STEWART GETS ACQUITTAL ON SENATE COUNT

WEALTHY OIL MAN IS NOT GUILTY IN HIS REFUSAL IN QUIZ

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 14.—Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Indiana Standard Oil Company, was acquitted today by a jury in the District of Columbia supreme court of charges of refusing to answer questions of the senate oil committee concerning liberty bond oil profits of the Continental Trading Company.

The wealthy oil man was charged with a misdemeanor for alleged violation of section 102 of the criminal code which provides punishment for a regularly summoned witness to refuse to answer pertinent questions asked by a congressional committee. Stewart maintained the questions asked last February by the committee were not pertinent.

Shakes Hands With Jurors
Stewart arose as the jury filed into the court room after being out since 1:05 yesterday afternoon. As the foreman pronounced him "not guilty" a smile wreathed his face and he walked over and shook hands with all of the eight men and four women who had cleared him of the charges.

Stewart was surrounded by his counsel and friends who congratulated him upon the acquittal that ended his fight against questions asked by the senate committee, which the oil man held had nothing to do with the subject of inquiry and in reality were on inquiries concerning his private affairs. He declined, however, to make any statement, saying that possibly later in the day he would have something to say at his home.

United States Attorney Rover declined to make any comment upon the verdict of the jury.

Counsel Comments
Frank H. Hogan, counsel for Stewart declared:
"This is another case of the citizen of the District of Columbia in an unequalled manner the era of political persecution in senatorial investigation committees and sent to the courts with senatorial orders to convict. It is time that the Walshes, Nyes

Committed to Hoover for president first, last and all the time. Texas group had not determined its vice-presidential choice or elects, preferred to let it stand to be ruled somewhat by future agencies of the convention.

SEVERAL HURT AS BIG PARTY MAKES ESCAPE

CONGESTED STREETS IN KANSAS CITY AID IN
BREAK FOR LIBERTY

(By Associated Press.)
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Timing their raid to coincide with the traffic jam just preceding opening of the fourth session of the republican national convention seven men held up the Home Trust company here today and escaped with loot estimated at more than $25,000.

Firing promiscuously with shotguns and revolvers as they fled the tear gas bombs by an employee, the robbers wounded two policemen at several other persons.

One Death Resulted
One death resulted indirectly from the holdup. Alvin Fuchs, 60, who witnessed the affair, fell dead in a store entrance. His death was attributed to heart disease.

James B. Smith, traffic officer near the bank, was dangerously wounded by a shotgun charge that struck him in the neck and right shoulder. Darrell Capshaw, a patrolman, was shot in the leg. Lillian M. Bellows, 16, was hit in the face by a bullet, and dropped almost in the path of the fleeing car, which swerved and missed her by inches.

Three other unidentified persons were reported slightly wounded.

Alexander Rieger, president of the bank, estimated the loot at more than $25,000 and said a final check on might place the figure near $30,000.

No Shooting in Bank
There was no shooting in the bank. After the robbers had swooped up the money in the tellers' cage, several employees hurried tear gas bombs and the bandits retreated through the overpowering fumes. The gas was so heavy in the bank 30 minutes after the holdup that it was impossible for bank officials to enter and make an accurate checkup of the loss.

Six of the robbers entered the bank shortly after it opened. Swinging leveled shot guns and operating with perfect precision, they lined up most of the bank's 40 employees working on the main floor, while two of their number hurried into the cages and gathered all the money in sight.

Operations Are Swift
Operating swiftly the bandits fled the bank within a few minutes after entering, and jumped into their car left in charge of one of their confederates at the curb. The direction the bandit car took in its flight could not be determined because of the jammed streets and traffic snarl that resulted.

TWO MEN HERE DRAW COUNSEL IN PENAL TERM

MULLICAN ADMONISHES
PAIR IN PASSING
FORMAL SENTENCE

Throwing aside his tribunal duties, Judge Clark M. Mulligan, of the 99th district court, assumed an admonitory position this morning as he pronounced penitentiary sentences of two years on two young men charged with theft.

"Now let this be your last time, Dan," Judge Mulligan said as he dealt out a two year sentence to Dan Richards, who pleaded guilty and was convicted of theft of a $75 electric drill. Richards, a World War veteran, has served two previous terms in the Oklahoma penitentiary. "When you get down to Huntsville, you make them a good hand and when you get out, you stay out and get you a job. Why, I don't like to see a fellow like you who went across and gave part of his life for his country's sake in one of these circumstances. I understand that you were decorated for bravery over there. Duane and Bradley and I served over there, too and we know what that means," the judge continued. "You're sure to be a man or you wouldn't have done that."

"I just got in the wrong crowd, judge, that's all," Richards replied "but, I'm through this time."
J. M. James Sentenced
J. M. James, who pleaded guilty to attempted car theft and who received a two year sentence also was included in the reprimand handed

CONVENTION, ADVANCING WITH RAPID STRIDE TOWARD NOMINATION, SUCCESSFULLY STAYS INSURGENTS' ATTACK IN SPECTACULAR FASHION

PLATFORM DOES NOT MAKE MENTION OF DISPUTED POINT

(By Associated Press.)
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Ignoring any mention of the controverted equalization fee or the McNary-Haugen bill but pledging every assistance in the reorganization of the farmers' marketing machinery, the platform upon which the republican candidate for president will stand in the November elections was presented to the convention today for approval.

The farm plank, agreed upon after long and tedious hours of labor in the resolutions committee, declares a big problem faces the farmer, but instead of the equalization fee which prompted President Coolidge twice to veto the McNary-Haugen bill, it proposes enactment of legislation creating a federal farm board clothed with power to set up farmer-owned and controlled stabilization corporations or associations to prevent and control surpluses through orderly distribution.

Administration Endorsed
The platform contains a sweeping endorsement of the administration and congress and pledges to maintain and continue the policies of President Coolidge.

The much-discussed topic of prohibition, which like the farm question, proved a problem in the resolutions committee discussions, is disposed of in a law enforcement plank pledging the party and its nominees to the "observance and vigorous enforcement" of the eighteenth amendment.

"The agricultural problem is national in scope," the farm plank declares, "and, as such, is recognized by the republican party which pledges its strength and energy to the solution of the same."

The plank promises "every assistance in the reorganization of the marketing system on sounder and more economical lines and, where diversification is needed, government financial assistance during the period of transition."

Tariff Also Vital
The farm question also is touched upon in the tariff plank, which declares a "protective tariff is as vital to American agriculture as it is to American manufacturing."

"The republican party," it continues, "believes that the home market, built up under the protective policy, belongs to the American farmer, and it pledges its support of legislation which will give this market to him to the full extent of his ability to supply it."

President Coolidge and Secretary Mellon are singled out for individual praise by the platform makers. "We endorse without qualification the record of the Coolidge administration," the platform reads. The record of the treasury is described as "unrivaled and unsurpassed."

Through a long recital of problems and developments of five years, the platform reviews with satisfaction dispositions made by the President and congress.

BARGAIN HUNT FILLS STORES

OVER 50 ARE REWARDED
ALREADY; TREASURE DRIVE GOES ON

With more than fifty individuals already rewarded for their search throughout the past three days in the city's third annual Treasure Hunt and City-Wide Bargain Event, the search continued on this morning as the stores of the merchants co-operating in the events were again filled with treasure and bargain hunters.

Approximately 50 prizes totaling more than a hundred dollars have been awarded to lucky subscribers of the Morning Avalanche and the Daily Journal, a survey of the treasure and bargain stores revealed today. Fully half that many lay on the counters of the stores today, only to be found by the searchers.

The members of the firms co-operating in the idea report that their stores are being visited by numbers of people who have been almost unknown to them in the past. One merchant reported that many shoppers had been in his store that he doesn't remember ever seeing before and didn't know they lived in Lubbock.

The popularity of the treasure and bargain hunt is due for an increase during the latter part of the week, it was said today. Merchants stated today that they were expecting their largest crowds on tomorrow and Saturday morning.

"Saturday seems to be a big shopping day in Lubbock," he said, "and I'm sure that with the special offers in evidence, Saturday will be the biggest business day of the season."

The two events will be carried on through next Monday, it was announced today, Monday being the final day of the hunt during which unusual bargains will be offered.

LA FOLLETTE LEADS IN STORMY BATTLE FOR FEE PROVISION

(By Associated Press.)
CONVENTION HALL, Kansas City, June 14.—Up-holding the majority of its platform committee, the republican national convention today rejected a minority farm plank based on the principles of the vetoed McNary-Haugen bill. It had been proposed by Earl C. Smith, a Lowden delegate from Illinois. The convention recessed for the afternoon at 2:45.

(Associated Press Staff Writer.)
CONVENTION HALL, Kansas City, June 14.—Advancing with swinging stride toward the nomination of a ticket and final adjournment by noon tomorrow, the Hoover majority in the republican national convention today rallied in overwhelming numbers to repel a final, spectacular attack by western insurgents and members of the McNary-Haugen bloc of an administration party platform omitting mention of the equalization fee.

In a floor fight of real proportions, the dissenters made repeated sallies at the steadfast ranks of the Coolidge-Hoover forces, with the Hoover majority in the republican national convention today rallying in overwhelming numbers to repel a final, spectacular attack by western insurgents and members of the McNary-Haugen bloc of an administration party platform omitting mention of the equalization fee.

La Follette Leads Attack
Young Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, following in the footsteps of a father whose insurgency sprang its record during his life-time on the history of a whole string of republican conventions, took the lead in the assault on the objective Linked as it was with the protest of the allied candidates against Hoover himself as the party candidate, the farm plank warfare completely overshadowed a lesser dispute over the prohibition plank.

The second major attack was launched under leadership of Earl C. Smith of the Lowden-pledged Illinois delegation who spoke for a minority plank supported by fifteen members of the platform committee and approving the twice-vetoed equalization fee for agriculture.

It was this proposal which precipitated a division of the convention all along the line, between the Hoover and Coolidge delegates supporting the presidential vote, and the delegates of the allied forces standing out against the Hoover majority.

Most Colorful Speech
The fighting speech of La Follette was one of the most colorful of the convention. In a manner of delivery reminiscent of his father, "Bob" the elder, the young senator kept the attention of every delegate as he pleaded for the policies of the insurgent Wisconsin republicans. At

In Hoover Contest

KANSAS CITY, June 14 (AP)—The four presidential candidates opposing Herbert Hoover's nomination, called themselves the "allies" today after conference to have their names placed in nomination in the face of almost certain defeat.

Some of the candidates favored withdrawing their nominating speeches and retiring from the race before the balloting started, but today the candidates, Watson, Goff, Curtis and Lowden, agreed to go forward with their original program of having their names placed before the convention.

MAYE and MOM Their Letters

Dear Mom:

It's a real pleasure to be able to inform you that the message and the inhabitants thereof are doing nicely. The unsightly bandages which temporarily festooned my visage have been removed, and I am almost as good as new.

It is quite necessary now that I get back to normal because next week I am going on display—for sweet charity's sake. True to her word, Cousin Julia has been giving thought to my case. She introduced me to a friend of hers, a Miss Evans, who is very much interested in working for a babies' dispensary here.

As soon as she saw me, she decided that I make the one to wear show folk. Most of the other girls are at the top-notch of real society, and when I mentioned, their names Alan was quite impressed. He seemed very glad to have me take part in the affair.

I wondered how he would feel if I were really going to be a model, and get actual cash for my labors. That is something I often have thought of trying to do, but have never mentioned it to the husband.

Personally, I don't quite understand that attitude on the part of men, but I am too much interested in this idea to cogitate much on it now. And Miss Evans has assured me she can keep me busy all summer, doing various things that need to be done for the babies of the state.

Cousin Julia is determined that I must learn some language, preferably French, and has found a French teacher for me—a gentleman who has fallen from her high estate, it appears, but has never lost her 100 per cent Parisian accent. That part of my uplift, however, will not begin until the fashion show is over.

Oh, yes, I forgot to state that I have had a telephone conversation with Pete, in which I told him that since he was such a bone of contention in our family, that I thought he had better pass quietly and painlessly out of my life.

Most politely, he said he quite understood how my husband must feel, and hoped he might have an opportunity to meet Alan some time, and to become a family friend.

I'm sending you a little gift—a peace offering for having worried you. It's a little choker of crystal, cut like the links of a chain. I hope you will like it—it looked like something for a lady, that's why I suggested you.

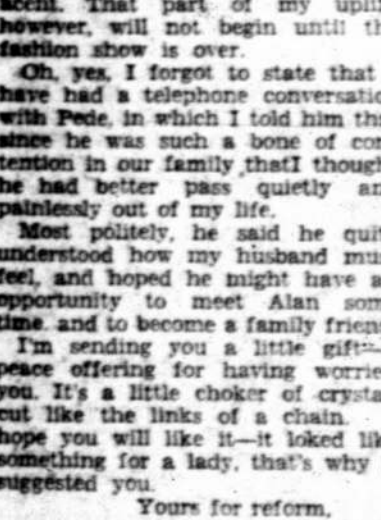

Yours for reform,

MAYE.

NEAT: Mom approves.

One Minute Interviews The Easiest Way Is The Happiest Way

"The things that you do with the greatest ease often are the ones that have the greatest appeal," says Rose O'Neill, originator of the famous kewpies.

"You may make tremendous effort at something you want to do and neither have the same success nor the same enjoyment that you have when a accomplishment is easy."

Rose O'Neill apparently took her philosophy from her own life.

The public knows her best as the mother of kewpies. Fewer people know her as a serious artist who exhibits in Paris and New York, the author of short stories, plays and verse and a novel not yet off the press as well as a musician and composer.

"Make your living the easiest way you can," she advised. "That will give you leisure for the things that matter terribly to you. For, after all, the security is what one must have to make the most of life."

HUBBERS DROP SECOND DOUBLE BILL TO ABILENE WEDNESDAY

REDS' BUBBLE MAY BURST BUT GIANTS FEAR CONSEQUENCES

ACES RALLY IN LATE INNINGS TO ANNEX BOTH

HUBBERS TAKE FOURTH PLACE IN STANDING BY DUAL LOSS

(Special To The Journal)
ABILENE, June 14.—Dennis Brownlow's Hubbers took two mean defeats here yesterday afternoon, dropping the second double-header of the two day play here. Leading the Aces until the final session in both games, the Hubbers chucked weakly and the Aces sparked out winning runs in the final stages.

In the opening game the Hub City entry had the count 8 to 6 until the last of the ninth, but as Garland Orr, Ace outfielder, rapped out his 16th homer of the season with two aboard, the winning runs were chalked up, 11 to 8.

Hill loses Nightcap
Red Hill dropped the night cap, 2 to 1, as an error, two base hits, and a base on balls shoved the winning counter across the plate.

As the Hubbers dropped a pair, and San Angelo annexed a twin bill the Snappers went into third place of the league rung as the Hubbers slipped into fourth place.

OLYMPIC HOPES

"BUD" HOUSER

Clarence "Bud" Houser, holder of the Olympic championship in the discus throw, again will be a member of the United States Olympic team this summer. Houser's Olympic mark is 151 feet 51-16 inches, and was made at Paris in 1924.

This, however, is not his best effort. He holds the A. A. U. and world marks for the discus with a heave of 158 feet 1-3-4 inches, made in 1926, at Palo Alto, Calif.

Until Eric Krenz, brilliant Stanford sophomore, smashed his records in this year's I. C. A. A. meet, Houser held the record in both the discus and the shot. Krenz's marks bettered Houser's 49 feet 11 3-4 inches in the discus and 151 feet 2-8 inches in the javelin.

Houser had the distinction of tying with Harold Osborne for United States high point man in the last Olympic with 20 points.

He graduated from Southern California in 1926 and probably will enter the Olympic trials for the Hollywood A. C.

At Boston Rogers Hornsby drew into the home run leadership of the National League by clubbing his thirtieth, and raised his personal batting figure to .418, but the Cardinals ran away with the ball game, 11 to 8.

Charley Rigler probably escaped a reversal by the league head when Brooklyn won from the Cubs at Ebbets Field, 7 to 2. With the Robins leading, 5 to 1, in the fifth, Bresler was on first with one out. Del Bissontette raised a foul which Hartnett juggled three times and then caught. Bresler, acting within his rights, tagged up and raced for second the moment the ball first touched the catcher's mitt.

Reversed, There Recalled
Umpire Hart at first base ruled Bresler out when Hartnett threw to Grimm, but umpire Jorda at third caused Hart to reverse the ruling. Rigler, the umpire-in-chief, then changed the decision back again, and Bresler was officially but incorrectly out.

The Phillies ended the spurt of the Pirates by rallying against Burleigh Grimes in the ninth for three runs which won, 4 to 3.

The American League situation remained much the same. The Yankees outlasted the White Sox to win, 8 to 6, in a game notable for the absence of home runs.

Old Jack Quinn flashed back into form at Detroit, and the Athletics won easily, 12 to 5.

Washington rallied in the ninth at Cleveland, but could not push over enough runs and the Indians won, 8 to 7, with some good pitching by Shaute—much better pitching than the score indicates.

REDLEGS TAKE THREE OF FOUR IN BIG SERIES

The Cincinnati bubble may burst, but the suspicion in New York is that any such bursting probably will occur right in the faces of the Giants—if, indeed, it has not already occurred.

The Cincinnati host was in Philadelphia, Thursday with three Giant scalps to show for four engagements at the Polo Grounds. The Rhinelanders pulled out yesterday's game, 5 to 3, in the tenth after permitting the Giants to climb into a tie with two runs in the eighth. The game was a pitcher's battle between Jack Hendricks and John McGraw, with Jack flashing four against only three for John.

FARM RELIEF ISSUE OUT IN OPEN AS COMPROMISE PLEA FAIL

MID-WEST FIRM IN REFUSAL TO ACCEPT OFFER

EQUALIZATION FEE NOT MENTIONED IN PLAN AS SUBMITTED

By BYRON PRICE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Unable to negotiate a compromise by long negotiation behind committee doors, the republican national convention today faced the farm relief issue in the open today.

As it came to the convention floor for action by the delegates themselves, the party platform outlined a farm program minus all mention of the equalization fee or the McNary-Haugen bill. It had been adopted in that form late last night by the platform committee by a wide majority.

The platform committee had been divided in their preferences, heretofore divided in their preferences, swelling the commerce secretary's first-ballot strength to a point nearer to two-thirds of the convention than the simple majority needed to nominate. So compelling had become the movement into the Hoover camp that the candidates whose forces had been allies against him—Lowden, Curtis, Watson and Goff—were reported to be considering whether to permit their names to go before the convention.

The declaration of party principles also included Senator Borah's "time dry" plank, declaring not only enforcement of law in general but mentioning by name the prohibition amendment. No mention was made of the platform four years ago. A long fight also developed in committee on this proposal, but when the opposition was voted down they gave no sign that they would appeal.

Speed Is Accelerated
With a new and powerful chairman, Senator Moses of New Hampshire, the party convulse was prepared today to move along at accelerated speed. Just a taste of what the peppy New Hampshire Senator means by his announced desire to get on with the business in hand was provided last night, when he threatened and then recessed an evening session within the space of one minute, and did it all three minutes ahead of the time set for convening. At that, the session which was held in name only was intended for discussion of the platform, but the committee was not yet ready and there was no other business on the calendar.

Calling the convention together at 10 a. m., party pilots under the captaincy of Senator Moses hoped to have the platform fight over within time to hear nominating speeches and take the decisive ballot for president before noon. Should they fail in this purpose, a night session is in prospect. In any case, an overnight recess probably will intervene before the selection of a vice president, and the final adjournment is expected tomorrow.

Although no agreement on a vice-presidential nominee is expected, the old first place on the ticket has been definitely voted to Mr. Hoover and he has been given opportunity to express any preference he may have in mind, talk of a running mate for him continued to grow in volume today with a score or more of fau-

Assassination Plot On Prince Foiled
LONDON, June 14 (AP)—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tokyo says an attempt was made to assassinate Prince Kuni, father of the present emperor during his visit to Formosa on May 14. This was learned when the press ban on news of the attempt was lifted today.

The dispatch stated that a Korean rushed at Prince Kuni's automobile and hurled a dagger. The prince was not injured.
Onushin Yamakami, governor general of Formosa, came to Tokyo and resigned, assuming responsibility for the incident.

THE REPUBLICAN DELEGATES OPEN MEET WITH PRAYER

WURZBACH NOT TO QUIT FIGHT IN TEXAS FUSS

DELEGATION IS VOTED DOWN BUT SCRAP TO CONTINUE, HE SAYS

By L. D. DILBECK
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Congressman Harry Wurzbach is going to continue his fight against the Creager-dominated Texas Republican organization when he returns from the national convention in which the Creager delegates were seated Wednesday.

Wurzbach remained a spectator Thursday while the victorious delegation selected by the "regular" state convention, R. B. Creager, returned to the hall expecting to cast its 26 votes for Hoover for president and start home possibly Friday.

Many Delegates Return
Many of the district elected delegates, led by Wurzbach and C. C. Littleton of Fort Worth in a fruitless contest of the Creager seats, have returned to Texas.
"I am going to take up the fight again when I get back home," Mr. Wurzbach, only republican congressman from Texas said. "I don't care what they say about the merits of the contest, I believe the convention would have upheld the district elected delegates in preference to Mr. Creager's delegation picked by the state convention if the case had come up after the presidential nominee was selected. Men really with us on the principle that national delegates should be chosen by the districts voted on the other side to avoid the appearance of opposing Mr. Hoover."

Don't Want Republican
The Congressman is a candidate for re-election. The republican nominating convention will be in the latter part of July. Mr. Wurzbach is opposed so far by two democrats, Augustus McCloskey and A. D. Rogers of San Antonio, whom he claims the Creager organization is supporting.

NOTES ON THE GOP MEETING

(By Associated Press)
A cloud of white feathers drifting down from the heights of Kansas City's tallest buildings stirred conjecture among startled pedestrians below as to whether angels, mayhap, had come to help the farmers who seek to help themselves, or whether this was a barnyard version of Manhattan's ticker-tape frenzies.

In spite of the cast's so proudly vaunted superiority in matters of all-around modernity, it has not yet achieved the magic secret of hot-weather telephone booth comfort that Kansas Cityans treat as commonplace. With the click of a closing door behind the telephone here, a soft burr-r sounds above his head and an electric fan as well as an electric light is turned on automatically.

The parking problem needs no longer harass the municipal authorities of the country, for Kansas City has found the solution by using roof space in the downtown district.

The Oklahoma delegation includes an "original American" delegate, Mrs. Lila D. Lindsay of Tulsa, who is Cherokee and Creek with part Scotch ancestry.

So orderly has been the procedure of the convention sessions to date that the hospital set up in the hall has reported only a few scratched fingers—and a headache or two.

Optimistic over an early adjournment, the New Mexico delegation had made reservations for the trip home today.

CONTEST OVER FARM MEASURE IS MAIN ISSUE

LA FOLLETTE LEADS IN ARGUMENT IN GIVING MINORITY REPORT

(By Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Taking sharp issue with the majority of the resolutions committee of the republican convention, Senator Robert M. La Follette, Jr. of Wisconsin today made public a minority report prepared for presentation from the convention floor itself.

La Follette, who represented his state on the committee, came out flatly for the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill which was vetoed in the closing days of the last congress by President Coolidge, declaring that in addition to having the measure enacted into law he favored its administration "by those sympathetic with its objects."

"The stabilization of farm prices above the cost of production rather than upon the present levels of foreign lands," he declared, "is essential to the continued existence of free farms, free homes and free men; if the tariff is necessary to industry, control of surplus is necessary to agriculture; and when this equality is denied the farmer becomes the victim of a form of privilege he will no longer endure."

He added that to those engaged in agriculture the nation owed the conquest of a wilderness for homes and the republican party its "formation and its most loyal" support.

La Follette also argued that as a further aid to agriculture the republican party advocates the "immediate undertaking of a great national, constructive program to improve and develop its waterways provide flood control; irrigation; cheaper transportation; and the placing of all interests on an 'equal footing in gaining entry into the market of the world.'"

RUNNING MATE FOR HOOVER IS BIG QUESTION

DAWES, MOSES, DENEEN HOLD UPPER HAND IN DISCUSSIONS

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Determined to get at least one kick out of the convention with the presidential race virtually settled, republican delegates were making the most of their opportunity today to wrangle over a vice-presidential candidate, and Dawes, Moses and Deneen seemed to be uppermost in the discussion.

But it was all in the discussion stage as the proceedings moved slowly toward selection of the presidential nominee and until Herbert Hoover cashes in on his winning stack of delegates there appears to be little likelihood of a crystallization of sentiment on one man for second place.

Many State Banners
Almost every state banner carried the flag of a vice presidential candidate and some states were worried with two or three on their hands. While the mass of delegates was in the mood to go ahead and have a good round of balloting on the vice presidency there were a number of leaders anxious to wait and find out Hoover's position.

"Strictly neutral," was the word which went out from Hoover headquarters. Attempts to get an inkling from the commerce secretary in Washington have failed. Hope is held out, however, that he may indicate a choice once his nomination is recorded. For that reason, New York along with many other states, are waiting.

Denver Depot Is To Be Contracted Soon

Construction contracts for depots at Lubbock, Plainview and Lockney will be let by the Fort Worth and Denver South Plains railroad on June 20 and actual building will immediately follow. F. H. Irons, building inspector of the Burlington and Denver lines, who arrived in Lubbock yesterday, said this morning.

Mr. Irons disclosed that the local depot will be 164x105 feet in dimension and will be constructed of Arriving from his home in Superior, Wisconsin, yesterday, Mr. Irons said he was struck by the activity in building lines in Lubbock. He expects to make his permanent home in Texas and hopes to head-quarter here, he stated.

KIWANIANS HEAR TALKS ON LAW IN LUNCHEON MEET

Legal talent was on display at the regular luncheon of the Kiwanis club at Hotel Lubbock today noon, as Judge Homer Pharr introduced Emil L. Klett, whose discourse was on civil law, and Owen W. McWhorter, representing the criminal phase.

Both of the speakers gave very interesting talks on the law, which was for the edification of the laymen, they explained.

Plans for the annual All-Kiwanis night program, which is held always on the first night of the convention of Kiwanis International, which starts Monday at Seattle, were announced by A. H. Leidigh, chairman of the meeting. The All-Kiwanis affair this year will be a ladies night program, scheduled for Hotel Lubbock at 7:45 Monday night. Frank Jones will be program chairman.

Both men acted as their own representatives and refused to object to the verdict. Judge Mullican sentencing them soon after the jurors had filed out of the room.

With the disposition of these cases, Judge Mullican dismissed the jurors for the term.

THEA RASCHE IS NOT TO ATTEMPT SEA FLIGHT NOW

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 14.—The projected trans-Atlantic flight of Thea Rasche today appeared to have been indefinitely postponed. The German aviator said it was not abandoned, however.

Miss Rasche announced she had broken with her backers and that she would proceed independently with her plans.

A new Bellanca monoplane was delivered to Miss Rasche a week ago. Several test flights were made.

She said she would endeavor to find a new plane and sailing that would return to Germany by boat and fly to America.

Miss Rasche, the third woman preparing for an ocean flight, said she was breaking with her backers because of delays in preparation. The names of her backers had never been revealed.

Calvin Harris, who represents the backers, said that although he had not been officially advised of her decision he felt that her backers would accept severance of relations with no little relief.

MARK KRAIG MAXWELL

Mark Kraig Maxwell, only left hand pitcher on the Hubber roster, was born on March 17, 1906 at Waco, where he lived for seven years, moving to Fort Worth, where he still spends the winter with his parents.

The senior high school of Fort Worth was the scene of his early experience on the mound. He holds a great pitching record in high school play, winning eleven straight for the Fort Worth school in 1923.

Since graduating from school Maxwell has experienced numerous professional jobs, but yet his variation of professional experience does not class him as an "experienced player" under the terms of the West Texas League by-laws and constitution.

Started At Guthrie

His first professional experience began with the Guthrie club of the Oklahoma State league in 1924, where he remained for some two and a half months, going on to Mount Pleasant, Texas, of the East Texas league where he stuck until the culmination of the season, under the management of Paul Trammell.

In 1925 "Lefty" reported to the spring training camp of Wichita,

CARNAGE MARKS TROOPS FLIGHT FROM TIENTSIN

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, June 14.—A Tientsin dispatch to the Evening News says that city was the scene of terrible looting and carnage last night in disorders carried on by gunmen following the surrender of the city by the northerners.

The streets and the river Pei-Ho were strewn with dead and the looting in Tientsin was reported tense in fear of a repetition of the outrages. The thorough defense plans of the foreign concessions worked out excellently, but many bullets fired in the shooting and looting outside fell in the foreign compounds.

In the Chinese city men and women were shot mercilessly. Armed men in all kinds of quasi-military clothes killed and looted generally.

Maxwell is a slow ball pitcher, works curve balls frequently—but doesn't have a fast one. Maxwell's early game wildness has cost him several ball games this season. He is a cold worker on the mound, no matter how heavy the storm may be, he weathers it, striving to do his best.

NEW YORK TRADING

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—The cotton market opened steady in response to relatively firm cables and reports of rains in the lower Mississippi Valley. Initial prices here were hardly a full reaction to the firmness abroad, and houses with Liverpool connections were buyers. Demand as well as covering or commission house buying.

Prices worked up to 22.50 for October shortly after the opening, but seemed to attract realizing at this figure, and the market was 5 or 11 points off from the best at the end of the first hour.

Offerings increased on liquidation by early buyers disappointed by failure of bullish features to create a more aggressive demand. October broke to 20.23, with active months generally selling about 12 to 18 points lower. The volume of business tapered off at the decline, and the market at midday was quiet at rallies of several points from the lowest.

NEW ORLEANS TRADING

NEW ORLEANS, June 14 (AP)—The cotton market had a firm opening in response to higher Liverpool cables. First trades showed gains of 3 to 6 points and prices continued to improve after the start on early reports of much rain in the belt and October traded to 19.99 and December 19.97 or 5 to 7 points above the previous close.

Fears of a bearish census bureau consumption report due later in the day brought out some trade selling which carried prices back to yesterday's closing levels.

Although the consumption total of 577,710 bales proved somewhat larger than expected the market exhibited only momentary strength and then turned downward on the belief that the larger mill consumption meant the piling up of unsold stock of cotton goods as the May demand was disappointing. July traded off to 20.06, October 19.79, and December 19.77, or 19 to 21 points below the early highs and 3 to 15 points under the previous close.

FARM MEASURE

one point when he mentioned President Coolidge's veto of the McNary-Haugen bill, the speaker was showered with ironic applause from the administration delegates, led by Massachusetts delegation in the front row just before the speakers stand.

"It is so unusual for a delegate from Wisconsin to receive applause in a republican convention," he replied, smiling down on Massachusetts ella, "that I thank you from the bottom of my heart."

No reply was made to the La Follette speech, the convention voting overwhelmingly an instant later to reject out of hand his minority report.

Protest Has Ring Of Party Challenge

BY BYRON PRICE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
CONVENTION HALL, Kansas CITY, June 14—A farm bloc protest with the ring of a challenge sounded through convention hall today as the republican party proceeded toward the final ratification of the platform for 1928.

Interrupting a suggestion of its own speakers as they gave militant notice that the farm states really were aroused for the McNary-Haugen bill, the anti-Hoover coalition of delegates centering around Lowden of Illinois carried a convention decorum with a minute demonstration in defiance of the convention rules.

While a farm leader in a gallery acted as cheer leader they whooped it up with such a din as the convention had not heard since it met last Tuesday, and were quieted only when the convention chairman told them that more spectators standing against the proposed administration farm plank was still to come.

This plank itself, which promised farm relief but leaves out all mention of the equalization fee, was defended by a relay of speakers under the captaincy of Representative Ford of New Jersey, the Hoover floor leader, while the states whose delegations stand against the McNary-Haugen bill took their turn at noisy approbation.

Earl C. Smith of Illinois, speaking first for the supporters of an equalization fee endorsement in the party platform told the convention that if the support of the republican farmers of the middle west, the time had come to abandon "generalities" in national conventions. Frank W. Murphy, also an Illinoisan and an active worker in Washington for the McNary-Haugen bill, went on to warn his fellow delegates that "you can not fool the farmer any more with platform pledges; while others, including Gov. McMillen of Nebraska not only asked for a 'real farm plank' but advocated also the selection of a middle western candidate for president.

Grandjury Returns Ten Bills; Retires

Returning ten indictments yesterday and thus boosting their total for the term to 16, members of the Lubbock county grand jury, working in conjunction with Judge Homer L. Pharr's 72nd judicial district court, have adjourned their duties.

Six of yesterday's indictments covered theft charges, two were for violations of the dry laws, one was for driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicants and the other alleged burglary.

The grand jury, which was organized yesterday, returned its first indictment against a man charged with stealing a car.

COOLIDGE AND PARTY LEAVES FOR VACATION

SPECIAL PULLS FROM CAPITAL STATION WEDNESDAY NIGHT

(By Associated Press)

CY BOARD PRESIDENT COOLIDGE SPECIAL TRAIN ROUTE TO SUPERIOR, Wis., June 14—Delayed two days in leaving Washington for his vacation, President Coolidge was pushing steadily westward today on his way to his Wisconsin summer home.

With him was Mrs. Coolidge, whose sudden indisposition on Monday caused the last minute postponement of the trip. Although she rose from her bed in the White House yesterday to undertake the move, she did so after careful examination of White House physicians who declared her sufficiently recovered to be able to stand the long journey without undue danger.

Go To Train Early

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge left the White House for the station almost three hours before the scheduled departure of the train. Mrs. Coolidge was strong enough to walk alone without even the help of Mr. Coolidge's arm.

The special car had been placed in the silence and darkness of a remote siding where it stood quiet, except for the barking of Robroy, Tiny Tim and King Cote, three of the White House dogs allowed in the special car, until it was hitched on to the rest of the train when this pulled out of the station proper.

President and Mrs. Coolidge sat in the parlor of their car only a short while and then retired before the train got under way. Their car was joined to the rest of the train so carefully that they were not even disturbed.

About To On Train

The large nine car special train taking the chief executive west carried about seventy persons. In addition to a somewhat larger clerical staff than President Coolidge usually takes away from Washington for the summer, Edward T. Clark, Mr. Coolidge's personal secretary, and Darciph. Forster, executive clerk at the White House, were on and Norrises should learn that procedure of that kind cannot prevail in this capital city.

"The defense did not challenge a man or woman on the jury. The jury was picked by the court and the case was picked by the senate. Notice should be taken by the senate and everyone that you cannot railroad innocent men in this district."

Acquittal on the misdemeanor charge does not entirely clear Stewart of charges that resulted from his appearance before the senate committee. His testimony on the occasion of his first and last appearance was certified to the district attorney and presented to the grand jury. An indictment on a charge of perjury was asked of the grand jury which is expected to return it.

Acquittal Rapped By Nebraska Man

WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP)—The acquittal of Robert W. Stewart was termed an "outrage against justice" by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, chairman of the senate judiciary committee.

"It is an outrage against justice," he said. "It demonstrates clearly that if you have money enough to hire lawyers, you will be found not guilty, even though you admit that you are guilty."

HALE HOLDING REPUTATION AS DAIRY LEADER

TESTING ASSOCIATION IS BIG HELP; FULL TIME
MAN IS ON JOB

(Special To The Journal)
PLAINVIEW, June 14.—"Hale county continues to hold the reputation which it has had for a number of years as the leading county in Texas in dairy development," R. M. Milhollin, County Agent of Hale County said recently. "As a result of the work that is being done in the breeding of superior dairy animals in the county and the work of the Hale County Dairy Association which with a total membership of approximately five hundred enthusiastic dairy farmers carries on at all times an active educational campaign for the improvement of dairy-farming conditions as well as the marketing of the products of the association members to good advantage through co-operative methods."

Milhollin points out that another forward step is being taken in the breeding of superior dairy animals this year through the work of the testing association under the supervision of the extension department of A. and M. College. This association which has members in four counties around Plainview has an official tester, P. C. Coghlin, on the job every day in the year conducting regular register of merit tests among the herds of its members. The association has been in existence for six months, and some interesting disclosures have come to light about the quality of the herd of dairy cattle in Hale. Swisher Ployed and Lubbock counties. The records disclose that there are among the herds of this Plainview section cows with production capabilities that rival the best Jersey producers of the entire Jersey world. Upon the completion of the official period of testing, it is predicted that several gold and silver medal cows will be found in Hale county which are the progeny of circle bulls imported into Hale county during the past five years.

The First Texas Panhandle Plains Dairy show staged in Plainview early in April of this year was a revelation to all who visited it. The quality of the dairy animals of the Plains was surprising. The Dairy Show is to be an annual event at Plainview, and already plans are under way for making the show next year one of the greatest ever staged in the Southwest. This year 241 animals were exhibited. The show is confined to the Panhandle Plains section, and exhibitors must live and do business in that area before they are entitled to show. This rule eliminates the showing by professional exhibitors—making the show growers' exhibits strictly. The show demonstrated that the dairy farmers with small herds are giving considerable time and thought to the breeding of their herds, and are building herds that will be unsurpassed for breeding anywhere.

Suffrage Leader In Britain Dies Today

LONDON, June 14 (AP)—One of the most picturesque figures in the woman suffrage movement, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst died today in London nursing home at the age of 69. Death came after a comparatively short illness. Mrs. Pankhurst was the first militant suffragist in efforts to obtain the vote for women, millions of whom are now enjoying the privilege of casting their ballots at the parliamentary election. Holloway jail was frequently used by the authorities to attempt to break activities of the militant women. Mrs. Pankhurst was often in and out of that institution and her last offense brought a sentence of penal servitude. She started a hunger strike, however, and was released before the sentence was completed.

Sure, or several million users would have turned to something else. But get real Bayer Aspirin (at any drugstore) with Bayer on the box, and the word genuine printed in red.

REGISTRATION OF ALL DELEGATES BEFORE LEAVING IS URGED

Final preparations for Lubbock's part in representing the "South Plains of Texas" in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Fort Worth, June 18, 19 and 20 were started here today by officials of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. Badges, coupon books and other such articles are being received by the organization for distribution among the delegates here.

Everyone who expects to attend the convention from here "should register before leaving," officials said today so that a united delegation will be in evidence in Fort Worth. Due to the fact that no special train will be run out of here, most of the people from this section are planning to go to the convention in their cars. Registration should be disposed of before leaving to avoid delay in Fort Worth.

Registration fee is $2.50. The regular registration fee of $2.50 is being charged again this year. The coupon books, admitting each registered delegate to a number of special events and courtesies. Members of the registration committee at Fort Worth, headed by chairman A. L. Shuman, confidentially declares that the committee is offering ten dollars worth of entertainment for the price of the coupon book. Admission price to the special events without registration will cost approximately the ten dollars.

The badges and coupon books are being sent to Lubbock in advance of the convention and to other towns over West Texas to avoid congestion at registration headquarters when some fifty or sixty thousand West Texans will come in for the annual convention.

Every delegate to the convention should register and much time and trouble will be saved by calling at the Chamber of Commerce office here for the badges, rather than waiting until the convention is in progress and have to take a place in the long line of delegates, who have also waited.

Cooperative Effort
Plans worked out by towns on the South Plains during the past several weeks call for a cooperative effort to advertise the South Plains. All delegates from this section are to wear arm bands reading "The South Plains of Texas."

These arm bands may be secured from the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce for fifteen cents each, along with the registration badges. General headquarters for all South Plains towns will be maintained at the Ellisons Furniture Store in Fort Worth, with Lloyd A. Wilson, secretary of the South Plains Chamber of Commerce in charge. Everyone going to the convention is expected to drop in at headquarters and be informed of what the South Plains delegations are doing and to meet with the delegates from the other South Plains towns.

Some singers make pretty good salaries, but still issue a false note here and there.

Some men who believe in themselves probably are easily convinced.

Only Four Republican Candidates Have Lost In 16 Elections Since Civil War

Only four times since the Civil War have nominees of a republican national convention failed of election. James G. Blaine, nominated in 1884 lost to Grover Cleveland, the democratic nominee, as did Benjamin Harrison, trying for a second term in 1892. William Howard Taft and Charles Evans Hughes, republican nominees, lost to Woodrow Wilson in 1912 and 1916, respectively.

Here are the presidential and vice presidential nominees of republican national conventions held since Civil War days. Candidates marked with one star were defeated for election; candidates marked with two stars received smaller popular votes than their opponents but were elected:

ENCAMPMENT OF CLUB BOYS AND GIRLS STRESSED

Urging the importance of attendance in the annual encampment of the Lubbock County Club Boys and Girls, which is to be held here on June 27 and 28, letters are going out this week from the office of County Agent D. F. Eaton to every club boy in the county.

Featuring the encampment will be the judging training course to be held at the college in which contests in stock, grain and poultry judging will be given in preparation for the state contests at College Station in July. Practically every club in the county and a number of out-of-county club boys will take advantage of the course.

The club girl's time will be devoted to club demonstrations during the first day of the encampment and the Cotton Dress Carnival on the second day. Attractive prizes, headed by two free trips to College Station, are to be awarded to winners in the appropriate dress contest.

The encampment is to be held in the fair grounds, east of the city. Various forms of entertainment will be offered during the two days, the municipal swimming pool to be the mecca of the group during one of the afternoons.

A laughing hyena escaped from a circus the other day. Doubtless many people will report finding it in picture shows just behind them.
