Man Sought In Borden Slayings Surrenders

A gigantic snowstorm ended abruptly at 4:30 a.m. today when a young Latin-American sought in connection with a triple slaying in Borden County surrendered to officers in Karnes City in deep South Texas.

District Attorney Wayland G. Holt said this morning that a complaint alleging murder had been filed against Adam Rios, 23.

Rios was sought by West Texas officers following the shooting of his wife's mother, stepfather and two brothers at their home in the Plains community northwest of Gail late Thursday.

Sabath Amaya, 24, and Rosalbe Espinoza, 18, had brothers, were killed instantly while their mother, Mrs. Felicitas Espinoza, 36, died in a Lamesa hospital about three hours after the shooting. Santos Espinoza, about 30, was in critical condition in a Lamesa hospital.

Mrs. Rios, who was at the family home but was not injured in the shooting, gave this account to Sheriff Sid Reeder of Borden County.

She left her husband at Lorraine on Wednesday and went to her parents' home on the Hobert Walk er farm near the Plains community. Her husband followed her. The shooting occurred shortly after five arrived. Mrs. Rios said she jumped behind her father just as her husband fired at her with a .22 caliber pistol.

Rios reportedly fled with his baby following the shooting. The child was later left with friends in Roscoe.

City, county and state peace officers over a wide area joined in the search for Rios last night. Road blocks were set up at all highway approaches to Snyder. However, Rios apparently had passed through this area before the alarm was spread.

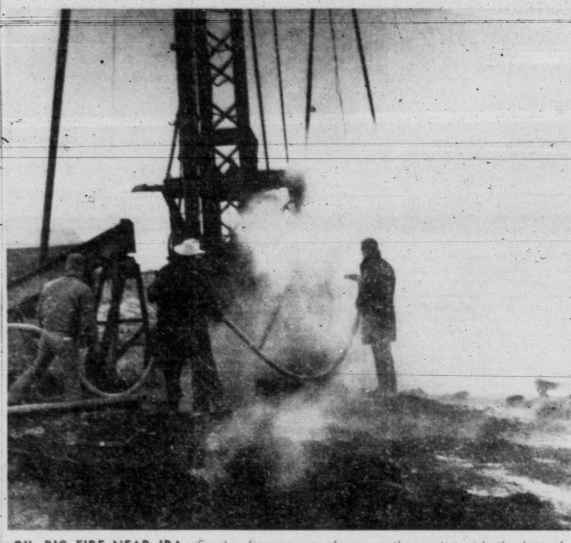

Subsequently he was traced to South Texas and at about 4:30 a.m. today Rios turned himself in to Sheriff Harper Morris at Karnes City, which is some 400 miles south of the scene of the shooting.

At Brady, Chief of Police Norman Gibbs said Rios is being questioned about an attempted rape of a 25-year-old woman near Brady Thursday night.

Gibbs said the woman told him she was from San Antonio and ran out of gas about 4 miles north of Brady on U.S. 87. A man in a car stopped, tried to get her into his car, and when she refused he picked her up bodily and threw her into his automobile. She said the man then drove to a side road and attempted to attack her.

When the man drove into a filling station in Brady she jumped from the car and ran into the filling station. The man hurriedly paid for the gas and drove away at a high rate of speed.

Gibbs said the license number of the car given him by filling station attendants was the same as that of the car Rios drove when arrested at Karnes City.

OIL RIG FIRE NEAR IRA—Snyder firemen are shown as they extinguish the last of the blaze on the W. A. Wade lease south of Ira yesterday which injured two of the crew.

Pair Hurt In Oil Fire Near Ira

Two men were burned seriously, when gushing oil ignited Thursday afternoon on the Southwest Hydrocarbon W. A. Wade Lease about two miles south of Ira on the Big Spring Highway.

S. E. (Son) Joyner of Colorado City suffered head, arms, and back burns, while Willard Gladson, of Gladson and Ostrel Bros. Drilling Co. of Snyder, was burned about the head, hands and right leg.

The four-man crew was pulling a 6 inch pipe when oil "belched" all over them and the machinery and ignited, according to Vernon Franklin of the Western Oil Well Servicing Co.

"All we were interested in was getting the fires on Son and Willard put out when we thought about the fire on the rig," J. W. Crowder, one of the crew, stated. The fire started at about 3:30 according to Crowder, and the Snyder Fire Department was called at about 4:30.

The Snyder firemen had the blaze under control within 10 minutes of their arrival on the scene.

Joyner was taken to Root Memorial Hospital in Colorado City by Bell ambulance, where he is reported in satisfactory condition this morning. Gladson stayed until the fire trucks arrived and then returned to Snyder for treatment.

Fire damage to the rig has not been estimated.

Krush Points To Strength

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev declared today that the Soviet Union is the strongest military power in the world but does not wish to take advantage of her superiority.

"This will enable us to have the highest living standards in the world and at the same time the shortest working day," he said.

"According to all rules of competition we have made our challenge known to the United States.

"We told them 'Let us compete in the peaceful development of economy and not in the production of armaments'.

"Our peoples, our countries and the peoples of the entire world will benefit from that. We are not afraid of that competition and we are confident we shall win."

Speaking from the same stand from which President Eisenhower two months ago denounced Western military alliances, Khrushchev said that because of Soviet military strength, the idea of peaceful coexistence, "is gaining ground even among advocates of the cold war."

He has come to understand that if it is unleashed by them, the instigators and inspirers would be the first to perish in its flames," he declared.

An estimated 400,000 Indians heard Khrushchev speak at a civic reception in sprawling Ram Lila Park, between the new and old cities of Delhi. Eisenhower attracted an estimated million spectators to a similar reception for him, two months ago in the park.

Earlier today, Khrushchev met alone with Prime Minister Nehru for nearly three hours during which it was assumed India's border dispute with Red China was discussed. Although many Indians hoped Khrushchev would persuade Red China to pull her troops out of Himalayan territory both nations claim, Nehru was reported to have no such hopes and to doubt that Khrushchev had enough influence with Mao Tse tung to change the Chinese leader's course.

Khrushchev copied his attack on "advocates of the cold war" with a new declaration that the

Sleet Pelts Palm Trees

By The Associated Press

A freak snowstorm whipped flakes deep into southeast Texas Friday, piled drifts two feet tall in a small portion of the Big Bend Country, and laid a 10-inch mantle on isolated spots of far West Texas.

Sleet fell among the palm trees at Corpus Christi, well down the Texas coast, and snow drifted down at Laredo on the Texas-Mexican border.

Schools closed at Midland and Odessa, where 2 inches of snow fell. Schools also shut at La Grange, 70 miles southeast of Austin, because of a 2-inch fall.

Well before noon, skies began clearing to the West. The sun shone at Midland, and Del Rio reported the snow stopped.

Snow ranging from heavy to light fell as far south as some Harris County areas near Houston, while sleet fell at other points. Rain also fell in the immediate Houston area.

"The kids are going wild," exclaimed Mrs. Lucille Anderson at Trinity, 90 miles north of Houston. Snow fell as far south as Conroe, only 35 miles above Houston.

The 2-foot drifts were in the Chess Basin in Big Bend National Park. Grewen Gulch Pass, leading from the park headquarters to the basin was cleared by a snowplow.

Norman Miller, senior maintenance foreman for the Texas Highway Department in Alpine, said all major roads in the area were open but driving was hazardous. Bridges and hills were sanded and salted, but new snow made the work ineffective.

Paisano Pass, highest on the Southern Pacific Railroad lines, 13 miles west of Alpine, reported heavy snow. Railroad switches were blocked and frozen.

The heaviest fall occurred in the Big Bend Country at a community called Puckettfield, 35 miles south of Fort Stockton. Eight to 10 inches fell there and still poured down at mid-morning.

Fort Stockton received 6.6 inches of snow and temperatures were 30 degrees. Alpine and Odessa, also in far West Texas, received 4 inches. The snow began at 1 p.m. at Fort Stockton and continued during the night and morning.

Elsewhere, the snow generally was not deep.

Temperatures hovered around the freezing mark in the snow

Mystery Sub Is Believed Crippled

By BRIAN BELL

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Argentine warships have crippled a mystery submarine hiding in a southern Argentine gulf and capture of the sub is imminent, Navy Secretary Gaston Clement announced Thursday night.

Government authorities claimed the underwater intruder was successfully trapped after a 12 days of hide and seek near the Argentine naval base at the head of Golfo Nuevo, 600 miles southwest of Buenos Aires.

Argentine claims the entire gulf—20-by-40-square-mile body of water opening into the South Atlantic—is her territorial water.

Rear Ad. Clement for the first time confirmed newspaper reports that the submarine had been attacked, both on the surface and under water.

He told newsmen that the sub is forced to come to the surface every 48 hours, showing she had suffered serious damage from depth charges and artillery shells fired by Argentine warships.

President Arturo Frondizi met with military chiefs at government house Thursday night. Sen. Alfredo Turano, president of the congressional defense committee, emerged from the meeting and announced in a radio broadcast that "the Argentine public can be sure that the intruding submarine exists."

Argentine authorities have been silent on the likely identity of the submarine. Both the United States and Britain said none of their submarines are operating in the area.

This is the third foreign submarine scare in Argentine territorial waters within 21 months.

The navy announced the other two got away after being detected. Unofficial naval sources said that those two were believed to be Soviet.

Three Argentine warships on training duty reported spotting the latest submarine Jan. 30 in the Golfo Nuevo. The warships sealed off the narrow mouth of the gulf, to prevent the submarine from escaping into the Atlantic. Additional ships were rushed to the scene.

The Frondizi government sent a rush-order to Washington for additional high-powered antisubmarine equipment. The U.S. Navy announced Thursday night that two planes are flying the equipment here by this weekend. It includes depth charges, electronic para. electric testing devices and aircraft flares.

College Studying Integration Ruling

AMARILLO (AP)—Lawyers here today how widely a court ruling admitting a Negro to West Texas State College at Canyon will affect other state-supported schools.

U. S. Dist. Judge Joe Dooley held Thursday that the Canyon school cannot exclude John Matthew Shipp, 21, of Amarillo, because of his race.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Henry Braswell, who represents the state, said the decision could have a sweeping effect on other state schools. He said some other defense might be advanced if a similar case should arise in other schools but that the precedent has been set as far as WTSC is concerned. He expects other Negroes to enroll in WTSC.

J. W. Durham, Dallas, who represented Shipp, said he doesn't expect any wholesale opening of the doors of other state-supported schools.

Durham, regional attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said he wasn't surprised at the ruling because "it followed the law."

Gov. Price Daniel and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson declined immediate comment.

Judge Dooley said his formal ruling wouldn't be available until next week but will include his courtroom decision in which he said:

"The volume of litigation which has come along in the trial of this case, and the Supreme Court case ruling that children cannot be excluded from white public schools because of race has settled for me the matter of barring admittance of students solely on grounds of color. The law of the country has now been decided by the Supreme Court."

Austin sources said they believe the ruling is the first on integration in the six Texas teachers' colleges.

Shipp, a graduate of the Amarillo Carver High School and an integrated Amarillo Junior College, was turned down twice last year when he tried to enter WTSC, about 20 miles south of Amarillo.

Girl Apologizes For Robbing Office

DALLAS (AP)—A 19-year-old young blond girl apologized for robbing the Oak Cliff office of the Lone Star Gas Co. Thursday and fled with $667.

The blonde, about 19, attractive and sweet-voiced, walked into the office carrying a toy suitcase. She spent 30 minutes chatting with two women clerks before flashing a pistol.

The girl packed up the money saying "I sure hate to do this."

Soviet Leaders On Tour Of Idaho

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—A tour of southwest Idaho faced 12 visiting Soviet leaders today. Pools of interest included a poultry farm and processing plant, a pulp and a lumber mill.

Paar Boils; Walks Off Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Television star Jack Paar, who quit his show Thursday night in anger over ownership of an anecdote on the previous night's show, said today he won't return to it. He said he plans to take a long vacation in Europe.

"I am going to leave the country and go to Europe; maybe to the Mediterranean area where it's warm," Paar said at his home in suburban Bronxville.

"I need a big long rest," he said. Paar told of his plans in an interview with William Kalina, a reporter for the Yonkers Herald Statesman.

He said he had no intention whatsoever of returning to his "Jack Paar Show" on the National Broadcasting Co. network.

He opened morning newspapers to check on ship sailing schedules and said he would try to make reservations today.

Paar said he has canceled all his commitments for the future, including an appearance on the Arthur Murray testimonial program for comedian Bob Hope next week.

Mrs. Paar, with her husband as he was interviewed, said she backed his decision to quit the NBC show, and that she also was looking forward to a long vacation.

The show was being taped before an audience in an NBC studio when Paar commented about "a clown" cutting him off the air for about five minutes Wednesday evening, said "there must be a better way of making a living," and stalked off-stage.

"I believe I was let down by this network at a time when I could have used their help," said Paar.

Paar's final gesture, before leaving was to shake hands with Hugh Downs, announcer of the contest on "The Jack Paar Show."

The studio audience was stunned. Some spectators, thinking it was part of the program, broke into applause, others shouted protests against Paar's departure.

Paar's outburst took place nearly three hours before the show went on the air. It is customary to tape the program in advance.

The one-hour and 45-minute show went on at 11:15 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, exactly as taped and including Paar's leaving. As soon as Paar's blow-up occurred, 18 minutes after the program started, NBC said its telephone switchboard "lighted up like a Christmas tree."

Some hours before the program, Paar had criticized NBC for deleting a story dealing with a mix-up over the letters "W.C." widely used in Europe as an abbreviation for water closet. The anecdote, in the form of a letter, is supposed to be a humorous, one-way side-chapter.

Paar told his audience Thursday night that he heard the anecdote from the uncle of a 14-year-old girl, who, in turn, had heard it from a woman teacher. Paar said it was the uncle who showed him the copy of the story, that he thought it funny and "very innocent."

The story concerns an English couple seeking rent a cottage. They told a real estate agent they wanted a "W. C." The agent, not understanding the initials, asked a local priest, who said the letters stood for wassail, a drink.

"And you know," Paar told the audience, the agent "writes back that it's in the woods and you can only go there Thursdays and Sundays and it's nine miles from the cottage."

A network official said NBC's department of standards and practices felt the story was in bad taste because it involved double meanings in a formal statement.

Paar said he would not return to the program.

THE SPARKS FLEW LAST NIGHT at the scout leaders roundtable held at the high school when Ralph Morgan was demonstrating the new flint and steel method of fire-making. The method involves wrapping the tinder in high inflammable steel wool to expedite the catching of any sparks. Morgan learned the truth of Boy Scout "Be Prepared" motto when the steel wool he borrowed from the school custodian (because he forgot his own) failed to ignite. Finally, in desperation, he set fire to the tinder and it promptly smoothed the flame. Moral to this story: keep your tinder dry and your steel wool soap free. Above, Jeff Stewart, son of one of the scout leaders, and Highway Patrolman Will Cleveland, who spoke to the group on gun safety, watch as Morgan gives it the old Boy Scout try.

Break is Expected In Coors Mystery

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—Sheriff morning on the way from his Art Wermuth says the time is home in the mountain foothills to near for a big break in the family brewery at Golden, 12 miles from Denver, where a kidnapping of a young boy may have been kidnapped. Wermuth and Coors' 70-year-old father, Adolph Coors II, say they believe the missing man is being held by kidnapers. If there have been ransom demands, the family and officers are keeping them secret. The Coors hurried back from a trip to Denver, where FBI agents have maintained a presence of negotiating with kidnapers. "It is just a matter now of waiting for an offer," he said.

"The crucial time in past cases of kidnaping is 36 hours to 48 days after the abduction is made," Wermuth said. Coors disappeared Tuesday.

Young Twins Survive Big Handicaps

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Five infants had worse chances of survival than Mark and Scott, Keith weeks prematurely. Each lacked a gutted vital tube which carries nourishment from the throat to the stomach.

Neither could swallow food. But today both are doing fine, although their parents are still nervous.

Their family physician, who has been unable to identify the cause for twins to be born prematurely and to have the identical defect — known as esophageal atresia — were astronomical. Their chances for survival, he added, were virtually nil.

A team of surgeons at White Memorial Hospital defied the odds, apparently successfully, with a three-stage operation that:

1. Opened both infants' stomachs so each could be fed through a tube.
2. Tied off the lower end of the feeding passageway, which was attached to each baby's windpipe.
3. Connected the gutlet from the mouth to the stomach.

Scott weighed 3 pounds 5 ounces and Mark 2 pounds 15 ounces at birth; now Scott is 5 pounds 3 ounces and Mark 4 pounds 5 ounces.

Scott now can consume half his food by mouth, the rest through a stomach tube. Mark still takes all his food through a tube. But the doctor says both will be feeding normally soon.

Thursday was a big day in Scott's life—he took food through the mouth for the first time. News camera bulbs flashed all about him.

But Scott ignored the fuss. He kept his eyes shut and sucked his thumb.

Finch Would Wed Carole In Future

By DIAL TORGERSON
 LOS ANGELES (AP)—"Would Dr. R. Bernard Finch marry Carole Tregoff today—if he were free?"

The doctor testified that he would not marry Carole today. "Not as soon as possible," he replied. "I would like to see her in the future."

"Not immediately," asked District Atty. Fred N. Whicchio. "Not as soon as possible?"

Said Dr. Finch: "Sometime in the future—after Carole will have had a chance to get over her grief."

"Tears filled the eyes of the doctor's pretty co-defendant—his mistress since 1957—as Whicchio quizzed Finch about his love for Carole."

Finch, completing his eight day of testimony Thursday, said he was still very much in love with her.

Finch is 42, Carole 23.

Her attorneys refused to let the newsman ask Miss Tregoff if she still loved Finch.

She left the court with her eyes moist with tears.

Like Finch, she is charged with murder and conspiracy—accused of slaying the doctor's socialite wife, Barbara Jean, so she could win the doctor's fortune in a divorce settlement.

Whicchio asked Dr. Finch: "Now, doctor, do you feel that you have an ethical regard for truthfulness—and telling the truth?"

Dr. Finch replied: "Mr. Whicchio, I am up here, fighting for my life and liberty, and also maybe for Carole's. And the only argument I have is to tell you folks the truth—and God willing, I will be freed if I keep telling it to you."

Whicchio grilled Dr. Finch about differences between the story he told on the stand and the one he told police in Las Vegas, Nev., where he was arrested July 19, the day after his wife was shot to death.

In court he said that he and Carole drove to the Finch home in West Covina, a Los Angeles suburb, to talk to his estranged wife about a divorce—that she drew a pistol and that he took it from her in a violent struggle. But moments later, he said, she grabbed it again, ran into the yard, and was shot accidentally when he disarmed her and tried to fling the weapon away.

On direct examination he re-

Skies Clear In Midwest Areas Today

By The Associated Press
 Skies cleared and temperatures dropped in the Midwest today as road crews continued clearing snow-covered roads and highways in the wake of winter's worst snowstorm.

Many small towns remained isolated from the storm, which dumped high-fall snow from the Great Plains to Michigan. Travel on some highways in Wisconsin and northwestern Illinois was slowed by stalled cars and snow drifts.

No heavy snowfalls were predicted during the day in most of the country.

However, a snow belt stretching

400 miles was reported in Texas. Only other wet spots were in the central Rockies, which reported snow flurries, and in southern Texas, hit by showers. Skies were clear in the southeast but cloudiness was reported in most other sections of the country.

It was below zero again today in northern Midwest areas, with 11 at Grand Forks, N.D., one of the lowest readings.

Colder weather moved into the Atlantic Coast states after Thursday's unseasonably high temperatures. The mercury climbed to 70 in Newark, N.J., a record for Feb. 11 as was the 57 in Windsor Locks, Conn. it was 66 in Baltimore and 56 in Boston. New York's mild 60-plus readings were marred by wind gusts up to 60 m.p.h.

The undersea telephone cables linking the United States and Hawaii rest on ocean bottom at depths up to 3 1/2 miles.

Town Saves Its Biggest Industry

HEKIMER, N.Y. (AP)—The factory which sounded a blast of victory and the 9,000 residents of this community rejoiced. They had saved a vital industry.

Their efforts to raise $150,000, received pledges and contributions of about $105,000—meant that the Standard Furniture Co. will continue operating its 300 employees still have their jobs, and the town will have $45,000 a year in taxes.

The company makes wooden of steel and aluminum rivals rival but looked forward to a business upswing this year.

Standard said it needed a minimum of $150,000 by midnight Thursday or it would go out of business.

The drive for funds in this Mohawk Valley community, spearheaded by a citizens' committee, began Tuesday. It ended Thursday night, about four hours after the deadline.

Local 3715 of the Carpenters and Joiners Union represents the factory as a key factor. The local pledged $2,000.

Every employe pitched in, too. Some used their savings, others took bank loans and one donated his home to buy $100 company bonds sold in the drive. The bonds mature in five years, at 8 per cent interest.

Samuel D. Earl, company president, described the response as "the most gratifying thing that has ever happened to me. Standard has been a part of Hekimer for 75 years but never so much as it is at this very moment."

Grid Star Faces Suit

BALTIMORE (AP)—A suit on file in circuit court today accused the former Baylor football player L. C. Dupre with beating his wife with his fists and with a coat hanger.

Mrs. Ada Maxine Dupre, 23, said the pro Baltimore football player abandoned her and her two children in December. She said Dupre now is living in his own apartment.

In her alimony and injunction suit, the woman asked the court to award her permanent alimony, child custody and costs. She asked that her husband be restrained from disposing of funds in a bank account of jointly-owned stocks and bonds.

Dupre, 27, has played five years in the National Football League. He has 13 days to answer the suit.

Mrs. Dupre alleged that her husband's income is more than $30,000 a year. Dupre during most of the past season was benched with an injured leg.

The couple were married Feb. 4, 1955, in Waco. They have a son, 4, and a daughter, 8 months old.

Vocal Battle In Oil Case

TULSA (AP)—Attorneys opened a vocal battle today on defense motions asking judgments of acquittal for 29 major oil companies whose federal court trial on price-fixing conspiracy charges has passed the prosecution phase.

U.S. Justice Department attorneys and about 80 corporate attorneys fought the first time. Prosecution ended Wednesday to sharpen their arguments.

When the government rested, each company individually moved for a judgment of acquittal by Judge Rouse Savage on grounds the prosecution's evidence does not support the accusation.

The government has tried to show the defendants conspired to raise crude oil and gasoline prices in a 43-state area after the closure of the Suez Canal shut off flow of Middle East oil to Europe in 1956.

Defendants maintain competition resulting from efforts to increase overseas shipments of U.S. oil, forced the prices up.

Compare this list of Chevy advances with the features ordinary trucks are still talking about. You'll see why Chevy trucks get more work done in a day... why they get extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. These Sturdi-Bilt Sixties aren't just new, they're a full scale revolution!

With independent front suspension there's a brand-new, smoother, easier handling feel behind the wheel.

TORSION-SPRING RIDE
 Each front wheel, suspended independently of the other, is free to step individually over bumps. And shockproof torsion springs up front soak up the jars and jolts before they reach the body. With three rugged new tailored-to-truck rear suspensions to further reduce road shocks, Chevy gives you the smoothest ride you've ever felt.

NO SHIMMY, NO WHEEL FIGHT
 Drive a '60 Chevy. Just once. Right away you'll notice the absence of I-beam shimmy and wheel fight common on ordinary trucks.

CABS FOR BIG GUYS
 Big guys get a bigger break in a Chevy cab. There's plenty of space inside to stretch out and relax; more room for hats and hips; more room for wide shoulders and long legs. There's horizontal visibility through a windshield with 26% more glass area; a new neo-at-all-glass instrument panel. Cabs are safer, too, up to 67% more rigid.

6'S SWORN TO SAVE

Chevy's 6-cylinder engines are set to squeeze extra miles out of every drop of fuel. They're long famous for low fuel consumption, high performance.

SHORT STROKE V8'S

Power-packed for peak performance, Chevy's husky V8's make child's play out of the toughest hauls. They have a mind tuned to economy, too, that keeps costs down, a profit up.

SLICK NEW SUBURBAN CARRIALLS

SEE YOUR DEALER

It could be the most important thing you make in '60. When you've seen these new Chevies, you'll agree they're the world's most advanced trucks. They drive one and find out why.

Soviets Show Their Cooperative' Fashions For 1960

By FRANCIS LEWINE
WASHINGTON AP— Unlike the cutthroat competition of Western fashion designers, Russia says its style setters "put their ideas and models at annual shows."

Fashions of 1960 in the Soviet Union—displayed by trim, slim models—were pictured for Americans in a three-page layout in the current issue of the exchange magazine, USSR.

"This season," writes Central Fashion House designer Lyudmila Turchanovskaya, "Soviet women favor the dress belted at the waistline. Large off-the-neck collars are very much in vogue. Very popular, too, are fur stoles, capes and coats, as well as fur trimmed suits."

The article reports there are 24 fashion houses in Russia's larger cities. The leading houses in cities like Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev and Riga send their patterns to dress factories elsewhere in the country.

The Central Fashion House in Moscow, it says, designs—about 3,000 styles every year, the majority of which are for mass production.

The models in traditional poses were pictured in a variety of dresses from an off-the-shoulder short length black silk embroidered evening gown to slacks with crew neck sweater. Also shown was an eye-catching sport jacket of wool and goatskin from Uzbekistan, worn with a beret.

The footwear ranged from loafers worn with slacks, to pointed toe shoes in a variety of heights.

The Russian fashion display didn't overlook the men. It included "the most popular business suit this season," single-breasted with narrow lapels, shown with a light-colored tie. It was described as being "worn with a warm vest of harmonizing color."

People who have traveled recently to the Soviet Union said some of the styles—especially the evening wear—weren't exactly what the average Russian is seen wearing.

There was no indication in the article of the price Russians might pay for the clothes shown.

A Persian lamb coat "for nippy weather" was not unlike one worn by the wife of Russia's Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov recently when she attended a joint session of Congress to hear President Eisenhower's State of the Union message.

Yankee Lady Calls South Home Now

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
GREENWOOD, Miss (AP)—The Civil War is over at last down here on the Delta.

It took a Yankee family from Binghamton, N.Y., to accomplish the miracle in the hearts of the Deep South where antebellum mansions are still preserved with loving care and where until recently "danyanke" was all one word.

The head of the peace-making clan is Mrs. Sumter Gillespie, a lovely little Dresden doll kind of a lady, publisher of the up and coming Greenwood Commonwealth and generally conceded the Delta's hostess with the mostes.

Her aides are her tall good-looking son, Bill Richardson, general manager of the paper, and her daughter, smart and pretty Mrs. William Michael Biggers, women's editor.

Another daughter, Nancy Richardson, teaches music at Ole Miss. It was 12 years ago that the widowed Mrs. Richardson of Binghamton came down to Greenwood for a visit and was wooed and won by the late Sumter Gillespie, Commonwealth publisher.

Daughter Jane then was persuaded to quit her fashion job in New York and join the staff of her stepfather's newspaper.

In less time than it takes to say General Robert E. Lee she was married to big handsome Mike Biggers, dyed in the wool son of the Deep South.

After the recent death of publisher Gillespie his widow found herself the head of the company.

Friends from the North said of course you'll come back home now, but Marion Gillespie lifted her small firm chin and replied "Home, this is my home and here I stay."

In the last year the Greenwood Commonwealth has undergone extensive face lifting. The building is now a gleaming modern structure with a new rotary color press. The news room is lighted by a radiant-paneled ceiling. The front office is separated from the composing room by panels of butterfly glass.

More important, the paper is gaining circulation and making money.

You might think the old plantation families of this rich and aristocratic Delta country would resent the invasion of these modern Yankees, but not so. The charming and businesslike Marion Gillespie has a finger in every Mississippi political issue. Her opinions are sought and respected by leaders of government and industry throughout the state. Her parties are the most popular in the Delta.

The clamish bluebloods agree the best thing that ever happened to the Delta was the arrival of Marion Gillespie.

Potatoes

Cook potatoes in the usual way. After draining, place the saucepan with the potatoes over a brisk flame and shake to keep the potatoes from sticking. This will dry the potatoes and give a fluffier texture. Add a teaspoon baking powder during the final heating for a whiter, lighter look and garnish the mashed potatoes with a generous pat of butter and a sprinkling of chives.

Mushroom-Onion Soup Francais

INGREDIENTS: 2 cups finely chopped onion, 8 tablespoons butter, 1 pound mushrooms (caps and stems separated and both coarsely chopped), 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) beef bouillon, 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) consommé, 1/2 cup water, 1 quart homogenized milk, 8 tablespoons heavy cream, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

METHOD: In a 10-inch skillet, lightly brown onion in 3 tablespoons of the butter, remove. Add 1 tablespoon of the butter and the mushrooms to skillet; cover and simmer until tender. If pan juices collect, uncover and cook gently until they are almost evaporated; add onion, reserve. Pour undiluted bouillon and consommé water and half the milk into a medium-sized kettle. Gradually add remaining milk to flour, stirring after each addition until smooth; turn into kettle with bouillon cubes and remaining 4 tablespoons butter. Cook and stir constantly over moderate low heat until thickened. Add onion, mushrooms and reserved pan juices; refrigerate and reheat. May be diluted with a little milk. Makes about 2 1/2 quarts, enough for 12 servings.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Jay Hebert continues his putting form and Doug Ford retains his magic touch with the irons, the two old-timers of the tournament trail will be hard to beat in the $22,500 Phoenix Open.

Hebert, of Sanford, Fla., and Ford, Crystal River, Fla., fired 5-under-par 66 Thursday to share the first-round lead in the 72-hole tournament.

Just one stroke back as the second round opened today was Jerry Barber of Los Angeles. Deadlocked at 66 were the veterans Ken Venturi, San Francisco; Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La.; Howie Johnson, Meadowlake, Calif.; John Barnum, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Jack Fleck, Los Angeles.

Ford, the former Masters and PGA champion, said his approach shots were the answer to the tricky 6,885-yard Phoenix Country club course. He posted seven birdies — four of them in a row on the first nine — and two bogies. He was close to the hole all day and his longest birdie putt was 12 feet.

It was a different story for Hebert, who sank birdie putts ranging from 12 to 16 feet.

Grimm Is Confident Cubs Will Crash First Division

By CHARLIE GRIMM
Manager, Chicago Cubs
ROBERTSVILLE, Mo. (AP) — I definitely believe that the Chicago Cubs will crash the first division, and if everything should break right for us, we could take it all. Yes, we can win the pennant, if the ball bounces right.

Don't forget that last year the Cubs better than broke even with the top three contenders — Los Angeles, San Francisco and Milwaukee.

If we could flatten the also-rans a little offener, and then do as well against the other contenders, why couldn't we be up there?

I am very satisfied with the deals made this winter. We had a very poor defensive outfield in 1960. In getting Rickie Ashburn and Frank Thomas we have helped in both the offensive and defensive departments. Ashburn is a good leadoff man who gets on base often and Thomas, a power hitter, can sweep up with the best.

Banks in the long ball department. You know how he has done. Taylor leads the league in home runs. We have a couple of heavy get-on-base speed boys in there

The other six teams in the tournament are expected to play their opening games at their opening round encounters. The lineup includes Sweetwater vs. Colorado City, Lamesa vs. Lake View and Brownfield vs. Andrews.

The winner of tonight's Snyder B-Hermleigh game will meet the winner of the Sweetwater-Colorado City game at 10:45 a.m. tomorrow, with the losers of the same two games scheduled to tangle at 2 p.m. Winners of the Lake View-Lamesa and the Brownfield-Andrews games will be matched in second round play at 3 p.m., followed by the game between the losers of those two games at 1:30 p.m. Consolation finals are scheduled for 8:15 p.m. Saturday, with the championship finals to follow at 8 p.m.

Detroit Club Asks Players For Letters

By DAVE DILES
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — At least a dozen members of the Detroit Lions football team have been asked by the club to write letters to the front office, stating they are happy with the present management and want to play here again in 1960.

President-General Manager Edwin J. Anderson, who instructed Coach George Wilson to phone players and make the request, said it was "routine procedure."

He said the club is trying to ascertain if the players want to play here next season.

"We've been hearing and reading reports that some members of our team want to go to the Canadian league and to the new American Football League. So we decided we'd better find out just which ones want to play here," Anderson said.

He explained that when the National Football League meets in Los Angeles March 11, each club must present the names of three veteran players to the new Dallas club that starts operations next season.

The players said they were using Wilson to write letters to the club, saying they are happy under the present setup and that they plan to return next season.

Some players' letters to the club were declined.

Several of the Detroit players are grumbling and threatening to play out their options so they can become free agents after next season. They then could play for the highest bidder. But playing out the option, rather than resigning a contract, can mean a salary cut of 10 per cent if the club elects.

Olympic Skiers In Test Runs Today

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — Olympic Alpine skiers run a test today on one of the most controversial features of the fast approaching winter games — the men's downhill ski course down Squaw Peak.

Ever since the games were awarded to this valley in California, abuse has been heaped all over the downhill ski course down Squaw Peak.

Thursday, Austria's Anderl Molterer gave a somewhat different version of the steep, two-mile course on which skiers reach mile-a-minute speeds.

"The upper part is devilishly difficult," he said. "If the snow is right, there will not be a surprise winner."

Previously Austrians claimed luck and not skill would play the major role in the race.

West German Coach Fritz Huber declared, "If there is new snow on the course, it will be easy. If it is icy or if there is hard snow, the extremely difficult upper part may be decisive."

Today's inspection won't see any high speeds. Skiers go down in groups with a series of stops to view crucial stretches.

They couldn't hope for better weather than Squaw Valley's freezing Thursday. Sub-freezing morning temperatures rose into the 40's in the afternoon as skaters and skiers got in a day of rugged practice.

The first day of jumping on the 80-meter Olympic hill brought some fine leaps and some hard landings.

Germany's Helmut Recknagel soared about 300 feet as did Torbjorn Ygegeth and Gene Kotlarc of the United States. Norway's 19-year-old Ole Tom Nordtripp was he landed and skidded on his face. After emergency treatment he was pronounced all right.

Spectators gasped as the jumpers soared through the air.

"I think we are set for some great jumping during the competitions if only the weather holds," said Olaf Ulland, chief of the competitions.

Mountaineers Reminded Of St. John's Coach's Warning

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
A few weeks ago, Coach Joe Lapchick of St. John's warned the New York Redmen, too lightly despite their slow start. Today, the West Virginia Mountaineers realize Lapchick knew what he was talking about.

Thursday night, the New York club knocked off the fifth-ranked Mountaineers 29-7 for its seventh straight triumph. The victory came after New York University defeated Manhattan 25-7, in the opener of the Madison Square Garden doubleheader. That game erupted into a melee near the end when NYU's Sam Sanders and Manhattan's Charlie König squared off in a fist fight.

Neither was it a particularly good night for two other teams ranked among the first 20 Miami of Florida. No. 10, was upset by Stetson 22-2 and North Carolina No. 13, was tripped up by Wake Forest 80-69. Eight-ranked Villanova, however, rode over Pittsburgh 76-49.

Jerry West, West Virginia's All-American, gave a great performance against St. John's as he scored 32 points, but his individual efforts were not enough to offset the all-around fine play of the Redmen. St. John's attack was paced by Tony Jackson with 20 points. The setback was West Virginia's third in 22 games. St. John's is 13-5.

Stetson's control - type tactics paid off against Miami. The Hurricanes had a 66-63 lead with 3:10 remaining. Then, Charles Warren and Joe Schneider hit for successive field goals to put Stetson about for good. Miami's mark is now 20-3. Stetson is 11-11.

North Carolina's defeat was its first in the Atlantic Coast Conference since 1957. The Tar Heels were held to 14 points shortly after the intermission, but pulled ahead 41-40 on the shooting of George Ritchie and Len Chappell. The lead changed hands 11 times later until Wake Forest took command with five minutes left. Wake Forest is 9-2 in the ACC and North Carolina is 6-1.

Villanova's Wildcats were paced by Billie White, who scored 29 points and Jim Huggard, who collected 18. Dick Falenski who led for Pittsburgh with 15. The Wildcats, in winning their 17th of 18 games, piled up a 16-point lead at halftime and had it easy after that.

Jon and Jeff Feldman, George Washington's pint-sized twins, scored 40 points between them in the Colonial's shipped Virginia Military Institute 35-78. Jon had 25 points and Jeff had 15.

Furman hit on 55 per cent of its field goals in defeating South Carolina 36-65. Byron Finson was

Whosoever Will may come to Church Whosoever Will may come to God ...

Is It Clear to YOU?

Do you find it hard to read? Is its language too out of date? Have you imagined it contradicts its self? Are you of the opinion God's love for us is a paradox? Do you think if God really loved us He would let us be sick, experience pain and suffer death? Is the Bible actually hard for you to understand? If your answer is "yes," then you should enroll in Sunday School, start going to church regularly and join the band of honest, serious seekers after God's own will in your life; the true interpretation of His word. To the believer the Bible makes sense, it is easy to understand and in it there are no contradictions. It is really the Book of Life.

You In The Church

Sleet fell among the palm trees at Corpus Christi, well down the Texas coast, and snow drifted down at Laredo on the Texas-Mexican border.

Schools closed at Midland and Odessa where 2 inches of snow fell. Schools also shut at La Grange, 70 miles southeast of Austin, because of a 2-inch fall.

Light snow fell in Bryan and at Austin with heavier falls west and south of the capital city. Light to heavy snow fell at Conroe.

The Weather Bureau explained that the snow came from a low pressure area in the Gulf of Mexico. The moist air moving counterclockwise across South Texas, became cold and turned into snow.

The agency said the snow is expected to reach as far north and east as Lufkin.

The highway patrol said all roads were open but discouraged travel on U.S. 277 and 290 in the Sonoma area.

In many places, light rain preceded the snow.

Snow started in the Big Bend area late Thursday. A mail truck on a run from El Paso to Sanderson tried to pass a stalled truck 5 miles west of Alpine, slid into a ditch and overturned.

Etta Denson Hostess To Church Class

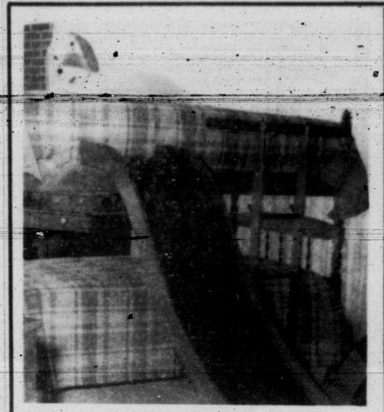

The Rebecca Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met Thursday at 4 p. m. in the home of Etta Denson, 2807 Thirty-fourth Street. Co-hostesses for the meeting were Oma Long and Myrtle Mae Gubbons.

Ellis J. Caspell, president of the class presided for a short business session. She explained the plan for the combined Sunday visitation program to enlist new members and reach the absentees. Plans were discussed about the study course to be given Feb. 14 through 19. Brother Walter Mitchell will teach the book of Timothy.

Evelyn Duff gave the invocation, and Vera Periman presented the devotional. She chose for her subject "The Power of Prayer."

The benediction was given by Lida Rhoades, teacher of the class. During the fellowship hour class members enjoyed a conducted tour of the hostess' new home.

Special guests for the afternoon were Martha Mitchell, wife of the newly called minister of the First Baptist Church.

Members attending other than the ones mentioned above were Maxine Wright, Gladys Shaw, Maxine McNew, Maydell Buras, Ida Denson, Hazel Scarlett, and Laure Holladay.

The next meeting will be held March 10 in the home of Mildred Houston, 1012 Twenty-fifth Street.

FREE: The average Russian woman hasn't received the benefits of that nation's fashion designers, as this picture taken in Moscow last summer indicates.

Soviets Show Their Cooperative' Fashions For 1960

By FRANCIS LEWINE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Unlike the cutthroat competition of Western fashion designers, Russia says its style setters "pool their ideas and models at annual shows."

Fashions of 1960 in the Soviet Union—displayed by trim, slim models—were pictured for Americans in a three-page layout in the current issue of the exchange magazine, USSR.

"This season," writes Central Fashion House designer Lyudmila Turchanovskaya, "Soviet women favor the dress belted at the waistline. Large off-the-neck collars are very much in vogue. Very popular, too, are fur stoles, capes and coats, as well as fur trimmed suits."

The article reports there are 24 fashion houses in Russia's larger cities. The leading houses in cities like Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev and Riga send their patterns to dress factories elsewhere in the country.

The Central Fashion House in Moscow, it says, designs about 1,200 styles every year, the majority of which are for mass production.

The models, in traditional poses, were pictured in a variety of dresses from an off-the-shoulder short length black silk embroidered evening gown to slacks with crew neck sweater. Also shown was an eye-catching sport jacket of wool and goatskin from Uzbekistan, worn with a beret.

The footwear ranged from loafers worn with slacks, to pointed-toe shoes in a variety of heel heights.

The Russian fashion display didn't overlook the men. It included "the most popular business suit this season," single-breasted with narrow lapels, shown with a light-colored tie. It was described as being "worn with a warm vest of harmonizing color."

People who have traveled recently to the Soviet Union said some of the styles—especially the evening wear—weren't exactly what the average Russian is seen wearing.

There was no indication in the article of the price Russians might pay for the clothes shown.

A Persian lamb coat "for nippy weather" was not unlike one worn by the wife of Russia's Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov recently when she attended a joint session of Congress to hear President Eisenhower's State-of-the-Union message.

Describing the Moscow Fashion House where she works, the author of the article explained it employs about 50 designers. "The largest group—all women—work on dresses. The coat and suit designers are mostly men," she said.

The fashion house has a "well stocked library," which includes style books from France, England and the United States.

Noting that Russia in recent years has been showing its garments at international shows, the article concluded:

"We have been flattered by the increasing attention and approval of foreign stylists. We are pleased, of course, but attribute it to the fact that we are challenged by the demands Soviet women make on us all the time. Like women everywhere else in the world, for more original and more interesting creations."

Yankee Lady Calls South Home Now

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
GREENWOOD, Miss (AP)—The Civil War is over at last down here on the Delta.

It took a Yankee family from Binghamton, N.Y. to accomplish this miracle in the hearts of the Deep South where antebellum mansions are still preserved with loving care and where until recently "damyankee" was all one word.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glass of Rankin visited through the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Glass.

Rev. M. P. Bishop, pastor of Fielder Road Baptist Church in Arlington, visited Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Favers. While here he attended Mitchell-Scurry Workers Conference at the Union Baptist Church.

Mushroom-Onion Soup-Francis

INGREDIENTS: 2 cups finely chopped onion, 8 tablespoons butter, 1 pound mushrooms (caps and stems separated and both coarsely chopped), 1 can (10½ ounces) beef bouillon, 1 can (10½ ounces) consommé, ½ cup water, 1 quart homogenized milk, 8 tablespoons flour, 3 beef bouillon cubes.

METHOD: In a 10-inch skillet, lightly brown onion in 3 tablespoons of the butter; remove. Add 1 tablespoon of the butter and the mushrooms to skillet; cover and simmer until tender. If pan juices collect, uncover and cook gently until they are almost evaporated; add onion; reserve. Pour undiluted bouillon and consommé, water and half the milk into a medium-sized kettle. Gradually add remaining milk to flour, stirring after each addition until smooth; turn into kettle with bouillon cubes and remaining 4 tablespoons butter. Cook and stir constantly over moderate to low heat until thickened. Add onion, mushrooms and reheat. If soup is refrigerated and reheated it may be diluted with a little milk.

Makes about 2½ quarts, enough for 12 servings.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae Falls spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Trotter of Fort Worth.

Ronnie Sutter of Texas Tech visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Sutter over the weekend. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Clements and Keith.

Mrs. Sara Lomax and Gene visited Jack Kruse last week.

Visitors in Mrs. Ava Moran's home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Watson, Leslie and Susan of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Tee Griffin, Lane and Gay of Vincent, and Mrs. Natha Davis of Laguna Park.

Mrs. Natha Davis of Laguna Park spent last week visiting relatives here and at Big Spring. She and Mrs. Ava Moran visited Mr. and Mrs. D. Huddies of Lamesa Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clark and children, and Mrs. D. E. Clark visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wallace and Mike of Fluvanna recently.

Mrs. Edd Grant, who has been with her husband at Big Spring, visited her daughter and family Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bolding of Dunn visited the J. L. Byars family Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Burle Rigby of Andrews visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Matlock, owner of the Neighbors Cafe, broke her foot last week.

The head of the peacemaking clan is Mrs. Sumter Gillespie, a lovely little Dresden doll kind of a lady, publisher of the up and coming Greenwood Commonwealth and generally conceded the Delta's hostess with the moose.

Her aides are her tall good-looking son, Bill Richardson, general manager of the paper, and her daughter, smart and pretty Mrs. William Michael Biggers, women's editor.

Another daughter, Nancy Richardson, teaches music at Ole Miss. It was 12 years ago that the widowed Mrs. Richardson of Binghamton came down to Greenwood for a visit and was wooed and won by the late Sumter Gillespie, Commonwealth publisher.

Daughter Jane then was persuaded to quit her fashion job in New York and join the staff of her stepfather's newspaper.

In less time than it takes to say General Robert E. Lee she was married to big handsome Mike Biggers, dyed in the wool son of the Deep South.

After the recent death of publisher Gillespie his widow found herself the head of the company.

Friends from the North said of course you'll come back home now, but Marion Gillespie lifted her small firm, chin and replied, "Home, this is my home and here I stay."

In the last year the Greenwood Commonwealth has undergone extensive face lifting. The building is now a gleaming modern structure with a new rotary color press. The news room is lit by a radiant-paneled ceiling. The front office is separated from the composing room by panels of butterfly glass.

More important, the paper is gaining circulation and making money.

You might think the old plantation families of this rich and aristocratic Delta country would resent the invasion of these modern Yankees, but not so. The charming and businesslike Marion Gillespie has a finger in every Mississippi political issue. Her opinions are sought and respected by leaders of government and industry throughout the state. Her parties are the most popular in the Delta.

The clannish bluebloods agree the best thing that ever happened to the Delta was the arrival of Marion Gillespie.

Potatoes
Cook potatoes in the usual way. After draining, place the sautépan with the potatoes over a brisk flame and shake to keep the potatoes from sticking. This will dry the potatoes and give a fluffier texture. Add ½ teaspoon baking powder during the final heating for a whiter, lighter look and garnish the mashed potatoes with a generous pat of butter and a sprinkling of chives.

Thomas Hopes To Clip Own Record

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John Thomas, Boston University's sensational high jumper, hopes to smash his own record of 7 feet, 14 inches tonight in the Philadelphia Inquirer Games at Convocation Hall.

Other features of the indoor track and field meet expected to draw some 10,000 fans include a record breaking effort by pole vaulter Don Bragg, Loozlo Tabors in the mile and Villanova runners shooting at a double in relay events.

Thomas, 18-year-old B.U. sophomore, competes against Sweden's Stig Peterson, Floyd Smith of the Chicago Track Club, Herman Wynn from Seattle, Clara and Mike Herman of the New York Pioneer Club. He figures to win the high jump but the big question is how high can he go?

Boston U. coaches claim that only a "sagging bar" kept their protegee from clearing 7 1/2 at Boston last week. Coach Doug Raymond says, "The bar sagged almost three inches. John's feet were going over at 7.5 and his torso at 7.24." Promised there would be no sagging bar. Raymond inflated the wouldn't be at all surprised if Thomas writes a new mark on the books tonight.

Bragg, the former Villanova star who set the indoor pole vault record of 15-9 1/2 at the Inquirer meet a year ago, must meet stiff challenges from three other 15 foot vaulters, Bob Gutkowski, the outdoor record holder, Mel Schwarz and Jerry Wellbourn will be on hand to press the issue.

Tabors appears a stickout in the mile, but there is talent in the field capable of springing a surprise. There are Lew Steglitz, Connecticut runner who competed for Uncle Sam against the Soviet Union last summer, George Larson of Oregon, a 4:07.8 mile performer indoors this season, Bobby Seaman, UCLA runner, and Duke's Pete Weisiger. Steglitz is a distance runner dropping to a mile for this meet.

Villanova's mile relay quartet is expected to press the issue. Morgan State Villanova also is accorded a good chance in the two-mile against Furman, Manhattan, North Carolina and St. John's (New York).

Hebert, Ford Setting Fast Pace In Meet

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Jay Hebert continues his putting form and Doug Ford retains his magic touch with the iron, the two old-timers of the tournament trail will be hard to beat in the $22,500 Phoenix Open.

Hebert, of Sanford, Fla., and Ford, Crystal River, Fla., fired 5-under-par 66 Thursday to share the first-round lead in the 72-hole tournament.

Just one stroke back at the second round opened today was Jerry Barber of Los Angeles. Deadlocked at 66 were the veterans Ken Venturi, San Francisco; Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La.; Howie Johnson, Meadowdale, Calif.; John Barnum, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Jack Fleck, Los Angeles.

Ford, the former Masters and PGA champion, said his approach shots were the answer to the tricky 6,585-yard Phoenix Country club course. He posted seven birdies — four of them in a row on the first nine — and two bogies. He was close to the hole all day and his longest birdie putt was 22 feet.

It was a different story for Hebert who sank birdie putts ranging from 12 to 16 feet.

Detroit Club Asks Players For Letters

By DAVE DILES
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — At least a dozen members of the Detroit Lions football team have been asked by the club to write letters to the front office stating they are happy with the present management and want to play here again in 1960.

President-General Manager Edwin J. Anderson, who with the Coach George Wilson to phone players and make the request, said it was "routine procedure" to ascertain if the players want to play here next season.

"We keep hearing and reading reports that some members of our team want to go to the Canadian Football League or the new American Football League. So we decided we'd better find out just which ones want to play here," Anderson said.

He explained that when the National Football League meets in Los Angeles March 11, each club must present the names of three veteran players to the new league, that starts operations next season.

The players said they were urged by Wilson to write letters, saying they are happy under the present setup and that they plan to return next season.

Some players wrote letters to the club. Others declined.

Several of the Detroit players are grumbling and threatening to play out their options so they can become free agents after next season. They then could play for the highest bidder. But playing out the option rather than resigning a contract, can mean a salary cut of 10 per cent if the club elects.

Olympic Skiers In Test Runs Today

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — Olympic Alpine skiers run a test today on one of the most controversial features of the fast approaching winter games — the men's downhill ski course down Squaw Peak.

Ever since the games were awarded to this valley in California, abuse has been heaped all most as deep as the snow on the downhill.

Thursday, Austria's Anderl Molterer gave a somewhat different version of the steep, two-mile course on which skiers reach mile-a-minute speeds.

"The upper part is devilishly difficult," he said. "If the snow is right, there will not be a surprise winner."

Previously, Austrians claimed luck and not skill would play the major role in the race.

West German Coach Fritz Huber declared, "If there is new snow on the course, it will be easy. If it is icy or if there is hard snow, the extremely difficult upper part may be decisive."

Today's inspection won't see any high speeds. Skiers go down in groups with a series of stops to view crucial trestles.

They couldn't hope for better weather than Squaw Valley — freezing morning temperatures rose into the 40's in the afternoon as skaters and skiers got in a day of rugged practice.

The first day of jumping on the 80-meter Olympic hill brought some fine leaps and some hard landings.

Germany's Helmut Recknagel soared about 280 feet as did Torbjorn Yggesseth and Gene Kotlarek of the United States. Norway's 18-year-old Ole Tom Nord tripped as he landed and skidded on his face. After emergency treatment he was pronounced all right.

Spectators gasped as the jumpers soared through the air.

"I think we are set for some great jumping during the competition, if only the weather holds," said Olaf Ulland, chief of the competitions.

Grimm Is Confident Cubs Will Crash First Division

By CHARLIE GRIMM
Manager, Chicago Cubs
ROBERTSVILLE, Mo. (AP) — I definitely believe that the Chicago Cubs will crash the first division, and if everything should break right for us, we could take it all. Yes, we can win the pennant, if the ball bounces right.

Don't forget that last year the Cubs better than broke even with the top three contenders in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Milwaukee.

If we could flatten the also-rans a little offener and then do as well against the other contenders, why couldn't we be up there?

I am very satisfied with the deals made this winter. We had a very poor defensive outfield in 1959. In getting Richie Ashburn and Frank Thomas we have helped in both the offensive and defensive departments. Ashburn is a good leadoff man who gets on base often and Thomas, a power hitter, will team up well with Ernie Banks in the long ball department.

With Ashburn and Tony Taylor leading off the batting order for us, we'll have a couple of pestly get-on-base speed boys up there.

Owls Lose Athletes Via Classroom Route

HOUSTON (AP) — The Rice Owls have lost an all-conference shortstop and five freshman football hopefuls who had trouble with their books.

Coaches learned Thursday that Lynwood Stallings, senior who batted .321 for the third-place Owls last year, will not be eligible for baseball this season.

Victims from the freshman football ranks were Jack Hibbit and Gary Lebarge, both of Aldine; Ken Tilton, Houston; Bill Patterson, Floydada; and Buck Hightower.

Play Young Jerry Kindall at See

There also is the possibility that Earl Averill, who swings a big bat, can make it defensively at third.

If there is any department on the club that needs strengthening it would be a top starting pitcher. Potentially we have a fine staff but it could use more experience. Bob Anderson, Moe Drabowsky, Dick Drott and Glen Hobbie are all having post voting age. Art Cecarrelli and Seth Morehead should take care of the left-handed end. Dick Ellisworth, a newcomer, looks good to me. So do several other young pitchers up from the minors, Ron Elston and Al Schroll should be able to handle the bullpen.

"I'm not concerned at all about the catching. Cal Neenan and Sammy Taylor did well last year and should do even better this year."

Mountaineers Reminded Of St. John's Coach's Warning

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
A few weeks ago, Coach Joe Lapchick of St. John's warned future opponents not to take his New York Redmen too lightly despite their slow start. Today, the West Virginia Mountaineers realize Lapchick knew what he was talking about.

Thursday night, the New York club knocked off the fifth-ranked Mountaineers 79-73 for its seventh straight triumph. The victory came after New York University defeated Manhattan 75-74 in the opener of the Madison Square Garden doubleheader. That game erupted into a melee near the end when NYU's Tom Sanders and Manhattan's Charley Koenig squared off in a fist fight.

Neither was it a particularly good night for two other teams ranked among the first 20. Miami of Florida, No. 10, was upset by Stetson 73-72 and North Carolina, No. 13, was tripped up by Wake Forest 80-69. Eight-ranked Villanova, however, rode over Pittsburgh 75-49.

Jerry West, West Virginia's All-American, gave a great performance against St. John's as he scored 32 points, but his individual efforts were not enough to offset the all-around fine play of the Redmen. St. John's attack was paced by Tony Jackson with 20 points. The setback was West Virginia's third in 22 games. St. John's is 13-5.

Stetson's control-type tactics paid off against Miami. The Hurricanes had a 66-63 lead with 3:10 remaining. Then, Charles Warren and Joe Schneider hit for successive field goals to put Stetson ahead for good. Miami's mark is now 20-3. Stetson is 11-11.

North Carolina's defeat was its first in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Wake Forest trailed by 10 points shortly after the intermission, but pulled ahead 41-40 to the top of the game.

Coaching George Ritchie and Len Chappell. The lead changed hands 11 times later until Wake Forest took command with five minutes left. Wake Forest is 9-2 in the ACC and North Carolina is 6-1.

Villanova's Wildcats were paced by H

Whosoever Will may come to Church Whosoever Will may come to God...

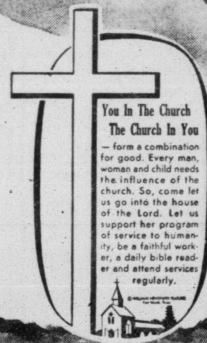

Is It Clear to YOU?

Do you find it hard to read? Is its language too out of date? Have you imagined it contradicts its self? Are you of the opinion God's love for us is a paradox? Do you think if God really loved us He would let us be sick, experience pain and suffer death? Is the Bible actually hard for you to understand? If your answer is "yes," then you should enroll in Sunday School, start going to church regularly and join the band of honest, serious seekers after God's own will in your life; the true interpretation of His word. To the believer the Bible makes sense, it is easy to understand and in it there are no contradictions.

It is really the Book of Life.
