yesterday two conventions were held today. When time came to call the State convention to order today the Roosevelt forces met in the hall where it had been announced the convention would be held and the Taft forces assembled in another hall.

The break developed from the charge against Cecil Lyon that he and his followers had no right to participate in the Republican meeting because of their activities for Colonel Roosevelt. Lyon, who is chairman of the State committee, refused to yield. The Lyon forces had a good assembly.

After assembling and making plans for organization the two conventions adjourned until afternoon.

$25 BONUS ON EACH AUSTRALIAN BARE

Proposed Bill Arouses Storm of Protests, Because of Non-Discrimination.

Sydney, Aug. 13.—Australia is in a ferment over the federal taxation proposals, not only because of the terrible increase in the amount of the tolls, but because of the moral effect of the proposition. Tacked on to a bill providing pensions to children until they are more than 15 years of age is a clause providing for the payment of a bonus of 5 pounds for every child born in Australia, and the parentage will not be inquired into.

Australia is greatly desirous of increasing its population and especially its native stock. Immigration, except of the very highest sort, is not encouraged, but this effort, which will be made by the federal authorities, has brought a storm of protest from all sources.
All sorts of charges are being made against the government and against the interests which are seen behind the move to grant a pension to the children and a bonus for their birth.

ELECTION BETTORS CAN'T SIZE UP THIRD PARTY.

New York, Aug. 13.—The third party is the unknown factor which is holding off the betting on elections, according to the men who in other years have won big sums before this time. Even the "sharpshooters" as they are known by the sporting men who take the first odds in the hope of laying the bets off so that they will make money either way, have shown no disposition to speculate on the result in November.

There was a little lengthening of the Wilson odds today and some of the 2 to 1's were made that the New Jersey man would win. That did not help any in uncovering the money, and it was evident that the larger betters are waiting to get a better line on the sentiment of the country before risking their money.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ISSUE ORDER DECLARING THAT TO BE PRESENT POPULATION.

BASED ON SCHOLASTICS

School Census Indicates Population of 10,626 For Wichita Falls and 1740 For Electra.

Wichita county's population, based on the last scholastic census, is 23,016 and the county commissioners today adopted a formal order declaring that to be the population.

The scholastic figures give Wichita Falls a population of 10,626, Burknett 774, Iowa Park 570 and Electra 1740. The "wet" portion of the county will probably be entitled to two additional saloons as soon as the population of the non-prohibition territory can be figured. Wichita county now has twenty-one saloons, which will probably be increased to twenty-three, one being allowed for each 500 population.

The commissioners ordered a stock law election in the Burknett predict for September 21. This morning was spent in approving accounts and reports and in other routine business. All of the commissioners are present except Mr. Eeds who is still waiting for his oil well to come in.

MAJANE PROMISES SOMETHING DOING

By Associated Press.
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 13.—Frank Majane of Atlantic City, New Jersey, indicted there last year on a bribery charge, and padding election lists in a municipal contest, was arrested here early today.

"There will be something doing in Atlantic City if I go back," he said.

Gold Hidden By A Bandit During Civil War Found

By Associated Press.
Liberty, Mo., Aug. 13.—The sum of $10,000 in gold believed to have been hidden by Wm. Anderson, a bandit who terrorized Missouri after the Civil War has been found in the old Manor house on what was the plantation of Wm. Birch and is now the property of C. E. Yancey of Liberty.

REP. CATLIN UNSEATED; GILL TAKES HIS PLACE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Representative Theron E. Catlin of Missouri, Republican, was unseated last night as a member of the House of Representatives and his Democratic opponent, who contested the election, Patrick F. Gill, was seated amid wild enthusiasm from the Democratic side. The vote to unseat Catlin, who was charged with violation of the Missouri law governing campaign expenses, was 121 to 71.
Gill was seated by a vote of 109 to 75, with 23 voting present.

Mr. Catlin just before the first roll call left the seat he had occupied in the center of the Republican side of the House and went to his desk far in the rear. He lifted the desk lid and using an adjoining chair as a repository removed all of his books and papers. Like a school boy who had been dismissed from the school room, he left the chamber with lagging step, stopping only to grasp the outstretched hands of sympathetic friends.

Three-quarters of an hour later his successful rival stood before the Speaker's desk and took the oath of office.

The case throughout the seven hours of debate was bitterly fought on both sides. Representative Anderson of Minnesota, Republican, who conducted the argument in behalf of Mr. Catlin, made a spirited defense.
The charge against Mr. Catlin was that he and his family had spent $10,200 to elect him to Congress, while the Missouri law prohibited an expenditure of more than $602. Other charges of fraud were made all of which Mr. Catlin denied knowledge of. He also denied that he knew at the time of any expenditures made by his father and brother.

Splitter Causes Trouble.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 12.—Last week Maud Nash, an 11-year-old girl here, ran a splitter into her foot, fell on a pin that entered her back, and then, to cap the climax of her series of accidents, was bitten by her pet terrier. She is now in the Charity Hospital, suffering from lockjaw. The physicians say that the splitter has caused the trouble.
Her recovery is considered doubtful.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—The highest price ever paid for cattle in the United States was given yesterday at the stock yards when beef on the hoof brought $10.40 a hundred weight. The former record was made last week when $10.25 was paid.

LAFOLLETTE AND ROOT IN CLASH

SENATORS EXCHANGE BELLIGER-ENT WORDS OVER POSTAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

THE AMENDMENT FAILED

Senate Refuses to Forbid Postal Employees Joining Secret Organizations Outside Department.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—An attempt to amend the postal appropriation bill to forbid postal employees from joining secret organizations outside of the department was defeated in the Senate 31 to 21 after a sharp fight in which the possibility of a strike against the government was freely discussed.

Senator LaFollette today refused to go further with his charge that his mail had been rifled by postoffice officials.

Wordy Clash Between Senators.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Senator Root and Senator LaFollette got into a wordy clash today over whet-ter Mr. LaFollette favored legislation in the postoffice appropriation bill which would sanction a strike of government employees.

When Mr. Root asked the Wisconsin senator a direct question to that effect Mr. LaFollette shouted that he refused to be trapped by the senator from New York.

"That is offensive," returned Senator Root, "I have asked the senator what is his position in regard to the right of postal employees to strike."

"I do not sanction legislation that would in any way cause strikes on the part of postal employees," replied Mr. LaFollette. Then the squall blew over.

FILL COURTROOM WITH THEIR MALEDICTIONS

Detroit Police Court Resembled Cammorra Trial When Aldermen Were Arraigned.

By Associated Press.
Detroit, Aug. 13.—The Detroit police court took on the characteristics of the Viterbo tribunal during the Camorra trial when Edward Schrelter, common counsel committee clerk, and the eighteen alleged grafting aldermen were arraigned. Schrelter's confession in which he involved himself and the city officials, under arrest was unanimously decried by the aldermen who filled the court room with their maledictions.

WILL ACT UPON ELECTION PETITION NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Waco, Aug. 12.—In response to the request of a number of business men of the city the county commissioners will not act upon the application of the prohibitionists of the county for a local option election in the county until Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the business men will present arguments for an early election.

HAILESTORM AND WIND DOES DAMAGE AT RINGGOLD

Ringgold, Texas, Aug. 13.—A wind and hailstorm swept this part of Montague county, doing the greatest damage at a point three miles south of this town. Among the property owners who suffered damages are H.
J. Jenkins, whose house was partially wrecked, his barn blown down and his crop considerably injured; Mrs.
Seay's house was wrecked and her barn blown down; Charles Davenport, house blown off its foundation, windmill toppled over and crop completely destroyed; A. J. Martin, crop destroyed; J. A. Eckinson, house blown to pieces; W. A. Osborn, cotton crop badly damaged.

STEAM ROLLER CAVORTS AROUND

FIGURATIVELY STOOD ON HIND WHEELS AND FIZZLED WHEN THOMAS MENTIONED "LI-QUOR INTERESTS."

HANGER MADE CHAIRMAN

When Thomas Named—Lattimore It Seemed For Time He Would Be Driven From Platform.

By Associated Press.
San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 13.—The steam roller stood figuratively on its hind wheels and fizzled for thirty-five minutes today when Cullen F. Thomas of Dallas, tried to make the first opposition move in the Democratic convention against the Colquitt forces.

It was thirty-five minutes before the delegates were quiet enough to let Thomas name Senator O. F. Lattimore of Fort Worth for temporary chairman in opposition to Former Senator W. A. Hanger of Fort Worth, selected by the State executive committee.

When Thomas demanded whether his opponent represented "liquor interests and St. Louis money" it looked as if he might be forced from the platform. Chairman Williams and other Colquitt leaders finally resorted to quiet. Hanger was elected temporary chairman.

Two important issues promised to go to the convention floor for settlement in open debate when the Democratic State convention met at noon. These issues were the 3:30 p. m., closing law for saloons and the question of the convention's right to overrule the choices of Dallas, Fort Worth and Waco's districts for their representatives on the State executive committee.

Governor Colquitt made an apparent stone wall front on his assertion that he would stand by his repeated campaign pledge for early saloon closing. Some of his staunchest friends who are anti-prohibition leaders have not yielded to his views and there was a general discussion of a fight on the floor over the subject.

Action of the platform committee, due late today was conceded to have important weight on subsequent liquor regulation developments. The fact that the governor's campaign pledges can be appealed to by the legislature regardless of whether the convention adopts early closing was a strong factor in crystallizing sentiment.

Chairman Sheb Williams called the convention to order at 12:15. The hall was packed. Bishop E. Z. Mou-son delivered the opening prayer and immediately afterward there were shouts of "honk, honk," from delegates who professed to be anxious to start the "steam roller."

The six contests before the executive committee today were decided in favor of Colquitt delegations. The delegations thrown out were all Ramsey men.

Features of Colquitt's Platform

By Associated Press.
San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 13.—The fight promised today by some of Colquitt's supporters against the Governor's stand for 3:30 closing of saloons promised to delay the framing of the platform for presentation to the convention until tonight.

The principal features of Governor Colquitt's platform, which will be in the main the document adopted by the convention, are as follows: 3:30 p. m., to 7:30 a. m., closing of saloons; provisions to enable cities to keep saloons out of residence and other districts; privilege for counties to adopt original package law; compulsory arbitration of labor disputes; civil service system for state employees; educational reform including better support for schools with independent source of revenue; revision of Terrell election law; abolition of the present state insurance board; prohibiting corporation campaign contributions; prison reform, both in practices and finances; bonded warehouses for holding cotton; revision of game, oyster and fish laws; endorsement of Woodrow Wilson; five per cent tax for Confederate pensions; against extravagance in management of fraternal insurance companies and laws to prohibit payment of excessive amounts to pro-motors of corporations; a stock and bond law amendment allowing railroads to issue bonds for permanent improvements, etc.; revision and codification of present laws.

Reports Show All Crops In Flourishing Condition

Cotton, corn and forage crops in this section are all very promising at present, according to the August report of the Texas Industrial Congress. According to the figures of the Congress, Wichita county's yield will average thirty-one bushels of corn, two-thirds of a bale of cotton and two tons of forage to the acre. Should this prediction be fulfilled, these crops will be much better than in years. The estimates for North-west Texas counties follow:

THOUSANDS OF BUSHELS HAVE

FRUIT JAR SUPPLY LOW

Stock Runs Low and Wholesale House Sends Rush Order By Telegraph.
Canning Factory Talked.

The heavy peach crop and the resulting activities of housewives in making preserves have resulted in partial depletion of the supply of fruit jars and one of the wholesale houses found it necessary today to send a rush order for more. With an almost unlimited supply of peaches at fifty cents per bushel an enormous quantity has found its way into the preserve jars, of which thousands have been sold within the past few weeks.

One of the wholesale houses this morning reported its supply about exhausted and said it had sent rush orders for more jars. From all indications preserves and canned peaches will be a staple delicacy on Wichita tables next winter.

Considerable canning of peaches is being done by the orchard owners themselves and this has led to a renewal of the agitation for a canning factory here. It is probable that some definite action towards putting such an industry into operation will be taken before another peach season rolls around.

Peach-vendors have become persistent in their efforts to dispose of their goods that one lady has announced her intention to put up a sign "no peaches wanted" on her front door.

WATERMELONS WEIGHING FROM 65 TO 70 POUNDS

J. B. Blessing, residing five miles west of Burkburnett, brought to town today another load of fine watermelons, averaging in weight from 65 to 70 pounds. Mr. Blessing left one of the melons at The Times office which the force will cut and pass judgment on later.

In the load were three extra large size, weighing about 80 pounds each. They were brought to be turned over to the Chamber of Commerce and will be sent to Dallas with the Wichita county agricultural exhibit at the State Fair.

Mr. Blessing says that one vine is capable of producing as many as four or five melons weighing 65- or 70 pounds.

TO PUT A COUNTY ON THE EDUCATIONAL MAP

A point stressed again and again by the speakers during Rural School Education Week, held in July at the University of Texas by the State County Superintendents and other educators, is the necessity for the school to hook up its work, to tie itself fast to the fundamental things of life, particularly to the life of its own community. A school house is no longer a place apart from the world; where a lad goes to make himself a book worm or a student. Of course, the multiplication table is the multiplication table, and must be mastered as just that; but arithmetic can be applied to the crops in the near-by field or the number of pounds of butter fat yielded by the family cow. Geography can be studied in the home fields; language lessons can sometimes be about our common birds. And it isn't bad training in science to learn first hand the local insect pests or to breed better seed. Thus the school becomes a natural part of the child's and his parent's life. The child is helped to develop the interests that are already a part of his life; not wrenched violently out of his home and thrust into a foreign place called school.

We seem just to be learning for example, that a country boy has a real right to a school that shares his interests—not one that merely usually very badly—a plan that has been worked out to fit the needs of the city boy. It is hardly a matter for surprise that the country boy has gone to the city by thousands when his own school was designed, seemingly, to draw his interests away by teaching him about everything other than the sun except the things of the home farm. And any county school superintendent can put his county on the educational map who will solve his problem of welding the interests of each section of his county to its own district school.

CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN EXPENSES NOT ACCOUNTED.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Representative James T. Lloyd of Missouri, chairman of the Democratic Congressional campaign committee in 1908, told the Senate committee investigating campaign funds that he had no absolute record of the committee's receipts and expenditures of that year but he was certain the receipts were $27,500 and the expenditures $193,000.

CAMPAIGN GIFTS TAKEN GINGERLY

Gift Horses Being Looked In Mouth
By Managers of Political Campaigns These Days.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 12.—This early in the National campaign has Senator Culberson impressed upon the Democratic party especially, as well as upon other parties, the advisability of being cautious in the acceptance of fat campaign contributions from certain sources.

It was a resolution by the senior Texas Senator that brought on the investigation by a subcommittee of the Senate Privileges and Elections Committee into the finances of the two old-line parties in the campaigns of 1904 and 1908, which has disclosed, despite Republican domination of the investigating committee, that Wall Street interests and the "trust club," comprising the arch beneficiaries of a high protective tariff on manufactures, did in each of these Nation-wide contests furnish the lubricating oil for the Republican machinery.

If the bill by Senator Culberson prohibiting absolutely the making of campaign contributions by Federal corporations, National banks, etc., under penalty of a $5,000 fine for each violation, and limiting the contributions of individuals to $5,000 shall become law during the present session of Congress, the Republicans and Bull Moosers probably will find it difficult to manage things. If the measure is to be judged by the past, this bill has been favorably reported by the Senate Privileges and Elections Committee, party because it behooved the Republican majority on that committee to keep a stiff upper lip and at least show signs of favoring clean politics. The measure has a chance of enactment in this session; for the Democrats on every move of this character in this season of political strife.

Campaigns May Suffer.

Campaign speeches at the latter end of the coming fight, just when the future of politics will be at its greatest, are likely to be interfered with by what now appears to be a joker in the law relating to campaign expense publicity, and which probably 200 members of the House of Representatives do not understand fully. This estimate, based on the statement of one of the keenest lawyers in the House, will cover nearly the entire field of campaign oratory, and may result in several changes in campaign plans.

The provision in the bill which many Congressmen are supposed not to understand fully requires that the four itemized campaign expense accounts required under the latest Federal publicity law have to be sworn to in the district in which the Representative is a candidate or in the State in which he is a Senator is a candidate, but if the Congress is in session, the affidavit may be made in Washington. Many such affidavits have been made in Washington heretofore, because Congress has been in session at the time the statement is required.

However, if a silver-tongued Representative from a Western State is pleading the political cause of the presidential candidate in the Far East somewhere about ten days before election next November, he will have to board a train and take a transcontinental journey for the single sake of swearing to a list of expenses. At that time, Congress not being in session, he is required by law to make affidavit in his own district.

Unless the speakers' bureaus of the various presidential campaigns arrange their speakers' routes so that the statesmen can get back home easily to make these affidavits at election time, there will be great inconvenience to scores of legislators. This is entirely separate and distinct from the requirements of State laws regarding the publicity of campaign funds.

Federal Publicity Law.

The Federal publicity law was passed only last year. It requires that political campaign committees in the States shall file in the clerk's office at the House of Representatives not more than fifteen days and not less than ten days before election day an itemized statement of campaign expenses, and on the sixth day after election a supplemental detailed statement shall be filed.

It requires that every candidate for nomination at the primaries or for election shall "not less than ten nor more than fifteen days before the election file with the clerk of the House of Representatives" an itemized statement of campaign expenses, and then, not less than ten nor more than fifteen days after election a supplemental expense list must be filed.

That would be a very easy thing to do by mail if it were not for this little joker.

"Every statement herein required by law shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the candidate, taken before an officer authorized to administer the laws of the State in which he is a candidate for Representative or the State in which he is a candidate for Senator in the Congress of the United States." This is followed by the provision which allows a Congressman to make the affidavit in Washington if Congress is in session. Congress will probably not be in session in November. Hence the fear that many orators will have to leave the stump hurriedly and go home.

Apparatus which introduces oxygen into the cylinders of a gasoline engine to remove the carbon deposits without dismantling the machinery is now being marketed.

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW

AS TOLD TO

Hugh S. Fullerton

By JACK FLYNN.

Formerly First Baseman, Pittsburgh Nationals, Now Being Moulded into a Catcher, and Conceded to Be Promising Material.

The man whom I believe to be the greatest player that ever wore a spike made what I think was the greatest play that ever was made. The player, of course, was Hans Wagner, and the play was made against Philadelphia two years ago.

The play that I think was the best I ever saw was made on the Philadelphia grounds, and not only saved the game for us, but I think won the pennant for Pittsburgh. It was late in the season of 1909, and although we had a fairly comfortable lead in the race, every game counted and we couldn't afford to lose any, as that Chicago club kept coming back after us and giving us a hard chase. Every time we lost the Cubs were right on our heels, and every time they lost and we thought we had them they came back harder than ever.

We had the game won at Philadelphia by two runs and looked to be going along all right until the seventh, when things broke loose. Did you ever notice that just when you think everything is lovely and that the game is easy, trouble starts? Well, it started right. Before we could get them stopped the bases were filled and no one out, with Bates at the bat—a fast man and a dangerous hitter.

The play that came seems rather commonplace to tell, but to me it was wonderful. Bates hit a hard line drive low and almost over second base. Wagner started before the ball was hit, and going back of second he made one of those wonderful one-handed running scoops that he alone makes regularly. The great part of the play was what followed. I have tried to figure out how Wagner knew what to do. If he had caught the ball near enough to second base to step on the bag and then throw, he would have had a triple play. But he was back of the bag, overbalanced from the effort of catching the ball, and instinctively he knew that before he could turn and run back to the base the runner would slide back safe. The runner off first base was diving back to keep from being doubled. Wagner didn't hesitate or lose a second. He whirled and whipped the ball straight to third base—and the runner was nipped off that bag.

It seemed that the moment the ball hit Hans' hand he knew what to do. He realized that the play was so fast and the catch so wonderful, neither the runner on first or second would be far enough away to catch. Also he knew that the runner on third would be away from the bag and slow in getting back. He whirled and made the play without stopping to see if he figured had been correct—and then returned when he saw he had guessed right. I tried to get John to tell how he figured it out, but he hates so much to knock another player that he wouldn't even admit that he figured on the bone in the runner's head making the double play possible. The next batter flied out, and after that we won as we pleased.

DELIVERIES BY AUTO

A great many women who in past years have spent much time, lots of hard work and no small amount of money in putting up vast quantities of preserves for winter use have seen the light and now buy their preserves.

Those same women would have thrown up their hands in horror at such a suggestion only a year or two ago. It took no little persuasion and various trial jars of ready-made preserves to convince them that the quality was there, and that the price was no higher if as high as the home made article. But they have learned as you may learn that it does not pay to put up preserves at home when such brands as Monarch, Bismarck, and Curtis Bros. are at your service and in larger varieties than you can possibly secure. For instance a 5-lb. tin of Monarch red cherry preserves is only $1. A 2½-lb. of peach or strawberry preserves only 60c, while 1 quart jars of Bismarck strawberry, blackberry and peach are only 40c and Curtis Bros. strawberry, blackberry and peach jam at 25c per jar.

Before you spend any time on putting up such winter goods, come in and talk with me about a supply for winter use on which I will make you a special price.

One farmer in Wichita county made a yield of 14.00 bushels of wheat on his farm this year. That is some wheat crop.

No man ought to lay claim to be "an original Wilson man" unless he is perfectly willing to separate himself from as much as $1 to help along the campaign.

Wichita Falls advantages as a wholesale and jobbing center have now begun to attract attention, as a result of Secretary Forester's thorough presentation of our freight rate and distributing advantages.

The police were called in to quell a riot in a meeting of the Republican state executive committee at Dallas yesterday. If the police are required at a meeting of the executive committee the militia will probably be necessary at the State convention.

There are many insane persons now confined in Texas jails for the reason that there is not sufficient accommodations for them in the State's insane asylums. This condition has prevailed for a long time, and it occurs to this paper that it is time for the people of Texas to make a vigorous protest.
If our asylums are not large enough, then they should be added to.

Perhaps it isn't good policy to indulge in self praise while we are still far short of perfection, still we can't keep back the observation that in a sanitary way Wichita Falls is as fraternal as compared with some other Texas cities. When the lake east of the city is drained and the sanitary sewer runs through every alley in the city we will become the real quintessence.

The finding of oil eight miles east of Electra and the showing six miles northwest of Iowa Park in conjunction with the recent strike at Burkhart are indications that a series of connected pools lie along the south side of Red River across the north end of Wichita county. Oil men now unite in declaring the prospects splendid for opening one of the greatest oil fields in the country here.

The Cleburne Review is a Democratic paper and is supporting the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President, therefore we cannot refrain from being more or less amazed at the character of cartoon service it is using on its editorial page, being favorable to Republican contention of protection, and especially in opposition to Wilson.—Denison Herald.

The Times, also had noticed the cartoon service being furnished the Review had decided Republican leanings.
Perhaps the Review can explain.

"Many fossils found in Texas," is the heading over an item sent out by the Texas Commercial Secretaries. It refers, of course, to remains of animals of a prehistoric period, and not persons whose views or habits are extremely antiquated. We have some of the latter, it is true, both in commercial and political life, and paradoxical as it may seem some of our most modern and progressive business men are the most antiquated and non-progressive in their political ideas. The

With the Politicians

Government officials are surveying the entrance to Resurrection Bay, near Seward, Alaska, for a coaling station and proposed fortifications.

The Progressive National party of New York State, which is headed by Ex-Superintendent of Insurance Hotchkiss, is preparing to hold its state convention on September 15.

August 20 has been selected as the date and the State Fair grounds at Indianapolis as the place for notifying Governor Marshall of Indiana of his nomination for the vice presidency. The next day the republicans will notify Vice President Sherman of his nomination at Utica, N. Y.

An effort has been made by several distinguished politicians in the Taft and Wilson camps to liken the Roosevelt third party movement this year to the Gold Democratic movement in 1896, headed by Palmer and Buckner.
The Palmer-Buckner movement was the result of three months work and the total popular vote for those Gold Democratic candidates was but 133, 424. Then, too, it was a split only from the Democratic party. The Roosevelt movement, the Colonel's follower insist, represents a split from the republican party and is supported also by many ultra-radical Democrats.

While ex-President Roosevelt heartily supported President Taft in advocating reciprocity with Canada, he has since recanted and his friends now say that at the Roosevelt state convention of New York to be held next month a special plank will be introduced in the platform denouncing the proposed reciprocity measure with Canada. The Roosevelt people say they are well aware that the republican farmers of New York are antagonistic to the measure and they propose to take advantage of the feeling of antagonism to President Taft which still rankles in the minds of the farmers because of its passage.

number of Texans who are fossilized in any sense of the term however, is very small and is constantly growing less.

There is some talk of getting out an independent ticket for some of the county offices, but such a movement cannot consistently receive encouragement at the hands of any Democrat who participated in the Democratic primaries. The nominees have been named, and they are entitled to and should receive the full vote of the party at the general election in November. It is the right of any man to offer as a candidate for office, provided that man has not already pledged himself to support the nominees of his party.

Every Democrat in Texas should contribute his mite to the Woodrow Wilson presidential campaign fund.
Hon. Cato Sells, National committeeman from Texas, whose postoffice address is Cleburne, will promptly acknowledge all contributions sent him for that purpose. Those who do not wish to bother about sending in their contributions to Mr. Sells direct, can leave them at the Times office, with their names, and they will be forwarded to Mr. Sells promptly. Any amount from $1.00 up will be accepted. If the Democrats are to be successful in this presidential campaign, the party must be supplied with sufficient funds to pay legitimate campaign ex-even though the measure was passed by an overwhelming majority in congress. The Roosevelt people say that this feeling of opposition can only be removed by the repeal of the measure.

Reports from London predict the early retirement of Lord Morley from the Lord Presidency of the Council and the return of Lord Gladstone from South Africa. Lord Morley has been able to give very little time to the House of Lords lately, and has been in attendance only when his presence has been required in some particular debate. It is only a matter of opportunity and of the convenience of the Prime Minister, it is understood, when Lord Morley will finally retire from office. Augustine Birrell is another Minister who is overworked and his transition from the Irish Chief Secretaryship to the Indian office would be a relief to him.

McComb's first Lieutenant in the Wilson publicity propaganda was Thomas J. Pence, whom he installed in charge of the Washington Bureau of the Governor's headquarters.
Here was another instance where the young campaign manager displayed his accurate judgment of men and his discretion in assigning them to fulfill a mission. "Colonel Tawn" they call him down in North Carolina, from which section he emanates—Colonel absolutely for no reason in the world except that it is come in fact that every Tar Heel-er should have a title attached to his name, and Tawn because in the indigenous North Carolina dialect that is the way they pronounce Tom and so Colonel Tawn he now is from one end of the country to the other —the right man in the right place.
Colonel Tawn had not an enemy in the world, but ten thousand and friends who were willing to assist in giving publicity to the Wilson campaign. If for no other reason than through their regard for him—From National Monthly for August.

It will require something like a million dollars to do this, and the methods adopted by the managers of the campaign is to raise this money by popular subscription. If you want to help finance this great campaign, do it now, at a time that your donations can be put to good use.

The Electra oil field was extended yesterday an even eight miles to the east by the striking of heavy oil sand in the Eads well at a depth of about 1400 feet. The flow of gas from this well was so strong that the drillers of the well deemed it advisable to stop drilling until they could move the bottom further away from the well, in order to avoid accidents by explosion. If this well proves a producer, and there is every indication that it will, it is considered by most oil operators that the developments of the oil and gas fields in Wichita county is yet in its infancy.

Texas, the greatest cattle state in the Union, is particularly interested in the rising price of beef cattle and the high prices are bringing prosperity to many ranch owners and livestock men.
However, there is serious danger that the present high prices will cause a rush to the market of young stock and animals that would ordinarily be kept for breeding purposes. Today's record price of $10.40 will mean that many breeding animals will be sacrificed and the diminishing supply still lowered. There is not the least doubt in the minds of competent observers that the present high prices result from a scarcity. The ranges and farms have ceased to meet the demand of the slaughter pens. This is shown in statistics from the six principal livestock markets of the country which during the first six months of 1912 showed a decrease of 410,000 head marketed as compared with the corresponding period in 1911. The price was high enough to draw cattle to the market if they had been raised. The reason they didn't come to the market was because they didn't exist. The situation can be met in only two ways. One is to regulate the slaughter of breeding cattle and the consumption of beef. The other is a campaign to encourage the raising of more cattle. The latter is the more practical plan. The best and most profitable livestock is that raised by the small farmer. The cry has been "hold down the cotton acreage." How would it do to adopt the slogan, "raise more beef." The ill that result from planting too much cotton might find their antidote in more livestock.

NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS ENDORSE BRYAN.

Those Texas papers that have had so much to say in condemnation of the attitude Bryan took at the Baltimore convention and broke away from instructions for Clark and voted for the nomination of Wilson should at least be frank enough to state that Bryan went back to his state, told what he had done and why he did it, and the Democrats of Nebraska in what was perhaps the largest attended State convention ever held in that state, approved his action by a vote of 632 1/2 to 246 1/2. In addition to the vote of approval the following resolutions were approved.

"We hereby express our unqualified approval of the nominees and of the platform.

"We point with pride to the leadership Nebraska Democracy has taken during the past eighteen years under the guidance of William J. Bryan.

"We congratulate the Democrats of the Nation that they had in Nebraska's distinguished citizen a man who who dared defy the elements that had wrecked the Republican party and that sought at Baltimore the destruction of the Democratic party; that with superb courage he challenged the right of these elements to dominate the Democratic convention and stood for what he believed to be the interest of the folks at home; that through his leadership the convention at Baltimore was transformed from what at one time seemed to be a reactionary convention into a real Democratic convention with real Democratic candidates standing upon a genuine Democratic platform. We cordially approve Mr.
Bryan's course at Baltimore and we heartily commend him for the course he adopted and we congratulate him upon the magnificent victory."

The Texas delegation sent to Baltimore stood by Mr. Bryan in everything he did. It is true, however, that National Committeeman R. M. Johnson, refused to work with the Texas delegation in bringing about the nomination of Wilson, and it is now up to the San Antonio convention, which is controlled by Gov. Colquhoun and his friends, (among the latter being Col. Johnson) to either condemn or approve the action of the Texas delegation at Baltimore. It will be showing cowardice to remain silent on that matter. The acts of our delegation should either be approved or condemned by the Democratic State convention.

POLITICAL ETCHINGS.

A Man Who Cannot Hold Friends.
The leader who cannot attach to himself friends who will stand by him devotedly and continuously is either dishonest or unstable, ungenerous or untrustworthy.

This thought is aroused by an examination of the list of managers surrounded the third-termer at the obse-quies of the Republican party which he professes to be conducting at Chicago. Glance back two years. Then the third-termer had such strong and unemotional followers at William H.
Taft, Philander C. Knox, Henry Cabot Lodge, Winthrop Murray Crane, Boies Penrose, William Loeb, Jr., Franklin Murphy—Senators, Representatives, judges were all his admirers.

He appeared again in the limelight in June, and all these men who had had confidential relations with him for a lifetime had abandoned him. He had a new batch. These consisted of Senator Borah of Idaho, Governor Denison of Illinois, Governor Hadley of Missouri, Governor Osborn of Michigan, Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin and a legion of others, for the most part young men in the Republican party.

He was whipped at Chicago by Mr.
Taft, proclaimed his intention of "killing" the Republican party, and now turns up with an entirely new set of supporters, most of whom were not prominent enough until now to get their names in their home newspapers.
Some of them are women who have been deceived by his eleventh hour espousal of female suffrage. But so far as the gathering at Chicago being the "nucleus" of a great party goes, it has no more right to be compared with an important event than the march of Coxey's army could be compared with the carefully arranged movement back of the Socialist-Labor party.

What is the matter with a man who has to change the personnel of his organization so often?—New York Herald.

GAS WELL AT MEXIA ATTRACTING ATTENTION

Mexia, Texas, Aug. 13.—The big gas gusher just west of the city continues to be the topic of conversation of the public and especially those who are acquainted with the workings of gas and oil wells.

After repeated efforts on the part of the drillers the well was capped yesterday and remained so until about 11 o'clock last night, when the gas came with such force that everything was blown out and the well roared with terrific force, and this morning the drillers capped it again. There is no question but what this well will prove to be an immense one, and it will solve the fuel question for this city, and possibly other close towns. Oil operators and representatives from different oil companies are here watching the capers of this well.

DECISION ON FORFEITURE OIL LEASE.

The following report of a judgment by the Kansas supreme court in a suit for forfeiture of an oil lease is reported in the Oil and Gas Journal:

In a suit to cancel an oil and gas lease it appeared that the lease provided for the payment of a yearly rental of $1 per acre, one half due June 1 and the other half December 1 in each year. It further provided that failure to pay any rental or royalties when due according to the terms of said lease, and after thirty days' notice in writing by the parties of the first part to said second party shall forfeit all rights within this lease.

The half yearly rental of $50 became due December 1, 1909, and was not paid. On the same day, shortly after noon, the plaintiff gave the defendants a notice in writing, stating that the rental was due and should have been paid that day, and notified them to pay the same at once or have the lease cancelled. The defendants were not then in default, but had all of December 1 in which to make the payment.

The notice of default, having been served before any default had occurred, could not, it was held, form the basis of a right of forfeiture. A similar provision for forfeiture was before the Kansas Supreme Court in Young vs. Scott, 115 Pac. 873, and it was held that "two things were necessary to a forfeiture, a default in the payment of rental when due, and the giving of thirty days' notice in writing of the default and the purpose to forfeit."

The contention that the bringing of the suit should be regarded as a notice to pay, and that the failure since to pay entitled the plaintiff to a decree of cancellation was not sustained. The right to forfeiture is not predicated upon equitable grounds, but rests solely upon the alleged failure to comply strictly with the conditions and terms of the lease.

Judgment for the plaintiff was reversed and judgment for the defendants directed.

"GOOD" HARDLY TELLS CROP CONDITIONS

Commissioner McCleskey Says Many Cotton Fields Will Yield Better Than Half Bale Average.

"Good hardly tells it," said Commissioner McCleskey today when it was suggested that cotton ought to be looking good around the Park.

Mr. McCleskey isn't much given to prophesy in the matter of crop yields but is willing to hazard that most of the cotton around Iowa Park will yield better than half a bale to the acre and some fields a bale. "I never saw cotton look so promising," he said. "Feed crops too are flourishing and it looks like the best year the farmers have had in a long while."

The Three Men "Higher Up" Near Arrest.

Special to the Times.
New York, Aug. 13.—Blackmail extorted from gambling and disorderly houses is said to go into the pocket of three men "higher up" who are the real head of the graft syndicate that provides police protection, for a price to the underworld. District Attorney Whitman has information from detectives working with him on the Rosenthal case that these men are a lawyer, a hotel proprietor, who claims strong political affiliations, and a police official.

Two police inspectors also are said to be profiting rich from graft. Mr. Whitman is now convinced that Rose told the truth when he said at least $2,400,000 was collected from gamblers in one section of the city alone.

Mr. Whitman is said to have a list of names of prominent persons who played in various gambling houses. It is said they may be subpoenaed to give information.

Shepps Denies Alleged Interviews.

By Associated Press.
Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 13.—Sam Shepps today authorized the following statement and requested the Associated Press to deliver it to the papers:

"I want to say that every sensational story sent out of Hot Springs which quotes me either directly or indirectly as having made any confession of any connection regarding police graft, I brand as maliciously false."

OUR CIGARS

are right. They are the best that can be sold for the money. They are kept right and sold so fast that today we have not a cigar that has been in the house sixty days. There is a great difference in smoking a cigar fresh from the moistening vaults and the one that has been allowed to become bone dry from lack of attention. The dry ill-kept cigar is the one that soon gets full of bugs, while a cigar properly kept is never attacked by insects. We give our cigar department the best attention of any thing in the house. If you are a connoisseur of the weed let us tease your taste with a smoke that always hits the spot.

Hints For Ladies.

Evidently thinking that life at a modern summer resort is too frivolous some person has been posting warnings to society, written in a straggling hand on note paper. They were found yesterday conspicuously posted on telegraph poles and at other points of vantage near the Swimming Club, where society gathers, and near the postoffice. The posters read:

Hints For Ladies

1. Wear stockings heavier than gauze.
2. Wear skirts more than one half yard around.
3. Don't wear French heels.
4. Don't stare.

Lawrence, Wichita Falls' third baseman, was given a trial with Dallas yesterday in the game against Houston. Lawrence got one hit and scored one run, but the two errors charged against his fielding indicate that he did not excel himself and unless he does better in some later trial, he will probably be turned loose. Baxter was expected to pitch for Houston yesterday, but a veteran, Rose, was put in instead.
