Father Of Large Family Takes Desperate Chance To Get Meat For Loved Ones; Death Follows

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 29.—Through ignorance, John Frapaselli, father of 10 children, a city street sweeper with wages long overdue, admitted he unwittingly poisoned his family with meat which he found in an alley.

Two of the children, James, 9, and Anthony, 11, are dead while four others are critically ill. Mrs. Frapaselli is near death. Four other children apparently were unaffected.

In a jail cell, Frapaselli told of the desperate chance he took to provide his family with meat.

"I found a dead pig in an alley and decided I would take a chance," he said. "First I ate some of the meat myself, and it didn't seem to harm me."

James and Anthony were taken ill in a few hours. Frances and Dorothy, twins 3 years old, were not expected to live, and Jennie, 14, and Joseph, 20, also were desperately ill.

Neighbors cared for the other children, Theresa, 2, Philip, 4, Conrad, 16, and Rose, 18.

Slaton Wins In League Contests

Clean Sweep Of The Class A Literary Events Reported

SLATON public schools made a clean sweep of the class A literary events, it was reported Wednesday night following a meeting of members of the Lubbock County Interscholastic League directorate. Announcement also was made of a few winners in track and field events in the contests held here last week.

Slaton's literary awards included the high, grammar, and ward school cups, and the all-around cups for these divisions.

Slaton high school juniors won their track and field division. Hardy won the rural event, and Shallowater the upper B athletic events in high and ward school division. Shallowater girls won both girls singles and doubles in tennis, the Acuff boys won the tennis singles, and the Shallowater boys the doubles. Class A high school events will be announced later.

Honeymoon Trip Ends In Death

(By The Associated Press)

MOUNT VERNON, March 29. A honeymoon trip was abruptly halted tonight by the death of the 18-year-old bride in a collision on the highway between Mount Vernon and Sulphur Springs.

Today a young couple from Nacogdoches, Osborn Scarborough, 22, and Opal Reedy, eloped to Texarkana and were married. They drove there in Scarborough's truck.

After the ceremony they started for Fort Worth to visit with relatives. Tonight an approaching car's lights blinded Scarborough momentarily and his truck crashed into a produce truck parked on the side of the highway. An ambulance was rushed out from Sulphur Springs but the bride was dead when it arrived. Scarborough was holding her in his arms.

Two Missing Fliers Found

Pair Sighted Canoeing Down River; Army Amphibian Ship To Leave Thursday In Effort To Reach Them

(By The Associated Press)

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 29—Two Americans who were lost Sunday after leaving Managua to inaugurate a new air route to northeastern Nicaragua were sighted canoeing down a river about 200 miles from here today by army and civilian fliers.

It was hoped the men, W. A. Flowers, Dallas, and Harry Scott, New Orleans, would be reached early Thursday; when a United States army amphibian plane will leave for the jungle area in which Flowers' plane was forced down.

To Leave Today

Captain Whitehead, one of five aviators who have helped national guardsmen in a country-wide search for Flowers and Scott, was prevented this evening taking off in his amphibian, but laborers worked this evening to lengthen the runway and expected to finish their task to enable Whitehead to leave from here in the morning.

Harold White, Chicago, chief pilot of an independent transport firm, the Transporters Aereos Centro Americano, was the first to discover the

Deadline On Registration Of Cars Falls On April 1

Deadline on registration of automobiles for 1933 without penalty will fall at midnight Saturday, April 1.

The final date for paying the fees was moved from March 1 by the legislature. Full year's fees and 20 per cent additional must be paid for all cars registered after April 1, if they have been operated on the highways at any time during 1933.

Headlight tests are no longer required for registration of cars, it was said yesterday.

Turkey Raisers Of County Plan For Future Markets

Raising of quality turkeys for the next Thanksgiving and Christmas markets was planned at a meeting of representatives of the Becton, Union, Shallowater, Foster, Liberty, Idalou and Lubbock communities in the office of County Agent O. G. Tumlinson yesterday.

Geo. C. Cooper, chairman of the Lubbock county turkey pool, presided. The growers hope to be able to raise enough quality birds to ship in carload lots, Mr. Tumlinson said.

Two Lengths Of Iron Pipe Are Found On Train Track

BOSTON, March 29 (AP) — Two lengths of iron pipe wrapped in yellow and red bunting, described by police as Chinese colors," were found today in the path of a train bearing Yosuke Matsuoka, former head of the Japanese delegation to the League of Nations, into Boston.

First reports led police to conclude an attempt had been made to wreck the train, but when the relatively light weight of the obstructions was ascertained, authorities inclined to the opinion someone had intended only to frighten the Matsuoka party.

Move For Payment Of Debt To United States Blocked

PARIS, March 29. (AP) — The finance committee of the chamber of deputies today in effect blocked the move for immediate payment of the $19,000,000 war debt interest which was due to the United States last December 15.

Foreign Minister Joseph Paul-Boncour explained to the committee the government's attitude was that discussion of the debt question should be put off because of negotiations now in progress with the United States.

Delegates To Be Chosen By Entire State

House Already Has Passed A Bill Calling For Election In 1934; Convention Would Be Held In December

Would Cut Costs

Volunteer Workers At Polls Would Be Enlisted; Total Number Of Delegates Is Set At 31; One Opposed

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 29.—A state wide referendum on November 7, 1933, on repeal of the 18th amendment was recommended to the Texas legislature today by the senate state affairs committee. The house had passed a bill calling for the election to be held in connection with the general election in November, 1934.

The state affairs committee amended the house bill in several particulars and then voted, 16 to 1, to give it a favorable report. Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman cast the lone negative vote.

Convention In December

Under the amended bill, delegates to a convention to consider ratification of repeal would be elected by voters of the state at large in November. The convention, which probably would be a mere formality, would be held late in December.

Several friends of prohibition on the state affairs committee made a determined effort to have the election of convention delegates by senatorial districts instead of by votes of the entire state, but their amendment was voted down, 9 to 6. It was regarded as certain that the same amendment would be offered on the senate floor.

Would Reduce Cost

An amendment to reduce the cost of the special election was adopted by the committee. It would provide for volunteer workers at the polls. Both the prohibitionists and the anti-prohibitionists would be entitled to name representatives as election judges and clerks. Presiding election judges would be appointed by the various county commissioners' courts.

The committee also changed the house bill to make the total number of delegates 31, instead of 23. Each side would have 31 candidates, one from each senatorial district. These candidates would be chosen at anti-prohibition and prohibition mass meetings in Austin sixty days before the election.

All Have Same View

It was regarded as likely that virtually every one would vote either

Lubbock Debaters Win At Amarillo

AMARILLO, March 28. (AP)—Lubbock high school boys' and girls' debating teams defeated the Amarillo high school teams here tonight in debates at Amarillo high school auditorium.

Lubbock teams had the affirmative of the question "Resolved: that at least one-half of all state and local revenues in Texas should be derived from sources other than taxes on tangible property."

Members of the Lubbock girls' team were Frances Simmons and Pauline Hawthorne. The Lubbock boy debaters were Russell Wilkerson and Alton Hankins.

For Amarillo high school, Virginia Rittenberry and Anna Ruth McClure were the girl debaters and Arthur Glover and Marvin Collie the boy debaters.

Roosevelt Is To Get First Beer

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29. — The first two cases of beer to be made in Milwaukee will be received at the White House executive offices, a brewer there having announced plans to send the cases to the president.

That much was brought to light in Mrs. Roosevelt's press conference today.

No decision beyond that has been made about the beer.

Whether or not beer would be served in the White House after it becomes legal is being held in complete abeyance.

Woman Views Body Of Negro After Slaying

Declares He Looks Exactly Like One Of Terrorists But She's Not Sure; Second Man Held In Jail

(By The Associated Press)

CONROE, March 29.—Standing before a crowd of 3,000 persons clustered around the jail yard here tonight, a young Houston woman who had been attacked Sunday night after two negro terrorists slew her escort, William W. Porch, 24, of Houston, said a negro suspect slain here by a ranger "looked exactly like" her attacker.

The young woman, obviously nervous and showing the strain of her harrowing experience of Sunday night, stammered in a weak voice "that looks exactly like him but I can't say for sure."

Threats Are Heard

A crowd formed immediately after the negro, who was tentatively identified as Manuel Henry, 25, alias Buddy York, was brought here after being shot to death by Ranger L. A. Eaves in a wood two miles from here. For the most part the crowd was orderly but there were some threats, officers said.

A second suspect arrested early today was in the jail. The second negro had not made any statement regarding the Houston outrage and officers were busy seeking a third negro reported in hiding near here.

Guards Are Doubled

Guards around the jail were doubled when the crowd formed.

The young woman attack victim was rushed here by Houston officers. Finger prints were made of the dead negro's hands.

Ranger Eaves and Deputy Sheriff Taylor Ford took Henry into custody at a negro house two miles from here after an all night chase in which several rangers and Montgomery county officers participated.

"Where is the gun?" the officers asked the negro as soon as they took him into custody.

"Boss," the negro replied, "I don't know nothing about any gun."

Placed In Rear Seat

The suspect was placed in the rear seat of the officers' automobile and with Deputy Ford driving the

Tech Enrollment Showing Increase

Enrollment at Texas Technological college for the 1932-33 academic year stood at 2,323 last night, as compared with 2,251 students a year ago, President Bradford Knapp said.

Doctor Knapp, who returned at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Austin, announced that 65 students who had attended neither the fall nor winter terms had registered for the spring term.

Peak enrollment at Tech was in 1929-30 when 2,353 students, or only 50 more than present attendance, registered. Of the 1,702 spring term students, 206 are in the school of agriculture, 375 in the engineering school, and 208 in the home economics school.

Doctor Knapp declared that the situation at Austin as affecting Texas Tech was "fairly satisfactory."

Great Nations Bend Efforts For A Mutual Understanding

WASHINGTON, March 29. (AP) — The great English speaking nations today bent their efforts anew to the quest for an international economic understanding on which to base world recovery.

For an hour and a half, Secretary Cordell Hull and the state department's most expert assistants on economic matters conversed with Sir Ronald Lindsay, British ambassador, on possible Anglo-American contributions to the success of the coming world monetary and economic conference.

Another Blow Is Struck At Volstead Law

Limitation On Prescription Liquor Is Removed By Senate Wednesday; House Passage Is Expected Today

Drys Are Napping

Patients Will Be Allowed All Liquor They Need; Doctors Are Not Required To Limit Issuance Of Permits

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—With 3.2 beer and wine scheduled to become legal within little more than a week, congress raced today toward enactment of another modification of the Volstead law—removing the limitation on the amount of liquor physicians may prescribe for medical purposes.

The Copeland bill to lift the existing limit on liquor prescriptions passed the senate before many of its present members knew what had happened. It was sent to the house where leaders planned to approve it tomorrow.

Provisions Repealed

Merely providing "no more liquor shall be prescribed to any person than is necessary to supply his medicinal needs," the bill would repeal the Volstead law's provisions that a physician may issue only 100 prescriptions a month and not more than a pint to a patient each 10 days.

Almost simultaneously with the senate's action on the Copeland measure, its District of Columbia committee approved a beer bill for the national capital, designed as "model" for the rest of the country.

Would Permit Sale

It would permit sale of 3.2 per cent beer or wine by bona fide restaurants, hotels and incorporated clubs for consumption on the premises and to motorists at barbecue stands, provided automobiles were parked off the street.

Licenses for sale on the premises would cost $100, while those selling the beverages for consumption elsewhere would have to pay $50. The license fee for brewers would be $1,000 and for wholesalers and distributors $250.

Sheppard Is Napping

The medicinal liquor bill, sponsored by a physician, Senator Copeland (D., Ny.) was called up in the senate by Senator King (D., Utah) and passed without a word of debate.

When the clerk finished reading it for action on committee amendments, Vice President Garner quickly droned out the formula—"without objection the bill is passed"—and even the ever watchful Sheppard (D., Tex.) was caught napping.

Without apparently realizing the bill had been passed Sheppard

Dallas Salesman Is Killed When Sedan Is Overturned

TYLER, March 29. (AP) — A. D. Adcock, Dallas salesman, was injured fatally and three other persons were hurt seriously late today when the sedan in which they rode overturned at the foot of a steep hill three miles west of Lindale, Smith county. The car had just rounded a turn when the accident occurred.

Adcock died several hours later at a Tyler hospital. His skull was fractured and he suffered a brain concussion.

Grand Jury Calls Up Jim Ferguson

WACO, Mar. 30. (AP)—McLennan county grand jurors, who had a long talk today with Former Governor James E. Ferguson concerning the alleged sale of influence to get state jobs, were still in session tonight on the matter. They were not expected to make any returns until tomorrow.

The investigation involved the alleged activities of a Waco man, who, officers said, offered, for a price, to use his claimed influence to get posts on the state highway patrol and other state agencies.

Ferguson, after being closeted with the grand jury for two hours, came out to say he knew nothing about the affair and had never heard of the man involved.

Pressure Is Being Used On Al Smith By Friends

"Happy Warrior" Urged To Get Back Into Political Life But He Remains Silent

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 29. — Pressure already is being brought to bear on Alfred E. Smith by his friends and associates, it was learned tonight, to persuade him to re-enter the political ring, as a candidate either for mayor of New York City or United States senator.

The office of mayor will be filled at the November election, while the seat in the senate now occupied by Dr. Royal S. Copeland will be object of a ballot contest in 1934.

Smith, a close associate said, has been non-commital with even his most intimate advisors, adopting the attitude that it is too early to decide on any course.

But he has continued to follow the political situation, both nationally and locally, with great interest and is said to cherish a hope of returning to public life in some capacity.

Even though he devotes most of his time these days to business and to magazine editing, he never has lost contact with public affairs, and many of his old friends who drop in to see him find him eager to talk politics.

Only one definite word has come from his office—that he will have a hand in the November city election, a contest which political observers already predict will be a hotly-contested one.

Motion To Quash Indictment Against Youth Is Overruled

BROWNSVILLE, March 29. (AP)—A motion to quash the indictment against Earl Dodson, San Benito youth charged with murder in connection with the airplane slaying of Lehman Nelson, Harlingen flying instructor, was overruled today by District Judge George C. Westervelt.

Seven jurors were selected before court recessed for the day. Indications were that the panel would be completed in time for the taking of testimony to begin sometime tomorrow.

The 17-year-old defendant entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned several weeks ago.

Series Of Crimes Confessed By Youth; Held On Border

BROWNSVILLE, March 29. (AP)—Two shootings, nine robberies and other crimes in Kansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico were described today in a signed statement which officers said a youth from Caney, Kansas, made to them here.

The youth was arrested in a San Benito barber shop by Ranger Sgt. D. E. Cogington for questioning in connection with the slaying of Sheriff John C. Mosley at Tulia, Texas, January 22. He denied any connection with the Mosley shooting but officers were questioning him at length about it.

State Income Tax Approved

Each Single Man Would Have Exemption Of $1,000 While Married Men Would Be Allowed $2,000 Under Bill

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN March 29. — The house revenue and taxation committee of the Texas legislature tonight reported favorably a bill by Rep. Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas proposing a state income tax.

Under terms of the bill, each single man would have an exemption of $1,000, each married man $2,000 plus $200 for each dependent.

Thereafter, the tax would be one per cent for the first $1,000, increasing gradually to a maximum of 7 per cent for each $1,000 over $11,000. Corporations would be required to pay a two per cent levy for the first $1,000 income and six per cent for amounts in excess of $6,000.

Carbolic Acid Found In Whisky; Farmer Is Not Injured

F. W. (FRANK) LEWIS, 26-year-old farm laborer, was charged with attempted poisoning of his employer, Bryan Jeeter, in a complaint filed with Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell about 10:15 o'clock last night.

Participation in placing of carbolic acid in a pint bottle of whisky in Jeeter's trunk has been admitted in a statement made by Lewis, it was said.

Blair Signs Complaint

The complaint, signed by District Attorney Daniel A. Blair alleged that Lewis March 21 did "unlawfully mingle and cause to be mingled with a certain drink, to wit, whisky, a poison known as carbolic acid, with the intent of the said F. W. Lewis then and there and thereby to injure and kill Bryan Jeeter."

The 36-year-old farmer, who with Mrs. Jeeter, was questioned by the district attorney's department Wednesday night, declared that he had treated Lewis "like a brother" since the man started working for him last "September or October." Mr. and Mrs. Jeeter went to the Union community in 1921 from Cooper, Tex., shortly after their marriage. Mrs. Jeeter, who attended Texas Technological college in 1929-30, has taught primary students about seven years at Union, her husband said.

Was A Good Worker

Lewis went to work for Jeeter about "six weeks after he came out here from McKinney," the employer said. The accused man was said to have been a good worker. Lewis, Jeeter said, "is a good cook," and frequently had prepared noon meals.

Because of a robbery of their home several years ago, the Jeeters had made a practice of keeping the residence locked. Lewis knew the place in which the key was kept, Mr. Jeeter said. The husband said "mighty few people knew where I had the whisky."

About 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Jeeter went to the trunk and took a mouthful of the liquid in the bottle. "It sort of paralyzed my mouth, and I don't think I swallowed a drop of it," he said. "It made me mighty mad." That afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Jeeter reported the incident to Sheriff Tom Abel.

Arrested On Sunday

Sheriff Abel arrested Lewis Sunday. Yesterday, the sheriff found a bottle near the Jeeter home which had contained carbolic acid. The bottle was traced to a Slaton drug

Measure Goes To Senate To Adopt Changes

Gag Rules Are Temporarily In Discard And Some Amendments Are Offered; Most Of These Are Voted Down

Conference Looms

Senate Is Given A Foretaste Of What Is Coming Today As Next Part Of Huge Program Is Taken Up

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29. — A huge and willing house Democratic majority today floundered through a parliamentary maze, engineered by Republican opponents, but finally succeeded in passing President Roosevelt's bill designed to provide employment and conserve the forests.

Because gag rules temporarily had been thrown aside for the first time during house consideration of a Roosevelt measure, some amendments were inserted. This made impossible final congressional action tonight, as the senate must act on the charges.

Senate Given Taste

While the house was talking about the forest conservation bill, the senate got a forestate of what is to happen tomorrow when it takes up the next step in Mr. Roosevelt's unemployment program—a plan to give $500,000,000 in relief grants to the states.

Senator Wagner (D., N. Y.) explained the bill and said "it is but a small segment of the program necessary to bring us back to a better day."

Often in the house debate mention was made of the $500,000,000 bill and the billion dollar public works program yet to come. But the snag on the reforestation measure was struck on something entirely different.

All Amendments Downed

Proceeding serenely, and voting down all amendments but those approved by their leaders, the Democrats heard the clerk read a paragraph making available for the forest conservation program moneys already appropriated for public works.

Beedy, a Maine Republican, held that paragraph was not in order since the bill had been handled by a legislative committee instead of the appropriations committee. Lo-

Armed Chinese Buccaneers Are Successful In An Attack On Steamer; Gunboats Begin A Search For Pirates

(By The Associated Press)

NEWCHWANG, Manchuria, March 29.—A group of armed Chinese buccaneers tonight kidnaped four British officers from the British merchantman Nanchang which was anchored at the Newchwang bar.

The captain of the steamer pursued the pirates, wirelessing an alarm, but the abductors escaped in their junks in the shallow water.

They had swarmed aboard the steamer from three junks, which opened up heavy fire as they drew alongside. British gunboats began an immediate search for the pirates and their victims. The men abducted were W. E. Hargrave, A. D. Blue, F. L. Pears and Charles Johnson.

Two Young Men And A Woman Are Sought By Waco Police

WACO, March 29 (AP)—Waco police sought two young men, accompanied by a woman, who fired a dozen or more shots at W. G. McDonald, assistant chief of police, last night when the officer sought to halt their car for investigation.

The officer chased the car for a mile and one of the men emptied two pistols at him but none of the shots took effect. The car bore Oklahoma license plates.

Education Appropriation Bill Voted Out; Texas Tech Is To Get $279,825

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 29. — The house committee on appropriations tonight voted out the educational appropriation bill, the last of the four major money bills.

The total for the next biennium was approximately $7,700,000 as compared with $13,177,698 for the last biennium, representing a cut of 41 per cent.

The following appropriations were made for each year of the next biennium:

University of Texas, main university, $805,831; A. & M., main college, $514,394; Southwest Texas Teachers college, $140,143; College of Industrial Arts, $224,235; College of Arts and Industries, $90,817; North Texas Teachers college, $191,445; Sul Ross Teachers college $55,610; Galveston Medical college, $154,915; University of Texas, extramural division, $92,950; College of Mines and Metallurgy, $69,937; Stephen F. Austin Teachers college, $100,300; West Texas State Teachers college, $119,494; Prairie View normal, $110,365; A. & M. experiment station, $104,276; A. & M. forestry division, $64,805; A. & M. extension service, $154,720; A. & M. substations, $85,285; East Texas Teachers college, $154,980; North Texas Agricultural college, $105,490; John Tarleton Agricultural college, $144,030; Sam Houston Teachers college, $124,105; Texas Technological college, $279,825.

Libby Holman Shows Baby For First Time; Declares He Will Be Aviator

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—Libby Holman Reynolds hopes her baby will become an aviator.

Breaking her silence for the first time since her son was born eleven weeks ago, the former Broadway "torch" singer said it would be the realization of a fond dream because "Smith Reynolds, his father, was a courageous and ambitious airman."

As for herself, any intention she may have to return to the stage must wait until the baby no longer needs her "entire attention."

For the present she craves a "private life, surrounded by the peace and quiet which every baby needs."

Mrs. Reynolds met visitors in the hospital where her son, still officially recorded as "Baby" Reynolds, was prematurely born January 10. His father, heir to millions, had been fatally shot in his North Carolina home six months before.

It was here Mrs. Reynolds proudly announced her "fair, blue-eyed giant of a child" now weighs seven pounds. He tipped the scales when born at three pounds and seven ounces and for weeks was kept in a modified incubator.

No stage appearance of the former Broadway singer was

Civic, educational and welfare organizations are the ones being asked to send delegates. Of course, anyone who is interested may attend.

A SURPRISE

JUST to be perfectly frank, I had never dreamed that an anti-hoarding campaign could bring in so much gold and other money.

We have been watching the coins and bills that have been in circulation since the bank holiday. The other day there was a bill of the 1923 issue and it was so new it crackled. There was one coin, dated 1912, that was worn hardly at all. There were many other bills and coins from 5 to 20 years old and all showing little sign of having been used.

Six months ago I never suspected that there was much gold actually being held, in spite of the stories to that effect that have appeared at intervals.

Of course, you never can tell who has his money packed away in fruit jars or hidden under the mattress, but the gold that has been turned in and the other currency that has been put in to circulation recently has been a great big revelation to me.

SHE SHOULD KNOW

RECENTLY I read an article by Helen Keller in which she was telling her readers how wonderful their sight is and speculating on the things she would view if she were granted sight for a short time.

One appreciates something most I presume, after it is lost.

You can have an illustration of that almost any day. When eyes are sore it seems that sight is the most essential sense that one may possess. A sore on the end of the tongue is a reminder of the importance of that organ. And it has been truly said that "nothing sticks out like a sore thumb."

How much we use our senses, or hands or other organs is something about which we can hardly speculate until something happens to remind us every time they are to be used.

Having no sight, Miss Keller is peculiarly fitted to remind us of how much we miss every day even though our eyes may be perfect.

PICK-UPS

FOR SWEET and inexpensive desserts, the following are suggested: Baked apples and brown sugar; sweet sauces added to boiled rice corn starch puddings; plain cake fruit betty and fruit dumplings.

Federal food experts say that citrus fruits are particularly valuable in the diet, especially oranges, because they include vitamins B and C. Oranges contain the additional Vitamin A.

Perhaps you would like to be reminded again about what these vitamins do. Vitamin A is needed to build resistance to infection. Vitamin B gives good muscle tone in the digestive trace; Vitamin C is necessary for tooth nutrition. Bleeding gums, loose teeth, sore joints, loss of weight and appetite are symptoms when the diet is low in Vitamin C.

A Washington bureau has compiled a family food budget for relief agencies showing the irreducible food needs for a child each day as being: one pint of milk; two teaspoons of cod-liver oil if he is less than 2 years old; one vegetable or fruit; plenty of bread, cereals and other energy body-building foods. And, the bureau advises, the child should have at least two pints of milk and 3 or 4 teaspoonsful of the cod-liver oil.

Hidden Killers Being Tracked

Missing Deputy Is Found In Oklahoma Hills Murdered By Unknown Foe; Body Located Near Liquor Cache

SALLISAW, Okla., March 29 (AP)—The hidden killers of a deputy sheriff were hunted today in eastern Oklahoma's bleak "hills of a thousand stills."

Missing for 24 hours on a search for mountain moonshiners, the deputy, Tom Hood, was found shot to death within 50 yards of a liquor cache located in a remote section near Short, Okla.

Investigators said Hood apparently was slain when he lifted the lid from a barrel of mash, but whether this released the trigger of a specially constructed shotgun trap or whether he was fired upon by ambushed outlaws puzzled authorities.

Two farmers were taken into custody for questioning.

Relief Bill

zier, a Missouri Democrat presiding, agreed, and in the ensuing turmoil what Bankhead (D., Ala.), called "the very heart of the bill" was stricken out.

Recess Is Forced

Democratic leaders immediately forced a recess. They decided at first to delay passage until tomorrow. Then they had the rules committee meet and report out a resolution making the controverted paragraph in order, despite anything parliamentarians might say.

The rule needed a two-thirds majority. It was adopted 189 to 91.

Had that paragraph been eliminated from the bill, it was explained on the floor, the president would have his program but no money to spend on it.

When time came for final passage, Republicans remained content with their earlier victory, even though it was only temporary.

Sent Back To Senate

On a thunderous chorus of "ayes," and without even a standing vote, the bill was passed and sent back to the senate. Unless the senate approves the changes, a conference will be asked between the senate and house.

There were, however, only three amendments approved by the house. One was that restoring the money. It was offered by Ramspeck (D., Ga.), who had charge of the measure since Connery (D., Mass), chairman of the house labor committee, opposed it.

Another, led by De Priest (R., Ill.), specified that in the selection of workers for the conservation corps there should be no discrimination because of race, color, creed, or criminal records. De Priest is the only negro member of the house.

More Power Given

The third amendment was proposed by Representative Byrns of Tennessee, eDmocratic floor leader. It gives the president power to purchase all real property he chooses. The senate would have limited these purchases to property contiguous to that already owned by the government.

In all, 22 amendments were offered. That by Connery, to specify minimum wages of $50 monthly to single and $80 to married men, instead of leaving the pay to the president, was defeated 290 to 90.

Later, when Connery offered his amendment in the form of a motion to send the bill back to the committee, he was shouted down without a standing vote.

Pro Law

for the entire repeal ticket or the anti-repeal ticket, in which event the convention would be attended by 31 persons with the same view on the question.

Senator Woodward had an amendment adopted to clarify the ballot. Under his amendment, the words "for repeal" and "against repeal" would be written under the words "for ratification" and "against ratification."

It was unlikely that the bill would be considered by the senate before next week. The proposal then would have to go back to the house for concurrence in senate amendments.

Senators voting for a favorable report of the bill were: W. K. Hopkins of Gonzales; Walter Woodul of Houston; Wilbourne B. Collie of Eastland; W. R. Cousins of Beaumont; Tom Deberry of Bogota; T. J. Holbrook of Galveston; John W. Hornsby; Ben G. O'Neal of Wichita Falls; Archie Parr of Benavides; George Purl of Dallas; Nat Patton of Crockett; K. M. Regan of Pecos; Gus Russek of Schulenburg and Clint C. Small of Amarillo.

Negro Slain

trio started into the wood in search of the pistol.

Two hundred yards from the negro house where the suspect was apprehended, the suspect leaped on Ranger Eaves' shoulders and began to choke him, according to Ranger Homer T. Glover.

Eaves struggled with the negro and managed to free his gun hand. He fired one shot into the negro's left hand and the suspect fell back. The ranger said he fired a second time as the negro moved forward again. The second bullet struck the negro in the chest and he died 15 minutes later in the officers' car.

Pistol Is Found

Immediately after the killing Deputy Ford and Ranger Carl Bush went to Willis, nine miles north of here, and found a .38 caliber pistol cached in the home of a negro family. The gun, the negro occupant of the house said, was secreted there last night by the slain negro.

Officers in examining the negro's body said they found dried blood on his clothing. The negro's shoe heel was worn down similar to a track found in the Scott street road wood where the young woman was attacked after Porch had been killed.

Late today Governor Ferguson wired officials here she had posted a $200 reward for the arrest and conviction of the negroes who killed Porch.

Wings To Aid Conquest Of Everest

The defiance which Mt. Everest, highest peak in the world with its 29,141 feet, has always flung in the face of man may be broken by the airplane. Railway Official Will Visit Here

W. K. Etter, Chicago, vice-president of the Santa Fe system in charge of operations, will make his first official visit to Lubbock as operating head of the system, some time today, it was learned yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Etter, who last fall succeeded the late A. G. Wells as chief operating officer, was formerly general manager of the Santa Fe coast lines. When he was promoted, H. J. Hitchcock, Amarillo, general manager of the Western Lines, was sent to the coast and H. B. Lautz, assistant general manager at La Junta, transferred to Amarillo as general manager.

The private car of Mr. Etter will arrive on the noon train from Amarillo. Mr. Etter and his official party are making the tour in a motor car and will arrive some time during the afternoon. It is their plan, according to reports, to inspect the branch lines out of Lubbock probably Friday before going to Sweetwater.

In the party will be Mr. Lautz and several other officials, including W. W. Kelly, chief engineer and possibly T. B. Gallaher, general freight and passenger agent and an assistant to Mr. Lautz, Claude S. Cravens, Slaton, division superintendent, and Tom Blair, Slaton, division engineer.

Another Blow

voiced his opposition to it, and said he would watch its operation carefully because he had "many misgivings about it."

Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, suggested at least the bill's sponsors should explain its provision to the senate, but King replied that was not necessary as the measure had passed already.

Vice President Garner joined in the laughter at the expense of Robinson and Sheppard.

In reporting the bill the senate judiciary committee estimated it would save $110,000 a year by the use of stamps instead of prescription blanks, would permit patients all the liquor they needed, and would insure them secrecy regarding their ailments.

At the present time, physicians are required to report to the government the ailments requiring prescription of liquor, but the bill would repeal this regulation.

Birthplace Of Prohibition Will Get Beer About July 1

AUGUSTA, Maine, March 29 (AP)—Maine, often times called "the birthplace of prohibition," today had a law, effective about July 1, unless a referendum is invoked, legalizing beer of an alcoholic content yet to be determined by supreme court ruling.

The measure, enacted in the house yesterday, went through the senate in short order this morning and was signed by Democratic Governor Louis J. Brann.

Panhandle-Plains Region Is Visited By Rainfall Tuesday

AMARILLO, March 29, (AP)—Rains fell in the Panhandle-Plains region south of the Canadian river last night, breaking a drouth in some localities of six months duration.

The area receiving moisture extended the width of the Panhandle, but the fall was not even, varying from less than half an inch to two inches in scattered sections. The heaviest fall—two inches — was at Wildorado, while Amarillo, just 21 miles to the east, received only .47 of an inch.

At Clarendon the precipitation was 1.5 inches, and Happy, Plainview, and other South Plains cities received an inch or more.

Old Crime Recalled

Echoes of the Hall-Mills murder case of some years ago reverberate when it becomes known that Miss Charlotte Mills, 28-year-old daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Mills, who was slain with the Rev. Edward Hall near New Brunswick, N. J., is living in Philadelphia. Miss Mills, innocent victim of the tragedy, has been in seclusion. She has been a companion to a middle-aged woman. She disclosed the fact that she intended to marry soon.

Counsel For Ruth Judd Fail In Efforts For A New Trial

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 29 (AP)—Counsel for Winnie Ruth Judd, condemned "trunk" slayer, failed today in their attempt to obtain for her another trial on an unused murder charge.

Her attorneys adopted the strategy of the defense in the Tom Mooney case in California without success.

Superior Judge Howard C. Speakman declined to act on a motion that Mrs. Judd be tried on a charge of murdering Hedvig Samuelson, one of her two women victims, and ordered dismissal of the information in this case.

Life Insurance Protection Bill Is Sent To Governor

AUSTIN, March 29, (AP)—A bill designed to protect life insurance companies and policy holders in such concerns against an emergency that might be caused by heavy withdrawals on policy loans and cash surrender demands was passed to the governor by the Texas legislature today.

Both houses adopted a free conference report that adjusted differences that had arisen over some details of the proposal. The report was accepted by the necessary two thirds vote in each house to put it into immediate effect when signed by the governor.

Local Teachers To Be Notified

Teachers who will not be re-elected because of curtailment of expenses are to be notified Thursday, it was decided at a business meeting of members of the Lubbock Independent school district board Tuesday night at Lubbock sanitarium. President J. T. Hutchinson, B. Sherrod, R. F. Bayless, W. B. Atkins, and Dr. A. T. Stewart attended the meeting.

Discussion was centered largely around the recent report of an economy committee, composed of non-board members and board members. Various economies were discussed and a decision was reached to curtail the teaching staff by 18 for the 1933-34 year, as well as to readjust salaries to a lower plane.

Re-election of teachers took up part of the time of the meeting, which began at 7:30 o'clock. A part of the present teaching staff was re-elected.

Refinancing of district bonds was also discussed as the board moved to save approximately $40,000 from that source.

Members of the economy committee, whose suggestions followed almost entirely, are:

George W. Dupree and J. A. Hodges, non-board members; R. F. Bayless, Maple Wilson and B. Sherrod, board members.

"All The World's A Stage"

HISTORY is being made this year. Not only in United States but all over the world the trend of human events is exciting, absorbing. Men and women who are living today are privileged characters. They are all taking a part—however small it may be—in one of the greatest spectacles of all time.

For "the old order changeth".

You can see it in Lubbock—in Spur—in Slaton and Ralls; you can see it everywhere. No longer are citizens, great or small, seeing eye to eye with the way they saw a few scant years ago.

The radicals of yesterday are the conservatives today.

Mayhap, the radicals of today will be the conservatives of tomorrow.

A great change in human thought and ideals is being noted, slow though it may be as the ponderous progress of the glacier.

Several centuries ago the Bard of Avon penned these lines:

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players;

"They have their exits and their entrances and one man in his time plays many parts."

Shakespeare was right when he wrote that. He is right today.

A CASE OF "I" TROUBLE

Were they permitted to study the case, the visit of George Bernard Shaw to these shores would be a great thing for oculists, optometrists, aurists, etc., for the bearded Englishman undoubtedly boasts the greatest case of "I" trouble in the whole world.

Talk about your "blushing violets"!

That guy is a whole bed of 'em.

THE SUPREME PENALTY

As the result of a death penalty assessed Paul Mitchell here recently, much comment has been made both publicly and in private.

The hijacker-murderer of Robert Tharp drew the first death sentence in Lubbock county history, making the case all the core of a topic of conversation.

Miss Mary De Bardeleben, who holds the Methodist Bible chair at Texas Tech, wrote a letter condemning the use of the supreme penalty, no matter what the situation might be.

Rev. H. C. Ziehe, of Posey, a Lutheran pastor, disagreed with Miss De Bardeleben and today is concluding three letters to the Editor of The Avalanche, upholding with Biblical proof the death penalty where deserved.

Doubtless everyone in Lubbock has an opinion on this subject and, after all, no one can say whose opinion is right and whose is wrong.

The Morning Avalanche, for instance, believes firmly in the right of the state to exact the supreme penalty in cases which are extreme and where the debt to society cannot otherwise be fully paid. And in the case of Mitchell—if he is guilty as he confessed on the stand—we consider the jury handed him his just deserts.

However, we admit that the opinions of others are as good as our own; we have no desire to force them on anybody.

CAMPS FOR BOYS

Those persons and groups concerned over the welfare of the 200,000 boys in their teens supposed to be living the life of vagrants will not crowd them into large government camps unless means are found for keeping them occupied and rigidly disciplined.

One cannot conceive of a more demoralizing and character-destroying environment than a camp packed with boys of the type now found wandering up and down the United States. They are not all bad but it is apparent that their home life has not fortified them against the odious influences of camp life.

Two boys out on their own, even in these parlous times, will suffer less permanent damage to their characters and minds from panhandling and sleeping in barns than they would from idling away weeks and months in the company of evil companions in a government relief camp. Camps as proposed in Congress would make crime schools second only to the penitentiaries and reformatories.

During the growing season work could be found for the boys raising their own food and there would always be work for a sanitary corps, a maintenance corps and the kitchen police. Athletic activities could be promoted and the discipline could be made as severe as that of a prison camp. But if this were done it would be necessary to take and keep the boy wanderers by force. They left home to find something better than they had.

A scientist finds they had quack doctors in 1600 B. C. You would expect them then. But not now.

Manipulating Not Difficult

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 29.—How a bank's books can be "manipulated", as the saying is, so as to conceal defalcations over an extended period, despite frequent audits by supposedly skilled federal or state examiners, probably is a puzzle to many folk, who are unfamiliar with the mysteries of high financiering.

Charles P. Stewart

I myself am just beginning to learn that there is no such wizardry in it as I had imagined.

Investigations by conservators, now in charge of numerous such institutions throughout the country, reveal here and there that the thing can be done in various ways easily within the comprehension of the ordinary layman.

The case of the Park Savings Bank of Washington is illustrative.

An Example

The Park Savings was not a very large bank, but the fashion in which Robert S. Stunz, its vice president, contrived to enjoy the use of $1,600,000 of its depositors' money, until the recent appointment of a conservator uncovered the fact, and Stunz committed suicide, is described to me by experts as a typical defalcation.

It was so simple!

When a customer made a deposit, part of that deposit would be entered on the Park Savings' regular, bona fide record. The rest would be entered on another record, for Stunz's personal information. Thus the customer would have only a fraction of his money actually credited to him. However in case he checked out, at any time an amount larger than that fraction, no question would be raised; the check would be cashed and a corresponding deduction would be made from the vice president's private record.

Monthly statements were sent out, on the basis of the customers' actual deposits and withdrawals, but when the examiner appeared, all he was allowed to see was the official record; not Stunz's.

Conservator Steps In

This could have gone on indefinitely (it did go on for a term of years) while money was available to pay all demands by customers on the basis of their actual deposits. The run which precipitated the moratorium probably worried Stunz; had it continued, he would have been exposed. It did not go as far as that, but it brought in a conservator, who arrived on the premises just in time to see a boxful of the vice president's private records being removed, and insisted on prying into it.

Thereupon Stunz killed himself.

This system may appear to have been a trifle crass.

Yet officials I have had occasion to question, relative to the jam following the late financial tieup, tell me that they do not consider it particularly so. Some of the largest defalcations they ever have had to deal with, they assure me, were characterized by little, if any, more refinement of method.

A PRESIDENTIAL CLOSE-UP

President Roosevelt has not what one would call a bulldog jaw. A bulldog's jaw is square. The New Yorker's chin is rather conspicuously pointed. Nevertheless it is massive. Its owner has a peculiar backward tilt to his head which throws the lower part of his face into especial prominence.

The effect is to give him a bold and eager expression.

His habit is to sit very low in his swivel chair—on his lumbar vertebrae, as anatomists express it—looking up jovially at the newspaper men during his "press conferences."

Listening to a question, he wears an alert, expectant look, his lips slightly apart. Answering, he smiles if there is the least excuse for it. He is extraordinarily quick to catch a point or shade of meaning. There is plenty of dignity about him, but he has no objection to a joking remark in the right place, and is mighty apt at repartee.

As he speaks, he gesticulates with a cigaret in a long amber holder. Now and then he takes a puff and occasionally spills ashes on his vest front, brushing them off nonchalantly.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

BEQUEATHING A FORTUNE TO HIMSELF:

Felix Ziem (1821-1911) the son of a Croat Father, was a French painter, famous for his sun-and-light-drenched masterpieces of the Venetian lagunes. He lived for many years on a bark in the Venetian waters within which a fantastic tentlike structure served as his study.

After he obtained fame and fortune, he withdrew to an old house in the Rue Lepic, Paris, which he refused to leave. In 1908 he was falsely declared dead, and to prevent his fortune from passing into other hands through inheritance, while he was still alive, he was advised to execute a will in his own favor. A revocation of his legal status would have involved too much time, and so Ziem filed his strange testament through the probation of which he became his own heir.

SPOTLIGHT

by H. W. CORLEY — NEA SERVICE INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

SHEILA SHAYNE, dancer, refuses to marry DICK STANLEY, son of wealthy parents, who is in New York trying to learn to write plays. Sheila's idea of marriage is a cozy little home far from Broadway. Although she has spent most of her life on the stage she would be glad to leave the theater.

On a road show tour she meets JERRY WYMAN. Jerry is attentive and Sheila falls in love with him. She thinks he is a hard working young man with little money and does not know his father owns the factory where Jerry works. Soon his affection seems to cool and he writes infrequently.

Sheila returns to New York and a few months later joins another road company, this time as the featured principal. They play in Jerry's home town but she sees him only once. After that she has no word from him until the tour ends and the company returns to New York. There she learns from her friend, JAPPY, a chorus girl, that Jerry has married a girl in his home town.

Sheila is too unhappy to look for another job until her money is almost gone. Then she is hired as a dancer in a night club. After two weeks she is out of work again. She gets a job as a model at HENRI'S fashionable shop and on her first day there sees DOROTHY TREVOR, youthful cousin of Dick Stanley. Dorothy invites Sheila to lunch with her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XL

Half an hour later Sheila was in the dressing room stepping out of the beautiful frock Henri had created. She was about to don her own modest attire when there was a knock at the door.

Gordon answered. From behind the screen that concealed the girls when they were dressing Sheila recognized Henri's voice. "Tell Miss Shayne," he said, "that she's to lunch with you and me in my office. There are some things I want to talk to her about."

Sheila's eyes filled with dismay. She heard Gordon answering, agreeing and then the door closed again.

"But I've a date!" Sheila protested. "What shall I do?"

Gordon's eyebrows rose. "You want to keep your job, don't you? Then you'd better do as Henri says."

Sheila said nothing more. She finished dressing and Gordon, bustling through the door carrying a frock, cheerily assured Henri that Miss Shayne would be ready in a moment.

"Come along with her," the designer said. "I want you there, too, to talk about the showing this afternoon.

Tea hour on Friday was always an event at Henri's. Customers gathered to see the newest imports, as well as Henri's own designs. The mannequins understood that they were to look their best on Fridays. The week was behind them. They might be weary but the next day was Saturday and no one shopped at Henri's on Saturday. The fashionable women who bought their gowns there were to be found at their homes in Westchester or on Long Island or at any number of exclusive resorts. On Saturdays the mannequins appeared as usual at the shop but they were seldom asked to display a frock.

"If Henri wants to see you about the tea hour," another of the models told Sheila, "it means you've made a hit with him. You're in luck, my dear!"

Mrs. Gordon interrupted. "All right, Sheila. That's your name isn't it? We'd better go now. I think Henri wants you to wear one of the bridal costumes this afternoon."

As the two moved down the corridor toward Henri's private office Sheila saw Dorothy Trevor waiting.

"Was your date with Miss Trevor?" Gordon asked. "Glory be, Henri'd be furious! You can't hobnob with the customers outside the shop. It's against the rules. Too much danger of spilling trade secrets. You'd better send Miss Trevor a note and tell her you are in a conference."

Gordon reached into the pocket of her gray uniform and produced a pencil and pad. Sheila wrote a few hurried words and dispatched the folded note by a messenger boy who returned with a card on which Dorothy had inscribed a telephone number and the words, "Call me tonight."

Sheila decided that she would call. There could be no harm in that, surely. Dorothy was a nice kid and friendly. Besides, she was Dick's cousin.

As Gordon had surmised, Henri had plans for showing the new wedding gowns. They were all imports from Paris and Henri said the bride's dress was exactly the type Sheila could wear better than any of the other girls. There was another gown for the maid of honor and one for the bridesmaid. Henri had decided which of the mannequins should wear each dress.

"But what am I to do?" Sheila asked anxiously. "I don't know anything about modeling."

Henri shrugged. "You are an actress, are you not? Do as I tell you and you will be all right."

Two women from the sewing room appeared carrying huge boxes which they placed on chairs and began to unpack with expressionless faces. Out of one box came a bridal robe of exquisite ivory satin. There was a lace veil of daintiest fragility to be worn with it. There was even a bridal bouquet, just arrived from a

Letters To The Editor

Rev. Mr. Ziehe Concludes Comments On Death Penalty

Editor, The Avalanche: Someone may say, "Your position is that of the Old Testament, but we live in the New." Does he who speaks thus mean to insinuate that God has discovered a flaw in Himself, in His standard of justice, and, by the process of evolution, has improved Himself, has come to a higher standard of justice? The fact that we live under the New Testament dispensation does not change a thing in this respect. To see how true this is we need but look at the utterances of that "gentle Jesus." Twice He spoke to the subject. In the sermon on the mount He said, "Ye have heard that it has been said by them of old time, 'Thou shalt not kill, and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment.' But I say unto you that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment." And to catch the full force of that statement we must see clearly what Jesus understood by "the judgment." To see that read Matthew 25, 31 to 46. And to catch another load of the force carried by that statement we must consider it in the light of the Biblical New Testament, position expressed in the words, "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer, and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him." So what is the logical conclusion we must draw from these words? We can express it thus: Divine justice will trail the murderer, and at least at the bar of the Last Judgment will it be satisfied.

While in this case we were left to draw a conclusion in Christ's other statement on the subject the matter is so plainly stated that this becomes unnecessary. When Peter drew his sword to defend his Master out in the garden of Gethsemane Jesus stopped him with the words: "Put up again thy sword into its place, for all they that take the sword shall perish by the sword."—Yes, Jesus spoke those words, and that lends them divine sanction and authority.

But do I mean to say with all this that we should stand off, in cold and hardened hearts, from a fellow man who has forfeited his life to God, with whom constituted authority must permit the case to run its course? Nevermore! Such an individual needs our sincerest sympathy, and must be given every effort to acquire that which God has to offer to him in his need. Here is the opportunity, the duty that we can express in the words of Christ: "in prison and ye visited me." Here is the opportunity, the duty to bring the convicted one into the presence of Him who once, and today yet, stand ready and able to say to a repentant, dying murderer: "Today thou shalt be with me in Paradise."

And, may I say in this connection, that even before I had the opportunity to write this letter, I spoke to the sheriff of Lubbock county and to fellow ministers in Lubbock in this matter, and was assured that in the particular case in hand this end of the situation is being cared for.

I realize that I have written quite at length. But I believe that the case is worthy of a detailed discussion, and that the situation demands it. I hope that my endeavor will contribute a bit to clearer thinking, deeper insight, and consequent action in this issue. I hope my effort will assist in preventing further slaps in the face of God, in the face of officials who do their duty over against God and man.

If any one feels called on pass judgment on this presentation, I kindly request that the presentation be viewed in its entirety, and judged, not in piecemeal, but as a whole.

Sincerely yours,
H. C. Ziehe,
Posey.

Slaton Plans For Election

Mayor And Two Councilmen To Be Elected At Balloting April 4; Little Excitement Being Occasioned

(By Staff Correspondent)

SLATON, March 29.— A mayor and two councilmen are to be chosen in the city election scheduled for Tuesday, April 4. So far there has been but little excitement over the coming contest.

Mayor T. M. George, who is completing his first elected term, is opposed by E. Barton, former city water superintendent. Mayor George was elected to succeed the late Mayor Reeves, who died late in 1930 before his term was finished. Mr. George was then chosen by voters in the 1931 election.

P. B. Tudor and T. A. Worley, outgoing council men from the third and first wards, are not seeking re-election. W. T. Brown and J. I. Bradley are candidates from the third ward, while R. C. Darwin and G. M. Ayers in ward 1 would succeed Mr. Worley.

OIL OPERATOR DIES

Less Suffering After She Took Cardui

"Periodically I have a dull ache in the lower part of my back," writes Mrs. Ruth Hill, of Charleston, W. Va. "I get real dizzy, my head swims, and I have a weak, 'gone' feeling that keeps me from doing my work well. I have found that taking Cardui prevents this. I have been greatly benefited from its use."

When womanly aches and pains are due to a weak, run-down condition, take CARDUI. It has been used by women for over 50 years. Cardui is a purely vegetable strengthening medicine and it cannot harm you.

National Relay Champs To Perform Here Saturday; Entry List Growing

Abilene High Sending Squad To Local Meet

Glynn Wyatt And Willard Moser Of Last Year's National Winner To Be Here; Chapman Is Hopeful Big Tourney

The Abilene High school Eagles, out of whose ranks appeared the quartet which won the national high school mile relay event at Chicago last year, will enter the Lubbock High school open invitation track and field meet here Saturday.

Coach Weldon Chapman of Lubbock High school yesterday received final acceptance of the invitation from Coach Dewey Mathew of Abilene. Mayhew will bring a team of at least six performers to enter nine events Saturday.

The entry list for the meet, which is open to all high school track and field teams, continues to grow. Several Lubbock county schools, including Shallowater, Slaton and Monroe, leading performers in last Saturday's county meet here, will enter.

Expect Panhandle Teams

Although verifications from Amarillo, Pampa and Plainview have not arrived, Coach Chapman believes these schools will enter.

A letter was received yesterday from Coach J. C. Conradt of the Hobbs High school, Rotan, Texas, containing a single entry. Raymond May, winner of five first places in the Fisher county meet, will enter at least four events here Saturday, three of which will be field events.

Matador Is Entered

Matador High school has filed formal entry. It is thought that San Angelo, Big Spring, Rotan, Snyder, Colorado and other schools of that section will send teams here.

The Abilene High school relay team, which won its district and the state championship last year before going to Chicago to take national honors, retains two of the championship team members, Glynn Wyatt and Willard Moser. Wyatt is generally known over the state for his football ability and as a sprinter. He will enter the low hurdles and pole vault events as well as run on the relay team.

Moser, considered by eastern officials as the fastest man of the championship quartet last year, will do the final turn in the relay, and run in the 220-yard dash and the 440.

Other Abilene athletes named by Mayhew yesterday include Frank Cogdell, who runs the century dash and the 220 and appears in the relay team; James Baldwin, 440-yard dash man who is also on the relay team and, in addition, a broad jumper; Lennon Blackmon, star halfback who does the half mile and puts the shot and Jack Black, mile runner.

See Coach Chapman

Coaches who desire to enter their teams in the Lubbock meet are advised to communicate with Coach Chapman this week or early Saturday morning.

Preliminaries will be held Saturday morning, beginning at 9 o'clock. Finals will be held in the afternoon, and efforts will be made to run the meet as quickly as possible in order to allow time for teams to make the homeward journey Saturday evening.

Kiki Cuyler Sustains Hurt As Cubs Defeat Hollywood

LOS ANGELES, March 29 (AP)—Chicago's chances of retaining the National League pennant received a severe blow today when Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, one of the finest outfielders in the senior circuit, suffered a fracture of his right leg while attempting to steal second base in an exhibition game with Hollywood.

The accident happened in the fourth inning of the contest which the Cubs won 10 to 8. Kiki hesitated a moment as he approached the base and then decided to hit the dirt. He was half a step too late in his decision, and his foot caught the bag, giving his left a sharp twist. He was carried from the field.

Examination at the hospital showed what doctors termed a "continued fracture of the lower end of the fibula," the smaller bone of the leg. They said a section of the bone three inches in length had been severed from the main bone.

ZEKE BONURA REPORTS

DALLAS, March 29. (AP)—Big Zeke Bonura, holdout first baseman, reported today to the Dallas Steers. Although not yet signed, he played with the rookies in an intraclub game. Bonura drove from New Orleans with Jake Atz, chief of Texas League umpires. Atz will assist J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Texas League, in organizing the proposed Dixie League that includes Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi towns.

Bob Tarleton, vice-president of the Steers, was at Houston today dickering with the New York Giants for a centerfielder. Tarleton was due back Thursday morning and has an appointment to talk "salary" with Bonura. Bonura said he had not agreed on terms but was confident he would get together with Tarleton.

Manager Happ Morse sent the Steers through a long morning workout and then held a 5-inning intraclub game in the afternoon.

The game scheduled Friday against Indianapolis has been moved up and will be played tomorrow.

BUCCANEER REGULARS WIN

GALVESTON, March 29. (AP) — The Buccaneer regulars hopped on Slim Hughes, rookie right hander, for eight hits and as many runs in six innings here and then added another off another rookie, Freddie Croft, for a 9-3 victory over the Yannigans today. Gaffke, Bell and Darrow hit two baggers, while Governor tripled.

Hank Thormahlen, George Darrow and Bill Chamberlain, all left handers each worked three innings for the regulars, with each giving up one hit and one run.

The Bucs will leave their club house and play-field to the Detroit Tigers and New York Giants tomorrow, but will resume a schedule of double workouts Friday and Saturday. Sunday they go to Beaumont for an exhibition game.

REDS TROUNCE PHILLIES

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 29. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds today became the first National League team to beat the Phillies in the grapefruit series, winning 8 to 4.

Roy Hansen's fifth inning wildness gave the Reds 5 runs by three walks and three hits.

DODGERS LICK WALBERG

FT. MYERS, Fla., March 29. (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers found the southpaw slants of Rube Walberg to their liking today as they defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 10 to 5.

The Dodgers got seven of their runs and nine of their 13 hits off Walberg in the five innings he pitched.

INDIANS COUNT ON "SOCKS"

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 29. (AP) The Oklahoma City Indians' customers are figuring that "Red" Harvel, Bruce Sloan and "Sock" Johnson will do most of the Indians' run-getting this year. This trio led their teammates to a 6-2 drubbing in six innings Tuesday against the so-called "regulars."

Pitchers who rested Tuesday will work Thursday. Skull practice, with some loosening up exercises, was the program today.

SANTONE MISSIONS OPEN

SAN ANTONIO, March 29. (AP) — San Antonio's new "Missions" will face first fire here tomorrow afternoon, meeting the University of Texas Longhorns. The infielders and outfielders have been in camp but three days, but many of them came from the semi-pro leagues of the West coast and are ready to go.

Manager Hank Severeid indicated he would start most of these youngsters, holding such players as Martineck, Crossley, Clift and Fuss on the bench. The same teams will play again in Austin Saturday.

By arrangement, Adrian and Griffin are slated for mound work against Texas tomorrow.

A PAIN TO GIANTS

HOUSTON, March 29. (AP)—Former Texas Leaguers are proving an acute pain in the neck for Bill Terry's New York Giants. "School Boy" Rowe, former Beaumont chunker, was a big factor in Detroit's 7 to 5 victory yesterday at Beaumont. Today two other performers who were with Beaumont in 1932 paced Bucky Harris' men to a 7 to 4 triumph in a slow, drawn-out exhibition.

Sandy Herring and Peter "Rabbit" Fox, wing-footed centerfielder, were the Tiger big shots. Herring hurled well in the pinches for six rounds. In the ninth, with two on and two out, Fox made a magnificent running catch of "Jo-Jo" Moore's drive to center.

Holmes Takes Medalist Cup

Title Defender Shots 73 To Lead Fourteen Texas Tech Golfers In Annual Tourney; Match Play Begins Today

Billy Holmes, Shamrock, had a little difficulty with the high winds yesterday and had to take a 73 for his qualifying round in the annual Texas Tech tournament. His score was low, however, giving him medal honors in the tournament in which he is defending his championship.

Fourteen college golfers qualified yesterday with scores ranging from the medalist's, 73 to 99. C. J. Cantrell and Panny Tanner tied for second place yesterday with 75's.

The fourteen players were divided into two flights.

The qualifiers and their 18-hole scores follow:

Billy Holmes, 73; C. J. Cantrell 75; Panny Tanner, 75; Jack Wilson, 76; Walter Pendleton, 76; Leon Fisher, 78; Glenn Stevenson, 79; John Bell, 79; Harold Crites, 81; Victor Bearden, 85; Al Jensen, 89; Herschel Tadlock, 90; J. Doyle Settle, 94, and Jack Pope, 99.

Parings for first round playy, beginning today, are as follows:

Championship flight: Holmes vs. Pendleton; Tanner vs. Stevenson; Wilson vs. Bell; Cantrell vs. Fisher.

First flight: Crites vs. Tadlock; Bearden vs. Settle; Jensen vs. Pope.

Eighteen-hole matches today will determine first round winners. These will play 18-hole matches Friday and the winners meet Saturday in a 36-hole final for the championship of both flights.

TRAINING CAMP SUCCESS

IF THE Detroit Tigers fail to win the American League pennant they believe it can not be blamed on their spring training at San Antonio. The Tigers concluded their pre-season workouts at the Alamo City on March 24 without the loss of a day from the baseball field.

For most part the weather was warm and the field in excellent condition, and Manager "Bucky" Harris admits his men really got themselves in playing form. There is an undercurrent of belief among Texas baseball men that several major league clubs will train in Texas next year.

ROOKIES

IN THE Dallas club house the other day, Manager Happ Morse called six rookies before him and gave them unconditional releases. After 21 years in professional baseball, Happ still has a tender heart and proved it when he asked the rookies how much money they had.

After the counting up there was a dollar between them.

"You kids remain at the hotel and eat at the club's expense until you get some money from home or wherever you get money," ordered Morse.

The order removed much of the sting of the release.

A REMARKABLE ROUND

DENNIS LAVENDER, former Texas amateur golf champion is far from being through as a low scoring golfer. In a recent trial over the Dallas Stevens park course he breezed around in 29-32—61 for a new course record.

Par on the Stevens course, which is studded with trees, is 35-35—70.

Lavender had a sensational start of threes on the first five holes. He slipped at the sixth green to take a 4, but got right again for 3-3. He missed a shot at the ninth and again required a 4 which netted him 29 on the front nine. On the back nine he had four 3's and five 4's. Lavender never went over par on any hole.

A summary of his amazing round revealed that he shot ten pars, seven birdies and one eagle. The former Texas amateur champion is majoring in journalism at Southern Methodist university.

Cleveland Has Little Worry; Peck Hopeful

A Promising Pitching Staff, Lively Battle For Infield Positions And Set Outfield Gives Indians Rare Hope

By RALPH WHEATLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW ORLEANS, March 29.—With an infield on its toes from competition and a strong-armed array of pitchers, Manager Roger Peckinpaugh expects to lead his Cleveland Indians this year to a higher spot up the American League pennant flagpole.

How far up, he would not venture a guess, but he believes it will be higher than last year's fourth place. Peckinpaugh regards his present team as the best he ever has managed and it would not surprise him to see the Indians hit a winning streak at start of the season.

Believes In Pitchers

He is staking high hopes on his pitching staff and the hitting power of his men.

The five starting pitchers, Brown, Ferrell, Harder, Hildebrand and Hudlin, including the southpaw and four rights, promise to give the batters plenty of trouble. They will be supported by Bean, Connally, Perrin, Twogood and Winegarner. The Iowan, Twogood, brought up from the Toledo farm, the second lefthander on the pitching squad, has developed well in camp and he will have a chance to prove his mettle in big league ball.

Batters In Outfield

But the pitchers' mound is a rose bud society compared to the infield. It is hardly safe for life and limb to get in that circuit because of the battles between players over jobs. Just mention the name of Harley Boss to Eddie Morgan and that of Bill Knickerbocker to John Burnett and they look as if they would like to knock the stuffings out of you.

These new ones, Boss and Knickerbocker, have been burning the wind at first base and shortstop and, although the regulars will no doubt open the season at their old stands, that is not saying they will hang on to them all the way through.

Kamm Also Worried

William Kamm has a good grip on the third sack but he doesn't like this man Odel Hale being so close to him. The only one in the infield who is sitting back grinning is William Cissell, who has a one-man monopoly on second base.

Back in the outfield harmony reigns as Averill, Powers and Vosmik have their jobs in the bag.

The catchers' box also is a quiet spot as Roy Spencer, traded from Washington, has earned first catcher and Glenn Myatt is satisfied as second man. Frank Pytlak is there to fill any gaps.

Some of the players are not sleeping any too well but Peckinpaugh is snoring contentedly.

"It's not bad when you have a good man with another good man sitting on the bench just waiting for him to boggle, eh?" asks Peck with a grin.

Clovis Bowlers Meet Local Team Saturday Night

Inaugurating a series of bowling contests between the two cities, a team of bowlers from Clovis, N. M., is to be here Saturday night to face a local team at Gust Kallas' new bowling alleys at 1112 Broadway.

The contest will start at 8 o'clock.

The Lubbock team will be selected from a group of players composed of Leo Bell, Frazier McCrummen, Webster Hardy, Gust Kallas, Bill Mears and Bill Manous.

A return match will be played at Clovis in the near future and a series of other contests will follow. Kallas is also seeking matches with other bowling clubs of the Panhandle-Plains area.

Kirkwood Wins Rich Purse In Carolina Cups

Trick Shot Artist Concludes North And South Open With Low Score Of 277, Setting A New Record

PINEHURST, N. C., March 29.—Joe Kirkwood, of New York, won the North and South open golf championship here this afternoon with a 72-hole score of 277, a new record. His last round of 72 was his poorest of the tournament.

Harry Cooper, Chicago, was second, with 282, and Craig Wood, Deal, N. J., and Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., tied for third and fourth places with 285. Cooper shot a 68, three under par this afternoon to clinch second money.

Kirkwood shot three of his four rounds under 71, the par of the course. He had 68, 67, 70 and 72 to make up his total. The previous low score in a North and South open was MacDonald Smith's 281, made in 1925.

STEERS MEET INDIANAPOLIS

FORT WORTH, March 29. (AP) — Manager Killifer of the Indianapolis Indians has shifted his line-up for the game with the Dallas Steers in Dallas tomorrow.

Instead of the youngsters used against Memphis last week-end, he plans to use his veterans, except for pitching. Bob Logan and Bill Thomas have been announced as moundsmen.

The rest of the line-up will be: Pid Purdy, cf; Herb Thomas, 2b; Marty Callaghan, lf; Fuzzy Hufft, rf; Ernie Wingard, 1b; Tom Angley, c; Fred Bedore, 3b; Roy White, ss.

Caddy Will Have Nothing To Do With Ouimet After Refusing To Follow His Advice

YEARS and years ago when Francis Ouimet, former champion, went to Scotland for his first visit, he engaged one of the old men who caddie at St. Andrews. Playing a one-shotter he asked for his mashie.

"You want a mid-iron, mon," replied the caddie. Ouimet refused to take the mid-iron. The caddie insisted. But Ouimet was firm in his refusal, and finally compromised on a jigger.

The shot was short. Next day when Ouimet went out to play again, he sought the same caddie. The caddie-master informed him that the old fellow would not caddie for Ouimet again because the American was "too stubborn to take his advice."

Old Rip meant, his Brother Was a Street-Lighter. What startling things have happened since Rip took his long nap—if he should have waked up today after his long sleep—he would surely be surprised at the many things that are done by Electricity—in fact he would be frightened at the very idea that he could go into a modern home, and flip the switch and get a light, without having to clean and service it every day.

... then too, he would be more startled when he found that a sweeper is run by electricity—and the Radio—and the Refrigerator—as well as hundreds of other things.

"An Eskimo's Igloo"

THE ONLY HOME THAT IS A FROZEN ASSET

Just because there may not be a ready sale for a home at a given moment cannot justify calling it a frozen asset. There are three basic necessities of human existence—Food—Clothing—and Shelter. Market conditions can never alter the value of the home as an essential to life. While it protects you from the elements your home is never a FROZEN ASSET.

The value of your own home actually increases in times of economic stress. It is a substantial, visible and USABLE asset. It ignores the influences that affect commodities generally. For this reason a home, even under the worst conditions, is a good investment. Today it is the best investment on earth. Not only does the buyer have immediate and valuable use of his purchase, but he also has a logical expectation of profit. The reason? Real Estate prices are abnormally low. Their eventual rise borders on absolute certainty. The time to buy Your Home is NOW. Everything is in your favor.

LEGAL NOTICES

SHERIFF'S SALE

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a certain Order of Sale issued by the Justice Court of Precinct No. 1, Place No. 1, Lubbock county, on the 28th day of March, 1933, in a certain cause wherein Drs. J. T. Krueger, J. T. Hutchinson and M. C. Overton are plaintiffs, and Mrs. Caroline T. Rice, is defendant, (Suit No. 4585) in which cause a judgment was rendered on the 13th day of October, 1932, in favor of the said plaintiffs against said defendant for the sum of $196.00, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from date of judgment, together with all costs of suit, I have levied upon, and will, on May 2, 1933, it being the first Tuesday of said month, at the court house door in Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, within legal hours, proceed to sell for cash to the highest bidder, all the right, title and interest of Mrs. Caroline T. Rice in and to the following described real property, levied upon as the property of said defendant, to-wit: Lot No. 16, in Block No. 27, Overton Addition to the City of Lubbock, in Lubbock County, Texas, together with all improvements thereon.

The above sale to be made by me to satisfy the above described judgment with the costs of said suit, and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction thereof.

TOM ABEL
Sheriff of Lubbock County, Texas.
By B. F. CARPENTER, Deputy.
Lubbock, Texas, March 28, 1933.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. O. Tanner and Sanitary Fruit Market by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the Justice Court, Precinct 1, Place 2, Lubbock County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in city of Lubbock, on the 4th Wednesday in May A. D., 1933, the same being the 24th day of May, A. D., 1933, then and there to answer an amended answer by garnishee to a writ of garnishment filed in said Court on the 29th day of March, A. D., 1933, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 16-5-A, wherein Walker Smith Company, a corporation, is Plaintiff, and J. O. Tanner and Sanitary Fruit Market are Defendants and Citizens National Bank, Lubbock, Texas, is garnishee, said amended answer in garnishment alleging in substance that at time of service of garnishment on it, it was indebted to Sanitary Fruit Market in the sum of $117.80, and that it does not know whether J. O. Tanner is the owner of said Sanitary Fruit Market and using said name as a trade name; and among other things prays that said J. O. Tanner and Sanitary Fruit Market be cited to appear and answer and that the court determine who is the owner of said fund, and also allow garnishee an attorney's fee of $10.00.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Lubbock, this the 29th day of March, A. D., 1933.

SPOTLIGHT

H. W. CORLEY

Fifth Avenue florist's shop. That would be put away to remain in perfect condition until it was needed.

Moving about quickly, gesturing impatiently, Henri explained his ideas for the afternoon's showing. The two mannequins in the pastel frocks should enter first. Then Sheila would appear alone so that nothing could distract attention from her lovely gown. The girls were to stop, to pose so and then move on. Henri gave instructions explicitly.

In spite of her disappointment at missing a chat with Dick, Sheila was interested. Henri was a marvel. One of the other models had told her in the dressing room that with a few cosmetics and two yards of satin he could make a beauty of any woman. Now she believed it. Darting enthusiastically about as though this were the first Paris shipment that had ever reached the shop, Henri made certain every detail was exactly right.

Gordon merely nodded now and then. It was Henri whose artistic skill whose shrewdness and in spirations were responsible for the reputation the shop had attained for perfect costuming. Gordon was merely a subordinate trained to carry out instructions.

Suddenly Henri paused in the midst of his discourse. He said to Sheila: "I want to know if you made a luncheon engagement with Miss Trevor. Yes? I saw you talking with her. Perhaps you do not know but I do not allow my models to go about with customers. You understand?"

"I had met her before," Sheila murmured. "I didn't know it was against the rules."

"But you know it now," Henri insisted. "You must not do such a thing again. You are not to meet customers outside the shop." His voice dropped in explanation. "Pretty models interest society men. My customers naturally object. Also quite naturally they will censure me. They will take their patronage elsewhere. You must obey. It is our rule."

"She won't do it again," Gordon put in hastily. She smiled reassuringly at the girl. "And of course she has her own circle of friends. Except in the store she won't breathe a word to Miss Trevor, will you, Sheila?"

"Certainly not if that is the rule."

"Of course," Henri reflected, "Miss Trevor has no husband, no brother or fiance. Still a rule is a rule and we will not change it. Be charming to her here in the store. The more interested she becomes in you and what you are wearing the more she will buy. Miss Trevor is an excellent customer. It would never do to offend her. But be careful. If you visit her sooner or later something will happen and you will see that she is jealous. Understand?"

"I understand," Sheila agreed. Privately she had no such fancies regarding Dorothy Trevor. She doubted very much if the girl could possible regard her as a rival. She knew that Dorothy's interest in her arose from the fact that Sheila represented a world so unlike that in which the wealthy girl had always lived. She knew Dorothy considered her a new interest, someone who was amusing for a while and who later would doubtless be dropped.

Dorothy had hinted that she would like a job at Henri's as a model. Later probably she would plead with Sheila to help her secure a chance to go on the stage.

To lunch with this unspoiled daughter of millions would have amused Sheila as well as the other girl. But if it was forbidden that was that. Sheila needed the $50 weekly that Henri would pay her. She would obey his rules.

Soon in the excitement of getting ready for the afternoon she had forgotten all about the incident. Sheila dressed in the beautiful French bridal gown, saw herself in the long mirrors and hardly recognized the radiant vision as herself. She followed the other girls into the luxuriously furnished outer salon. She passed in review before the men and women sitting there, was aware of their eyes fastened on her, curiously, critically.

It was a little like a first night performance and yet so different. Presently Sheila was back in the dressing room, changing to another gown. Gordon told her she had done very well.

And then at last the afternoon was over. Sheila got into her own dress and hat. She left the shop by the employees' entrance. There at the curb stood a huge limousine. Dorothy Trevor's face peered out at Sheila, her voice called out in greeting.

And then she saw Dick. He was stepping to the curb, holding the door of the car open.

MARKET REPORTS

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, March 29. (AP)—Stocks bobbed up and down in their current trading range today, closing lower but above the minimums of a quiet market.

Light selling of old-time favorites that recently have been subject to pressure found buyers reluctant. Sales totaled 624,796 shares.

President Roosevelt's message on federal supervision of investments and the accompanying legislation to carry out his proposals gave the financial community plenty of material for study. Although formal comment was withheld during market hours, the steps being taken by the national government to end abuses were for the most part favorably received. It was pointed out in some quarters that restoration of confidence among investors is not only desirable but necessary if new money is to be forthcoming for financing the eventual recovery from this depression.

As to the state of trade, markets learned that steel output had risen a shade, though special factors were responsible for the improvement at a new pivotal point which lifted the general ratio to 15 per cent of capacity from 14 per cent a week ago. The important steel consumers are still lagging. Electric power productionwas higher and the comparison with a year ago was the most favorable since the first week of this month.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, March 29. (AP)—Cotton was more active today with prices fluctuating rather broadly. Under diverse influences, the market at one time showed net gains of 8 to 11 points but reactions followed and the close was 5 to 6 points down from the previous close.

The opening was easier as Liverpool cables came in 2 to 3 penny points worse than due. Private cables said the trade bought and Bombay sold. Manchester reported small inquiry for cloths and yarns.

The market rallied in more active trading, due to a good upturn in wheat, firmer stocks and favorable advices from Washington as to farm relief and aid to railroads.

In the afternoon prices gradually eased off owing to easier stocks and more or less liquidation by recent buyers, until active months duplicated the low levels of the morning. The close was practically at the bottom. May closing at 6.20, down 6 points net, July at 6.40, down 5 points, and October at 6.6; down 6 points.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow unchanged to 1 penny point down.

Port receipts 8,284 for week 44,196, for season 7,503,134, last season 9,154,991. Exports 21,122, for week 44,654, last season 6,694,522. Port stock 4357,098, last year 4,476,356. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 93,945, last year 163,189. Spot sales at southern markets 7,654, last year 7,878.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 29. (AP)—A rather sharp advance from a slight early decline in cotton today on covering and commission house buying promoted by rallies in wheat and reports of small offerings from the south was followed by advances under realizing and scattered selling.

May contracts after selling up from 6.26 @6.44 or 12 points net higher, reacted to 6.24 and closed at that figure, with the general market closing easy at net declines to 1 to 8 points.

The opening was steady, at a decline of 4 to 6 points in response to disappointing Liverpool cables and reselling by some of yesterday's advance to bring in more overnight buying orders. Houses with Liverpool and Japanese connections had a few selling orders here, but there seemed to be very little selling from the south and the comparatively moderate initial offerings were absorbed by covering and trade buying.

Southern selling also made its appearance, apparently, and the market reacted in the later trading with October closing at 6.04, or 16 points off from the best of the day. May showed a maximum decline of 8 points at the close while other months were 1 to 5 points net lower.

Liverpool cables said that Lint Bombay selling had been taken by the trade on that market and reported quiet business in spot cotton there with some import buying of medium qualities of American cotton.

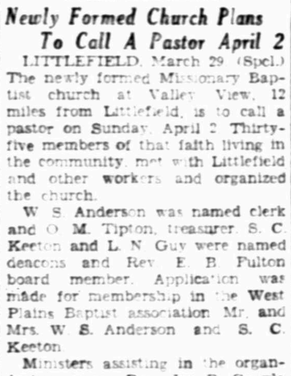

Futures today 20,900, making 6,124,900 so far this season. U. S. port stocks 4,496,031.

Newly Formed Church Plans To Call A Pastor April 2

LITTLEFIELD, March 29 (Spcl.) The newly formed Missionary Baptist church at Valley View, 12 miles from Littlefield, is to call a pastor on Sunday, April 2. Thirty-five members of that faith living in the community met with Littlefield and other workers and organized the church.

W. S. Anderson was named clerk and O. M. Tipton, treasurer. S. C. Keeton and L. N. Guy were named deacons and Rev. E. B. Fulton board member. Application was made for membership in the West Plains Baptist association. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Anderson and S. C. Keeton.

Ministers assisting in the organization were: Rev. Joe P. Grizzle, Littlefield; Rev. R. C. Malone, Plainview; Rev. R. B. Moseley, Rev. C. F. Booth and Rev. C. B. Fulton.

Grains

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, March 29. (AP)—Fair demand continued Wednesday for the light offerings on the Fort Worth cash grain market.

Prices ranged as follows: Basis car loads on track at Fort Worth freight paid to destination, delivered Texas Gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat No. 1 hard according to protein and billing 61@62. Barley No. 2 nominally 38@40; No. 3 nominally 37@38. Sorghums No. 2 milo per 100 lbs. 75@78; No. 3 milo 68@75.

No. 2 kaffir per 100 lbs. 60@62; No. 3 kaffir 58@60.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn, No. 2 mixed 48 1-2@49 1-2; No. 2 white 49 1-2@50 1-2; No. 2 yellow 49@50.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, March 29. (AP)—Big buying shot wheat prices strongly upward today, but profit-taking at the last nullified most of the gains.

Reports of the dust storms in Kansas and Oklahoma did much to inspire the purchase movement in the wheat pit. Besides predictions were plentiful that April unofficial crop summaries next week would indicate heavy abandonment of domestic winter wheat acreage.

Wheat closed irregular, 1-4 to 3-8 off to 1-4 to 3-8 up compared with yesterday's finish; corn 1-4 to 3-8 advanced; oats unchanged to a shade higher, and provisions unchanged to ten cents down.

Closing indemnities: Wheat, May 52 1-2@52-8 54 3-8, July 53@53 1-8, 54 3-4@54 7-8, Sept. 53 5-8, 55 1-4@3-8. Corn, May 29 3-4@1-2, 30@30 1-8, July 31 1-8@1-4, 31 3-4, Sept. 32 3-4@7-8, 33 3-8@1-2.

Six Indicted In Kidnaping

Two Men Are Named As Alleged Leaders Of Gang And Women Are Included; All But Two Held In Jail

DENVER, Colo., March 29. (AP)—Six persons were indicted by a United States grand jury here today in connection with the kidnaping for ransom of Charles Goettcher 2nd, scion of a wealthy pioneer family for whose release $60,000 was paid.

The indictments were under the "Lindbergh law" which leaves the penalty to the discretion of the trial judge.

Verne Sankey and Gordon Elkhorn, fugitives, were named as the alleged leaders of the Boettcher kidnapers.

Others indicted were:

Mrs. Fern Sankey, wife of the fugitive.

Mrs. Ruth Kohler, her sister.

Arthur Youngberg, alleged to have been Boettcher's guard during his 17 days of captivity.

Carl W. Pearce, who police said has admitted copying on a typewriter the ransom notes sent to Claude K. Boettcher, the victim's father.

All but Sankey and Elkhorn are held in jail here.

Luckies Please!

Fujiyama, the eighth wonder of the world
In every corner of the world, both here and overseas, wherever you find joy in life, 'tis always "Luckies Please"
First in character—first in mildness ...first in smoking pleasure
Among smart, cosmopolitan folk, you'll hear of Luckies in many languages—but the meaning is always the same—"Luckies Please!"...For people the world over want a cigarette with Character...and Mildness. Lucky Strike's rich, delightful Character comes from that mellow, balanced blend of fine tobaccos.
And—these splendid tobaccos are truly mild! Because every fragrant shred is "Toasted". For these two reasons—Character and Mildness—"Luckies Please!"

because "It's toasted"
