'Around the Hub City

"Around the Hub City" would like to take this time and congratulate the Dunbar Panthers for another successful year of football for the school as well as the city of Lubbock. Your record, 9-1, is hard to beat here, rather you be high school or college.

The publicity of your record has not been seen by the majority as it should have, but aside of this, you (Panthers) held your head up and went on to rank high among high schools through o u t the city of Lubbock or the state of Texas.

Coach James Hillyer and his coaching staff have contributed a great deal to the development of each Panther. Thanks Coaches for a job well done.

We haven't forgot each parent for their sincere cooperation toward the Panthers.

With such a record as the Panthers had this year, surely some team in the Southwest Conference, let's hope its Texas Tech, will contact some of these Panthers with the hope that they qualify for the Red Raiders. I am sure, without any doubt, that there is a PANTHER qualified academically and physically for any team in the country, less known Texas Tech.

Closely following the pattern of recent weeks, 53 newcomer families were reported in Lubbock last week. The total this year has surged to 3,394 new families, compared to 2,898 at corresponding date in 1965, and 3,120 total for last year.

Dunbar Five 95-43 Victory Over Farwell

The Dunbar Panthers with all expectations of running smooth for another successful year o n t h e hardwood court, scored a tremendous victory over the Farwell Steers Monday night in the Panther Gym, 91-45, in the opening tilt of the season.

Although the entire Panther five scored, James Skief and Larry were among the high pointers.

With four lettermen returning from last year's squad which was defeated in the district playoffs by Fort Worth Kirkpatrick, Coach Curtis Gipson is rather confidnet about his chances this season.

Heading the list of returnees is James Johnson, who was an all-district selection last year.

Youth Graduates From Job Corps

James Childress, a former Dunbar graduate, 1006 Davis, has recently returned from Atteberry Job Corps Center in Edinburg, Indiana, after spending seven months training as a hot air furnace installer and repairman, and capentry. James was awarded certificates of graduation in each of these skills.

Boys between the ages seventeen and twenty-two who have been out-of-school three months may qualify for training in any one of many skills, and be paid while training in the Job Corps Centers. Many new camps are now open and assignments are coming through fast. Further information can be secured, and enrollment be made at the Texas Employment Commission office, located at 1602 16th Street.

Who Said It Couldn't Happen Here?

Clara Allen, a 20-year old speech drama major at the predominantly white Memphis State University, is the First Negro in the University's history to be elected to the homecoming queen's court. The only Negro among 12 contestants, Miss Allen was chosen second alternate to the queen.

Memphis State, desegregated in 1959, has an enrollment of approximately 14,500, about 750 of which are Negroes. Although she was warned by some that she might be booed when she was presented, Miss Allen said the audience gave her a tremendous ovation.

It has been well said, "I will study and prepare myself, and when my opportunity comes I will be ready."

Reverend T. T. Ford Services Held

Final rites will be read for the Reverend Tony T. Ford, Sr. who passed at Methodist Hospital last Friday, November 18th, tomorrow afternoon, Friday, at 2:30 p.m. at the Church of God in Christ #1, 1602 Quirt Avenue.

Burial will be held in the Peaceful Garden Cemetery under the direction of Jamison Funeral Home.

Rev. Ford, a resident of Lubbock for nearly forty years, was the pastor and builder of the Church of God in Christ #1 and has contributed a great deal to Lubbock.

He pastored this church for twenty years, thus building it to one of the larger churches in East Lubbock.

Rev. Ford had been ailing for some time, but had never been hospitalized.

He leaves to morn a wife, Mrs. Minnie Ford, of the home; three children, including two sons, Tony Ford, Jr., of San Diego, California and James Edward Ford of Los Angeles, and one daughter, Mrs. Varie Barber of Compton, California; eight grand children, four great-grand children; two brothers, Queaner Steward of Navasota and Ed Steward of Houston; and host of relatives and friends.

Jehovah Witnesses Attend Assembly

Members of the Lubbock East Unit of Jehovah Witnesses returned Sunday from a three day assembly at Douglas Junior high school at San Antonio, Texas. The film, "Heritage", was shown to 463, and it dealt with the problems of youth today come from the fact that there is no togetherness in the family. Thus youth seek togetherness with the (usually) wrong crowd. However, Bible studies, recreation and work, together, are paramount in keeping families together in unity and can be seen by the thousands of happy families of Jehovah's Witnesses.

After the main Saturday session, Dedication and Baptism, was given, 27 candidates received their ordination and baptism as Jehovah's Witnesses. Also a color motino picture, "God Cannot Life" was shown to 712. This showed the story of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation and vivid evidence of the fulfillment of Bible prophecies.

The highlight of the assembly came Sunday as 694 heard the public lecture, "Satisfying Mankind's Greatest Need," by J.C. Howard, Jr., district supervisor. One of the most pressing problems at the moment is war; to others there are the problems of civil rights. In other cases, there are severed family relations, poor employment and failing health. Can man himself overcome these problems? No! But God has arranged for a new system of things that will do away with all scuh evils as Isiah 65:21-24 shows." said J.C. Howard.

The meeting closed with the talk, "Finding Happiness in Making Disciples."

WIFE OF FIRST NEGRO ARMY GENERAL DIES IN WASHINGTON

Mrs. Sadie Overton Davis, 86, wife of retired Army Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis, Sr., died of a heart disease at Walter Reed General Hospital. Her husband was the first Negro to achieve the rank of General in the U.S. Army. A native of Macon, Miss., she held a bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago and a Master's Degree from Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. Before her marriage she tagulit English at Wilberforce, Ohio, University and at Clark College, Atlanta, Ga. Before her husband's retirement in 1948, she traveled with him on his tours of duty. She leaves her husband and a son, Lt. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis, Jr. of the U.S. Air Force, now chief of staff of the U.S. Forces in Korea and chief of staff of the United States command in Korea. She also leaves two daughters, Mrs. Olive D. Streator of New York City and Mrs. Rlnora D. McLendon of Chicago, and a sister, Mrs. L. A. Cavett of Washington, D.C. along with one grandchild.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

In many homes across the nation today, there's a vacant seat at the dinner table. It seems like yesterday, when the high chair was put up in the attic, and he sat down at the table for the first time, propped up with a few pillows.

As he began to grow tall, he talked about many things. He would be one day a policeman, or space scientist, professional ballplayer or a college professor. The world was his oyster.

His adolsecent years passed quickly—high school days had come and gone—and suddenly overnight he became a man—for Uncle Sam beckoned and approved.

His turkey dinner with all the fixings will not be the same as ours. The Viet Cong may not wait. We'll miss his infectious grin—his kidding around with the rest of the family—no, he is on serious business now.

To those families with the empty chair—words are inadequate to express the feelings of a family separated by war.

What all of us can do, when we sit down to that traditional Thanksgiving Day feast, is to pause--give thanks to the Supreme Being and pray that a safe return may be granted to those absent and that peace will come to the world.

And as George Washington proposed in his Thandsgiving Day proclamation in 1789 thanks for constitutional government, let us hope that the governments of the world may become servants and not masters of the people.

THANKSGIVING 1966

Pies of Pumpkin, Apples mince,
Jams and Jellies, Peaches quince,
Purple Grapes, and Apples red,
Cakes and Nuts and gingerbread,
Boy" That's Thanksgiving.

TURKEY? Oh!, a great big fellow,
Fruit all ripe, and rich and mellow,
Everything that's good to eat,
More than I can now repeat,
For Thanksgiving.

Lots and lots of jolly fun,
Games to play, and races to run,
All as happy as can be,
For this happiness you can see,
Makes Thanksgiving.

Now, We must thank the one who gave,
All the good things that we have,
That is why we keep the day,
Set aside, our mothers say,
For Thanksgiving.

The entire Staff of The Manhattan Heights and West Texas Times wish all of you a very happy Thanksgiving.

The things I say and do today... in memory's book, I'll keep... and when I'm old and read them... will I laugh...or weep?

ROSE CAFE AND GROCERY LOOTED

Mrs. April Rose Anderson, 1832 Manhattan Drive, reported that her place of business, Rose Cafe and Grocery, 1324 East 25th Street, was looted last weekend.

She told police that she had closed her businesss the night before at about 10 p.m., and returning the next morning finding it broken into. It was learned that persons unknown had broken out the window to the rear door and reached inside to let themselves in by unlocking the door. Once inside, they looted her choice candy and gum (bubble) from the counter. Upon further investigation it was discovered that an undetermined amount of potato chips--which were in a rather box--were taken as a part of the loot.

OPERATING WITHOUT A HEALTH PERMIT

This problem seemed to have been a major one this time lsat year for one individual, but apparently, a counter-part has decided to act his role.

The 42-year-old man, who had been warned several times for violating this law, was arrested on last Saturday. He had no idea of why he refused to get a permit, but was permitted to the City of Lubbock jail at his own expense.

The place he was operating did have the "GO GO" appeal.

NEW LIGHT BAPTIST CHURCH ROBBED

What's this! Another church robbed here.

Charles Collins, 3001 East 7th Street, informed police that the New Light Baptist Church was robbed one night last week. Why? Well, at present nobody, as expected, knows.

It was learned that the looter pried the coin machines (pop) open and broke several parts to the box. However, no money was taken. Perhaps the looter looted at the wrong time....the boxes had already been robbed (legal) by the operator.

Apparently there was no forec of entry to the building. Marks on the box appeared as though they were made by a curved end nail bar. The approximately damage included $20.

WIFE SHOOTS HUSBAND... PUTS HIM IN CAR..WHY?

A young man was shot by his wife last weekend and politely placed in an automobile..... and then left the scene.

The shot hubby went to his residence and was later approached by police. He told police that nothing was wrong with him. (the man apparently loves his wife.)

After further talking, the man told the police that his wife had shot him. The man, who was lying in the bed hiding his wound, showed police where he had been shot by his wife with a .22 pistol. He showed evidence, a wound in the right forearm.

The bullet did not exit, but told police that he would see a doctor.

Of course he didn't file charges, the man loves his wife.

JUKE BOX LOOTED

A juke box belonging to Leroy Perkins, 701 Avenue C, was looted last Saturday night. He told police that he had no idea who could have done such a thing.

WRIST WATCH STOLEN

Florida Bradley, 1602 Avenue C, Apt. 8, told police that she had left her wrist watch in her apartment, but later she discovered that it was gone.

The watch was valued at $123.

BURGLARY

Police were patroling in the 1800 block of Avenue C, in the area of the U.S. Drugett Company when they discovered a thirty-year old man standing in front of a rear window. Upon further investigation, police found that the man had apparently tried to enter the company by force, for a screw driver, a pari of leathe gloves, and other tools were found about six inches from his feet.

BELL POET

Daytona Beach, Fla.--NPI--An unifientified student at Bethune-Cookman College ahs penned a poem from a popular pep song about a bell that has served the college for 50 years. The lines of the poem about the nameless bell, which tolled when Bethune-Cookman founder Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune died on May 18, 1955, and peals each B-C football victory, read:

"Ring them bells—on B.C.'s campus
Let them peal loud and strong
Line down Wildcats—now all together
B. C.'s brought the best man home..."

QUICK WORK

Muhammad (Cassius Clay) Ali made short work of Cleveland (Big Cat) Williams according to a preconceived plan before 35,460 Astrodome fans & nationwide television audiences lsat week.

According to Ali, whose theatricals have tapered off in the wake of a string of seven successful title defenses, the plan was to start quick and get it over with fast.

"I didn't only plan to get a quick start, but get a quick start punching," said Ali, who is heavyweight champion of wolrd boxing, except in the precincts of World Boxing Association.

For reasons that square neither with logic nor the brutal mechanics of boxing, the W.B.A. recognizes Ernie Terrell, a Chicagoan fighting out of New York, as World Champion.

Clay polished off Williams in just three rounds after flattening him four times. He had the Big Cat with wicked left hook on the deck three times in the second and once in the fourth round, before Referee Harry Kessler halted the one-sided contest.

Afterwards, Ali had another explanatino for his quickie win over Williams. He said he also utilized an "Ali Shuffle", consitsing of five quick steps to befuddle Williams, who "hardly laid a glove" on the ever-moving Ali.

Williams pleaded in his dressing room for another crack at Ali's title, but after his quick annihilation, it was doubted that he could become a serious contender again for some time.

Ali's next title opponent may be Terrell, the champ indicated. But it won't be until early next year, because the busy champion wants to catch up on some rest.

This has been a busy year for him; a period in which he polished off Sonny Liston (twice), Floyd Patterson, Henry Cooper, Brian London, Karl Mildenberger and then Williams.

MAN FOUND DEAD

It was learned last week that a Lubbock man, Norl G. Johnson, 1420 Avenue E, was found deceased by a neighbor, Eddie Ray Wyatt.

Police found the identified man lying in his bed in his b e d-clother. It was determined by the Justice of Peace that the death was of natural causes.

Who told you it couldn't be done? and, what great achievement has he to his credit that entitles him to use the word "impossible" so freely?

Candidates Look to Newer Victories in Next Elections; Bond May Get Seat

Washington---NPI---Negro politicians turned their attention from Nov. 8. triumphs to the victories they expect to log in the next eelctions.

Flint, Mich., meanwhile, became the largest city to elect a Negro mayor, and late election returns indicated that Negro candidates across the nation increased the number of high offices they hold.

At the same time, Georgia's Julian Bond, repeatedly denied his seat in the state legislature, appeared to have a chance of being seated at last.

In Baltimore, Clarence M. Mitchell, 36, who was just elected to the State Senate, said he was "seriously considering" running for mayor or president of the City Council in 1967.

Several Negro candidates ewre talking of taking top administrative positions in Baltimore after a massive Negro vote in Maryland showed what it could do to defeat Democratic gubernatorial candidate George P. Mahoney, who opposed open occupancy legislation.

Others who may seek to become Baltimore mayor in 1967 are State Senator Verda Welcome, Municipal Court Judge Robert B. Watts, Judge George T. Russell, Jr., Parren J. Mitchell, and Councilman Henry G. Parks—all Democrats.

In Chicago, a serious Dick Gregory began campaigning in earnest for mayor, declaring that he held the "balance of power" in the election. He was running as an independent.

Gregory was clearly playing the role of "spoiler" in the election, as he warned that he would quit the campaign unless Republicans put forward a rights champion as mayoral candidate.

By withdrawing from the mayoral raee, Gregory would make a Republican win difficult in the face of a great Democratic majority abetted by a heavily Democratic Negro vote.

Gregory also promised to withdraw from the campaign if the Democrats run someone other than Mayor Richar J. Daley in the mayoral elections on Feb. 28.

Gregory has long been known as an opponnet of the Democratic administration in Chicago, which suffered several reverses in the Nov. 8 elections.

Meanwhile, four Southsiders announced their candidacies in aldermanic races.

Augustus A. "Gus" Savage, publisher of the Chatham Citizen, planned to run in the 21st ward while funeral director A.A. "Sammy" Rayner, Jr., 48, will run in the 6th ward.

At the same time, Leo E. Holt, attorney for the Chicago freedom movement, announced that he is an aldermanic candidate in the 3rd ward.

And Robert Briscoe, head of league of Labor and Education, announced that he is an aldermanic candidate in the 3rd ward.

All were independent candidates facing incumbent aldermen affiliated with the Democratic administration.

In Flint, Mich. Floyd J. Mc Cree was elected mayor of the 200,000 population, 40,000 of it Negro.

McCree, who holds a largely ceremonial post, has declared that he never hsa felt himself to be "anything but a man, neither Negro nor white." There never has been "any pressure on me to act as a Negro," he added.

"Under our American system any Negro has the same chance--if he is in an area where he is given opportunity--as anyone else," said McCree.

At the same time, Julian Bond's chances of becoming a representative in the Georgia legislature at last were increased as members of the U.S. Supreme Court raised their eyebrows when they heard that he was repeatedly denied his seat because of his views on the Viet Nam war and U.S. military policy.

Chief Justice Earl Warren noted that Bond had denied any intention to urge lawlessness and said the Constitution does not give a legislature the right "to judge the sincerity of one who says he can abide by the oath of office.

Justice Abe Fortas said Georgia's position "comes perilously close to saying that a person is unqualified to sit if he opposed the war in Viet Nam."

"Is that all you rely on?" asked Justice William J. Brennan, Jr., when told by Georgia's Attorney General Arthur K. Bolton that Bond's seat was denied because he had encouraged people not to participate in the draft.

It was an unusual display of judicial annoyance before the U. S. Supreme court announced its decision in the Bond case.

Several election coups were made as late election returns came in.

In Indianapolis, Democrat Rozell Boyd, is to become the first member of the Indianpolis City Council on Jan. 1. Boyd, a well-known educator, won in his first election bid.

Two Republicans were victorious in judgeship races for the Marion county (Indianapolis) Superior Court: incumbent Judge Wilbur Grant and Atty. Rufus Kuykendall.

Dr. Benjamin F. Osborne, a Democrat, won the race for Center Township Trustee, and Atty. Harriet Bailey Conn and Ray Crowe won seats in the state legislature.

Ohio House winners were Thomas E. Hill, Cleveland, 41st; William F. Browen, Cincinnati, 69th William Mallory, Cincinnati, 72nd; Phale D. Hale, Columbus, 63rd; Larry G. Smith, Cleveland, 42nd Troy Lee James, Cleveland, 46th.

Also, C.J. McLin, Dayton, 88th; and Carl N. Stokes, Cleveland, 44th.

Two Negroes were elected to the state Senate in near "firsts." They were Democrat M. Morris Jackson, Cleveland, and Calvin Johnson, Cincinnati.

They were the state's second and third Negro senators in modern times. The first was the late Sen. Harry E. Davis, brother of Russell Davis, whom Jackson beat in the election.

Judge Perry B. Jackson, Cleveland, was elected to the Court of Common Pleas, and Judge Charles W. White, Cleveland, to the Court of Appeals.

In Philadelphia, Judge Theodore O. Spaulding of the State Superior court was re-elected to a 10-year term. Herbert Arlene becmae the first Negro in the Pennsylvania senate.

In Baltimore, two Negro state senators and nine members of the House of Delegates were elected for a near record.

The senators were Verda F. Welcome and Clarence M. Mitchell, 3rd, of Baltimore's 4th district.

In the House of Delegates were Floyd B. Adams and Joseph A. Chester, Sr. (Baltimore's 2nd District); Mrs. Victorine Q. Adams, Mrs. Lena K. Lee, Troy Brailey, Isaiah (Ike) Dixon, Jr., and Calvin A. Douglass (Balti-

Jackson Shines After Two Poor Years

In an article taken from the Oklahoma Daily, Norman, Okla., it revealed the ability of James Ray Jackson to come back after two frustrating years.

Something funny happened on route to an 80-yard touchdown run against Colorado, it appeared as though someone let James Ray into the open.

There are some things that you just don't do in life; you don't keep your fireplace burning the night Santa is due to come down the chimney; you don't put greasy kid's stuff in the hair cream tubes in pro-football locker room; you don't wait until June to pay your income tax, and dont' let a 9.5 sprinter like James Ray Jackson into the open during a football game.

If someone asked you last year who was James Ray Jackson, a former star at Dunbar high school, you might have been inclined to answer, "I don't know. I don't follow politics."

Senior Jackson, who was the back of the week in the Big Eight Conference, is a football player, but that might have been questionable when you look at his first two varsity sesaons at Oklahoma. Jackson didn't play too much football for the Sooners, but he sure kept a warm bench. Maybe you wonder about the poor guy who gets his only football activity during pre-game excercises. He made it very clear the way he felt with his position on the bench, "I was completely disgusted."

Jackson is getting a chance to play this season, and he is making the most of it. He has been running behind Ron Shotst at the tailback slot most of the season.

Jackson is very enthusiastic about the 1966 edition of Sooner football. He is also quite pleased with the new coaching staff. As he states it, "They have helped me a great deal, but more important, they have given me a chance to prvoe myself."

Proving himself is very important to Jim. When the season started and Mackenzie named Jackson and Shotts as his number one tailbacks, some people thought that Jackson would be over his head at that position as say, Jayne Mansfield would be trying to play the part of Joan of Arc.

Jackson has proved that he can run, and faster than most people. As a sophomore he won the Big Eight championships in the 60-yard dash with a clocking 6.0. Right now he is in the process of proving that he can play football.

Not only does he want to prove that he can play football to Oklahoma opponents, but he wants to prove it to professional football scouts. Because, as he says, "My goal is to play professional football."

That would be quite a jump from a warm spot on the Sooner bench in 1965 to professional football in 1967. But don't bet against it---James Ray Jackson is a man that can move.

HEY! YOU'RE PULLING MY LEG--James Ray Jackson, senior tailback from Lubbock, Texas, is about to slip away from a would-be-Colorado tackler to pick up a short gain. Jackson's first carry of the day netted 80 yards and a touchdown.

priority in delivery and forwarding.

Remember to mark all mail for which you have paid special charges with the type of hadnling it should get(airmail, Special Delivery, Special Handling, ets.)

You can write DO NOT OPEN UNTIL CHRISTMAS on the outside of a Christams package that goes through the mails. If a letter is enclosed it must be noted outside the package and first-class postage should be paid for the letter, in addition to the parcel post rate.

During the week just before Christmas long distance gifts and greetings should be sent by airmail to assure on-tmie delivery.

You can help the post office by separating greeting cards into local and out-of-town bundles.

Check the return addresses of the people who send you figts and greeting cards and add their ZIP Codes to your mailing list. ZIP Code your responses to them for better mail service.

Mom - Dads Club

The regular meeting of the Mom and Dad's club was held on last Monday evening, November 21st, at 7:30 p.m., with President Davis presiding.

Coach James Hillyer spoke briefly about the contest which featured his chargers, the mighty Dunbar Panthers, in their ninth win of season against the Hornets of Midland. Panthers won the district tilt, 33-14.

Our club members were introduced at thegame last Saturday night.

The Christmas Bows, a project of our club, are now being sold. They only cost a dollar ($1.00), and anyone desiring a box may purchase one by contacting any member of the organization.

The director of the Mae Simmons Center, Lydia Furry, would like to invite the SENIOR CITIZENS to join the Golden Age Club at our center, 19th and Oak.

The program will be filled with entertaining and informative activities.

The organizational meeting will be held Monday, November 28th, at 3:00 p.m., in the Green Room at the center.

The agenda for the first meeting shall be as follows:

1. Get acquainted session.
2. Business meeting.
3. Games and refreshments.

PLEASE COME. We will be expecting you.

Negro Candidates continue....

more's 4th District); Dr. Aris T. Allen (Anne Arundel district); and Arthur A. King (Prince Georges district.)

In California, the state senate was to have a Negro member for the first time in modern history. He is Melvyn M. Dymally, who won easily in the 29th district, which includes Watts. Dymally previously served in the state assembly.

Meanwhile, the election of Democratic Assemblyman W. Byron Rumford to a state Senate remained in doubt. Rumford is remembered as author of California's open housing law.

Several Negro candidatse won in some of the first Deep South election victories since Reconstruction days.

Francis Joseph Atlas was elected to the predominantly white East Carroll parish (La.), school board. Two Negroes, Raymond Minor and Alvin White, were elected to the school board in West Feliciana parish.

Robert Lee Williams, elected to the school board in Jefferson county(Miss.), was the first Negro to be elected to public office in that state since Reconstruction.

In Hancock county (Ga.), James A. Smith was elected couty commissioner, and Robert Ingram won a school board seat.

In Greene county (Ala.), the Rev. Peter J. Kirksey defeated a white write-in candidate for a school board position.

In Macon County (Ala.), Lucius Amerson became the first Negro sheriff elected in Alabama since Reconstruction. Elected with him were L. A. Lockair, tax collector, and Harold Webb, member of the board of education.

WHAT IT MEANS TO GIVE THANKS....

Thankfulness opens a way for larger service. We can be sure that it was not because he wanted to be thanked that Jesus hoped for the returned of the cleansed lepers. He had something more in view. He had healed their bodies, but this was not all that he hoped to do for them. He wanted to heal their spirits also, to bring them into a new way of live and to bring them into touch with God. Their thankful hearts would offer him an opportunity to unite them with himself in the love of God.

Thankfulness builds a bridge of friendship.

The harvest is a miracle of love and nothing else can explain it. The sacrifice of Christ for us is the crowning gift which ought to stir in us the continual music of THANKSGIVING. It is a debt that we can never repay except in some degree through the service we do for others.

A DARING FAITH

JEREMIAH 32:2

2. At that time the army of the king of Babylon was beseiging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard which was in the palace of the king of Judah.

JEREMIAH 32:6-7

6. Jeremiah said, "The word of the Lord came to me"

7. Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you and say, 'Buy my field which is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.'

JEREMIAH 32:9-17

9. "And I bought the field at Anathoth from Hanamel my cousin, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver.

10. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales.

11. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy;

12. and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my cousin, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Jews who were sitting in court of the guard.

13. I charged Baruch in their presence, saying,

14. "Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Isreal: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware vessel, that they may last for a long time.

15. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Isrela: Houses and again fields and vineyards shall again be gought in this land.'

16. "After I had gvien the deed purchase to Baruch the son fo Neriah, I prayed to the Lord, saying:

17. 'Ah Lord God! It is thou who hast made the heavens and the earth by thy great power and by thy outstretched arm! Nothing is too hard for thee,

NEW MARKET OPENS HERE

A new and unique marketing idea is being offered to resident of the South Plains area. The Market Place, as the location is named at 515 East 34th Street, Lubbock, affords any club group, church group, fraternal organization, sororities, school affiliated associations, or individuals the opportunity of reserving floor space in the large, enclosed and heated building for the purpose of selling their wares to raise, or make money.

According to W. Kent, mgr., "The Market Place will have on every Saturday and Sunday, one large garage or rummage sale, all brought together under one roof." Many families have accumulation of perfectly good things no longer used or needed in their homes, and would like to have the fun of turning these into cash.

The Market Place relieves the individual, or group, of locating space, getting the word aroudn, and has its own built-in customers.

Hobby crafters in ceramics, plastics, hand-made candles, or antiqued pices will find this an excellant out-let for their talent.

With Christmas season in the offing, booths catering to handwork and crafts will have an excellent opportunity to display their glittering wares for the seekers of unusual gifts.

In addition, The Market Place will be an excellent outlet to sell agricultural produce from individuals, clubs or from markets with no winter quarters. Such products as potatoes, onions, nuts, eggs and Valley fruits.

"in the past two weeks of operation", Kent reports, "visitors have had the proverbial selection of 'soup to nuts' and even the often mentioned kitchen sink has shown up."

Admission is free and area residents and their families have had fun stopping by and find it much to their liking and well worth their time.

This is the first time this type of market hsa been made available in this area although the Houston and several California localities enjoy such a Market which is operated on a seven day basis.

AMERICA'S OUTSTANDING WOMEN

MARIE GRABER was a private duty registered nurse when she noticed in the hospitals where she worked and at home, a particular window problem which couldn't be solved by the fixtures then available.

HER FATHER, JOHN GRABER, developed and patented an adjustable drapery crane. This one item was the foundation of the Graber Company started 26 years ago. Today, the firm is a major manufacturer of drapery fixtures with distribution throughout the world.

MARIE TURNED HER TALENTS TO THE FIRM during World War II. Today she manages the business with her brother, Joe.

AUTHORESS OF THE AWARD-WINNING "WINDOW DECORATING BOOK," Marie added the "women's touch" to the field of drapery fixtures. Many of her innovations are standard today.
