Conference Eases Issue

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The United Nations and Katanga have agreed to halt all troop movements likely to lead to friction, Katanga's President, Moise Tshombe announced today. A conference in Elisabethville, capital of the secessionist Congo province, took some of the heat from a situation which prompted Tshombe earlier to order a general mobilization.

Deep Snow Due To Melt

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Clearer skies and mild daytime temperatures were expected Wednesday to erode away the huge snow piles dumped on the South Plains by the worst snowstorm in its history. The sudden storm that dumped up to 20 inches of snow over a 200,000 square mile area from eastern New Mexico northwestward into Texas Monday blocked highways, closed schools, and was blamed for two deaths.

Job Classification Bill Has House Okay

AUSTIN (AP)—A revolutionary plan for job classification of most state employees was approved by the House today and sent to the Senate. Approval was by a 100-0 vote. The classification plan details the duties and responsibilities of about 1,500 kinds of work in state government. It does not set salary scales which will be considered later in the appropriations bill.

has "saved the industry from destruction" by conservation measures; has fought to preserve the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance; has a lower oil production tax than Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, and has a gas production tax less than half as high as that in Louisiana.

There were some indications the House Taxation Committee might report favorably today on Daniel's three per cent natural gas hike. Committees considering legislation for possible floor debate lasted past midnight. The subject matter ranged from the abolition of drunken driving to the regulation of water well drillers and out-of-state insurance advertising.

Doubleheader Successful

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Two shiny new U.S. satellites whirped around the globe today, both propelled aloft by a single rocket. The doubleheader launching, accomplished late Tuesday night, gave this nation its fourth and fifth satellites in five days and its seventh major space success without a failure this year.

George's Birthday Seldom Enjoyable

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM WASHINGTON CROSSING, Pa. (AP)—George Washington seldom had a happy birthday. When the anniversary rolled around he was more often than not plagued by sickness, lack of cash, crop failures, spiteful tongues, sunshine patriots and politicians handy with the harpoon.

Best Cherry Pie To Be Selected

CHICAGO (AP)—The best cherry pie in America will be selected today. Winners from the 50 states are competing in the 29th annual contest sponsored by the National Red Cherry Institute. The national winner will be crowned 1961 national cherry pie baking champion.

Malfunction Of Capsule Probed

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force is studying radar data to determine what caused an equipment malfunction on the Discoverer XX space capsule. Because of the malfunction the Air Force Tuesday abandoned plans to recover the capsule.

Early Panel Okay Seen For Kennedy's Jobless Aid Plan

By EDMOND LE BRETON WASHINGTON (AP)—A billion-dollar program of emergency help for the long-time unemployed, President Kennedy's No. 1 legislative project, apparently was set today for prompt approval by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Striking Flight Engineers To Announce Decision Today

BY PIERCE LEHMBECK NEW YORK (AP)—Flight engineers who strike has entangled the nation in its worst air-line tieup in history announced their decision today on whether they will now return to work from President Kennedy. The Flight Engineers International Association began polling its 3,500 members Tuesday night after Kennedy set up a three-member commission on whether the engineers to end their walk-out while it studied the dispute.

Kennedy Gets His Insurance Dividend

WASHINGTON (AP)—John S. Gleason Jr., head of the Veterans Administration, called at the White House Tuesday to give President Kennedy, a World War II Navy officer, a $78 GI insurance dividend. Kennedy had ordered prompt payment of GI dividends as a move to spur the lagging economy.

Baker Seeks Council Post

Kenneth Baker, owner of Baker Accounting Service, filed for a seat on the city council Tuesday afternoon. He announced for Place No. 5, the seat now held by Jim Mison. He is president of the Snyder Jaycees and resides at 3732 Austin Avenue. Other candidates announced are Russell Yorgensen seeking reelection to Place No. 1, M. L. Brown for Place No. 3 now occupied by Bill Eiland, and Fred Davis for Place No. 4.

Conference Eases Issue

The decision to freeze troop movements was reached at a meeting of U.N. representative Ian Barendsen of New Zealand and Col. Anders Kjellgren, Swedish commander of 2,000 U.N. troops garrisoned in Katanga. It could end a Katanga offensive against Baluba rebels in the north of the province, where U.N. troops have been little more than observers.

Malfunction Of Capsule Probed

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force is studying radar data to determine what caused an equipment malfunction on the Discoverer XX space capsule. Because of the malfunction the Air Force Tuesday abandoned plans to recover the capsule. The satellite, heaviest in the series, was launched last Friday. Plans were to snag its parachute as it descended near Hawaii Tuesday. The satellite now is expected to remain in orbit for about six months.

Colors, Woolens, Styles Make Big Spring News

Changes are in the air in coat and suit fashions for Spring, 1961. They are not radical nor world-shaking, just different enough for you to feel you are really wearing something new when you walk out that first crisply lovely Spring day. Fabrics, color and style are all involved in this delightful story on a sort of share-and-share-alike basis, adding up to irresistible news!

important both in coats and suits. The entire trend in fabrics is to non-creasing, light and comfortable weaves, long wearing and colorful. Colors are a story by themselves, lively, clear, clean, happy, with an exciting pink right up front in the parade. Think of jelly beans, strawberry ice cream, hibiscus flowers, right on up to the already familiar "hot" pink, and you have the idea. Yellows are important, also, ranging from creamy tones like lemon ice to strong daffodil and goldenrod, as are apricot to orange, beautiful greens from a whitened pistachio up the color range to in-coming clear, strong emerald and Kelly. Vivid cobalt blue looks new again in lilacs, violets, and wisterias continue. String beiges, oatmeals, and whites are stronger than in many a season, often combined with each other and with other colors.

C. Osborne To Appear In Drama

PLAINVIEW, (Sp.)—Named to the cast for the premier performance of an original drama by two Wayland Baptist College professors is Cecil Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Osborne, 3716 Austin, Snyder.

Checks step up front, in coats notably giant houndstooth, racing, even big tartaners. These most often combine bright colors with using several colors, sometimes just one. There are also many plaids but the checks have the edge. bias plaids, however, are in the news. Suits, too love checks, favoring clear, open types and including white and pale tones checked over with fine lines of black or other deep colors.

WOMEN'S CALENDAR

THURSDAY
Snyder Garden Club meets at 9 a. m. at Martha Ann Clubhouse.
Mrs. Clifford Terry and Mrs. J. H. Hamblen, hostesses.
County Line Home Demonstration Club meets at 2 p. m.
Fluvanna Home Demonstration Club meets at 2 p. m. at community center.

Both coats and suits tend to be roomy in cut, often are collarless, and not infrequently are almost sleeveless, as well. At least, may end above the elbow. The collarless trend does not mean plain, round "jewelry" necklines. It means many exciting and different treatments such as stand-up bands, built up cardigans, collars emanating from shoulder seams and across the back; scarf ends tied various ways; bands that end in bow ties under the chin and others. Conversely, there are many very important collars, especially on suits. The trend to big, wide coats increases, often with emphasis on top width, drop shoulder lines, unmounted sleeves, deep cut armholes. Some have almost cape-like fullness in back with indication of a waistline in front and sides. Pockets are big, roomy and perhaps set rather low with a Martingale belt swinging from them across the back. Some raipe capes are shown but this is not a trend so far.

WMU Of Colonial Hill Is Honored

As a part of the Y.W.A. Focus Week activities last week, the Young Woman's Auxiliary of Colonial Hill Baptist Church honored the WMU with a tea. It was held on Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Odell Cox, the YWA-director. A red and white color scheme was carried out in decorations. The receiving line was composed of Joyce Langridge, Lynette Kitchens, and Ann Byrd. Sandra Autry, president of the auxiliary, presided at the register table, where 20 women registered. Winona McClanahan served coffee from the service table which was laid with a white linen cloth. The centerpiece was made of two red hearts trimmed in red net, with red sweetheart roses running through them. The silver coffee service was on one end of the table, and plates of cookies and canapes were on the other. Other decorations used in the room were red candles in white candle holders placed on red heart dollies.

As another Focus Week activity the YWA was in charge of Wednesday night prayer service. The service was opened by the congregation singing the YWA Hymn, "O Zion Haste." After prayer, Mrs. Odell Cox brought a talk on the "Why" of YWA's. The girls repeated the Watchword, and Sandra Autry read the dedication. Joyce Langridge and Sandra Autry brought special music, "Lord Lay Some Soul Upon My Heart," and Winona McClanahan brought the devotional.

Wednesday afternoon the YWA met to conclude the Home Mission study book, "HIS TO COMMAND," brought by Mrs. Jimmie Nelson.

Nora Circle Holds Meeting

The Nora Circle of Colonial Hill Baptist Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Crook. Coffee and cake was served on arrival. The opening prayer was led by Mrs. Odell Cox. Roll call was answered with scripture and minutes were read and approved.

Announcements were made for participation in "Week of Prayer" which will be held March 3 through 10.

Mrs. Joe Feagan was a new member, others present were Mmes. Buford Newton, Daryl Heard, Aubrey Blalock, Donnie LeVerette, Kenneth Crook, Odell Cox, and Gene McGee.

Fun With Easter Eggs: Make Easter Apple Salad

Recipes, like fashions, have a way of disappearing from the scene after a short time only to return some day as a brand new idea with some changes—or revived in toto as a sentimental favorite. Here's one that might come under the latter heading. Back in the "good old days," a favorite salad during the Easter season was "Easter Apple Salad." We thought it would be fun to revive it, like a one-popular fashion.

Some Letters Could Bring Plenty Joy

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK (AP) — Excerpts from letters we'd like to get—but never do:

"A recheck of your last year's federal income tax return shows that, instead of your owing the government an additional $34.12, the government owes you a $218.57 refund."

"On the basis of your daughter's kindergarten aptitude test, and particularly the skill she showed in finger painting, we are extremely pleased to announce she has won a four-year tuition-free scholarship to the college of her choice."

"After thinking it over, my wife has decided it wouldn't be fair to sue you because your car struck hers while she was traveling the wrong way on a one-way street. She concedes it was entirely her fault, and if you will just send us the bill for your damages we will—"

"I had planned to leave my estate in trust for Tabitha, the cat that has been my faithful companion for 15 years. But the poor dear passed away last week. So, since you are my only remaining nephew, I am changing my will to make you—"

"Our laboratory test of the glittering rock your son picked up on his Boy Scout hike shows that it does contain gold. Based on this sample, we estimate the ore should assay out at about $4,000 a ton, making it by far the richest strike we have ever—"

"Dad, don't bother about sending me any more money. After I threw those three touchdowns in your last game, the university raised my salary. I'm doing so well now that if you need any help in meeting the mortgage payments on the house, just let me know."

"The X-rays show the cause of your sore gums is that you are growing a third set of teeth. They are coming in at a remarkable rate, and I predict that in another three months you should be able to discard both your upper and lower plates."

"Unable to reach you by phone last week, I took the liberty of putting you down for $500 worth of shares in Amalgamated Buttonbooks, Ltd. As you probably noted the stock has since tripled in value and will soon split."

"As your company doctor, I am glad to inform you that you passed your recent physical examination with flying colors. You are now at liberty to eat as much as you like, drink as much as you like, smoke as much as you like. However, I have informed the management you have been working too hard and should be given a long vacation at the firm's expense."

Woman Discovers Headache Is Hers CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A woman who mailed her ex-husband an aspirin tablet with bills totaling $1,949, discovered the headache was hers. Circuit Court Judge Joe Hunter, in granting a divorce decree last Nov. 9 to Frankie and Peggy Elder, awarded a $2,500 equity in the couple's home to Mrs. Elder. Soon thereafter, Elder told the judge, he got the bills and the aspirin. The judge ordered the home sold and the bills—including $555 from a women's clothing store—paid from the equity.

Lumumba Is Worth More To Reds Dead Than He Was Alive

By INEZ ROBB

The ghost of Patrice Lumumba haunts more than the world of power politics. It haunts men of good will throughout the Western bloc who did not have either the humanity or the courage to lift a hand to save him from the political murder that was inevitable from the day of his arrest.

There are few crimes more sickening and repugnant than the abuse and massacre of a helpless prisoner, no matter how distasteful that prisoner's political stance or practices. The last news photograph ever taken of Lumumba, on the day almost five weeks ago when he was transferred from prison in Leopoldville province to one in Katanga province, showed him a beaten man with death plainly written in his face.

At that time, I thought that surely some powerful spokesman for the West, moved by a civilized conscience, would demand guarantees of decent treatment and safety for the prisoner, no matter how repugnant the man and his politics. It is an indictment of both the West and the United Nations that they did nothing in this case.

Either the United Nations and the Western World stand for individual decency, human dignity and worth, even in a political prisoner they oppose, or they stand for nothing. As it is, neither did anything to prevent the assassination of the pro-Communist and two of his deputies. The United Nations and the West let the Hungarian revolution go by default in 1956, and now, in a reverse case, it has washed its hands and looked the other way in the Lumumba murder.

safety, both the West and the United Nations have delivered their cause into the hands of their aggressive and incontinent enemies. Their stupidity in giving communism another spiked club with which to belabor them is almost past belief.

Anyone on our side with an atom of intelligence knew in advance that Lumumba dead was worth a thousand times more to communism than Lumumba alive. To have permitted Lumumba to be murdered by default is incredible political stupidity.

But now the deed is done and the damned spot will not out. How much longer the United Nations can or will survive under continued assaults by Russia is anybody's guess. That assault began with Khrushchev's shoe-throwing tactics last autumn and now, with Lumumba's murder, has reached the point where the Soviets have withdrawn recognition of Dag Hammarskjold as U. N. Secretary General.

Perhaps the United Nations was asked to do the impossible when it was ordered to keep the cold war out and the peace in the Congo. Nonetheless, it has not distinguished itself or its cause. Perhaps all will not be lost, however, if the West is sufficiently shocked by Lumumba's assassination to face up to the fact that in Congo it is dealing not with civilized men but with savages scarce removed from the Stone Age.

The idea that there is anything now faintly resembling democracy in the Congo or can be in the foreseeable future is sheerest moonshine. It is impossible to have a democracy without a literate populace and literacy in the Congo is nonexistent. The Congo is not a nation but a land mass occupied by jealous, warring tribes.

Neither the United Nations nor the West will get anywhere in the Congo by treating its dissident factions as if they were merely opposing political factions in a democracy. There is a savage solution for the Congo, and one that the West and the United Nations may have to adopt if the U. N. is unable to recruit more troops for its Congo force or if the United States eventually gets tired of picking up the lion's share of the tab for the U. N.'s faltering operation there.

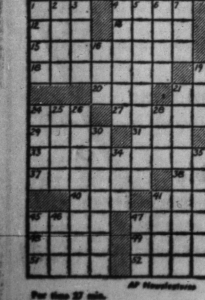

That unhappy solution would be the establishment of a cordon sanitaire around the Congo, while the warring tribes fight it out among themselves. It is quite possible that the United Nations' fumbling forces will not, in the long run, be able to prevent civil war. If it could not or would not prevent the murder of three political prisoners, how can it cope with a possible civil war among the tribes?

It has already handed the Congo and communism the casual bell in Lumumba, the Martyr. (Copyright, 1961, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Tech Rips Bears; Sniffing At Title

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas Tech rode with its dazzling duo of big John Hudgens and tiny Del Ray Monte to a blistering '58-51 triumph over Baylor and used an assist from Southern Methodist to all but wrap up the Southwest Conference basketball championship Tuesday night.

The Red Raiders, after their first title in four years of trying, took a two-game lead with three games to go as Southern Methodist whipped bitter rival Texas A&M 65-61 to knock the Aggies into a second place tie with Texas.

Everyone considers Tech "in" with the title although the Raiders still must play enough foes—Texas Christian and Texas at home and Rice on the road—to lose it. But TCU and Rice are down in the second division and only Texas appears capable of giving the Raiders trouble.

Texas clung to a chance at the title by edging Rice 81-79. It put the Longhorns into a second place tie with Texas A&M. These two teams will settle the issue of which is to stay there in a battle at College Station Saturday night.

Arkansas can make it a three-way tie for second if it beats Texas Christian at Fort Worth

Wednesday night.

Tech is 9-2, Texas A&M and Texas 7-4 and Arkansas 6-4 in conference play.

Hudgens, Tech's 6-9 center, wound up with 24 points for the night, and Monte pitching in 22 and the other three starters scoring in double figures—Mac Perceval and Roger Hennig 18 points apiece and Tom Patty 15.

Dick Tinsley managed 22 points to lead Baylor.

Rice led most of the way and the loss in the final minutes was most disheartening. Mike Maroney of Rice was high point man with 26 while Donnie Laster led Texas with 22.

Some brilliant outside shooting in the final half brought Southern Methodist its victory over Texas A&M.

But defeat didn't dim the luster of Carroll Broussard, the magnificent Aggie. He poured in 26 points to maintain his scoring lead in the conference. Jan Loderick led SMU with 20.

Texas Tech plays Texas Christian at Lubbock Friday while Baylor goes to Fayetteville to meet Arkansas and Rice clashes with Southern Methodist at Houston.

Lions Biff Cards In Bi-District Title

SWEETWATER — Hermleigh's Cardinals were eliminated from the playoff picture here last night, as they were followed by the Roby Lions of District 91-B by a score of 64-48 in a bi-district contest.

Coach R. C. McLaren's Cards, who last year copped the 92-B crown and were downed by Highland in bi-district play, fell behind early in the game in going down, and trailed by 30-41 at halftime.

The Redbirds had advanced into the play-off picture with a series victory over Westbrook in action last week.

Lynn Gibson made the biggest noise in the Lion attack, as he poured in a total of 18 points for the night.

Ira Evens Up Series With 40-29 Victory

IRA—The Ira Bulldogs remained in contention for the District 92-B girls cage crown here last night, as they rallied from an initial 41-36 series setback to powder Westbrook, 40-29.

The victory squared off the series at 1-1, and necessitated a third and deciding game which will determine the district title. That clash has been set for Friday at 7:30, and will be rec'd off in Snyder's Tiger Gym.

Lena Farmer sparkplugged her sextet to the important win with 22 points. Judy Ranne was high for the losers with 18.

The contest began slowly, and saw Westbrook holding a scant 4-3 lead at the end of the first quarter before Ira came back to gain its scoring momentum with a big 17-point second stanza and go on to win with ease.

IRA—Lena Farmer 6 10 3 22; Kay Ford 2 5 2 9; Karen White 4 1 0 9; Totals 12 16 5 40.

Corpus Cops Team Title In State GG

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Massive Claud Davenport, colorful Indian John Peters and classy light regional Davis will lead a well-regarded Texas Golden Gloves team to the Tournament of Champions at Chicago next week.

Davenport, 238-pound Arlington State football player, won the heavyweight championship Tuesday night with a decision over big Alford (Pete) Peterson of Sherman.

At the same time Peters, a Sak and Fox Indian from Corpus Christi, grabbed the light heavyweight championship with an easy decision over Mills McCawley of Texarkana.

Davis, champion last year of the lightweights, shifted to the featherweights this time and won the title with a decision over Durwood Williams of Amarillo. He was the only defending champion to come through.

Others on the Texas team are Bobby Wilhelm of Corpus Christi, middleweight; Burton Gilliam of Dallas, welterweight; Margarito Marquez of Houston, flyweight; Steve Freeman of Houston, bantamweight, and Richard Marquez of Corpus Christi, lightweight.

TO THE VICTORS—Murray Bowden, captain of the Optimist League's undefeated Bowling Club Golds, accepts the trophy as presented by the Snyder Optimist Club in recognition of his team's garnering of the league's recently-completed cove championship. The presentation was made at the regular Monday night meeting of the sponsoring club. Fred Bullard, who coached the winning team, is at center, while at right is Optimist Club president Tommy Ivison. COME ABOARD—Mariners and would-be mariners will get a hearty welcome to the Chicago National Boat Show, March 24 through April 2, from perit, 18-year-old Helen Anderson. She'll reign over the huge boating exposition in Chicago's McCormick Place as Miss Dreamboat. Helen won the title along with that of Miss Photoflash in a contest sponsored by the Chicago Press Photographers Association.

Travis Socks Lamar In Faculty Fray

A lean-in-numbers but frisky band of Travis faculty members clashed with the Lamar faculty aggregation here in Tiger Gym last night, and succeeded in clobbering them by a surprisingly easy 62-38 tab.

Travis had only 9 men suited up to Lamar's 21, but succeeded in pacing their group to advantage behind the 23-point output of lowering Bob O'Day. Veteran Ned Underwood was tops for the Lamar side with 16.

James Wesson and Ray Courtney also climbed into the twin-figure bracket for the winners with 11 and 10 points, respectively. They were followed by Jim Stewart and Bill Hartsfield with 6 each. Jim Erwin with 5, and Charles Anderson with 2.

Underwood was the only Lamar performer to hit in double numbers, although Dab Holt was only a whisper away from a R. E. Cooper was next in line with 3, while Max Laing, Jiggs Falls, Dillard Teal, Al Young and Ace Amos each picked up 2.

Eight teams are left in Class AAAA and ten in Class AAA as the Texas schoolboy basketball campaign moves into its regional round.

The top division trimmed from 16 in all-out action in the bi-districts Tuesday night.

Midland advanced with a 59-56 victory over Ysleta Bel Air, Amarillo Palo Duro beat Birdville 73-55, Fort Worth Paschal downed Dallas Samuel 57-51, Denton walloped Lufkin 68-56, Houston Austin eliminated Aldine 57-43, Beaumont clipped Freeport 68-56, Austin swamped McAllen 72-57 and San Antonio Harlandale laced Laredo 66-47.

In the regional finals this week-end Midland meets Amarillo Palo Duro, Paschal takes on Denton, Houston Austin plays Beaumont and Austin battles Harlandale to furnish the four teams that go to the state tournament in Austin next week.

Greenville nipped Fort Worth Castleberry 38-36, Killeen whammed Jasper 68-53, Clear Creek smashed Lamar Consolidated 67-42 and Robstown whipped San Benito 80-64 in Class AAA. Nacogdoches and South San Antonio had won their bi-district games Monday night.

Greenville plays Nacogdoches, Killeen meets Clear Creek and South San Antonio clashes with Robstown in the regional finals.

The fourth team for the state tournament will come from a regional tournament at Lubbock Friday and Saturday where defending state champion Lamesa, Dumas, Seminole and Brownwood will contest.

LINDA IVISON Leads Tigerettes

Tigerettes In Twin Win Over Abilene

ABILENE—The Snyder Tigerette volleyball girls parlayed their "lucky 27" to victory here again last night, as they neatly clipped the wings of Abilene's Eaglettes, 27-19. In their only other outing of the young season, the Snyder girls downed Colorado City by an almost-identical tally of 27-18.

Linda Ivison powered her team to the win, as she was high server for the game with 8. Alma Nell Evans aided the cause as high spiker for the contest.

The Tigerette "B" team bounced into the win column in a preliminary just against the Abileneans, bringing their season record to 1-1 with 37-30 conquest.

Janice Rinehart, with 11 points, was top performer in the winning attack.

One schedule deletion has been announced by Tigerette Coach Peggie Holder, and concerns the Big Spring Tournament of this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Snyder varsity was to have been an entrant in the tourney, but now will not participate. Their next action will thus be in the Lamesa Tournament of March 2-4, after which they will return home March 7 for their district opener against Colorado City.

Only Yankee pitchers who held Pirate hero Bill Mazeroski hitless in the World Series were Ryne Duren and Bobby Shantz. Both retired him twice.

Young Boxers Eye Pee Wee Tourney Here

All Boys' Club Pee Wee boxing aspirants who would like to take part in the Second Annual Midget Gloves Tournament of this Friday, Saturday and Monday are reminded of the opportunity to sign up and requested to do so prior to the Friday afternoon deadline.

The mammoth array of little guy bouts will be staged in the Towle Park Barn, and there is already a healthy list of area teams which have indicated their intentions of entering.

To be eligible, a boy must not have reached his fifteenth birthday as yet, must not weigh over 105 pounds, and must be a current member of the Boys' Club. Prospective entrants are asked to contact Lonnie Crosby at the local Boys' Club.

37 Persons Hurt In Train Wreck

By DICK RAINBOLT
BUFFALO, N.D. (AP)—"It started to go up and down and buck like a bronco," said a stunned passenger. "Then it started to sway, and it went over."

The Northern Pacific's crack Mainstreeter, bound for Portland, Ore., from Chicago, derailed at 60 miles an hour Tuesday, sending nine cars hurtling off the tracks. Thirty-seven persons were taken to hospitals throughout eastern North Dakota.

No one was killed. None of the injured was believed in serious condition. The train ripped up 300 feet of track and knocked down telegraph poles and communications before the derailed cars came to rest, partially buried in mud.

Dazed passengers crawled from the wreckage as emergency vehicles raced to the site. There were 51 persons in the coaches, 7 in Pullman cars, and 16 crewmen. Almost all suffered injuries of some kind.

Ambulances and other rescue vehicles from Valley City, Fargo, Jamestown and other communities converged on this small eastern North Dakota town, taking the injured to hospitals as far as 75 miles away.

The closest hospital, in Valley City, is 20 miles from the scene. The first four cars of the 13-unit train passed a switch about a mile west of here, but the other cars went off the tracks. Seven of the cars lay in the mire today, like a shattered toy train. The wreck blocked the Northern Pacific's main line. Company officials said they expected to have service restored today.

"Somebody was watching over that train," said a Roman Catholic nun who was a passenger. "Those who could walk were magnificent," said Sister Angele of Bismarck, N.D. "Everybody helped everybody else. There was no panic at all."

"We were toward the back of the car, and all of a sudden the car started to go up and down and buck like a bronco," said Harry Drew of Fargo. "Then it started to swing back and forth, but the train kept moving forward all the time. Then the darned thing started to sidesway and went over on its side."

Other passengers told of being bounced around as the cars lurched off the tracks and into mud along the right of way. Three cars came to rest on their sides. The wreck was believed caused by a broken rail.

French Bring Their Pranks To Broadway

NEW YORK (AP)—The French have landed, and all's well on the theatrical front. Unwrapping a bundle of hilarious pranks, the noted Comedie Francaise premiered Tuesday night at City Center for a limited engagement prior to a national tour.

Since being here six years ago, the Gallic troupe has had a government-ordered shakeup. Later in the run, new facets of versatility and range are to be displayed. But for right now, one thing is clear—reform hasn't bruised the comic flair.

The initial bill comprises a pair of short plays by Moliere—"Scapin's Pranks" and "Versailles Impromptu."

As the roguish Scapin, Robert Hirsch scores the personal triumph of the program with a bravura display of slapstick monkeyshines. He earns added credits by doubling as the designer of lively costumes and set for the piece.

In the Versailles playlet, acted in a polished style of classic elegance, veteran Louis Seigner returns. Jacques Charon, another scolar of the company, acts in both items, and directs "Scapin's Pranks."

A rapid-fire running translation is provided over radio earphones. But the Comedie Francaise knows how to keep the language barrier without such aids. Just watching is high entertainment.

Also brand new and highly recommended is "Double Entry," a pair of short musicals at the tiny Manhattan Theater.

Fresh, funny and fascinating, the bill comprises "The Oldest Trick in the World," a hilarious peek behind the curtains of a fortune-telling parlor, and "The Bible Salesman," a back country Negro fable of touching simplicity.

Author-composer Jay Thompson ranges with delightful results from farce to folkiness, and his music avoids cliché. It would be hard to imagine shinier performances than those rendered director Bill Penn by each three-player cast. Rosetta LeNoire appears in both. She is touching and deft in one, worldly and comic in the other.

Voting At Home By Phone Is Predicted For Future

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A dying germ, voting by telephone, a husband-losing shellfish and a bargain sale are subjects for science at work.

Dial P for President
You may be voting by telephone someday in the future, an expert predicts.

Come Election Day, you'd dial a special number, check a written ballot that had been mailed to you, dial code numbers for your vote, and dial a final code to cast the ballot.

Final results could be known a few minutes after polls close and you'd vote in your own home, says Dr. Ralph M. Goldman of Michigan State University. One problem: How to prevent someone from casting your ballot.

Bergman In Visit With Her Daughter
LAGRANGE, Ga. (AP)—Ingrid Bergman planned to return to New York today after a brief visit with her daughter and son-in-law.

The actress, refusing to talk with reporters, drove here from the Atlanta airport Tuesday to spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Callaway II. Mrs. Callaway is the former Jenny Ann Lindstrom, Miss Bergman's daughter by her first marriage.

Tuesday was the first anniversary of the date Miss Lindstrom eloped with Callaway, a member of one of Georgia's prominent textile families.

Miss Bergman's present husband, producer Lars Schmidt, said this was the first family get-together since Christmas, when the Callaways visited them in Paris.

One of a group of disinfectants first used by Sir Joseph Lister in 1867 for antiseptic surgery, it had never been known how the chemical kills germs.

Attention Wives
A tiny female barnacle has reduced married life to its simplest. She carries one or two husbands around in her pocket.

This particular barnacle, of the family lithogypidae, doesn't live on ship bottoms, but burrows into coral. While the female is tiny—barely 8-100th of an inch long—the male is even less, a small, simple sac without ability for independent action, saved only for reproduction, and housed in a pocket in the female's right side, reports the Smithsonian Institution.

A bargain sale has been announced by the Atomic Energy Commission.

If you're looking for radioactive lechitium-99, the Oak Ridge National Laboratory has slashed prices to $100 a gram, down from as high as $2,800 a gram. A nuclear reactor byproduct, the material has promise as an anticorrosion element.

A slight breeze is almost as necessary as sunlight to grow corn.

Air movement helps carry enough carbon dioxide to the corn plants, a requisite for photosynthesis. Without it corn yields may be reduced, say U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists.

It's possible to design a camera that can operate at speeds of 100,000,000th of a second, with new crystals that can capture an image with an electric charge, say Soviet scientists.

Union Refuses To Purchase Company
DALLAS (AP)—Dallas Transit Co. union employees Tuesday rejected board chairman Harry Weinberg's offer to sell the company to employees.

"Our employees voted 100 per cent against purchasing any part or all of the company," said Grady Adkins, local president.

Weinberg offered to sell the company to employees for its book value of $7,393,760.83 on monthly installments.

"We are more interested in providing Dallas with a good transportation system but we are not interested in going into the transportation business," Adkins said.

Woman Held In Husband's Death
HOUSTON (AP)—Early Floyd White, 38, of Houston, was shot to death in his home Tuesday night.

His wife, Mrs. Shirley Elizabeth White, 25, was charged with murder.

Mrs. White told police the pistol fired accidentally during a scuffle.

Slick Holdup Solves Itself

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — One of this city's slickest holdups solved itself when the bandit returned his loot.

Eugene John Snyder, 33, jobsite Fort Lauderdale salesman, Tuesday handed a sack of bills to John O'Keefe, manager of a Flagler Federal Savings and Loan Association office.

"This is the money I stole yesterday," said Snyder, and began weeping.

Snyder said he spent only $20 of the $4,777 he obtained Monday by showing a teller a pistol wrapped in a newspaper.

"I needed money for groceries and medical bills. I was desperate," Snyder said.

"I only needed $300. When I looked in the bag and saw all that money I was shocked. I stayed awake all last night thinking about it. Then I decided to bring the money back."

Snyder said his wife is ill. He said the gun he used in the holdup was not loaded.

Snyder was held on $20,000 bond.

Test Suit On Depletion Of Water Filed

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—A farm couple Tuesday filed a $300 suit against the federal government in a test case seeking a water depletion tax allowable similar to one given oil men.

The suit, backed by the High Plains—Water Conservation District, followed seven years of study by the water district.

The suit seeks a cost depletion income tax allowable on all underground water used for irrigation farming.

Attorneys on behalf of Marvin and Mildred Shurbet, Route 1, Petersburg, filed the suit.

The area around Lubbock, one of the most intensely irrigated in the county, has about 20,000 farmers on five million acres of land. The High Plains Water District has 50,000 operating wells.

Shurbet is a member of the Texas Water Study Committee appointed by Gov. Price Daniel.

A pre-trial hearing probably will take place some time this spring and the case come to trial in the fall term of court.

Purpose of the suit attorneys said, is to prove that ground water under the Southern High Plains of Texas is a natural deposit and is being mined—just as oil, gas, gold or any other natural deposit is mined.

"If underground water should come under the federal law allowing an income tax deduction for depletion of such resources," officials of the water district declared.

The Shurbets will contend that water users can show an actual cost of underground water beneath their land and who are using the water from this storage to produce income should be entitled to deduct the cost of the water as it is exhausted.

The basis for water depletion tax allowance would not be on the percentage formula now used by oil operators, but on how much the water under the land increased the value of the land, under the claims of the suit.

There were three sit-in protests in the Sumter demonstrations. Most of those arrested were paraders who refused to return to the Morris College campus.

There was no immediate effort among the Sumter Negroes to post bonds of $100 each.

In Atlanta, the "jail, no bail" campaign of Negro students arrested about two weeks ago weakened slightly when nine posted $100 bonds on trespass charges in connection with sit-ins. But 70 students chose to remain behind bars.

In a federal court civil rights trial at Opelika, Ala., a Macon County voter registrar denied that he knowingly made it more difficult for Negroes to register than for white persons. "They all look alike to me," said Wheeler Dyson.

Federal attorneys charged that Negroes were systematically denied the ballot in the black belt county where Negro residents outnumber white persons 6-1. Twice as many white persons as Negroes are registered voters.

Higher Props For Cotton Announced

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman announced Tuesday night growers prices for this year's cotton will be supported at a base rate of 33.04 cents a pound—up .62 cents from last year.

He accompanied the announcement with a guess that the rate—about $3 a bale more than last year—would make neither many growers nor textile mill users of cotton very happy.

He accompanied the announcement with a guess that the rate—about $3 a bale more than last year—would make neither many growers nor textile mill users of cotton very happy.

There had been pressure from growers and some cotton states congressmen for a larger increase.

But his action, coupled with other changes in the cotton program, will boost by 2 to 3 cents a pound the prices which domestic users pay. Many of these users are complaining that they are unable to compete with foreign mills.

Under the 1960 program, foreign buyers of U. S. cotton have been getting it at 6 cents a pound less than domestic users. Under the 1961 program, effective Aug. 1, they will be getting it at about 2.5 cents a pound less.

The plight of domestic mills is being studied by a cabinet level committee headed by Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges. Relief of some sort has been promised.

In announcing the 1961 rate, Freeman said it compared with one of 28.38 cents which he said his predecessor, Ezra Taft Benson, had proposed to the Budget Bureau for purposes of formulating the budget report President Eisenhower sent Congress before leaving office.

The new Freeman rate of 33.04 cents applies to one-inch middling cotton at average storage location. It compares with 32.42 cents for this grade produced by farmers last year in compliance with federal acreage allotments. A somewhat lower rate applied last year to cotton grown by farmers who chose to overplant allotments by 40 per cent.

The new rate is designed to reflect 82 per cent of the parity price of cotton compared with 75 per cent last year and 70 per cent which Freeman said Benson had in mind.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

AF Bomber Explodes In Midair

HORSE CAVE, Ky. (AP)—Wreckage of an Air Force B47 today lay strewn like tinsel over a nearby farm. The plane blew to bits as it spiraled to earth after a midair refueling mishap.

Only the navigator survived of the five Strategic Air Command crewmen aboard Tuesday night. He bailed out at 7,000 feet and landed in a tree, breaking his left arm.

Unaware of any trouble, the KC-70 tanker that had been refueling the six-jet plane at 15,000 feet returned safely to base at Columbus, Ohio.

Officials at Lockbourne Air Force Base there said the B47 carried no nuclear or other bombs, but was outfitted with electronic gear to disrupt enemy radar.

The Air Force identified the victims as:

Capt. William E. Gillespie, 40, plane commander; Lt. Edward P. Shuller, 25, copilot; Capt. George R. McKenney, 28, instructor pilot; and Capt. Arthur T. Bagby, 36, instructor navigator.

All lived in or near Columbus, Ohio.

The navigator, Lt. Herman L. Crawford, 25, of Pickerington, Ohio, was found walking along a rural road after parachuting to earth about a mile from where the plane hit. He was taken to an Army hospital at Ft. Knox.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Daily News: The Fisher County Sheriff Posse would like to express its appreciation publicly to all who had part in making their trip to Washington, D. C. for the Presidents inauguration possible. Especially do we want to thank the Scurry County Sheriff Posse for its part in selling tickets to the Appreciation Dinner at Roby. The Scurry County Boys did a bang up job with sale of these tickets. To all of you who bought tickets or made donations we are deeply grateful. Without your help the trip would not have been possible. To all of you who had any part in making this trip possible we want to say thank you.

The posse did their very best to be good ambassadors and to represent all of Texas and our surrounding community. We surmise the invitation one of the highest honors we could have received and trust that we represented Texas and you in such a manner that was pleasing to Texas People.

We are indeed happy to have had Mr. George Maul and Mr. Clyde South from the Scurry County Sheriff Posse riding with us on this trip. We would like to thank the Scurry Club for lending them to us. We are indebted to all who had any part in making our trip possible and are humbly grateful to all of you for the things you did.

Pact Halts Congo Troop Shuffle

Conference Eases Issue

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The United Nations and Katanga have agreed to halt all troop movements likely to lead to friction, Katanga's President Moise Tshombe announced today.

reputedly replied they did not need the helicopters. Sudan has banned shipments across her territory to the Stanleyville regime and has refused to permit planes for Stanleyville to make a refueling stop at Khartoum.

Tshombe objects to U.N. Security Council action which empowered the U.N. Congo command to use force if necessary to prevent civil war. The council also called for withdrawal of foreign officials such as the Belgians who are key members of Tshombe's army and government.

The decision to freeze troop movements was reached at a meeting of U.N. representative Ian Berendsen of New Zealand and Col. Anders Kjelgren, Swedish commander of 2,000 U.N. troops garrisoned in Katanga.

It could end a Katanga offensive against Baluba rebels in the north of the province, where U.N. troops have been little more than observers.

U.A.R. President Nasser in a speech in Damascus said his government would continue to aid Giza's rebels "until they win their freedom." Nasser charged the United Nations with letting "imperialist agents liquidate nationalist elements" in the Congo.

He is president of the Snyder Jaycees and resides at 3722 Austin Avenue.

9 Perish In Borger Blast

BORGER (AP)—An explosion and fire today at the huge Phillips Petroleum Co. refinery installation killed nine men and injured another, the company reported.

The company said most of the men burned to death. Many of the bodies were burned beyond recognition.

The dead and injured were employed by the Boman-Chase Construction Co. of Borger, but at least some of the men are believed from Amarillo, Tex., 35 miles to the southwest.

No Phillips employees suffered death or injury. The explosion occurred in a refining unit, called a fractionator, which the construction company had just installed.

Deep Snow Due To Melt

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Clearing skies and mild daytime temperatures were expected Wednesday to erode away the huge snow piles dumped on the South Plains by the worst snowstorm in its history.

The sudden storm that dumped up to 20 inches of snow over a 200,000 square mile area from eastern New Mexico northwestward into Texas Monday blocked highways, closed schools, and was blamed for two deaths.

Mild temperatures Tuesday, however, took the edge off the heavy snow blanket as highway maintenance equipment re-opened roads and freed automobiles that had become mired.

Drizzling rain that covered wide sections of Texas earlier in the week had all but disappeared Wednesday. Only Mineral Wells reported a pre-dawn shower.

Only in Northeast and North Central Texas were skies still overcast. Elsewhere they were clear to partly cloudy. Early morning temperatures ranged from 28 degrees at Dalhart to 43 at Beaumont.

Maximum temperatures Tuesday afternoon ranged from 41 degrees at Lubbock and Abilene to 64 at Laredo.

The five-day forecast called for a warming trend Wednesday and Thursday over the state with cooler weather and more showers over the weekend.

Backers of the bill said it must be decided before the House and Senate spending committees can make an accurate estimate of 1962-1963 money needs. If the bill is not passed, said Rep. John Huenberger, Bay City, the author, then the alternative is a "state employees union showdown over their officials."

Job Classification Bill Has House Okay

Job Classification Bill Has House Okay

AUSTIN (AP)—A revolutionary plan for job classification of most state employees was approved by the House today and sent to the Senate.

Approval was on a voice vote. The classification plan details the duties and responsibilities of about 1,500 kinds of work in state government. It does not set salary scales which will be considered later in the appropriations bill.

A special provision in the bill makes it clear the plan is not part of a state civil service program or the merit system used by some federal agencies.

The House gave the measure temporary approval Tuesday by a 123-13 vote. Backers of the bill said it must be decided before the House and Senate spending committees can make an accurate estimate of 1962-1963 money needs.

When the anniversary rolled around he was more often than not plagued by sickness, lack of cash, crop failures, spiteful tongues, sunshine patriots and politicians handy with the harpoon.

Stephen conducted a whooping, whirlwind campaign. Hampered by illness, Washington was like a guttering candle competing with a fireworks display. Washington won the election, but seemed in no mood to celebrate.

Down through the years, Washington wrote often of money worries, of going into debt and of being unable to collect money due him; of selling land and goods at losses—of having to turn-down friends' appeals for loans.

As early as 1782—he died in 1792 at the age of 67—he said: "I pant for retirement" so that he might end his days in quiet. Before that came to pass, however, he was called upon to serve eight driving years as president.

Research at this center of Washington lore on the Delaware River shows Washington at that time was suffering from fevers and in severe pain from something resembling an acute attack of flu. His tobacco crop was poor. His plantation was running down generally, largely because he had been away from home so much.

It was also a time of political crisis for Washington. He was running for re-election to the Virginia House of Burgesses from Frederick County. His opponent was an

Doubleheader Successful

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Two shiny new U.S. satellites whipped around the globe today, both propelled aloft by a single rocket.

The doubleheader launching, accomplished late Tuesday night, gave this nation its fourth and fifth satellites in five days and its seventh major space success without a failure this year.

The fledgling space voyagers are the Navy's 250-pound Transit III-B navigation satellite and a 54-pound hitchhiker sphere—called Lofti—to study space communications.

Both roared away from this test center in the nose of a Thor-Able Star rocket at 10:45 p.m. Two hours later the Defense Department reported they were in orbit, beeping valuable information back to ground stations.

Putting satellites up by the bundle is nothing new to the Able Star. It did the trick last June with Transit II-A and a radiation satellite.

One of the string of 1961 successes in America's swiftly moving program to conquer space occurred earlier Tuesday at Cape Canaveral.

Early Panel Okay Seen For Kennedy's Jobless Aid Plan

By EDMOND LE BRETON WASHINGTON (AP)—A billion-dollar program of emergency help for the long-time unemployed, President Kennedy's No. 1 legislative project, apparently was set today for prompt approval by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Democratic leaders were hoping to bring it to a vote early next week and make it the first of the new administration's 16 priority measures to win House approval.

Other items on this priority list, announced by the White House Tuesday, also moved up a notch or two.

A companion bill, for benefits to children of the unemployed, was being put into shape for Ways and Means approval with or just after the unemployment-payment extension.

Striking Flight Engineers To Announce Decision Today

Eastern, American and Trans World all have ceased operation. Pan American, National and Western are maintaining only token service.

Losses in revenue by the six airlines are estimated at more than $5 million a day. More than 84,000 employees of the struck airlines have been laid off.

At Los Angeles, Western Airlines fired its 130 striking engineers and said they would be replaced by pilots as soon as the duties could be trained to handle the duties.

WMU Of Colonial Hill Is Honored

As a part of the Y.W.A. Focus Week activities last week, the Young Woman's Auxiliary of Colonial Hill Baptist Church honored the WMU with a tea. It was held on Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Odell Cox, the YWA director. A red and white color scheme was carried out in decorations. The receiving line was composed of Joyce Langridge, Lynette Kilchings, and Ann Byrd. Sandra Autry, president of the auxiliary, presided at the register table, where 20 women registered. Winona McClanahan served coffee from the service table which was laid with a white linen cloth. The centerpiece was made of two red hearts trimmed in red net, with red sweet-heart roses running through them. The silver coffee service was on one end of the table, and plates of cookies and canapés were on the other. Other decorations used in the room were red candles in white candle holders placed on red heart doilies.

As another Focus Week activity the YWA was in charge of Wednesday night prayer service. The service was opened by the congregation singing the YWA Hymn, "O Zion Haste." After prayer, Mrs. Odell Cox brought a talk on the "Why" of YWA's. The girls repeated the Watchword, and Sandra Autry read the dedication. Joyce Langridge and Sandra Autry brought special music, "Lord Lay Some Soul Upon My Heart," and Winona McClanahan brought the devotional.

Wednesday afternoon the YWA met to conclude the Home Mission study book, "HIS TO COMMAND," brought by Mrs. Jimmie Nelson.

Mrs. Holladay Hostess To Maiden Circle

The Maiden Circle of the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Hoyle Holladay, West Thirty-seventh Street.

Mrs. O. L. Ferrell conducted a short business meeting and each member answered roll with a Bible verse. Plans were discussed for distributing literature and making posters. Each member will participate in both activities.

Mrs. Bob Pollard, mission study chairman, gave an interesting report on two chapters from the mission book, "Dreamer at Work," told of Luther Rice, an inspired christian, who dreamed of expanding the mission program and making it a part of the church program, as it is today. The second chapter, "Dreamer Discredited," told of the opposition to his ideas. As it is with any new idea or action, he met with many disappointments and much disapproval.

Those present were Judy Bumgarner, Janell Pollard, Billie Bracheen, Lorene Mathis, Joan Holladay, Betty Bearden, Emma Lee-Hill, and Suzanne Ferrell. The circle welcomed a new member, Mrs. Murray Watkins and one visitor, Mrs. Wayne Cain.

Madagascar, now called the Malagasy Republic, is the world's fourth largest island and lies off the southeast coast of Africa.

Nora Circle Holds Meeting

The Nora Circle of Colonial Hill Baptist Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Crook. Coffee and cake was served on arrival. The opening prayer was led by Mrs. Odell Cox. Roll call was answered with scripture and minutes were read and approved.

Announcements were made for participation in "Week of Prayer" which will be held March 3 through 10.

Mrs. Joe Feagan was a new member, others present were Meses Buford Newton, Daryl Heard, Aubrey Blalock, Donnie Leverette, Kenneth Crook, Odell Cox, and Gene McGee.

Colors, Woolens, Styles Make Big Spring News

Changes are in the air in coat and suit fashions for Spring, 1961. They are not radical nor world-shaking, just different enough for you to feel you are really wearing something new when you walk out that first crisply lovely Spring day. Fabrics, color and style are all involved in this delightful story on a sort of share-and-share-alike basis, adding up to irresistible news!

Textures of the wool fabrics are lively and lovely, often spongy and rather thick in appearance but actually light and airy. Both coats and suits follow this trend in basketry, meshy weaves with float yarns adding surface interest, and lacey, tufted weaves that may have tiny mohair curls spaced or lightly frosting the entire surface. Diagonals and increasingly important as is worsted ottoman with ribs from tiny to bold, close or spaced. Tussock weaves, sponges, bouclés around in the less textured woolens. C. Osborne To Appear In Drama

PLAINVIEW, (Spl.)—Named to the cast for the premier performance of an original drama by two Wayland Baptist College professors is Cecil Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Osborne, 3716 Austin, Snyder.

"Once in a Nation," written by Dr. Eugene W. Jones, chairman, division of social science, and Dr. Henry Eason, head, department of speech and drama, deals with events surrounding the impeachment trial of President Andrew Johnson. Set for Mar. 2-3, the production explores the conflicts and emotions experienced by both factions in the impeachment proceedings.

The authors have done extensive research on the Civil War period and the Johnson era, and costuming and makeup will be authenticated in the production, according to Dr. Jones and Dr. Eason. The production is timed to coincide with the nation's observance of the Civil War Centennial.

Osborne, a freshman student, is seeking a Bachelor of Arts from Wayland. His appearance in "Once in a Nation" will mark his debut on the Wayland stage.

Fun With Easter Eggs: Make Easter Apple Salad

Recipes, like fashions, have a way of disappearing from the scene after a short time only to return some day as a brand new idea with some changes—or revived in toto as a sentimental favorite. Here's one that might come under the latter heading. Back in the "good-old days," a favorite salad during the Easter season was "Easter Apple Salad." We thought it would be fun to revive it, like a one-popular fashion.

Eggs are always plentiful at Easter time, (courtesy of the Easter bunny) and are always a good item on the menu because of their high nutrition content. A substantial salad like this, served with a tangy French dressing, can pep up an otherwise drab dinner.

When it comes to hard-boiling eggs, homemakers seldom give a second thought to their preparation. Even the newest bride will claim she can at least boil an egg. Food authorities, though, say we take the preparation of eggs too lightly and that many veteran cooks do not know how to boil eggs properly. For example, to hard boil, the eggs first should be placed in a saucepan and then cover the eggs with cold water.

Turn the heat on high and bring the water to a boil. Immediately turn off the heat, cover the pan and let the eggs stand in the water for 15 minutes. Remove eggs and cool at once under cold running water.

With Deluxe French Dressing, salad-making time is cut to a minimum. This is a non-separating, seasoned-just-right French dressing that is ready to use the instant you remove the bottle's cap.

"EASTER APPLE" SALAD
Allow one egg (or two, if the rest of your menu is particularly light) to a person. Hard boil the eggs. Allow to cool slightly, shell them, but while still warm press and form into the shape of an "apple." (This is done by making depressions, with the thumb and index finger, in both the small and large end of the egg.) In the smaller depression place a clove to represent the blossom end of the apple and in the larger depression insert a cinnamon stick, simulating the stem, and a small green leaf of lettuce or water cress. Chill and serve on a bed of greens or lettuce leaves, adding Deluxe French Dressing for the "topper."

Lumumba Is Worth More To Reds Dead Than He Was Alive

BY INEZ ROBB

The ghost of Patrice Lumumba haunts more than the world of power politics. It haunts men of good will throughout the Western bloc who did not have either the humanity or the courage to lift a hand to save him from the political murder that was inevitable from the day of his arrest.

There are few crimes more sickening and repugnant than the abuse and massacre of a helpless prisoner, no matter how distasteful that prisoner's political stance or graph ever takes of Lumumba, on the day almost five weeks ago when he was transferred from prison in Leopoldville province to one in Katanga province, showed him a beset man with death plainly written in his face.

At that time, I thought that surely some powerful spokesman for the West, moved by a civilized conscience, would demand guarantees of decent treatment and safety for the prisoner, no matter how repellent the man and his politics. It is an indictment of both the West and the United Nations that they did nothing in this case.

Either the United Nations and the Western World stand for individual decency, human dignity and worth, even in a political prisoner they oppose, or they stand for nothing. As it is, neither did anything to prevent the assassination of the pro-Communist and two of his deputies.

The United Nations and the West let the Hungarian revolution go by default in 1956, and now, in a reverse case, it has washed its hands and looked the other way in the Lumumba murder.

By their refusal to demand and get guarantees for Lumumba's safety, both the West and the United Nations have delivered their cause into the hands of their aggressive and incontinent enemies. Their stupidity in giving communism another spiked club with which to belabor them is almost past belief.

Anyone on our side with an atom of intelligence knew in advance that Lumumba dead was worth a thousand times more to communism than Lumumba alive. To have permitted Lumumba to be murdered by default is incredible political stupidity.

But now the deed is done and the damned spot will not out. How much longer the United Nations or will survive under continued assaults by Russia is anybody's guess. That assault began with Khrushchev's shoe-pounding tactics last autumn and now, with Lumumba's murder, has reached the point where the Soviets have withdrawn recognition of Dag Hammarskjöld as U.N. Secretary General.

Perhaps the United Nations was asked to do the impossible when it was ordered to keep the cold war out and the peace in the Congo. Nonetheless, it has not distinguished itself or its cause. Perhaps all that was to be lost, however, if the West and the United Nations had stood for nothing.

Either the United Nations and the Western World stand for individual decency, human dignity and worth, even in a political prisoner they oppose, or they stand for nothing. As it is, neither did anything to prevent the assassination of the pro-Communist and two of his deputies.

"The X-rays show the cause of your sore gums is that you are growing a third set of teeth. They are coming in at a remarkable rate, and I predict that in another three months you should be able to discard both your upper and lower plates."

"Unable to reach you by phone last week, I took the liberty of putting you down for $500 worth of shares in Amalgamated Button-locks, Ltd. As you probably note, the stock has since tripled in value and will soon split."

"As your company doctor, I am glad to inform you that you passed your recent physical examination with flying colors. You are now at liberty to eat as much as you like, drink as much as you like, smoke as much as you like. However, I have informed the management you have been working too hard and should be given a long vacation at the firm's expense."

Woman Discovers Headache Is Hers

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)— A woman who mailed her ex-husband an aspirin tablet with bills totaling $1,949, discovered the headache was hers.

Circuit Court Judge Joe Hunter, in granting a divorce decree last Nov. 9 to Franklin and Peggy Elder, awarded a $2,500 equity in the couple's home to Mrs. Elder.

Soon thereafter, Elder told the judge he got the bills and the aspirin.

The judge ordered the home sold and the bills—including $555 from a woman's clothing store—paid from the equity.

Tech Rips Bears; Sniffing At Title

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Texas Tech rode with its dazzling duo of big John Hudgens and tiny Del Ray Mounts to a blistering 98-81 triumph over Baylor and used an assist from Southern Methodist to all but wrap up the Southwest Conference basketball championship Tuesday night.
The Red Raiders, after their first title in four years of trying, took a two-game lead with three games to go as Southern Methodist whipped bitter rival Texas A&M 65-61 to knock the Aggies into a second place tie with Texas.
Everyone considers Tech "in" with the title although the Raiders still must play enough foes—Texas Christian and Texas at home and Rice on the road—to lose it. But TCU and Rice are down in the second division and only Texas appears capable of giving the Raiders trouble.
Texas clung to a chance at the title by edging Rice 81-79. It put the Longhorns into a second place tie with Texas A&M. These two teams will settle the issue of which is to stay there in a battle at College Station Saturday night.
Arkansas can make it a three-way tie for second if it beats Texas Christian at Fort Worth.

Wednesday night.
Tech is 9-2. Texas A&M and Texas 7-4 and Arkansas 6-4 in conference play.
Hudgens, Tech's 6-9 center, wound up with 24 points for the night, with Mounts pitching in 22 and the other three starters scoring in double figures—Mac Percival and Roger Hennig 16 points apiece and Tom Patty 15.
Dick Tinsley managed 22 points to lead Baylor.
Rice led most of the way and the loss in the final minutes was most disheartening. Mike Maroney of Rice was high point man with 26 while Donnie Lasiter led Texas with 22.
Some brilliant outside shooting in the final half brought Southern Methodist its victory over Texas A&M.
But defeat didn't dim the luster of Carroll Broussard, the magnificent Aggie. He poured in 26 points to maintain his scoring lead in the conference. Jan Losdermilk led SMU with 20.
Texas Tech plays Texas Christian at Lubbock Friday, while Baylor goes to Fayetteville to meet Arkansas and Rice clashes with Southern Methodist at Houston.

Lions Biff Cards In Bi-District Tilt

SWEETWATER — Hermleigh's Cardinals were eliminated from the playoff picture here last night, as they were felled by the Roby Lions of District 91-B by a score of 64-48 in a bi-district contest.
Coach R. C. McLaren's Cards, who last year capped the 92-crown and were downed by Highland in bi-district play, fell behind early in the game in going down, and trailed by 30-41 at halftime.
The Redbirds had advanced into the play-off picture with a series victory over Westbrook in action last week.
Lynn Gibson made the biggest noise in the Lion attack, as he poured in a total of 18 points for the night.

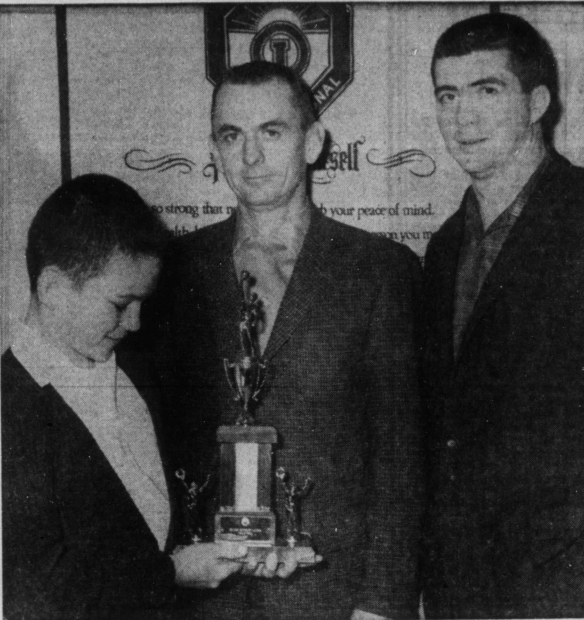

Wallace Wall was the guiding light for Hermleigh with 15, while Carl Joe Paty followed behind him with 13.
By virtue of the win, Roby has earned the right to compete in the regional Class B tournament of Saturday in Odessa.

Ira Evens Up Series With 40-29 Victory

IRA—The Ira Bulldogs remained in contention for the District 92-B girls cage crown here last night, as they rallied from an initial 41-36 series setback to powder Westbrook, 40-29.
The victory squared off the series at 1-1, and necessitated a third and deciding game which will determine the district tilt. That clash has been set for Friday at 7:30, and will be reeled off in Snyder's Tiger Gym.
Lena Farmer sparkplugged her ascent to the important win with 22 points. Judy Rame was high for the losers with 10.
The contest began slowly, and saw Westbrook holding a scant 4-0 lead at the end of the first quarter before Ira came back to gain its scoring momentum with a big 17-point second stanza and go on to win with ease.

Corpus Cops Team Title In State GG

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Massive Claud Davenport, colorful Indian John Peters and classy little Reginald Davis will lead a well-regarded Texas Golden Gloves team to the Tournament of Champions at Chicago next week.
Davenport, 238-pound Arlington State football player, won the heavyweight championship Tuesday night with a decision over big Alfred (Pete) Peterson of Sherman.
At the same time Peters, a Sak and Fox Indian from Corpus Christi, grabbed the light heavyweight championship with an easy decision over Mills McCawley of Texarkana.
Davis, champion last year of the lightweight, shifted to the featherweights this time and won the title with a decision over Durwood Williams of Amarillo. He was the only defending champion to come through.
Others on the Texas team are Bobby Wilhelm of Corpus Christi, middleweight; Burton Gilliam of Dallas, welterweight; Margarito Marquez of Houston, flyweight; Steve Freeman of Houston, bantamweight, and Richard Marquet of Corpus Christi, lightweight.

TO THE VICTORS—Murray Bowden, captain of the Optimist League's undefeated Boys' Club Golds, accepts the trophy as presented by the Snyder Optimist Club in recognition of his team's garnering of the league's recently-completed cage championship. The presentation was made at the regular Monday night meeting of the sponsoring club. Fred Bullard, who coached the winning team, is at center, while at right is Optimist Club president Tommy Ivson. Travis Socks Lamar In Faculty Fray

A lean-in-numbers but frisky band of Travis faculty members clashed with the Lamar faculty aggregation here in Tiger Gym last night, and succeeded in clobbering them by a surprisingly easy 62-38 tally.
Travis had only 9 men suited up to Lamar's 21, but succeeded in pacing their group to advantage behind the 22-point output of towering Bob O'Day. Veteran Ned Underwood was tops for the Lamar outfit with 16.
James Wesson and Ray Courtney also climbed into the twin-figure bracket for the winners with 11 and 10 points, respectively. They were followed by Jim Stewart and Bill Hartsfield with 6 each, Jim Erwin with 5, and Charles Anderson with 2.
Underwood was the only Lamar performer to hit in double numbers, although Dub Holt was only a whisper away from 9. R. E. Cooper was next in line with 3, while Max Laing, Jiggs Falls, Dillard Teal, Al Young and Ace Amos each picked up 2.

LINDA IVSON Leads Tigerettes

Tigerettes In Twin Win Over Abilene

ABILENE—The Snyder Tigerettes volleyball girls parlayed their "lucky 27" to victory here again last night, as they neatly clipped the wings of Abilene's Eaglettes, 27-19. In their only other outing of the young season, the Snyder girls downed Colorado City by an almost-identical tally of 27-13.
Linda Ivson powered her team to the win, as she was high server for the game with 8. Alma Nell Evans aided the cause as a high spiker for the contest.
The Tigerette "B" team bounced into the win column in a preliminary joust against the Abileneans, bringing their season record to 1-1 with 37-30 conquest.
Janice Rinehart, with 11 points, was top performer in the winning attack.
One schedule deletion has been announced by Tigerette Coach Peggy Holder, and concerns the Big Spring Tournament of this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Snyder varsity was to have been an entrant in the tourney, but now will not participate. Their next action will thus be in the Lamesa Tournament of March 2-4, after which they will return home March 7 for their district opener against Colorado City.

37 Persons Hurt In Train Wreck

By DICK RAINBOLT
BUFFALO, N.D. (AP)—"It started to go up and down and buck like a bronco," said a stunned passenger. "Then it started to sway, and it went over."
The Northern Pacific's crack Mainstreeter, bound for Portland, Ore., from Chicago, derailed at 60 miles an hour Tuesday, sending nine cars hurtling off the tracks. Thirty-seven persons were taken to hospitals throughout eastern North Dakota.

No one was killed. None of the injured was believed in serious condition.
The train ripped up 300 feet of track and knocked down telegraph poles and communications before the derailed cars came to rest, partially buried in mud. Dazed passengers crawled from the wreckage as emergency vehicles raced to the site. There were 51 persons in the coaches, 7 in Pullman cars, and 16 crewmen. Almost all suffered injuries of some kind.
Ambulances and other rescue vehicles from Valley City, Fargo, Jamestown and other communities converged on this small eastern North Dakota town, taking the injured to hospitals as far as 75 miles away.

The closest hospital, in Valley City, is 20 miles from the scene. The first four cars of the 13-unit train passed a switch about a mile west of here, but the other cars went off the tracks. Seven of the cars lay in the mire today, like a shattered toy train. The wreck blocked the Northern Pacific's main line. Company officials said they expected to have service restored today.

"Somebody was watching over that train," said a Roman Catholic nun who was a passenger. "Those who could walk were magnificent," said Sister Angele helped everybody else. There was no panic at all."
"We were toward the back of the car, and all of a sudden the car started to go up and down and buck like a bronco," said Harry Drew of Fargo. "Then it started to swing back and forth, but the train kept moving forward all the time. Then the darned thing started to sideway and went over on its side."
Other passengers told of being bounced around as the cars lurched off the tracks and into mud along the right of way. Three cars came to rest on their sides.

The wreck was believed caused by a broken rail.

French Bring Their Pranks To Broadway

NEW YORK (AP)—The French have landed, and all's well on the theatrical front.
Unwrapping a bundle of hilarious pranks, the noted Comedie Francaise premiered Tuesday night at City Center for a limited engagement prior to a national tour.
Since being here six years ago, the Gallic troupe has had a government-ordered shakeup. Later in the run, new facets of versatility and range are to be displayed. But for right now, one thing is clear—reform hasn't bruised the comic flair.

The initial bill comprises a pair of short plays by Moliere—"Scapin's Pranks" and "Versailles Impromptu."
As the roguish Scapin, Robert Hirsch scores the personal triumph of the program with a bravura display of slapstick monkeyshines. He earns added credits by doubling as the designer of lively costumes and set for the male is even less, a small, simple piece.
In the Versailles playlet, acted in a polished style of classic elegance, veteran Louis Seigner returns. Jacques Charon, another senior of the company, acts in both items, and directs "Scapin's Pranks."

A rapid-fire running translation is provided over radio earphones. But the Comedie Francaise knows how to leap the language barrier without such aids. Just watching is high entertainment.
Also brand new and highly recommended is "Double Entry," a pair of short musicals at the tiny Martinique Theater.
Fresh, funny and fascinating, the bill comprises "The Oldest Trick in the World," a hilarious peek behind the curtains of a fortune-telling parlor, and "The Black Salsman," a back country Negro fable of touching simplicity.
Author-composer Jay Thompson ranges with delightful results from farce to folksiness, and his music avoids cliché.
It would be hard to imagine shinier performances than those rendered director Bill Penn by each three-player cast. Rosetta LeNoire appears in both. She is touching and deft in one, worldly and comic in the other.

Voting At Home By Phone Is Predicted For Future

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A dying germ, voting by telephone, a husband-toting shellfish and a bargain sale are subjects for science at work.
Dial P for President
You may be voting by telephone someday in the future, an expert predicts.
Come Election Day, you'd dial a special number, check a written ballot that had been mailed to you, dial code numbers for your vote, and dial a final code to cast the ballot.

Final results could be known a few minutes after polls close and you'd vote in your own home, says Dr. Ralph M. Goldman of Michigan State University. One problem: How to prevent someone from casting your ballot.

Bergman In Visit With Her Daughter
LAGRANGE, Ga. (AP)—Ingrid Bergman planned to return to New York today after a brief visit with her daughter and son-in-law.
The actress, refusing to talk with reporters, drove here from the Atlanta airport Tuesday to spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Callaway II. Mrs. Callaway is the former Jenny Ann Lindstrom, Miss Bergman's daughter by her first marriage.
Tuesday was the first anniversary of the date Miss Lindstrom eloped with Callaway, a member of one of Georgia's prominent textile families.
Miss Bergman's present husband, producer Lars Schmidt, said this was the first family get-together since Christmas, when the Callaways visited them in Paris.

Nixon Plans For Future Uncertain

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is about to take off for California with his future political plans still up in the air.
The defeated Republican presidential nominee, delayed in Washington by the airlines strike, hopes to make final arrangements on the West Coast to announce early in March a connection with a Los Angeles firm for the private practice of law.
Despite some published reports that he may be thinking about running for governor in California, Nixon has told friends here he has come to no decision about his political future.
Nixon knows he has some fence patching to do in California before he could strike out elsewhere.
In addition, Nixon seems to have encountered in Washington a certain lack of enthusiasm among congressional Republicans for his plan to campaign for them in 1962.

The political atmosphere can change rapidly. But as of now the prospects don't look bright for the kind of invitations from candidates Nixon would have to have before he invaded their states or congressional districts.
Those well acquainted with the former vice president know he doesn't give up easily. How often they think he means to try for the presidency again and will do everything in his power to keep friendly links with Republicans likely to be heard from again.

never been known how the chemical kills germs.
Attention Wives
A tiny female barnacle has reduced married life to its simplest. She carries one or two husbands around in her pocket.

This particular barnacle, of the family lithogypidae, doesn't live on ship bottoms, but burrows into coral. While the female is tiny—barely 8-100th of an inch long—the male is even less, a small, simple sac without ability for independent action, saved only for reproduction, and housed in a pocket in the female's right side, reports the Smithsonian Institution.
A bargain sale has been announced by the Atomic Energy Commission.
If you're looking for radioactive technetium-99, the Oak Ridge National Laboratory has slashed prices to $100 a gram, down from as high as $2,800 a gram. A nuclear reactor byproduct, the material has promise as an anticancer element.

A slight breeze is almost as necessary as sunlight to grow corn.
Air movement helps carry enough carbon dioxide to the corn plants, a requisite for photosynthesis. Without it corn yields may be reduced, say U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists.
Speedy Camera
It's possible to design a camera that can operate at speeds of 100,000,000th of a second, with new crystals that can capture an image with an electric charge, say Soviet scientists.

Union Refuses To Purchase Company

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas Transit Co. union employees Tuesday rejected a board chairman Harry Weinberg's offer to sell the company to employees.
"Our employees voted 100 per cent against purchasing any part of all of the company," said Grady Adkins, local president.
Weinberg offered to sell the company to employees for its book value of $7,393,760.83 on monthly installments.
"We are more interested in providing Dallas with a good transportation system but we are not interested in going into the transportation business," Adkins said.

Woman Held In Husband's Death

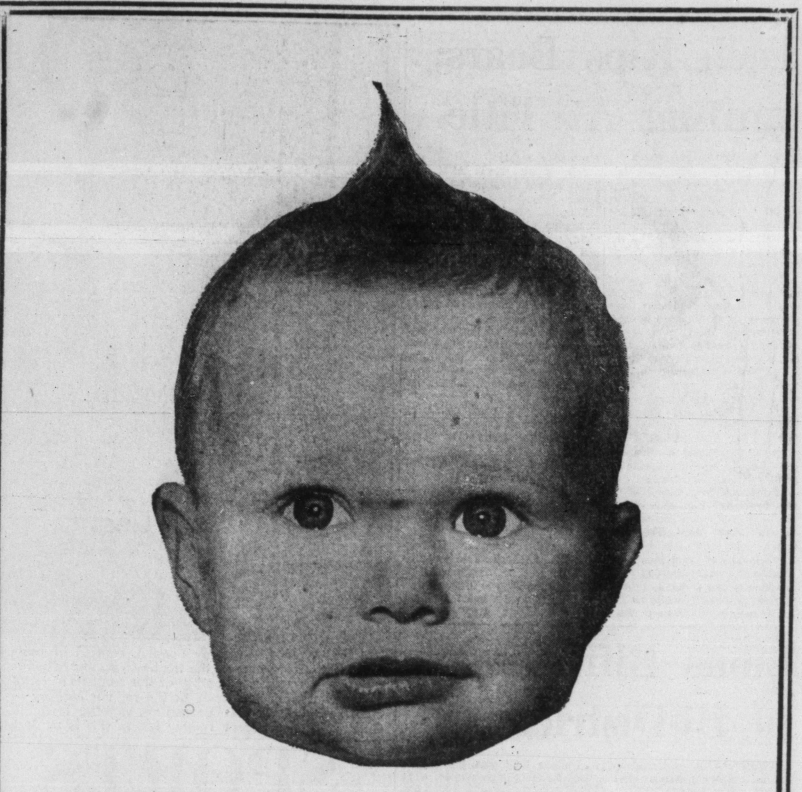

HOUSTON (AP)—Early Floyd White, 38, of Houston, was shot to death in his home Tuesday night.
His wife, Mrs. Shirley Elizabeth White, 25, was charged with murder.
Mrs. White told police the pistol fired accidentally during a scuffle.

25-Cent Bill Owed For 50 Years Paid

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Tampa Electric Co. is 25 cents richer today as the result of a guilty conscience.
A man wrote the company Tuesday that he had hopped several rides on old open-type trolley cars almost 50 years ago without paying.
He enclosed 25 cents to pay the fares, saying: "You wouldn't know me if I signed my name, but the Lord knows me and what I'm doing, so I will just leave it that way."

Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS

QUESTION: How long do lions live?

ANSWER: Lions are full grown at five or six years of age and as a rule they live to be about 13. But some lions have been known to reach the age of 30. A lion reaching this age is very rare, just as it would be for a man to live to be 130. Lions live very well in captivity. The spread of civilization has chased them from lands where they once roamed free. Lions were known in southeastern Europe, southern and southwestern Asia. Now they are to be found only in the 500-square-mile Gir Forest in India and on the African continent in the region south of the Sahara. The male has a heavy mane and is a fierce, powerful creature. For these qualities, the lion is called the "king of the jungle." However, lions do not normally move in the thick jungle preferring the plains and scrub or thorn forest. The largest lions grow to lengths of 9 1/2 feet from nose to tail tip and are 45 inches high, with a weight of 500 pounds.

FOR YOU TO DO: In a zoo or circus you certainly will see lions. Take a close look at the powerful muscles and forelegs and keep in mind that one blow from a lion's foreleg can kill a man.

(Susan Ferguson of Oakland, Calif., was $10 for this question. Mail your question on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of this newspaper. If duplicate questions are received, Mrs. Higgins will select the winner). 2-22

WRECK OF VICE PRESIDENT'S PLANE—The wreckage of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's luxurious private plane lies in a pasture near the LBJ ranch at Johnson City, Tex., where it crashed. The plane was enroute to pick up the Vice President and was turning back to Austin when bad weather made landing impossible. The pilot and co-pilot, the only ones aboard, were killed. (AP Wirephoto)

Brief Scuffle Develops In Nashville Demonstration

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A brief scuffle between Negro demonstrators seeking access to white theaters in Nashville, Tenn., and a group of white youths ended after several of the Negroes had been beaten and mugged up.

An estimated 50 white youths shouted insults Tuesday night as the students resumed their theater stand-ins. Monday night 26 Negroes and a white coed were arrested for a similar demonstration. All were released after spending the night in jail when City Judge Andrew Doyle ruled the fire ordinance under which they had been arrested had been replaced by a new one.

About 100 Negro students took part in Tuesday night's demonstration. Attacked by the white boys as they left the area, the Negroes did not retaliate although several were beaten and kicked and one had his glasses broken. Police stationed at the four downtown theaters did not witness the affray two blocks away and no arrests were made.

More than 40 Negro students were in jail at Sumner, S.C., today for refusing police orders to break up a mass march on the downtown area to protest segregation.

Young Negroes also went to jail at Columbia, S.C., and Lynchburg, Va., for staging lunch counter sit-in demonstrations. Pickets seeking entrance to white theaters at Chattanooga, Tenn., bore signs proclaiming, "We are mistiffs in a segregated society. Our color won't rub off."

There were three sit-in protests in the Sumter demonstrations. Most of those arrested were paraders who refused to return to the Morris College campus.

There was no immediate effort among the Sumter Negroes to post bonds of $100 each. In Atlanta, the "jail no bail" campaign of Negro students arrested about two weeks ago weakened slightly when nine posted $100 bonds on trespass charges in connection with sit-ins. But 70 students chose to remain behind bars.

In a federal court civil rights trial at Opelika, Ala., a Macon County voter registrar denied that he knowingly made it more difficult for Negroes to register than for white persons. "They all look alike to me," said Wheeler Dyson.

Federal attorneys charged that Negroes were systematically denied the ballot in the black belt county where Negro residents outnumber white persons 5-1. Twice as many white persons as Negroes are registered voters.

Test Suit On Depletion Of Water Filed

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—A farm couple Tuesday filed a $300 suit against the federal government in a test case seeking a water depletion tax allowable similar to one given oil men.

The suit, backed by the High Plains Water Conservation District, followed seven years of study by the water district.

The suit seeks a cost depletion income tax allowable on all underground water used for irrigation farming.

Attorneys on behalf of Marvin and Mildred Shurbet, Route 1, Petersburg, filed the suit.

The area around Lubbock, one of the most intensively irrigated in the county, has about 20,000 farmers on five million acres of land. The High Plains Water District has 50,000 operating wells.

Shurbet is a member of the Texas Water Study Committee appointed by Gov. Price Daniel. A pre-trial hearing probably will take place some time this spring and the case come to trial in the fall term of court.

Purpose of the suit attorneys said, is to prove that ground water under the Southern High Plains of Texas is a natural deposit and is being mined—just as oil, gas, gold or any other natural deposit is mined.

They said the precedent growing out of the suit if the Shurbets win would affect anyone with a similar set of circumstances under which the Shurbets operate. This type of irrigation occurs many places in the United States.

"It (underground water) should come under the federal law allowing an income tax deduction for depletion of such resources," officials of the water district declared.

The Shurbets will contend that water users who can show an actual cost of underground water beneath their land and who are using the water from this source to produce income should be entitled to deduct the cost of the water as it is exhausted.

The basis for water depletion tax allowance would not be on the percentage formula now used by oil operators, but on how much the water produces. It would increase the value of the land, under the claims of the suit.

AF Bomber Explodes In Midair

HORSE CAVE, Ky. (AP)—Wreckage of an Air Force B47 today lay strewn like tinsel over a nearby farm. The plane blew to bits as it spiraled to earth after a midair refueling mishap.

Only the navigator survived of the five Strategic Air Command crewmen aboard Tuesday night. He bailed out at 7,000 feet and landed in a tree, breaking his left arm.

Unaware of any trouble, the KC97 tanker that had been refueling the six-jet plane at 15,000 feet returned safely to base at Columbus, Ohio.

Officials at Lockbourne Air Force Base there said the B47 carried no nuclear or other bombs, but was outfitted with electronic gear to disrupt enemy radar.

The Air Force identified the victims as: Capt. William E. Gillespie, 40, plane commander; Lt. Edward P. Shuller, 25, copilot; Capt. George R. McKerny, 28, instructor pilot; and Capt. Arthur T. Bagby, 30, instructor navigator. All lived in or near Columbus, Ohio.

The navigator, Lt. Herman L. Crawford, 25, of Pickerington, Ohio, was found walking along a rural road after parachuting to earth about a mile from where the plane hit. He was taken to an Army hospital at Ft. Knox.

Higher Props For Cotton Announced

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman announced Tuesday night grower prices for this year's cotton will be supported at a base rate of 33.04 cents a pound—up .62 cents from last year.

He accompanied the announcement with a guess that the rate—about $3 a bale more than last year—would make neither many growers nor textile mill users of cotton very happy.

There had been pressure from growers and some cotton states congressmen for a larger increase. But his action, coupled with other changes in the cotton program, will boost by 2 to 3 cents a pound the prices which domestic users pay. Many of these users are complaining that they are unable to compete with foreign mills.

Under the 1960 program, foreign buyers of U.S. cotton have been getting it at 6 cents a pound less than domestic users. Under the 1961 program, effective Aug. 1, they will be getting it at about 8.5 cents a pound less.

The plight of domestic mills is being studied by a cabinet level committee, headed by Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges. Relief of some sort has been promised.

In announcing the 1961 rate, Freeman said it compared with one of 28.38 cents which he said his predecessor, Ezra Taft Benson, had proposed to the Budget Bureau for purposes of formulating the budget report President Eisenhower sent Congress before leaving office.

The new Freeman rate of 33.04 cents applies to one-inch middling cotton at average storage location. It compares with 32.42 cents for this grade produced by farmers last year in compliance with federal acreage allotments. A somewhat lower rate applied last year to cotton grown by farmers who chose to overplant allotments by 40 per cent.

The new rate is designed to reflect 82 per cent of the parity price of cotton compared with 75 per cent last year and 70 per cent which Freeman said Benson had in mind.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

Senate Hopefuls Increase Tempo

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Active candidates in the April 4 special U.S. Senate election increased their tempo this midweek while a move was underway in Austin to limit the field of aspirants in future races.

The present filing fee of $50 would be increased to $1,500 in a bill being drafted by Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth. The bill would also boost the fees in a special congressional race to $500.

Green said there are too many candidates who enter "merely to advertise themselves or their business" and that the higher fee would "keep out all but the serious candidates."

U.S. Rep. Jim Wright Tuesday renewed his challenge to John Tower, lone Republican in the race, to a television debate.

Tower had earlier accepted the challenge, saying he would welcome a debate with Wright at a mutually agreeable time.

Wright Tuesday suggested that the two meet March 3, 4, or 5 in Houston, Austin, Dallas or San Antonio.

The Fort Worth congressman told East Texas audiences Tuesday that this state's U.S. senator needs to be a man who has a "well-established working relationship with the new administration and Democratic congressional leaders."

Dem or cratic congressional leaders, he campaigned in Tyler, Athens, Palestine, Jacksonville and Longview in his helicopter tour.

Tower will go to the state capital Wednesday for a full day of campaigning. He plans a press conference, civic luncheon appearance, a coffee party, and an official opening of his campaign headquarters.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson will also have a combined party and news conference Wednesday in Austin.

Former State Rep. Maury Maverick will campaign Wednesday in Houston. Tuesday he worked in Bryan, College Station and Madisonville.

Interim U.S. Sen. William Blakely Tuesday named former state Rep. Frances Seeligson of San Antonio to manage his campaign in Bexar County. Seeligson is a member of a prominent banking and ranching family.

Double Shot Only Partially Successful

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tuesday night's doubleheader satellite shoot was only partially successful and the orbiting devices are not living up to expectations, a spokesman for Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Laboratory said today.

The pair of space travelers achieved orbit, the spokesman said, but the path apparently is only a little over 100 miles above the earth instead of the target height of 500 miles.

He added that there are some indications the two units may not have separated as they were intended to do.

The laboratory, an affiliate of Johns Hopkins University, is in charge of the tracking of the space messengers.

Slick Holdup Solves Itself

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One of this city's slickest holdups solved itself when the bandit returned his loot.

Eugene John Snyder, 33, jobless Fort Lauderdale salesman, Tuesday, handed a sack of bills to John O'Keefe, manager of a Flagler Federal Savings and Loan Association office.

"This is the money I stole yesterday," said Snyder, and began weeping.

Snyder said he spent only $20 of the $4,577 he obtained Monday by showing a teller a pistol wrapped in a newspaper.

"I needed money for groceries and medical bills. I was desperate," Snyder said.

"I only needed $300. When I looked in the bag and saw all that money I was shocked. I stayed awake all last night thinking about it. Then I decided to bring the money back."

Snyder said his wife is ill. He said the gun he used in the holdup was not loaded.

Snyder was held on $20,000 bond.

Mexican Airlines To Increase Rates

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A 15 to 20 per cent increase in Mexican airline rates went into effect Tuesday.
