ADMIRER

Rudy Grandados admires his favorite entry in the Wellington State Bank Festival of Arts Saturday, Oct. 21. It was this painted and tooled leather western by Darrell Colson. Rudy made his own macrame headband. The festival drew more than 130 entries, and over 500 spectators who voted in the People's Choice ballot box named to select the painting they liked best. Katy Davis was the winner with her oil of an abandoned pick-up in a field of grass.

Wellington PTO Carnival Set for Saturday in New Elementary School

Witches and goblins galore, and in varying sizes will roam the halls of the new elementary school Saturday evening, October 28, as Wellington's small fry celebrates Halloween.

Sponsored by the Parent Teacher Organization, as its annual benefit event, festivities will begin at 6:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Ron Hill, carnival chairman.

Fun-seekers can first feast on hot dogs, sandwiches, cake and ice cream, washed down by pop and coffee, before going on to the traditional Halloween entertainment. Shrieks will come from the spookhouse as youngsters feel its creepy and crawly inhabitants. They'll go on to the cake walk, pumpkin toss, dart game, hat-off-the-pumpkin, then try their luck in the fish pond, toss bean bags, hit golf balls and play the traditional tic-tac-toe.

There'll be the washer toss, pumpkin turn and basket toss. No one is going to miss Jaws II.

There will be table games for adults in the cafeteria.

At 8:30 p.m. the word will go out for the children to gather in the cafeteria, also, and the boy and girl with the best costumes will be picked and each will receive a prize, said Mrs. Hill.

Some time during the evening will come an event for the adults—a microwave oven and several other small appliances will be given away.

"It's going to be bigger and better and we urge you to come spend an evening in fun—with adults in the cafeteria and watching the youngsters in all the traditional Halloween games," Mrs. Hill continued.

She pointed out that this is the major fund-raising event of the year for Elementary PTO, and all proceeds go to buy equipment, either for the playground or for the classrooms.

A decision on the use of this year's money will be made in a meeting after the carnival, Mrs. Hill explained.

The contract to resurface the northbound lane of Highway US 83 from three miles north of Wellington to Lutie is due to be let Wednesday, November 15, O.V. Johnson, resident engineer, has been notified.

This is the old traffic lane and the resurfacing will begin at the point where U.S. 83 becomes a divided highway.

The estimated cost is $1,049,000, Johnson said.

The sealed proposals for constructing the 7.211 miles will be received at the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, Austin, until 9:00 a.m. November 15, and then publicly opened and read. Plans and specifications are available in Johnson's office here.

Construction will probably start in January and 180 working days will be allowed to finish it, he said.

The road will be completely resurfaced. The old concrete pavement will be torn out and the road widened in some places and at other places, the old pavement will be covered over.

Culverts were widened earlier.

When work begins, all traffic will be turned into the southbound lane, so that it will carry two-way traffic for the duration of construction.

Johnson said that as soon as men in his office are available for the work, surveying US 83 from Elm Creek to the Wheeler County line will start.

He estimated that construction widening this stretch of US 83 probably will begin in early 1980.

Arsonists Sought in Two Farm Fires

Two farm houses burned here in a four-day period and arson is suspected in both, Sheriff John Rainey says.

The 5-room frame house on the Duncan Pedigo farm a mile south of town on FM 1035 was completely destroyed about 9:30 p.m. Friday, October 20. Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Shipley lived there 41 years before moving into Wellington two years ago.

Monday, Shipley posted a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person setting fire to the house, Sheriff Rainey said.

The two-bedroom house on the Ray Null place 13 miles southwest of Wellington burned Tuesday morning. Fire was coming through the roof when it was first seen by a neighbor shortly before 8:00 a.m.

Farm Bureau Insurance posted a $200 reward for information leading to the conviction of the arsonists in both the Shipley and Null fires. This reward is automatic for Farm Bureau members, Jack Campbell, agent, pointed out.

Shipley told The Wellington Leader the house had contained all furniture he and his wife had used through the years prior to their move, along with a quantity of clothes and household items.

He says much of the furniture, part of it antiques, was removed from the house before it was set. One piece was a china cabinet more than 100 years old.

Shipley said that without the knowledge of anyone at the fire, he entered the burning building and saw that much of the furniture was missing. Overcome by smoke at one point, he was barely able to get out. He was brought to Collingsworth General Hospital by a neighbor, Mrs. Bob Weatherly.

Shipley still operates the farm and two tractors parked beside the house were driven to safety.

The blaze was discovered by the Bob Weatherly family.

That Skyrocket Band Wins Division One

That Skyrocket Band came home from the UIL Marching Contest in Canyon Tuesday evening in high elation, marking their return to the Division One ranks.

And when they got home, Wellington was ready to celebrate with them. There was a greeting from Mayor Bill Hatch and specially baked victory cakes, still warm were served by mothers from the Band Parents Club.

They had not received a First Division rating in 6 years, and they won this one marching in the rain in Buffalo Stadium, said Director Jamie Larson.

Spirits soared even higher when it was learned that the three judges were unanimous in awarding the First Division. "It was cold and rainy--raining as hard as it rained all day, but it didn't dampen their spirits and they did a fine job. I was extremely proud of them," declared Larson.

Contest judge Bill Spencer, director of Abilene High School said: "Very fine fundamental marching. Spirited sound, balance is good, general effect of contest show good. This is a fine band. I enjoyed your performance under such adverse conditions."

Dr. Charles Trayler, Abilene Christian University added: "Nice stride, good sharpness and execution. A good band. I enjoyed your performance."

Harris Brinson, Angelo

State band director declared: "A good job, especially in the rain. Nice style of marching, good knee lift. A fine looking band. General discipline, very good on such a wet day. This is a well rehearsed band. A good job, congratulations."

That Skyrocket Band competed with 13 others in Class A. Also receiving First Division ratings were Panhandle, Stratford, Vega, Stinnett, Gruver, Sunray, and Sanford-frith.

"This band has shown a lot of character. They never gave up and always performed their best every time they performed in public. We're happy we could represent Wellington High School and the town as well as we did," Larson declared.

Coleman Details Death March in New Book, 'Bataan and Beyond'

John S. Coleman, Jr., survivor of the infamous Japanese "death March" of Allied prisoners through the Philippine jungles to prison camp, is the author of a book to be published this week by Texas A&M University Press, Bataan and Beyond, detailing the march.

Coleman will be recognized at halftime at the Texas A&M/Rice football game at College Station Saturday, October 28. From 9:30 to 11:30 that morning a reception and autograph party will honor Coleman in the lobby of Forsyth Alumni Center, Memorial Student Center. Texas A&M University Press will host the reception.

The reception is open to the public.

After the reception Coleman and his family will be guests of the president of the university at a buffet luncheon.

Coleman was a prisoner of war for three and one-half years and the book gives an account of that entire period.

Coleman said he would have some copies of the book for sale in Wellington next week after he returns from A&M.

The book's dust jacket blurb gives a hint of the impact of this personal account of a chapter in American war history:

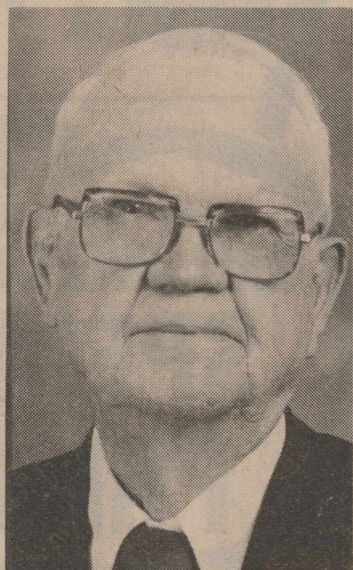

"After the Japanese invasion of the Philippines in December, 1941, and the subsequent fall of Manila, defending American and Filipino troops withdrew to the Bataan peninsula. For four months these troops, badly outnumbered and crippled by starvation and disease, fought a gallant holding action against the Japanese. When they surrendered in April, 1942, they were subjected to the infamous "death march"

Prisoners in this captured Japanese war photograph are collected by Japanese troops near Maravalles on the southern tip of the Bataan peninsula in the Philippines before the "death march" to Camp O'Donnell during World War II. Major John Coleman's book details his experiences on the march.

Rockets Go On The Road To Meet Shamrock On Friday

Wellington Skyrockets make their third road trip in a row to meet Shamrock Irish at El Paso Field Friday, October 27. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Despite Shamrock's record of only one victory this season, the Rockets are preparing for a hard game.

"Shamrock has always played us tough and we're looking for another tough game Friday," declared Coach James Williams.

The Irish lost their last game to Clarendon Bronchos 21-0 Friday.

"Shamrock has a fair football team, but they haven't been able to come up with sustained drives. At times, they're good," said Williams.

"Every game is critical for us now. Everyone is trying to upset us. So we're getting ready for Shamrock just like we're getting ready for everyone else," the head coach continued.

The Skyrockets came out of the Panhandle game without injuries.

"Playing those AA teams the first part of the season did pay off for us in the third and fourth quarters against Panhandle," Williams added. "Our kids played tough against them then."

Shamrock carries 22 men on the roster, and 8 of these are seniors. About the same number are juniors and the remainder sophomores.

As for the Wellington line-up, Williams said Skyrocket coaches will stick with what they have. Lately, they have been alternating players a little more during the games to give some of the younger players an opportunity to gain experience.

Also on Friday night, Panhandle, travels to Memphis.

"That will tell us a little bit more about the Cyclones," said Williams.

At the same time, Clarendon will meet White Deer.

After the Shamrock game, the Rockets will come home on November 3 to meet Clarendon and the following week they will play White Deer here. In the last game of the season, the Skyrockets meet Memphis on Cyclone field.

whose home is immediately north, when they returned home about 9:30. They notified the fire department. and Shipley.

Part of the house was quite old, Shipley said. The late Sam Pedigo, father of Duncan Pedigo, filed on the place and he and his wife lived in a half dugout until a two-room house was built. This was built onto several times, he added, and was in its present form as long as he knew the place.

Concerning the reward, Shipley said:

"I won't ask any questions. Just so they give the officers enough information so they can stick them (the arsonists). I won't even have to know who gives the information. Any information should be turned into the sheriff's department.

Ray Null said the two-bedroom completely modern stucco house on his farm had been vacant since he bought the place two years ago. The blaze was discovered by Reed Souder, who lives on the James Doneghy Ranch, as he was bringing his children to school. Fire was coming through the roof. He returned home and notified Null, but it was apparent the house would be completely burned before the fire department could arrive.

Null said he was certain prowlers had been around the place in the past, and recently someone ate a meal there.

This place is better known to many in the area as the Ralph Messer farm.

to prison camp. Thousands died, and those who survived faced the ordeal of further harsh treatment by the Japanese.

"John S. Coleman, an air force officer assigned to the Philippines to train air corps regiments for infantry combat, was among those who fought on Bataan and lived to tell about it. Based on a shorthand diary which he kept at great risk throughout his imprisonment, this straightforward account details the ground combat on Bataan, the horrors of the march, and the desperate conditions that were his lot as a POW during the next three and one-half years. The courage and ingenuity of men surviving when survival seemed impossible comes through vividly in this unembellished narrative. It is a compelling eyewitness record of a grim chapter in American History."

given the responsibility and will put forth the effort to get people out and to awaken an awareness for the need to go out and vote.

Mrs. Coleman also asked Denzil Lacy to do additional work. He will work independently of the executive committee, and will limit his efforts to the four voting precincts in Wellington.

"As citizens, I think we can all feel we are members of that committee in getting out the vote," she said.

"There are approximately 2450 registered voters in the county, and for every 300 votes for (John) Hill, we get a delegate to the State Democratic Convention," declared the chairman.

The Republican party operates in the same manner, although there is no Republican organization in the county at present.

Members of the County Democratic Executive Committee are Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. A.J. Fires, Mrs. Olan Farris of Dodson, Mrs. Edd Henard, Willie Knoll of Lutie, Donald Coleman of Samnorwood, Mrs. Bill Hatch, Cary Don Neeley of Quail and Raymond Horton.

Four Homes Included on Tour By 1924 Study Club Sunday

This Sunday afternoon, October 29, is the date for the 1978 Home Show Tour in Wellington sponsored by members of 1924 Study Club. To benefit Collingsworth County Museum, the event will be from 2-5 p.m.

Advance ticket sales from club members or at the museum are suggested to save time the day of the tour; however, the tour chairman, Mrs. Boyd Derryberry, said that tickets will also be available at the homes the day of the tour.

The homes open for public viewing to benefit the county's museum offer handsome and interesting variety in construction, decor, landscaping. Open house No. 1 in this parade of homes is that of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynn Feemster, 1802 Ellison Street; maps will be here for those not familiar with the locations of the others on the tour. This is a new home.

Home Tour house No. 2, is that of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Weatherly, one mile south of Haskell and 15th Streets on the west side of the FM 1035, an extension of South Haskell Street. This is another fine new home, and only a week ago landscaping the yard was completed.

Home Tour house No. 3, is that of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wright, 1606 South Haskell Street, the same street as No.

2. Home Tour house No. 4 is that of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hendrix, 1401 West Avenue, a corner site one block north of Wellington High School.

This is an excellent example of what a young couple with talent and hard work can do to one of Wellington's older homes. Many will remember this as the R.F. Curry home.

Part No. 5 on the tour, if you wish, is the Collingsworth County Museum at 1404 15th Street, east of the railroad crossing and west of highway 83.

If the club's pecan supply lasts, these will also be for sale to benefit other civic projects, according to the president, Mrs. Bill Beall.

Mrs. Barton Dies Friday At 89 Years

Mrs. J.H. Barton, 89, died in Collingsworth General Hospital at 1:35 p.m. Friday, October 20. She had been a resident of Thomas Nursing Center 10 years.

Mrs. Barton had lived in Collingsworth County 63 years. The family's first home here was, south of Wellington, then at Cross Roads for 32 years, until 1950, when she and the late Mr. Barton moved to Fresno.

With her husband, she was active in community work, especially during the years at Cross Roads, while their family was growing up. She was pianist for Sunday School and church services a number of years.

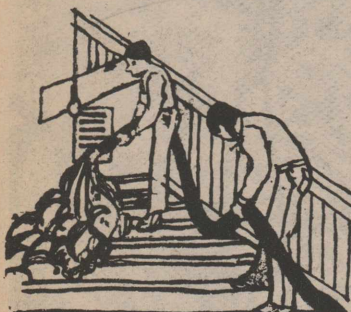

The former Bertha Charlotte Erickson, she was born November 11, 1888, at Coolidge, the oldest child of the late Mr. and Mrs. Erickson.

Both Mrs. Bartons' parents were born in Oslo, Norway. Her father came to the United States as a 17 year-old, and worked in a horseshoe nail factory in New York before coming to Texas. Mrs. Erickson was 14 when she came with an older brother.

They were part of the large immigration from Norway, which began settling in Limestone and other central Texas counties around 100 years ago, and whose influence in that part of the state is still felt.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton were married in 1910 at Coolidge and came here in 1915. She was a nurse at the hospital in Hubbard at the time of their marriage.

Mrs. Barton had been a member of the Lutheran

Clarendon Man Appointed Deputy Sheriff

David W. Lewis began work Thursday, October 12, as a deputy in the sheriff's department, Sheriff John Rainey announced.

Lewis comes here from Clarendon, where he was employed by Greenbelt Electric Co-operative, Inc., since July 1976.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lewis, the 20-year-old deputy has lived at Clarendon all his life and graduated from high school there in 1976.

His wife is the former Jackie Donaldson of Allison, who received her associate of arts degree from Clarendon College. She was employed at Gibson's.

Lewis will begin his work toward his law enforcement officers certification as soon as there is an opening in a school, Sheriff Rainey said.

Lewis fills one of the two vacancies in the sheriff's department brought about by the resignation of Richard Keller and Julian Torrez. Both are now employed by Owens Auto Salvage.

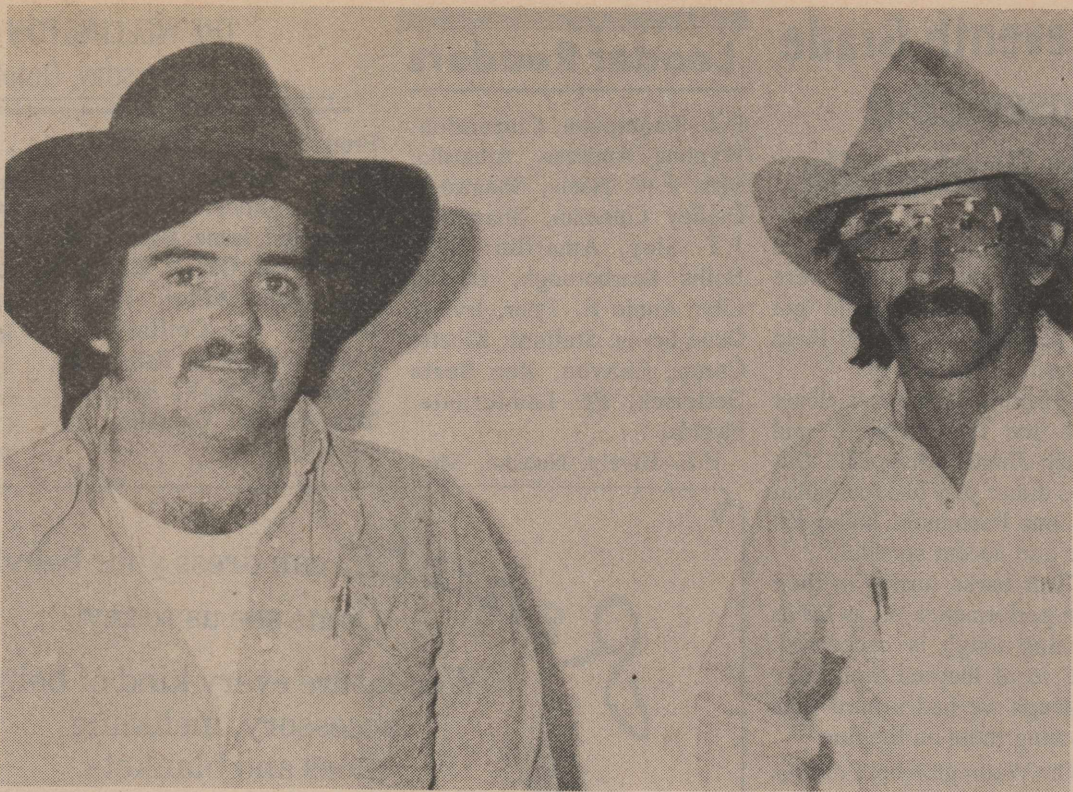

Quail Senior Fish Fry on November 3

Small fry will get a bargain at the big fish fry sponsored by Quail senior class Friday, November 3, at the school cafeteria.

In a revised price list announced this week, youngsters for 12 years down can buy the supper for 20 cents multiplied by their age.

Other prices will be $4.00 for adults and $3.00 for those 12 to 18 years said Donna Langley.

Money will help finance the senior trip.

ROBERT S. BUTLER-TERRY J. OVERMYER

Turkey Rancher Buys Sagebrush Feedlot, Inc.

A young third-generation West Texas rancher is the new owner of Sagebrush Feedlot, Inc.

He is Robert S. Butler, who purchased it from a group of area owners, with John E. Holton as president. The purchase price was given as $150,000.

Several years ago Butler bought the Badger Nest and House Top tracts of the Mill Iron Ranch near Estelline. Two years ago he bought his headquarters ranch at Turkey, where he and his wife, Ginny, live. He operates these properties as the LeSage Ranch, a family name.

Sagebrush Feedlot will continue under this name, and for the present Butler will use it for his own cattle feeding operation, keeping from 1,000 to 1,500 head of steers here. They will be moved in as soon as repair work is completed.

There will be no custom feeding at present, but the new owner said he is considering this as a future operation. In addition, Sagebrush will be the site of a registered Brangus, Registered Angus performance test. Between 60 and 70 bulls will be placed on feed at the lot for a 60 day period, then returned to range conditions. He is using the performance set up by the Angus Association.

Butler said that at present he will bring in feed, although he prefers to buy it locally if it is available. Foreman of the Sagebrush Feedlot will be Terry J. Overmyer, now with the Turkey ranches.

Included in the purchase was approximately 85 acres of land, with all existing facilities, including the lots, mill, office and equipment. Sagebrush was established by Hubert Bearden and John R. Henard, Jr. Later Henard sold his interest in the business, and the ownership corporation was set up.

In addition to registered cattle, Butler also raises registered Paint, Appaloosa and Quarterhorses. He has shown these in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico, and exhibited the high point Appaloosa filly for the Golden Spread Appaloosa club.

Born in Dallas, Butler spent his childhood at Trinidad, Colorado, where his great grandfather established a ranch.

His grandparents were prominent ranchers at Graham where his grandmother, Mrs. Julia LeSage still lives.

Butler is a graduate of Beverly Hills, Calif., high school, attended El Camino Junior College and was a business and marketing major at the University of Southern California. Ginny Butler is from Long Beach.

The Turkey ranch and Sagebrush Feedlot will be separate operations.

1st Methodist Church History Announced

The story of Methodism in Wellington will be told in a history to be published by the church in late fall.

Titled "The History of the First United Methodist Church, Wellington, Texas, 1890-1976, it has a December 1 publication date, just in time for Christmas giving.

Mrs. L.C. Hill and Mrs. Bob McAlister are the editors, and various members of the church have compiled the history. Each chapter was written by a different person.

Orders are now being accepted at the church office and all proceeds will go to the building fund, said Mrs. McAlister.

This will be a hardcover book of 260 pages and illustrated with photographs. There is a full-name index.

The price is $25 per copy.

Among the chapters included are: the First 50 years, the World War II Era, the 1960's and 1970's, a chapter each covering the Sunday School, youth activities, women's work and the choir and music program.

There is a complete membership list that begins with 1926.

The book will be printed by The Bookbinder, Ada, Oklahoma, and copy was delivered Monday, October 23.

Adult Basic Education Begins

Adult Basic Education classes will start Tuesday, October 31, at 7:00 p.m. at Wellington High School, according to Mrs. Barbara Roberson, instructor.

These are free and are sponsored by the Wellington School and Region XVI Education Service Center, Amarillo.

Those who pass the course will receive a High School Equivalency Diploma.

Instruction will be given in reading, writing, English, arithmetic, science, English speaking as a second language, government and high school equivalency.

"This program is designed to improve a person's ability to secure employment, qualify for a job promotion, achieve a certificate of high school equivalency and to become a more efficient and active citizen," said Mrs. Roberson.

Former Residents Buy Cafe

A former county couple, residents of California 20 years, has returned to Wellington to make their home and to enter business.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Roberson, who bought Carroll's restaurant. It is their two daughters, Shannon, 19, and Debbie 18, who are responsible for the purchase. They got jobs at Carroll's two days after the family came home, and the sale followed. The family lived at Fresno, Calif., 15 years, and at Selma, a suburb.

The former Pat Lee, Mrs. Roberson is the daughter of Raymond Lee. She worked for Roberson, who lived with his family on the P.E. Starr farm at Lutie for a time, retired after 20 years with Ranchers Cotton Oil, Fresno.

Internal Revenue in Calif

Both had wanted to return to Wellington. Shannon and Debbie are graduates of Selma High School, were 4-year FFA students and exhibited calves and pigs at area fairs.

The family belonged to Selma Nazarene Church.

"We always wanted to come back and thought this was the perfect time," says Pat Roberson.

Dan Henard Re-elected SCD Director

With eight votes cast, Dan Henard, Jr., was re-elected a director from Zone 5, Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District Saturday, October 14.

This zone covers most of the county north of Salt Fork River and east of Highway US 83.

Henard was first appointed to fill an unexpired term, and is beginning his second elective term according to Tommy Powell, Soil Conservation Service conservationist. SCD director terms run for 5 years.

In the regular Salt Fork directors meeting Tuesday, Oct. 17, Doug Coleman of Dozier was elected chairman for the coming year, succeeding Johnny Carson of Quail. Henard was named vice-chairman and Earl Patterson of Wellington secretary. John Brim of Wellington is the fifth member.

A TAXPAYER'S BILL OF RIGHTS IS PAST DUE

Bill Clements believes we still have a chance to preserve our future by establishing constitutional protection against excessive taxation and runaway government spending.

Bill Clements believes the people of Texas should have the power necessary to ratify or reject tax policies made by legislators.

To establish this power (of the people), Bill Clements will introduce an amendment to the Texas Constitution that would give the people of Texas this right.

Bill Clements' "Taxpayers' Bill of Rights" would:

- Give Texans the right of initiative and referendum, a phrase that means we, the people, have a right to vote on the taxes to be levied on us.
- Place a ban on corporate or personal income tax in Texas.
- Require a two-thirds record vote of both houses of the legislature to pass a tax bill.
- Allow local taxpayers to call an election to ratify or reject a tax increase created by a local governmental unit.

Bill Clements believes in Texas and the people of Texas.

Bill Clements thinks that elected officials must work for the people and represent them properly.

County Board Postpones Quail Petition Decision

Collingsworth County School Board at a hearing Tuesday, October 24, postponed until November 8, a decision on a petition to detach from Quail Independent School District and annex to Wellington an area of land whose valuations total approximately 61% of the district's tax valuations.

And in another area of the Quail School controversy state District Judge Grainger McIlhane on Friday, October 20 postponed handing down any decision on petitions for summary judgement in the Quail School bond election suit. McIlhane said he would give both sides an opportunity to present further briefs before he made any decision. He did not suggest a date on which he might make his decision, although he said he would give attorneys three or four weeks to get additional written arguments to him.

Both Quail School District and the taxpayer group which filed the suit had petitioned the judge for a summary judgement in their favor. A summary judgement can be issued when there is no dispute on the facts, and when the questions to be answered are points of law. If the judge issues a summary judgement, there will be no trial of the suit.

At the county school board meeting Carl Wischkaemper represented the petitioners, and Donald Langley and Pat O'Hair represented Quail School.

Wischkaemper said that approximately 70% of the qualified voters in the area requesting detachment had signed the petition, and he said that the purpose of their petition was "better education for less waste of taxpayers money."

Wischkaemper argued that under the Texas Education Code, the petitioners think the board is required to accept their petition if the petition meets all legal requirements.

Langley replied on behalf of the Quail school board that they thought Quail was "doing an adequate job of educating our children." Langley argued that the law gives the county board the option of accepting or rejecting the petition, even though it may be a legal petition.

O'Hair listed several complaints some Quail district residents have against having part of the district detached and annexed to Wellington. "Wellington won't accept any of our indebtedness, but we will have to accept the vast amount Wellington owes," he said. "And I wonder how they are fixed for storm refuge. I understand Quail does have plans."

"Our country kids might get a sophisticated course in vandalism if they were brought in here," O'Hair said. In conclusion O'Hair said, "We don't want to be treated like a conquered land. I graduated from Wellington High School and they can run it any way they want to, but I don't want any part of it."

The board voted unanimously to study the matter further and meet again on November 8, at 1 p.m. in the district court room, Collingsworth County courthouse, to make their decision. Board members present for the hearing were president Z.J. Neeley, Johnny Carson, Sam Carter and Walter Camp. Tom Cunningham was absent.

CORRECTION

Last week's recap on the Quail School controversy listed the vote in last year's bond election incorrectly. The correct vote was 98-81 for the election, not 98-91.

Wheeler at Training School

Terry Wheeler, of Wellington, customer service specialist for General Telephone, recently attended an 8-1/2 day training school at the company's training center in Irving. The course, Key System Installation, is designed to give employees up-to-date training in installation, clearing of service problems and modification of an electronic telephone system used by some businesses for interoffice communications as well as its regular local and toll business.

VFW Members to District Meet

Members of Glynn Moore Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, are urged to attend the District 13 VFW convention in Canyon Saturday and Sunday, November 4 and 5, if at all possible, Commander Tony Stephens has announced.

"Besides enjoying a good meal and visiting with some very nice people, you can participate in the business meeting which determine how our district will be operated," he said.

This meeting was originally scheduled to be held at Dimmitt.

Seventh Grade Loses 28-0 To Panhandle

Wellington 7th grade played good football, but they were outsize and Panhandle got the score 28-0 at Powell Field Thursday, October 19.

"I felt the game was closer than the final score," said Coach Jimmy Chappell. Our boys didn't play bad football at all, but Panhandle had good size and decent speed."

"Our backs turned in their best performance yet as far as running tough is concerned. The team blocked well, too, although we had a hard time blocking them on the line."

The Wellington boys did not have good field position the entire game, Panhandle, did most of its scoring on first possession of the ball.

Panhandle scored twice in each half, and on the last touchdown, Wellington stopped the attempt at second point conversion.

The game ended with Wellington on the Panhandle 25 yard line and this was the deepest penetration they had made.

Smoke detectors are recommended for each level of the home, says Linda McCormack, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service

A Man Who Understands Agriculture...

AND AGRICULTURE'S BIG BUSINESS IN THE 66TH DISTRICT

AGRICULTURE IS A $250 MILLION PER YEAR BUSINESS IN OUR DISTRICT!

Since $20.5 MILLION is pumped into COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY each year from agricultural sales, and since our county's economy is primarily based on agriculture, WE NEED A REPRESENTATIVE WHO UNDERSTANDS AGRICULTURE.

WE NEED FOSTER WHALEY

FOSTER WHALEY:

- ★ Served as county agricultural agent for 27 1/2 years.
- ★ Recognized as one of the top 10 agricultural agents in the entire nation.
- ★ Pioneered the principle of hedging cattle.
- ★ Helped organize the Texas Cattle Feeder's Association.
- ★ Has farmed and ranched most of his life.
- ★ Knows and understands agriculture and that's good news for our district!

FOSTER WHALEY WILL:

- ★ Help keep Texas' taxes among the lowest in the nation.
- ★ Work to prevent foreign buy-outs of our farmlands.
- ★ Work for increased efficiency.
- ★ Work HARD for our district.

We need a Representative with this background, experience, and philosophy.

Wellington Lions to Hold Blind-Made Products Sale

Wellington Lions Club will sponsor its annual broom sale Saturday, October 28, featuring Texas blind-made products. Sale hours will be 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The sale will be on the west side of the court house square, said Marshall Peters, president.

This is a joint venture of the club and the Caravan Sales for the Blind.

The full line of blind-made products will be offered, including brooms, mops, brushes, commercial brooms and mops, kitchen textiles, speciality items and outdoor items. Altogether over 50 items will be offered.

For more than two decades, the Lighthouses for the Blind in Texas have joined Caravan Sales to offer these products, all made to help the blind, deaf-blind and multi-handicapped blind help themselves.

The products are made in the Lighthouse for the Blind in major Texas cities. Those nearest to Wellington are Wichita Falls and Lubbock.

Peters explained that Lighthouses employ blind deaf-blind and multi-handicapped individuals who are unable to find work elsewhere. In addition to employment, the Lighthouses offer vocational evaluation, vocational training, social services, counseling and recreational events for the elderly and homebound blind.

Vocational training enables many blind adults, when skills are mastered, to be placed in competitive industry vocational evaluation, using a battery of psychometric and dexterity tests, gives the client and his counselor at the Lighthouse a good idea where his interest and talents lie to determine vocational goals.

Social services offered by Lighthouses are many. They range from dental education for some to family and job counseling, referral services and leisure programs.

For adults who only recently lost their vision, home living instructions or "adjustment blindness" are important services. Such skills as cooking and mobility training are covered in this area.

"These are some of the reasons we urge you to support the Lions Club blind-made products sale Saturday," said Peters.

Mrs. Bryan Denley visited Wednesday to Friday in Amarillo with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cameron, Bryan and Darrin.

Fire Damages Three Vehicles During Week

Fire damaged three vehicles during the last week as they were in operation in and near Wellington.

Damage was estimated at between $1,000 and $1,500 to the pickup belonging to Teddy Martin, in an electrical fire under the dash, according to Delmer Turner, Fire Department spokesman.

Martin was driving the pickup 7 miles south of town on Highway 83 when he discovered the blaze.

Backfire and an overflowing carburetor damaged the engine of the car driven by Mrs. Jerry Lee at Haskell and 15th Streets. She was able to get out of the car and was uninjured in the blaze.

Damage was estimated at between $400 and $600,

Pictures of Early Homes Sought

In conjunction with the 1924 Study Club home tour Sunday, October 29, Collingsworth County Historical Museum is planning a special exhibit.

For this, the museum is seeking the loan of pictures or paintings of early homes of the county, said Mrs. Clyde Drake, director.

"We feel there are pictures of these homes that we do not know about, and we would like to use them for this occasion," she said.

In addition, the museum is planning a display of festive tables then and now, showing table settings of an earlier era and at present.

Members of the 1954 Study Club will assist with this special display at the museum.

Turner said.

The third blaze was under the hood of the car belonging to Cecil Duke Saturday night about 8:30 p.m. This occurred at Pic and Save Grocery and damage was estimated at between $50 and $100, Turner said.

Wellington volunteer fire department made runs to all three blazes.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Vaughan Honored on 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Vaughan were honored with a dinner on their fiftieth wedding anniversary at the Cherokee Inn Restaurant Saturday evening, October 21.

Hostesses for the social were their two nieces, Mrs. Lloyd Willis of Lubbock and Mrs. Austia Bear of Denver, Colo.

Arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums used to decorate the tables, and the two-tiered anniversary cake was accented with wedding bells and Maline with orange pearls. Dividing the layers were the numerals "50th".

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan are long-time residents of the county.

Terri Shadid, J.D. Evans, Jr., Marry in Home Ceremony

Miss Terri Ann Shadid and J.D. Evans, Jr., were married on Saturday, October 14, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shadid of Memphis.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Evans, Sr., of Memphis. The bride is also the niece of George Shadid, Miss Marie Shadid and Miss Rose Shadid of Wellington.

The ceremony was read by the Reverend Ken Metzger, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Memphis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of chiffon, printed in autumn shades with wine and beige predominant. She also wore an arrangement of baby's breath in her hair and her bouquet was a white orchid surrounded with white carnations.

She was attended by Miss Pam Penny, maid of honor. Her street-length chiffon dress was in fall colors and her and Orville Vaughan were married October 21, 1928, in Hamlin. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Driskill, and he is the son of Mrs. W.F. Vaughan of Wellington and the Late Mr. Vaughan. He graduated from Dodson High School and she from Hamlin Nazarene Academy.

They farmed and ranched in the Dodson area until November 1977, when they retired and moved to Wellington, making their home at 1209 Floydada Street.

Over a long period of time both were involved in soil conservation work in Salt Fork Soil Conservation District.

Twice he was chosen the Outstanding Conservation

Farmer and she was honored one year as Conservation Homemaker in Region One, Save the Soil and Save Texas Awards Program.

First of the honors after their marriage came in the early 1930's, when Mrs. Vaughan won the Atwater-Kent vocal addition for this part of Texas and participated in the state auditions at Dallas.

Vaughan has served one term as Commissioner of Precinct One.

Both are active in First United Methodist Church singing in the chancel choir, of which she was assistant director. They sponsored the youth group, MYF, for a number of years and she directed the youth choir 8 years.

Only members of the immediate family were present for the anniversary dinner, including Mrs. W.F. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Driskill of Seminole, Elmer Driskill of Denver, Colorado, Mrs. Eda Wendel of Stockton, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Willis of Lubbock, Mrs. Austia Jean Bear and son, Bobby of Denver, Colo., and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan.

Visiting Mrs. W.F. Vaughan recently was a friend, Mrs. Archie Brewer of Blair, Okla., and her niece, Mrs. Ray King of Guymon, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Brinkley visited last week with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Floyd and two daughters in Houston.

MRS. EMMA LOWE

Mrs. M.J. Lowe Honored at Dinner on 90th Birthday

The family of Mrs. Emma Lowe gathered to celebrate her 91st birthday at a dinner Sunday, October 22, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rebbie Snider.

Mrs. Lowe's birthday is on October 26, but the group celebrated on the day when most could attend.

Children present for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lowe, Miss Janie Lowe and Mr. and Mrs. George Barth of Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brownlee of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Liner of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. J.Y. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lowe and Mrs. Snider.

A 54-year resident of the county, Mrs. Lowe and her family lived in the Lillie community from 1928 until 1951, when they moved into Wellington. Throughout her life, she devoted herself to her family and to her church. She belonged to Lillie Baptist Church during here years there, and after coming to Wellington became a charter member of the Faith Baptist Church.

Mrs. Lowe, who lives at Thomas Nursing Center, is the former Emma Miller, daughter of W.C. and Jeannie Long Miller, and was born at Montague, October 26, 1887. Her early years were spent there, but later the family lived at Glen Rose, where she was married to the late M.J.

Mrs. Phil Cates Guest Speaker At 1924 Study Club Thursday

A special approach on American Heritage-past, present, future-was emphasized with a guest speaker for members and guests of 1924 Study Club on October 19. Hostess at the Heritage Room was Mrs. Sandy Covey.

Mrs. Nancy Cates of Shamrock, Top of Texas District board member, spoke on "Federation's Role in our Enterprise Economy" (FREE). Realizing that the general public needs to know more about our American business system and how it relates to our ways of life, the General Federation of Women's Clubs has as a new project on the American enterprise economy, which GFWC has in association with the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research. AEI was established in 1943 and will currently have editorials made available through GFWC affiliate clubs. In Texas and in Wellington, this means members of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

Recently Mrs. Cates and Mrs. Sims represented the Panhandle area at a seminar in Austin sponsored by Institute for Constructive Capitalism and Texas Federation of Women's Club.

Following Mrs. Cates presentation, the 1924 Study Club president, Mrs. Beall, announced that the tape made that day is to be used in the Free Enterprise classes in Wellington High School and will also be available for programs to clubs.

Lowe in 1906.

Mrs. Lowe has 9 children: Rebbie Lowe Snider, Novia Lowe Martin, Jim Lowe and Bill Lowe of Wellington; Leitha Lowe Brownlee and Jack Lowe of Amarillo; Janie Lowe and Irene Lowe Barth of Shamrock; Lorene Lowe Liner of Memphis.

Mrs. Beall presented Mrs. Cates with free enterprise system's scratch pad (several pieces of U.S. currency bound together in notepad form.)

Among the guests were several former presidents of Wellington Business & Professional Women's Club, celebrating that club's 40th anniversary: Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Bura Handley, Mrs. Dee Coleman, Mrs. Lynn Wright, Mrs. B.M. Sims.

Attending from 1954 Study Club were Mrs. Wright, president, and Mrs. Sam Adams.

New members welcomed to 1924 Study Club were Mrs. Adolf Schmitt and Mrs. David Pruitt. Other members present were Mrs. Chester Fires, Mrs. Boyd Derryberry, Mrs. R.R. Crawley, Mrs. Charles Michael, and Mmes, Covey, Beall and Sims.

MRS. PHIL CATES

Next meeting will be the Federation's special emphasis on crime reduction with Hands Up". Mrs. Derryberry will be hostess on November 2 with Bob Watson of 100th Judicial District Probation Department as program leader.

Golden Anniversary Reception Honors Mr., Mrs. Pete Scott

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Scott were honored on their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a reception given Sunday, October 22, in the Heritage Room. The hosts were their daughter and son, Mrs. Cal Aaron of Burkburnett and David Scott of Amarillo, assisted by granddaughters, Mrs. Debbie Rawlings and Kim Aaron of Burkburnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and their children received the guests, who were registered by a cousin, Angela Watson.

Carrying out the golden anniversary theme, the reception table was laid with a gold cloth and centered with an arrangement of white carnations sprinkled in gold. Crystal appointments were used. Mrs. Bob Watson, a cousin, served the anniversary cake, and Renee Owens, a niece, poured.

Gold cloths covered the gift tables. Visiting, reminiscing and picture-taking filled the afternoon as more than 100 guests called.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott were in the grocery and service station business, Pete Scott and Son, about 25 years, from 1949 until they retired 5 years ago.

They recently completed their new home at 1010 Amarillo Street and have move into it.

They are members of the Church of Christ, and for a number of years Mrs. Scott was active in its work with

MR. AND MRS. PETE SCOTT

Westview Boys Home.

She is a Senior Citizen Volunteer and he recently began work with the organization.

Scott and the former Addie Irene Carter were married October 28, 1928, in Wellington.

The daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carter, she was born at Alto, and with her parents, lived in Burkburnett during its oil boom days. Upon coming to Collingsworth county, the family first lived at Marella, then Wellington.

Wesley O. (Pete) Scott is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carr Scott, who lived here many years before moving to Lubbock. He was born at Vernon, and after the family came here from Floydada, they lived in the Kelly and Wilnolcer communities.

Besides their two children, Mr. and Mrs. Scott have 5 grandchildren: Mrs. Rawlings, Kim and Scott Aaron; Kathy Ann and Ryan Adam Scott.

Mrs. Deger, Melvin Seale Marry in Home Ceremony

Mrs. Oleta Deger and Melvin Seale were married Saturday, October 14, at two-thirty in the afternoon in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deger, 702 South Main, Shamrock. Only family members attended.

The wedding vows were read by the Reverend Darrell Feemster, pastor of First Baptist Church of Samnorwood.

Mrs. Feemster, pianist, presented wedding music and was accompanist as she and Rev. Feemster sang.

Mrs. Deger chose an apricot colored street-length dress with which she wore an orchid corsage.

Afterwards, refreshments were served from a tea table laid with a gold cloth and centered with an arrangement of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, accented with bronze ribbon. Crystal and silver appointments were used. Her granddaughters, Joleta Deger and Mrs. Ricky Gragg presided at the table.

The bride is the former Oleta Worley Deger of 414 South Madden, Shamrock. She is the daughter of Mrs. Annie Worley of Shamrock and the late D.L. Worley.

Mr. Seale is Collingsworth County Commissioner for Precinct Two and has farming interests north of Wellington. His parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Seale.

Both are members of pioneer families and grew up within only a few miles of each other. He lives in the Seale community, named for his family, and for many years she lived in the Lutie and Samnorwood area.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Doug Seale and son, Spencer, of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Gragg and son, Chad, of Shamrock; the Rev. and Mrs. Feemster; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deger and Joleta of Shamrock.

Brownie Troop GoestoCamp

America has the most beautiful autumns in the world, Brownie Troop 80 can attest.

The girls spent a fun-filled day Saturday, October 14, at Camp Mel Davis near Lefors.

They left Wellington at 8:30 a.m. and returned at 4:30, with a sack lunch to sustain them.

They combined learning skills with hiking, wading, playing games and singing songs.

Their learning skills consisted of tying knots and the proper use of and practicing folding the American flag.

Those enjoying the fall outing were Mrs. Jerry Settle, troop leader, Mrs. Glenn Thomas, assistant leader, and Mrs. Eddie Riley, sponsor, along with Brownies, Soni Clement, Rachelle Ford, D'Nae Keller, Carrie Langford, Shannon Peeks, Lyndy Forrester, Wendy Riley, Shelly Thomas, Rhonda DeVoss, Deone Moore, Dana Isaacs, Valerie Noaks, Jonny Settle and Kim Riley.

Guests were Kristy Settle and Shannon Settle.

Airport Improvement— A Worsening Need

Collingsworth General Hospital has received from the people full support in plans to upgrade facilities and later search for a fourth doctor.

But there is unfinished business in other sectors of the community that require the same work and support.

Wellington lost the opportunity to be the site of an office and distribution facility of a major company because our airport runways are too short to handle small jets, generally called executive jets. This company's personnel includes professional and technical people. Its payroll is considerable.

It would have been a valuable addition to our town, but instead, it is going to one of our neighbors.

The town also lost the opportunity for another office of the same calibre which would have several employees, for the same reason—inadequate airport runways.

The funding application of Southwestern Rail Products, Inc., steel mill is progressing through the required channels and action on it is due within a few months. This company relies heavily on plane travel and its need will increase as work on the steel mill progresses.

More Wellington business and professional are using private plane travel than is generally suspected—because they must drive to Childress if they are to be picked up by the small jets, and some are doing this.

These examples underscore the need for a 4,000 foot runway (ours is 2,500). The city has taken positive action toward airport improvement through the Federal Aviation Administration, which has shown interest. Funding complete renovation is at least two years away, FAA tells the city, although funds in amounts of possibly $75,000 sometimes become available for partial updating.

The city needs our backing in its efforts at airport improvement. Several years ago we lost one opportunity to get 90 percent funding for airport improvement. We can ill afford to lose another.

All of us must pour some of the concern into the economic health of our town that we exhibited in the problems of our health care facility.

Other Editors Say ...

Quail Season

Members of the Commissioner's Court have got to be patient - much more so than I would ever be.

For many years Childress County, through action by the court, has allowed members of the Parks and Wildlife to set the various seasons for hunting.

Most of us think that P&W has been opening the Quail season too early.

In fact, because of that, many of the Courts have taken over the setting of the seasons which they have a right to do.

This year, for example, the quail hunting season in Childress County will open October 28.

Because there are still many young quail and they will not be grown by this early date, I feel that the Court must do something by next year.

Of course, landowners can set their own "seasons" on their own land, if they so wish.

All of the surrounding counties have the season opening about a month later.

That makes it rough on this county.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Texas and neighboring states will go to court to challenge key gas pricing provisions of the new federal energy act.

Attorney General John Hill said the states which produce 85 per cent of the nation's gas will contest the federal government's authority to regulate the price of natural gas produced and sold solely within a state.

He said he is especially confident he can win a suit to exclude state-owned lands from pricing coverage by the bill, since Texas reserved its public lands when it entered the union.

Hill said millions of dollars are at stake in royalty from oil produced on the state lands and earmarked for education.

The attorney general and Democratic gubernatorial nominee announced his decision immediately after the bill landed on President Carter's desk.

He said he is also considering an attack on mandatory allocation provisions of the energy act which give the federal government power to move Texas natural gas to other states in times of shortage.

Hill emphasized that the suit does not attempt to invalidate the entire act, some provisions of which he applauded.

He joined in Dallas last week with representatives of the attorney general of Oklahoma and Louisiana to map a joint three-state court case.

Hill said the pricing authority controversy should be settled in the U.S. Supreme Court.

Veto Granted

The federal government has given Texas veto power over storage of nuclear wastes within the state.

Department of Energy Secretary James R. Schlesinger offered assurances no nuclear waste geologic disposal facility will be located within the state without prior Texas concurrence.

Schlesinger said no specific proposal yet has been made for a facility in Texas, although sites in Randall County and Anderson County are under consideration.

Hearings were held in El Paso, Midland-Odessa and Amarillo last summer on a proposed disposal site near Carlsbad, N.M., 25 miles from the Texas border.

Allowable Set

The Texas Railroad Commission set the statewide Texas oil production allowable for November at 100 per cent of market demand with the exception of 11 fields.

November will be the 21st straight month the allowable has been set at the maximum market factor and the 77th 100 per cent allowable since April 1972.

The allowable is estimated to average 3,363,260 barrels daily with actual production at 2,829,000 a day.

Commissioner John Poerner, in a statement issued at the monthly proration hearing, said the new federal energy act is "ill conceived and both administratively and financially burdensome to Texans."

Checks To Cities

State Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totalling $23.3 million to Texas cities as their October share of the local option one per cent sales tax.

The rebates raised the cities' total for the year to $329.9 million, $41.5 million over the same period last year.

DRUM CORPS

Wellington School has had a band program for 50 years, but only once during those years did it have a drum corps. The young group posed for this photograph in 1941. Back row, from left, are I.D. Russell, Walter Johnson, Shirley Easter, Betty Alexander, Billye Tenison, Ramona Gunstenson, Bobbie Jean Templeton, Barbara Wilkins and Tommie Ann Campbell. Middle row: Johnnie Marie Wallace, Marjorie Roberson, Norma Joyce Brock, Hattie Mae Kersten, R.O. Sisk, Billy Frank King, Shirley Williams, Helen Holder, Yvette Schaded, and Rheba Fain. Bottom row: Diane Wells, unidentified, Earlene Hankins, Louie Bean, Jerry D. Bollen, Richard Driskill, Dan Trew, unidentified, and Clifton Bradford.

Courts Speak

The Court of Criminal Appeals held the 120-day time limit under the new speedy trial act does not apply to cases filed before July 1.

In other action, the court: —Reversed a 1975 Dallas murder conviction where the grand jury foreman failed to inform defense attorneys during jury selection that he knew members of the victim's family.

—Held unconstitutional a San Antonio ordinance forbidding nightclub employees from mingling with customers.

—Threw out the conviction of a Lubbock man for burglary after the statute of limitations ran out.

The Supreme Court, in other cases: —Ordered Comptroller

Bob Bullock to refund $79,617 in protested sales taxes to Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, collected on installation of shock absorbers where the total charge included costs of parts and labor.

—Held Brazoria County must pay $65,000 damages to a man struck by a police patrol car.

AG Opinions

Attorney General John Hill held names of police officers and dispositions of complaints against them are public information in cases where formal complaints are filed with a police department's internal affairs division.

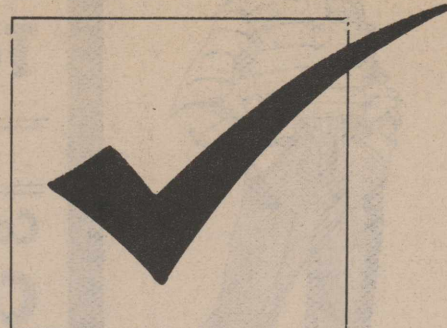

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: Where the city and county of Midland agree on paramount public use of a city street right of way needed for courthouse expansion and, if the exchange is made for an adequate consideration or to accomplish a proper public purpose, a transfer of the property to the county without an election probably would be upheld by courts.

VOTE YES

TAX RELIEF FOR TEXANS!

If the Tax Relief Amendment is approved by voters November 7, the Texas Constitution will be amended immediately to incorporate some provisions with other provisions to be put into effect by the Legislature.

Provisions of the amendment include:

1. Homestead exemption from school taxes of $5,000.
 2. Exemption for elderly and disabled from school taxes up to $10,000.
 3. Exemption on household goods and personal effects.
 4. Limiting the value of agricultural land (including forest land) to productive value, rather than speculative value.
 5. Notice to property owner of re-evaluation of his property, including effect on his taxes.
 6. Public notice and hearing on any proposed tax increase.
 7. Prohibiting statewide appraisal of property for tax purposes.
 8. Prohibiting increased state spending above estimated growth of economy, except in emergencies.
- *Effective immediately.

(IMPORTANT: The Legislature has appropriated $450 million to reimburse school districts for all or part of revenue lost due to homestead and agricultural use reduction.)

REMEMBER, A "NO" VOTE ON THIS AMENDMENT WILL TELL LEGISLATORS THAT TEXANS ARE NOT CONCERNED ABOUT SPENDING AND TAXATION.

Darla Anderson and Mort Sain Marry in Church Ceremony Sunday

Darla Renee Anderson and Mort Dean Sain were married in the sanctuary of the Church of Christ Sunday October 22, in a ceremony performed by the bride's father, Tommy Eugene Anderson. The wedding took place at three in the afternoon.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, 1200 Bowie Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Sain of Dodson.

Wedding music was taped earlier by members of the Abilene Christian University a capella choir. Afterwards, the bride and her twin sister, Mrs. Gregory McCartney of Hereford, sang a duet.

Mr. Anderson also gave his daughter in marriage.

She wore a formal gown of white satin, designed with a low rounded neckline outlined in seed pearls. A band of lace circled the natural waistline and extended in two bands down the skirt. Lace also accented the full sleeves which were gathered into close-fitting cuffs.

Her double veil, trimmed in matching lace, fell from a headpiece embroidered with seed pearls and gold bugle beads. She carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations, with roses which were presented to the couple's mothers.

Mrs. McCartney was her sister's matron of honor. Her dress was the one worn by her twin at her wedding in late May, a floor-length blue crepe designed with low neckline, short puffed sleeves and a panel of blue lace extending down the front. A deep ruffle edged the skirt. She carried a single blue carnation tied with white streamers.

Bill Talley of Hedley, cousin of the bridegroom, was the best man, and ushers were Terry Anderson of Ft. Worth and Gregory McCartney, of Hereford, the bride's brother and brother-in-law.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson honored the couple with a reception in the club room of Bura Handley Community Center.

The bride's table was laid with a floor-length white net cloth over white linen, with white flowers extending along the table's edge. The bride's bouquet was the centerpiece and crystal and silver appointments were used.

Leta Jennings and Monica Anderson of Lubbock served the guests and Robin Pratt of Red Oak was at the register.

Since returning from their wedding trip to Lake Lugert, the couple is at home in Wellington.

The bride was graduated from Wellington High School this spring and was a student in Abilene Christian University at the time of her marriage. The bridegroom also attended Wellington schools and is presently employed at Clark Chevrolet.

Among the out of county wedding guests were Pauline Pratt of Ferris; Sonia Pratt, Jody Pratt, Roy Pratt and Robin Pratt of Red Oak; Lynn and Tina Allen of Red Oak; Marshall Anderson, Rubye Anderson, Monica Anderson, Bryan Anderson and Wesley Anderson of Lubbock;

Archie and Leta Sartin of El Frieda, Arizona; Leta Jennings of Lubbock; Greg and Starla McCartney of Hereford and Terry Anderson of Ft. Worth; also

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Talley of Hedley; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Talley, Sr., and Wilson and Janice of Duke, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Sain and family from Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Williams, Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson and Bret of Amarillo;

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Sain and Jason of Sweetwater, Mrs. W.M. Davis and Mrs. Gene Hughes of Memphis; Mr. and

Mrs. Carl Whorton and Ricky of Quanah;

May Provence and Nan Gatlin of Muleshoe; Mrs. Edith Hill of Claude; Mrs. Celeste McClure of Wichita Falls; Bill Dennis and Denise of Stamford; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Adams, Mrs. Frances Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. James Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baker and Christie; all of Amarillo;

W.T. Sullivan, Claude; Mr. and Mrs. O.K. Simmons of Gould; Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis of Memphis; Mrs. LaJuanda Ressel of Dickens.

Mrs. Vaughan Hosts Club

The Good Neighbor Club met in the home of Mrs. Coy Vaughan Friday, October 29 at 2:30 p.m.

The president, Mrs. Mary Karnes, called the meeting to order and the hostess gave the opening prayer. Roll call was answered with a scripture verse.

During the business meeting the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Charles Cason; vice president, Mrs. L.W. Wells; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch; (re-elected) reporter, Mrs. Earl Alexander.

The group voted to contribute $25 to the Collingsworth County Library and plans were discussed for the annual Thanksgiving supper, which will be held November 17 at the Heritage Room.

Attending were Mrs. Cason, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Ella Stephenson, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Karnes and Mrs. Barjenbruch.

Mrs. Edna Maxwell Celebrates Ninty-Sixth Birthday Sunday

Mrs. Edna Maxwell, a Collingsworth County resident 60 years, celebrated her 96th birthday in the home of a son, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell and Harold Maxwell Sunday, October 22.

Three other children and a number of grandchildren joined her at the family dinner and celebration.

The former Edna Berry, Mrs. Maxwell is a native Texan, having been born near Breckenridge in 1882, six years after Stephens County was organized.

Before the turn of the century, she had moved with her family to Sulphur, Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, and on March 18, 1900, she was married to Saber Lee Maxwell.

They came to Collingsworth County in 1918, and after a year at Rolla and another at Wellington, Settled in Salt Fork community, where they farmed until his death October 3, 1938. She continued living there about 15 years longer then moved into Wellington.

She now lives in Thomas Nursing Center.

Present for the family dinner were four of her children, Mrs. Bessie Cook of Lufkin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Wright of Amarillo, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell.

Personal

Guests in the home of George, Marie and Rose Shadid Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Shadid and Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Evans, Jr., of Memphis. Other relatives coming in the afternoon from Altus were Hoyt Shadid, Ned

Her other daughter, Mrs. Tula Bolton of Mangum, Okla., could not attend.

Grandchildren and great grandchildren present were Mrs. Lester Paige (Edna Wright) of Ft. Worth; Mrs. Anita Maxwell Baker of Ft. Worth, and the children of the Ray Maxwells: Mrs. Lee Joiner, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Maxwell and Summer, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maxwell, Gerold and Melissa, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bryan, Mrs. Mike Maxwell, Michelle and Serena, all of Amarillo; and Harold Maxwell, Wellington.

Thursday, October 26, 1978

10

Texans will vote on nine proposed constitutional amendments in the general election on November 7.

Below is a continuation of a series of "pro" and "con" arguments on each of the proposed constitutional amendments. The arguments were prepared by the Texas Legislative Council which is composed of 5 senators, 10 state representatives, the speaker of the house and the lieutenant governor.

Listed below are the arguments on amendments four through six.

AMENDMENT NO. 4—S.J.R. NO. 53

[Proposing an amendment to Article VIII, Section 2, Subsection (a), of the Texas Constitution to authorize the legislature to exempt from taxation solar or wind-powered energy devices]

For:

1. As traditional energy sources are depleted, it becomes more important to exploit alternative energy sources. Wind and solar energy are two of the more promising alternative sources, and tax exemption for solar and wind-powered energy devices is an effective method of encouraging private investment in them.

2.

The proposed amendment is permissive, and its scope must be determined by the legislature. If the legislature adopts the exemption, it may revoke or restrict it whenever it becomes desirable to do so.

Against:

Schools, cities, and other local governments depend primarily, if not exclusively, on property taxes to finance their operations and exemptions diminish their ability to raise revenue. The proposed amendment would authorize the state to make the decision to exempt the property. The state would suffer no loss of revenue as would local governments, whose consent is not required by the amendment.

2.

The exemption that the proposed amendment would authorize, like any other exemption, would not reduce taxes, but would shift those taxes to other taxpayers, thus establishing an invisible subsidy.

AMENDMENT NO. 5—H.J.R. NO. 37

[Proposing amendments to Article V, Sections 16 and 19, of the Texas Constitution to expand the jurisdiction of justices of the peace in civil cases]

For:

The $200 limit on the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace was adopted a hundred years ago. Inflation and economic conditions have changed so greatly since then that civil matters intended by the constitution for the justice court are no longer within the jurisdiction of the justice of the peace. Concurrent jurisdiction for the justice court and the county court for matters presently within the exclusive jurisdiction of the county court would help to relieve crowded county court dockets.

Without a constitutional amendment to raise the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace, the legislature may not expand the jurisdiction of the small claims court to civil matters in which the amount in controversy is greater than $200, so long as the justice of the peace is judge of the small claims court. There is a need for a simple and economic procedure for quickly settling small cases involving more than $200 that do not justify expensive litigation and attorney fees.

Against:

Originally the office of the justice of the peace existed to maintain order, perform administrative functions, and dispense local justice to a sparse population under frontier conditions where lawyers were scarce. The jurisdiction of the justice of the peace should not be enlarged at a time when many bar associations and students of the judiciary feel that the justice court is an untrained court that has outlived its usefulness and should be replaced with a court better able to deal with today's complicated legal disputes.

Expansion of the present small claims court in Texas, using the justice of the peace for the judge, may not provide the best real justice for persons with small claims. An important requirement of a successful small claims courts, where the parties do not have lawyer representation, is a competent judge with the legal training, experience, and a sense of justice to develop a case for both parties as well as to render a decision.

AMENDMENT NO. 6—S.J.R. NO. 45

[Proposing an amendment to Article V, Section 6, of the Texas Constitution to authorize the legislature to increase the number of associate justices on a court of civil appeals and permit a court of civil appeals to sit in sections]

For:

It is more practical to increase the size of existing courts of civil appeals to meet the demands of increasing population and legal business than to create additional courts which require separate personnel and facilities. During the last several years, the number of cases filed, disposed, and pending in the courts of civil appeals has increased sharply.

The present intermediate court system lacks the flexibility needed to shift judicial manpower as the volume of litigation fluctuates within a court of civil appeals district and also to equalize the case load between courts of civil appeals in the most efficient and just manner. At least twice as many cases are filed in some courts of civil appeals as in others and, while the supreme court presently transfers cases between the courts, many litigants prefer to have their cases decided in their own local court of civil appeals.

Against:

There is little need to increase the size of a court of civil appeals or temporarily assign active or retired judges to a court of civil appeals because the supreme court already has the power to equalize the dockets of the different courts by the assignment of cases.

A large appellate court, especially one composed of an even number of members, is not considered an optimum size and may increase the expense of the judiciary to a great extent than it will increase the efficiency of the court. Large courts may create more problems than they solve.

Panhandle Wins 7-6 Over Skyrocket JV

Panhandle Panthers Juniors Varsity scored as the game opened and the Skyrocket JV made its touchdown as play was about to end, but in between, both teams battled back and forth, much of it in mid-field.

An accurate kick after touchdown gave Panhandle the 7-6 victory, Thursday, October 12. The Rockets elected to go for win and carry the ball. They were stopped 6 inches short of the goal line.

Between these two scores, the teams battled back and forth on Powell Field, most of the time in mid-field. Neither was able to threaten.

Panhandle took the first drive downfield and scored on a 55 yard run on the fourth play of the game. They kicked the extra point.

During the remainder of the first half, Wellington did well defensively, but on offense, had trouble moving the ball.

"We weren't executing our blocks like we should have, said Coach Robert Hicks.

The defensive battle continued through the third and into the fourth periods.

With four minutes to go, Rocket Chris Lynch broke off tackle for 40 yards and the Wellington score.

Lynch then attempted to carry the ball across and was stopped.

Wellington had possession twice in the last three minutes of play and were on the Panther 35 when time ran out.

How long can you depend on Lone Star for natural gas service?

☐ 10 Years ☐ 20 Years ☐ 50 Years
☐ More Than 50 Years

"Natural" is the key word in question. Unless regulatory price limitations make the development of new gas fields unprofitable for this area's producers, it will be many years before natural gas supplies run short for our million-plus priority customers.

The good news, however, is that these "natural" reserves can be supplemented with enough synthetic gas to keep Lone Star in the gas business for the next 50 years. And beyond.

Lone Star has weathered too many storms in the last 69 years to shy away from the challenge of the energy future. We know what must be done to meet that challenge, and we'll meet it.

The groundwork is done.

There are excellent reasons for optimism. Foremost of these is the fact that 50% of the known onshore gas reserves in the United States are in areas where Lone Star already has pipeline systems in operation.

The energy outlook becomes even more promising when you consider the enormous, long-term potential of the gas fields under development in Texas' Gulf Coast waters. Lone Star is already buying some offshore gas. And we intend to buy enough of it to satisfy our customers' demand as it becomes available in volumes large enough to be gathered efficiently and economically.

Lone Star's ability to take delivery of new natural gas reserves as they are developed gives us an outstanding opportunity to buy our area's fair share—enough gas to last our customers for many years.

Whether we can take advantage of this opportunity depends mostly on whether we'll be allowed to recover our actual costs on a timely basis.

Without the ability to pay our gas bill, earn a reasonable rate of return on our investments and recover our operating expenses, we will be unable to continue an aggressive supply program in time for it to be really effective.

There is no shortage of natural gas.

There's only a shortage of the low-priced, easily accessible gas that nearly everyone took for granted in years past.

If gas producers are given incentives to continue their risks in exploring for deeper, more inaccessible reserves, there is little reason for our high-priority customers to face natural gas shortages until we're deep into the 21st century.

After that, the future for gas energy still looks good. The technology for gasifying coal is a fact, not some fantasy of the future. And our nation has enormous coal deposits.

Converting it into gas makes sense. Because gas burns clean and doesn't pollute. It also makes economic sense, because this gas can be distributed through the pipeline system we have, and the families who have gas appliances can keep right on using them.

How long can you depend on Lone Star for gas service? We intend to make sure your children's grandchildren can depend on us.

Rockets Roll Over Panhandle 27-6 in District Opener

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, October 26, 1978

11

The Wellington Skyrockets rolled to a easy 27-6 victory over previously undefeated Panhandle in their district 2-A opener at Panhandle Friday, October 20.

David Baumgardner returned the opening kickoff from the 10 to the Rocket 35 and from there Wellington marched 65 yards in 11 plays with Ricky Jones following Erminio Nevarez' trap block in for the score. Baldo Nevarez kick fell wide left and the Rockets were on their way with a 6-0 lead.

In the second quarter, on the Rockets first punt a high snap from center turned the ball over to the Panthers on the Rocket 4 yard line. Panhandle twice ran sophomore fullback Ralph Shemwell inside and the two plays netted three yards. Then Robert Powell came up with two outstanding defensive plays that left Panhandle sitting 1 foot from the goal line after fourth down.

With 19 seconds remaining in the first half the Rockets coughed up a fumble to Panhandle on the Rocket 32. But the Rocket defense came through again, this time in the form of Charles McIntosh and Joe Thomas who sacked Panhandle senior quarterback Chandler Pruitt on first down, and Kevin Hall who intercepted a Pruitt pass on second down to run out the clock.

The Rockets put on an awesome defensive performance that left Panhandle with minus one yards

On the Rockets second possession after the half, James Thomas found Charles McIntosh out front to block for him from their own 24 and broke all the way for a touchdown. But the play was called back on a clipping penalty. (The Rockets racked up 95 yards in penalties during the game for a season total of 516 yards penalized.)

Robert Powell returned the next Panhandle punt with some fancy stepping from midfield to the Panhandle 30. And from the 30 on first down Ricky Jones broke left, then cut right for the Rockets second score. Nevarez kick made it 13-0.

Powell's interception two plays later set up the Rockets next score. The Rockets moved easily from the Panhandle 42 behind the blocking of Charles McIntosh, Terry Manuel, Erminio Nevarez, Joe Thomas, and Richard Garcia, and on second down at the 5 James Thomas followed Manuel's block on sweep left for the score. Carl Taylor passed to Powell for two points to give the Rockets a 21-0 lead.

Midway through the final quarter Kevin Hall stymied a Panhandle threat with a second interception, and followed good downfield blocking to the Panhandle 41. Carl Taylor found Robert Powell open and Powell took the ball down to the 14. At the one yard line Joe Thomas, Erminio Nevarez and Richard Garcia cleared the deck and Taylor took the ball in for the score. Nevarez kick was blocked by Panther Scott Cordell, leaving the Rockets with 27 points on the board.

In the closing minutes, Panhandle quarterback Chandler Pruitt slipped a screen pass to halfback Dan Ray Duncan and Duncan took off for a 71-yard touchdown play. Pruitt's extra point pass fell incomplete with the final score 27-6.

Mrs. J.L. Hays, Church Leader, Dies Monday

Mrs. J.L. Hays, a leader in the women's work of First Baptist Church throughout her long residence in Wellington, died in Wichita Falls General Hospital at 5:15 p.m. Monday, October 23. She entered the hospital Friday night for treatment of a heart condition.

Mrs. Hays, with her husband and their six daughters, came to Wellington in 1929 from Montague County. Her devotion to her religious faith was apparent from the beginning and for many years she was identified with Sunday School and WMU activities. She was also active in Home Demonstration Club work.

Mrs. Hays, the former Virginia Viola Allen, was born December 28, 1891, in Lamar County, the daughter of Charles O. and Martha Mitchell Allen. She grew up in that area and was married to J.L. Hays September 6, 1908, at Mt. Vernon. A Baptist minister, he died April 6, 1940. Before coming here, he had held pastorates in Young and Montague counties, and was at one time a missionary to Young County.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hays were conducted at 3:00 p.m. Wednesday in First Baptist Church. Officiating were Rev. Stanley Hughes, pastor; the Rev. Jack Jordan of Wichita Falls, and a nephew, the Rev. Robert Lawrence of Pampa.

Burial was in the Family plot of Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were grandsons, James Pollard, Mike Pollard, Joe Biter, Vernon Biter, Jimmy Biter, Jerry Hammond, Kim Cvar, Doyle Thornton, Dennis Umfleet.

Surviving Mrs. Hays are her six daughters, Myra Hays and Larlu Hays of Wellington; Merle Hays and Mrs. Virginia Biter of Wichita Falls; Mrs. Jessie Pollard of Odessa and Mrs. Mary Thornton of Pueblo, Colorado; 9 grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren; and one sister-in-law, Mrs. Ida Mattingly of Mt. Vernon.

John Hill calls for state tax freeze

"Our state taxes in Texas are among the lowest in the nation, and I want to keep them there. As I've said many times, I'll veto a tax increase before the ink dries on the bill."

As Attorney General, John Hill proved he could increase the efficiency of his office without any unnecessary budget increases. He absorbed a three-fold increase in his office caseload by hiring top legal talent capable of higher productivity. The result: his staff lawyers doubled their average workload, and the increased court judgments and enforcement of civil penalty laws returned $25 for every $1 of state funds spent on his office.

As Governor, John Hill will insist on this same type of increased productivity for all state agencies. He will institute new controls over federal funds, demand that we follow our "pay-as-you-go" budget policy, and use zero-base budgeting to eliminate unneeded programs before any new programs are added. And he'll block any state tax increase — there won't be any new taxes under John Hill.

1979 Essay Contest Announced by DAR

La Paisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution is sponsoring its annual American History Essay contest for students of the three county schools.

This is part of the national contest, and this year's essay subject is "Travel in the Thirteen Colonies," said Mrs. Billy R. Long, essay contest chairman, and high school instructor.

The deadline for entering the contest on the local level is Wednesday, November 22. All schools are being contacted this week.

Recognition will be given the students at an appreciation tea in February. First and second place winners in each grade will receive medals and a certificate of appreciation will be given each student who writes a theme.

Winning essays will progress forwarded to regional level. The national winner will be published in the DAR magazine.

Entering this contest does not jeopardize a student's Interscholastic League eligibility, Mrs. Long emphasized.

The essay should depict the various ways the colonists travelled, the hazards they encountered and something of the roads, said Mrs. Long.

The length of the essays for 5th and 6th grades should be 300 to 600 words; 7th and 8th grades, 600 to 1,000 words. Every word will be counted.

Essays will be judged on historical accuracy, adherence to subject, originality, interest, neatness, spelling and punctuation, and they must be handwritten in ink. Winning essays will be judged on local, state, divisional and national levels. A bibliography of the materials used must be given.

The title of the essay, contestant's name and full home address, with zip code, name of school, grade and name of sponsoring DAR chapter must be plainly written on the essay. Lack of these items will be a cause of disqualification.

Students wishing additional information should contact Mrs. Long.

Kids Day Held By Methodists

Kid's Day was observed at First United Methodist Church Sunday, October 21, with 41 youngsters in the nursery and elementary departments participating.

During the morning service, the children worked with crafts in their classes. A special cartoon film, Walt Disney's "Reluctant Dragon," was shown and the lunch was served to the boys and girls before they went home.

Mrs. Gary Killian, children's coordinator, headed the Kid's Day plans.

Four teachers carried out the plans, Mrs. Sandy Covery, Mrs. Andy Henard, Mrs. Joel Rainey and Mrs. Glenn Thomas.

Assisting were Mrs. Tom Thomson, Mrs. Bill Spillman, Mrs. Dennis Cudd, Mrs. Nita White and Mrs. Bryan Denley.

John Brims Home From Northwest

Mr. and Mrs. John Brim returned recently from an extended visit to the northwest. They visited their son, Dr. and Mrs. Burl Brim and family in Ashland, Oregon and their granddaughter, Shelly Brim, in Vancouver, Washington.

In Portland, Oregon, they were guests of Mrs. Brim's sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Elmore and Mrs. Lillie Deliff and family.

In Lompoc, California, they visited Mrs. Brim's two other sisters, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Lemmon and Mr. and Mrs. E.R. DeLuche.

Mr. Brim said they traveled 4941 miles.

Dr. Brim teaches in Southern Oregon University at Ashland. He was formerly on the faculty of West Texas State University.

Some people believed it good luck for a white dove to fly over them.

National Senior Citizens Group Endorses Hightower

Washington, D.C. -- The National Alliance of Senior Citizens today endorsed the candidacy of Congressman Jack E. Hightower for re-election to the United States House of Representatives.

In announcing the organization's support, Alliance President, Mrs. Virginia Aubrey, said, "Jack Hightower has served senior America well, working to limit the disastrous ravages of inflation on fixed incomes, to end the terrifying crime against the elderly, and to end the repressive 'earnings limit' against Social Security recipients.

"Congressman Hightower's outstanding score on the Fourth Annual Golden Age Index clearly demonstrates his determination to support those policies in the best interests of older Americans," continued the senior citizens leader.

"Today's double digit inflation is a direct result of outrageously high government deficit spending, and requires tough votes to limit government and new bureaucracy. The Alliance strongly supports Mr. Hightower in the effort to end this terrible enemy of retired persons," said the Alliance President.

"The National Alliance of Senior Citizens is pleased to endorse the candidacy of Mr. Hightower for re-election to Congress, and urges all senior persons to vote on November 7th," concluded Mrs. Aubrey.

John Hill is attacking State Budget waste . . .

"I've already started my search for waste in the state budget. I want to be ready to tackle overspending the minute I take office as Governor in January. My budget office already is paring down big state agency budget requests, to keep spending within available revenues. We'll have to live within our means, because I'll veto any new taxes."

. . . because he knows our taxpayers need relief from inflation.

Halloween Carnival at Samnorwood Saturday

Cinderella's ball will be the theme for the coronation of Samnorwood's Carnival Queens Saturday, October 28, in the annual Halloween festivity.

The coronation will come at the end of the evening-long turkey supper and carnival, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association.

The Turkey supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria, said Mrs. Dale Morris, president. Tickets will be $3.50 for adults; $1.75 for children under 12, while pre-schoolers are free.

Throughout the school, the grades will sponsor various traditional games and contests to provide fun and in the spook house, a bit of fear.

There will be table games and a dart throw. A cake walk will tantalize with it's tasty prizes. Those who consider themselves good at guessing can speculate at the bean jar, and for others there will a milk can throw.

Completely new this year will be the turtle race, starting at 8:00 p.m.

At 8:30, there will be a costume contest, and winners will be named in two divisions, preschoolers, and kindergarten through sixth grade.

All these events will be in the high school.

The elaborate and colorful coronation will start at 9:00 a.m. in the gymnasium.

Two queens will be named, one from grade school, the other from high school. They will be picked from among the princesses nominated by each room, and accompanied by a prince and by a duke and duchess.

Every child in grade school will have a part in the coronation ceremony, said Mrs. Morris.

The two queens will receive their crowns from their escorts.

Grade school candidates with their escorts and in grade school the dukes and duchesses are:

Kindergarten-first grade: Prince Alex Brown and Princess Leslie Lindley; Duke Richie Jenkins and Duchess Susan Throckmorton.

Second-third grades: Prince Craig Brown and Princess Kim Morris; Duke John Bentley and Duchess Kim Macina.

Fourth through sixth grades: to come and Princess Becky Barton; Duke Mike Machina and Duchess Stacy Brandvik.

Seventh grade: Prince Tommy Barker, Princess Ester Alfaro; Duke Scot Martindale, Duchess Vanessa Tucek.

Eighth grade: Prince Tony Carter, Princess Crystal Breeding; Duke Stan Tate, Duchess Diana Alfaro.

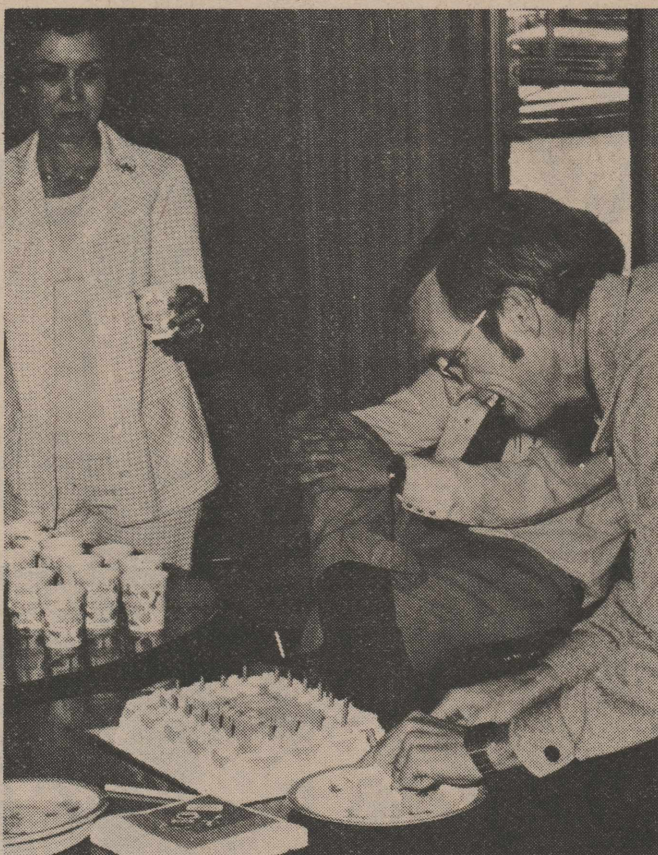

Ninth grade: Prince Johnny Blevins and Princess Rose Barker; tenth grade: Prince Dwayne Myers and Princess Jona Stages.

Eleventh grade: Prince Mark Wischkaemper and Princess Norma Alfaro; twelfth grade: Prince Jody Knoll and Princess Mary Garcia.

Youth Unemployment Unaffected by Year time, Cox announced Monday, October 2.

Laying all underground utility lines has been completed he said. In addition to water, sewer and gas, this includes power, telephone and cable television lines, the first part of Wellington which will have no transmission poles and lines above ground. The work was completed last week, with the city putting the lines under ground.

Next on schedule is laying the curb and gutter and paving the streets and lateral alleys, Cox said. This work also will be done by the city and all of it is on a contract basis.

Work in the Cox addition will be coordinated with other paving the city has scheduled in northeast Wellington.

"We will have hard surfaced lateral alleys, so that every lot can have a rear entrance garage," Cox said.

This is another first for Wellington

The 24-lot addition was announced by Cox in the spring of 1978 and was taken into the city limits. It is planned for some of Wellington's finer homes. The tract lies immediately south of Cox's home and fronts on FM 1035. There are no through streets in the addition, but each of the three short entry streets gives access to 8 homes and ends in a cul de sac.

Cox said it is hoped to have the curb, gutter and paving completed in October, or at least before cold weather sets in.

Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Crow of Farmington, N.M., were here last week visiting her mother, Mrs. Nannie Johnson. The Crows formerly lived at Quail and Buck Creek, leaving 28 years ago.

B&PW PAST PRESIDENTS

These past presidents of Wellington Business and Professional Women's Club were honored at the club's annual tea, which also marked the 40th anniversary of its organization. From left, standing are Mrs. Dee Coleman, Mrs. Keith Smith, Dorothy Robertson, Mrs. Bura Handley, Mrs. H.L. Jenkins, Mrs. Charles Darter, Bessie Rainer and Mrs. B.M. Sims. Seated from left are Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Ernest Harwell, Mrs. Lynn Wright and Myra Hays. Above them, in the Collingsworth County Library, is the portrait of the late Katherine Boverie, another past president. Several who still live in Wellington were unable to attend.

Social Security Pay Over $2 Million Annually Here

Social Security benefits were being paid to residents of Collingsworth county at the rate of $204,929 a month at the start of 1978, Jira Talbot, social security manager in Amarillo said today. This amounts to $2,453,148 per year. Social Security benefits can be paid to retired persons age 62 and over, to workers who become severely disabled before age 65, and to survivors of deceased workers. Monthly social security checks are also paid to certain dependents of a worker who has retired, become disabled or died.

Of the 1135 social security beneficiaries living in Collingsworth County 571 are retired workers and 51 are disabled workers. Another 172 persons are receiving benefits as the wives or husbands of retired or disabled workers. Widows, widowers and dependent parents of deceased workers number 220.

In Collingsworth county, 298 people under age 65 and 837 people age 65 and older are receiving monthly social security benefits. Of total beneficiaries, 398 are men, 616 are women and 121 are children.

be out for the next two weeks due to a rib injury received in the Childress game and irritated in the Panhandle game, Chappell said. It is possible he will not play again until the Memphis game, last of the season.

JV, Junior Teams To Meet Shamrock

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity, Firecrackers and 7th Grade will meet Shamrock teams at Powell Field Thursday, October 26.

It will be the first meeting for the junior varsities this year, as Shamrock forfeited the game to be played there earlier due to muddy field conditions. His boys are eager to meet the JV Irishmen, although at this point they know little of what to expect from their opponents, said Coach Robert Hicks.

For the Firecrackers, it will be an opportunity to avenge a loss they feel was due to a bad call on a play, said Coach Jim Yarnell.

He tells of the incident: A penalty called on a Shamrock player would have given Wellington a first down on the Shamrock two yard line. A head official, coming from the opposite side of the field, overruled the official who called the penalty and stopped Wellington's progress.

"It stopped us from scoring which would have tied the game. It is something these young men (Wellington) have not forgotten. We've been looking for a second chance to play them," said Yarnell.

He explained that junior high officials are not paid, but are drawn from the area. Yarnell says the head official who overruled the penalty was a Shamrock faculty member.

Shamrock also forfeited the 7th grade game due to field conditions, according to Coach Jimmy Chappell. "We're looking forward to this meeting," said the coach.

Lynn Bartlett, one of Wellington's top players, will

Sunday School Day Planned by Baptists

County Churches will join the 4,300 Southern Baptist Churches and missions in Texas to observe Sunday School High Attendance Day to be observed Sunday, October 29.

First Baptist Church, Wellington, has set a Sunday School attendance goal of 324, said the Rev. Stanley Hughes, pastor. Other services will be as usually scheduled.

Samnorwood Baptist Church will participate in the day, under the direction of the Rev. Darrell Feemster, pastor.

A goal of 48 in Sunday School was set by Quail Baptist Church. This will be one part of a major observance for members of the church.

The Sunday School Division of the Baptist General Convention of Texas has a goal of 678,000 people involved in Bible study and worship on the morning Oct. 29.

Baptist churches throughout Texas are encouraging all members to attend Sunday School with guests from their communities. Baptist churches and associations will report attendance totals to the Sunday School Division Office in Dallas.

The state total on High Attendance Day 1977 was 646,777. The average Sunday School attendance in Texas Baptist churches was 518,907 in 1977.

The national goal for Sunday School High Attendance Day 1978 in Southern Baptist churches is five million.

Firecrackers Victors Over Panhandle

Wellington Firecrackers took a one-sided victory over Panhandle 8th grade 32-0, Thursday at Powell Field, with reserves playing almost half the game.

Injuries decimated the Panhandle team, and only 12 boys were suited up for the contest.

John Paul Munn scored three of the touchdowns, all on long runs, and all in the first half.

Quarterback Wade Williams made the other score on a quarterback sneak in the third period. Shane Cobb accounted for the four points after touchdown.

Every member of the Firecracker team had an opportunity to play.
