Area lakes claim 2nd victim

Robert Weeks, 16-year-old Colorado High School sophomore, was drowned in the turbulent waters near the Texas Electric Service Company north discharge at Lake Colorado City Thursday night.

Weeks and two teenagers from Sweetwater had jumped into the water to go swimming and, although one of the other boys managed to get out of the water and throw a wire to another, neither was able to get Weeks out, according to Mitchell County Game Warden Ronnie Aston.

Aston said he received word of the incident at 6:10 p.m. and the body was recovered at 7:40 p.m. Sheriff Wendell Bryant, Deputy Bobby Calloway, Highway Patrolman Frank Costabile and several members of the fire department aided in the recovery.

Aston noted that the area in which the boys tried to swim is posted with signs stating the danger and was also surrounded by a chain link fence.

"In spite of all that, people still sneak to fish and swim," he stated.

Aston also said that the turbulence in that water "just keeps pulling you under. The boy just couldn't get out."

Weeks had just enrolled at CHS last Monday and was living with his grandparents, Virgil and Nina Hogue, at Cooper's Cove. His parents are Jimmy and Doris Weeks, address unknown.

MITCHELL COUNTY GAME WARDEN, Ronnie Aston (right), and Deputy Sheriff Bobby Calloway drag the turbulent waters at the TESCO north discharge on Lake Colorado City, Thursday afternoon late in search of Robert Weeks, a 16-year-old youth who drowned in the waters. According to Aston, Weeks and two other companions were diving into the water from the catwalk on which the lawmen are standing.

No liquor permits approved at hearing

During the public hearing held Wednesday in Mitchell County concerning applications for permits to sell liquor in Precinct Three, three of the applications were withdrawn and one was not approved.

The application of John E. Snider was withdrawn because he had not signed the application; J. N. Baker, owner of Baker's Bait Shop, withdrew his application because some work needed to be done on his establishment.

Concerning the application of Bob Tammen, County Judge Bill Carter said, "In interrogating Mr. Tammen, we got so far down and he asked me for a five minute recess which I granted and when he came back in, he asked if he could make a statement."

According to Carter, Tammen then withdrew his application because "He wanted to have time to go hire a lawyer and then contact the Commissioners Court to see if they could get a less biased judge to rule in his favor."

Carter said he told See PERMITS, Page 2

Merchants observe Senior Center Week

Gov. Mark White has designated May as Older Texans Month. The Governor signed a memorandum urging Texas communities to pay a special tribute to senior citizens during the month of May.

"The nearly 2 million citizens of this state 60 years and older have built a solid foundation on which our present and our future is based. Many of our senior citizens demonstrate daily their willingness to remain active and continue to contribute to our state's prosperity. They are indeed an inspiration to us all.

It is also appropriate at this time that we encourage all our older citizens to remain physically active, provide leadership and continue to offer their many years of priceless experience.

Loraine council approves budget

During the meeting of the Loraine City Council Thursday, May 5, City Secretary, Kaye Nell Cornutt was instructed by the council to contact all merchants with whom the City of Loraine does business and instruct them not to allow city employees to charge merchandise to the City's account unless they have verbal approval from either herself or Mayor Royce Beights. According to the council members, there had been no real problems with employees making unauthorized purchases, but they hoped this measure would insure that the situation did not arise. In other matters, the council:

- Approved the budget for 1983-84;
- Heard a report from Beights that he had talked to Colorado City Manager Rick Crowley and had been given a proposal concerning the possibility of Loraine using the Colorado City landfill. Beights was authorized to negotiate with the City of Colorado City in this matter.

The play, which is to be directed by Carl Beery Moore, will require a very large cast. Moore is urging that all interested people come and take part. Without a big turnout at auditions, it will be impossible to do this play.

Tammen said Thursday that he has retained an attorney.

In perhaps the most controversial action during the public hearing, Carter denied the application of Colonial Food Store located at the corner of Hickory and 12th Sts.

"The Colonial, as I have said, caused me a great deal more concern than the other three due to the fact of its proximity to two schools," stated Carter.

He explained that the administration building was counted as a school because P.E. classes used the gym there, as well as other organizations using it.

Carter stated that he made his decision to turn down Colonial's application based on state law, Section 61.42 titled "Mandatory Grounds For Refusal: Distributor or Retailer."

That section reads, "The county judge shall refuse to approve an

Jo Chiofalo, district manager for Colonial, commented, "I don't believe we're doing anything against the wishes of the people in Precinct Three, since they voted to legalize the sale of liquor in April."

She added that Colonial attorneys have already begun proceeding in the matter.

"I don't want the people to think I've taken a dictatorial fashion," said Carter. "I realize that I have a duty to perform and I'm going to do the best I can to make sure that the people that are applying for these things are doing it legally."

He continued, "So, when I get one (a properly done application), I'm going to give it a lot of scrutiny and then I'll pass it."

The next hearing will be held on Tuesday, May 10. Applications are expected from John E. Snider and the partnership of Gary Harkins and James Beavers.

P&Z hears requests

Two requests were heard by the Planning and Zoning Board when they met Monday night, May 2.

Pat McPhaul appeared before the board to ask that Lots seven and eight, block one of the Hart-Costin No. 1 division (on Hickory) be changed from single family residence to local business.

W. J. Hollaway, E. B. Proctor and Virgil Mann, owners of property within 200 feet of the area in question, also were present at the meeting to state their objections.

During a discussion, McPhaul told the group that the area was a very good one for commercial ventures and advised the property owners to get their zoning changed also.

The board voted to recommend to the Colorado City Council that the property be re-zoned when the council meets on Tuesday, May 10.

Also, Dell Barber presented a preliminary plat of a 40-lot subdivision in the Dell Barber division.

The board agreed to recommend to the city council that curb and gutter not be required on several streets within the property subdivision provided that sufficient engineering information is submitted to the Planning and Zoning Board to determine that no drainage problem would be created.

No action was taken on the plat.

The city council will discuss this matter Tuesday night.

Mother's Day Sermon
Proverbs 31:10-31

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.
She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.
She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
She perceiveth that her merchandise is good; her candle goeth not out by night.
She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
She stretcheth out her hand to the poor, yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow for her household, for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
She maketh fine linen and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.
Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Memorial scholarship established at Sul Ross

A memorial scholarship offered to either Snyder or Ira graduating seniors at Sul Ross State University in Alpine has been established by the parents of a former Snyder man killed last January in an automobile accident.

The Lutzer Lynn Palmer Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established at Sul Ross by Oscar and DeLois Hane of Snyder, former Colorado City residents.

Palmer received his master's degree at Sul Ross in 1972 and was a teacher at the Grandfalls Elementary School. He died in the automobile accident January 23 outside Grandfalls.

The scholarship will be for a Snyder, Ira or Grandfalls entering freshman, preferably an education or music major. The student must have at least a 15 ACT or 700 SAT score and be enrolled for a minimum of 15 hours at Sul Ross.

The $200 scholarship will be awarded each year and donations to the fund may be sent to the president's office at Sul Ross.

Palmer was a 1962 graduate of Snyder High School. He received his bachelor's degree at North Texas State University after attending Howard College in Big Spring. He taught in the public schools in Ferris, Big Bend National Park, Grandfalls and Ira.

Born in Texarkana, Ark., in 1944, Palmer was interested in music

13 present at TOPSTX meeting

Thirteen members and four visitors were present for the regular weekly meeting of TOPSTX 691 at 5 p.m. Monday, May 2 in the Housing Authority building at 439 Oak St.

Four members lost weight, eight gained and one "turtled."

The Queen lost four pounds in one week.

Leader Lillian Vest says, "We have fun together and invite anyone with a weight problem to join us. We have a new contest beginning next Monday."

The local TOPS chapter meets at 5 p.m. every Monday night in the Housing Authority building.

Brush & Palette Club organized in 1959

The Brush and Palette Club is the only form of art club in Mitchell County, and its thirty members plus thoroughly enjoy using their art talents.

The Brush and Palette Club is a local organization. It is affiliated with the Abilene Big Country Art Association and the Texas Fine Arts Association in Austin.

The club was organized in 1959. It has 10 charter members. They are: Mrs. Isabel Ratliff, George Womack, Mrs.

Emily Barry, Mrs. Rea Webb, Harry Ratliff, Mrs. Charla Gregory, Mrs. Dora Paul Wilbanks, Mrs. Hattie M. Ramsdell, Mrs. Violet Moerser and Mrs. Pat Kelly.

The club came about in 1959 when renowned artist Roy Kiester of Chicago held art classes for all interested people. The classes went over so well that an interest was started for an art club here in Mitchell County.

The group was organized by the late Harry Ratliff, (Isabel's husband) and the first meeting was in the Ratliff home. There were 12 members in the group.

Mrs. Ratliff recalls about the earlier beginning of the club. "Mr. Roy Kiester came down here and put on a two week class for us. We learned so much that we wanted to organize our own art club." Originally, the club was meant to be for women only, but when her husband and George Womack showed interest, men were allowed in the group, according to Ratliff.

Mrs. Ratliff, who is no longer an active member says her mother was an oil painter. "I don't guess she painted in anything else," said Ratliff. Mrs. Ratliff said that her mother had a lot to do with her getting interested in oil painting.

George Womack got involved in the group at an early age, although he is no longer active. In 1964 he held a one artist exhibition at the Civic Center. "My interests have changed from paintings, now I'm off into photography," commented Womack.

Mrs. Barry said she first joined the group because she needed some amusement and has enjoyed being in the Brush and Palette Club ever since she has joined. "My favorite project is painting portraits of people and landscapes," she said.

Mrs. Barry said that she feels the purpose of the club is getting a lot of talented people together, so they can express their talent as a group.

After meeting in the Ratliff home, the Brush and Palette Club moved its meeting to the old Shell Oil Building, which is now the Mitchell County Day Care Center located on East Tenth Street.

Presently the club now meets the first Thursday every month at the Earl Hammond Domino Parlor located on East Seventeenth Street.

Ethel Gist, president of the club, has been a member for seven years. She says she has always been interested in art, but didn't have the time. "I started painting as a child, but I gave it up when I got married," she explained.

Mrs. Gist says she prefers pencil art, and her favorite subjects are horse pictures and landscapes. In fact, she has sold quite a few horse pictures. "I usually sell about four or five a year. My granddaughter in Snyder is a barrel racer, and she helps me sell a lot of my horse pictures," explained Mrs. Gist.

The Brush and Palette Club usually has at least two workshops every year, where a qualified instructor conducts the workshop. Mrs. Gist says she has learned quite a bit from the workshops.

Other officers of the Brush and Palette Club are Margaret Costin, vice president; Ben Costin, treasurer; Johnnie Gorman, secretary and Bernice Hilliard, telephone chairman.

Mrs. Costin has been in the club for 15 years. Her favorite paintings are watercolor and china painting. She says she loves to paint floral arrangements. "Sometimes the paintings might take me anywhere from a week to a month. It takes a lot of patience. Sometimes I throw away more paintings that I save," she said.

Last year Mrs. Costin won a Big Country Circuit Award. This is when an artist's painting is shown from town to town in the Big County. Mrs. Costin has also won the People's Choice and Purchase Awards at Snyder.

Another long-time member of the club is Mrs. Fanny Feaster. She has been a member for 22 years. "I have always been interested in art, but I didn't have the time while I was teaching school and rearing a family," she explained.

Mrs. Feaster minored in art while in college and says when she had time to join the club, it really gave her a boost. "I like oil and watercolors. I like oil painting the best, but I got into water color because I wanted to become familiar with that medium."

The Brush and Palette Club exhibits each members work every month at the library and local banks, so the next time you walk into one of these places and see their art work, you know that a lot of time went into the project, and it was made by someone who really enjoys their work.

Land Bank lowers interest rates

Interest rates on Land Bank variable rate loans were reduced to 11.00 percent on farm loans and 11.50 percent on rural residence and farm-related business loans May 1, said Michael W. Smith, president of the Federal Land Bank Association of Colorado City.

The adjustments follow reductions made earlier this year," Benson said. On January 1, the Bank's interest rate on farm loans was lowered to 11.25 percent.

Trulock reviews book during tea

"Ruth," a novel, was reviewed by Mrs. O. B. (Margaret) Trulock, Jr. Wednesday, May 4 in the C. C. Thompson room during the annual book review and tea sponsored by the Mitchell County Extension Homemakers' Council. The novel was written by Lois Henderson, one of today's finest Biblical novelists.

According to Mrs. Trulock, Ms. Henderson lifts the story of Ruth off the Bible pages and into a moving drama played right before your eyes. Mrs. Trulock commented that we are taken back to Moab and Bethlehem, at the time of Ruth and Naomi as the author flashes out a compelling portrait of the Boazite widow whose strength was in her gentleness; whose courage was in her humility and whose devotion to Naomi and the God of the Israelites has come down through the ages as an inspiration to new generations.

Approximately 40 ladies attended the book review and tea.

Would rather cook during winter months

Although Linda McCombs enjoys cooking during the winter, in the summer she would rather work in the yard and garden with her husband, Dale.

She says that during the summer, she would rather cook something that's fast and easy, "That way, I can stay out and work in the yard and garden."

Quite often, she and her husband like to snack for supper, "We like to get broccoli, cauliflower, Brussel sprouts and such from our garden and eat that with cheese and crackers or something."

When she does have a chance to cook, Mrs. McCombs likes to have Italian food, "especially pizza." "We make pizza a lot," she laughs.

Her husband is very good about pitching in and helping, Mrs. McCombs states, "Dale helps me a lot because he knows that my job can take a lot of time. If I go to a meeting, most of the time I can come home and he'll have supper just about ready. That helps me out a lot because by the time I get home, sometimes it's 8:30 or 9 o'clock."

Weekends are the only time Mrs. McCombs gets a chance to do much cooking and she often takes advantage of that time. She comments, "We have big meals on Saturdays and Sundays when I'm home all day where I can do it. I do a lot of cakes and cookies and things like that on Saturdays and Sundays."

Below are three of the McCombs' favorite recipes.

CHICKEN SPAGHETTI

1 can mushrooms

1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 medium chopped onion

1 small box Velveeta

Cook noodles and add to the above.

Cut cheese into squares and add to mixture. Cover and bake at 350 degrees for about 20 to 30 minutes until cheese is melted.

BROCCOLI AND RICE
2 c. rice
1 can cream of mushroom soup

1 can cream of chicken soup
1 jar Cheez Whiz

Cook rice and cover. Cook broccoli.

Mix rice, cheese and soups.

In greased pan, put layer of mix, layer of broccoli.

Heat for 20 minutes and serve.
