Mahon reported his decision by telephone to the Record today. He said:

"I have decided not to make the race for Congressman-at-Large, representing the State of Texas.

"This decision is made despite a spontaneous urging of support from all over West Teras and across the entire state . . . and despite assurances of adequate backing for a strong, forceful statewide campaing.

"I believe that, at this time, I can best serve my West Texas area and the Democratic Party in the District Office to which I recently was elected.

"I considered the race for Congressman-at-Large only upon the urging of friends and supporters from all area of Texas. I am sincerely humble for this confidence they have expressed on my behalf."

Today was the final day for him to pay his filing fee and become an actual Candidate.

First public announcement of his possible candacy came from Mahon here Sunday when he said, "In recent days, I have been encouraged to run for Congressman-at-Large. I have had many urgings from over Texas and they have been most encouraging.

Mahon was contacted "out of the blue" to make the race here Saturday and immediately went into a conference with State Democratic Executive Committeemen chairman, J. Ed Connally, of Abilene.

Mahon remained in constant contact with state Democratic leaders over the entire state until Monday when he decided to go to Austin for more conferences with state party leaders and to be present to file if the decision was made.

At 11:30 p. m. Monday, Connally reported to Mahon his decision not to enter the race and 20 minutes later . . . 10 minutes before the 12 midnight deadline . . . . Mahon filed.

AFTER GUILTY PLEA

5-YEAR SENTENCE

Itinerant construction worker Amos Howard, about 35, was sentenced to 5 years in the state penitentiary here Wednesday by 32nd District Judge Eldon Mahon.

Howard entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault with intent to rape and waived trial by jury and requested trial by the court.

On motion by the State, made by District Attorney Weldon Kirk, a charge of statutory rape against Howard was reduced to assault with intent to rape.

Howard has been held in Mitchell County Jail in lieu of $5,000 bond since July 28. He was charged with statutory rape the same day in connection with an assault on a 10-year-old girl, July 21 at her home here in Colorado City. The girl, no longer a resident, is the daughter of a construction worker who was employed with Howard by the same company on Interstate 20 freeway construction north west of Colorado City at the time of the assault.

Kirk called 2 witnesses for the state in the short, 1½ to 2-hour, proceedings. The 10-year-old victim and her mother were placed on the stand. Kirk introduced Howard's voluntary statement in connection with the incident.

Mitchell County Sheriff's Deputy Bob McGuire took the stand for the defense. He testified Howard had never before been convicted of a felony and of his record since placed in County Jail.

Perry Barber, court appointed attorney, represented Howard.

Howard is being held in County Jail until transfer to the state penitentiary in Huntsville by Sheriff Lewis Claxton.

COUNTY'S TRAFFIC RECORD "AMAZING"

"Mitchell County had an amazing traffic accident record over the past 3 years," reports Sgt. B. J. Butler of the Texas Highway Patrol's office in Sweetwater.

During those 3 years, 1959, 1960 and 1961, the county had only 2 fatal rural traffic accidents resulting in the loss of 2 lives.

Personal injury accidents for the period increased each of the years. A total of 43 were injured on the county's roads and highways in 1961 compared to 1960's total of 34 and 22 in 1959.

But property damage accidents, reports Butler, decreased in 1961 from the 1960 total. A total of 44 accidents in '61 resulted in property damage of $46,970 7 less accidents and $13,645 less in damages than the '60 property damages of $60,165 in 51 accidents.

In the 10-year period from 1952 through 1961, reports Butler, the county had 41 fatal accidents resulting in the death of 54 persons, 253 personal injury accidents that resulted in injury to 253 individuals and a loss of $679,539 in 465 property damage accidents.

"The county's excellent record for the past 3 years can be credited to a stepped up enforcement program by county highway patrolmen Buddy Hertenberger and Wendell Rehm," says Butler, "along with an increasing awareness of the seriousness of our motor vehicle traffic problem by people of the county."

Harlem Stars' Tickets on Sale

Tickets went on sale here today (Thursday) for the Harlem Stars- Colorado City All-Stars basketball game Thursday, Feb. 15.

The Harlem Stars, headed by one-armed basketball court wizard Bold Buie, bring their hilarious cage antics to Colorado City under the sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Tickets are $1 each and may be purchased from any Jaycee. Children under school age will be admitted free to the contest.

Tip-off times is 8 p. m. in Wolf Gym — in what promises to be one of the funniest basketball games ever staged in the local gym.

The C-City All-Stars rate as "top-notch" competition for the traveling Harlem Stars. The local team will be composed of some of the past greats from Wallace High School's state championship squads.

A fun-filled evening of razzle-dazzle ball handling and rip-roaring comedy are in store for all of the county's basketball fans. The shenanigans will also include intricate routines of basketball genius along with planned and impromptu comedy spurts.

One thing is for sure — the Stars won't run up a high score on the local opposition. Not only will the Stars be facing some talented basketball players on the opposing team, but the Stars will also be devoting a great part of the time to comedy — thus the game should be close and the game should result in a close finish on the scoreboard.

The Stars began their tour in September in Alaska and will perform in 36 to 40 states and several foreign countries, including Mexico, Canada, Australia, Japan and others, before the season and the tour ends.

Buie calls his squad "basketball magicians." Razzle-dazzle ball handling, intricate pass patters trick shooting, marathon dribbling and impromptu comedy antics — all add up to a top basketball show.

Game time is 8 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 15, in Wolf Gym Don't miss it.

Final Hurdle for Survey Cleared

The final hurdle has been cleared.

An underground water survey for the entirety of Mitchell County and the western one-third of Nolan County is no longer a proposal — it's a fact.

Commissioners Court of both counties are presently in session with state officials and officials of the State Board of Water Engineers drawing up the contract for the project.

The final hurdle was cleared Tuesday morning when Nolan County Commissioners approved contributing $1,000 to want the cost of the $26,100 project.

But the action was only part of overall action taken by both Courts, as well as individuals, business firms and civic organizations of both counties.

A "local interest" fund went "over the top" Saturday as individuals, business firms and organizations joined together to raise $3,000 towards the cost of the survey. Another $3,000 had already been offered for the project by Mitchell County Commissioners.

The latest $1,000 fulfilled area fund-raising requirements — the state will pick up the tab for $19,000 of the cost of the project to be conducted by the State Board of Water Engineers.

Mitchell County Judge Elmer Martin today (Thursday) expressed his gratification for the speedy end to the campaign to raise area funds for the project. "This survey could have an unknown but vast value to both counties, and their agricultural and industrial future," he said.

But Mitchell County was behind the survey all the way — even had the Nolan Court failed to offer the $1,000 to the fund, Mitchell Commissioners had already expressed intentions to push a campaign to raise the additional $1,000 if Nolan County Commissioners did not join in.

Purposes of the survey are to:

1. Determine location and potential of underground water reservoirs within the survey area.

2. Provide authoritative data on water reserves for present and future use.

3. Offer farmers and ranchers expert data as to their real possibility for irrigated agriculture.

4. Determine whether underground water sources have recharge value.

5. Arrive at facts as to life of irrigation wells.

6. Offer data for long-range community and agriculture planning.

7. And provide individual property owners with important data required by Federal Land Bank and other financing agencies.

The first of a series of programs on Civil Defense was conducted by Mrs. Cricket Taylor, Mitchell County Home Demonstration Agent, at the Friday meeting of the Carr Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. T. L. McKinney in Itaan.

Mrs. Taylor led a study of Civil Defense and how to survive in case of atomic attack. A discussion was conducted on what rural citizens may do to prepare for fall-out protection. Warning signals were described and ideas for shelter, equipment and food were discussed.

A demonstration was presented on First Aid and emergency action for saving lives.

Mrs. Curtis Stone headed a discussion panel composed of 5 members. The panel discussed different facets of Civil Defense work.

Mrs. Ruth Airhart, club president, presided over the meeting and Mrs. Tom Jackson read the secretary's report.

A letter of resignation was presented by Mrs. Airhart. Mrs. D. G. Rollins, vice president, will assume duties as president.

Roll call was answered with "What I would like to change about my house."

Mrs. McKinney, the hostess, showed the members through her home, which had just been remodled. She had added a second bathroom and a den. The kitchen had been re-arranged for convenience and storage space. The cabinets were built with a definite storage idea in mind.

The plan for the den had been drawn to include a water well, which was complete with bucket and rope.

All remodelling in the house was done to include more modern fixtures and convenience.

A salad plate was served to one visitor, Mrs. Taylor and to the following members:

Mmes. F. A. Langley, T. A. Reese, Bill Reese, Tom Jackson, Don Henderson, D. G. Rollins, C. N. Adams, Charley Buchannon, Stone, Emory Sweatt and the hostess.

Next meeting will be Friday, Feb. 16, in the home of Mrs. John Laddy.

Mrs. Chesney Returns

Mrs. W. J. Chesney, 104 E. 9th St., returned Tuesday from a 3-week visit in the Midland home of her daughter and family, Mr and Mrs. Ken Eastin. The Eastins are former Colorado City residents. Mrs. Eastin drove Mrs. Chesney home.

Talk

By PEGGY BELVIN

THERE ARE not many things so exciting as receiving, through the mail, a congratulatory letter from one of America's largest automobile manufacturers, saying that the addressee is the winner of one of the prizes listed therein.

This writer was one of those who was lucky enough to receive such a letter. With shaking hands, I ripped apart the envelope to view the contents.

Before my dazzled eyes, there paraded pictures of a series of new cars, trips to Europe, color television sets, portable television sets and other dazzling prizes. Now, with all these glamorous surroundings, would even look at the last prize . . . which was a pencil sharpener.

So . . . with hope burning strong in my heart, I sent the information needed so my prize could be shipped to me.

But . . . as luck would have it . . . I was not to feel the surging power of a new car, my living room was not to be graced with a new television set, and I was not to bask in the sun on some foreign beach.

I am now the proud owner of . . . a pencil sharpener.

OUR SYMPATHY was extended this week to our neighbor across the street, R. A. (BOB) MAY, owner of R. A. MAY REAL ESTATE.

But a bruised knee and a noticeable limp hasn't hindered our neighbor any. He still manages to make it to the coffee shop and back . . .

Especially for adults . . .

Borden's new milk provides 28% more protein with about one-half the fat of regular milk!

Just one quart gives you:
More protein than 6 whole eggs
More protein than 18 slices bacon
More protein than 6 ounces beef steak
More protein than 6 ounces fish

You taste the rich, full flavor of whole milk in Borden's Higher-Protein. (It doesn't have that thin taste of ordinary diet milk.) This new milk was developed by Borden's to help meet adult needs for more protein and fewer calories. Whether you are s: : or sixty, protein is essential to the daily upkeep and rebuilding of your body. For more of the protein vital to youthful health and vigor, drink Borden's Higher-Protein Brand Skim Milk.

Democrats in the race for Congressman-at-Large are Warren Moore, Manley Head, Woodrow Bean, Russell Van Kevren, Joe Poole and Charles Steveson, Jr., Republican candidates are Giles Miller, Desmond Barry and Joe Phillips.

A race by Mahon would have been ironic — 19th Congressional District Representative George Mahon is his uncle and also a native of Loraine.

The Congressman-at-Large term is for 2 years — and probably for that length of time only. The state gained 1 congressman from the increased population shown in the 1960 census, but the state was not redistricted by the state legislature in 1961, thus necessitating the election of a Congressman-at-Large.

Mahon, 43, is a McMurry College of Abilene graduate and a veteran of 40 months U. S. Air Force service in World War II. He served 1 year as briefing attorney for the Texas Supreme Court before being elected Mitchell County Attorney in 1946. He served in that office 1 year before being appointed 32nd District Attorney.

He was District Attorney until his election as District Judge in 1960.

He and his father J. B. Mahon, are partners in radio station KVMC here. He is president of Tumbleweed Company, Inc.

Mahon is past president of the District and County Attorneys Association of Texas and in 1957 was named by the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation as 1 of the 1 outstanding prosecutors in the state.

Active in Lions Club, he is a past president of Colorado City's club, past zone chairman and past deputy district governor.

A leader in the First Methodist Church, he is past chairman of its official board and has been a Sunday School teacher there for 14 years.

Mahon and his wife, Novalee, live at 1508 Dallas St. They have 3 children.

FIRST DISTRICT WIN OF '62

Wolves Sting Bengals With 2-Point Triumph

The Wolves did it . . .

And the victims were the Tigers from Snyder — a team that the Wolves always seem to have a better-than-average jinx against.

Coach Caddo Matthews' Wolves surprised the Bengals in a 38-36 District 3-AAA basketball game here in Wolf Gym Tuesday night. The victory was the first in 6 conference encounters for the Wolf Pack. Snyder is now 3-4 in district play and resting in third place in the standings.

The victory pulled the locals out of the cellar in the 5-team district chase — ½-game ahead of Lake View's Chiefs who are now 1-6 for the year in district competition.

Matthews had his Wolves playing their usual game of ball-control, a style that has carried the team to some "near wins" earlier against 3-AAA foes, and it finally paid off.

It was without a doubt, the "thriller of the year" as far of Wolf basketball here on their home court. It was a thriller all the way — and not in the usual scoring sense, but in a game of skill and ball control by the Wolves.

The second stanza was the height of the Wolves' efforts to hold to the ball and made the Bengals come searching — and Snyder was out-scored 3-2 during the 8-minute period. That helped greatly as the Wolves committed only 7 fouls compared to 13 for the Tigers. The Snyder crew only made 4 foul shots while the Wolves dropped in 12.

* * *

The Wolves and the Tigers slugged it out offensively in the fourth quarter, and to the very definite surprise of the Snyder fans, the Wolves still came out on top.

The Wolf Pack went into the final canto with a small 2-point margin at 22-20 — and used Snyder fouls to win the contest.

Snyder had to get the ball in order to score and the Wolves would only give up the ball If the Tigers would foul to get it. Eight of the 12 free shots the Wolves hit in the game were dropped in the final quarter.

Snyder, although out-scoring the Wolf Pack by 6 points from the floor, lost it at the charity line. The loss was enough to get the Tigers completely out of contention for any possible shot at the district championship. Sweetwater's Mustangs and Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes are currently tied at 5-1 for the lead and the issue is expected to be decided Tuesday night when the 2 teams meet in Sweetwater in the final scheduled district game for each.

Should a tie nevertheless result, in other words, should the winner of the closing Sweetwater-Lamesa game have lost Friday night, then a tie would den-death 1-game playoff be-still result with 6-2 records. This isn't expected to happen.

* * *

But back to the winning Wolves.

It was Steve Hillhouse, the Wolves' leading scorer, again who mustered up most of the locals' scoring punch. He dropped in 5 field goals and 7 of 8 from the free throw line to lead the game's scorers with 17 points.

Steve Free's 16 was high for Snyder.

The Wolves end up 1962 district play Friday and Tuesday night with a battle against Lamesa in Lamesa Friday night and against Lake View in San Angelo Tuesday night.

The Wolves can escape a cellar finish again this year and come in fourth in the 5 team district race by beating Lake View in their final game. In 1961, Lake View was last and the Wolves came in fourth, with 2 wins — both which came against the helpless [illegible].

* * *

The Wolf B-team didn't fair so well against their counterparts from over Snyder way. Snyder's B-squad took an easy 63-27 triumph in the opening game of the night in Wolf Gym.

Raymond Kincaid led the Wolves in that affair with 9 points. In other C-City scoring in the B-team contest, Bill Boren hit for 3, Richard Smith made 6, Dale Walker added 5, David Taylor hit for 1 and Larry Johnson scored 3.

Wildcats Gain Berth in State Playoffs

Wallace's giant-killing Wildcats gained a spot in the state basketball playoffs in Prairie View Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 15, 16 and 17, by dumping Vernon in a 60-59 thriller here Saturday night.

The victory gave the Cats of Coach W. D. Harris the playoff series with Vernon in 2 games G the playoff was a best 2-of-3 affair for a spot in the state tournament.

The Cats, state champions several times in the past, meet Brady in Brady tonight (Thursday) in a "tune-up" for the state playoff competition.

Wallace got a little help in the fourth quarter when 2 of Vernon's top players, Bennie Gaines and Joe Davis, fouled out. But the Cats held on in the final minute for the 1-point victory.

Frank Biggers put the locals out in front to stay, 5-4, early in the first period, but it was anybody's ball game all the way. Also aiding the Cats cause along with Biggers were sharpshooters Curtis Scott, Henry Burton and Oscar Amos.

The Vernon crew came blasting back at the Cats in the final stanza and stunned Wallace by pulling to within 3 points, 60-57, with only 1 minute left in the game.

Wallace began a stall with their ball-control tactics, but Edwin Smith stole the ball from Burton, the Cats' top ball handler, and raced for a layup to make it 60-59. Wallace got the ball, but lost it.

In other Bulldog scoring, Redwine sunk 12, Cain made 4, Moore added 3 and Owen scored 1.

Loraine's girls won the girls' contest 59-41. Joretta Hall's 27 points led the locals and the game's scorers.

Signup Opens For Feed Grain Program

County producers of corn and grain sorghum have until Friday, Mar. 30, to sign up for participation in the 1962 Feed Grain Program, reports Orrion (Jack) Linam chairman of the county's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Objectives of the program will be similar to the 1962 program, he says.

Objectives of the Program are to increase farm income, to further reduce the excess feed grain stocks, to reduce government costs of farm programs, to reduce the risk of serious overproduction of meat, poultry, and dairy products and to assure consumers of fair and stable prices for these products.

All producers of corn and grain sorghum are eligible to take part in the feed grain program, which calls for the diversion of acreage formerly planted to one or more of these crops into an approved soil-conserving use. The program is voluntary, but program participation by farmers who produce these feed grain crops is required if they want to be eligible for price support on their feed grain crops, including oats and rye, Linam reports.

For corn and grain sorghum, there must be a minimum reduction of 20 per cent from the farm's 1959-60 average acreage of these crops and the producer must not exceed the farm's barley base. For barley, there must be a minimum reduction of 20 per cent in the farm's average 1959-60 barley acreage, and the producer must not exceed the farm's corn and grain sorghum base.

Producers of oats and rye will be eligible for 1962 crop price support if they comply with either the corn-grain sorghum program or the barley program, he concludes.

WELCOME . . .

Those are fine new additions to our town—the new homes of the Chester Harts on Walnut and the Roy Neels on E. 17th St.

These new residents aren't exactly new. They're more of our community's good people who have moved into town—the Harts, farm owners, from the Valley View area; the Neels, (he's the farmer-inventor) from the Buford area.

Getting The Point In Welfare Work

No one is likely to disagree with President Kennedy's declaration in his special welfare message to Congress that:

"Public welfare . . . must be more than a salvage operation, picking up the debris from the wreckage of human lives. Its emphasis must be directed increasingly toward prevention and rehabilitation—on reducing not merely the long-range cost in budgetary terms, but the long-range cost in human terms as well."

To accomplish these objectives, the President urged the first basic overhauling of the Federal welfare program in 27 years and a reorientation which will add an estimated $93 million to the current $2-billion-a-year Federal expenditure on aid to the indigent, blind, disabled and dependent children.

"We must find ways," said the President in his message, "of returning far more of our dependent people to independence. We must find ways of returning them to a participating and productive role in the community . . ."

To this end, he is asking legislation to permit the states to conduct (with Federal aid) work and training projects for unemployed on relief. This, he said, will help them "to retain their work skills or learn new ones; and the local community would obtain additional manpower on public projects".

And we applaud this splendid mixture of the humanitarian, keen insight and practicality. It's a new approach that deserves thorough cooperation on all levels.

Soil Testing Value Proved Anew

Result of new demonstrations in Hale county have shown again the value of a soil test in determining fertilizer need. The demonstrations were conducted by the associate county agent, together with farmer cooperators in the county.

On one farm, the soil test recommendation called for 60 pounds of nitrogen and 30 pounds of phosphorus as P205. The crop yielded 602 pounds of lint per acre without fertilizer. With the application of 60 pounds of nitrogen, the yield was 678 pounds per acre. The 60-30-0 rate increased the yield to 731 pounds of lint per acre.

Treatment with nitrogen alone returned $18.00 additional profit per acre, while treatment with the soil test recommended rate returned an extra $30.60 per acre according to data from the demonstrations.

The demonstration on a second farm yielded 558 pounds of lint per acre without fertilizer. Application of the soil test recommended rate of 60-50-0 raised the yield to 965 pounds of lint per acre. Per acre yield where 10 pounds of nitrogen and 50 pounds of P205 were applied was 691 pounds of lint.

Added net return due to the application of the recommended rate was $112.00 per acre. The increase from nitrogen alone resulted in a net return of almost $100.00 per acre, while application of the 10-50-0 returned $33.00 per acre.

In both of these cases the application of a soil test recommended rate returned the greatest net profit per acre. This is typical of the results that farmers are obtaining by using soil tests to determine fertilizer needs.

Good News For Our Family Budgets

That's the word of forecast that comes from a survey of food chain executives.

With virtual unanimity, these executives forecast that food prices will be stable during 1962.

The report also points out that "the real surprise for many people comes in the fact that a good many food items are actually lower-priced now than ten years ago." This is true, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, of such widely consumed items as round steak, leg of lamb, coffee and eggs.

The profit picture should also be of interest to consumers—who often, for lack of authentic information, regard the merchant as something of a monster, who mulcts them mercilessly in order to swell his bank account. The net profits earned by leading food stores range between one and 1.5 per cent on the sales dollar—which means that their total yearly profit on all the purchases made by an average family will run between $16 and $24. That family would hardly notice the difference if there were no profit at all.

STATE CAPITOL NEWS

Daniel Calls Legislature's Session "Very Productive"

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

A hectic final night ended the special session of the Texas Legislature. Two major problems — loan regulation and appropriations — were left unfinished.

Senate killed the loan regulatory bill by a 2-vote margin, after the House had approved it by 18 votes. It was described by experts as the strongest loan regulatory law in the nation.

Death came to the appropriations bill in the House. It would have provided money to advertise for tourists, repair San Jacinto Monument, repair damages done to state properties by Hurricane Carla and by fires, pay Senate employees and finance a number of other items.

Gov. Price Daniel called it a very productive session, nevertheless.

He said it had settled 2 long-standing issues — bank escheat reporting and farm-to-market road policy.

Daniel was disappointed about the failure of the loan legislation, tourist advertising and San Jacinto Monument repairs. But he said he would not call this Legislature back into session in the foreseeable future.

Lawmakers headed for home to file for re-election and begin their campaigns for the same or other offices.

This session set some sort of a record for fast action on bills to solve local problems. These ranged from closing the season on alligators in Orange County, to a score of bills creating new water districts (to undertake drainage, hurricane protection or water supply projects.)

Daniel was pleased at the bill changing the name of the State Board of Water Engineers to the Texas Water Commission, and reworking it into an image of the State Highway Commission. The chief engineer takes over full administrative control, leaving policy matters in the hands of the three-member commission.

Governor Daniel studied a flood of mail, telegrams and phone calls, which he had there was a definite public demand for him to try to become Texas' first 4-term governor.

WHO SHOULD CENSOR? —Question of school book censorship was buffeted about by 22 witnesses, when the House Textbook Investigating Committee held its fourth weekly public hearing.

Some 200 persons attended the hearing.

Frank Wardlaw, director of the University of Texas Press said, "There are no men wise enough to serve as censors."

He stated that he would prefer that his children's textbooks be censored by authoritative professors, rather than by unqualified individuals.

Author J. Frank Dobie said, "the more textbooks are censored, the weaker they become."

The opinion that regulation of teaching materials by elected trustees has worked satisfactorily was expressed by former Baylor University trustee Joseph M. Dawson.

Other witnesses, such as Mrs. A. A. Forester of Texarkana, Richard L. Harvey of Tyler and M. E. Gabler of Hawkins, criticized the Board of Education's formula for censorship. They said they firmly believe that modern textbooks fail to instill a sense of patriotism and love of country.

Committee will conduct another hearing Friday.

SHORT SNORTS — Governor Price Daniel announced the ppointment of Rep. B. H. Dewey, Jr., of Bryan to the executive committee of the Southern Regional Education Board.

In another appointment, Governor Daniel named J. Walter Friberg, Wichita Falls attorney, as district judge to fill the unexpired term of newly-elected Congressman Graham B. Purcell, Jr.

TAYLOR - MADE

By RICK TAYLOR
Record News Editor

R. T. MANUEL, who takes quite an interest in the political goings-on and is noted quite frequently in the "Letters to the Editor" section of the larger daily newspapers around the state, had this little tid bit to offer Taylor-Made Saturday morning—following Governor Price Daniel's announcement Friday night, via television, he would seek another term of office:

"If Daniel had added a few more planks to his platform, he would have had more lumber than JEFF TAYLOR has down at Rockwell Brothers."

What a splintering thought R. T. . . .

* * *

TAYLOR-MADE had a look at the site of the Saturday night dynamiting of several thousand crows on the P. P. Hayes place in the northeast section of the county Monday afternoon.

But the most enjoyed part of the tour was asking directions to and finding the scene.

One little old lady graciously stepped out of her front door when asked if she knew where the site was, walked to the west of her house, pointed north toward a distant grove of trees and said:

"That's where they 'damn-a-mited' them crows."

The crows probably agree with the phraseology.

NO NAME DEPT. —If you happen to notice a prominent young married man around town with a black eye — it's the young fellow who was engaged in the following:

"Look at the old clothes I have to wear," said his wife, "if anyone came to visit, they'd think I was the cook."

To which the now-battered husband replied, "Well, they'd change their minds if they stayed for dinner."

Maybe she can't cook, but she's a heavy contender for the featherweight boxing championship of Texas — just ask her husband.

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Space Flight and Farming Linked

Editor's note: The Shinnery Philisopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek takes a look at space flights, his letter this week reveals.

* * *

Dear editor:

Like nearly everyone else, I was glued to a television set watching preparations for launching a man into orbit around the earth and like everybody else I too was disappointed when the launching had to be postponed.

I was talking later with a man in town and he said, "Aw, I don't understand it, why should a few clouds get in the way when he's going to be orbiting above them anyway?"

It's pretty clear that man doesn't understand the intricacies of space launchings or farming either.

I don't know whether you're aware of it or not, but launching a man into space is almost exactly like farming — the weather has got to be just right before you tackle it. It can be too wet to plow, or too windy to fish.

Even if the weather is right, that's not the whole answer. On a bright, sunny day, a leak in a fuel line can stop Col. Glenn from orbiting and me from farming, and I think everybody ought to come to a fuller appreciation of the complex difficulties of both these enterprises.

If a man is all set to orbit the earth or cultivate its surface, he's got to be philosophic about the situation and not rush into either unless everything is exactly right. Col. Glenn, as for as I'm concerned, expressed a sound philosophy toward both orbiting and farming when he crawled back out of his space cabin after the flight was postponed and said: "If not today, some other time. What's the rush?"

Col. Glenn, you're welcome to visit this Johnson grass farm any time you want to.

People have got to understand that it's impossible to say:

"Next Thursday at 9 a. m. sharp we'll put one man into orbit and 2 million farmers to plowing."

Us space and farming technicians have learned long ago that things don't work that way, and I'll be glad when the rest of you laymen learn it too.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

LOCAL BUSINESS

It Is Always A Buyer's Market

BY MADGE BELL
Record Staff writer

"It is always a buyers market in every business . . ."

Gerald Bishop, director of advertising of Mississippi Power and Light Company recently told a group of business management specialists.

Although his company deals in a service which is sometimes considered monopolistic, Bishop pointed out that a utility company like a retail store has dozens of competitors regardless of the economic situation.

"It is true that no one else in our area sells electric power. However, the family which is able to install new electrical conveniences may consider spending their disposable income for an additional automobile, new furniture, entertainment, an enlarged house, a trip to Europe, real estate or a horse and stable."

"In fact, we compete with every business in every community in which we operate," the utility executive said.

Bishop pointed out that utility advertising must have the basic ingredients of good retail advertising. "It can be effective only when it offers something of specific benefit to the consumer." When a person spends money, he added, his first concern is properly his own self interest.

"The consumer does not spend his money out of loyalty or because a company boasts of its age or prestige, Bishop concluded.

The lessons here for the local retailer should be obvious. First, there is no such thing as a monopoly. Second, no business can afford to rest on past laurels.

HEALTH AND SAFETY TIPS

Equip Home for Minor Illnesses

Is your household properly equipped to handle minor illnesses and accidents?

Probably not.

Most of us would have to make a quick trip to the drug store to meet most minor family emergencies.

There are a few staple items that it would be well to include in your stock of medical supplies. As listed in Today's Health, the magazine of the American Medical Association, these include . . .

Aspirin, to help get rid of headaches or the aches and pains accompanying a cold.

Calamine lotion for minor skin irritations, insect bites and the early stages of poison ivy.

Petrolatum for chapped skin and superficial burns, cuts and bruises.

Epsom salts and rubbing alcohol.

Sick room supplies, such as hot water bottle, ice bag, vaporizer, enema bag, medicine droppers, tongue depressors, tweezers, scissors, a handy reference poison chart and a good first aid manual.

An antiseptic for wounds. Don't bother with antiseptic for minor cuts. Hot water and soap will do a good job.

The candy-coated aspirin are fine for children, but they also are tempting and children sometimes will eat the whole bottle of the small pills, with dire results.

There are other useful household medical supplies and equipment, but those listed here will handle most minor home ailments and injuries.

Don't try to treat a more serious illness or injury Don't try to treat a more serious illness or injury yourself.

Call your doctor.

Third Graders Undergo Tests

WESTBROOK — The third grade of Westbrook School, is being administered this week the SRA Primary Mental Abilities tests by Mrs. T. C. Moore.

The Junior Class was administered these tests last week by Preston C. Lightfoot.

In November, the seventh grade participated in the Tests of Educational Ability under the State Testing Program. Consequently, the seventh grade will not participate in these ability tests, since the TEA provides much of the same information.

The PMA tests were administered to the first grade at the beginning of school. This test is also used for reading readiness for this group.

The SRA Primary Mental Abilities test which are used now in the first, third and 11th grades are designed to measure 5 of the "primary mental abilities."

The 5 factors for the high school group are:

Verbal ability, spatial ability, reasoning ability, number ability and word fluency. The 5 factors for the elementary group are the same plus perception.

A 5-factor profile of the student's mental abilities is provided teachers and counselors. This profile provides an analysis of his specific intellectual strengths and weaknesses in addition to a measure of his "general level of learning ability."

A "reading aptitude" and an "arithmetic aptitude" score have been developed for use with students in grade 3. An analysis of their relationship between the child's reading achievement and general experiential background is used for planning remedial programs in case where the reading experience status is not well-balanced, Lightfoot says.

The PMA tests are profiled for high school and this mental ability pattern gives the relative strengths and weaknesses of a student's mental abilities. It is especially useful in educational and vocational guidance, for it gives a more complete picture of the mental abilities than has been previously available in mental tests. By use and analysis of the 5 separate abilities scores as well as the composite score, the teacher or counselor can better understand his students and adapt the curriculum or studies to their special needs and capacities, reports Lightfoot.

Each student can also learn to understand his potentialities better through study of his profile and begin to direct his activities along lines that will make best use of his own unique pattern of abilities, he concluded.

CONVERSATION CORNER

By RUTH COFFEY

HER LITTLE VOICE was quivering as she batted back the tears. "Please come and get me right this minute," she kept repeating into the telephone at the Palace ticket office in the middle of Sunday afternoon. She was, at the most, five.

"But Mother!" she said desperately after a little pause, "I don't like this show. It's un-funny and non-happy!"

She looked completely non-happy herself. But she turned, hung up the phone, and went reluctantly back inside to watch the rest of Exodus.

* * *

FANS LIKE Pearl and Lester Watson, later in the evening, the Bill Beecham family, Little Dick Gregory who is anything but little and his diminuitive wife Charisa (Mann) . . . And the Maurice Kirschbaums looked more appreciative of the strictly adult-fare screen offering Joe Earnest, our most dependable movie and book critic through the years, liked it too!

* * *

From Longfellow Community just the other day came a ring from Gloria (Roensch) Miles, here from Mesquite visiting the E. S. Miles, along with her husband Shelton Miles and sons Terry, Clayton, and Shelly.

Shelton's an insurance adjustor who works in Big D. He frequently runs into James Robertson, lawyer, son of the Al Robertsons, and sometimes sees Arliss Parkhurst and Roland Fee, Gloria reported.

* * *

TED ROENSCH, once a well-liked County Agent here, has recently moved to Burton in South Texas where he manages the Rocking S Ranch, 1300 acre spread beginning a registered herd program. You guessed it. Herefords. Roensch has always been a Hereford man. He and wife Clara Mae have been living in Arkansas and on a ranch near Tulsa.

Dorothy Roensch, younger daughter, is now Mrs. Robert Sanford of Princeton, N. J. where her husband is an electronics engineer. They have two little girls.

* * *

NEW JERSEY reminds us to tell you about our Bill Worrell, younger son of Betty and John M. Worrell of Locust St. Bill resigned as pastor of Fairview Baptist Church and since Jan. 9 has been in Nedham, N. J., Boy Scout executive leadership training school.

Feb. 22 he completes intensive study. Feb. 26 he moves his wife Jan and baby daughter Sandra Michele to Dallas where he has accepted the post of assistant Scout executive for the Dallas organization.

Bill will be a real asset to Scouting. Born with winning ways and personality, he always was a "good scout" — even at the ripe old age of three when he was "only startin' to go to kindergarten." Little C. City wishes him well in Big D!

* * *

* * *

WILLIE LANDAU, another long-time-no-see, was spotted hurrying like a pro halfback toward the postoffice . . . and again in conversation with Bunky Girvin . . . A man we married in our gay and irrepressible youth was happy over having a visitor from Waco—real estate man Bennie Strickland who was star halfback on that-long-famous Southwest Conference championship Baylor squad (circa '24) quarterbacked, we take great pride in remembering, by a fastie named Bill Coffey.

* * *

JUST BEFORE the wind kicked up its heels spotted Mrs. Bernie Grable of Hickory St. out raking leaves . . . Ditto Mrs. C. P. Gary of 6th and Chestnut . . . Caught glimpses of Gladys Miller, C. C. H. S. English teacher . . . Those nice Arthur Kelleys of Locust St. and Kelley's Shoe Store . . . And county school superintendent Roy Davis Coles.

* * *

DOLLAR DAY-ING here and there were Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Sr., wearing a bonnie red scarfed turban . . . Elizabeth Elliott (Mrs. Lewis) in the Firestone Store, with a bright scarf holding her hair against the chill wind . . . Louise Phillips McMullen (Mrs. Earl) local grad class of '42, pretty and blond as ever . . . Veta Williams (Mrs. Leonard) brunet of Loraine shopping in Penney's . . . Ditto a friendly local citizen, Maude McCord (Mrs. E. S.) of East 14th, along with Josie (Mrs. J. W.) Randle her long-time neighbor, who was saying that Joe and Meridith (Wood) Ruiz are moving back to C. City. Daughter of the Jasper Woods, Meredith is a '47 grad of C. C. H. S. Joe's a seismographer. The couple has thre youngsters.

* * *

OUR FAVORITE C. O. P. (chief of police) Leon Yeager was around for just eyeing — but not trying — that big easy chair in the new trade-stamp redemption center . . . So were Earl Brown . . . John Tom Merritt . . . Bitsie Humphreys (Mrs. Pete) and Pauline Davis (Mrs. J. R. and here from Odessa former citizen Mrs. Ed Marshall.

Mrs. Christine (Joyce) Easterwood dropped in while we were there, too. She's the mother of Virgil Easterwood who's married to Mildred Wynne and lives in Denver, Colo.

* * *

WIT OF THE WEEK was the unknown driver of a Gulf Transport truck. He was taking on coffee at the Ranch House where everybody was listening to Art Linkletter give his what's-in-the-house rhymed clues. Hearing Art accent the couplet, "When in use is smooth and sleek; takes a bath about once a week," the driver gave a shout of laughter.

"Sounds like a truck driver!" he said.

* * *

WHICH BRINGS UP the horrible thought for the week. Dr. Peterson, guest of Linkletter's show, predicted that within 20 years we'll all have screens attached to phones so we can see who's talking.

Heaven and the ghost of Alexander Graham Bell forbid! Some of us are so used to answering with a towel draping the torso, we'd never in this world get used to primping before phoning or dressing before dialing. We decry visible voices. Can't "the brains" leave us any privacy? The whole idea is un-funny. And non-happy.

New At The Library

Mitchell County Federated Library, corner of First and Elm Streets, is continually building its reserve of volumes and it was reported last week that the number has now topped the 16,000 mark.

The books are divided into divisions, according to age groups. These include small children, junior children and adults.

There is space provided in the library for reading or studying and an information service has been employed from the University of Texas. This service will provide, upon request, information on various subjects that has been taken from articles in magazines, newspapers and books.

Hours for the library are 2:30 p. m. until 5:30 p. m. each day except Friday and Saturday. On these days the library is also open from 10 a. m. until 1 p. m.

To use the vast collection of volumes available, one must only sign a membership card which is placed on file. Books may be kept for 2 weeks with no penalty, each day over that length of time will be penalized 1c per day.

The following lis is compiled of new books in the library. They are available from the librarian, Mrs. Boyd Dozier, upon request.

Safety First Necessary in Flying of Kites

And many Colorado City and Mitchell County youngsters will be participating in the long-popular sport.

Don Benson of Texas Electric Service Company reminds local kite flyers that "safety first" is as necessary in kite flying as in other sports.

A few simple rules of safety, says Benson, will help youngsters get more fun out of flying kites and at the same time, keep the flyers from being injury or from losing their kites.

The rules are:

Use only string made of cotton, silk, linen or rayon.

Use only wood in your kite frames.

If your kite should get caught in electric wires call Texas Electric. They will send someone to get it down for you.

We and Texas Electric Service Company want you to enjoy your kite flying and careful observance of these safety rules will do away with the possibility of accidents, says Benson.

INSTALL A MODERN FLAMELESS ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

Important advantages:

1 SAFE — NO FLAME
Perfectly safe in any location, an electric water heater has no flame to blow out, no fuel to leak, no pilot light or flue to worry about. And the outside of an electric water heater is always cool.

2 HIGH EFFICIENCY
Electric heating elements are in the water, inside the tank. The tank is completely insulated, even on the bottom, to prevent heat loss. And no heat is wasted up a flue. You get hotter water faster and it stays hot longer.

3 LONG LIFE
With an electric water heater, the tank bottom is not subjected to the corrosive action of flames. There are no valves to stick, no moving parts to get out of order. An electric water heater assures you many years of trouble-free service.

4 INSTALL ANYWHERE
Because an electric water heater requires no flue, it can be installed anywhere in the house, close to the point of greatest use. This saves long pipe runs and consequent waste of heat due to water cooling in the pipes.

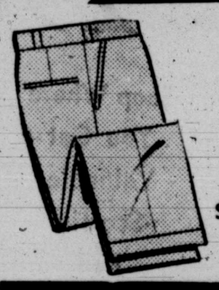

5 SUNSHINE CLEAN
With an electric water heater, there are no by-products of combustion to soil walls or ceilings. No unpleasant fumes. No flue to accumulate soot. An electric water heater provides the cleanest method known for heating water.

6 MODERN — COMPACT
