All About Nothin'

I Cry, Too
J. G. King vowed that he would never plant beans and peas again, J. C. Land reported. It's canning time now, and King, a hay fever victim, (says he "cries" everytime his wife starts shelling and snapping the beans and peas. Due to the reaction of his ailment when canning starts, King has to leave the house.

Although I'm not a hay fever sufferer, I cry, too, everytime the Madame starts thinking of things for me to do around the house. However, between editing the Review and the two side-line jobs, I can always find an excuse to be away from home when there's work to do there.

One of Many
Mrs. Jack Barton is one of many who becomes "car-confused" at times.

Saturday, Mrs. Leonard Wright instructed a grocery clerk to put the order in her car. He was unable to find it, and so was she. Leonard was called, but he had not taken it. So the search started.

Mrs. Barton, who was driving her son's 1940 Ford, did not notice the difference when she drove off in the Wright car, which is the same make but a year later model. It was parked near the one she drove up to the curb. The mistake was noticed when she drove to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waddell, in the north part of town.

Frequently, I drive to some place here, walk back to the office and forget where I left the car. This happened one day when a fire broke out here. After the excitement was over, I finally found it parked at Anderson Bros. lumber yard.

V. Stambaugh refused to have the hole blown in the top of his car by a shotgun, fixed for a long time. He said it helped him quickly to identify his car along the curb.

Cabin Broken
Log cabins, rough and unfinished cabins, modern cabins, air-conditioned cabins—we are cabin broke now. On our recent vacation tour of New Mexico, we were away seven nights and stayed in as many different tourist courts. In the mountains, we lodged in rough timber cabins and in log cabins. In Santa Fe, Albuquerque and Las Cruces they were modern and air conditioned.

There's little to tell about what we saw on the trip because, most everyone here has toured the route we followed. We had a wonderful time, saw lots of beautiful scenery, and I was scared to death on narrow, poorly-kept roads over the Cristo Mountain pass between Eagle Nest and Red River.

A plainsman most all my life, I like the long, straight highways that follow a level course.

Cooperation Needed
To those subscribers who receive their Review at post offices other than Abernathy, we seek your cooperation in helping us keep your address correct. When you move, please let us know at once so we can keep your paper coming each week. Without your help we are unable to give you the service you expect.

The Public's attention is called to the "Quarantine" declared by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas, prohibiting the movement of hogs in certain counties, including Hale County. Considerable loss has already been sustained by the stockmen of Hale County by the disregard of this law, the details of which are set out at length elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

This Quarantine law will be strictly enforced and all violations prosecuted.

Resptly.

County Attorney; Ernest Tibbet
Sheriff Hale County; O. R. Martine

Tommorrow, August 1, is the last date to make school transfers.

100 Cars of 1941 Wheat Shipped From Here

Approximately 100 cars of wheat have been shipped from Abernathy elevators this season, reports said. Farmers have thousands of bushels stored in granaries at home, and elevator bins are full.

Excessive rains, wind and hail during the late spring blighted prospects for a bumper grain yield this year however, the production exceeded that of the past two years. Only 67 cars of wheat were shipped from here in 1940, and 41 cars in 1939.

Row Crops Good
Row crops are growing rapidly and farmers are winning their battle against weeds. Most of the cotton and feed acreage in the section is clean, reports said.

Most of this area received a good rain last week.

GRANDCHILDREN OF MONROE PAIR DIE IN TRAGIC ACCIDENT

Two grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilkinson of Monroe died of burns suffered in a tragic accident near Cleburne July 16. The children, Wanda Jean Clifton, two years and ten months old, and Jackie Lucile Clifton, ten months old, were playing in an automobile parked in the field where their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Clifton, of Godley, were chopping cotton.

S. L. Moore, farmer near Cleburne, saw the children tearing up paper in the back of the car five minutes before the fire was detected.

Wilkinson said they were unable to determine whether the fire started from a shorted electrical wire in the car, or by matches which were in the glove compartment.

The children lived only a short while after they were burned. Wilkinson attended funeral rites there July 17.

Methodist Revival Has Good Attendance

Rev. C. W. Foote, Pastor of the First Methodist Church here, reports that good congregations are attending the revival meeting at the Tabernacle. Rev. Robert J. Kennedy, evangelist, is leading in the services. Very favorable comments are being heard on every hand.

The services are being held every morning at 10 o'clock and every evening at 8:30 o'clock. The general public is invited and urged to attend. The interest is growing and it is expected that the entire community will be attracted by the fine services being held. Much good may be accomplished in any line if the entire community can be enlisted.

The services are to be continued until August 10, all this week and next, except no morning services on Saturday. The other churches of the town are cooperating and it is believed that the interest will increase to the very close of the meeting. Rev. Kennedy is proving to be a very interesting speaker and is commended for his fine spirit.

Marked with an increasing pace business activity, unusual weather and tragic accidents, the first six months of 1941 is reviewed in this article which is a semi-annual feature giving statistical information concerning this area.

A general advance in business volume was reported by local merchants. Twenty-seven firms made improvements by constructing new buildings, adding new equipment or refinishing their stores. One new business was added.

The most unusual weather ever experienced by the Plains in the spring came this year when rains, starting late in April, accompanied by hail and wind at various times made it necessary for farmers to replant their row crop land as many as three or four times. Prospects for a bumper wheat crop following the first moisture of spring faded when hail, wind and continued rainfall cut production. However, it is believed that the grain yield this year will exceed that of 1940.

Tragic accidents claimed four lives in this area during March, April and May. (See headlines following in this article).

Deaths Increase

Deaths, totaling 15, exceeded by four the number counted during the first half of last year when eleven were recorded.

Births Decline

Birth rate here declined sharply this year when 30 new citizens were counted compared with 38 during the same period in 1940.

More Marriages

Not waiting for the proverbial "month in May", Cupid worked hardest in April when four weddings were announced. There were only three in June. Total number of marriages during the first half of 1941 was 14 compared with 12 for the same time last year.

Car Sales Skyrocket

Abernathy automobile dealers tacked up a new six-months record of sales this year with 425 units being moved. This total exceeds by 139 sales the number, 286, made in the first six months of 1940. Sales during any one year from 1936 to 1938 inclusive, did not reach the 400 mark.

Sales of tractors and other farm machinery were greater this year, dealers report.

There was increased activity in real estate business. Many new irrigation wells were put down early this year.

There was a decline in residential construction with only four new homes going up this year against 27 for the first half of 1940. Repairs and beautification of homes was increased this year, partly due to damage done by hail and wind.

Sale of feeder lambs late last year and winter and early spring drought caused a decline in sheep shipments in 1941 when only 18,911 head were sent to market. In 1940, during the first six months, 27,930 head were shipped. There was a similar decline in cattle sales.

Traffic Accidents

Traffic accidents in the area increased this year when 13 were counted compared with ten for the first part of 1940. Only one death resulted. Bill Everett, 43, of Plainview died in February of injuries suffered in a car-truck collision east of Lakeview early in January. Most of the accidents were only minor ones.

Two farm homes, one barn and one brooder house were lost in four fires this year. There were nine fires during the same period last year.

F. H. T. TO MEET

Although most of the Future Homemakers are not yet ready for college, we find this subject of vital interest to all our F. H. T. members, for by the time we enter high school, we start planning for ex-senior days and sometimes need some helpful information to aid our planning. So Future Homemakers, come to our next meeting, which is to be held in the home of Merle Gooble, Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 5, at 3 o'clock, to get first hand information about college from Ruth Lutrick, who has been to West Texas State Teacher's college one year and is going to tell us about her college experiences. Also, an ex-college student is to speak, which is none other than Lillie Floyd Jackson, who has a degree from West Texas State Teachers college. Janelle Brown, a speaker from our high school grandstand, is going to tell us of what value a college career may be to active college students. Do not be disappointed because we have not mentioned college and high school fashion, for they are coming next and are to be discussed by Maxine Harp.

Remember to be on time for an afternoon of fun and knowledge.

Hale-Floyd Counties
 Again Join In Cotton Program

Hale Floyd counties have again this year been designated for participation in the one-variety cotton improvement and marketing program, according to information received Saturday from Congressman George Mahon at Washington, D. C.

The Hale-Floyd area is one of four such designated sections in Texas, there being fourteen other such areas in the cotton belt in the United States.

The designation means that cotton growers participating in the one-variety program will receive one-variety program will receive cash premiums on each bale of cotton marketed. Last year the premiums ranged from $2.50 to $3 a bale for the growers and $1 a bale for the ginners participating. There were approximately 1000 bales ginned by one-variety cooperators last season in the lone Hale county community participating. This year four communities will participate.

County Agent C. B. Martin said the purpose of the one-variety program was to encourage production of quality cotton.

FOOD STAMP PLAN LIST ANNOUNCED

The list of foods available during August for purchase with Blue Stamps by families taking part in the Food Stamp Plan in the Hale County area, was announced today by Robert M. Moss, local stamp plan representative. These foods are obtainable in local stores throughout August.

Fresh pears, plums, prunes, apples and enriched wheat flour have been added to the list of foods which will be available nationally during August, while pork and pork lard, obtainable during July in all areas are not included in the August list.

With these revisions, the complete list of "Blue Stamp Foods" for the period of August 1 through 31 in all stamp plan areas, is as follows: Fresh pears, plums, prunes, apples, oranges and peaches; fresh vegetables (including potatoes), corn meal, shell eggs; raisins, dried prunes, hominy, wheat flour (prunes, hominy (corn) grits; dry enriched self-rising flour wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, self-rising flour, enriched self-rising flour, and whole wheat (graham) flour.

TO EXTEND LOANS ON EXCESS WHEAT TO APRIL 30, 1941

Loans on wheat defined as excess wheat under marketing quota provisions will be extended to April 30, 1941, Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the state AAA has announced.

The maturity date for all 1941 loans on excess wheat stored on farms or in approved warehouses had been previously as April 30, 1942.

This announcement, made through the United States Department of Agriculture, will materially aid farmers who overplanted their wheat acreage allotment this past season and who have excess wheat on hand, Rennels said. Under marketing quota provisions, farmers with excess wheat on hand are permitted to store the wheat and postpone paying the 49-cent per bushel penalty at the time. And, in the event farmers with excess wheat underplant their permitted acreage or suffer crop loss next season, a portion or all of the excess wheat may be absorbed and marketed without penalty.

Producers who store excess wheat on farms are entitled to 7 cents per bushel storage allowance where the maturity date is April 30, 1942, and an additional 5 cents per bushel allowance for storage up to April 30, 1943, provided the wheat is delivered to the Commodity Credit Corporation as payment of the loan, the AA official said. This storage allowance, however, applies only to farm stored wheat.

Loan notes secured by excess wheat stored on the farm will be extended only if evidence submitted to the county AAA committee not later than April 30, 1942, indicates that insurance certificates have been extended, consent for storage during the extended period has been obtained, and required inspection fees have been paid. Loans made on wheat in excess of wheat marketing quotas are made at 60 per cent of the rate offered to farmers who planted within their acreage allotments.

HEAVY PENALTY SET ON EXCESS COTTON

Cotton marketed in excess of 1941 farm marketing quotas will be subject to a penalty of approximately 7 cents per pound, A. A. Crownover, county AAA secretary has announced.

In 1939 and 1940, Crownover continued, the penalty for excess cotton was 3 cents per pound and in 1938 the rate was 2 cents per pound. There will not be an increase however, in the total amount of penalties due to carry-over penalty cotton marketed in excess of the 1941 quota.

The higher penalty rate will be applied on only that portion of the carry-over cotton would yield the same amount of penalties as all of the carry-over cotton would have yielded under the former rates. The remainder of the carry-over cotton would then become penalty free.

"To make my point clear," Crownover said, "Suppose a farmer has 700 pounds of carry-over penalty cotton from 1940. Had he marketed the cotton last year he would have paid a penalty of $21 which is the equivalent of 3 cents per pound. If he elects to sell the cotton this year, however, the 7 cent per pound penalty would be in effect and he would pay 7 cents per pound penalty on only 300 pounds for the $21 total penalty since this is the amount of the total penalty for 1940. The remaining 400 pounds of cotton would then become penalty free."

Recently enacted legislation which makes 85 percent of parity loans available on major commodities also provides that penalties on excess marketings will be 50 percent of the basic loan rate. The basic loan rate for cotton for 1941 will be set at 85 percent of the parity prices as of the beginning of the marketing year which will be about August 1.

If, for example, Crownover continued, the parity prices of cotton on August 1, is the same as it is at the present time, or 16.12 cents per pound, the basic loan rate will be 13.70 cents per pound, which is 85 percent of parity.

The penalty on excess cotton, in this case, would be 6.8 cents per pound. The loan rate for cotton marketed in excess of the farm marketing quota is 60 percent of that offered to producers who plant within their cotton acreage allotments.

SAFFLOWER HARVESTED THROUGH HALE COUNTY

Interest is growing in Hale county in a new crop called safflower, which has been growing in western states for many years, and which is moving eastward. Seed of the safflower was imported in Hale county from New Mexico this year, and distributed to several farmers by West Texas Cotton Co. oil mill in Plainview. Among farmers testing the crop was Glenn Wardlaw, located 8 miles west and a mile and a half south of here. He planted two acres, but due to excess rainfall, only about half an acre came up. As much as a ton and a half of grain has been harvested from an acre of this new crop, which brings $25 or more per ton for the grain. The plants look like a field of weeds, Wardlaw's neighbors report. The crop is harvested like wheat, using a combine. The grain is white, and is about the size of a grain of wheat. The stalk has about 15 or 20 yellow flowers from which the grain is secured. The stalk grows about two feet high. Oil is secured from the grain, and is used in paints, varnish and in some medicines.

URGES FARMERS "PLOW UP" POOR STANDS OF COTTON

"It might be advisable", J. L. Mann chairman of the Hale county AAA Committee has announced, "that in cases where Hale County cotton producers will suffer total or partial loss of their 1941 cotton crops because of excessive rains, insects or abandonment, to dispose of the acreage on which cotton will not be harvested."

In explaining this point, Mann said that a high acreage of cotton with a low lint yield per acre because of factors such as these, will in all probability, affect cotton yields on individual farms under the 1942 agricultural conservation program and probably will have a direct effect on cotton insurance since an extremely low yield might affect premium rates.

Producers should remember, however, the AAA official continued, that acreage will be considered as planted to cotton this year if the cotton is not disposed of before it reaches the bolling stage or within 10 days after notice of the seeded acreage is given, whichever is later.

This would not change the basis for cotton stamps to be issued on a farm since cotton stamps cannot be obtained on more acres than was shown on the original intention sheet to cotton. This provision was made, the AAA official pointed out, so that farms will not show zero acres of cotton when cotton was actually seeded.

The new amendment also permits producers to dispose of cotton acreage to come within total-soil-depleting acres. By this method, deductions for over planting total soil-depleting allotments will be avoided.
