Wolves Challenge Eldorado Eagles

Colorado High Wolves get their first taste of out-of-town opposition at 7 p.m. Saturday when the gridlers meet the Eldorado Eagles for a scrimmage contest in Sterling City.

Matching coaching wits in the game will be Colorado City's Truman Nix and his former assistant, Ray Morgan, who is now head man for the Eagles.

Each team will run 20 plays on offense and then switch over to defense. Nix said he expected each team to run about 60 offensive downs. No score will be kept and punts and kickoffs will not be held. Nix expressed enthusiasm with the performance of the Wolves in practice sessions thus far.

Man Fined For Drunk In Accident

A 61-year old Colorado City man paid a $25 fine for drunkenness in Corporation Court Tuesday following his arrest as the scene of an early morning one-car auto accident Monday at 6:15 a.m.

An estimated $200 in damages to his auto were reported when the vehicle struck a utility pole at the intersection of 6th and Austin Sts. during a rainstorm.

After receiving a call about the accident, a CCity policeman arrived on the scene to find the man lying on the ground beside the car dressed in underclothes and bathrobe without shoes.

With the help of a neighborhood resident, the patrolman placed the man in the police car and took him to County Jail.

Police report on the accident said charges of driving while intoxicated were not filed because there were no witnesses that actually saw the man driving the car.

Janet Sue Hall Improving After Encephalitis Bout

Spraying To Continue As Needed

Janet Sue Hall, Mitchell County's first encephalitis case this summer, is reported to be in good condition at her home following her release from a Lubbock hospital Tuesday morning.

Her father, Price Hall, told the Record Wednesday afternoon that Janet Sue had returned home late Tuesday morning.

On the order of her doctor, she will be confined to bed for the next 10 days and will then engage in only light activities for the next 10 days according to her father.

Hall said the Lubbock doctor treating Janet Sue termed her case of encephalitis as "light."

In a further effort to keep mosquito control in effect over the county, Colorado City spraying units will stay in operation "as needed" according to City Manager Ford Merritt.

A thorough spraying job was completed in Loraine on Saturday. Units have been operating in Westbrook as well during the summer.

Merritt said he felt the city had added insurance through periodic sprayings throughout the summer. "When we get a call about a lot of mosquito activity, then we do our best to immediately solve the problem," he added.

City Health Director Dr. Kenneth Cowan said prior sprayings by the city was a good safeguard against the development of any mosquito problems.

City units spray a mixture of Malathion and diesel in a fogging machine. This is the same insecticide that is being used to combat the mosquito problems in Dallas.

Consolation champs in doubles were Martha Kinard-Delza Moore, 14 and over; Bill Morris - Richard Reynolds, 13 and under; and Keaton Grubbs - John Chinn, 14 and over.

Singles consolation winners of the Commander, U.S. Navy over; Richard Reynolds, 14 and over; and Bill Morris, 13 and under.

AIDING WEARY TRAVLERS

Jaycees To Man IH 20 Rest Stop

Colorado City Jaycees will man a rest stop during the Labor Day weekend in an effort to aid in preventing the estimated 41 traffic deaths predicted in Texas.

The local Jaycees will operate the rest stop on East Interstate Highway 20 from 12 p. m. on Friday, Sunday and Monday. Don Ptwel is chairman of the project.

Refreshments will be available for weary drivers and their passengers throughout the eight-hour periods including coffee and cold drinks.

Cokes are being furnished through the courtesy of the Coca Cola Bottling Company while the shelter tent for the rest stop is being used through courtesy of Doyle Kiker and Son Funeral Home.

11 Deaths Expected
Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said 11 traffic fatalities were expected during the three-day Labor Day Weekend.

"The current traffic trend indicates that Texas is headed for its third straight record high in terms of fatal accidents," Garrison said. "At the present time we are approximately 15 percent ahead of the same time in 1965 and we are still faced with the four months of the year which generally produce the most deaths."

"More people are killed in Texas each year in traffic than are killed in all the United States by murder and homicide," Garrison continued, "and the deaths are just as senseless, as needless and as tragic, but not nearly as well publicized."

Officers in Mitchell County will be doing their part in trying to prevent the needless slaughter through stepped-up patrolling activities on all highways in the area.

In an attempt to offset dangers caused by the increased traffic on the highways during the holiday period, the Department of Public Safety will conduct "Operation Motorcade."

Approximately 130 uniformed officers from other DPS services will be on the road to supplement the Highway Patrol enforcement action.

Several other state agencies along with organizations such as the Colorado City Jaycees are aiding the DPS in calling attention to safe driving practices during the weekend.

Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and the Texas Motor Transportation Association is sponsoring a "Holiday Road Patrol" to assist stranded motorists, thereby relieving highway patrolmen for enforcement work.

"This fine attitude of cooperation among these people indicates that Texans do realize the need for adequate safety on our highways," Garrison said. "If it could carry over into the thinking and action of every driver, the death toll would drop considerably and the traffic expected for the weekend."

In the final analysis, traffic safety must rest on the shoulders of every person who gets behind the steering wheel of a car. With the proper attitude of alertness and with the acceptance of responsibility we can see positive results in our attempts to half the increases in the number of our traffic mishaps.

Accident Reported at 17th & Hickory

A two-car collision at 17th and Hickory Sts. at 7:09 p.m. caused an estimated $525 in damage to the vehicles.

Drivers of the autos were David Michael Hodges, 977 Marshall and Rhonda Gayle Dockrey, 2007 Vine.

Two Named As Chairmen For Roundup

Austin McClaid of Colorado City and Dr. Bruce Johnson of Loraine are serving as 1966 RoundUp area chairmen for the Children's RoundUp for Crippled Children.

RoundUp Chairman Charlie Morris made the announcement of their appointment.

The annual RoundUp is the chief means of funds for the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene.

Only recently, Ruff Hardy, president of the board of directors at the Center announced that for the first time in its nearly 13 years of existence, the Center was forced to borrow $30,000 in order to continue the treatment of 1,604 patients.

Last year, the RoundUp raised $80,000 toward the Center's annual budget of $251,000. Other funds for the Center, which has never accepted state or federal funds, have come from United Funds, memorial and general contributions.

During the RoundUp, leading teachers throughout Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and other Southwestern states donate livestock of all kinds to be sold at one of the special auctions. The proceeds from these sales are used to meet the needs of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

PROBLEMS STUDIED

Teachers, Aides Attend Workshop

Fifty-one teachers and nine aides participated in an in-service workshop for five days last week on learning problems and testing procedures of students.

Heading the workshop was Mrs. Winston Gann, a former teacher here, who is now supervisor of the language disorder program for Abilene Public Schools.

Mrs. Maggie Sloan, staff psychologist for the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene, gave the group information about diagnostic testing and methods of evaluating the test results.

Through a more thorough knowledge of the tests' results, teachers are better able to interpret the findings and give more help to the students.

Mrs. Gann spoke on individual differences of students and told ways to recognize specific problems as well as how to better meet the needs of the pupils.

The in-service workshop was financed with federal funds available through Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. Teachers were paid $15 per day and aides received $5 per session for attending the workshop.

Workshop leaders were also paid through the program. Administration officials have proposed to make the workshop an annual affair for the teachers and aides as long as funds are available to finance the program.

University in Mexico City

Two residents of Colorado City were enrolled this summer at the University of the Americas located in Mexico City, the fifth largest city in the world. They were Miss Mary Ann Lipps, 1213 Chestnut, and Mrs. Pauline Kayser, Rendonhook Ranch.

Because students at UA are not only from the United States but from more than 40 other countries, the school plays a distinctive role in intercultural and international education. Accredited by the American Association of Colleges and Universities, UA has a larger enrollment of American students than any other school abroad, and is headed by Dr. D. Ray Lindley, former president of TCU.

Classes are taught in English by an internationally trained faculty but practically all students learn Spanish not only through their association with the people of Mexico. Most of them live in college-approved private Mexican homes and as a result become familiar with the customs and daily lives of their hosts.

Miss Lipps studied sociology course Mrs. Kayser was enrolled for graduate study in Spanish.

how can you be sure your child has proper light for home study?

CHECK YOUR HOME STUDY LIGHTING NOW

For proper study light from a table lamp, use at least 150-watts of illumination. The lamp should be tall enough to spread light evenly over the work area and should be properly shaded to shield the eyes from the light source. A diffusing bowl is recommended to soften the light and prevent glare. If your children's study light doesn't meet all these requirements, visit your dealer's and see the new study lamps. Good home study light protects against eyestrain and fatigue... makes learning easier because seeing is easier.

Early American Theme Livable

Mrs. Charles A. Kennedy, new citizen in Colorado City, decorated the new family home in Early American theme throughout. Seated here at the cozy breakfast bar is Mrs. Kennedy who will teach special reading classes in Hutchinson School this term. Mr. Kennedy is employed by Sun Oil Company and the family moved here about four months ago from Silver. Their new home is one of a number on 22nd St., new development here.

AT HOME HERE

Charles Kennedys New Family On East 22nd St.

Settled in their new home at 107 East 22nd St. are Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kennedy, their high school son, Charles and their only daughter, Sue.

The family moved to Colorado City after 14 years of living at Silver where Mr. Kennedy is employed by Sun Oil Company as a pumpjack.

His wife, Claire, taught at Silver School and is teaching special reading classes at Hutchinson, Elementary School here this year. Holder of her degree in elementary education from Texas Woman's University, she grew up in Gilmer and taught school before her marriage there in December, 21 years ago. Her husband grew up in Abbott, Hill County.

The Kennedys lived in Present before being transferred by Sun to Snyder where they lived for several months and where Mrs. Kennedy taught school.

Here in Colorado City they bought a new home in a new residential area.

Exterior walls are of pink brick and the interior is done in Claire Kennedy's favorite decorator colors — antique white, green and gold. All draperies throughout the new home are antique white, matching the walls of the formal area.

Wood paneling for walls in the kitchen — den part of the home are highlighted by tasteful additions carrying out the Early American theme Mrs. Kennedy favors. The breakfast bar is formal in white with tiny flowers in white, beige and green. Bar stools are of Early American theme.

One of the two ovens features a white with gold trim — dressing area, separated by cabinets. Both in the master bathroom has fixtures in antique color, a dressing room area and closet.

Floor plan includes formal living room, floored carpet in brown-toned shade, den, kitchen, dining, three bedrooms and two baths. One eye-catching attraction is the antique white bookcase which serves as a room divider between the enter large were the center's space for color accents. "It is a livable house," Mrs. Kennedy said modestly of the beautifully appointed home. And it's a practical home for a family of four.

Their daughter, Sue, graduated from Colorado High School in 1965, will be a sophomore in West Texas State University, at Canyon this term. Last term she roomed at WTSU with Colorado City's Helen May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob May and classmate of Sue's.

In high school here, Sue was an officer in the Wolverines, girls pep squad, and president of Future Teachers of America. Like her mother she is majoring in elementary education. Her best hobbies are reading and swimming.

Charles Kennedy, the son, will be a senior this term at Colorado High where he is better known as "Bubba" Kennedy, football player, halfback (slot man) and all-around athlete. He enjoys all school sports and playing golf.

This summer both Sue and "Bubba" have been working in the Sun Oil Company office at Odessa and her brother as a roustabout in the Silver field.

Mother of the two, Claire, is an avid reader. Working in her new yard and walking are her other hobbies. Right now, she is most enthusiastic about the special reading courses she is to teach at Hutchinson Teaching and keeping house are, naturally, her first interests.

The husband and father of the family is a sports spectator fan with accent on baseball and football. He likes to hunt, too.

The family, who moved to Colorado City, May 7, are Methodists.

Time For Tough Decisions

FOR THE FOURTH TIME in nine months the prime lending rate has gone up, this time to 6 per cent and the highest since the roaring '20s.

And with this hike in the prime rate — the interest charged by banks for short-term loans to blue-chip borrowers — we can be sure that increases in rates on consumer credit and home mortgages are not far off.

Last December the Federal Reserve Board, in an attempt to dampen the inflationary spiral, raised the interest on money loaned to banks from 4 to 4.5 per cent. But this action apparently has not had the desired effect. Banks were able to increase their interest rates three times since then, from 4.5 per cent to the present 6, without appreciably dampening the demand for loans.

Bankers are caught in a squeeze, by no means an unhappy one, because the demand for money is growing faster than supply.

Increases in the prime rate are not the basic cause of our current inflationary spiral, although they ratchet it upward. War spending in Viet Nam, coupled with higher wages and resultant higher consumer demand, are pushing us into the biggest economic boom in our history.

How long can this boom last and grow? Many economists are reading danger signals, warning that a recession or depression is imminent. They point to the fact that recent wage negotiations and strikes have resulted in pay increases that have made a shambles of President Johnson's guidelines, and already 2.1 million workers, including auto, trucking, communications, paper and rubber industry employees are loaded for battle in anticipation of their wage negotiations next year.

If the wage-price spiral continues upward we're in for deep trouble, if we aren't already in it. Some economists urge an immediate tax in crease, others an effective means of insuring that wage increases be more closely related to increased productivity.

One thing is certain. The time for discipline, restraint and tough decisions is now. —ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

Thanks, Judge

CORPORATION COURT Judge Jerry Chamberlain is due congratulation and thanks by all responsible citizens for his handling of the case involving the youth who deliberately drove his car across the lawn of the homeowner in North Dallas.

Judge Chamberlain, in assessing the heavy fines, totaling $180, gave notice that such harassment of homeowners and businessmen in the city will bring meaningful punishment down on the heads of the offenders. This type of law enforcement crackdown is one of the surest means of controlling harassment of all kinds.

We also feel that the father of the boy should be congratulated for his attitude in the case. City Atty. N. Alex Bixley, in recommending the amount of the fines, informed Judge Chamberlain that the father, who appeared in court with his son, is also levying punishment of his own on his son, including taking away his son's late model sports car and requiring him to work to pay the fines.

With this kind of cooperation between parents and the courts, real progress is possible in the determined effort which must be made to reverse the trend in antisocial acts by youthful offenders.

State Aid For Cities

Gov. John Connally is to be commended for accepting and not shying away from the state government's responsibilities in helping the state's cities meet the serious financial problem that they are beginning to face and which will become progressively more critical as time passes and their growth continues.

At a conference with mayors and city managers in Austin, he promised to recommend "substantial" new sources of revenue for them to the Legislature, presumably at its session next year.

To whatever extent needed help is not available from the state, the cities will have no choice but to look to Washington for it. They already are having to rely heavily on federal aid of one kind or another and undoubtedly will have to continue to do so increasingly. It can be argued in justification that the problems with which they must deal are in many cases really national problems. But state governments have a responsibility to provide help also.

MANY, IF NOT MOST, OF the nation's large cities already are receiving substantial state help, and it is proving inadequate when measured against the magnitude of their needs. In Texas, the state has done comparatively little to help its municipalities. It can, and should, do a great deal more. Precisely what remains to be determined. The first essential is a desire and a willingness to help on the part of both Executive and Legislative officials at Austin.

If the problems of the cities are to be solved and the needs of their residents met in even a halfway acceptable fashion, a cooperative, partnership approach is going to be required, with local, state and federal governments all participating and each accepting a proper share of the load. It is desirable, however, that local and state governments first look to their own resources and do all that they can do to help themselves before turning to Washington for the additional help that they must have.

THE FINANCIAL NEEDS of all of the nation's large cities, if they are to be made and kept habitable for the majority of the American people who must live there, already are great and show every sign of becoming greater, if not staggering, within the next few years.

It no longer is an exaggeration to say that practically all of the large cities of the country, including their older suburbs, will have to be rebuilt completely within the next few decades, while the municipal governments struggle at the same time to provide currently needed facilities and services. The cities must combat additional decay and blight while trying to meet both existing and accumulated needs.

The dream of a truly great America is going to be an extremely costly one, even if it is only partially realized.

The problems and financial needs of Texas cities, although they may not be quite as massive as those of other municipalities and urban areas of the nation, already are acute enough and are becoming more critical with each passing year.

Help from the state government is becoming an absolute necessity, and it is encouraging that the governor has an appreciation and awareness of this need. It is to be hoped that his attitude will prevail among the state's law-makers as well.

"God's Word"

L. K. LAKEY, Pastor
First Assembly of God

Last week as I traveled in Oklahoma and Arkansas, I drove on some roads that I had never been on before. I found myself repeatedly going to my road map and looking for the way. So long as I followed the maps instructions I did not become lost. So it is with our spiritual lives and God's Word today. We travel over places we have never before encountered, but if we look to God's Word we will not go astray. The Psalmist says in Psalm 119:104 "Through thy precepts I get understanding." It's a joy to know that God didn't create us and then just leave us dangling on a string out in space, but he gave us his word and his truth to lead us in the ways that we should go.

For an individual to try to live a Christian life and never read and study God's Word would be like a football player never eating a thing but cotton candy and expecting to become a great player. The Word of God will build faith in our hearts. Paul in the Book of Romans says "And faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God." It will establish us in God and make us have deep spiritual roots. It will help to keep us from sinning against God.

Psalm 119:11 says, "Thy word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against thee." God's Word will stand when everything else is gone! Voltaire boasted his work would make the Bible extinct in 100 years. Recently his 92 volumes sold for $2.00. Matthew 24:35 "Heaven and earth shall pass away but my words shall not pass away."

Texas Cities Ask For Split Of Broad Tax Increase

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Austin. — Officials from major Texas cities, beset with money problems are calling on the Legislature to allow municipalities a 50-50 split in any new broad-based state taxes enacted next year.

Gov. John Connally pledged to recommend "very substantial" new sources of revenue for the cities after a group of metropolitan area mayors conferred with him.

Question as to whether the kind of revenue-sharing plan advocated by the mayors is permissible under the state constitution will be decided by the Texas Legislative Council at the request of House Speaker Ben Barnes.

Cities petitioned for a 50 per cent refund of any increase in the state sales tax or an equivalent amount of any new broad-based tax, with the state doing the collecting and apportioning half of new funds where paid.

While agreeing to ask the Legislature for financial relief for the cities, Connally declined to spell out the precise form and amount he will seek. He did promise there will be "no strings attached" to his recommendation.

Connally also reported an agreement for regular conferences on urban problems between the mayors and top state officials.

What will happen to the cities' request for financial assistance in a legislative session where a state tax bill of more than $200,000,000 is regarded as a certainty remains to be seen.

Some legal authorities do not believe a straight refund is possible without a constitutional amendment, although the Legislature could authorize the cities to levy their own sales tax with the state serving as collector.

NEW MANSION SOUGHT — At its initial meeting, the Texas Fine Arts Commission created by the Legislature in 1965, recommended a new governor's mansion and said the present residence, completed in 1885, should be operated as an historic house.

Governor Connally has not yet expressed his view on a new mansion. However, last year when the State Building Commission, of which he is chairman, recommended a new $1,000,000 mansion, he differed and recommended that the money be used elsewhere.

Commission outlined a far-reaching program to encourage development of, and participation in, the arts, including traveling exhibits, festivals, awards, nighttime family entertainment in communities and revived band concerts on the square.

Former Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd of Odessa was named chairman of the new agency.

"RED MEANS WRONG" — You will be seeing lots of red if you drive the wrong way on a Texas freeway. In a move to curb wrong-way freeway pileups, State Highway Department is installing red reflector buttons and pavement markers at entrances to interstate and other controlled access highways.

If you see a red arrow pointing at you from the pavement as you enter a freeway ramp, you are in the wrong lane. A straight red line pointing against you on lane lines means you are going in the wrong direction.

Highway Department has spent or obligated $7,000,000 in an overall freeway safety program.

LOANS — Tight-money laws made it hard for Texas colleges to sell their building bonds. Some still are looking for buyers.

On a third try, buyers were found for the 4 per cent bonds of Antioch State at San Antonio ($1,200,000); Stephen F. Austin at Nacogdoches ($2,000,000); and Houston State at Humble ($2,500,000). Just 100,000 Texas State at San Marcos and East Texas State at Commerce still need buyers for their respective $2,000,000 and $2,300,000 bonds. Constitutional ceiling of 4 per cent makes the bonds less attractive to investors than other issues bearing higher returns.

MORE MONEY — Mounting demands of higher inflation in Texas seem certain to force a tax increase by the Legislature which meets in January.

Budget requests for the 22 state colleges are about double those of the current two-year, in large part because of a need for "restoring up." Coordinating Board Texas College and University system, says that the previous practice of providing money based on past enrollments just won't work. Cash should be provided for the 22 state colleges and the 34 junior colleges on the basis of what their enrollments will be, instead of what they were.

Junior colleges' fast growth as they are, will be some $10,000,000 short of operating money during the current two years. It will take $10,000,000 to put senior college appropriations on a current basis.

Prospects for a surplus in the state treasury of $75-$80,000,000 have led to talk of increasing college tuition and fees so students would pay more of the cost.

APPOINTMENTS — Gov. Connally appointed Billy Gene Compton senior Attorney

Tower Mailed Carr Itinerary

A Washington correspondent for a Texas newspaper reporting on one of Senatorial candidate Waggoner Carr's recent visits to Washington wrote that incumbent Senator John Tower's office "had someone dogging the trail of Carr everywhere he went in Washington."

Last month Carr, wrote Tower mentioning the surveillance and the Senator's office denied the charge.

In the letter — signed by Carr, "With all good humor," — the Attorney General wrote the following prior to another trip:

"My inborn distaste for unnecessary spending and the waste of valuable man hours must be satisfied. Enclosed therefore is a complete schedule for my forthcoming Washington trip. With this schedule in hand your 'Private Eye' can plan his mode of operation in advance in the best James Bond tradition. Many hours will be saved. Shoe leather will be conserved. With diligence the detective's costs to the taxpayer should be reduced.

"Senator, if for any reason your man should at any time lose my trail, a quick telephone call to my secretary will clear up the problem."

Attached to the letter was the following "itinerary" from which some excerpts are published here:

"Sunday, August 7, 5 a.m. Rise; 5:01 a.m. Yawn; 5:15 a.m. Dress; 5:30 a.m. Breakfast — Two eggs over easy, crisp bacon, buttered toast, black coffee; 5:45 a.m. Kiss Ernestine goodbye; leave for Browning Air Service; 6:15 a.m. Arrive — Browning Air Service; 6:18 a.m. Board plane; 6:19 a.m. Return to car to retrieve forgotten hat (charcoal gray, small feather in band, straw); 6:20 a.m. Reboard."

"3:30 p.m. Arrive Washington National Airport; 3:35 p.m. Watch your step getting off plane; 3:45 p.m. Hall cab; 3:55 p.m. Return to plane to retrieve forgotten hat (charcoal gray, etc.); 4 p.m. Reenter cab; drive to downtown Washington (Our National Capital — large buildings; many people) ...

"6:30 p.m. dress for dinner (Dark blue suit, black tie, Vive Presidential Tie Clasp, black shoes, over-the-calf socks, white handkerchief); 7 p.m. Dinner (Roast Beef, Prime; green beans, almondine; baked potato, one roll, tea) 9 p.m. Return to room; 9:10 p.m. Pack brief case for Monday meeting; 9:55 p.m. Prepare for bed; 10:15 p.m. To SLEEP; perchance to dream ...

The letter continued for a three day period ending with this excerpt:

"Wednesday, August 10 ... 6:45 p.m. Arrive Austin Airport; 6:47 p.m. Ask for hat (charcoal gray, etc.); 6:48 p.m. Told hat left in cab at Washington National Airport; 6:49 a.m. Forget hat for ever; 6:50 p.m. Forget hat forever and depart by person's car (6 cylinder Chevy, blue with small scratch on left rear fender); 7:20 p.m. Arrive home, greet family, pat dog on head, confident that this schedule has eased Senator Tower's worries about my trip, and has saved the taxpayers the cost of hiring another detective to follow me around Washington."

Are We Getting 'Nuthin' For Sumpin'?"

By OMAR BULELSON
U. S. Congressman
17th District

This is the third and last of a series of three articles in an attempt to analyze in a "down behind the garden" way something of our present economic situation and the direction of the future.

It should be pointed out again that there are all sorts of means for continuing national unity for the government and replacing them with paper that no one scrutinized very carefully.

We now have what is known as "The Participation Sales Act of 1966." In essence this provides that Government lending programs, to-tailing about $33 billion over the last few years, be transferred to commercial banks.

In other words, commercial banks make loans for such agencies as the Office of Education, Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Small Business Administration and others, and the Government goes on the note.

These sums do not show in the President's Budget, although they are a liability of the taxpayers. It will never show as an obligation.

There is undoubtedly a weakness in industry due to dependence on the Government orders which, in turn, are dependent on the value of inflated money.

Look at the several ways the government can bring its influence to bear on the economic activities of many segments of our American life. First, if the industries holding vast Government contracts can be withheld or withdrawn. Second, the Government is a stockpiler of what are considered to be "strategic" materials. If those in the industry of producing these materials are considered out of line, the Government has a supply to throw on the market to depress prices. Third, manufacturers of most anything must compete with foreign imports. The Government has the advantage of opening up the importation of goods in competition by increasing the quotas or lowering the tariffs.

The vast majority of American institutions, including colleges and universities, receive aid in some form or other from the Federal Government. Should they be in opposition to certain policies, their grants and loans may be withheld. The public schools in several Southern States are now experiencing this political.

If a total decline is under way, these techniques of subsidies and other favors are a principal vehicle for it. The proponents of centralized Government seek to weld all possible voting blocs to the national Administration, until finally practically every segment of the population sees no future for itself except the assistance of the Government establishment. The Federal establishment can exert a degree of political pressure with power its predecessors never enjoyed. As has been mentioned in this column before, there is a cant for Federally guaranteed income for everybody, whether he chooses to work or not, forgetting the values of initiative and self-respect. This device is supposed to instill dignity in those who lack it. The opposite is bound to be the effect.

It seems our government should be able to take advantage of the lessons of history and, in fact, a lesson from what is happening to England at the very moment.

The British have been on the downward drift for the last several years, and today they are reaching close to the bottom.

The fact remains that the average Englishman has never had it so good, and seemingly can care less about his Nation's basic problems. In England, jobs are plentiful, wages have seldom gone up so fast and everyone is earning more and more by producing less and less. The British Government provides about everything and under such circumstances, it is hard to find people who are genuinely concerned about their Country's declining role in the world. Simply put, they are living on credit.

Should we not take some lessons and ask ourselves if we aren't getting "too much nuthin' for sumpin'?"

This takes a great deal of space with nothing but a "big umbrella" between you and eternity! Yes, meet us every day, and they trust that umbrella as we would trust our best friend.

Faith is something like that white parachute, as thousands upon thousands of Christians can testify. Faith upholds you and supports you, no matter how rough the going may be. Without faith in a loving God, man is very much alone... and man was never meant to deal with life's problems by himself.

Like the first parachute jump, faith isn't easy at the beginning. It takes courage to hand over the reins of one's life, but you can be sure of one thing... you'll always land on your feet. Strengthen your faith by attending the church of your choice.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
