Pampans Among 16 Fined in US Court

Sixteen persons, including eight from Pampa were assessed fines totaling $10,800 in Federal District Court in Amarillo yesterday on charges of making false and fraudulent claims to the Veterans Administration and collecting funds on the claims.

The men were charged in a 21-count indictment before Judge Joe Dooley. The indictments involved the operation of the Wheeler County Vocational School at Wheeler, which also conducted classes in Shamrock and Pampa. The coordinator and four of the school's instructors pleaded nolo contendere to the charges on the grounds that they are dependents in a $1.6 million dollar civil suit filed against them by the federal government.

Three of the instructors were fined $750 each on one count. They were O. C. Cox Jr. and Cleddie Stewart both of Pampa and Otis Reid of Wheeler. Paying fines of $750 and $500 were students of the school who had two counts against them and who had not made restitution to the Veterans Administration. They were Joe D. Hathaway, James V. Hathaway, Billy Wagner to Trigger RFK Declaration.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy will declare his candidacy for the U.S. Senate seat from New York within the next few days, reliable sources said today.

They said the timing of Kennedy's announcement will depend on when New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner, the state's leading Democrat, issues a public endorsement of Kennedy's candidacy. This could come Friday.

USDA to Allow Haying, Grazing Through October

The U.S. Department of Agriculture today granted haying and grazing privileges on diverted crop land through Oct. 31 to farmers in Gray, Wheeler and Potter Counties, according to an announcement from Rep. Walter Rogers in Washington. These counties were among several who have made applications through their emergency drought committees. The program will be administered through the County Soil Conservation office.

According to Foster Whaley, Gray County agent, additional information on the program can be obtained from Evelyn Mason, manager of the Gray County ASC office. Whaley recently pointed out (See USDA, Page 3)

Lawton Satisfied With Meterless Parking Spaces

A committee of three Pampa men who went to Lawton, Okla., yesterday to determine the results of Lawton's plan of doing away with all parking meters, said the Oklahoma town seems well satisfied with the system.

Kirk Duncan, chairman of the parking meter committee of the Downtown Business Association, said that even though the plan is not perfect the city would recommend the plan to other townships.

The Downtown Business Association of Pampa has been conducting an extensive investigation into the possibility of doing away with the parking meters in the downtown Pampa area. Under the system adopted in 1963 in Lawton, a city of 70,000 population, all parking meters were removed and a two-hour parking limit was imposed. Enforcement of the limit was accomplished by patrolmen marking tires. The fine for violation of the parking limit was $1.

In some areas of the city, only the meter heads were removed and the post was painted green. Persons could purchase a permit to park on the green posts for $2 per month. Accompanying Duncan on the trip was Pampa Police Chief Jim Conner and businessman David Caldwell.

Duncan said he will submit his findings to the Downtown Business Association for consideration.

AUTO UNION REJECTS MANAGEMENT OFFERS

CHICAGO (UPI) — The United Auto Workers Union today voted overwhelmingly to reject economic offers laid on the bargaining table Monday by General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

er and close personal friend of the President. He accused the GOP of running a presidential campaign "attuned to the titillations of a pitchman at a financial pep-show."

Mansfield told the senate he was delighted that Johnson had issued the financial statement. He labeled "political prowlers" those who "slink into the financial history of the Johnson family and, finding nothing suitable for jackals, sink out again to spread the half-truth and half-innuendo."

The holdings of Republican presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater and his wife totaled $1.7 million, mostly in stocks and bonds, as of June 30, according to the Phoenix, Ariz., bank which administers the couple's trust accounts.

Johnson Plans To Ask Cut in Taxes Next Year

Deadline of October Set on Measure to Reduce Excise Levy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Administration officials said today that President Johnson plans to ask Congress next year to cut excise taxes by $1 billion to $3 billion in time for the nation's 1965 Christmas shopping. They said a deadline of Oct. 1, 1965, had been set on such a measure so that consumers would not put off their holiday purchases in anticipation of a later tax cut.

If Johnson's plans go through, the second big tax reduction in two years would mean postponing a balanced federal budget at least until fiscal 1968, officials said.

Taxes to be placed on the congressional chopping block would include retail levies on jewelry, furs, cosmetics, luggage and women's handbags; certain manufacturers' excises such as those on office equipment and machine tool lubricating oils, which officials said "simply increase the cost of doing business;" and various "nuisance" taxes on matches and other consumer items.

The decision to push for another tax cut next year instead of in 1966 was announced by Treasury Secretary C. Douglas Dillon at Tuesday's session of the Democratic Platform Committee.

According to sources close to the White House, the principal reasons for this major change in administration policy are: —A feeling among Johnson's economic advisers that the effect of the $11.5 billion cut in corporate and personal income taxes enacted last March may "run out of steam" by the latter half of next year.

—A certainty that if the administration does not initiate a move to cut excise taxes, Congress will cut them itself — and the results might be messier than Treasury tax experts would like. In June, the White House barely defeated a Senate move to do away with excise taxes imposed during the Korean War.

—The people want another tax cut. Last March's tax reduction whetted the public's appetite for this kind of "fiscal dividend" — a point that has not escaped the administration.

Commission OKs Record Allowable

AUSTIN (UPI) — The Texas Railroad Commission today voted an unprecedented 1.5 per cent increase in the state's September allowable for crude oil.

Next month's allowable will be 2,831,583 barrels daily, based on 28 per cent of potential production. The current allowable is based on 26.5 per cent of potential.

It was the largest single-month allowable increase the commission has voted. The commission estimated total production under the new allowable at 2,522,940 barrels daily, after allowing for normal underproduction.

UN Cyprus Forces May Leave Early Because of Funds

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Secretary General Thant warned today the United Nations force in Cyprus will have to be withdrawn before its scheduled date of departure unless additional financial aid is forthcoming.

"I consider it essential that action be taken immediately to obtain additional financial support for the force," Thant told a news conference.

"If this is not forthcoming in the immediate future it will be necessary that the force be withdrawn before its scheduled departure date of September 26."

U.S. Judge Ousts Deputy in Civil Rights Court Action

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — The first contempt action under the civil rights act was taken Wednesday by a white-haired Southern judge who told a spare-time deputy to get out of the sheriff's department and a motel manager to admit Negroes, regardless of a local police order.

U.S. District Judge Bryan Simpson also ordered the two St. Augustine men, unsalaried Deputy Charles Lane Jr. and motel manager William Chew, to share the costs of attorneys for the Negroes who brought the suit.

Simpson ruled the men violated injunctions from his court that required the motel to admit Negroes and restraining any interference with the integration.

Negroes argued during three days of hearings on the contempt charges Chew refused Negroes rooms at his motel and Lane followed the Negroes when they left.

Lance was ordered to pay $200 against the cost of the Negroes' attorneys and Chew and Empire Inns, operators of the Palms Congress Inn in St. Augustine, were assessed $400 in legal fees.

Soviet Antiaircraft Arms Due Makarios

LONDON (UPI) — Russia will donate anti-aircraft equipment to President Makarios of Cyprus as the first concrete contribution to follow the Soviet pledge of support, diplomatic reports said today.

But Moscow apparently has not yet decided whether to give massive arms aid such as rockets or supersonic fighter aircraft.

Diplomatic reports said much will depend on what Makarios is prepared to offer. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was believed interested in detaching Cyprus from the West and removing British strategic bases from the island.

Khrushchev also was reported anxious to keep North Atlantic Treaty Organization or Tufkia bases off the island. The idea of such bases has been brought up in western moves to end the fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

Allied diplomats said that any Soviet attempt to turn Cyprus into a Mediterranean Cuba would damage or even destroy the possibilities of drawing closer to the United States, which Khrushchev is believed anxious to do after the American presidential election.

Man Held In Terrorizing Of Family

AMARILLO (UPI) — Police early today arrested a 30-year-old Sherman man in connection with the beating of a teen-ager and the terrorizing of an Amarillo family.

Police identified the man as Bobby J. Nelms.

Chris Moser, 18, was hospitalized in Northwest Texas Hospital with severe facial lacerations and a concussion. He staggered into a home about 10 p.m. Wednesday blood-spattered and beaten.

While police searched for his assailant, a call came in to police headquarters three blocks away from where Moser was beaten. Police answered the call and found a housewife beaten and held prisoner with her family for nearly an hour.

Police said the woman told them a man had twice attempted to criminally assault her. She said he threatened her husband and children with death and finally left in the family car.

Police later found Nelms, his clothing soaked with blood, hitchhiking down the road. He was arrested for questioning. Police said he admitted beating Moser and attacking the housewife.

Using tracking data relayed from the Philippines by the year-old Syncom-2 scientists at Lakehurst, N. J., triggered two gas jets aboard the new spacecraft to swing it into position for the unprecedented orbital maneuver.

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — American space scientists today eased the new Syncom-3 communications satellite into position for the world's first stationary orbit and a direct television link between Asia and the United States.

Attending the breakfast tomorrow will be 20 Pampa Democrats who have been invited by Republicans to hear Bush speak.

According to Warren Fatheree, regional campaign chairman, Bush will depart from Pampa at mid-afternoon tomorrow for Dalhart. He is scheduled to speak at a GOP Rally in Dumas tomorrow night.

Saturday, the candidate will be in Perryton and depart for his home town of Houston Saturday evening.

Bush, son of former Senator Prescott Bush of Connecticut, will face incumbent Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough in the November general elections.

No One Hit in Two Machine Gun Bursts

By EDWARD SHIELDS

BERLIN (UPI) — A Soviet sentry fired two bursts from a subcommittee gun at a U.S. Army car in East Berlin Sunday, it was disclosed today. The bullets missed and no one was injured.

In announcing the incident, an American spokesman said the United States has lodged a strong protest against such "dangerous, unjustified" shooting which "could lead to extremely serious consequences."

The United States, in noting that the car was about 400 yards from the Red army sentry when he opened fire, termed the action "unprovoked and undisciplined."

A U. S. note called for "appropriate disciplinary action" against the Soviet soldier involved, and demanded "necessary steps to prevent a similar incident in the future."

The American spokesman said the sedan was turning around in a street near a Soviet military base in a sparsely-settled area of East Berlin when it was fired upon.

He said the car was not in a restricted area and that other army patrols had driven through the same area in the past without incident.

Informed sources said other American patrols have driven past the Russian compound since the incident without trouble.

The Russians simply took the protest note without giving any explanation of the incident or showing any reaction.

The U. S. Army regularly sends sedans with uniformed drivers and passengers on tours of East Berlin as a manifestation of its right to move freely anywhere in the city.

The Russians send similar automobile patrols through West Berlin. Soldiers and officers on such patrols do not carry arms.

The U. S. protest said the men fired on by the sentry "were exercising their rights of freedom of movement in the Soviet sector of Berlin, rights also enjoyed by Soviet personnel in the Allied sectors of Berlin."

Foreign News Commentary

By K.C. THALER

LONDON (UPI) — Strongly anti-Communist Greece is anxious to counter any possible intervention by Russia in the Cyprus conflict.

This is at least one of the major aspects of the Greek government's surprise decision to withdraw some of her forces from NATO.

The move appears at least in part designed to discourage President Makarios from involving Cyprus in too close an alignment with the Soviet Union through Russian military aid.

The overt motive is Greece's intention to be able to deter any possible Turkish invasion of the Mediterranean island.

But diplomats here believe the scales in Athens were tipped by fear of Russia moving into the Mediterranean.

Appears Alike

The Greek government appeared markedly aloof when Turkey raided Greek Cypriot positions in the island. There was talk subsequently of differences between Athens and Makarios that were patched up.

Makarios is veering too far away from Enosis—union with Greece—for the liking of the Athens government. He now seems to want complete independence and there are strong signs he wants to be free to choose his alignments and to deal with Russia as well as the West.

Greece cannot be pleased with this trend and Makarios' appeal for Russian aid, in the view of informed diplomats, has chilled the anti-Communists in Athens to the bone. This could turn out to be a danger to Greece of major proportions.

Motives Not Clear

Russian designs remain obscure.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev kept silent at the height of the Cyprus crisis a week ago. But when a settlement appeared in the making Moscow announced its pledge to stand by Makarios.

The aid pledge was carefully phrased, making it, in effect, conditioned on a Turkish invasion.

Whether Khrushchev really wants to get involved directly in Cyprus appears doubtful. He has given strong indications that he does not want to antagonize the Americans. But the prospect of getting a foothold on Cyprus in return for the supply of some outdated weapons might prove too alluring for the Kremlin to resist.

Texans Warned On Causing LBJ 'Embarrassment'

AUSTIN (UPI)— Texas delegates to the national Democratic convention were warned Wednesday to "refrain from doing or saying anything that will cause President Johnson any difficulty or embarrassment."

The warning came in an unsigned memo from state Democratic headquarters.

"Particular care should be exercised in talking with members of the out-of-state press about controversial issues, such as the selection of a vice presidential candidate or the seating of any contested delegation, because anything any Texas delegate says may be construed as an indication of what President Johnson thinks on the subject," the memo said.

"George Christian and Julian Reed will be with us in Atlantic City to give any needed advice or assistance in dealing with the press," it continued.

Christian is Gov. John Connally's press secretary and Reed is a public relations advisor to Connally and other Texas Democrats.

Woman Driver Pulls Neat Trick, But It Didn't Work

ARLINGTON, Va. (UPI) — Once upon a time there was this girl, see.

She was driving two cars at the same time when a policeman stopped her.

"Why," said the policeman, "are you driving two cars at the same time?"

"Because," said the girl, obviously irritated, "it is easier than driving one car home and then walking back to get the other one."

"You're under arrest," said the policeman.

"Why?" said the girl. Fiction? Not quite.

It actually happened this way: Gayle Andrews, 24, was spotted by Police Sergeant Emmett R. McLean driving down a main thoroughfare of this Washington suburb in the early morning hours.

Actually, Miss Andrews was not technically driving. She was being pushed by a driverless car behind her car.

It seems this was the best way to solve a problem — at least that was the way Miss Andrews told her story to the court Tuesday.

She said she wanted to move two cars a distance of about 10 blocks last July 27. Since there was only one of her and two cars this is what she did:

1. Started the motor of the rear car and put the automatic shift into drive.
2. Hopped into the front car as the back car started to push it.
3. Kept jockeying the front car so that it would guide the back car, keeping it in the front car's wake.

Miss Andrews told the court she felt that this was a perfectly safe way of travel. However, she admitted it was hard on pedestrians.

She told the judge that one man appeared startled as she drove past.

He did not think anything of it until he noticed that "the car behind me was doing the driving," she told the judge cheerfully.

Judge Berton V. Cramer was not laughing, however. He fined her $25 for reckless driving.

But Miss Andrews "definitely disagreed" with the verdict.

Said the judge, with an air of finality, "If that isn't reckless driving, I don't know what is."

Airliner With 37 Crash Lands in Nevada; None Die

TONOPAH, Nev. (UPI) — A twin-engine DC3 airliner carrying 37 persons to a Nevada gambling resort crashed Wednesday night while attempting an emergency landing in a dry southern Nevada lakebed, but all aboard survived.

Rick Blakemoor, manager of the local airport, called it "fantastic" that there were no fatalities in the crash.

"The plane hit on one wing, shearing it off. Then the airliner cart-wheeled 150 yards down the lakebed," he said. "Both engines were knocked loose by the impact. It was fantastic that nobody was killed. The plane wound up on its back with the tail sticking up in the air, but the passengers just walked out the door."

Although 20 of the passengers checked in at the local hospital with minor cuts and bruises, only pilot H. W. Hopkins and the still unidentified co-pilot were seriously hurt. They were trapped in the cabin for 90 minutes until cut loose by hacksaws.

The plane was headed from Burbank, Calif., to Hawthorne, Nev., when it reported 15 minutes out of Tonopah at about 11 p.m. EDT that one engine was out.

Valley Newspapers Receive Top Merchandising Award

Winners in the Lone Star Advertising Company "Newspaper Merchandising Contest" were named this week at Kilgore by Harry R. McElDowney, advertising director.

Judged first was the merchandising prepared by the Rio Grande Valley Newspaper Group of Harlingen. The Pampa Daily News is a sister paper of the Valley Group.

A full front page and inside pages told the Lone Star story to wholesalers, distributors and retailers. More than 2,000 of the "Special Lone Star Editions" were distributed. L. G. Nicolai, national advertising director, receives an all-expense paid trip to the New York World's Fair, the first prize.

Second place, expense paid trip to Las Vegas or Mexico City, went to the American Statesman of Austin, for merchandising prepared by Al Jennings, advertising director.

Third place, expense paid trip to New Orleans or Hot Springs, was won by the Fort Worth Press. Mack Stewart is national advertising manager for the Press.

The judging panel was made up of Ward M. Wilcox, chairman of the board, Glenn Advertising, Inc.; Charles Cooper, vice president; Allen Smith, merchandising director and members of the executive staff of the Lone Star Advertising Company, San Antonio and Oklahoma City.

Harry Jersig, president and chairman of the board, who made the presentations, commended the newspapers for efforts and originality in merchandising Lone Star Beer and its current advertising theme, "Make the Most of Nature's Best."

John Pitt, general sales manager, told the newspaper advertising executives that the 1964 campaign, which relied heavily on full pages in color, had resulted in increased sales for the current fiscal year.

Gessner Denied New Trial by Federal Judge

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (UPI) — U.S. Dist. Judge Arthur Stanley Wednesday denied a new trial motion for George John Gessner, convicted of giving U.S. secrets to the Russians.

A jury found Gessner guilty in Stanley's court last June. Gessner was sentenced to life in prison. The judge recently held a hearing at Topeka, Kan. on a new trial motion.

Stanley sent letters to Ernest Rice of Topeka, a court-appointed defense attorney, and to U.S. Dist. Atty. Newell George telling of his decision.

But the judge did not elaborate on reasons for denying the motion.

He said he had examined "authority cited by counsel and was denying the motion."

Rice said he would appeal Gessner's conviction to the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals at Denver.

He indicated if the circuit court does not reverse the conviction he will take it to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The trial of the 28-year-old Army deserter was the first under the atomic energy act.

The government said Gessner deserted from Ft. Bliss, Tex., and later gave U.S. secrets to Russian agents in Mexico City in exchange for $200 to go to Cuba.

Peking Reported Cooling Off on Viet Nam Issue

LONDON (UPI) — Diplomatic reports indicated Wednesday the Kremlin has frustrated for some time to come any plans Red China may have had for showdown with the United States over the retaliatory attack on Communist North Viet Nam.

Reports reaching here from Peking said the Chinese Communists are "cooling off" and ostensibly have shelved plans for any major military moves following the U.S.-North Vietnamese incidents in the Gulf of Tonkin early this month.

A key reason for the Peking attitude is the Soviet Union's aloofness in the recent Southeast Asia crisis, the reports said. The Kremlin has shown an apparent unwillingness to help China politically or militarily.

The reports cautioned that China, smarting under the inability to react forcefully to the recent American retaliatory raid, is not likely to forget.

But instead of open intervention, the Peking regime, to all appearances, is resigned to a strategy of limited assistance to the Vietnamese Reds with arms, planes and some "volunteers" and advisers.

Diplomatic reports said that as far as can be ascertained, the Peking leadership no longer is under any illusion whatever that the Soviet either would back China's push for big power status or get involved in a war for the greater glory of Mao Tse-tung.

Communist China's military means are too limited for any major involvement in war with the United States.

While Peking publicly still holds to its view that the United States is only a "paper tiger" the action in the Gulf of Tonkin appears to have set off second thoughts in high echelons of the Chinese military and political leadership, the reports said.

The accident occurred about 8 p.m. at the intersection of Cuyler and Atchison.

Damage to the vehicles was estimated at about $350.

Parties to Highlight Democratic Parley

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — The convention opening here next Monday to select the presidential and vice presidential candidates of the Democratic party will be a "party" function in more ways than one.

From all advance indications, the affair will be an almost continuous, four-day series of parties for top administration officials—including President Johnson—loyal supporters, and their families and friends.

Business sessions of the convention will be held in the early evening, leaving the daylight and late evening hours open for receptions, brunches and lunches, dinners, fashion shows and other affairs. These "other affairs" range from splash parties to moonlight cruises.

Supporters of the top Democrats mentioned as possible vice presidential running mates appear to be competing for the most advantageous spots and times to keep their man in the party limelight.

Probably the most stupendous wing-ding that even Atlantic City has ever seen will be the celebration for the President on Thursday, Aug. 27—the final day of the convention and Johnson's 56th birthday.

Panel Asks Delay on Labels

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Commerce Committee asked the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) Wednesday to delay for six months its proposal to require the labeling of cigarettes as harmful to health.

The FTC has intended to put the labeling regulation into effect next Jan. 1.

The FTC was asked to postpone it until July 1, 1965, "in order to give the Congress an opportunity to consider the matter more fully next year."

The FTC issued a ruling June 24 stating that beginning next year, cigarettes sold to the public must bear a label proclaiming that smoking is dangerous to health and could cause

Ruby Accused Lawyer, Newspaper Says Closed Door Session

DALLAS (UPI) —Condemned killer Jack Ruby accused one of his lawyers of giving false information to the Warren Commission in his jail cell interview with U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren, the Dallas News said Wednesday.

Quoting informed sources, the paper said Ruby saw one of his lawyers, Joe Tonahill, of Jasper, Tex., hand a message to J. Lee Rankin, chief counsel for the commission, during the interview.

Ruby admonished Tonahill for it in front of Warren.

Warren flew to Dallas for the interview June 7, reportedly at Ruby's request. It was the first time a U.S. chief justice had questioned a condemned slayer inside a jail.

It was later reported that Ruby told Warren he killed accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald to spare Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy the anguish of a return trip to Dallas to testify at Oswald's trial.

Ruby also reportedly told Warren he was not part of a conspiracy and did not know Oswald, and that he had wanted to testify at his murder trial but his lawyer at the time, Melvin Belli of San Francisco, would not let him.

Rocky's Wife Seeks Custody of Children

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (UPI) —Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller went to court Wednesday to try to reverse a divorce agreement which gave custody of her four children by her first marriage to their father, Dr. James S. Murphy.

The court battle over the four Murphy children moved behind closed door after a brief airing of the issues between the former Margareta Filtier Murphy and the husband she divorced to marry the New York governor.

Mrs. Rockefeller sent four attorneys into state Supreme Court and Murphy sent three.

Edward S. Greenbaum, chief counsel for Mrs. Rockefeller, told Justice Joseph F. Gagliardi that the New York court has the responsibility for the welfare of the Murphy children "irrespective of any agreement made in a foreign state," a reference to the Murphys' Idaho divorce.

He said Mrs. Rockefeller wanted permanent custody of her children.

Murphy wants a court order to force Mrs. Rockefeller to return the youngest child, Melinda, 4, to him.

She and the other three children, James, 13, Margareta, 11, and Carol, 8, have been staying with Mrs. Rockefeller since Murphy went on his honeymoon with his new wife, the former Victoria Thompson, two months ago.

Teens in a Rush Need Breakfast

INSTANT BREAKFAST — Orange cereal milk shake teamed with banana flake bread makes an 'instant' breakfast for busy teen-agers. Today's teenagers aren't eating adequate diets. The U. S. Department of Agriculture says it's because they skip breakfast, eat poor snacks, don't drink enough milk, and feed a r they will get fat. Mothers, why don't you try during September Better Breakfast Month to see how you can remove some of the reasons why teen-agers aren't getting adequate diets.

Take breakfast, most teenagers skip this meal because they simply don't have time to eat. Here is a way you can produce virtually an "instant" meal. Why not serve your teenagers a blender breakfast. A blender breakfast is nothing more than cooked cereal (oatmeal, hot whole wheat cereal, or farina) milk, fruit juice, and a bit of sugar whirred in the blender until smooth and creamy. Two cups of milk shake teamed with two slices of buttered banana flake bread make an adequate breakfast for a 15- to 18-year-old girl. This breakfast supplies approximately one-fourth of the protein needed by this age group. Such a breakfast can be eaten on the run and it's good - tasting!

This "instant" breakfast also ensures that your teen-age daughter is well on her way to getting two cups of milk per day. If she is within a normal weight range, she will "not get fat" on this breakfast because it provides just one-fourth of her caloric needs.

ORANGE CEREAL MILK SHAKE

1 cup cooled, cooked rolled oats, quick or regular
1 cup chilled orange juice
2 tablespoons sugar
1-3 cup dry whole milk
Measure ingredients into blender container. Cover and blend about 5 seconds. If no blender is available, beat until thoroughly mixed with hand or electric mixer. Chill, if desired. Yield: About 3 cups.

BANANA FLAKE BREAD

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
1-3 cup milk
1 1/2 cups mashed bananas (about 4)
1/4 cup melted shortening or cooking oil
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup chopped nuts, optional
1 cup whole wheat flakes
Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar. Combine egg, milk, bananas, shortening or oil, and vanilla; add to dry ingredients and stir just until well mixed. Blend in nuts and cereal flakes. Turn into greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) until done, 50 to 60 minutes. Cool on rack 10 minutes. Remove from pan. Yield: 1 loaf (9 x 5 x 2 1/2 inches).

1/2 teaspoon thyme
3 pounds ground beef.
Beat eggs slightly in large bowl. Add tomato sauce, mustard, molasses, vinegar and Tabasco; blend well. Mix in bread crumbs, onion, parsley, glutamate, salt and thyme. Add ground beef; mix well. Turn into 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 1 1/2 hours. Turn out into platter and ring the meat loaf with whole baby carrots and potatoes.

NOTE: Use half of ingredients for meat loaf for 6 servings. Form mixture into loaf and bake in shallow baking pan in moderate oven (350 degrees) 1 hour, or bake in small loaf pan.

Food Buying Guide

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Produce counters are bulging with lots of fresh fruits and vegetables this week, all perfect for cooling summer meals.

Beef continues to be a good buy, especially ground beef and roasts this week. Broiler-fryers offer nice variety to the meat list.

Good vegetable buys will include: green beans, cabbage, carrots, celery, lettuce, peas, peppers, and squash. Exceptionally good buys include sweet corn, onions, potatoes and tomatoes.

For the fruit bowl, look for: apples, cantaloupes, grapes, nectarines, peaches, plums and watermelons.

Fish and seafood fans will find plenty of canned pink salmon, fish sticks and fish portions.

Instructions for Terrific Turkey

By GAYNOR MADDOX
When your barbecue turkey has been defrosted, marinated, trussed and placed on the spit rod with perfect balance, it is ready to be placed on the rotisserie.

The following instructions are from Gene Beals of the California Turkey Promotion Advisory Board in Fresno, one of the most experienced turkey barbequers in the country.

With the drip pan in place, and the charcoal a consistent gray ash, the bird on the spit can now be placed in the turning position. As the bird turns, the basting sauce can be applied as liberally as desired. The drippings will be caught in the drip pan and not flare up from the charcoal.

The time required to cook properly depends a great deal on (a) the type of fire built, (b) the weather. If it's windy, most of the heat will be dissipated. However, by turning the barbecue so that the closed side of the shield is facing the wind, satisfactory results can be obtained. If the instructions are followed and the fire built properly it will take approximately 15 minutes per pound to cook hen turkeys. A 12-pound bird will require about three hours.

The most satisfactory method of determining when the bird is cooked is by inserting a meat thermometer into the deepest portion of the thigh meat area. This can be done after about two hours. When the thermometer reaches 185 to 190 degrees, the bird is done and will be juicy.

Another method of testing is, with some protection on the fingers, to squeeze the drumstick meaty portion at the knee joint. If it is soft, the bird will be done. This method is not nearly as satisfactory as the thermometer test.

Remove the spit and the bird from the barbecue, placing on a tray and allow to stand for 20 to 30 minutes to reabsorb the juices into the deepest tissues and allow the spit rod and forks to cool sufficiently to be removed.

Although it may appear that a great deal of work and time are required, once the turkey is placed on the spit over the coals, it requires little if any attention.

Are We Really Well-Nourished?

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—I give my family lots of food every day. But how can I be sure they are really well-nourished?

A—Your family's eating habits are a good check on whether they are well-nourished or malnourished. Hints on malnutrition diagnosis are given in a new book "Manual of Clinical Nutrition" by Goodhart and Wohl.

They point out that half the daily protein intake should be from meat, milk, cheese, eggs and poultry and that habitual ingestion of much less points to possible deficiencies in protein, iron and B vitamins.

Omission from the diet of yellow and deep green leafy vegetables excludes the main source of vitamin A. If an American does not regularly eat citrus fruits and tomatoes and their juices, intake of vitamin C may be below the recommended allowance. Failure to eat whole grain or enriched bread and cereals suggests inadequate intake of thiamine, riboflavin, niacin and iron which are the enrichment ingredients.

To re-hydrate freeze-dried foods, simply soak in water or cook in soups. Strawberries can be re-hydrated with syrup and meats with water to which tenderizer has been added.

Let Pre-Schooler Enjoy Breakfast

If your pre-schooler becomes balky at the breakfast table, let him enjoy his cereal and milk while watching one of the small fry morning TV shows.

A bowl of cereal such as corn puffs, regular, sugar coated, fruit or cocoa flavor, probably will really appeal to him. These little cereal puffs can be easily picked up by tiny fingers and eaten out of hand while sipping milk from a cup. Breakfast cereals are low in fat. They also make nutritional contributions of protein, important B vitamins, essential minerals, and food energy.

To complete a basic breakfast pattern, later offer orange juice and buttered toast.

Tribute To A Friend

Robbie and Kerrie Whitaker, national poster children for Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, bring flowers to the grave of their great and good friend, the late President Kennedy, who personally welcomed them to the White House in the summer of 1963. The youngsters, whose home is in Cincinnati, Ohio, have been chosen to spearhead the March for Muscular Dystrophy for a second year. They were in Washington at the invitation of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, MDAA's honorary chairman.

Three Governors Pass Up Johnson Bid to Meeting

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson wants the nation's 34 Democratic governors to come to the White House Saturday for a "working session"—but at least three Southern ers have decided to pass up the invitation.

The Chief Executive told of his invitation at a 15-minute news conference Thursday. He allowed that the subject of politics might naturally arise during the meeting, coming as it does only two days before the start of the Democratic National Convention.

But, he added, the purpose of the session will be "to review with the governors the impact of the economy on their states, the impact of space and defense programs, of new opportunities in education and health programs."

Johnson said he previously had offered to meet with the nation's 16 Republican governors, but "unfortunately, they were unable to come."

Whatever the topic of the Saturday session Govs. Paul B. Johnson Jr. of Mississippi, Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas and John M. McKeithen of Louisiana have decided not to attend. Faubus said he was going to a class reunion instead. Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and Tennessee Gov. Frank G. Clement said they had not decided whether to go.

The President said he also hopes to discuss with the Democratic governors the government's new mass transit program and its effect on metropolitan areas. Another subject will be prospects for increased capital investments to keep pushing down the unemployment level which fell below 5 per cent last month for the first time in seven years.

House-to-House Visits To Open 1964 MD Drive

The 1964 Muscular Dystrophy Drive will begin in Pampa at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 3 with a house-to-house drive to raise $5,000. Simultaneous drives will be conducted in Borger and Skellytown.

The money will be used for research and to aid people afflicted with the disease.

One volunteer in each city block of the three cities will be recruited to work their block on that night asking for donations.

The Top O' Texas Muscular Dystrophy Foundation is in the process of raising money and personnel to build a muscular dystrophy clinic in Amarillo.

Also, plans are being made to establish a dystrophy branch office in Skellytown to serve Pampa, Borger and Skellytown.

Lee J. Thomas of Skellytown is campaign chairman.

Scouting Develops Integrity, Ingenuity

(Editor's note — This is the fourth in a series of articles on participating agencies of the Pampa-Lefors United Fund. The stories are accounts of functions or instances, written by the head of each agency, whereby the money donated to the agency through the United Fund has been put to use. The stories will appear every other day in the News.)

By MARY LOU HOTOPP
Girl Scouting aims to develop in young girls the integrity and ingenuity to assure their own and their community's well being. One of the most important means of developing this self-reliance is service.

One Pampa senior troop has given over 1,100 hours of service during the past four years. These high school age girls have been helping in such varied places as: Highland General Hospital, Lovett Memorial Library, veterinarian clinics, water safety programs, various nurseries, offices, and the Pioneer Cottage.

While learning to sew, a Brownie troop made sock dolls for the colored nursery. This same troop saved enough dimes to supply milk for the nursery. Several junior troops have made toys for and prepared programs for the orphanage at Panhandle. Countless overseas gift boxes have been assembled for the Junior Red Cross.

A Cadette troop has carried out a visiting program at Twilight Acres. Through Girl Scouting girls 7 through 17 have an opportunity for fun and self-government as well as for giving service to others.

Contributions to the Pampa-Lefors United Fund train leaders who in turn organize and instill in girls the ideals of scouting. Leaders and girls work together to help themselves and to help others. You can count on them; can they count on you?

ASKS TO JOIN SUIT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — More than 450 rank and file Teamsters union members asked Wednesday to join a suit which seeks to deny Teamsters President James R. Hoffa union funds for his legal defense fees.

The 452 Teamsters — from Philadelphia, New Jersey and Baltimore — filed a petition in federal court asking permission to join as plaintiffs in the suit, by Local 107 of Philadelphia, which was originally brought

The suit claims that funds paid out to help Hoffa in his two recent trials in Tennessee and Chicago were drawn from sources not permitted for such purposes under the union constitution.

CUBAN EXILES MARCH
COCOA, Fla. (UPI) — Four Cubans claiming membership in a militant anti-Castro organization walked down U.S. Highway One Wednesday on the last leg of a New York to Miami march.

The exiles are trying to raise money to buy more weapons and ammunition for use in guerrilla warfare in Cuba.

ACTRESS RECUPERATES
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Joan Crawford, undergoing treatment for a respiratory virus infection since July 31 at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, was reported doing fine Wednesday by doctors.

Senate Approves Housing Measure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate passed a $1.1 billion compromise housing bill Wednesday to liberalize mortgage terms for American home buyers.

The stopgap measure was passed by voice vote and sent to the House. It represented a compromise of more than 66 differences between separate bills passed earlier by the House and Senate.

It included a $50 million program providing 3 per cent 20-year loans for businessmen and families to rehabilitate property in slum clearance areas. It was designed to encourage renovation of buildings in clearance districts, instead of bulldozing down all structures in the path of urban renewal projects.

Perhaps most significant to home buyers was an expansion of FHA-insured mortgages from $25,000 to $30,000.

Honesty Pays for Briton After Five Years of Waiting

LONDON (UPI)—Fred Skinner was 30,000 pounds ($84,000) richer this week because he gave 1,000 pounds ($2,800) back to its owner.
Skinner was walking across a park near his home five years ago when he stumbled across a package containing the 1,000 pounds.

Exhibit Started On Prisoner Art
HUNTSVILLE (Sp1)—An unusual art exhibit began Sunday in Beaumont and received extremely favorable comments from more than 200 persons who inspected the works of 65 inmate artists of the Texas Department of Corrections.

The exhibit, sponsored by the Beaumont Art League, will continue in the organization's gallery through Aug. 30.
It opened Sunday with a reception attended by Alonzo Langley, director of education for the prison system; Fred Pardue, assistant educational director, and inmate artists Ed Hill and Donald Woods.

A number of paintings were purchased during the opening event, which also was attended by residents of Port Arthur, Houston and Lake Charles, La. State Rep. Will Smith of Beaumont, a special guest, also praised the exhibit as "one of the finest."

The Beaumont showing marks the first time the paintings have been displayed outside the confines of the prison system.
Washington palms taller than 100 feet have been grown in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Dear Abby....

Office Party, Sans Partner, Bad Business

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem may not sound very serious to you, but it has caused a small war between my girl and me. I am a mechanic, 23 and single. I am going with a very nice girl who is 22 and works in an office. Her office is having a party. (A hayride, of all things.) They decided not to ask anyone who is NOT employed in their office. That isn't too bad. But the clincher is that no wives or husbands are invited. They are all over 21 and drinks are served. If I were a married man working in an office, I wouldn't go to an office party if my wife was not welcome. My girl is on the hayride committee and she says I don't work in an office and don't know what I'm talking about; that any time you have married couples at a drinking party it always ends up in a drunken brawl. Am I wrong or is she?

of sugar. Once she knows you better, if the man is available, interested, and normal, you'll have your chance. Otherwise, who needs him?

DEAR ABBY: I would like to know what to do about a neighbor who talks about sex all the time. No matter what anybody says, he always puts a dirty meaning to it, and gets off on his favorite subject. He uses filthy words, too. His wife must think it's cute because she is right there and she laughs right along with him. The rest of us are embarrassed and try to change the subject, but he can turn any subject back to sex again. We are disgusted with him but don't know how to handle the situation. Any suggestions?

"MRS. CLEAN"
DEAR "MRS. CLEAN": A good friend could tell old foul mouth to shape up or shut up. Unless one's around, how out of his company and avoid him.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SAILOR ON THE U. S. S. KITTY HAWK CVA-63": Glad to hear that under that uniform beats the heart of an "old-fashioned" boy who has respect for virtue and womanhood. And you'll be glad to know that there's an "old-fashioned" girl for every man in your outfit!

President Keeps His Word as He Places Women in Government Jobs

EDITORS NOTE: This is the first of a series of three dispatches on women in government.

Women in Government
By HELEN THOMAS
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson is a man of his word when it comes to women. The President has promised to end "stag" government and put more women in the top federal jobs. On that score, he has called up a solid record of accomplishment without a male backlash.

Last January, Johnson set a goal of placing 50 qualified women in upper strata government jobs within a month. There were the skeptical, the wary and those who thought he was kidding.

By prodding his cabinet and agency chieftains, he proved again what is well known in Washington — "What Lyndon wants, Lyndon gets."

So determined was Johnson to make good on his campaign he held a special cabinet meeting to discuss the problem. "What have you got against women?" he asked his top advisers.

They knew he meant business when he followed up his question with a firm memo to agency heads, directing: "It is imperative that an intensive effort be made to fill top-level vacancies in your agency with women who, but for the historical bias against their sex, would be considered well-qualified."

The goal of 50 females in the top spots was just a teaser. The President went way over his goal.

White house figures at the end of July showed a total of 56 personal appointments by Johnson of women to sub-cabinet rank, ambassadors or federal commissions, many in areas previously considered exclusively male sanctuaries.

In the same period, from Jan. 1 through July 31, there were 1,194 appointed or promoted to jobs on the federal payroll, paying $10,000 to $20,000.

Of these, 249 women were selected for professional positions in the Civil Service and 945, already on the government rolls, were promoted to better paying, more responsible posts.

The President is the first to admit that his high regard for female ability stems from his enormous admiration for his mother, Rebekah Baines Johnson, when he was growing up, and for his wife, Lady Bird, whom he extolls as a woman of "many talents."

males with her month "women doers" luncheons. She also makes speeches urging women to broaden their horizons from the "home to humanity."

Where women are concerned, the President has no male ego. He has often said that women have the "stick-to-itiveness, courage and a never-say-die attitude that you don't find in a man. They don't ever give up when they believe something deeply. And they have the imagination, initiative and ingenuity that I like."

Like Socialism Just Little Bit?

One of the arguments which keep cropping up in an effort to explain the drift toward socialism in this country is that socialists, although numerically inferior, are very bright people and use superior tactics. Those taking this position like to suppose the anti-socialist position is the popular position; that the great majority doesn't like an amount of socialism or communism and thus that the tail is wagging the dog.

Somehow, we think that argument is thin. The reason we continue to move toward socialism is because most people in the nation like some socialism. They may not like Russia, but Russia didn't invent socialism, or communism, either.

Many conservatives like to imagine that they are on the side of the great majority. Surely, this must be kind of a self-deception. Assuming a conservative really doesn't like socialism, does he have any idea of just how rare a bird he is?

The fact is that almost all Americans oppose socialism and communism by name. But so far as socialist practice is concerned, even the most ardent anti-socialists are actually practicing and advocating socialism part of the time, if not most of the time.

Normal survey before various "conservative" and "rightwing" groups some years ago an associate of ours conducted a kind of in-groups across the nation. He drafted a questionnaire containing 25 questions, all of which were to be answered "yes" or "no."

And the groups questioned were the rock-ribbed "conservative" groups such as Chambers of Commerce, Junior Chambers, American Medical Assoc., Rotary, and various professional groups such as real estate dealers, contractors — people, generally, who owned property privately and who had vested interest in seeing that share-the-wealth schemes were kicked out.

The first question was worded: "Do you favor communism?" The second was: "Do you know what communism is?" The balance of the 25 questions were all related to specific communist and socialist objectives as declared in the Communist Manifesto and other writings by Marx, Engels, Lenin or Stalin.

In the various groups where we employed the questionnaire we got a solid response to those first two questions. The first question was answered without deviation. Everyone responded in a negative. The second ques-

Strange Way To Fight War

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — I had just discovered I was in a Viet Cong hamlet. I moved out as fast as the Jeep I was in would travel. I wasn't stopped. There were no shots. The farmers looked peaceful and no different from any other Vietnamese.

At the time, I was less than five miles from the provincial capital. A mile down the road a land mine had blown up a Jeep a few weeks back killing everyone aboard.

I had been making plans to enter a Viet Cong hamlet later, but slowly and with proper cover. It doesn't pay to go into a Viet Cong village hastily and without making careful preparation. So I ran.

I was delayed going out that day. Vietnamese troops had to clear the road out of the provincial capital. It is Viet Cong by night and must be cleared every morning if anyone is to travel. A sergeant described for me our road-clearing habits in some areas. We send out the patrols at the same time every morning. The Viet Cong learn our habits. Then they set ambushes.

The other day I flew tree-high over some of these Viet Cong road blocks — large piles of earth in the road. When Vietnamese forces stop to clear off one of these barricades, the Viet Cong attack.

"I asked for permission to vary the time we clear these roads," said an American officer adviser. "Headquarters agreed with my reasoning. But the orders to clear still came the same time every morning."

We ducked back and forth on the road. Our escort of a dozen Vietnamese guerrilla troops, armed with rifles and hand grenades, couldn't keep up. Their truck was old and wheezing.

We came to a "fortified hamlet." It had a tired-looking barbed wire fence along one border of a straggle row of houses. The man I was with told me the Viet Cong cut through these barbed wire fences at will.

A Vietnamese from a neighboring hamlet remarked that five times in the past six months the people of this hamlet had elected a hamlet chief. Four of these men had been kidnapped by the Viet Cong. The fifth chief resigned immediately after he was elected.

The newest hamlet chief had been elected just a week before. Within 48 hours after he'd taken office, the Viet Cong captured him.

McNamara's Claims of Increased Nuclear Capability Contradicted by His Own Testimony Before Senate

WASHINGTON — There is a hollow ring of political hokum to Defense Secretary McNamara's huffy claim that U.S. strategic nuclear strike capability is increasing.

The real fact is that the exact opposite is true. A detailed study reveals clearly that since McNamara became civilian head of the Pentagon in 1961, this country's all-important nuclear weapons stockpile has steadily decreased in megatonage every year. (A nuclear megaton is equivalent to one million tons of TNT.)

This dire conclusion is based squarely on McNamara's own statements — while testifying on the military budget before the Senate Armed Services Committee.

These voluminous published hearings — from which all classified figures and other sensitive information were meticulously deleted by McNamara's own censors — disclose this jarring over-all finding:

Under policies initiated and forcefully pursued by McNamara, with the full knowledge and approval of the late President Kennedy and President Johnson, the deliverable strategic nuclear megatonage of the U.S., which in 1961 exceeded 36,000 megatons, is declining to the extent that by early 1970 the total will have sunk to around 5,250 megatons.

Secretary McNamara bases his testy denial that the megatonage of the U.S. nuclear weapons stockpile is shrinking on a "forces on alert" contention — a distinctly indefinable and misleading status.

Negro Move May Help Goldwater

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Sizeable Democratic gains achieved in U. S. suburbs in 1960 with the late John F. Kennedy as presidential nominee could be wiped out this year if many white suburbanites decide Sen. Barry Goldwater may somehow help them slow or block Negroes seeking homes in their areas.

Conversations with suburban folk disclose that among some there is great resistance to the idea of Negro entry into the suburbs. Others say they won't mind, but occasionally the reality strikes them differently than the mere prospect.

A suburban dweller in Chicago's north side told a friend from his area: "I'm tired of all this talk. I wish a Negro would move onto my block next week and we'd be done with the matter."

His friend quipped replied: "A Negro just did move onto my street a short time ago." The first man, confronted by the fact of change, greeted the response with stunned surprise: "Did he really?"

Negro leaders, housing specialists and others are deeply concerned at hostile attitudes among countless suburban whites. They believe that the Negro's desperate housing dilemma will not begin to be solved until his dispersal into the suburbs becomes a truly substantial fact.

To the extent that dispersal is blocked, the rising numbers of urban Negroes tend to push out in inevitable waves to take over larger and larger segments of the older housing in the city proper. It is these waves which city ethnic groups fight with their "backlash."

For business leaders who comprise the urban power structure, the puzzle grows steadily greater. In some instances, if they do not soon throw their weight toward wider dispersal of their central city Negro populations, they will find their cities largely Negro in a few decades — and only the suburbs substantially white.

Thus the de facto segregation of the northern cities — a condition no community leader can publicly espouse but some of them privately approve — could work against some of the larger economic objectives of the power structure by creating a massive social imbalance in the cities.

Advocates of broader area dispersal for Negroes welcome, as a solid frame, the open occupancy laws which now govern some kinds of private housing in 18 states and more than 60 U. S. cities. Naturally, they were also grateful for the late John Kennedy's anti-bias housing order of November 1962.

Wit and Whimsy

The small child who proudly presented to her mother an animal which she had modeled at kindergarten. The mother had no wish to discourage creative talent. Yet she was frankly puzzled, and finally ventured to risk a tentative question: "Mother — It is beautiful, dear — perfectly beautiful. And I am very proud of you. But I am not quite sure — is it a horse, or a dog?"

Small One — Oh, you've got the very idea! If you like dogs then it's a dog. But if you like horses, you can see a horse in it!

All professional men are greatly handicapped by not being allowed to ignore things which are useless.

Heavyweight Boxer — The trouble is, doctor, that I can't sleep a wink.

Doctor — You must practice auto-suggestion a little. Why not lie on your back, relax, and count slowly up to ten.

During a bad electrical storm a mother in Virginia thought her young son would be frightened, so she tiptoed into his room to comfort him. The boy opened his eyes and murmured, "What's Daddy doing with the television set now?" — Marjorie Truitt in The Progressive Farmer.

laws is lax. Housing experts here say that a prime need is for a more receptive climate for the Negro in the suburbs. Only with that, they argue, will men in the housing industry drop their guard and begin general voluntary compliance with anti-bias laws.

Some suburban communities find "fair housing" groups springing up in an effort to provide a better climate. But more often than not these are spurred by a majority of the town-folk.

Another big barrier to Negro housing advance into the suburbs is economic. While government figures indicate that Negro incomes are rising steadily, that many more families can afford decent housing today than a decade or two ago, families tend to be larger, and savings far skimpier.

Nevertheless, it is clear from official statistics that many Negro families could indeed pay for good suburban housing, new or old, if the opportunity to buy were real. Many in the suburbs who fear the granting of that chance may try to express their concern at the polls in November.

The California condor, now in danger of total extinction, has a wing spread of as much as ten feet and often soars at altitudes of more than 12,000 feet. Condors feed on carrion, but may attack sheep, goats and deer. They are among the world's largest birds of flight.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economic and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.)

Question: "There was recently a trio of foreign diplomats convicted of smuggling narcotics into this country and given long prison terms. Is it the custom of the U. S. government to deport many such criminals as undesirable aliens after a few years in prison, perhaps to wander aimlessly the rest of their lives in the fashionable resorts of the world, whereas the U. S. citizen caught in smuggling does in fact do his time in prison?"

Answer: We are not aware of the custom all over the United States, and have not been informed specifically in smuggling cases.

We have observed cases of aliens who have been arrested on various charges, who have been released to immigration officials for deportation after comparatively short periods of time. We have seen some citizens who have gained seemingly less severe sentences than others, apparently depending on the attitude of a particular judge.

As to the "crime" of smuggling, some of America's first families are descended from men who made their livelihood as smugglers. When governments have arbitrarily set up restrictions on trade, they have created a market for smuggled merchandise. The British attempted to prevent the American colonies from trading with any other country than Britain. Smuggling of molasses, rum, and many other products became profitable.

Today a person who attempts to smuggle in a narcotic or gold or any other item the federal government has declared is illegal for him to own or possess in

Little Leaguers Open Tournament

It will be three Pampa teams against three visiting teams in the first round of the Little League tournament tonight at Optimist Park.

Pampa Western League all-stars open the tournament with Carson County at 6 in Park 2. The Northern League plays Wheeler in the same park at 8 and the Eastern League takes on Lefors in Park 1 at 8.

Pampa Northern and Wheeler will be in Saturday night's finals, one in the championship game and the other in the consolation finals, as the winner and loser both drew second-round byes.

Tomorrow night the winners of the Western-Carson County and Eastern-Lefors games meet in the semi-finals at 8 in Park 2. The losers of the same two games play at 8 in Park 1.

The winner of the winners bracket game meets the winner of the Northern-Wheeler game Saturday night at 8 in Park 2. The remaining first-round losers meet at 8 in Park 1 for the consolation championship.

Sorenson Upset Tourney Feature

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (UPI)—Marcella Rose of Jefferson City, Mo., who pulled one of the biggest upsets of the day in the Women's National Amateur golf tournament at Prairie Dunes Country Club by defeating Carol Sorenson of Janesville, Wis., said she felt she was due for some wins.

"I've been hitting the ball awfully well for several weeks," she said, "but three weeks ago Carol beat me in the second round of the Western with one under par golf."

"I've told myself I was going to get even, and so far this week I've been tickled with my qualifying scores and tickled with my two victories."

Miss Rose won her first round match Wednesday, 2 and 1, over Carla Glasgow of Whittier, Calif., before coming back in the afternoon second round to even her personal account with Miss Sorenson.

The tourney's two remaining former champions, three-time winner Jo Anne Gunderson of Seattle, Wash., and 1959 titlist Barbara McIntire of Colorado Springs, Colo., led the field into today's quarter-finals.

Miss Gunderson breezed past Jean Ashley of Colorado Springs, 6 and 5 in the morning action, then edged Broadmoor Open winner Barbara Faye White of Shreveport, La., 1 up.

Miss McIntire's victories came at the expense of Sharon Miller of Battle Creek, Mich., 3 and 2 and Mrs. Scott Probasco, Chattanooga, Tenn., 3 and 1.

TENNIS ENTRANT

NEW YORK (UPI)—Rafael Osuna, Antonio Palafox, Dennis Ralston, and Frank Froehling are among the latest entrants in the Meadow Club international tournament, which begins at Southampton, N.Y., Aug. 24.

frustrating year as manager of the injury-dogged, pitcher-poor Boston Red Sox, benched Stuart, the American League's second leading run — producer for the first time this season and replaced him with 19-year-old bonus baby Tony Horton at first base.

Horton, a husky, former high school All-America basketball star in Los Angeles, played flawlessly in the field and delivered a 10th inning double to drive in the winning run in the Red Sox' 4-3 triumph over the league-leading Orioles.

It has been rumored that if Horton is ready for the majors, Boston owner Tom Yawkey would consider trading the hard-hitting Stuart, who slugged 42 home runs and drove in 118 tallies last season. Horton, being carried under the first year bonus rule by the Red Sox, has played in 17 games, primarily in left field, where his fielding was unsure. He is hitting .304 with four doubles and a home run and Yawkey may feel his high-priced youngster is ready.

Pitched Five Hitter
Horton connected off Harvey Haddix, the fifth Baltimore pitcher after Carl Yazstrzemiak had singled. The Orioles managed only five hits off starter Earl Wilson and reliever Dick Radatz, but two were homers by John Powell and John Orsino.

The loss cut the Orioles' margin over the second place Chicago White Sox to a half game. Chicago scored four unearned runs to capture its third straight victory over the New York Yankees 4-2.

In other American League games Cleveland topped Kansas City 6-4, Minnesota tripped Washington 3-1, and Detroit defeated Los Angeles 5-2.

Bouton Was Goat
Jim Bouton was the goat of the Yankees' loss which shoved them 3½ games behind the White Sox. Bouton committed two errors on one play when he failed to touch first base after taking a throw from first baseman Joe Peptone. The play came with two out in the third and the bases loaded and allowed one run to score. Then when Bouton threw the ball down in disgust at the umpires call, Jim Landis slid across home plate with the second run.

Bouton forced in the winning run in the seventh with a walk following two singles and an error by third baseman Clete Boyer. Tom Tresh drove in both New York runs off winner Ray Herbert with his 14th homer in the second and an infield out in the sixth after singles by Roger Maris and Elston Howard. Hoyt Wilhelm pitched the last two innings in relief for Chicago.

McDowell Gets Win
Vic Davallio drove in three runs with a third inning single to break a 2-2 deadlock for the Indians. Tito Francona scored all the way from first on the hit which came on a 3-2 pitch with two outs and the runners moving. Sam McDowell, with aid from Don McMahon in the seventh, was the winner.

Jim Kaat (13-6) pitched the Twins back into the first division for the first time since Aug. 6, allowing eight hits and striking out eight before being relieved in the ninth by Al Worthington. Gerry Zimmerman and Zoilo Versalles each singled home a run in the third for the Twins. Loser Dave Stenhouse forced in the other run with a bases-loaded walk in the first.

Al Kaline and Norm Cash clouted homers and pinchhitter Don Demeter singled in the winning run in the seventh in the Tigers, moving them ahead of the Angels in fourth place. Joe Sparms (4-5) was the winner, allowing five hits in seven innings, and Aubrey Gatewood (3-2) was the loser.

Doubles Tournament Enters Quarter-Finals

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (UPI)—The 84th USLTA National Doubles tournament, which attracted 368 entries, enters the countdown state today as third-seeded Brazilian dynamo Maria Bueno and Robyn Ebborn of Australia opened the first of two quarter-final rounds.

Miss Bueno, third-ranked among the world's women, and Miss Ebborn were scheduled to face fifth-seeded Carol Hanks and Justina Bricka of St. Louis on Longwood Cricket Club's Stadium court.

Top-ranked Davis Cuppers Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley were pitted against the seventh-ranked team of Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis and Butch Newman of San Antonio in the men's division.

The other two matches had fourth-seeded Frank Froehling III of Coral Gables, Fla., and Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico opposing Arthur Ashe Jr. of Richmond, Va., and Bill

Angry Robinson Wallops Giants

By United Press International
The San Francisco Giants unwittingly drove another nail in their coffin when they ruffled Frank Robinson's feathers.

Robby was plunked by a fast ball from Giant rookie Ron Herbel in the first inning of Cincinnati's 7-1 victory over San Francisco Wednesday, and the incident riled the Reds outfielder. It was the first of four "beanballs" in the contest.

When Robinson was intercepted in his attempt to get back at Herbel on the mound, he resorted to a more subtle and devastating retort. He slammed a pair of home runs.

The solo blasts helped the Reds pin the fourth straight defeat on the fading Giants, who dropped six games behind the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies.

Purkey Nicked Hart
Winner Bob Purkey, who allowed six hits, nicked Jim Ray Hart in the second inning, and Giants' hurler John Pregrener hit Purkey in the fourth, resulting in a warning from umpire Chris Pelekoudas that cost Pregrener $50. This incident emptied both benches and almost resulted in a full-scale fist fight. In the seventh, Purkey hit Hart again but there was no warning.

The Phillies rallied with five runs in the eighth inning to defeat the Chicago Cubs 9-5, the

Lee, Denver Test Houston

By United Press International
It'll be a case of the pupil trying to show his old teacher how it's done when quarterback Jack Lee leads the Denver Broncos against George Blanda and Houston tonight in an American Football League exhibition game on the Oilers' home ground.

Lee, who labored in the shadow of Blanda his entire career, much in the same manner of Lee Grosscup of the New York Giants, who waited in vain for Y.A. Tittle to grow old, was sent to Denver by Houston last week in an unusual "lend-lease" deal.

Lee has been chosen by coach Jack Faulkner to start at the signal-callers' spot against his former mates in a game in which the proceeds will go to the Houston's policemen's fund for crippled and underprivileged children.

Backing up Blanda for Sammy Baugh's Oilers will be highly-touted rookie Don Trull of Baylor, who is expected to take Lee's place as second-string quarterback. Trull is slated to see extensive action.

Mustangs Lose Another Gridder

DALLAS (UPI)—Mac White, the junior quarterback being counted on as the No. 1 at the position this fall, will be lost to Southern Methodist's football team for the season due to a back operation scheduled today.

It was the fourth player coach Hayden Fry has seen vanish since last season. Others were end Tom Hillary, who signed a pro baseball contract; halfback John Roderick, who became scholastically ineligible; and Jim Sauby, a tackle who is in a cast with a knee injury received playing touch football.

White, who passed up spring football in hopes a rest would cure his back miseries, finally found out he had a cracked disc. The operation will not keep him out of school, but he will have to pass up football this fall.

Danny Thomas, the nation's best punter last year will be SMU's only experienced quarterback returning.

AUTOGRAPH ALLEY
The Houston Colt 45's have an autograph booth in Colt Stadium manned by three players for 25 minutes on game nights. The members of the team take turns in the booth.

Giants and Redlegs Near Open Warfare

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Only quick intervention by plate umpire Chris Pelekoudas prevented San Francisco Giants' coaches from becoming engaged in a full-scale fist fight with Cincinnati Reds players on the bench during Wednesday's beanball war.

The action came in the fourth inning after Giants pitcher John Pregrener hit Reds hurler Bob Purkey. Pelekoudas fined Pregrener $50 for the action.

Then the Cincinnati players on the bench began shouting obscenities at the Giants and invited Manager Alvin Dark to come over and fight. Dark started out, followed by coaches Herman Franks and Whitey Lockman and pitcher Gaylord Perry.

But when Dark got as far as the backstop, Pelekoudas stepped in. He called Reds Acting Manager Dick Sisler to the plate and warned him to have his players stop the taunting. Coaches from both sides charged that the other side started the war in which the Reds won the baseball game 7-1.

Cincinnati slugger Frank Robinson, who came to the plate after the first three Reds had hit safely and two runs had scored in the first inning, was plunked by Giants hurler Ron Herbel.

Robinson went down, then got up screaming invectives at Herbel and, with both fists clenched, raced toward the mound. Players from both benches poured on the field but no blows were tossed.

Late in the same inning, Robinson slid roughly into second trying to break up a doubleplay and got into a hot exchange with San Francisco shortstop Jimmy Davenport. They started at each other, but were pulled apart.

Then in the second inning Purkey's fast ball got away from him and smashed into Jim Ray Hart's shoulder.

Dark has a standing order that his pitchers must throw any pitcher who intentionally hits a Giants batsman. So when Purkey came up, relief hurler John Pregrener let him have it in the side. And that led to the near-battle between the two benches.

Chrysler Models to Blanket Car Industry

NEW YORK (UPI) - Chrysler Corp. disclosed Wednesday it plans to blanket the car market with the largest selection ever offered to the public.

plus the cost of "new and improved and more expensive components." These costs amounted to $125 million last year.

At a special preview of its 1965 models - the public will see them first on Friday, Sept. 25 - the company said it will offer 130 different models in nine series. Prices will not be announced until September.

Townsend said "there certainly is no need to build up a case for the industry's ability to sustain growth at the rate of seven million units a year."

Earlier in the day, Chrysler President Lynn A. Townsend held a news conference the company spent about $300 million in connection with the new line - for proving out, retooling plants, pre-production prepara-

He said 62 per cent of all autos sold now fall into the central price range, and that Chrysler's Plymouth and Dodge entries accounted for 48 per cent of the company's total retail sales in the first 10 months of the 1964 model year.

New Threat Made on Life of GOP Nominee

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Efforts to provide Secret Service protection for GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater took on new urgency today, underlined by a threat against his life.

The telephoned threat, received by police in Springfield, Ill., Wednesday shortly before Goldwater was to return to Washington after a speech, resulted in his chartered airliner being diverted to another airport by concerned officials.

Goldwater's four-engine Electra had originally been scheduled to land at National Airport just across the Potomac from Washington. But the plane came in at less crowded Dulles International Airport, some 30 miles from the capital, after hurried consultations with Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) officials and the FBI.

Congo Claims to Be Ousting Rebels Out of Villages

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI)—The Congolese government, claiming the death of the leftist leader who started a jungle rebellion in the Congo, said today it is pushing rebel warriors out of towns and villages they captured in eight months of widespread fighting.

Premier Moise Tshombe said Wednesday night he believed the decomposed body of rebel leader Pierre Mulele, who once claimed he was "invulnerable," had been found in Kwilu Province, where Mulele started his rebellion last January.

But an earlier government announcement said Mulele was "presumed" to have died in the Bukava area of Kivu Province, which is about 700 miles east of Kwilu. This announcement said no body was found.

The absence of an explanation gave rise to speculation that Mulele might still be alive in the neighboring countries of Burundi or the former French Congo.

For the first time since the rebellion began, Congolese government troops appeared to be winning the upper hand.

In Washington, American officials said there was fighting in the streets of Bukavu Wednesday and that U.S. consulate officials in the city were evacuated to Kmembe in nearby Ruanda. They said rebel troops might be in control of part of Bukava, but that there was no word the city had fallen.

The Congolese military command in Leopoldville said a battalion of Katangese gendarmes was ready to attack Stanleyville, the third largest city in the Congo and the most important one to fall into rebel hands so far.

The command also claimed the Katanga town of Albertville would be recaptured "immediately." But there were reports of violence and arson in the city, where the rebel command was said to have lost control of the situation.

Hopes For Action

Rep. Charles E. Goodell, R-N.Y., said he hoped the incident would spur immediate action to get legislation through the House and Senate this week.

It has been reported that several members of the House Judiciary Committee wanted to hold hearings on the matter. This, in effect, would have AEC CONDUCTS TEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Atomic Energy Commission announced Wednesday it had conducted another in its current series of low yield underground nuclear blasts at its Nevada test site.

Fight Started in Houston on Books For School Use

HOUSTON (UPI)—A group of six ministers and parents in the Cypress-Fairbanks school district of Harris County have launched a fight against textbooks they say teach Darwin's theory of evolution as a fact.

The group asked the school board to ban the books if the state adopts them and to ban teaching the theory as fact.

The texts they oppose are "High School Biology," "Biological Science: An Inquiry into Life," and "Biological Science: Molecules to Man."

GOLF IS UNKNOWN
BROCKENHURST, England (UPI)—British women golfers who invited the Russians to send a women's team here to play said today the invitation was refused—because no Russian woman plays golf.

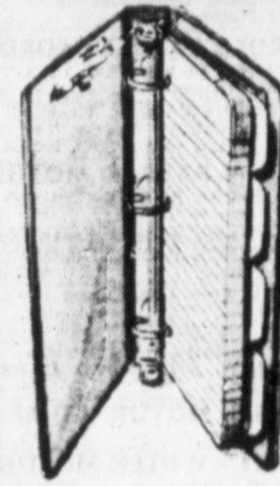

"Golf is not decadent," a Soviet embassy spokesman in London explained. "But it is unknown in my country."

"We're not afraid of Darwin's theory as long as it's taught as a theory and not as a fact," a spokesman said.

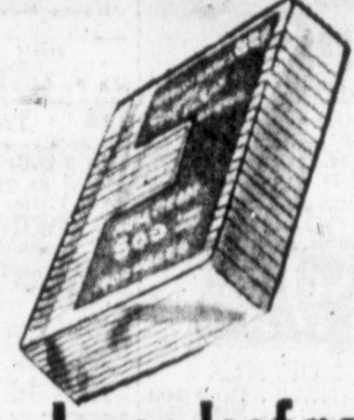

The group showed the board protest petitions with more than 200 signatures. They said they will send the petitions to the State Textbook Commission.

Animal tee's, bread, feathers, salt, stone and tea were some of the items used as money by primitive societies.
