

Four Die In Guard Plane Blast

FORT WORTH (UPI) — An Air National Guard KC97 tanker plane crashed while practicing touch-and-go landings Thursday night and the blazing wreckage erupted in repeated explosions for more than an hour.

Four crewmen were killed and seven injured in the crash at Greater Southwest International Airport, all from the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Firefighters battling the blazing wreckage had the fire subdued when they ran out of extinguishing foam. The flames flared anew as a fresh batch was rushed over from Carswell Air Force Base on the other side of Fort Worth and the explosions followed.

The new batch of foam was made thick and sluggish by temperatures in the mid-20s, firemen said. They complained they could not get enough of it to the flames.

Four Explosions
When the fire was finally subdued again three hours later, at least four explosions had gone off, presumably the gas tanks for the plane's four propeller engines.

Killed were T. Sgt. Roy R. Spert, 33, Hurst, Tex.; T. Sgt. Emil J. Trojacek, 29, Dallas; S. Sgt. Charles W. Elmore, 30, Dallas; and S. Sgt. Robert B. Weeks, 26, Grand Prairie, Tex.

All the men were members of the 136th Air Refueling Group. They had taken off on a training flight from Dallas Naval Air Station. The landing at the Fort Worth municipal airport was supposed to be a touch-and-go, in which the KC97 would have taken off again without halting.

But the plane hit a low embankment at the south end of the runway and exploded in a tall mushroom of flame.

A controller in the airport tower said, "it just fell apart." Plane's Tail Remains
The wreckage was scattered for 120 feet, and only the plane's tail remained recognizable. All four killed were in the tail's belly.

One of the survivors was the navigator, Lt. Vernon Yeates, 29, of Dallas, who said, "it happened without advance warning."

"I crawled out the front as soon as we hit. I got singing getting out. I was so busy I missed the explosion. I guess."

Yeates was treated for burns and released from Mid-Cities Hospital at Euless, Tex. Three other crewmen who suffered burns were listed in good condition today by Parkland Hospital in Dallas. They are M. Sgt. Frank Hutchinson, 35, Grand Prairie; and Majors Ted Fourn, 37, and Charles Chester, 36, both of Dallas.

Fourn was one of the pilots of the craft. The other was Maj. H. C. Smyth, 36, of Dallas, who escaped unhurt with the two other survivors. Capt. James Kumpf, 35, of Dallas and T. Sgt. Hoyt Moore, 34, of Hurst.

PATROLMAN IDENTIFIED

Probe Ordered In Photographer Beating

DETROIT (UPI) — Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh Thursday ordered a full scale investigation of a violent incident between a city photographer and an off-duty policeman at the scene of a fatal gunfight last Saturday.

Request Pushed To Halt Strike

CHICAGO (UPI) — Final arguments were expected today on a request by the nation's railroads for a permanent federal court order against a threatened strike by three shop craft unions.

U.S. District Court Judge Joseph Sam Perry said he would rule on the request Saturday. If approved, the order would be in effect until withdrawn by the court, probably after a new contract is signed.

Perry has issued a temporary strike restraining order that will expire Dec. 24 but the unions promised to refrain from a walkout that could tie up nationwide rail transportation at least until after New Year's Day.

BIZARRE ACCIDENT — A 3-year-old Pampa youngster received slight injuries about 1:30 p.m. yesterday in this unusual accident near the intersection of Browning and Lefors. A pickup driven by Don North, 24, of 1220 E. Francis, rammed into the side of a panel truck, flipping over on its side and into the path of another vehicle. The driver, Marlene Thornton, escaped unhurt. Her 3-year-old son, Brian, received minor injuries and was treated and released at a local doctors' clinic. The driver of the panel, Charlie Ruff, 48, of 616 Doucette, escaped uninjured. Police Sgt. George Wallace is shown directing traffic around the accident.

Workers Return To Moonport Site

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Space construction began a slow return to normal today after a carpenter's union local withdrew pickets that stalled moonport and Air Force building for a day.

Workers began returning to their jobs at dawn. An Army Corps of Engineers spokesman estimated that 80 to 85 per cent of the 4,500-man work force would be on the job later today.

The carpenters, members of Local 1665, set up picket lines at entrances to the space center and at nearby Patrick Air Force Base in a surprise move Thursday to protest the use of non-union labor by one contractor.

About 3,300 workers refused to cross the lines Thursday.

Tough Way to Join Friends

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Police said Lawrence McCullough, 42, walked into the station Thursday night and asked to be arrested so he could be with two of his friends.

McCullough said he wanted to be put in jail because he had two bottles of wine he wanted to share with his friends, serving time for drunkenness. McCullough was booked on inebriation charges and joined his friends in jail, but without the wine.

Key construction was halted at the vast Merritt Island Moon base, on the new Air Force Titan-3 military space rocket complex and on other space projects.

The corps spokesman said construction got under way slowly this morning but was picking up speed as workers returned.

A spokesman for the Brevard Building Trades Council said he expected a full force at work Monday.

Willard Van Hoose, business agent for the carpenters local, said the union decided to withdraw its pickets late Thursday night. He said negotiations are now underway to resolve the dispute with the contractor, Akwa-Downey Construction Co. of Milwaukee, Wis.

Thursday's picketing was the fourth time this year that picket lines had stalled construction at the space center. The previous disputes were stopped by federal court orders after tying up building for a total of eight days.

Panhandle Warms Up; Rest of U.S. Frigid

Pampa and the Panhandle moved out of near-zero cold weather today, but most of the rest of the nation still was in the grip of winter's first real icy blast as sub-zero temperatures hit millions of square miles from the Pacific to the Great Lakes.

The weatherman overshot his mark with a prediction that Pampa would have a 5-below reading early today.

The overnight low came at 7 o'clock this morning when it registered 8 above.

Today's forecast calls for fair to partly cloudy and warmer through Saturday. While Pampa's high was in the mid-teens yesterday, the mercury was expected to climb into the 30s this afternoon, drop 10 or 15 degrees into the teens again tonight and then climb out of the freezing zone tomorrow with a high around 40 degrees.

Coldest spot in the Panhandle this morning was Dalhart with 5 above. Amarillo had 7 above. In Pampa the reading at noon today was 20 degrees.

The cold wave that gripped Pampa all day Thursday showed into South Texas today.

Freezing drizzle prevented major damage to the semi-tropical Lower Rio Grande Valley's citrus crop today, but a glaze of ice, sleet and snow built up across South Texas when the worst storm of the season rode frigid winds deep into the state.

At daybreak the freezing temperatures had engulfed all of the state except the immediate upper coast around Beaumont and Galveston, the extreme southern tip near Brownsville and the Laredo area, where the 36-degree reading was the warmest in the state.

Belt of Snow
A 25-mile wide belt of snow stretched from the San Saba-Hamilton area eastward to Palestine before dawn, but by 7 a.m. this had narrowed to an area 25 miles in diameter 30 miles west of Palestine and was moving eastward.

Sleet and freezing rain closed three expressways in San Antonio and a glaze began to form on the high harbor bridge at Corpus Christi, where the temperature reached 31 degrees at 6 a.m.

The U.S. Weather Bureau issued glaze warnings for bridges and overpasses throughout the Texas and Louisiana coastal belt and said that occasional freezing rain would continue in South Texas today and tonight.

Sanding trucks worked in the roads in the valley, in San Antonio and as far east as the Beaumont area where some icing was reported on bridges. Wrecks were numerous in all areas where the glazing was occurring, but none of major proportions had been reported by 7 a.m.

At Dallas and Fort Worth, the mercury slid on down to 15 degrees after a reported 18-degree low. Wichita Falls had 11 degrees, Lubbock 13, Abilene 18, Alpine 17, Texarkana and Midland 20 and Waco 22.

Regents Meet On Speech Policy

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Regents of the University of California meet today to consider a faculty proposal to end the "free speech" controversy that has kept the Berkeley campus in turmoil for nearly three months.

The five-point proposal was endorsed 824-115 at a Dec. 8 meeting of the Berkeley academic senate, which represents all permanent faculty members on the campus.

In telegrams sent Thursday, the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in New York urged the regents to adopt a more liberal policy toward student politics on campus.

Faculty endorsement of the five-point program halted mass sit-ins and demonstrations at Berkeley—which resulted in 800 arrests—and was hailed by FSM members as a "total victory."

The five-point proposal calls for the right of students to advocate any cause on the campus. It also calls for the faculty to take over disciplinary measures in the area of political activity and amnesty for all students facing court action of possible expulsion.

Ex-Marine Must Serve Sentence

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — A 29-year-old ex-Marine who threatened to kill President Johnson must serve his five year prison term.

U.S. District Judge Bruce Thompson Thursday reaffirmed the jail sentence for Michael V. Cramer. The sentence had originally been imposed last May, but execution of it was held up while Cramer underwent psychiatric treatment.

Cramer, a former New Jersey title examiner who became a transient, mailed a letter threatening Johnson's life from here March 12. It was addressed to J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In the national weather picture cold wave warnings were posted for all of the Southland, except Florida. In the west only California was expected to escape the frigid air.

The cold brought misery to thousands in the forms of power, water, heat and transportation troubles.

Low temperatures today included Hibbing, Minn., 30 below; International Falls, Minn., 26 below; Worland, Wyo., 25 below; Helena, Mont., 20 below; Bismarck, N.D., and Duluth, Minn., 18 below, and Rapid City, S.D., 16 below.

High temperatures Thursday failed to reach above zero in vast areas of the mountains and Midwest.

20 Believed Killed As Search Continues

FOUNTAIN TOWN, Ind. (UP) — Fire roared through a small country nursing home today and authorities estimated at least 20 elderly patients were killed.

The toll of known dead at mid-morning stood at 16. Fifteen bodies had been taken from the ashes of the Maples Convalescent Home and another victim died at a hospital. Four other persons were missing and presumed dead. Fourteen patients escaped and 13 of them were hospitalized.

Eleven of the bodies were stretched out on the concrete floor of the Murphy Funeral Home at nearby Shelbyville, Ind., most of them badly burned.

Temperature 3 above
Survivors were taken to the W. J. Major Hospital at Shelbyville. Dr. W. L. Green told a hospital news conference that only one person was burned and most of them were "in reasonably good shape considering the ordeal they've been through... they all suffered from exposure and were frightened."

The survivors, all old folks, were helped or carried from the blazing, two-story white frame building located at the edge of this hamlet of 250 persons. Fountain town is 10 miles southeast of Indianapolis.

The temperature was 3 degrees above zero when the fire broke out in the morning darkness. Fire departments from throughout the Indiana countryside fought the blaze, but the water in their pumper trucks gave out. They had to crack through the ice of nearby Brandywine creek for more water.

Seen From Distance
The Brandywine waters could not stop the flames which shot so high in the icy night they could be seen five miles away. It seemed the only ones who cried were the rescuers.

State trooper Ronald White, his voice shaking, said "I got to the back door and I got in and found five people, all dead, in their beds, of smoke inhalation."

"The survivors showed no emotion—no crying. It was terribly cold."

Mrs. Valeria Everhart, a nurse's aide at the home, wept as she saw the bodies removed. "I loved them all."

Max McGraw, who owned and operated the home for 10 years, said "I couldn't stand to stay over there. They were my family."

No Screams Heard

Ralph Keller, who lives across the street from the home, said "I never heard anyone scream. I saw a fireman crying but there was no sound inside—nothing but the smoke."

"I would say none of those patients were able to get out on their own." Fire Chief Carlos Jeffries said. "Those who got out were helped out. There was one woman who was standing on her feet outside, but she was holding onto a shed. I picked her up and put her into (See FIRE, Page 3)

Mountain of Mail Hits Post Office

"It's too late to mail early, so please mail now," Postmaster O. K. Gaylor said today. "The biggest mail explosion in history is upon us and we need the cooperation of everyone to make sure that all of the holiday mail is delivered before Christmas," the postmaster added.

Gaylor suggested use of air mail and special delivery to guarantee pre-Christmas delivery, especially for out-of-town mail. In all instances, the use of ZIP Codes will be helpful, he stated. The codes generally mean that mail moves in a more direct route and is handled fewer times. Parcels with zipped addresses may be delivered 24 hours or more before others going to the same destination which do not include the five digit code.

The postmaster said all postal operations will be on a holiday schedule Christmas Day. Only special delivery mail will be delivered on December 25.

Gaylor said he wanted to thank Pampans who contributed to the "Stamp and Mail Early" campaign.

"It now appears that we will have passed the peak for outgoing mail today," he said. "However, there still is a small mountain of holiday mail that must be delivered."

The Little Lord Jesus was smiling. "Would you care if I left my scarf to keep him warm?" Mary asked.

"You would be cold," replied Mary.

"I'd like to," said Mary.

"Very well," said Mary. "He thanks you."

There were others at the stable door—three wise men, bearing gold, frankincense and myrrh. Mary and her father slipped out.

Hope, Troupe To-Viet Nam

SAIGON (UPI) — Comedian Bob Hope is coming here to entertain American servicemen stationed in South Viet Nam. But the security arrangements are no joke.

An American spokesman in Saigon said the date of Hope's arrival will not be announced more than 24 hours in advance. Hope and his troupe of performers currently are in South Korea.

One of the first men on the scene, Kenny Purbers, said "a nurse told me the kitchen's on fire and the hall's on fire." She was hysterical. She couldn't talk.

The firemen named a nurse, Mrs. Myrtle Donahue, as the heroine of the fire. It was she who led most of the patients out of the building, they said. Mrs. Donahue was one of those hospitalized in nearby Shelbyville, Ind.

Firemen said those who lived had been sleeping on the first floor. Those on the second floor died, they said. They hoped they died in their sleep.

Nine Bodies Recovered
McGraw said there were 34 patients, a fulltime nurse and two nurse's aides in the home when the fire broke out. Nine bodies were removed from the rubble before dawn. Fifteen persons were rescued and treated for shock, exposure and smoke inhalation.

Firemen feared the missing persons had died in the flames. They hesitated to fix a firm death estimate in the hope that some persons had escaped through side entrances.

The blaze broke out shortly before a.m. CST and engulfed the rest home almost immediately.

USW, 'Big 11' End Talks For Holidays

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Bargainers for the United Steelworkers (USW) and the "big 11" steel companies will recess for the holidays after discussions today. But the union will dominate the labor spot-light because of a power struggle.

In a strategic move, I. W. Abel, secretary-treasurer of the 1.2 million member union, will open his campaign Saturday in Chicago in an effort to wrest the top post from David J. McDonald.

Chicago was chosen for Abel's campaign headquarters because it is the site of the main office of District 31, representing 130,000 members. By design, Abel chose the location because his strongest supporter is Joseph Germano, director of District 31, who is Abel's campaign manager.

However, James P. Griffin, chairman of the rank and file unit committee which supports McDonald for re-election as president, charged that Abel actually kicked off his campaign Dec. 11 in Indianapolis, in a hall named after him.

Griffin said only a "Baker's dozen" attended the meeting. Griffin said that aside from local officers and trustees "approximately 13 people attended the 'Abel for United Steelworkers of America president' national campaign meeting."

Griffin said the Abel launching "was obviously a dud and it is evident that the USW members are more concerned with concrete benefits which enhance their welfare through collective bargaining under President David J. McDonald's leadership than the ambitious power plays by Mr. Abel."

Abel who is paid $35,000 a year in his present post surprised labor leaders last month when he announced he would challenge McDonald's bid for his fourth term as president. McDonald succeeded the late Philip Murray as president in 1953. His annual salary is $50,000.

A social hour with games and singing was followed by refreshments being served to Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Wright, Messrs. and Mmes. G. I. Riley, Shelby Ruff, E. E. Willis and daughters, Ben Killingsworth and daughter, Mrs. Reva Riggsby and son and daughter and Joe Slater.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. Ferrell Baird, president, standing reports were given and plans were made to prepare a basket for a needy family and the club's Christmas party.

Following Mrs. Prince's program, the group spent the rest of the evening making centerpieces.

Door prize was presented Mrs. Baird.

Those attending the meeting were Mmes. Baird, Larry Anderson, Bill Wilson, Herman Topper, Robert Elliott, Norman Flaherty, Evert Revard, Clyde Wofford, Scott Langford, Prince and Moore.

Dear Abby.... Forget Your Cowardice And Speak Up Now

DEAR ABBY: I am a confirmed coward and do not have the nerve to confront my husband with the letters he is receiving at his place of business from his ex-wife. She discarded him for her own convenience, and when things did not work out for her she decided she wanted him back. In the meantime he had met and married me. I cannot prevent this woman from writing to my husband, but her letters begin, "My darling, I received your letter," which means that he is writing to her, too. That is what is breaking my heart, Abby.

We have been married only six months and he professes to love me deeply, yet he continues to deceive me by corresponding with his ex-wife. Her letters are love letters, complete with lipstick prints over her signature. How can I let my beloved husband know that he is torturing me without admitting that I invaded his privacy?

BROKEN HEARTED BRIDE, DEAR BRIDE: You can't. But don't let that stop you. Wait until you are both relaxed, unhurried and in the mood to talk, and then tell him exactly what you have told me. The next move will be his. And if he doesn't respect his marriage vows by forsaking all others, the next move is yours.

DEAR ABBY: A friend of mine had a bridal shower three weeks prior to her wedding. Right after the shower she broke her engagement. What should be done concerning the gifts? Thank you.

WONDERING DEAR WONDERING: The gifts should be returned.

DEAR ABBY: I recently attended a dinner party at someone's home. The table was set with place mats. I thought place mats were correct for luncheons, and table cloths were used for dinner parties. The food was all dished up on plates in the kitchen and served directly to the guests, starting with the hostess first. There was a potted plant in the center of the table instead of the traditional cut flowers. Have the rules for entertaining properly changed? Please print this with your answer for others who are ignorant when it comes to etiquette.

WITHHOLD MY NAME DEAR WITHHOLD: We are all "ignorant" on different subjects. Anyone who would criticize a well-meaning hostess who has done her best to entertain her guests is, in my opinion, more guilty of ignorance than the hostess.

CONFIDENTIAL TO M. P.: Grief can take care of itself. But in order to get the full value of joy, you must share it with someone.

Problems Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mrs. William R. Chafin, president; Mrs. Al Schneider, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. R. E. Wright, program chairman; Mrs. Luther Pierson, hospitality chairman and Mrs. William B. Huebner, publicity chairman.

During the social hour new members and guests were introduced and coffee and fruit cake was served by Mrs. Wright and Mrs. V. J. Drew.

Mrs. Locke introduced Mrs. W. E. Moore of the Art and Craft Center who displayed models of Christmas decorations and explained how they could be made at home.

There will not be another meeting of the club until January 28, 1965.

Mrs. Byars Hosts OES Gavel Club

Members of OES Past Matrons Gavel Club met Friday evening in the home of Mrs. I. E. Byars, 2227 Chestnut, for a salad supper and gift exchange.

During the brief business session presided over by Mrs. Lyda Burba, president, Mrs. J. E. Wheeler gave the secretary's report and 24 lap robes, Christmas present from the club to the OES Home at Arlington, were donated by members.

Invocation was given by Mrs. Floyd Pennington.

Co-hostesses for the event were Mmes. Rachel Jones and Otis Nace.

Mrs. Rachel Jones, Grand Chapter representative from the Grand Chapter of North Dakota, was recognized and presented a gift.

Following the business session and salad supper those present enjoyed games and a Christmas theme used throughout the receiving rooms.

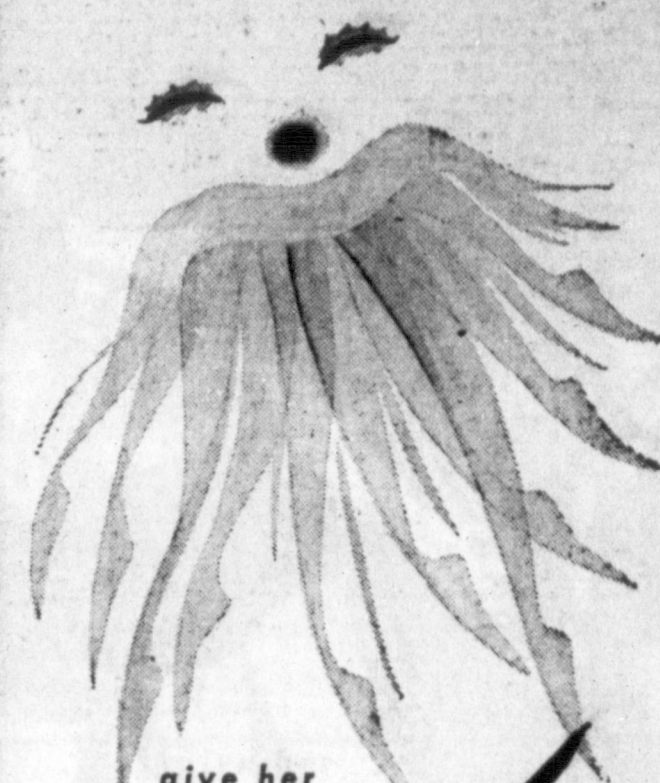

Attending the event were two guests, Mrs. Johnnie Price, worthy matron of the Top O' Texas Chapter, and Mrs. Mildred Pierce, worthy matron of Pampa Chapter.

Members present were Mmes. Ethel Alexander, Floyd Pennington, J. S. Fuqua, Emma Lee Gray, Wood Osborne, Oscar Shearer, W. R. Morrison, Guy Andis, Bill Fluelling, W. A. Rankin, J. E. Byars, Rachel Jones, Lyda Burba, W. L. Parker, Stella Wagner and J. E. Wheeler.

THAT'S TWO — Connie "Patches" Dodson calmly pops her bubblegum as she fires a basket into the bucket for Miami last night. Trying to stop the shot in vain is Sue Beck, while Jean Bible is pretty excited about it and Sarah Coleman (23) is rather calm about the whole thing. Connie racked up 27 points in leading the defending champ Warriorettes to an opening-round victory in their own tourney.

Tribe Wins Two In Meet Opener

By JEFF COHANE
News Sports Editor

MIAMI — Impressive wins by both Miami teams, a stirring comeback by the Canadian Wildkittens and a thrilling overtime win by Briscoe over Panhandle highlighted the opening round of the Miami Tournament yesterday.

Defending champ Miami racked up McLean, 54-36; Allison mopped up Mobette, 72-49; Hedey cracked Canadian, 54-36 and Briscoe toppled Panhandle, 73-66 in boys play. The Warriorettes also took their first step toward a repeat title with a 44-19 pounding of McLean; Allison rapped Mobette 37-28; Briscoe smashed Panhandle, 62-38 and Canadian upset Hedley, 39-30 in girls play.

Losers bracket action started this morning, winners round begins at 5:50 p.m. with Canadian-Briscoe girls, followed by Hedley-Briscoe boys, Allison-Miami girls and Allison-Miami boys in that order.

Miami threw away their deliberate style and racked up one of their highest totals of the season as Dave Bowers and Lloyd Seitz broke a McLean press to pieces.

McLean took an early lead on the shooting of George Green, but Miami fed Ken Gill under the basket to pull even. Dickie Crockett kept McLean in contention until Big Ray Guerrero's domination of the defensive backboards and Bowers' outside shooting combined for eight straight points and an 18-10 quarter lead.

A slow second quarter saw both teams lose the ball frequently, with Seitz sparking the Warrior play and Ronnie Hunt the Tigers, and it was 25-18 at the half.

Seitz, Bowers and Guerrero hit three straight buckets just before the end of the third quarter for a 35-22 lead, and Miami was never headed as Bowers led the way on fast breaks through the McLean press the rest of the way.

Bowers canned 21 points, Guerrero 11, Green had 17 for the Tigers.

The Warriorettes looked like the old champs again as they clicked for the first time this season. Switching Witch Anderson back to her stand-out defensive post, and moving 5-8 Bev Weiss up front, the Miamians produced a new look with an old combo.

The Witch Martha Paris and Cindy Coffee allowed the Tigresses just 15 points in the first half and two more buckets in the second half. Meanwhile, Patches Dodson was getting plenty of offensive help as tiny Cheri Jackson popped in four long buckets in the first half to pull the McLean defense off Patches, while Bev gave plenty of help on the boards and the bucket.

Popping bubblegum and baskets, the blonde Miss Dodson dunked 27 points, mostly on turn-around jumpers, and Miami moved into a 13-4 quarter lead, built it to 24-15 at the half and 36-17 after three quarters with the reserves taking over.

Hedley's 6-4 Pat Chesser completely dominated the backboards as Hedley turned back the Canadian Wildcats. The lanky Chesser couldn't be stopped except by fouls and the far shorter Cats were never in the game.

Hedley moved to a 13-9 quarter lead, 36-18 halftime bulge and then put on a stall in the third quarter, coasting to 39-23 and out in the final frame. Chesser had 14 points, Butch Weatherly 16, Butcherboy Eckles had 15 to head Canadian.

Squeaky Petree and the defense of Eva June Wheeler led Canadian back to an exciting win in the girls game. Squeaky played one of the finest games of her fine career as she was all over the court on offense and defense, hitting 17 of 18 free throws for the difference.

The Kittens led by narrow margins at the first three quarter stops, 8-7, 17-14 and 33-27, with Squeaky wrapping it up as she canned 12 straight free throws in the second half, totaling 25 points.

The most exciting game of the day saw 6-6 Larry Duckett and 6-2½ Orville Atherton engage in a tremendous rebounding battle as Panhandle saw a six-point lead in the final minute vanish before Briscoe's press. With eight seconds left, Tommy Hays stole the ball and sunk a layup to tie the game at 61-all.

Briscoe then pulled it out on free throws in overtime.

Hays finished with 26 points, Atherton 18, Duckett had 23 and Larry Cole 17.

The outside shooting of little Lou Meadows and the all-around play of Marvellous Mickie Fuls led Briscoe girls to a 62-38 win over the Pantherettes, as each scored 14 points. Janie Beddingfield did a tremendous job in defeat, scoring 21 points.

Mobette's girls were never in the lead as Allison took 11-4, 21-17 and 17-22 quarter stops. Linda Miller of Allison and Judy Powell of Mobette shared scoring honors with 21 apiece.

Punk Childress and George Markham led Allison's Antelopes back from an early deficit to a lopsided win. Mobette took an opening five-point lead on backboard domination, but the high-jumping Childresses started taking the boards away from the taller Hornets and feeding Markham for a 14-11 quarter edge.

Allison then watched Markham rack up free throws to move them to 39-19 and 62-28.

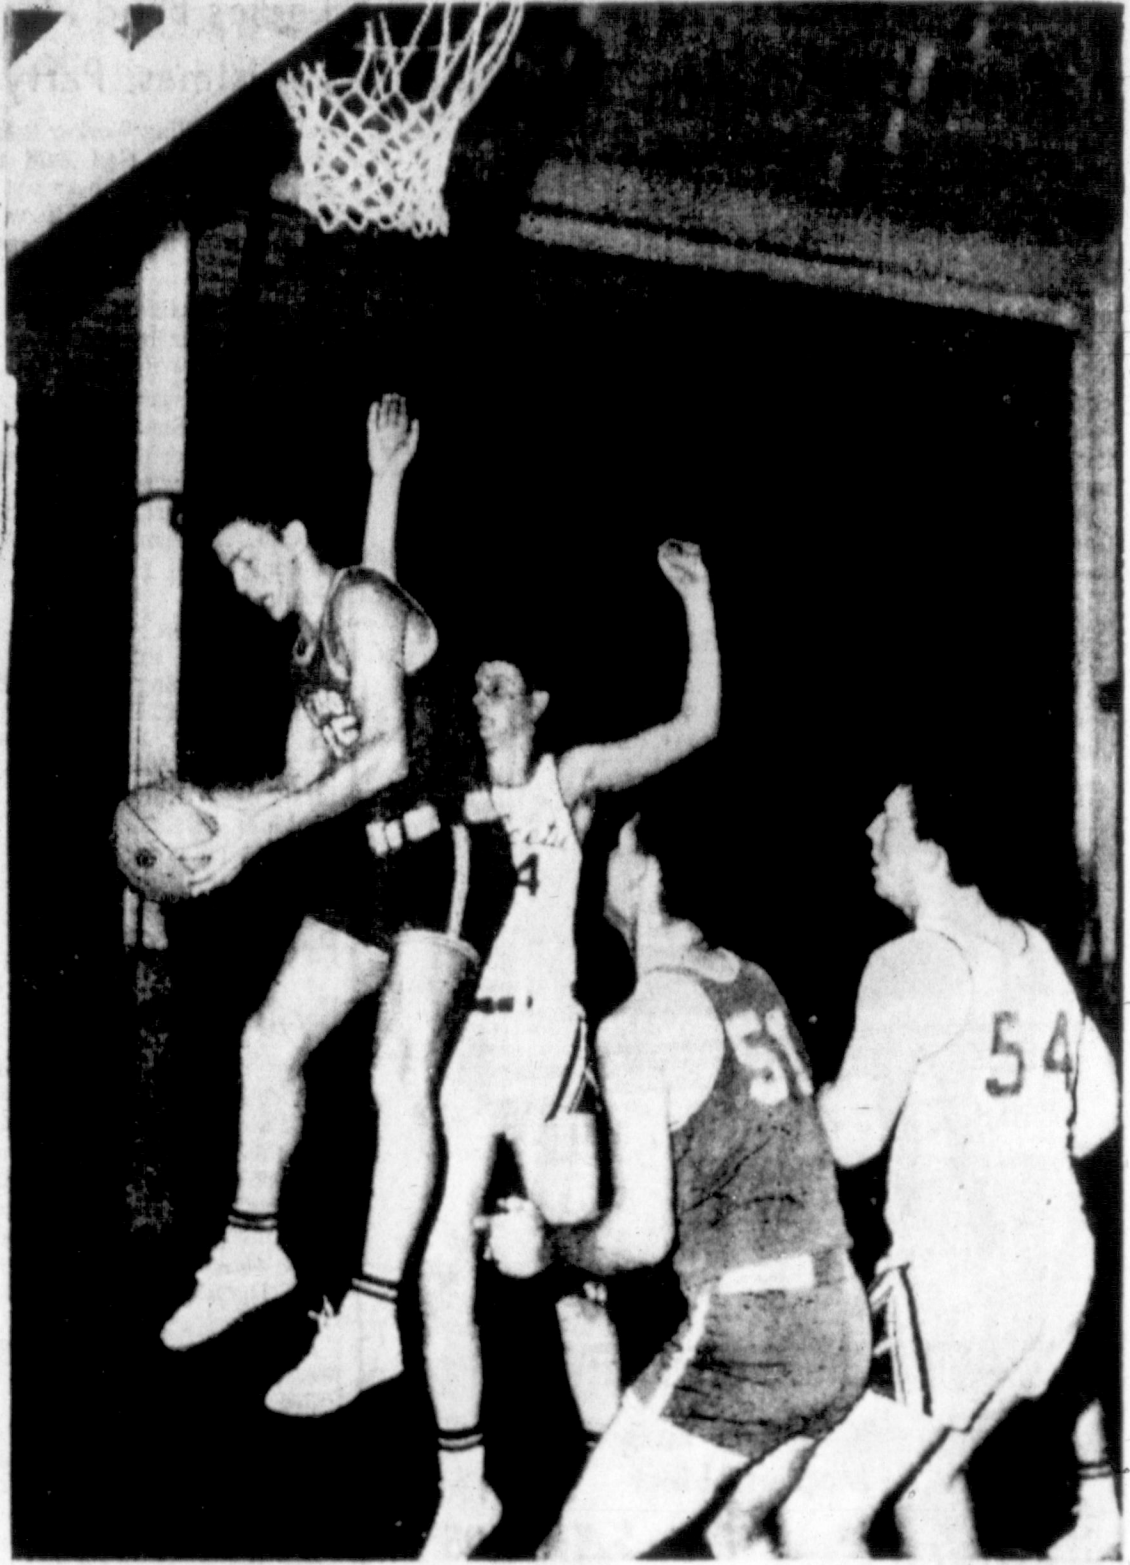

Markham had 20 points and Childress 16, Mike Aderholt 13, Eddie Vowell had 12, Jim Johnson 11 and Gerald Gudel 10 for the Hornets.

Operate on Williams

HOUSTON (UPI) — Heavyweight boxer Cleveland Williams was making a strong recovery today from two hours of surgery Thursday. Doctors corrected a kidney condition stemming from the gunshot wound he got Nov. 28 in a scuffle with a Texas highway patrolman.

Doctors say Williams will recover with no problems. He will need another operation, though, and it may be a month before he gets out of the hospital.

Williams, 31, the world's second-ranked heavyweight, has been suspended by Texas boxing commissioner Charles King for the roadside fight in which he was shot. That suspension bars Williams from any fight sanctioned by the World Boxing Association.

GETTIN' UP THERE — Punk Childress of Allison goes high in the air to bring the ball down past Mobette's Billy Whitten, watched by George Markham (51) and Cary Jack Johnson (51). Childress' backboard domination over the taller Hornets was the key to Allison's win in the opening round of the Miami Tournament yesterday.

Garland Choice For State Title

By ED FITE
UPI Sports Writer

Fourteen weeks of grueling toil comes to a climax this weekend in Texas schoolboy football, with Garland, Palestine, Marlin and Ingleside expected to emerge with state championship crowns.

All the games should be donnybrooks.

Defending Class AAAA champion Garland faces a stiff roadblock in the pass-happy Galena Park Yellow Jackets. The Owls, paced by nifty halfback Ronnie Scoggins, will be hard-pressed by unbeaten Galena Park's passing whiz, Charles Riggs.

Garland (12-1-0) and Galena Park (13-0-0) will collide at 8 p.m. Saturday in Houston's Rice Stadium.

Garland rolled into the finals with a 21-7 semifinal victory over Amarillo Tascosa as Scoggins scored all three touchdowns. Riggs rifled four touchdown passes, three to Gilbert Ash, in a 58-0 slaughter of San Antonio Highlands.

Stages Comeback

Palestine pulled off one of the greatest comebacks in Texas schoolboy history to make it to the Class AAA finals against the San Marcos. The Wildcats, thorny defense brought it into down 23-0 to Wichita Falls Hirsch mid-way through the third quarter of their semifinal game.

scored four touchdowns in the second half—one on the final play of the game—to overcome the stunned Huskies 28-23.

San Marcos tied Vidor 21-21 and advanced to the finals on penetrations.

Palestine (12-1-0) and the San Marcos Rattlers (11-0-2) were to meet at 2:30 p.m. Friday in College Station (Kyle Field).

Do-Everything

Palestine rates the edge on the basis of its do-everything quarterback Bill Brad whose dippy-doodle running, accurate passing and booming punts helped bomb Hirsch.

Marlin has the momentum of a stunning 27-7 semifinal upset of Denver City going for it in a clash tonight with the unbeaten, untied Palacios Sharks (13-0-0) for the Class AA title.

Marlin's well-balanced team (12-1-1) will face an explosive offense in the Sharks who tripped Taylor 27-16 in the semifinals. Marlin last won a state championship 38 years ago (Class B).

The Ingleside-Archer City Class A championship battle will be played at Austin Saturday night (8 p.m.). Ingleside's San Marcos. The Wildcats, thorny defense brought it into down 23-0 to Wichita Falls Hirsch mid-way through the third quarter of their semifinal game.

Ole Miss Must Stop Passing

HOUSTON (UPI) — Tulsa, a football team that passes as though it were going out of style, and Mississippi, a perennial power that stumbled through an off year, collide Saturday (Dec. 19) in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Mississippi has no trouble knowing what it has to do to battle the Tulsa Golden Hurricane. If Ole Miss can hobble All-America Jerry Rhyme and his pass catcher, Howard Twilley, the rest should be easy.

But that "if" is tied up with 17 NCC records Rhyme set in his career with Tulsa, and four additional NCAA marks by Twilley on the receiving end.

Rhyme, being courted by two professional teams, led Tulsa to six team national statistical championships and 28 NCAA records.

The Bluebonnet will be in Rice University Stadium Saturday at 2:30 p.m. CST. The stadium can hold 73,000 with bleachers, but the latest cold snap might keep the crowd considerably below that, despite the drawing card of Rhyme-to-Twilley.

Ole Miss makes its 13th bowl appearance in the Bluebonnet.

West Virginia Plays Utah In Liberty Bowl

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Quick-hitting Utah, an eight game winner with a tough defense, and West Virginia, champions of the Southern Conference, move the college bowl season indoors here Saturday when they meet in the sixth annual Liberty Bowl game at Convention Hall.

The game, frozen five years running in Philadelphia by temperatures actually below the norm for the day and date, was moved to this world famous shore resort as a pre-Christmas sports festival. It will be televised nationally beginning with a 12:45 p.m. EST kickoff.

It will be the 10th game played in the gigantic hall since sod was placed on a regulation field during Thanksgiving week.

and made to order weather, dry and windless in living sunlight will be on tap.

The teams, in their initial workouts Thursday, basked in a balmy 72 degrees, but the temperature jugglers will have it closer to 60 degrees for the actual play.

The daylight effect comes from more than 400 mercury vapor lights installed in the 14-story high ceiling at a cost of several hundred thousands of dollars for the Democratic convention which nominated President Johnson last August.

Utah, the Western Athletic Conference co-champion, goes into the game with an 8-2 record, and a victory in the bowl would make the Utes the winningest team in the school history. The odds makers had them the favorites by five to eight points.

But there were Mountaineer fans who took the choice lightly, remembering West Virginia's unbeaten record in conference play, a win over Kentucky, and a rousing 26-27 upset win over Sugar Bowl bound Syracuse.

One Point Pairs Orange

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — One of major college football's greatest winning traditions and a single point put the University of Texas in the Orange Bowl against top-ranked Alabama instead of the Cotton Bowl with a second consecutive national championship.

Texas had won 15 straight and was No. 1 in the nation and the defending national champion when the Longhorns hosted the University of Arkansas in Austin the night of Oct. 17.

Trailing 14-7 in the fourth period, Texas came back with a determined 70-yard drive to score. Then the big decision: Whether to go for the one-point, a virtual certainty, or try for two and the win.

With such a winning tradition behind them, the coaches and players were unanimous for the two-point. The Longhorns lined up and quarterback Marvin Kristynik took the snap. The Razorbacks surged through with tremendous pressure and Kristynik had to throw the ball toward tailback Hix Green sooner than he wanted, and it fell dead to the ground. Arkansas had won.

The Razorbacks went on to a perfect 10-0 season and won the right to host the New Year's Cotton Bowl game. Texas, with a 9-1 record, was invited to crush helmets with Bear Bryant's mighty Alabama crew, which also ended the regular season with a 10-0 record.

Thus the Orange Bowl game, which will be played at Miami on New Year's night, will match two of the most experienced post-season squads in the nation.

Texas has played in post-season bowls six of the last seven years since Coach Darrell Royal took over. Bryant has sent his teams to bowls five of the past six years since he moved to Alabama.

Both Royal and Bryant stress defense. For the Longhorns, it has paid off this season when their 10 opponents averaged barely one touchdown per game.

The Texas defense gave up only 844 yards rushing while the Longhorns piled up 1,862 yards on the ground. But the defense against opponents' passing was less impressive. Texas gave up a total of 1,183 yards in passing while gaining an even 900 of their own.

Giants Win

The Pampa C team rolled to their third straight victory yesterday, 71-38 over Stinnett. B. Lee Hollis led the Jolly Green Giants with 19 points. Doc Cornutt had 12. The Giants are off for the holidays.

Dodgers Off To Fast Start

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Off to a flying start in the contract signing derby, the Los Angeles Dodgers today contemplated no further deals but hoped the players they are depending on escape injuries.

General Manager E. J. (Buz) Bavasi called a press conference Thursday to announce that the Dodgers had placed four of their top players — Don Drysdale, Sandy Koufax, Willie Davis and Tommy Davis — under contract.

For those four players alone, the Dodgers will pay out well above $200,000 in salaries, topped by an estimated $75,000 each to Koufax and Drysdale.

Bavasi said that the club contemplated no further trades besides their big deal in which they obtained Claude Osteen and John Kennedy from Washington for Frank Howard, Ken McMullen, Phil Ortega and Pete Richert.

SWC Roundup

By United Press International
Only a last-second 72-70 upset over the Phillips 66ers by Arkansas managed to save face for Southwest Conference basketball squads in non-conference tilts Thursday night.

A&M, Rice, and Texas Christian all lost their contests, with the Aggies getting beaten out of the Bluebonnet classic title by Houston, 59-49.

Rice was the other loser in the Bluebonnet tourney in Houston, getting trounced by a hot-shooting Auburn squad, 94-71.

Loyola of the South uncorked a second-half rally to come from behind and down Texas Christian 91-81 in New Orleans.

The first half of the Houston-A&M encounter saw the score tied six times and the lead change hands five times. The Aggie zone defense kept Houston mostly to the outside.

In the Bluebonnet consolation final, Auburn's 6-foot-6 forward, Lee DeFore, led the Auburn scoring with 23 points followed by center Joe Newton with 19.

Forward Doug McKenrick of Rice had 25.

Loyola's Wolfpack, paced by the 18-point performance of guard Craig Tolbert, rallied in the second half against Texas Christian.

The Wolfpack trailed 50-43 at halftime but took the lead with 13 minutes to go.

Reapers Win
Pampa Junior High 7th grade took their third straight district win yesterday, 25-21 over Austin Borger.

Larry Kotara led the scoring with 15 points, while Cliff Gage headed the defense.

The Little Reapers take the holidays off.

Bills Play Patriots For AFL Eastern Loop

By GARY KALE
UPI Sports Writer

The setting is similar, the participants are the same and only the score may vary slightly when the Buffalo Bills and Boston Patriots go for broke in their Sunday American Football League finale.

Buffalo holds a slim half-game lead over the Patriots in the Eastern Division.

The 1963 encounter at Buffalo was played in near-zero temperatures and the weather bureau in Boston warned conditions may be the same for this contest.

Boston is a three-point favorite over a club that heads the Pats in every major offensive and defensive department. But many believe the passing of Babe Parilli and the kicking of scoring leader Gino Cappelletti will bring the score closer to the 26-8 victory margin the Patriots enjoyed in last year's crucial playoff game.

Parilli has completed 209 of 433 passes for 3,147 yards and 29 touchdowns. He threw five scoring passes in Boston's 36-28 victory over the Bills at Buffalo last month.

Buffalo's counter-attacks in aerial warfare are No. 1 quarterback Jackie Kemp, who has completed 107 of 243 passes for 1,999 yards and 12 touchdowns, and the able second-string signal caller Daryle Lamonica who is adept in rolling out or plunging for a score from close in.

A record crowd of 40,000 is expected at Boston's Fenway Park to watch the game that also will be televised to all areas of the country with the exception of Boston proper and the West Coast.

The Western Division champion San Diego Chargers are out for the practice when they play at Oakland, Houston hosts Denver and New York is at Kansas City in other Sunday regular season finales. The Chargers play for the title on the home grounds of the Buffalo-Boston winner, Saturday, Dec. 26.

West Texas Moves Out on Road Trip

CANYON — After splitting a pair of games in Abilene last week, the West Texas State Buffaloes make another two-game road trip this weekend for games at Eastern New Mexico and Sul Ross State.

The Buffs were shot down by Abilene Christian 84 - 62 on Thursday, but came back to nip McMurry 79 - 78 in overtime the next night.

Eastern New Mexico is currently on a three - game losing streak. After defeating Tarleton State in their opener, the Greyhounds lost to Southwestern Oklahoma State, Colorado Western and Adams State, Tuesday.

The Hounds played a return engagement with Southwestern Oklahoma State.

Sul Ross State fell to the Buffs in Canyon 87 - 66 in which game Kirby Pugh scored 34 points, the highest total for a Buff this season.

Abilene Christian has 62.7 per cent from the field against the Buffs, the Wildcats' second best effort of the year, while WTS managed "only" 48.6 per cent, their lowest in four games.

However, the Buffaloes come from behind effort against McMurry brought their season's record to 3-1. Three times the Buffs fell behind in the overtime only to bounce back. Jim Strahan's jumper from the base line with 10 seconds left won it.

West Texas State shot a torrid 59.6 per cent from the floor against McMurry, their best percentage of the season. As a team, the Buffaloes are shooting 54.1 per cent from the field and 68.2 at the foul line.

Kirby Pugh's field goal percentage of .725 ranks him in the top ten nationally. Only two of the 10 varsity players are shooting under .50 per cent.

Buffalo floor leader Gail Simpson, who missed the Abilene trip because of illness, will be ready to play this weekend.

Monday Is Ancient Day Of Feast for Skeptics

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
On the church's ancient calendar of feast days, next Monday, is dedicated to the patron saint for skeptics.
The New Testament calls him Thomas Didymus, but he is better known to history as "Doubting Thomas."
The first three gospels tell us nothing about him, except to list his name among the 12 disciples who accompanied Jesus throughout His ministry.
But the fourth gospel records three incidents in which Thomas was a central figure. These brief anecdotes give us a surprisingly clear picture of his character. It is the picture of a man who was by nature a pessimist, and who found it hard to believe good news. He was a brave and loyal disciple. But he was stubbornly honest and would never pretend to believe or understand when he was really gripped by doubt or confusion.

Lazarus Was Dying
Once, Jesus and His disciples crossed the Jordan River into Galilee to escape from a hostile mob which had threatened to stone them in Jerusalem. No sooner had they reached safety than word came that Jesus' friend Lazarus was dying. Jesus told the disciples He had to go back to Jerusalem to be with Lazarus. The disciples tried to talk Him out of the dangerous trip. When it was clear that He was determined to go, Thomas turned to his fellow disciples and said:

"Let us also go, that we may die with Him."
Pessimist that he was, Thomas was sure that the trip would be disastrous. But if Jesus was going, he would go too.
We next hear from Thomas on the night of the Last Supper. Jesus was trying to prepare His disciples for the shock of seeing Him arrested and crucified. "Let not your hearts be troubled," He told them. "I go to prepare a place for you... and you know the way where I am going."
The other disciples listened in silence, and perhaps some of them nodded, as if they understood. But not the tactless, ever-truthful Thomas.

Didn't Know Way
"Lord, we do not know where you are going," he interrupted. "So how can we know the way?"
It was the question of a literal-minded man who has to have it all spelled out for him. And it evoked a reply that has come ringing down the centuries:
"I am the way, the truth and the life... if you knew Me, you would know the Father also. From now on you do know Him. You have seen Him."
It was the most forthright language Jesus had ever used to tell his disciples who He was. And it was elicited by Thomas' refusal to pretend that he understood more subtle clues which had in fact gone right over his head.
The episode which gave Thomas his nickname occurred after the Resurrection. Thomas had not been present when the risen Christ made His first appearances. Although the other disciples had told him the good news, Thomas flatly refused to believe it until he saw Jesus with his own eyes.
Appeared To Thomas
A week later, Jesus did appear to Thomas. He insisted that the skeptical disciple examine his wounds, and satisfy himself by touch as well as sight that He was indeed a living person and not an hallucination.
Thomas' response was to fall on his knees and say, "my Lord and my God."
Jesus rebuked him gently. "because you have seen me you have found faith," he said. "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe."
The Bible doesn't say what happened to Thomas after that. An ancient tradition holds that he carried the gospel to India, and died a martyr's death there. Scholars can find no evidence to prove or disprove this story. But it sounds like the sort of thing that Thomas might do.

Business Highlights

DETROIT—Ford Motor Board Chairman Henry Ford II predicted 1964 car sales will reach 8.1 million and soar to 8.7 million in 1965. This was the most optimistic prediction yet made by an auto official. Ford said the eight million mark will be realized "in spite of recent unnecessary and unjustifiable strikes" which he estimated cut the fourth quarter gross national product by $4 to $5 billion.

NEW YORK—The price of Comsat tumbled $10.50 after the New York Stock Exchange limited any new transactions in the volatile issue to a purely cash basis. The banning of credit in new purchases and short sales was made to dampen speculation in the issue. The exchange estimated that Comsat shares sold short soared to 30,000 as of Dec. 9 from the 60,888 as of Nov. 13.

AT THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

LET US CONSIDER!

THE WORDS OF CHRIST

I. THEIR GODLY BEGINNING

- A. Foretold by Moses
Deut. 18:18 I will raise them up a prophet from among their Brethren, like unto thee and will put my words in his mouth: and he shall speak unto them all that I command him.
- B. Confirmed Strongly Again by John the Baptist
John 3:34 And he whom God has sent, speaketh the words of God, for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.
- C. Declared by Christ Himself
John 7:16 Jesus answered them and said, my doctrine is not mine, but His that sent Me. John 8:28-38 12:49-50 14:10-24 17:8-14

II. THEIR MARK OF QUALITY

- A. Authoritative Lk. 4:32
And they were astonished at his Doctrine for his words was with power.
- B. Living and Spiritual Jn. 6:63
It is the Spirit that quickeneth, the flesh propheteth nothing, the words that I speak unto you they are spirit and they are life.
- C. Gracious Lk. 4:22
And ALL bear Him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth.
- D. Eternal Matt. 24:35
Heaven and earth shall pass away but my words shall not pass away.

III. THEIR POWER IN OUR HEARTS

- A. To teach us to pray effectively Jn. 15:7
If ye abide in me and my ways abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
- B. To cleanse Jn. 15:3
Now ye are clean through the Word which I have spoken unto you.
- C. To instruct us in The Life of True Discipleship. Jn. 8:31
If ye continue in my word then ye are my disciples indeed.
- D. For Imparting Eternal Life Jn. 8:51
Verrily, verily I say unto thee, if a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

IV. Their Ultimate Place In The Final Judgement

He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judeth him. The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Mars Shot A Big Deal

The Mars shot now on its way could lead eventually to scientific gains much greater than will be achieved by the moon program.

A private poll at a recent meeting of men working on space biology showed the average scientist in the group to be 75 to 80 percent certain there is some sort of life on the red planet.

Mars and the earth have been going their separate ways for at least one billion years. Any vegetable or other life on Mars will certainly have developed along lines different from life on earth. A study of those differences is almost certain to lead to new discoveries about how the human body works.

Because radiation is heavy on Mars, any life there must have developed some way to protect itself under continued radiation. Such knowledge would be priceless to earth humans. Scientists are eager to see if the system used by Mars plants or other forms of life could be adapted to some sort of protection for men and women caught in nuclear raids.

Differences in the evolution of Mars and earth plant life could lead to experiments that could produce valuable new plant hybrids.

There is evidence of some sort of life on Mars in areas where the temperature varies from that of a cool room down to minus 200 degrees Fahrenheit every day. Discovery of the secret of this ability to withstand tremendous temperature changes would be priceless for agriculture.

Scientists here say that almost every time we have found groups of exotically different life — animal or plant or whatever — we have learned new things about ourselves.

In the past several decades, the sea has been "somewhat like Mars." That is much of the life in the sea is greatly different from that on land.

Many important discoveries ferret from that on land, about man have been made by taking advantage of these differences.

One exotic or very different type of life in the ocean is the squid. The squid, fortunately has a nerve fiber 10,000 times as large as those in human beings. By experiments with this creature, scientists have made great chemical advances in the treatment of nervous and mental disorders.

From this same squid, scientists have learned a great deal about what generates the electrical nerve impulse in humans and a great deal about the enzymatic process in nerves that enables nerves to transmit one impulse and recover quickly so as to be able to send another.

From the squid, likewise, we have learned a great deal about those things that determine whether or not a nerve will react to a certain stimulus and what raises or lowers the ability of nerves to react.

The squid has made possible new developments in chemical warfare and in defenses against chemical warfare. It has led to better insecticides.

Unusual plants or other life on Mars could lead to equally important discoveries. They will, of course, be years in coming.

Though there are Mars shots this month, the major closeup biological studies are several years away. A Mars orbit is planned for 1969. The landing of a package that will study Martian life (if any) and send back messages is planned for 1971 and again in 1973.

The Unemployed Visited

Getting people off the relief and unemployment compensation rolls and onto payrolls is a worthy objective, which these days is getting the attention of all levels of government and private organizations.

The suspicion is beginning to dawn that the forced creation of jobs is in many cases merely the creation of job vacancies. There are many jobs that remain open for weeks or longer in the absence of even vaguely qualified applicants.

Louis P. Kurtis, Westchester County, New York, welfare commissioner, has added some information that helps explain the paradox of people who can't find jobs and employers who can't find people.

He has announced the result of a survey that shows that 75 percent of those on relief in his county — and the survey covered 5,600 — are emotionally unfit to earn a living. This includes a large number of alcoholics, mentally ill, retarded, addicted and even persons with criminal records, who can be helped neither by the mere creation of jobs nor by the "retraining" approach.

Whatever the Federal Government does or fails to do will affect these people little in the foreseeable future, but their cases are far from hopeless in many instances.

What is needed in such situations — and we can be sure that similar conditions exist nearly everywhere — is individual attention to individual problems. This is the kind of help that only other individuals and community groups can provide.

Alcoholics, the mentally ill addicts all can be, and many have been, rehabilitated. The retarded can occupy many kinds of jobs, but they seldom have the initiative to prepare for them or hunt them. There are organizations which specialize in getting a break for the freed criminal.

We can be sure there will still be unemployment, no matter what Washington does, unless private efforts are enlarged.

Peril of 'Too Fast' Speed

It is not mere speed that is the major cause of accidents on the nation's highways; it is speed too fast for conditions.

That is the contention of Dr. John E. Baerwald, professor of traffic engineering and director of the Highway Traffic Center at the University of Illinois. He asserts that while we are building 300-horsepower super-highways, we still tolerate horse-and-buggy speed regulations.

Speed laws are set by state legislative bodies and officials who, he says, are not usually competent for this job. Only qualified traffic engineers, after a thorough study of a given situation or condition should be allowed to establish or revise speed limits.

Reasonable, scientifically established limits, Baerwald believes, will satisfy drivers rather than frustrate them as arbitrary limits now tend to do. The result will be to encourage motorists to drive at or near the same speed, minimize maneuvering and passing and thus make the highways safer.

Among native Australians "message sticks" are used to carry information. Notches made on a tree branch in the presence of the messenger, who receives his instructions while they are being made. American Indians also used notched sticks to record various tribal incidents.

Limited Bombing of Viet Cong Supply Routes Aimed at Pressuring Viet Nam Reds to Negotiate

ROBERT ALLEN

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — There is a great deal more politics than war behind the impending bombing of Communist bases and supply routes in Laos and North Viet Nam.

Real purpose of these "limited and carefully controlled" air attacks is to induce the Reds to negotiate, and not to expand this protracted and increasingly costly conflict.

In other words, special intensified military pressure is to be exerted to bring about a particular diplomatic objective.

This explains the administration's apparent backing and filling on such bombing strikes; one day talking tough in on- and off-the-record comments, the next soft-pedaling the same way.

Publicly, President Johnson wants to convey the impression of pursuing a forceful policy. At the same time, he is anxious to avoid precipitating a general war.

It's a risky gambit, and whether he can get away with it remains to be seen. That's the way the "new strategy," devised during Ambassador Maxwell Taylor's recent "consultations" here, was expounded by a top White House assistant to a group of congressional leaders. At an undisclosed briefing, he told them:

"The President wants to apply enough military pressure on the North Vietnamese to get them to the negotiating table. We're going to have to toss a few firecrackers up north to ascertain whether it's possible to bring about a confrontation that would open the way to a negotiated settlement we could live with."

To further press this backstage aim, the legislators were informed, the following was decided on:

Secretary Rusk to explore every diplomatic channel in an effort to persuade Hanoi and Peking to come to a conference table.

—Through intermediaries to convey to the Communists a proposal to broaden the talks now going on in India between the U.S. and Cambodia into a regional East-West parley for reaching a settlement on South Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia.

—The bombing of Red bases and supply routes to be confined strictly to targets approved in advance by Washington. Wholly excluded from such attacks are North Viet Nam's industrial areas. They will continue to enjoy immunity as "privileged sanctuaries."

The Joint Chiefs of Staff agreed to this "new strategy," but questioned its effectiveness. They voiced doubts it would accomplish its purpose.

The military leaders pointed out that in the Korean conflict, where the U.S. dominated the air and enemy supplies were transported by rail and highways, bombing operations, at the most, only delayed and never halted Communist attacks.

In Laos, where jungle trails and primitive dirt roads constitute the supply routes, the Joint Chiefs contend "limited and carefully controlled" air interdiction will have even less effect. In their opinion, direct massive bombing of North Viet Nam's communications, airfield and industrial centers is necessary to bring the Reds to terms.

Preparations for the air raids already are well underway. "Radio spotters" and "intelligence gatherers" from South Viet Nam's special forces have infiltrated into Laos to pinpoint troop movements and supplies from North Viet Nam along the Ho Chi Minh Trail — or "Highway No. 9," as it appears on some U.S. military maps.

A likely target is the Tchepone airfield. The attacks will be made by T-28 armed jet-trainers, a B-26 World War II vintage bombers. They will be manned by Vietnamese crews.

U.S. Air Force and Navy jet fighters will fly cover for these strikes. It is deemed probable that Red Chinese jets may attempt to retaliate. In that event, the U.S. fighters will intervene to protect the South Viet Nam planes.

MORE FOREIGN AID PERVERSION — U.S. aid to Cambodia is being extensively used to enable Communist Viet Cong forces to infiltrate heavily embattled South Viet Nam.

Intelligence reports reveal that the U.S.-financed and installed communications system of Cambodia's national police is playing a key role in the movement of the Viet Cong across Cambodia into Laos and from staging areas there into Viet Nam.

Numerous messages disclosing this shocking perversion of a U.S. aid project have been intercepted by U.S. and South Viet Nam monitors. They also reveal that Cambodian police, trained by the U.S., are acting as guides for the Red guerrillas. Unpublished State Department records show that the Cambodian police communications system cost U.S. taxpayers $3,791,000.

The money came from foreign aid funds voted by Congress. As described in the State Department's files, the project was for a "counter-insurgency program to assist the Cambodian government to develop a centrally controlled and administered national police force."

As installed by the U.S., the expensive communications system includes a "fully operated radio network; an efficient transportation system; a nationwide traffic control system."

Documents found on Viet Cong prisoners, routed through Cambodia into South Viet Nam, reveal that both the communications and transportation systems — whose equipment was provided by the U.S. — are used by the Communist infiltrators.

Oklahoma is an Indian word meaning "Beautiful Land."Cancer Films
Are Available

Mrs. Dorothy McMurtry, R.N., public education chairman for the Gray County Unit of the American Cancer Society, has announced that films on cancer are available to local clubs and organizations interested in having a program on America's number two killer disease.

Films available include "Breast Self Examination" which shows the simple technique of checking for unusual lumps or thickening in the breast. "Time and Two Women" which deals with uterine cancer, and "Life Story," a film about the diagnosis of cancer of the colon. "Man Alive," a cartoon feature, is a general film showing cancer's seven danger signals. "Smoking and You," an adult film, shows the relationship between smoking and various lung diseases including cancer.

"We should also be glad to show adults the films the Cancer Society has produced to educate students about the hazards of smoking. We know the parents would like to know what their children are being taught about smoking and health," said Mrs. McMurtry.

Groups who wish to schedule a Cancer Society film should contact Mrs. Dorothy McMurtry, 2228 Charles, or Mrs. Kermit Lawson, president of the unit, 2223 Beech, Pampa.
