BLIZZARD HOWLS OUT OF ROCKIES

BRUNT OF COLD WAVE DUE HERE DURING NIGHT

WORST STORM OF THE FALL BURIES WEST UNDER DEEP SNOW
A brisk, biting "norther" sweeping down from the heavy snow storms around Denver and the Rocky Mountain region was blowing toward the South Plains and the Panhandle today, giving promise of the coldest weather of the fall for tonight.

When the skies cleared following the cloudy weather for the past few days, and with the thermometer beginning to drop this afternoon, the first killing frost of the year is predicted for tonight. The U. S. Weather Bureau has issued a prediction for colder weather tonight as a result of the strong north winds, which began to strike this section today.

Should the first heavy frost of the year appear tonight it would be about the average date for the first frost here, which is November 2.

According to agricultural authorities here a frost at this time would not be harmful to the crops as virtually all of the cotton has matured sufficiently. Although snows have been predicted for the northern section of the Panhandle it is not expected to extend as far south as Lubbock.

MUST SECURE TITLE TO SITE

DEED FOR LOCATION OF FEDERAL BUILDING MUST BE TESTED

Perfection of a title to the federal building site on the southeast corner of the courthouse square, selected by the Treasury Department of the government Tuesday, is the next step in Lubbock's determined march for a federal court building here.

As soon as the title is completed and transferred to the government by the county, bids will be received and contract for the construction of the building awarded.

H. O. Richey, federal engineer, while here several weeks ago to inspect the proposed sites, predicted that it would be impossible to complete the building before two and a half years after the site was selected. He stated that it would take probably from three to six months to perfect the title, about six months to draw up the plans, additional time for advertising for bids, and another year and a half before construction could be completed.

PROSECUTOR OBTAINED FAME IN AIMEE AND HICKMAN TRIALS

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—An indictment against Asa Keyes, district attorney of Los Angeles county, charging "willful and corrupt misconduct in office" was returned here last night by the county grand jury, who also filed an "accusation" in superior court demanding his removal from office.

The indictment charged that Keyes, who gained wide-spread publicity in the investigation of the Aimee Semple McPherson disappearance case and in the conviction of William Edward Hickman, recently executed, had accepted money from several persons in exchange for dismissal or indictments against them, or failing to take any action at the hands of juries.

One of the accounts alleged that Keyes took $10,000 from Jacob Berne, alias Jack Bennett, in consummating an alleged agreement by which Herman escaped conviction on charges growing out of the fallure here last fall of the Julian Petroleum corporation for several million dollars.

The grand jury's accusation included the charge that Keyes conspired with Berne and E. H. Rosenberg and Jack Rosenberg to effect their acquittal of charges involved in the collapse of the corporation in a gigantic stock tangle.

Secret indictments against an undisclosed number of other persons also were returned.

MOVE UP TIME FOR CULINARY LECTURE HERE

PRACTICAL NATURE OF DEMONSTRATIONS IS POPULAR FEATURE

In order that Mrs. Myra Oliver Dougan, domestic science expert, may bring all possible help to women of this city and the surrounding territory in the Avalanche-Journal's free cooking school, classes are opening this afternoon and tomorrow at 2 o'clock rather than at 2:30 in the Up Town Dance Palace.

This change was made after Mrs. Dougan had asked the advice of the women attending the school on Wednesday afternoon.

Ethusiastic praise of this exposition was heard yesterday afternoon as the several hundred women gathered in the school for a helpful lecture and demonstration of yeast and quick breads. Expressions from the women indicated that this school surpasses any previous one in Lubbock in its helpfulness to the women attending.

The charm of Mrs. Dougan in her presentations and the practicability of her demonstrations have made their appeal and those who can be attending each afternoon of the week. Mrs. Dougan's graciousness in answering questions and her invitation for discussion of recipes has met with the approval of those attending.

Several women yesterday afternoon, in expressing their appreciation of this exposition, mentioned particular gratification in the expert's combination of ordinary foods into unusual dishes.

"I have found new cakes and breads today that I can use in the preparation of my children's school lunches," Mrs. C. Y. Partain said when she called to postpone a meeting of the junior high school P. T. A.

ASSISTED JAIL BREAK, CHARGE

HELPING PRISONER IN ESCAPE IS ALLEGED TO SLATON MAN

Hoffman, and his deputy, Sam Selmon staged the raid. Rogers was arrested and placed in jail at about 1 o'clock in the morning, effecting an escape about 6 o'clock.

According to another prisoner in the jail, Slaton officers declare that Rogers sent a passing boy after Shaw, his brother-in-law with the word that he was in jail.

It is the theory of officers that Shaw furnished his brother-in-law with a hack saw with which to saw himself an exit from the jail. Shaw was arrested at about 9 o'clock and brought to the jail here together with the confiscated liquor. Rogers had not been found today.

HOOVER FINAL TOUR CARRIES HIM TO COAST

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE IS CONFIDENT AT START OF CLOSING TRIP

By JAMES I. WEST (Associated Press Staff Writer)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Herbert Hoover sets out today for California to await in the quiet of his home on Stanford university campus the decision of the people of the United States as to whether they will crown his career with the presidency.

High in the hope of victory, the nominee in his last public utterance in Washington, delivered to newspapermen who have been with him throughout the campaign, said republican success was assured "if those who believe with us go to the polls."

Hoover leaves here at 5 p. m. on the three thousand mile campaign swing across the continent, he will carry with him the best wishes of President Coolidge, members of the cabinet and a host of Washington friends in and out of public life.

Calls on Coolidge Before leaving for the last time the spacious office from which for two months and more he has directed the vast army carrying the message of republicanism to the people, the presidential candidate had arranged to call on President Coolidge at the White House and to say good-bye to those who have labored in republican national headquarters nearby.

One of the last pronouncements to come from Hoover's own headquarters was that making public a letter from Secretary Mellon attesting that the nominee has made tax returns as an American citizen and paid taxes on those returns since the enactment of the income tax in 1913.

This letter from the secretary of the treasury, which was addressed to James Francis Burke, general counsel for the national committee, was intended to set at rest reports assailing the American citizenship (Turn to Page 9, Column 2, Please)

He plans to make an intensive tour of the county within the next few days to make a thorough survey of the crop prospects.

SAY McDONALD OF SOUND MIND

SEEK TO PROVE PARIS MAN KNEW OF THE LEGACY LEFT

(By Associated Press)

The bankers, H. L. Baker and James L. Cavree, said that McDonald apparently was perfectly rational when he signed the will, and that he always had been normal mentally and possessed of sound judgment in their opinion. Cavness said he had intimate business dealings with McDonald, and had conferred with him frequently at a hospital where McDonald was confined before his death. He added that he had considered McDonald perfectly rational at all times.

Baker testified he had known McDonald for years, and that McDonald had never before he signed the will told him he intended to leave the $1,250,000 for an astronomical observatory at the University although McDonald had a deep interest in scientific progress and was well informed on many subjects.

Former allegations of the contestants charged testamentary incapacity by virtue of ill health, senility and insane delusions.

The hundreds of Lubbock housewives who have attended the Sixth Annual Avalanche-Journal Cooking School have all expressed themselves as being extremely happy over the benefits they have obtained. And, it has been just as they have said—A SUCCESS.

The hundreds of dishes that Mrs. Dougan has prepared have been culinary innovations to this section of the State. These edibles have been judged by the most critical and efficient experts in food circles—housewives who make cooking a business. All declare a complete satisfaction. They marvel at the finished product.

Mrs. Dougan gives much credit of her success as a Culinary Artist to the stove she uses. "A cook is as good as the stove she uses" says the present conductor of the Avalanche-Journal School. GRAF ZEPPELIN TAKES IN CASH

$343,000 REVENUE IS MADE BY CRAFT ON ROUND TRIP

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Revenue earned by the Graf Zeppelin on her round trip from Germany was estimated today at $343,000.

What part of this profit is uncertain. Dr. Hugo Eckener estimated that the expenses for the round trip would be $100,000 but reports to the damaged firm undoubtedly raised this considerably.

The estimate of revenue is based on the assumption that eighteen of the passengers on the trip to the United States and twenty of the twenty-four passengers on the return voyage paid the full fare of $3,000. Since Dr. Eckener estimated the revenue before the start at approximately $100,000 it is assumed that several of the passengers who travelled in more or less official capacities did not pay the full rate.

Taking the figure of 38 passengers, at $3,000 each, the total fare would be $114,000. Mail and express brought from Germany added $70,000 more. Freight carried on the return voyage paid $1,705. The revenue from fifty four sacks of mail was $75,713.50. A large part of the revenue came from the sale of exclusive rights for publication of stories from the ship, an American syndicate paying $27,400 for this privilege and two German newspapers $15,600.

Cakes and some miscellaneous dishes are included in today's program.

Women who have been attending this school regularly have been trying the recipes in the school, according to many who attended yesterday. These were enthusiastic in selling of the help them had found in the school. Several baked and casserole dishes have been particularly pleasing.

Uses Everyday Foods "Almost any woman might be a good cook if she could buy expensive foods for the combinations but Mrs. Douglas is showing us the art of cooking with ordinary foods and having unusual and appetizing dishes," according to Mrs. R. D. Moxley who is a daily visitor at the school.

Using a yeast and a quick dough as bases, Mrs. Douglas demonstrated the making of numerous loaves and cakes Wednesday afternoon, and told a recipe for an ice-box cake, the dough of which can be kept in an ice box indefinitely and baked when desired. Tea rings, parakee house rolls, pigs in the blanket, hot cross buns, and other familiar loaves were made with a number of new ones.

LEAVES LEGACY OF STRAY DOGS

WOMAN LIVED ALONE FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS ONLY COMPANIONS BEING LOOSE CANINES

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—This is just a little story about a woman who lived alone for 25 years, who died, and whose legacy to an indignant neighborhood was 21 stray dogs.

The dogs howled dolefully yesterday until police came and took them to the dog pound. They were waifs and strays of the street and alley, given shelter by Mrs. Laura Wicks Walker in the old style mansion on South Parkway. When she died there was no one left to care what happened to the dogs; and the neighborhood, mostly negroes, were glad to see the animals (against which they had complained many times) taken away.

Back in the nineties, Mrs. Walker, daughter of a Pullman company official, married a coachman against her father's wishes. Her father disowned her, but later relented, presenting her with the house in which she died. The house was in what then was an exclusive residential section, now the center of the colored belt.

In October, 1922, her negro neighbors complained to health authorities about the dogs. She was allowed to keep them when she explained she was a member of the Anti-Cruelty society, picking up homeless dogs. Two years ago the number of dogs had increased to 30, and on complaint of the neighbors Mrs. Walker was fined $200 for maintaining a nuisance. The dogs were taken from her.

Mrs. Walker's only relative is a sister, Mrs. Florence Watt of Los Angeles, enroute here for the funeral.

One shot was fired. The carpenter then turned and walked from the filling station, handing his pistol to a man in the crowd which had gathered.

Society Folks Take To Gay Attire For Golf, Flying, And Otherwise Enjoying Annual Indian Summer Days

By BETSY SCHUYLER
NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Society folk are riding, motoring, flying and walking out to meet these gorgeous Indian summer days in attire of fitting gaiety.

The continued warm sunshine sheds a gala feeling around the last of the polo games, the first of the football and the middle of the autumn hunt.

Everybody seems "dressed up." The new modes insist on it. Even tweeds are softer, more luxurious and so feminine in line that they seem quite formal. Flat furs abound as trimming, to give a luxurious note.

At one single luncheon at the Colony club I saw many different smart types of costumes. Mrs. George Sloane was lovely in a Patou blue fitted broadcloth coat, with luxurious collar and sleeve bands of blonde fur.

Tweed Frocks and Cape

self-belled, with flaring skirt and collarless neck. Mrs. Alan H. Black, a tweed cape suit, black grey and white, with a white blouse and big black bow tie.

The utility of trying to "sum up" styles this year makes one positively sigh. Each costume seems a law in itself. Tweeds, for instance, may be ensembles, frocks, capes or habits.

Maud Kahn has a mannishly tailored little suit of grey tweed, with a smart hand woven blouse in grey, black with a touch of blue. The blouse's collar is the only soft touch, yet the little suit is so graceful that it looked far from informal.

Attains Formality
Mrs. Ralph Isham used a deeper grey tweed for a very dressy ensemble of frock and long coat, with flat lamb fur for the tricky scarf collar. The fur, incidentally, belted the frock—a smart, new touch.

Mrs. Hunt Dickenson raised tweed to new high levels of formality by a tunic diagonal suit with heavy white nubs in the material. It has scalloped edges and pockets and then a fancy beaver collar and stripes of the fur outlining the coat's closing.

I haven't mentioned brown recently. I really should have, for Mrs. Graham Fair-Vanderbilt uses it with beige in a checked ensemble with deep cuffs and roll collar of beaver. Her beige blouse of soft jersey tucks into other skirt.

The continued vogue of fitted lines seem to presage a real popularity of princess lines before winter is upon us. Dorothy Benjamin Caruso, wife of the late Enrico Caruso, has several stunning fitted things in her trunks recently arrived from Paris. I saw her in a lovely, slightly fitted beige coat, with badge collar, at the polo games recently. Madame Frances Alda, who accompanied her, wore a smart brown velvet suit, with pleated inserts of figured velvet and a figured blouse.

The cocktail jacket continues to take New York by storm. Modestly called "dinner jacket" this summer, it grows bold in cooler weather. Sleeveless or long sleeved, fashioned of colorful velvet or shimmering paillettes on chiffon, the smart evening gown carries its own cocktail jacket.

After an hour had been spent with needlework, three Halloween contests were participated in yesterday afternoon when Mrs. S. B. Haynes was hostess to the Lady Needle club in her home, 1912 Broadway. Prizes went to Mrs. W. L. Peters, Mrs. W. M. Craig and Mrs. A. T. Stewart in the contests.

A salad course was served to Mesdames Peters, Craig, Stewart, W. H. Abbott, Harry Blocker, Don Mitchell, Homer Pharr, Paul Jones, Harley D. Woods, A. Lesosky and W. L. Bradshaw.

Living and Loving

BY MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

SWAINS MUST DO THE WOOLING IF MAIDENS ARE TO BE WON. Faith heart never won fair lady. You know boys, and you have all the advantage on your side, for you can seek the girl, while she must wait to be sought. As a gentle tip from one of the puzzling sex, don't be timid. Women like masterful men. This does not mean that you should be rough and rude, you know. A timid swain writes me:

"Dear Mrs. Lee: I am 18 and have been going with a girl to the show every Saturday night. That is my only chance to see her. I love her dearly. I want to ask her to marry me. I don't know if she loves me or not. Is it fair for me to love her before, and we don't write any more. She told me that if I write to her her brothers get the letter and scold. I am very friendly with her brothers. Please tell me what to do."

"THINKING."

There are a couple of "ifs" in my answer. Thinking. The first one is IF you think you are old enough to marry. Eighteen is pretty young for a boy to marry. And IF the girl is old enough to marry. I just surmise from your letter that maybe she is younger than you, and in that case, you are both too young. Aside from these two objections, what is there to prevent you from asking her to marry you when you take her to the show? Even if you are too young now, you will both grow older, and she might be willing to wait awhile. And if you are engaged you would not be lonesome Sundays. I should think, because you could be with her. Probably her youth is what the brothers object to.

Puzzled Sue: If the young man continues to ignore your requests for the ring, tell your father and have him see the young man and get it for you. From his actions he is trying to make you jealous, so you will take him back. I take it.

SMITH RAPPED IN TALK HERE

DR. J. W. HUNT TELLS HEARERS HIS VIEWS ON POLITICS

Speaking under the auspices of the anti-Al Smith organization of Lubbock, in opposition to the election of the New York governor and in favor of Herbert Hoover, the republican candidate, Rev. Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry college, Abilene, spoke to a crowd of approximately 200 citizens in the county court house here last night.

Dr. Hunt, a pioneer citizen of the South Plains, a former resident of Lubbock and at one time a newspaper man here and in Denver, has been active for several months in the anti-Smith campaign to carry Texas for the republican nominee, McMurry college, of which he is president, is a Methodist institution.

Covers Whole Field
 Tammany Hall, Senator Robinson, Senator Shepard, the Catholic church, Raskob and the "political lawyers who defend Smith" each came in for a share of scathing remarks in the address which the college president centered on Gov. Smith.

Herbert Hoover was pictured as "the greatest philanthropist of all times, a world citizen; a Christian gentleman, and the son of a village blacksmith, his mother a Quaker preacher."

The speaker stated that the negro vote would be as divided as the white vote, that "the negro church crowd will vote for Hoover and the chicken stealing, crap shooting, bootlegging negro crowd will vote for Smith."

Defends Preacher-Politics
 Dr. Hunt defended his right as a preacher to speak against Gov. Smith. He declared that Smith's nomination was the underhand work of Tammany hall and predicted that Hoover would carry the state by a majority of 100,000 votes. The Catholic church was accused of being both a political and religious organization which is now trying to colonize America with Catholics in order to gain political power.

Grain Sorghums To Be On Display

The first parcel post grain sorghum show ever to be held will be staged at Colorado, Texas, November 23 and 24 in connection with the annual Mitchell County Poultry Show, according to a letter to the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce from J. H. Greene, secretary of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce.

Greene invites anyone here to ship exhibits of red or white milo maize, black hull and red kafir, fetterita and hegart to the fair. Poultry exhibits are also invited. Prizes for the grain sorghum exhibits are: first $150; second $100, and a ribbon for third and fourth.

STOWAWAY GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION

PLUCKY YOUTH WHO HID AWAY ON ZEPPELIN IS CENTER OF INTEREST AMONG CROWDS

(By Associated Press)
FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Nov. 1.—Clarence Terhune, irrepressible 19-year-old American stowaway on the air liner Graf Zeppelin, was given a triumphant reception by a cheering crowd in Friedrichshafen today.

Clarence was smuggled out of one of the rear gondolas of the Zeppelin into the custody of police soon after the dirigible had landed and was taken to the hotel apartment of John F. Kehl, American consul, where a long private talk was held. When the young stowaway emerged from the hotel, cheering crowds raised him on their shoulders and paraded with him down the streets.

Asked what he intended to do he replied that he must first look through his mail and then decide what to do next. "I'm not worrying about the future," he said, adding

EL PASO IS ALARMED AT FIRST TREMOR IN FIVE YEARS

(By Associated Press)
EL PASO, Nov. 1.—Residents of this vicinity were thrown into a state of alarm last night by a slight earthquake of 30 seconds duration which shook buildings and caused slight damage within a 30 mile radius in the Rio Grande Valley.

No one was injured. Two distinct earth tremors were felt at Chihuahua City, Mexico, and reports reaching El Continental, Spanish language newspaper here, said that several cracks appeared in the government palace and other buildings there, while at Guadalupe, a small town below Juarez, two or three houses partially collapsed.

Many persons ran into the streets and excitement prevailed for a time, as earthquakes are a strange experience here. It was the first tremor felt in five years. Clocks stopped at 9:16 p. m., at Valentine, Texas, east of El Paso.

Terhune said he had a place to eat and plenty of food during the trans-Atlantic passage but that he had no place to sleep and had to lie down wherever he could find a spot that wasn't being used. He was a "maid of all work" aboard and was well treated by the crew and passengers alike.

DANIEL BAKER SHOWED POWER ON SATURDAY

TECH EXPECTS TO FIND GOING ROUGH AT BROWNWOOD

The Tech Matadors, twenty-nine strong, together with Coaches Freeland and Payne left at noon today for Brownwood where they will meet the Daniel Baker Hill Billies tomorrow. The Hillies have one of the strongest teams in the T. I. A. A. conference and have been picked by many experts as sure winners of the 1928 championship.

The Bull Fighters, with only three days of light training are expected one of the hardest battles they have had this year. By holding the powerful Elmore University Cowboys to a 6-4 tie, the Hillies demonstrated surprising power both on the offense and the defense. With a heavy, fast charging line and a group of shifty ball carriers, Coaches Blair and Clark have developed a football eleven capable of giving the best of teams a hard fight.

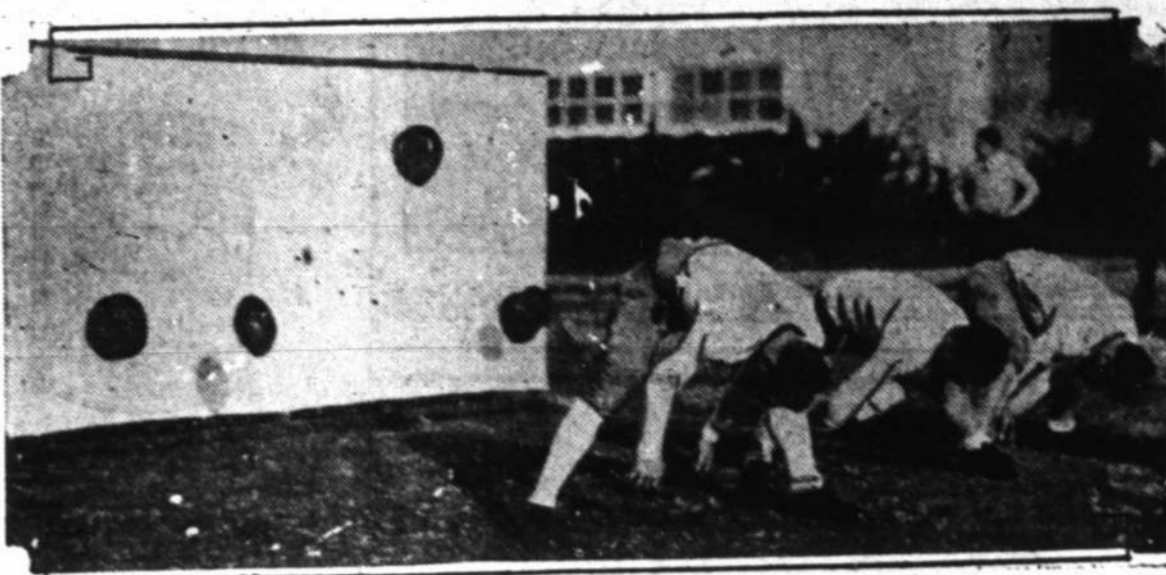

Only a light workout was on the program for the squad in the final practice session Wednesday. With the gridsters in top physical condition for the fray tomorrow, the coaches spent the greater part of the afternoon working on the return through signal drill and further training on their defense for the Daniel Baker plays.

The return of Clarence Hodges, fullback, to the lineup has increased the Matadors' driving power considerably over that possessed in the T. C. U. game in which Hodges was absent. He will alternate with Hill and Woodridge at this post.

Those who left today for the game were Coaches E. Y. Freeland and Victor Payne, Elson Archibald, Orville Brothers, Red Carpenter, Glenn Cooper, Charlie Crowley, Chubby DeWitt, Jack Durbin, Claude Hodges, Sid Knowles, Duke Lassiter, Jess Lockhart, Bill McWilliams, Paul Marr, Amiral Payne, Bruce Reed, Red Smith, Tubby Viles, Touhy Vermillion, Dennis Yarnall, Levi Walker, Ransom Walker, J. D. Waller, Charlie Woodridge, Westy Westerfelt, Jake Alexander, Volney Hill, Henry Hempel and J. T. Tadlock.

The Matadors will arrive in Brownwood at 8 o'clock tonight.

CARNES STORY WILL BE TOLD OVER THE AIR

WILL RELATE METHODS BY WHICH CHURCH WAS SWINDLED

(By Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 1.—The "Story of Carnes," the man who is accused of embezzling $953,000 of funds belonging to the Southern Baptist Home Mission board while he was its treasurer, will be told over the radio.

Dr. Arch C. Cree, acting treasurer of the board since Carnes' disappearance on August 15, later to be arrested in Winnipeg, Manitoba, will tell the story from Station KWKH, Shreveport, La., on next Sunday night.

Speaking before 700 Baptist laymen from all parts of Georgia gathered here preliminary to "Baptist Honor Day" on November 11, when 3,000,000 members of the church will be asked to make up Carnes' $953,000 shortage in a single morning's contribution, Dr. George W. Trost, yesterday said the day would certainly be a success.

The president of the Southern Baptist convention declared that Southern Baptists apparently are going to "meet this greatest emergency in a spirit of courage, of faith in God and a spirit without cynicism."

Dr. Cree told the laymen how Carnes had obtained a position with the board while working in Atlanta with an auditing firm just after the war. Then, he explained, Carnes worked himself into a position of trust and began a systematic distribution of notes.

"He was a master bookkeeper," Dr. Cree asserted, "which fact he so adroitly demonstrated."

Hooks and Slides

Good If You're Good

It is unfortunate for him, at least that Bill McKechnie may become the goat of the world series and lose his job as manager of the Cardinals. If late plays with him as well as it has in the past McKechnie will pop up with another good job but it will not be pleasant to have it in the books that he blew the series with a team that was an overwhelming favorite to win.

McKechnie, during the series was in the same position that every manager is in almost every game. When his strategy fails he is a bust. And McKechnie's went wrong in the series.

Wrong Defense

Smart baseball men say that the two doubles that Babe Ruth hit in the first game and started the Yankees going with a tremendous momentum should have been fielded.

Johnny Evers says that McKechnie made a terrible blunder in shifting his infield and his outfield in the same direction twice for the Babe and that Douthitt, if he had not been out of position, certainly should have caught the Babe's second double. Evers is a smart baseball man and his was a second guess. He made the objection to a neighbor when the Babe was at the bat.

So much for that.

Landis Divides Up City Series Melon

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis has used his big stick again—this time to settle a fight among the White Sox over their portion of the City Series cash.

After waiting several weeks for a decision of the players as to how the money should be apportioned, Landis cut the melon yesterday signing 27 checks for $239.94 and two for $1,104.27.

Spike Rumors of Salary Reduction

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 (AP)—Hot Stove League rumors that major league owners plan to band together in an effort to reduce players' salaries next season have been denied by President E. S. Barnard of the American League.

of Jimmy Wilson, who went into the series rated as a star, there was considerable gossip around St. Louis as to what caused the substitution of Smith for Wilson.

It was suggested that the "office" order McKechnie to bench him and to take Douthitt out and put Orsatti in.

Sam Bredon, however, speaking as one of the "office," said he didn't know Smith was to catch until he saw him out there.

Never Can Tell

It is easy to realize now that McKechnie should have started Mitchell in one game, but if the ancient southpaw had been started and had been treated as cruelly as the other pitchers were the Cardinal manager would have been ridden into St. Louis on a log.

Everyone in the country expected McKechnie to make a hero out of Old Alex and wanted him as a hero. McKechnie gave him his chance, but he could not hypnotize the Yankee batters.

COACHES WORK AND PUZZLE ON TEAM DEFENSE

WESTERNERS WILL MEET W. TEXAS' STRONGEST TEAM SATURDAY

"Stop the Sandies."

Having adopted this war-cry early in the season and held it uppermost in their minds throughout their training grind, the Lubbock Westerners are winding up training today and tomorrow for the crucial battle with the powerful Amarillo eleven Saturday. Efforts which near the super-human peak, and football performance of the inspired variety are promised grid fans of this section who witness the battle between these rival teams on the Tech field.

Coming to Lubbock determined to crush the Westerners as they have other teams in the district they have met this year, the Golden Sandstorm machine is destined to meet an equally determined Gold and Black aggregation here.

Interest in the game has risen to a high fever as the two teams make final preparations for the clash Saturday. Coming by special train, 500 strong, the Amarillo delegation with the high school band and pep squad will do everything to make the Sandies feel at home, while almost 2000 Lubbock high school boosters are expected to be on the sidelines flaunting their colors in unison with the strains of the high school band. The rival pep squads will hold the center of much interest as they give vent to their feelings for their respective teams.

Continued drill on a defense for the Amarillo attack is still taking up a large part of the Westerners' time, while at the same time, their own plan of attack is not being neglected. The gridsters are keyed up to a high pitch for the game Saturday, and will probably take only a light workout tomorrow afternoon in rounding off playing form.

at his leadership by taking his own state for Hoover.

Seek Reason Endorsement

Another reason is to be found in the dominating position occupied by New York in the financial and industrial world. Gov. Smith and Chalmers Babbitt have given repeated assurances that business has nothing to fear from a Democratic victory in 1928. Democratic leaders feel it would be to their particular advantage to be able to say that after a long lapse of years, New York again was willing to cast her support for a Democratic nominee for president. By the same token, the Republicans are counselling business men not to trust Democratic promises, and not to let this much-relied-upon state slip out of the Republican column.

All of these causes combined, augmented by the divisions on prohibition, religion and other issues common to all of the states, have made the campaign here in New York of political activity. The politics now pending in this state is the standpoint that penetrates to the marrow vastly more than a surface display of the bone.

NEW YORK IS PRIZE PLUM ON ELECTION TREE

BOTH SIDES HAVE MADE DESPERATE BATTLE FOR STATE VOTES

(By BYRON PRICE)

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Driven by considerations of the most compelling character, the battalions of Smith and Hoover are contesting hand-to-hand for the state of New York.

Official communiques of both Democrats and Republicans continue to speak of an expected victory, just as they did when the battle started. Each side is willing to put its predictions into more or less definite figures. But both concede that the final days see no relaxation in the fury of combat, and neither is preparing to return a single weary soldier to the rest billets until the last inch of ground has been won or lost.

Block of Votes Largest

The magnitude of the struggle is not gauged alone by the preponderant weight of the state's forty-five electoral votes, important as that factor is in the calculations of both candidates. Although this is the largest single bloc in the whole electoral college, and more than one-sixth of the whole number needed to elect a president, there are added reasons why New York is receiving a disproportionate share of attention in this particular campaign.

One of these reasons lies in the fact that New York is the home state of Gov. Smith. Both from the standpoint of local and personal pride, and for its effect on the governor's political future, his followers here have been fired by a special determination to demonstrate that he can carry the state as a presidential nominee, just as he has four times out of five for the governorship. Conversely, his opponents are determined to strike a blow

Quarterback Has To Use Head Under Pitt System

By "JOCK" SUTHERLAND

University of Pittsburgh Football Coach

Some coaches furnish their quarterbacks with a drawing of a gridiron on which are indicated plays to be used in various parts of the field. If the ball is in dangerous territory, certain plays are specified. If the ball is in mid-field, other plays are specified, etc. This is one method of teaching the so-called "zone play" system.

Zone play is much discussed, but is not used extensively. Because of yearly changes in the rules, tending toward a more open game and less conservatism, it will continue to lose popularity.

Personally, I do not believe in zone play. My ideas on the system are based more on observation, and discussion with other coaches, than on actual experimentation.

The majority of coaches are conservative—perhaps too conservative—and they live in fear of the wolf chorus that follows one of two defeats. Other coaches have such high opinions of their reputations that they want to "play safe," to take no chances. The zone play system finds popularity with the latter group.

When games that might have been won are lost because of poor judgment on the part of the quarterback, the coach may decide to lay down specific instructions for the quarterback in the matter of calling plays. He is given a chart of the field, laid out in zones, and the signal caller must use certain plays in these zones.

Zone play, to my way of thinking, indicates lack of confidence in the players. The attack is considered from a hypothetical defense, and therein lies the weakness of the system. (If the fixed plays fail, and

Ruth's Season Of Baseball Is Over

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 1 (AP)—The 1928 baseball season was at an end for Babe Ruth today, who together with Lou Gehrig, his barnstorming mate, was enroute East where he will spend the winter.

A wintry snow storm prevented the sluggers' appearance here yesterday in the last exhibition game, allowed them under major league rules which forbid barnstorming after October 31.

While the storm prevented the game, it did not curb the enthusiasm of baseball fans and a large crowd welcomed the Yankee stars on their arrival. They were besieged for autographed baseballs.

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 1 (AP)—Purchase of Ed Taber, left handed pitcher, by the Wichita Falls Spudgers of the Texas league from the New Haven club of the Eastern league was announced here today by J. Alvin Gardner, president of the spudgers.

Taber was the property of the Philadelphia Nationals until June of last season.

FRESHMEN AT TECH TO PLAY GAME MONDAY

CLARENDON BULLDOGS FORM OPPOSITION FOR FIRST GAME

Texas Tech's first freshman football team will take the field Monday afternoon against the Clarendon College Bulldogs in the first game of the season for the first year gridsters who are coached by Grady Higginbotham and Rhoads Ingerion. After six weeks of intensive training the Junior Matadors have been rounded into a formidable football machine.

The Clarendon eleven coached by Frank Stocking has hung up an impressive record this season in its games with the junior colleges of this section. Always noted for their fight, the Bulldogs are coming to Lubbock to avenge two defeats suffered at the hands of the Matadors before the old Methodist institution was dissolved.

In scrimmage with the varsity regulars, the Tech Frosh have displayed plenty of driving power with their heavy line and fleet-footed backs. A number of gridsters in the freshman ranks are showing excellent promise of making valuable members of the varsity eleven in 1929.

The game was originally scheduled for Friday, but the condition of the roads caused the tilt to be changed to Monday. Coach Freeland said last night after communicating with the Buldog mentor by telephone.

Three games have been scheduled for the Freshman team, it was announced yesterday. In addition to the game with Clarendon Monday, games will be played with the New Mexico Military Institute of Roswell and the Canyon Yearlings. The Frosh go to Roswell on Nov. 17 and meet the Canyon team here on the 24th.

DALLAS, Nov. 1 (AP)—Jack Roach, all-Southwest conference tackle last year, will be unable to play against Texas Saturday and it is doubtful if he will be ready to enter the S. M. U. line-up against Texas A. and M. a week later. Dr. R. N. Blackwell, Mustang physical director, stated today.

Dr. Blackwell verified a rumor that Roach had received a broken ankle which had prevented his appearance in recent games.

The big lineman's berth can be acceptably filled by Marion Hammon, but the latter is suffering from bruises. The Mustang forward wall would be weakened appreciably should he be unable to finish the game.

SOLO ATTEMPT AT PEN ESCAPE IS UNCOVERED

NOTORIOUS PRISONERS THWARTED IN PRISON BREAK PLANS

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, Nov. 1.—A daring attempt on the part of three prisoners in "solitary" to escape from the state penitentiary here was disclosed Wednesday when information on the break filtered through from the prison walls.

Monday night, according to prison officials, approximately 13 men, confined on solitary row because of their bad reputations, unlocked their cells with a key fashioned from a spoon.

After slugging T. J. Odum, a guard, they climbed through a hole in the roof which had been bored through a laborious process with a brace and bit to the roof of one wing of the main penitentiary building.

Once on the roof the prisoners found they were unable to reach the ground, three stories below. They then returned to their cells, it was said, locked themselves in and awaited developments.

White Says Hoover Has American Mind

MARYVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 1.—Herbert Hoover has an American backbone and mind while Al Smith, by reason of his training and present affiliation with Tammany Hall, has the "Tammany Mind", William Allen White, Emporia, Kan., editor declared here last night.

"There are no moral or mental differences between the two men", he said, "and there will be no indictments cast against Governor Smith by me. He is an honest, courageous and religious man, but is the product of an organization that has strayed from the ideals of America."

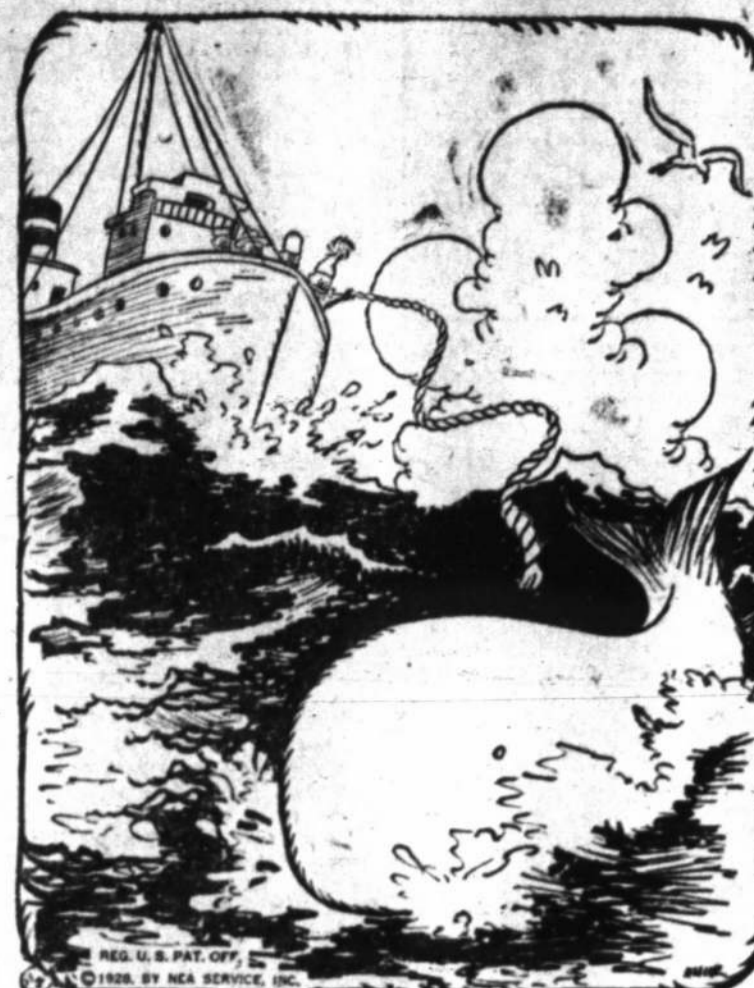

Rubber Industry Must Support Self

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The rubber industry here must stand on its own feet, since the Stevenson restriction scheme, which the government instituted, five years ago, regulating exports from British Malay and Ceylon ended.

Free export of raw rubber will from November 1, be permitted, and price movements will be subject to the economic law of supply and demand.

THE TINYMITES

BY HAL COCHRAN

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

All through the night of Halloween the Tinymites were on the scene and having heaps and heaps of fun till time to go to bed. The captain then said, "Hey, you boys will have to stop this awful noise. You're keeping me awake, and I'm an awful sleepy head."

"I've let you run and shout and play, but now you'd best be on your way to take a trip to slumberland. The sleep will do you good." The Tinymites agreed that he was just as right as he could be. So off they ran to go to bed just as all good boys should.

At break of day the captain came and looked at them. "Why, it's a shame," said he, "to spoil their slumber, but 'tis time that they arose. The horn for breakfast shortly blows. I think I'll tickle their toes until they come from slumberland, and open up their eyes."

When this was started, Clowdy jumped. He heard the captain's voice and he woke up. The captain food, and soon they were seated, and they were through. Then, out on deck they gaily went. Away up front the whole bunch spent their time at gazing at the waves, and then up at the sail, then something big, was copied, and shortly very loudly cried, "Oh, look down in the water!"

Wood Says Smith Is Facing Defeat

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Will R. Wood, as chairman of the republican congressional committee, issued a statement today in comment on Gov. Smith's speech at Baltimore.

"The spectre of defeat now seems to have become material, he declared. "The plain inference of his remarks was that he is being crushed by the weight of malign influence which has a strange hold on the American people who otherwise would elect as their president one Alfred E. Smith."

"His New York successes evidently had gone to his head when he entered this campaign. He seems to have totally overlooked what the great majority of political observers believe—that no democrat had a real chance of being elected president of the United States this year. "Gov. Smith may raise the religious question in a misguided plea for sympathy, but it will avail him nothing."

Owner Not Liable When Car Borrowed

AUSTIN, Nov. 1.—The owner of an automobile is not liable for negligence of a borrower, unless liability is imposed by a statute, the third court of civil appeals ruled today, reversing a Travis county district court judgment of $1,000 damages for Mrs. Viola Martin and rendering judgment instead for Dewey Puryear, who lost in trial court.

Mrs. Martin's suit against Grady and Dewey Puryear grew out of an automobile accident in which she was injured and two Texas university students were killed.

Mrs. Martin was riding in Dewey Puryear's car, being driven at the time by Grady Puryear. The district court judgment for damages was against both the Puryears but Grady did not appeal.

Do you enjoy your food?

If you do not enjoy your food it is a true sign that you are losing your appetite. And when your appetite is "gone" it means you haven't the resistance to ward off diseases. Loss of appetite is only a symptom. General weakness pervades the entire body. There is no desire to work or play.

Rich, red, blood builds and sustains
Your physician will tell you that lowered vitality is the result of an insufficient supply of red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

When you get your blood cells back up to normal, that sluggish, let-down feeling, loss of appetite, rheumatism, boils, pimples, and skin troubles disappear. You get hungry again; sleep soundly; solid flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby. You feel strong; and your nerves become steady.

Thought For Today Do all things without murmuring and disputings.—Phil: 2:14

We are too prone to find fault; let us look for some of the perfections.—Schuler.

Gang Government Some interesting news has been coming out of Chicago lately.

Chicago has a group of 16 men on trial on charges of terrorism in the spring election.

For instance, one witness told of voting 20 times for the machine at the election.

Another, an election booth watcher, told of being kidnaped by men in an auto who were accompanied by a policeman.

All of this, worse luck, isn't particularly startling. We have heard it before.

That development is the rise of a new kind of invisible government—the rule of the gang.

Gang rule is absolute over its subjects. The man who disobeys its laws dies by a sudden death.

The thing has reached a condition where it is positively threatening our whole political and social structure.

Nothing in America today is more important than that this be tackled and beaten down.

They will lessen political turmoil and strife incident to frequent elections and changes.

They will afford board members time to acquaint themselves with the duties of their office.

They will insure greater stability, efficiency, and economy in the affairs of the schools.

They will enable school administrators to have more time to professional matters and not so much to keeping up the political fences.

They will put Texas educational institutions in line with the policies found best and wisest in other states.

One of the educators with whom he conferred told The Plainsman that the great majority of the teachers of the state favor the passage of these amendments because they believe to pass them will help the schools. They feel, he said, that they will be able to do better work, which in turn will be a help to the students.

If we, as directors of a great corporation, wished to know something about an engineering problem we would go to an engineer—this is we would if we exercised good judgment.

THE PLAINSMAN

Says That Girl on Broadway says the housewife who can afford all of these labor-saving devices has enough money to hire someone to do the work.

Most of us are so dog-gone excited over the Presidential election we are over-looking the fact that Texas will be called upon to vote next Tuesday upon two proposed amendments to the state constitution.

The Plainsman will probably be called a nifty-head and a dumb bell for saying this but it won't be the first time. Anyway, it is the opinion of this writer that these amendments, if carried, will mean more to the state in the long run than whether it is Mr. Hoover or Governor Smith who is placed in the White House for the next four years.

Here are the amendments as proposed. Read them over carefully and make up your mind to support them.

1. The Legislature shall provide by law for a State Board of Education, whose members shall be appointed or elected in such manner and by such authority and shall serve for such terms as the Legislature shall prescribe.

2. The Legislature shall fix by law the terms of all officers of the public school system and of the state institutions of higher learning, inclusive, and the terms of the members of the respective boards, not to exceed six years.

The first amendment unites the hands of the Legislature and enables it to provide a state board of education in line with that of the best for the schools in other states.

The public schools of Texas have outgrown the present arrangements for a state board of education. Such an arrangement might have been all right more than fifty years ago, when the schools were smaller, but today we have a board that can give its full time and attention to the schools.

The Plainsman is highly in favor of these amendments for another reason than that they will aid in the efficiency of public education. He is in favor of them because they will, in a measure, take the schools out of politics.

Of course their passage won't eliminate all of the politics that surround our educational system under the present laws but it will help some. This writer believes that the fewer politics you have in schools—or government either, for that matter—the better off we all will be.

As he has said before, in this very column even the position of county superintendent should be taken out of politics.

The Plainsman has talked the proposition of these amendments over with several of the city's educators. He finds them agreed that the amendments are good ones.

They will lessen political turmoil and strife incident to frequent elections and changes.

They will afford board members time to acquaint themselves with the duties of their office.

They will insure greater stability, efficiency, and economy in the affairs of the schools.

They will enable school administrators to have more time to professional matters and not so much to keeping up the political fences.

They will put Texas educational institutions in line with the policies found best and wisest in other states.

One of the educators with whom he conferred told The Plainsman that the great majority of the teachers of the state favor the passage of these amendments because they believe to pass them will help the schools. They feel, he said, that they will be able to do better work, which in turn will be a help to the students.

No Matter Which Of The Two Candidates Are Elected We Are All Goibg To Be Saved From Some Evil, Dutcher Says

Letters To The Editor

"WHAT IS RELIGIOUS INTOLERANCE?" In my former article on this subject I was not aware of the limit to 500 words, until I had gotten to the office with it for publication.

I had to cut out about 200 words, which were important in presenting the subject.

One thing I omitted to say is that I have a tender regard for the devout Roman Catholic, who receives the Lord Jesus Christ as his supreme Lord and Saviour, and worships God according to his honest convictions.

any had he has every moral and legal right in the exercise of religious liberty that a Protestant Christian has. If a Roman Catholic be elected to an office in United States he will be installed just as a Protestant would.

Where then is religious intolerance in our country? The right to religious liberty does not imply the right to be elected to an office regardless of qualifications and objectionable relations.

Here is the trouble with some people, who confuse things, that are entirely different. If you are an American citizen, you can vote for or against, whom you please. If not then you have neither religious, nor political freedom.

To say that a man is an intolerant bigot because he votes against another, for political and religious reasons is a glaring falsehood.

To say that Catholics cannot hold office in the United States because of Protestant persecution, is not true. If Gov. Smith is elected November 6th, I am sure he will hold the office of President just the same as a Protestant would, if elected.

There are millions of Protestants I would not vote for to be our President.

I suggested in my former article that "it was time to open our eyes to facts and to the proof of these things in a plain hand."

The Pope of the Roman Catholic church claims the right to supreme authority over church and state, and contends for union of state and the Roman Catholic church, in all countries where they are in control.

Some of the facts of the facts. In 1883 Pope Leo XIII officially declared: "Over the mighty multitude of mankind, God has set rulers with power and authority."

What name is given to the doctrine that the state has neither the right nor the duty to be united to the Roman Catholic church. This is liberalism: it is founded principally on the fact that modern society rests on liberty of conscience and worship, and on liberty of speech and the press.

Why is liberalism to be condemned? Because it denies all subordination of the state to the Roman Catholic church?

Here we have it from the Pope and the Vatican Council that the Roman Pontiff is of divine right in supreme authority over state and church, and that his official pronouncements "are inflexible," and that "if anyone presume to contradict this definition let him be anathema." (Accused.)

Remember the Catholic church is one all over the world, with the Roman Pontiff, as its supreme head, assuming authority over state and church.

Can a man who owes his allegiance to his foreign ruler be a safe president of this nation? I am sure he cannot and be loyal to that church.

In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The "ticket spec" is a product of Broadway. His economic existence is as precarious as the physical existence of a Chicago gun man.

A "spec" is a vernacular for speculator. He's the fellow who buys up tickets for events that are expected to draw great crowds and who resells them at a premium of generally 75 per cent more than standard admission price.

He gambles against the chances of stiff competition from unexpected quarters and against the possibility of a last minute reversal of public enthusiasm.

Many questions why he keeps on going and still making how he keeps on going. Yet there seems to be an inexhaustible supply of his breed, playing for big stakes or quick losses.

The recent world series contest was a typical example of the downfall of the "spec" at the opening game his sales ran heavy.

But thereafter, for some reason or other, a drop of 12,000 fans was recorded. He was stuck with his tickets.

The Tunney-Devesey fight again landed the "spec" an upset. Thousands of tickets "died" on the sidewalks outside the gates.

In the last minutes before the bout started, they were selling for less than admission charge in an effort to get a percentage of their money back.

This is a common occurrence with theatrical attractions that have been heavily "bought up" on prospect but which, somehow, fail to catch the public wave.

Our own Gotham, who and who isn't, Andrew J. Maloney, the new millionaire president of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal corporation got his start as a Broadway user.

Jeffery Holmquist, who writes Broadway paragraphs for a New York paper, is really a member of the British royalty and can lay claim to the title of "Lord."

Barney Gallant, maestro of Greenwich Village's snappiest night club, was a police reporter in St. Louis and got his start by making loans to the other scribbles for small margin on percentages.

He went to Mexico on a news story and when he came back spoke Spanish so well that he made his entire Manhattan as a Mexican and an authority on that nation.

Anne Sutherland, who conducts an atmospheric ham-and-sweater in the city, was once heralded as the most beautiful blond upon the stage.

She was leading lady for a Chicago stock company in a day when seats could be purchased for 50 cents. Now a veteran in the theater, she makes regular trips from time to time—but her hair has grayed and she gives most of her attentions to restaurantries.

Van Dine is the name taken by Willard Huntington Wright, one of our leading intellectuals, when doctors sent him away with a nervous breakdown and he decided to write detective stories.

Farm States Swing To Smith—Raskob

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (AP)—John Raskob, democratic national chairman, said last night that the farm organization of the democratic quarters committee, with headquarters in Chicago, reports a survey of Minnesota, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska shows "a tremendous Smith sentiment."

"The farm organization leaders," the national chairman said, report that the democrats will carry those states, including Indiana and Iowa. Senator Harry B. Hawes, in charge of the St. Louis headquarters, confirms the survey for Missouri and believes we will carry that state.

There will be no change in the political complexion of such states simply because one factor offsets the other.

Perhaps dry votes and wet votes will offset each other generally over the country, allowing the prohibition issue to cut little figure anywhere. Here and there, of course the wets or dries will outnumber each other, but some other factor is likely to be present to aid the offsetting.

The east appears to be political, wet, but the east is also more interested than any other section in preservation of the tariff. If wet voters accept the republican contention that democratic victory means hard times some of them may prefer to continue to pay high prices for liquor.

One might go on like this for quite a while. Because of the complications of this nature, it is difficult to see any strong national political trend. Of course, it may be there, concealed.

MANY SIMPLE HOME REMEDIES MAY BE APPLIED TO WARTS

Warts A.—There are many simple things that can be removed by surgical methods. If it is freely movable and unattached to the skin, the chances are it is a simple tumor or fibrous or glandular tissue, and the operation will be very slight and not disfiguring.

Lumps in the Breast M. has a movable lump in her breast. Can it be treated without resorting to the knife? There is no pain.

I think such a lump as M. describes would have to be removed by surgical methods. If it is freely movable and unattached to the skin, the chances are it is a simple tumor or fibrous or glandular tissue, and the operation will be very slight and not disfiguring.

However, if allowed to grow, there is a possibility of its becoming cancerous.

"Will you please give me your opinion as to the use of vaccine or inoculation for colds? I find that some of my doctor friends recommend it and others say its effects are uncertain. The thought has always occurred to me that if the origin of colds is unknown, as the papers tell us nowadays, how can inoculation be effective?"

The vaccines are usually made from mixed strains of the types of germs that are found in colds and as some of your friends have told you, they seem to work in some and have no effect in others.

When one is subject to colds, there is undoubtedly something wrong with the hygienic program, which lowers the resistance.

We have an article on Colds, Catarrh, etc.

The World And All

IN AN ALMANAC Always, I have had a weakness for almanacs because of the unlooked for things you are likely to find in them.

As a boy on a boy on a Kansas farm with limited library facilities, I used to read the almanacs carefully as they came in from the drug stores and the patent medicine companies.

I was continually finding in them curious information. Unimportant, perhaps, but interesting. Much of it was similar to the "habit of whistles" with which newspaper makeup men fill in the little spaces and odd corners.

"I've just found a good piece of entertainment in a thoroughly modern almanac. It's in 'Morlock's Almanac for 1929,' a burlesque compilation edited by Burton Rascoff. The particular bit that strikes my fancy is a discussion titled 'Rus in Urbe,' by Elliott White Springs.

Mr. Springs lives in a tiny town in South Carolina and writes for the magazine, and writes for the magazine, and writes for the magazine, and writes for the magazine.

The article, a visit to New York made at the request of a magazine editor, who wanted to talk to him about some articles.

The Carolina hits upon some of the New York characteristics, and hits them hard, although in a sprightly manner that doesn't hint of viciousness. He has relatives in New York, he says, and when they come to his town without notice they expect to be housed and fed and furnished with a car all the time.

When he visits New York and calls them up they politely invite him to lunch next Wednesday.

When he went to the magazine editor's office, the southern writer was met by information girls, secretaries and secretaries, and for each of them he had to write out and tell a synopsis of his business and his private life. When he finally got the editor he found that the editor didn't have anything to do but talk and visit apokeholes.

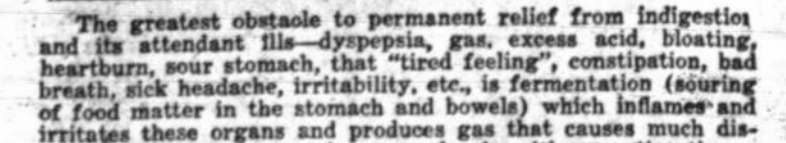

Not only in New York, but in other cities as well, this business of secretarial smoke screens is badly overdone by business men and

GORDON'S Stops Digestive Troubles

The greatest obstacle to permanent relief from indigestion and its attendant ills—dyspepsia, gas, excess acid, bloating, heartburn, sour stomach, that "tired feeling", constipation, bad breath, sick headache, irritability, etc., is fermentation (souring of food matter in the stomach and bowels) which inflames and irritates these organs and produces gas that causes much distress. Fermentation can be stopped only with an antiseptic.

Gordon's (named for its discoverer) being an internal antiseptic combined with the most effective digestants, goes right to the seat of digestive troubles. It stops fermentation, soothes and heals any irritated or inflamed condition, drives out the poisons and quickly stimulates the stomach and bowels to their normal functions. A few doses will convince you. A large 8-ounce bottle, $1.50—less than 3 cents a dose. At druggists.

WOMAN WON'T CHANGE STORY ABOUT BURNS

OFFICERS GIVE FINAL CHANCE AND TALE IS UNCHANGED

LAKE BLUFF, Ill., Nov. 1.—They gave Miss Elfrida Knaak her last chance today to change her story of self-immolation; of burning herself, feet, arms and head, to prove her faith in the weird "spirit love" she has persistently professed. And she would not change it.

It was the pretty book agent-psychology student's last chance, because doctors said her death was a matter of hours only; and Sheriff Lawrence Doolittle and George Hargrave, private detective, said it was vital to their investigation that they have from the dying woman's own lips a more believable story of what happened Monday night in the furnace room of the Lake Bluff police station.

By words and signs these two men questioned her. She was near death, they told her. A new, a final statement was asked.

Unless she added some new word, the investigation must end no nearer solution of the peculiar affair than when it started.

Miss Knaak, facing death, told them that her previously repeated story was a true account of what happened: That she had gone alone to the police station Monday night, had sat there until early Tuesday morning, and then had gone to the furnace room and tortured herself by fire to prove her "spirit faith". One arm, then another, she laid on the live coals of the furnace, then her right foot, then her left, completing the rite by poking her head through the narrow furnace door and holding her head over the fire until she was burned to the skull.

The path of blood leading from the furnace to the rear door of the basement? That, she said, was made after the fire rite. She was going home, she explained, but the door was locked. Who locked it?

"The Mysterious Hand," was all she would say. But why? Persisted Hargrave, unwilling to accept the mystic explanation of spirit love, of self-torture, why did you do it? And the answer: "I do not know."

of the man who carries the hopes of the republican party in a campaign that for intensity has been without parallel in recent political history.

Before he comes to the end of the trail in this, the greatest adventure in a long career marked by adventures in many climes, Hoover has some hard days and night of campaigning ahead of him as he has determined that there shall be no let up in the fight until the very eve of the day the voters will register their will.

Beginning early tonight at Cumberland, he will comprise four speeches into half as many days and nights and soon after his arrival at his California home he will give his last message as a candidate to the nation, speaking for fifteen minutes into a microphone in his study with his voice carried to every corner of the land over a nationwide chain of stations.

The principal address of the swing, and the one to the preparation of which Hoover has given many long hours, will be delivered at St. Louis tomorrow night. It will deal chiefly with farm relief and inland waterways development and the nominee's friends believe that it will do much to strengthen the party cause in the agricultural west.

HOUSTON, Nov. 1 (AP)—Judgment of $10,000 was awarded Mrs. Lily Tarkington, 40, of Houston, in an alienation of affections suit against Miss Norma L. Hopkins, 25, of Dallas yesterday.

Mrs. Tarkington, mother of two children, sued for $50,000, accusing Miss Hopkins of being responsible for her estrangement with her husband.

On the witness stand Miss Hopkins admitted friendship for Mr. Tarkington, but stated their relations had been along "platonic lines."

Gas Station Faces Governor's Mansion

AUSTIN, Nov. 1 (AP)—The governor's mansion is to have a gasoline filling station across the street from it.

The city council of Austin voted to give a permit for the station, the mayor and commissioners expressing reluctance to take action but explained there "appeared to be no provision whereby the application might be turned down."

Construction of the station on the site near the mansion had been approved by the city plan commission and safety commission.

Split-second starting is the rule with Conoco Ethyl users. This quality of instant ignition is a great saver of batteries—and minimizes crankcase dilution caused by fuels which require the excessive use of the choke.

Conoco Ethyl picks up rapidly—for the reason that its even rate of combustion assures a constant push against the pistons. A most important consideration for traffic driving.

Ethyl gasoline made the new powerful high-compression motors possible. Before Ethyl Gasoline was developed, motor-car manufacturers could not safely increase the compression ratios beyond a certain point.

In the lower-compression motors, carbon deposits increase the compression by decreasing the size of the combustion chamber. Ordinary gasoline cannot withstand this increased pressure. It explodes prematurely with a resulting loss of power. Conoco Ethyl, on the contrary, performs perfectly under this high-compression condition with a resulting increase in power.

By preventing knocking and reducing gear shifting, Conoco Ethyl is propelling the smoothest running motors on the streets today.

It Was A Wild Evening-Town Was Topsy Turvy

It was a wild night. Wilder's the Fourth of July, wilder's Christmas. Other than three false fire alarms, a number of disturbances of the peace, hundreds of sheet-bedecked "ghosts" milling the streets, gangs of mischievous kids roaming the city, heaps of boxes, bricks and lumber piled in the streets, several fights, and the fact that the whole town apparently was "whooping it up," there wasn't much happened in Lubbock last night—except, by the way, two marriages.

Peace enforcement officers this morning sighed a sigh of relief that Halloween was over and also over the fact that it comes but once a year. Wagons, boxes, lumber and rubbish blockading city streets this morning gave evidence that another "eve of All Hallows' day" had passed.

A Barber Pole, strangely broken and severed from its foundation, lay on the sidewalk today—mutilated victim of a Halloween prankster.

The time-honored stunt of placing a false fire alarm, failed to work last night, and the pranksters got their hand called. A check was made of each fire call before it was turned into the fire station. For instance, one person at a downtown filling station, reported a fire in the 3000 block on Main street. When his name was requested and by what power he was able to detect a fire at such distance the youth decided there wasn't any fire after all, and made the pavement hot by speeding away. A "coat-tail fading in the wind," as the impression he left with employees of the filling station.

C. E. Luce, traffic officer, narrowly averted probable injury when he came suddenly upon a pile of lumber in the middle of a street while he was on the trail of a speeder. He dodged the obstruction, however, and "got his man."

Several bands of kids were dispersed by officers last night and sent home to bed. The youths were not bothered by officers as long as their pranks were of a harmless nature.

The inebriates, disturbers, and fighters, paid off this morning and were released.

boarded the air liner, the official reception committee, of which Consul Kehl was a member, entered the hangar. Kehl boarded the Zeppelin to meet Terhune, who was seen at the window of the airship's kitchen wearing an overcoat with the collar turned up. A few minutes later a German official handed Terhune a document which the stewardess was seen reading with the assistance of Kehl. Later Terhune was spirited out of the hangar.

Woman Gets Ovation

When the customs officials entered the door of the cabin Mrs. Clara Adams of Tannersville, Pa., only woman aboard, was standing framed in the doorway. She was greeted with loud cheers. A few minutes afterwards the score of passengers aboard, some of whom had made the trip to America and return by the airship, landed.

The passengers and crew had great difficulty in getting out of the hangar into which part of the crowd had made its way while thousands outside cheered and bands played "Deutschland Ueber Alles" and "The Star Spangled Banner." Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander and builder of the airship, asked to be excused from any reception formalities until 6 p. m. He explained that he was thoroughly tired and needed a rest.

The American passengers paid eloquent tribute to the voyage of the airship and said they would not have missed it for anything. An hour after the Graf Zeppelin had been berthed in the hangar the crowds which had been assembling since yesterday began to disperse. The passengers and crew had left and the doors of the hangar were closed slowly on the largest airship ever built.

Salvoes from cannon in salute roused the sleeping populace of Friedrichshafen when the airship approached its birthplace on the shore of Lake Constance about 4:30 a. m. The people rushed for the air-dome where crews of the Zepplin works were already assembled. All German, Austrian and Swiss Broadcasting stations were hooked up with the microphone so that radio fans could listen in on the homecoming.

eral building, and the present specifications would place the federal building here eight feet from the present jail.

The Lubbock county commissioners' court has set 1932 as the final date for moving the jail building. Although members of the court this morning said that the commissioners were ready to move it as soon as the citizens of the county wished it. After the federal building contract is let, construction will begin as soon as the commissioners' court takes action on moving the jail.

Official notification of the site selection is expected to be received by County Judge Charles Nordyke and Postmaster John L. Vaughan within the next few days. The attorney general and the nearest U. S. federal district attorney's office will also be notified of the selection and will aid in the perfection of a title.

All that is necessary in connection with moving the jail is that the structure is moved from its present site by the day after the federal building is completed.

Pennsylvania To Electrify System

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (AP).—The Pennsylvania railroad is to electrify its entire freight and passenger service between New York and Wilmington, Del., at a cost of $100,000,000.

The decision was announced by General W. W. Atterbury, president of the road.

The project will cover 325 miles of line comprising 1,300 miles of track and will require seven or eight years to complete.

General Atterbury said that if conditions warrant it the electrification of the roads entire 11,000 miles of track would follow section by section upon completion of the present plans.

The issue of this political campaign seems to be over what goes into the well-known full pail.

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 1.—A program boosting the budding and planting of pecan trees in the San Angelo district, together with figures of production and profits that startled a number of business men, was presented at the Kiwanis club this week.

J. W. Wainock, an irrigation farmer and pecan grower in this section stressed the importance of selecting the proper types of pecans and urged that all native pecan timber be budded with the Texas Prolific and other large bearing varieties.

Dor Brown, county agent, emphasized the importance of planting young trees for he said that over a period of five years, the young trees will outgrow and outproduce the old transplanted trees.

MATCHES COLORS

New Device Takes Guesswork From Process

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Announcement of a machine to make all the guesswork out of matching colors was made today before the convention of the Optical Society of America.

By its aid, the wife may cable from Paris asking her husband to match in the home town a shade of color that she describes as striking her fancy, and it can be done. Further, it can be done in less than a minute by the machine and so exactly as to leave no ground for domestic argument.

Hardy's machine is based on the simplest principle of color that every schoolboy is taught, namely that color is determined by the number and kind of light rays which a surface reflects.

HEAVY BUYING PUTS BUSINESS AT PEAK POINT

COTTON HARVESTS ON AND CONDITIONS ARE LOOKING BETTER

Market Review

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, Nov. 1 (AP)—Heavy buying which sent department store sales in September 40 per cent above the previous month and 7 per cent higher than the same period in 1927, a brisk demand for funds to finance fall expansion of trade and industry, and a perceptible increase in the amount of debits to individual accounts, were outstanding items in the monthly business review of the Dallas Federal Reserve bank issued today.

While business permit valuations at large centers slumped materially in the month as compared with August, this factor was counterbalanced in that the business mortality rate in the eleven district reflected a further improvement. Failures in September were as numerous as in the previous month, but were substantially less than September last year and liabilities of defaulting firms were smaller than in any month since July 1927.

Weather conditions, the report said, generally have been favorable for the maturity of crops and farmers have made good progress with harvesting operations. Beneficial rains fell over the southern half of Texas during September, but the dry weather in the northwest, northeast and northern portion of central west Texas reduced the prospective yield of some crops.

Picking Makes Progress
Heavy precipitation in some sections of Texas retarded picking and caused some loss of cotton, but most of the cotton growing regions have been favored with ideal weather and picking and ginning has made rapid progress during the past six weeks, the Federal Reserve bank resume points out.

According to the bureau of census there had been ginned the state prior to Oct. 1, 2,429,000 bales as compared to 2,306,330 bales before that date last year. Ginnings to Oct. 1 represent nearly one-half of the estimated production for the current year. The department of agriculture estimates the condition of the Texas crop at 58 per cent normal on Oct. 1, which, according to the department, indicated a yield of 5,050,000 or 500 pound gross weight bales or an average output of 137 pounds of lint per acre. This compares to an estimated yield of 5,100,000 bales on September 1 and an actual production of 4,352,000 bales in 1927.

Insects Are Active
Insects have been active in most sections of Texas, Louisiana and southeastern Oklahoma during September, the report discloses, and in many areas have materially reduced the yield, particularly on the late planted acreage.

Range conditions have deteriorated somewhat in northeast, northwest and west central Texas and eastern New Mexico due to lack of moisture, but have improved elsewhere. In West Texas the situation is especially favorable, reports indicating that they are the best in recent years. Likewise, heavy rains in the west and coast sections of Texas broke a dry spell and conditions are much improved.

Cattle Demand Strong
The demand for cattle continues strong with trading active where surplus cattle are available, but the surplus cattle in most sections are becoming rare, the summary states.

There was no change in the average condition of cattle during the month but sheep and goats and their ranges reflected a marked improvement in September.

Following a decline in August, total production of crude oil in the district amounted to 22,504,109 barrels. This exceeded the previous month's output by 368,650. Although there was a general downward trend in the majority of fields, total production of the north Texas area showed sufficient gain to result in an increase for the district.

Total production of oil in north Louisiana amounted to 1,170,950 barrels and reflected a further decline which, in September, amounted to 74,750 barrels.

Reports from 42 pine mills showed a decline in activities after an increase in July and August. Operations, however, continued on a larger scale than the same month of 1927.

SMITH

mention of whose names brought boos from the audience.

Hughes, he said, amid laughter, should have been the republican candidate instead of Hoover because he was "doing more to elect the republican president than the nominee himself."

He said Hoover had made an "exaggerated statement" when he declared in Newark that "real wages and standards of living of our labor have improved more during the past seven and a half years of republican rule than during any similar period in the history of our country." Credit for such conditions was given to Woodrow Wilson by the democratic nominee.

Challenges Data on Labor
After challenging figures from the opposition camp on unemployment and assailing the republican plank on labor injunctions, Smith said his own program called for the "necessary appropriation to the department of labor" to enable it to make adequate surveys on unemployment so "this question of veracity as between officials" will never arise again.

He said he was satisfied the American people was "not wedded to a policy of holding back public works in order to make a false showing of economy."

Furthermore, he was "distinctly in favor of a thorough study of the methods of industry, the newly adopted methods of industry, so that he may be able to absorb the surplus labor that is released because of the introduction of modern machinery."

Labor Plank "Senseless"
Smith termed the republican plank on labor injunctions "meaningless" and "senseless," and said the democrats had promised a definite remedy "by law" to end "the existing evils."

As for farm relief, he said the republicans were in a "panic" and he attempted to prove this by relating how Governor McMillen, of Nebraska and Senator Borah had gone to Washington to "plead" with Hoover to favor an extra session of congress to deal with this question.

"The care of the exportable surplus crops," said the governor, "is the underlying, fundamental question behind constructive farm relief and Mr. Hoover is unalterably opposed to that."

Circular Termed "Insult"
Smith branded as a "cold blooded insult" to the working man a circular which he said he had been reliably informed was sent out to business houses by the republican national committee for insertion in the pay envelopes of mill and factory workers and which stated "the pay coming to you in this envelope is from two to ten times as much as you would have received for doing the same work in Europe."

"Let us devote just a few minutes to this question of prohibition," the governor said.

"If ever there was a deliberate attempt to beloud the issue, it has taken place in relation to the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act. I know perfectly well that the president of the United States cannot amend the Constitution. Mr. Hughes does not have to tell me that. I know that, and what is more, I know that he knows I know it."

his own recognition.
Superior Judge Douglas Emonds, who assisted the jury in its investigation, appointed John W. Hart, chairman of the grand jury committee of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, as a special prosecutor to deal with the Keyes case. Members of the county sheriff's office and an investigator from the county civil service commission also aided the grand jury.

Among the charges in the allegation seeking Keyes' removal from office was one that he unlawfully possessed and transported twelve quarts of whiskey in his automobile. Among the other charges were that Keyes accepted a $630 platinum wrist watch from E. H. Rosenberg before Rosenberg and nine other persons were acquitted in the state courts; and that the district attorney accepted an unknown sum from A. E. Lasker for dismissing a felony charge against the latter.

Questioned concerning the Keyes indictment, E. H. Rosenberg declared he "never bribed any officials or

DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE

Arrest Ward Chief On Lottery Charge

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1 (AP)—William B. Smith, republican organization ward leader, member of the state legislature and clerk in city council, was charged today in a warrant issued for his arrest with operating a "clearing house lottery."

The warrant was issued by Judge Edwin O. Lewis on information furnished by District Attorney Monaghan, who is directing the grand jury investigation of bootlegging and police corruption.

At the same time Judge Lewis ordered the issuance of warrants for the arrest of a number of policemen on charges of extorting money from gamblers for protection.

Ten witnesses, mostly negroes, testified before Judge Lewis yesterday that lotteries had taken in approximately $350,000 a year, of which about $115,000 was paid for police protection. One of the negroes, Mark Johnson, a former constable and former republican division leader, now serving a prison sentence on a gambling charge, said that he had been a partner of Smith, his ward leader, in the "lottery racket" from May to December, 1927.

S. C. Lewis, Berman, the two Rosenbergs and six other defendants in the Julian case were acquitted in the state courts last May after a trial lasting five months. The indictment last night followed upon the conviction of Lewis and Berman in federal court here Tuesday of using the mails to defraud in the petroleum stock mixup.

Mr. Keyes recently announced that he would retire from office December 5, allowing his successor, Burton Pitts, who was elected last September, to take office then. Pitts gave up the lieutenant governorship of California to run for district attorney in Los Angeles county on an anti-vice platform.

Keyes made the following statement last night concerning the charges "I really don't know what this is about. I was never called before the grand jury nor was there apparently any effort made to get anything but the statements of some outside parties. I understood that the names of some of the witnesses appearing before the grand jury on which the indictments and accusations are based, are people who tried to blackmail a man out of the money on the theory that they could do just what was done with me."

"It is also significant that the chief party instrument in producing these matters is a discharged employe.

"I expect to investigate and find out what this is all about, and make a complete statement."

grand jury to investigate the charge More than that I shall place at the disposal of the grand jury my own services and the services of all my deputies in an effort to run down any possibility of guilt.

There is nothing wrong in this county except the fact that all the socialists, anarchists, non-partisan leaders, cast-off republicans and disgruntled democrats have united in their efforts to dislodge and defeat the true democrats holding office," Baker concluded.

RUM PEDDLERS BACK HOOVER CARAWAY SAYS

ARKANSAS SENATOR IN COMEBACK TO THOSE CRITICIZING AL

(By Associated Press)
 JOPLIN, Mo., Nov. 1.—With the declaration that "every bootlegger in Missouri is supporting Herbert Hoover for the presidency," Senator Thaddeus H. Caraway of Arkansas tonight said "the Republican presidential candidate is the champion of prohibition."
 Senator Caraway spoke at Democratic rally here.
 "You people who are for Hoover because he is for prohibition," the senator said, "take a look at Hoover's company. Look at Vore, boss of booze-ridden Philadelphia; at Mellon, who made $15,000,000 from the illicit sale of whiskey while he was head of the nation's enforcement organization; listen to Hughes who tells you there is no difference as far as prohibition is concerned between Mr. Hoover and Mr. Smith. It was Vore who made the first break for Hoover at the Kansas City convention—Vore, who ran for the senate on one plank, and one only—the repeal of every prohibition law in the United States."
 In "Sham Battle."
 In his St. Joseph speech Charles Means Hughes said that the contest between the parties on the prohibition question was a sham battle, and that there is no difference between the Democratic and Republican parties on that issue.
 Senator Caraway said that in New York, Vice-President Dawes upheld the position of Mr. Hughes and that Mr. Hoover did not deny it.
 Ripping into the secretary of the treasury, Senator Caraway said: "Do you want to know what Andrew Mellon's connection with the liquor business is? Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, in a letter to women's organization, explained that in detail. Among other things the letter asserted that some $15,000,000 in liquor was sold to bootleggers from a Mellon-owned distillery through permits issued in Mellon's office."
 "Believe me," the Arkansian said, "the only way to get honest enforcement of the prohibition laws is to elect the governor of New York to the presidency. He at least has promised you an honest effort to enforce those laws."

Charged with first degree murder in the death of Mrs. Genevieve Stultz, pretty 31-year-old divorcee of South Bend, Ind., Harvey L. Smith, private detective and side show barker, here is pictured after his arrest in Atlanta. Mrs. Stultz is reported to have been the sweetheart of Charles Reyher, real estate broker, whose wife is alleged to have hired Smith to get her rival out of the city. The Reyhers also were held on the murder charge.

that the downtown parking situation will be relieved. A number of proposed plans will be submitted by the committee before a final selection is made. Result of the investigation will be presented to the city commission in the form of a recommendation.

CANDIDATES TO STATE OFFICES ADOPT PLEDGE

'IRON BOUND' PLEDGE SENT BY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE SIGNED

DALLAS, Nov. 1.—An "iron bound" statement, pledging Democratic voters to support the ticket "from president to constable," has been signed by 12 candidates for congress, 25 candidates for state senators, 69 candidates for state representative, and all but two members of the state-wide ticket. Democratic state headquarters revealed here tonight.
 The only nominees for state wide offices missing from the list are Governor Dan Moody and Attorney General Claude Pollard. They did not sign the statement sent out from headquarters, it was explained, because they already had signed a statement of their own preparation. Members of the state ticket who signed the statement were Lieutenant Governor Barry Miller, Comptroller S. H. Terrell, Commissioner of Agriculture George B. Terrell, State Treasurer W. Gregory Hatcher, Railroad Commissioner Lon A. Smith, and Tom Connally, candidate for the United States Senate.
 The statement, a copy of which was sent to every Democratic nominee in the state, said in part:
 "We urge every Democrat to exercise his right of suffrage in the interest of the party of his fathers and give loyal and unstinted support to every nominee of his party to the end that the party of special privilege shall be swept from power and the party of and for the great masses shall administer the affairs of our government."
 that the downtown parking situation will be relieved. A number of proposed plans will be submitted by the committee before a final selection is made. Result of the investigation will be presented to the city commission in the form of a recommendation.

CITY COFFERS ARE ENRICHED

$2,519 COLLECTED AS RESULT OF MONTH'S ARRESTS HERE

The city coffers were enriched $2,519 during October because of the lawlessness of 195 persons records of the police department show.

Of this number sixty-five, totaling $1005, were paid on charges of being drunk—an average of more than two arrests for drunkenness a day during the month. Next in line is the charge of traffic violators with fifty-six offenders. Thirty-five fines were paid for disturbing the peace, sixteen for gaming, four for operating a picture show on Sunday, eight for fighting, four for trespassing and one for interfering with an officer.

Fines for being drunk ranged from $15 to $50, depending apparently on the fullness of the "drunk." Of the traffic violators two ran over a fire hose, twenty-three ran red lights, nine failed to stop at stop signs, nine double parked, and thirteen were arrested for speeding.

Electioneering Brings Divorce To This Couple

LOS ANGELES Nov. 1 (AP)—The electioneering which William Lynch did in his home did in his home for his favorite presidential candidate was made the basis on which Mrs. Bartie M. Lynch won a decree of divorce yesterday.

"My husband is a democrat and thinks that Alfred E. Smith is the best man for president," Mrs. Lynch testified. "I am a republican and I'm for Herbert Hoover. I told my husband I thought Hoover was the best man and he got angry, grabbed me around the neck and rapped his knuckles on my head attempting to make me take my statement and change my vote intentions."

Declaring a wife's right to support any candidate she prefers, the judge signed the divorce decree.

Clarence Saunders Starts New Stores

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (AP)—Clarence Saunders, of Memphis, Tenn., founder of Piggly-Wiggly groceries, launched a new venture today with

Rheumatic Pains Yield To Capudine

Those who suffer from rheumatism will find that Capudine will greatly assist in the treatment by relieving the pain and reducing the fever and inflammation. Rheumatism is a serious disease and should have the attention of a good physician, but the patient should be made comfortable as suffering retards recovery. For this purpose nothing is safer or surer than Capudine. Being liquid, it acts almost instantly—much quicker than tablets and powders.

Capudine does not upset the stomach and contains no habit-forming drugs, yet it is more effective in relieving pain and high nerve strain. At all drug stores—30c and 60c sizes. (adv.)

the formation of the Clarence Saunders Stores, Inc. The company will begin operations with 51 self-service grocery stores, and plans to add 100 more.

Stores will be situated in Memphis, Tenn.; Birmingham, Ala.; Montgomery, Ala.; Kansas City, Mo.; Denver, Colo.; Little Rock, Ark.; Hot Springs, Ark.; Roanoke, Lynchburg, and Bristol, Va.; Bristol, Tenn.; San Antonio and Texarkana, Texas; Louisville and Shreveport, La.; Chattanooga, Tenn.; and other cities.

McAllen Man May Have Died In Crash

EDINBURG, Nov. 1 (AP)—Jake Burkett of McAllen probably was fatally injured when he swerved his automobile to avoid hitting another and plunged into a deep ditch near Pharr late today. Doctors here gave him little chance of recovery.

It may be stretching a point, but it is reported that Messrs. Stretch and Strain are automobile dealers in Wichita, Kas.

Hoover Will Carry Texas

The conspiracy to deliver Dry Democrats to Tammany Hall and the Liquor Interests has failed in Texas. Prohibition Democrats will vote as they want to vote. They will not be led astray by false issues injected into this campaign designed to hide and obscure this the paramount issue. Mothers and fathers appeal to you to consider well the position of the two candidates on PROHIBITION, the greatest moral issue ever before the voters of America.

Below we have set out the testimony of the candidates and their supporters. Consider it well and you will vote for Herbert Hoover to keep this nation dry. Added to this, we want you to consider the statements of

In his Tennessee speech said that he did not favor the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment "I want it to succeed."
- 4—WOODROW WILSON
"The Eighteenth Amendment should never be changed. The Volstead Act should never be changed." (The above was among the last written utterances of the late president. Article of Josephus Daniels in Manufacturer's Record of Aug. 23, 1928.)
- 5—EVANGELINE BOOTH
"Applications for relief in our slum settlements have been reduced fifty per cent since prohibition. The families in the districts we visit are better fed, better clothed and better housed." (Saturday Evening Post, January 26, 1928.)
- 6—DR. GEORGE W. TRUETT
"The election of Governor Smith would be a National and International tragedy." (Home and State, November, 1928.)
- 7—CONE JOHNSON
"National prohibition can not exist at the same time with local prohibition under the 'doctrine of States' rights and local self-government." This would destroy the Eighteenth Amendment. (Houston Post-Dispatch, October 18, 1928.)
- 8—CHARLES A. LINDBERGH
The following message was sent by Col. Lindbergh to Herbert Hoover, October 2nd: "I have recently flown to St. Louis to register. The more I see of this campaign the more strongly I feel that your election is of supreme importance to the country. Your qualities of a man and what you stand for regardless of party make me feel that the problems which will come before our country during the next four years will be best solved under your leadership." (Mobile Register, A. P. Item.)
- 1—GOVERNOR SMITH
"I'll be glad to go down and help put over this bill if that will get us somewhere where we can put a foot on the brass rail and blow off the froth." (New York Times, March 9, 1925.)
- 2—AL SMITH
"I personally believe that there should be change (in the prohibition law), and I shall advise the Congress in accordance with my constitutional duty of whatever charges I deem necessary or expedient." (The above was included in acceptance speech of Gov. Smith, Albany, N. Y., Aug. 22, 1928.)
- 3—SMITH
The Arena, Philadelphia, Oct. 27, 1928.—The issue of prohibition in this campaign, Gov. Al Smith said, is no "sham battle." He declared it emphatically to be a real issue.
- His method of "doing something" about it, if elected, Governor Smith said, will be to take the issue back to the people, where, he contended, it belonged, and appealing to them, if necessary, over the heads of a hostile Congress, just as he several times has successfully appealed to the people of New York over the heads of the Republican Legislature he has always had to deal with. (See front page Dallas Times Herald, Sunday, Oct. 28.)
- 4—JOHN J. RASKOB
(The wet Republican, in accepting the chairmanship of the National Democratic Committee): "I see an opportunity of performing some constructive service by helping relieve the country of the damnable affliction of prohibition."
- 5—OSWALD GARRISON VILLARD
"Does Al Smith drink, and does he drink too much? Well, I am reliably informed that he drinks every day and the number of his cocktails and highballs is variously estimated from four to eight."—The Nation, 11-30, 1927. (Editor Villard is supporting Mr. Smith for President.)
- 6—AUGUST A. BUSH
"For by my vote I shall declare myself against the evils of prohibition."—St. Louis Globe Democrat, Aug. 16, 1928. (Mr. Bush is President of Aebuser-Busch, Inc.)
- 7—CAPT. W. H. STAYTON
"The idea that 36 states are necessary to upset the Eighteenth Amendment is a fallacy. What is needed is one more member of the Supreme Court to be a liberal."—New York Times, Oct. 21, 1927. (Capt. Stayton is the active head of the Association Against Prohibition.)
- 8—JACK JOHNSON
The following is an Associated Press dispatch from Winston-Salem, N. C., published in the Washington Star, showing the activity of this negro prize fighter for Al Smith. Jack has a white wife.
- WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Oct. 6.—Before leaving yesterday for New York, Jack Johnson announced that he would return here soon on a speaking tour of the south in the interest of Gov. Al Smith. Johnson said: "My next fight will be in politics. I'm going to enter the ring in behalf of Al Smith, who will be the next President of the United States."

Statements made by Governor Dan Moody in his Harmony Speech, April 7, 1928, as reported in the Dallas News of April 8th.

"There are but two subjects on the public mind of Texas at this time, the candidacy of Al Smith and prohibition. His candidacy, as expounded by his chief supporters, is based upon the fact that he is opposed to prohibition and upon the theory that his opposition to prohibition will carry certain votes in the north and east which would otherwise go Republican. The average man in this country only knows that Governor Smith is opposed to the prohibition laws. It naturally follows that his views on this subject subordinate other matters, and most people make up their mind toward his candidacy because of his position upon this subject. The chief argument for his nomination is expediency and that is contrary to the best traditions of Democracy.

It is unthinkable to my mind that the Democratic party, which has through all these years stood for those fundamental and essential principles of a Republic and of equality, with all of its colorful history and all of its campaigns for the great principles which are for the benefit of the masses, should bow and pass under the yoke to make itself the party of a man and follow doubtful expediency, forgetting issues and devotion to great principals of government.

A dry platform and a candidate opposed to such a platform is an incongruity that no party of self-respect can offer to the people and hope to maintain the respect of the people."

Hoover Leads in Texas!

The Literary Digest of November 3, 1928, showed that Hoover will carry Texas. Hoover's vote in Texas, according to the Digest poll, was 52,864 and Smith's 38,626. It was also shown that 55 Democrats out of every 100 in Texas are going to vote for Hoover.

We call upon all Hoover supporters to assist financially in this campaign. Mail all checks to Carr P. Collins, Treasurer, care Southland Hotel, Dallas, Texas. We want to run more advertising.
